E. COLWELL DEAD

Was Former Resident of Manistique, and Achieved Success in the West

Mr. Elmer B. Colwell of Portland, Ore., a former Manistique resident, died on Monday, June 22nd. His father was at one time superintendent of the Clatsop Lumbering Co., and left this city for the west in 1885. The deceased will be remembered by the older settlers, as he grew up here, and attended the local schools.

Speaking of his local denials, the Manistique Oregonian has the following to say:

Elmer B. Colwell, United States Marshal for Oregon in 1910 and 1911, died at 12:20 o'clock last night at his home, 123 Corbett street. He had been practically an invalid from heart trouble for the past two years.

Up to two years ago Mr. Colwell was a strong and robust man. In the Presidential campaign of 1912 he worked hard in the interest of Theodore Roosevelt. He was in the Progressive party headquarters in the Oregon Hotel one day in October, near the end of the campaign, when he suddenly collapsed from heart disease.

Through eventually he partly recovered, his health had been prostrated, and a few months ago he suffered another attack and was in the hospital for some time. He became much better to be able to be about again, but his condition remained such that it was felt he might die suddenly any time.

Mr. Colwell had been a resident of Portland for many years. He was appointed United States Marshal for Oregon by President Taft in the fall of 1910, succeeding the late C. J. Reed. His appointment was obtained through the influence of Dr. Henry Waldo Coe, now Progressive National committee man from Oregon, but at that time one of the most influential Republicans in the state.

He is survived by his widow and two sons, Elmer B., Jr., and Russell T. Colwell. Mr. Colwell was born in Millport, Pa.

February 11, 1888. In 1872 he went with his parents to Manistique, Mich. He was married to Elmer Toot in 1880, in Detroit.

He came to Shanokawa, Wash., in 1880, where he went into the lumber business with his father, his uncle and Captain Montgomery. In 1885, he was elected auditor of Multnomah County, Wash., and was re-elected in 1887.

Coming to Portland in 1894 he became secretary-treasurer of the Multnomah Lumber & Box Company. In 1904, he was elected representative from Multnomah County.

Mr. Colwell was a Mason of high degree. He was a member of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Chapter No. 3, Klans Lodge, Royal Arch Chapter No. 3, Knights Templars, a member of the Myrtle Shrine and of the Reno City Chapter of the Eastern Star.

Arrangements for the funeral are not completed.

DIED SUDDENLY

Frank Downing Stricken with Apoplexy Saturday Afternoon.

Mr. Frank Downing, an employee of the Consolidated Lumber Co., in charge of one of the wood carriages, was stricken with apoplexy Saturday afternoon, while engaged in loading a wagon of wood, at the company's mill. He was picked up by John McKnight and others standing nearby, and carried to the company's machine shop and medical aid summoned. Later he was taken to his home, where he passed away at six o'clock. The deceased was born forty five years ago, and for a number of years has been residing in this city and vicinity. He leaves a widow.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Mumby of the Methodist church officiating.

Contractor Paul E. King of Negaunee, who received the contract for the construction of St. Francis St. Sines school building, was in the city this week, looking over the proposition.

LOCATION FIXED

Permanent Site for Fair Buildings Decided Upon in Satisfactory Manner.

Well, the location of the proposed exposition building of the Schoolcraft County Agricultural Society, has at last been settled to the entire satisfaction of all committees concerned as well as the general public. The association was crippled owing to lack of funds, and with a consideration of its resources and a laudable effort to make the best possible showing with the money in hand, the committee in charge of location, had decided to place the building in the southwest corner of the plat. This was not considered as good a location as the northwest corner, and owing to narrowness of roadway leading to the northwest site, the committee were almost a unit on the other location. The Commercial club became interested in the matter, and appointed a committee to confer with the White Star Lime Co., relative to purchasing a strip of land leading from the proposed extension of Lake street to the grounds. The strip acquired is 440 feet long on Lake street and 147 feet from Lake street to the grounds. The price agreed upon was $355 and at a special meeting of the city council, the city purchased the property in question.

Now there will be two entrances into the grounds, and there is ample room for the expansion of the building as proposed by the plans, should the future growth necessitate adding to the original building.

What looked at one time as being a mix-up that might seriously affect the future well being of the county fair project, has been amicably settled and all persons interested in the project are working in harmony, and all differences have been barred and should be forgotten.

Mr. Andrew Ekstrom, who by the way is an expert shipwright, is at present engaged in repairing the damage inflicted by the Str. Buell on the stern of the Tug Gifford.

Schneider-Christensen

Mr. Henry Christensen and Miss Josephine Schneider were wedded at the residence of the groom's parents, Mr and Mrs James Christensen of Hinewatha township, last Thursday evening, Rev. R. Mitchell of the Presbyterian church, officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Schneider and is very highly regarded by all knowing her. Mr. Christensen is also well and favorably known by a large circle of friends. They left for Gullville Saturday morning, where they will spend their honeymoon.

The W. O. V. band and dogro team will give the second of its late entertainments on the steamer 'Bon Ann' next Sunday evening. Boat leaves the harbor at 7:30 o'clock, and will be on the lake for two hours. The band will furnish music during the excursion, and will also give a concert at the dock prior to sailing time. Price 25 cents.

THREE CANDIDATES

Plenty of Rivalry for Prosecuting Attorneyship this Year.

All indications point to the fact that there will be three applicants for the nomination of prosecuting attorney this year. Mr. Hixon who has so efficiently filled the position for a number of years is an aspirant for re-nomination. He has friends and supporters in every part of the county. G. W. Dunton is also an aspirant. He is also well and favorably known throughout the county and is receiving notices of support. Gotfred Johnson son of Nels Johnson who graduated from the law department of the state university in June has decided to get into the race also and is actively engaged in canvassing the city and county.

That there will be a strenuous battle on shortly for the honor of securing the nomination for the office in question is a foregone conclusion and the result is shrouded in mystery.

SECURED CONTRACT

Fred King of Negaunee, will Erect the Parochial School.

Contractor Fred King of Negaunee, has secured the contract of building the St. Francis parochial school and will commence work thereon right after July 4th. His bid exclusive of heating, plumbing and wiring was $21,703.00, and it is believed that the building can be completed for $25,000.00 which is the architect's estimate of the cost of the building.

The plans call for a building 00x80 feet in size, two stories high and absolutely fireproof in construction. Fire escapes will be placed on the building, as a double precaution for safety.

The building, when completed, will be an ornament to the city, and a monument to the progressiveness and liberality of the congregation erecting it.

It will no doubt be completed about January 1st, and in the meantime many provision will be made so that the 280 children may continue their studies until the completion of the school building.

AGED LADY DIES

Mrs. Adelaide Duchaney Passed Away Sunday Night.

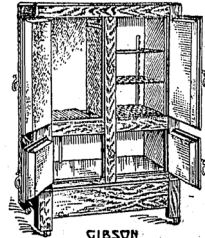

Mrs. Adelaide Duchaney aged eighty two years died at her home in this city at an early hour Monday morning. The deceased was one of the pioneers of the city, and was very highly respected by all knowing her. She is survived by four sons and two daughters.

The funeral was held from St. Francis de Sales church Wednesday morning and was largely attended.

Birthday Grange will celebrate July 4th. There will be dancing afternoon and evening, and lunch will be served. The usual good time that you always have at Birthday grange functions, is guaranteed.

The two saddest words in the English language are "Good-Bye."

Wonder if the specialist that recommended absolute rest of four months for Roosevelt is a Republican or a Democrat.

Roosevelt is suffering from an enlargement of the spleen. No wonder he has been able to vent so much spleen during recent campaigns.

One shudders when he thinks what the liquor interests will say when they ascertain that the three leading candidates for the governorship shall be Osborn, Ferris and Pattinall.

It is no longer necessary for a woman who wishes to attract attention to go on the stage. All she need nowadays is to wear a fashionable gown and an opportunity of wearing it.

It is more hazardous to hold the position of Sno Line agent at North Escanaba than it was to participate in the business of Mexican war.

West Virginia is now a "dry" state, the change being effected Wednesday. There are now nine states of the Union that are arid, and when the local option territory in various states is added to these nine, there are now 2,182,726 square miles of "dry" territory in the country.

James F. Fisher, applicant for congress in the Central District has wisely decided to withdraw from the race, and that insures the nomination of Senator James for the office in question.

You'll be sorry if you leave the city Saturday, or if it rains in the country, you'll regret the big celebration held on Monday night. The city and its business have been prospering more than $1000 for the celebration and the money has been given to the city.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

When a young lady tells you that she would like to have you support her don't get excited. She may be a candidate.

It has rained so copiously and so long during the past week that the weather should be ideal for Manistique's big Fourth of July celebration tomorrow.

In this issue will be found the announcements of Candidates Bayless and Scott, who are desirous of re-entrance into the district in congress. The announcements will be made to read with interest.

Some fellow has figured it out that the government has expended sufficient money in furnishing free seats to the citizens of the United States with brick. An effort will be made to abolish the look next spring and if the money saved is spent in making good roads no one will seriously object.

When you step up the fair grounds from every angle one becomes more and more convinced that the board of supervisors showed excellent judgment in selecting the driving park as a permanent home for the agricultural society.

The Michigan users of anthracite coal will become acquainted with the tonnage tax proposition this coming winter in a forcible manner. The state of Pennsylvania has placed a tax of ten cents on all coal mined, and the consumer will have to pay the tax and then some.

Thomas B. Wyman of Manising will without doubt be a candidate for the nomination of member of the legislature from this district. It will be remembered that he was defeated by W.R. Burns by a narrow margin.

President Dickie's commencement address before the graduates of the local high school, last Friday evening, was the very best address ever heard in the city. Although Mr. Dickie was suffering from an indisposition, he felt hardly able to speak, yet he spoke with power.

The local sports that possess "horses" that can trot a little were disappointed at the seeming parsimony of the Fourth of July committee. It must be borne in mind that the aeroplane calls for an extraordinary expenditure of money, and that it was impossible for the managers of the celebration to appropriate more money for the races.

Mayor Pattinson has notified the saloon keepers that they will be expected to obey the law on July 4th. This ultimatum evidently was the reason why one of the city's most prominent and wealthiest saloon keepers refused to pay the $10.00 he subscribed to the Fourth of July fund.

N.L. Field, the well known business man of Rudyard who has served Chippewa county in the legislature for two terms as a candidate for the Progressive nomination for the state senate. Field is popular and will make a strong run for the office in question.

Life is after all but a kaleidoscope and made up of changes. The day laborer goes to and returns from his daily task for a period of years may become acquainted with children who are his nephews and nieces.

The Anti Saloon league has decided to include every county in the upper peninsula in the next option campaign to be waged shortly. It is hoped that by this plan there will be less colonizing done by the liquor interests as each county will feel the necessity of keeping their voters at home in self defence.

The Schoolcraft Agricultural society certainly is fortunate in the fact that such men as Messrs Geo. J. Nicholson, J. S. Edmundson and Wm. S. Crowe, have taken an interest in the project of fitting the grounds ready for occupancy.

They have also lined up the building men on the proposition of grading the site for the new building free of cost. They will also construct the cement floor of the exhibition building at cost and estimate that they will save the association at least six feet per square foot.

BAYLESS FOR CONGRESS, ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Electors of the Eleventh Congressional District of Michigan: I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress, seeking your honest consideration...

In a few weeks you will be awakened to a full realization of this position, in its relation to your needs now and during the next two years; but after the election, you are likely to lapse into an attitude of indifference.

Washington is a long distance from the Eleventh district of Michigan, and you cannot always keep your eye on the man you have hired. Now is the time to use your best judgment in selecting your candidate...

I ask that you remember, during the coming campaign, that where the man has served the public, his record speaks louder than promises. Past performance is indicative of future action.

Appeals for support in this locality on one issue, and in another locality on another, or promises to one class that certain things will be done while others receive opposing promises are but insults to the intelligence of the electors.

Very respectfully, JOSEPH B. BAYLESS.

Very respectfully, JOSEPH B. BAYLESS.

SCARED AT SIGHT OF WATER

Indian's Stolen was Not Proof Against Chief Which Was Absolutely True to Him.

"The American Indian is supposed to be proof against the ordinary human emotion of fear and surprise," remarked the engineer from Arizona; "but take it from me, that only holds good within the range of his practical experience."

"There is very little water in that stream," said the engineer, "but by sinking artesian wells to a great depth, however, water may be obtained."

"I was one of a party in charge of a large irrigation project. One of our main ditches skirted an Indian reservation, and although the work was in progress for over a year, I don't think any of our men understood what we were driving at. They seemed to think that we were building a railroad, for they would occasionally nod gravely to each other and imitate the sound of the snorting of an engine."

"Finally the time came to turn on the water. I rode over to inspect the ditch, near the reservation, and in that vicinity I saw the broad trail was a grateful sight. When the mounted figure of an Indian loomed up in the distance I did not pay much attention to it, but a few moments later I was startled by a loud whoop."

"I looked around, and saw the Indian with his horse reined back on his haunches. He had just perceived me, and he had scared out of his natural reserve, was staring at it with an expression of terror."

"Planting Dahlias. Old dahlia roots can be planted intact just as lifted in the autumn, or if very large, they may be divided by cutting down the center of the dead stems and through the live growing stalk at the base. They can be quartered, but all-cut portions contain a part of the base of the old stem where the eyes are clustered. Plant in large holes and the crowns of the tubers four inches below the surface. Where plants are to be obtained from dealers they should be ordered at once. Prepare the beds now by deep digging as only poor results will follow planting in poor soil."

A BIG STORM

This vicinity was visited by a severe wind and rain storm of Saturday.
