GOV. ROGERS DEAD.

Chief Executive of the State of Washington Carried off by Pneumonia.

THE END CAME SUDDENLY.

Was a Brother of Rev. J. M. Rogers of Marquette and County Treasurer for 12 Years of This City.

A dispatch from Olympia, Washington, under date of Dec. 27th says: Gov. John R. Rogers, died after an illness of six days. For the last twelve hours he was in a comatose state. The collapse was a surprise to his physician and family. Mrs. Rogers and the governor's daughters, Mrs. Blackman and Miss Helen Rogers, were at his bedside. The governor's son, Edwin Rogers, who is in London, was called, and F. J. A. Rogers, the Stanford university professor, and A. C. Rogers, of Santa Barbara, were sent for. Ernest Lester, William Blackman and Private Secretary Polders, together with Chief Justice Heavrin and Justice White, of the supreme court, were in attendance at the house during the day.

The first symptoms of Gov. Rogers' illness developed Friday, Friday night. A fever resulted, and by 10 o'clock Saturday morning the governor began to complain of pains in his chest. The fever increased slightly, and the pains became quite severe. Sunday the first reports of his condition were given out. It was announced that he was suffering from lobar pneumonia, the middle lobe of the right lung being affected. He was attended by Dr. Ingraham, of Olympia. While his condition was not considered dangerous.

The governor was known to be a man of regular habits and strong constitution, and although, in 200 of his advanced years, pneumonia is always dangerous, it was thought he would pull through. Dr. Ingraham, however, asked for a consulting physician, and Dr. P. B. Miller, of Seattle was called in. Dr. Miller returned to Seattle Monday evening. At that time he was quite hopeful of the governor's recovery, and stated that, if his condition was unchanged within the next couple of days, he probably would recover.

The patient suffered a great deal of pain Sunday, but by 8 o'clock in the

A SERIOUS CHARGE.

County Treasurer V. P. Chappell Arrested on the Charge of Embezzling County Funds.

SHORTAGE PLACED AT $7,300.00

An Effort Being Made to Make the Money An Admitted Preliminary Hearing to be Held Tomorrow.

The citizens of Manistique were greatly shocked last Saturday afternoon to learn that the treasurer V. P. Chappell had been arrested on the charge of embezzling county funds during his two terms of office. He was arraigned before Justice Thompson and the preliminary hearing was adjourned to tomorrow. Messrs. C. R. Merseveau and Deane Hedron are his sureties.

A close examination of his books reveals the fact that the shortage is $7,300.00. Of that amount $2,000 was taken during the last year of his first term, and the remainder during his last term. Mr. Chappell, it is stated claims that if there is a discrepancy, poor book-keeping is responsible, while the experts who have examined the books say that such is not the case.

Mr. Rogers, the present county treasurer, discovered the falsification shortly after he took charge of the office and the steps that led to Mr. Chappell's arrest were not taken until everything was verified. Mr. Rogers felt it his duty as a public servant to see that the proper authorities of the falsification, and although it was a very disagreeable task, yet he would have been recent to his trust had he not done so.

Much sympathy is expressed for the family of the accused, and it is hoped that Mr. Chappell may be able to improve his innocence before the courts. His bondsmen for the first term were J. H. Bennett, C. B. Merseveau, N. L. Nevenax, O. C. Bowen, Ed. Ash, A. Bestman, R. L. Barnes, Deane Hedron, and A. C. Hubbard. For the second term the sureties were C. H. Merseveau, O. C. Bowen, N. Nevenax, Geo. F. Rose, E. J. Benson, R. L. Barnes and A. Bestman.

Injured by a Fall.

While hurrying along on the sidewalk leading to the rear door of Capt. Johnson's residence last Saturday evening, Carlton Becket, delivery man for the laundry, stumbled over a hole. He fell in such a manner as to cut a long deep gash on his forehead and face, striking the rim of a small water barrel in falling.

In-Door Base Ball.

Talk about a Spanish bull fight or an old time plan game, compared with in-door base ball, they are said, is a good game.

The Lads Who Won.

The juveniles have organized two in-door base ball teams designated as the Lakoski and Down Town teams. They played their initial game last Saturday afternoon to a number of spectators who were attracted to the open houses by the war whoops they heard in that vicinity. The boys played very good ball and more than amused the spectators. The Lakoski team won in a score of 34 to 12. Another game will be played tomorrow evening. Turn out and encourage the boys. Admission 10 and 15 cents.

Farmer's Institute.

L. J. Gelman, superintendent of the Extension Station at Chatham, and Magnus Nelson of Manistique, will conduct a farmers institute in this city the latter portion of this month. The date will be either the 18th or 20th, but due notice will be given later. Gelman is an acknowledged authority on soils and farm crops while Nelson is a prominent stock and fruit raiser.

More Ball Teams.

The clothing and dry goods clerks, the grocers and butchers have organized base ball teams and a tournament will be the result. Now if the printers would organize they could "knock the earth" with the teams above referred to.

WILLIAM ROSE DEAD.

Died Very Suddenly of Heart Failure Last Saturday Night.

Funeral Services were held from the home of E. A. Rose, Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. Branch officiating.

Mr. Rose was a frank, open-hearted, honest and industrious citizen. He possessed a remarkably strong constitution and, until his fatal illness was never confined to the house on account of illness. He was Manistique's street commissioner several years ago, and no official or attendant to his duties more faithfully than he.

Two Ball Games Next Week.

"Two ball games next week. The Legionites and Masons play Tuesday evening and the Foresters and Elks Friday evening.

Remembered His Clerks.

Mr. Wikkelman remembered his faithful clerks very substantially on Christmas day. Mr. Yalomstein received a silk umbrella with gold monogrammed handle and initials engraved thereon. Miss Friedman was given a $10 bill and Miss Oberg received a silk parasol with silver mounted handle. Such remembrances bind employer and employee more closely together.

The Legionites who have been playing in extremely hard luck so far in the tournament, won their first victory last Friday evening. In several of the previous games they were defeated by very close margins but they had better luck this time and won out in a score of 12 to 17.

Not Good for Steady Diet.

We publish the concluding chapter of Dr. E. B. Patterson's London letter. In a private note to the editor he says: "At the days ago by I work harder and harder just to keep from thinking of America. If these poor devils over here really could appreciate the difference, there would not be boats empty on the sea to take them over. It is good for a lunch but hard for a steady diet."

Entertained Her Little Friends.

Amy Curro gave a dinner party to a number of her young friends last Saturday. After dinner the guests were given a sleigh ride. Those present were Sara, Gladys and Chester Curro, Gustafson and Arlo Fybel, Luella and Walter Phippney, Margaret and John Merseveau, Russell and Karl McCullough, Alton and Bessie Norton.

A Good Record.

The Soo Line delivered 122 carloads of freight to the Ann Arbor Co., while the Ann Arbor delivered 68 carloads for western points. This was done in four days commencing last Sunday.

ANENT THE BAZAAR.

List of Those Receiving Prizes.

St. Francis de Sales' church bazaar ended on New Year's eve, and was an unequalled success socially and financially. It is very hard to say at present who will be the clear profit but Rev. Fr. Kunes thinks it will be above $700.00 or $800.00, all of the profits, did a good business and nearly everything offered for sale was disposed of. Following were the prizes:

- Fancy rocking chair to Frank Clark.
- Picture in gold frame, "Christ Before Pilate" to Miss Agnes Brown.
- Four pieces of silver set to J. Casey.
- State of L. H. of Jesus to Mrs. McManis of Thompson.
- Fancy sofa pillow to Mrs. Deralie.
- Box of Havana cigars to Mr. Ang. Kreck at Bessemer.
- Taylor lamp to Henry Thibert.
- Bag of flour to Mr. Osteburg of Thompson.
- Gold garnet rosary to Miss Julie Quinn of Thompson.
- Iron bedstead to Rev. Father Preis of Winona.
- Suit of clothes to Mrs. May of Gould City.
- Fancy sofa pillow to Mrs. Mary Arty of Gould City.
- Fancy chamber set to Mrs. Frank Arcovic.
- Cass of family tonic to Miss Agnes Jersa.

- Fine linen handkerchief donated by Mrs. Governor Biles of Escanaba.
- Fancy quilt to Henry Thibert.
- Large photo of Rev. Fr. Kunes, to Miss Mary Adams.
- Bicycle outfit, to Mr. John Gagea.
- Gold watch to Mrs. Ella Gagon.

The most interesting event of the bazaar were the contests for a dollar given Miss Irene Zimmerman who collected $53.04 and Evelyn Barrow $24.00, and for a gold watch between Miss Josephine Schneider, who collected $19.30 and Irene Spangler $30.00 and contest for a diamond ring between Miss Margaret Curley, who collected $265.53 and Miss Mary Adams who collected $189.15.

The ladies in charge of the bazaar gave it faithful attention and are due a great deal of credit for the success achieved. Father Kunes is highly pleased with the proceeds as he did not expect to clear any more than $500.00, especially as not long time ago a collection was taken for the school, which netted over $3000.00 and most of the men are in the woods at this time of the year.

DEFAULTER WILL RETURN.

George E. Walker, who Embezzled From Michigan Bank Writes Home.

George E. Walker, who a short time ago embezzled several thousand dollars from the Newbury bank, writes from El Paso, Tex., to President Dutcher, offering to return and make himself as he can, and to submit to such penalty for his crime as the law may require. At the time of Walker's flight the announcement that he was a defaulter caused sensation. He was one of the most popular men of the village and held the full confidence of his employers. Drink, however, led to his discharge, but it was not until a new cashier had been installed that Walker's penitence was discovered and it was found that he extended over a considerable period. In the meantime he had disappeared and his whereabouts were unknown until the receipt of his letter from Texas.

TRYING TO ENTER THE U. P.

Sold the Pennsylvania Railroad Is.

The year of the Pennsylvania's planning to invade the upper peninsula of Michigan, together with the Cleveland Iron Cliffs railway properties has been revived, and deals that are said to be in prospect for various short lines of railroad tend to confirm the rumor. A few months ago bank officers in convention at Milwaukee were also officials of the Cleveland and Cliffs Company came here in a special train and went over the lines of the Soo road, and viewed another railroad, in addition to studying the mining situation. The Cleveland Cliffs officials are close to the Pennsylvania management, and the suggestion is that railroad connections across the lake, will give the big eastern road a direct line into this locality.—Mining Journal.

A RAW YOUNG LAWYER.
His First Case Introduced Him to Contempt of Court.

Some of the members of the bar were discussing contempt cases because of a recent notable event in the state, and one of the little coterie related a personal experience.

"I read law at home and had my examinations through a little country lawyer who knew a great deal, but never had a big case and was notorious for his ability in abusing justices of the peace. It may seem a preposterous statement, but I had never heard or thought of such a thing as contempt of court when I had my first professional experience in a common pleas court. No sooner had the opposition attorney made an objection than the judge ruled against me.

"I proceeded to inform him that he was wrong, that I wished he would quit his petting. The lawyers in attendance were temporarily petrified; the venerable judge glared at me over his glasses, finally smiled in a friendly sort of way and told me to proceed. Very soon there was another writ taken objection, and again he ruled against me. This practically took the props from under my case, and I went at the judge as my instructor had been accustomed to go at a justice of the peace in a back township.

"Your honor! I declaimed, 'is a political accident. In the eternal flux of things you should be digging out or cleaning out underbrush. You have no more sense of justice than a faithful mercy. Thank heaven there is a higher judicial tribunal in this state that—' But there I was halted by a fine of $200 or 90 days in jail. The judge took me to his private room, where he learned my story and sent me to the court the wrong way.—Detroit Free Press.

The Str. Louisville Nephew of B. Blumrosen Has Circled the Globe.

Nathan Bernstein, of Sydney, Australia, arrived in the city this morning to make his home with his uncle, B. Blumrosen. Nathan is only 17 years of age but he has travelled more than most men who have spent their allotted time on earth. He came here four years ago to visit Mr. Blumrosen and returned home by way of London, where he has relatives. He also took a trip to Spain and Italy on the trip home, which included the Suez canal and the Orient. He left Sydney on December 1 and came to Vancouver, his trip to the Soo keeping him constantly traveling for nearly a month. The boy has completely circled the globe, a record that will make him the observed of all observers of his age and the envy of every boy in the Soo.—Soo Record.

Old Features of French Elections.
There are some curious features connected with French parliamentary elections. For instance, no wall literature issued by a candidate or his friends may be printed on white paper, white being the color reserved for official announcements. In the days of the empire, when official candidates were known in the land, the addresses of the government's nominees were printed on white paper, and this no doubt had due weight with the more ignorant masses. Again, any elector whose name is mentioned in a newspaper, if he had himself appeared, call upon the editor to publish a reply. This, however, is not confined to elections, but is a right enjoyed by French citizens under the law of the country.—London Mail.

She resides in New York city and has just completed a new novel.

HOME FROM OIL FIELDS.

Senator O. B. Fuller Tells the Journal of His Visit There.

(Excerpts from Journal.)

Senator O. B. Fuller returned yesterday morning from a business tour of Texas, where he has been connected with the Lake Superior Oil Company, of which he is president. In answer to a query from the Journal man as to the correctness of the report that he is a "minder" of Texas, he said that he is not a candidate for lieutenant governor. Mr. Fuller said: "Please cut that out. I have no ladder set up on down in Texas. The only interest I have there is as representative of my company with the oil company which I am more interested in talking 'oil' than in discussing my candidacy for lieutenant governor."

Mr. Fuller says to form any has not visited Beaumont can form any idea of the magnitude of the oil industry there. When asked as to what he thought of the permanency of the "gushers" there he said: "That is something which nobody knows, except God. I am not a geologist. If the permanency of the oil wells is assured it will prove a fine investment for everybody who has any stock in these wells. Mind you, I mean wells that have struck oil, not just water wells. The gushers may or may not be a sign of oil companies there have. Just as soon as it can be established that these wells are not ephemeral, the price of the oil will advance three or four times in value."

In speaking of the prospects of the Lake Superior Oil Co. Mr. Fuller said the company had one of the best gushers in Spindler, Top Heights, the richest part of the district. Governor Beaman Hill told Mr. Fuller that there wasn't a well there that had better flow. "What causes me to believe that these gushers will prove to be permanent wells," said Mr. Fuller, "is the fact that some of the newer gushers there are much stronger flow than the first ones, and do not indicate that there is any danger of exhausting the supply."

While at Beaumont Mr. Fuller made a contract with a company to lease 150,000 barrels of land from the Lake Superior and Beaumont well. Many of the oil companies are now building huge tanks, one concerns alone having 60 under construction, with a capacity of 37,500 barrels each. These will be used for storing oil.

DOCTOR'S STRIKING CLAIM.

Says He Has Artificially Produced Life With Aid of Chemicals.

Professor A. D. Houghton of Chicago, who until a few days ago was chief of pathology in Hullman's Medical college, says that within six years, possibly five, he will have discovered the secret of life. To a New York Evening Journal reporter he said recently: "I am working for an ion that agent which will effect reproduction, and then I shall have found artificial life, complete, exactly like natural life, or so nearly like it that it has no way of telling difference."

"When the earth was formed mud and rocks, but then by the action of certain chemicals which now we find but rarely, yet then were everywhere, and were combined to produce life of spontaneous generation."

"I began with crystals and found that they have life and that by reversing my work I could see things more wonderful still. In crystallizing sulphur out of a solution I saw it grow in a real and actual as anything ever born possessing, and it lived for six weeks, pulling now one way and then another and acting as if it had some form of intelligence."

"I formed sponges by chemical action and made them as the gelatinous matter found in the natural sponges. Further, I produced the most curious forms of life, such as sponges of iron, produced spirals of wonderful fashion."

"From this it was only a step to make a shell that was as perfect as any I ever picked up on the shore. There are now a few shells which I have made artificially. Among these are assimilation, selection of affinity, motion and reproduction of kind. I can now select any life that I want to make, and in the life I am intelligent, and until we know life we cannot know ourselves."

NEW TYPE OF SHELL.

How the Energy View of a Bacterial Cell Was Observed.

A remarkable shell of a new type that has just been introduced into the market is stated to be the most perfect of the British war office, says the London Mail. It is the introduction of a centrifugal pump of shell charge of smokeless powder a thick white smoke is emitted when the shell bursts, thus showing the gusher even at the greatest distance how close the projectile has come to the enemy's position.

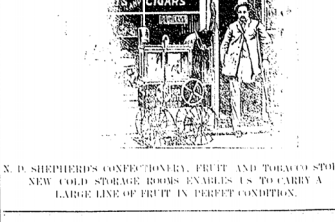

"By increasing the proportion of this chemical, an explosion which does not lower the bursting effect. It is held to be possible to deposit in front of the enemy's position a thick wall of white smoke which for many seconds will altogether obliterate his view of the field. The experiments in the German army have proved highly satisfactory, and it is said that the invention is almost sure to be adopted in England."

MICE TO DETERMINE GAS.

They Now Form Part of Equipment of the Submarine Boat.

Frank T. Cole, superintendent of the Holland Torpedo Boat, company's plant at New Bedford, N. Y., and captain of the submarine boat Fulton, believes that he has found a way to solve the problem of detecting the presence of a submarine boat from the danger of asphyxiation while under water, says the New York Tribune.

The most serious objection to the use of submarine boats is the danger of asphyxiation from the gas in the hull. Electric Smelting.

(Substantive Review.)

A Hatch electric smelter is to be installed on the property of the Anglo-American Copper Co., at Parry Sound. The company are operating on an island to across in extent, just off the mainland, on which they have a further holding of 300 acres. About twenty men are at work, and 2,000 tons are now on the dump. Mr. O. L. Young, of Duluth, is a manager, and is now at the smelter.

The electric smelter is operated without the use of solid coal or fuel, and can be operated by water power, and will extract all the metallic contents, which, in this case, are copper, gold, silver, nickel, zinc and cobalt, and which can be collected either in the pure state or as a sublimous resid.

"Child Worth Millions."

"My child is worth millions to me," says Mrs. Mary Reed of Harrisburg, Pa., "yet I would have lost her by group had I not purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough." One Minute Cough Cure is sure cure for cough, cold and throat and lung troubles. An absolute safe cough cure which acts immediately. The youngest child can take it with entire safety. The little ones like the taste and remember how often it helped them. Every family should have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure handy. At this season especially it may be needed suddenly.

RETURNING TO NATURE.

An Author's Interesting Views on the Actual Progress.

William L. Allen, writing from London to the best reviewer of the New York Times, says:

There is an obvious tendency to "return to nature" in the books of the last twelve months. That is to say, there has been published a very considerable number of books dealing with the garden, the forest, the mountains and customs of animals of this sort or the like. They would not be published. "Returning to nature," when it is put into actual practice, generally means wearing a life band shirt and no coat, living in a hut instead of a house; eating atrocious food cooked by some one who knows not the first elements of cooking; and acquiring a large amount of surface dirt on one's clothes and body.

There was a time when I "returned to nature" for a few weeks every summer, but I could never see that much of it, except an inordinate desire for the things and left behind in civilization. The literature of "returning to nature" is much more tolerant than the actual process. Nothing is more delightful than to read of the beauties of life in the wilderness. You do not feel the bite of the mosquitoes and you do not feel the cold of the frost, but you have all the delights which the man who wrote the book intended that he had after he has returned to civilization.

WAR ON THE CORSET.

French Scientist Says Straps Give Women "The Duck Walk."

We upon this subject have been engaged with more earnestness than ever before, writes the Paris correspondent of the New York Tribune. As the society leaders are fast joining in the campaign, it is expected that something really is going to be accomplished. Dr. Philippe Arceux, a scientist of distinction follows the anticorset feeling in a series of lectures which drew packed audiences of the smart set.

"The modern woman has degenerated appallingly," Dr. Arceux said. "Rugs render her an easy prey to the diseases of the lungs, heart, liver, spine. Heavy skirts have gradually shortened her legs and given her the 'duck walk,' peculiar to society women."

Although there is no likelihood of its ever passing, several deputies intend to support a bill proposed by Dr. Arceux. The bill forbids women under thirty to wear corsets or similar appliances under a penalty of three months in prison.

GENEROUSITY OF A SKIPPER.

Dropped 825 in Quarters and Half Dollars into Salvation Army Kettle.

The skipper of a schooner named the "Cape Fear" after a stormy passage, a good deal of attention and aroused some comment at Dover street and other spots where the skipper dropped 825 into a Salvation Army kettle. The sum, which was entirely in quarters and half dollars, was a most generous gift. It was entirely in quarters and half dollars, was a most generous gift. ROYAL DRESS REFORMER.

Princess d'Yarobring Decries the Corset, but Favors Short Skirts.

Dress reformers need not appeal to the Princess Marie of Yareobring, the sister of Her Majesty, the Queen. The princess has taken the column of the North American Review wherein to fulminate against modern feminine costume. Of corsets and undergarments for individual dress reformers being fogging that dress is now more defunct than ever, and she goes on to claim that no dresses should attempt to fit the figure, cut full straight from the shoulders.

"The skirts are not to reach the ankles, no heels are to be worn, and shoes should be as open as sandals. The neck is to be absolutely bare of any kind of collar or covering, and above all, no hair is to be worn. There is to be no high collar at least at any time, and no high collar at least at any time, and no high collar at least at any time."

WAR ON THE CORSET.

French Scientist Says Straps Give Women "The Duck Walk."

We upon this subject have been engaged with more earnestness than ever before, writes the Paris correspondent of the New York Tribune. As the society leaders are fast joining in the campaign, it is expected that something really is going to be accomplished. REMARKABLE CURE OF CROUP.

A Little Boy's Life Saved.

I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life. And I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it in A. E. Steers of Goodwin, S. D. and when I got home with the poor boy coughing hard, I gave him the medicine and directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the plug out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth today.—Joe Demont, Inwood, Iowa.
