REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

For Governor.

CYRUS G. LITTLE, of Branch.

JAMES H. MACDONALD, Secretary of State.

GILBERT H. DENNIS, of Wayne, State Treasurer.

GEO. L. MALLOY, of Alpena, Auditor-General.

HENRY W. AYLER, of Bay, Commissioner of the Land Office.

RUSSELL DIX, of Berrien, Commissioner of the Land Office.

Attorney-General.

STEPHEN A. B. FROTHINGHAM, of Ionia, Superintendent of Public Instruction.

JOSEPH ESTABROOK, of Eaton, Member of State Board of Education.

FERRY E. POWERS, of Westford, Member of State Board of Education.

Gen. Harrison is growing in strength and popularity every day. His admirable conduct and eloquent speeches to visiting delegates have won the hearts of the people and disarmed the opposition of their most venomous. There are no vulnerable points in his record. He is clear as his able and patriotic, and his slanderous assailants have been foiled at every point. The Republicans made no mistake when they nominated Gen. Harrison to lead their party to victory. He's leading it right there—"Pellene."

New York, Sept. 5.—Gen. Alger was among the latest callers at the republican headquarters. He is credited with having left a check for $100,000 with Mr. Quay several weeks ago. A confident smile played about the face of Michigan's millionaire statesman.

"I think we have got 'em this time," he said. "I wasn't quite sure at first, but I am certain now that Cleveland is a beaten candidate today. He will stay so unless something unforeseen happens to change the situation. We are gaining ground every day. I don't believe the democrats will carry a single northern state. Thurman's trip to Michigan has not made the state doubtful. If anything, he strengthened the republicans by his frank avowals of free trade. We expect to have a tie in Michigan four days in October. We will give him a warm reception. While the republican position is very strong, it will not do to underestimate the strength of the enemy."

MOBALS AND POLITICS.

When it was definitely known that the New York Republican state convention would endorse the high license system, so bitterly opposed by the liquor interests of that state, Prof. Dickie, chairman of the National Prohibition committee is reported in a New York paper to have said: "Good! that is just what we want them to do. It will array the liquor vote solidly against the Republicans and they will get nothing from our party."

This was the exultant remark of the leader of the political organization of the country which claims to represent all that is moral and pure in National politics. A few thoughts on this point may be worth considering.

1. Prof. Dickie's first thought, as indicated in his remark, was: "How will it strike the liquor interests?" The answer came like a flash: "It will array the liquor vote solidly against the Republicans."

2. Why good? Because the liquor vote would go solidly to the Democrat ticket and thereby materially improve Democracy's chances for success. To be sure of this, Prof. Dickie was quick to add that the Republicans would get no help from the third party.

3. This being the case, what do we find? Well, we find in the first place that Mr. Dickie has unconsciously confessed that the republican party of New York state is in favor of temperance, law and order, and that the Democrat party is opposed to temperance, law and order.

This, then, according to Prof. Dickie, is the situation, and as commander-in-chief of another party, which professes to be in favor of temperance, law and order, he openly and boldly declares that he wants to see the Republican party defeated and the Democrat ticket elected.

Is it any wonder that political Prohibitionists here and there are dropping out of the third party's ranks because they have become convinced that the third party is merely and only an auxiliary to the Democrat party? Is it not a wonder that every honest Prohibitionist does not desert its ranks for the same reason? Detroit "Tribune"

"WHO FAVORS FREE TRADE.

1. The Democratic party, as controlled and manipulated by the South.
2. The British manufacturers, and every foreign dealer in articles competing with American products.
3. Every enemy of the American Republic, who desires to stop the wheels of its industrial prosperity.
4. Practically all of those who committed the nation to incur an indebtedness of $2,400,000,000, and who now are to be accounted the only true economists in her councils and the real guardians of our National honor.

The Mills bill passed the House of Representatives were bred to the economic of slavery, and believe, as one of them declared during the debate, that "the cheapest labor is the best labor for the country."

6. Two-thirds of the support the bill received came from states which contain only one-eighth of the manufactures of the country, pay less than one-eighth of the aggregate mechanical wages and produce but one-seventh of the manufactured products.

7. Two-thirds of its support comes from a region whose ideas of public policy are based on the economics of slavery as a corner-stone, and who deem a "manageable labor," of all things most desirable.

8. In the sixteen States where seven-eighths out of every one hundred of the white voters cannot read their ballots, and the black voter is not allowed a vote in the government, there were only sixteen votes against the Mills bill—Ex.

In a speech at Cleveland, October 11, 1879, Gen. Garfield, the "Martyred President," described the proceedings of Congress on the Rice bill to pension Mexican veterans. The bill as drawn did not except Jefferson Davis. When the bill reached the Senate, a Democrat moved amendment to restore the provision that would pension Jeff. Davis, whereupon Senator Hoar moved an amendment to the amendment that is should not be so construed as to admit Jeff. Davis.

"Then," said Gen. Garfield, "what for [said]? Immediately there sprang to his feet our Ohio senator. I blush for my State when I report it. Allen G. Thurman rose to his feet and said: "The Democratic legislature of Ohio has instructed me to vote to pension the soldiers of the Mexican War, and they did not instruct me to make an exception against Jefferson Davis, and therefore I vote against the amendment." Mr. Thurman therefore voted knowingly, purposely, openly to pension Jeff. Davis. Every Northern Democrat should remember this before he casts a vote for Cleveland and Thurman.—Lansing "Republican."

CLEVELAND BELOW PAR IN THE WEST.

James Dodge, of Brooklyn, who, it is said, was sent West by Mr. Bice, of the Democratic National Campaign Committee, to learn the exact state of feeling on the tariff question, has returned to New York. He says:

"In the five weeks I have been away I have traveled through Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, and Michigan, and I am very sorry I shall have to make a rather discouraging report to the committee, if they want to know the facts. Ohio will surely be Republican, Indiana, I think, will give Harrison a reasonable majority; people there are enthusiastic over him. I do believe that there are places in Indiana where it is dangerous to mention Cleveland's name but, of course, there is much enthusiasm for him in the large cities. It will be a close thing in Indiana, but I think they are getting the best of us. Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan are, I am afraid, pretty certain to go for Harrison. I have been through the mills and factories and other places, where I learned that men who were for Cleveland four years ago were now for Harrison, and their attachment for him, seems to be pretty strong."

THE "VOICE" TEMPERANCE QUESTIONS.

A Chicago Firm Answers the Prohibition Organ's Circular.

The following circular was sent out by the "Voice," the leading Prohibition organ, to many of the prominent merchants of the country:

- 1. Do you allow the use of intoxicating liquors in your establishment among your employes? If not, why not?
2. Is it not true that the interests of the employer are often jeopardized and the efficiency of the employe and his chances for promotion crippled by the drunkenness of the latter?
3. Is it not true that in many cases the individual poverty of the workman can be traced directly to the saloons?
4. Is it not also true that to this day the products of labor are not paid, to a greater or less extent, our frequent periods of stagnation in business?
5. How far can you endorse the position of Mr. W. B. Marvin, in the recent interview, when he says: "The addition of the dram-shops would be the greatest blessing both to the laboring man and to their employers?"

One of these circulars was directed to A. H. Andrews & Co., who replied as follows:

- 1. We do not pretend to control the consciences of our men, but we do control our factories, and, hence, do not permit the use of intoxicating liquors while men are on duty if we know it.
2. No doubt of it.
3. Most assuredly.
4. Yes; but many other causes have retarded results.
5. We endorse Mr. Marvin's statement thoroughly, but we do not agree with the Voice in the particular way of attaining such a high standard. The prohibition party is made up of two classes of people: Politicians who use it for selfish ends and some sentimental cankers whose zeal is not according to knowledge. It does not follow because we favor temperance we are in favor of the prohibition party. They are the real friends and allies of the saloon trade. They do not follow the wisdom of the great minds the world has seen, is using the best means within their control for doing away with a practical evil.

We suppose that the object of this fifth question is to pronounce the manufacturers in favor of the prohibition party. We will venture the statement that there is not a sensible man doing business of any magnitude that favors that party. It is a blind leader of the blind, and deserves to be frowned upon by the most intelligent citizens of the day. It is wrong in theory and vicious in practice.

A. H. ANDREWS & Co., THE ORIGIN OF "O. K."

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat has just started the foolish story that the calligraphic sign, "O. K.," had its origin in a misapprehension of President Jackson, of whom it says that he was in the habit of marking papers in that manner that had been passed upon and approved. It intimates that he meant by that they were "all correct." Another paper, a Kentucky journal, traces the use of the expression back to the famous Whig campaign of 1840, and it is not unlikely that it was used then, but its real origin goes back yet further to the days when Old Kookab, the only and original "O. K." used to affix the initial letters of his name to government treaties at the time when Black Hawk, his formidable rival, was kicking over the traces and trying to create a must by seeking to nullify everything that he did. The "O. K." was too much, however, for Black Hawk, and even in that early day it quickly came to mean literally what it is accepted as meaning to-day—that it was proper and in good form. We believe that the best authorities are agreed that this was the true origin of the term.—Burlington (Iowa) "Post."

Commenting upon Maj. McKinley's masterful speech lately delivered before the Georgia Chautauque, the Atlanta Constitution—a political opponent—says:

"But one thing is certain: Every man there, whether a protectionist or an advocate of a revenue tariff, left with the firm conviction that he had heard the grandest argument for protection ever made."

The Democratic treasurer of the United States, the man who keeps the money, says there is no surplus. Mr. Thurman says there is a surplus of $10,000,000. The treasurer's opportunity for knowing the facts must be admitted to be better than Mr. Thurman's.

EX-SENATOR MILLER TO FARMERS.

Senator Miller, in the course of his address at Angelica recently, said:

The President argues in his Free-Trade message that the farmers are injured by the tariff system. If it is an injury, then away with it, for agriculture is the foundation of our prosperity. The President tells you that the duty on foreign goods is added to the price of the domestic on the foreign articles and therefore it is a robbery of the consumer. How much of your products do you think are consumed here at home? Over 92 per cent. When we had no Protective Tariff we had no such home market. Now we send to Europe a paltry 6 or 8 per cent. of our products. We raise in this country 1,000,000,000 pounds of butter yearly, and of that only a paltry 25,000,000 pounds go to Europe. The home market has consumed it all. Compare the price of butter now and in 1873, before the Protective Tariff system was adopted. Butter was sold for 12 cents a pound. Now you get 20 and 25 cents a pound. Then the Democrats say that the price of agricultural implements will be lower. Why, we make agricultural implements so low in price now that we are selling them in England and all over Europe. You get 100 per cent. more for your farm products than you did in 1873, and the price of manufactured products are 50 per cent. less than they were then. Why Democrats should have put word on the free list I am puzzled to understand. The President says that the high tariff does not benefit the working classes, that they have to pay a tax on everything they buy but, which loses them the advantage of their own high wages. The Protective Tariff has led to an improvement of the breed of sheep and of the quality of wool. Our nation is as good as that of England. Break down the tariff and you will destroy the three grades of sheep. How much wool goes into a suit of clothes? In a heavy suit not over 7 pounds, worth $1.40. Now, therefore, your suit would cost you that much more, but if you have 50 sheep your loss by the abolition of the duty on wool would be $20. Therefore, to save $1.40, you would lose $20. I can't see the profit of that. (Applause and laughter.) Moreover, everything we consume on the table, with the exception of sugar, is cheaper than in Europe. Our laboring men have meat twice a day. The laboring man in Europe who should have meat twice a day would think himself an aristocrat.

Money is needed in a political campaign and has its legitimate uses, but when it is asserted that the president has given the democratic committee $10,000, that the postmaster-general has contributed $10,000, the secretary of the interior $10,000, the secretary of the navy $25,000 and the department of state is expected to contribute liberally, there ought to be some authority for a prompt denial of the statement, which appears in the New World, a supporter of the administration. Such contributions publicly made are not creditable. They tend to lower the tone of parties, and carry the idea of purchase and sale. The president ought to be the free choice of the people, and not one whom the people have been persuaded to elect by the use of money contributed by himself and his cabinet. It does not follow that the money is to be improperly used, or that party nominees and their friends and associates may not properly contribute to the election expenses of their party. It is the apparent bold publicity of the contributions which is objectionable, because it blunts the edge of the fine public conscience which should prevail and gives occasion for scandal.—Bay City "Press."

President pro tem. Ingalls uses the old-fashioned time glass to measure the five-minute speeches of the senators. When the minute speeches of the senators are finished, the glass is inverted, and when the sand has all run out he is stopped promptly. The other day a senator who short denoured when the president pro tem. told him his time was up. The chair is guided entirely by this glass," said Ingalls firmly, holding up the twin bulbs with the sand all in the lower one. As the president pro tempore is almost as absolute as a base ball umpire, nothing more was said. As Ingalls remarked afterward to another Western senator, "it takes sand to run the senate."—Philadelphia "Record."

A Democratic newspaper says that 200,000 laboring men in the United States are unemployed, and charges it to the protection tariff. The Chicago Journal suggests it is to be noticed, however, that they do not emigrate to England or Ireland, where they get "cheap clothing and carpets," for the purpose of finding employment.

Charles Ford, Pastor. Political news from New York and Indiana is quite discouraging to Democrats.

Mrs. Trumble has sold out the Frankfort "Express" to Mr. E. A. Whitney.

Arkansas gives 25,000 to 30,000 majority for Eagle, the Democratic candidate for Governor.

Miss Manie Abbott, of Lansing, has received the appointment of librarian at the agricultural college.

Two Chinamen tried to start a laundry in East Helena, Mont., but were ordered out of town by citizens.

The propeller Oswego has beaten all previous records. Buffalo to Chicago in 61 hours and 7 minutes.

Allert Loefler, a one-armed veteran, took a ryebrandy in Duquenois. He was 99 years old, with a wife and 10 children.

S. C. Hall, the Muskegon lumberman, who was recently killed a Minneapolis, carried $45,000 worth of life insurance.

A Chinaman sued the Australian government for damages for not being allowed to land at Melbourne, and won his case.

Three negroes were lynched at Raleigh, N. C. one for burglary and two for murder. The mob contained both negroes and whites.

Congressman Stephenson, of the Eighth Wisconsin, guarantees a heavy majority for Hoard and the Presidential ticket in that state.

Many Republicans will make the Democratic party tremble next week. They will drive another nail in the coffin of free trade.

Vermont this year gives the largest Republican majority it has ever given to a Republican candidate for governor. How are you, free trader?

The epidemic which has prevailed in Presque Isle county for the past six weeks is not cholera, as has been reported, but epidemic typhus or Rocky Mountain fever.

Several Hebrews have been arrested in New York for working on Sunday. The defense was that they observed Saturday, and were therefore entitled to work on the Sabbath.

Rousing Republican meetings are being held in all the towns on the lower peninsula. It is about time for men of that party in this part of the world to wake up.

There is a small revolution on the Philippine Islands, the Indians refusing to pay the taxes levied by the Spanish government. A number of the rebels have been killed.

Four persons in prison at last report—three "d'ers" and one light fingered chap. The village prisoners should be compelled to work on the streets or public square.

E. A. Gardner, Chicago opium crook, has turned over to the government 120 pounds of the smuggled drug. This accounts for the entire amount stolen from the Ogdenburg custom house.

It has been decided in England that the German doctors pitched into Mackenzie because they were jealous of him. The fact that the Emperor preferred him was an awful coil out on the home fraternity.

Anarchists in Cleveland attempted to burn the red flag above the American colors in the labor day celebration, when the workmen protested. Several anarchists were roughly handled in the riot which ensued.

Poor Judd: He made the boys in the Chicago postoffice "poney up" in good style for the benefit of the Democratic campaign fund, but a Republican paper caught him at it. This thing or being found out is unparadiseable. It is pretty certain that Judd will have to go. He is too much of a blunderer.

The steamboat Handy Boy, 136 tons, was burned at Huron, O., to the water's edge. Owned by the Kelly Island company; built in 1882; valuation, $10,000.

Bolva Lockwood, the candidate for president on the Woman Suffrage ticket has been honored at Lockport, N. Y., her former home. They raised a pole to her benefit, the only one of its kind.

The stampede has set in from free trade democracy to the great party that favors "protection to American industry and American homes." The Republican party is daily growing stronger.

It may be taken for granted that the President has not acted without previously consulting the leaders of the Democratic party and securing their approval. He and they have taken up the old free trade policy of South Carolina politicians, unconnected with what in the jargon of American politics was called the sectional question.—London "Saturday Review."

Reason, Senator from Texas, made an exhibition of himself last week by making a pro-slavery speech; defending that species of barbarism as a "divine institution." If that is Democratic belief to-day, and to a certain extent it is, then the party that preaches it should at once have the power taken from them—an event that is sure to take place in 10th year.

IRELAND AND FREE TRADE.

In 1782, when Ireland won a parliament of its own, one of the first steps that body took was to pass resolutions declaring the prosperity of the manufacturer the support of the landed estates, saying that their manufactures were in the greatest poverty, "caused by the great English importations," and appointing a committee to frame a protective tariff, which was adopted and stood till the union in 1800.

The Union Act, by which England had the power to destroy it, was opposed in the Irish parliament in 1793, but carried at last against "the resistance of the whole unbigotted intelligence of Ireland," as Mr. Lecky says: Then came closed factories, still more restricted machinery, poor teaching, failure and a decrease of millions in the population. Thus British free trade cursed Ireland.

The London "Times" contemptuously says: "An Irishman is useful to England only when he migrates to the United States and votes for free trade," which is voting the Democratic ticket from Cleveland down. How can any Irishman vote that ticket?

Denver, Col., Sept. 4.—The rumors as to the war between the Utes and Plutes have been confirmed by the receipt of a letter by Governor Adams, from Natasha, stating that the mail carriers had been informed by an Indian that the Utes had fought and beaten the Plutes. The letter says that from the messenger information obtained it is probable that 100 Indians were killed. The band of Utes engaged in the battle was probably that led by "Manco Jim," who is a notorious desperado. They are a band of renegades who have never been attached to any agency, and have had their retreat in the wildest portion of the Lassa mountains.

Edinent Doctors, say WAINMAN'S WHITE, YANK. O.E. TAR will never be equalled as a Cough Medicine in use. For Sale By E. N. Orr.

An Iowa judge has decided that under the Iowa prohibitory law the grand jury may indict a farmer for making cider for his family. There are a great many chances for people to make fools of themselves, but the grand jurors of Iowa seem to have a golden opportunity.

The Agricultural College will make an exhibit at the state fair this year that will eclipse that of all former years. A special feature of the exhibit will be a display from the experimental station at Grayling.

President Cleveland may say to others, and think what he chooses, but he has precipitated the inevitable struggle between free trade and protection in the United States, and that is tantamount to saying that he is on the side of free trade.—Glasgow "Herald."

GEN. SHERIDAN'S MEMOIRS. The preface to Gen. Sheridan's memoirs has been made public, and is as follows: "When, yielding to the solicitation of my friends, I finally decided to write these memoirs, the greatest difficulty which confronted me was that of recounting my share in the many notable events of the last three decades in which I played a part, without entering too fully into the history of these years, and at the same time without giving to my own acts an unmerited prominence. To what extent I have overcome the difficulty I must leave the reader to judge."

"In offering this record, penned by my own hand, of the events of my life, and of my participation in our great struggle for national existence, I make no pretension to literary merit; the importance of the subject imperit of my narrative is my only claim on the readers' attention. "Respectfully dedicating this work to my comrades in arms during the war of the rebellion, I leave it as a heritage to my children and a source of information for the future historian."

"PIR. H. SHERIDAN. "Nonquitt, Mass., Aug. 2, 1888." Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell so well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their popularity purely on their merits. E. N. Orr Druggist.
