

The Manistiquette Pioneer-Tribune.

VOL. 17, NO. 1812. NEW SERIES, 328.

MANISTIQUE, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, JANUARY 8, 1897.

$1.50 PER YEAR.

Winter Goods At Low Prices!

We find ourselves overstocked with winter goods and wish to dispose of them before placing our spring goods. To move them we have reduced the prices.

H. Winkelman & Co.,
Props. of The Boston Store.

C. L. CO.'S STORE.

"Too Busy Taking Inventory To Write An Advertisement"

Is what Manager Hill of the C. L. Co.'s Store informed us this week. He hinted, however, that the "C. L. Store" would continue to be the leading Bargain House in future as it had been in the past.

The G. L. Co.'s Store.

A BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

The Hubbell-Macdonough Wedding the Event of the Week.

Full Particulars of the Dazzling Trousseau and Ceremony.

At four o'clock Monday afternoon, Cora, the eldest daughter of Hon. and Mrs. A. C. Hubbell, of South Manistiquette, and Mr. Macdonough, of Duluth, were married at the residence of the bride's parents. Only relatives and close friends were invited.

Rev. J. M. Rogers officiated, using the impressive Episcopalian service. The bridal procession was formed as follows: First, the page, Master Ralph Hubbell, followed by the flower boys, Albert C. Hubbell, Jr., and Benjamin Chappel, then the maid of honor, Miss Louise Hubbell, followed by the groom and best man, Leslie T. Hubbell. Last of all came the bride escorted by her father. They marched to the church rail, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, executed by Miss Ballard. The bride was given away by her father, and during the service a musical program was rendered at the piano.

After the ceremony a brief reception was held, and congratulations were in order. The reception was followed by a sumptuous repast.

Mr. Macdonough is the only son of the late Colin P. Macdonough, of Duluth. Though young, he has already distinguished himself as an enterprising business man at the "Zeitch City," being a member of the coalition of Mendonhall & Macdonough, of which he is the junior member. His mother, Mrs. Hubbell, courted and won her while she was a student at Maynard Hall, a seminary at Duluth, and the engagement was announced almost immediately after her graduation last June. Mr. Macdonough is of Scotch descent, and has inherited many of the fine qualities of the "Hieland Scot."

The bride is the eldest daughter of Hon. and Mrs. A. C. Hubbell, and is extremely handsome, and is greeted with all the virtues which become an ideal woman. She is extremely popular with every one, and has a host of friends in her prospective home, where she attended the Maynard school for four years, graduating last June.

Mr. and Mrs. Macdonough left for Minneapolis on the 8:30 train the same evening, where they will remain for several days. From thence they go to Chicago, and to several Indiana cities. They will also visit New York, Philadelphia, and Washington before their return to Duluth. They will be at home Thursday of each week at No. 319 East Fourth Street, Duluth, after February 1st.

Aside from the family and relatives, the following guests witnessed the ceremony: Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Hall, Bay Mills, Mich.; Miss Eleanor Temple, of Muskegon; Miss Ballard, of Manistiquette; and Messrs. Murray Peyton, Frank Leach, Frank Lusk, Henry Staples, Albert Warner, Hamilton Lawrence, Charles Parker, Frank Parker, Rodrick MacKinnon and S. L. Johnson, of Duluth.

DECORATIONS, TROUSSEAU ETC.

The room in which the ceremony took place was decorated in green and white. The arch-way leading into the room was hung with green curtains of balm and smilax, while above grill-work were hung wreaths of holly tied with white ribbon. At the entrance of the room was lovers' knot composed of white chrysanthemums and mistletoe. A marriage bed under which the bride and groom stood was decorated with smilax and white carnations. Extending from the top of the bed to the four corners of the room were ropes of fine lyopodium producing a very pretty effect. In one corner of the room the wedding gifts which were numerous, were daintily arranged on a table, and large bunches of chrysanthemums, roses of various colors, and carnations were arranged in different parts of the room. The pictures in the room adjoining this one were festooned with ropes of lyopodium and holly and the arch-way leading into the hall was decorated with curtains made of evergreen and tied back with white ribbon. From the top of the windows to floor were hung curtains of green smilax. Ropes of fine lyopodium and smilax completely covered the banisters of the stair case, and the stairs were covered with white canvas. Between the doors leading to the dining room were festooned of similar design, while the prevailing color in the dining room was green and white. In the center of the room was a table of cut glass and silver. The center piece was a large cut glass bowl filled with white chrysanthemums and roses. From the center of the ceiling to the corners of the table, were wide satin ribbon tied with large bows at each corner. The bride's cake, cut in heart shapes, was repleted with white and green decorations, and occupied one end of the table. About the large table and scattered through the rooms were small tables adorned in similar style, the same colors prevailing throughout. The lunch was a very elaborate one, and much thanks is due Miss Eleanor Temple, of Muskegon, Mich., who attended exclusively to the table decorations and the culinary department. As the guests departed each was presented with a fifty little heart shaped box containing wedding cake. This office was prepared by Katherine Hubbell, the younger sister of the bride. The dress in which the bride was married was of pink ostrich feathers, and her traveling gown was of blue broad cloth, trimmed with white broad cloth, wide white and gold braid, tiny broad cloth buttons. Miss Louise Hubbell, maid of honor, wore white organically over white silk, trimmed with wide pink satin ribbons.

LIST OF PRESENTS.
Gold and silver stand rock and spoon, Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Merrill, Buffalo, N. Y.
Entre liteshe utensils, Mrs. G. A. Lyons, Washington, D. C.
Delft Clock, Mrs. Staples and Mrs. Lusk, Minneapolis.
Two elegant chairs, "Big Four," Duluth, Silver items, Mrs. Clara, Duluth.
Silver serving set, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Duluth.
Silver bread tray, A. Friend, Duluth.
Lithon fork, gold tines, Louise Hubbell.
Gold Orange spoons, enameled handles, Mr. V. P. Chappell.
Embroidered Center Piece, Mrs. Duval, Manistiquette.
Center Piece, Mrs. Benjamin Gray, Cheboygan.
To knife, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Hubbell, East Troy.
Vegetable spoon and bun-bon spoon, Grand Rapids.
Sung hats, Messrs. D. R. Brown, and J. W. Grant, East Saginaw, Mich.
Sugar tongs, A. C. Hubbell, Jr.
Berry spoon, Leslie T. Hubbell.
Gravy ladle, gold, Mr. W. M. Beltenger, Detroit, Mich.
Almond tin, Duluth G. Hubbell.
Table napkins, Mrs. Melzan, Duluth.
Lace handkerchiefs, the Misses Melzan, Duluth.
Complete mahogany dining room furniture, Mrs. Macdonough, mother of the groom.
Solid silver toilet articles, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Hall, Bay Mills, Mich.
Silver candlesticks, the Temple family, Muskegon, Mich.
Mahogany case, solid silver, for tobacco, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hubbell, father and mother of the bride.
After dinner coffee cups, with gold spoons, Miss Macdonough, Duluth.
Sugar tongs, Mrs. Ballard.
Gravy ladle, Mr. E. M. Hayes, Duluth.
Diamond bracelet, gift of the groom.
Cream ladle, Kate Hubbell.

BRIVITIES.

D. G. Currie has returned from Detroit.

Attend the poultry show; particulars next week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. A. VanMarter a boy Friday.

The new county officials take hold of their work like veterans.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Godon, a boy this morning.

A dancing party will be given at the opera house after Prof. Silvers' school of instruction this evening.

Bring your choice fowls to the poultry show. There will not be much money in it, but lots of fun.

Will Owsen, of Cheboygan, was in city yesterday wearing a smile that only a newly made father can wear.

A wedding, in which a prominent young lady of Thompson, and one of Manistiquette's young men, are to be the principals, it is rumored, will occur next week.

C. E. Kelso, of St. Louis, Mo., is in city. We are informed that there is a possibility of Mr. Kelso accepting a responsible position with the Chicago Lumbering Co.

The Macabees will settle the Cuban question next Friday evening. The question for discussion is: Shall the United States recognize the insurgents.

I. H. Kinnear will argue in the affirmative, while Prof. H. H. Hargrave will uphold the negative. Medames Bundy and Doan will also participate in the discussion.

NEW OFFICERS CHOSEN.

M. H. Quick Elected General Manager of the Chicago Lumbering and Western Lumber Companies.

Norman Fox Chosen Assistant Manager. A. J. Fox will be the Secretary and Treasurer.

There has been much speculation in Manistiquette as to whom would succeed Messrs. Messereau and Hill, as officials of the Chicago Lumbering Co. and the Western Lumber Co. The directors of the two companies mentioned above, held a meeting at their office this week and elected the following officers.

M. H. Quick, was made general superintendent of both companies, with Mr. Norman Fox as assistant superintendent.

A. J. Fox of Detroit was elected secretary and treasurer of the companies, to succeed Mr. Messereau. The directors certainly made a wise selection in electing the men they did elect.

M. H. Quick the new general manager, has been the superintendent of the Western Lumber Co. since 1881, and when the office of vice president was created he was elected to fill that position also, and has been annually re-elected. The new honor comes to him in the nature of a promotion for long and faithful service. Mr. Quick is conservative, and the personification of honesty. That he will be equal to the new position with its responsibilities, goes without saying. He is a practical lumber man and knows the business in all its phases from the best of schools—experience.

Norman Fox, who has been honored with a position of assistant superintendent, is well known here. For several years past he has been engaged in the business of inspecting lumber for Martin & Sillman.

The knowledge he has obtained in the past will be of invaluable aid to him in his new position. Mr. Fox is a young man of correct habits, and possesses a genial nature, two requisites for a successful business career.

A. J. Fox, we learn will not actively engage in the duties pertaining to the secretary and treasurer of the allied companies, but that he will have a representative, whose name at this writing is unknown.

Time is but a kaleidoscope of changes. These changes often tender tender ties. During the many years that J. D. Messereau has occupied the responsible position of secretary and treasurer of the company, he has, by his unobtrusive manner, and correct business methods, endeared himself to all. His loss will be severely felt.

Mr. W. C. Bronson is expected to return from New York today.

M. L. Rapin, of Cheboygan, is in the city, the guest of his son Charles.

S. Weisman, one of Blomrosen Bros' clerks, has been transferred to the Soo store.

Scott Brooks who is attending Olivet college, returned to the city this week.

Hon. William Saulsbor of Detroit, is in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. Blumrosen.

The depth of a man's christianity can be gauged by the manner in which he treats his horse.

O. B. Fuller our representative in the legislature, was honored with the caucus nomination for speaker pro tem.

Elsewhere we publish the official proceedings of the board of supervisors. The bills allowed will be published next week.

Landlord Christie, of Escanaba, will be prosecuted for serving quail, pheasants and venison to his guests on Christmas day.

A. C. Hubbell left for Lansing this morning for the purpose of casting his vote as elector for William McKinley and Garret A. Hobart, Monday next. He will visit friends and relatives at Saginaw, enroute.

It is the custom of the A. O. U. W. organization to hold annual memorial services in memory of the deceased members. The local lodge has prepared an elaborate program for that event which will be observed Monday evening, Jan. 18th.

An Old Warrior.

Ensign Bullock, will have charge of the Saturday Army meetings next Sunday. The Ensign is an old warrior having spent eleven years in the service of the army.

The meetings will be held as follows: Holiness meeting, 10:30 a. m. Junior Company meeting, 1:30 p. m. Private meeting, 7:30 p. m. Evening meeting, 7:30 p. m.

—Katie Kerns, Ensign.

Olympic Literary Society.

The New Year's Program to be rendered Friday Jan. 15th appears below.

Quotations from favorite authors.
Essay—"The Old Year"—Katie Cunningham
Story—"Horn's Expedition"—Maggie Cullen
Recitation—"Caucusing New Year's Eve."
Story—"The Old Year"—Emily House
Story—"My Vacation"—Ernest Shiner
Recitation—"The New Year"—Katie Kerns
Story—"Lessons for the New Year."
Recitation—"The Old and the New Year."
Recitation—"The New Year"—Jessie Davidson
Recitation—"Song of the New Year."
Music.—Margery Fisher
Glee—"The New Year."
Paper.—Gertrude Shill.

The Weather.

Mr. Jossa Randel, who has been keeping track of the weather for several years give the following data concerning the ill absorbing question, during 1895.

"Looking over the records for that year," he says, "I find that there were 105 clear days, 108 partially cloudy and 69 cloudy. It rained or snowed on 125 days, and the precipitation amounted to 30 1/2 inches. The greatest amount of rainfall on any one day occurred on Oct. 24—2.80-100 inches. The warmest day was August 5th. The temperature was 87 degrees. The coldest day, January 3rd, when it was 12 degrees below zero."

The record for the past week follows:

DAY.	DATE.	HIGHEST.	LOWEST.
Friday,	Jan. 1	40 deg. above.	25 deg. above.
Saturday,	" 2	" 42 "	" 31 "
Sunday,	" 3	" 44 "	" 33 "
Monday,	" 4	" 45 "	" 35 "
Tuesday,	" 5	" 47 "	" 37 "
Wednesday,	" 6	" 47 "	" 37 "
Thursday,	" 7	" 45 "	" 35 "

The Testimonial Concert.

Miss Maud Ruggles testimonial concert, will be given at the opera house Monday evening January 18th. An elaborate program is being prepared, and the best musical talent will assist Miss Ruggles in making this an event long to be remembered.

Those who will participate are Mr. and Mrs. Kestaver, Miss Ruggles, Miss Ballard, Mrs. Arthur Owen, Will E. Holboin, Prof. Olson, Miss Kennedy and Messrs. Tuttle, Lockwood and Webber. If in the city at that time Mr. Duval will also participate. The Swedish Quartet Club and Prof. Olson's orchestra have also tendered their services.

The program will consist of sixteen numbers.

Tickets will be sold in a few days, at E. N. Orr & Co.'s drug store. The general admission will be 35 cents; reserved seats 50 cents.

The people of Manistiquette should embrace this opportunity of showing their appreciation of the most faithful efforts of Miss Ruggles in the past, to entertain and instruct.

The Circuit Court.

The January term of the circuit court convenes at the court house next Tuesday January 12th. The following cases are on the docket.

CRIMINAL CASES.

People vs. Ryar. Violation of the liquor law.

People vs. Peterzen and Borg. Unlawful combination.

People vs. Nile Smith. Violation of the game law.

People vs. A. C. Miller. Violation of the liquor law.

People vs. Bradshaw, et al. Assault and battery.

People vs. Patrick McNamara. Violation of the liquor law.

CIVIL CASES.

Bower vs. National Protective Assn. Assumpsit.

John Loose vs. McArthur et al. Assumpsit.

Eastman vs. McDonald. Ejectment.

Dessault et al. vs. Dessault Divorce.

Spreeman vs. Spreeman. Divorce.

Coleman & Abstract Co. vs. Timothy Coffey, et al.

Mrs. G. H. Carey of Barron, Wis., is in the city, the guest of her parents—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bronson.

For Supreme Judge.

The re-nomination by re-nomination of Judge Charles D. Long, present chief justice and retiring member of the supreme bench, at the approaching Republican convention, seems a foregone conclusion. This is as it should be. Judge Long is a man of the highest legal attainment and has made the record of an able, wise jurist during his nine years' experience upon the bench and is otherwise equipped as the candidate of his party with the record of the valiant soldier and citizen whose reputation is above reproach in any respect. We clip the following concerning him from the Lansing Republican:

Many Michigan newspapers have already started the spring campaign and are urging the re-nomination of Chief Justice Charles D. Long for reelection to the supreme court. The Republican is heartily in accord with this movement. Judge Long has made an enviable record on the bench and by all precedent and right of party usage, he is entitled to a re-nomination. His record as a soldier, citizen and jurist is an interesting one and briefly is as follows:

Charles Deann Long was born at Grand Blanc, Genesee county, Mich., June 14, 1841. His early education was acquired at the district school and the Flint city schools. He taught for four years preparatory to a course at the university. The outbreak of the civil war caused him to substitute the battlefield for his university course, and in August, 1861, he enlisted in Co. A, 8th Michigan infantry. In the battle of Wilmington Island, Georgia, April 17, 1862, he lost his left arm and received a ball in his left hip, passing through and lodging in the right groin, from which would he is still a sufferer. He returned home and later in the summer entered the law office of Oscar Adams, of Flint. In the fall of 1864 he was elected county clerk (Genesee county) which office he held for four successive terms. He was prosecuting attorney for his county from 1876 to 1880 inclusive, was one of Michigan's four supervisors of the census for 1880. In 1885 he was commander of the department of Michigan G. A. R. He has always resided at Flint until September, 1890, when he moved to Detroit and later to Lansing, his present home. In politics he is a republican; he was elected justice of the supreme court of the state of Michigan, April 4, 1887, by a vote of 174,924 to 140,815 for Charles H. Camp, democrat; 27,053 for John C. Blandhard greenback and 18,530 for Lemuel Clute, prohibition. Judge Long has been prominently before the country during the past three years by an attack upon his right to his present position. At the national encampment of the G. A. R. held in Pittsburgh, Pa., September 11, 1894, his friends insisted upon his standing for the office of commander-in-chief. With an election quite evident, he withdrew his name in the interest of harmony. He has always been prominent in politics, business and social matters.

Ex-Gov. Rich.

John T. Rich retired from the office of governor of this state, leaving behind him an unsullied record. From the day he entered upon the discharge of his duties to the day he surrendered the office to his successor his public acts were open, frank and ingenious. His administration through two terms was distinguished by guilelessness and candor in every proceeding.

Probably the most memorable incident of his official career was his removal from office of Secretary of State Josiah and Treasurer Hamblizer for suspected complicity in election frauds of which they were the beneficiaries. It is required decision of character and firmness of purpose to make a move so decisive and momentous. It was like imputing crime to the member of one's family; but Gov. Rich yielded to convictions of duty rather than to pleadings of friendship and political expediency. The courage displayed in charge of a Spartan. At the beginning of his first term he was confronted by results of Democratic legislation, which would have disheartened a less resolute man. Excessively large appropriations had been made and adequate means for meeting them had been provided. The legislature gave away lavishly, but reduced the gross levy of taxes that it might earn a reputation for economy.

Then came the necessity for increasing the tax levy to pay the extraordinary liabilities incurred by the Democratic legislation of 1891, and the cry was raised that the Rich administration was profligate and spendthrift. That cry was purely silenced by proofs that the administration had been so economical and frugal as to prevent being made even greater largesses by way of taxation, and the next year's tax levy made under the Rich administration by a Republican legislature will completely silence the cry.

Gov. Rich was prompt to enforce the laws and compel respect for them when assailed by excited mobs. His heart, as becomes the heart of the chief executive of this state, was never dead to the cry of distress. He heard the appeal for aid that came from starving miners and homeless victims of fire and cyclone, and hearing, adjured the people to send them relief, and it was sent. The equality of mercy in him was not strained, and he permitted it to drop as gently as the dew from heaven to restore the citizenship to the erring who had repented their sins by being deprived of their liberties.

He gave the people a rugged administration. He had the sturdy self-assurance of a man who, knowing the right, executes it. But withal, he was kindly. Many a legislator will testify that he saved them from discomfiture by words of gentle counsel. The fact that he signed so many bills, and vetoed few or none, passed by the legislature, was due to his generous habit of taking into his confidence the authors of the bills which he could not approve.—Detroit Journal.

Forty-six persons committed suicide in Detroit during the past year.

The Fence River Logging Co. discharged forty men because they refused to work on Christmas day.

The Rapid River Record, Chas. H. Nugent editor, is a feature of the Gladstone Delta. If the business demands it the Record will be published as a separate newspaper.

The question of the taxation of bicycles will undoubtedly be discussed in the legislature this winter. These vehicles of locomotion are personal property—as much so as carriages and horses and should be taxed.

The L'Anse Sentinel entered its eighteenth year of its existence last week. Although the office has been twice destroyed by fire yet the paper has reached its patrons promptly every week during these years. Editor Jackson is issuing a paper that the inhabitants of Baraga county may well be proud of.

Dickinson county has a new court house and jail.

The Soo News entered upon the twentieth year of its existence with the issue of last week.

The Free Press says of ex-Governor Rich that "his connection with the public affairs of Michigan have been long and honorable."

A move is on foot to utilize the power of Chappie Rapids, seven miles from Menominee. It is said that a horse power of between four and five thousand could be furnished by this water alone.

Will Crane received his Christmas present a little late, but he was spreading the cigars this morning in honor of the ten pounds of femininity which arrived at an early hour today.—Cheboygan Democrat.

W. D. Gordon of Midland was the unanimous choice of the legislative caucus for the speakership. Mr. Gordon presented himself as an impartial and highly satisfactory executive officer during the last session of the legislature and his unanimous reelection is a deserved compliment.

BREVITIES.

Miss Kate Stewart is visiting her brother, Duncan, at Manistique.

Treasurer Chappel has improved the appearance of his office by adding new furniture.

Frances Blake, who has been teaching the young ideas how to shoot at Gulliver, came home to spend the holidays here with her parents.—Zsaneba Journal.

The Gladstone saloon men strictly observe the law. A resident of Manistique who spent Christmas day at that city says that the saloons were closed up as tight as a drum.

The Mousing Leather Co., on Monday of this week received their first shipment of hides, consisting of three carloads. There were 10,000 hides in the lot and they came from Houston, Texas.—Mousing News.

Two tramps wanted to get into the jail on a sixty or ninety day sentence so as to escape the rigors of winter. Instead of charging them with being drunk or disorderly, the officers then charged them with vagrancy and gave the alternative of leaving town or going to the Detroit house of correction: They left town.

There are a thousand idle men at Ontonagon. Since the fire 200 new houses have been erected there, many of them small shanties. There are 12 business houses, two barber shops, two churches and a postoffice and depot. Thirteen saloons do thriving business. Many of those burned out are still dependent upon the relief committee.

The Cheboygan coroner's jury in the case of the boiler explosion on the barge Rhoda Stewart last May, in which three men were scalded to death, returned a verdict of death by scalding. The jurymen stated it as their belief that the United States inspectors weakened the boiler while testing it and caused the explosion of the boat for leaving port with the boiler in such a condition.

A meeting of all school superintendents and principals in the upper peninsula will be held in Ishpeming January 29 and 30 for the organization of a superintendents' association. Teachers will be invited and fully 400 are expected to attend. The rally to be held on the evening of the 29th will be the biggest educational meeting in the history of the upper peninsula. State Supt. Pattegnill and representatives of the university and state normal will be there.

The Odd Fellows Install.

The newly elected officers of Manistique Lodge No. 353, I. O. O. F., were installed Wednesday evening, of this week by D. D. G. M., John Durno. The list of officers follows: N. G., Patrick Quinlan. V. G., Carl Krause. R. S., A. D. McNair. P. S., Jno. Durno. T., Angus McLeod. W. S. N. G., John Quinlan. L. S. N. G., George Benson. R. S. V. G., Otto Krause. L. S. V. G., Gus Smith. W., Murdock Buchanan. C., Henry Mix. T. S. G., John Doan. O. S. G., John McKnight. G., Corwin Adkins.

The Odd Fellows, and their families were present in large numbers. A number of Thompsonites were present also. After the installation a turkey feast was served in the dining room.

The Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railroad will be extended to Calumet early next spring from Houghton, the present terminus of the broad gauge road.

Who, How, and Why was the Bible-story by Rev. James Todd, D. D., with introduction by W. D. Thompson. P. D. D. 12mo.; 153pp. Price $ 75.

The author has expended much time and thought on the great questions of supernatural revelation, and this volume is the product of his careful searching. The subject matter was in the form of Sabbath evening talks to his congregation, and the information it contains is of priceless value to all who are interested in the Bible both believers and unbelievers. The bed rock of the foundation is clearly revealed and shown to be immovable.—From the Religious Telescope.—New York.

A Good Company.

Clune & Cuney, managers of the Cheboygan opera house have the following to say concerning Bryan's comedians who appear at the opera house every night of next week. "We cheerfully recommend Bryan's comedians and big city show, as a first class attraction, and will be glad to book them for a return date."

Tax Titles O. K.

In the case of Peter Muirhead vs. Louis Sams, decided by the supreme court Tuesday, a question of the greatest interest to holders of tax titles was decided. In January, 1895, complaint became the purchaser from the state, of the land in controversy, under a tax deed, the state having become the purchaser at the annual tax sale in December, 1893. The land had been sold for the delinquent taxes for the year 1891, and the bill was filed to quiet complainant's title under his tax deed.

In the opinion, which was written by Justice Montgomery, concurred in by the entire bench, the tax law is gone through pretty thoroughly, and it is held that the sale was regular, and that tax titles of 1891 are good. The sales under the law of 1893 are correct. The opinion says, in substance, that no sale can be set aside after confirmation, excepting where they were paid or where property was exempt. This makes tax titles perfect where proceedings subsequent to the decree are regular.

The opinion says this construction of the law may, in particular cases, work a hardship, but the law is the outgrowth of many years of investigation and experience, and was conceived by law-makers to be the best measure which could be adopted, having in view the purpose of compelling the owner to pay his taxes promptly, and it is not the province of the court to fetter away its plain provisions by forced construction.

Cooks Items.

Quite a few on the sick list. The Buckeye Co. is operating quite extensively.

Quite a few of our citizens took in the New Year's Ball at Garden. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gibbs, Henry Terrault and George Gibbs.

Mrs. Cornell of Manistique is visiting with her parents of this place, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. Mrs. Cora and Belle Thompson who have been spending Xmas with friends and relatives at Manistique have returned home.

Our school room door is once more open; the seats well filled and with our hustling teacher Mr. Barnhart at the helm—we predict much interest and good work. May 1897 be made a year long to be remembered by parents, teacher and pupils.

BESSIE.

Whitefate Notes.

Two fights here New Years day. Mrs. Harmon was at Manistique during the week.

Mrs. Blake spent the holidays with friends at Escanaba.

School began Monday.

There were twenty-nine present at the party given by Mr. and Mrs. Benson, on Friday evening in honor of their 15th wedding anniversary.

A. R. Walker of North Cranston Wis., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wimmer, in the vicinity of McDonald Lake, the past week.

Mrs. Goodreau, is visiting friends south of Gould City.

Mrs. Catherine Goodreau is at home. Miss Minnie Brassel is the new dining room girl at the hotel.

The teacher of the Gulliver schools visited friends at Petoskey during the vacation.

J. H. Van Horn, has quit cedar making and has gone to Lapeer, where he has secured a position more to his liking.

ANNE.

Garland Stoves and Ranges

have a world wide reputation. We keep a full assortment of them constantly in stock as well as everything in the line of SHELF AND IRON HARDWARE.

C. L. Co.'s Hardware Store.

Our Specialities.

- Pillsbury's Best Flour, Roach & Seebler's Creamery Butter, Chase & Sanborn Coffee, Club House Brand Canned Goods, Champion Spices.

THE BEST GOODS OBTAINABLE ARE THE ONLY GOODS WE KEEP.

Frank Clark & Co.

New Fads in FURNITURE, Stylish, Handsome, Durable and Cheap in Price. NEVER HAS NEW STYLES IN PARLOR, CHAMBER AND DINING ROOM SETS. been placed on the market at so low a price considering the work. We have Rockers, Arm Chairs, Etc., that cannot help but catch the eye of the most critical buyer. CALL AND SEE THE NOVELTIES AND GET OUR PRICES. C. L. Furniture Store.

CHICAGO LUMBERING CO. OF MICHIGAN. Manufacturers and Dealers in All kinds of Lumber and their Products. Also Merchandise of all kinds. THE WESTON LUMBER CO. LUMBER And General Merchandise.

CHURCH ATHLETICS.

NEW AND SUCCESSFUL AIDS TO EVANGELIZATION.

Rev. Charles Scadding, Plunk Phillips and Bowling, Tennis and Baseball Effective Agents in Attracting the Interest of the Young People of his Congregation.

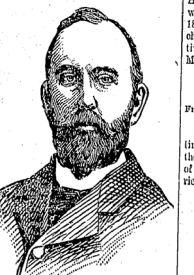

Athletics an orthodox aid to evangelization according to the theory and practice of the Rev. Charles Scadding, rector of Emmanuel Episcopal church at Logansport, Ill. His parishioners who constitute one of the wealthiest and most fashionable congregations in that handsome little suburb of Chicago, evidently agree with him, for he is very popular with all classes, and his innovations in church work have been warmly indorsed.

Emmanuel church no longer depends upon good music, regular services and occasional church societies to retain its hold on the young people. A reading room, a complete gymnasium, shower baths and finally a bowling alley add to its attractiveness. Winter or summer its doors are never closed before a reasonably late hour of night. On Sunday morning the solemn chanting of the choir, the deep, sonorous tones of the organ and the measured recitation of the rector, but on weekday evenings these somewhat give place to the lift and bustle of boxing gloves, the rattling of foils, the low rambles of tennis on the lawn, the whirring of the crash which accompanies a ten strike, and other "Set 'em up again on the other alley!" and the lively cries which young people who are enjoying themselves are likely to make in vain.

Perhaps these novel church furnishings would cause some comment on the part of those who are apt to regard such edifices as sacred and solemn places, but the congregation of Emmanuel church was gradually prepared for such innovations and has come to look upon them as the usual and proper adjuncts for fighting the sinful allurements of the outside world.

Rev. Charles Scadding, the man who has educated his flock up to the pitch where tennis and flying rings are considered appropriate for congregational purposes, is a graduate of Trinity college, Toronto. He has held pastorate in Toledo, Buffalo and New York.

When he went to Logansport, he found that the young men and women of his flock had but little place in the church work. To make them feel that they had a real church home was his object from the first. He began by going into the tennis court and proving his skill with the racket. The boys soon found that he was a first class baseball player and that he had few peers when it came to performing on the horizontal bar.

REV. CHARLES SCADDING.

Gradually he established a reading room and a gymnasium. The last is a roomy, pleasant, well lighted floor, which was equipped at an expense of $500 with all kinds of athletic apparatus. Funds for its foundation were originally provided by the sale of life memberships at $50 each and by association and active memberships ranging from $5 to $10 a year. Those who make an annual subscription of $5 are given keys to the gymnasium and allowed to use it at any hour of the day or evening, while those who hold $5 memberships are allotted certain convenient hours in which to make use of the Indian clubs, parallel bars and other apparatus for physical development. An instructor of athletics is also employed to give lessons to evening classes, which may be entered without extra charge.

Nearly 200 young men have become members of the gymnasium, and instead of being an expense it has become a source of income, for the receipts from various entertainments, provide more than enough money to pay all the bills of this department of church work. When it was proposed to put in bowling alleys some time ago, a novel method of raising money was adopted. Dr. Scadding called it an "election party," and the name was an appropriate one. On the night of the recent presidential election the managers of the entertainment had made all the necessary arrangements for announcing the returns. Voters had been run into the gymnasium, operators engaged and the ballistics ready as they were directed in the instruments. An admission of 25 cents was charged, but the receipts were further swelled by the serving of refreshments by the ladies. The affair was a big success, and when the accounts were settled the directors had money enough to put in the bowling alley right away.

Two years of experience with this gymnasium has made the address of the Rector Scadding enthusiastic over the possibilities of this kind of church work and has led them to take the broad ground that any form of amusement suitable for a Christian home is not too worldly to be indulged in under the church roof.

S. P. SCADDING.

TWO SENATORS ELECT.

Successors to Gordon of Georgia and Pugh of Alabama.

Two of the new senators in the Fifty-fifth congress will be E. W. Pettus of Alabama, who will succeed Senator Pugh, and A. S. Clay, the successor of Senator Gordon of Georgia. General Edmund Winston Pettus was born 78 years ago in Limestone county, Ala.

A. S. CLAY. E. W. PETTUS.

But is still vigorous and active in spite of his weight of years. He was graduated from Clinton college, Virginia, and began the study of law at Tusculum in 1840. He was admitted to the bar a year later and settled in Gainesville, where he continued to practice until 1858. He then closed his law office in Gainesville in 1841, and in 1852 was elected to a similar office in Pickens county. Three years later, at the age of 34, he was elected judge of the Seventh judicial district.

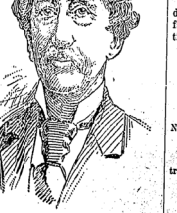

When the civil war broke out, General Pettus enlisted in the Confederate service as major of the Twentieth Alabama regiment during the entire rebellion and reached the grade of brigadier general. At the close of the war he located at Selma, where he has since practiced, holding a high rank in his profession. He has several times been mentioned for his services in the rebellion and has received a nomination until he was elected for senator.

Alexander Stephens Clay is one of the younger political leaders who are coming to the front in Georgia. He is familiarly known throughout the state as Steve Clay of Cobb county, for he is a native of Georgia and is widely known. He was born on a farm and worked hard for his education. He studied law, soon after being admitted to the bar he made his appearance in Cobb county politics. He became popular as a leader, and was elected to the legislature, in 1888, on being returned for the third time, was chosen speaker of the house. He was next sent to the state senate and elected president of that body. In 1894 he succeeded Governor Atkinson as chairman of the Democratic state executive committee. Mr. Clay's home is at Marietta, about 20 miles from Atlanta.

A VETERAN BIBLIOPHILE.

Protects Sumner's Long Service at Astor Library.

Frederick Saunders, who has just retired from active work as librarian of the New York Public Library, composed of the Astor, Tilden and Lenox libraries, has been a close observer of American literature.

FREDERICK SAUNDERS.

Heard and man of letters since the early part of the present century. He has had a personal acquaintance with some of the greatest of our authors from Washington Irving and William Cullen Bryant down to date. His mind is a richly filled storehouse of interesting reminiscences concerning the men who have lived with dignity and brilliancy to American letters.

Mr. Saunders is now nearly 90 years of age and has been connected with the Astor library since 1859. Although he has been retired by the trustees of the consolidated libraries, his salary is continued, and he still has his desk in the library. He was born in London, where his father was a book publisher. In 1831 Mr. Saunders came to this country on a business venture and has been here ever since. His first mission was to make a fight for an international copyright law, and although he was aided by Washington Irving, William Cullen Bryant, Bancroft and Henry Clay, it did not succeed. For a time he was on the staff of the New York Evening Post, under Bryant, but Irving secured him a place as assistant librarian of the Astor library. In 1871 he became chief librarian, and since that time he has devoted his best efforts to making that library what it is today. The Astor and the Lenox were never united, but he was a popular library, but a student's workshop, a court of appeal for scholars.

At old times Mr. Saunders has himself contributed several volumes to our literature. They have been scholarly, finished productions, chief of which are "The History of the Library," "The Titles of the Books," "Salad for the Soldier," "Salad for the Soldier," "Monies," "Festivals of Europe," "The History of the New York in a Nutshell." He has also written a history of the Astor library, but this is to be kept in manuscript form and is not intended for publication.

GAVE BACK MILLIONS.

Emma Spreckels Watson Returns the Fortune Her Father Gave Her.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—It is eagerly rumored that Emma Spreckels Watson has decided to her father's talk of her property, voluntarily making her husband, competitively speaking, a poor woman. Mrs. Watson consulted her husband about the step before she took it, and he gave his unqualified consent.

It is said that before the wedding took place, Miss Emma Spreckels informed her father that she wished to marry Thomas Watson. Mrs. Watson's father would not hear of it, and explained his daughter when she told him she intended to marry Mr. Watson, what her father had in mind. Persuasion proving vain, Mr. Claus Spreckels is reported to have resorted to taunts, chiding his daughter for her ingratitude and putting out her nose, much he had done for her. After due consideration Mrs. Watson decided to recover the property, and this was accordingly done, with the approval of her husband.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENTS.

Heads of Eleven Institutions Meet at Madison to Discuss Various Matters.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 7.—Presidents of 11 Western universities are holding a meeting here, called by President Adams of Wisconsin university, to discuss various university matters. One important feature is their relations to preparatory schools, with a view to securing uniformity in the standard of requirements for admission to a university. The foot ball question is expected to be brought up by President Jesse of Illinois, who wants the game abolished or else so changed as to remove its dangerous features. State universities of Ohio, Kansas, Nebraska, Indiana, Wisconsin, and Iowa university were represented.

Foot of Snow at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Jan. 7.—A heavy snow storm is raging here. A foot of snow has fallen, and, as it is drifting badly, street car traffic is impeded. A general blockade is feared.

BRIP BITE OF NEWS.

Ex-Minister Yonacino Gonzalez of Costa is dead.

Wannamaker was defeated in the Republican caucus for senator from Pennsylvania.

George C. Perkins has been nominated by the republican caucus to succeed himself as senator from California.

An other disastrous fire has occurred at Vera Cruz, Mex., destroying factories and business blocks to the value of $300,000.

Republican members of the Delaware house of representatives, on account of the decision of some courts, organized a "runny" house.

Mrs. Lewis's house at Wichita was sold at sheriff's sale for $500. It was sold to a man in New York.

In a 10-mile skating race at New York between John Danouche and John Lawson, "The Terrible Swede," Danouche won by eight laps.

The city council of Chicago has passed an ordinance providing for the wearing of headgear of any kind during performances at theaters.

The controller of the currency has declared a dividend of 60 per cent in favor of the creditors of the National Bank of Illinois of Chicago.

LATEST MARKET REPORT.

Milwaukee Grain.

WHEAT—No. 2 spring, 77 1/2c; No. 1 Northern, 81c; May, 81 1/2c.

WHEAT—No. 2 white, 10 1/2c; No. 1 white, 10 1/2c; sample on track, 10 1/2c.

Duluth Grain.

WHEAT—Cash No. 1 hard, 80c; No. 2 Northern, 75c; No. 3 Northern, 72c; No. 4 spring, 71 1/2c; No. 5 spring, 70c; No. 6 spring, 69c; No. 7 spring, 68c; No. 8 spring, 67c; No. 9 spring, 66c; No. 10 spring, 65c; No. 11 spring, 64c; No. 12 spring, 63c; No. 13 spring, 62c; No. 14 spring, 61c; No. 15 spring, 60c; No. 16 spring, 59c; No. 17 spring, 58c; No. 18 spring, 57c; No. 19 spring, 56c; No. 20 spring, 55c.

St. Paul Union Stock Yards.

HOGS—Market firm at yesterday's prices. Quality fair to good. Range of prices, $10.00 to $12.00.

CATTLE—Market steady and active; not enough cattle coming to supply the demand; more stockers and feeders wanted. Fat cattle in good condition and sold well at strong prices.

Sheep—Strong; good demand for fat sheep and lambs. Auctions, $2.00, lambs, $1.00.

Receipts: Hogs, 1,600; cattle, 200; sheep, 10, calves, 5.

Chicago Union Stock Yards.

HOGS—Market fairly active and steady at close. Range of prices, $10.00 to $12.00.

CATTLE—Market active, but generally 10 1/2c lower.

Sheep—Market generally stronger. Receipts: Hogs, 20,000; cattle, 10,000; sheep, 3,000.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

WHEAT—January, 78c; May, 81 1/2c; July, 82c; September, 79c; 1904, 78c; 1905, 77c; 1906, 76c; 1907, 75c; 1908, 74c; 1909, 73c; 1910, 72c; 1911, 71c; 1912, 70c; 1913, 69c; 1914, 68c; 1915, 67c; 1916, 66c; 1917, 65c; 1918, 64c; 1919, 63c; 1920, 62c; 1921, 61c; 1922, 60c; 1923, 59c; 1924, 58c; 1925, 57c; 1926, 56c; 1927, 55c; 1928, 54c; 1929, 53c; 1930, 52c; 1931, 51c; 1932, 50c; 1933, 49c; 1934, 48c; 1935, 47c; 1936, 46c; 1937, 45c; 1938, 44c; 1939, 43c; 1940, 42c; 1941, 41c; 1942, 40c; 1943, 39c; 1944, 38c; 1945, 37c; 1946, 36c; 1947, 35c; 1948, 34c; 1949, 33c; 1950, 32c; 1951, 31c; 1952, 30c; 1953, 29c; 1954, 28c; 1955, 27c; 1956, 26c; 1957, 25c; 1958, 24c; 1959, 23c; 1960, 22c; 1961, 21c; 1962, 20c; 1963, 19c; 1964, 18c; 1965, 17c; 1966, 16c; 1967, 15c; 1968, 14c; 1969, 13c; 1970, 12c; 1971, 11c; 1972, 10c; 1973, 9c; 1974, 8c; 1975, 7c; 1976, 6c; 1977, 5c; 1978, 4c; 1979, 3c; 1980, 2c; 1981, 1c; 1982, 0c; 1983, 0c; 1984, 0c; 1985, 0c; 1986, 0c; 1987, 0c; 1988, 0c; 1989, 0c; 1990, 0c; 1991, 0c; 1992, 0c; 1993, 0c; 1994, 0c; 1995, 0c; 1996, 0c; 1997, 0c; 1998, 0c; 1999, 0c; 2000, 0c; 2001, 0c; 2002, 0c; 2003, 0c; 2004, 0c; 2005, 0c; 2006, 0c; 2007, 0c; 2008, 0c; 2009, 0c; 2010, 0c; 2011, 0c; 2012, 0c; 2013, 0c; 2014, 0c; 2015, 0c; 2016, 0c; 2017, 0c; 2018, 0c; 2019, 0c; 2020, 0c; 2021, 0c; 2022, 0c; 2023, 0c; 2024, 0c; 2025, 0c; 2026, 0c; 2027, 0c; 2028, 0c; 2029, 0c; 2030, 0c; 2031, 0c; 2032, 0c; 2033, 0c; 2034, 0c; 2035, 0c; 2036, 0c; 2037, 0c; 2038, 0c; 2039, 0c; 2040, 0c; 2041, 0c; 2042, 0c; 2043, 0c; 2044, 0c; 2045, 0c; 2046, 0c; 2047, 0c; 2048, 0c; 2049, 0c; 2050, 0c; 2051, 0c; 2052, 0c; 2053, 0c; 2054, 0c; 2055, 0c; 2056, 0c; 2057, 0c; 2058, 0c; 2059, 0c; 2060, 0c; 2061, 0c; 2062, 0c; 2063, 0c; 2064, 0c; 2065, 0c; 2066, 0c; 2067, 0c; 2068, 0c; 2069, 0c; 2070, 0c; 2071, 0c; 2072, 0c; 2073, 0c; 2074, 0c; 2075, 0c; 2076, 0c; 2077, 0c; 2078, 0c; 2079, 0c; 2080, 0c; 2081, 0c; 2082, 0c; 2083, 0c; 2084, 0c; 2085, 0c; 2086, 0c; 2087, 0c; 2088, 0c; 2089, 0c; 2090, 0c; 2091, 0c; 2092, 0c; 2093, 0c; 2094, 0c; 2095, 0c; 2096, 0c; 2097, 0c; 2098, 0c; 2099, 0c; 2100, 0c; 2101, 0c; 2102, 0c; 2103, 0c; 2104, 0c; 2105, 0c; 2106, 0c; 2107, 0c; 2108, 0c; 2109, 0c; 2110, 0c; 2111, 0c; 2112, 0c; 2113, 0c; 2114, 0c; 2115, 0c; 2116, 0c; 2117, 0c; 2118, 0c; 2119, 0c; 2120, 0c; 2121, 0c; 2122, 0c; 2123, 0c; 2124, 0c; 2125, 0c; 2126, 0c; 2127, 0c; 2128, 0c; 2129, 0c; 2130, 0c; 2131, 0c; 2132, 0c; 2133, 0c; 2134, 0c; 2135, 0c; 2136, 0c; 2137, 0c; 2138, 0c; 2139, 0c; 2140, 0c; 2141, 0c; 2142, 0c; 2143, 0c; 2144, 0c; 2145, 0c; 2146, 0c; 2147, 0c; 2148, 0c; 2149, 0c; 2150, 0c; 2151, 0c; 2152, 0c; 2153, 0c; 2154, 0c; 2155, 0c; 2156, 0c; 2157, 0c; 2158, 0c; 2159, 0c; 2160, 0c; 2161, 0c; 2162, 0c; 2163, 0c; 2164, 0c; 2165, 0c; 2166, 0c; 2167, 0c; 2168, 0c; 2169, 0c; 2170, 0c; 2171, 0c; 2172, 0c; 2173, 0c; 2174, 0c; 2175, 0c; 2176, 0c; 2177, 0c; 2178, 0c; 2179, 0c; 2180, 0c; 2181, 0c; 2182, 0c; 2183, 0c; 2184, 0c; 2185, 0c; 2186, 0c; 2187, 0c; 2188, 0c; 2189, 0c; 2190, 0c; 2191, 0c; 2192, 0c; 2193, 0c; 2194, 0c; 2195, 0c; 2196, 0c; 2197, 0c; 2198, 0c; 2199, 0c; 2200, 0c; 2201, 0c; 2202, 0c; 2203, 0c; 2204, 0c; 2205, 0c; 2206, 0c; 2207, 0c; 2208, 0c; 2209, 0c; 2210, 0c; 2211, 0c; 2212, 0c; 2213, 0c; 2214, 0c; 2215, 0c; 2216, 0c; 2217, 0c; 2218, 0c; 2219, 0c; 2220, 0c; 2221, 0c; 2222, 0c; 2223, 0c; 2224, 0c; 2225, 0c; 2226, 0c; 2227, 0c; 2228, 0c; 2229, 0c; 2230, 0c; 2231, 0c; 2232, 0c; 2233, 0c; 2234, 0c; 2235, 0c; 2236, 0c; 2237, 0c; 2238, 0c; 2239, 0c; 2240, 0c; 2241, 0c; 2242, 0c; 2243, 0c; 2244, 0c; 2245, 0c; 2246, 0c; 2247, 0c; 2248, 0c; 2249, 0c; 2250, 0c; 2251, 0c; 2252, 0c; 2253, 0c; 2254, 0c; 2255, 0c; 2256, 0c; 2257, 0c; 2258, 0c; 2259, 0c; 2260, 0c; 2261, 0c; 2262, 0c; 2263, 0c; 2264, 0c; 2265, 0c; 2266, 0c; 2267, 0c; 2268, 0c; 2269, 0c; 2270, 0c; 2271, 0c; 2272, 0c; 2273, 0c; 2274, 0c; 2275, 0c; 2276, 0c; 2277, 0c; 2278, 0c; 2279, 0c; 2280, 0c; 2281, 0c; 2282, 0c; 2283, 0c; 2284, 0c; 2285, 0c; 2286, 0c; 2287, 0c; 2288, 0c; 2289, 0c; 2290, 0c; 2291, 0c; 2292, 0c; 2293, 0c; 2294, 0c; 2295, 0c; 2296, 0c; 2297, 0c; 2298, 0c; 2299, 0c; 2300, 0c; 2301, 0c; 2302, 0c; 2303, 0c; 2304, 0c; 2305, 0c; 2306, 0c; 2307, 0c; 2308, 0c; 2309, 0c; 2310, 0c; 2311, 0c; 2312, 0c; 2313, 0c; 2314, 0c; 2315, 0c; 2316, 0c; 2317, 0c; 2318, 0c; 2319, 0c; 2320, 0c; 2321, 0c; 2322, 0c; 2323, 0c; 2324, 0c; 2325, 0c; 2326, 0c; 2327, 0c; 2328, 0c; 2329, 0c; 2330, 0c; 2331, 0c; 2332, 0c; 2333, 0c; 2334, 0c; 2335, 0c; 2336, 0c; 2337, 0c; 2338, 0c; 2339, 0c; 2340, 0c; 2341, 0c; 2342, 0c; 2343, 0c; 2344, 0c; 2345, 0c; 2346, 0c; 2347, 0c; 2348, 0c; 2349, 0c; 2350, 0c; 2351, 0c; 2352, 0c; 2353, 0c; 2354, 0c; 2355, 0c; 2356, 0c; 2357, 0c; 2358, 0c; 2359, 0c; 2360, 0c; 2361, 0c; 2362, 0c; 2363, 0c; 2364, 0c; 2365, 0c; 2366, 0c; 2367, 0c; 2368, 0c; 2369, 0c; 2370, 0c; 2371, 0c; 2372, 0c; 2373, 0c; 2374, 0c; 2375, 0c; 2376, 0c; 2377, 0c; 2378, 0c; 2379, 0c; 2380, 0c; 2381, 0c; 2382, 0c; 2383, 0c; 2384, 0c; 2385, 0c; 2386, 0c; 2387, 0c; 2388, 0c; 2389, 0c; 2390, 0c; 2391, 0c; 2392, 0c; 2393, 0c; 2394, 0c; 2395, 0c; 2396, 0c; 2397, 0c; 2398, 0c; 2399, 0c; 2400, 0c; 2401, 0c; 2402, 0c; 2403, 0c; 2404, 0c; 2405, 0c; 2406, 0c; 2407, 0c; 2408, 0c; 2409, 0c; 2410, 0c; 2411, 0c; 2412, 0c; 2413, 0c; 2414, 0c; 2415, 0c; 2416, 0c; 2417, 0c; 2418, 0c; 2419, 0c; 2420, 0c; 2421, 0c; 2422, 0c; 2423, 0c; 2424, 0c; 2425, 0c; 2426, 0c; 2427, 0c; 2428, 0c; 2429, 0c; 2430, 0c; 2431, 0c; 2432, 0c; 2433, 0c; 2434, 0c; 2435, 0c; 2436, 0c; 2437, 0c; 2438, 0c; 2439, 0c; 2440, 0c; 2441, 0c; 2442, 0c; 2443, 0c; 2444, 0c; 2445, 0c; 2446, 0c; 2447, 0c; 2448, 0c; 2449, 0c; 2450, 0c; 2451, 0c; 2452, 0c; 2453, 0c; 2454, 0c; 2455, 0c; 2456, 0c; 2457, 0c; 2458, 0c; 2459, 0c; 2460, 0c; 2461, 0c; 2462, 0c; 2463, 0c; 2464, 0c; 2465, 0c; 2466, 0c; 2467, 0c; 2468, 0c; 2469, 0c; 2470, 0c; 2471, 0c; 2472, 0c; 2473, 0c; 2474, 0c; 2475, 0c; 2476, 0c; 2477, 0c; 2478, 0c; 2479, 0c; 2480, 0c; 2481, 0c; 2482, 0c; 2483, 0c; 2484, 0c; 2485, 0c; 2486, 0c; 2487, 0c; 2488, 0c; 2489, 0c; 2490, 0c; 2491, 0c; 2492, 0c; 2493, 0c; 2494, 0c; 2495, 0c; 2496, 0c; 2497, 0c; 2498, 0c; 2499, 0c; 2500, 0c; 2501, 0c; 2502, 0c; 2503, 0c; 2504, 0c; 2505, 0c; 2506, 0c; 2507, 0c; 2508, 0c; 2509, 0c; 2510, 0c; 2511, 0c; 2512, 0c; 2513, 0c; 2514, 0c; 2515, 0c; 2516, 0c; 2517, 0c; 2518, 0c; 2519, 0c; 2520, 0c; 2521, 0c; 2522, 0c; 2523, 0c; 2524, 0c; 2525, 0c; 2526, 0c; 2527, 0c; 2528, 0c; 2529, 0c; 2530, 0c; 2531, 0c; 2532, 0c; 2533, 0c; 2534, 0c; 2535, 0c; 2536, 0c; 2537, 0c; 2538, 0c; 2539, 0c; 2540, 0c; 2541, 0c; 2542, 0c; 2543, 0c; 2544, 0c; 2545, 0c; 2546, 0c; 2547, 0c; 2548, 0c; 2549, 0c; 2550, 0c; 2551, 0c; 2552, 0c; 2553, 0c; 2554, 0c; 2555, 0c; 2556, 0c; 2557, 0c; 2558, 0c; 2559, 0c; 2560, 0c; 2561, 0c; 2562, 0c; 2563, 0c; 2564, 0c; 2565, 0c; 2566, 0c; 2567, 0c; 2568, 0c; 2569, 0c; 2570, 0c; 2571, 0c; 2572, 0c; 2573, 0c; 2574, 0c; 2575, 0c; 2576, 0c; 2577, 0c; 2578, 0c; 2579, 0c; 2580, 0c; 2581, 0c; 2582, 0c; 2583, 0c; 2584, 0c; 2585, 0c; 2586, 0c; 2587, 0c; 2588, 0c; 2589, 0c; 2590, 0c; 2591, 0c; 2592, 0c; 2593, 0c; 2594, 0c; 2595, 0c; 2596, 0c; 2597, 0c; 2598, 0c; 2599, 0c; 2600, 0c; 2601, 0c; 2602, 0c

Manistique Pioneer-Tribune.

By TRIBUNE PUBLISHING CO.
MANISTIQUE, MICH.

The excess of exports over imports in November was larger by $16,660.00 than for any previous November. The exports for the month were $30,535.00 more than for the same month in 1905, while the imports were $13,875.00 less.

The death of Missa Farrell, half-sister of Adeline Patti, reflects the immediate family of the great actress to a nephew, Alfredo Farrell, the actor in Atlanta, Ga. He is a young man, and has won success as a teacher and director of music. Last year he visited Miss Patti at Craigmans in Wales.

The clerk of an Illinois village recently committed suicide by taking poison. He had posted all his books up to date, and even registered his own death, evidently calculating the time the poison was to take to operate. In this, however, he was not quite correct as he entered his death at 7 p. m., whereas his body was found at 6 a. m.

On time necklaces and brooches of amethyst, that have been in vogue out of fashion are coming once more to the fore. The exquisite coloring of the stone is quoted universally, and is always admitted to have a peculiar faculty for bringing out the whiteness of the skin. A great deal is said, too, about the soft contours of its purple depths.

A well-dressed Hindu woman wears but one piece of cloth; this is six or eight yards in length, and a yard and a quarter wide. It is wrapped in graceful folds about her waist, shoulders and body, allowing it to hang loosely in some directions, and tucked in here and there to keep it in place. She is neatly and becomingly dressed without using pins, buttons or strings.

The most serious problem which is to shortly confront the authorities of Greater New York is that of an adequate water supply. The watershed from which the inhabitants of Manhattan Island receive their supply is not so extensive as it once was, and the chain of ponds from which Brooklyn receives its supply can scarcely be enlarged. Will the authorities in the western hemisphere have to go to Lake Ontario or Lake Champlain for an adequate supply?

Mr. S. A. THOMPSON, who recently picked his way through the Indiana mountains in Vermont, found a great river bursting diagonally from an almost perpendicular cliff 1,000 feet high, where the water divides into half a dozen streams, which divide and subdivide, spread out into broad, fan-like expansions to reach the canyon below. He says that the region is almost uninhabited, and there is not the slightest sign to show that the falls have ever been visited by white men before.

One daring man started a lunch counter for women, and as it became fashionable it still continues to be popular. Here the women come in in carriages to sit on high stools along the marble-topped counter, where they help themselves to the coffee, dainties, and order their tea or coffee. When the time for reclining comes the waiters appear with the special appliances for the generation of electric energy by the force of the wind acting upon an ordinary windmill, thus making it possible to capture the terrific power of a hurricane and to store it away for utilization, at times and in quantities to suit convenience, for light and heat, for cooking and for mechanical power.

Fortunes are now being made out of California gold mines that were abandoned a few years ago as not worth working. It is said that a majority of the most profitable mines of the state today are in the so-called played-out camps and that few of the new discoveries opened in later times have held out well. This development is partly due to discoveries of new ore bodies by deep prospecting, but seems to be mainly attributable to improved methods of mining and of extracting the yellow ore. The history of South Africa can gold mining may be repeated in California.

Dr. ADAMSON, an Argentine (Kam), druggist, the other day took a silver dollar. On dropping it into the cash drawer, by its ring, he suspected it of being a counterfeit. He placed it upon iron scales and struck it sharp with a hammer. To his surprise the coin flew open, revealing a beautifully wrought miniature lock of gold. It was of the finest workmanship and was set in the coin which served as a case for it. So skillful had the thieves been placed in the coin that it was impossible to detect them with the naked eye when the money piece was closed.

LULLABY.

Good night! Good night! An angel's wings are shading,
Softly the weary world, and number
Around us, and our little wears a fumber:
But thy still nestles to the heart that sleeps.
Dreams, happy dreams, shall make us for the morrow
More glad, more brave, more strong to love and work.
Dreams, holy dreams, shall show how wide, sir, and it's only my duty to keep things tidy.
"Yes, Susy, that is very true; but very few of us do our duty, you know, in this world."
"That we ought to, sir," said the girl, in a tone of quiet reproach that made the young man smile.
"Perhaps," said the young man, "but then, you see, we are not all pretty and good, like you. I'm sorry you won't take the money. I hope you are not offended at me for offering it," and William adjusted his monocle and looked his sweetest at the young person standing before him.
"Oh, no, sir," she said, "I'm not at all offended, and I thank you very much, very much, indeed, sir, and I would like to ask you a question, if you wouldn't think me too bold."
"Bold?" cried William. "Why, I think you are the shyest little woman I have ever seen. I'll be very pleased to answer any question you may ask me.
What is it?"
"You see, sir, I've got a little money of my own right! Good night!"
"Well, I declare, Susy, this is very interesting. I'd no idea you were an heirless."
"Oh! not an heirless, sir; far from it!
It's only a little matter of four or five hundred pounds, sir," said Susy, dropping him an awkward little courtesy,
which he thought most charming.
"The money is in the bank and draws no interest, and I thought I would like to invest it where it would bring in something."
"Certainly, Susy, and a most laudable desire on your part. Was it about that you wished to question me?"
"Yes, if you please, sir, I saw this paper on your desk, and I thought I would ask you if you thought it would be safe for me to put my money in these mines, sir. Seeing the paper here,
I, supposed you had something to do with it."
William whistled a long, incredulous
note, and said: "So you have been reading my papers, have you, miss?"
"Oh, no, sir," said the girl, looking up at him with startled eyes. "I only saw the name of the Canadian
Mica Mining company (limited)."
William whistled a long, incredulous
note, and said: "So you have been reading my papers, have you, miss?"
"Oh, no, sir," said the girl, looking up at him with startled eyes. "I only saw the name of the Canadian
Mica Mining company (limited)."
William whistled a long, incredulous
note, and said: "So you have been reading my papers, have you, miss?"
"Oh, no, sir," said the girl, looking up at him with startled eyes. "I only saw the name of the Canadian
Mica Mining company (limited)."

Here he fished in his pocket for a moment and drew out half a sovereign.
"Here, my girl, is something for your trouble. Keep this for yourself."
"Oh, don't think of taking money, sir," said the girl, drawing back. "I couldn't, indeed, sir."
"Nonsense," said William; "I'm not offering it to you, I'm giving it to you."
"Oh, it's more than enough. Miss Longworth pays me well for what I do, sir, and it's only my duty to keep things tidy."
"Yes, Susy, that is very true; but very few of us do our duty, you know, in this world."
"That we ought to, sir," said the girl, in a tone of quiet reproach that made the young man smile.
"Perhaps," said the young man, "but then, you see, we are not all pretty and good, like you. I'm sorry you won't take the money. I hope you are not offended at me for offering it," and William adjusted his monocle and looked his sweetest at the young person standing before him.
"Oh, no, sir," she said, "I'm not at all offended, and I thank you very much, very much, indeed, sir, and I would like to ask you a question, if you wouldn't think me too bold."
"Bold?" cried William. "Why, I think you are the shyest little woman I have ever seen. I'll be very pleased to answer any question you may ask me. What is it?"
"You see, sir, I've got a little money of my own right! Good night!"
"Well, I declare, Susy, this is very interesting. I'd no idea you were an heirless."
"Oh! not an heirless, sir; far from it! It's only a little matter of four or five hundred pounds, sir," said Susy, dropping him an awkward little courtesy, which he thought most charming.
"The money is in the bank and draws no interest, and I thought I would like to invest it where it would bring in something."
"Certainly, Susy, and a most laudable desire on your part. Was it about that you wished to question me?"
"Yes, if you please, sir, I saw this paper on your desk, and I thought I would ask you if you thought it would be safe for me to put my money in these mines, sir. Seeing the paper here, I, supposed you had something to do with it."
William whistled a long, incredulous note, and said: "So you have been reading my papers, have you, miss?"
"Oh, no, sir," said the girl, looking up at him with startled eyes. "I only saw the name of the Canadian Mica Mining company (limited)."
William whistled a long, incredulous note, and said: "So you have been reading my papers, have you, miss?"
"Oh, no, sir," said the girl, looking up at him with startled eyes. "I only saw the name of the Canadian Mica Mining company (limited)."

are going to get the money, and they are not."
"And you have the money to buy the mine when the option runs out, sir?"
"Oh, certainly," William, in surprise, "you have a prodigious head for business, Susy. I never saw anyone pick it up so fast. You will have to leave me from me and go on the market and speculate yourself."
"Oh, I should like to do that, sir, I should indeed."
"Well," said William, kindly, "when you have time, come to me and I will give you lessons." The young man came to her, holding out his hand, but she slipped away from him and opened the door.
"I think," he said, in a whisper, "that you might give me a kiss after all this valuable information."
"Oh, Mr. William!" cried Susy, horrified.
He stepped forward and tried to catch her, but she was too nimble for him, and sprang out into the passage.
"I think," protested William, "that I'm investing your information under false pretenses; I expected my fee, you know."
"And you shall have it," said the girl, laughing. "I'll give you ten per cent. on my money."
"Egad," said William to himself, as he entered his room again, "I will see how I can get out of this. She is as clear as an outside broker."
When young Longworth had left for his office, Susy swept and dusted his room again, and then went down stairs.
"Where's the mistress?" she asked a fellow servant.
"In the library," was the answer, and to the library Susy went, entering the room without knocking, much to the amazement of Edith Longworth, who sat near the window with a book in her lap. But further surprise was in store for the lady of the house. The housemaid, who had just entered the room, seating a comfortable chair, threw herself down in it, exclaiming:
"Oh, dear me! I'm so tired!"
"What's the matter?" asked Longworth, "what is the meaning of this?"
"It means, madam," said Susy, "that I'm going to check it."
"Going to check what?" asked Miss Longworth, amazed.
"Going to check it. Don't you understand? Going to give up my situation. I've had enough of this life."
"Very well," said the young woman, rising, "you may give notice in the proper way. You have no right to come into this room in this impudent manner. Be so good as to go to your own room."
"My! said Susy, "you can do this with ease. I'll give you my notice. I can accomplish an altitude like that. If you were a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
Something in the laugh aroused Miss Longworth's recollection, and a chill ran down her spine. She looked at the girl again, she saw she was mistaken. Susy jumped up, still laughing, and drew a little pin from the cap she wore. She put it in the chair, then she pulled off her wig, and stood before Edith Longworth her natural self.
"Miss Brewster!" gasped the astonished Edith. "What are you doing in my house in that disgraceful manner? You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity, and I will tell you something about your own family. I thought you were a set of rogues, and now I can prove it."
"Will you leave my house this instant?" cried Edith, in anger. "I shall not listen to you."
"I shall not," said Jennie, "for I shall follow your example and not let you out until you do hear what I have to tell you."
"You are a little prettier, Miss Longworth, I should call that striking," and she threw back her head and laughed.
"Oh, said Jennie, "I'm the lady slave, and how do you think I have come to this? Now see, Miss Dignity

WOOL SCHEDULE

The Ways and Means Committee Reaches an Important Point of Tariff.

Lawrence of the National Growers' Association, Present Their Side.

Taill of From Nine to Thirty-six Cents a Pound Demanded.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The hearing of the wool schedule of the tariff by the ways and means committee...

The Democratic members of the committee probed the witnesses for some time. Mr. Wheeler of Alabama asked if clothing for the working men had not been cheaper than wool...

One hour was given to Judge Willoughby Lawrence, president of the National Wool Growers' association...

Referring to the political aspects of matters, Mr. Lawrence said that the election of McKinley had been accomplished by the wool growers...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana... that under the schedule proposed by his association American wool growers would supply the home market in four years...

PHOTOGRAPHIC COUNTERFEITS. Large Amounts said to be in Circulation Throughout the Country.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 7.—United States secret service officers have arrested Al Seger, the third man charged with imitating the forgeries of notes of the United States Bank of Commerce...

CONFERENCE BETWEEN THEM. Officers of the National Wool Growers' Association met with President McKinley...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

GET ALL YOU CAN

Speech of Cecil Rhodes at the Cape Town Banquet Causes a Sensation.

The Best Policy is to Get All of the Earth's Surface Possible.

Generally Thought He Should Undo Mischief Instead of Making More.

LONDON, Jan. 7.—Later reports received here in regard to the banquet recently given at Cape Town to Colonel Cecil Rhodes, ex-president of Cape Colony...

THE APPROPRIATE PRESENT. Smithsonian Institute Will Give the Sultan a Figure of a Sioux Chief.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The Smithsonian Institution has decided to make the 'Sultan of Turkey a present of a life-size figure of a Sioux Indian chief...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for criminal libel against ex-representative Charles G. Conn of Indiana...

ADVISES CONSOLIDATION.

Unionist Telegrams Says There Are Two Plans in the Air.

Most of the Students Were Away on Vacation, Thus Escaping.

Called on McKinley. Member of the Cuban Junta Visited the President.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 7.—It has developed that Senator F. G. Pierson of the Cuban Junta had a conference with President-elect McKinley at the home of M. A. Hanna Sunday...

SPANISH CRISIS. Honors of Impending Trouble Current at Paris.

LONDON, Jan. 7.—The Daily News Paris correspondent says that rumors continue of an impending crisis in Spain...

WILL NOT BE PRESSED. The Cameron Resolutions Said to Be Practically Dead.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—In the absence of Senator Cameron, the resolutions on foreign relations did not take up the Cuban question...

WILL NOT BE PRESSED. The Cameron Resolutions Said to Be Practically Dead.

MADRID, Jan. 7.—The correspondent at Havana of the Imperialist of this city says that he has had an interview with Captain General Weyler...

DEED NOT INTEND TO RECALL WEYLER. Mr. Depue's intention was recalled by a formal denial that the government has any intention of superceding Captain Weyler as captain general of Cuba.

AMENORATING THE POSITION OF MUSKOGEE. CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 7.—It appears that the ambassadors of the powers in St. Petersburg are considering the treatment of the Muskogeans in the United States...

MEADOWCROFT'S SENTENCES COMMUTED. SPOWINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 7.—Governor Altdorf commuted the sentences of the Chicago bankers, Charles J. and Frank R. Meadowcroft, convicted of receiving stolen goods...

FLEEING FROM THE FLAG. DOWRY, Jan. 7.—The mail operatives and their families are quitting the city en masse...

NO FAITH IN THE DURATION OF PEACE. PARIS, Jan. 7.—The Petit Republicain says that the government has no faith in the duration of peace...

ROBERTS' BODY FOUND. DUNSMUIR, N. Y., Jan. 7.—A body was found in a cave near Dunsmuir, N. Y., which is believed to be that of the missing explorer...

SISTERS PERISH

The Ursteline Convent at Quebec, Quebec, Destroyed by Fire.

Seven of the Sisters of the Institution Perishing in the Flames.

Most of the Students Were Away on Vacation, Thus Escaping.

QUEBEC, Jan. 7.—The Ursteline Convent of Our Lady of Lake St. John, Quebec, was destroyed by fire...

When it became known that the convent was on fire there was consternation in the city...

TO THE WATER'S EDGE. Honorable L. M. Bennett Burned Off Southport, Conn.

SOUTHPORT, Conn., Jan. 7.—What appeared to be a serious fire at Southport, about one mile off shore, was discovered by inhabitants of Southport...

WILL NOT BE PRESSED. The Cameron Resolutions Said to Be Practically Dead.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—In the absence of Senator Cameron, the resolutions on foreign relations did not take up the Cuban question...

WILL NOT BE PRESSED. The Cameron Resolutions Said to Be Practically Dead.

MADRID, Jan. 7.—The correspondent at Havana of the Imperialist of this city says that he has had an interview with Captain General Weyler...

DEED NOT INTEND TO RECALL WEYLER. Mr. Depue's intention was recalled by a formal denial that the government has any intention of superceding Captain Weyler as captain general of Cuba.

AMENORATING THE POSITION OF MUSKOGEE. CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 7.—It appears that the ambassadors of the powers in St. Petersburg are considering the treatment of the Muskogeans in the United States...

MEADOWCROFT'S SENTENCES COMMUTED. SPOWINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 7.—Governor Altdorf commuted the sentences of the Chicago bankers, Charles J. and Frank R. Meadowcroft...

FLEEING FROM THE FLAG. DOWRY, Jan. 7.—The mail operatives and their families are quitting the city en masse...

NO FAITH IN THE DURATION OF PEACE. PARIS, Jan. 7.—The Petit Republicain says that the government has no faith in the duration of peace...

CLOTHING

HARD TIMES' PRICES.

Overcoats from $15 up Suits $18 up

Hundreds of Pieces of Goods to Select from and Clothing made in the latest styles.

Good workmanship and Clothing Guaranteed to fit. We guarantee satisfaction to all.

Julius Peterson, Merchant Tailor, Oak St.

BIG CUT ON CURTAINS! It is a sort of a friendly gift we are making to you. We will sell 25ct Curtains for 20 cents 20ct " " 15 cents

Large Stock of WALL PAPER... AT LOWEST PRICES.

Big Reductions School Supplies

PRICES CUT on our entire stock. By taking advantage of our low prices you will be the gainer thereby.

Do Your Eyes Need Care? Allow me to call your attention to our Optical Department. I can assure you most satisfactory results.

ROBT. KNUDSEN, Optician

GUS. EKSTROM, Painter, Paper Hange and Calsomine

SEYMOUR GRAHAM, PROPRIETOR OF CITY DRAY LINE

Ocean Steamship Tickets.

C. KLAGSTAD & CO., Staple and Fancy Groceries

Maclaurin

Still keeps the high grade shoes he always has. No dealers sell cheaper; they cannot.

Geo. MacLaurin

Manistique Pioneer-Tribune

Published by Tribune Publishing Company. Geo. H. Holbein, Editor. FRIDAY, JAN. 8, 1897.

BREVITIES.

Geo. K. Moody was in town Sunday.

H. C. Culver, of Corinna, was in the city Wednesday.

Fred Orr returned from Minneapolis, Wednesday morning.

W. W. Owen left for New York state last Friday on a visit to his aged mother.

Hugh Hayden left for Detroit this morning where he will rusticate for several days.

James Mutart, of South Manistique was a very pleasant caller, at this office last Saturday.

Mr. Schuman, of Hancock, was in this vicinity early in the week, selling ingolders for tailor made clothing.

Hans Juhl, the Horace Greely Menstrance, was in the city Sunday and Monday calling upon friends and relatives.

M. Blumrosen leaves for New York city next week to purchase goods for Blumrosen Bros.' big department store at the Soo.

A. Eph. Fydel left Tuesday morning for Grand Marais. He has accepted the foremanship of the Leader, published in that city.

Samuel Mix and son Will, left Tuesday, for Ottawa, Ont., where they will visit friends and relatives. They may also extend their visit to Brockville.

Prof. Bryan's Comedians will hold forth at the opera house every evening next week. A ladies band and orchestra are features of the company.

Mr. Loranger will not act as Probate Judge Meserac's deputy, as stated last week. Mr. Meserac will attend to the duties of the office personally.

Bring your cast off clothing to the headquarters of the Central Relief association. A number of people in this city are really suffering for lack of clothing. The association will distribute your offerings in an intelligent manner.

The Chicago Lumbering Co. won its suit against tug owner Adam Hartman, of Tonawanda, getting a verdict of $3,400. The claim was that one of Hartman's tugs set fire to a pile of lumber belonging to the company. The case was a very peculiar one and the trial lasted about a week.

St. James, Beaver Island, was the scene of a stabbing affray last Saturday. Mike O'Donald, a farmer of Gillies township, fatally stabbed William Brown, an unmarried man, 33 years of age, who was one of a party of men that were teasing him while drunk. In brief the particulars are as follows: O'Donald who is a man upwards of 60 years of age, came to town Friday to indulge in tangle legs, and, while he was under the influence of liquor, some young men out of his whiskers. He went home in a rage, but Saturday appeared again at St. James and again loaded up on the saloon. This time however he was loaded for trouble, and when the young fellows wearing false faces, attempted to frighten him he suddenly drew a knife and stabbed William Brown in the abdomen, cutting three-inch gash. Brown is now at the Park house, Petoskey, receiving skilled attendance, but is gradually sinking.

Miss Riggs has resumed her position at the C. L. Co.'s office.

Gas E. Katz of Calumet, is Blumrosen's Bros' new clerk.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John Holm, of Indiantown, a boy Sunday.

Skating at the Star opera house Saturday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. M. Blumrosen and two sons visited Soo friends during the past week.

Capt. Jos. Fountain of Seul Choix light station was in the city early in the week.

Isaac Pauley came home from Bay Mills, to spend New Years with his relatives here.

Mr. H. C. Duvall, secretary of the Weston Furnace Co., has gone east on a business trip.

Mr. Stilson, of Detroit, is in the city adjusting the inventories of the C. L. and W. L. Co's stores.

Capt. Girvin, who has been operating a tug for the Marquette Fish Co., the past season, has returned to this city.

Miss Kennedy began her duties as vocal instructor of the public schools last Monday. Her work is highly complimented.

Hon. Marcus Hanna will probably attend the annual banquet of the Michigan Club, to be held on Washington's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Casper and daughter, Annetta, spent a portion of the past week with relatives at Garden. They returned Monday.

Mr. John Hamel and family returned from Wilford, Ont., Tuesday evening, where they visited friends and relatives for several weeks.

Will Holbein, of Munising, will participate in the Rogues testimonial concert. He has been invited to sing two solos upon that occasion.

Geo. Stalken is desirous of securing a pardon and has persuaded numerous citizens to write personal letters to the board of pardons in his behalf.

A largely attended dance was given at Garden New Year's night. There were people in attendance from Pray, etc, Cooks, Escanaba and Manistique.

It is amusing to see a fellow that "stopped his paper," for some fanciful grievance, hustle around and borrow the paper that he "stopped," from some neighbor.

The Hall & Buell Co. have a sufficient quantity of logs on hand to keep the mill in operation two or more months next season. The company is considering the idea of purchasing additional timber so as to keep the mill busy the whole season.

Geo. P. McCallum, of Thompson, who is attending the law department of the State University, will be one of the contestants in the oratorical contest to be held at Ann Arbor in February. He will treat the Cuban question.

Rumor is current that a large tannery, and pulp wood mill will be located in Manistique during the year up on which we are entering. Hope the rumor is true. New industries would give this city a great boom. It is possible for this city to have a population of 10,000 within five years.

Frank S. Walker, manager of the St. Ignace Opera House, writes Messrs. Guinan & McLeod that "Bryan's comedians are here this week and playing to packed houses. They are O. K. and have a 1st class band in connection." At Star Opera House all of next week. Prices 15 and 25 cents. Reserved seats now on sale at E. N. Orr & Co's drug store.

The Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Co., of Menominee, Delta and Schoolcraft counties, held its annual meeting at Escanaba, Jan. 5th. A large number of the members were present. The report of the secretary and treasurer proved the organization to be in a very healthy condition. Only one loss, that of the killing by lightning of one of N. L. Neveaux, cows, was reported during the year.

There was a general revision ordered of the by-laws. The old officers were re-elected, Geo. W. Bouschor, Treasurer, D. W. Thompson, secretary, and N. L. Neveaux, and Frank Aldrich of this county, and John Saxton of Delta constituted the directors. There has been a thorough working out of design members, and is now on a sound basis. It was decided at this meeting to insure city property providing same was detached at least 100 feet from adjoining buildings, Mutual Insurance, and intelligently conducted is safe and cheap. The expenses of the above company, including a $50 loss, was less than $200 during 1896.

Great Remnant Sale

After our past season's business we find a lot of Remnants in all of our departments such as Silks, Black and Colored Wool Dress Goods, Outing Flannels, Ginghams, Satens, Prints etc., which we will sell at a Great Sacrifice in order to make room for our next spring goods which we expect very soon.

Rose Bros.

N. L. Neveaux, of Dryle township, was a caller at this office yesterday.

Mrs. W. E. Clarke spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at Thompson.

The union prayer meetings held at the Presbyterian church this week, were largely attended.

It is rumored that John Mosher, the contractor and builder, is contemplating leaving Manistique in the near future.

Geo. W. Bouschor, D. W. Thompson and N. L. Neveaux attended the annual meeting of the Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Co., held at Escanaba Tuesday.

The question that women should not be allowed universal suffrage was settled for all time to come, at Macabee hall Tuesday evening. Of course it was settled in the negative as it should have been. The judges were Rev. J. M. Rogers, W. W. Moore, Rev. Shank, V. I. Hixson, Mrs. John Mosher.

The business men of Manistique should unite in the idea of clearing their places of business at an early hour during the coming two or three dull months. It is a wasteful expenditure of time and oil to prolong the hour of closing. If the plan was to become operative its good points would soon be ascertained.

Appreciates the Compliment.

The Editor of THE PIONEER TRIBUNE: DEAR SIR:—I wish, through your paper to thank all my friends for tendering me a complimentary testimonial concert.

Realizing and appreciating the interest you have taken in the matter, I will, with the ready help of my musical friends, present to the public in the near future, an entertainment worthy of your criticism.

Very Respectfully, Miss MAUD ROGUES.

Elected Officers.

The ladies of St. Vincent De Paul Society met at the home of Mrs. John McGinnis, on January 1st, to elect officers for a term of three months. The following were elected: President,—Mrs. G. W. Austin. Vice-President,—Mrs. Cunningham. Treasurer,—Mrs. M. McNeil. Secretary,—Mrs. P. Miles. Visiting committee,—Mrs. John Costello and Mrs. John McCanna. West side Committee,—Mesdames De Paro, Schueider, Shurtzuan.

The Union Meetings.

The Union meetings at the Presbyterian church are growing in interest each evening, and there is also a noticeable increase in attendance. The plan is to be varied next week. Union meetings are to be held only on Sunday and Wednesday evenings. On Thursday the churches separate in their respective places, and continue meetings in various parts of the city are to be held on Tuesday and Friday evenings. The following places have been selected for the Cottage meetings.

West side.—Tuesday at residences of John Durno, M. Bunday and Aaron Quick. Friday, W. C. Bronson and Luke Shiner.

Oscar street.—Tuesday, John Quirk's. Friday, Methodist parsonage.

Lakeside.—Tuesday Mrs. Lydia McGregor, W. H. Garner and John Gay. ar. Friday, V. I. Hixson, Robert Johnson and Eli Blandhard.

On Friday evening of this week a meeting of the executive committee and the various sub-committees will be held immediately after the evening service. The union meeting on Sunday evening next will be addressed by Rev. J. M. Rogers.

W. L. Middlebrook was indisposed a portion of the week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Holm, of Thompson, a boy Sunday.

The monster candle at Middlebrook's spot cash store, was lighted Christmas morning and has burned ten hours a day ever since. More than one-half of the candle remains. SUPERVISORS PROCEEDINGS. (OFFICIALS.)

At a special meeting of the board of supervisors of the county of Schoolcraft and State of Michigan, called for the purpose of examining and approving the bonds of county officers and such other business as may come before, held at the Clerk's office in the village of Manistique in said county on January 6th A. D. 1897.

Meeting was called to order by Chairman.

Roll called and the following named supervisors were present and answered to their names, viz.

A. C. Hubbell, Harrison, Twp. W. H. Hill, Manistique. E. J. Ashford, Thompson. G. W. Gray, L'Anse-au-Loup. N. L. Neveaux, Doyle. A. McDougall, Gernafask. Thomas McCanna, Seney. Abner W. L. Middlebrook, Hiawatha.

Call for meeting was read and placed on file.

Upon motion the board thereupon proceeded to the examination of bonds of county officers.

The following bonds were examined and approved, viz:

Vernon P. Chapel, County Treasurer, with J. H. Bennett, C. B. Meserac, N. L. Neveaux, O. C. Bowen, Ed Ashford, A. Blandhard, R. L. Barnes, Dennis Hedron and A. C. Hubbell, as sureties amount forty thousand ($40,000) dollars.

Bond of Edmund Ashford, County Clerk, amount $2,000, with William H. Hill and Geo. H. Orr as sureties.

Bond of Edmund Ashford, Register in chancery, amount $5,000, with C. B. Meserac and W. H. Hill as sureties.

Bond of Edmund Ashford, Register of deeds, amount $3,000, with Walter J. Orr and Chas. R. Orr as sureties.

Bond of Walter L. Loranger, Circuit Court Commissioner, amount $2,000, with C. W. Dunton, C. B. Meserac and E. N. Orr as sureties.

Bond of Andrew P. Ekstrom, Sheriff, amount, $10,000, with M. H. Quick, Geo. H. Orr and Geo. Nicholson Jr., as sureties.

Bond of James Richardson, County Surveyor, amount $2,000, with E. N. Orr and Ed Ashford as sureties.

Bond of J. M. Sittler, Coroner, amount $2,000, with Ed Ashford, Geo. E. Holbein and W. S. Ramsey as sureties.

Bond of John C. Messenger, Coroner, amount $2,000, with E. N. Orr and W. B. Thomas as sureties.

Board thereupon adjourned until 1:30 o'clock, p. m. A. C. HUBBELL, Chairman, Ed ASHFORD, Clerk.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Board met as per adjournment at 1:30 o'clock, p. m. Roll called and the following supervisors were present: Messrs. Hubbell, Hill, Bouschor, Neveaux, Gray, McCanna and McDougall. Absent, W. L. Middlebrook.

Bills to the amount of $1,512.37 were audited. Moved, supported and carried, that the clerk be authorized to purchase a type writing machine to be used in the clerk's office.

Moved, supported and carried, that a committee be appointed to settle with the county treasurer. The chairman thereupon appointed Messrs. W. H. Hill, N. L. Neveaux and A. McDougall, as such committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

Your committee to settle with the outgoing treasurer have to report that they have examined the treasurer's books, checked the vouchers and verified the footings, and have found his accounts to be correct, and that he has turned over to the new treasurer the sum of $9,045.54, which is distributed among the various items as follows:

Table with columns: General Fund Overdrawn, Manistique Twp., etc. and rows of financial data.

Minutes of these meetings were read and approved as read, and signed by the chairman.

Upon motion the board thereupon adjourned without day. A. C. HUBBELL, Chairman, Ed ASHFORD, Clerk.

Our Annual Inventory Sale

Commences Monday when we will put on sale all our odd and ends in Dress Goods, Clothing, Furnishings, Shoes, etc., which we must close out before Feb. 1st. so as to make room for our new spring stock. Remember these are all new goods, and that our practice is, to never carry over goods from one season to the other. We have a few Cloaks and Capes left which we will close out at half price.

Blumrosen Bros.

Large decorative frame containing text: Closing and Cleaning up Jobs. Here are several unapproachable Bargains for this week. 10 Mens Overcoats at $3.00. 40 Children's and Boys Cape Overcoats at $2.00. 6 Pea Jackets and Vests at $3.00. W.L.Co.'s Store. Call early as at these prices they will not last long.

Reinwand FASHIONABLE AND WELL-MADE CLOTHING. The Merchant Tailor, West Walnut St. I do my own Cutting and Fitting.

Bargains in Underwear. High Class Drugs. One cannot be too careful when purchasing drugs. The best should always be purchased. I keep such drugs. Aside from well selected and complete stock of drugs and patent medicines, I also keep SCHOOL SUPPLIES, WATCHES, CLOCKS AND JEWELRY. A. MACLAURIN, Geo. Chantler