LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Letter.
Sealed proposals for the grading of the track of the Schoolcraft County Driving Park and Fair Association in accordance with the plans and specifications prepared therefor, now on file in Orr, Brothers & Co's, office will be received up to noon of Oct. 11, 1892. Said work to be completed by Dec. 1, 1892. The right is reserved to reject any or all said bids.

M. W. Orr, Sec.
Mr. Editor.—You can say there will be a legal meeting of the Board of Superintendents of the Poor Saturday, October 8th.

A. L. Hill, Chairman.
Don't be fooled. See that the name "Beggs" is on each box and bottle of Little Giant Pills, as several unscrupulous dealers are getting on imitations. You can get these wonderful little pills of Geo. Chandler and City Drug Store.

The Neck of a Risk.
It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by Thompson and Putnam.

Druggists say it's a pleasure to sell Beggs' Family Medicines, as every bottle is warranted for all that the label calls for, so our customers are perfectly safe in buying them. Sold and warranted by West Side Drug Store and City Drug Store.

"Poor wages, bad food, miserable homes, against the comfortable lives of our laborers, would be an objection that exceeds all writing in teaching man what protection really does," is the way Dr. Depeux puts it.

Wetzel & Thompson, the Oak street market men continue sell the purest of meats at a low price. If you want fresh lamb, call on them.

The Ontonagon "Miser" plant is for sale. It is the oldest paper on this peninsula.

It is dreadful to have a dirty, yellow or gray complexion. It is caused by a disordered liver, and can be relieved at once by a thorough use of Beggs' Blood Purifier and Blood Mover. Sold and warranted by the City Drug Store and the West Side Drug Store.

Piles of all kinds cured by using Beggs' German Salve. Sold and warranted by Geo. Chandler and City Drug Store.

A few Good 7 per cent. Investments for sale at the Manistique Bank. In amounts from $100 up.

exhaustive? What is it? Let us tell you that it is one of the nicest, cleanest, sweetest and most effective tooth washes on the market. Sold and warranted by City Drug Store and Geo. Chandler.

Ask your dealer for Ben Hur or Record Breaker Cigars. They are the best on earth.

General John Pope is dead at the age of 63. The General was a brave and valued officer during the war of the rebellion.

Millions smoked annually—Geo. Moehs & Co.'s great Cigars. THEY ARE MADE ON HONOR.

A Cure for Cholera.

There is no use of any one suffering with the cholera when Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy can be procured. It will give relief in a few minutes and cure in a short time. I have tried it and know—W. H. Clinton, Helmetta, N. J. The epidemic at Helmetta was at first believed to be cholera, but subsequent investigation proved it to be a violent form of dysentery, almost as dangerous as cholera. This Remedy was there with great success. For sale by Thompson and Putnam.

They take the cake! Beggs' Little Giant Pills. Sold by City and West Side Drug Stores.

Grand Forks Plaindealer: Parties are indispensable, but partisanship that blindly accepts every caucus dictation and every partyism without hesitation or weighing is not patriotism. There should be discussion and an intelligent conclusion.

Mr. Pohlmeier has built a new house fronting Park Place Lakeside.

Laugh and grow fat at "Side Tracked," the greatest comedy drama out of original Chicago cast and scenery which is the main feature of the play. At the Star Opera House Friday night, Oct. 7.

Plenty of speakers for the lower peninsula. They can be heard at almost every corner, but the central committees seem to have forgotten that there is any such territory as the upper peninsula.

A gentleman that saw the "Side Tracked" Company perform at Green Bay last week informs us that it is by far the best performance that has come this way. They will be at the Star Opera House this evening.

W. G. Smith, with Marler, Lese & Co., Chicago, was in the city Tuesday and Wednesday. We found him a very pleasant gentleman, and we know from years of experience, that he represents one of the best in the United States.

The mill at South Manistique has closed down for the season, we hear, and the men are turning their attention to other branches of industry. The stoppage is caused by the low stage of water so that logs cannot be got to the mill.

Secretary Blackford, of the Lake Superior Grand Lodge of Good Templars, sends us an encouraging report of the progress of that order in this jurisdiction. He proves to be a very efficient worker and no order can slumber with such an officer at its head.

"Side Tracked" one of the greatest railroad plays on the road which is receiving excellent patronage and giving general satisfaction all over the country this season will bring more new and novel mechanical effects than ever presented here before. The comedy is first class in every respect and full of breezy fun and the biggest mechanical locomotive on the stage.

Monday afternoon 17 members of Manistique Lodge of Knights of Pythias went over to Gladstone to assist in organizing a lodge there.

They were joined there by delegations from Marquette, Escanaba, Kalkaska, Rhineland and Sault Ste. Marie. The lodge was instituted with 31 charter members and three admitted by card. The institution services and banquet were interesting; the people of Gladstone treating their visitors in royal manner. The lodge will be known as Gladstone Lodge No. 162. It starts off with good officers and bright prospects.

The Manistique Bands will furnish the instrumental and the Hiawatha Republican Glee Club the vocal music.

The Presbyterian Ladies held a very interesting meeting in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon, and the following program was carried out: Singing, Prayers, Secretary's report by Mrs. C. B. Orr; Responsive reading from Isaiah; Reading—Facts about Japan, by Mrs. Maty Johnson; Singing, Reading—"Reasons Why"—Mrs. M. E. Duval; Paper on Japan—Mrs. M. K. Rogers. Reading—Mrs. Lizzie Nicholson; Report from meeting of Presbyterian Society—Mrs. M. M. Brooks; Miscellaneous business and collection. Meeting closed with prayer. Several new members were added to the society.

Harbor Escape.—Last evening a party of sailors, Thomas Monroe, watchman on the Alleghany; James Cameron, mate on the Transfer; Ellis Fox, watchman; E. H. Green, deck hand and Wm. Bowman, fireman on the Alleghany, started from South Manistique for this place in a small sail boat. The waves were running high but they made the trip all right until near the breakwater when they got a blast from the south and the boat capsized. The men clinging to the boat and called for help. No attention was paid to their cries for a long time, several heard the noise but such noises were common in that quarter. The two Mrs. Coffey heard the cries for help and gave the alarm. The tugs Elmer and Evans at once steamed down the mouth of the river and out to near the breakwater and rescued the unfortunate sailors. They were utterly exhausted, having been in the water nearly an hour and could not have held out much longer.

Since the above was put in type Capt. Smederlund called and said that the mate of the Transfer had borrowed the boat of Mr. Pressly and the men came away without his knowledge. Well, Mr. P. is out on the value of that boat. The Capt. says he refused to pay them money last night for fear that some of them might get liquor and would not be in condition to go out with the fleet to-day.

THAT LAPEER EX-SOLDIER'S PROTEST. I inclose you circular letter (Copy of the protest in 1884 against the appointment of a non-soldier candidate for postmaster at Lapeer by John T. Rich) a copy of which is coming to me daily from most all points of the compass.

Old soldiers everywhere in the state who are Republicans are likely receiving this same "fire in the rear from a Democratic source." I am reminded that we stood under this same "fire" 30 years ago, the same old Democratic guns from which this emanates were trained on us when we were at the front, if you remember.

They told us then that Abraham Lincoln and the Republican party were simply tyrants and we, the soldiers, simply tools in the hands of the oppressors.

I am an old soldier and went from Lapeer to the war. Maj. Morse I believe was at one time a member of the same regiment, the Sixteenth Infantry, to which I belonged. I was a resident of Lapeer county during the time Rich was in congress. The information contained in this circular letter with many names attached is news to me (and I was not in the woods all the time, either.) If it is true in all particulars it certainly does not raise Mr. Rich in my esteem nor does it lower my estimate of the Republican party. He is able to control his own personal actions, and I hope able to account for them creditable, but he cannot and does not control the mighty force known as the Republican party that has stood by the soldier and encouraged him to stand by his colors ever since the first gun was fired on Fort Sumter. Mr. Rich comparatively is but an insignificant spoke in the wheel.

The same may with all truth be said of Mr. Morse, though he stands in line with that mighty phalanx that declared the war failure and himself with his comrades in arms. "Lincoln's Hirelings." He cannot prevent a repetition of the insults heaped upon old soldiers needlessly by Cleveland and his administration, even if he were made governor of Michigan. It was a belief in the righteousness of Republican principles that induced most of the old soldiers to take up arms in their defense. They did not forsake home everything for the sake of office or for plunder.

They did not go south for the purpose of making officers of some of their brilliant comrades or falling in this to raise a mutiny.

Most old soldiers are made of "sterner stuff."

Many of us are not yet ready to apologize for having been soldiers, and for that reason, if for no other, we are not anxious to place the Democratic party in a position to demand it.

Surely we will not help to do it for the sake of snubbing a luke-warm friend or gratifying a comrade's ambition.

I guess not.

A. C. CARPENTER. Seney, Mich., Sept. 26.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The President will, if Mrs. Harrison continues to improve as she has done during the past week, take part in the Columbus celebrations in New York, on the 12, inst., and in Chicago on the 21st, inst., and, unless something not now anticipated shall prevent he will be accompanied on both trips by all the members of his cabinet. Mrs. Harrison's improvement has had a most invigorating effect upon him, the regular Cabinet meetings have been resumed and he has taken his official work with all his old time energy, besides giving considerable attention to the state of the campaign, as shown by trustworthy reports from every section which are constantly being sent to him. The President has a Democratic alarm over the South is rapidly spreading, and they are preparing to do what they ever before considered necessary in a national campaign—send their most prominent speakers into the South. It is the people's party that they are afraid of in most of the southern states but in Tennessee and West Virginia it is the republicans who are giving them uneasiness. Secretary Elkins expresses the greatest confidence in the ability of the republicans to carry West Virginia for the national ticket and to elect a number of Congressmen on the tariff, reciprocity and honest money issue, while Congressman Houk, of Tennessee says the republicans of that State are in a better condition and are more determined to win than ever before.

There was an insurance of $138,250 on the Western Reserve.

The total number of deaths in Hamburg by the cholera is 9,900, up to date.

The Chicago Herald, an able democratic paper, says the tariff plank in the Chicago platform is "a monstrosity."

Down in our part of the country we fire off shotguns and revolvers on election morning to let the colored voters know we are going to have a fair election.—Congressman Allen, of Mississippi.

Columbus day will be observed in grand style at Chicago on October 21st, when the President as well as all the other dignitaries of the United States will be in attendance at Chicago. The world's exposition will also be formally opened on that day.

Business of all kinds is flourishing throughout the country in spite of the presidential election. The volume of our exports is steadily growing while the amount of business reported by the clearing houses of the large cities shows a steady increase. It is an encouraging sign.

Campau's little scheme to have the laws, passed by the last session of the legislature, published in Democratic papers, and his advice "not to tell Republican editors," resulted in every paper in the state getting $15 out of it. You bet, not one of them will publish the laws passed by the next legislature. Mr. Campau's secret was not well kept.

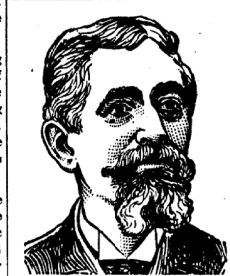

The rapidly decreasing wheat average in England is thus noted by the Surrey County Advertiser of the 10th inst. "It is not surprising to learn that the wheat crop of Great Britain in 1892 covered only 2,220,000 acres, as compared with 3,652,000 acres in 1865. We have given up wheat growing within the past twenty-four years on nearly 1,500,000 acres of land, which, at twenty-eight bushels per acre, implies a diminished growth of 40,000,000 bushels, worth, at 4s per bushel £8,000,000. We have now under wheat only 120 acres out of every 1,000 acres of arable land, instead of 194 acres, while the area in permanent sward is largely increased."

Simplicity in Funerals.

The simplicity of the funerals of such men as George William Curtis and John G. Whittier furnish us a good example for imitation. As funerals are frequently conducted a poor man cannot afford to die. It simply means the impoverishment of his survivors. Men whose lives are passed in perfect simplicity and whose domestic management is characterized by the plainest simplicity, upon a death of a member of their families make a most vulgar ostentation of grief in an expensive funeral. This is in reality not only extravagant, it is unnatural. In the first shadow of a great grief one desires to retire with in the contemplation of his own sorrow. Public display of any kind in funerals is odious.—Boston Globe.

A. C. CARPENTER, geny. Mich., Sept. 26.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The President will, if Mrs. Harrison wishes to improve as she has done the past week, take part in the bus celebrations in New York, Oct. 19, inst., and in Chicago on the 21st, inst., and unless something not anticipated shall prevent he will be accompanied on both trips by all members of his cabinet. Mrs. Harrison's improvement has had a invigorating effect upon him, the Cabinet meetings have been regular and he has taken his official work with all his old time energy, he is giving considerable attention to the reports from every part of the country which are constantly being received. The President has a

Paradise Crass.

A man who met with shipwreck off the coast of Cuba and had to take to an open boat, tells of the peculiar hallucination, called by the sailors the "Paradise crass," brought on by exposure to the terrific heat of the sun's rays. He says: "The sea appeared to be transformed into a mighty meadow, bright with flowers and musical with the song of birds. Cool springs burst from crystal rocks and trickled over golden sands, and men and maidens beckoned beneath the trees. They seemed beckoning me to join them, and I plunged over the side of the boat into forty fathoms of brine. The bath brought me to my senses, and I reached the Cuban coast more dead than alive. The mania of frequent occurrence in tropical seas and often referred to by poets."

Democratic alarm over the South is rapidly spreading, and they are preparing to do what they never before considered necessary in a national campaign—send their most prominent speakers into the South. It is the people's party that they are afraid of in most of the southern states but in Tennessee and West Virginia it is the Republicans who are giving them uneasiness. Secretary Elkins expresses the greatest confidence in the ability of the Republicans to carry West Virginia for the national ticket and to elect a number of Congressmen on the tariff, reciprocity and honest money issues, while Congressman Hook, of Tennessee says the Republicans of that State are in a better condition and are more determined to win than ever before.

There was an insurance of $138,250 on the Western Reserve.

The total number of deaths in Hamburg by the cholera is 9,900, up to date.

The Chicago Herald, an able democratic paper, says the tariff plank in the Chicago platform is "a monstrosity."

Down in our part of the country we fire off shotguns and revolvers on election morning to let the colored voters know we are going to have a fair election.—Congressman Allen, of Mississippi.

Columbus day will be observed in grand style at Chicago on October 21st, when the President as well as all the other dignitaries of the United States will be in attendance at Chicago. The world's exposition will also be formally opened on that day.

Business of all kinds is flourishing throughout the country in spite of the presidential election. The volume of our exports is steadily growing while the amount of business reported by the clearing houses of the large cities shows a steady increase. It is an encouraging sign.

Campau's little scheme to have the laws, passed by the last session of the legislature, published in Democratic papers, and his advice "not to tell Republican editors" resulted in every paper in the state getting $15 out of it. You see, not one of them will publish the laws passed by the next legislature. Mr. Campau's secret was not well kept.

The rapidly decreasing wheat average in England is thus noted by the Surrey County Advertiser of the 10th inst. "It is not surprising to learn that the wheat crop of Great Britain in 1899 covered only 2,220,000 acres, as compared with 3,652,000 acres in 1898. We have given up wheat growing within the past twenty-four years on nearly 1,500,000 acres of land, which, at twenty-eight bushels per acre, implies a diminished growth of 40,000,000 bushels, worth, at 4s per bushel, £8,000,000. We have now under wheat only 120 acres out of every 1,000 acres of arable land, instead of 194 acres, while the area in permanent stubble is largely increased."

Simplicity in Funerals.

The simplicity of the funerals of such men as George William Curtis and John G. Whittier furnish us a good example for imitation. As funerals are frequently conducted a poor man cannot afford to die. It simply means the impoverishment of his survivors. Men whose lives are passed in perfect simplicity and whose domestic management is characterized by the plainest simplicity, upon a death of a member of their families make a most vulgar ostentation of grief in an expensive funeral. This is in reality not only extravagant, it is unnatural. In the first shadow of a great grief one desires to retire with the contemplation of his own sorrow. Public display of any kind in funerals is odious.—Boston Globe.

THE CALANITYITES.

... AFTER ANOTHER DAZED THE DEMOCRATS.

... Shows a Decidedly Bad Year for Cleveland and the Mugwumps... What Curtis Has to Say... The hearts of the members of the British Cobden club... The successive disasters... The first place the... the unparalleled in... the country were... the canality party... work for Democratic success... the report of the United States... committee, signed by the... Democrat in congress, John G. Carlisle... showing by incontrovertible proof that... while the prices of manufactured products had diminished under the McKinley law... Then there followed in quick succession the official reports of Labor Commissioner Peck and Bank Superintendent Preston, both Democrats... The traders had insisted, with all the noise and pertinacity of professional howling... report proved that in one year under this tariff there had been in the single state of New York an increase of industrial production amounting to $41,500,000... an increase in the total amount of wages paid to the employees of manufacturing concerns amounting to $11,111 for 285,000 workers in sixty-eight manufacturing industries... Superintendent Preston demonstrated that the savings banks deposits in New York state had increased from $375,850,725 on Jan. 1, 1889, to $710,112,575 on Jan. 1, 1892, while the deposits had increased in number from 1,382,852 to 1,856,123.

These heavy blows sent the Democracy into a panic... Mr. Cleveland and the Mugwumps to Dances Cooker, Sheehan, Murphy and the "semicriminal organization" of Tammany Hall... Mr. George Ticknor Curtis, the most eminent living Democratic authority on constitutional law, has publicly announced that he will not sanction, even by silence, the outrageous dogma that protection to American industry is unconstitutional... More than this, Mr. Curtis, whose name commands respect and whose opinion carries weight among citizens of all parties in every state in the Union, has declared not only that protection is constitutional, but that it is in the highest degree beneficial to the nation at large... This veteran Democrat, whose constitutional opinions have been quoted as authority by the Democratic press for so many years, states his position with all the clearness and force that the English language can give to it. He says: "In common with many other Democrats I cannot follow the leaders of the party in denouncing Republican protection as a fraud upon the labor of the great majority of the American people for the benefit of a few, nor can I subscribe to the doctrine that a protective tariff is unconstitutional. I have no pecuniary interest in manufactures, but I know what protection has done and is doing for this country. If it operates for the benefit of the few I am not one of that few. I am one of the many—one of the great majority benefited by it, including those who denounce it for the sake of obtaining political power. If the leaders of a political party assembled in national convention for the purpose of nominating candidates for the presidency and vice presidency choose to stultify themselves by falsifying history they cannot expect to be followed by others who have any habits of independent thought and action."

This last disaster is one of the worst that has yet befallen the Democratic politicians... The facts of the labor market and of the country's industrial development are all against them, and now they are openly denounced for their dishonesty and lack of patriotism by one of the most prominent and most highly esteemed Democrats in the United States... Mr. Cleveland and his followers may well wonder what is coming next.—New York Press.

Head—and Then Vote... The policy of reciprocity is an excellent illustration of Republican free trade, it being really the conditional free listing of articles in which, according to protection principles, there should be no trade... When you want genuine free trade, American free trade you have to come to the Republican party to get it... If you want to aggrandize the British empire at the expense of the United States, vote the Democratic ticket.—New York City (La.) Journal.

WORKS LIKE MAGIC.

SOME WONDERFUL EXPERIMENTS IN SCIENCE.

There is a very simple and pretty experiment which can be performed in a few minutes. It is a highly interesting experiment.

There is a very simple experiment, showing the weight of the air, which liquid is contained in a well-corked bottle. We also need a cork, fitting the flask and fitted with a few inches of glass tube. Drawn to a fine aperture at the inside end, a pump-rod of strong liquid ammonia, which is a solution of the gas in water, is drawn out to the extent of the chemist's in a well-corked bottle. We also need a bottle jar; total cost on implements, say two pence halfpenny, which cannot be called dear, for the following charming experiment: First, a small quantity of the liquid ammonia into the flask, place the cork in its neck, holding the thumb over the mouth of the tube, and plunge the flask into a vessel of warm water, so as to vaporize the ammonia. Meantime the red cabbage vinegar has been poured into the flask. Now stand the flask in the bowl neck downwards, so that the aperture of the tube is under the surface of the liquid. After a few seconds the juice will be drawn up the tube into the flask in a fountain of great beauty, turning first a weak green and then a bright red. It will continue for a minute or more, according to the fineness of the tube.

The explanation is simple. The gas ammonia is very soluble, and a little of it getting down the tube to the cabbage liquor, is quickly dissolved, and the liquor rising to take its place, and absorbing more gas as it does so. Presently a vacuum begins to be created, and so the liquid, being pressed upon by the external air, being up to fill it, and we get the effect of a fountain, playing briskly in the flask.

The change of color is the result of a chemical action. Ammonia and other alkalies, or substances opposed to acids in the chemical sense, have a tendency to turn red vegetable colors blue, and if strong enough green, and ammonia is a very powerful alkali, it has no difficulty in accomplishing the result.

It seems, from a letter in the Chattanooga Times, that the action of the mob in Memphis that hanged Gov. Buchanan in effigy for commuting the sentence of H. Clay King was merely a following out of the time-honored method in which Tennesseans wreak their vengeance upon public men who fall under their displeasure. President John Tyler was hanged in effigy in Nashville, in 1841; Gen. Robert Hatton was hanged at Lebanon in 1860; Gov. William G. Brownlow at Memphis in 1867; Gov. John C. Brown in Gibson county in 1870; Gov. James D. Porter at Columbus in 1876; Gov. William B. Bate at Smithville in 1882. Gov. Robert L. Taylor in Franklin county in 1886. Many other prominent men in Tennessee have had their effigies strung up and their ragged dummies cursed, abused and set upon by vegetable mobs; Mayors, Judges, Congressmen, Governors and even Presidents have been hanged in effigy in Tennessee.

Queen Victoria's Banqueting Hall.
The banqueting hall at Osborne, in which the dinners to the German Emperor were given, is to be known as the Indian room. It is about sixty feet in length by thirty feet wide; and there is a musician's gallery at one end. This department is to be decorated with wall paintings of the peace by a wide corridor. It has been sumptuously decorated in the Hindu Sikh style, and all the hangings and furniture are oriental. This last addition to Osborne has cost the Queen upwards of £20,000. The Indian room is to be decorated with dinner parties, concerts and theatrical entertainments, and possibly for dances. The molding is now pure white, but is to be gilded. The carvings, the peacock over the mantelpiece, and the Indian and Persian carpets are all in harmony.

The way in which the name "bureau" became applied to articles of furniture intended for literary purposes is rather curious. It was the custom in the days when writing was done on parchment, and when bookbinding was an expensive luxury, for those who were connected with literary pursuits to have on their tables a piece of cloth of a thick nature, to prevent the bookbinding receiving any injury. This piece of textile fabric, originally of wool, bore in France the name of bureau, and, in course of time, that name has attached itself to articles of furniture, which have a space protected by some material for writing operations.

The Queen Got the Dress.
A pretty incident is reported of royal lovers, the King and Queen of Italy. Early in the season Queen Margherita said her usual comment for his opinion as to whether she was still young enough to wear her favorite costume of white muslin. He replied: "This is a matter which requires reflection." Two weeks later came the King's reply in the shape of a box of beautiful white goods, which he had ordered for his wife from Paris.

It is said to be possessed of tremendous power, while its cost is only about six cents a pound.

A Big Snake Vanquished by a Bird.
Walter Fowell witnessed a novel fight lately between a gopher snake and a King bird. The contest was fought to a finish in the road near the cemetery. The snake was a large one and capable of swallowing his feathery opponent with ease, but the bird was too quick for him and came out winner. The bird would hover over the snake by a foot or two, freely, and looked like an idiot when a spectator addressed him in French. Marriage.
Marriage may be a failure in San Francisco, and it may not, but it is interesting to note that comparatively few people are making the experiment. During last year there were only 3,246 marriages in the city, less than one to 1,000 of the city's population. The rate in London is more than 18 per 1,000. What it is in the various cities and States, the Union is not recorded accurately.

Thirty per cent of England's literature is composed of novels, and those of Bertha M. Clay are the most popular. The pulling of a tooth caused a fatal attack of lockjaw in Mrs. Nina Edgeman, aged 17, of Jeffersonville, Ind.

There was merriment at a spiritual seance in London when the ghost of Voltaire appeared. The eminent French author dropped his hat very freely, and looked like an idiot when a spectator addressed him in French.

Homeless cats and dogs were the number of 25,000, were legally put to death last year in a house in Lombard street, Philadelphia. The fumes of burning charcoal closed the career of each animal, in about forty seconds.

A marvelous rose-bush belongs to a gentleman in Belfast, Maine. Up to 1885 its product was white moss-roses. Then for four years it bore white and red roses. For two years its roses were again all white, and this year they are all red.

Rivalry in love caused a quarrel between Burt Revler and Charles Lemon in Dundee, Minn. They both loved the same young lady, and in the end agreed that a fight should decide who had the better claim to her hand. It is said to be possessed of tremendous power, while its cost is only about six cents a pound.

A Big Snake Vanquished by a Bird.
Walter Fowell witnessed a novel fight lately between a gopher snake and a King bird. The contest was fought to a finish in the road near the cemetery. The snake was a large one and capable of swallowing his feathery opponent with ease, but the bird was too quick for him and came out winner. The bird would hover over the snake by a foot or two, freely, and looked like an idiot when a spectator addressed him in French. Homeless cats and dogs were the number of 25,000, were legally put to death last year in a house in Lombard street, Philadelphia. The fumes of burning charcoal closed the career of each animal, in about forty seconds.

That Spotted It All.
Hunker—This girl I am going to introduce to you is wealthy, but she can't play the piano.
Skidds—Good enough! That is vastly in her favor.
Hunker—But she persistently tries to.
Skidds—Say no more. Postpone the introduction indefinitely.

Some Good in It.
Amateur Violinist—Wasn't it a cruel thing for Nero to fiddle while Rome was burning?
Friend—Oh, I don't know; it must have reassured the poor people to their fate somewhat.

The Queen Got the Dress.
A pretty incident is reported of royal lovers, the King and Queen of Italy. Early in the season Queen Margherita said her usual comment for his opinion as to whether she was still young enough to wear her favorite costume of white muslin. He replied: "This is a matter which requires reflection." Two weeks later came the King's reply in the shape of a box of beautiful white goods, which he had ordered for his wife from Paris.

The 10th babe of Mr. and Mrs. Richards died this morning. Funeral to-morrow.

Requies Revers, of Thompson, one of the early settlers of the county, died last night.

Mrs. J. A. Robinson and Mrs. J. A. Allison, of Thompson were here to-day calling on friends.

Married by the Rev. B. J. Larsen, last evening Mr. John Nelson and Miss Mattie Hansen, all of this city.

Much has been said by interested "politicians" as to whether Mr. Allison would or would not accept the nomination made by the People's Party for Sheriff. Mr. A. said to the writer yesterday that he had not sought the nomination from that party; but since they had given it to him he will accept and desires the office. He further says that if elected he will endeavor to discharge the duties faithfully.

The Y. P. S. C. E. gave a splendid entertainment at their "Pi Social" in the church parlors Wednesday evening. Each of the guests were handed an envelope containing the following "Pi" Facts and "Pi" Poetry, which they were required to put in proper order:

"PI" FACTS. Morse invented the cotton gin. Paul discovered America. Howe invented the telegraph. Whitney invented the phonograph. Columbus laid the first ocean cable. Edison invented the sewing machine.

"PI" POETRY. Hyw huts gonin' atah of fereagghin. Frow eh art-fof nauhtant, dan mid. Weill th fabutint, bh durmoa heta ygnli. Fosfer up sit owl, tepular'p mbyn?

First prize was awarded to Miss Rork, second to Miss Sande, third to Miss Bradshaw and the fourth to Miss Lovell. Those present enjoyed the occasion very much.

Having been on a visit of a couple of weeks to Alpena, I cannot let this opportunity pass without expressing gratitude for the kind treatment and consideration that I there received.

As all of my friends in Manistique know, I have always been looked upon as a soter man, but somehow one day I took a drink of cider, that led to another, then on to stronger drinks until I found it impossible to stop at all; so my friends sent me to Alpena to be treated by Dr. Dunlap.

The Doctor in a very short time brought me to my senses and back to health again, so that to-day I feel like a new man. Every person treated me so kindly in Alpena and I met so many nice people that I shall always think of my visit there with pleasure although they're down and the first few days are all a blank to me. After I came to myself I joined the Happy Home Club, and spent very many pleasant hours there both during the day time and at their regular meetings. I think the "Dunlap Cure" and the "Happy Home Club" among the greatest blessings that God ever sent on the earth.

John Kendall, Austin Fydel two, Wm. Golden, Al. Sheets, Matt Schneider, William Davidson and Nelson Klagstad—St. This report speaks well for the standing of the Company and the activity of their agent.

Respectable.—In the early part of the week bills were sent out announcing a grand masquerade ball at the Opera House next Friday night, but that being the night that the building was to be used by the Republicans who will hold a mass meeting, the managers of the ball saw no other way out of the dilemma than to give the ball on Thursday night, 13th. Handbills were promptly issued announcing that fact yesterday. Arrangements have been made to have one of the grandest events of the season. Novel masks, good music, etc., will be among the attractions. A general invitation and the price has been put at only 75 cents a couple.

The installation services at the Presbyterian church last evening called out a large audience, made up of members of that and other churches in the city. The services were in charge of Revs. Carrer, of Menominee and Luther, of Sault Ste Marie and were very interesting and impressive particularly the charges given to pastor and people. After the benediction a reception was given in the parlors and everybody was happy. A supper was served at a later hour and none went away hungry. The forms have now been fully carried out and now pastor and people must enter upon real work for the cause. May the bands that were consumed last evening result in great good to this people.

We contemplate making great improvements in our office and paper within the next few weeks; and are compelled to do it in order to meet the demands of our business men who want more room for advertising purposes, and then too we shall return to the three issues a week plan, or double the size at the supplement we now send out with Tuesday's issue. Wait and see.

Voters will soon be called upon to seal the verdict as to who our county officers for the next two years will be. We are placed to place before the people the clean, straight-forward Republican ticket. We know that every man on it will, if elected, and they will be, discharge every legal duty with honor to himself and a credit to his constituents. Vote the straight Republican ticket.

Three women have false teeth to every two men wear them. This is owing to their greater regard for personal appearance than that the latter is more dentially delicate than their admirers.

There is a possibility of a match between Moquette and Nancy Hanks or Martha Wilkes during the Kentucky breeders' meeting at Lexington.

According to the figures given out for publication by the officials, the attendance at the games of the first championship season throughout the country was 1,097,049. Up to the present date the attendance at the games of the second season has been 987,819.

The entire state tax levy for 1890 was $1,293,744.00; for 1892 it is $1,419,201.61—a difference of $155,457.61 in favor of the Republicans notwithstanding the Democrats had $420,000 from the United States to help them out. Where is the Democratic economy?

James Eddy, Troy N. Y., makes all the ink with which the government paper money is printed. His father invented it, and just before his death let his son into the secret of its manufacture—a secret that he will keep to himself as it is worth $50,000 a year to him. The ink in question is said to be the only kind that will print on the paper now used for government notes.

A relic of a revolutionary times is in possession of the Cannon Falls Block proprietor. It is a twenty-five cent bill issued by the State of North Carolina, in the month of April, 1776, three months before the declaration of independence. This piece of currency was preserved by a revolutionary soldier who lived in North Carolina at that time, has been kept in the family, and has descended through successive generations to the present owner.

Never enter a printing office where compositors are setting type and engage in conversation, for if the hands obey the rules of any well regulated office, they will not answer you. In the editorial room you are at liberty to talk, and if the "old man" is out ask for the foreman; but for the sake of good "proofs" don't bother the "type snatchers." That is a part of the trade that requires the closest attention and will not admit of the least interruption.

Mr. Cleveland is destined to much trouble and perturbation of spirit for the rest of the campaign. He is sooner settled down after a trip to New York to placate the Hill Democrats mutterings of disgust from the "Anti-snappers" at the implied slight to them demand another visitor to smoothen the ruffled feelings of these dear and intimate friends. This, again, awakens the discontent and suspicion of the Hill Democrats, who want no consorting with Mugwumps, and it is all to do over again.
