A Grand Success

Elaborate Costumes, Best of Music and a Royal Time Were Features.

The Elk Reception and Ball the Greatest Social Event in the History of Manistique Society. Was Attended by Nearly 200 Persons.

The reception and ball, given under the auspices of the local Elks, at the opera house last Friday evening, the most elaborate social event ever held in the history of Manistique was attended by about 200 invited guests. Never before were there so many beautiful evening costumes, and so many gentlemen in evening dress. Manistique has proven that she is not so slow, and can rise to the occasion when the opportunity presents itself. No pains or expense were spared to make the event an unbounded success. The interior of the opera house was resplendent. The unsightly boxes were covered with bunting and flags, and more than 200 electric lights flooded every portion of the large room with light. Equipped taste was displayed in the decorations. Fifty or more deer heads were utilized and small electric lights beamed from each head.

A row of ten booths handsomely draped and furnished, were so arranged along the north side of the auditorium, that a hall way extended between the booths and the walls of the opera house. Each booth contained a small table, chairs and sofas, and served as convenient resting places between dances.

Brotherhood's orchestra of eight pieces from Escanaba furnished excellent music for the dances. At eleven o'clock the lights were turned off, the only illumination being from the monster dial on the stage, the hands of which pointed to eleven o'clock. Exalted Ruler Gero then gave a very pretty toast, and the lights were turned on.

Supper was perfectly served from after 11:30 o'clock to groups of 40 in the ten booths until all wants had been supplied, by dainty white gowned maids. At each corner was laid a white carpetation. The menu was as follows:

Roast Chicken and Mushroom Patties
Saratoga Chips
Macaroni
Lady Fingers
Delicious punch and also plain lemonade was served throughout the evening at one end of the hall from a dainty booth.

Dancing was indulged in until five o'clock in the morning, and all those participating in the function were sorry that time was fleeting. The excellent order of the evening, Mr. Gero, originated most of the ideas for the ball, and the decorations of the hall, and laid the plans so well that it was possible to execute them. Every member worked loyally, and no one shirked, but each did his full share to make the affair an artistic, glorious and satisfying success. The Elks have set the pace and we doubt if Manistique will ever have a party so elaborate and thoroughly enjoyable as the party in question unless the Elks should at some future date decide to give another party. The costumes worn were extremely Checked to Death at Thompson. A man named Boyer arrived at Thompson on Saturday last, and put up at the F. & F. Co's boarding house. He had the appearance of a man who had seen better days, and was in search of employment as an engineer. He declined to be from Grand Rapids, and destitute of money. Sunday small loans seem to have afforded the means of procuring liquor sufficient to place him well under the influence. On Sunday he appeared at dinner time considerably intoxicated, ate his dinner, and repaired to the men's sitting room, where he began chinking. The local police was immediately summoned and succeeded in extracting a piece of meat from the throat, which displayed all effects death ensued in a few moments. Deceased had at some time been a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and a member of a K. of P. Lodge of Grand Rapids, as evidenced by decorations found on his person, and confirmed by answer to telegrams of inquiry, but had been under suspension for some years. The remains were taken in charge by Undertaker Anderson, taken to Manistique, and buried at the expense of the county.

April Term of Circuit Court. Circuit court convened on Tuesday at 10 o'clock a. m., with Judge Steere in the bench. No jury present. Cases were taken up and disposed of as follows:
The People vs. Fred DeRoche. Violation of the liquor law, case No. 1 and 2. Continued by consent.
People vs. E. A. and John Grondin. Continued.
H. Knaggs and Bertha Hargrave vs. J. A. Chisholm. Discontinued on payment of attorney fee of $15.00.
Finkney vs. Finkney, decree of divorce. Granted.
Broden vs. Broden. Decree withheld for further evidence.
The balance of the time was taken up with tax matters. Court adjourned on Thursday.
In our Youngest Age and Wants a Divorce. A divorce case was heard before Judge Steere during the April term, that is remarkable on account of the ages of the contestants.

ROSE BROTHERS

ESTABLISHED 1892

IS TWENTY-ONE YEARS OF AGE.

THE PIONEER TRIBUNE which dates its birth from the founding of this town, has reached its twenty-first milestone, and is now entitled to vote.

The paper was founded by the late Major Clarke, when Manistique was a mere hamlet. In his salutatory he predicted that Manistique, owing to its natural resources, would become an important factor among the cities of the upper peninsula, and he was spared to see, in part, the fruition of his prophecy.

During the sixteen years that he published the Pioneer, he never failed to "stand up" for the town and its industries, and to him may be attributed much of Manistique's importance in the commercial world, for nothing assists more materially in making a town than a live, aggressive newspaper.

The Tribune Publishing Co. purchased the Pioneer plant shortly after Major Clarke's death in 1896, and consolidated the two papers, the paper since that time being issued as THE PIONEER-TRIBUNE.

At no time in its history has the Pioneer-Tribune been so liberally patronized as it is today.

The merchants appreciate its value as an advertising medium as the twenty-five columns of display advertising it carries attest.

We may also add that at no time in its history, has THE PIONEER-TRIBUNE been as well equipped for doing job printing, nor has it ever had a better patronage in this respect.

The equipment of the office includes a new three H. P. gasoline engine, a cylinder press, three job presses, perforating machine, numbering machine, paper cutter, stamping machine, and hundreds of fonts of job type.

The management hereby wishes to thank the public for its liberal patronage and hopes to merit a continuance of same.

OPPRESSORS OF THE POOR.

(Lansing Republican.)

The Populist nonsense about the rich grinding down the poor in this country needs no stronger refutation than is suggested by the possibilities which America affords for individual property—the cases of Marcus Daly and Henry Villard, who recently died on the same day in New York city. Neither of these men was born in this country, Daly being an Irishman and Villard a German. While the circumstances of their origin were different, one by necessity and the other from choice, they entered without aid the struggle for existence. Daly, the penniless Irish boy, died a multi-millionaire, Villard, the newspaper reporter, won and lost a fortune. Perhaps Villard's career is the more interesting of the two. While Daly steadily advanced in pecuniary power, Villard knew failure as well as success, and the recuperative power which he showed after each misfortune was due to American opportunity, as well as to his own vitality.

These careers were brought to public notice at an apt time, when the demagogic politicians were waiting that the young man has no chance in this country. Nothing was open to him but a clerkship—the demagogues omitted to mention the good salary. The masters of activity today were the poor boys of twenty, thirty and forty years ago, when many of them would have hailed a clerkship at a good salary with ecstatic joy. The poor boys today have no less opportunity to be the masters of activity twenty, thirty or forty years from now. The more complex the organization of society, the greater the demand and the larger opening for those who can manage that complexity. But the gate of opportunity is often locked, and needs to be opened with a key. Stupidity and indolence are no "open sesame" but brains and industry are the key. Daly and Villard were competent, and their whole lives were, the joining of competency to "assiduous industry. Pessimism is a disease of internal, not external, origin. Those who deplore the lack of opportunity should, except the words "Castas," and modify them so as to say: "The fault is not in our stars; nor in the stars and stripes, but in ourselves."

Aginaldo says "I never believed the Americans would be so fair and liberal."

Andrew P. Ekstrom is being mentioned prominently as a candidate for the position of chief of police.

Marquette and Manising are vitally interested in the report that the Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co., may be absorbed by the steel trust; the Cliffs people have in contemplation many improvements in the cities above mentioned that may never be consummated if the transfer is made.

Mr. Bryan's "Commoner" says, in a sort of querulous tone: "The indications are that long before Tesla gets telegraphic communication through the earth, Morgan will have a railroad around it!" And suppose he should—would that be a crime? In the eyes of most Populist shouters business enterprise seems to be a rock of offense.—Milwaukee Tribune.

Millions of Western money is now being loaned as a regular thing in New York. Our Eastern metropolis has usurped the place of London as the money center of the world, but New York would not amount to much as a financial center, unless it were supported by the great Western cities, such as Chicago, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Kansas City, etc. Westward the star of financial empire takes its way.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Rev. Osborne, pastor of the M. E. church, and who by the way is the embodiment of tireless energy, is a great believer in advertising. He has prepared a series of sermons on the "Religions of the World," and the first sermon of the series will be delivered April 28th. In order to thoroughly advertise the series he will distribute a large number of cards and bills. The series will be very instructive and interesting, for Mr. Osborne is a deep student and thinker. The saving of souls is after all the most important business on earth, and as the efficacy of advertising is increasing less important businesses is being proven every day, why not use similar methods in exploiting a work that over shadows more commercialism.

The Detroit Free Press in speaking of the Baldwin—"Wright was at Manising says: The 'tremendous' life has struck upper peninsula journalism. One of the two papers in a certain village in that section last week paid its respects to "the bifurcated animal that publishes the disseminated sheet across the way" by calling him a liar to the extent of three-quarters of a column, and then ending up with the strange statement that "our time and space are too valuable to waste upon him."

This will be our space next week

Requested to remember that Geo. MacLaurin of the West Side sells Shoes and Clothing of a quality that we challenge any other store in Manistique to equal in price and quality combined.

We have a few of those first-class bargains in Ladies, Misses and Childrens Shoes left. Come and see them.

Geo. MacLaurin, West Side.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Garitas Lash has gone to Palmer's camp.

Will McCallum returned to St. Ignace Tuesday morning.

John McCreary of Delta county, was in the city Tuesday.

John Looze was in Milwaukee on business—the one part of this week.

George Schmidt took Mrs. Schmidt to Ann Arbor to spend the week.

The mail was delayed in starting this week by the slow progress made on the new harbor.

Mr. A. S. Putnam has returned from Detroit this week, and is very much improved in health.

George Kriening desires to sell his house and lot situated in Oakland addition. Will sell cheap.

Messrs. Will Stewart and Thomas Swanson of Milwaukee, were returning callers at this office Tuesday.

Chas. T. McCreary has been promoted from first assistant keeper of Square Island light station to keeper.

The postoffice and banking business of a town are the best indexes to its prosperity. Both are increasing rapidly in Manistique.

Not a vacant house in Manistique. A capitalist could not find a money worth here to erect a row of 2500 houses for rental purposes.

Messrs. A. P. Nelling, Geo. Bruns and Chas. H. Orr, were given the Royal Arch degree by Hiawatha Chapter, Wednesday evening.

A representative of the tax commission interviewed the supervisors of county during the present week in structing them as to the proper manner of assessing property.

Mr. LeRoy Cummings, who spent the winter in the employ of the Wisconsin & Lumber Co., of Hemenwayville, steno-grapher, returned to Manistique Monday and will resume his position in W. P. Crane's office.

Everything in Manistique society will hereafter date from the time that the Elks gave their first ball. We doubt if Manistique will ever see anything its equal, unless, perchance, the Elks should decide to hold another.

Mr. W. S. Locke of McMillan, Leno county, is in the city. This is the first visit of Mr. Locke to Manistique although he has been resident of the Upper Peninsula since 1870. Mr. Locke is looking the city over with a view to locating here.

BREVITIES.

John Green of Garden, was in port today with a boat load of fish.

E. E. Johnson's residence is being improved in appearance by a large veranda.

Will Weber resumes his duties as teacher in the Woods district next Monday.

Mrs. Collier of Grand City, who was in thirteenth last week, returned home Monday morning.

Mrs. Rev. Hjornstad and son left for Halm, Wis., last week where they will visit relatives and friends.

The value of a spectacle consists in the skill with which it is adjusted, and its method of construction. Doctor Optical Co's eye specialist and expert frame fitter will be at their Agent Carris's the jewelry on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday, May 4th, 6th and 7th. See him. There are thirty thousand people in this state wearing glasses fitted by Mr. Duder and assistants, we refer you to any of them.

Judge Steere had the pleasure of meeting Henry Manson this week for the first time. Manson, is a survivor of the ill-fated DeLong Arctic expedition, and his recital of his terrible experiences are always very interesting and instructive. These experiences have wrecked his health and for the past three years he has been unable to appear on the streets. He enjoys the visits of his fellow citizens, and all should honor him by such visits.
