

NEW DPW EQUIPMENT needed to supplement the dump truck and front-end loader shown here may prompt the City Council to ask for 2 mills in additional property tax at the regular city election April 5, DPW Superintendent Mike Fakety said he doesn't have enough equipment for snow removal and other jobs of his department. The recent series of storms in the past two weeks have cost the city $18,000 for snow removal.

City may seek 2 mills for DPW equipment

The City of Manistique may be next in line to ask voters to approve an increase in their property taxes. At Monday's City Council meeting, the possibility was raised of placing a request on the April 5 ballot for a 2-mill increase in property taxes.

he says is needed to bring the department up to snuff. Mayor David Vaughan responded that "the hard part is to find where we're going to get $250,000 in one fell swoop. Over the weekend I was contemplating 2 mills over five years to get the equipment we need," he said.

equipment for the DPW was in 1978, when two three-ton dump trucks were purchased. At that time, Vaughan said, new equipment purchases were scheduled for 1980, but were not made in order to save money.

The $20,000 to $25,000 the additional millage would raise each year would be earmarked to pay for replacement of the city Department of Public Works' aging equipment fleet. The City Council took no action to place the tax-increase request on the ballot at the city election April 5, but will hear a report on the matter at its next meeting Jan. 25.

That still wouldn't be enough to buy all the equipment Fakety wants, but Vaughan directed Fakety and City Manager John Matthews to look into the cost of a lease-purchase arrangement to obtain new equipment. Under such an agreement, the city would be able to apply the cost of leasing equipment towards the price of purchasing it over a period of years.

Specifically, Fakety said the following items were on his shopping list for the DPW: one front end loader for $130,000; a snow blower attachment for the loader at $40,000; two three-ton dump trucks equipped with plows and under body scrapers at $25,000 apiece; two light dump trucks at $15,000 apiece and a highway lawnmower at $10,000 to replace the 1949 model currently used by the city.

At Monday's meeting, DPW Superintendent Mike Fakety appealed to the council to do something about replacement of DPW dump trucks and heavy equipment. Calling the present condition of equipment "a desperate situation," Fakety said "the DPW is in dire need of equipment. I know we have financial problems in the city, but we can't do the work unless we have the tools."

Fakety insisted that new equipment—"from dump trucks to loaders to lawn mowers"—was needed within the next fiscal year. The consequence of further delay would be a long wait for city residents in having their streets plowed after a heavy snowfall. He credited residents this winter with considerable patience, but added "they don't want to be plugged up for two days. Eventually, that's what is going to happen if we don't get more equipment."

Fakety emphasized that the costs, totalling $240,000, were approximate. The City Council will consider placing the millage request on the April ballot after it hears on the possibility of a lease-purchasing agreement at its next meeting. Other items on that ballot will include election of two city council members and a vote on whether to revise the city charter.

With the heavy snowfall recently, Fakety said the DPW's three dump trucks and front-end loader with a snowblower attachment have not been able to keep up with snow removal. The city has contracted with Manistique Rentals to provide three additional trucks and a loader to supplement city equipment at a cost of $125 an hour. $2,000 has been spent on rentals so far this year, Fakety said.

Fakety estimated it would cost about $250,000 to buy the equipment. The last time the city purchased Fakety said the increases were comparable to those received recently by union personnel in the city. Those increases averaged $900 a year plus additional paid holidays. Matthews himself did not receive a pay hike. His salary will be negotiated by July 1, when the city's new fiscal year begins.

Annual evaluation

Bonifas gets good grades from board

Superintendent Richard Bonifas got high marks from the School Board Tuesday during his annual job performance evaluation.

The evaluation by school board members was made in preparation for renegotiating Bonifas' contract for the coming year. Those negotiations will probably take place at the board's next meeting Jan. 26.

Dismissed at the regular time, Bonifas said the plan could cut down on the number of snow cancellation days. The district has averaged 2 1/2 snow days over the past 10 years, but has already logged three this winter.

and the Intermediate School District, had been fighting the reduced assessment since it would reduce the amount of property taxes Blaney Park would generate.

This is the first time the board has made Bonifas' evaluation at an open meeting. In past years, the board went into closed executive session to discuss his performance. The board claimed then that evaluations could be closed to the public at the employee's request if written evaluations were to be discussed. This year, after the Michigan Court of Appeals upheld a decision against a Wayne County school district that held an evaluation of its superintendent in closed session, the local board opted to have the evaluation in a public meeting.

Board Member Bill Bowman praised Bonifas for accepting a greater workload this year after budget cuts eliminated positions and Bonifas absorbed some of the extra responsibility.

Heard from Bonifas at an appeal by the owners of Blaney Park to have its assessment of property value reduced had been dismissed by a judge of the Michigan Tax Tribunal. The school district, in conjunction with the county, Mueller Township Superior College and is currently a resident of Germfask, where she is active in community affairs.

All board members except President Billie Doyle commented on Bonifas' performance and, for the most part, praised him highly. Doyle reserved her comment until the next meeting after she has a chance to tabulate the evaluations of other board members.

for school to start at 10 a.m. on days after snow storms. Bonifas recommended the plan to the board since the only options before its adoption was to attempt to hold a full day of classes or cancel school altogether.

and the Intermediate School District, had been fighting the reduced assessment since it would reduce the amount of property taxes Blaney Park would generate.

Two board members, Jamie Moffat and Lloyd Spencer, did cite Bonifas as "weak" in the area of public relations. Bonifas was criticized publicly by the board earlier this year after the June millage election. That criticism focused on Bonifas' announcement of a greater fund equity in the district's budget that had been discussed earlier.

Chamber awarded grant

A $2,500 grant for the maintenance of snowmobile trails has been awarded to the Manistique Area Chamber of Commerce by the state Department of Natural Resources.

While the climate may leave him cold, Thompson said he finds himself warming to the people here.

Specifically, Pawley said, the money could be used to maintain a trail between motels on U.S.-2 east of town and the Haywire grade snowmobile trail north of Manistique. At an estimated cost of $7 a mile, the grant should be able to pay for weekly grooming of about 32 miles of trails.

Thompson said the original application for the DNR grant asked for enough money to maintain some 60 miles of trails, but added that "I didn't even think we would get this grant." This is the first year the chamber has received money for maintenance of snowmobile trails.

Thompson, a native of Merrillville, Ind., said he found the pace here "pretty frantic," with 80-hour work weeks not uncommon. "One of the reasons we moved up here was to slow down," he noted. His duties at the 157-member Church of the Redeemer here give him more time to spend with his family.

SNOWMOBILERS should be especially cautious when driving on streets outside of Manistique and stay off them completely within the city limits. State law requires that snow machines be driven to the far right on highways. A city ordinance forbids their operation altogether on streets within Manistique.

Money for the grant comes from a portion of the funds collected by the DNR from snowmobile registration fees. A part of that money is set aside to be awarded as grants to counties across the state.

New postmasters named here and at Germfask

New postmasters were appointed last week to the Manistique and Germfask post offices, the Postal Service announced last week.

Postmasters are selected on merit, according to Carlin, based on recommendations by a management selection board, and appointed by the Postmaster General. Appointments are not subject to Senate confirmation.

New Presbyterian minister

Michael Thompson, new minister at the Church of the Redeemer, Presbyterian in Manistique, likes his weather a little warmer than he has found here.

Thompson does have the goal of increasing the enthusiasm of his congregation here.

He finds warmth here despite the weather

Thompson said he finds himself warming to the people here. "There's a strong sense of community pride that I didn't really notice at the last community," he worked in, New Albany, Ind. He was a pastor at the 1,200-member St. Marks United Church of Christ there for four and half years.

Thompson, a native of Merrillville, Ind., said he found the pace here "pretty frantic," with 80-hour work weeks not uncommon. "One of the reasons we moved up here was to slow down," he noted. His duties at the 157-member Church of the Redeemer here give him more time to spend with his family.

NEW PRESBYTERIAN minister, the Rev. Michael W. Thompson, arrived here with his wife Denise and son Mathew Dec. 16.

Thompson does have the goal of increasing the enthusiasm of his congregation here. "The church has a vast amount of people resources. My main goal here is to channel that and get them enthusiastic about the church. I think it's there already—it has surfaced already in many ways in just the few short weeks I have been here," he said.

Four county group will discuss development

Representatives from twenty communities including Manistique have been invited to attend an exploratory meeting in Munising next Saturday, Jan. 16, for the purpose of discussing the possible development of a four-county Human Development Zone.

The meeting will be held at Manistique's Peoples State Bank, in the conference room, from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., announced planning spokesman, the Rev. Les Niemi, pastor of Eden-On-the-Bay Lutheran Church of Manistique. Over seventy persons have been personally invited, but anyone who might be interested is invited, he said.

Those invited represent from their communities the private, public and volunteer sectors. Large turnouts are expected from Newberry, Manistique and Munising. People are also invited from McMillan, Curtis, Gulliver, Engadine, Thompson, Seney, Grand Marais, Germfask, Egan City, Trenary, Chatham, Eben, Deception, Au Train, Christmas, Grand Marais and Shingleton.

The main purpose of the meeting is to discuss organization of a "Human Development Zone." Such a zone would encourage growth in the respective communities on the economic, cultural and political levels, Pastor Niemi stated. Communities in the zone would agree on various projects which could be undertaken, usually on a volunteer basis. The type of activity would depend on the needs of each community.

The exploratory meeting has been arranged by a core group in Manisting which have called themselves the Partnership Conference. Past accomplishments of the partnership program include establishment of two civic groups in Au Train and Christmas, complete redecoration of Manistique's city hall on a voluntary basis, establishment of a Tourism Association, forums for youth and women, group incorporation, cooperation among area churches and community clean-up programs.

More recently, a new industry, U.P. Firewood, went into production early in December, west of Manisting. Another plant, to employ 50, is being planned for next summer in the Industrial Park.

School board discusses yearbook deficit board and set Jan. 30 at 9 a.m. as the time for a special meeting of the board to publicly read more of the policies.

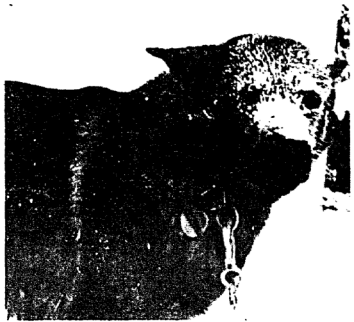

—Approved a modified transportation handbook which will be sent to residents in the school district.

—Discussed a $3,100 deficit remaining from last year's sale of class year books. Principal John Males told the board that the volunteer yearbook advisers this year were not willing to take on the deficit. Doyle directed him to come back at the board's next meeting with recommendations on what to do about the deficit.

Roger Sartori was elected president of the Manistique Merchants Association for 1982 at the association's meeting last week. Other officers elected at the meeting were Sally Ott, vice-president; Delores Youngblood, secretary and Bill McDermott, treasurer.

The outgoing slate of officers will act as the Merchants Association's trustees for 1982. They are Ted Hantschell, John Miller, Marlene Mincoff and Tom Hobolik. Those four along with the current officers will form an Executive Committee for the association.

Also at last week's meeting, the association members discussed the January clearance promotion to be held this Thursday through Friday, Jan. 14-16. Member merchants will be holding January clearance sales, according to Grace Cook, chairperson of the promotion. "January is a month that finds the shopper naturally looking for post-Christmas bargains," she noted, urging members to aid the promotion with special sales.

PUPSICLE: The mercury dipped to 15 below last weekend and this dog was left chained outside to feel the brunt of the strong winds that came across Indian Lake near its

Farmers and fishermen must declare tax early

Individuals engaged in the farming or fishing industries who earned at least two-thirds of their 1980 or 1981 gross income from farming or fishing must make a declaration of estimated tax for 1981 and pay all taxes due by Jan. 18, the Internal Revenue Service says.

However, farmers or fishermen who plan to file their income tax returns for 1981 and pay the total tax by March 1, are not required to make an estimated tax declaration.

The IRS has three publications which explain filing requirements: Publication 225, "Farmer's Tax Guide," Publication 595, "Tax Guide for Commercial Fishermen," and Publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax."

The free publications may be obtained by contacting IRS.

Cedar Village to be renovated

The federal government, according to Matthews, pays the notes that are due from the construction of those projects, but the city is required to approve the contract providing that payment each year.

This year, the contract also included $330,800 for renovation of the Cedar Village low-income housing project on Maple Street.

—Heard Matthews read a complaint from Robin LaCivis about So-line trains blocking the railroad crossings on Houghton Ave. and Deer St. over the maximum legal limit of five minutes. In addition, the lights at the crossing often flash when no train is in sight, Matthews said. He said the Public Safety Department also complained after an ambulance carrying a heart attack victim was held up at the Houghton Ave. crossing for 15 minutes.

Vaughan directed Matthews to contact a So Line representative to express official displeasure over the manufacturing lights and blocked crossings.

—Voted to remove guidelines governing administration of HUD money for rehabilitation of low-income residents' homes. Matthews, who as Community development director for the city administers the HUD money, requested that the guidelines be removed.

After Monday's action, Matthews will determine what income level will be required for eligibility for low-interest loans rather than have those levels fixed by the council. He said the community development director "should have authority" over the process.

—Offered no help to Rudy Esvonich, who had complained at the council's last meeting about a $400 water bill. Esvonich, owner of the Mail Shop, said the bill was run up by the previous owner of the building and should not be added to his property tax bill as delinquent.

At home with Sarah

It seems we always get the "blahs" after the hectic Christmas season and this cold weather is really getting us all down. So let's do something to perk up our spirits. One of the many things you can do is to cook something different and special.

This recipe is something really special: meatloaf that is so pretty to serve and great company fare.

Phyllis Purvin served this on New Year's Eve and for all of you who asked for the recipe, here it is. One recipe will make 6 or 8 slices and if you are cooking for a crowd, it is an easy recipe to make 3 or 4 meatloaves and have ready to be baked when you want them by appearing them ahead of time. Thanks, Phyllis, for sharing with all of us.

Pinwheel Meat Loaf

| 1 pound ground chuck | 6 thin slices dried smoked beef (or dried corned beef) |
| 1 egg | 1 cup shredded Swiss Cheese |
| 1/4 cup chopped onion | 1 jar (2 1/2 oz.) sliced mushrooms, drained |
| 2 tbl. cracker crumbs | 1 can (3/4 oz.) mushroom steak sauce |
| 1 teas. Worcestershire Sauce | |
| 1 teas. salt | |
| 1/4 teas. pepper | |

Combine ground chuck, egg, onion, crumbs, worcestershire, salt, and pepper. Pat out meat mixture on waxed paper into a rectangle about 1/2 inch thick. Lay beef slices atop the meat mixture and sprinkle with cheese. Top with mushrooms. Carefully and tightly roll up jelly roll fashion to enclose center ingredients. Press and close bottom seam. Bake at 350 for 1 hour. Spoon steak sauce over surface and continue baking for 15 minutes. Use steak sauce for gravy.

Sarah says...small splinters can be removed from a child's skin without pain if you rub the spot with an ice cube before removing the splinter. If the splinter is hard to see, rub the spot with mercurochrome (which doesn't sting) and wipe off before it dries. It will leave the splinter colorless.

Don Henson is elected to Allied Artists Society

Local artist Don Henson has been unanimously elected to the prestigious Allied Artists of America, a New York-based society founded in 1914 for the advancement of American art.

Henson, 36, said that Allied Artists is an organization of realist artists across the United States with an exclusive membership of under 150 nationwide. Henson is known for his highly-detailed still-life paintings. Allied Artists is the second oldest such organization in the country, he said.

Membership in the organization, Henson said, is offered by invitation only, after review of a candidate's work. Although Henson has entered paintings in Allied Artists' annual shows since 1976, they were first judged for acceptability by a screening committee or "jury." Membership means Henson's paintings are jury-accepted; they can be automatically entered in the shows-every other year.

Henson, an area resident for 12 years, lives on State Road with his wife Jane.

Census survey to be taken

Local representatives of the Bureau of the Census will conduct a survey of employment in this area during the week of Jan. 18 through 22. Robert G. McWilliam, director of the Bureau's Regional Office in Detroit, announced today.

The survey is conducted for the U.S. Department of Labor in a scientifically designed sample of approximately 71,000 households throughout the United States. Employment and unemployment statistics based on results of this survey are used to provide a continuing measure of the economic health of the Nation.

For example, in November the survey indicated that of the 107.0 million men and women in the civilian labor force, 98.0 million were employed. The jobless rate was 8.4 percent, up from 8.0 percent in October and 7.5 percent in September.

Information supplied by people participating in the survey is kept strictly confidential by law and the results are used only to compile statistical totals.

County Board Reorganization is needed

The County Board took a welcome first step towards reorganization last week when Board Chairman Merwin White decided to consolidate two of the board's committees.

White, newly reelected to a fourth term as chairman of the County Board, said that he was going to combine the personnel and finance committees of the board. The two committees used to be combined, and White said the idea of separating the two a few years back had not worked out. For one thing, the two committees must deal with many of the same issues: negotiation of union contracts is an obvious example. For another, two of the three members on each committee already served on the other.

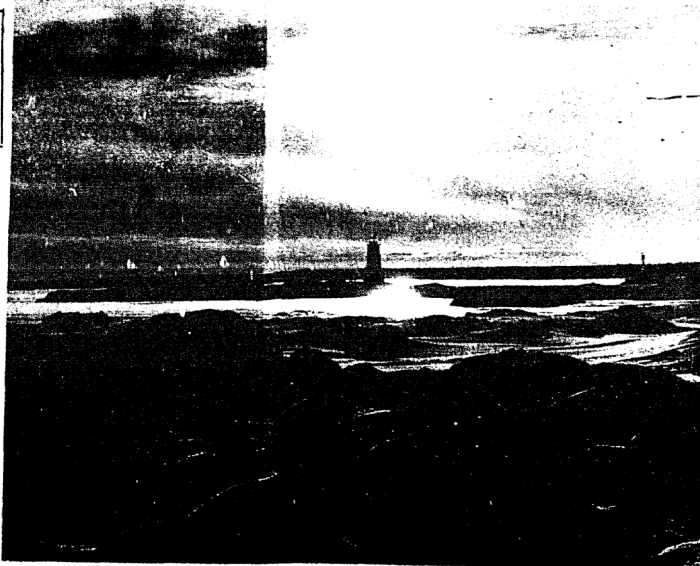

We agree with White's reasons for combining the two groups. We would hope, however, that the consolidation is just the first step in a reorganization of the County Board that is long overdue. Although the board has fourteen committees formed by its members. At least one of those, the highway improvement committee, has occasion to meet rarely if at all. Perhaps that committee could be absorbed by the energy and transportation committee. Another consolidation that occurs to us is one between the hospital and health care and separate committees that deal with the hospital and medical care facility.

Maybe these particular combinations would not be practical. What is needed, however, is some sort of board reorganization. County Clerk Fred Leitch has pointed out on several occasions the need for such a shakeup on the board.

He cited that need in his vote to reduce the size of the board to five members at the recent reappointment commission meetings. That reduction will take place, like it or not, at the beginning of 1983.

The current board could well serve the county by showing foresight and planning for the reduction. Not only would it accomplish a streamlining of the board's operation, it could ease considerably the transition from seven to five members.

Perhaps the answer to all this is the formation of one more committee—a reorganization committee.

Pro business or pro labor? They're one and the same

Dear Editor:

Newspapers across the state recently have been filled with articles, editorials and letters about the sorry state of Michigan's economy, with much of the blame placed on the high cost of our workers' compensation system.

For years, business people have advocated lightening eligibility standards in the work comp system. Now that the Legislature and the Governor are struggling with reform proposals, it is essential that they move beyond partisan politics and deal straightforward with the issue.

During the debate to reach a solution to the work comp problem, there has been a tendency to draw simplistic, but erroneous, battle lines with labor on one side and business on the other. The wrong assumption is often made that if you're pro-business, then you're anti-labor. The truth of the matter is that you don't have to be both at the same time. Michigan job providers exist only if they are profitable and, in many cases, able to compete with firms in other states and nations. To operate profitably and successfully complete is to provide jobs, to be pro-labor.

It doesn't make sense to be pro-labor and anti-business. Because if you're for jobs, you're for business. Jobs are available only when business is successful, profitable and competitive.

Kelly questions Trib's coverage of Varnum

Dear Editor:

I have seen many articles in the Manistique Pioneer-Tribune in the past months, most of them being news stories concerning an incident in Lansing where our State Representative Charles Varnum supposedly attempted to solicit a police officer for prostitution. There are two things about the repetitious appearance of that story that caused me concern.

Firstly, our constitution guarantees "due process" of law to all accused of crime. Quite simply this means that a person is, among other things, entitled to a trial by jury, the presumption of innocence until proven guilty, the opportunity to confront witnesses against him, the right to cross examine his accusers, and the right to testify in his own behalf, or not to testify at all. (In which case his silence is not to be used against him).

Certainly, the readers of this newspaper who have read the articles printed as news stories concerning the incident in question, have probably read to memory the police version of the incident and by now have adopted it as the "true story" of what happened. Representative Varnum has wisely (to do) followed the advice of his attorney) said nothing to the press about the incident. Mr. Varnum is doubtly trusting that his ultimate vindication will come when his case is finally brought to trial and a jury of citizens hears both sides of the story.

Unfortunately for Representative Varnum, if he is vindicated by a jury decision, the likelihood that the press will be as repetitious in their publication of his vindication as they have been of his accusation of wrong doing, is rather unlikely. Although Mr. Varnum will undoubtedly receive due process of law in the Courts, it would not appear that he is receiving due process in the newspapers. I would remind your readers that simply because Chicken Little claimed the sky was falling did not necessarily make it so. Unfortunately, many of the other "chickens" who heard the publication that the sky was falling, believed it simply because it was stated.

I do not mean to say that the press should be circumscribed in their reporting of the news; however, I would question whether or not four or five publications of the same event (one side of the story at that) constitutes "news".

The pre-trial process that Mr. Varnum's case is currently undergoing is nothing unusual. In fact, it is fairly standard in all cases where a criminal violation is charged. The reporting of each breath taken, each motion filed, each hearing held, takes on an unannounced importance when publicized as a major event which has occurred in Mr. Varnum's case. It is unfortunate that lay people generally do not understand this, and hence, can be easily misled.

Secondly, Mr. Varnum is a political figure who can be greatly damaged in his life's work by the innuendo of guilt that cloaks the reporting of the alleged incident occurring in Lansing. It would be inappropriate for the press to ignore the accusation of wrong doing, and in my opinion, equally inappropriate for the press to underscore the allegation by repetitious reporting. If Mr. Varnum is acquitted, as many people feel he will be, his victory will be hollow indeed if the trial is not held before the next election.

In closing, I would hope that all of your readers' minds remain open-minded and understand that Varnum's guilt or innocence is properly a matter for the Court system and not the news media.

We feasted over holidays while millions starved

Dear Editor:

The 1981 holiday season may remind many of us that some things haven't changed. This year, once again, we feasted upon a traditional (and probably lavish) turkey dinner, watched spectacular holiday parades, gathered around the television set to watch myriad football games and fought crowds in search of the perfect gift.

Some things haven't changed in other parts of the world either. This year, as in years past, people have been forced to flee their homelands, find shelter in crowded and unsanitary refugee camps and suffer the debilitating effects of malnutrition and disease.

In the Northeast African nation of Somalia, close to a million people are living in these camps. They are alive today because international relief agencies are providing them with the food, water and medical care they need to survive. But I am concerned about the dependency this assistance tends to create.

remind many of us that it is time for some things to change. It is time to put an end to widespread hunger and to dependence upon daily shipments of food. Some voluntary agencies, such as Save the Children, have taken a giant step in this direction by providing the Somali refugees with the skills and resources they need and want to provide for themselves. Instead of just handing out food, Save the Children is handing out techniques for growing food and for planting seeds, trees and small-plot family gardens.

The holiday season encourages us to share our love with family and friends. This season let's share our love, caring and concern with members of the human family by helping the Somali refugees regain self-sufficiency. Any contribution, no matter how small, can help. Please mail today because international relief agencies are providing them with the food, water and medical care they need to survive. But I am concerned about the dependency this assistance tends to create.

THE MOTHER EARTH NEWS

SIMPLE HOMEMADE TOYS

Here are a few easy-to-make, old-timey toys that can occupy snow-bound little ones long enough for you to catch your breath or finish up the chores. The simple, but effective, spool racer is a good plaything to start out with.

You'll need a large wooden spool if you can find one... plastic just doesn't make it! You'll also need a 1/4-inch dowel or stick 3 inches long, a large bead (bigger than the spool's hole), a strong 4-inch rubber band, and two small nails.

Turn the spool on end and drive the two nails into the wood on opposite sides of its central hole... leaving enough of each nail exposed to hold the rubber band. Wrap the band around the nails, thread it through the cylinder and then through the bead, and slip the dowel through the protruding rubber loop. Then, simply wind the rubber-band motor, place the toy on a smooth surface, and watch it go!

Another plaything, the "come back" can, may be easily constructed if you simply tie a rubber band through holes punched about an inch or two apart in the center of the bottom and lid of a tin can (a plastic-topped coffee can will work just fine). Then knot a short length of string to the middle of the elastic and fasten a fishing sinker, a small stone, or some other weight to the cord. The toy will "boomrang" back to its original position whenever it's rolled.

And, to make Grandma's old-time finger trap, cut a 6" x 12" piece of heavy paper and make two 8" long lengthwise slits, about 2" apart, down the middle. Then, starting at the slitted end, roll the paper into a tube with an inside diameter of approximately one-half inch, glue the joint, let it dry... and tell someone that you want him or her to help you with a "magic trick". Ask your assistant to stick both index fingers into the tube. Then ask him or her to pull them out. And, finally, listen to your victim howl when that proves all but impossible!

Here's just one more... the hammer button. All you need is string, large buttons, and two 3-inch lengths of rounded wood for the handles. Make holes 1 inch from each handle end. Thread the holes in the handles and the buttons with string so the buttons are in the middle... between the two handles. Twist the string tightly, and—when the handles are pulled apart—the buttons will spin and hum.

Emeralds riding 5-game win streak

The Emeralds varsity basketball squad will try to keep a five-game winning streak alive tonight and tomorrow after copping wins at Negaunee and Big Bay last weekend.

Tonight's game at Newberry, postponed from Tuesday, will pit the 5-1 Emeralds against the 3-3 Indians at 8 p.m. On Friday, Manistique will play its first home game of the new year against the Norway Knights, with a 3-4 overall record and 2-3 in Mid-Pen Conference action. Manistique has a 4-1 Mid-Pen record.

Manistique Coach Seb Rubick played down the effect of the win streak on his players, saying his team approaches its schedule "one game at a time." He noted that Newberry, with 6-foot returning senior Jeff Taylor and a pair of 6-2 freshmen in sophomore Steve Haggart and junior Jeff Armeth, could not be dismissed lightly.

Likewise with the Knights, who have one of the biggest players in the Upper Peninsula in the person of 6-7 senior Mark Vivio and two other starters returning from last year, Mike Rehn and Pete Fochesato.

"We're in one of those situations where we have a chance to move up in the rankings and we just have to keep proving it game by game," Rubick said. "Prove it the Emeralds did against Negaunee last Friday, handing the Miners their first loss of the season, 66-44, and boosting Manistique into a tie for second place in the Mid-Pen standings behind 6-0 Iron Mountain. It was the fifth straight defeat of the Miners by Manistique over the last 3 years.

Despite the win, Manistique still did not show up in the statewide Class C rankings released Tuesday. Negaunee "even moved" up two notches, to eighth in the state, with its loss.

Although Rubick didn't think the five-game winning streak by his team would help in providing momentum for later games, he did feel the victory over the Miners gave the Emeralds an important psychological boost.

"I think the game at Negaunee will help—now everyone believes in themselves," Rubick said. "Before, you always kind of wondered if we were going to be decent or not because we lost (the season opener) to Gwin.

"Now that we've got a win over one of the class teams in the U.P., we know we can beat anyone we play. This should help us mentally the rest of the season," he said.

Still, Rubick said he was confident of victory before facing the Miners. "I wouldn't say it was an upset. I knew a lot of observers thought it was an upset, but I didn't think it was. I knew we were as good as they were, if not better. It was just a matter of doing it on the floor."

Rubick's "dynamic duo," guards Ron Burns and Greg Turan, again paced the Emerald scoring attack, pouring in 14 and 20 points apiece. Turan put on what Rubick described as an "amazing shooting performance" in amassing his game-high 20 points. He connected on all seven attempts from the field—only one of those layup—and poured in six of his seven free throws.

Add to that Turan's six rebounds and Burns' five and you have a recipe for the combination of "the best pair of guards in the U.P.," according to Rubick.

The 17th starting guard for the Emeralds, Mike Godlewski, is "awful tough" as well, Rubick said, and had 6 points and six assists against Negaunee.

Manistique jumped ahead 14-8 in the first quarter Friday, but the Miners surged back to tie up the game at the half, 24-24. In the third, the stingy Manistique defense held Negaunee to 12 points, with the Emeralds opening up a 6-point lead they never relinquished. The fourth quarter saw that lead widened as the Miners were outscored 14-8 for the final 12-point margin of victory.

The flexibility Rubick enjoys with his team this year is a deep bench. "I can come in with people off the bench that are as good as the ones on the floor," he said.

Scoring for Manistique were: Turan 20, Burns 14, Godlewski 6, Mike Provov 6, Ken Mills 4, Dan Mickelson 2, Dave Danko 2, Randy Peterson 1.

Score by quarters: Manistique: 14 10 18 14-56
Negaunee: 8 16 12 6-44

On Saturday, the Emeralds traveled to Big Bay de Noc and handed the Black Bears a 69-49 defeat in what Rubick noted was a "close game."

A close 20-point game? "A blow-out 20-point game," he said, "would be a 15-point lead in the first quarter and we played shut the rest of the game."

That wasn't the case Saturday, as Big Bay played the Emeralds even through the first quarter, which ended 11-11. Although Manistique outscored the Black Bears 18-7 in the second, Rubick noted "We were only ahead by 4 or 5 points" towards the end of the half.

In the third stanza, Big Bay pulled within before the Emeralds surged and stretched their lead to 43-32 by the fourth. Both squads played evenly for most of the fourth before the Emeralds pulled away in the last minute of the game, with the Burns coming off the bench, and the Miners led all scorers with 22 points, followed by Godlewski with 12, Turan with 10, Randy Patz and Mills had eight apiece, followed by Corey Miller with four, Mickelson with 3 and Danko with 2.

Mills led the Emeralds with 13 rebounds and Mickelson had four assists and two steals to go along with his 3 points. Turan added 6 assists to his 10 points.

Rubick said he used the game to experiment on defense. "We played a combination of presses and defenses. We experimented with a half-court trap—a regular zone defense starting at midcourt rather than the free-throw line.

For Big Bay, Cory Putvin "was very impressive with work inside and work on the boards," according to Rubick, and had 15 points on the night. Bill Talup led the Black Bears in scoring with 16, followed by Pavin Don LaLonde with 6, Mark Pomeroy with 5, Daren Landis 4 and Roy Annelin 3. The loss left Big Bay with a 6-2 record.

Score by quarters: Manistique: 11 18 16 24-69
Big Bay: 11 7 14 17-49

LEAPING GREG TURAN in action against Big Bay Saturday poured in 10 points to help the Emeralds to their fifth straight victory, 69-49. The

J.V.'s split on weekend

The Manistique J.V. basketball team was involved in two close ball games last weekend. At Negaunee on Friday night, the J.V.'s were defeated 45 to 41, and at Big Bay on Saturday they held on for a 44 to 41 victory. The J.V.'s record now stands at 4 wins and 2 losses.

At Negaunee, the J.V.'s couldn't get going offensively, and a strong comeback at the end fell short. The Emeralds trailed by eleven points late in the 3rd quarter, but managed to cut the lead to 4 points as time ran out.

Dean Bolt led the scoring against Negaunee with 14 points. Other scoring came from Jeff Erickson with 8 points, Steve Calhoun with 5 points, Ken Peterson and Jamie Hider with 4 points each, and Kevin Anderson, Denny McBurney and Dave Reid with 2 points.

At Big Bay on Saturday the Emeralds had to hold off a comeback by the Black Bears to hold on to a 44 to 41 victory. Denny McBurney paced the J.V.'s with 13 points and Jeff Erickson and Ken Peterson added 8 points apiece. Dean Bolt scored 7 points, Jamie Hider added 4, and Steve Calhoun and Kevin Anderson each had 2 points to round out the scoring.

Scott Talup's 15 points was high for Big Bay and Shannon Leckson added 11 points for the J.V. Black Bears.

Emerald wrestlers fall to .500

The Manistique wrestling team fell to .500 on season last Thursday, losing to Negaunee, 49-15.

Despite Zellar's disappointing loss, there were three bright spots for the Emeralds: Larry Leny won on a 9-7 decision at 140 and Dan Lemrind and Bill Zellar won with pins in the 147 and 187 pound weight classes.

The win stopped Zellar's record to 9-0 in the season and he remains the only undefeated wrestler on the squad.

Freshmen win at Negaunee

by Gordon Archer

The Emerald freshmen got back on the winning track last Friday by posting a 66-53 win over Negaunee. After opening the season with a 62-17 win over Westwood the freshmen lost to Munising 49-43 just before the Christmas holiday break.

The freshmen squad will bring its 2-1 record—both in Mid-Pen conference action and overall—against Mid-Peninsula Friday.

Against Negaunee, the freshmen enjoyed balanced scoring, with four starters in double figures. Dave Archer led all scorers with 23 points followed by Ed Clement 15, Jerry Barnis 14, Jim Baumen 10, Craig Neadeu 3, and Mike Hinkson 2.

The Emeralds controlled the boards with a strong performance from center Jim Bauman, who grabbed 19 rebounds. Clement played his best game of the season by bringing down 11 rebounds to go along with his 15 points. Archer sared nine rebounds in addition to his game high of 23 points. Guard Jerry Burns turned in a steady performance, bringing the ball down the court and breaking the Negaunee press. Although they did not dominate the game like they did against Westwood, the Emeralds played together much better as a team against the Miners.

Coach Mike Oas and his freshmen squad will next face the Mid-Peninsula J.V. team Friday afternoon at home in a 4:30 contest and are to play again at home Tuesday afternoon against Gladstone. Game time against the Braves is also 4:30 p.m.

Tony Klarich and Don Quinn finishing second; and Bill Zellar and Dan Lemrind both took first place honors Saturday.

The Emeralds will wrestle their last home match next Wednesday against Ishpeming with action to begin at 7 p.m.

Local boxers win, lose some

The Manistique Boxing Club started off its 1982 season last Saturday at the M.H.S. gym.

Both junior and senior boxers competed in an evening of boxing, which at times had the crowd cheering and stomping their feet.

Two knock-outs were recorded during the evening session, with the Burns coming off the bench, and the Miners led all scorers with 22 points, followed by Godlewski with 12, Turan with 10, Randy Patz and Mills had eight apiece, followed by Corey Miller with four, Mickelson with 3 and Danko with 2.

Mills led the Emeralds with 13 rebounds and Mickelson had four assists and two steals to go along with his 3 points. Turan added 6 assists to his 10 points.

Rubick said he used the game to experiment on defense. "We played a combination of presses and defenses. We experimented with a half-court trap—a regular zone defense starting at midcourt rather than the free-throw line.

For Big Bay, Cory Putvin "was very impressive with work inside and work on the boards," according to Rubick, and had 15 points on the night. Bill Talup led the Black Bears in scoring with 16, followed by Pavin Don LaLonde with 6, Mark Pomeroy with 5, Daren Landis 4 and Roy Annelin 3. The loss left Big Bay with a 6-2 record.

first one coming in the 112 pound class, when Manistique's Marty Novak stopped Frank Nolan of the Soo.

In the last bout of the evening, Manistique's first-year 165 pounder, Tim Zeller, knocked out Escanaba's Ed Thourne in the second round.

Manistique will be traveling to Escanaba this Saturday to participate in the Escanaba home boxing show.

On Feb. 6, Manistique will be hosting the semi-finals for the U.P. Golden Gloves Championships. The finals will be held on Feb. 20, with the winners advancing to Auburnville, Wis., to compete against the North Eastern Wisconsin champs.

The winners from here will proceed to Milwaukee, Wis., to compete for the Wisconsin State Championship.

Here are the results of fights featuring local boxers Saturday:

In the afternoon bouts, Jesse Swanson lost to David Hawkins of Republic; Mark Turan lost to Chris Carello of Marquette; J. Pedrin lost to David Heman of Munising; Don Barry lost to Bobby Lee of Rock; David Brenst beat Duane Herman of Munising and Don Benish lost to Richard York of Rock.

In the evening, Robbie Bosanic lost to Brendon Wylliam of Rock; Shawn Snyder beat K.L. Sawyer opponent; Gregg Bosanic won a decision over Ron Kral of the Soo; Todd Line beat Kelly Smith of Escanaba; Mike Goudreau beat Dave Neuman of Escanaba; Marty Novak got his TKO over Frank Nolan of K.L. Sawyer; Dave Gould lost to Robbie Novak of the Soo; Lonnie Edwards beat K.L. Sawyer's John Haran.

Manistique Boxing Club. Tim Zeller (right) of Manistique had the only knockout on the night, putting Ed Thourne of Escanaba on the canvas.

DNR Report

Heavy snow hurts fishing

by Carol M. Schmidt, Newberry District

Whether actively the past week should have an adequate supply of snow for snowmobiling and skiing for the remainder of the winter. Snow depths from one and a half to nearly three feet are being reported around the district. This heavy snow has had an adverse effect on ice fishing conditions. The ice is variable from thick to thin and there is much slush. Several shanties went through the ice on Indian Lake, and on Brewer Lake, two snowmobiles went through. The water was shallow enough so that the snowmobiles were recovered.

During the calendar year 1981, a total of $10,948.37 was collected in campground fees in District Four. Mouth of the Two Hearted River Campground received the heaviest with $6,693.85. Andrus Lake, Lake Superior, Blind Sucker and South Manistique Lake each had in excess of $4,000. Other campgrounds in the district recorded lesser amounts.

PERCH

Fishermen are having fairly good success in the Cedarville area in Muskegon, Government and Cedarville Bays. Ice is very deceptive - some places as little as an inch, and snow covered (McKay Bay was wide open Monday). Other bays may have 5 to 6 inches of ice and lots of slush. Millicouquin Lake is producing some nice messes of perch and some have been caught in Brewer Lake (average size run). Some perch caught in Munusong Bay near Allard's.

WALLEYE

Anglers are getting some fairly decent fishing for 15-16 inch walleye in Milakokia Lake. Some taken in Big Manistique Lake off Burned Island. Walleye fishing in Munusong Bay has been pretty slow.

NORTHERN PIKE

Fishermen are taking some northern pike in Millicouquin Lake on tip-ups. Don Smith caught a 16 lb. 42 inch northern here a couple weeks ago. A few pike are being speared in Jamestown Slough, Manistique River. Munusong Bay near Allard's is producing fair success on pike.

BLUGGLIS

TROUT

A few rainbow caught in Bass Lake. Some splake are being caught in Twin Lakes. Statewide possession limit on splake is 3 per day, and size limit is 10 inches. Fish Division crews netted Round (North Manistique) Lake in mid October. Results showed good survival of recent trout and moderate success of walleye fingerling plants. Area anglers are encouraged to try Round this winter or after break-up next spring. The 1980 brood plants are now 15-17" and the 1981 plant running 10-12". Walleyes captured ranged from 9-24" with several age class represented. Also captured were 14 ciscoes averaging 9.4 inches in length and 4 lake trout from the 1976 release of surplus brood stock. Lake trout were in poor condition; they averaged about 29 inches in length and weighed only 6 pounds (at this length with proper diet they should weigh nearly 10 pounds).

Don't take the bait on fishworm promise

Promises of lucrative profits from fishworm farms being made by out-of-state sales persons will probably result in little more than expensive personal bait. Donald Garling, Michigan State University Department of Fisheries and Wildlife assistant professor, says that promotional claims being circulated throughout Michigan for fishworm farms are largely false.

A volunteer fireman was injured Saturday while fighting a fire at the Sandy Talbot home, 50¹/₂ Manistique Ave.

According to the Manistique Public Safety Department, William V. Belleville was working on the first floor of the Talbot home when a bear being used on the floor above him fell through the floor, striking him in the face. Belleville was treated and released from Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital.

The fire in the two story wood frame house began as a chimney fire at 9:40 p.m. At 11:30 p.m., they were called back to re-extinguish the fire, which was burning inside the walls of the house. Extensive damage was done to the building and contents.

A three car accident was reported last Wednesday at the intersection of S. Cedar and Walnut Streets. Police said a vehicle driven by Thelmer B. Warren was turning into the First National Bank when it was hit in the rear by a vehicle driven by Sandra K. Rochefort. The Rochefort vehicle, in turn, was hit in the rear by a truck driven by Carol L. Marcella.

An Evanston, Ill., man was arrested by Michigan State Police Monday for unlawfully driving away an automobile.

Police said they saw a car on the west side of town that fit the description of one stolen in Escanaba. They stopped the vehicle at 9 p.m. on US-2 and arrested the driver, Loren Romanet.

Romanet was lodged in the Schoolcraft County Jail and later turned over to Escanaba police.

Fayette Townsite is 113

Christmas Day marked the 113th anniversary of the Fayette Townsite on the garden peninsula. Now a state park, the town and iron furnaces smelters there eventually become the second largest producer of pig iron in the state.

The first iron was cast at Fayette on Christmas Day, 1867, and eventually a total of 228,288 tons of iron was produced, according to Bill Manning, manager of Fayette State Park.

The townsites and the charcoal iron furnaces have been the subject of extensive restoration efforts. Manning said, and he gave this rundown of the progress at the site.

At present nearly all frame dwellings have been stabilized to prevent further deterioration. Roofs were reshingled, siding tightened or replaced, and windows and doors installed where needed. However, much work remains before the remaining frame dwellings are completely restored.

Most of the stone structures have also been preserved. These include the furnace complex, store and warehouse, frame dwelling, foundations, and the retaining walls in back of the charcoal kilns.

Maintenance to all structures at Fayette is a continuous, time-consuming project. Because of this, new methods are constantly used to retard dry rot, crumbling mortar, etc. Presently nearly all lumber is treated with a water-base wood preservative to prevent decay.

All masonry structures are treated with a water-repellent sealant to prevent water from entering cracks and crevices, dissolving mortar and loosening stone and brick.

In order to reduce costs, nearly all lumber used in restoration is logged and sawn by crews from Conservation Work Camps in the Upper Peninsula. Most of the exterior lumber for siding and trim is clear white pine cut to full dimension in order to match the original material.

Fayette is a "ghost town." To preserve that image the exterior of all frame dwellings and walls of all masonry structures will be stabilized and left "as is." All exterior wood is bleached and stained to make it look old and weathered and blend with the original material. Square nails are used, as they were when the town was built.

Future restoration plans, Manning said, include the old St. Peter the Fisherman cemetery. Wooded headboards, crosses and grave enclosures are painstakingly being reproduced. The cemetery reflects the diverse background and nationalities of the people who lived and worked at Fayette during the 1870's thru the 1890's. Inscriptions on the headboards and locations of many of the 88 known graves were determined with the cooperation of the Garden Peninsula Historical Society.

Student aid will be discussed

January is an important month for college-bound students seeking financial aid, according to James Troyer, guidance counselor at Manistique High School. All students considering post-secondary education will need to file a family financial aid statement before Feb. 1 in order to be considered for financial aid for the 1982-1983 school year.

There have been a number of important changes in Financial Aid for the 1982-83 school year but there is still money available to needy students. It is very important that families meet the deadline dates for filing their financial aid statement, Troyer said.

Troyer will be holding an informational meeting at the high school on Thursday, Jan. 21, at 7:30 p.m. Parents and students are encouraged to attend that meeting to receive information on aid available and to ask any questions they may have.

Peoples Store sold meat; Costello's required a tux

Memories Jack Orr

I suppose not many of us still around remember much about the old Peoples Store. In the Good Old Days it was quite an operation, and came into being at about the time the Chicago Lumbering Co. general store started to taper off. (This was located in the building that later became the Park Hotel on the property now occupied by Creighton's used car lot.)

There were quite a few employees involved in the old Peoples Store, in part because in those days more services were offered. There was a large grocery and meat department which ran along the east side of the building. The men's clothing department was extensive and occupied the north side of the building (now the Ben Franklin store) and above this was the business office balcony.

All cash was handled from this balcony via basket delivery that ran from each department, via cable, to the upstairs office. Packages were also wrapped up there and the finished purchase delivered back to the originating department by the same means.

Ladies ready-to-wear was in about the center of the store, also the millinery section. Jewelry was at the front, and yard goods and threads and other sewing supplies were along the south wall. There was also a large shoe department and a full-time show window trimmer in the person of Jim Troyer.

Remember, most ladies' hats were made locally, by hand, and yard goods were a big item because dresses were still being hand-made for the most part.

Interior decor was mostly oak hardwood, beautifully crafted. Quite a place. Practically any need could be satisfied in this old Manistique landmark; stores like this no longer exist except under separate proprietorships in shopping centers.

The following letter, prompted by a reading of Lumberjacks and River Pearls, has been received:

"Dear Memories: "My memories go back much further, but I did recognize some of the names and of course all the places. Margaret Isaac graduated from high school when I was about a Sophomore - I remember her well. The last I heard of her she had an information booth on US-2. The photo of the old trans brought memories. The Krause girls, Gertrude and Marvel Schuler, and I used to walk over to Southtown to pick blueberries. We timed our crossing on the trans so we would get over before the "dinkie" came along with a load of lumber from the mill. Mr. Schuler was savvy at the mill; they lived in back of the Swedish Lutheran church, and moved to Gladstone to run a movie house when the mill shut down. Grandma Baker used to buy fresh eggs from the people who bought the Schuler house.

"You didn't mention the Costello Grocery ... about next to Blumrosen's ... very elite grocery, almost had to wear a tux to get in! Clark's was another, on the other side of the street. Gennerson and Kefauver furniture and funeral place was on that side of the street too. The Oakland Grocery came into being after Clark's went out of business; an IGA Store came into town and other groceries, like Olsen's, etc. folded.

Breastake Baker Wedwick Manikato, Minn."

The following, dating from the Thirties, was brought in by a man whose dad used to be active in local politics and it seems apropos in terms of present developments:

THE COUNTY ROAD SONG (To the tune of "There's a Long, Long Trail")

There are long, long roads winding Throughout the counties of our state, Where rutts are getting deeper A sight we all hate.

There are weeds along the guardrails That bother us, it is true, But with finances so lowly There is nothing we can do.

There's a day for which we're waiting When our tax increase will come due.

So we can show the public What the Road Commission can do: So we must all get busy And work together, hand in hand, And make the roads of Michigan The best ones in the land.

Senior Citizens

By Diane McClelland

What a winter wonderful outside. I'm from Ohio and I always thought we had plenty of snow. But I've come to the conclusion if you're a buckeye you should grow longer legs before you move up here.

We have lots of events coming up in the next few months. Take out your calendar and pencil and mark them all down. I wouldn't want you to miss anything. If you have never joined in the fun, now is a good time to start. So come on down!

Jan. 20 - "Italian Get Together" beginning at 5 p.m. Bring a dish to pass and your own table service. Cards and bingo to follow. Let's all get together for a good meal and lots of fun. Either sign up in the office or give us a call.

Jan. 27 - I have had many of you ask about taking a trip. Sounds like a good idea to me. I contacted Lane Dawson of the Marquette Bus Service. He will be here at 12:30 p.m. to discuss various trips for senior citizens. No definite plans have been made as to where or when. Please come and hear what he has to say and then we can all decide.

Jan. 29 - Attorney Kelly would like to speak with all you seniors. He will be here at 12:30 p.m. to discuss Wills and Estates. Please plan on attending and having any questions answered that you may have.

We have lots of traffic tickets left to sell, and we need your help in selling them. Please stop in and pick up a few. Also, I would like your suggestions on what to spend the money on. Also, how about some recipes? Please drop them off as soon as possible.

That pretty well ends the month. Memorials were given to the Center in the names of Margorie Barley by Emery and Mary Barnes in the name of Mildred Underwood by Emery and Mary Barnes and in the name of George Renon by Emery and Mary Barnes.

Monetary donations to our general fund account came from Kenneth and Lillian Schurer, Wanda Harbin and A.H. Wigginton.

Postage donations to supplement the cost of the Newsletter came from Clifford and Irene Smith, Vera Stephens, Ruth and Elmer Rieckhoff and Helen McGlothlin.

Blanche Lyntz brought in a donation of prizes to be used for our Tuesday bingo ladies.

All of these acts of kindness are deeply appreciated and we thank you for your concern.

IRS allows special deductions

An exemption is a set amount which is deducted from your adjusted gross income in figuring taxable income. The Internal Revenue Service explains.

The regular exemption is $1,000 and is allowed for the taxpayer, his or her spouse, and his or her dependents.

In addition, there are exemptions for age and blindness. The age and blindness exemptions may be claimed only for the taxpayer and his or her spouse, not for a dependent.

A citizen, resident, or national of the United States or a resident of Canada or Mexico who is 65 or older by the end of the year is allowed an additional exemption of $1,000 for blindness if they are blind on the last day of the tax year. Persons losing their sight late in the year are entitled to the exemption for the entire year.

A person is considered blind, for tax purposes, if the central visual acuity does not exceed 20/200 in the better eye with corrective lenses or the field of vision is less than 20 degrees.

Individuals 55 and older get tax break for home sale

Individuals age 55 and older are allowed a one-time exclusion of up to $125,000 of profit on the sale of their principal residence. The Internal Revenue Service says. This exclusion is $100,000 for sales prior to July 21, 1981, and $125,000 for sales July 21, 1981 and after.

The IRS notes that this exclusion applies to the sale of a home which has been an individual's principal residence for 3 out of 5 years, or 5
