PRaises THE U. P.

Mr. Murphy the Nurseryman, Speaks Very Highly of the Peninsula's Future

EXCELS IN FRUITS

Endorses the Colonization Idea and Thinks Transformation Will be Wrought

The Western Michigan Development Bureau is doing a noble work to develop this part of the state, not only in inducing new settlers to come in but also in educating and stimulating those already settled here what to grow, and how to grow it to produce the greatest results in fruit and cereals, and where to find the best market for their produce, and to encourage the building of good roads to facilitate the conveyance of their crops to the various shipping points.

I am glad to learn by the public press that the business men of the U. P. are at last awakening from their supreme apathy and indifference to the splendid and unlimited riches of the U. P. not only in minerals, but in its agricultural possibilities.

There is no better land in the state than is to be found in the U. P. Where will you find such a tract of land in Michigan that is so well adapted to produce crops of hay, and the richest kind of pasture, and the heavy and swampy clay land to be found south of the Soo in Mackinac and Chippewa counties? I have never seen in the sixty five counties of Michigan I have traversed nor in Ontario such crops of peas as I have seen there. I do not believe its equal can be found in America for peas. Its capacity for dairy purposes is unequalled. We find almost a similar tract of land along the D. S. S. & A. R. from Nantonia to Berglund.

Where will you find better land for growing almost any kind of apples and cherries than in Schoolcraft, Delta, Menominee and Ontonagon counties? The finest apples and plums I have seen in this state last fall in the orchard of Mr. P. W. Hombach, of St. Ignace, where there is to be found ideal land for apples, and plums. What these apples would be any one who wants them to be seen in Mr. Falk's window in your own

Mr. Brasie has been a resident of Manistique for a number of years and is generally respected, that he may decide to leave the city permanently. He has proven himself an efficient man for the position he has been holding, but tempting opportunities have presented themselves to him recently that have impelled him to sever his connection from the company in question. ## HAS ASPIRATIONS

Mrs. Beulah Bowen is a Candidate for Commissioner of Schools.

In this week's issue appears the announcement of Mrs. Beulah Bowen who is a candidate for the nomination of county commissioner of schools subject to the decision of the county convention to be held Feb. 20th. Mrs. Bowen held the position for eight years, and was succeeded by Mr. Correll four years ago. Her ability as a teacher and as a commissioner is well known throughout the county, and she has numerous friends in the various sections that have professed her their support.

Mr. Amos Goudreau of Seul Choix, was in the city Friday.

A GOOD OFFICIAL.

Mr. Jas. Christensen the Efficient City Clerk, Asks for Renomination.

Mr. Jas. Christensen, who by the way has the distinction of being one of the best city clerks that the city has ever had, is an aspirant for renomination, and from indications to be unopposed at the primaries.

It is a very good idea for a municipality to select from time to time an official that has proven his worth. This is the sort of procedure that a business man follows in the conduct of his affairs. When he has a faithfully employed he keeps him permanently.

Mr. Christensen has been a faithful public servant. He is courteous and obliging, has his work and reasons on each condition that he can enlighten any one desiring information relative to the city's business, at a moment's notice. The Pioneer-Tribune is pleased to know that he has decided to be a candidate, and it gives this paper much pleasure to endorse his candidacy.

WELL KNOWN HERE

Mr. Ned Branch Engaged to Milwaukee Lady.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Seymour of Milwaukee, Wis., announce the engagement of their daughter Grace M. to Mr. Ned Branch of the same city. The wedding will occur in June. Mr. Branch will be remembered as the son of Rev. Rolfe Branch, who at one time was pastor of the local Presbyterian church leaving here about seven years ago.

Not graduated from Carroll college since leaving here, and for some time has been connected with the Stowell Foundry Co., of Milwaukee as chief clerk. Mrs. Branch is in Vancouver, B. C., at the present time. The many friends of Mr. Ned Branch are pleased to hear of his success in the world of business, and also wish him happiness in the new relations upon which he will enter in the near future.

The vacant store room in the Brault block is for rent. Enquire of Mr. Brault.

GATHERED SAMPLES

Mr. Joe Hutt of Hiawatha Gathered a Large Quantity of Fruit, Vegetables and Grain.

Will Take to Menominee

Farmers Urged to Bring in Samples of Their Products as Well as Photographs.

During a trip through Seney and Hiawatha last week Mr. Joe Hutt gathered up a lot of samples of farm products also many photographic views of farm buildings, orchards, cattle sheds, etc.

Mr. Hutt intends to take those with him to Menominee to the meeting to be held Feb. 21st for the purpose of organizing a publicity club for the upper peninsula. The idea is a good one as it will bring these products before the representative people of the northern peninsula and give them an idea what Schoolcraft county can yield and the publicity we will derive from this is alone worth the trouble and expense incurred by gathering these samples and bringing them to Menominee.

Every farmer in this county is urged to bring in something from the farm if it is only a photograph of his home or something that will give an idea of what we look like. If you have anything from garden or field you would like to have Mr. Hutt to take down there, make a complete record of same stating when planted, how long it took to grow and how big a yield. Leave your contributions at La Bar & Neville's drug store on the west side.

Blessed be the tie that binds us Brothers and sisters all. Every other week we number in our peaceful Grange hall.

Our Grange was organized just two years ago today. We are making vast improvements. Yet some don't see that way.

Every Granger in our order, is a helper not a drone. Around our necks hangs strands of our necks.

And not the great mill stones.

Master Arrowood of Buell Grange has been around installing. Other officers you know.

To keep the Grange a crawling.

Now next fall is the big fair time When farmers march to town And bring fat calves and pigs to show Their brothers to outdo.

And some farmers will be there Their Jersey cows to show And a roll of yellow butter That their good wife made.

And Saturday night we'll have a feast A lone feast to I guess And Dr. Saunders must be there At Sister Cole's request.

This year our Grange will prosper. Let think of what is in store. May the good Lord protect us or now and ever more.

This Offer Should Gain the Confidence of the Most Skeptical.

We pay for all the medicine used in the trial, if our remedy fails to completely relieve you of constipation. We take all the risk. You are not obliged to us in any way whatever, if you accept our offer. That's a mighty bold statement, but we mean every word of it. Could anything be more fair for you? A most excellent, common sense treatment is Rexall's Colic Remedy, which is eaten like candy. This active principal is a recent scientific discovery, that it cures, colorless and tasteless; very pronounced, gentle and pleasant in action, and particularly agreeable in every way. This means, flatulence, griping or any inconvenience what ever. Rexall's Colic Remedy are particularly good for children, aged and delicate persons. If you suffer from chronic or habitual constipation, or the associate or dependent chronic ailments, we urge

Robber Catarrh
Steals Energy and Will Power from its Victims.

Catarrh robs its victim of energy—some physicians say of will power. That may be the reason why thousands of catarrh sufferers have not a vision enough to accept this fair and square offer by A. S. Putnam & Co. which they make without any wigs and whorfers or red tape of any kind.

A. S. Putnam & Co. says, "Your kidneys HYOMEI to cure catarrh acute or chronic, or money back," and that offer is open to every reader of the Pioneer-Tribune.

HYOMEI (pronounce it High-oh-mee) is the purest Australian Eucalyptus combined with Thymol and other germ killing antiseptics.

Four or five drops into the small vest pocket HYOMEI inhaler and breathe it into the lungs over the inflamed membrane infested with catarrh germs.

It is pleasant to use, it kills the germs, soothes the sore membrane, and cures catarrh; if it doesn't work your money back.

Four or five drops of HYOMEI cuts 50 per cent of druggists everywhere, and at A. S. Putnam & Co. A complete outfit, which includes a bottle of HYOMEI, a hard rubber inhaler and simple instructions for use costs $1.00.

Endores Cornell.

I should like to see Mr. Cornell succeed himself as commissioner of schools because he has always appealed to me as being competent, honest and good worker. I have known him to take such walks in connection with his duties as to stamp any other Commissioner we have had in my time in our fine county, fine for size you know. Should it ever enter the heads of our worthy board of supervisors to make him commissioner, with a salary sufficient to support him without having to teach school, I believe it would be a good stroke and an economical one. He is a man of get around, and he can see deeply into things. Furnished with the authority a county commissioner of schools should have, I think Mr. Cornell would be hard to beat.

I am speaking of the man as I have found him, and I have been secretary of the Seney board of education during his term.

town, grown in the adjacent country.

In Ontonagon county one family in 1903 produced $100 worth of strawberries. I hope the Upper Peninsula Bureau will start with a determination to disabuse the minds of the people in Lower Michigan that the U. P. is a land of rocks and icebergs, that it presents every requisite to make good homes for a large in dustrious population, good land, well watered, splendid markets for their products in the iron and copper country.

It is time the business men of the U. P. were awakening to the fact that the agricultural development of the U. P. is imperative as an act of self preservation as a business community. The forests will soon be denuded of their timber the saw-mills and other industries depending thereon will have to seek their fields so that the very prosperity of the various towns will have to depend on the farming community and the greater the number of the town. You already have the nucleus of a hardy sturdy farming population used to similar conditions in their own land, I mean the Scandinavian and Finnish people. It may be necessary to instruct them in American methods and system of agriculture what to grow and how to grow to produce the most results but that is one of the objects of the bureau.

I have seen it stated in the press that ninety per cent of the food products consumed in the U. P. are shipped in from outside the state. The dairy products from Wis. and the fruit from Lower Michigan. I believe from fifteen years acquaintance of every county of the U. P. that everything necessary for the sustenance of its inhabitants, except some of the tender varieties of fruit such as peaches and grapes. I believe no part of the state can produce any better crops and vegetables than are grown in the U. P. One of the tasks of the Bureau will be the building of good roads necessary for the successful settlement of the country but in the western part they have an unlimited supply in the refuse rock of the mines with top infuse of stamp sand from the copper stamp mills.

One of the greatest blessings of the U. P. has to offer to its people is a fine healthy, invigorating climate unequalled in the United States and the most beautiful natural scenery this side of the Rocky mountains; St. Mary River, Munising bay with its Grand Island a far famed Pictured Rocks, the Valley of the Ontonagon River and other places too numerous to mention.

Yours truly,

The 20 Century Bible class held a delightful social at the residence of Mrs. R. H. Temple, one of its members and officers, on Tuesday evening. An unusual number of ladies and gentlemen kept quite untireable engagements kept quite untireable and there was an attendance of about forty persons.

The first part of the evening was spent in games of different sorts, some of which were ingenious as well as exceedingly interesting and some of which were highly amusing. This served the purpose of starting everything off in a social manner. The games were followed by a lunch that was at once both dainty and very abundant; and it was served in such a pleasing manner by the younger ladies and gentlemen of the class that it only stimulated every one to still greater sociability. Even during the eating, the hum of conversation indicated to any one looking on that the feast of reason and flow of soul was enjoyed even more than was the feast that had been prepared by some who must have been past grad uate in domestic science.

This was followed by the singing of patriotic music, scotch ballads and some old time songs that belonged to generations long gone by.

It was well on towards midnight when the social broke up and they all marched by the genial host and in the hall of the home for the enjoyment of the class.

The occasion was so very pleasant that it was the general wish of all present that these socials should be held not only frequently but regularly.

Those who have heard about the "good old times" are invited to come in the morning; all who have any doubts as to whether God's will ever will be done in this world as it is done in heaven, are invited to be present in the evening.

The Choral society will have a rehearsal at 7:30 p. m. on Saturday evening and every member of the choir is urged to be at church promptly at 10:30 on the Sabath morning.

OFFICIAL COUNTY AND CITY PAPER

FRIDAY, FEB. 10, 1911

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

No town is big enough to support two brass bands. Every good citizen believes that his town should be larger.

A man forgets his good luck next day but he remembers his bad luck for a year or more.

There are now three candidates in the field for commissioner, Mrs. Heath Bowen entering the race this week.

All of us are alike. Every man boasts a great deal about driving the other fellow a fair shake, but when a man trends on your face you have never been known to stand out to him to look around before you throw the harpoon into him.

Promises are the easiest thing in the world to harvest in a political campaign. We have known candidates to get out ten votes, when 500 had promised them their support, and the humorous situation followed that forty voters would console him with the expression, "I voted for you anyway."

Now since the merchants have become conversant with the pleasure of early closing it is hoped that they will adopt it permanently. The matter might be compromised by keeping open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings of each week during the period from March 1 until two weeks before Christmas.

The works of good men will not down. Roger Andrews, the recent editor of the Manistique Leader, was the upper peninsula's best friend during the decade that he was a resident of this section of the state. The publicity bureau, which will be organized, with its headquarters at Manistique on the 21st, is really his child, and it is the universal regret of his fellows in the profession that the fates have decreed that he cannot be present at the birth of the movement which is the most important ever essayed above the straits.

The city should enter into some agreement with the light and telephone companies relative to burying their wires, or planting their poles at the rear of the lots along the streets traversed by the lines of the companies in question. The time is coming, and is not far distant, when trees will materially effect the wires in question, and the average property owner who has nursed his trees for a decade or two, is very much averse having a butcher indiscriminately chop out the tops of same and otherwise mutilate them.

We are informed that strenuous efforts are being made to keep the record in Hiawatha township commission and that men supposed to be backers of the proprietor, have retained lawyers to look after the matter. The officers made no mistake when they decided to make the questionable characters more on, and it is hoped that they will not get "cold feet" at this stage of the game. There are hundreds of people in this city that are glad that a move has been made in the direction of ridding this vicinity of the house in question. If the owner of the property persists in making a fight that has been promised to be the most interesting one that has been heard in the courts since the time of Dan Heffron. A large number of witnesses will be subpoenaed and men of prominence will be in the list.

The legislation refused to let the people pass upon the question of closing the liquor interest in the question of the hand of the liquor interest is clearly in evidence. The men who seek out an existence by selling booze were solidly lined up against the proposition, for they were afraid that with the ballot, in the hands of the long suffering victims of the traffic, there might be an upheaval in the state that would make Michigan prohibition territory. Representative McEachern, was in favor of giving the women the opportunity of voting. Speaking of the matter Governor Osborn said: "Whether there is a widespread demand for women suffrage, I would not say, but I could see no harm in giving the women the ballot." Conditions are changing. There is a growing class of property-owning women and working women. The working women contribute their products and are in that way taxpayers, and to deny them a vote is really taxation without representation."

Last Friday was the one hundred anniversary of the birth of Horace Greeley, the greatest editor of the United States has known. He lived in a day and age when the personality of the editor was much more apparent than at the present time. If you were asked to name the editors of the leading metropolitan newspapers of the country, you doubt if there are two men in Schuylerscraft that could name them. When Greeley was editor of the New York Tribune, every man of intelligence knew that he was the editor. The meaning of Dana, the Detroit Free Press, and others might be named the old style of journalism passed out of existence. A few country newspapers are found here and there that bear the impress of the personality of their editors and they are growing fewer as the years come and go. There was that intimacy between the editor and his clientele in the years of long ago, that made him a power in his community, state and nation.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Every man quits his bad habits at least once in a week.

Sometimes one is tempted to say: "Why do you write poetry when you don't have to?"

Remember you can secure the Pioneer-Tribune three months for 25 cents, if you are a new subscriber.

Plan to go to Menominee Feb. 21st. The colonization scheme is most vital, and you should be there to boost.

The rural delivery men may receive a raise of $100 a year after July 1st. They earn more than $1000 per annum.

No one can ever make the Pioneer Tribune believe that the ranting reformers are the ones that will kill the bear, when it does rush down upon us.

We in these modern times are not an ingenious as we supposed. It has been discovered that false hair and "rats" were in vogue in Egypt more than six thousand years ago.

The New York Current has entered upon its twenty-seventh milestone. The Current is one of the good newspapers of the peninsula.

The Pioneer-Tribune will publish several columns of matter of vital interest to every subscriber, in its issue of next week, and the opinions concerning the needs of Manistique will be read with interest.

No need of further discussion of the parcels post. Word comes from Washington that the whole matter has been deferred. It will not be considered by this congress. The Democratic congress can tackle it.

The politest people in the world are the telephone girls. They are aggravated almost beyond endurance every day, but are always polite. If the telephone girls can always be polite in spite of aggravation you can do it.

No man in public life is more highly esteemed by the people of this section than Judge Stone of this judicial circuit. All are more than pleased that he has successfully passed through a critical operation at Rochester, Minn., and that he is recovering.

Mr. James Christensen who has been city clerk for a number of years, is a candidate for renomination and re-election. Manistique has never had a better city clerk than Mr. Christensen has proven himself to be, and the city is really to be congratulated upon the fact that he desires to succeed himself.

The newspaper men of the upper peninsula are to meet at Menominee Feb. 20th and 21st. They will be present at the organization of the publicly owned press, and this idea was a happy one, for the newspaper will take a leading part in pushing the organization and in advising the peninsula and its resources.

Our congratulations are extended to Geo. Holbein in his appointment to the office of deputy city inspector. Mr. Holbein is one of the fellows whose position on any public matter can always be determined without the aid of a microscope and you show never fear that he's going to "trim" at the first bid of a counter gate. He may not always be right but he's always there.—Crystal Falls Daily.

When a good man comes around and want to know what his chances are for landing a particular office, he had better tell him he hasn't a look-in. You usually remain silent, but put him on the back, and lead him to think that he is the whole thing—you will do this if you are an adept in the political game. This is not as it should be. As long as men aspire for office men will vote and smile and smile again, and continue to be a will-ling.

Geo. E. Holbein, editor of the Manistique Pioneer-Tribune, one of the best weekly papers published in the upper peninsula, has been appointed by Governor Chase S. Osborn to succeed a Grand Marais man as deputy city inspector for the upper peninsula. About eleven years ago Mr. Holbein had the same job, but he was displaced when A. T. Bliss of Saginaw, was elected governor, largely because in the Republican state convention at Grand Rapids he kept voting for Osborn, who was then a candidate, with Millionaires D. M. Ferry of Detroit and J. S. Stearns of Ludington and Colonel Bliss, a supposedly near millionaire, for opponents.

It is fitting from a political standpoint, that Mr. Osborn, now that he has the opportunity, should reward the man who so persistently stood by him when he had a former hope eleven years ago by appointing him to his old position. Besides, those who know Mr. Holbein will say he has made a good official before and will again during the coming two years.—Jahpening Record.

There is one proposition that should carry at the spring election. If all conditions are favorable, and that is the question of bonding the county. In the sum of $90,000 for good roads. Schoolcraft county will never grow as it should as long as settlers are compelled to the nearest trading trail. Good roads will increase the value of all acreage contiguous to such roads. The county has heretofore been considered as being a lumbering proposition. Little attention has been paid to the development of the roads and its agricultural possibilities, for the lumbering companies have been using the roads and railroads for the transportation of timber, and the lumbering industry have for many years been considered as side issues. Sentiment is changing, however; The bond issue, when carried, will be spread over a period of years, and the new settlers that will be attracted to the county, will assist in paying them, so that the individual amounts will hardly be felt by the taxpayers. The court house was paid for and no one felt the burden paid in a similar manner. The good roads bonds will be followed by a similar manner. The time has come when those who believe in the future of the county cannot afford to stand in their own light and to oppose measures that have for their object the exploitation of the county and its resources.

SNAPSHOTS AT CELEBRITIES

Joseph R. Lamar, United States Supreme Court.

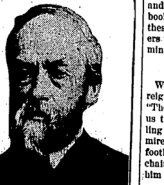

Joseph Tucker Lamar of Georgia, recently appointed an associate justice of the United States supreme court, comes from a family that has won distinction in jurisprudence. He is the second of his name to sit on the supreme bench at Washington, his kinsman, Justice G. O. Lamar, also a member of Georgia, having been a member of the nation's highest court from 1858 until his death in 1902. At the time of the latter's appointment he was a student of law at the University of Mississippi, his father was the Mississippi jurist, who died while serving on the supreme bench of Georgia after having codified the laws of the state by special commission of the legislature.

The new associate justice was born fifty-three years ago in a small town in Louisiana, he was educated at the University of Georgia, Washington and Lee university and elsewhere. He was admitted to the bar in 1879 and practiced at Georgia, until 1900 when he became associate justice of the Georgia supreme court. Previous to his elevation to the bench he had served in the legislature of his state.

The humor of Morgan is gifted with a great deal more of humor than is generally known. Not long ago while in London he was introduced to a woman who made some remarks in regard to "Darling me," said the woman laughingly. "Oh, you are an independent thinker," replied Mr. Morgan slyly, "but we date our independence from the time when you have a coat of arms." "Mr. Morgan dug down into his pocket and brought forth a shining American twenty dollar gold piece. "This," he said, "is our coat of arms. A few other families have adopted the same emblem. But it is constant confidence. It's not gathering them in as a possible."

Connecticut's New Governor, Judge Slinn of D. Baldwin, Connecticut's new governor, is the first Democrat to sit in the gubernatorial chair since Governor Morris retired in 1894. During the campaign last fall Judge Baldwin resented an attack made on him by Colonel Roosevelt and demanded a satisfaction. The colonel failing to issue a statement in which he denounced his intention of bringing suit against the former president for slander. Later he refused to attend a dinner at New Haven at which Mr. Roosevelt was the guest of honor.

Governor Baldwin is a native of New Haven and is seventy years old. His father was Roger Sherman Baldwin, who was governor of Connecticut in 1812.

The Adoration of the Wig. Wig wearers were popular as in the reign of Charles II. The author of "The Beau and the Dandies" tells us that when Charles II. was in England Flatter his wig was so much admired that he had it carried to the footlights every evening in a sedan chair from which it was handed to him that he might pat it on his head.

A Fish Story. "There are no good fish in the sea as ever taken out of it," remarked Small to Young, who had been refused "Yes, I know. But they are not good fish." "Circumstances are the rulers of the week. They are but the instruments of the wise.—Samuel Taylor Coleridge. Not So Bad. "What's the worst you can say about him?" "He hasn't an honest hair in his head." "Well, that's bad enough." "Oh, no so bad as you think. I mean he wears a wig"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

The big man passed at the end of the corridor and jerked his head toward a christened possession.

"What's them burglars doing today?" he demanded.

"The rascal had departed the golden-stuff down on his chair in front of the statue of Duke Webster and mopped his heated brow. "That's one kind that comes heavy, he said, but his style is the hardest to deal with. Called the senate burglars—you heard him and looked at everything else I showed him. That kind comes prepared to kick. They ain't got no patience at all, and a United States senator ain't no more to them than a workhorse. Why, I'm afraid to take him into the supreme court. Likely as not they'll see something disrespectful fight out loud. Do you know what that one said when I showed him statutory built? He says, 'Who are all these crooks?' They be wanted to know how much all them states raked off. I let him hear they were given by the states, and he said that was one when the states put one over. "You wouldn't let the guide, with a sigh, 'that patriotic American could come here and be so callous about things they see. They seem to be ready to give a dollar to anybody in the place where Webster stood when he made his body to Hynd. I don't know what the country's coming to. LIGHTNING VERSUS STEAM.

Years ago, when the electric telegraph was a new thing and a mystery to the masses, there came a terrible one Saturday night in the Bank of England. The business of the day had closed, and the clerks were waiting for the night. There was a light of just 100. It was not the money, but the error, that must be found. For the clerks and the night they could be no sleep. The clerks there could be no sleep. The clerks there could be no sleep. The clerks there could be no sleep. The clerks there could be no sleep.

On the following morning a clerk suggested that the mistake might be caused in packing for the West. It had been sent to Southampton for shipment. His chief acted on the suggestion. Here was an opportunity to test the power of the telegraph—lightning against steam, and steam against lightning. The very soon the telegram asked a man in Southampton to send the ship's message. "His name came back. 'Just weighing anchor.' " "Take care in the queen's name," flashed back the telegraph. "She is stopped," was returned.

This order was obeyed, and one box was found to be somewhere about a hundred and ten ounces heavier than its mate. "Very heavy," said the messenger. "All right. Let the ship go," was the next order.

Hennabe's remarkable reputation for curing the most extreme cases of hemorrhoids. Dr. Hennabe states that some monks who ate the berries by mistake for purslane transpired their monstrous and a human sayism. One monk rang the bell for matins at midnight, and of some of the community who attended, some could not read, others "fancied" the letters were running about like ants, and some read what was not in their books. Even the exhalations from these pretty but very poisonous flowers produce these wild effects.—Westminster Gazette.

To the Public.

County School Commissioner Carnell desires the Pioneer Tribune to announce that in case he is nominated and elected commissioner of schools for a second term that he will discontinue teaching school, and will accept a position that will take less of his time, so that he can devote more time to visiting the schools. ### Best Ever in City.

The patrons of the Princess were well pleased last evening in the offering of "The navy boy". These are three boys who very rarely grace a small vaudeville stage. They belong to a good lecture course, are possessors of excellent voices and judging from the way they were received last evening at each performance will meet with unbridled success during the remainder of their stay here.

The pictures and music are in keeping with the excellence for which the Princess is known.

For Friday and Saturday a varied photoplay program is offered, "The way of life," a dramatic number features the bill while "Betty" will amuse you with her comical antics and we will be taken on a trip through the Molucca Islands. Two of the latest illustrated songs "Ill March in April with May," and "Happiness."

We can isolate only a small number of our consumptives. There are a large number of them and our few sanatoriums are unable successfully to combat the disease. In order to accomplish the best results under the present trying circumstances, schools for consumptives should be established. The sanatorium school can be built within the city limits or in the suburbs. It should be an institution built and equipped as a modern sanatorium for the cure of consumption, suited for open air, rest, hygiene and dietetic treatment and should be under the supervision of trained physicians and nurses who will carry out the most approved treatment of tuberculosis. There the patients would not only be kept and treated but they themselves be instructed in the various phases of sanatorium treatment. There they would be trained how to take care of themselves after they leave the sanatorium school. We venture to say that after a course of three weeks in such an institution, a patient would be able to take care of himself no matter where he might go to continue his treatment for an ultimate cure.

BRILLIANT FUTURE.

Germfask is Richest Township in County from Agricultural Standpoint.

HAS MAGNIFICENT HARDWOOD

And Rich Soil that will Support Thousands and Township is Developed.

Germfask is the largest and most prosperous village in the county outside of the city of Manistique. It has three first class general stores, a pool-table hall, a church and a school that would be a credit to a town of three times its size. A good hotel, a well stocked drug store, threeivery barn and other institutions remain in his very home, where he may frequently be seen by relatives and friends who will inspire him with the hope and confidence so essential to the consumptive. Thus the intelligent near-at-home treatment proves more advantageous than that it does away with the homesickness and worry which are so often a great hindrance to recovery.

The local Anti-Tuberculosis society is now developing plans for carrying out these ideas as above outlined. Will you not show your interest and give your support by becoming a member of the society. Please fill out this blank form and send it to Mrs. A. M. LeRoy, Secy, Manistique, Mich.

The Schoolcraft County Association for the Prevention and Relief of Tuberculosis is working, by the people, for the health and happiness of the people. One dollar makes you a member for a year.

Every dollar adds to the society's ability to relieve the sick and to prevent the spread of tuberculosis. Will you join the society and aid the good work?

This is not a charity but a battle against disease.

Mr. Robt. Rubin is Installing Modern Rack Cabinets for Storing Clothing.

Mr. Robt. Rubin has decided to make some decided improvements to his clothing department by installing an up-to-date cabinet and rack system for hanging suits and overcoats in place of the old way of piling them on tables.

Mr. Rubin's clothing business has increased to such an extent that this move was necessary in order to properly handle the trade.

Monday morning Johnson & Lafleur started in tearing down the old shelving on the clothing side and will at once construct the new cabinets which will be supplied with the latest sliding racks, which will enable the salesman to show a whole string of suits to the customer at the time.

BOY NEAR DROWNIGN

Harold Melniss Came Near Drowning Tuesday by Breaking Through Ice on the River.

Harold, the eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Melniss came near losing his life Tuesday by breaking through the ice near the Goodville place, where Matt Schneider is harvesting.

The little fellow had been sent on an errand to one of the stores by his mother but wandered away down on the river and on getting out on some thin ice, where the man had been cutting, he broke through and went under. In some manner he managed to get hold of the ice, on coming up again and held on. Somebody up in the Goodville plant noticed something fluttering in the water and first thought it was ducks and nearly passed it by, but on a second thought gave the alarm and Ray Smith pulled the boy out, who by this time was unconscious.

The boy was taken in the engine room and by proper treatment was soon brought to life again and taken home, and is now none the worse from his experience, which came so near being his death.

GUSTAV P. KROENING

Well Known Business Man Died Tuesday Evening.

Tuesday evening about six o'clock Gustav P. Kroening, the well known merchant, died after a very brief illness, from pulmonary hemorrhage.

Mr. Kroening had only been ill a little over a week and while in a serious condition such a sad outcome was hardly looked for. Mr. Kroening was born 49 years ago in Germany, and was a cigarmaker by trade. He came to Manistique some ten years ago and started manufacturing cigars and also dealt in notions and bazaar goods.

His mercantile business gradually increased and outcome making cigars. By careful saving he accumulated considerable property, owning the 120 acre Grabow farm, besides the two store buildings and lots in town. He had a $10,000 life insurance policy taken out only last summer.

He was survived by the widow and two sons Conrad aged 9 and Lee, 7. Of his own relatives nothing is known other than he had a brother in Milwaukee.

The funeral services were held from the Baptist church Friday morning, Rev. E. L. Little of Alpena officiating, assisted by Rev. Copeland. The interment was in Riverside cemetery.

The stricken family are assured the deepest sympathy of the whole community. Freese Isle Co. News.

The deceased was a former resident of Manistique and lived in the house now owned by Chas. Passenhit.

"W. B." Reduso Corsets

If we had Doctors of Dress, just as we have Doctors of Medicine, the first prescription for a large woman who wished to look her best, would be a correct corset. This corset should be as simple as possible and at the same time strong. It should be long over the hips and abdomen to hold the wearer keep her proper posture, and should have the requisite number of Hose Supporters.

The lines should be shapely and graceful, without too decided curves, for nothing makes a plump woman seem so stout as the "ins and outs," and if such a corset is too very expensive, so much the better.

The W. B. Reduso meets the requirements admirably and costs exact $3.00
