The Drop Taken by the Dems
Last Tuesday Completely Buried the Party.

All Their Strongholds Stormed and Taken by the Grand Old Party.

Hill's "I Am a Democrat" Not Appreciated by the Good People of N. Y.

"Peck's Bad Boy" Put Back to Bed by the Noble Wisconsinites.

Knute Nelson, of Minnesota, Shows His Heels to the Free Traders.

The Next Congress Republican by a Very Large Majority.

Our Own State One of the Leaders in the Storming of the Enemy.

Michigan went overwhelmingly republican last Tuesday, piling up the largest majority ever given before any candidate.

Republicans elect their representative in each congressional district with majorities running from 1000 up to 5,500.

Stedman, republican, is elected governor of South Dakota, by not less than 10,000 plurality.

Illinois. Late returns show that the Republicans have elected their state ticket in Illinois, by a plurality of at least 90,000.

Delaware. The majority for the republican candidates for governor and congressmen is 1,200 in the state.

Missouri. Late returns show that the Republicans have elected their state ticket in Missouri, by a plurality of at least 90,000.

Indiana. President Harrison's home state is again in the hands of the Republicans.

Massachusetts. Returns from all but two cities and towns in the state give Greenback republicans, 176,212; Russell, dem., 128,430; a republican gain of 32,109.

W. M. K. P. and other organizations of that city. He leaves a wife and eight children; besides a host of friends and acquaintances in all parts of the state to mourn his loss.

Don't look for the flaws as you go through life. And when you find them, it is wise and kind to overlook them. And look for the virtues behind them. For the thoughtful will see a star of light somewhere in its shadowed hiding. It is better by far to see a star, than the sun in the sky shining. The career of life runs ever away To the horizon of God's great course; Don't stop your feet, and the river runs; And think to alter its pathway. Remember it flows before you. Don't hunt in the storm with your penny pin, but stand by the river's side. The world will never adjust itself To suit your whims to the letter; Some things are meant for your whole life long. And the sooner you know it the better. It is folly to fight with the winds; And to stand at last in the water; The water man shapes into God's plan, As the waves shape into a vessel. There was a time when women were altogether lovely—but it was in the days before "blowers" were worn, before strong-minded women had turned their attention to the reformations of the world, before woman's rights and bicycle riding and other things were thought of—when women were only women, and had only their love and their earnestly to get them into trouble. "Oh, my dear," a brave officer, reconnoitering a battery, considered impregnable, and which it was necessary to storm, observing the engineers, who were endeavoring to demolish him from
