Taxpayers of Manistique will be given an opportunity on Tuesday, January 9, 1934, to express their opinion upon the two proposals to construct a municipal sewage disposal plant and a system of storm sewers in the city, it was definitely decided at a meeting of the city council Monday evening.

The annual community Christmas program will be held at the high school auditorium on Sunday evening, December 17, at 7:30 p. m. This program is under the auspices of the Manistique Ministerial association. The program promises to be one of unusual interest this year. A very pleasing part of the program this year will be the special musical numbers contributed by the choirs of the various cooperating churches. Everyone is welcome at this service. Rev. S. P. Bottrell, president of the Ministerial Association will preside at the service.

Funeral services for J. Wesley Gilligan, whose sudden death occurred early Wednesday morning of last week following an accident in an Escanaba drugstore, were conducted Saturday afternoon from the family residence, 202 Lake street, with Rev. S. T. Bottrell, pastor of the Methodist church officiating. Thad Leland, of Detroit, offered a fine eulogy and several selections were sung by a quartet composed of Mrs. H. H. Hargrave, Mrs. Charles Reilly, Harlok Crookman and Leonard Males.

About 100 men, 30 percent of whom will be classified as professional, skilled and semi-skilled labor will be employed on the CWA project at the Thompson fish hatchery it was learned here Thursday afternoon. The project will cost $20,000, most of the money to be paid to local labor.

Benny Wood Wins By Knockout; Thereon Southard Beats Opponent

With indications that the Civil Works Administration payroll for Saturday will approximate $3,000, with about 200 men now employed and several new applications for relief projects being rushed for federal approval, and with prospects of the federal forest service program in the Hiawatha National forest getting underway within the next two weeks, the labor outlook in Schoolcraft county this winter looks exceedingly encouraging.

The sewage disposal plant, it is estimated by the engineering firm of Sheorath, Drury and McNamara, will cost $110,000, less a free grant of 30 per cent of that amount which the government will offer under the public works administration. The storm sewers the engineers estimated, will cost $30,000, less the 30 per cent free grant.

The program follows: Christmas Carols—Community Singing. Invocation—Rev. C. E. Morrison. Scripture Reading—Rev. J. G. Cross. Solo, "Song of the Christmas Chimes"—Mrs. H. Hargrave.

In order to hasten the starting of the project, the application will be taken to Lansing for federal approval by C. B. Cook superintendent of hatchery operations for the state conservation department.

A request that personal taxes against the Manistique holdings of the Stack Lumber company for the years of 1931, 1932, and 1933 be cancelled, was voiced at a meeting of the Manistique city council Monday evening by Henry Stack, of Escanaba. Mr. Stack submitted his appeal on the grounds that his local saw mill had not operated since the fall of 1930 and that, therefore, it was unfair to assess the same yard of lumber over three consecutive years.

The council, which completed preparations for the special election Monday evening by passing necessary ordinances and resolutions, designating polling places and selecting election boards, contemplated financing the sewage disposal plant by the issuance of self-liquidating revenue bonds and financing the storm sewers by issuing general obligation bonds for a federal loan under the public works administration, will be taken by the government as collateral for a federal loan under the public works administration, will be retired over a period of 25 years at an interest rate which is expected to be four per cent per year.

The self-liquidating revenue bonds for disposal plant would mean an additional tax burden, as they would be retired through special charges against municipal sewer connections, but the general sewers would be retired by spreading the principal and interest payments upon the tax roll.

The four and butter will be shipped to Newberry which is designated as the distribution point for several counties in the south and east part of upper peninsula. The flour will come in 25-pound sacks.

It is not known when the merchandise will arrive. The Newberry schoolcraft county officials when the flour and butter arrive.

Stanley Chust, who has charge of the hatchery, will be technical supervisor of the construction work. Purchasing will be done by the local CWA committee.

"Me And My Gal," Saturday

Deploring what happens when a fearless young radio car detective, stimulated by his love for a pretty girl, trails a gang of bandits and eventually brings his leader to justice, "Me And My Gal," the Fox production playing at the Gero Saturday, is said to be one of the most exciting and entertaining comedies of the season.

Joan Bennett and Spencer Tracy are co-featured in the leading roles and others in the cast are Marion Burns, J. Farrell Macdonald, Henry B. Walker and Noel Madison.

Sunday-Monday

Only yesterday is a fine picture... simply because a new girl to the movies, Margaret Sullivan gives the story a freshness and genuineness that makes it spring into life.

Only yesterday is charming, there's something starchy and enchanting about it. But I'm tempted to lay that to Margaret Sullivan. She's the picture, so far as I'm concerned and because she charms, refreshes eyes and ears tired of the same old faces, same old voices; because her face looks unprinted and her voice holds tones so strongly captivating as those with which Ethel Barrymore used to enchant us.

And first class. And so very unlike Hollywood... the picture belongs to Margaret Sullivan... When Ethel Barrymore was a young actress she may have had more glamour and more beauty, but the haunting enchantment that lay in her voice, the downright seriousness that lay in her eyes, had remarkable duplication in Margaret Sullivan. See this new star by all means.—Florence Fisher Perry Pittsburgh Press.

Miss Catherine Herbert, a student at Smith college, Northampton, Mass., will spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Herbert, Range street.

WE DO NOT SELL "Prices"

In these times, you have a perfect right to expect lower prices—even on fine things. But there's simply no limit to the low prices you can pay if you look for price alone.

We do not sell "prices." Instead, we have always operated our store on the assumption that intelligent people want quality first of all. And, in dealing with a reputable store such as ours, take it for granted that the price is fair.

In the long run, we're sure it would pay you to follow this course.

STIFFER INHERITANCE TAXES

Antagonism against a social system which permits the amassing of great wealth and the passing of it on from generation to generation has shown rapid development in the United States since the onset of hard times.

Although the American people have not evinced strong dislike for the wealth accumulated by a man by dint of his own hard work and wisdom, they have become increasingly critical of inherited fortunes whereby the great power represented by capital has passed into hands that have contributed nothing toward earning it.

Some national leaders have sensed this growing rebellion and more stringent inheritance tax laws may be the result. United States Senator George W. Norris, speaking in Urbana, Ill., on November 16, is one of the first national figures to present a measure designed to curb the system which kept vast fortunes intact in a family from one generation to the next.

His progressive inheritance tax was advocated as one of the permanent remedies needed to bring the country out of the industrial and economic doldrums. "We ought to limit the right of wealth to entail itself from one generation to another," the Senator said.

The proposal of Senator Norris deserves serious consideration, for it strikes at the root of one of the evils which our present social system has produced. Theoretically no person has a right to wealth which he has done nothing to help accumulate, and conversely, the man whose high position has been acquired through self-denial, soul-weaving toil and superior ability has a right to that position if he uses it without menace to the public welfare.

ISHPEMING TEAM DEFEATS LOCALS

Won by Lop-Sided Score of 36 To 11 Here Last Friday Evening Led by Thomas and Kemp, forwards, the Ishpeming high school team defeated the Manistique high school quintet, 36 to 11, in a lop-sided game in the local high school gymnasium last Friday evening.

The Ishpeming men showed superiority in every department of the game, including a good passing combination and uncanny accuracy in finding the hoop from the free throw line. In the first two quarters Ishpeming rained it will around the floor, but the Manistique defense and offense put up a more spirited scrap in the second half.

In a preliminary game, Nahma was defeated by the Manistique reserves, 25 to 24, in a hotly contested battle.

Riverside Park Being Improved

Two of the civil works administration projects in the city of Manistique on which satisfactory progress is being made and which will greatly benefit the community are the raising of the old-line kilt and the fairgrounds and improvement of Riverside park.

To prevent erosion on the west bank of the Indian river, at the sharp turn just below the city intake and dam, the lime kiln rocks are being laid in step-like tiers. As the river water sweeps around the bend, it has been gradually removing sand from the bank and undermining trees which will ultimately tumble into the water unless steps are taken to protect the bank. The new wall of rock will add rustic beauty to the bank and prevent further eating away of soft sand.

Other men in the park are engaged in clearing away underbrush and deadwood. Six Couples Are Marooned Sunday Leaving their automobiles stranded on the plains, six Manistique couples struggled a mile and a half back to Ira Crawford's camp on Brass Creek last Sunday night and were forced to spend the night there, marooned by the blizzard that came howling out of the north Sunday afternoon.

Included in the group which drove to the camp Sunday morning to spend the day were Mr. and Mrs. Les Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cookman, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grimsley, Mr. and Mrs. Omer Olson and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Crawford. Following a venison dinner, several of them returned to the city, but the others were forced to spend the night at the camp. The blizzard was so severe that the couples were unable to find their way back to the city. They were rescued by a party of men who drove to the camp and picked them up. The couples are now back in the city and are recovering from the effects of the blizzard.

Bert Fletcher, 68, Died On Wednesday

Bert J. Fletcher, age 68 years, passed away about 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the Shaw hospital following a long illness. He was taken to the hospital about 10 o'clock Wednesday morning from the family residence, 713 Oak street. He had been in failing health since he lost one of his eyes about four years ago. Last August he became totally blind, an extract having developed in his remaining eye.

He resided in this city over 40 years, and during most of his life he worked in local sawmills and in the lumber woods. He is survived by one daughter, Miss Pearl Agnes, of Atlanta, Ga., and one brother, Perry, of Hiawatha. A daughter-in-law, Mrs. Howard Fletcher, also survives. His daughter is expected to arrive here Saturday to attend the funeral services which will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The place for conducting the services has not been selected, pending the arrival of the daughter.

Several tuberculosis sanatoriums are in critical financial straits and may be compelled to turn out their patients. This means that poverty-stricken men and women are either now on their own or will be soon—turned loose in their communities to infect their own sickness and to infect others. That means Death.

Such a situation, he warned Christmas seal salesmen, calls for redoubled efforts on the part of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association.

"In many places, the Christmas seal alone is left to protect the public. Last summer, lack of funds forced one sanatorium to close its children's building, shutting boys and girls who through no fault of their own were infected with a deadly disease. Another sanatorium has never had money enough to equip its children's building."

"Means must be found, and found by the Christmas seal, to safeguard Michigan from the results of dropping proper public health standards because of a lack of money. No community, no individual is safe until all are safe. Funds from the sale of Christmas seals are left as the only way the common man can be assured of a healthy Christmas and fewer deaths from tuberculosis in this state."

"We have reached a crisis in a peace-time emergency and we cannot drop our guard. The work of the Christmas seal must go forward, until parents may be sure their children are safe from tuberculosis and children may know they won't be left fatherless or motherless. The fight must go on."

SCHOOLCRAFT MAN 2ND IN SPUD CONTEST

Russell Tennant One Of Winners In U. P. Premier Grower Contest

Will Be Eligible To Participate In State Contest In February

John R. Frank of Lake Linden district of Houghton County won the Premier Grower Contest for the Upper Peninsula. Mr. Frank produced 550 bushels of Green Mountain potatoes per acre on five acres. This crop ranked high in quality since they showed only a trace of disease and 95 per cent of the crop was rated U. S. No. 1 or marketable potatoes. Mr. Frank has been producing certified seed for a number of years and knows the potato growing game from the ground up. He has one other distinction which goes with his record and that is, he is the only new member to the 500 bushel class which was started in the Upper Peninsula last year.

Mr. Frank's nearest competitor for champion potato grower of the Upper Peninsula was Russel Tennant of Schoolcraft county. Mr. Tennant's yield this year was 640 bushels per acre. He is all ready a member of the 500 bushel class having won this honor last year. Mr. Tennant, by virtue of his winning second place, will be eligible to participate in the state potato contest, which will be held at East Lansing during Farmers' Week in February, it was announced Tuesday by Leo Stewart, county agricultural agent. Mr. Tennant also won first place in the upper peninsula premier potato growers' contest last year, placing sixth in yield and first in showmanship and quality of produce. John Ellida, who won both the upper peninsula and state contests in 1932, did not receive a first place in the three judging classifications but he ranked sufficiently high in them to be awarded first place in the peninsula contest.

There is a strong possibility that Mr. Tennant will have a chance of copying state potato growing honors this year, particularly because of the high quality of his potato yield and his knowledge of showmanship, Mr. Stewart reported Tuesday. These men's records exceeded only in degree the records made by all the men who entered this contest. Seventeen growers this year qualified for the 300 bushel club by producing this amount or more on five acres or more. The average yield of these 17 growers this year was 383.4 bushels per acre. A study of their production practices revealed that they were using good seed, all being of the

A resolution offering sympathy to the family of the late J. Wesley Gilligan and expressing appreciation of his work as a member of the city commission, was adopted by the Manistique city council Monday evening. The resolution follows:

"Whereas, on December 6th, 1933, John Wesley Gilligan, one of our beloved and prominent citizens, and a useful, active and valuable member of this council, met with an accident which resulted in his sudden death, and

"Whereas, we feel keenly the death of our colleague, and mourn with the entire community at the loss of one so intimately connected with, and concerned in, the advancement and welfare of our city and its people, and

"Whereas, we shall miss greatly his valuable counsel, and his fearless stand for the rights and interests of our citizens in matters of public concern,

"Therefore be it resolved, that this council publicly express its sorrow at the loss of so valuable a member, and extend the sincere sympathy of its members to the family of our beloved associate, in their great loss and bereavement.

"And be it further resolved, that this resolution be spread at length upon the records of this council and a copy of the same be sent to the family of our late associate.

"And be it further resolved, that out of respect to our late associate, the council stand adjourned."

Flotsam and Jetsam

but we believe that relief work should be denied a man who has quit or refused a steady job to get a share of the federal government's fat payroll. If men can leave present positions, where they are paid in accordance with the NRA code, and get work on CWA projects, the purpose of the act in putting jobless men back on the payroll is defeated and private industry is seriously cramped.

England and Italy are going to send us token payments on their war debts, but France will probably be content with shipping us a lot of sour wine, c. o. d.

Printers also have their troubles. Last Thursday evening, after eleven papers were printed, the editorial page kicked off the press bed and spilled in a nice, scattered heap on the floor. In the parlance of the type-bankers, the page was "pied." We didn't take time to reset the news and editorials, but made up the page again with over-set material. So if you had given us any news which you particularly wanted published, and it failed to appear in print, we must blame it on to the "pied" page and beg your indulgence.
