Board reverses 'one-stop' policy

MAS District to allow requests for two, pre-scheduled bus stops

MANISTIQUE – The Manistique Area Schools Board of Education has agreed to modify its bussing policy to accommodate more parents. The decision was made during Monday's meeting of the board.

The policy undergoing the updates was previously amended by the school board last year under the direction of then-superintendent Maryann Boddy.

That bussing policy mandated that: the district provide bus transportation to and from school for students living one or more miles from the school, with a list of bus stops published at the beginning of the school year; parents/guardians must, by the first Friday of the school year, select one bus stop at which a student is to be picked up, and one stop at which a student is to be dropped off; as students are not permitted to ride a bus other than the bus to which they are assigned; emergency exemptions must be presented to the building principal by 10 a.m. on the day the emergency exemption is being requested.

Following the adoption of the new bussing policy last year, numerous parents expressed concern about restrictions posed by it. In particular, families with a child in more than one household noted that selecting just one bus stop for the entire school year was impractical and an inconvenience.

"At a previous board meeting, I asked for permission to get information to see if adding a second scheduled bus stop would be feasible and I was told to look into that," explained MAS Superintendent Howard Parmentier. "We sent out forms and I received forms back from about ... 50 to 60 parents or guardians and of those, there were about 20 forms with people requesting an alternative stop."

Parmentier noted that he discussed the possibility of adding a second, scheduled stop with the district's transportation department.

"It is feasible that we can do this without having an issue with an overloaded bus," he explained.

An important note to parents, Parmentier added, would be that the second and first stops must be "scheduled." "Meaning when you choose, at the beginning of the year, your two schedules ... on this week they go to father's house, and on alternative weeks they go to mother's (house) and they are scheduled," he said, adding that he would provide examples of this scheduling (see column on page A3).

"Most parents that I spoke with were very thankful that we were considering this," Parmentier said. "My hope would be that if this is adopted that we roll it out after Thanksgiving."

Manistique is becoming more and more festive as the days go on. Just ahead of the annual Christmas Parade Nov. 29, Manistique Department of Public Works employees have been busily decorating the light poles throughout the city, as well as stringing lights through downtown Manistique. At left a crew spends Wednesday morning hanging holiday banners.

Upcoming 2020 Census prompts appeal for increased county, city participation

Count influences amount received in federal funds

MANISTIQUE – The 2020 Census is just around the corner and area residents are reminded that their input could equate to additional funding for the city and county. The topic was discussed during a recent Manistique City Council meeting.

The Decennial Census is the once-a-decade population and housing count of all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the Island Areas as required by the U.S. Constitution. The results of the decennial census determine the number of seats for each state in the U.S. House of Representatives and are used to draw congressional and state legislative districts and to distribute more than $675 billion in federal funds each year.

A U.S. Census Bureau representative for Schoolcraft County and Manistique, Nathan Michaels, was on hand to present during the meeting.

"The hope is that we can count everyone and everyone once for successful count," he explained. "The Census starts April 2020. We'll begin ... sending out information in the mail starting in late March. Everyone will be getting a postcard in the mail at their residence and they'll be able to return that to the Census either by the internet or by phone or mail. That's new this year."

Since things are going to be on the internet (we're) just trying to make sure things are secure and everyone knows where to go," Michaels continued. "We haven't dealt with too much scamming yet – that's something that we're trying to mitigate with a lot of our good software and management systems."

He added that the overall goal of the Census in Schoolcraft County and Manistique is to increase participation in the count and receive appropriate funding. Michaels pointed out that, according to the Michigan Nonprofit Association, there are many communities at risk for being undercounted.

"(MNA) said that every person not counted is a loss of roughly $1,200 to $1,500 per person," he explained. "Everyone who does not respond could mean a big loss for funding, the data for funding, and for grants."

The MNA website states that public officials use census data and the number of people counted to determine distribution of federal funds and that, in 2014, Michigan was allocated $17.7 billion in federal funds that support many programs and services such as Head Start; food assistance; special education; free and reduced lunch programs; WIC, and the Children's Health Insurance Program.

Michaels said that he will be setting up a few committees and planning education meetings for the public and city and county officials to ensure they know the Census is the "fabric of our community."

"We're just trying to engage the public and inform them that the Census is coming and they can be involved," he explained, adding that sometimes it's as simple as reaching out to those who leave for the winter "snow birds" and ensure they remember to respond to the Census. "If they're a resident, where they reside and where they want the funds to go really is important."

Manistique City Manager Sheila Aldrich reiterated the importance of everyone's participation in the Census.

"A lot of people ... are just hesitant to be counted, but it can really be crucial for our community," she said. "And it's long term – the impact is long term. The number that they (funding sources) use will be the number that they use for 10 years."

Michaels noted the participation estimate for Schoolcraft County in 2010 – the date of the last Census – showed that approximately 17 percent of residents did not respond.

Forest Service to host Open House events in area offices

GLADSTONE – Hiawatha National Forest will host two open houses to inform and assist the public regarding special use permits, which are required for a variety of activities the public may wish to conduct on national forest system lands. The open houses will be held from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. at the Forest Service offices in Muskegon (Dec. 10) and Gladstone (Dec. 12).

Why are special use permits needed? The Forest Service mission is to manage the national forests for a variety of uses, including recreation, timber, wilderness, minerals, water, grazing, fish and wildlife. Our job is to help people share and enjoy the forest, while conserving the environment for generations yet to come. To help us meet this goal, certain activities require permits.

"Our goal with these open houses is to help the public learn about the special uses program," said Brian Hinch, a Forest Service recreation specialist who oversees recreation uses on the Hiawatha National Forest's west zone.

What kinds of activities require a special use permit? The Forest Service provides permits for several kinds of activities including non-commercial activities, commercial activities, recreation events, commercial photography and filming, outfitting and guiding, transportation, energy, and forest products gathering.

"We'll have posters and handouts covering the kinds of activities that require permits, and we will also have information about the seasonal permit application windows," said Jennifer Olmsted, Zone Realty Specialist.

Forest Service staff will be available to answer questions about the range of special uses – and if applicable, to help you get started on your permit application. Here is an overview of the kinds of activities covered by Forest Service special use permits:

Non-Commercial Activities – A non-commercial group use is a use or activity that involves a group of 75 or more people, either as participants or spectators, where an entry or participation fee is not charged, and the primary purpose is not the sale of a goods or service. Some examples of noncommercial group uses are weddings, church services, graduations, family reunions and more.

Commercial Activities – A use is considered Commercial when: an applicant intends to charge an entry or participation fee; or, when the primary purpose is the sale of a good or service, regardless of the intent to produce a profit. Money collected may cover expense categories, such as food, transportation, prizes, advertising, purchase replacement of equipment, or compensation for the leader of the activity. Some examples of commercial activities include (but are not limited to) shuttle service, realtor signs, poker runs, marathons, food vendors, canoe outfitters, hunting guides, art/photography workshops and more.

Recreation Events – Recreation events are commercial activities requiring temporary, authorized use of NFS land. Examples of recreation events include, but are not limited to, animal, bicycle, motocross, or triathlon races; dog trials; fishing contests; rendezvous; rodeos; adventure games; youth treks; concerts; and other similar events. A permit is required for these types of events, regardless of the number of people involved in the activity.

Student demonstrations? A march of youngsters shouting and waving placards? Here in Manistique? That's right, here in Manistique, but this was no protest march. It was more like a love-in, and the object of it all was smiling Barney Johnson, who for 33 years has patiently waited for youngsters with pennies clutched in their fists to make their selection of candy, Barney and his wife Millie have operated Barney's Grocery on Oak St. for almost four decades, and the children have come and gone—but last Wednesday the tables were turned, and Barney received some dividends on the time he has spent on youngsters in the past. Sixth grade students at the Lakeside School read about "Citizens in Action" in their weekly readers, and their discussions showed they felt Barney qualified in every way. They found out from Mrs. Johnson that his birthday was Nov. 16, and so on Nov. 12 the students gathered at the corner by the Zion Lutheran Church. A half block away, and with signs held high, began their march to the store. Told that a neighbor lady wished to talk to him, Barney stepped outside the store to be greeted by the small mob of youthful supporters, who sang "Happy Birthday" and "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and presented him with gifts of a wallet and money and a man's jewelry case. And Barney? He's seldom at a loss for words, but this time about the best he could do was a big grin—and free candy—for the marchers.

A Monday morning walkout by 27 teachers of the Big Bay de Noc Education Association has closed schools in Garden, Cooks and Nahma for about 600 students in the consolidated district. The teachers in the district have been working without a contract since the start of school. Mediation and fact finding efforts by the state have failed to produce settlement. A notice delivered Saturday by certified mail to Carl Van-Remortal, president of the board of education said: If there is no agreement reached between the Education Association by Sunday, Nov. 16, 1969, at 11 p.m. the teachers will not be in school Monday, Nov. 17, 1969. The teachers will continue to withholding their services until an agreement is reached. Salaries are the key in the dispute. Base pay in the system last year was $6,000, and the school board has offered a $500 raise across the board, with the base going to $6,500.

Bob Morford of 10421 West Shore Drive, a regular member of the audience at past meetings, was named to fill a vacancy on the Manistique City Council at a special meeting last Wednesday afternoon. He will replace Councilmember Kathy Wilson, who resigned Oct. 15 for personal reasons, and serve until expiration of the term in April 1988. Three applications had been received to fill the vacancy. The other two came from John Strom, an unsuccessful candidate in two previous elections and Shelly Slining, who has also been in the audience on many occasions. Morford now serves on the City Housing Commission but will resign to avoid conflict of interest.

Michigan's first test-tube triplets, born to a Manistique couple, are together now and thriving in Grand Rapids. Ryan Francis Burns, son of Sharon and George Burns of Manistique, was moved Tuesday, Nov. 13, from Butterworth Hospital's neo-natal intensive care unit to the nursery at Grand Rapids'

Blodgett Memorial Medical Center, joining his brother, John Earl, and sister, Angela Marie. He had responded to treatment for hyaline membrane disease that affects breathing in some premature babies. The triplets were born Nov. 4. Their mother, Sharon, was released from Blodgett last Tuesday, where she had been a patient since Sept. 10. She will stay near her babies in a Grand Rapids apartment made available by a civic group there. The triplets will remain in the hospital until they are strong enough to be sent home. All three weighed less than four pounds each at birth.

Hunters are successful. John Berger of Manistique broke a 17 year dry spell when he shot a 170 pound nine pointer in the Little Harbor area. Hunting in the Jack Pine area, Mike Monroe of Manistique shot a 120-pound four pointer. Stanley Woodruff of Manistique shot an eight point buck in the Thompson area. Larry Hedberg of Manistique got his first buck on the Smith's Creek area—a 10 point 170 pounder.

Judge William A. Werner, 65, of the Alger and Schoolcraft County bench, has announced his retirement effective Feb. 1, 2000. He said in a letter to Governor John Engler that "for reasons of health" he was stepping down. Werner suffers from chronic diabetes and thyroid cancer.

For the second straight year, Manistique sixth graders were the only students in the Upper Peninsula to participate in the Great American Smoke Scream. The scream caps off a week of activities in which the students are inundated with the dangers of tobacco. The Manistique Teens Against Tobacco Use visits each classroom, trying ing to sway the students to stay away from tobacco of all kinds. At the end of the week, the sixth graders gathered in the auditorium and reviewed what they had learned during the week. The Pom Pom dance squad did a routine and everyone watched a video. The students then counted down from ten and screamed, only has healthy lungs can. The tradition of sending Christmas trees from the forests of Schoolcraft County to families in Chicago is alive and well. On Monday morning, 42 trees from Thompson Township were trucked to downtown Chicago, where they will be loaded aboard the U.S. Coast Guard Cutter Mackinaw for the voyage down Lake Michigan to the Windy City. This marks the second year in a row that the Thompson Historical Advisory Committee has sent trees south to be distributed through Chicago's Christmas Ship, a nonprofit volunteer project that raises money to buy Michigan trees and partners with the Coast Guard to bring them to Chicago, where they are distributed to families that could not otherwise afford them.

For the first time ever, Manistique has a state champion in the annual Pump, Pass, and Kick competition. Kyra Lauzon won her age group at the state-level event, the 23rd annual Detroit Lions Team Championship, which took place at Ford Field in Detroit last Sunday. Competing against four other girls' 14-15 division. Lauzon racked up a total distance of 290 feet, 2 inches, outdistancing the runner-up by nearly 21 feet to win the Michigan crown.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I am proud to announce my candidacy for Eleventh Circuit Court Judge for Alger, Luce, Mackinac and Schoolcraft counties. While the election is still nearly a year away, the time is right to announce that I will pursue this position on the bench.

I am the best candidate for this judgeship because of my fervent belief in the rule of law, combined with my extensive experience in both criminal and civil law. I have practiced law in the Eleventh Circuit for just over nine years, handling a large volume of criminal and civil cases.

When elected, I will work tirelessly to uphold and support the United States Constitution, Michigan Constitution and general laws of the state. I assure that everyone who appears before me are treated with respect.

I was born and raised in Newbury, and after law school, I returned home and opened my law practice.

I've always known that my purpose was to return to the Upper Peninsula and help the communities that supported me so much while growing up.

Since returning to Newberry, I've proudly served as a member of the school board since 2015 and as president since 2017. While being in any elected position is difficult, I welcome the challenge.

Performing my duties on the school board has been a rewarding experience. My expertise also includes serving the Tahquamenon Education Foundation, Luce County Library Board, State Bar Representative Assembly, and as Eleventh Circuit Bar President.

One of my proudest legal accomplishments in my career today is helping to ensure that all indigent criminal defendants have access to competent legal representation. I worked diligently with local entities and other attorneys to uphold this right of each defendant, and to implement Michigan Indigent Defense Commission's grant funding requirements. As judge I will make sure that all people have equal access to the court system.

In the coming weeks and months, I hope to meet more citizens of the Eleventh Circuit. I am happy to answer any questions about my qualifications or about the courts in general. Feel free to find me on Facebook by searching Brian Rahilly for Eleventh Circuit Judge or by emailing me at rahilly4judge@gmail.com.

News from MAS

Superintendent Howard Parmentier

Hello to all! I would like to let everyone know that during the Monday, Nov. 18 board meeting the Manistique Board of Education changed its policy to allow for a second scheduled bus stop for riders. The board members and I have spoken with several parents and community members of families that have different circumstances and we want to be understanding to their specific requests. In order for this to work all bus drops offs and pick-ups must be scheduled.

I would like to explain further what this means. Student are now permitted to have two stops.

However, they must be on a regular schedule. For example: If parents are living in different households and the student alternates living one week at mom's house and one week at dad's house; those two separate households would be considered the two scheduled bus stops.

Or if a grandparent watches their grandchild Tuesday through Thursday, but on Monday and Friday the student goes home; those two households would be considered the two scheduled bus stops.

Students will not be allowed to change whenever they want - it must be a scheduled stop. Keep in mind, that if a request is submitted, we will need time to process your request, taking a few days to figure out the logistics of the request (informing staff, drivers and ensuring seating is available). Meanwhile, you will receive a phone call to verify your request.

Normally this would need to be done at the beginning of the school year.

However, because this addition was just adopted, forms must be turned in no later than the holiday break.

Many of you have already returned the bus forms and you should have received a call from me to verify your request. I would like to reiterate that these scheduled stops will occur on the same days every week. This does not mean that you can call the school and say, "my child needs to go here today."

If you have any questions about this process, please let me know.

Recreation Residences Permits

- In 1915, when most national forests were remote and difficult to access, the agency launched the Recreation Residence program in order to help the public visit forest. While new Recreation Residences are no longer being added to the system, the Hiawatha has several tracts of privately owned, noncommercial residence located upon National Forest System lands and authorized by a recreation residence special use permit. A recreation residence is maintained by the permit holder for personal, family, and guest use and enjoyment and cannot be transferred to a new owner; rather the new owner must apply for a new permit. A recreation residence may not serve as a permanent residence. From experience we know that because Rec Residences are relatively rare, there can be many challenges in buying a recreation residence (including financing). Whether you are a realtor selling recreation residences, a prospective buyer, or a current owner, we encourage you to take advantage of this great opportunity to ask questions.

Commercial Photography/Filming

- A permit is required for all commercial filming activities on National Forest System lands except those involving breaking news. A permit is required for all still photography activities on National Forest System lands that involve the use of models, sets or props that are not a part of the natural or cultural resources or administrative facilities of the site where the activity is occurring. A permit may be required for still photography activities not involving models, sets, or props when the Forest Service incurs additional administrative costs as a direct result of the activity or when the activity takes place at a location where members of the public are generally not allowed.

Outfitting and Guiding - A permit is required when the outfitting/guiding operation is conducted on national forest system lands or waters. Outfitting and guiding services range from hunting, fishing, canoeing trips to dogsledding, snowmobiling, and hiking tours, to name a few. Outfitters that rent and deliver equipment to the public for use on national forest lands must obtain a permit if they, their employees, or agents occupy or use national forest system lands or waters in connection with their rental programs.

Transportation Permit - A transportation permit covers use of roads not open to the general public for motorized use or use of roads/driveways across NFS land to access private property.

Snowplowing Permits - In our snowy winter landscapes, snow plowing is a fact of life. If you need to plow a Forest Service road - whether for commercial or non-commercial reasons - a snowplowing permit is required. These permits are designed to protect the road and surrounding resources, as well as to help ensure the safety of all users.

Forest Products Gathering - Permits are required for collecting edible, medicinal, decorative plants and fungi if used for commercial purposes. Currently, we offer permits for gathering boughs, Holiday tree tags, and Lycopodium. Firewood gathering permits are also available for personal use. Some offices may administer a program for tapping maple trees for sap. A permit is not required for gathering small amounts of minor products for personal use only, such as firewood while camping on the National Forest, birch bark, cones, twigs, seeds, leeks, mushrooms or other fungi, berries, or acorns. Such collections must not disturb the surface resource and products must not be protected by State or Federal laws or regulations.

For more information about Special Use Permits, visit the Hiawatha National Forest webpage, or contact the Munising (400 East Munising Avenue) and Gladstone (820 Rains Drive) offices.

Doris M. DeMars

MANISTIQUE — Heaven greeted a beautiful soul, when Doris Marilyn DeMars, 91, passed away at her home on Thursday, Nov. 14, 2019.

She was born on July 1, 1928, to Dutch immigrants Bert and Lizzie (Oosterom) Hulshof in Manistique, Mich. She was very proud of her heritage and shared many stories about the hardships her parents endured on their journey to, and while building their life in America. She grew up on West Elk Street, at the very end of Schoolcraft Avenue, where she shared many adventures with the neighborhood kids, including the nearby "40 Gang". She spoke so fondly of the memories, and families involved in her young life. Part of her shenanigans included trading her bike for a horse, for which she had to promptly untrade; and her attempt at riding a pig in Cooks, for which that did not last too long either. She was dubbed the nickname "Dewbug" from her honorary grandma, Anna Courmay, whom she adored. She graduated from Manistique High School with the class of 1947.

On Oct. 14, 1950, she married Rainey Edwin DeMars at the Zion Lutheran Church in Manistique. After, almost 64 years of marriage, Edwin passed away on May 19, 2014.

Her working career started in high school at Laumercans, a telephone operator before the dial phone came to town, and the longest job was at the Vogue dress shop, where the "Vogue Girls" donned their famous moo-moos on sidewalk sale days.

Doris always had a book in hand, which was her major favorite past time. Later in life, she enjoyed word search books. She loved to play cards, especially bridge. She was an excellent seamstress and passed down that talent to her daughters. She enjoyed mushroom hunting with her husband, which meant she stayed in the car with a book, blueberry picking, which meant she stayed in the car with a book, and also fishing, which meant she had a pole in one hand and a book in the other. After retirement, she and her husband enjoyed spending winters in Las Vegas, which lasted approximately 10 years. On their way home, they would take their time and explored many of the national parks and various sites in our beautiful country. She loved her dogs dearly and was looking forward to reuniting with them. Doris lived her life with positivity, generosity, understanding, and forgiveness. She was selfless beyond measure. She is known by her family as saying "Okey Doky", "Everything is fine and dandy", "What will be will be", and last but not least, "You're your own worst enemy", which one child probably heard more than the others.

Doris is survived by her daughters, Diane (Louis) Kirt, Reedsburg, Wis., and Donna DeMars, (Bill) Manistique; sons, Terry (Joyce) DeMars, Patterson, Calif. and Thomas (Lori) DeMars, Peshigo, Wis.; grandchildren, Kelli (William) Malloy, Matthew (Debra) Kirt, Jeffrey Kirt (Kayza), and Miranda DeMars (Luke), great-grandchildren, Cooper and Cassidy Malloy, David, Walker and Haidyn Kirt, along with several nieces and nephews.

In addition to her husband and parents, she is preceded in death by her brother, Henry Hulshof and her sister, Cleo Kotchon.

In honoring Doris' wishes, there will be no service. Doris will be laid to rest beside her beloved husband in Lakeview Cemetery at Manistique.

Memorial donations may be directed to the Eva Burrell Animal Shelter, Manistique Senior Citizens Center or the Backpack Buddy Program at Zion Lutheran Church. EGLE to ease permitting process for sandbags

LANSING — The Michigan Department of Environment, Great Lakes, and Energy recently announced a new Minor Project category that will make it easier for lakeshore property owners to get a permit for the temporary use of sandbags as immediate stabilization measures to protect homes and other critical infrastructure.

The Minor Project category will provide for faster permit processing for homeowners and a reduced permit fee of $100. Under the new category, a public notice will not be necessary for stabilization projects meeting review requirements.

EGLE emphasizes that sandbags are not a permanent solution to erosion problems and the bags eventually must be removed. Property owners should work with a contractor to design a more permanent solution, such as boulders, riprap, or even moving homes and other infrastructure farther inland.

Property owners who seek to take measures to protect their property from record high water levels still need to file a permit application through EGLE's MiWaters portal. EGLE is expediting permits where there is a risk to structures, human health, and safety. In many cases, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers also needs to review the permit application, which is filed jointly through MRWaters.

Since Oct. 1, EGLE has issued more than 100 shoreline protection permits across the state. Of these, 60 percent were issued within three days of receiving a completed application. Between Oct. 1, 2018, and Sept. 30, EGLE issued 730 permits for Great Lakes projects, some of which were non-emergencies. Fifty percent of the 730 permits were issued within 30 days of receiving an application and 21 percent were issued within 10 days.

In October, EGLE announced it would expedite permit applications to protect homes or structures that are in danger due to record high water levels. Permits can be approved within days of a completed application being filed, when under normal circumstances the process takes 60-90 days. The shoreline permitting process ensures a balance between protecting property and freshwater dunes and shorelines.

EGLE has made a number of resources available for shoreline property owners:

- A new website — Michigan.gov/HighWater — where property owners can search for the latest information, find links to helpful topics, begin the permitting process, and search a list of contractors.
- Added staffing to take calls through the Environmental Assistance Center — 800-662-9278 — between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday and answer inquiries at EGLE-Assist@

Michigan.gov. Increased overtime for field staff to quickly process shoreline permits.

A webinar that explains the reasons behind high waters and shoreline erosion, and EGLE's rule and permit changes. Go to Michigan.gov/MiWaters to find the permitting process and related links.

Stabenow announces funding for 'Food Bucks'

WASHINGTON - U.S. Senator Debbie Stabenow, Ranking Member of the U.S. Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition and Forestry, recently announced $12.5 million in new federal funding to expand Double Up Food Bucks in Michigan. The grant was funded through the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Gus Schumacher Nutrition Incentive Program, which Stabenow expanded and made permanent in the 2018 Farm Bill.

The Fair Food Network connect families in every county in Michigan with affordable, healthy food." Michigan's Double Up Food Bucks program is a project of the Fair Food Network that doubles the value of food assistance dollars spent on locally grown produce at farmers markets and grocery stores. Modeling the success of Double Up Bucks, Stabenow created a nutrition incentives program in the 2014 Farm Bill to fund similar projects all across the country.

will make fruits and vegetables more accessible and affordable for families for years to come. "Within a decade, nutrition incentives have grown from a handful of pilots to a permanent part of the Farm Bill with programs in all 50 states," said Oran Hesterman, founder and CEO of Fair Food Network, which pioneered the Double Up Food Bucks program that is now in 27 states.

new funds to expand the Double Up Food Bucks program to more farmers markets and grocery stores throughout Michigan. The project will more than double participation in the Double Up program from 13 percent to 30 percent of SNAP households by 2023 and expand it to every county in the state. As national leaders in healthy food access, Fair Food Network has been selected as a partner in establishing the new Center for Nutrition Incentive Program Training, Technical Assistance, Evaluation and Reporting, which will provide training resources for incentive programs across the country.

Baiting ban still in effect despite bills

LANSING – DNR offices around the state continue to field questions from people confused about the status of the baiting and feeding ban for deer and elk in the Lower Peninsula and the core CWD surveillance area in the Upper Peninsula. The DNR wants to let all hunters know that the ban has not changed and remains fully in effect.

Bills to lift the ban have been approved in the Michigan Legislature, but nothing has been sent to Gov. Gretchen Whitmer or signed into law. The governor has promised to veto the legislation should it come to her desk.

Down 16-21 in the second match of the Michigan High School Athletic Association's Regional Finals Nov. 14, the Emeralds use a time out to regroup and settle into their game. Additional photos may be viewed at www.mstqioneertribune.smugmug.com.

It was a great run... Emeralds fall to Traverse City at Finals

MANISTIQUE – It was a great run ... unfortunately for the Emeralds' volleyball team, their quest for a regional banner was stopped by the Traverse City St. Francis Gladiators last Thursday. Playing in front of their home crowd in the Richard Bonifas Gymnasium, the Emeralds fell to their guests in four sets, 1-3.

Ready to battle, the Emeralds took the first match 25-18. Turning the tables, the Gladiators came back in the second match and topped the Emeralds 25-18.

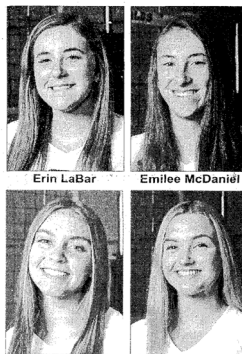

Standing at 1-1 after the second set, Traverse City kept their momentum going, taking the third set 17-25 and continuing on to take the final match 21-25.

"It was a heartbreaking loss as it was a back and forth battle," said Head Coach Amy Nixon. "I felt we matched up well against them and didn't go down without a fight. We played them tough and certainly earned their respect. We have a lot to be proud of this season."

The Emeralds have a lot to be proud of, indeed. They were the Mid-Penninsula Conference Champions.

They earned a District Championship Title. They won their first Regional Semifinal match.

The team was coached by Coach of the Year,

Amy Nixon. Lenna Smith was selected as Player of the Year. Kayla Muth, Erin LaBar and Emilee McDaniel all made First Team selections. Jeanni Chartier made Second Team selection. Madison Zellar earned Defensive Team honors. The team maintained their honorable mention selection for the Michigan Interscholastic Volleyball Coaches Association throughout the season. The team had four players selected for the Michigan Interscholastic Volleyball Coaches Association "All-Region Team" for Region 2. Players included Lenna Smith, Emilee McDaniel, Kayla Muth, and Erin LaBar. Region 2 includes the following counties: Alger, Chippewa, Delta, Dickinson, Luce, Mackinac, Marquette, Menominee, and Schoolcraft. All of their accomplishments took dedication, commitment, teamwork, and disciplined coaching. Advancing to the quarterfinals, Traverse City fell to the Beaverton Beavers 0-3 (22-25, 19-25, 21-25). Beaverton will take on Monroe St. Mary Catholic Central Nov. 22 at 2 p.m. at the Kellogg Arena in Battle Creek, Mich. St. Francis game stats: Delaney Zellar had 15 serve receives and five digs. Madison Zellar finished with 22 serve receives and 17 digs. Erin LaBar had three digs and 30 assists. Jeanni Chartier had four digs, three kills, an ace, and a serve receive. Lenna Smith had three aces, 13 serve receives, 21 digs, nine kills, and a block. Brooke Richey recorded two aces, 19 serve receives, and 22 digs. Kayla Muth had five kills, a dig and a block. Emilee McDaniel had three aces, one dig, 13 kills, and three blocks.

UP firearm deer season update

LANSING — Wildlife biologists with the Michigan Department of Natural Resources are reporting an initial drop in the number of deer checked at stations across the Upper Peninsula since Friday's opening day, compared to the same time period in 2018.

"All of these figures, which are through Sunday, are preliminary and numerous factors — such as snow depth, hunter participation, day of the week of opening day and temperatures, among others — can affect comparisons between given years," said John Pepin, DNR deputy public information officer. "When compared to the 10-year average, some check stations were up from last year."

Norway had registered 52 deer through yesterday, which appears to be down a little from 2018 as well.

"On average, we appear to be down about 14 percent from the same time in 2018," said DNR wildlife biologist David Jenoff, describing the region-wide results.

"However, this is just a quick snapshot. This will likely change as the season moves on."

Wildlife biologist observations:

- A majority of deer checked at U.P. DNR check stations have been bucks.

- Deer have had good body condition and about average antler development.

- Staff report seeing quite a few 2.5-year-old, and older, bucks coming in and not as many young bucks so far.

- Many hunters are reporting seeing good deer numbers, including bucks, and hunter attitudes have

2019 EARLY STATISTICS

Station	Deer	Compared to 2018	10-yr. Average Comparison
Baraga	31	23% down	16% down
Crystal Falls	67	13% down	4% up
Escanaba	103	9% down	11% down
Marquette	68	4% down	24% up
Newberry	32	18% down	16% up generally been good.

- Hunting conditions were a little tough on opening day in some areas with strong winds and snow in some places. Temperatures started in the upper 20s but dropped through the day.

- The second day started cold but warmed up and conditions have been favorable since in most areas through Sunday. However, northern parts of the eastern U.P. have received as much as 30 inches of snow. This has spurred deer migration and caused some hunters not to be able to reach their camps or hunting locations.

- Hunters in or near the Core CWD Surveillance Area have been interested in having their deer tested for disease. Hunters in other areas have been asking some questions, but few have submitted samples for testing. All deer that have come into the Norway check station have been tested.

- In some areas, hunters were not aware check station weekend hours were available. (Please see Michigan.gov/DeerCheck)

- Staff particularly at southern U.P. stations indicated their stations have been busy.

The number of deer licenses sold across Michigan through Sunday (since March 1) totaled 1,189,912, compared to 1,224,520 in 2018. The number of distinct deer hunting license customers statewide so far this year is 557,920 versus 576,601 in 2018.

In the U.P., the number of deer licenses bought by residents since March 1 through Sunday totaled 65,750, compared to 66,256 over the same time period in 2018. The number of residents who bought deer hunting licenses in the 15 counties since March 1 totaled 41,706, compared to 42,748 in 2018.

Baiting ban

This is important information, given that Michigan's firearm deer season started Friday. The DNR will notify the public of any significant changes to deer regulations that might occur.

For more information watch this brief video explaining the baiting and feeding ban, visit Michigan.gov/Deer or contact the DNR Wildlife Division at (517) 284-9453.

Well, here we are into the first week of firearm deer season and needless to say we have been all over the map as far as the weather goes. I have always said in my articles that usually if we have a good snow fall before the 15th when deer season starts, we almost always get a break in the weather and it warms up as we move into deer season. It seems this year worked out the same way, the first couple days were great but then we had mist, fog, icy roads, and in some areas the snow left. In other words welcome to the U.P. in November.

But even with all this in mind there were a good number of successful hunters and some nice bucks were harvested. I have always said there is no better enjoyment in life than being at hunting camp with your kids or your grandkids and getting to be part of them getting their first buck or maybe not their first but having them take a nice trophy buck. I have always said one of the things that always made the U.P. so special is where else is there that special place called deer camp. Back when growing up it was a great help to a family to harvest a couple deer to put in the freezer to help feed the family but needless to say this is not true in today's world. So I would have to say that the reason for having a great time at deer camp could be called just spending some quality family time.

Needless to say after writing my articles all these years I always get asked by a good number of people how my deer season went. I have to say this year's deer season was a first for the Walker boys. (Myself and my two brothers) We heard in the evening of Veteran's Day (11-11) that my brother-in-law had passed away down in Wisconsin. When this happened mine and my brother's deer opener plans were no longer our top priority. As my sister made plans for the funeral with their son living out in California things had to work out for everybody involved. So when everything fell into place the funeral was set for the 15th in the evening. I would say that conservatively speaking my sister must have told her three brothers a dozen times how sorry she was for messing up their deer season. We all told her that there are some things in life totally out of a person's control, being with our sister at this time was far more important than the deer season opener.

But there are some things in life that we do have the ability to control and one of these is acting safely during the deer season. I have already heard of a couple of hunting accidents that have happened since the 15th. One I heard about happened out in a corn field involving two brothers while the other one happened between a father and two of his children inside a house. Both of these cases involved classic violations of two of the most important things that are taught in the hunter safety classes. One is, always make sure of your target before you shoot and the second is make sure to know your firearm and always make sure it is unloaded when handling it in camp. (Or in this case in your house) In other words you cannot be too safe when using and handling a gun.

I will say and this is my personal opinion but I never fail to see hunters out in the field with very little hunter's orange. I know you are only required to wear a hat or vest but when you see hunters in dark camo or brown Carhart clothes with only a small hunter's orange vest or small orange hat on. In doing this you may be legal and within the law but you could also be robbing the dice when out in the field.

As we roll into the second week of deer season remember there are still a good number of deer out there if you happen to be in the right spot at the right time when one walks by. Of course then you have to make a good shot in order to bag your trophy buck. I have always said that a certain percentage of being successful is just maybe closer to being luck instead of actually your hunting skills. In the many years I have been out during the firearm deer season I have managed to shoot a nice buck more than once because I was in the wrong place at the right time when I saw this buck. So you just never know, but I will say I have never shot a buck if I was not out in the field looking for one.
