'T WAS A HUMMER.

MR. CHAS. S. OSBORN'S SPEECH WILL BE REMEMBERED BY HIS HEARERS IN MANISTIQUE.

Despite the fact that a rain storm prevailed during last Monday evening, the open house was comfortably filled with Mr. Osborn's friends and admirers, to hear his discussion of the political issues of the day.

Mr. Y. J. Hixson was designated as chairman of the meeting, and in accepting the honor made a short but effective speech.

Mr. Osborn opened his address by thanking the voters of Schoolcraft for their substantial manifestations of confidence in him in times past, and that he felt deeply grateful to his friends here for the many kindnesses tendered him.

He declared the greater portion of the evening in expounding a few of Bryan's "paranorm" issues.

The speaker reviewed at length the territorial growth of the United States from its inception—how that through conquest, purchase and treaty we had expanded from a mere speck along the Atlantic coast to a country that extends from sea to sea, and beyond the seas, our hand rests among the powers of earth as to wealth and influence. Nearly all of the area was acquired during the time when Democracy was at the helm of state.

He characterized Aguilardo as the Bonaparte of the Tropics. At the time of the Spanish American war Aguilardo was in China, having accepted a bribe from the Spanish government to leave the Philippines. After Dewey changed the ownership of the group, Aguilardo returned and professed his desire to assist American arms in rehabilitating the group. Even at that time he was secretly planning to thwart American success. The insurrection that has been fomented and encouraged by the allies in the United States, is participated in by less than one-tenth of the population while the remainder are anxious for American rule and its beneficent influences.

Mr. Osborn compared the times existing during the last Democratic administration to the present prosperity. To substantiate the fact that the floating men were alive in the situation he stated that a gentleman informed him that in one of the canyons operated by the Barrell Chemical Co. the entire force aggregating 1400 men were going to vote the straight Republican ticket giving as a reason therefor that they chopped wood for 30 cents a cord during the democratic administration and were now receiving $1.00 per cord.

In a very effective manner the speaker expounded the trust fiasco. He denied the assertion that every great combination of wealth was a trust, and also proved that all the legislation ever attempted in congress for the purpose of regulating capitalistic aggregation was promoted by the Republican party, while the Democratic party invariably opposed such legislation.

In view of the fact that ability, industry and honesty was quickly recognized and rewarded in this country he cited Senator Beveridge of Indiana, who is a power in state and nation at the age of 31 years, having arisen from the ranks of the lowly. In this connection he also mentioned Governor Kossavoff, our next vice president. In closing he urged every Republican to vote for every candidate on the ticket.

The address was the best ever heard in Schoolcraft county, the speaker holding his audience in rapt attention during its entirety. It abounded with unanswerable logic and wit, and did much for the cause in Schoolcraft county.

Mr. Osborn's friends were agreeably surprised with his improvement as an orator. He was not aware of the fact that he could make an address until four or five years ago, and many present upon both occasions could not help but compare his orator, rather than his speech, made before the Schoolcraft county Republican convention four years ago when he thanked the convention for instructing his delegates to the congressional caucus for him, with the eloquent, forceful address of Monday evening.

It now takes rank with the best speakers of the state and with a few terms in congress he would leap into national prominence as an orator and statesman.

While Mr. Osborn's Schoolcraft county friends have been numerous in the past, their numbers have been increased and the speech of Monday evening recruited them.

FORMAL OPENING NOV. 1ST.

THE NEW STORE WILL BE FORMALLY OPENED NOV. 1ST.

Garland Bros. have moved their stock of goods into their new building and a large force of clerks are busy placing the goods in position and getting everything ready for the grand opening which will be held next Thursday. The firm have added several new lines, among which is an elegant assortment of cut glass, chinaware and porcelain. Mr. Julius Simon of Middletown, Ohio, who has been an importer of similar goods, assisted Mr. Rose in selecting his stock, and is here placing the line on the shelves.

Aside from Mr. Rose the following clerks are busily engaged in getting the stock in shape for the opening sale. They are Miss Maggie Costello, cashier, Olga Strandell, Ollie Morier, Hand Smith, Martha Payne, Hilma Anderson, and Messrs. Paratish, Lawrence, Griffith, Kesteven, Rubin and Gulman. Mr. Paratish is an experienced window trimmer and the window will be an agreeable surprise to the people of Manistique when they are unveiled on the opening day. Mr. Dan Gulman has charge of the electric light plant and the furnaces. Do not forget the opening day.

Continuing Their Campaign.

The Republican candidates continued their canvass of the county this week. A largely attended meeting was held last evening at Whitehall upon which occasion Mr. Andrew Sandberg of Ishpeming, addressed the Scandinavian voters. Tonight a meeting will be held at "the hums," in Cornish community, and tomorrow night the inhabitants of Soney will have an opportunity of hearing Simon pure Republican rhetoric.

Well Known St. Paul Dealer.

Mr. G. D. Bruce Taylor, M. F. O., "The Optical Co's" well known refractologist and expert frame fitter will be at the store of their agents The Chicago Lumbering Co., Manistique on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, November 13, 14, 15 and 16. This is an opportunity not often afforded and if you thing you have anything the matter with your eyes or your spectacles do not suit, we would advise you to see him. No charge for thorough examination.

There are twenty-five thousand people in the state wearing glasses fitted by Mr. Taylor and assistants; we refer you to any of them. 5-3

TWO OPERATIONS PERFORMED.

Mr. Langworthy's Condition Critical. Another Operation Necessary.

Mr. B. A. Langworthy who has been quite ill with ulcers or cancer of the stomach for some time, was operated on in the hospital at Ann Arbor this week. A telegram received yesterday states that two operations had been performed and that a third was imperative. It also stated that he was failing rapidly. His friends here hope that he may withstand the shock and recover.

M. E. Church, F. L. Edmore, Pastor.

Sunday will be a special day at this church. In the morning will be a service in honor of the old people, the subject being, "The Lessons of the Leaves." An invitation is extended to all elderly people, as well as others to be present. At the close of the morning's services there will be a reception of candidates into membership in the church. Sunday school at noon.

In the evening there will be a special rally service of the Reynolds League, including the installation of the newly elected officers, and other interesting exercises. Special music will be provided at all the services, and the decorations will be in charge of Mrs. Hixson and her class. You cannot afford to miss these services.

Mr. Sandberg, Jr., Will Probably Address Us.

An effort is being made to secure Mr. Sandberg, Jr., of Ishpeming, son of Hon. Andrew Sandberg, who addressed the Scandinavian voters last Wednesday evening, to address the voters of Schoolcraft county in the English language before the close of the campaign. Mr. Sandberg is only 13 years of age but despite his age is an orator of state wide reputation. "He is a chip of the old block," and will please and instruct his audience. He has of late been a nomadic sufferer and his health permits, he will accept this invitation extended him by the county central committee.

FEAS COMPARED.

In every Republican's speech will be found a plea for these things:

Loyalty to the flag.

Preservation of the national credit.

Inviolability of the courts.

Taken together the divided voices of the Democracy are calling for:

Treachery to the flag.

Destruction to the national credit.

Degradation of the courts.

If there are voters who while they can't stir within themselves any political partisanship still have a prejudice for straightforwardness and frankness, they will vote the Republican ticket.

Labor and Capital.

No amount of effort to inflame labor against capital or no amount of success in so doing will affect these facts: When capital is prosperous labor is prosperous. When capital is prostrate labor is prostrate. One cannot have a good or bad fortune without the other being in the same box. To strike at capital, to weaken its sense of security, or to narrow the grounds for its self-confidence is to strike also at labor.

BYRON LINCOLN. (later Occas.)

In his letter accepting the silver party nomination Mr. Bryan again compares himself to Abraham Lincoln and who do not—what Abraham Lincoln was, what his aims were, what he stood for. Mr. Bryan's assumption of equality with "the first American" seems close to blasphemy. That such a jingling demagogue as Bryan should dare to liken himself to Lincoln, the patriot, the statesman, the liberator, the savior of the Union, is sheer impudence.

What did Abraham Lincoln do, and what is William Jennings Bryan doing? Lincoln rose from the humblest station by the hardest struggles, yet never sought to array the poor against the rich. Bryan was born to comfort, if not to affluence, and yet asks men to vote for him because they are poorer than other men. Lincoln honestly paid every public and private debt; Bryan would defraud the nation's creditors, including the soldier who saved his life, of half of their just dues. Lincoln freed 4,000,000 black Americans from slavery; Bryan is dumb while his party deprives millions of the same Americans of the ballot. Lincoln kept the American flag every foot of American soil; Bryan would remove the flag from American soil. Lincoln put down rebels; Bryan is the open ally of rebels.

Who were the men that opposed Lincoln's patriotic aims and sought to expel him from office? The same class of men, and some of the same men, who are now supporting Bryan. The copperhead tirades of Vallandigham and his associates are closely paralleled by the speeches of Bryan, Algeed, Tillman and other Bryanites. The editorial editorials of anti-Lincoln newspapers in 1864 are practically reprinted by Bryanite newspapers now. And Adlai Stevenson, who acted with the copperheads in 1864, is now in second place on the Bryan ticket, still encouraging rebels.

In all ages men have attempted to "steal the liver of heaven to serve the devil in." But never was such theft more brazen, never was much pretense more shameless, never was the assumption of a sanctified disguise by infamy more hypocritical, than in William Jennings Bryan's effort to adjust upon his shoulders the mantle of Abraham Lincoln. Everything that Lincoln set up Bryan would pull down. Yet Bryan claims to be Lincoln's heir and Bryan's followers acclaim the usurpation. Faugh!

A peculiar state of affairs exist in a neighboring township. We were informed that a number of farmers are going to vote the straight Democratic ticket for the simple reason that four years ago they were able to secure men at an old price, or for their board, to work on the farms, while now, under McKinley prosperity they are unable to secure men to do the work regardless of the wages offered. There is a great self-evident truth in the above reason that workmen will not be slow to comprehend.

how I intend to vote, in so doing have misinterpreted my intention and have not been unwilling to make political capital out of my supposed vote, I will give to the question—how I intend to vote—a categorical and unmistakable reply. I intend to vote for William McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt. In giving my vote for the candidates of the Republican party, I am satisfied in my own conscience that I serve the best interests of the country at home and abroad, that I contribute to the maintenance of the country's material prosperity and of peace and good will between the several classes of its population, that I aid the country in bringing about the safest and most honorable solutions of the complex problems which confront it as the result of the late war and in retaining for itself the exalted position which it holds at present commercially and diplomatically before other nations of the world. I trust no further doubts will be expressed as to how I intend to vote."

An Indiana editor makes an affidavit to the fact that Stevenson, the Democratic candidate for vice president said at the time of the assassination of Lincoln that he was glad Lincoln was shot and that he should have been killed earlier. "How can a patriotic American vote for such a man."

In many respects the campaign now drawing to close has been a remarkably quiet one. The voters had a surfeit of politics four years ago. The issues of today are practically the same as they were then, and the average citizen has had time to mentally compare times under Republican and Democratic rule and will sensibly vote the straight Republican ticket on November 6th.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The indications for a sweeping Republican victory in Schoolcraft county November 6th, are growing brighter every day.

Bryan was nominated because he was the only man on whom all elements of socialism, populism and anarchy could unite.

The difference between Bryanism and Democracy is the difference between politics in its worst sense and statesmanship in its historical significance.

No recognized government opposes the policy of the United States in the Philippines. The entire opposition comes from Aginaldo and the Democratic party.

If you claim allegiance to the Republican party you will be reluctant to your trust and duty if you do not vote the ticket straight Republican ticket from president to coroner.

Wm. McGinty was unanimously nominated for the senatorship by the Democratic senatorial convention of the 31st district, recently held at Ishpeming. Another case of "down goes McGinty."

The editor of the Crystal Falls Diamond Drill, so eloquently exploited the advantages and resources of the Soo, in his newspaper, after his return from the midsummer session of the Lake Superior Press Association, that he has unwittingly started an exodus of young men from Crystal Falls to the Lock City. An other example of the trite saying that it does not always pay to tell the truth.

One of the greatest crimes anyone can commit is to rob a child of his school days. Don't keep the boy at home to work a week or two or a month or two after school begins and thus discourage and handicap him when he does start. If there is anything on earth that a man can afford to make sacrifice for it is the education of his children. Don't need your money. A boy is never off to earn his own money, but what he needs is good training and good schooling and there is only one time to get it.—Exchange.

About the only traveling man for Bryan is Aginaldo.

In the demise of Hon John Sherman the United loses one of its foremost statesmen, and the Republican party an honored son.

Free beer, free dances and dissipation on "why I secured my divorce," are the methods used by Democratic candidates to secure votes.

THE PIONEER-TRIBUNE has and always will support the nominees of the Republican party. It has also invariably urged voting a straight ticket and always will. We are willing to trust the majority of the party and the selection of candidates made by the majority. The only way to build up an invincible party is for all members of the party to do the same.

That Hon. Chase S. Osborn's reputation as an orator is known beyond the confines of the State of Superior it is only necessary to state he has been working overtime during the campaign and has only spoken in cities and towns where the leading politicians have invited him. The speech last Monday was the first that he had delivered in the upper peninsula—all the others having been given below the straits.

This excerpt from the Crystal Falls Diamond Drill is so good that we reproduce it here: "Just bear in mind that the Republican county ticket was chosen by unanimous vote of the regularly-called convention." The candidates for the different offices hustled at the primaries which were also regularly called. The candidates and county committee were called together by the chairman of the committee and by a majority vote chose the day of holding the convention. Now, if the aspirants for the different offices were given a voice in selecting the date of the convention, were fairly treated at the primaries and the candidates on the Republican ticket were chosen by the unanimous vote of the convention certainly they deserve the united support of the Republicans of the county."

STILL MORE DEMOCRATS, BUT SILVER AND SILVER

GENERAL BUCKNER DECLARES FOR MCKINLEY

John M. Palmer's Running Mate Favors Republicans

General Simon B. Buckner, of Kentucky, who in 1896 was the candidate for Vice President on the National Democratic ticket, has returned from a trip abroad. He said:

"The advice that I have received from Kentucky make me believe that the McKinley electors will receive a majority of the votes cast in that State.

"The real, silver-pure Democrats of Kentucky have no sympathy with either Bryanism or Geobelsm. Bryan, in his trip through Kentucky, identified himself with Geobelsm and drove away from his support the real Democracy of the State. The candidacy of Mr. Bryan on the Kansas City platform is in opposition to the principles of true Democracy, and his election would be a menace to civil liberty. I am not going to take the stump for anybody, but I shall do what I can to secure the re-election of Mr. McKinley.

"The Geobelsm law is a remarkable measure. While the vote for Governor in many precincts was thrown out, it was allowed to stand as far as related to members of the Legislature. The latter elected J. C. S. Blackburn to the United States Senate, but I can assure you that that body will not elect him. I think that I am not exaggerating when I say that at the election in which Mr. Geobelsm was a candidate for Governor 20 per cent of the honest vote of the State was thrown out and nullified to permit the issuing of a certificate in him. A similar state of facts would prevail this year but for the fact that Congress can take a hand in investigating the returns. Geobelsm means that he wants not how the people may vote, so long as Geobelsm can do the counting. The Republicans might win every county in the State but one, and then the State Election Commissioners could, with only that one county, legally declare the Electoral vote for Bryan. Whether the Geobelsms would dare to do this is another question, but by their action would be subject to review by Congress."

Elton T. Ransom, formerly Democratic Assemblyman, Ransomville, N. Y.: "I have carefully watched President McKinley's course and cannot see where he has failed in duty as an able chief magistrate, and a patriot of lofty ideals. In conducting a successful war against Spain, freeing and providing for the education of the Cuban people, supporting the honor of our flag and protecting our citizens wherever located, his imperialism, then I am an imperialist."

Samuel J. Macdonald, Newark, N. J.: "Mr. Bryan's election would, without question, stir up the entire business world, and we know by sad experience the distressing and fearful consequences of such a thing."

John L. Blair, St. Louis, Mo., son of Frank Blair, Democratic candidate for the Vice-Presidency in 1896: "What I most wish to see now is that Mr. Bryan shall be so overwhelmingly defeated that he and all his Populist ilk shall be forever banished from the Democratic party. I think it the duty of every good citizen to aid in bringing about this result. I believe that no party will ever hereafter insult the intelligence and self-respect of the people by putting at its head such a totalitarian as he who now assumes to lead the Democratic party."

August Kreamer, manufacturer, Brooklyn, N. Y.: "I am glad to see your opinion to my mind that the Republican party is the only one that fully knows how to conduct the affairs of the country for its real prosperity. Acting under that belief, I have identified myself with the McKinley Free Silver League, and will devote the very little time that I can get away from my business to progressing the fight against Bryanism."

George Somerville, prominent farmer, Greenville, Ill.: "I am satisfied with President McKinley's administration; I have made more money in the past four years than I did under Cleveland's administration, and I believe the country is more prosperous than when under a Democratic administration. While I was not particularly in favor of taking the Philippines, they have become our property, or flag waves over them and I am in favor of keeping it there."

Edward C. King, Democratic candidate for Congress in 1896 and formerly prosecuting attorney, residence, Lincoln, Ill.: "Afrail of free silver, I have written to the McKinley Free Silver League, N. Y., leading bulid and contractor: 'The election of Mr. Bryan would be a lamentable mistake. If I did not already believe this I would not turn my back upon the political teachings of my life. A series of disasters would follow his election to power. All confidence abroad in our financial stability would be destroyed, whether free silver could be at once adopted or not. Gold would be hoarded by the banks for self-protection, law or no law.'

Stephen A. Foley, life-long Democrat, and formerly county judge, Lincoln, Ill., believes in expansion, in continuing the present prosperity and bulid at free silver.

General William Crooks, formerly colonel Sixth Minnesota Volunteers, St. Paul, Minn.: "In my opinion the administration of Mr. McKinley, in dealing with the questions that have arisen and have been most serious and difficult, has been honest, patriotic and national, and the American people will not forsake him while he is engaged in doing their will and upholding bravely as he has, the honor of the nation at home and abroad."

Oscar Straus, Minister to Turkey, New York: "I am called a gold Democrat because I am opposed to a dishonest dollar. I opposed Bryan in 1896, and I will oppose him again."

The New York Staats Zeitung, that some time ago supported Bryan on the question of imperialism, has deserted his banner, and come out squarely for McKinley. The cut is the severest Bryanism has yet received in the Eng. The Staats Zeitung admits that the current is strongly against Bryan, and says there is nothing in the Bryan cry of imperialism and militarism. It is against him on the money question. The Staats Zeitung is one of the most powerful German papers in the world.

THERE IS NO DOUBT ABOUT MR. CLEVELAND'S POSITION

There is no longer any uncertainty about where Grover Cleveland stands in this campaign. The former President of the United States is against Bryanism and against Bryan.

John S. Green of Louisville wrote to the former President inquiring if he has changed his views on the financial question as expressed in his letter to the Chicago business men on April 13, 1895.

Mr. Cleveland's reply to Mr. Green is as follows: "Buzard's Bay, Oct. 7, 1890. John S. Green, Esq., Dear Sir: I have received your letter, inclosing a copy of my letter written more than five years ago to the business men of Chicago. I had not seen it in a long time, but it seems to me I could not state the case better at this time. I do not regret that I have not changed my opinion as therein expressed in the least. Yours truly, 'Grover Cleveland.'"

The letter was written five years ago to William T. Baker, George S. Smith, John W. Harney, David Kelly and Harry S. Robbins, in response to an invitation to visit Chicago in the interest of some money. Some of the striking extracts are: "If the sound money sentiment abroad in the land is to save us from mischief and disaster it might be crystallized and combined and made immediately active. "An insidious attempt is made to create a prejudice against the advocates of a safe and sound currency by the insinuation, more or less directly made, that they belong to financial and business classes, and are therefore not only out of sympathy with the common people of the land, but for selfish and wicked purposes are willing to sacrifice the interests of those outside their circle."

"It is a time for the American people to reason together as members of a great nation which can promise them a continuance of protection and safety only so long as its solvency is unsuspected, its honor unsullied and the soundness of its money unquestioned. "The discredit or depreciation in the financial centers of any form of money in the hands of the people is a signal of immediate loss everywhere. "The reckless and dishonest wild experiment should sweep our currency from its safe and sound channels, and all who suffer in that time of distress and national discredit will be the poor, the weak, the old, the young, the scanty support, and the laborer or workman as he sees the money he has received from his toil and sweat and shiver in his hand when he tenders it for the necessities of the humble home."

The Democrats' Honest Money League of America, 100 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

John Bryan, President

This League was organized in 1896 to oppose the election of William J. Bryan upon a platform demanding the free coinage of silver at the ratio of sixteen to one.

In the present campaign Mr. Bryan is again the candidate and free silver again the real issue.

We declare in favor of the existing gold standard and the election of the candidates pledged to its maintenance.

We oppose the free coinage of silver at the ratio of sixteen to one and the election of William J. Bryan, and pledge our most earnest efforts to their defeat.

We call on all Democrats who hold their country's honor and welfare above party loyalty to unite with us in this final effort to ward off Bryanism and secure repose and safety to the Nation. Gold Democrat elected Mr. McKinley; Gold Democrat, if they would secure the fruits of the victory of 1896, must re-elect him, and in the same interest, that of Honest Money.

PROMINENT GERMAN HOPES FOR BRYAN'S DEFEAT

Leuch Windmuller, the New York merchant, who in previous campaigns has been recognized as the exponent of the views of a large number of citizens of German descent and who up to the disruption of the Democratic party by Bryan was a prominent gold Democrat and a contributor to the literature for former campaigns, has announced that his views regarding the success of the two presidential candidates have in no wise changed from those he entertained in 1896.

"Although a gold Democrat then," said Mr. Windmuller, "I voted for Mr. McKinley, believing out to vote for third party candidates was to throw away a vote. I can say now that I have never been sorry for making the choice I did then. I believe now as I did then that Bryan's election would be a national calamity, and that all those who really care for the country's welfare have nothing else to do but to support Mr. McKinley. All other questions are of minor importance beside that of the currency, and the Democratic managers may boast all they want to, but the fact is that a vast majority of the German-born voters regard this question as the paramount one, beside which 'imperialism' so-called, cuts no figure. The trust question is hardly worth talking about for the reason that both parties have concluded the trusts are bad things. I regard Mr. Schurz as deluded respecting the Philippines. The Philippine question is so much on his mind that it has precluded him from looking impartially at the situation in its entirety. His judgment, in fact, seems to have been completely overclouded by it."

"I consider Mr. Bryan a dangerous man for the reason that he seeks to arouse class hatred and panders to socialistic and populist tendencies. He should not be elected, and it is the duty of every business man, every working man and of all who love their country to see that he is defeated."

F. S. Andrews, proprietor Phoenix Inn, Findlay, Ohio: "I consider myself a Democrat. I am going to vote for McKinley. As a business man this administration suits me. The Philippines do not worry me in the least."

Joseph Bear of Frostdale, Mo., life-long Democrat, and twice mayor of the city: "McKinley's administration convinced me that the Republican party is the party of business and progress."

Eugene V. Brewster, Brooklyn, N. Y.: "There are twenty-five reasons why Mr. Bryan should not be elected. The chief one is that he has had his mind disorganized by a mass of conflicting theories, and if elected, the appointment of many thousands of men out of such a mass would mean certain worse than confounded."

Thomas H. McCracken, business representative of the Progressive Centrists and the New York City Chamber of Commerce: "I have been a Bryan supporter for ten years. Bryan will not get my vote this year. I voted for him in 1896, but he won't get it in 1898. Why? Well, because he isn't

M. Slevers, traveling man, Milwaukee, Wis.: "The acts of a lot of hoodlums in the city of Chicago, who are being carried by the Chicago agent Mr. Roosevelt, are undoubtedly caused by that unclear spirit known as the Chicago American, must not get your man with any respect away from such company. For this reason I refuse to vote the Democratic ticket."

Dr. J. H. Woodard, Sevard, Neb.: "I voted for Bryan in 1896. I believe that he and his confederates have practically admitted that silver is to be relegated to the rear. On the question of the Philippines I am with the Republican party. Mr. Bryan resigned his colony to urge his Democratic friends in the United States to vote for the ratification of the treaty."

William A. Perrine, representative of the 'Free Holders' Conference, New York: "Prosperity."

A. Flinn, merchant, Stanbery, Mo.: "No Bryan, even if I am a Democrat."

BRYAN'S DEFEAT WILL PRESERVE NATIONAL HONOR

Edward S. Bragg, soldier, statesman and life-long Democrat, came out squarely for President McKinley in a speech at the Fabrik, Milwaukee, on October 11th. He did more. He exhorted the Gold Democrats, at whose solicitation he publicly made known his views, to do likewise as a step essential to the preservation of national honor.

"The heart of this great people has always been loyal to the government when the war trumpet sounded, and has never tolerated, and will never tolerate, encouragement to a public enemy, while he is robbing, fighting, slaying the brave men, your sons and brothers, whom the government has sent forth to do its mission, whether that enemy be the Englishman or Mexican, a Spaniard or a Filipino."

"The result of 90 is a three-fold necessity, never lacking in its duty where State or National honor is concerned, set the budget stamp of condemnation by over 100,000 plurality. Any man ashamed of this record, and would say under it, 'No, my fellow badgers, we will stand to our guns in the second battle as we did in the first.'"

"He who knows Mr. Bryan knows that he has never abandoned his policy. The carrying state you cannot hope to find in the balloon of the idealist, Bryan."

General Horatio C. King, New York, former law partner of David B. Hill: "Four years ago, with a large number of Democrats throughout the country, I revolted from the platform formulated at Chicago. I had a fond hope that possibly they might come back to reason and true Democracy, but the reiteration of the same sentiments at Kansas City, the re-admission of Bryan on the money question, and the addition of a worse one, that is, to haul down the American flag in the Philippines, has convinced me that the Bryanian is Populism run mad. I am amazed that any portion of my fellow Democrats of the old period should, for the sake of a position, possibly to be gained through the ranks with the best governments on the face of the earth, notwithstanding all prophecies by such men as William Jennings Bryan, that the present prospering conditions and will vote for McKinley and to support his policy of expansion."

Carl F. M. Grant, Canton, Ill.: "For the country to turn aside from the broad open highway of a solid and stable currency to the narrow and slough of cheap money would only be equaled in supreme folly by the act of the owners of the ship to line to seek in bedlam for one of its innates to command its largest and best vessel on a voyage across the sea."

Randolph Barton, of Baltimore, Md., a life-long Democrat, who served in the Confederate army in the Civil War, and who was chosen a delegate to the National Democratic Convention at Chicago in 1896, at the National Democratic State Convention: "Bryan represents a debased currency with all the ills which it involves. Bryan is a man who would place the collar ahead of the man, as if every living Democrat, Bryan included, were not as much of a dollar as every living Republican does. I want none of him."

D. Street Gittings, son of the late Richard J. Gittings, of Baltimore, Md., who was a prominent and life-long Democrat, for many years State's Attorney for Baltimore County, and one of the Presidential electors for Tilden and Hendricks, will vote for McKinley and Roosevelt on the money question. The cry of imperialism does not echo in his ears, and he does not believe that we stand in danger of militarism requires better proof than Mr. Bryan's words to make us believe so."

Charles O. Summers, blacksmith, Winchester, Ind.: "Times are good enough for me and want them to continue. I am making good money, and I am satisfied."

Elmer Thomas, Lynn, Ind., timber broker, has been twenty-five years ago at the business of buying timber, and could barely make a living, but after McKinley was elected President and support began to get better, my salary was gradually increased, and now I am making plenty of money. Since McKinley's election, I have bought and sold good property and have not paid for and money in the bank. More than $100,000 worth of property and I propose to vote for him."

Charles W. Wiley, one of the leading attorneys of Cole County, Ill., and heretofore a prominent Democrat, will announce that heretofore, "I will support the Republican ticket. He was nominated for Secretary of State on the gold Democratic ticket in 1896. He has been twice free silver and anti-gold property."

Thomas J. Powers, member Co. B, 44th Ind. Inf., was in the army and was in the preservation of the American flag and cannot tolerate Mr. Bryan's attitude in reference to the medals of the army. I have also observed that Mr. Bryan's predictions have not been fulfilled. "Silas Stone, Warsaw, Ind., was in the army and was in the preservation of the American flag and cannot tolerate Mr. Bryan's attitude in reference to the medals of the army. I have also observed that Mr. Bryan's predictions have not been fulfilled."

"I have said Mr. Bryan is an honest, if not a practical, man. What he says he believes he can do, and will never falter in his attempt to do it."

"He is a dreamy idealist. He talks and acts and believes, if he were President, by a wave of his magic wand, as 'twere, he can make a desert blossom, and he can do away with want and misery, and make all his subjects prosperous and happy. In other words, that he is possessed of the mysterious power that can make the world an Utopia, if you give him a chance."

"Such a man is a delightful companion, an estimable member of society, but a wild bull in a china shop would not be more dangerous to the safety of the crockery than such a man would be to the safety of the State entrusted with the management of affairs."

"The country is prosperous; money is plenty and good; interest has dropped to 5 per cent; the market of our abundance has furnished the money to discharge old mortgages and build new homes; labor finds employment in our State, and the factory fires the wages. Why should you desire a change, unless it be for the better? I believe that the carrying state you cannot hope to find in the balloon of the idealist, Bryan."

James A. Curtiss, a prominent Meriden, Conn., Democrat, and former member of the Meriden Board of Public Works, is out for McKinley and has joined the Commercial and Industrial League. He says: "I am afraid of Bryan on the money question. The silver idea may be all right fifty years from now, but I don't expect to be here then. I believe in the interest from the money standpoint to have no change at present in the financial policy of the government, and I am going to vote as I honestly believe."

Dr. Wm. T. Walls, Madison, Ind.: "We have risen to a position which ranks with the best governments on the face of the earth, notwithstanding all prophecies by such men as William Jennings Bryan, that the present prospering conditions and will vote for McKinley and to support his policy of expansion."

Carl F. M. Grant, Canton, Ill.: "For the country to turn aside from the broad open highway of a solid and stable currency to the narrow and slough of cheap money would only be equaled in supreme folly by the act of the owners of the ship to line to seek in bedlam for one of its innates to command its largest and best vessel on a voyage across the sea."

He was nominated for Secretary of State on the gold Democratic ticket in 1896. He has been twice free silver and anti-gold property."

GERMAN PAPER LEAVES BRYAN

The German Tribune, of Leavenworth, Kansas, the only German paper published in that State, has left Bryan's standard, and come out for the Republican ticket. The Tribune believes in property and sound money, and is against the 'free coinage' and 'free silver' issue. The Tribune supported Bryan four years ago. It has a circulation of 10,000, and will all over the State, and 5,000 daily in Leavenworth.

REGISTRATION LAW.

The law providing for a general registration of voters applies only to cities. Originally the law required a new registration in townships every ten years, but the legislature of 1883 repealed it. But in all cities in Michigan there must be a total new registration of qualified electors every four years, and this occurs on the eve of each presidential election. In townships it is only the usual registration of new voters that is required.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for indigestion, or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart Pain, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make the difference. There is nothing serious the matter with you. Sample bottles at A. S. Putnam & Co. 10.

LABOR'S OPPORTUNITY.

A Splendid Chance for Workingmen of America to Observe their Colors.

There is not a workman in America but that knows that if the trusts are allowed to carry out their purpose, his condition inside of a few years will be bad. The workman, however, has it in his power to destroy these monopolies by refusing to buy trust-made goods. Take chewing tobacco for example. The Wilson-McCallay Tobacco Co. of Middletown, Ohio, is now from start to finish and makes the choicest brands of plug tobacco. They are known to be equal to any and superior to most on the market. Here are the brands: Gold Leaf, Kingbird, Blue and Silver, Thrasher. The Union label appears on all these brands. You may be using some well known brand of tobacco that formerly was made by an independent concern, but which is now being made by a trust. You can ascertain this by inquiring of your dealer. If you find it to be trust made, avoid it and buy others doing this same thing will be the direct cause of breaking the trust. Fast this list in your hat and stand up for your labor colors!
