OFFICIAL COUNTY AND CITY PAPER.

FRIDAY, OCT. 5, 1906.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

This paper is yet for Cook.

Who will be Hon. Gad Smith's successor as collector of customs at Marquette.

Being afraid that you will earn more than you are getting is not the way to get more.

The herculean efforts made to stem the tide of local opinion in Schoolcraft county, at this time is worthy of a better case.

Autumn began last week, and weather conditions made it really unnecessary for the newspapers to remind their readers of the fact.

What a warlike honeymoon it will be. Sherman Sword and Anna Cannon were united in marriage at Gladstone last week.

It is pretty hard for one to decide what to do when an employer says: "take your name from the local option petition or you will lose your job." Such things have happened in Manistique during the past ten days.

Truly the good times promised by the Republican is at hand for there is a crying demand for men at good wages in various portions of the upper peninsula, and the corporations in the market for laborers are unable to secure all they desire.

Increased advertising compels us to add two pages to the current edition of the Pioneer-Tribune. If found necessary, the paper will be increased to twelve pages, for it has always been the rule of the management not allow to the advertising patronage to curtail the volume of local matter.

The annual meeting of the Upper Peninsula Teachers association will be held at Ishpeming, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 14, 15 and 16. An especial effort will be made to secure the attendance of the members of the various school boards of the peninsula to attend a banquet to be given for their benefit.

In withholding the launching of his gubernatorial boom, Chase S. Osborn has shown rare judgment. More than one boom has flattered out within the past three months on account of their "prevarications". Montgomery is as dead as the proverbial smelt. The eighty or more Republican newspapers that are straining the leash in Osborn's behalf, are anxiously awaiting the word "go" from Osborn, but they all hope they will profit by the mistake made by Montgomery and others.

In the death of Hon. Gad Smith, which occurred at Marquette late last Sunday, the state of Michigan lost one of its representative citizens, and the Republican party one of its staunchest adherents. Mr. Smith was universally esteemed by all knowing him, and was considered one of the ablest citizens and politicians of the peninsula. He was the John T. Rich of the upper peninsula, this phrase embodies the gist of columns of encomiums. At the time of his death he was serving as collector of the district of Superior, which position he has acceptably filled for eight years.

This talk of boycotting men that had the temerity to sign the local option petition, is the ranker folly. Men have a right to express themselves on every subject, and some to think about it. It is a poor sort of human being that is afraid to express his opinions on matters of public interest. There are men that believe the alcohol to be an institution that should be banished and they can bring forth good reasons for their belief. Others think that it is a necessary evil, that the community needs the revenue derived from it to help pay the municipal expenses. Both are sincere in their contentions. The fact nevertheless remains that was all the taxable property of any community placed on the tax rolls at approximately its true value, the bagatelle derived by liquor license would not be missed were it cut off. If the life of a community is dependent upon the toll exacted by its liquor traffic, it certainly is in poor way financially. The question before this community at the present time is a moral one. A man's soul is worth more than the whole world, and cannot be measured from a monetary standard. No community can afford to supplement its income by such a toll.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

When women begin to become stout, "the" people says behind her back, "ah, is looking like her mother."

Now Representative Townsend expresses great confidence that he will be elected U. S. senator in 1910. But will he?

A lady in a neighboring city has cured herself of a long standing case of rheumatism by substituting seven days on a diet of butter-milk.

Read the great speeches President Taft is making on his tour. They prove that he is equal to the job of governing the best nation on the face of the globe.

Congressman Townsend is in the field for United States senator, making his formal announcement at the Jackson City Club Wednesday evening of last week.

When three of the half dozen employees of a business man, ask for the removal of their names from the local option petition, it is safe to guess that they were forced to do so.

In 1892 Peary praised Dr. Cook as one of the most efficient men in polar work. Cook was working for Peary then and had not conceived the idea of going pole-hunting on his own hook.

The Curfew Bell at L'Anse rings at 9 o'clock. In the evening and at that hour all children are to assemble at their home fireplaces, unless accompanied by a parent or guardian. Good law to enforce in any city.

The world's championship series opens today, and every loyal Michigan fan is proud to see the Tigers. Having won the championship in the American League for three successive years, the Tigers have demonstrated that they can play ball. Here's hoping that they will sink the Pirates, and add the world's championship to their laurels.

It is a matter of pride to the average resident of the upper peninsula to know that the northern normal school at Marquette, has the largest attendance this autumn in the history of the institution. It means that more young men and women of the upper peninsula are taking advantage of the facilities it offers, for practically every student is a resident of this section of the state.

Rev. Albert Torbet of Harbor Springs, passed through the city last Thursday evening enroute to Minnesota where he went to close a real estate deal. He is very much pleased with Harbor Springs, and says that more people visited that city during the recent season just closed than at any time in its history, and that the hotel keepers and merchants report an especially good trade. This was the first season for that city under local option, and there appears to be no desire upon the part of the citizens to return to former conditions.

When the resident of a small city visits base ball centers, he is really ashamed of the home product in the realm of fandom. Here the score is received by inaudible chirps and something that sounds like "dammit" as the figures reveal the success or defeat of favorite clubs. A pure shout is raised to send enthusiastic fans like Jack O'Brien, Will DeForest and Clayton Campbell to Pittsburgh and Detroit during the world's series so they could secure new data on how to express themselves according to Hoyle, and perhaps they might be able to infuse the lesser lights with the proper spirit.

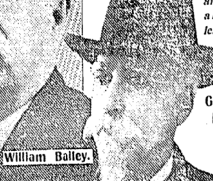

A movement, nation-wide in its scope, has been inaugurated in Minnesota, having for its object the securing of funds for the erection of a monument over the grave of the late Governor Johnson. He was, perhaps, the best loved governor in the United States. The unwarred success made upon him by his political enemies at the time he first ran for the governorship, in which his humble parentage was belittled, and attention was called to the fact that his father died in the almshouse, and that his mother was compelled to take in washing to keep the wolf away from her little fatherless ones, acted as a boomerang, for Johnson promptly said that the charges were true, and in his explanation of the circumstances that hedged about his childhood, and the herculean efforts he made to supplement the meagre earnings of his mother, when he was barely able to do so, touched a popular chord that landed him into the gubernatorial chair for three successive terms, and made him a presidential possibility. The history of thousands of citizens now well-to-do, is almost a parallel to that of Johnson's early life. They have drunk to the bitter edge the poison of dire poverty in early youth, and when the pathetic story was warmed out of the candidate for governor, by reason of the attack made upon him, it brought tears to many eyes, for it seemed as a recital of the personal experiences of the reader. All men that are strengthened and purified by the fire of adversity, and who rise above their early environment, cannot become governors and presidents, but they are made better, stronger and more sympathetic for having undergone them. A man that succeeds notwithstanding the handicaps that encompassed Johnson, possesses a personality that commands attention.

GOOD FOR MR. TAFT.

The tariff speech of President Taft at Wadena, Minn., has settled the proposition of the head of this government on the new tariff bill. His bold statement that in his opinion it is the best tariff bill ever passed and that the Republican members of congress who voted against the bill are recreant to their trust is in accordance with good sense. The Republican party ought to be proud that it has a president with backbone and every-day horse sense. "The 'Insurgents,' who are howling for Democratic tariff ideas deserve no commendation from Republicans. As Mr. Taft says: "To make party government effective the members of that party should surrender their personal predilections of comparative less importance. I am not here to criticize those who felt so strongly and believed to intensely that it was their duty to vote against the tariff bill, because it did not contain all the things they thought it should. It was a question for each man to settle for himself. In matters of this kind it is a question with the party representation whether he shall help maintain the party solidarity for accomplishing its chief purpose, or whether the departure from principle in the bill, as he regards it, is so extreme that he must, in conscience, abandon the party."

PE-RU-NA USED FOR KIDNEY CATARRH.

Gen. A. F. Hawley, of Washington, D. C., writes: "I have used Peruna and find it very beneficial for kidney trouble, and especially good for coughs, colds and catarrh of the throat."

Gen. A. F. Hawley.

William Bailey.

Kidney Trouble for Nearly Thirty Years.

William Bailey, Post Co. Inc. No. 83, Union Veteran Legion, and prominent member of many of the local protective associations in Chicago and New York, and secretary of the most prominent association in the former city, but for nearly thirty years been afflicted with kidney trouble.

Within a short period he has been persecuted to such an extent that he has been obliged to resign his position, and his present health condition is attributed to his persistent use of that great remedy, yet by a judicious use of the remedy he is now quite cured and in excellent physical condition.

This brief statement of facts, without exaggeration or hyperbole, appears to tell the whole story, which the Peruna Company is authorized to use, if it is so chosen, believing, as I do, that by so doing it will be for the general good.

William Bailey, 261 N. W. 13th St., Chicago, Ill.

Kidneys Affected—Back Weak.

Mr. M. Brodetsky, Secretary and Treasurer Local Union No. 406, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, writes from 435 E. 46th St., Chicago, Ill., as follows:

"I have been suffering from a weak back and kidney trouble for some time, and have been able to find relief only through the use of Peruna."

"During the winter season I usually kept a bottle of your medicine in the house, and by taking a dose at night I am feeling fine the next morning."

"Some of my friends advise me that Peruna is equally as good for my various ailments as it is for my complaint, but I do know that for my kidney trouble and suffering from a weak back it has no equal."

Cold Settled in Kidneys.

Mr. Joseph Kline, 215 East 4th St., Topeka, Kas., writes:

"My wife took Peruna for liver trouble and a run-down condition incident to

The Greatest Bargain Event of the Year Commenced Monday, October 4, at

Grinnell Bros.' Music House

"This year we rented more pianos to Summer Resorters than ever before in our history. Now at the close of the Resort Season, these hundreds of beautiful nearly new Pianos are being returned to us. Every train and boat brings a further supply. Where to put these Pianos that do not contain the scores of instruments that are arriving daily, for we are already overstocked with new fall styles from the twenty famous Piano Factories we represent. The Rented Pianos MUST be disposed of as fast as they arrive, or we will be compelled to secure additional storage room for them. Rather than do this we are going to give the public the benefit of every dollar we received as rent. This extraordinary sale commenced Monday morning, Oct. 4th, and will continue for ten days. During it we shall offer these

High Grade, Latest Style, Guaranteed Pianos at Positive SAVINGS of $50, $75, $100 and Even More

IS NOT THIS THE VERY CHANCE YOU HAVE BEEN LOOKING FOR? Remember these rented Pianos are very big as good as new. They could not have received better care if they had been standing in our warehouses. Most of them are rented by wealthy people who have elegant summer homes, and everybody knows how little the average piano is used during the warm weather. If it were not for the special tags on these Pianos you could not tell them from brand new instruments direct from the factories. Every purchaser will be fully protected by our GUARANTEE and any Piano will be gladly exchanged if not entirely satisfactory.

In addition to the Rented Pianos we have decided to include in this great sale all used Pianos recently exchanged in part payment for our magnificent New Pianos. These exchanged instruments have been accurately repaired by our Factory Experts and are in an excellent condition—many of them just like new. BUT NOTE THE AMAZINGLY LOW PRICES! Did you ever hear of bargains like these?

LONDON APARTMENTS

Renting a Furnished Flat in the English Metropolis.

THE TRICKS OF THE AGENT

At First Everything is Pleasant, but After the Place is Taken the Worst of the Tenant Begins With the Advent of the Inventory Man.

To the uninitiated American the rent of a furnished flat in London seems a very simple and remarkably inexpensive matter. Every one is excited, and you are led by the hand to the door of your new quarters that you are to see by the eyes of "extras." While you are taking a contented glance at the new domicile, congratulating yourself on the bargain and thinking how much more a similar place would cost you in New York, your attention is attracted by the arrival of the man with the inventory. His business is to make an inventory of every blessed thing your flat contains, from a four post bed to a kitchen spoon.

At that you are hastily amused over the list of such apparently insignificant items as "a picture of the Virgin Mary," the number of files in the fire-drawers, the holes on the windows, the locks on the doors, a description of the handles on the dressing chest and the number of screws therein, but when you have been dragged through every room, going over these to us—aloud details, you change from rage to disgust and finally collapse when your tormentor at last departs. For this entertainment you have paid from half a guinea (about $20) upward, according to the rent of your flat.

But the real power of the inventory is only felt when you take your departure. You may be morally certain that the only damage you have done has been to break out one or two screws for which you are quite prepared to pay an extortionate sum without a murmur. You may be sure of this, but presently you will receive a bill as neatly written on and covering several pages of foolscap and entitled "dilatations."

You will find that in every room the walls have been "chipped," the enamel on the bath tub "chipped," the mantel piece on a marble fire "ring" "chipped," several sconces "damaged," a knife handle "bent," a number of plates "scratched," and so on. It is quoting from a list of "dilatations" presented to friends of mine who had occupied a flat for two months, during which time, after strenuous cleaning efforts, they left the premises in much better condition than when they first took it. The bill amounted to £158. 6s. 6d., roughly about $368.

Here there is no such fact recorded as an ordinary wear and tear on furniture. For the house, which is here called "apartment," you have to pay from ten billings up to £300 and more, according to the position of the flat.

THE MAN IN THE STAGE

A Tragedy of the Olden Days in New York City.

AN HONORABLE LIFE

Ended by the Demise of Hon. Gad Smith at Marquette, Last Sunday

WAS PROMINENT POLITICIAN

And highly esteemed in the Peninsula. Speaking of the demise of Hon. Gad Smith, which occurred at Marquette last Sunday, the Mining Journal said in part:

Gad Smith, collector of customs for the Superior district, one of the best known citizens of the upper peninsula, and a man who had a circle of acquaintances that covered the entire state, passed away a little before ten o'clock Sunday evening at his home on East Arch street, after an illness of but three days' duration.

Mr. Smith suffered a stroke of apoplexy about midnight Thursday. Nothing had occurred that prepared Mrs. Smith or his friends for it. He was passing through the office looking after his duties, and he spent the evening at his home in the usual manner. The attack came wholly unheralded. It was, however, such a severe one that he had feared for two or three years past would carry him away for his health was visibly impaired for that length of time and he had long since admitted to the fact that he was steadily failing so one they could not rain.

Mr. Smith was one of the best known public men in the state. A life-long Republican, who cast his first ballot for Republican candidates and who never departed from that practice throughout the rest of his career. Mr. Smith during all his residence in this county played a prominent part in political affairs. He held many positions of trust and his conduct as a party leader was always sound. His political activities were the basis of state wide acquaintance. While less active in the political machinery during the last years of his life, during his prime he was a constant attendant at the important conventions, and had a potent hand in the determining of the course of the events. He was an adroit political strategist, and a genial and attractive personality won for him many friends wherever he was known.

What was true of Mr. Smith in all the state was particularly true of him in the upper peninsula. Few, if any men resident in this district, have been more widely known than he, and few have numbered more loyal friends. His acquaintances were numerous in every county, and embraced practically the best men of affairs within their boundaries. His prominence in political and public affairs made him widely known, but it was his special traits as a man that formed the basis of the many firm friendships which he could have enumerated had he been so inclined. His attention toward his fellow citizens was kindly and sympathetic, and his fellowmen reciprocated it by esteeming him highly and dearly.

Mr. Smith had for a number of years been a private in one of the companies of the Nineteenth Connecticut Volunteers. Later he changed his command to the Second Connecticut heavy artillery. Mr. Smith did not remain long in the ranks. His quick intelligence, initiative and ability to handle men specially recommended him to his superiors. He was made a sergeant, a little later a lieutenant and then a captain. Just prior to the close of the war he was made a major by brevet for gallant conduct before Petersburg. He served throughout the war, and on his return home he was elected to the next legislative session, and he was not twenty-one or the legal minimum age for that office, apparently having been overlooked by him, and his constituents specially holding that any man who went into the army a private and came out major ought to be twenty-one.

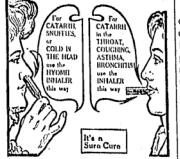

Albert Jackson post G. A. R. had Mr. Smith as one of its devoted members, and the grand army button was an insignia he always wore with pride. He was a loyal Grand Army man, and was constantly interested in the order's affairs, and the welfare of its members.

Mr. Smith was born in Connecticut, Dec. 26, 1846, and was first named to this country in 1878, one Mr. Barnum, a prominent Connecticut politician, having induced him to come to Michigan to take a position for one of the companies then which he was interested. In 1876 Mr. Smith was removed from Negaunee to Marquette, to take the office of deputy collector of customs, under Colonel Charles Osborne, and then collector. In the early eighties he was elected county clerk and served in that office for some fourteen years. In 1900 he was a candidate for congress. Representative Sheldon was the sitting member with Judge Hays and Frank P. Mead of Dannebaue also candidates. Mr. Smith went to the convention with Marquette county and other support in 1902. In that year Mr. Smith was not a candidate, and Representative Young was the man supported by Marquette county. He was nominated in this city.

Mr. Smith was elected a member of the state senate for the session of 1903. He was appointed to the office of collector of customs a little over eight years ago, he having held it for two terms. He was reappointed to a third term but a short time ago. His original appointment came as somewhat of a surprise, as he had not made a campaign for office, having announced that he would not come to him without any effort on his part.

Mr. Smith is survived by his wife, Mrs. Smith, in Connecticut, before coming to this region, to Miss Helen M. Frost.

More Than Enough is Too Much.

To maintain health, a man or woman must eat just enough food to repair the waste and supply energy to the body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, eat less and not appetizing. Take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. For sale by E. N. Orr, A. S. Putnam & Co., and L. F. R. Neville.

Watts-Pierce.

The Toledo Blade gives the following account of the wedding of Miss Ethel Taylor Watts and Mr. Jackson Turner Pierce, which occurred in this city Wednesday last week, and concerning which a brief mention was made in last week's issue of the Pioneer-Tribune. The article from the Blade follows:

The marriage of Miss Ethel Taylor Watts and Mr. Jackson Turner Pierce, of Tellingham, Wash., was celebrated with quiet elegance and much beauty last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fremont Watts, of Scottswood avenue.

Miss Watts chose for the color in the appointments silver blue and white, the colors of her ancestry. Pieta Pitt.

Quantities of deep red roses with touches of blue were used throughout the rooms with backgrounds of palms and delicate vines covering walls and fret-work. In the hall the stairway was garlanded with southern ailax and flowering clematis. A huge bouquet of red ones was suspended over the window seat on the landing, and a similar duster tied to the newel post.

The living room was reserved for the ceremony, an improvised altar being arranged before the mantle, flanked with red roses and ferns, and having an arbor-like effect of smilax reaching from the walls to the chandeliers. Clusters of lilies of the valley were tied to the stiles cushioned chairs.

Carl Hill's orchestra, playing the Mendelssohn wedding music, announced the entrance of the bridal party, led by the bride's sister Little Miss Dandamont Watts and Miss Edith Dandamont. The bride wore a gown of silver and white and carried a bouquet of silver-blue filled with red roses.

Miss Watts was attended by her sister, Miss Moe Watts, as maid-of-honor, in blue satin with garniture of pale blue lace and carrying an arm bouquet of wine red roses tied with white ribbon.

The girlish bride wore with much grace a gown of soft white satin built in empire lines with bertha and sleeves of matching material. The train was fastened with lilacs-of-the-valley and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies. She wore the groom's gift, a toques and pearl pendant.

Mr. Pierce, was attended by Mr. Robert L. Harris, of the Rev. St. Mark's church, officiating as service.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held. Mrs. Watts, the bride's mother, wore for the occasion a shimmering gown of blue and white. Miss Lillie Goebel of Cincinnati, one of the house guests, wore a Parisian gown of white and gold brocade.

The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of guests, including the prominent citizens of the city.

The wedding supper was served at small tables. Covers were laid with eleven at each table, and a basket of red roses, a centerpiece, a basket of red roses. Over this was suspended a wreath of smilax studded with red roses of the bride's cake, and gold monogrammed cards marked the places.

The porch was enclosed with red and white streamers. The bride and groom were seated at the head of the interior.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce left during the evening for a wedding journey before going to their new home. Guest Mrs. Pierce traveling in a tailored gown of apricot brocade with black hat.

Mr. Pierce is editor of the Bellingham Revillon, and a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. His acquaintance with Miss Watts was formed while both were attending college in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce will be at home to their friends after December 1, at Tellingham.

The out-of-town guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Watts of Ottawa, Miss Goebel and Miss Warner, of Cincinnati, Miss Helen Hackney, of Atchison, Kansas, and Lilla Johnson, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Hails Osborn as a Leader.

The Keweenaw Miner, published at Mishawak, in its latest issue gives warmest editorial support to Mr. Osborn's proposed candidacy.

The Miner says:

"While there seems to be a temporary lull in the present contest concerning the candidacies of those mentioned for gubernatorial honors, yet to us it seems high time for the republicans of the upper peninsula to give some consideration to this very important question. We believe 'While our geographical position and our numerical voting strength impel, ordinarily, that the doctor-mistake of the nomination of any candidate for governor will not rest with us, yet it should not be forgotten that if the proper interest is stimulated among the upper peninsula with the aid and assistance of our friends of the lower peninsula, may nominate the next governor of the state. We believe in the record now and to the finish for Chase S. Osborn of the Soo for governor, and irrespective of the few walls of opposition that exclude from one or two 'gaps' applicants of the present administration, we believe that the republicans of the upper peninsula from Montreal to Medicine, stand ready to back the straits with the largest republican vote for Chase S. Osborn that was ever polled by any candidate for any state office. We believe his chances for success are excellent and that his popularity, personality and ability have already won for him the cordial approval of some of the most intelligent voters of the lower peninsula. We believe that the time has gone by in Michigan when a man of merit and sterling integrity is not politically ostracized from the highest offices for no other reason than that his domicile is located in some remote section of the state. It is in politics there is no sentimentality.

They Didn't Have to Change.

During the years in which our pure food laws have been put into effect there has been a great hurrying and scurrying on the part of food manufacturers to change their methods to make them conform to the law. The Quaker Oats Company is a conspicuous exception. It was admitted that Quaker Oats was as pure and clean as possible and that it was an ideal food.

It is so cheap that any one can afford it and so nourishing that every one needs it. The result of last year's experience at Yale and other points where food values were tested is that Quaker Oats has been adopted by the army and navy and that they rely for adding vigor and endurance of muscular activity to the Quaker Oats Company makes all demands in the way it packs and distributes their oat products and the large size family packages; the latter both with and without...

Evidence That Peggins's Plasters Were of Unfathomable Puzles Are the Penalties, with their curiously simple and yet scientific method of cure. The penitents of their wrongs, that the penitents are devoid of minds which used their wings rather than legs in the pursuit of true wisdom, and as the struggle is possible between the competing individuals the most expert at this sort of swimming would get the most food and see less successful trials. The winners gained advantage over their neighbors in proportion as their wings were less successful trials. The necessity and of necessity became less able to perform the work of flight. In all other birds the feathers changed annually, are more or less gradually disposed of. But in the penitents the new feathers all start to come at the same time and thrust out the old feathers upon their tips so that those wings are in great illness. Whereas in all birds new feathers are grown before the old feathers are shed, the penitents who have their wings through the skin and in such the feathers are by inventing a method by the penitents these sheaths are open at the tips and attached by their rims to the ends of the old feathers, so that before these are held to their stems such length to have attained a sufficient length to insure protection against

THE LEGION CONVENTION

Many Matters of Importance Occupied Attention of Body.

The Biennial Convention of the National Protective Legion held at Wilkes-Barre, Pa. last late month, was an epoch-making one for the order, as many changes were made in the constitution and by laws that vitally interest the members.

Class C, which offers liberal protection and sick and accident benefits at a nominal price, will be a big feature of the order in the future. The rate in this class are so low that everyone can afford to carry a policy. The disability and death benefits in class B remain unchanged and there will be a slight change in the amount of the dividends to be paid in this class during the next three years.

The order decided to strike the color line and broader colored people will not be admitted. This will not affect such people that are at present members. This new decided action was the work in the South was materially hampered by the fact that the colored race was ineligible. The salaries of the nation officers were reduced ten per cent. Inclusion applies to all salaries in excess of $800 per annum. All of the National officers were re-elected by a unanimous vote, except Past President Horn of Allegon, who had opposition. Horn received a satisfactory majority. The delegates were held in the Shrine's temple and were attended by 300 delegates. Geo. E. Holstein, representative of Manistiquie Legion, No. 168, was chairman of the press committee, and will make his official report to the local Legion at the meeting held next Tuesday evening.

LOCAL OPTION

All Petitions But Two Have Been Filed With Clerk
CONTAIN SUFFICIENT NUMBER

Effort to Be Made to Make Them Invalid by Withdrawals.

On yesterday afternoon all but Manistique and Mueller townships had filed the local option petitions, and without these townships the total number of names secured total 61. When Manistique township is filed the total number will aggregate more than 60, or about 5 more than is required by law.

The liquor forces have been extremely busy in securing withdrawals to the petitions, and it is claimed that at least 100 withdrawals have been secured by various methods, not necessary to explain at this time, and a strenuous effort will be made to defeat the will of the friends of local option during the meeting of the board of supervisors to be held next week. At this meeting it shall be decided by the board whether a sufficient number of legally qualified electors have signed the petition, and if this is found to be true, an election will be ordered. If it is shown that the laws governing the matter have not been complied with, then the petitions will be refused. The right of a person to withdraw his name after signing the petition, will be the sub of controversy, for it is conceded that a sufficient number of legally qualified voters have signed the petitions. Both sides have employed attorneys to look after their interests, and no matter what the board may decide to do, the matter will go before the supreme court for final decision.

Some of the petitions for withdrawal were secured in various townships by Manistique liquor dealers, and decisions previously rendered would make petitions secured by non-residents null and void.

Thus for the following townships and wards have made returns as follows:

First Ward	44
Second Ward	81
Third Ward	81
Fourth Ward	70
Inwood Township	40
Thompson Township	71
Hilvasha Township	45
Gornfsak Township	71
Doyle Township	70
Seney Township	3

From appearances the campaign promises to be a bitter one. Both sides are full of fight and are determined to win.

By their tactics one is led to believe that the liquor interests are afraid of the outcome if the people are permitted to vote on the question.

POMONA GRANGE

Will Hold a Meeting in This City Tomorrow for the Purpose of Electing Delegates to the STATE CONVENTION

Six delegates to be chosen, a number will be indicated during the day. A meeting of Pomona Grange will be held at 8 P. M. in this city tomorrow for the purpose of electing six delegates to the state convention which will be held in December. It will be an all day session and will be attended by four delegates from each of the nine granges of the county.

A number of persons will be invited during the day, and there is business scheduled aside from election of delegates and initiations. The question of cooperation in the disposal of farm products will be one of the questions to be discussed and concerted action may be taken at this time. Many of the farmers feel that the present method is a vogue is an injustice to them, and that they are not receiving as much for their produce as they should.

Musical Entertainment

A musical entertainment will be given at the Norwegian Lutheran church Saturday evening, Oct. 20, under the auspices of the young girls society "Vansol" assisted by the church choir an 11 man quartette, to which the public is cordially invited. Refreshments will be served.

Added a Teacher

STILL THEY COME

Marvin Cudney of Doyle Township, Brings Fine Samples of Schoolcraft Co. Apples.

The Pioneer-Tribune's display of Schoolcraft county apples, was materially augmented Wednesday morning, by a large assortment brought by Mr. Marvin Cudney of Doyle township. The apples are fine (Hart) and the display furnished by Mr. W. H. Brown earlier in the week, and include the Winter Duchess, Alexander, Northwestern Greening, Rolfe, Quebec, Winter Sweet, Wallbridge, Gideon and Excelsior (Crab). Every sample would win a prize anywhere. It is really too bad that an effort has not been made to send exhibits of Schoolcraft county apples to other states with a view of acquainting its inhabitants of the capabilities of the soil, and thereby inducing fruit growers of other sections to migrate here and assist in developing the county.

From the samples on exhibition here it is safe to say that not even the famed apple growing valleys of the far west have ever raised better fruit than is being placed on the market by the farmers of the county this season. Every apple is perfect in form, color and flavor, and of such a size as to even astonish the farmers themselves.
