A clear head makes sure work. Let the square and rule of life be its right.

Be wary of objections, founded on wrong ideas.

They will surely be wise who profit by experience.

We generally err in undertaking what we do not understand.

The majority rules, save in Russia and the United States Senate.

Be cautious in yielding your letter judgment to the wishes of others.

Never consider the opinions of others in a matter that does not concern them.

A woman's conclusions are generally proof against the most eloquent reasonings.

Have a high standard, but never fall short of entire devotion to your great ideal.

It is but of little use to argue a point with one whose mind is made up on the subject.

Look within instead of without, for the true criterion of action, and be mainly and indifferently so.

Never shame was cherished and made worse while it is the shame that gleams like a meteor at the World's Fair.

O, George, this is so sudden! it takes away my breath—George! you are just enough to make a horse balk in his swallows—so there!

A Parson, looks upon fire as the perfect symbol of the best of an amount of it—purity, brightness, activity, subtilty, and incorruptibility.

We would like to know from our respectable lawyer friends, why it is that the law on barratry is not enforced—for lawyers should ALL be honorable men.

Those who are in hope of being the next postmaster at Manistiquette realize by this time that there is a very great difference between an outlandish picnic.

Any man who under the guise of friendship or by reason of relationship does another to commit a crime is more guilty than he who actually does the act.

Let it be said of you, that you lived your life in honesty and dignity and that you passed away in simplicity and faith. Few have had a grander epitaph.

When "diablic blows trumpet in the morning" he will not, it is likely that as many people on onset as were assembled at the W. C. E. grounds on Chicago Day.

Christ owes the unrivaled place he holds to-day among the sons of men to the fact that he came solving the problems man saw in nature, in himself and in God, by living them out.

All honor to Chicago—no other city has nerve enough to take the enormous chances of failure involved or push the W. C. E. through to a successful termination.

There are lawyers in this world who stir up litigation for the sake of making money. Some will even go so far as to collect clients, advance fees or furnish witnesses, particularly in a damage suit vs. a corporation.

Why an I have to be so severely patient? Why, child, I've been learning the lesson all my life—try it for yourself, practice it and realize how much happier you will be, and how very easy it is, once you "get your hand in."

In the death of Marshal MacMahon, France lost one of her great men, a man who represented her proudest periods of military achievement and her most terrible disaster under the empire. He earned honorably the right to be classed among the grand old men of France.

Look out for a long, cold winter: the fur of the animals lately captured was much thicker than usual; the muskrats are building their cabins in heavy water; these are said to be sure indications of cold weather. See to your wool pipes and that your heavy clothing is ready for use.

Whenever true goodness is found it is worthy of all honor and glory; but in Him was found the only one whose goodness was complete to fullness.

Let us pray our Father that the words of his son may be speedily fulfilled and that we may come to unity through him.

It might save stockholders and depositors some money, if it were made bank to borrow a cent of the institution with which they are connected.

They begin sometimes by borrowing a little and do not stop until they have cleaned out the vaults.

The farmer doesn't need political economy. He gets enough of that putting in Bohemian oats, etc., and buying grip sacks full of green goods. He is too careless now without having his mind hopelessly dulled by either old philosophy, who believe that the world is ragged by the law of supply and demand.

"The devotion of a married woman is the most wonderful thing in the world—it is a thing that no husband ever knows anything about" (Oscar Wilde in lady Windermere's Fan). Was there ever penned a more detestable libel on woman and matrimony? He does not know that the majesty of life is virtue. He is incapable of intellectual honesty.

It is hard to withstand the temptation to enjoy yourself when in the company of the "altogether lovely one" and under the influence of the drooping lash, the swift sharp glance that thrills every nerve, and makes you to know to the fullest extent what you were created for. Then it is very hard to submit to-day and meet the requirements that demand your time and presence elsewhere.

A just man cannot fear. Not though the malice of trading tongues, the sneers of a crowd, the cold eye of the selfish, or the red eyes of a traitor's car.

The senseless rigor of the wretched law, should in a just man, meet all to take his life. His innocence is armor 'gainst all these.

Of hearts, it is confused the age—comes nearest in its human shape. The man he initiates each fashion. And mine is his ruling passion.

Bishop Gillispie, chairman of the board of corrections and charities of Michigan, has issued a circular requesting the churches to join annually in a "Prison Sunday" as they now do in keeping temperance and mission Sundays. The board recommends that Sunday, October 29th, be set apart and observed by the churches of Michigan as "Prison Sunday."

Mr. J. H. Biles, the designer of the Paris and New York, suggests the possibility of 30 knot steamers in the future. The knot must be added to the turret. The knot must be added to the turret. The knot must be added to the turret.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—A man high in the councils of the administration laid to-night. "The president adheres to the position that the purchasing clause of the Sherman law should be unconditionally repealed. The lower house of congress voted for the repeal by an overwhelming majority; the majority in the senate are in favor of unconditional repeal and sentiments of the country demands the passage of the pending bill. It is not true that Secretary Carlisle has been in favor of the compromise which was subscribed by a number of senators on Saturday. He and other members of the cabinet are opposed to that measure."

Not From a Novel. If there were more young women fashioned on the heroic plan of Miss Alice Sypher of West Philadelphia, burglary and crime would cease to be a profitable employment. Miss Sypher is the daughter of a West Philadelphia lawyer, and perhaps she inherits a judicial calmness from him. At any rate, when a thief entered her room the other night and made the customary statement—that any ostery would meet death—she found a revolver point at him. "It isn't loaded," he remarked casually, turning away. And then he found it was loaded, for a bullet whizzed by him and imbedded itself in the door beyond. He made his escape, but it is unlikely he will again visit the Sypher mansion.

Life Is Misery To many people who have the taint of scrofula in their blood. The agonies caused by the dreadful running sores and other manifestations of this disease are beyond description. There is no other remedy equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla for scrofula, salt rheum and every form of blood disease. It is reasonably sure to benefit all who give it a fair trial.

Hood's PILLS cure all liver ills. Is your hair falling out or turning Gray? If so try Boggs' Hair Renewer. The effect is wonderful. Sold and warranted by City Drug store and Westside Drug store.

"During my term of service in the army I contracted chronic diarrhoea," says A. E. Bending, of Halsey, Oregon. "Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow." For sale by Thompson & Putnam.

Comparative Illiteracy. Recent statistics state that the greatest proportion of illiterates is found in the three Slav states of Roumania, Russia and Servia, where 80 per cent. of the population are unable to read or write. Of the Latin speaking races Spain heads the list with 48 per cent. France and Belgium having about 15 per cent. The illiterates in Hungary number about 48 per cent. in Austria 30 per cent. and in Ireland 21. In England we find 13 per cent. Holland 10 per cent. United States (white population) 8 per cent. and Scotland 7 per cent. unable to read or write. When we come to the purely Teutonic states we find a marked reduction in the percentage of illiterates. The highest is in Switzerland, 2.5. In Sweden, Denmark, Bavaria, Baden and Wurttemberg there is not a single person over 10 years of age unable to read and write.
