School cuts $330,220

Board adopts budget

On a vote of 6-1, Budget Balancing Method X was the plan adopted Thursday night by Manistique Area Schools Board of Education to bail itself out of the current financial bind.

Under Method X, four existing teaching positions will be eliminated as well as many supplies, services, insurance benefits and programs including athletics. Total eliminations amounted to $330,220, reducing the 1976-77 estimated expenditure total to $2,149,980, $25,443 under the estimated revenue total of $2,175,423.

"With a budget balance of approximately 1.2 percent," said Board President Harold Cockram. "But the budget we developed originally, taking into consideration what we felt was an adequate and necessary program, had to be reduced by some $305,000. Our only alternative was to reduce program. It is not our intent, and it would be a waste of taxpayers money, to hold another millage election at this point."

"Until next year," Board Secretary Margaret Waters reaffirmed, "We will not hold another millage election unless petitioned by the people."

Remembering last Tuesday night's meeting between the board, the community and Dr. Norman Weinheimer, executive director of the Michigan Association of School Boards, a member of the audience asked whether or not the Board could proceed with plans for a reduction in program without first asking the permission of the State Board of Education.

"We can reduce program without going to the State as long as we keep up the 180 days and the 900 hours of instruction," Superintendent Richard Bonifas replied. "None of the cuts mentioned here will restrict instructional time."

"As far as accreditation, however, we probably will receive one year's warning from North Central as a result of the cuts."

As he outlined it, Method X called for the elimination of:

Summing it up, Denton Nelson explained "Out of some 500 districts in the State, we are 15 from the bottom for local support. We're operating at 20 mills, where the average is 28 and some are up to as high as 39."

In view of the budgetary problems and of "the problems we have had," during the reorganizational period of Thursday night's meeting Jim Goodreau made the motion to retain in the current officers in the positions to which they were voted last year.

After a unanimous vote in each instance, officers remain: President, Harold Cockram; Vice-President, Bruce Steinfeldt; Secretary, Margaret Waters; and Treasurer, William Mueller.

In their reorganizational business, the Board: agreed to maintain specified accounts at both the State and First National Banks; and authorized Bonifas, Mueller and Cockram to sign checking, savings and investments papers and named the same to serve on a building and site invoice committee.

My Old Model T in the Winter

Come all of you fellows and listen to my chatter. About my model T with its squeaks groans and clatters. I am up in the morning before daylight. By the time I get it started the sun shines bright. First I jack up a wheel then I pull on the check. Then I crank and I crank till I think my back is broke.

I looked at the battery and I poured in some oil. I wiped out the timer and I tuned up the coils. Wife opened up the door and said Hi there Bill. I have got some water hot the radiator for to fill. I poured in the water and I gave her another twist. And she backfired bang and she nearly broke my wrist.

I gave her another twist she went chuggy chuggy chug. I was so darned tickled felt like giving her a bug. Now her body is not shiny and she hasn't got the class. But I get 17 miles on a gallon of gas. All that own model Ts and can't get them started. Just stick right with them don't get down hearted.

Cincinnati Reds to conduct tryout camp

A tryout camp for baseball players will be conducted by the Cincinnati Reds on Saturday July 17th at the Gaylord High School baseball field in Gaylord, Michigan according to the camp director Beeman Simmons. Simmons said the camp is open to all boys from 16 to 22 years of age. High school sophomores and juniors are especially urged to attend.

Reds scouting supervisor, Gene Bennett, will be in charge of the tryouts which is scheduled to start promptly at 10:00 a.m. Registrations will begin at 9:30 a.m. Bennett will be assisted by Reds scouts Don Welke and Fred Hayes.

All eligible players are requested to bring their own uniform, glove and shoes. The Reds will furnish all other equipment. In addition, each player will be responsible for his traveling and living expense, if any, unless signed to a contract with the Cincinnati Reds organization.

McNally and his big, black superbird

Getting pushed down the road by a big, black Superbird? The "beep, beep" behind you could be Fred McNally, proud owner of one of only 1500, hand-produced-by-Chrysler, 1970 Plymouth Road Runner Superbirds.

More than to drive it, more even than to look at it, McNally loves to talk about his "pet", the car. He's prepared, at the slightest sign of encouragement, to recite the history of the 1500 automobiles and his Superbird in particular, to outline the mechanics of it, the work that went into restoring it, and to show one, piece by piece, how it was constructed in the first place, what each part was designed for and how it all works. Often his conversation draws a crowd. This listener was so enthralled, in fact, that for days afterward he had visions of "cruising" in that car. He calls the Superbird "a version of the Road Runner." Chrysler produced only 1500 of those back in 1970, at a cost to the company of $10,000 each. Tender, loving care went into the hand-craftsmanship applied then, as it did when McNally and his crew got their hands on it. The reason each sold for only $4000 then was to have all of the cars into the hands of the public in time for it to qualify as a stock racing car.

Chrysler met its goal and the Superbird went on to win 38 races and to set 21 world land speed records on the Bonneville Salt Flats, 10 of which still stand. When, in 1971, the car was banned from the racetracks, it became a collectors item.

"I'd been looking for one for many years," McNally began. "Then, on a trip to Wisconsin, I saw one sitting in a gas station. My wife had never seen a Superbird, so we got out to look at it. At those races, I got the feeling that McNally will be wishing he were driving that "stream-lined missile", that one of the two "most powerful performance autos ever built", that one and only car for which the Blue Book lists no trade value, no bank value and no sale price, that "pet" of his. "If you like races," he said and smiled wistfully, "it would put goose bumps on you."

Konwinski appointed Grand Marshall

Iron River - Leo Konwinski, a man who has probably devoted more man hours than anyone to promoting the Iron County area and the Upper Peninsula Championship rodeo, has been selected as the Grand Marshall for the Bicentennial edition of the rodeo's wild west parade which will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, July 31 in downtown Iron River.

Leo is well-known throughout the Upper Peninsula for his colorful role as chairman of the U.P. championship rodeo committee for four consecutive years, until his retirement this year, and as Santa Claus in many area communities. His natural white beard and congenial mannerism as a "Gabby Hayes" type cowboy and as a startling original Santa Claus have won the hearts of young and old wherever his travels have taken him.

Konwinski was among the first to volunteer his services when the U.P. championship rodeo was first being formed nine years ago. He took on such jobs as program book chairman, charge of grounds, and a number of special events connected with the popular show. Serving with the Iron County Chamber of Commerce as Executive-manager, he became general chairman of the U.P. championship rodeo and consequently brought the show to the attention of many people throughout a wide area with his affable approach.

Leo lives and loves rodeo and will be in there pitching and greeting visitors when the ninth annual show is presented in Iron River on July 21 and August 1 rodeo performances are set for 2:30 p.m. and 7 p.m. Saturday and 2:30 p.m. Sunday. The show goes on rain or shine.

Two NMU tennis camps open

MARQUETTE, Mich. - Enrollments are still being accepted in two of three tennis camps being sponsored by Northern Michigan University according to camp co-director Milton (Mickey) Johnson. "We're packed to the gills," said Johnson about the initial session which will be held July 18-24. "We just can't handle any more boys or girls during our first camp. We can accept more youngsters in our second camp and we have some vacancies open in our adult clinic," the long-time Marquette Senior High School net coach stated.

The tennis clinic with vacancies for boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 17 will be held July 25-31. The adult session is slated for July 18-18.

"The kids and groupings enrolling in our programs will...talk tennis, think tennis, and dream tennis. But most of all, they'll learn to love tennis," said Johnson.

Instruction in the camps will cover all levels of ability with individual instruction emphasizing strength, conditioning and strategy, according to Johnson.

"We're also going to use videotape which will help us (the coaches) and the individual player learn more about their strengths and weaknesses," Johnson said. Serving as coaches, in addition to Johnson, will be co-camp director Dennis Longhini, NMU's tennis coach, Dick Rondos, a former member of the Junior Davis Cup Team who now lives in Green Bay, Wis., and Rick Quimbaya, a guru at the West Racquet Club in Green Bay. Costs of the camp, including fees and a room and board package, may be obtained by contacting the Johnson or by NMU Conference Department, phone 225-2555.

Crime pays if bill passes

(LANSING) - Crime victims in Michigan may receive up to $15-thousand from the state to pay medical expenses or make up lost wages under terms of a bill which won final legislative approval in the Senate June 30 announced Senator Patrick H. McCollough, (D-DeARBorn), sponsor of the bill.

"This bill recognizes the fact that government is responsible for protecting its citizens and when it fails, it should be responsible for helping those who are victims of crime," said McCollough.

The DeARBorn Democrat noted that "the attention of lawmakers and the public alike has largely been directed toward measures which crack-down on criminals, with little regard for the innocent victims of crime."

"While I firmly believe we must continue to be vigilant in our efforts to prevent crimes and to apprehend and punish criminals, I think it's time we come to the aid of the needy victims of crime." Under McCollough's proposed measure, persons who lose at least $100 because of medical costs or treatment, or who lost at least two weeks wages as a result of the crime, would be eligible to apply to the state for financial reimbursement.

The maximum amount of state reimbursement would be $15,000 per crime to any person, explained McCollough.

Among those who would be eligible for state compensation are the victims of a direct attack or those who try to help a crime victim and are injured, the surviving family members of a person killed in a crime and a woman who becomes pregnant as the result of a rape.

In order to receive the aid, crime victims would have the responsibility of reporting the crime within 48 hours and filing for the award within 30 days - 90 days for relatives if a death results. McCollough said, "I fully expect the Governor to promptly sign my bill into law."

Historical Museum open daily

MANISTIQUE'S HISTORICAL SOCIETY museum, now open daily from 1 to 5 and 6 to 8:30 p.m., is located next to the water tower on the north side of the Siphon Bridge. Audrey Swan, pictured above with an old record player on display on the second floor of the old Post House, welcomes visitors with a guided tour of the museum and demonstrations and answers questions about the items on display. (Tribune Photo)

SINCE 1955, WHEN the museum first opened, the Society has accepted donations and carefully tagged each item with information relative to it. Here Mrs. Swan holds a Queen Victoria doll whose clothing was made with ladies' stockings of that day. The doll doubles as a coverlet for a teapot. (Tribune Photo)

BEFORE THE SOCIETY had a permanent home for all its antiques, many of them were displayed in glass cases on the upper floors of the old high school and in the library. The silver trowel held by Mrs. Swan is among the precious memorabilia now on display for the public in a beautiful glass cabinet on the lower level of the house. (Tribune Photo)

SURVIVING SOLELY ON dues and donations, such as the iron held by Mrs. Swan in the pantry of the old Post House, the Historical Society also manages to provide other services. Information on the history of Manistique and background on families who used to live in the area are only two of the additional services offered. (Tribune Photo)

Eye operations now common, Erickson says

MARQUETTE: Explaining the surgical procedures used in bringing sight to the blind through corneal transplant operation, Eye Bank President Leslie Erickson said today that such operations have now become commonplace and are producing generally highly successful results.

The portion of the eye transplanted in such operations is limited to the cornea, the small lens-like sheet of tissue which curves over the pupil and iris of the eye much in the same way as a crystal curves over the face of a watch. The availability of the human eye tissue is made possible by individuals who have pledged their eyes, on death, to the eye bank for such use.

There are two types of corneal transplants: The lamellar (in which only a partial thickness of the cornea is used) and the penetrating (in which the entire thickness of the cornea is transplanted). In recent years Erickson said, round trephines (like cookie cutters) have been used surgically, making the fashioning for grafts much easier. The lamellar graft, he stated, is technically easier to perform, as the inside of the eye is not exposed during the procedure.

Transplant grafts, said Erickson are sutured with silk sutures of extremely fine diameter - not much thicker than a human hair. The sutures are left in place for two to four weeks after the operation.

Those interested in donating their eyes, on death for sight-restoring corneal transplants, may secure a pledge card by contacting the Upper Michigan Lions Eye Bank at Marquette General Hospital, Inc.

WHAT'S HAPPENED TO THE FUZZ?

Better produce for better eating comes by way of science and technology we're old. Peaches now present themselves in the market practically fuzzless, shining, and perfectly blushed from pink to red.

In various wash procedures, peaches tumble through circulating water and are gently scrubbed with specially protected brushes to remove the fuzz, enhance their beauty and give you a peach, perfect for out-of-hand eating.

It's a safe prediction that peaches will be around for good eating throughout the summer. In July they will be in very big supply. The Freestone peach crop is reported to be 8 percent higher than last year and 13 percent above the 3-year average, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Peaches you are buying on the market now are coming mainly from Georgia, South Carolina, and California. Marketing specialists of USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service expect the entire crop from the nine peach-producing Southern States to reach a total that will be 41 percent higher than last year's crop.

Something special to do with peaches this season is to slice them into a chicken salad made with chicken, celery, green grapes, and salad dressing. Sliced peaches will add color, goodness, and taste. For a summer-treat dessert, try a peach parfait. Cut peaches in chunks, slice them, or puree them...add them to puddings, sherbets, or ice cream. When dealing with peaches, your menus are limited only by your imagination.

When baking peach pies or cakes, there is no need to peel them sliced to a chicken salad. You will save your own time and the peach's flavor.

A pound of peaches equals 3-medium sized peaches. They will turn yield 2 cups sliced, 1 cup pulp, or just a shade under a pint of frozen or canned peaches. To keep freshly sliced peaches from turning dark, and if too much time will elapse before serving, dip the slices in orange juice or sprinkle them with lemon juice.

Beef Herd Management Tips

Beef farmers in the county should keep a careful watch for Pinkeye and Bracken fern poisoning. Controlling flies will help control the spread of Pinkeye as well as many other diseases. You can help control flies with back rubbers, dust bags or spray. Clipping grazed-over pastures to reduce coarse grasses that irritate cattle's eyes. Treat Pinkeye by injecting 1 cc of antibiotic in each eyelid and shut out irritating sunlight by gluing a patch over the eye with backing cement or by putting the animal in dark quarters.

If it looks like pastures will run out in late summer, get ready to provide emergency feed such as leasing your neighbors' idle pasture or start feeding hay. Start supplemental feeding before your pastures are gone so far as to extend grazing as long as possible.

Get ready to establish new seedlings on old run-out fields. The ideal time is late July here in the U.P. Consider a legume when selecting mixes to reseed.

Calves born after May 15, don't do as well in summer heat and have lighter weaning weights. Stop breeding cows after Aug. 3 to avoid late calves.

Farm Safety Week

More than 5,000 persons were killed and 50,000 were maimed by farm accidents last year. Half those deaths and 22 percent of the injuries involved farm machinery - a quarter were related to tractor operation.

National Farm Safety Week, July 25-31, is a good time to start year-long safety practices to prevent accidents on your farm. "Tractors don't think for themselves. You can have all the top-of-the-line equipment and machinery, but safety still depends on human operators."

Riders on farm machinery are a common cause of accidents. If another person is needed to accomplish certain jobs, try to find another means of transportation for the extra worker.

Under new federal Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) regulations, after Oct. 25, 1976, no farm employees will be allowed to be an extra rider, except for instructional or training purposes.

Equipment operators should follow some basic rules. The operator must always know where other people are standing and tell them to stand clear when starting machinery. Other near equipment must be aware of the direction of possible thrown objects from a machine. Another person is helping to hitch an implement to a machine, make sure the engine is turned off and the parking brake set.

'Out Our Way'

News from Road 437

Hi Folks,

After some of July's hot days and sultry nights, Sunday we got a touch of fall, as the wind blew in from the north a bit cool. We have had some rain, but can use more, if we are to have good berry picking. Weather doesn't stop the wild flowers from blooming along the wayside and forest. At this time the wild flower display comes in colors of blue, yellow, orange, scarlet, and white. To the roadside the fireweed has added the color of bright purple has the Joe-pye weed, with its florets all rayless, dull pink. In blue the Varies-leaf Bluebell grows to 6 or 18 inches high. In shady wet areas, along streams you can find the Touch-Me-Not, the spotted blossom hangs like a pendant jewel, succulent stems exude juice, when broken. The seedpod, when ripe will pop a touch. In sandy soil the wood lily grows with the brilliant orange to scarlet, with upward-facing blossoms which add quite a beauty to the wild flower show. In the shady area of the forest you can come across the Indian Pipe, the translucent pipes are unique. The nodding flower is a white or very pale pink, that later turns blackish. Leaves are scale-like. If one stops to think you really find magic in the wild flowers. They never get any special attention that is given the cultivated flowers. Yet they grow everywhere. They seem to wait for the morning sunrise to lift up their heads by its warmth. Wild flowers have a beauty and color, including sweet fragrance it is hard to describe. Wild flowers are a gracious gift of God, if we could all but live according to these words of Lorado Taft, "We are living in a world of beauty, but few of us open our eyes to see it. What a different color, including sweet fragrance it is hard to describe. Take a bud with a flower tucked inside, just waiting for Mother Nature to touch it in blue, pink, or whatever color she desires it to be, and call it her wild flower. Wild flowers they are, as they are free and gay as can be. Wild flowers are a gracious gift of God, if we could all but live according to these words of Lorado Taft, "We are living in a world of beauty, but few of us open our eyes to see it! What a different place this world would be if our senses were trained to see and hear!"

The past week Mr. and Mrs. Frank Savers and Mr. and Mrs. Homer of Orono, Ont. enjoyed several days at their cabin at Blaze Trail.

Agatha Prantner of Milwaukee is vacationing at her cabin on Thunder Lake. Esther White and granddaughter Gayle Olsen of Dearborn, are spending the summer at Mrs. White's cabin.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Paczkowski, son Arthur and nephew Joe Paczkowski of Troy spent two weeks vacationing at their cabin on Thunder Lake Sunday afternoon they had a cook-out. Their guests were the James Hardy family and the Boss and I. Mr. Hardy prepared the fish soup and the ladies took over the grilling of hamburgers. Our two granddaughters Julie and Mary Jo of New Berlin who are staying with us were also among the guests as was Mr. Alan Desjarjen and two of his children.

Our guests for the 4th of July weekend were our daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Werner Stuebig, children Jeff, Julie, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hurska of Detroit, and Mrs. Werner Stuebig, children Jeff, Julie, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter of New Berlin Wisconsin. On Monday I joined them to make the Toonerville Trolley and boat trip to Tahquamenon Falls. This was an exciting trip for the children, and it was enjoyed by all. On Sunday the Vern Annelin and James Hardy joined us for a cook-out; it was a family get-together. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Nelson of Manistique stopped by to visit us.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Underwood of Murphy Lake entertained some lower peninsula relatives and guests. Her brother, Clayton Giegler of Mio, his daughter Mrs. Marvin Hawkins and husband of Clarkston and their friends Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kyle of Pontiac, enjoyed fishing off the pontoon and sight seeing. Mr. Underwood prepared a delicious trout dinner. Everyone got plenty of rest and fresh air and hated to have their lovely vacation come to an end.

With the summer breezes come the echoes of birthday greetings to Capt. Henry R. Peterson, Mary Weigandt, Margie Popich, Blandis Morden, Richard Stoor, Jack Williams, Dick Burger, Leo Foye, Dolly Peterson, Charles Ramsden, Frank Grogan, Ray (Dude) Ranguette, Irma Brown, LaVeta Coe, Jerry Sleeper, Marie Reid, Amy Hoester. Anniversary wishes go out to the Gary Lesters, Allen Dale Nelson, Mike Mardens, Richard Demars, Norm Jahns Jr. and Don Shackle. May the day for all of you be one of complete happiness. Hope you all enjoyed the 4th of July celebrations and reversed a ruling of a referee which had allowed benefits.

Even if a school employee has no contract for the next academic year, the Michigan Employment Security Act prevents unemployment payments, chargeable to the school district, during the summer recess, the Appeal Board ruled.

Therefore, unemployment benefits may be allowed during the summer recess only if an employee was laid off at least seven calendar days before the end of the term or if the employee would normally have worked during the summer recess period.

No unemployment for teachers

However, school employees who worked for someone other than a school district in the year prior to filing for benefits, may be eligible for unemployment benefits during a recess period, Damitz added.

The Michigan Employment Security Commission will continue to accept claims by school employees, but they will be handled under the terms of the Appeal Board ruling.

There once was a man from hell who went to see Dr. Sell. He had a silver inside his liver and Dr. Sell made him well - Limerick by Carol Schwartz, grade 5, Lakeside.

Most school employees who are laid off will not be eligible for unemployment benefits during the school summer recess if they worked or could have worked until the semester break, the Michigan Employment Security Commission Appeal Board has decided.

Jim Damitz, local branch manager pointed out that the Appeal Board had upheld a ruling of the Michigan Employment Security Commission and reversed a ruling of a referee which had allowed benefits.

Even if a school employee has no contract for the next academic year, the Michigan Employment Security Act prevents unemployment payments, chargeable to the school district, during the summer recess, the Appeal Board ruled.

If It Fitz
Pensively pomographic
by Jim Fitzgerald

My wife wondered why I spent the afternoon in downtown Highland Park, scratching my forehead and fingering my jaw.

I explained that I was doing pornography research for an organization called Keepers of Community Morals (KCM). This required that I flip pages in a shop that sold audio-orgy magazines and attend a movie in which the actors had substituted oral sex for shaking hands.

Naturally, I didn't want to be recognized going into a dirty peep show in broad daylight. I must protect my reputation as one of Detroit's most respected night perverts. So I continually squeezed my nose pensively, or stroked my chin wisely. This is a lot cheaper than plastic surgery and a forged passport.

I paid $4 to see "Passions of Carol" at the Krim Theatre. It is a parody on Dickens' "A Christmas Carol," with an acrobat named Carol Scroove doing all sorts of spooky things with Marley's Ghost.

When hand touched my shoulder, I was afraid Mayor Jesse Miller was riding the place. But it was the man sitting behind me, with a question.

"Why don't they just shake hands?" he asked.

I asked him why he was asking me.

"Because you look so pensive and wise," he said.

I got up and went next door to the Uppoon Book Store. I headed straight for the dirty section and the man behind the counter boldered for me to come back. He figured I was not to partake of my wife and I, and began to wonder if maybe I should rub my nose less intelligently. I could switch my brow vigorously, or even pick my nose crudely.

But the guy didn't want advice. He wanted to go cents. It costs that much to browse in the sex department, even if you don't buy anything I paid him one honest, every careful not to drop my disguise completely.

It is difficult to decide upon a purchase from the hundreds of colorful magazines sold at the Uppoon. It is difficult because the same two or three people are on all the covers. These people all like to get a lot of sun from unusual angles. And they don't shake hands much, either.

One wall of magazines is for homosexuals. While browsing there, I rubbed my nose with both shoulders at the same time.

The KCM asked me to investigate Highland Park's porno strip and then make a recommendation to the organization's awards committee. This is the committee which annually awards a Michigan city the Golden Chastity Bell, more commonly known as the Stork, for best suppression of sex and skin. Highland Park has been nominated because of Mayor Miller's current war on snut.

This wasn't my first assignment for the KCM. In 1974 I investigated the tiny town of Almont, 60 miles north of Detroit, where schoolteachers had arranged for students to see Franco Zeffirelli's production of "Romeo and Juliet" written by some guy named Shakespeare.

Fortunately, a Baptist minister led the town in time. Although the movie was on Juliet's breast, which was starkly bared in one scene.

The school board quickly overruled teachers, and the students were spared traumatic experiences of learning that perhaps Romeo and Juliet got snut before they went to bed.

My investigation was instrumental in Almont's winning a Stork that year. Will Highland Park win this year? I ask me. I just investigate and report the best of my ability. The decision must be made by KCM. I'm just a hinding tool, even being to the organization.

I tried to join once, but I was blackballed. After tight questioning membership committee ruled that the reason I wanted to keep other people's morias was because I didn't have a wife.

Onward and upward, pensively and wisely.

If the mayor succeeds, his city could be winner. But first the committee must make certain that Highland Park's pornography is worthy of a stork.

You can't earn the award by making pain over 12 letter words on John. It has to be really, really heroic. Just as jerking curbs to run over someone was my job to make certain that Mayor Miller is battling real dirt, not just a stork coat of film.

Aid to crime victims is not a solution

Financial aid to victims of crime could be astronomical. The House has approved a measure which would provide aid to victims of a crime, or persons who would provide aid to a crime. The measure was returned to the Senate, where it originated, for their concurrence in several amendments. With no way of telling for sure, the cost of even this limited coverage for just the first year is estimated at roughly $1.5 million.

The compensation is supposed to aid only victims or those who intervened who have no other assets to cover medical expenses, lost wages or lost support.

One amendment was approved on the House floor, which is nice in theory, but simply not practical. It would allow the state to compensate a crime victim, then turn around and try to collect the money from the committee of the crime, once he or she is convicted. That sounds nice, after all it wasn't the state that committed the crime. We don't think, in reality, too many criminals are going to be in a financial position to reimburse the state for this expense, especially if we have them locked up in prison.

Claims filed under the legislation would be made to a three-member Crimes Victims Compensation Board appointed by the Governor with the approval of the Senate. A victim, intervener, surviving spouse, child or dependent could file a claim.

If the board finds that a crime was committed and the claimant met other requirements, such as filing the claim within 30 days, then an award could be made which is limited to actual out-of-pocket costs for medical services, lost wages or loss of earnings or support to a total of $15,000. However, awards based on loss of earnings or support could not exceed $100 a week. Any award made would be reduced if other sources of compensation existed.

While this is a nice bill and will probably help a deserving segment of society, it isn't going to solve the source of the problem, that of crime. It's going to solve the source of the problem, that of crime. It's going to cost millions of tax dollars a year to implement a bill that solves nothing.

Clean-up man!

As for the D.P.S. now being on a party (as far as a wage scale goes) with other cities, this is no more than right. This is one of the first proposals we had on our agenda when we went to the bargaining table. We asked for a wage adjustment to put us on a parity with other cities of comparable size. They gave us a big "NO," and wouldn't even discuss it. Their excuse was, the City was in a very bad financial pinch at this time and it was completely out of the question.

I investigated extensively to compare our wage scale to cities of comparable size. Out of the five checked into, I found we were .30 cents a dollar per hour behind them. We have fallen so far behind the cost of living, we will never catch up. We would have to guess that everyone among the D.P.W. employees at this time. Every dog has his day, we'll wait.

Spirit should live on

By Frank Senger

Birthdays come and go, but it will be sometime before anyone will again witness a celebration that could match the 200th birthday party our country enjoyed last past weekend.

Our birthday party was uniquely American with participation in the biggest of coverage was extensive and allowed Americans from every part of the country to share in each other celebrating.

I would have to guess that the bicentennial celebration and the television coverage on the 4th of July had a unifying effect on most Americans. Rarely have we been so aware of our heritage or as proud of the revolutionary spirit that created this country.

If you can remember a few years ago when the American Revolutionary Bicentennial Commission was created there was considerable doubt that much of a celebration would take place to mark our 200th birthday. It was left to the individual states and then the communities within those states to decide how they would mark the bicentennial. Some of the events and activities were pretty far out, but I think maybe that added rather than detracted from the character of the bicentennial. It would have been bad if we would have ended up with an homogenized observance with little to distinguish one community's celebration from another.

The 4th of July celebration was but one of many bicentennial events that had been scheduled throughout the year in Schoolcraft County. The year is only half over and there are still many things to come that will help us observe our nation's bicentennial. While the bicentennial celebration will end with year 1976, the spirit created can and should live on for many years.

FPC to triple natural gas prices

by Jack Anderson With Joe Spear

WASHINGTON—The public can look forward to skyrocketing utility bills next winter. The Federal Power Commission (FPC) has secretly decided to allow the gas companies to triple the price of their product.

The commission fixes the rates that consumers pay for natural gas. The price at the wellhead is now about 58 cents per thousand cubic feet. The FPC intends to raise this to about $1.80 per thousand cubic feet. The FPC intends to raise this to about $1.50 per thousand cubic feet. Translated, this means the national utility bill will show up an estimated $2 billion next year.

Last winter, Congress rejected the gas industry's drive to deregulate prices. So the gas company executives went behind Capitol Hill and appealed directly to the Federal Power Commission.

The commissioners hadn't planned to announce the price rise until Congress closes down for the political conventions. But this is a $23 billion cat that should be let out of the bag.

Key congressmen, meanwhile, are furious with the gas industry for going behind their backs to the FPC. At least two powerful congressmen, John Moss of California and John Dingell of Michigan, will try to stop the increase.

Spokesmen for the gas companies said higher prices are necessary to finance the development of more gas. They also contended that natural gas should be priced competitively with other fuels such as oil and coal.

About two years ago, these same companies were producing plenty of natural gas for about 20 cents per thousand cubic feet. Now they're getting triple that price, or about 58 cents. Yet they claim they need to triple it again to more than $1.50.

And the Federal Power Commission, which is supposed to protect the public, is going along with them.

Court Briefs: The Supreme Court has outlawed separate-but-equal dining facilities for the public. But the court has quietly set aside a private dining room for its law clerks.

The justices, it seems, don't like their law clerks eating in the public cafeteria. The justices fear a loose-lipped clerk might, D.C. they passed a resolution calling on all prostitutes to boycott the crew of the Esmeralda.

Sign of Distinction: In the federal establishment, status symbols are held sacred by the stuffed shirts whose standing is determined in exciting detail by this office's agency, cut plumes, its furniture display and limousine service. They are known, too, by their dining, parking, washroom and elevator privileges.

At the Federal Energy Administration, the boss is distinguished from his deputy by the wording of his letters. Administration, D.C. they passed a resolution calling on all prostitutes to boycott the crew of the Esmeralda.

A spokesman duly acknowledged that a separate dining room has been provided for the clerks, that the public is not allowed to eat there and that the purpose is to prevent the disclosure of court secrets. But the spokesman insisted that the clerks may still eat in the public cafeteria if they wish.

Chief Justice Warren Burger insists upon being served warm ginger snaps and lemon tea promptly at 10 o'clock every morning that the court is not in session. The tea is served by Burger's manservant on an elegant silver tray. Occasionally, the chief justice also likes to sip a little wine. His manservant brings five different wine glasses for Burger to choose from.

Earlier this year, some stern memos dealing with the dutiful demeanor of Supreme Court messengers disappeared mysteriously from a bulletin board.

The case of the missing memos was turned over to the court's private police force, headed by chief Alfred Wong. He shrewdly retrieved several crumpled memos from the trash bins. He was later observed taking fingerprints off one of the memos—Dick Tracy style. Then one of the messengers, Thomas West, was called in for repeated interrogations. On his final visit, he was told accusingly that two incriminating prints, matching those of his middle and index fingers, were found on a memo.

One more Supreme Court secret. The chief justice has a fondness for old furniture. Each year, he instructs the court to purchase $300 to $400 worth of old furniture. He usually shops for the furniture himself, touring the antique shops in nearby Georgetown. This classic American furniture, he believes adds dignity to the Supreme Court Operation National Sales. Several weeks ago, we broke the story that Chile's military dictatorship had sent a torture ship to participate in the U.S. Bicentennial. The ship, the Esmeralda, was a massive seagoing salute in New York Harbor. It is a sorry ironic, we reported on June 10, that this ship of horrors appeared in honor of America's freedom.

After our story appeared, protests were organized in New York and Baltimore. The Keppert, N.J., Yacht Club hosted the Esmeralda's crew, but the city council boycotted the affair.

In Washington, the city council protested that houses the antique fire engine. This will be set up as a permanent exhibit of educational and cultural interest and maintained by the Schoolcraft County Historical Society.

Sounds like a good idea, doesn't it? Well, this good idea is going to need a lot of help before it becomes a reality. Fill for the side is coming from the tearing down of the old High School, but a bulldozer is necessary for the private individual to underwrite the cost of the dozer and operator. This will soon become impossible to continue.

We worked so well together to make a memorable Fourth of July parade that we have today and gone tomorrow, can't we work together to make a park that will be a lasting asset to our community? Contribution can be given or sent to Pete Wilder, Treas. of Hist. Society, and when the site is finished, volunteer labor will be needed to landscape it and work on the building. If you can help, contact the Hist. Society, P.O. Box 284.

If we work together...the destruction of the old High School can become the beginning of a beautiful new park. Will you help?

Dear Editor:

I am writing in regard to the article on the front page of the July 8th edition of the Tribune concerning the contract settlement between the City and the Department of Public Safety.

First, I am not blaming the D.P.S., on the contrary, they deserve what they gained in their contract. We members of the Department of Public Works also agreed a contract with the city, just about two weeks prior to this, but we were hit below the belt in comparison.

The first time, the City has their own attorney and they utilized his services to negotiate the contract and settlement with D.P.S. When we had to go to the negotiating table, they couldn't see fit to use their own attorney, but went to the expense ($50.00 per hour) of hiring a law firm from Escanaba to go against us. I have no idea what his bill was, but I bet it was a pretty penny. The City attorney is already paid a salary to perform this service.

United Methodist Church news

Pastor-Parish Relations Committee Tuesday evening, July 6, with Dorothy William Geeseman, Dorothy Hensley, and Doris Hubble present. Following devotions by the Reverend Peterin, there was a discussion of specific purposes of the committee. Reverend Peterin asked that continuing mission time be defined to avoid possible misunderstanding. The responsibility of this committee, in consultation with the pastor to fill the pulpits in the pastorate was covered. The topic of training education elicited Reverend Peterin's need to select a director for his program which would most fully fulfill the needs of the entire congregation.

The July meeting of the United Methodist Women was a potluck luncheon enjoyed by 23 members at the home of Mrs. Frances Bear on July 7. For this occasion, the regular business meeting was omitted. The Reverend Michael Peterin led brief devotions and Janice Prater reported on her experiences at the School of Missions in Adrian last month. The August meeting will again be a potluck luncheon, at Mrs. Frances Hoar's summer home on Murphy Lake.

The July 8 meeting of the Administrative Board was called to order by Chairman Jack Phillips with Lucille Archey. Guest ministers, John Hendricks, Frank Matthews, Margaret Mueller, William Mueller, Mary Prater, and Raymond Scott present. Following the reading of the minutes, William Mueller reported on the Trustees' findings of the most urgently needed repairs for the rental house. Long range plans for the rental property and how maintenance expenses might be met were discussed. John Hendricks and Frank Matthews were appointed to meet with the Future Planning Committee of the Board of Trustees. With stress given to the need for contributions to the Improvement Fund to meet maintenance requirements, the meeting ended with a benediction by the Reverend Peterin.

Lightning flashes across the sky. Thunder unlooses its continuous rumbling. The first spatter of rain falls briskly on a nearby row of rocks. The wind begins an eerie song high above in the swaying tops of tall pines. Sullen banks of clouds blanket the pale moon.

The creatures of the woods scurry to their dens to wait out the approaching storm. Every living thing in the forest seems to be holding its breath . . . in anticipation . . . or in fear.

And this is the way of the world. There will always be beauty . . . always fear . . . even in the heart of man.

And where does man go for refuge? To what or to whom does he look for comfort and aid?

For centuries the Church has offered him protection against the adversities of life. It even offers him miracles. Certainly it promises solace and peace when grief and fear beset him.

Come to the House of the Lord . . . while the storm is raging . . . and forever thereafter.

Feeding and Watering

Most house plants that die succumb to overwatering and the second most deadly killer is overfeeding. Remember that most plants prefer a soil that dries out a bit between watering, for this allows vital air to get into the soil. Plants that get too much nourishment suffer from a kind of vegetable-kingdom indigestion. If in doubt, don't feed. Most foliage plants should not be fed for four to six months after being received from a florist, then should be fed at four- to six-month intervals. Too frequent fertilization builds up strong chemicals in the soil that actually burn the roots.

OFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS

Board of Commissioners

A regular monthly Board meeting of the Schoolcraft County Board of Commissioners was held on Tuesday, June 15th, 1976, at the Municipal Building, North Maple Avenue, Manistiquette, Michigan, commencing at 7:00 o'clock P.M., E.D. S.T.

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman Ernest S. Hoholik. The roll was called and noted as follows: Present were: Mervin White, William J. Veskak, Paul Hollenbeck, Earl LeBrasseur, William Tennyson, LeRoy Belick, and Ernest Hoholik.

Absent: None Also present was Prosecuting Attorney Gifford D. Smith. It was moved by LeRoy Belick, supported by Earl LeBrasseur, that the minutes of the May 1976 meeting of the Board, as published in the Manistique Pioneer Tribune, a copy of which was furnished each Board Member present, be accepted as published. Motion carried by unanimous Aye Vote.

It was moved by Earl LeBrasseur, supported by LeRoy Belick, that Peter Derber of Gulliver, Michigan, and Terry Cross of Steuben, Michigan, be appointed to membership of the Schoolcraft County Planning and Zoning Commission for a term of three years, ending, June 30th, 1979. Motion carried by unanimous Aye Vote.

Shirley Lloyd E. Gray, appeared to explain his arrangement and plans with the U.S. Forest Service in re: his sheriff patrol duty during the week-ends (Saturdays and Sundays) at Federal Camp Grounds, and Camping Sites. He reported that the County grossed $200.00 in the services rendered during FY-1975, and that this was based on a 12 cent per mile travel allowance. He reported that the deputies who used the County vehicle in the patrol, were paid directly by the U.S. Forest Service, and not by the County; that they were paid only for the day, and that he did not know who would be liable should any of the deputies be injured in line of duty while on this patrol.

The Prosecuting Attorney Gifford D. Smith, said he thought that if such a situation would arise, that it is likely that the responsibility would be the responsibility with the County of Schoolcraft and the U.S. Forest Service. The Board requested that the Prosecuting Attorney research this matter, and submit a written report to the Board on this matter and a copy of any agreement between the Sheriff, and the U.S. Forest Service, for the July 1976 meeting of this Board.

It was moved by William Tennyson, supported by Mervin White, that the following two (2) resolutions be adopted setting the legal lake level for Driggs Lake, Seney Township, Schoolcraft County, Michigan, be adopted: Motion carried by unanimous Aye Vote.

RESOLUTION WHEREAS, this Board of Commissioners has received a petition from the littoral owners of the lands bordering on Driggs Lake, Seney Township, Schoolcraft County, Michigan requesting that the level of said Lake be determined; and

WHEREAS, the expense of a proceeding to determine the normal height and water level of any public inland lake, the expense of constructing and maintaining any dam on such a lake together with the costs and expense of acquiring any lands or other property condemned as necessary thereto may be assessed and collected from the taxable property in a special assessment district which would consist of all of the lands to be benefited by the lake level project under the provisions of MSA 11.300 (19), CL '48 281.79, and

WHEREAS, under the provisions of MSA 11.300 (9), CL '48 281.65 of the Department of Natural Resources may be, or instructed by resolution of the Board of Commissioners, required to establish a special assessment district including all parcels of land and political sub-divisions, including lands owned by the Department of Natural Resources, which are benefited by the establishment of a lake level for the purpose of taxing all costs in connection with the lake level proceeding and any lake level establishment project.

NOW, therefore, be it resolved that the Department of Natural Resources be required to establish a special assessment district consisting of all of the parcels of land and political sub-divisions, including each parcel of land owned by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, which are benefited by the establishment of a lake level for Driggs Lake for the purpose of taxing the costs of the project proceeding to determine the normal lake level for Driggs Lake, the expense of constructing and maintaining any dam on Driggs Lake, which might be constructed in connection with the lake level project, and the costs and expense of acquiring land and other property by condemnation necessary for the construction of any dam in connection with the lake level project.

Dated: June 15, 1976. I Ferdinand Lesica, Schoolcraft County Clerk, hereby certify that this is a true copy of a resolution.

Ferdinand Lesica WHEREAS, this Board of Commissioners has received a petition from certain littoral owners of lands bordering on Driggs Lake, Seney Township, Schoolcraft County, Michigan, requesting that the level of said lake be determined; and

WHEREAS, this Board of Commissioners has, on its own motion, deemed it expedient to have determined and established the normal height and level of the waters of Driggs Lake, in Seney Township, Schoolcraft County, Michigan, for the purpose of promoting the public health, safety and the conservation of the natural resources of this state, and NOW THEREFORE, Be It Resolved that Gifford D. Smith, Prosecuting Attorney for the County of Schoolcraft, be, and he hereby is, instructed to institute appropriate action in the Circuit Court for the County of Schoolcraft for the purpose of having the level of Driggs Lake determined according to the statutes in such case made and provided.

Dated: June 16, 1976. I Ferdinand Lesica, County Clerk for Schoolcraft County, Michigan, hereby certify that the above is a true copy of a resolution passed unanimously by the Schoolcraft County Board of Commissioners at their regular monthly meeting on June 15, 1976.

ERDINAND LESICA, Schoolcraft County Clerk

Eileen Males, Senior Citizen's Director, appeared before the Board requesting that the County assume the cost-liability for the amortized charges for retirement of one of its employees, who for one month she was employed by the County, but not covered under the retirement plan. She stated that she was willing to contribute her share of the retirement, if the County would assume its share of the plan. After considerable discussion, which no one was sure of the exact cost to the County, the matter was referred to the finance committee for investigation, study, and recommendation.

Silverstov Louis, of RFD 1, Manistique, Michigan, appeared rendering a complaint for failure of dog-control in his area. He stated that he and his neighbors continue to roam his dogs; that for over 100 years he has been trying to get someone or some agency to take action to have said dogs secured. He contacted the Dog-Warden through the Sheriff's Department, the Prosecuting Attorney, State Police, and members of the Township Board as well as members of his Board, and no action has been taken. He stated that he was informed that one way to take care of the situation was to shoot the dog, this he done, and only wounded it, and for this he was cited by the police. He asked what he was to do now; and the prosecuting attorney said, "I guess you're just stuck."

The Prosecuting Attorney defended his position, stating he was not taking sides, as it appears to him that this is a neighbor's feud; that there are two sides to this story, and that he would not initiate any action as long as no one is injured. The matter was referred to the Sheriff Department-Dog Control Section for further investigation, and enforcement of any violations are being committed by either parties involved.

County Treasurer, William E. Cowman, presented his monthly report of "County Finances" and the status of various funds and accounts, after five (5) months of FY-76. Thereupon it was moved by Earl LeBrasseur, supported by LeRoy Belick, that the Treasurer's report be accepted. Motion carried by unanimous Aye Vote.

The Chairman read a letter from the Probate Judge, John Pater, citing the need for a supplemental appropriation to the Child Care fund of $6,000.00; this being the Judges estimate of amount needed to fund the program the remainder of FY-76 for said purposes. It was noted that this is the result of action by the State Department of Public Health, charging the County for patients in various State Institutions previously paid for by State Fundings, now being charged back to the County of residence of the patients. This was referred to the Finance Committee for study and recommendation.

Eileen Males, Senior Citizen's Director appeared asking for a $2,000.00 supplemental appropriation, to cover local contribution in the funding of the Senior Citizen's Center program. She reported that this is the first time that the local contribution funding showed a deficit; that this again was due to the cut-back by the State in paying their full share and diverting more and more of the cost to local government to pay. This matter was also referred to the Finance Committee for study and recommendation.

Commissioner Paul Hollenbeck reported that the Medical Care Facility is progressing ahead of schedule, that the patient quarters should be ready for occupancy by the later part of July, that furniture for same should be here by July 1st. He reported that construction has begun on the chapel, that there is a possibility of some delay on delivery of the necessary steel, but that the tentative completion date is still October 1st, 1976.

Commissioner William Tennyson reported that for the month of May that 48 construction permits were issued by the Construction Code Administrator, G.E. Ignace, amounting to a construction cost of $533,000.00, and that these permits grossed the County in fees: $2,145.50. He reported that the cooperation between the Contractors and the Code Administrator is very good.

Commissioner Mervin White reported on the June 7th, 1976 meeting of the 4-County Health Board at Munising, Michigan. Matters discussed were: a.) Flu Vaccination this summer, with eight (8) teams to work the 4-County Area. b.) Working on program to co-ordinate the substance abuse agencies down to three (3) for the entire U.P., from five (5). c.) Discuss the operation of a "Half-Way-House" for alcoholics at Munising, capacity of eight (8) with the average confinement being six (6). d.) Discussion on Home Health Program, which was first tried in Schoolcraft County, proved successful now being provided in all 4-Counties, and proving as successful in all counties. Much of this service is charged to "Medi-Care".

Commissioner LeRoy Belick reported on the 1976 Summer College Student Program will commence Monday, June 21st, 1976 with 18 jobs allocated to Schoolcraft County, this to be an 8 week program. He stated that it was discussed at the last meeting that it is possible a portion of Title II, CETA Program may be revised after July 1, 1976 with more specific information now being provided in all 4-Counties, and proving as successful in all counties. Much of this service is charged to "Medi-Care".

Commissioner LeRoy Belick reported on the County House Construction, noting that it is 75 percent completed; that it is anticipated that the cornerstone could be laid anytime after August 15th, 1976, but that final plans for the dedication have not been worked out, and that the dedication

A letter from Alfred J. Cavia, president of the County Building Authority, suggests that if the rental space in the new County House Building was contracted for, that now is the time to have the partitions placed, and this could be done to accommodate the renters; otherwise this area will be finished off as one large open space, with subdivision having to be done later.

Chairman Ernest S. Hoholik reported on his attendance along with DSS, director, Douglas Kraatz, on the new program, of Juvenile Justice Service. He reported that each County will be allocated $10,000.00 for this program, and if two Counties join in the program, that an addition June 24th, 1976, a meeting will be held with representatives of the State of Michigan to discuss setting up a "Half-Way-House" for this purpose. This program is being promoted and co-ordinated by CUPPAD, and will have to be approved by each County Board of Commissioners before it becomes effective.

It was moved by Earl LeBrasseur, supported by Mervin White that the time for commencing County Board meeting during the months of July and August 1976, be changed from 7:00 P.M. to 7:30 P.M. Motion carried by 6 to 1 Aye Vote, with Commissioner Oleask voting Nay.

The Chairman reminded the members of the Board who plan on attending the meeting of the County Board of Commissioners Association on August 12th, thru 14th, 1976, at Mackinac Island, to get their registrations in that he has the necessary forms for registration.

Under A-95 "programming of review and comment", the Chairman read of two projects being submitted for approval by CUPPAD, one of which was the 64 unit Senior Citizen's Housing for Schoolcraft County, Commissioner LeBrasseur, stated that we should comment on this program urging it final adoption, and speedy funding. The other project not affecting Schoolcraft County; no comment was felt necessary.

It was moved by Earl LeBrasseur, supported by Mervin White that the Board adjourn without day. Motion carried. Signed: Ernest S. Hoholik, Chairman Aites: Ferdinand Lesica, Its Clerk this is the stuff THAT HELPS CONSERVE ENERGY (cuts summer cooling costs and winter heating bills)

Here's how you can join the conservation effort. Install adequate ceiling insulation (R-30 Value*) in your home. Why is a well insulated ceiling important? The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) estimates that 7 out of 10 existing homes have inadequate ceiling insulation and many have no ceiling insulation at all. The greatest heat loss (winter) and heat gain (summer) occurs through the ceiling. Insulating an open attic floor is an easy project. A natural for the do-it-yourselfer. No special tools are needed. Insulation is simply laid or poured between the joists. And summertime is a good time to get the job done. Contact a reliable insulation firm, building supplier or call us if you have any questions. Join the conservation effort. Insulate and save.

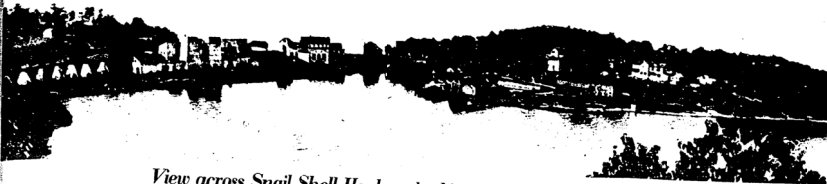

*In homes where "R-30 Value" insulation cannot be installed without extensive remodeling, install the greatest "R-Value" that will fit.

Historic Fayette Townsite

View across Snail Shell Harbor, looking southwest, about 1900

Located in Fayette State Park on the Garden Peninsula, almost 15 miles south of Marquette, is the historic Fayette Townsite. Here, on the shores of Snail Shell Harbor off Big Bay de Noc, visitors may tour and photograph the remains of what was once a profitable iron smelting town owned by the Jackson Iron Company. During the time that the company produced pig iron there, 1887 to 1891,

Fayette was home to nearly 500 people. It was the second largest iron smelting operation in the Upper Peninsula of the nineteenth century and one of the few that was profitable. Not many of its citizens, however, realized those profits individually. The Jackson Iron Company built and owned all of the homes there, as well as the hotel and the boarding house, and regulated necessary establishments such as the general store, meat market, doctor's office and services and so on was deducted from an employee's earnings, leaving him very little savings. When after 24 years of operation, the furnaces were shut down and the company pulled out of town, Fayette was abandoned.

Today the townsite stands much as it did then. Several buildings have been restored and are open to the public. Our tour, and those given at 2 p.m. daily in the park, began at the new Interpretive Museum located just inside the park entrance. The visitor's center is open from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Buildings are open for self-guided tours from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.
