IS CHARGED WITH FORGERY

Thomas and Charles Fobert in Jail Charged With Forging Order For $19.40.

Thomas and Charles Fobert, sons of Thomas Fobert of Manistiquette township, are in jail awaiting examination on the charge of forgery. They were arraigned in Justice People's court Wednesday afternoon and the examination postponed to this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

It appears that the boys in question had been in the employ of Ralph and John Tennant of Hiawatha, who were getting out timber for the Manistiquette Handle Co. Some time previous to January 14, they purchased some clothing at Julius Petersen's store, and paid for same with an order on the handle company, signed by the Tennants. On the evening of the 14th they came to the same store and made a small purchase, paying therefor with an order for $19.40 on the handle company, and ostensibly signed by the Tennants. When Mr. Petersen presented the order to the handle company the following morning, it was promptly declared a forgery, and Petersen was informed that the company did not owe the Tennants.

The boys left town and Sheriff Orr has been industriously phoning to officers in various cities, giving them a description of the boys. The sheriff of Charlevoix county, happened to catch them as they were in the act of boarding a train. Sheriff Orr left at once for that city and returned with them Tuesday evening.

They are under bonds of $500.00 each and in default of same have been spending the interim in the county jail. Sheriff Orr deserves praise for so promptly landing the culprits so quickly. This was his first case as an officer.

The subject is one that should appeal to everyone. It is a lecture that should be heard by every parent in the city.

Prof. Henderson is a talented and eloquent speaker, and will please, entertain, and instruct. The lecture is free to the public.

WARDENS MAKE MANY ARRESTS.

Persons Persist in Killing Deer and Partridges in This Vicinity.

Game Warden Guinan and Vezina made several arrests for violation of the game laws during the past week. First, they brought three Russians just were shooting at a point five miles south of Shingletown, charged with killing partridges and snaring deer, to the city, and they pleaded guilty in Justice People's court. Two paid fines and costs amounting to $37.00, while the third, decided to serve thirty days in the county jail in lieu of paying fine.

The game wardens also arrested Fred Lake Gus Filman, Russians living north of Engadine for killing deer. Their trial is set for January 28th, before Justice Goodwin at Engadine.

They also arrested Geo. Finley, a justice of the peace of Canfield township, Machine county for killing deer, and he will be tried before a justice of the peace at Gould City.

K. OF C. MINSTREL SHOW A SUCCESS

Mr. H. B. Goodman Was Easily the Stellar Feature of the Show.

The K. of C. minstrel show given at the theater Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, was well patronized, and worthy of the patronage. The gentlemen participating were thoroughly trained by St. James Danegren of Marquette, who is residing in Manistiquette temporarily, as representative of an insurance company. The jokes sprung at the expense of local men were all timely and good and evoked much applause. In the midst of entertainment, "Bun" Goodman of Ishpeming, arrived at the theater and was taken to a seat at the front of the theater. He impersonated a French Canadian just from Montreal, and his make-up brought down the house. He made so much noise that the attention of the audience was attracted in his direction, and the ushers attempted to guide him, which he resented. The average person were unacquainted with Goodman and thought that he was a drunken man that had strayed into the house. When the ushers attempted to assist him, he broke away, and elamored on the stage, where he entertained the audience with his many impersonations. His first number was his description of a Manistiquette hall game told in his Canadian French dialect of which he is a pastmaster. He did not overlook anything from the time that he went to the cemetery hill and watched the game through a hole in the fence, from which he was divorced and made to pay a quarter to gain entrance to the grounds, until the game ended. His description of the game he proved that he can impersonate other nationalities as adeptly as he can the French Canadian. Goodman was easily worth the price of admission, and should he essay to take up theatrical work he would make a huge success of that line of endeavor. But he is evidently well satisfied with his present lot because he is a wealthy lumberman, and owns and operates a big sawmill at Little Lake. He gives his impersonations before organizations that invite him, free of charge.

As interlocutor, Wm. F. Kefauver, excelled.

The comedians were Bill Stewart, Warren Morrison, Joe Pattinson, Leo McGinnis, Wallace Brunet and J. Donovan. All did exceedingly well. The soloists were Jim Donovan, Lyle Burr, Bill Stewart, Warren Morrison, Louis Kefauver, Wallace Brunet, Joe Pattinson, Jack Berry and Arthur Erikson. They all pleased, and were endorsed. Jack Berry did so well that an admirer presented him with a handsome bouquet of carnations. The chorus was strong and good and consisted of Leo McGinnis, Edward Groos, John Gallagher, Joseph Coty, Edgar Robare, Geo. Frankovich, Earl Fletcher, Geo. Weber, Bob Curley and Jack Weber, in addition to the soloists above named.

In the intermission Jack Gallagher gave a very good exhibition of buck and wing dancing. He is an excellent dancer and this was his first appearance before a Manistiquette audience. A quartet consisting of Messrs. Kefauver, Remel, Stewart and Erikson rendered "In the Valley of the Moon" in a very pleasing manner.

The olio was the comedy, "A Quarter After Ten," in which Miss Diana Houdain and Lew Merwin were the actors. Their songs were well rendered.

The accompanist was Miss Agnes Gorsche, and she did exceedingly well. Time is a very important factor in the successful accompanist, and she excelled in this feature.

Take it all in all, the entertainment was a success, and netted a goodly sum for the new St. Francis de Sales school fund, for the benefit of which it was given.

Two infants received the sacred rite of Holy Baptism in the Presbyterian church on last Sabbath morning and another adult was received into membership.

SOLD THEIR GLADSTONE STORE

Neville & Neveuux Will Concentrate Their Efforts in Manistiquette.

The local drug firm of Neville & Neveuux have disposed of their Gladstone store and will conduct two stores in Manistiquette. They will continue business on the Westside, and will occupy the Sattler block shortly, in the room where the postoffice was located. They will secure modern fixtures, and will have a store the equal of any in the upper peninsula. Work on the renovation of the building will be commenced at once.

Speaking of the sale of their Gladstone store, the Morning Press of Escanaba has the following to say: Ex-Postmaster H. W. Coburn has purchased the drug store stock of Neville & Neveuux of Gladstone and has already assumed possession of that place of business.

Mr. Coburn followed the druggist business for a great number of years previous to his appointment as postmaster and is equipped with a thorough knowledge of the work on his return.

Mr. Coburn has disposed of his property on Park avenue in this city and will soon move to Gladstone to make his future home.

Mr. Coburn has been numbered among Escanaba's foremost citizens for a great number of years and that he has chosen to leave at this time is to be regretted.

HIAWATHA NOT DISSECTED.

County Board Decides Against Proposition to Form New Township.

The residents of upper Hiawatha township have been endeavoring for some time to secure a township of their own, the new township in question to be carved from Hiawatha township as it is at present constituted. The proposition came before the county board of supervisors at its meeting last week, and was turned down.

OFFICIAL COUNTY AND CITY PAPER

FRIDAY, JAN. 27, 1916.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Helmie will hold over and be the commissioner any way.

Congress James believed that a Republican tariff is what is needed to restore property in this country. His right.

Russia has been promising amnesty to the Jews, and at the same time is harrying Jewish citizens of that country in the synagogues, if the statement of a Jewish Rabbi is to be believed.

The present president of China is some politician. He recently had the Chinese congress pass a law making him president as long as he lives, and when he feels that he is on his death bed that he may be permitted to name his successor. He is evidently a Democrat.

The senate shows a disposition to "smoke out" Governor Purvis on the liquor question. He neglected to state his views on the question in his inaugural address, and some of the senators are anxious to place him on record.

If Mr. O'Brien continues to write such good letters from Lansing, his constituency may decide to keep him there for an indefinite period. He gives a succinct account of the doings of the senate and house, each week, and the letters are read with interest by all.

The Albany Evening Journal remarks that in 1916 there will be a presidential election, fifty-three days, and twenty-nine days in February. Many people no doubt are looking forward to 1916, but getting through 1915 with credit is the pressing problem demanding attention just now.

The Cheboygan basketball team which has defeated Onaw47, Grayling and Gaylord, is scheduled to play Manistique. The Cheboyigans are cheery, and also desire games with Flint, Detroit and Muskegon. Thus far they have not lost a game. Wait until they take issue with Manistique. Their percentage will then drop.

In the death of Attorney L. C. Jennings of Escanaba, the upper peninsula loses one of its foremost citizens. The deceased was well known in Manistique through his fraternal affiliations, and by reason of the fact that he frequently appeared before the circuit court in this county on legal business for his clients. He was a companionable sort of man, and to make his acquaintance was to become his friend.

On the vote on the Hobson amendment all the Michigan representatives but the two Democrats voted for submission. Tuesday nine Michigan Republicans and Progressives voted for the submission of the suffrage amendment and again of the Michigan members only the two Democrats were in opposition. Thus the Michigan delegation—outside the Democrats—appear pretty definitely committed to the proposition that the people are entitled to a referendum vote on any question in regard to which are indispensible interests of wide scope is manifested. Clearly they—and even Joe Fordyce—believe in letting the people rule. Barring the two Democrats, the Michigan delegation in the present congress has proved itself to be progressive enough to suit the most exacting tastes.—Mining Journal.

Treating is the cause of more drunkenness than anything else. A man may feel the desire or need of a glass of beer or whiskey. He goes to a saloon for the purpose of spending a nickel or dime, and when he reaches the bar, he finds a number of his friends there, and he is rather than to be dubbed a lightwad, buys a round for the bunch. Before he leaves the place he has a dozen drinks instead of the one he wanted, and has spent a dollar or two. An anti-treating bill is to be introduced in the legislature, and it is believed that it will carry. Such a bill, if religiously enforced, will put hundreds of saloons out of business in the state, for treating is the only thing that keeps some of them alive. Treating tends to an abnormal consumption of liquor, and is the cause of much of the excessive drinking of today. Few men like liquor sufficiently well that they would go to a saloon alone and drink a sufficient quantity to become intoxicated.

The Detroit News says that the Cleveland-Cliffs Co. is watering the upper peninsula with the tears of struggling settlers. This slum makes one conversant with conditions smile. A trip over the Munising railroad would disabuse the mind of the $15 a week paragraph of the metropolitan journal, for here and there along the right of way will be found homes as handsome as those you will find in small cities, bumper crops are raised annually, and the majority of the settlers have more money in the bank than the average newspaper man has ever seen. The land owned by the Cleveland-Cliffs Co. is fertile, heavily wooded with maple and beech, and the settler while clearing his land finds a ready market for his timber at good prices. Of course, carving out a farm from the primeval forest is no child's play. The average settler in Alger county is a Finn, used to hard work and hardships. The writer has conversed with many of these settlers while passing over the railroads operated by the Cleveland-Cliffs Co., and invariably found that the settler was happy and well satisfied with his lot, and that he was making money. He also possesses something more valuable than money—robust health as the result of his outdoor life, and plain substantial food.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Earlier Sunday will fall this year on April 11th. Last year the date was April 12th.

The draft county is expected to see delegates to the state convention that will be held at Grand Rapids February 12th.

That there are snafus even in Turkey is evidenced by the fact that the draft office claim that 20,000 emblems will be used on the crosses to cross the hot sands of the Gobi to Egypt.

When a newspaper persists in publishing a Christmas advertisement in the middle of January, one is led to believe that "no year shopping out" is a sure-going slogan for the paper in question.

The Ford plan of profit sharing has been tried a year and the results have been so satisfactory that it will be continued indefinitely. The Ford employees are saving money at the rate of about $500 per month.

Catholic Missions throughout the peninsula will be increased in the fact that Gate of the Temple Chapter, R. A. M., located in the copper country celebrated its fiftieth anniversary last week, in an appropriate manner.

The Upper Peninsula Development board will hold its annual meeting at Houghton during the first week in February. The Upper Peninsula Association of Commercial Executives will meet in conjunction with the development association.

It costs Dickinson county more than $11.00 per week per capita to care for its poor at the county house of that county. The leading hotel of Iron River has actually charged less to accommodate it than the amount of the per capita cost above mentioned.

Hon. Gerritt J. Dieken of Holland, has formally announced his candidacy for the governorship subject to the Republican primaries. While his is the first definite announcement yet he will not be alone, as Mr. Martindale, Crossbeck, and the Cartons, and several others will enter the lists in 1916.

State Dairy and Food Commissioner Helmie, who only crime is that he was an Osborn man, or permitted some of his deputies to work for Osborn's election last autumn, will be reappointed by Governor Ferris next month. Mr. Helmie, but for his election, would have been reappointed to the office of Michigan Dairy Commissioner. If Mr. Helmie's influence withholds a confirmation by the senate.

Joseph T. Mason, a former Manistique business man, now engaged in business at Niagara Falls, is certainly enterprising. His store gives free picture shows at one of the citizens' homes, and he has invited them and then to the citizens are invited to attend free of charge. Certainly a good way in that advertise.

Mr. Stephens of Waters, who is an aspirant for the position of regent of the state university, toured in South America some years ago, and when he returned home wrote a story of his trip. In the book he makes a graphic account of a row in a bar-room in which he was a central figure. He had gone there for a drink and admits that he stole too many under his belt. The Detroit News is making much of this episode.

One of the items in the high cost of living is the automobile. It is estimated that there are nearly 2,000,000 autos in use in this United States. The average car costs an outlay of over $1,500,000,000.00. Twenty years ago there were very few autos in use, now they are considered a necessity. Of course the good American people would undoubtedly have expended that vast sum for something else, had the buzz wagon not arrived.

The Pioneer-Tribune office has installed machinery recently to improve the paper, and by so doing it has shown commendable enterprise. Few country weekly newspapers possess a No. 8 Mergenthaler of the latest model and the Pioneer-Tribune office has one of these. A large sum of money is needed to pay weekly expenses, and if you are in arrears on subscription account, the publisher is having a hard time of it. You will probably regret by calling at the office or sending in your check or money order. The management has been handicapped materially by illness, and has furnished the copy for the paper at times when more than one man would have gone to bed for an indefinite period. We are endeavoring to give our readers a new paper, worth much more than the price of a subscription. We have carried the arrears on our subscription account, and feel that we are entitled to what is due us. If you are in arrears, please make an effort to make prompt settlement.

SENATOR BORAH'S HOT SHOT. Senator Borah is perfectly right in his declaration that President Wilson's Indianapolis speech was an insult to the Republican party. However, the Republican party has been insulted so often in the past four years that it is used to that sort of thing, and indifferent to it. What is of greater consequence is the fact that in many respects the President's Indianapolis speech was an insult to the intelligence of the people.

It was a peculiarly vigorous speech, and one of the openings through which Senator Borah hit back was large and inviting—the President's warning to "men who should dare to break the solidarity of the Democratic team for any purpose or from any motive." The Senator ignored this statement, comparing it to "the sole and central principle upon which any political machine ever was organized or put into existence."

Because of the occupation in which he was engaged before his entry into politics, it has been customary to refrain from impugning to President Wilson the views and motives common to politicians, but by deserting the high ground of fair discussion of public issues and exhibiting the temper and narrowness of a politician the President has laid himself open to retaliation such as that which Senator Borah resorts.

The Senator spoke for his Republican colleagues as well as himself when he made this temperate declaration. While opposing no legislation which we deem to be wise and for the public good we will hold ourselves perfectly free to oppose in all proper ways and to the full extent of our ability that which we deem to be unwise. Understanding that our chief magistrate prefers the leadership of a party to a chief magistracy of an entire people, we will not need to be reminded of that fact again.

The Republican party is abundantly able to take care of itself and to rebuke the President for his unjust arraignment.—Evening Wisconsin.

BLOW AT MINES COSTLY TO STATE

Geologic Representative Would Amend Tax on Reserved Mineral Rights.

Figures computed by Auditor General Frank H. Kelly show that the state entered upon a highly unprofitable undertaking by the act passed by the 1911 legislature, providing that all real estate conveyances in which mineral rights are reserved, these rights shall be taxed, and Representative Sigmar Nelson, of Michigan, is endeavoring to amend the act to the state's benefit.

Representative Nelson's bill is so similar to the Wisconsin statute, requiring that before a mineral assessment is made, mineral in appreciable quantities must be found on the property on which the mineral rights are to be taxed.

The assessments on mineral rights made are all a matter of guesswork, he says, and in time the state will find itself in possession of a bulk of mineral rights on property which there isn't a pound of mineral.

The first assessment levied after the passage of the act was made in 1912. In that year, 35,833 descriptions of property were assessed for mineral rights. Of this number 15,376 were returned as delinquent, the remainder either were paid or were rejected by the county treasurers on the ground that a double assessment had been imposed.

It costs the state approximately 29, to act on each delinquent, and had the provisions of the act been complied with to the letter, the state would have expended in this manner $381,120.

Computed on the ratio of expenditure and returns in sections where the provisions of the act have been observed, every acre of land has received a return of from three to four cents in taxes.

In Menominee county, $1,400 was expended in advertising, to collect taxes of approximately $200. The act as planned, Representative Nelson says, was a complete failure, and the mining interests of the upper peninsula, instead has worked a hardship on individual citizens in the counties affected. Inasmuch as there is no basis for assessment, the assessor, the representative says, should be given authority to determine the value of the property, and may assess a holder of mineral rights almost any moment he chooses.

"SKY PILOT" HIGGINS PASSES AWAY

Few old time lumberjacks and lumber operators, say of 25 years ago, in these parts are those that have not at least a fair recollection of Rev. Francis L. Higgins, known as "The Lumberjack Sky Pilot," who spent the winters in the lumber camps with the men he loved. Rev. Higgins died recently in Canada, and a former resident of Lake Linden now residing in the west country writes to the Manistique Journal of "Sky Pilot Higgins' death."

"Rev. Higgins health had not been very rugged of late years," says the "letter," "but he refused to give up his work when advised to and continued to take his heavy pack and make the rounds of the different camps in Canada though suffering intense pain from the disease that was eating at his life. Stricken with sarcoma, Rev. Higgins was finally forced to forsake his camp for his bed."

Frank Higgins, as well known to the lumberjacks of this district a quarter century ago as were the operators. His first experience in work among the lumberjacks was in northern Minnesota and he finally drifted into the upper peninsula where he spent several winters. His work was conducted with such favor that he succeeded in convincing not a few of the lumberjacks that they were not leading lives conducive to their health and best interests after spending a long winter in the woods.

From the time he can be learned Higgins he used to "huck his own grub" in starting out on a trip that would take him into the deep forests. His pulpit was an old stump or a log in a box inside the poorly lighted camp. There was no camp too far for him to reach, and no lumberjack so old that he would not try to convert. Stories are even told at this late date of Higgins' courage and of his many sacrifices to aid men when they were sick.

Although pilot to the skies for lumberjacks he received many calls to pasture and was on a lecture platform, for a time. However, he always showed up when the logging season opened.—Mining Gazette.

Mrs. John Tennant of Hawatha underwent a surgical operation at the local hospital last week.

NATE KENDALL'S PHILIPPIC ON THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

While in congress Nate Kendall, of Iowa, in one of the concluding speeches of his career, delivered one of the most searching arraignment of the saloon ever heard in Washington. In the course of it he said:

"It is significant, Mr. Speaker, that in all the perverted oratory which has been indulged in all the insidious literature of the voluminous advertisement which has been negotiated, nobody has ventured to extenuate the saloon except as an agency of evil too formidable to be overthrown. This circumstance is not remarkable. As a national institution it is all liability and to assist. As a local enterprise it is all burden and no benefit. The American dramsop cannot be decried upon any principle which appeals to the moral sensibility or the business intelligence of the community. It is a rebel against good government. It dictates nominations, purchases elections, corrupts the ballot, and debauches the returns. It mires the legislature, soils the executive and stains the judiciary. It is the foe of organized society. It convulses the pulpit, undermines the platform, and subsidizes the press. It liberates the constitution, demoralizes the statesman, envenoms the congress, and derides the courts. It is the destroyer of domestic happiness. It artivulizes the husband, desolates the wife, debauches the son, and betrays the daughter. It is without concern for truth, without regard for honor, without reverence for virtue. It has its tolerance for church, no interest in school, no consideration for home, no expectation of heaven, no appreciation of hell. The patience of America is exhausted, and we shall temporarily with the infamy no longer. All the manifold forces of sobriety, of law, of love for mankind, are marshaling in invincible phalanx to pulverize the rum power. And they will eventually triumph, because their righteous warfare is sustained by the fervent hopes of all good men who reverence the holy precepts of all good women. I regret exceedingly to disagree with the president in the concluding hours of his administration. Upon all political issues I am disposed always to acknowledge allegiance to the leader of my party; but when the moral question such as this I refuse to surrender my convictions to him or any other man." (Applause.)

UPPER PENINSULA BRIEFS. Early last November Peter Schilling, driver of the fire team at Muskegon, bought a pure bred Holstein cow, calf, paying $100.00 for the cow from the Alger county farm at Kully. On the night of the ninth of November the calf was apparently in its usual good health. The following morning it was found dead. Last Saturday night the cow was fed and milked, and other cows received similar attention at the same time. As far as appearances went the animal was in the best of health and at her food as usual. She was found dead, with her body badly loaded, last Sunday morning. The lungs, liver and heart were examined by a local physician and found in a healthy condition. The stomach was sent to the state bacteriologist at Lansing last Monday morning for examination.

The state board of health will be asked to close the St. Francis hospital, the largest Finnish educational institution in the United States. The Hancock board of health has closed all schools and theaters because of an epidemic of smallpox. The college refused to obey the city board's order.

When a Negunee man, who is under quarantine for smallpox, tried to top two of his friends from fighting, one of whom, it is reported, are included with smallpox and under quarantine, he was thrown out of the second story window of his friend's house and taken by an officer to the city lock-up.

Dr. Abrams of Hancock, member of the state board of health, arrived at Manistique and made an investigation of the case of the St. Francis hospital. He pronounced the cases as genuine smallpox. Dr. Abrams was told the following statement: I found six cases of unmistakable smallpox here. They are well marked and it is obvious that they were imported into this city from some outside source.

TEACHERS ATTENTION! The superintendent of Public Instruction has appointed an institute for Schoolcraft county to be held on Thursday, Jan. 27, 1916. The meeting will be held in the assembly room of the central school building in this city, and Superintendent T. W. Clemo of the city schools has been appointed conductor. The instructors are Dr. H. W. Shroyock, President of Southern Illinois State Normal University and

BIG CHANGE SINCE YOU WERE HERE—NEARLY EVERYBODY IS USING THE REAL TOBACCO CHEW NOW. GLAD YOU TOLD US ABOUT IT.

THE VILLAGE COUNCILMAN WELCOMES THE GOOD JUDGE.

FOR friendly comfort and contentment there's nothing can equal a small chew of "Right-Cut."

That's why men tell each other about it—call it the Real Tobacco Chew. The news spreads every day.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—cut fine, short shred—seasoned and sweetened just enough, cuts out so much of the grinding and grumping.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter of an ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to get why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

In a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth, and an ordinary smoked tobacco makes you spit too much. The true old cure, rich tobacco, needs to be covered up with molasses and flavors. Notice how the rich tobacco taste is "Right-Cut."

MANISTIQUE HIGHS WERE DEFEATED.

Manistique High school basketball team lost the first game of the season to the Munising High school quiliet. The game was fast and very rough. The local team was handicapped by the small floor space and on account of the many shifts that the coach had made during the previous week in the gym. Had the game been played with the lineup that was used during the second half the score would have been very different. During the first half the Manistique team threw 9 baskets from the field and 2 free throws from foul. In the second half they got only one field basket. Manistique expects revenge when the local boys meet Munising in a return game Friday night. A very fast and aggressive game is to be looked for. Score Munising 28, Manistique, 18. The class game Wednesday night resulted in a victory for the Sophomores over the Freshmen. The Freshmen were clearly outclassed but put up a game fight to the end. Score, Sophs, 23; Freshmen, 9.

DEATH RACE

WAS IN VAIN.

Atty. I. C. Jennings Passed Away Saturday At Chicago Hospital.

Atty. I. C. Jennings, leading member of the Delta county bar and widely known among people of all classes in this section of the peninsula, passed away Saturday, at noon at the Augustana hospital, Chicago. A desperate race against death was lost when the prominent attorney, accompanied by his family physician, Mrs. Jennings and friends, reached the Chicago hospital yesterday morning. According to word received here, Dr. Oschner, the eminent specialist, found that it would be impossible to perform an operation in the face of the serious condition of the patient. Death came to Mr. Jennings at exactly the noon hour, surrounded at the hospital by those who had accompanied him to Chicago, together with other Escanabans, who were in the city and relatives, who had been summoned.

The body will not be brought to Escanaba, but will be taken direct from Chicago to Charlotte, Mich., in their home, where the funeral will be held. Definite arrangements for the service will be announced from Charlotte on Monday.

The body, accompanied by members of the funeral party, will leave Chicago at 10 o'clock this morning.

No death of an Escanaban has occurred in recent years that has so deeply shocked the people of this city as that of Mr. Jennings. His short illness allowed but few to learn of the danger to his life and the suddenness of his death, add to the shock.

Mr. Jennings was recognized as one of the leading attorneys in this section of the peninsula. Of studious habits and judicial man he was the legal attorney and held a high place in the estimation of his brother attorneys and of the public. His kindly, quiet disposition won for him scores of friends in his passing hundreds of people have lost a sincere friend.

Atty. Jennings was born at Charlotte, Mich., about 62 years ago. He was graduated from the Charlotte schools and later from the law department of the University of Michigan. He located in Escanaba for the practice of his profession in 1887 and continuously made this city his home since that time. He had served Delta county as prosecuting attorney for several terms and on a number of occasions had served the city of Escanaba as city attorney.

He was a member of the Escanaba lodge of Masons, and of the Escanaba lodge of Knights of Pythias.

His final illness was not thought to be of a serious nature until on Thursday when a physician was summoned. When symptoms of peritonitis developed, he consented to be taken to Chicago that an operation might be performed by the celebrated Dr. Oschner.

The race against death was in vain, however, as the patient was so weakened when Chicago was reached, that nothing could be done to save his life. It is expected that a number of Escanabans will go to Charlotte to attend the funeral.—Morning Press.

C. N. Dewey, deputy state fire marshal, was in the city from Manistique last Friday and Saturday. Mr. Dewey may decide to locate in Iron Mountain.—Iron Mountain Press.

COMMENDABLE OBJECT.

A Benefit Ball Was Given in Honor of Mr. Florin Last Thursday Evening.

Mr. Frank Ledstrand, Wm. Rowe and Paul Baumgartner, friends of Mr. Florin, who is seriously ill, conceived the idea of giving a ball for his benefit at Costello hall last Thursday evening. The printing was done, the hall was rented and the music. The dance was well attended and about $100.00 was realized.

Mr. Florin was the engineer at the Goodview plant prior to the time of his illness. He is suffering with cancer, and as he has been unable to work for some months, and has been at heavy expense, the money secured as the result of the foregoing of his friends, will be very acceptably.

In this connection, the committee in charge of the affair desire the Pioneer-Tribune to extend their heartfelt thanks to those who donated the music, the hall and who in any way assisted in making the dance a success.

WOULD BOOST SUPERVISORS PAY

Senator John Paul believes supervisors, the governing head of the smallest territorial units in the makeup of the state and national governmental system, are very poorly paid. A bill will be introduced this week increasing the pay of supervisors from $3 to $5 a day when on duty.

Mr. Paul says that in counties the size of Kent, where the county seat is located in a large city like Grand Rapids, supervisors are not able to pay all their own living and traveling expenses on the amount allowed by the county under the present law. He also finds that in Northern Michigan counties, where supervisors have to travel a long distance from their homes under adverse conditions, $3 a day is inadequate.

"I do not believe the public wants supervisors to spend their time working for the county on under pay. I know that the supervisors in Kent who come from a distance away from the city where they cannot get home at night are unable to live and travel on the amounts paid by the county," said Mr. Paul.

CASE OF RUTLEDGE.

The members of the Menominee Range Ministerial association are of the opinion that Rev. Mr. Rutledge is not able to do a square deal from the Michigan Anti-Slavery league. This opinion was voiced in resolutions adopted by a unanimous vote at the recent meeting of the association. Copies of the resolution have been sent to all the other upper peninsula ministerial organizations with a request that similar action be taken. The Menominee Range association is disposed to have no further dealings with the Anti-Slavery league or its agents until the dismissal of Mr. Rutledge is satisfactorily explained. This means that he is to be removed from the pulpits of the organization. In the meantime, Mr. Rutledge will be encouraged and aided in his efforts to organize a new association.—Iron Mountain Press.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS.

Was the Subject of an Address Delivered by Judge Fead Before the Newberry Study Club.

That the law of Michigan confers upon women the same rights enjoyed by men, with but two exceptions, and that these are not enjoyed by the sternness of the law, as announced by Judge Fead in a address delivered before the members of the Newberry Study Club at the High school auditorium Monday evening.

The exception mentioned by Judge Fead was the unrestricted right of the male to keep a saloon. The ladies of the Study Club have for their course of study this winter the "History of Michigan" and had invited Mr. Fead to deliver an address before them.

Judge Fead gave a brief resume of the growth of the laws of Michigan as they relate to the rights enjoyed by women, and with the two exceptions noted above, he showed that the women have it all over the men in the rights and privileges conferred upon them by Michigan laws which they already enjoy.

The address was listened to by a large audience composed of the Club members and invited guests.

ROBBED THE SHERIFF.

A Seattle friend sent us a clipping from a newspaper of that city, in which the experiences of the sheriff of Allegan county, this state figure, during a recent visit in the west, are given there for the purpose of impressing a man who was wanted for murder in Allegan county. He secured his man, balked at a $5 gold piece that was given him in change for a ticket seller, and insisted on receiving paper money instead.

The printing was done, the hall was rented and the music. The dance was well attended and about $100.00 was realized.

Mr. Florin was the engineer at the Goodview plant prior to the time of his illness. He is suffering with cancer, and as he has been unable to work for some months, and has been at heavy expense, the money secured as the result of the foregoing of his friends, will be very acceptably.

TWO URSULINE SISTERS.

Final Profession Wednesday Morning Mr. Pinten of Marquette Officiating.

A solemn ceremony took place in the chapel of the Ursuline convent Wednesday morning when two Sisters, so far wearing the white veil of the order, took the final vows that devoted their lives to the cloister. The two were Miss Florence Finn, daughter of P. J. Finn of Manistique, and Marie Brevort lake, known in their religious state as Sister Mary Theresa and Sister Mary Ignatius. Both graduated from the academy of the institution, a few years ago.

The ceremony was conducted by Very Rev. Mr. Pinten from Marquette, representing Bishop Eis, who also celebrated the high mass and preached the sermon. He was assisted by Rev. Mrs. Mackay of St. Ignace and Sisters of Mackinac Island. Visitors included Mrs. Finn and Mrs. Vvian from Manistique, Misses Harriet and Ruth Rappin, sisters of Sister Ignatius, and many friends of both the professing nuns. The most extensive of the kind that will take place in the old chapel.—St. Ignace News-Republican.

21,000 SEALS WERE SOLD.

Local Red Cross Seal Campaign Unqualified Success.

The committee in charge of the sale of Red Cross seals waged an intensive campaign prior to Christmas, and as a result 21,000 seals were sold, the sales of 1912 being nearly doubled.

The committee wrote to 140 persons, and two thirds of them responded with dollars. By this method, the 100 seals were sold in 140 persons without being asked. The letters were worded politely and an envelope with the seal to be sold by removing all trouble in returning seals if unneeded. The response was immediate and prolonged. Dollars kept rolling in—ten dollars, five dollars and two dollars were sent.

School pupils and teachers not only sounded the appeal to pity and self protection, but to local pride. The $219.00 received was distributed as follows:

The board of directors was reduced from seven to five members and consisted of: A. S. Putnam, V. I. Hixson, L. B. Crowl, Frank Hartman and Wm. S. Crowl.

ELECTION OF POSTMASTERS.

Washington Statesman Advocates Plan for Election of Postmasters and Federal Officers.

A Washington dispatch says: Postmasters who are the principal patrons of the postal service, will be interested in a plan advocated by Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., to provide for election not only of postmasters, but of other Federal officers in the several states, such as U. S. marshals, district attorneys, collectors and appraisers of customs, collectors of internal revenue, and registers and receivers of land offices.

Every business man knows the evils of the present system of political appointment. Men are chosen as such community because of their party fitness for the position or their abilities for rendering service, but because of party loyalty and activity a politics.

Merchants have seen post offices removed from one end of town to the other in spite of the fact that the location of the office in a building owned by an active supporter of the party in power. They have seen individuals not desired by a majority of the people of the community appointed to conduct the office.

Former Senator Bourne believes that postmasters should be selected regardless of what party may happen to be in control of the national administration—that the people of the country may have a Democratic or Republican administration, as they may choose, but that the people of each community should have a postmaster of their own selection regardless of politics.

Post-offices are established and maintained for service, not as political rewards, and the people of each community are the best judges of the kind of service they require. Bourne argues that if a postmaster must depend upon the voice of the people of his community for his retention in office rather than upon his effectiveness in politics at his "pull" with party leaders, he will give more of an effort to improve the character of his service rendered. Moreover, popular election of postmasters and other Federal officers, will take away the principal power of the national political machine which, through that instrumentality, is able in so many instances to dictate local party politics.

Bourne proposes to strike at the root of the matter by a constitutional amendment divesting the President of his appointing power and relieving the Senate of its duty and responsibility of appointing such officials, and leave the whole problem of the several communities, which is chiefly and directly interested in the character of service to be rendered by their public servants.

If this suggestion appeals to you, write to your Senator or Congressman and tell him that you favor a constitutional amendment which will give you a voice in the selection of your postmaster.

RAILWAY OFFICIALS

MAKING TOUR.

Interesting Cities and Business Men in Passenger Rate Rais.

Representatives of the upper peninsula railroads are visiting the cities of the upper peninsula for the purpose of securing support from the business men and commercial clubs for the proposition of advancing the passenger rates in the upper peninsula from two to three cents. It is claimed that passenger business in the peninsula is handled at a loss owing to the long distances, the sparse population, and the excellence of the service. If relief is not secured in this direction the service will be curtailed, as the roads do not care to stand the loss any longer.

In practically every city in the peninsula, the business men have supported the contention of the railroads and have signed petitions and forwarded resolutions to the legislatures asking that the rates should be raised.

The roads interested in the idea are the C. & N. W., the Soo Line, the D. S. S. & A., the Milwaukee road and the Copper Range road. The smaller roads serving the Manistique and Lake Superior and the roads operated by the Cleveland-Cliffs Co., are not interested as their rates have remained at three cents, owing to the small volume of passenger traffic handled.

Manistique does not want its present train service curtailed, but it would rather have it increased by two additional trains on the Soo Line. We need a train for the west in the morning and one to the east in the afternoon or evening. This devoutly wished for proposition has never been realized under present conditions, and the time may come when we may have to be content with a train each way daily, should the threat of the railroads be executed.

We believe that the average busi-
