Only a short time and then Christmas. Few people stop to think how little time remains. Why wait until the last days. You recollect the crowded condition of the stores the few days proceeding christmas and what difficulty there was in making your selections. Indications point to even greater crowds this your and we can not urge too strongly the advisability of buying now, while trading can be done leisurely, will-in asortiuctuals are complete and stocks large. Our great store is in holiday attire and our prices are absolutely the lowest. There is positively nothing to be gained by waiting. Purchases will be held for future delivery if desired.

The result of the Schley inquiry was a "draw," just as everybody expected it would be. Admiral Dewey, who is undisputed authority, filled a minority report upheld Schley in every contention, and closed by saying, "He was in absolute command, and is entitled to the credit due to such commanding office command, and is entitled to the credit due to such commanding office commanding office of the glorious victory which resulted in the total destruction of the Spinish ships." Sampson got the prise morely however.

There's only one way to get anything in politics—and that way isto loc fair. To strive to knock out some one who is in only breeds party strife. "Give a good officer a fair show to all that is coming to him. That is right. No worthy mare will ask more than he is fairly entitle to. Give him that and then in turn new appirants can get place with the condition of the charity in fastioned and embitters all concrence." When the profit is there in fighting within the party? Can anyone figure the glains is 'easily as he can the losses?

Bappy Bours.

Thus is Christmas Time, those golden hours when the heart goes out to all humanity, when the ties of friendship are closer drawn and those worus of good cheer. "Merry Christmas," and "Same to you, dear friend," are spoken and the warm grasp of the hand is given, quickly said and done; but how much they mean. Then care hides her face and joy fills the land, hearts are gladdened by many gifts, and the home is turned into a veritable bazaar on Christmas morn.
