VALUATIONS RAISED

The Supervisors are Following in the Footsteps of Tax Commissioners to Assess at Cash Value.

VALUATION NEARLY DOUBLED

Does Not Mean Higher Taxes on the Rate of Taxation Will be Lowered by Increased Values

The Board of Review of the city of Manistique materially raised the valuations as shown by the assessment roll of the supervisors. In some cases the increase exceeds 300 per cent. The board has decided to assess all personal and real property at near its true cash value as possible and if the supervisors of the coming township have done the same there will be such a material reduction in the rate that in the end the possessor of taxable property will not pay larger amount than under the old arrangement.

The tax commissioners insist that all property should be so taxed, and the assessing officer that does not do his whole duty can be punished. Also the owner of personal property who does not give the supervisor a sworn statement as to his property can be arrested and severely punished.

If every person in the county made an honest statement of his property the rate would be ridiculously low, as compared to the four and five per cent rate which is in vogue.

A low tax rate has a tendency to attract new industries more effectively than anything else.

The values in the "third ward" were increased to a greater extent than in any of the other wards. As the majority of the business houses of the city are in that ward the increased valuations vitally affect Manistique's business interests.

If the equalization board of the county will resist that the assessment of Manistique should be the basis of the county, then no one will suffer. If an equitable adjustment is not made, why then, Manistique will pay a great deal more than its proportion of the taxes of the county.

If the local rolls stand as they now are, no doubt some will be excessively taxed, but there is no disputing the fact that a cash valuation is the only proper manner to assess property, and in due time will be in vogue in this county.

The only knotty question is, "what constitutes the cash value?"

SOO LINE WRECK AT PEMBINE.

Express Passenger Dies Tells What He Knows of It.

The Sun News of Saturday has the following to say concerning the wreck at Pembine, mention of which was made in last week's issue: "When the Soo line train, No. 87, started last evening from Chicago, on its first run from Chicago, on the late of the crew which took the train out the day before was at his post. Two others had either been injured in the wreck at Pembine the previous evening or were held there by the wreck. Conductor Byers, of Gladstone, brought the train, replacing Conductor Shea Menger, who is lying in a hospital at Rhineland, Wis., with a broken shoulder and internal injuries from which he may not survive.

Engineer Phinney "Dad" Bailey, of Gladstone, who was on the passenger, is at the hospital severely injured. The engine of the freight train and the nose agent of the passenger were also injured. The only passenger who received injuries, as far as could be learned, was a man named Somerville, book-keeper of the Peninsula Cigar Co., at the line. Mr. Somerville, received a broken shoulder.

Dr. Gies, express messenger on No. 87, is the only one of the trainmen who returned to the Soo. He has had a hand cut on his nose and his back is lacerated. Mr. Gies's story was brief: He said:

"I was standing at the door of my car ready to pull the door open and unload a number of barrels of fish which were consigned to Pembine. A crash came and I knew nothing more till I came to a hotel at Pembine. It must have been that the crash, threw the barrels of fish on top of me, rendering me unconscious."

Mr. Gies did not know anything further of the wreck except that the passenger was running 40 miles per hour, and that the freight train into which it crashed was running at an equally high rate of speed. Both engines were wrecked and the passenger was thrown from the track. The only injuries which may result fatally are those received by Conductor Menger.

Late reports from Conductor Menger's condition are to the effect that his physicians have given up all hope of his recovery. He has a compound fracture of the shoulder and his skull is fractured. The wreck occurred at 10 o'clock Thursday night and the injured conductor remained unconscious from that time till 11 o'clock last night."

Much Property Changes Hands This Week on Cedar Street.

LOCAL PARTIES THE PURCHASERS

Who Shows that the Citizens Have Faith in Manistique's Future.

During the past week every lot on Cedar Street between Walnut and Walnut Street has been sold, which was withdrawn from the market, Wednesday evening changed hands. Most of the property will be held for an investment and several have announced their intention of erecting brick blocks in the course of time when the growth of the city demands it. The natural trend of business appears to be north on Cedar Street and the property in question is very desirable.

In all cases the property was purchased of the Chicago Lumbering Co., and the names of the purchasers and the descriptions of property follow: Mrs. Mian Brooks, part of lot 5, sec. 12, town 41 n., range 16 west. Mrs. Lena Deamer, part of lot 5, blk. 5, original village of Manistique. E. W. Miller, part of lot 7, blk. 5, original village of Manistique. Wm. S. Crowe, part of lot 2, blk. 5, original village of Manistique. M. Blumrosen, part of lot 5, blk. 5, original village of Manistique. M. Blumrosen and J. Rosenblatt, part of lot 5, section 12, town 41 n., range, 16 west. Martin O'Hara and Nick Deemer, Jr., part of lot 2, block 2, original village of Manistique. Charles Schuler, lot 8, blk. 7, Chicago Lumbering Co.'s Addn. A. S. Putnam, part of lot 4, blk. 2, original village of Manistique. Johannes Anderson, part of lot 2, blk. 2, original village of Manistique. Wm. S. Crowe, part of lot 3 and 4, blk. 2, original village of Manistique. George E. Holben, part of lot 4, blk. 2, original village of Manistique. O. Folio, part of lot 7, blk. 5, original village of Manistique.

Prosperous Condition.

Under the specific tax law, the Manistique, Marquette & Northern railroad will have to pay taxes aggregating $3,711,000; Soo Line will pay $24,618 on its line in the upper peninsula, and the South Shore pays $18,804.20. There is an increase of more than 10 per cent on the tax paid by railroads of the state and as the rate is determined by the earnings, it shows a prosperous condition. The total taxes of all the railroads of the state are $1,485,000.00.

New Cigar Shop.

Guinan & Bestman, who have opened a cigar shop in the Miller building on Oak street will be ready to place their goods on the market next week. They are making two brands—a five and ten cent cigar, and those who have had the privilege of sampling them report that they are making excellent goods. The firm will no doubt do well.

To Advertisers.

As THE PIONEER-Tribune will be closed at noon next Friday, advertisements should bring in their copy not later than Tuesday noon. Please remember this.

The steamship Canisteo and consort left for Toxowanda Wednesday.

DECORATION DAY

Will be Observed by the Veterans and Allied Organizations.

Next Friday is Decoration day, and to the shame of Manistique no effort has been made by its citizens to cooperate with the veterans in its observance.

The veterans of the Rebellion and the Spanish war, the W. R. C. and the Sons and Daughters of Veterans will form in line at the G. A. R. headquarters 1:30 o'clock on the day in question and march to the cemetery to honor the memory of the departed heroes with garlands of flowers.

Commander Gayard of the G. A. R. Post has furnished us with the following list of soldiers, members of the W. R. C. and Sons and Daughters of Veterans that are buried in the local cemetery:

VETERANS: James Vestinberg, W. E. Clark, Louis Olson, Thomas French, John O'Brien, Geo. F. Fuller, John McNease.

WOMEN'S WIVES: John Arrowood, Samantha Vestinberg, Emma Hattery, Sneye Olmson, Elizabeth Miller, Anne McNamee, Sarah Oliver.

DAUGHTERS OF VETERANS: Ruby Cook, Baby Critchfield, Nellie Thomas, Elizabeth Carter, sons of VETERANS: Fred S. Gehlert, Frank Miles, Grant Miles, Frank Fuller, Ed. Carlog, James Carlog, Joseph O'Day, William Carlog, Ruby Fuller.

Birth Party. Last Saturday was County Treasurer Rogers' birthday anniversary and a few of his neighbors planned a surprise party in honor of the event. A fishing party was the entertainment. The anglers were uniformly successful in landing card board fish of various kinds and sizes. Prizes were awarded to those securing the largest and the smallest fish. Messrs. Rogers and Horberg were the prize winners and were permitted to fish again. Mr. Rogers landed a four pound lake trout while Mr. Horberg got a box of fish. The refreshments were placed in paper bags and caught in the same manner as the fish. Mrs. Branch who served the entertainment deserves great credit for the success of the party. Those present were: Messrs. and Mrs. Horberg, Messrs. Waddell, Brunch and Holben; Messieurs Ross and McKinney; Misses Alice and Lella Ross, Corrin Branch; and Mr. Ned Branch.

Ann Arbor R. R. Co's Steamers.

The four ferries of the Ann Arbor R. R. which are equipped with excellent passenger accommodations, are now sailing across Lake Michigan to Frankfort on following schedule: Leave Manistique, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday 9 o'clock p. m. Leave Menominee, Monday, Wednesday and Friday 11:30 o'clock p. m. Connecting at Frankfort with the Company's trains for points in the lower peninsula. Rates via Frankfort are lower than via any other line.

Ann Arbor Railroad Sold.

A New York dispatch, dated Wednesday says: "It was generally accepted as a fact in financial circles here today that interests friendly to the Wabash Railroad Company had acquired a controlling interest in the Ann Arbor road. The price paid and the amount of the new interest were not disclosed. President Bannery of the Wabash said that the purchase was not made directly for his road."

Highly Pleased the Audience.

The Tomteusson Jubilee Singers played a large audience at the M. E. church last Monday evening. Every member of the company in great ability and every number was heartily enjoyed. Should the Tomteussons play a return date the audience would tax the capacity of the opera house.

Have Been to Martique.

Contractor Larsen, Christian Drevdahl, Sr., and August Olson who at one time followed the vocation of sailing, touched at Martique many times during their voyages and are very well posted on the topography of the city, which was swept out of existence recently.

Not a Tragedy.

Coroner Mix, after an investigation of the latest find in the "Forty," ascertained that the child in question, was buried in the yard by a family that formerly occupied the property and that the child died while the family was ill with small-pox and for that reason the body was buried in the yard by order of the health officer.

BEG TOGET AWAY

PANIC-STRIKEN RESIDENTS OF MARTINIQUE HAVE ONE COMMON DESIRE.

FEAR UTTER DESTRUCTION

Relief General Among All Classes That the Island Will Eventually Sink Under the Sea—United States Relief Steamer Dixie Arrives at Fort de France and Lands a Large Cargo of Supplies.

Fort de France, Martinique, Wednesday, May 21.—Streams of frightened refugees are pouring into Fort de France from all the surrounding country. These people are not destitute, but they are terrified. They want only one thing, and that is to be taken far away from this island, with which they say the gods are angry and which they will destroy by fire before it sinks under the sea.

The consuls here and the officers of the war vessels in the harbor are being aided by persons crazed with fear and begging to be carried away.

The weather is now calm and beautiful, but the mountains in the vicinity of the volcano which often assume a very threatening aspect, and occasional rumblings are also among the heavy and very welcome rain that is this morning.

The United States steamer Dixie from New York, arrived today after a quick and safe passage. Her passengers include many world-famous scientists.

CATHEDRAL AT ST. PIERRE.

entists. Professor Robert T. Hill, geologist; Professor C. E. Becherovitch, the naturalist explorer; Messrs. George Curtis and George Keenan and many magazine writers and correspondents are also among those who arrived on the steamer.

The Dixie began landing her enormous cargo of supplies early and the storerooms on this soon became congested, and this in the greatest difficulty of the administration.

The United States steamer Potomac went to inspect St. Pierre with the commanders of the war vessels now here. With the greatest difficulty the party succeeded in making a landing. The effects of the outbreak of yesterday were tremendous. The huge basilic towers of the cathedral were hurled flat to the earth.

The bombardment of volcanic stones is not sufficient to account for this, and all evidences point to the passage of a furious blast of blating gas, traveling at enormous speed and with incalculable force. The deposit of boulders, ashes and sandstone is everywhere. Not a human being saw what happened at St. Pierre yesterday morning.

This second eruption was many times more violent than that which afflicted St. Pierre and killed its people from the earth. Nor has all volcanic activity ceased. The city is still going from the great crater and new fissures have opened on the mountain. The smoke is coming yellow whirlwinds, which rain intermittently now from one point and now from another. Boiling mud also is thrown out at intervals in torrents that reach the sea and produce small tidal waves.

From a sombre, silent city of death and desolation, St. Pierre is now a hideous amphitheatre of fiery, roaring destruction. Utter and unreasoning fear possesses all souls. Even Fort de France is believed to be unsafe. The presence of the relief ships, however, is helpful to the people, who say "the American flag makes safe the Potomac coast."

The Dixie will sail tomorrow for St. Vincent, but the other vessels will remain.

The scientists who have arrived will examine into the question of the danger of the peaks of Carriacou, near Fort de France, becoming active volcanoes. The outbreak of yesterday produced a nucleus a volcano, which is all conditions is lost.

"We want not food, but only to leave," is the cry of grief and pain.

Be Prepared to Evacuate.

Paris, May 22.—The minister of the colonies, M. Decrais, has called to General Higney, at Fort de France, instructing him to make all possible arrangements for the evacuation of the island in the event of circumstances necessitating the evacuation of the island.

UNITED STATES TRANSFERS CONTROL OF THE GOVERNMENT OF CUBA.

Havana's Streets Crowded With People and the Inauguration of the New Republic Causes Boundless Enthusiasm—General Wood Gives an Enthusiastic Oration on His Departure for the United States.

Havana, May 21.—The United States has advanced her promise to the world. Havana and Santiago de Cuba were during the day transferred to American troops. The terms of peace were handed over to President Palma and now the movement of Cuba to free and the whole island is delivered with joy.

Enthusiasm as was the remarkable demonstration when the flag of the United States was lowered and the flag of the new republic hoisted in its place at noon on the palace from the Spanish flag and the colors of the center, it was hardly more stirring than the magnificent friendly demonstration which attended the departure of the cruiser Brooklyn as she sailed out of Havana harbor a few minutes before 4 o'clock p. m.

The enthusiasm in the city was boundless. Many persons were literally mad with joy over their new born liberty. Precursors of the glad news they were exploited on the sidewalks and even in the cafes.

One hundred thousand visitors were seen to be in the city and the police were utterly unable to cope with the joyous multitude.

The transfer occurred exactly at noon. The ceremony was brief and others were to greet them and when at 10 o'clock, President Roosevelt received the party in the East room of the White House.

The president's voice rose until it filled the hall. He then declared his government accepted the responsibility of sovereignty.

He then turned to the Cuban people and said: "I have received your message and I have responded in a most cordial manner. I am glad to see you here, and I am glad to see you here, and I am glad to see you here."

By this time the main party, the highest officers of the French army and navy, were standing by the president's side. He then turned to the Cuban people and said: "I have received your message and I have responded in a most cordial manner. I am glad to see you here, and I am glad to see you here, and I am glad to see you here."

FRENCH NOTABLES ATTENDING ROUHBACAU FETTERIES OFFICIALLY RECEIVED.

GREETED BY THE PRESIDENT

Members of the Cabinet, Lieutenant General Nica, Admiral Dewey and a Group of Senators and Representatives Also on Hand to Do Honor to the Distinguished Visitors From Abroad.

Washington, May 23.—The remaining members of the notable party sent to represent the French government at the ceremony of unveiling the Rouhbacau statue arrived here on the Pennsylvania railroad at 10 a. m. from Annapolis, which point they reached Wednesday on the G. M.

Only a small crowd was at the depot to greet the distinguished visitors. Besides the police escort Troop G of the Second Cavalry, from Fort Meyer, was drawn in front of the station and saluted on the appearance of the visitors. Assistant Secretary Pierce of the state department entered the first of the open-top cars in waiting with the ranking members of the party and several members of the French embassy.

The ceremony was brief and others were to greet them and when at 10 o'clock, President Roosevelt received the party in the East room of the White House.

COAL MINE DISASTER

TWO HUNDRED MEN KILLED IN FRATERVILLE COLLIERY AT COAL CREEK, TENN.

Explosion Occurs Several Miles From the Entrance to the Mine and It is Believed Every Workman Met Instant Death—Rescuers Work Heroically for Hours Only to Find One Continuous Tomb of Death.

Coal Creek, Tenn., May 20.—The worst disaster in the history of Tennessee mining occurred at 12:30 o'clock a. m. when between 175 and 200 men and boys met instant death in the Fraterville coal mine, located two miles west of this town, as a result of a gas explosion.

One of the large number of miners and boys who went to work developments there that only one alive and he is so badly injured that he cannot be taken to his home. This man was W. A. Morgan, an aged Englishman, who was a runaway in the mine, and he was blown out of the entrance by the force of the explosion.

One hundred and seventy-five miners were checked in for work in the morning by the mine boss, to be present there, there were boys who acted as helpers and drivers and roadmen, and others to the number of perhaps 600.

The Fraterville mine is the oldest mine in the Coal Creek field, having been opened in 1870. It is fully three miles long and contains a reserve of 100 million tons of coal.

The mine was not on fire except in a few portions, and all the bodies, perhaps, will be recovered save maybe one.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Shirt waist parties are a fad at Escanaba.

A man whose opinions are not attacked is beneath contempt.

When a preacher and a politician meet, the handshake is on one sided affair.

It is as easy to plant a rose as it is to pluck a thorn. It is finer to remember the living than to weep over the dead.

A. McCachren, aspirant for legislative honors has been assured that Luce county's delegation will vote for him in the convention.

If Patsy hadn't changed his politics he might be able to secure the position as chief chemist of Tammany hall as Nixon has resigned.

It looks as though Hon. Frank Watson of Owosso, would succeed Attorney General Owen. He is certainly capable of filling the position.

The man who spends $25 a year for tobacco and $10 a year for church privileges needs to be born again, even if his name is on the church rolls.

A newspaper that tries to be fair, is often abused by men who cannot see it selfishly, and against the public interest. This fact should be remembered when you hear a newspaper abused, particularly a newspaper that you know tries to do the fair thing.

He took a seat on a soap box in front of a place of business at 10 o'clock in the morning and after roasting every decent man and woman in town, and littering up the sidewalk with tobacco juice and shavings, went home at 11:45 to make a razor because dinner wasn't ready.

There is a world of difference between a leader and a boss. The leader says "Come on." The boss says "Go in." The leader consults the people; the boss bosses the people. The leader plans the boss schemes. The leader works in day light; the boss in darkness.

The Elks of the Soo will conduct a five days carnival August, which will attract thousands of visitors to the city. Why don't the Elks of Manistique promote a similar idea here. Manistique has never had a fair or anything of the kind and the innovation would undoubtedly be a great drawing card—one that every business man would encourage financially and otherwise.

Geo. A. Loud's chances for securing the congressional nomination in the tenth district are bright indeed. If he does beat Applin in the convention, the Democrats will select a Bay City or Saginaw candidate and elect him with the Republican vote of the two cities above mentioned, for the inhabitants always cast aside politics when they are in danger of losing the congressman. We hope that Loud will defeat Applin for the nomination and that he will give the political hogs of the Saginaw Valley a knock-out blow at the polls.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Not content with having tried it out, Charles K. Sleigh is willing to head the Democratic state ticket again this year.

The meanest men in the world are those who criticize other people who are lifting on the world's burdens, but they never lift any themselves.

A whole week has elapsed now without any announcement from the Stearns' literary bureau. Must be that Hell-ocean Vessels is out of the state. See Record.

Spurred on, no doubt by his success in designating who should serve Escanaba as mayor, Editor Gates of the Iron Post has been convicted for shelving the present superintendent of the public schools of that city.

An old soldier was heard to say the other day that "I notice that the fellows who are howling so fiercely about the 'water cure' and other abuses our soldiers are practicing on the Filipinos haven't had anything to say about Andersonville or Libby prison."

Somebody said of Attorney General Knox not long ago that he was a fine example of the rich man in Federal office for his wealth had but one effect—which was posing about for a local candidate in the hopes of holding his grip on the political situation. Perhaps the same tactics may be tried in this county. Policy may decide to aspire for congress, himself.

Manistique will go on record this year as not publicly assisting in the celebration of Decoration day unless action is taken at once. This is not as it should be. We should show our reverence for the departed heroes, and honor their living brethren, by assisting in the proper observance of the day. If concerted action is not taken all should at least close their respective places of business and accompany the G. A. R., and allied societies on their march to the cemetery.

Mr. Chas. A. Wright, of Hancock has formally announced himself a candidate for congress, thus making three aspirants in the field, and largely making Houghton county a little ground at this county in Mr. Sheldon's homeland. Strange when a man goes to congress once, he wants to go for all time, and at each succeeding convention will justify almost any old thing to go just two years more. But there is an end to all things—even to the best of congressmen.—Lake Linden Times.

Conventions to choose delegates to the Tenth district congressional convention were held in three counties of the district Friday of last week, these being Alpena, Arenac and Crawford, and in all three delegations favorable to Colonel Geo. A. Loud were chosen. Applin charges that boodle was used against him to beat him out of the delegations, but there are reasons enough for having Mr. Loud favored without looking for an improper one. It begins to look very much as if Mr. Applin's congressional career is to be limited to the fraction of a term he is now serving.—Mining Journal.

Whenever the coal trust wants to raise the price of coal, it proceeds to "beat down" on the miners to such an extent that they are compelled to strike. In time the "differences" are adjusted and the dear people are held up by an increase of from 50 to 75 cents a ton. The miners and the consumers are invariably mulcted by these annual strikes, while the wealthy hogs that control the output of fuel, reap the benefit. The mine operators also own the coal carrying roads and by excessive fixed charges for transportation are enabled to place the wholesale price so high when it reaches the retailer that he makes but a very modest profit on his sales.

SENATOR JAMES McMILLAN.

James McMillan is one of those six members of the United States Senate who can never become President of the United States. The constitutional obstacle of foreign birth stands in the way of McMillan of Michigan, Nelson of Minnesota, Patterson of Colorado, Millard of Nebraska, Keams of Utah, and Gallinger of New Hampshire. Other considerations besides that of birthright might forbid the elevation of several of these men to the chief magistracy, but conditions may easily be imagined under which Senator McMillan, but for his foreign nativity, might have been nominated and elected President; and the dignity of the office would not have suffered in that event.

After all, nine-tenths of Mr. McMillan's own friends and neighbors have probably never heard that he was born on foreign soil. He spent only seventeen years of his life in Ontario where he was born, at Hamilton, on the western shore of Lake Ontario. His home since early youth has been in Detroit, and his Americanism is quite as ardent as if he had been born there.

Somebody said of Attorney General Knox not long ago that he was a fine example of the rich man in Federal office for his wealth had but one effect—which was posing about for a local candidate in the hopes of holding his grip on the political situation. Perhaps the same tactics may be tried in this county. Policy may decide to aspire for congress, himself.

LOOKS CLOSE.

The race between Rep. Sheldon and H. O. Young for the Twelfth district congressional nomination, as according to a journal correspondent in the upper peninsula, is extremely close. Sheldon himself has opposition in his own county—Houghton, the largest in the district—and while his opponent there, Charles Wright, banker of Hancock—will have elements of strength in the county convention, it is considered that in the end local pride will predominate, and Sheldon will be given the delegation. Outside of Houghton county Wright is not generally known, and the contest lies between Young and Sheldon. The best judges of the situation give Sheldon Houghton, Keewenaw, Baraga, Chippewa and Mackinac counties, with a total vote of 36.

For Young, the counties of Marquette, Gogebic, Dickinson, Alger and Delta are practically conceded, having a total of 39 delegates. In the doubtful counties, the tendency in Menominee seems to be for Sheldon, and should he capture the delegation it would give him an aggregate of 46 votes, or three less than sufficient to nominate. In Iron and Schoolcraft counties, with a total of seven delegates, the tendency apparently is for Young, who should be secure the delegation, would also have 46 votes all told.

The two other doubtful counties—Ontonagon, with three delegates, and Luce, with two—are claimed for both Sheldon and Young, but as elsewhere in the district the candidates seem to be on equal footing there.—Detroit Journal.

RUINED BY GAMBLING.

There is a moral in the misfortunes of Archie V. Freeman, which conveys a lesson to many another in like circumstances.

The principal cause for his downfall was the gaming table. He was fascinated by the allurements of a "game of draw," and he did not possess the requirements of a successful gambler. He was a "marl" for whom he burned the mid-night oil, and he found he embarked very quickly in gambling. In Mexico the same fever consumed him and he gambled away every dollar, and was left penniless in a strange land by his uncontrollable passion.

The moth can easier escape the flammé than a man of weak character can get away from the blighting influences of gambling and the deep rooted habits of dissipation.—Michigan Democrat.

The postmasters of the upper peninsula have been holding meetings of late to devise ways and means of showing their good will toward the gentlemen who secured the plums for them, and also to lay the foundation for future fruit crops. Indeed, the postmasters seem to be all there is to the Sheldon effort this campaign. Outside of these office holders one hears very little in support of the present representative, and the effort to extend him a eighth year seems almost wholly confined to these postmasters. Of course they could do nothing less than to do their utmost for, as other action would be base ingratitude. At the same time the lack of other help is a source of great weakness, and is being freely commented upon throughout the district.—Iron Ore.

LOOKS CLOSE.

The race between Rep. Sheldon and H. O. Young for the Twelfth district congressional nomination, as according to a journal correspondent in the upper peninsula, is extremely close. Sheldon himself has opposition in his own county—Houghton, the largest in the district—and while his opponent there, Charles Wright, banker of Hancock—will have elements of strength in the county convention, it is considered that in the end local pride will predominate, and Sheldon will be given the delegation. Outside of Houghton county Wright is not generally known, and the contest lies between Young and Sheldon. The best judges of the situation give Sheldon Houghton, Keewenaw, Baraga, Chippewa and Mackinac counties, with a total vote of 36.

ADOPTS REPORT

PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY APPROVES COMMITTEE'S GREEK REVISION.

ACTION NEARLY UNANIMOUS

Debate Preceding the Final Vote Is Very Brief and Two Delegates Go on Record in Opposition to Adoption—Rev. Dr. Henry C. Minton, Chairman of the Revision Committee, Explains Action of That Body.

New York, May 23.—The general assembly of the Presbyterian church has adopted the report of the committee on creed revision making changes in the Confession of Faith. This action, which was practically unanimous, was taken with little or no debate. The changes proposed will now go to the various presbyteries for ratification. When the report was presented last Friday a motion for its adoption was made at once, but the vote was deferred. As was to be expected the prospect of an interesting debate on creed revision attracted a crowd which filled the galleries until and when the doors of the ground floor were opened all the seats not reserved for members were occupied at once. The Rev. Dr. Henry C. Minton, chairman, before the hour set for consideration, spoke for a moment. "It do not believe that my task as a moderator is to be a difficult one," he said, "but it is a delicate one. In this chair where you have put me I want to say that I am not a member of the organization or any committee. I am a plain Presbyterian and your moderator—your servant. I will not discuss this discussion be carried on in the spirit of good fellowship. Have nothing other rushed through or delayed. The matter before us is a simple proposition. The assembly has appointed a committee to do a particular thing. What you have to pass on is not whether the committee should be done, but whether the committee has done it to your satisfaction."

The Rev. Dr. James D. Moffat then moved the adoption of the eleven orders to be sent to the presbyteries. Chairman Minton opens debate.

The Rev. Dr. Henry C. Minton, chairman of the revision committee, spoke for the report. He would not, he said, argue the merits of the whole report, but would speak of the special considerations which influenced the committee. They were guided in the first place by the words of the declaration of 1828. They were prompted, of course, was always in favor of the widest extension of last year's assembly. There were two elements on the committee, he explained, those who preferred to make all amendments by verbal modification, and those who wished to make the changes by separate declarations of assent. Obviously there had to be some yielding and it was not all on one side.

BISHOP THOBURN TESTIFIES

Washington, May 23.—Bishop Thoburn of the Methodist Episcopal church of London and Atlanta was before the senate committee on Philippines during the day. He said the American occupation of the Philippines should be continued. In the course of his examination he said that the American occupation was an act of God. This led to a long line of questions by Senator Patterson, in which the bishop was asked whether the occupation of Cuba was an act of God and when he replied in the affirmative Senator Patterson asked if the withdrawal was also the act of God.

Believes the Pope is Anti-Christ.

"I believe that the pope is anti-Christ," he said. "I am quite willing to declare in the face of the nation, or the whole world for that matter, that the pope, using the words of Jesus Christ, is anti-Christ and the son of perdition. The committee followed by broadening the statement.

Dr. Minton resumed the accusation that the Presbyterian church had believed in infant damnation.

"The critics and enemies of the Presbyterian church have rolled out their tongues as a sweet morsel that we believe in infant damnation. We regard the accusation that they charge contemplates any such interpretation."

The Rev. Dr. Moffat urged the assembly, in a brief address, to decide the matter by a vote to adopt.

The Rev. Dr. R. Russell Booth of this city, who has been known as a strong anti-evangelist, asked the assembly to adopt the report unanimously and at once.

As he closed his short remarks there came loud cries of "question," "question," from all over the assembly.

The Rev. Fleming G. Bailey of Kilmorock, Pa., proposed a resolution against the adoption of the report.

"I am not a member of the organization with the old standards. I feel that this revision is but the entering wedge for a new religion. I will not say that it will go on one day or another, but I will say that it will go on one day or another."

The speaker broke down and wept.

The question was then put and the resolution, carrying the report to the floor, was carried, with only two dissenting votes.

The supplementary statement was then adopted by unanimous vote.

THE OFFICIAL FIGURES.

Twenty-eight Thousand People Perished at St. Pierre.

New York, May 23.—The first official estimate of the results of the explosion of Mont Peloo have been announced by the French government. Six thousand persons were rescued by steamships or fled to places of safety. Three thousand probably were drowned. This is the most complete estimate made so far.

The relief steamers now on the scene are the American ships Cincinnati, Hartford, Foxton and Longfellow; the French cruiser Sirete and the British supply boat Medina. Owing to fog it has been found impossible, up to the present time, to unload the supplies sent by chamber of commerce of New York.

The bodies of Thomas J. Prentiss, American consul and James Taylor, British consul, have been identified and will be brought here for shipment. Both bodies are bruised by the fall of lava and stones almost beyond recognition.

Admitted That Peace Negotiations Are Under Way at Pretoria.

London, May 23.—The consensus of opinion here is that all the signs are propitious for peace but up to 2 p. m. the British officials gave no indication of the course which will be followed between Lord Kitchener and Lord Milner and the Boer delegates at Pretoria. The expressions that once more occurring regarding the Boer war were talking. The conference is the man total of the information which the war office has vouchsafed up to the present, though it is intimated that a definite announcement of the result, peaceful or otherwise, may appear in the course of the day. It is stated that peace is close at hand has obviously taken a strong hold of opinion on the Stock Exchange. The buying of cotton and golded South African shares continues. It is believed, in behalf of well-informed interests.

Defiance Cannot Be Curbed

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one remedy for deafness, and that is by constant local treatment. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed it will have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; since one out of five are cured by certain pills, which are an infallible medicine of the mucous surface.

WRECKED BY A WHALE

Remarkable Adventures of the Kathleen's Crew.

ALL SAVED, INCLUDING A PARROT

State Tells How a Big Bull Whale Chased and Bore the Bark in Mid-noon—One-third of the Party Lived For Eleven Days in Open Boat.

Hobart R. Reynolds, mate of the whaling bark Kathleen, wrecked by a whale a thousand miles east of Philadelphia on March 17, tells a thrilling story of the event, which compelled the crew to take to boats to be picked up later by three different vessels, landing the sailors recently in New York city and in Philadelphia, says the New York Evening World. Three hundred whales were sighted on St. Patrick's day, and all hands except Captain Jenkinson and his wife, the steward and the cabin boy started in pursuit. Four boats were sent out to hunt for whales. The first boat, under command of Chief Foreman Manuel de Villa, towed his whale alongside the Kathleen, and made fast. Then a bull whale was seen, and a mile away, and the boat went in pursuit.

"The bull was soon reached, and a harpoon was planted in his side," says Mate Reynolds. "The animal started, but not very deep, and he was towed straight for the Kathleen. The boat traveled so fast that the line, slinging through the grooves, set the bow of the Kathleen on the starboard side. The whole side of the bark was crushed in, and she began to fill.

"Villa chopped the line, and his men pulled for the side. Meanwhile the captain, steward and cabin boy had hurriedly tossed some blankets and a life-vest of water on deck, while Mrs. Jenkins fetched her parrot, who had been with her for eight years. Villa's boat came alongside the woman, the captain, parrot, steward and boy had just time to drop the man overboard and themselves before the Kathleen, with the dead bull mast fast to her foreward, sank.

"The first that I personally knew of anything had happened was when, while my catch in the darkness, I sighted a boat under sail and was hailed from it.

"Is that you, Reynolds? 'Yes, sir?' 'Are you fast?' 'Yes, sir?' 'Can you see the Kathleen has been sunk?' 'Yes, sir,' said the captain. 'The Kathleen has been sunk by a whale. The captain picked up Murray and Nichols, the fourth mate, both whom soon came up, and all four boats were in a bunch. First the people were distributed, and then the boats were sent in each boat. In the captain's boat there were eight men, the captain and Mrs. Jenkins and the parrot.

"The captain gave each boat twenty pounds of hard tack and four and a half gallons of water in open buckets. When daylight came, the boats were sent on a boat in sight of us. I tried to drink some of the water. It was a brackish springing up in the night, and I dashed the spray over my gunwale and made the fresh water brackish.

"I got a course west by north, heading on bearing 100 miles, and I could judge, in that direction. We started away on that course and after sailing half a mile overtook another boat, which proved to be the captain's. He divided with me what fresh water he had left. The two of us jugged along in each other's company until the morning when the captain sighted a smoke, which proved to be that of the cutter Bonanza from Baltimore, under the command of Chief Mate Charles G. Chio. She took us aboard.

"I have got two more boats drifting around here," said Captain Dalton. "All right," said Captain Dalton. "I'll look for them."

"He picked up the third boat after a little, but although the Bonanza circled around in widening circles for forty miles she could not find Villa, and we went on to Pennsylvania.

"I lost the rest of the boats," said Villa, "because I had agreed with Captain Dalton to exchange signal flags. Once in the morning the captain's flag and I thought I was being followed. I then carried on as fast as I could, leaving the crew and one-half gallon of water, concluded I had no time to waste. So I crowded on for Barbados eleven nights and days.

"For morning and night I served to each man about a tablespoonful of water and half a liter. It was not at the last, and we had continually to seek one another with our water. It was good weather, with the exception of the last five days, into December.

"The Kathleen was an old boat, having been built in Baltimore in 1850.

Force of Bodies of Victims of Coal Creek Disaster Missing.

Coal Creek, Tenn., May 22.—The fourth day since the disaster at Coal Creek finds 20 or 25 bodies of victims of the Fraterville mine explosion still missing. The rescuers encountered death gas during the morning and were forced to abandon their work in the entrance until a greater supply of fresh air could be furnished. It is reported that Congressmen Gillett and Knowlton of the East Tennessee district have been asked to solicit federal relief.
