WASHINTON LETTER.

A majority of the democrate in Congress are very near to being in open rerolt against Mr. Cleveland, and unless that gentleman displays a more conciliatory disposition there may be a permanent split in the democratic party in the very near future. The straw which has almost broken the back of the democratic animal is Mr. Cleveland's opposition to the takingury of the bill for repeal of the Federal Election laws by the House, until after the Senate disposes of the silver sepal bill. It is nead that Mr. Coveland spoke in a most dictatorial manuser to Speaker Crisp because of his having consented that this bill should be reported to the House without having first obtained permission, and the Mr. Crisp got nettled and told him Here the second stage is not depend on the control of the control
