VACANCIES FILLED BY TIRENE.

Governor Appoints New Men to Successor the Late Military Staff Members.

Governor Pigue yesterday afternoon filled the vacancies occasioned by the resignations of Generals White, Marsh, and Smith, all of whom have been indicted by the grand jury. The appointments are: O'Brien J. Alden of Detroit, former Major in the Thirty-fifth Michigan Volunteers, to be Quartermaster-General; Ford Starling of Detroit, to be Assistant Quartermaster-General; and Paul W. Green of Ypsilanti, to be Inspector-General. Green is now Assistant Inspector-General and has held every position from private up to Adjutant-General.

THE CHEMICAL COMPANY DE-SERVES CREDIT.

Has Paid for August Miller's Treatment and Has Continued Him on the Pay Roll. The old story concerning "sunless corporations" has again been fully illustrated by the kind treatment the Burrell Chemical Co. is extending to Mr. August Miller, one of its employes who was so seriously injured several months ago. The company not only paid for Mr. Miller's treatment at the hospital but continued him on the pay roll during all this time and will continue to do so until he is able to go to work again. Kindly acts such as these tend to obliterate the chasm between labor and capital. Corporations, in recent years, are showing a more solicitous interest in the welfare of their employes. Many of the extensive employers furnish hospitals and the best medical attendance free of charge to their unfortunate employes. In addition to this many pension old and faithful employes, when, on account of bodily weakness, they are unable to continue the labor. Not many years ago old workmen who had devoted the energies of their entire life to their employes, were discarded not unlike discarded animals, an old shoe or a worn out horse, without thought as to their future welfare. Times are changing in this respect. The teachings of the Golden Rule appear to be more generally followed now than at any other time in the history of the world. Corporations only respect the laborer of the Good Samaritan in their treatment of unfortunate employes.

CHASER OSBORNE'S HOPES.

Wants a Solid Upper Peninsula Delegation to Support His Campaign. A Washington dispatch says: Chase S. Osborn arrived Monday night and has talked with several senators and a half a dozen or so House members, some of whom do not hesitate to assure him that he is the logical candidate and the one that gives the best promise of holding the party together in the state. He is rather modest about the claims he makes to them. He says he hopes to have the solid upper peninsula support, but doesn't know; that he has many friends in the lower peninsula who wish him well, and whose support he can rely on. "But," he adds, "it is a large state and a grand honor to be its governor, and I place myself without reserve in the hands of the Republican party. I am satisfied that if the party believes I can bring the most votes to the ticket, I shall be nominated. If the party does not believe so, then I shall be for the man who is nominated."

JOINT INSTALLATION.

The O. T. M. and K. O. T. M. installed their new officers last Friday evening. The Sir Knights and Lady Maccles held a joint installation of officers on Friday eve last. LAKESIDE SHOULD BE PROTECTED.

Its citizens are taxed but not protected from fire ravages. For some time past THE PROGRESSIVE-TIMES has urged the necessity of providing Lakeside Addition with proper fire protection. At present the tax payers of this addition are compelled to pay taxes and assist in the payment of the steam fire engine and hose and at the same time have no protection. It is claimed that the wells of Lakeside are so near the city that the fire hydrants would not supply the engine with sufficient water to operate it. If this is the case new wells should be drilled at once. The property in Lakeside addition is owned by individuals, and in many instances the modest cottages represent the life time savings of a laboring man. His taxes may not represent a very large sum, but, to him it is a large one. The taxes are paid by the wealthier business men. He deserves and should have his property equally protected. The real facts in the matter are that Manistiquet has a good steam engine and plenty of hose but if a fire breaks out in certain portions of the town the apparatus cannot be utilized. The village council should be urged to take action at once.

Mr. Isaac Whiteheadman Dead.

Mr. M. P. Winkelman received a cablegram from Suwalki, Russia, today, announcing the death of his father, Isaac Whiteheadman, which occurred yesterday. The deceased was 95 years of age and highly respected by his neighbors. For years he was a heavy holder of real estate, but sold much of his property during the past five or six years. He was married twice and have a widow and ten children to mourn his demise. Three of the children live in the United States, viz: M. P. Winkelman of this city, Louis S. Ince, and Sam of Manistiquet.

FIRE DESTROYS JOHN MELVANS' HOME.

Loss About $300. Insurance $300. Shortly before noon last Saturday the home owned and occupied by John Melvan on Arbutus Ave., Lake, Mich., was discovered to be on fire. The flames were first noticed on the roof about one of the chimneys here it is supposed that the fire was caused by a defective flue. The fire department responded promptly but were unable to secure any water from the wells in the vicinity as they are not properly capped, owing to the gale that was prevailing the fire department did excellent work in confining the fire to the house when started. All the household effects were removed. The loss will aggregate about $300. The house was insured for $400.

ANOTHER FIRE.

Linear Krowning's Cigar Shop Destroyed Tuesday Evening. Loss $1000. Early Tuesday evening Krowning's cigar shop was destroyed by fire. The cause of the fire is unknown. Either Krowning or the help were responsible. Mr. Krowning and his workmen were not in the shop at the time the fire started. The loss will aggregate $1000, with an insurance. A few hours prior to the fire Mr. Krowning delivered a lot of cigars to merchant about town, yet finished goods to the amount of $100 were locked up by the flames. The fire engine was not called out owing to the fact that the building was abandoned before the fire was discovered and there was no apparent danger to neighboring buildings. The loss will be severely felt by Mr. Krowning. Mr. Ashford was one of the first to discover the fire. He promptly notified Mr. Krowning. There was very little fire in the building but the smoke was so dense that it was an utter impossibility to save any of the stock. Mrs. Krowning who hurried too long in a building became unconscious and was rescued by Mr. Ashford.

CONCERNING THE PRODUCTIVENESS OF SCHOOLS IN HART COUNTY.

Many Home of Interest General from the Secretary of the Board of Education. We acknowledge the receipt of the twenty-first annual report of the secretary of the state. From it we glean the following items of interest: Schoolchildren in 1899-1900, 18,304 acres, of which 3,717 acres are improved and 12,787 are not. Genesee leads the other townships of the county in the number of acres of improved land, having 1,381. During 1898-9, 128 bushels of wheat were raised in the county on 295 acres of land. The average per acre was 17.32 bushels. Genesee township raised 1,614 bushels on 88 acres. Ironwood township was a close second with 1,510 bushels raised on 93 acres. There were 560 bushels of corn harvested from 22 acres and 11,160 bushels of oats raised on 667 acres. Manistiquet township is the banner township of the county having raised 1,058 bushels on 218 acres. 36,618 bushels of potatoes were produced in the county and 3,374 tons of hay were cut on 2,656 acres. Genesee township again leads the townships with 192 tons. There were 9,040 bushels of apples grown in the upper peninsula during 1898. Schoolchildren in Genesee with 391 bushels. The strawberry crop in the upper peninsula amounted to 2,400 bushels. Schoolchildren county is the second largest producer in the peninsula and is credited with 443 bushels. It also produced 27 bushels of cherries.

It has been remarked that the firm in Manistiquet always comes in a series of three. It is in so there is another one due in a short time, and the best way to prepare for it is to go to the Citizens' Bank and take out an insurance policy. Patrick McNamara dreamt Tuesday night that the American House was to be destroyed by fire. Proprietor Miller doesn't believe much in dreams but he is with purchased a number of pumps and is keeping the water tank in the building constantly filled. The number of new subscribers we are receiving unaccountably every week, is very gratifying to the management. Remember that we furnish the Chicago Inter Ocean or the New York Tribune one year free of charge to new subscribers who pay in advance or to old subscribers who pay up in arrears and one year in advance. No Lack of Good Timber. We have the names of: C. E. Kelso, W. C. Benson, M. Blumson, Dr. A. E. Burdick, Corraline Knappert, and C. B. Bronson mentioned as available timber for the village presidency.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.
Manistiquie is too small to foster a "Tammany ring."
Four village councilmen will be elected at the forthcoming election.
Hon. Gad Smith of Manistiquie has formally announced his candidacy for the congressional nomination.

Manistiquie is now without a health officer and appears to be getting along as well as usual, notwithstanding the vacancy.
If Manistiquie ever decides to construct a system of waterworks, the town will do well to steer clear of the men that were interested in the Manistiquie waterworks scandal.

The Republican party will make a serious error if it allows a certain fraction of the Democratic party to name the candidates this year. No "Hinky Dink" advances should be tolerated.

There is such a boom in the price of paper that the pulp mill idea should be revived. There is a vast and unfulfilled supply of pulp wood in this vicinity and plenty of water power to operate a mill.

Mr. Angus McLeod who so acceptably filled the position of village treasurer during the past year, deserves a re-nomination. He has only held the position one year and is entitled to a second term.

The latest political slate has the candidates placed as follows: Benj. Gero, President; Dennis Heffron, Patrick McNamara, Judge Williams and Walter L. Orr, Trustees. That slate will, it is needless to add, be shattered.

At the time of Charlie's birth the year was called "one" right at the beginning, say the masses. When anything is called "one" it is in its second year is it not? Then the opening year must have been the second year, and there was no first year. Funny mode of reasoning, that.

Mormonism received a deserved set back in congress recently. Roberts, the polygamous congressman will not be allowed to enter upon his congressional duties. The committee investigating the charges against him submitted majority and minority reports. The first report recommends that he be banished from the house while the other reports urge that he be admitted and then expelled.

The Mormons are discussing the idea of electing Roberts to the governorship of Utah as a rebuke to the U. S. government for the manner in which congress has treated him. If this is done Congress should banish Utah from the sisterhood of states, and make it a territory. Utah deserves this drastic treatment for the open manner in which its inhabitants disregard the laws of the country.

Governor Pingree has issued a challenge to the Republican party that if D. M. Ferry secures the Republican nomination for governor, he (Pingree) will be an independent candidate for re-election. His reasons for arriving at this conclusion are that Mr. Ferry is the avowed candidate of Senator McMillan and the federal push. He places the defeat of McMillan's influence in the legislature. This manifesto to the government virtually sounds the death knell of Ferry's gubernatorial aspirations. The Republican party cannot oppose Pingree's wishes and win a victory. With an independent candidate in the field, especially one as strong and popular with the masses as Pingree, the defeat of the Republican party at the polls next November would be a certainty. The party cannot afford the hazardous experiment of inviting defeat under the circumstances. The governor will not antagonize any of the other aspirants for the governorship. State issues are not the only important issues involved in the campaign this year. The re-election of President McKinley may hinge upon the result in Michigan. The Republican issue of the Wolverine state cannot afford to invite defeat in state or national politics.

Mr. V. P. Chappell is being mentioned as a candidate for representative.
If George Nicholson, Jr., could be induced to accept the nomination for the village presidency he would undoubtedly be elected and would make one of the very best officials that the village has ever had. His qualifications are undoubted, and Manistiquie would never have reasons for regret if he were this year's nominee.

Speaking of the attitude of our representatives in congress on the Roberts matter, the Washington correspondent of the Detroit Journal says: "The Michigan delegation will stand as a unit behind the report of the majority of the committee in the case of Brigham H. Roberts, and vote to exclude him without any delay whatsoever. It is not a question of establishing a precedent with them, as of doing the desired thing in the shortest possible way. William Alden Smith said this morning that he had intended to make a few observations in the subject in favor of the report of the majority, but finally decided not to take up any time."

Auditor General Dix is said to be willing to serve another term in the office he is now holding if the people of the state desire to continue him in the position. That another term would make a third one in the case of Mr. Dix may count against him as a candidate for the nomination, should he seek it, but one thing that will count for him is his faithfulness and efficiency with which he has discharged his duties as auditor general. It has come to be a matter of common knowledge throughout the state that Mr. Dix has made the best and longer record of any man who has held the office. He has enforced a system and promulgated in that office which have given very great satisfaction. It is not known that he will seek another term, but if he should be the party will have at least two good candidates to choose between—Mr. Dix and Harry F. Powers.—Mining Journal.

The idea of organizing an upper peninsula editorial association by various papers. In a way, the editors of the peninsula are acquainted. The personality of the editor cannot be divorced from his paper, and we know each other, in most cases, through the exchanges that reach the sanctum. We form opinions as to the ability of the various editors and speculate on their personal appearance. When we are so fortunate as to meet one of the editors whose paper has been a welcome weekly visitor for years—we will feel acquainted at once. Editorial associations are helpful to their members. Under the present conditions but very few upper peninsula newspapers men ever have an opportunity of attending the meetings of the state associations as they are invariably held in the lower peninsula.

We move that a meeting, having for its object the organization of an Upper Peninsula Editorial Association, be held at Escanaba during February.

REPUBLICANS OF NORTHERN MICHIGAN WILL FIGHT HARD FOR OSBORN'S NOMINATION.
A Republican of Newberry endorses the article that recently appeared in the Milwaukee Journal, and Mr. Osborn's candidacy, in the following stirring words: "I have read the article in your issue of Jan. 17, under the caption of 'The Upper Peninsula's Claims on the Governorship,' and was much pleased with the concise and pithy manner in which you set forth the claims of the people of this portion of the state of Michigan on the governorship at this time. To begin with, you justly state that the upper peninsula has had no candidate for governor, and such being the case, we have, up to date, no hard feelings toward our brethren of the lower peninsula because no upper peninsula man has occupied the gubernatorial chair."

Heretofore the Republicans of this district have been satisfied with some minor office, such as treasurer or attorney general. But this year there is a decided feeling throughout the district that the time has come when a strong bid should be made for the governorship. In many places this feeling has become intensified since Chase S. Osborn of Sault Ste. Marie became a prominent candidate for the executive chair.
Of the many bright and brainy men within the ranks of the Republicans of Michigan, it would be hard to find one better qualified or more entitled to the gubernatorial nomination than Mr. Osborn. Although comparatively a young man, Mr. Osborn is well known through the length and breadth of the state. He is known as a man of ability and honesty of purpose, a staunch Republican at all times and under all circumstances, and every true friend of his political enemies, on either side, would not surely be one in this district will be found willing to oppose him now, for if there ever was a good opportunity to land a candidate in the gubernatorial chair from this district, now is the time, and Mr. Osborn is the best candidate this district could produce to enter the field with any chance of winning. More than any other, he would draw support from lower Michigan counties and with the upper peninsula solid for him, he would this year stand more than a chance of securing the nomination. The upper peninsula is entitled to the governorship and if the 25,000 Republicans it contains would put up a united fight for the recognition of their claims, they would stand a good chance of securing the nomination of their candidate. The people of the lower peninsula were never in a better humor than they are at the present time, and with Chase S. Osborn at the head of the state ticket, the Republicans of Michigan would roll up majorities for their candidate unprecedented in the annals of their political warfare. Mr. Osborn is "the man for the hour," and the people of Michigan would never have cause to regret putting their trust in him."

THE REASON WHY.
Higher Prices Prevail Because of the Increased Demand.

The increase in wages is almost universal in the manufacturing industries. Fully four million workmen are getting better wages than they did three and four years ago, and what is of more importance to laborers, they are given steady employment, and all the while men who work are now employed at better wages.

The money which the laboring men are now earning amounts to hundreds of millions more every month than were paid for labor four years ago.
Prices are higher. Nobody but a fool would expect anything else. We could not have better times without better prices. Demand for goods always increases the price. When times are hard men who have goods will sell them below cost to get rid of them.
The people cannot buy because the money is locked up in bank vaults and hidden away by those who are afraid to lend it. Laboring men have little work and cannot buy even the necessities of life. Everything then, must be sold cheap. Cheap goods in all lines means low wages and hard times.

What would it be to the man who cannot get a dollar, and an exchange, if steamboats could be bought at a dollar apiece? No dear Bryantes, the very thing you complain of—high prices—is the very best proof of prosperity.
And it is not the trusts which make high prices alone. How could they put up prices of goods unless there were demand for them? Goods have gone up because there is a demand for them. Property has created the demand for these things, and it is as idle to say the trusts did it all as to say the people did it.
The people demand the goods faster than they can be made, hence the rise in prices. Has lumber increased in price because of trusts? It has advanced because there is a better demand for it, otherwise all the trusts in the world would be powerless to increase its consumption and raise the price at the same time.—Trenton (N. J.) Gazette.

LEAVE THE TAXES ALONE.
It is a settled thing that there are to be no changes in the tariff during the present session of congress and the assurance which is generally felt upon that point has had a by no means inconsiderable influence in promoting the prosperity which the country is enjoying. There is no greater incubus upon commercial and industrial enterprise than uncertainty as to the permanence of the tariff. Business men can adjust their operations to almost any kind of tariff if they have good reason to believe that it will not be subject to an early change, but when there is doubt in this connection enterprises is paralyzed and the stagnation which is the cause of hard times inevitably ensues. The administration, has therefore, done the best thing possible for the country in letting it be understood that no project for any modification of the tariff would meet with its encouragement or approval.

As a result of this policy stands no such project is in sight, but it is understood that various efforts will be made to secure some modification of the taxes which produce the internal revenue, and while the effect of changes in this direction is very prejudicial than in the case of custom house duties, there does not appear to be any good and sufficient reason why the law which establishes the taxes to be collected on account of the internal revenue should be amended. The current revenues of the Government are now slightly in excess of its expenses, but the suspension of the importation in the Philippines has not yet been accomplished. It is impossible to foresee how much more it will cost to enforce the authority of the United States in its new Asiatic possessions, while in any case the margin between the outgo and the income is not so great that there is any immediate need for reducing it.

It is not as though the reductions, if made, would correspond to the merits of the case. This is not what would happen. The remission of internal revenue tax would respond to the strenuousness and potency of the demand rather than to its equities, and the interests which are most entitled to relief, assuming that there are interests which are so entitled would not necessarily be the interest which would succeed in securing it. The whole scheme of taxation as it stands ought to be left alone.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL.
The announcement of the candidacy of Hon. Chase S. Osborn, of the "So", for gubernatorial honors and the consequent withdrawal of Hon. Horace M. Ore, also of Sault Ste. Marie, from the field for renomination as attorney general, will throw the latter nomination open again this year to new candidates. In view of the fact that two years ago Cwoosk went into the state convention with a candidate for this nomination who secured a remarkably large vote in spite of the lateness of the announcement of his candidacy, this late development in the political field has a striking local significance. In effect it means that Hon. Frank H. Watson, who nearly secured the nomination captured by Mr. Ore two years ago, will again appear before the convention as a candidate for this nomination, and in view of the strong showing made before by Mr. Watson, The Times believes that this year he will stand the best of chances for landing the prize. The Times will have more to say of Mr. Watson's claims later on, but in the meantime it may be set down that Watson is a candidate for the republican nomination for the office of attorney general and will be until the last ballot is cast.—Cwoosk Times.

The Soo News published a compilation of all the endorsements Hon. Chase S. Osborn has thus far received in his candidacy for the gubernatorial nomination, last week. The list includes nearly every newspaper of prominence in the state. Mr. Osborn has just returned from the proof of the many kind expressions of good will he is receiving from all sections of the state.

Manistiquie Tax Payers, Attention.
The time of paying taxes has been extended to March 1, 1900. During that time the tax collector will be found at his office in Anderson & Norvall's store or at his residence, near Arrowwood's store, Lakeside. Please call and pay your taxes promptly. GUST ANDERSON, Township Treasurer.

Pattengill Would Be Congressman.
A Lansing dispatch says: "The friends of Hon. E. F. Pattengill in this county are actually engaged in circulating a paper and securing signatures to an appeal to that gentleman to enter the lists as a candidate for congress against Hon. Samuel W. Benson of Pontiac, who will be a candidate for a third term. It is threatened that if Pattengill takes the field State Senator Collingwood will also go out for congressional seats. Altogether Congressman Smith may not have as comfortable a time of it, as there are candidates for his place at Flint."

Question Answered.
Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using August Flower for indigestion or the indigestion. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to treat the system and stomach, formation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling sick and had with headache and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied. There is nothing serious the matter with you. Sample bottles at A. S. Putnam & Co. No. 10.

Big Experts from Superior Statelet.
The custom-house figures show that the exports of the district of Superior for the year 1899 were $7,556,208, while the imports for the same period were but $494,705, which leaves a balance of trade in favor of the district of over $7,000,000.

Having a Great Cough on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
Manager Martin, of the Pierson drug store informs us that he is having a great run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sells five bottles of this medicine to one of any other kind, and it gives great satisfaction. In these days of gripes there is nothing like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to stop the cough, loosen the sore throat and lungs and give relief within a very short time. The sales are growing, and all who try it are pleased with its prompt action.—South Chicago Daily Calumet. For sale by A. S. Putnam & Co. Drug-ists.

Glorious News.
Comes from Dr. D. B. Curgle, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of sore throat, which has caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows that thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, skin boils, and itching sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by E. N. Orr & Co., Chicago. Guaranteed.

"What because you don't really want a wife at all, you don't want a wife?"

"You want her for a specific purpose, and then you have no further use for her?"

"I supposed that such an advertisement would call out individuals to whom a large sum of money would be a simple compensation for the services required."

"You propose to pay her to let and your agent will see to it that she is not to stick into oblivion."

"I imagine that such an arrangement would be a very profitable one to you, wouldn't it?"

"I don't know, it is possible that I am, but I have never been in a position to possess a woman."

"My father's name was Sutherland, and which he changed to Wood with the sanction of the court."

"How much did you say you expected your father to leave you?"

"I figure that my share of the estate will be about $50,000."

"All right," she answered briskly, "we may as well get on with the business. I will be happy, dear," Chicago Times Herald.

Something for Mothers to Think About.

EVERY CHILD born into the world with an inherited or early developed tendency to distressing, disfiguring humors of the skin, scalp, and blood, becomes an object of the most tender solicitude...

The economy of the Cuticura treatment is shown by the letter of Mr. W. M. Nielsen, of Lexington, Ohio, who writes that his child, who was born with a severe skin condition, was cured by Cuticura.

My son, when he was six weeks old, had a breaking out on his face and head. It covered all over his head, and he was very uncomfortable. I tried many remedies, but nothing helped until I used Cuticura.

My child was born with a severe skin condition, and I was very distressed. I tried many remedies, but nothing helped until I used Cuticura. I am glad to say that my child is now perfectly cured.

It will afford us pleasure to have parents whose little children are afflicted with any form of skin, scalp, or blood trouble, write to us for the above address for a copy of the Cuticura Book, which contains full directions for the treatment of all such cases.

How are you to speak of this year holiday? Is it to be thought-nought?

The physician that had his diploma and medicine stolen on his arrival in Chicago is in real hard luck. A man who may be able to practice medicine without an diploma, but the public insists on his having a diploma.

It is just 20 years ago that Edison gave the first public exhibition of his incandescent light in his laboratory at Menlo Park, which led to the establishment of the first system of electric lighting ever established.

Next June will be celebrated the four hundredth anniversary of the birth of Gutenberg, the inventor of printing. The contrast between his little supply of wood and movable type and the press runs is a good illustration of the world's progress.

Brazil's minister of finance has been ordered to burn $2,000,000 of paper money every week until an estimate of $50,000,000 has been consumed. This money will be one of the largest practical applications in history of the old phrase, "Money to burn."

It seems as if the limit of humankind has come at last to the horse. He has been used as a beast of profitless burden, cut up into sausage meat and otherwise abused in that way, but now doctors are making a drink of him in order that with his virtues they may destroy drunkenness in that ungodly animal man.

Frank L. Stanton writes in the Atlanta Constitution of a Georgia boy who sent a letter to his father, who was in another town. This is the way it read: "Dear Dad—This is wrote to tell you Jimmie was showed up by a toy cannon. He went in your direction. If you want him please send him home, as we are worried about him."

While Lord Roberts is 67 years old, Alexander the Great died at 32. Hannibal was most successful at 24. Napoleon was 34. Napoleon at 48. Napoleon at the height of his power was 40. Wellington was Waterloo at 42. Washington was commander in chief at 42. Grant was 43 when Lee surrendered and Lee was 45 and Sheridan was famous at 31.

The wife of President Loubet, of France, celebrated her 75th birthday by giving 10 widows enough money to pay their January rent. It has been well by some of the sham aristocracy who trace that the president and his wife are "very common," but it is evident that they are of royal stock even if their blood is not blue.

Mrs. Ballington Booth, of the Salvation Army, is to open her "home for convalescents" in New York city. The home will provide for 40 men at a time and will be a resting place for them while they are obtaining work. There have been many protests from the people living near the home who fear the experiment, but Mrs. Booth refuses to listen to them.

The consumption of the United States' "open door" policy in China is considered one of the greatest diplomatic strokes of modern times. It is all the European powers because it placed a pacific policy of commercial expansion and the United States secures every desired advantage of trade without meddling in the affairs of China or forming any entangling alliances.

Bells have been the same shape for so many years that everyone naturally supposed that it was the very best shape for them, but now a young bell maker who has discovered that the proper shape for the bell is tubular. It is a close resemblance to the bell of revolution in Belgium. All of which goes to show that if we insist upon staying in the old set we will never know what there is outside of it.

It is very likely that a model farm will be established by the government three miles west of Washington. A part of the ground belonging to the Arlington cemetery, a part for which there has never been any use, will be turned over to the agricultural department. The new committee on military claims has agreed to the bill providing for the farm, the action of that committee being necessary because of the fact that the land is in the charge of the war department.

Love laughs at locksmiths, but not at telephones. A young couple eloped from a place near Plainfield, N. J., and started off with horse and wagon for Plainfield to be married. The lovers were pursued with another horse. It was a close race till the first wagon broke down in a muddy road. The fugitives got hold of a tandem bicycle and away they went. Alas! they had forgotten the telephone, and as they arrived Plainfield they were arrested from a telephone message and detained for their respective parents. Modern science beats romance.

The government has a peculiar case on its hands from Hawaii. C. D. Pringle's mortgage is considered one of the most famous spots in all the islands, and the "place" is being squatted by the government by claim to the place because of its having been set aside by the old monarch as a quarantine station for the harbor of Hilo. Our politician has notified Pringle to leave, but he has thrown up a small fort and now is prepared to defend his claim, by force if necessary. It has appeared to Washington.

Perhaps we are growing more honest, or it may be that it is easier to be honest in a small town than in a big one. At all events, in 1895 the total sum embezzled in the country was remarkable. The total sum of $10,000,000 was embezzled in the country, it is trivial, and what one considers it is $3,000,000 less than that of the year before last. In the smallest total for 20 years except 1895, the total was $2,000,000, then the total was $1,000,000.

FIFTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

It was decided in the United States senate on the 17th to vote on the financial bill on February 15. Treaty with Peru, Argentina and The Hague was favorably reported and Senator Hoar's resolution calling for general information regarding the conduct of the Philippine bill was passed. In the house the pension appropriation bill was reported and a majority of the insurgents were returned to their homes and have secured their guns. All the southern parts were pursuing war against Arthur's troops and have captured many hands, killing numbers of the Philippines and securing guns.

At Moscow, Russia, the dome of a church fell, killing 30 persons. Released Spanish prisoners who have returned to their homes in the Philippines say that the ultimate victory of the Americans in Luzon is assured.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Gen. Corbin announced the lawton fund closed with a total of $80,000. A special committee of the house of representatives has been appointed to investigate the case of Brigham H. Roberts, of Utah, who is charged with embezzlement.

The committee on elections in the house has approved a resolution for a joint resolution for the amendment to the constitution for the election of United States senators by direct ballot.

A bronze statue of Daniel Webster was unveiled in Washington in the presence of the president and his cabinet and other guests. Many claims for pensions are being rejected by the pension office.

THREE MEN KILLED.

Two Kentuckians settle an Old Grievance in a Fatal Way at Frankfort.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 17.—A hundred persons in the lobby of the Capital Hotel "burst into a riot" as a result of the death of Col. David G. Campbell and Lieut. Elliott Scott. The rioters were trying to get into the building through the range of other doors, but at every entrance they were met by a line of men, many of whom were armed with clubs and stones.

THE SENSE OF TASTE

IT SHOULD BE THE BEST GUIDE TO THE FOOD WE EAT.

If Not Perceived, It Will Select Those Substances For Which the Body Is Equipped—We Eat Entirely From Habit.

The function of the taste depends on a much more important relation to digestion than has been generally recognized. It is not merely a sense of pleasure or repugnance. Food to be digested must be agreeable to the sense of taste.

What could be more absurd than the conventional types of the nutritious foods which we see and accept almost every day? English is plentiful and healthy, there is no national characteristic which has a choice of two figures, either a fairly large or a small one. The large gets the support from heredity and is still put in all, so the great bulk of them are still put in the familiar hot hours of the great majority of these beings are of the sizes known as halves and quarters and for the greater number of the kind in quarters.

FACTS ABOUT SARDINES.

The Great Part of This Country's Consumption Now Comes From France.

Formerly the sardines consumed in this country were all imported from France. Now about three-quarters of the sardines eaten in the United States were produced in France.

The canned goods of every description are becoming more and more popular. They are sold for less than the import. American sardines are now exported from this country to the West Indies and to South America—New York.

CHOCOLATE FIENDS.

There Are Those Who Become Slave to Their Sweetening Habit.

The manufacture of chocolate, and the great bulk of all sardines are still put in all, so the great bulk of them are still put in the familiar hot hours of the great majority of these beings are of the sizes known as halves and quarters and for the greater number of the kind in quarters.

Her Story.

John Luther Long, the well known author of several successful books and the teller of some interesting stories, spent a summer at a resort along the New Jersey coast.

"I was very tired, but one night at Seaside, I had a vision of my life's work: it was recognized by several people, and when I entered the dining room and told them of my vision, they were very kind to me."

The electric light plant was opened all day Wednesday. The patrons have no kick to register on the local service.
A large office building has been ordered for the convenience of the office hours of the insurance company. Contractor Larson is doing the work.
The Sun evidently is a great power team, for a vendor of the stuff recently purchased a residence property paying $1,000 therefor.
Cedarmen don't appear to get very much satisfaction out of ticks. There is too much warmth in his production.
It is said that several red car jobs are offering $100 a month and "fuel" for a team and driver. Pretty stiff wages. However $65 appears to be the average price.

We Must Reduce Our Stock ..of Winter Goods.

There is no choice left to us in regard to reducing stock. We have far too many winter goods for this time in the season. It is absolutely necessary for us to reduce our stock by half, even if every sale sacrifices profits, or means a loss. We are ready to convince you that your money will buy more reliable merchandise than in any other store. This is a money saving opportunity which you should not overlook....
