Why Not Now?

THE COUNTY DOINGS

Compiled by a Corps of Wide-awake Correspondents.

Germfask Notes

Lawyers Danton and Hixon were in town over Sunday.

Dale Morrison returned from Hantover, Mich., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Morrison spent Sunday at Whitefish Lake.

Rev. T. E. Collister made a business trip to Marquette last week.

Mrs. Austin Diller who has been quite sick list is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Menere spent several days in Manistique last week.

Mr. Beckwith has moved his family from Blaney. He expects to reside here.

James Decker returned home from a three weeks visit with lower Michigan friends on Saturday.

About seventy signatures have been attached to the local option petition, presented by Sam. Burns.

Rev. T. E. Collister left for Detroit this week to attend the annual conference of the M. E. church.

Mrs. James Stewart arrived at Oklaheons safely; she feels well, and is at present visiting with her father.

Sam. Burns has his new pea separator at work, the same being sent especially for the separating of the Rice Seed Co's peas.

Whitedale Doings

Fred Pleiss was in Gulliver last Sunday.

Levant Wood was a visitor in this district last Sunday.

Cousineau and Londo are busy pressing hay these days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brink were visitors here on Sunday last.

Miss Mahyn Wood is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Cousineau this week.

Mrs. Wm. Cousineau who has been ill, is some what improved at this writing.

Wm. Holson is painting the church. Another improvement in the looks of Whitedale.

The next term of the circuit court convenes Monday, September 27th. It will be a jury term.

Mrs. Wm. Deparou, and children and Mrs. Londo are visiting their brother and son, Arthur Londo.

IRON MINE DISCOVERED

Company Organized to Exploit Iron Ore Find in Bay de Noc Township Farm.

Bay de Noc township farmers of Delta county, are much interested in the claim that an important iron ore discovery has been made on the land of the late Antonio Wagner in that township. Ore running 40 per cent pure hematite has been uncovered, it is claimed on that farm, and a company has been organized to make tests throughout the district. George W. Mass, of Leispening, together with local capitalists, are interested in the undertaking and it is claimed that most favorable indications have been secured.

In addition to securing an option on the Wagner farm, options have been taken on a number of surrounding farms, the farmers being paid $200 annually for each 40 with the understanding that nothing shall be paid the first two years and the option tented to become due the third year. In the event that ore is found the holders of the land are to be paid a royalty of 10 cents per ton for all ore taken.

Up to this time only a churn drill has been operated on the property but arrangements are being made for starting a diamond drill there within the next few weeks.

The result of that test will be watched with great interest by all persons throughout the district.

COOKS' SIFTINGS

Donald Black spent Thursday in Manistique.

Wm. Wright of Corlino spent Sunday with his parents.

Mrs. Joe Wright has been sick for some time but is improving.

Mrs. John P. Black and son, Francis are visiting friends in Esnigone, Mich.

Mrs. Joe Kingham of Manistique has been visiting her sister, Mrs. D. Holbury.

The farmers are very much disappointed in the pea crop some will get very little of their seed back.

School started Thursday. The school house has been altered and is much more convenient than before.

We understand there will be another sifting in Cooks. Let us know Eimer when it will take place.

Anyone that wants a first-class outfit, just come to Cooks, then secure logging, forget to order lunch, and spend the evening, get up early and after a bite of dry cracker, start out for a day hunting ducks, and arriving on the grounds find that the hunt you expected to have is not there. Oh bother, I cannot think of all the instructions, just ask the editor of the Courier-Record or Mr. Castle, they will be sure to glad to give anyone any pointers you will need and tell right where to find the ducks.

The most reliable system renovator, restores vitality, regulates the kidneys and system. Recommended by your druggist as the best. Such is Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. E. N. Orr & Co.

Smokin the Grip, the best cigar on the market. All dealers.

A Sprained Ankle.

As usually treated a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a month or more, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle (initially, a cure may, in most cases, be effected in less than one week's time. This liniment is a most remarkable preparation. Try it for a sprain or bruise, or when laid up with chronic or muscular rheumatism, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which it affords. For sale by E. N. Orr, A. S. Putnam & Co., and Lullar & Neville.

AN ADVANCEMENT

Mr. Egbert M. Hayes to be Assistant Religious Director of Detroit Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Egbert M. Hayes, who supplied the Wood, Whitedale and Gulliver mission stations during the past summer, has been secured by the Y. M. C. A. officials of Detroit, for the position of assistant religious director of the organization. Mr. Hayes was born in China, where his parents were missionaries. During the Boxer movement he was brought to this country and attended F. C. Detroit high school, later spending four years at Western university. He followed this with two years at the state university and while at Ann Arbor was vice president of the college Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Hayes' many friends in this section are pleased to learn of his advancement. While here he improved all as being a young man of much ability.

Dr. Abernethy, the great English physician, said, "Watch your kidneys, when they are affected life is in danger." Foley's Kidney Remedy makes healthy kidneys, corrects urinary irregularities, and tones up the whole system. For sale by E. N. Orr & Co.

Eastern Star Officers.

The following officers were elected by the Chapter, No. 53, O. E. S. at the annual meeting held recently: Worthy Matron, Mrs. Grace Lallo; Worthy Patron, R. H. Teeple; Associate Matron, Eva Orr; Secretary, Mrs. Ida MacArthur; Treasurer, Mrs. Bliza Fenell; Conductress, M. A. Ida Hart; and Associate Conductress, Mrs. Grace Adams.

The other officers are to be appointed by the Worthy Matron.

Both Boys Saved.

Loala Hoan, a leading merchant of Norway, Mich., writes: "Three bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar absolutely cured my boy of a severe cough, and a neighbor's boy, who was so ill with a cold that the doctor gave him up was cured by taking Foley's Honey and Tar. Nothing else is so safe and certain in results. For sale by E. N. Orr & Co."

WAS CAUGHT AT RAPID RIVER

Ed. Barker, a former Resident of Manistique, in Toils for Escapade at Rexton.

Edward Barker, formerly engaged in the meat business in this city, was arrested at Rapid River on last Thursday evening on the charge of having entered the home of James Crandall at Spur 456 near Rexton and kidnapping Mr. Crandall's ten year old son. It is also claimed that he stole a watch and gun.

Chief Redeker was notified to look for him here Thursday evening. However, the message was received too late to apprehend him at the depot, but it was ascertained there that he had purchased a ticket for Rapid River. The officials of that town were notified by phone, and arrested him. During the time the train stopped here Thursday evening, he attempted to dispose of the watch.

Why?

From a small beginning the sale use and of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has extended to all parts of the United States and to many foreign countries. Why? Because it has proved especially valuable for coughs and colds. For sale by E. N. Orr, A. S. Putnam & Co., and Lullar & Neville.

Samuel Burns has a wheat field that is attracting the attention of all that pass that way. The wheat stands four feet high in very heavy and it is said by those in a position to judge, that the same will thresh forty bushels to the acre. This will compare favorably with anything in the Dakotas, Northern Minnesota, or the Canadian Northwest and is ample and convincing evidence of what can be accomplished in agricultural regions when the efforts of the farmers are properly applied. This field of grain is a credit to Mr. Burns, Germfask township, Schoolcraft county and the upper peninsula of Michigan. We regret that some of it was not sent to the Michigan State Fair, from where we are certain it would have been awarded a prize. Germfask cor. Grand Marais Herald.

Mr. Joseph F. Hutt attended the Minnesota state fair at Minnopolis. He says that the fruit exhibit was not equal to the fruit raised in the upper peninsula.

ORDINANCE NO. 1

An ordinance relative to the hours for opening and closing saloons in the city of Manistique and to repeal the Ordinance number twelve of the ordinances of the city of Manistique.

The City of Manistique Ordinance No. 1, relative to the hours for opening and closing saloons in the city of Manistique and to repeal the Ordinance number twelve of the ordinances of the city of Manistique.

SECTION ONE. It's a funny state constitution that will not allow the state of Michigan to borrow for the general fund of the state some of its million odd dollars in the school fund. The school money is loaned to state banks at two per cent and if the state has to borrow for the general fund it goes to those same banks and borrows its own money back at three per cent.—Northville Record.

OFFICIAL COUNTY AND CITY PAPER.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Watch your work, not the clock. A long day's work makes a long day short.

A citizen was heard to say the other day that "the only politician I have ever refused to sign was the one for local option."

The case of Baldwin vs. Higners doctors of Escanaba, was argued before Judge Stone last week, and a decision in same will be rendered in October.

A remark that will frequently be made in thirty years from now: "Father made money but he died poor. You know he was persuaded to buy an automobile, and that took all the fortune that would have been left to us children."

Since the north pole has been wrested from its moorings and the north that it is being transported to these shores in sections, the public is taking little interest in the achievements of Teddy Roosevelt, and the results of his daily kill.

October 12th is the anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus, and the day has been made a legal holiday. If Columbus could be permitted to return to America at this time he would see many things he did not see on his former visit.

The city council passed an ordinance regulating the opening and closing of saloons in the city. The hours remain as heretofore, and if you are bibulously inclined will have to "tough it out" between the hours of eleven in the evening to six o'clock in the morning.

Not one passenger was killed on the railroads of Great Britain, during the past year, and less than 1000 persons injured. American railway operators might learn something of advantage to the people that patronize their railroads, by investing the reasons for the satisfactory showing made by the British railroad systems.

The Mining Journal hints that the lawyers firm in this city, was the aftermath of the local option campaign. Green again, Mr. Russell. A party in jail charged with having fired the building, and he as well as the man that it is claimed hired the former to do the work, have never been considered prohibitionists by the people that know them best.

That the average citizen is not pleased with the depots that railroad companies foist upon it, is again proved by the following excerpt from the Iron Mountain Press of last week, as follows: "That old shack known as the St. Paul depot is being repaired." The Press views with alarm this stroke of enterprise on the part of the company for it means that a new depot will not be forthcoming as long as it will absorb capital.

With this issue Mr. Wilber E. Campbell, recently editor and publisher of the Manistique Center-Record, takes an interest in the business and will become its business manager, while the writer will continue to write the pencil and shears. Mr. Campbell is a practical newspaper man, thoroughly reliable, and we bespeak for him a cordial reception from our merchants and others with whom he comes in contact.—Iron River Reporter.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

It is as easy to put off until tomorrow, it is a wonder that anything is accomplished.

Revenue always promises a vast amount of sweet satisfaction but it is a bomb. It doesn't pay ten cents on the dollar.

If a government had drawing money to advert for the north pole, those would be some one to start from Manistique to try his job.

The Chicago Tribune says: What shall it profit a man to gain all the railways in the world and have to give them up at last.

Mr. Myers' name has been taken from the masthead of the Escanaba Press and Mr. John P. Norton is now the managing editor of it.

There is a man in town that thinks so much of his dog that to keep him from feeling lonesome in the barnyard at night, keeps a lighted lamp down there.

Where are the 500,000,000 freight cars concerning which so much was heard recently? All are in use, and a shortage is predicted in motive power and cars to move the bumper crops.

In Chippewa county about 600 names in excess to the number required for submission of the question of local option proposition, have been secured. The city of the Soo was not half canvassed either.

And now the potato growers are in a trust. The Farmers' Society of Equity which met at Traverse City last week has decided upon fifty cents per bushel as the lowest price at which potatoes can be sold by the members of the society, and that after December 1st, the price will be increased to sixty cents.

The Escanaba Mirror will issue a trade edition shortly that promises to be a record breaker from every viewpoint. It is being liberally patronized by the business interests of that city, and after the month-end edition is circulated, Manistique will occupy a larger spot on the map of the upper peninsula than it does at the present time.

The ordinary linek bend cannot be killed between April 1st and Oct. 1st of each year unless it is done in order to save your life. If the animal attacks you, this provision in the game laws was inserted primarily to protect black-mule cows that frequent the woods in the summer time, and it should be popular with lumbermen that have at various times paid settlers snug sums for cases of mistaken identity.

Grand Marais celebrated Labor Day on Saturday so that the liquor dealers could make money on that occasion. Such perversion of legal holidays, and the spirit of commercialism that dominates communities in making them, is disgusting in the extreme. If this spirit goes in the same ratio that it has of late, July 4th and other holidays will be observed at the sweet will of the various committees, irrespective of the real day fixed by the statutes.

It appears to be a fad of the anti-prohibitionists to steal local option petitions. Mr. F. H. Freeman of Gould City, who succeeded in securing sixty or more names in his township, was showing it in a store in that city, and when he wanted it it was no where to be found. Two similar cases happened in Schoolcraft county. Nothing was accomplished by such work for the canvassers immediately proceeded to secure a larger number of names.

The Ishpeming Record intimates that Angus Kerr's candidacy for congress has a stout spring attached to it, and that the thing he has in mind is not so much running for congress as paying the way for his appointment as postmaster at Calumet. It will be recalled that the Escanaba Journal suggested that Chase S. Osborn was playing the same sort of a game with reference to the office of governor—allowing his friends to discuss him as a possible candidate, whereas, in fact, the thing he had in mind was Representative Young's seat. But Mr. Osborn entered an emphatic denial. Perchance Mr. Kerr will follow his example.—Mining Journal.

Harriman, the greatest organizer the United States has known, is dead. His millions could not ward off the approaching doom, and there is no doubt of the fact that the tremendous responsibilities his wealth entailed and the prodigal drafts upon his physical and mental resources in the acquirement of his wealth, hastened his death. After all, does it pay to wreck one's life for wealth and position. When the inevitable comes, all are on a common level. The tramp whose life was crushed out by the train on one of Harriman's railroads on the day the magnate died, carried as much money into the future world as did the latter.

"CHECK!" SAYS DEATH. IS IT A MATE?

Edward H. Harriman typified in his own person the most pronounced tendency of modern business. He was an individualist. If he had lived another decade the country would almost certainly have been the culmination of the greatest concentration of commercial power it has ever witnessed.

This much of his character was a threat to the republic, for concentrated power is as bad in business as it is in politics. Against this Harriman trait must be placed the fact that Harriman was a constructive genius. He built up his railroads. If he ruled individually to secure them, at least he handled the captured property better than it was being handled before he took it.

As far as the inevitable future he forecast, he would have been a benevolent despot. But, if he had succeeded in his plans of combination he might have lived long enough to consolidate his accumulated holdings in such form that they would have been transmissible intact to other hands. They might even have been entailed to generations of holders yet unborn, as Britian's vast land holdings are held down.

Death, the inevitable factor in human events, has prevented the possibility. As much as Harriman got together may be kept together for a while, but the goals that accumulated it will be wanting for its increase. Natural, rather than unnatural, growth is all that is now possible for the Harriman estate, except its gradual dissipation into many hands.

How far this same inert force of death will operate upon our trust problem is a point that the coming years will do much to settle. The last two decades have been a time of trust-making, but they have been featured by the presence of men unusually qualified for the work. Whether it has been an exceptional era in brain the unknown future alone can decide.—Free Press.

WINGS THAT WERE FINS.

Evidence That Penguin's Plumes Were Once Used For Swimming.

Orthopedic needles are the penitents, with their carefully smoothed wings and salt, substitute, upright carriage. The penitents of their carriage suggest that the penitents are descendants of birds which used their wings rather than fins to the purpose of staying under water, and as the struggle intensified between the competing individuals the most expert at this sort of swimming would get the most food and most successful frisks. The wings gained advantage over their neighbors in proportion as their wings improved as swimming organs and in proportion as of necessity became less necessary to perform the work of flight.

THE SUMMER RALLIES.

Past State Master Horton of Michigan gives some Excellent Suggestions.

The Grange held its rally in Michigan more successful than in any other State of Michigan, and that success is largely due to the efforts of Past Master Horton. In the last number of the State Granger's Bulletin he answers some timely questions on the subject. They are as follows:

What are some of the essentials of success on the part of a committee of arrangements for a Grange rally?

First, earnest, and stout desire to make the rally a success as a whole, and not as a single speaker.

Second, a full and complete understanding of the Grange and its aims.

Third, a full and complete understanding of the Grange and its aims.

For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Prepared only by J. C. LAURER, MARQUETTE, MICH.

Some years ago an eastern man was introduced to a woman in a stock on the basis of a fraudulent letter purporting to come from an expert in land and surveying. The man was a man of high standing in his profession, and he was in a position to do a great deal of business. He was in a position to do a great deal of business. He was in a position to do a great deal of business.

The story of a fraud with an amusing side comes from across the water with a London man of rather cavalier habits as the victim. This man was forgetful and not to leave his home without a key and a note. He also had a practice of leaving the key surreptitiously for a day now and then for a confidential man with friends, all unknown to his wife. One day this confidential man went on one of his peripatetic jaunts, and a neighbor who knew his habits ventured to send this telegram to his wife: "Please send my keys. Love, Fred." In due course of time the key was delivered at the office door, and the man was there to receive them. He recognized the whole affair as a fraud, and he was in a position to do a great deal of business.

It never rains but it pours, in an old saying, as far as the matter of emergencies are concerned in Schoolcraft county. The Manistique Lumber Co. commenced operations this season, and while it was not authorized as extensively as it should have been, yet the future looked bright, as its customers were well satisfied with the treatment accorded them. Now, Chicago parties have decided to erect a creamery at Cooks, hills the hope of securing the product originating in the vicinity of the city. With the completion of a railroad between Cooks and Yansboro, cream will cheaply and promptly be shipped to the new enterprise.

A Remarkable Speaker.

Dr. O. Larson, who is a missionary in Burma, has been in this city for the past few days, and who is speaking at the First Baptist church last Friday evening. Dr. Larson is a remarkably eloquent speaker, and his discourse to his auditors, when it is taken into consideration that for the past twenty years, he has been preaching himself in the Burmese tongue to the exclusion of English and Swedish languages. He is a nonsectarian Christian gentleman, and possesses the zeal that is so common here. O. Saturday he addressed a large number of ladies at the First Baptist church, giving them the progress of the mission work in Burma. His talk was very much appreciated by all hearing it, and was instructive as well.

Honored Mrs. Burdick.

Mrs. Nina Burdick arrived in the city, unexpectedly, on Monday morning, from a two years' sojourn in the west, and will leave on Thursday morning for Boston to be with her son, George. Her stay here being so limited, it was obviously impossible for her to call on all of her many "quick" relatives as they comprised by all of them meeting her at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Quick last evening. A very "talkative" and pleasant time was had. These present were: Messrs and Madames M. H. Quick, Hiram Quick, W. W. Owen, R. H. Washell, Jim Quick, A. H. Owen, Mason Quick, O. G. Quick, H. O. Burley, J. C. Irish, Ret. and Mrs. Schoemaker, Mrs. E. W. Miller, Mrs. Nina Burdick, Mrs. Sarah Westerman, Mrs. George Gayar, Mrs. Aaron Quick, Willis Quick, Ernest Quick, Leon Quick, Herman Quick, Harvey Quick, John Quick, Mrs. Geo. Quick, Martin Quick, Mrs. Minnie E. Gifford, Charlotte Freeman, Mildred Quick, Lucille Owen, Leona Quick, Bernita Gayar, Loris Gayar, Lorraine Irish and Leah Irish.

Quarter Century Old.

Pat O'Brien's Iron Reporter has had a birthday the other day and it blithely admits that it is a quarter century old. During the twenty two years of its existence, Pat has presided over its destinies, and so Miss Mitchell is ready to take pupils in instrumental music. Her friends wish him success in his new position.

Will Hold a Bazaar.

The ladies of the Swedish Lutheran church will hold a bazaar in the church parlors on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of next week. Supper will be served on the first evening, and coffee and lemon cream every evening. A large amount of fancy and useful articles will be on sale, and a literary and musical program will be rendered each evening. Admission 10 cents.

Raised Wages of Men.

The Lake Superior Iron and Chemical Co., announced Friday morning that, commencing with Sept. 1st, the wages of all of its employes would be raised ten cents a day. This was cheering news for the men, and the $3.00 increase per month, will certainly be appreciated.

Will Go To Bay City.

Ex-State Senator Albert C. Heine, who has been in charge of the clothing department of Sam Winkelman's store for the past two years, has resigned his position, and will move to Bay City shortly where he has accepted a position. During his stay here Mr. Heine has made a large number of friends, that regret to learn that he and his estimable wife will be to leave the city permanently. Mr. Heine is a first class business man, and is highly esteemed by Mr. Winkelman, his present employer. He possesses the qualities that go to make up a successful salesman, and has certainly won, by his hard work and courteous manners, the respect and friendship of all he has met. His friends wish him success in his new position.

Attention! Rehearsals.

The Rehearsal degree of Odd Fellows will attend the Presbyterian church in a holy nets Sunday morning. The officers and the committee in charge invite and urge all members to come to the hall at 9:30 o'clock and attend the service. Lessons on the Piano.

Run Discontinued.

The ferry run between this port and Northport maintained by the Manistique & Northern railroad for several years, has been discontinued at least the receipt of cars for shipment ceased Tuesday evening. There are yet some eighty five cars to be moved and they will be handled at once. Unless some other line takes up shipment via Northport the road from there to Traverse city will be given a death blow.

Social Dancing Party.

A private dancing party was given at Costello hall Friday night by a number of young gentlemen. About twenty-five couples were in attendance and report a delightful time. Charbonnet's orchestra furnished the music.

Veterinary Hospital.

Mr. John Loose has secured the Ekberg barn, located on Main street, opposite Orr's livery barn, and will conduct a first class veterinary hospital there. It will be fitted up with all the modern appliances, and has a capacity for ten horses. He has decided to call it the Manistique Veterinary Hospital. The rest of the building is a large shed which will be fitted up for the convenience of the farmers who desire to place their horses under shelter during their stay in the city. Mr. Loose will be at the barn day and night and all calls for his service will have immediate response. He will no doubt make good, as there is room for such an institution in the city.

Run Discontinued.

After being in a quiescent state for the summer, the local K. of P. lodge will resume its regular meeting, commencing next Monday evening. All members are requested to be present.

Two Great Lines

of Trimmed Dress Hats and Pattern Hats at from $3.00 to $10.00

One of the most popular shapes is the Cosack Turban. The large and pleasing variety shown leads one to feel that the Turban will be the leading shape for utility wear for the coming season. Millinery for dressy wear is to be large, the picturesque shape with the brim rolled, is to be the shape par excellence. Trimmings are invariably used to produce the very simple effects. Ostrich and paradise feathers are the only trimmings which are used lavishly, some of the large hats having the crown enveloped in these feathers. Wings are used to quite an extent in the trimming of practical millinery.
