LOCAL AND GENERAL ITEMS.

Merit is the measure of success. Geo. Moebis & Co.'s Cigars sell by the million.

The Democratic party has many strong friends, but they cannot vote in this country—they are residents of Great Britain.

Dental Rooms.

Dr. A. H. Johnston has his rooms over Fydel & McCullough store in readiness for business, and will be pleased to see any one wishing dental work done. Gas administered for the extraction of teeth.

Alger county Republicans meet tomorrow to select delegates to attend the state, congressional, senatorial and district conventions.

Wanted.

A good sausage maker, by Orr, Brothers & Co. To the right kind of a man good wages will be paid and steady work guaranteed.

Will those Democrats that were so loud-mouthed in saying that it was useless to believe that Cleveland would be the nominee, now make a move to lay that subject on the table?

Millions smoked annually—Geo. Moebis & Co.'s great Cigars. THEY ARE MADE ON HONOR.

The great and decisive reason for the nomination of Whitelaw Reid was that, as minister to France, he worked successfully to open new markets for American grain and pork, and thus made himself a peculiarly good representative of the doctrine of reciprocity.

Lovers of fine Cigars should ask for Geo. Moebis & Co.'s Ben-Hur (10c. or 3 for 25c.); or Record Breakers, their great 5c. Cigar.

Vessels are losing time at Chicago now on account of high water, causing trouble about the docks where they were to unload their cargoes. The highest water there has been known, and many of the docks cellars are flooded.

THE HANDSOMEST LADY in Manistique remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs was a superior remedy, as it stopped her cough instantly when other cough remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merit any druggist will give you a sample bottle free. Large size 50 cents and 1.00.

Rev. T. J. Joslin, of Ishpeming, carelessly let his grip in a car seat when he left a train at Petoskey. As he had foolishly let his pocketbook containing $300 in the grip he bewails the fact that there are not more honest men in the world.

Ask your dealer for Ben-Hur or Record Breaker Cigars. They are the best on earth.

Gov. McKinley remarked at Indianapolis that all the principles of the first Republican national platform are now incorporated in the laws of the land. And no party dares come forward and demand the repeal of any one of them.

SOME FOOLISH PEOPLE allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in many cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. 50 cents and $1. Trial size free. At all druggists.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The Herald's Washington correspondent says: Mr. Chanancy M. Depew declines to accept the portfolio of the state department. This information was communicated to me by a member of the cabinet who has been personally interested in Mr. Depew. The reason given by Depew for declining the place is that he would have to make too great a financial sacrifice. He also believes that he can serve the Republican party better as a private citizen than as secretary of state.

LOCAL GLEANINGS

Mrs. S. W. Brown reported quite sick.

Mr. Akey left yesterday for Bay City.

The public buildings need repainting badly.

Attend every party caucus when called.

Capt. B. D. Winegar, of Escanaba, is in town.

Hang out the Stars and Stripes next Monday.

Dress makers report a crowd of work on hand.

Second hand tricycles will soon be on the market.

A. Weston, arrived yesterday morning on the Buell.

Cedar business will boom this fall and next winter.

Anderson, the upholsterer, is kept busy all the time.

Outdoor work was pretty well suspended yesterday.

The crib has been set for the extension of the east pier.

There is a slight change in the time card of the Soo Line.

Miller Rose is having an addition built to his residence.

Our public schools close next Friday for the summer vacation.

The wet weather has kept down forest fires so far this season.

A party of picnickers report a grand time at Indian Lake Sunday.

Musical entertainment to-morrow evening at the Presbyterian church.

Several refreshment stands will front on Cedar street next Monday.

Several have asked if we charge for obituary poetry? That is a universal rule.

The Republican party never had a stronger platform than in this year of grace.

James Mathews went to Gladstone yesterday to help his father on a job painting.

Several went from here Saturday night to attend the ice-cream social at Thompson.

H. V. Pierce, of Corinne, was a caller yesterday. He reports matters quiet in that locality.

Both bands here have received new silk hats for the 4th and their music will be excellent.

Mrs. Owen will entertain the Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church Wednesday afternoon.

A great many Scandinavians spent Sunday at Klagstad's grove, and report a grand time.

Regular meeting of the Maccabees this evening. All Sir Knights are expected to be present.

Wm. H. Davies, of Ottawa, Ont. arrived Monday afternoon to visit with his sister Mrs. S. Mix.

What the child receives free, what the young man gets, and what the old man buys—a kiss.

The rain of yesterday causes the mill men to smile as it will increase the speed of the saws.

It will depend largely on the Democratic platform whether there is more than one great issue this fall.

Mrs. Moody, mother of Geo. K., arrived from the state of New York on the Buell, yesterday morning.

The street work now going on in Lakeside is increasing rapidly the value of property in that locality.

Come from far and near next Monday and enjoy the fun—that will be spread out all over Manistique.

Mrs. Miller returned on the Buell from her visit to her former home in the State of New York.

Yesterday it was cold enough for autumn and wet enough to start a flood. A good time to reduce stock in rubber goods.

The boat advertised to cross Indian Lake Sunday did not do it; the managers postponing the excursion until Thursday.

Joseph Ruby, of Columbia, Pa., suffered from birth with scrofula humor, till he was perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The mill at Thompson is said to give good satisfaction since the new engine was put in. Well, if it beats the old one it is a daisy.

Geo. Nicholson, Jr., arrived home Saturday morning from his trip west as far as South Dakota. He reports growing crops as looking fine.

Miss Riggs is at her desk again in the C. L. Co. office, after a very pleasant visit with friends on the lower peninsula. She was a passenger on the Buell.

Strawberry vines look encouraging; in a short time there will be plenty in the market that will beat any that have been brought from a distance this season.

Dr. Duba has not yet secured a room in which to open an office; but hopes to soon. He can, however, be found for the present at the Commercial House.

Thousands of dollars have been paid out this year by our livery men for new carriages. Our farmers too have been considerably enterprising in that direction.

A picnic held in the grove near Klagstad's country residence called out of town a very large number of our Scandinavian friends. They went early and remained late in the afternoon.

If you want to be a delegate to any convention say so in time; don't wait for the party to force you to go. Nothing out of the way in asking the privilege, since you will have to pay your own expenses.

The Buell and barges were at the dock here early yesterday morning. She had on quite a cargo of western freight and she crossed to the westside dock where she could unload right from the boat into the cars.

President Rodgers failed to make railroad connections consequently there was no preaching services at the Presbyterian church last Sunday. It is hoped that that church will soon have a pastor of its own and not have to depend on volunteer work.

Veteran soldiers should remember that both Harrison and Reid were with the Boys in Blue at the front; while Cleveland and Stevenson saw the battles from afar—both at home practicing law. The first named, however, to avoid a draft, sent a substitute.

Our old friend, Captain E. A. Bouchard being at Thompson Saturday with his tug after a raft of logs, drove over in the afternoon and called upon a few of his many friends here. He is the same old jolly sailor that he was when Manistique was an infant. We enjoyed his call very much.

The Lake Superior Grand Lodge of Good Templars meets at Gladstone on the 12th of July. It will be continued until Wednesday evening and will close after a public meeting. Delegates and visitors from here will reach there in time for the evening session Tuesday by taking the 3 o'clock train; and be present for the general work and election of officers the next day. All members of the order here that can attend will please hand us their names between now and next Saturday evening, as the committee on entertainment at Gladstone have requested us to furnish them the list.

Special Matter.

The next issue of the paper will be on Friday; we having dropped the Thursday's edition. After this it will be eight pages twice a week, and an extra whenever advertising crowds us to it.

Miss Ballart, the teacher of music here, assisted by her pupils will give a Piano Recital in the parlors of the Presbyterian church to-morrow evening. All lovers of good music should be present.

Bowery Dance.

Another dance at the Lakeside Hall on Friday night of this week. Good music and order. All invited.

Public Meeting.

Under the auspices of DuBois Tent No. 226 Knights of the Maccabees, at the Star Opera House on Friday evening July 1st. Address by Hon. Rowland Connor, Past Grand Commander. Everybody cordially invited.

S. of V.

There will be a meeting at the Hall next Wednesday evening, and it is expected that every member of Camp No. 202 will be present.

At 8:30 a. m. July 4th every member of the Camp is notified to be at the hall, there to form and take part in the parade.

G. A. R.—Attention.

Headquarters of Gen. F. Fuller No. 257, Department of Mich.

Comrades you are respectfully requested to meet at S. of V. hall Monday, July 4th, 1892, at 8:30 a. m. to take part in the grand parade of that day, also, all soldiers and sailors are especially invited to join us in the parade.

By order of

D. P. KIMBALL, Com.

4th of July Dinner.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church intend to serve a first class dinner—for a very moderate price—on July 4th. The tent will be located on the southwest corner of the Central School grounds at the corner of Cedar and Main streets. They also expect to serve—no extra—ice-cream and S'rasberries. We respectfully solicit a share of the public patronage.

SECV.

Read the call for the Republican County Convention, published elsewhere in this paper. Let us send the right kind of men to represent us in the several conventions.

Was he Drunk?

Sunday night some person had a Thompson horse and carriage up here and Monday morning the horse was found in the hollow near Mr. Crittenden's residence, and near by a hat. Where and who could possibly be the man? Mr. C. took the horse put it in a barn and fed it. There was nothing broke about the carriage nor anything lost, except the driver. There is a shade of mystery about this affair that needs unraveling.

This is the last week in which to work in order to make next Monday's celebration a grand success. Wagons to be used in the Calithumpian parade must be secured and decorated for the occasion; paper suits should be secured; the boys need a little practice, etc. The various committees will have all the business they can attend to. Let the village put on a holiday dress Monday morning and everybody wear a smiling face throughout our great anniversary day.

On Saturday afternoon several members of the G. A. R. Post responded to the invitation of Comrade E. W. Brown, on Lakeside, and assisted him in raising a handsome flag-pole, standing 62 feet high from the sidewalk. From that staff will wave the banner of Protection on which will be the names of Harrison & Reid. When the pole was up and secure Mrs. B. invited all into the house to partake of refreshments. Only a corporal's guard present, but they did the work of a whole company at the table. Next.

Unquestioned Manhood and Integrity.
Harrison's manhood, his integrity and his patriotism are unquestioned. He will receive the support of his fellow countrymen, even, or fail to receive it, just in proportion as they may approve or disapprove of his policy in dealing with the more important issues which are now pressing upon the people for solution.—Pittsburg Commercial-Gazette.

And, Like Morton, Will Be Elected.
The French mission is becoming a stepping stone. Hon. Levi P. Morton returned from Paris to find himself nominated for vice president, and now Hon. Winchell Reid is placed second on the Republican national ticket a few weeks after his return from a brilliant service at the same post.—Philadelphia Ledger.

"An Irresistible Unity."
A short time ago there was a Elaine faction and a Harrison faction and a McKinley faction, but they have disappeared, and in their place there stands the united, loyal, harmonious Republican party. The best of convention discussion has fused all elements in a solid, aggressive, irresistible unity.—New York Press.

A Merited Reward.
Whitelaw Reid, who has conducted The Tribune since the death of Horace Greeley, is a man of marked ability and a staunch Republican; his services as minister to France have been conspicuous and valuable, and his nomination to the vice presidency is a merited reward for the services he has rendered.—Brooklyn Times.

The Consistent Republican Party.
The nomination fits in with the last plank of the platform, commending the brilliant and patriotic administration. The logical sequel to the adoption of that plank was the renomination of President Harrison. The Republican party is always consistent. Its practice squares with its principles.—New York Tribune.

The Work of Deliberate Judgment.
His (Harrison's) nomination was made by a clear and decisive majority, not as a result of impulsive enthusiasm, but of the deliberate judgment of the party expressed through its loyal representatives. There will be no question of the party's enthusiastic ratification of this judgment.—Detroit Tribune.

A High Tribute.
The victory may properly be classed with the great events in our political history. It was achieved under circumstances of unprecedented complications, and is a triumph that pays the highest tribute to the character and services of the successful contestant.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Good Thing for the Party.
This nomination is undoubtedly a good thing for the Republican party. Moreover, Mr. Harrison is the legitimate and logical candidate. He matches the principles and the platform of the party which has placed him in nomination for a second term.—Boston Post (Mich.).

Just the Same.
Harrison is the leader, and every true Republican will rally to his standard with the same determination that would have been shown if Mr. Blaine had been the standard bearer.—Chicago Tribune.

They Will Re-elect Him.
Now, opposition, open up your guns on Benjamin Harrison. What's the matter with him? Why should not the people re-elect him?—New York Mail and Express.

A People's Ticket.
It is a people's ticket and the people will elect it. It marches to the music of the Union and its destination is the White House.—New York Press.

McKinley's Handsome Vote.
Governor McKinley got a handsome vote, but he will keep it. It is not well to exhaust all the presidential timber in one year.—New York Tribune.

That General Was Absent.
General Humidity was the cause of some complaint during the convention, but nothing was seen of General Apathy.—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Square Party.
The Republican party is as solid as a cube. Every side of it squares with patriotism and American interests.—New York Tribune.

A Winning Sound.
Harrison and Reid—it has a winning sound! One can hear it rumbling down the corridors of time!—New York Mail and Express.

The People's Wishes Reflected.
Harrison's renomination reflects the people's wishes and meets with the approval of the country.—Helena (Mon.) Journal.

A Splendid Victory in Sight.
The renomination of President Harrison means a splendid victory for the Republican party next November.—Omaha Bee.

A Gratifying Result.
The result is gratifying from a standpoint of high patriotic sentiment.—Chicago News-Record (Ind.).

A Strong Candidate.
Harrison is a strong candidate—of that let all in interest take timely notice.—Philadelphia Times.

Practically Elected Already.
What's the matter with Harrison? He's practically elected!—New York Mail and Express.

A Plain Fact.
Harrison's strength is in the plain people.—Utica Herald.

French Army Bicyclists.
The French war office has just issued regulations for the employment of bicyclists in the army. The present organization provides for the enrolling of between 6,000 and 7,000 "wheelmen" in case of war. They are, curiously enough, provided with a double armament; for, according to the regulations, they are to carry a cavalry carbine and thirty-six cartridges on the machine and a revolver and eighteen cartridges in their belts. Their chief use is to be that of messengers, and old-fashioned grumblers say that the first result of a general having a crowd of cyclists hanging about his headquarters will be that he will send far too many directions to his subordinates.—Vanity Fair.

Driving with One Hand.
"When you were riding with your lady friend were you driving with one hand or two?"
This query was abruptly put to J. S. Chaddock in court at Lyons, N. Y. He was suing George Sullivan for damages. Chaddock was out riding in Wolcott lately with a lady, and Sullivan, who was racing on the road, ran into Chaddock's horse, killing it.

Chaddock's lawyer asked when the defendant's lawyer asked the question, and softly answered that he was driving with one hand.—Cor. Philadelphia Record.

Wild Geese Brought Luck to Him.
Jacob Fegley, living along the Parkmen creek, gathered enough feathers to make four good sized feather beds after a flock of about 500 wild geese had spent the night in a swamp on his place on their way north.—Cor. Philadelphia Press.

At Gateshead, England, last year, some people rushing from a theater on an alarm of fire knocked over the check taker on the staircase. Others stumbled over him, and in a few moments the lives of ten persons were sacrificed.

A twenty-four page list of all the works on electricity (not including the telegraph and telephone) contained in the Boston public library has just been issued. It contains nearly 1,000 titles.
If you wish to see it, write to GEORGE BOWEN & Co., No. 10, Spruce St., New York.

Swords Used in the English Army.
The latest illustration of the changes constantly occurring in the conditions of modern warfare is an order just issued from the British War Office substituting swords of a new pattern for the weapons which have been carried by officers since the days of the Iron Age. While there is nothing of close quarters, the blade of the old sword was sharpened throughout the whole length of the edge and on the back for some seven or eight inches from the point, the idea being to make it available for cutting as well as thrusting. In order to increase its strength it was also slightly curved and was a formidable weapon, though somewhat light in comparison with the more massive service swords of Continental infantry officers.

In the new sword the blade is perfectly straight, its shaft being set in a roomy hilt, squared to give play to the wrist in parrying and thrusting, the mode of fighting recommended to unmounted officers of the present day on actual service, who are taught to regard cutting as an obsolete method of attack. Only about ten inches of the edge from the point, and six inches of the back, are sharpened, the rest of the blade being blunt and rounded for parrying purposes, and having, therefore, no cutting capacity whatsoever.

The new regulation sword, in fact, is exclusively a thrusting and guarding weapon—a sort of rapier, double edged for about a fourth of its blade length in order to facilitate a penetration when its wearer "gives point," but useless as an arm wherewith to strike a swinging blow—Exchange.

Modern Football.
We regret to say that in football ruffianism and unsportsmanlike play are greatly on the increase, and unless checked by vigorous methods we may find that it will be necessary for municipalities instead of football associations and unions, to deal with assaults arising out of what should be an innocent and healthful pastime. We have had it pointed out to us that an action at law will lie against a person who is guilty of wilful violence on the football field, and if stringent rules and a free interpretation thereof be not sufficient to check the growing evil, it is only reasonable to suppose that a legal remedy may eventually be resorted to.

It may be thought that referees and umpires ought to be able to deal with all breaches of rule; but we are sorry to say that many of these officials, either with the fear of giving offense and so losing their honorarium, or with the natural desire to be mobbed and maltreated at the close of a match, do not fully exercise the powers that are vested in them. When once the unscrupulous player discovers this reticence on the part of the referee—for it is this official who nowadays has to decide nearly everything—he will pursue his malpractices to the fullest extent.—London Field.

Republican County Convention. There will be a Republican County Convention held at the Court House in the village of Manistique on Thursday July 7th, at 2 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of electing two Delegates to the State Convention at Saginaw July 20th, 1892 and four delegates each one severally to the Congressional, Senatorial and Representative Conventions not yet called.

W. H. HILL, Ch. of Co. Com. Manistique, Mich. June 27th 1892.

A few Good 7 per cent. Investments for sale at the Manistique B. Bk. In amounts from $100 up.

Weint & Thompson, the Oak street, market men continue to sell the same 7 of mescal at low price. If you want fresh 1274, call on them.

Several folks took our squib about old maid selling soap, so soon, but, as her brother said, he'd rather say the dearest at all. One must have rejected the old sinner.

Mrs. Ruggles and Mrs. Robbins arrived this morning.

Ice-Cream Parlors. Lewis & Mills have opened one of the rooms of their millinery store for the purpose of serving ice-cream during the season. Everybody invited to call and enjoy a dish of pure cream.

Remember the dance at the Opera House Monday afternoon and evening. Good music and a chance for a grand time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Orr came up on the Buell to visit with their daughter Mrs. Plunkett, and their many other friends in this city.

Last evening a subscription paper was in circulation to secure funds to pay for drilling a well at the crossing of Oak and Lake streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Nesbitt, of Pontiac, are here on a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Mathews. Many of the older citizens of this village are well acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. N.; they having spent some months here several years ago. They were also here a few weeks last season.

Refreshments. The ladies of the Catholic church will set a table in the front yard of Mrs. Burr's residence, on Cedar street, next Monday and furnish meals to all who may favor them with a call. Besides regular meals, they will furnish ice-cream and lemonade, pure and of good taste.

A New Store. Yesterday our friend Abe Fullenstein secured a lease of the lower part of the main building belonging to August Miller on Oak street, three doors east of this office, and it is to be fitted up for a store ready for opening about the 15th of August. Mr. F. intends to put in a large stock of millinery and fancy goods. He is no stranger here and all know him to be an energetic and reliable dealer. We are glad to have him so near us.

A Colorado judge states that by the use of certain chemicals it is possible to remove the words of a letter and substitute others without detection even under a microscope. Experts in a recent case actually made the test in a judge's court. The public should be on its guard lest a certain very strong and decided anti-tree coinage letter signed Grover Cleveland do not turn up before November so altered in favor of free coinage and for circulation in the silver states, that even the writer could not detect the fraud.

There is no mistaking the significance of the money plank in the Republican platform. It says what it means and means what it says in the declaration that the "Republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions, to be determined by legislation, as will secure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals, so that the purchasing and debt-paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equal." The Republican party favors the circulation of the largest quantity of gold and silver that can be kept at par, but not the coinage of a single dollar under conditions that it will make it worth less than 100 cents.

Red Jacket has a village ordinance which should be adopted by every village in the land and especially Ontonagon. It ordains that the owner of every building shall keep in a convenient place, and ready for use in case of fire a ladder, or ladders of sufficient length to reach the main roof of such building. As it is now, if a fire breaks out in many places in the village, those who discover it are powerless till the hook and ladder truck arrive, which gives the fire a chance to get well under headway. One pair of water applied at the right time, has prevented many a serious conflagration.

From a Splinter's Diary. I'm sorry I ever let me to see no. The first at twenty is the old maid at thirty.

The girl who cut me out died of a broken heart.

Marriage isn't so much of a failure as matrimony.

There is a good time coming. Marriages are made in heaven.

Everything comes to the man who waits; it is different with the woman.

In regard to my first lover, I refused him in haste and repented at leisure.

I might have been happily married if it hadn't been for my little brother.

If women could be always young and beautiful very few of them would marry.

A woman grows afraid of men as soon as they don't wish anything to do with her.

When a man is alive his wife is his better half; when he is dead she is worth only a third.

Although both my former lovers made their wives wretched I am sure I could have been happy with either.

Love is as good a mirror as a looking-glass. Men stop looking at a woman when she stops looking at herself.

Philosophers say that woman is at her best at thirty-five but they don't seem to think so when they pick one out for a wife.

Every time I hear that married men live longer than single ones it makes me think how I might have prolonged some good man's life.—New York Sun.

Capt. El. Bouchard, now in command of the tug Duncan City, writes to the Marine Review as follows: "It seems about time that a resurvey should be made of the north shore from the Straits of Mackinac to Escanaba, a locality in which a large amount of slipping in lumber of all kinds, especially cedar, has been built up of late years. There are many shoals and rocks along this coast that are not noted on the charts. How they were overlooked is not explained, but the low stage of water prevailing of late has developed their existence. A resurvey would show all of these places and would assist navigation. Many masters and owners will, I feel, bear me out in this suggestion, and they should begin a movement toward the improvement."

Merit Wins. We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on the merits. Thompson & Putnam, Druggists.

Toronto, June 28.—The Orangemen held a big drill here yesterday. A row between visiting Orangemen and Knights of St. John was feared, but did not take place. Several boys who followed the procession, however, got possession of two United States flags, trampled them in the mud and tore them to pieces.

Three Things to Remember. Hood's Sarsaparilla has the most equalled Success.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has won unqualified Success. Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes the greatest Cures.

Is it not the medicine for you? Constipation is caused by loss of the peristaltic action of the bowels. Hood's Pills restore this action and invigorate the liver.

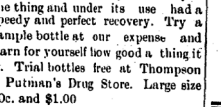

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 25.—A disastrous railroad accident occurred here early this morning. The second section of a passenger train ran into the first section east of the Park st. bridge in South Harrisburg. The accident occurred shortly before 1 o'clock. The best information obtainable is that 10 persons were killed and thirty injured.
