They put a Scotch woman in an insane asylum for having her horse shod with gold. Each set of shoes and nails cost $2,500.

The trouble with most of our congressmen is they spend their time and talent studying partisan affairs instead of great public questions.

Dad-dum the dad-gummed republicans for demonizing silver. Just give the democrats a "chance" and they'll correct things in great shape!

The democrats are making great efforts to pull themselves together in order to secure an extension of their privileges to "pull the people's leg."

Cleveland's veto of the seizure bill brings the money question more prominently to the front, but the decisive battle will not be fought until 1890.

A Berlin dentist was bitten on the finger by a lady patient and died two days later. The doctor's friends think she must have been mad about something.

"Pull up your suspenders, there's a ringer in your pants" is said to be the latest song that has real pathos. We presume girls are the ones to whom it refers.

Dogs that are good toward China are known by their bluish-black tongues. They never bark or do any thing else to show their displeasure. The Chinese consume 4,500,000 of them annually.

A Quaker lady suggests the following formula: for the lips, rub; for the voice, prayer; for the eyes, pray; for the hands, elbow; for the figure, upright dress; and for the heart, love.

An Illinois man wants a divorce because his wife spins in the kitchen and she is "shot enough." Don't lose this same fellow would kick his wife but her cold feet in the small of his back when he was sound asleep.

"It is strange," says Poe, "that none of these bustling newspapermen ever thought of having a dressmaker on the staff."

CURE SICK HEAD

Sick headache and nervousness are the terrible foes that a woman who is the mother of a family must contend with. Carter's Little Liver Pills are the only cure for these ailments. They are the only pills that will not only cure the headache, but also the nervousness, and give the system a new lease on life.

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are the only cure for these ailments. They are the only pills that will not only cure the headache, but also the nervousness, and give the system a new lease on life.

ACHE

In the face of so many lives that here in where there is a small dose. One little cure is worth a dozen. Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. They are the only pills that will not only cure the headache, but also the nervousness, and give the system a new lease on life.

Why, when Mrs. F. has had a dressmaker in the house one day she knows more of what is going on in the neighborhood than it is to be got out of all the newspapers in the city.

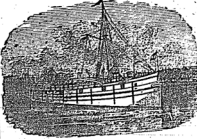

Sam Jones, the evangelist, spoke thus when a joint debate between himself and Colonel Ingersoll was suggested: "If you want to see a monkey-feeding time you get old Bob to let me talk along with him. He ain't goin' to do it, though." Not he. He couldn't stand up before me, and he knows it. You see the facts are against him."

The 25,000 persons who paid 10 cents each to kiss the stone in Blarney Castle on the Midway Plaisance, World's Fair, will no doubt be amused when informed that the rock was not brought from Ireland at all, but was simply a piece of fine stone taken from one of the streets of Chicago.

The Scientific American says: "At the first appearance of diphtheria in the throat of a child, make the room close, and hold a cup containing equal parts of tar and turpentine over a fire so the fumes will fill the air. The child, on inhaling the fumes, will cough and spit up the membranous substance and the diphtheria will pass away. The fumes of the tar and turpentine loosen the matter and thus afford the relief that has baffled the skill of the best physicians."

The 200 men who are usually employed on the Booms here but who will not have such employment this season, can thank the Democratic party for their loss of their job. But for the promise of the Democrats to put lumber on the free list, and the tariff policy which has disorganized business everywhere, the price of lumber would not have gone down. The lumber dealers would have started their logging camps two months earlier than they did, and the amount of logs put in would have been from 100,000,000 to 150,000,000 feet more, thus ensuring employment in driving and sorting to 200 more men than the small quantity of logs landed can now keep busy. Boys, how do you like it?—Mariacette Eagle

A whole generation may be led from the right track by a misspelled word. "Nine tailors make a man" is an old saying and a good illustration of our statement. To look down upon the worthy profession of the cloth cutter because of such a proverb shows a want of proper instruction. In the olden times when a person died the church bell tolled once for every year the deceased had lived. But from the tolling of the bell no one could tell whether the departed was a man or woman. To satisfy public curiosity perhaps, on that subject, the sexton after tolling the bell, gave eight quick strokes of the bell if the deceased was a woman, and nine if it was a man. These quick strokes at the end were appropriately called "tailors." Hence the proverb which has been converted into a calumny upon a worthy occupation. "Nine tailors make a man." A person cannot be too careful of his spelling.
