For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. If you is it with the children? Are they little, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good blood. A sluggish liver gives a child nervous, irritable, and generally unwell. Cure all these by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All physicians should advise.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.
Bryan always runs well until the voting begins. Ever hear of a man going into a billiard hall or bowling alley to look for a good boy to work for him.

E. H. Jewell should feel proud of the remarkable vote he received in Thompson township. He received every vote but four.

The Grand Marais Herald says that J. H. McCallum, candidate for Representative of the Schoolcraft district made a most favorable impression.

The result of the primaries Tuesday prove the fact that the average voter knows what he wants and is acquainted with the modus operandi necessary to secure it.

Some people thought that the Republican primaries Tuesday were a regular election, where all could vote, and were disappointed when informed that Democrats need not apply.

Now that the ticket has been nominated every Republican should work and vote for its success. It is a clean ticket and there is no undesirable timber in it. It deserves the unanimous vote of the party.

Now that the life insurance can't do it for them, remarks an exchange, the only way for a Democratic widow or orphan to contribute to the Republican campaign fund is to send a dollar direct.—Mining Journal.

John I. Jennings the defeated candidate for the nomination for county clerk certainly made a phenomenal run. He was very late in entering the field and was pitted against a popular and capable official. He's a sprinter sure enough.

Did you ever see two kid fight it out? The vanquished usually leaves the scene after reminding the victor that he will get even some day. When a newspaper says the same thing after being jolted one is reminded of "kid play."

Jewell's geniality and competency as well as the fact that he was an aspirant for a second term made his renomination a certainty. Under the circumstances no man in the county stood little if any show in opposing him at the primaries. Bronson did as well as any one.

It certainly should be gratifying to the organized laborers of Manistique to know that a very much increased interest is being taken by all in the celebration of Labor day. The observance this year by far excelled anything ever essayed in that line in the city, and the time may come when every working man shall be given an opportunity of observing the day.

Rutledge of anti saloon league fame was in town several days during the past week and as a result the slot machines that have occupied conspicuous places in every saloon in the city were promptly relegated to back rooms and wood sheds. He saved the players of these machines several hundreds of dollars during the enforced vacation.

The manner in which Attorney Wood was slaughtered in the Third and First wards, the local strongholds of the political running mates of the Blaney politicians, certainly proves the prediction made last week that Wood would be used as trading stock. Jewell received 80 majority in the Third ward and Wood three. In the First ward, Patrick McNamara's stronghold, Wood received less than half as many votes as Hixon.

EDITORIAL COMMENT
When will Manistique voters, Frisco City, call? The Socialists will lead a charge against a nomination at 10 o'clock on Sept. 22.
Here's the whole story of the matter. A committee was organized to elect a local representative to the state and a baby league in it.
The first season was a net sound and good one, those that have "taken" the matter are gratified to thank the committee for its success.

Van Allen read of the proposition at Chicago with a pipe dream of winning the seat and a possibility of dropping out, that he had been elected. It may be said that he was an excellent candidate, but he certainly possessed the necessary qualifications and was just the man for the job.

Even after the election the committee had no railroad and has named a team for its party. With room as it is the "let it be" committee, which took the "let it be" work. A member of New York Democrat said: "In the utterance of words on railroads, consigned to the limbo of the political scrap heap."

WHY THEY DID IT.
State Fire Warden Ryest and Treasurer Ed. McNamara, two of the Mackinac county delegation to the representative convention, were in town Monday, but upon the receipt of a telegram that the job was up so far as Mr. McEachern's chances for the nomination were concerned, returned home Tuesday morning, evidently feeling it useless to waste their time by attending the convention.—Newberry News.

PRaise HIM
In speaking of J. H. McCallum the candidate for the legislature from the Schoolcraft district, the Menominee Herald-Leader says:
Mr. McCallum is a man and a Republican of whom Schoolcraft may well be proud.
He is a man of business ability and personal integrity.

The district will get a square deal from him, and the Upper Peninsula will benefit from his presence in the legislature.

OPPOSED TO HIS LICENSE.
Lou J. Burch, representing the liquor dealers association is touring the u. p. endeavoring to create a sentiment against the proposed raising of the liquor license from $500 to $1000. He has another plan to clean out the low dives rather than to tax them out of existence. He says:
"The way to strike an effective blow to the low dives is to have an excise commission to pass upon all applications for licenses, with saloons limited in number in a district, one to a certain number of inhabitants. Then if a saloonkeeper does not obey the law at hours of closing, the excise commission can refuse him another license or close his place of business before his licensed period expires."

WOULD NOT LEAD A REVOLT
The Republican Representative convention for the Schoolcraft District of Michigan assembled at Grand Marais on Tuesday and nominated Hon. John McCallum of Manistique for Representative. There being a certainty that his continuing a candidate would bring a spirited contest, if not end in an open rupture, Mr. McEachern withdrew his name in the interest of harmony and his party's well. Some of the u. p. papers fail to give Mr. McEachern the credit his due. A few of his partisans, we know, favored his nomination by the Mackinac and contesting delegation from Schoolcraft in a succeeding convention, but "Mack" would not have it.

Mr. McCallum, as the nominee, is a man of excellent record as a citizen and public man. He is a politician of the good old honest school, well read and fully informed on all questions of current interest and national and State importance.

He is a man of sterling honesty, who will satisfactorily represent his district in the Lower House. He was the choice of Luce and Alger counties, and a very strong body of Schoolcraft Republicans. His nomination is equivalent to election.—St. Ignace Republican News.

LENGTH OF LIFE.
According to statistics the average length of the man is increasing rapidly. It seems strange that it should be so when we remember the rapid pace we travel while living. It is impossible that this intense, nervous strain under which the world finds itself all the time is conducive to longevity. Are we as the athlete who becomes powerful by intense and exhaustive work fit as yet for still more and longer effort? It would seem so from the statistics. It would also seem that our forefathers, who took life easy and went to bed early were themselves out having a good time. Numerous instances may be cited in every community where the active, energetic, tireless man is living far beyond his allotted time—Russell Sage had no extraordinary physical powers, apparently, and yet he never rested and died working when in sight of a hundred years. Thousands of other Americans are doing as Sage did, taking no rest, sleeping a few hours as possible, and yet strong and able to do hard work many years after our forefathers considered themselves well sitting in the chimney corners and sleeping their last years away. The remarkable feature of it is that in this day and age, the man of many years is generally worth as much or more than he was when younger.

NO OBJECTION MADE THOUSANDS OF FAIR WOMEN HERALD PRAISES OF PE-RU-NA.

MOORISH AUTHORITIES WILL ALLOW EXTRADITION OF PAUL O. STENSLAND.
TO BE RETURNED ON OCEAN LINER
NO AMERICAN WARSHIP IN EUROPEAN WATERS AT THE PRESENT TIME.

Washington, Sept. 6.—The Moorish authorities will interpose no objection to the removal to America of Paul O. Stensland, president of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank of Chicago. A dispatch to this effect has been received from the state department from the British consul at Tangier. The dispatch added that Stensland is a prisoner in the American legation there.

As to the rumors of returning Stensland to this country, the state and navy officials were in consultation during the day, at which it was indicated that it would not be easy to find time on which to bring Stensland back. There are now no American warships in the Mediterranean or the Aegean waters. So the state department officials are inclined to think that a merchant ship after all might serve and their plan is to have one cross over from Gibraltar to Tangier and take Stensland aboard there, not stopping en route at any European port, but sailing directly to America, with foreign officials as to extradition. It is suggested, however, that upon arrival here Stensland be held, through his attorneys, may apply for a habeas corpus on the claim that his arrest was illegal and he admitted that the reason for his arrest was the case being brought on a precedent.

MAY BRING BACK STENSLAND.
Banker's Captors Ask to Be Appointed Custodians.
Chicago, Sept. 6.—State's Attorney Healy has received a message from Assistant State's Attorney Olson, who is now in Tangier, Morocco, with Paul O. Stensland, the fugitive banker, asking that he and Joseph Kealey, man who made the arrest of Stensland, be appointed to bring the ex-bankier back to this country.

On receiving the telegram Assistant State's Attorney Barbour wired to the governor and to the United States Governor Dinslow at Springfield and request to President Roosevelt that Olson and Kealey be delegated to bring Stensland back to the United States.

According to Assistant State's Attorney Barbour no warship of the United States will pass Morocco for at least fifty days and if Olson and Kealey are delegated by the president they will either place Stensland on a merchant steamer or the United States they will charter one for the purpose.

UNIVERSAL EIGHT-HOUR DAY.
Resolution Adopted by Trades Union Congress.
Liverpool, Sept. 6.—The Trades Union Congress has adopted a resolution in favor of an eight-hour day for all organized labor.

The American delegates offered fraternal greetings from the American Federation of Labor. P. K. Foster, one of the American delegates, said that the labor situation in the United States, saying the American trade organizations were growing vigorously and the workers of Great Britain and America united a complete victory for the labor movement was only a question of time.

NUMBER OF PERSONS HURT.
Pere Marquette Passenger Train in Collision.
Traverse City, Mich., Sept. 6.—Pere Marquette five street passenger train No. 10 at Wallin. The flyer is said to have been running ahead of time. No. 16 was just backing onto the siding when the flyer struck. Two tramps, names unknown, will die; Conductor Wilson had a leg and arm broken and for several minutes was seriously injured. Both engines were badly smashed.

One of the tramps, Otto Willford of New York, died soon after being removed from the wreck.

Disapproves Long Marches.
Washington, Sept. 6.—Long marches in the infantry branch of the army, as provided for in new regulations for the use of arms, camps of instruction, are disapproved by Brigadier General William S. McCaskey, commanding the headquarters division in the annual report to the war department. The general orders, he says, will have a detrimental and disastrous effect upon recruitment.

Refuse to Quit Commission.
Chicago, Sept. 6.—The board of trade, by a vote of 821 to 177, rejected a proposed amendment to the rules by which the commission on grain deals will be out from one-fourth of a bushel to one-eighth of a cent. The amendment would have allowed a great much interest among the members of the board.

Torture by Savages.
"Speaking of the torture to which some of the savage tribes in the Philippines subject their captives, reminding me of the intense suffering I endured for three months from inflammation of the kidneys," says W. M. Sherman of Chicago, "nothing helped me but Little Electric Bitters, three bottles of which completely cured me." Cures Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Rheumatism, and restores the blood and nerves to robust health. Prepared by E. N. Orr, Druggist, Price 50c.

Catarth and Catarthal Diseases Make Invalids of More Women Than All Other Ailments Combined.

Considers Pe-ru-na the Best Medicine in the World.
Mrs. W. J. Bryanton, 205 Sherman street, Donnellon, Ohio, writes: "I followed the directions you kindly gave me and now I find myself entirely cured. I think your Pe-ru-na is the best medicine in the world."
Heartfelt Thanks For Relief Found in Pe-ru-na.
Miss Jessie S. Dward, 27 South street, Passate, N. J., writes: "I had a dry cough and after using two bottles of Pe-ru-na, I found relief. You have my heartfelt thanks."
A cough is caused by a catarrhal condition of the throat and bronchial tubes. Remove the catarrh and the cough disappears. Pe-ru-na is the remedy for all catarrhal conditions.

Permanent Benefit Follows Use of Pe-ru-na.
Mrs. May Gray, 117 11th street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "For more than five years I suffered from rheumatic pains in my joints, and in damp or stormy weather I was obliged to stay in doors."
"Medicine seemed to be of no use until I started using Pe-ru-na. It took twelve bottles in all, although it is six months ago since I stopped."
"I have had no return of my old complaint, in spite of the fact that I have been out in all sorts of weather during the severe winter."
No better remedy was ever devised by the medical profession for the mitigation of all climatic ailments than Pe-ru-na.

Pe-ru-na Used For Throat Trouble Keeps the Remedy at Hand.
Mrs. J. A. Baiar, 808 Locust avenue, Ansonia, N. Y., writes: "I find it my duty to write and tell you what Pe-ru-na has done for me, so that all those who are troubled in the same way may get the same speedy cure."
"Four years ago I lost my voice, so that I was unable to speak above a whisper for seven weeks. Our family doctor could do nothing for me."
"After seven weeks suffering, I read some circulars in regard to Pe-ru-na. It brought a bottle at once and took two days I could talk. I will never be without it!"

HAS CHARMED LIFE

VanAnken Claims That He Has Ability to "Disappear and Dodge Bullets."
AS HOT AIR ARTIST
He Has But Few Equals. Interviewed by Chicago Newspaper After Recent Arrest
Coulter here said the "power to become invisible" helped Harry Anne VanAnken—"smooth" man, promoter of coal companies and accused forger—to dodge forty-eight rifle bullets fired at him from a distance of fifty yards, and to evade a sheriff's posse which "passed" within ten feet of him, according to the story which he told last night while gripping the bars of a cell in the Central station. All of this happened last Wednesday afternoon he had escaped from jail at Manistigee, Mich., one of his fellow fugitives having been killed and another seriously wounded.
The jail breaking and the killing is substantiated having been corroborated by a telegram to the Record-Herald from Manistigee yesterday. Now for VanAnken's story, which as he himself stated as a prologue, was better than a novel and much more improbable. But he told it with much a wealth of dates and detail that if some of it never happened "it might have."
Heaven exposed the skeleton in the closet of his domestic life, and the only point upon which he was reticent was the mystic secret dance in defiance of the barking rife on a lonely beach in the upper peninsula of Michigan, after his capture had been shot.
"If just disappeared, that's all," he said, smiling through the bars. "How I will tell you. I'm possessed of certain strange powers, you know. There is very old and very wise prisoners on the island of Ceylon who taught me her secrets and wished to make me her disciple. That passed within ten feet of me, but could not see me. One of them heard their conversation; one of them remarked, 'He bears a charmed life. I'm doubtful on my tracks and went straight back to Manistigee, taking a train for Chicago under their very noses.'

VanAnken, who dresses in a very "tacky" fashion, who frankly admits that he is "there with the goods," who talks carelessly of tons around the world, of yachting trips in the Mediterranean and of student days at the famous German University of Bonn, and who firmly believes that "God loves him," was arrested yesterday morning at 1230 Michigan avenue by Detectives Flynn and McCallan on warrants sworn out by several hotel keepers, who charged that he paid for expensive rooms with worthless checks.
He did not have time enough to erect his powers of levitation before the plain clothes men laid their substantial hands upon him, and he was very much in the flesh when interviewed in his dungeon cell. He could not even summon up the spirit that he most longed for, which was of the alcoholic variety. The coming of the Chicago crane had temporarily deserted him.
A woman figure very prominently in the VanAnken saga, and she is his wife, formerly Laura L. Jones of Minneapolis. She is now living, he declared, under the name of Laura Gray, at 49 Thirty-sixth street, flat 10. Raising a hand of solemn assertion, he declared that she is the most beautiful woman in Chicago—and one of the "smoothest." Perhaps she learned it from me," he remarked soze voce, after commenting on her intellectual attainments.

"It was she who got me in here," he said. "She telephoned to the captain of the guard as she heard that I was in town. She knew what I had come after; she knew that I intended to get the man who wrecked my home. If the detectives hadn't grabbed me when they did, I would be in here for murder. But I haven't dropped the trail yet." There was a brief significance in his hissing voice, and a dangerous glint in his eyes which he jerked those sentences out between his teeth. He obviously was a believer in section 3 of the code of lawlessness recently promulgated at St. Paul. Then he named the object of his wrath.
Deaton street business man.
"Van Anken," narrated at length the history of his courtship and marriage which sounds like the plot of a problem play. He stated that his wife had deserted him after six months and had attempted to get a divorce several times in Minneapolis and Chicago.
"She broke up several times, but I have always landed on my feet again," he said. "I have organized and been the head of the E. O. Fallows' Coal Co. of Minneapolis, the Van Anken, Smith Coal Co. of Columbus and several others. Ask Fred Jewett or any of the coal men in town. They will tell you all about me; they know me. Every one knows Harry 'Van Anken.'
After declaring that the treasurer of his last company proved a traitor and cost him ten checks to use as his expenses money while he was following his wife, VanAnken came to the prison cell part of his stormy past: "On Aug.

I had two checks cashed at Manistigee, Mich., through which I was traveling on business," he said. "A warrant was issued for me, and I was arrested at St. Ignace, taken back to Manistigee and held to the Circuit Court, which convenes in September."
"I was in jail nearly three weeks," James Valler, an Indian, learned by overhearing a telephone appointment that the sheriff was going out of town for an entire day last Tuesday, and sawed through the bars with a file which he made from the back of a knife blade that had been smuggled in to him. "I had not joined in the plot, but at the same time, when the way to liberty was open before me, I joined Valler and John Casanova in the get-away."
"I was walked along the beach all that night and hid in the woods the next day. I suddenly had a premonition that something was going to happen, and said to the others: 'Boys, you are going to get killed.' But they only laughed at me."
"About noon they left me to go down and see if the road was clear. Just as they cleared the brow of a hill overlooking the beach I saw them start to run, and then three men with Winchester jumped up, commanding them to halt, every side. But they didn't hit me, because I had been going many yards."
"At first I began to run also, but after I was about fifty yards away from the sheriff's men, I stopped, turned around and said to them: 'Shoot away at me as you like.' They pumped and I heard the bullets whizzing by every side. But they didn't hit me, because I had disappeared. Where had I gone? Well, I might have been up in the air, for all they know."

Phenomenal Crops of Wheat and Oats Reported by an ex-Manistigeean.
Mrs. Geo. Miller who resides in Red Deer, Alberta writes that the present is a poor year for wheat hay, but that wild hay on low ground is an abundant crop. She says that she never saw a crop of oats and wheat to equal the one harvested this season. Continuing she adds: "They say this is a poor year, but it would be pleased to see a crop of oats and wheat as large as this. The grain is as large again I mean the kernel. We saw some straw here as large as a lead pencil and from 34 to 54 feet tall.
