Various causes have led to these results, but Michigan farmers, under protection, are far better off than English farmers under trade.

Some new figures on the fuel supply of the United States furnish the ground-work for many grins of triumph. We've got enough to last for the ensuing 700 years, by which time most of us will have found some other way to keep comfortably warm.

Mrs. Captain Tom is the name of the richest Indian woman in Alaska. She is worth about $200,000, and lives royally at Sitka, surrounded by slaves. She supported two husbands until lately, having to give up one when she joined the Presbyterian mission. Mrs. Tom is ugly, fat and over forty, and is a shrewd trader.

Another pocket of quartz was blasted yesterday at the Michigan mine at Ishpeming at a point 300 feet east of Saturday's discovery. Two hundred pounds or more of rock carrying gold at the rate $40,000 to $50,000 was uncovered. A gold company to operate adjoining property is being organized. Excitement runs very high.

The southern part of Indiana has been visited by much the severest rains of the year. All the creeks and rivers have become great and destructive torrents, flooding cornfields, sweeping away fences, stacks of wheat and hay, and carrying off a great deal of valuable hard wood timber. The fruit crop has also suffered.

In the case of the fisheries, President Cleveland would like to protect home industries if by so doing he could corral a few thousands of Irish votes.

Anton Polak is a Polish laborer living in Duluth, Minn., who became the more or less happy father of four children last Thursday morning. His wife gave birth to two boys and two girls, all of them in perfect health. Their combined weight was twenty-one and one-half pounds. Mrs. Polak has had seven children in three confinements. She is still behind our Mrs. Mintline who gave birth to nine children in two confinements.—Ex.

At a Fair Trade (or anti-free trade) meeting in Macedonfield, England, lately, H. J. Pettifer, an English workingman, and delegate from the National Fair Trade League, said that in ten years hundreds of thousands of acres of land had ceased to be tilled, and vast numbers of unemployed farm laborers were crowding into the towns where they found no work. About the same time, Hon. Henry Champlin, M. P. in a speech in Parliament, told of a like falling-off in cultivated lands, of a decrease in cattle and sheep, and of 700,000 persons idle from the paralysis of English agriculture. Lord Derby states the losses of land-owners at £30,000,000; of £1,000,000,000, and tenants are said to have lost $50,000,000.

A STRIKING CONTRAST.
By the census of 1880, Michigan had 155,008 farms and 8,398,902 acres of improved lands. These farms and holdings were valued at $408,003,131. In 1870 our farms numbered 98,791, improved lands, 5,209,865 acres—an increase of about fifty per cent, in ten years and a like increase in total value, on a gold basis.

BACK AND HEAD.
"Down is like necessity—he knows no law," used to be said of certain huge, pompous member of the bar of Western New York.

One morning the village street which separated the court-house from the tavern was ankle deep with water, owing to a heavy rain fall during the night.

Brown stood looking at the water from the tavern piazza, and so did White, another member of the bar, who, though physically a dwarf, was a brilliant and powerful lawyer.

"Whichever dear fellow, what will you do?" said Brown, with a guttural growl. "You never can get across the street; you will drown, I shall have to take you across on my back."
"If you should," retorted White, "you would have more law of your back than you ever had in your head."—Youth's Companion.

BANKING UNDER SPIRIT GUIDANCE.

A wealthy banker in an interior city of Wisconsin is a spiritualist, and claims to be directed in the management of his financial affairs by the spirit of his father, who died a number of years ago. The spirit of the dead man, it is asserted by the son, has advised every important investment he has made since the death of the old gentleman, and has successfully engineered several very large business transactions. The son keeps an open account with his father, placing the funds at the old gentleman's credit as he may direct, and at stated times rendering an account of receipts, disbursements, and balance. The banker's belief is well known in the town where he lives, and an attempt was made by a party of roughs some time ago to rob him through his spiritualistic faith, but it was unsuccessful, the banker having a revolver handy, which he used with effect.—Chicago Herald.

POLICE STATISTICS OF NEW YORK.

One is apt to be alarmed by seeing in the police report for 1887 that there were 81,770 arrests in this city during the year. But he would be reassured by looking at the classification of the cases and noting that nearly 60,000 of that number were arrested for such offenses as disorderly conduct, drunkenness, and violation of the city ordinances. The Germans, in proportion to their numbers, show up by far the best in the report, and, in fact, they had less than half their quota of offenders, as compared with the other elements of our population. It appears that the police had a good deal of business with professional men for they arrested 106 lawyers, eighty doctors, eighty-three editors and reporters, and ten clergymen. "It is men, not women, who are your criminals," Elizabeth Cady Stanton said in a recent speech, and this report shows that three times more men than women were arrested during the year, or, to be exact, 61,638 men and 19,441 women.—New York Sun.

The platform is not very long but it is broad enough and strong enough for every man, woman and child in this republic to stand on. It is a model of clear, dispassionate, 1-3-1, complete statement of Republican doctrine. If it could be placed in the hands of every voter, with the assurance that he would read it, no other campaign document and not a single speech would be needed.

It is estimated that the wedding of the young Emperor of China, will cost $500,000 but he won't be any happier than a "Meilan man" on a $50 larder.

Capt. Benjamin D. Manton, United States consul at Uruguay, who is in Washington on leave of absence, predicts, in an interview, the breaking up of the great empire of Brazil.

Senator Quay continues to receive many letters detailing Democratic defections in New York. The national committee becomes more and more confident of victory with each succeeding day.

Some had boys destroyed a campaign flag at Oak Grove, Livingston county. The owner discovered "the perpetrators of the outrage" and compelled them to put one in its place. They don't feel so guilty now.

The New York Tribune says: "Of all the consolidated parties which make up the democratic party of to-day, the most transparent is the prohibition party, fed by funds collected from the liquor saloons."

A Canada lawyer drew up a will in his own handwriting, and when it was opened the other day he was unable to say whether the amount left to one of the heirs was $2,000 or $10,000 the discrepancy was so bad.

The election district in the city of Syracuse, N. Y. which has been canvassed shows eighty-two men who voted in Cleveland in 1881, now for Harrison; sixty-six Cleveland men in 1881 now sided, and not one man who voted for Blaine four years ago who will not vote for Harrison in November. These are the "straws" that tell.

Prof. Crowell of Amherst college, is dead. His wife reads over the lesson to him before he goes to the classroom and so perfectly does he retain what was in his mind years ago that he will remember that at such a place he made such and such comment in a note upon a particular word in the text. He is said to be very popular with the students.

A farmer down in Pennsylvania went to the well one day to draw some water, and when the old oaken bucket rose from the well all dripping with coolness, a large snake raised his head from its moss covered depths and looked at the man with the air of a snake that was a powerful glad to get up into the sunshine again. The farmer "chollered" and let go all bolts. The whiplash flew around like a buzz saw. The handle caught the man two most awful ones on the jaw before he could dodge, breaking his jaw, knocking out two teeth and sending him into his tongue in two jumps. When the hired man descended the well and captured the snake it was only an eel that had not only no idea of biting the farmer, but was rather a good thing to bite itself. So they let it go. Moral: It is a good deal better to stand still and get bit than to run and get stung.

THEY MUST LEARN TO COOK. The newest novelty heard of these many days is the action of a woman, possessed of ample means who has placed her two daughters in the kitchen of a friend to receive a practical education. The young girls have been sent to the best schools, are fair amateur musicians and dabble in embroidery and water colors. They dance, play tennis and are dear-complexioned, curly-headed, bright creatures. With a bribe of a year in Europe held before them as a glittering prize they have been induced to fall in with their mother's proposal that for months they should be received into a neighbor's establishment, performing all the duties of waitress and chambermaid and assisting the cook. The lady who has carried through this unusual proceeding is a return importation for the American girls who have married abroad. She was a German fraulein of a well-to-do Berlin family, who captured the affections of a traveling student from the States. The couple returned to New York to live, where the German dame has presided over a household of many servants with a German household of the Americans in most things, but retains home ideas in domestic matters so far as to going to a time honored home for rest, so putting out her girls. The German-American ladies are submitting with a good grace and make bread, roll steak and run up and down stairs with the better grace, perhaps, that they know they can return the rings to their fingers and put bells on their toes also if they so choose, when once they have acquired full control of fair specimens of American husbands.—New York Mail.

Hundreds of thousands of European laborers coming into this country yearly, and most of them doing well. Do you find laborers emigrating to free trade countries. Or if they did do so anybody suppose they would become well off there? Here is one of the protection arguments in a nut-shell, and no free-trader has yet been able to break its force.—Herald.

QUEER THINGS TO SPEND MONEY FOR.

A tooth of Sir Isaac Newton was sold in 1816 for the sum of $8,550. It was purchased by a nobleman, who had it set in a ring which he wore constantly on his finger. The hat worn by Napoleon Bonaparte at the battle of Eylau was sold in Paris in 1835 for $408. It was put up for sale at $109, and there were 32 bidders. The coat worn by Charles XII, at the battle of Poltowa, and preserved by one of his officers and attendants, was sold in 1825 for $116,875. The two pens employed in signing the treaty of Amiens were sold in 1825 for $2,500. A wig that had belonged to Sterne was sold at a public auction in London for $1,570. The prayerbook used by Charles I. when on the scaffold was sold in London in 1825 for $525. A waistcoat belonging to J. J. Rousseau was sold for $190, and his metal watch for $150.

ELECTION PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, OFFICE OF SEC. OF STATE.

LANSING, AUG. 26, 1888.

TO THE SHERIFF OF THE COUNTY OF SCHOOLCRAFT.

Sir:—You are hereby notified that at the general election to be held in this State, on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday of November next, the following officers are to be elected, viz: Three electors of President and Vice-President of the United States; a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, State Treasurer and Auditor General, Commissioner of the State Land Office, Attorney General, and Superintendent of Public Instruction; also, a member of the State Board of Education in place of John Jenks, whose term of office will expire December 31, 1888; also, a Representative in Congress for the 11th Congressional District of this state; also, a Representative in the State Legislature for the Representative District comprising the counties of Schoolcraft, Lapeer, Chippewa, Delta, Emmet, Mackinac, and also a Representative in the Legislature for the Representative District comprising the counties of Schoolcraft, Lapeer, Chippewa, Alger, and Mackinac. You are hereby notified that at said election the following proposal amendment to the Constitution of this State will be submitted to the people of this State for their adoption or rejection, viz: An amendment to Section 6 of Article 6, relative to Circuit Courts provided for by Joint Resolution, No. 11, Laws of 1887.

Section 6. The State shall be divided into judicial circuits, in each of which the electors shall elect one circuit judge, who shall hold his office for the term of six years, and until his successor is elected and qualified. The Legislature may provide for the election of more than one circuit judge in the judicial circuit in which the city of Detroit is or may be situated, and in the judicial circuit, the county of St. Clair may be situated. And the circuit judge or judges of said circuit, in addition to the salary provided by this constitution, shall receive from their respective counties such additional salary as may from time to time be fixed and determined by the boards of supervisors of said counties. And the board of supervisors of each county in the Upper Peninsula is hereby authorized and empowered to give and pay to the circuit judges of the judicial circuit in which such county is attached such additional salary or compensation as may from time to time be fixed and determined by such board of supervisors.

You are also hereby notified that at said election there will be submitted to the people of the State for their adoption or rejection a Revision of the laws authorizing the business of banking, provided for by Act 205 of the laws of 1887, in accordance with Section 2 of Article 15 of the constitution of this State.

IN TESTIMONY whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of Michigan, at Lansing, the day and year first above written.

P. B. BOAN, Deputy Sec. of State.

Attest: HENRY McCANNA, Sheriff.

SCHOOLCRAFT COUNTY, OFFICE OF SHERIFF, SCHOOLCRAFT COUNTY, MICH. Aug. 23, 1888.

Notice is hereby given that at the general election, to be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday of November next, there are to be elected the following county officers: One Judge of Probate, one circuit court commissioner, one Sheriff, one County Clerk and Register of Deeds, one County Treasurer, one Prosecuting Attorney, one County Surveyor and two Coroners. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of Michigan, at Lansing, the day and year first above written.

The President has gone fishing again; but he won't use his message for bait unless the worms get into it. Ex-Gov. Lewis has given Higon college $200 on condition that the income shall be given to the student showing the greatest improvement during the year. The Halifax Herald let the cat out of the bags few days ago when it warned the Canadian organs not to express "sympathy" with President Cleveland's ideas, lest they should "embarrass the Democratic party in those States where the real contest lies." There is the whole story of the real issue. President Cleveland caters to every nation except his own. He must be made to learn that an American President should first seek the applause of his fellow citizens.

WHAT AM I TO DO.

The symptoms of Biliousness are in many instances well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for his fluids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is furred at all except at the tip. The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhoea or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often 10 or 12 stools or even less of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Hood's Sarsaparilla, it costs but little and thousands attest its efficacy.

Home Evidence. No other preparation has won success at home equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla. Lowell, Mass., where it is made, it is now, as it has been for years, the leading medicine for purifying the blood, and toning and strengthening the system. "This good medicine at home" is "a tower of strength abroad."

It would require a volume to print all Lowell people have said in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Mr. Albert Ester, living at 25 East Pine Street, Lowell, for 15 years employed as book-keeper by J. W. Bennett, president of the Echo Telephone Company, had a large running sore come on his leg, which troubled him a year, when he began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. The sore soon grew less in size, and in a short time disappeared.

Mr. J. S. Dunphy, 211 Central Street, Lowell, had swellings and lumps on his face and neck, which Hood's Sarsaparilla completely cured.

Mrs. G. W. Marzani, wife of the First Assistant Fire Engineer of Lowell, says that for 10 years she was troubled with stomach disorder and sick headache, which nothing relieved. The attacks came on every fortnight, when she was obliged to take her bed, and was unable to endure any noise.—She took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after a time the attacks ceased entirely.

Many more might be given had we room. On the recommendation of people of Lowell, who know us, we ask you to try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Chancery Sale. In pursuance and in view of an original and supplemental order and decree of the Circuit Court for the County of Schoolcraft, at Lansing in the State of Michigan, made and dated on the 20th day of January, A. D. 1888 and 14th day of July, A. D. 1888 respectively, in a certain cause therein pending wherein Cornelius Schofield is complainant and William H. Lawton is defendant: Notice is hereby given that I shall sell at public auction to the highest bidder at the first floor of the Court House in the Village of Manistique in the County of Schoolcraft and State of Michigan said Court House being the place for holding the "Infallible" Court for and between the 10th day of September, A. D. 1888, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, all or so much thereof as may be necessary to raise the amount due to the said Complainant for principal, interest and costs in this and of the following described mortgages to wit: South East quarter of lot 24 in the 2nd range, West quarter, South West quarter of North West quarter of Section thirty-two all in town 24 North of and range 14 West in said County.

SPECIAL COMMISSIONERS: AT. E. HOOKS, Complainant's Solicitor. Dated August 26, A. D. 1888.

Rewarded are those who read this and then act. They will find immediate relief. They will not find it in any other place. They will find it in this family. The profits are large and are not subject to the usual risks. It is easy to make money and is not a speculation. Who are willing to work. Either sex, young or old, may make money. No special ability required. Reader, have you any? Write an order for full particulars which we will free. Address Jackson & Co., Portland, Maine.

DON'T BE FOOLISH!
 After you get angry and stop your paper, poke your finger in water, pull it out and look for the hole, says an exchange.

A man who thinks a paper cannot survive without his weak support ought to go off by himself and stay a day. When he comes back half his friends will not know he was gone and the other half will not care a cent, and the world at large will not keep any account of his movements.

You will find things you cannot insert in every paper. Even the Bible is plain and his some hard ticks. If you were to get mad and burn your bible the hundreds of presses would go on printing them; and when you stop your paper and call the editor names, the paper will still be published, and what is more you will read it on the next day.

THAT RIZZLE PARTY AGAIN.
 While the Republican party is smashing saloons at the average rate of hundreds every day, the St. Johnites are doing their feeble best to smother the Republican party, but they are only furnishing another reason for their title to the name of "rizzle party." Always profuse in promises, always flinching in performance; they stand as the monumental "fizzle party" of the age.

The one and only thing in all their history in which they have not made a fizzle is in helping the democratic party, and through it the saloons. They did defeat Blaine in 1884 and elected Grover Cleveland, and they have defeated a number of temperance men for State legislatures, and elected in their stead open and avowed friends of the saloon, through whose votes wholesome and practical prohibitory laws have been defeated. As assistant democrats and aids to the saloon power, they have been a great success. We believe in giving the devil his due.

But now with the past record of this party in view how many sincere and honest temperance Republicans can be induced into throwing away their votes on its candidates this year, and thus aiding in the election of Grover Cleveland over Gen. Harrison—a practical temperance man always and under all circumstances?—N. Y. "Mail and Express."

Jones had married the prettiest woman in town and Brown had married the homeliest and thought she was beautiful. One evening they were talking about their respective better halves and Brown remarked: "I say, Jones I think you and I married the two prettiest women in town." Jones looked at him in surprise and a moment he was that he was serious. "Well," he replied cautiously and with pride, "I guess you are about half right, old fellow." Brown didn't see the point until he told his wife.

One of the leading brewers of Detroit, formerly a Republican; but now supporting the Democratic party, on account of the Brewers' Union having so resolved, says the only hope of the Brewers' Union and Liquor Dealers' association is that the prohibitionists may poll as heavy a vote in Michigan as they claim and thus elect a Democratic legislature, defeating all further temperance legislation. We would think that conscientious temperance men would be happy to think they were doing the work most desired by the brewers and liquor dealers of the state. They know they cannot elect a candidate of the prohibition party. The only thing they can hope for is the defeat of the Republican candidates for the legislature and if they succeed in this they ensure in behalf of the liquor interests the prevention of any further legislation in behalf of temperance.—Chebezyan "Tribune."

A Good Appetite
 Is essential to good health; but at this season it is often lost, owing to the poverty or impurity of the blood, derangement of the digestive organs, and the weakening affect of the changing seasons. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a wonderful medicine for creating an appetite, toning the digestion, and giving strength to the whole system. Now is the time to take it. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Her looks and actions are those of a woman without a friend in the world, a But for her children to look after, life would appear to her as a burden. She dresses in deep black. She goes to a hotel for her meals and takes short walks. She will probably remain at Nonquit until late in the fall.

The universal popularity among horse men, of Cole's Veterinary Carbolic, and the rapidly increasing demand for it is the best possible evidence of its superiority. For the cure of cuts, galls, sores and diseases of the feet of horses and cattle, it has no equal, and is of inestimable value to horsemen, stockmen and farmers. D. Hammel & Co., extensive stock dealers, of Appleton, Wis., say: "We have used Cole's Veterinary Carbolic on bad cuts and bruises on horses, caused by shipping over the different railroads, also for scratches and old sores, and find it by far the best thing that we ever used." Pound cans $1.00; small cans, 50 cents.

The extension of Europe throughout America is strikingly illustrated by the fact that at Chicago 35,000 American Swedes are erecting a monument, for which they have already raised $50,000, to the memory of Linneus, the great master, and very largely European originator, of botanical science, whose distinction in this field of research conferred immortal renown on Sweden—a grandly merited recognition which Sweden in America is preparing to erect at Chicago.

Merit Wins.
 We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every thing, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their popularity purely on their merits. E. N. Orr Druggist.

It is plainly noticeable that there is much more joy among the Democrats over Grover's signature on a $10,000 check for campaign purposes than among the G. A.
