A TRIPLE FATALITY

LeRoy and Walter Woodruff and William Tennant Drowned in Indian Lake.

ACCIDENT OCCURRED SUNDAY NIGHT

The Body of LeRoy Woodruff Recovered. The Others Still Missing.

The most distressing accident that has ever occurred in the vicinity of Manistique was the drowning of LeRoy and Walter Woodruff and William Tennant, in Indian Lake some time last Sunday night.

The three boys left home about supper time Saturday evening, with the intention of taking a short outing. Their prime object was to investigate a controversy between Deaf Creek and the mouth of Indian river. They went directly to Woodruff's landing near which place was the Tripit hut, which they were in the habit of using for a rendezvous. Sunday afternoon they were seen by John McCormack and family near Deaf Creek. McCormack was enroute from the Big Spring and owing to the gale was compelled to go around the head of the lake instead of crossing in a straight line. It was between three and four o'clock when he saw the boys, all occupying one boat. This was the last time that they were seen alive and as how they lost their lives is more or less a mystery.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff, the parents, had gone to the colony to pick berries, but Mrs. William Tennant, LeRoy's uncle, and his wife, were also present. They were notified relatives Monday. They assumed that there was no cause for alarm as the Woodruff boys had at times made prolonged stays on similar expeditions. However, when they failed to come home Tuesday morning, all became apprehensive and a search was instituted in which Mr. and Mrs. John Tennant and Andrew Tennant, the father of W. J., joined. They went to Woodruff's landing and in scanning the beach Mrs. John Tennant espied an object which upon investigation proved to be a boat. A short distance from the boat was found the body of LeRoy Woodruff, lying on its face with the limbs in the ly 25 and 18 years, were the sons of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Woodruff. They have been life long residents of this county and were very well known by a LeRoy school in the Spanish. Volunteers, for service in the Spanish-American war and remained with the company until it was mustered out. His comrades in arms met the funeral procession at Schaefer's corner, Wednesday afternoon, and marched to the church and cemetery, where the remains were buried with military honors.

William Tennant, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Tennant, was a brother-in-law of his deceased comrade—having married Myrtle Woodruff several years ago. He leaves a widow and a young son. Mr. Tennant was also very well and favorably known here.

The parents and the wide circle of relatives, who are grief stricken by the terrible affair, certainly have the profound sympathy of all in their affliction.

The funeral services were held from the M. E. church yesterday afternoon, the pastor, Rev. F. L. Osborne officiating. The Manistique band and the local members of Co. I, 35th Regiment participated in the parade. The services were very largely attended.

TURPIN-PAYNE

Two of Manistique's Estimable Young People Married Last Sunday.

Mr. George Payne and Miss Anna Turpin were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Turpin, last Sunday evening at 5 o'clock, Rev. Fox of the First Baptist church officiating. William Turpin, Jr., and his sister, Mrs. Prudence of Gladstone, were the bridesmaids and only the relatives were present.

Mr. Payne is proprietor of the Lake-side grocery store, and is a quiet, industrious and popular young man. The bride has also a wide circle of acquaintances and is highly respected by all.

On Tuesday evening a party attended by about fifty invited guests was held at the Turpin home in honor of the event and the evening was very pleasantly spent in dancing. Refreshments were served.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

Two Candidates for Clerk. Rogers and Hixon Will Be Re-nominated.

It is conceded that County Treasurer Rogers and Prosecuting Attorney Hixon will have no opposition for re-nomination and as but one candidate for sheriff, Magnus Klugstad, is in the race. The contests in the various city offices will not be distinguished with the busting and wire pulling that has been the custom in recent years.

The only contest is for clerkship. Edmund Asford who served the county well in that position for the past ten years is a candidate for re-nomination. Mr. O. A. Bowen is also an aspirant. Both have many friends. Bowen's friends think that the spoils of office should be passed around, Asford's efficiency is undisputed, and there is no gainsaying the fact that Bowen is equipped in every way to fill the office to the entire satisfaction to all.

The result of the caucus next Wednesday will probably decide the question—the convention to be held on Saturday of next week certainly will attend and the caucus will see to it that the strongest possible nomination are the strongest possible nomination are made, and that when the standard-bearers are named that they will give them their loyal support during the campaign and at the polls.

A Surprise Party.

On Monday Sept. 8, occurred the thirty-ninth anniversaries of both Mr. A. T. Coryell of this city and Mr. M. B. Miller of Penn Yan, N. Y., who is at present visiting in Manistique. A surprise party was given them at the home of Mr. Coryell. Those present being mostly friends whom they had known in their youth. Songs of olden times were sung, refreshments served and the evening proved a most enjoyable one for all. Mr. Miller and Mr. Coryell received several fine gifts as souvenirs of the occasion.

A thoroughly wholesome drama, according to all accounts, is "The Tide of Life," which Edward Weitzel will present at the opera house, Friday, Sept. 13. It is realistic and full of powerful, mechanical and electrical effects, but better than all else it tells a heart story, one of those simple, direct narratives that appeal to the best sentiments of human nature. The heroine is a young girl, bubbling over the high spirits of innocence, and as true as steel to the good impulse that sways her soul. She has been stolen from her home by a dan gerous pirate, one Dan Gillette, and he calls her by his own name, which is shortened into "Jill." So Jill she is until restored to her luxurious home and called by her real name. OUR CITIZEN KNIGHTS

HOW THEY MAY BE DISTINGUISHED FROM OTHER MEN.

Imperial Knights Conferred by Kaiser as Masters of the Noble Order Subjects—Confined to Military Honors in Germany.

By the action of Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany in bestowing Imperial distinctions on Americans who took part in entertaining Prince Henry on his visit to this country in 1902, the Imperial Knights of the Red Eagle have become full fledged German knights. The colors conferred were those of the Red Eagle and the Crown. Six received the order of the Red Eagle of the third class, five the Red Eagle of the fourth class, four the Order of the Crown of the third class and four the Crown order of the fourth class.

The most valuable intrinsically of the four different decorations bestowed upon these knights, and also the Order of the Red Eagle of the third class, in 1902 it was raised with all its distinctions to the dignity of the second order in the Prussian hierarchy. The order carries with it the title of "sir knight."

It calls for special recognition from every salute on guard throughout the German empire. No matter where or when an Order of the Red Eagle comes within the vision of a soldier doing guard duty he must present arms to the wearer of that badge.

The gentlemen who will have arms presented to them from the moment they land in a German port to the time they get back on the broad Atlantic are Major Della Wells of St. Louis, David H. Francis, former governor of Missouri and president of the St. Louis world's fair; Samuel H. French, mayor of Philadelphia; Julius Fleischman, mayor of Cincinnati; Gustave H. Schmidt of the New York; the order Zeltung and Arthur J. Biddy of Chicago.

The same military salutation is given to the knights of the fourth class of the Red Eagle. Knighthood also ac-

The terrific wind storm of last Saturday afternoon made quite a wreck of one mill here, blowing down the fine new lumber which was just about completed also the two smoke stacks. By complicity on the part of the men no serious damage was done to the interior of the mill. They hope to have the mill in operation again in a few days.

TO HOUSE A GIFT.
Harvard Plans New Museum For German Art and Sculpture.

The Germanic museum at Harvard university will soon be installed in a building especially designed for the proper display of its growing collection of German art. The need of such a building has been vastly increased by Kaiser Wilhelm's splendid gift to the museum, which was formally presented by Prince Henry on his recent visit to this country.

The Kaiser's gift is almost a complete museum of trained German sculpture in itself, for the collection of casts of which it contains likewise examples of the finest accomplishments in this particular class of Teutonic art from the beginning of the eleventh century to the end of the eighteenth.

The Harvard Germanic museum is being built up under the auspices of what is called the Germanic Museum Association.

"The Tide of Life," Edward Wetzel's powerful melodrama of life in a great city, will be seen at the Opera House tonight. The play is full of heart interest, there is a dainty love story, the humor is of the rollicking, touch-and-go variety, and there are several sensational climaxes. One shows a villain jumping out of a high window and being electrocuted on a steel electric wire that he has clutched in his descent, and another is where a young girl leaps to the roof of a flying freight train. The scenery is new, and the electrical effects which are all patented, are daintily original.
