Quick facts

The Schoolcraft County Board of Commissioners will meet tonight to discuss the fate of the Schoolcraft County Jail.

Board to consider options for jail

Meeting will weigh closing facility versus building new

MANISTIQUE — The Schoolcraft County Board of Commissioners will consider the fate of the county jail during its regular meeting Sept. 12. The meeting, scheduled to take place in the Schoolcraft County Courthouse at 4 p.m., will consider two options — closing the Schoolcraft County Jail or investing in a new jail at the same location. The issue had previously been scheduled for consideration during the Aug. 22 meeting, but has been postponed due to commissioner absences.

If commissioners vote to close the jail, one possible outcome would be a contract for jail services with Alger County and the creation of a lock-up in Schoolcraft County for temporary holds. According to Craig Reiter, chairperson of the board, the cost for the Alger County service is $35 per inmate, per day, with a 20-25-year contact option. He said outsourcing the jail would save approximately $627,006 per year.

According to the Schoolcraft County Jail Committee, a sub-committee of the Schoolcraft County Board of Commissioners, the 2019 budget for the operation of the Schoolcraft County Jail is $1,041,381.

The current new build option, "Option A-3", outlines the demolition and replacement of the current Schoolcraft County Jail. The new jail would be built on the existing site and use an "inmate housing pod" model. It would also include areas such as inmate intake and booking, inmate medical, a sheriff's office, and a patrol garage.

The estimated cost for constructing jail Option A-3 is $7.7 million.

Student handbook updates address cell phone usage

Limitations apply to middle and elementary students

MANISTIQUE — Just in time for the new school year, restrictions have been set on cell phone possession and use for both the Manistique Middle School and Emerald Elementary. This and other updates to the handbooks were approved during Monday's meeting of the Manistique Area Schools Board of Education.

According to Howard Parmentier, superintendent of Manistique Area Schools, the Student Handbook reflects changes to the cell phone policy for both elementary and middle school students. He read the Emerald Elementary Student Handbook change verbatim during the meeting: "Electronic devices: 'Emerald Elementary students are not permitted to have cell phones or other electronic devices in school. Cell phones and/or other electronic devices that are brought to school will be given to and stored with the teacher for the duration of the day. Students will have their cell phones and/or other electronic devices returned at the end of the day. Emerald Elementary will not be responsible for cell phones and/or other electronic devices lost, damaged or stolen. If students are caught with a cell phone and/or other electronic devices: first offense — phones or other devices taken by staff, phone call home, and cell phone and/or other electronic devices returned at the end of the day; second offense — phones or other devices taken by staff, phone call home, and cell phone and/or other electronic devices picked up by parent; third offense — phones or other electronic devices taken by staff, phone call home, and cell phone and/or other electronic device kept for one week and then a parent may pick up the device at the school."

Other notable changes to the Emerald Elementary Student Handbook discussed by Parmentier were in the "Code of Conduct" section.

"Administration has the right to keep students from attending school activities, including off-campus school events, based on behavior concerns and/or safety concerns," Parmentier explained. "Major offenses, such as, but not limited to threatening language, swearing directly toward another person, fighting, punching, kicking, defiance, harassment, bullying, ongoing behavior, leaving school property without permission, lying, cheating — will

Designations for Haywire Trail, city part of DNR, Pure Michigan program

MANISTIQUE — With the 50th anniversary of the Haywire Trail just around the corner in 2020, Manistique City Council has agreed to support the application for a Pure Michigan Trail and Trail Town designation. The program, meant to identify the best trails in the state, has designated six Pure Michigan Trails and four Pure Michigan Trail Towns thus far. Air travelers could end up grounded without REAL ID

LANSING — From coast to coast, state to state and town to town, the alarm bells are ringing in anticipation of the fast-approaching deadline for REAL ID, the post-9/11 federal requirement that sets mandatory higher security standards for identification. And if you haven't been paying attention, it's time you did.

If you travel by air, REAL ID will impact you. Oct. 1, 2020 is the date to remember. That's when REAL ID goes into full effect, and it's going to matter if you find yourself in a Homeland Security scenario, such as boarding flights within the United States or entering certain federal facilities such as military bases or nuclear power plants. In these situations, your standard, state-issued driver's license or ID card no longer will be good enough to prove you are who you say you are. Without a REAL ID, you'll be turned away, which means that cross-country flight you've been planning to visit Aunt Louise in Arizona may turn into a long, scenic road trip.

The good news is that many people already have a REAL ID document, such as a valid U.S. passport or passport card, a DHS Trusted Traveler Card or an Enhanced Driver's License. There's a full list of acceptable REAL ID documents at TSA.gov. The bad news is your standard driver's license or ID card isn't on that list, unless you turn it into a REAL ID-compliant document.

Becoming REAL ID-compliant isn't complicated. To turn a license or ID card into a REAL ID, simply visit a Secretary of State branch office or make an appointment at Michigan.gov/SOS. Residents will need to bring the required documents to prove identity (see sidebar), and be aware that if you ever changed your name, you may need additional documentation. When your new license or ID comes in the mail, it will have the REAL ID star in the top right corner.

The big message is don't delay. As of June 2019,

Turn your driver's license or ID into a REAL ID

Bring these required documents to any Secretary of State office.

1. Driver's license or state ID card.
2. One of the following original documents (faxes and photocopies won't be accepted):
 - Certified birth certificate with raised seal or stamp issued by a governmental agency.
 - Valid, unexpired U.S. passport.
 - Approved citizenship or legal presence document.
3. If your name differs from what's on your birth certificate, bring certified documents for every time your name changed, such as marriage licenses or court orders.

There's no additional fee to turn a license or state ID card into a standard REAL ID if it's done during your normal renewal time; otherwise a duplicate card fee will be charged.

only 37 percent of Michigan licenses and ID cards were REAL ID-compliant, which could mean a last-minute rush at Secretary of State offices when the Oct. 1, 2020, deadline nears. Be ready.

For more information, visit Michigan.gov/RealID.

Problems of lake pollution, shoreline erosion, sewage disposal, fish planting, drug racing, dust problems and road conditions all came in for extensive discussion at the annual meeting of the Indian Lake Property Association held Tuesday night in the Hiawatha Township Hall. More than 60 persons attended, one of the best crowds in recent years. Vice President Don Hoholik presided at the session, and annual reports of the officers were given. Three directors were elected. Howard Dressler and Roy Massey were re-elected for three year terms, while Merwin White was selected for the third post, also for three years. Holdover directors are Clyde Chartier, G.L. Bouschor, Don Hoholik, Cal Steven, Alfred Smith and Otmer Schuster. The board will meet later to elect officers for the coming year.

Pamela Putvin, Miss Schoolcraft County 1969, was named as the first runner up in the 1969 Upper Peninsula State Fair Queen contest last Wednesday night at Escanaba. Winning the crown was Kathryn Ann Madden of Gladstone, Miss Delta County 4-H. Second runner up was Betsy Boyer of Sault Ste Marie. Miss Honorary Cadet Major. The 18-year-old Miss Putvin, selected as this county's representative when she was named as Fourth of July Queen here, is a 1969 graduate of Manistique High School, is 6'2" tall, and has brown eyes and dark brown hair. She plans to attend Michigan Technological University in Houghton this fall and major in chemistry. Pamela received a $50 bond, plus a gift certificate from Gladstone merchants and a pearl necklace.

Two residents of Carratouge Ave. appeared Monday night at an informal City Council session to request improvement of their street. William Cowman and Ray Ranguette requested action on improving the street, but the best council could do was promise either oiling or chlorinating of the street this year. Denton Nelson was also present at the meeting, which followed the joint session on Indian Lake pollution problems, to report that the Senior Citizens Club executive committee had met and was looking for a new location for the Center, now that the building has been sold by the school.

In 10 days Manistique Pulp and Paper Co., the major industry in Manistique, will make a key decision affecting the economic life of the community's 4,800 residents. "We are hopeful that we will put in a neutral sulfite semi-chemical pulp mill costing several millions of dollars for utilizing those unwanted hardwood species," said president and general manager Frank S. Hoholik. "The new plant would employ about 500, would make about three times as much as the present plant, and put about another $5 million into the bloodstream of the town and would be completed about 1972," he said.

A capacity crowd of close to 500 buyers is expected to jam into the Blaney Inn Saturday, Aug. 25, to participate in the bankruptcy auction of the famed old resort. The 16,000 acres surrounding the resort village complex will be divided into 280 wilderness parcels of 40 and 80 acres each and auctioned by order of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Michigan. Blaney has been operating under Chapter 11 bankruptcy, filed in May 1982. Once a logging company village, Blaney was converted into a resort complex in the 1930s by the Earle family and operated until 1972. Larry Nicholson, president of Blaney Properties, Inc., the present owners of the resort explained the village itself, containing the Blaney Inn, golf course, tennis courts, swimming pool, general store, cottages along Lake Anne Louise and other buildings, will be exempt from the auction.

"Out with the old, in with the new." That's been the theme lately when Rob Ryan and Mike Nagy step on to the golf course. Last weekend, the 15-year-old Nagy defended his title in the Indian Lake Golf and Country Club Championship, beating the second-place Ryan by 22 strokes to claim the club crown for the second year in a row. Earlier this year, Nagy tied Ryan's long-held Manistique High school record with a round of 33, then shot a 31 to become the new school record-holder.

was Vicki Stewart of Gulliver, a veteran of 24 years in the U.S. Navy who also happens to be the Schoolcraft County veterans' counselor. Marijuana license application to be unveiled at educational sessions

LANSING — The Marijuana Regulatory Agency has announced the dates, times, and locations of a series of educational sessions designed to familiarize potential adult-use marijuana applicants with the online application process.

MRA employees will be on hand during the sessions to demonstrate the online license application process to prospective applicants seeking to obtain a marijuana establishment license under the Michigan Regulation and Taxation of Marihuana Act — the ballot proposal passed by Michigan voters in November 2018.

While applications will not be completed during these events, attendees will be able to familiarize themselves with the process — and what will be required — when the applications become available online on Nov. 1.

The educational sessions will take place in five locations throughout the state:

Sept. 5, at 9 a.m. in Detroit, Cadillac Place, Room L-150, 3044 W. Grand Blvd., Detroit, MI 48202. Registration link: <https://bit.ly/MRA-DET>

Sept. 12, at 2 p.m. in Saginaw, RC Zavel Memorial Library, Dr. Kurumety Meeting Room, 3100 N. Center Rd., Saginaw, MI 48604. Registration link: <https://bit.ly/MRA-SAG>

Sept. 19, at 10 a.m. in Kalamazoo, Kalamazoo Public Library, 315 S. Rose St., Kalamazoo, MI 49007. Registration link: <https://bit.ly/MRA-KAL>

Sept. 26, at 9 a.m. in Lansing, G. Mennen Williams Building, 525 W. Ottawa St., Lansing, MI 48933. Registration link: <https://bit.ly/MRA-LAN>

Sept. 30, at 1 p.m. in Traverse

City, Traverse Area District Library, 610 Woodmere Ave., Traverse City, MI 49686. Registration link: <https://bit.ly/MRA-TC>

For those unable to attend in person, application instructions, checklists, and additional resources will be made available in the future and posted on the MRA website at www.michigan.gov/MRA.

There is no cost to attend the educational sessions but — due to space constraints — potential applicants and their representatives should register as soon as possible. Each presentation will last approximately three hours.

Existing licensees under the Medical Marihuana Facilities Licensing Act interested in obtaining licensure under MRTMA are encouraged to participate in customized demonstrations. Please call or email the MRA if you have not yet received communication — including details and registration links — regarding these additional demonstrations.

These educational sessions are not public meetings and there will not be time set aside for public comment. The educational sessions will be informative presentations of processes that will be utilized by future applicants. Attendance at the educational sessions will not affect a potential applicant's application. All interested members of the public will be able to participate in future training opportunities whether they attend the educational sessions or not. Any information or feedback provided at the educational sessions is merely advisory.

Questions may be directed to the Adult-Use Licensing Section via email at MRA-Adult-Use-Marijuana@michigan.gov or via phone at (517) 284-8599.

We're working to protect Michigan's water.

The Great Lakes are important to Michigan, and we all want to protect the Straits of Mackinac.

That's why we've implemented enhanced safety measures to protect the environment, including increased monitoring and alerts to ships to prevent anchor strikes.

We're also replacing Line 5 at the St. Clair River with a new, state-of-the-art pipeline crossing far below the riverbed using horizontal directional drilling technology.

Line 5 is critical infrastructure that provides the energy Michigan residents and businesses use every day. It would be irresponsible to shut down a safe pipeline that's essential to Michigan and the region.

News Brief

MSP to increase patrols for Labor Day holiday

LANSING — During the 2019 Labor Day holiday weekend, police departments, sheriff's offices and the Michigan State Police are encouraging motorists to celebrate the end of summer safely and make smart driving decisions. Law enforcement will continue to show zero tolerance for drunk and drugged driving during the three-week enforcement period Aug. 14-Sept. 2. Increased messaging about the dangers of driving impaired, coupled with increased enforcement on the roads, aim to drastically reduce serious injuries and deaths caused by impaired driving.

"Labor Day should be a time for friends and family to enjoy the last days of summer," said Michael Prince, Office of Highway Safety Planning director. "As always, officers will make zero exceptions for impaired driving. There are no excuses. Driving a vehicle while impaired is dangerous."

Throughout the end of the summer Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over enforcement period, officers will be on the lookout for motorists under the influence of drugs and alcohol. In Michigan, it is illegal to drive with a blood alcohol concentration of .08 or higher, although motorists can be arrested at any BAC level if an officer believes they are impaired. Michigan has what is commonly referred to as a zero-tolerance drugged driving law.

In Michigan, the percentage of alcohol-related fatalities was approximately 11 times higher than fatalities in all crashes and the serious injury level was about six times higher. During last year's Labor Day holiday, there were 12 fatal crashes, with six crashes involving alcohol.

On average, a DUI can set you back $10,000 in attorney fees, fines, court costs, lost time at work, higher insurance rates, car towing and repairs, etc.

'Cousino Cabins' set to open after renovation, receives 'first dollar'

GULLIVER — Rob Cousino, owner of newly renovated "Cousino's Cabins", is seeing his dream of owning property in the Upper Peninsula come true.

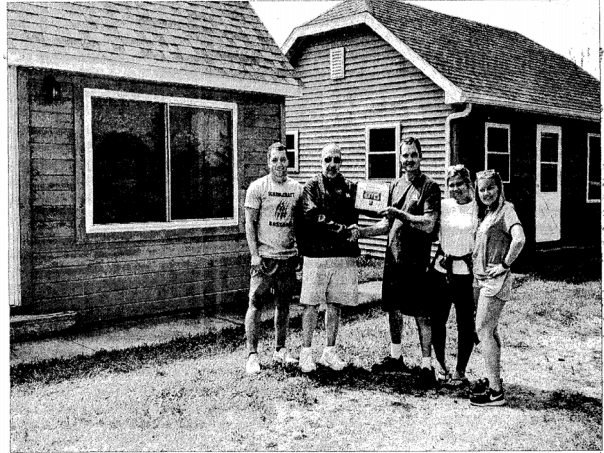

Originally from below the bridge, Rob was seeking out property and stumbled upon four cabins and a large farmhouse located in Gulliver, right on U.S. Highway 2. After years of weekend visits and renovations, the cabins are nearly complete, transforming them into cozy, stylish getaways.

From sanding the outdoor siding to painting walls and assembling beds, this rental has become more than just a business — it has become a sense of pride.

Rob also buys locally every chance he gets to support businesses in Manistique.

With cabins available, the Cousinos are ready to provide travelers with a clean, affordable stay while discovering all of the secret treasures that the Upper Peninsula has to offer.

To view photos and learn more, follow them on Facebook, call 734-735-9296, or email cousinorob1969@gmail.com.

Grandparents Teach, Too

There are many more "R's" kids need to learn besides the basic reading, writing and arithmetic. There is also how to raid the refrigerator. Nutritionists hope they will learn to whip up nutritious after school snacks.

These will help one feel satisfied and have leftovers for lunch the next day. Simple cooking also teaches math measurement and following directions.

Quick Trail Mixes

Measure a cup of each of the following ingredients and place them in a large zip-lock bag: raisins, mini pretzels, chocolate chips, granola, nuts, if okay, Cheerios, banana chips, other dried fruits and anything else in the cupboard that looks good. Gently mix with a wooden spoon, being careful not to crush the ingredients.

Trail Mix Nut Butter Balls

Measure two tablespoons honey four tablespoons nut butter, two cups granola or oatmeal, about two tablespoons of milk. Mix with a wooden spoon, make into balls and chill.

Raw Fruit and veggies

Keep raw vegetables and fruits and a selected table knife. Children like carrots, green beans, or small slices of zucchini, broccoli florets, or a rolled up lettuce leaf they can dip in ranch dressing, cut up bananas, apples, berries, melon, and pineapple.

Simple Kabobs

Making the food look fun to eat helps children choose nutritious food, according to nutritionists. Children under supervision if very young can cut up bananas place them with berries, grapes on a kabob stick if safe for their age.

Then they can dip in vanilla or strawberry yogurt and take off the stick to avoid choking before they eat the delicious snack.

Flag Toast

Children can toast a piece of bread and spread a stripe of cream cheese, strawberry or raspberry jam, and blueberries. Once finished, fold it over to make a sandwich.

Banana Mash

Bananas are a staple. Children have difficulty peeling though. Show them how gorillas peel bananas.

Instead of peeling from the stem, peel it from the opposite end by making a small cut on that end using the fingernail or table knife.

Mash one peeled banana, one teaspoon honey, one teaspoon nut butter, if desired on a flat plate. Use a table fork with supervision. Spread on a piece of fruit or toast.

Split Banana

You'll need one peeled banana, strawberry or vanilla yogurt, nutritious cereal, sliced grapes, strawberries or other berries.

Use a table knife to cut peeled banana lengthwise. Spoon desired amount of yogurt over the banana and sprinkle cereal on top and add pieces of fruit.

You can keep after school snack recipes next to the refrigerator and help children get in the habit of checking out the list when they are hungry.

Children can go through the list before going grocery shopping with you.

Tips for back-to-school shopping

Children and parents often look forward to the dawn of a new school year. But before the first homework session can take place, parents may need to take their students clothing shopping.

According to a 2018 survey by Deloitte, parents spend an average of $510 per household on apparel, school supplies, electronic gadgets, and other items for their kids' return to school.

The back-to-school season runs from July through September, during which American households alone spend $27.6 billion, which is second only to the holiday season in regard to the most lucrative times for retailers.

Apparel is a large part of back-to-school shopping. Many parents find they need to outfit their kids with a new wardrobe each year. Jeans and leggings that fit like a glove in June may only reach mid-call by Labor Day.

To make the shopping process less hurried and more productive, parents can employ these strategies. Take inventory Go through kids' wardrobes and see what can be salvaged and what might need to go.

This is the perfect opportunity to put aside gently used, outgrown items that may be passed on to someone else who can use them. Be sure to make a list of any items that the school requires, particularly in regard to uniforms or dress codes. By knowing what's in stock in the closet, you'll have a clear idea of what you need to buy.

Check for tax-free discounts
Some states or cities offer tax-free or discount shopping incentives, which can add up to considerable savings. It may be well worth the effort to stock up on necessities during these times.

Sign up for loyalty programs
If you're a child who prefers certain brands, sign up early in the year for such brands' loyalty clubs. For example, the popular retailer Hollister has Club Cali that, with each purchase, grants points toward discounts. Plus, you may be privy to sale advertisements before the general public.

Get enough to buy

While certain clothing sales happen between July and August, oftentimes the real savings begin in October, according to the budgeting resource Money Crashers. Wait until that time to buy the bulk of kids' school clothes. After all, the first weeks of school are usually warm, and summer clothing will still suffice with a few new items thrown in to freshen up wardrobes.

Invest in quality shoes

Sneakers and other shoes can be expensive. However, investing in quality brands can help you avoid having to buy shoes frequently. Watch for shoe sales and stock up on coupons. Many stores offer "buy-one, get-one half off" during the back-to-school season. In addition to these tips, save more by shopping overstock stores or warehouse clubs for name-brand items at lower prices.

Last week's potluck dinner was another successful evening. I heard there were about 20 people in attendance and had many compliments about the entertainment. Please note that there will not be a Thursday potluck dinner in the month of September, but we do have our open house.

The Manistique Senior Center Open House will be here in two short weeks! It will take place on Sept. 3 from 11 a.m.-3 p.m. Lunch will be served by MDS-CAA Senior Nutrition Program and the menu consists of barbecue ribs, braised potatoes, salad, baked beans, corn bread, and sherbet.

Lunch will be served from 11:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. and donations are $3 for aged 60 and older and $5 for anyone under age 60. The kitchen does need a head count for lunch, so call the kitchen at 341-5983 to get signed up.

Sign up is required by Aug. 30. There will be door prizes, raffles and entertainment will be Karaoke provided by Mary Larson and her crew. We hope to see you here for this annual celebration!

Did you know that Northwoods home Nursing comes here every Tuesday, from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. to check your blood pressure? This service is offered free of charge and many people take advantage of this, perhaps you could benefit from this as well.

Mark your calendars and call in your RSVP for the presentation "Ten Ways to Love Your Brain". Jake from the Alzheimer's Association will be here to on Sept. 19 at 10 a.m. to offer this free presentation. Call the senior center at 341-5923 so we can have a head count. Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

Just a community reminder that the Feeding America truck will be here next Wednesday, Aug. 28 from 10 a.m.-12 p.m. As usual, it is the first drive past the hospital entrance.

Another reminder: we are down to our last Senior Project Fresh coupons for the year, so if you haven't already done so, stop on in and grab yours.

Be sure to call in to the senior center at 341-5923 for the Country

Class Variety Band country music concert presented by Munising Moose Lodge No. 1386. This will take place on Oct. 12.

We will be departing at 3 p.m. from our own parking lot and stopping for dinner at the Tanglewood Inn in Shingleton. Tickets for the concert are free; bus tickets are $8 per person; and dinner will be Dutch treat. Seats are limited, so be sure to reserve yours now. I've never attended this, but I hear it is a whole lot of fun.

We are still in need of board members for both the SCCOA (Schoolcraft County Commission on Aging), and the Senior Citizen's Board. If you have time to volunteer and like to help make a difference,

The process of storing (or retrieving) cell phones will not be used to excuse tardiness to classes or buses."

The penalties for middle school students violating the new policy include: first offense, student may pick up device at the end of the day; second offense, parent will pick up device from main office on Friday; and third offense, device will be picked up at the end of the marking period. Additionally, "failure to turn over a cell phone will result in a nap suspension and (major infraction) count toward the 'first offense' in the list of penalties.

Other handbook changes include the implementation of "restorative practices", such as a victim-offender conference, to reduce the number of out-of-school suspension days paired with "reflective writing."

Additional changes include: students may not alter graduation attire; according to the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, the district may request military recruiters, upon request; access to specific information on a secondary student, unless the parent or student opts out; homework from daily absences may not be collected in the school office; and non-chargeable absences include athletic events, school sponsored activities, college visits, in-school suspensions and out-of-school suspensions - a student will have two days to make up class work after an excused absence.

The board unanimously approved the proposed changes to both the middle school and elementary school student handbooks. Following the approval of the changes, board member Stacey Cunningham thanked Manistique Middle and High School Principal John Shiner for his work on the student handbook. "I want to thank (him) for all the research and hard work he put into coming up with the best approach for the cell phone policy," she said. "The public should know

Trail Town

Anniversary Committee, made the request that Manistique apply for the Pure Michigan Trail and Trail Town designations.

"Haywire Grade was designated as the first rail trail in the state of Michigan circa 1970," he explained. "The railroad and other individuals worked on donating the corridor to the county, who then, in turn, transferred the corridor to the state of Michigan and the Hiawatha National Forest for a recreational corridor."

Reese went on to explain that a group of stakeholders have been working behind-the-scenes for the past few years to celebrate the upcoming anniversary of the Haywire Trail. In addition to the planned celebratory events, he said the group would also like to pursue the Pure Michigan Trail and Trail Town designations.

"Both of these designations will supplement what is being planned for the 50th anniversary next year," Reese said. "The Haywire and the county of Manistique are the portal to the trail system in the Upper Peninsula.

There are many trails here that Manistique... acts as a portal to," he continued. "There's the walking trail on the boardwalk along the lake, there's numerous bike trails in the area that directly or indirectly come into the city. Haywire Trail was designated the first multi-use, motorized trail in the state of Michigan, and also, the first multi-use trail in the Upper Peninsula - so it also has that recognition. There are snowmobile trails, there are all-terrain or ATV trails, and there are also, in proximity, many horse trails and hiking trails on state land... they all complement the opportunity for the city to receive this designation."

Reese noted that the Pure Michigan Trail and Trail Town designations come with perks - such as media recognition, signage, and a partnership between the state and city. He suggested that the Manistique Recreation Department work on obtaining the Pure Michigan Trail Town designation, while the Schoolcraft County Motorized Trails Association (of which he is a part) work on obtaining the Pure Michigan Trail designation for the Haywire Trail.

"The thing that's nice is when you get on that Pure Michigan map, with recommending you as a trail town, what that brings to us with people who ride bikes, horses, walking, ATVs - it's huge," said Manistique City Manager Sheila Aldrich.

Manistique City Councilperson

Cathy Rohde made the motion to pass a resolution of support of applying for the Pure Michigan Trail and Trail Town designation. Councilperson Kim Shiner seconded the motion, which passed unanimously. Councilperson Paul Walker was absent.

MHSAA Nearly half of athletes in two or more sports

EAST LANSING — Nearly 43 percent of athletes at Michigan High School Athletic Association member high schools continued to participate in two or more sports in 2018-19, according to the Multi-Sport Participation Survey, reinforcing similar data collected for the first time two years ago and providing a foundation for work by the MHSAA's Multi-Sport Task Force as it prepares to continue efforts this fall to promote the multi-sport high school experience.

Early and intense sport specialization has become one of the most serious issues related to health and safety at all levels of youth sports, as overuse injuries and burnout among athletes have been tied to chronic injuries and health-related problems later in life. In early 2016, the MHSAA appointed the Task Force on Multi-Sport Participation to promote and protect participant health and address the issues leading to early sport specialization.

The multi-sport participation survey was created in 2018 to provide data on the prevalence of sport specialization at MHSAA member high schools. This year's survey received responses from 82.9 percent of member high schools and measured how multi-sport participation exists at schools. The collection of survey results annually is expected to show how schools are succeeding in promoting a multi-sport high school experience, providing another tool as schools work to guide students toward a well-rounded interscholastic sports career.

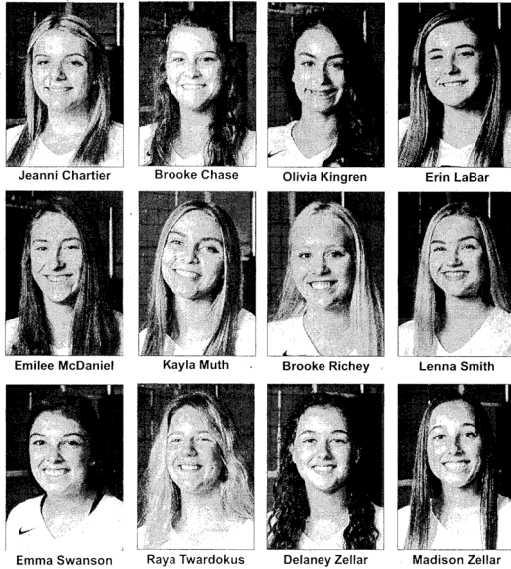

From schools that responded to this year's survey, 42.9 percent of students participated in athletics in 2018-19 — 46.3 percent of boys and 39.5 percent of girls. The overall participation number was

With the U.S. State Fair closing, the history books and as I have said before with the child of the fair walk comes the end of summer. This is so true seeing there are a lot of kids already back in school. So needless to say, their summer vacation is really over. It sure seems it has been a short summer season and I am not sure this old fossil is ready for fall and then what follows.

Back in the days when I was still working, this time of year was just the beginning of a period when pretty soon a conservation officer would soon be trying to cover many areas of activity breaking all at the same time. It is what made the life of a game warden so interesting and needless to say rather active. It was also that time of year when Wifec would see me coming and going at all hours of the day and night. It was also that time of year when before there was ever a RAP hot line where you could call in violations that Wifec answered all the complaints called into our house. Needless to say being a game warden back then was really a family affair.

From what I am hearing there should be a lot of happy deer hunters out there this fall. People are seeing a good number of bucks and some real nice ones. I guess even with the amount of snow we received last winter the deer herd seems to be in great shape. I say this with the hope they do not all become car kills because it is amazing how many deer get hit by cars.

There are a lot of hunters that own some property and are putting in some fall food plots which usually consist of a nice ryegrass field. It is amazing all the "fun" or what sportsmen consider fun that hunters will go through just to see or if lucky, even harvest a deer. Then there are those that do all this work that do not even hunt anymore but just like feeding and seeing the deer. We sure are blessed to live in an area where we do and have the ability to enjoy it.

The one thing I see very few of in all my travels anymore is pats. I really do not think I have seen a single one all summer. Could what I have been told be true that there are just too many things out in nature working against there being a good crop of pats. I have even heard that one of the worst things for having a healthy pat population is turkey. I was told if there is a lot of turkey there will not be many pats because they destroy their nest. Is it true?

As you start poking around out in the woods just remember it is still real dry in some areas and the fire danger is rather high. It seems to be one of those years when one area gets a good soaking of rain while just a little ways away they do not receive any. So if where you were there may have been a good heavy rain down the road a ways it still may be bone dry so just be careful out in the woods.

If you are a bred and born Youper we are fast moving into some of the best times of the year to live and enjoy everything we have up here. It is that time of year when the bugs are not bad enough to really "bug" you and the weather is nice enough to get out and enjoy it. It is that time of year to get some more fishing in, pick a few berries, and catch up on things up at camp. Not that someone my age is ever going to catch up but he can always hope too.

Oh all the stories that go through an old game warden's mind when he is sitting at camp just enjoying life this time of year. I got to thinking about all the locals that I chased through the woods and all the times we had coffee and relived those times. Now so many of them are sitting around in that perfect hunting spot up in the sky. I just get thinking of all those times in Jack's (the old restaurant up town) where they had coffee and told the old stories the way they saw things. I have always said that some of the best laughs we had is when we sat and gave each other a hard time as we ribbed each other. For some reason I think those old carefree days are gone along with so many other things.

up nearly half a percent from 2017-18 (42.5), with the boys percent holding steady and the girls increasing nearly a full percent from a year ago. Class D schools – those with the smallest enrollments – again enjoyed the highest percentage of athletes among the entire student body, at 57.1 percent, followed by Class C (50.7), Class B (45.8) and Class A (39.4).

Of those athletes counted by responding schools, 43 percent participated in more than one sport – including 45.1 percent of boys and 40.4 percent of girls – with all three of those percentages nearly identical to those derived from the first survey a year ago. Class D again enjoyed the highest percentage of multi-sport athletes, 61.8 percent, followed by Class C (56.7), Class B (48.7) and Class A (35.4).

Similar results for overall sport participation and multi-sport participation relative to enrollment size were seen by further breaking down Class A into schools of fewer than 1,000 students, 1,000-1,500 students, 1,501-2,000 students and more than 2,000 students. Similarly to 2017-18 for both sport participation as a whole and multi-sport participation specifically, the smallest Class A schools continued to enjoy the highest percentages, while percentages then decreased for every larger size group of schools.

Also of note, the percentage of two-sport athletes at every school measure around one-third of athletes – from 29.2 percent at Class A (schools to 35.7 at Class B, 37.2 at Class C and 35.6 at Class D. However the number of athletes participating in three sports decreased substantially relative to the increase in school enrollment, with 22.5 percent of Class D athletes playing three sports, 18.2 in Class C, 12.4 in Class B and 6.0 percent in Class A. The MHSAA Task Force on Multi-Sport Participation will be meeting this fall to discuss creating a program to measure multi-sport participation at MHSAA member schools and to recognize "achievers" – that is, schools that surpass the norm given their enrollment and other factors that affect school sports participation.

For 2018-19, in Class A, Marquette posted the highest percentage of multi-sport athletes with 85.9 percent, up 3.3 percent from its top-ranking Class A percentage from 2017-18. Grand Rapids Northwest also topped 80 percent multi-sport participation, with 83.1 percent of its athletes playing two or more sports. Orchard Lake St. Mary's, Detroit East English and Gibraltar Carlson all saw multi-sport participation from at least 70 percent of their athletes.

In Class B, four schools again achieved at least 80 percent multi-sport participation – Coloma (87.2 percent), Gladstone (86.7), Flat Rock (83.2) and Dundee (80.2), while 10 schools had 70 percent or more athletes playing at least two sports.

Six Class C schools reported more than 80 percent of its athletes taking part in more than one sport – Schoolcraft (87.1), Mayville (86.2), Manton (85.3), Houghton

Lake (84.9), Cass City (84.7) and Decatur (83.5) – and 12 schools total with 75 percent or more athletes participating in multiple sports.

There were 14 Class D schools with multi-sport participation at 80.9 percent or higher, with Gaylord St. Mary (93.2), Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes (91.5) and Watermead (90.3) topping the survey not just for Class D but among all schools that responded.

The full summary report is available on the "Health & Safety" page of the MHSAA Website at <https://www.mhsaa.com/Schools/Health-Safety-Resources>.

New 'Agents of Discovery' app now available

GLADSTONE - There is another reason to get outside and explore the Hiawatha National Forest. On Aug. 17, the mobile gaming application "Agents of Discovery" (AoD) launched a mobile "mission" that offers a new way for visitors to explore Hiawatha National Forest's Peninsula Point Lighthouse and day-use area near Rapid River, Mich.

The new AoD mission - "Monarchs of Peninsula Point" - is a free mobile game application that allows users to unlock hidden geo-challenges with their tablet or smartphone. Players (agents) are given a mission that is individual to each site - in this case, Peninsula Point - and, using the geo-location on their phones, are guided through a series of challenges, questions, and learning activities that reveal what is special about the environment around them.

The game is designed for ages six to 12 years and for families looking for fun activities they can do together. The Forest Service, American Recreation Coalition, and Agents of Discovery have partnered since 2016 to bring educational, movement-based interactive gaming opportunities to national forest sites across the country.

"Using game-based learning, Agents will discover what it takes to survive the 1900 mile migration of the Monarch butterfly; and hopefully they will have a bit of fun while they're at it!" says Sean O'Donnell, Hiawatha National Forest lighthouse program specialist.

New Agents of Discovery Mission at Peninsula Point!

Hiawatha National Forest is excited to launch its newest mission for Agents of Discovery, which is an educational mobile game for the whole family. The mission is located at the Peninsula Point Lighthouse day use area near Rapid River, MI.

Tips Before you Come:

- 1) Download the FREE app on App Store or Google Play (requires no data or WiFi once downloaded)
- 2) Download the Mission Site: Monarchs of Peninsula Point
- 3) Fully charge your mobile device (i.e. smart phone or tablet)

For more information, contact Sean at sean.m.odonnell@usda.gov

Using the mobile game requires a little pre-planning, since there is no Wi-Fi at the lighthouse. The mobile game will be available to visitors who download the AoD app and mission at home (or somewhere with Wi-Fi) before heading to Hiawatha National Forest's Peninsula Point Lighthouse.

Those interested may be able to download the mission on site at Peninsula Point, but that does require data. An internet connection is not needed to play the downloaded game.

The "Monarchs of Peninsula Point" mission is available for download now. For updates check out the HNF Facebook page at: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/HiawathaLighthouses>.

For more information about the recreation opportunities and lighthouses in Hiawatha National Forest, visit our website at <https://www.fs.usda.gov/hiawatha>.

US 2 Brevort River Bridge replacement to begin, detour starting Sept. 3

LANSING - The Michigan Department of Transportation is investing $2.3 million to replace the U.S. Highway 2 bridge over the Brevort River in Moran Township, Mackinac County.

The narrow bridge, originally constructed in 1935, is considered functionally obsolete and is no longer a viable candidate for preventive maintenance; it needs to be replaced. The current structure is 55 feet long and 38 feet wide with shoulders. The new bridge will be 110 feet long and a little more than 46 feet wide with 10-foot shoulders.

The work will require closing U.S. 2 at the bridge with a posted detour. Westbound traffic will be detoured onto I-75 in St. Ignace to M-123 to Worth Road and back onto U.S. 2. The detour will be reversed for east-bound traffic. The detour extends approximately three miles to the route for through-traffic. Moran Township and St. Ignace businesses along U.S. 2 will still be open and accessible.

The project starts Sept. 3 and is scheduled to be completed on Nov. 13.

Seney Refuge seeks input about fishing opportunities

SENEY - Seney National Wildlife Refuge is proposing to update the refuge's fishing program and we are seeking public comment on the types of angling opportunities the public would like to see.

How can we improve access? Would you like to see additional pools opened to fishing? Would you like to see changes to current refuge season restrictions?

The last update to the fishing program was in 2009. The Refuge will be accepting comments from the public until Sept. 15.

Potential changes could include, but are not limited to:

- Increasing access to the existing pools by providing better access points.
- Expanding the dates fishing is allowed along the Marshland Wildlife Drive.

"Opening new pools to fishing - which pools would you like us to consider?"

There will be an open house on Sept. 4 from 4-7 p.m. at the Seney National Wildlife Refuge Visitor Center. This is an opportunity to discuss potential changes with refuge staff and to provide comments on the potential changes.

The public may also submit comments to the refuge in person at the visitor center, by mail at Seney National Wildlife Refuge, 1674 Refuge Entrance Road, Seney, MI 49883 or email Seney@fws.gov.

Across the country, national wildlife refuges work closely with state agencies, tribes, and private partners to expand access to fishing where it is compatible with refuge purposes. Fishing provides opportunities for families to enjoy the outdoors, create memories and pass on family traditions.

The mission of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service is working with others to conserve, protect and enhance fish, wildlife, plants and their habitats for the continuing benefit of the American people. We are both a leader and trusted partner in fish and wildlife conservation, known for our scientific excellence, stewardship of lands and natural resources, dedicated professionals and commitment to public service.
