

Board hears critical report on Indian Ed.

An evaluation of the Indian Education Program in the Manistique Area Schools heard by the School Board Tuesday night criticized the seven-year-old program in several areas.

The evaluation was prepared at the request of the school district after parents involved in the Indian Education Program complained to the board in October. Although the board had originally requested an evaluation from the federal level, the report heard Tuesday was prepared by officials at Hannahville Indian Reservation school.

Tom Miller and Gerald Hardwick of the school cited several criticisms of the program in their report, which covered the program from July of 1980 to July of 1981.

--Documentation showing that the program had met any of its several objectives was inadequate or lacking altogether. "If I went strictly by documentation, I'd give a zero for each one," Miller said. "Besides some record books showing attendance, there is no indication that the objectives were done," he said, "and that's not enough."

--Participation of Indian students in the program was low. Although the federally-funded program is intended for Indian students, the evaluation said that just over half of the 230 students in the district identified as Indian participated. The summer-camp portion of the program had 40 percent non-Indian students participating.

Superintendent Richard Bonifas said that Indians get the first opportunity to enroll in the program's activities, but that there is little interest.

--The level of achievement expected of students in the classes of the program is too low. The goal of the classes, according to the program objectives, is for students to score 65 percent or better on tests. "You have to expect at least average," Miller said. "Sixty-five percent is not a very high score. Converted to a letter grade, 65 percent is probably a D-plus and that is a poor reflection."

To solve the program's problems, both Miller and Hardwick recommended that the coordinator of the program strive for better rapport with the parent advisory committee, which oversees the program.

John LaPointe, the former coordinator, resigned at the beginning of the year, but continued as program teacher. High School Principal John Males has acted as coordinator for the high school and the position has gone unfilled at the elementary level.

The board took no action on the evaluation, but Board Member Jamie Moffat said he questioned the purpose of seeking continued federal funding for the voluntary program. That funding was about $60,000 for the current year and another year of funding has been applied for. "We're looking to start up another year and we have questions about what we've had for seven years," he said.

In other matters, the School Board:

--Adopted an amended budget that forecasts a fund equity, or surplus, at the end of June of $100,840. That's up over $70,000 from the original budget's anticipated fund equity of $23,526.

Administrative Assistant Margaret Cain attributed the increase in the projected fund equity to increases in revenue at the local level--taxes received and higher-than-expected interest earnings--and cuts in fuel costs and staff.

The amended budget's fund equity is just over 3 percent of the total expected expenditures. Board Member Bruce Steinfeldt said it was "not much" relative to the total budget. Board Member Lloyd Spencer agreed. "We've got 100 thousand now but I don't know if we'll have a 100 thousand at the end. All we need is a few week's of sub-zero weather."

The amended budget adopted Tuesday is still a deficit budget. It reduces the equity left from last year's operations by nearly $29,000.

--Heard a report on the audio-visual services offered at the schools in the district. Ron Patrick, A-V coordinator, told the board that the audio-visual center at the high school is heavily used by teachers. "We see 75 to 80 percent of the system's teachers every day," Patrick said, for duplication of teaching material.

The center has over 700 pieces of equipment and an annual repair budget of about $2,000. The center spends $4,000 a year for paper, according to Patrick.

--Recommended two members, Billie Doyle and Jamie Moffat, for appointment to the county Tax Allocation Board.

--Approved former high school principal Marv Fredrickson as the speaker for the 1982 graduating class.

--Awarded a contract for preparing a grant application to Bay Engineering of Sutton's Bay, Wis. The $1,200 contract is for analysis of energy improvements needed at the Germfask and Fairview Schools as well as preparation of the grant application.

RELATIVELY MILD winter weather continues to bless the area, cutting down on the size of the huge snowbanks and giving residents like this cross-country skier a chance to get out and enjoy the scenery.

Council reapproves D.P.W. purchase

For the second time this month, the Manistique City Council on Monday accepted a bid for a front-end loader and snow removal attachments from Bark River Culvert and Equipment Co.

Although the council had awarded the contract for the same piece of equipment to Bark River Culvert earlier this month, objections from other bidders led the council to overturn its original award and re-advertise for bids. The objections from the other bidders concerned the fact that, in its notice to prospective bidders, the city had requested quotes on a 1982 model year front-end loader. The purchase approved earlier (and reapproved Monday) was for an unused 1980 model.

Wally Leggett, salesman for Lakeshore, Inc., an Iron Mountain heavy equipment dealer, had claimed the discrepancy between the bid accepted and that specified in the notice to bidders was illegal. On the recommendation of City Attorney Pat Kelly, the city re-advertised for bids. The new notice to bidders asked for prices on a 1980 loader.

The council on Monday again accepted Bark River Culvert's bid for the 1980 International Model 540. The package purchased includes a snowblower and plow attachments at a base cost of $118,398. Delivery was expected by the end of the week.

The payment plan selected by the city--equal monthly payments over seven years at 12 percent interest--inflates the total cost by $57,170, to $175,568. The monthly payments by the city, $2,090, were the lowest of a 17 proposal considered, however, a bid were apparently an important factor in the council's acceptance of the bid.

Although City Manager John Matthews had recommended a five-year payback plan, at an interest savings of over $17,500, the higher monthly payments it would have required steered the council to the longer, more expensive payback plan.

Council Member Bill Hackney said the $543 in additional payments each month under the seven-year plan could "make a sizeable difference" in the day-to-day operation of the city. City Treasurer Pat Erickson agreed that the higher monthly payments could cause cash-flow problems.

The Bark River Culvert bid on the 1980 model was not the cheapest made. DC Equipment of Escanaba submitted a bid for a 1982 John Deere front-end loader at a base price of $99,000. The five-year payback schedule on that bid called for monthly payments of $2,132 for a total cost of $127,920. Apparently, the higher monthly payments and the fact that the John Deere is a lighter machine than the International was the reason the council did not accept that bid.

The vote to accept the Bark River Culvert bid was 7-0. Council Members Jerome Peterson and Kathy Wilson, who had voted against the original purchase earlier this month, were absent Monday.

Leggett was present, however, and asked if the council had investigated direct municipal financing of the equipment, claiming that a bank could directly offer the city cheaper financing arrangements. Matthews said that "nothing here says we can't" finance the purchase directly after acceptance of the bid. Matthews said he would investigate the possibility of municipal financing.

In other matters, the council: --Passed resolutions concerning the operation of the charter revision commission. Voters in the city will decide in April whether to revise the city's 14-year-old charter. If they approve the revision, a Charter

Hospital room rates raised by $5

Patients in the Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital will be paying $5 a day more for rooms after action last week by the hospital's Board of Trustees.

At a meeting last Tuesday, the board approved a 35-a-day increase for all categories of rooms. Semi-private rooms will now cost $140 a day, up from $135; rooms in the obstetrics ward are up to $155 and private-room rates were raised to $160 from $155.

Hospital Administrator H.B. Purdy said that the board reviews room rates at the hospital about twice a year. He cited increases in the costs of labor and supplies of between 8 and 10 percent in justifying the increase.

The next review of room rates at Schoolcraft Memorial, according to Purdy, will come in early September. He couldn't say how much more patients may have to pay after that review. "You just never know what the increase will be," he said.

CETA training program closed; officials seek owner

A federally-funded training program in Germfask was stopped last month after the operator left town with a truckload of furniture made under the program.

Officials with the Six-County Manpower Consortium, which administers the money used in the program, are interested in the whereabouts of Ron Norris of Germfask. Norris started training five local men in furniture making last September in a program underwritten by the federal Comprehensive Training and Employment Act (CETA).

Since early December, Norris had started business as a private operator, aided by CETA money, which paid half of the wages of his seven-man crew. According to Dale Jamison, program coordinator for the consortium, Norris left Germfask Jan. 3, ostensibly to sell a truckload of furniture, and hasn't been seen since.

Jamison stressed that Norris had not taken any federal money. "There is no CETA money involvement," according to Jamison, except for a $561 check the consortium is withholding until Norris shows up. That check is for reimbursement of half of Norris' payroll, and until CETA is sure the workers have been paid, the check will be withheld.

CETA has advised the workers that they can try to recover any unpaid wages through small claims court. Jamison estimated those wages at $1,120. In the meantime, the CETA workers, with the exception of one who enrolled in a wood harvesting program, are out of jobs.

Jamison also said that Norris may have written checks--not with CETA money--to local vendors that he was unable to cover.

The program that Norris was involved in is known as the "Private Sector Initiative Program." The program is designed to assist private employers in training people for jobs they can't fill.

In Norris' case, those jobs were for makers of rustic cedar furniture. He applied for--and got--a grant that paid him and his crew for 12 weeks as "classroom" training. After that, in early December, Norris received approval for continued "on the job" funding from CETA to pay for half of his employees' wages as he went into production for himself.

After the completion of the classroom part of the training, CETA recovered $3,000 of its expenses by auctioning off furniture. In addition, 24 picnic tables made during the classroom training were donated by CETA to the six counties in the consortium.

Merchants sponsor loss seminar

Ever been stung by a rubber check? If so, a seminar next Tuesday, March 2, may be of interest to you. The "Loss Prevention Seminar" sponsored by the Manistique Merchants Association, is designed to help merchants cut losses due to any kind of bad credit. In addition to preventing bouncing checks, the program will feature instruction on wise extension of "open account" credit and dealing with credit cards.

The seminar is scheduled for 7 p.m. at the high school. A presentation by Dave Grimes of the Manistique State Police Post along with advice from Prosecuting Attorney Bruce Plackowski, will make up the bulk of the program.

Cases dealing with bad checks in one form or another take up a good portion of the county prosecutor's time. Of the 74 felony warrants issued by the prosecutor last year, by far the biggest share due to a single cause--16--related to check cashing.

In the past, Plackowski said that his office has acted as a "collection agency" for area merchants. By going through the first steps of prosecution--warning of a felony charge if a check is not paid, then actually making the charge--most bad-check writers are persuaded to pay up. That creates a dilemma for Plackowski.

"Shall I continue on the course we've set," Plackowski said, "and say OK, we're going to charge someone with the knowledge that it's just sort of a threat, and as soon as they pay it off we'll drop the charges?"

"Or, am I going to say I'm not going to take a case unless I'm actually going to go through with it?" As it stands now, Plackowski said "this is an expensive collection agency for the taxpayers."

AN ICE SCULPTURE is taking shape at the Lakeside School, as students rough out the shape of what is to become "Pete's Dragon." The sculpture is entered in the Merchants' Association's contest to be judged next weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. David Taylor

Kaiser, Taylor are wed

Debra Ann Kaiser, daughter of Bert and Betty Kaiser of 308 North Fourth Street, Manistique, and David Taylor, son of Grant and Ruth Taylor of Manistique were married Feb. 13 at the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Gulliver.

Frank Beckman performed the 2 p.m. singling ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by matron of honor Jean Boddy, Tammy Denkins and Linda Kaiser, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. Kevin Patz was best man with Bob and Ed Taylor, brothers of the groom, serving as groomsmen. Billy and Bert Kaiser seated the guests.

Both the bride and groom are employed at Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital. The couple will make their home at 124 South First Street, Manistique.

Support group meets Saturday

A gathering for divorced, separated and remarried people in the area will be held Saturday, February 27, at 1 p.m. in the St. Francis de Sales Parish Center. The purpose of this meeting will be for information and support.

For more information, call 341-2207 or contact Sister Rosalyn at 341-5270.

Tammy Kahler named student of the month

Tammy Kahler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ruth Simbach of Gulliver, has been named the Home Economics Student of the Month for February. Tammy, a junior at Manistique High School, has maintained a "C" or better grade average, displayed leadership skills, enthusiasm and a positive attitude towards herself and others.

From the students chosen each month, the outstanding Home Economics Student of the Year will be selected in June.

Tammy has been involved in home economics for three years. Tammy's hobbies include hunting, fishing, and jogging. After graduation, Tammy would like to pursue a career in journalism.

Tammy feels that everyone should take Home Economics because "It teaches you to become independent to live on your own and survive."

Soloist featured at Medicare birthday party

by Dorothy Hoholik

Call it the "Rudy Valley Show" or the "Carl Wahlfeld Show" either name would fit the medley of old low songs that were heard at the February Birthday party at the Schoolcraft Medical Care Facility last Wednesday, Feb. 17.

Carl Wahlfeld, a resident at the facility, displayed the charm and love of the early 1900's with his rendition of songs like "Memories" and "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles." All rehearsals leading up to the afternoon show were star performances as well.

Mrs. Duane L. (Margaret) Waters, daughter of Mr. Wahlfeld, accompanied him on the piano. The Medicare residents sang along with the vocalist and a tear was noted here and there from the beauty of it all. The program ended with an enthusiastic song played on the kazoo by everyone's good friend, Harvey Stoken, a facility resident. Mrs. Waters also accompanied him on the piano.

The Manistique Woman's Club sponsors the birthday party each month, and serves birthday cake, ice cream and beverages as well as distributes birthday cards to all those celebrating the occasion. Having February birthdays were Carl Wahlfeld, Ernest Popour, Eleanor McGregor and Harvey Stoken.

Members of the Woman's Club who assisted with the birthday party were Betty DeSautel, Helen Baird, Helen Creighton, Barbara Nessman, Eileen Arrowood, Ruth Morgan and Dorothy Hoholik. Also assisting were volunteers Jo Ann Martin, Kay Torrey, Luella Olson, Barbara Mickelson and Elsie Berry.

The next party will be held on Wednesday, March 17, with Norma Johnson arranging a program of Irish favorites. Anyone interested in helping with the monthly birthday party may join the activity by calling 341-5270.

State Budget Is it a shell game?

At the best, it's a shell game. At the worst, it's a scam. "It" in this case, is the creative financing involved in balancing Michigan's budget this year. The Constitution says that the state can't have an unbalanced budget, so in order to balance the books Gov. Milliken proposes to simply eliminate budgeted payments to local government, colleges, universities and community colleges during the final quarter of the fiscal year.

But not to worry. The money will be paid back starting next fiscal year in October. Not only that, but the state will increase the appropriations for the coming year. The question naturally arises, if the money wasn't there this year, what makes anybody think it and more will be there next year? It will be there because the state's economy will rebound any minute now - in March, or maybe July with the income tax cut, or maybe the last quarter - and if you believe that, then you're no doubt a big fan of the tooth fairy. Our federal government doesn't have to worry about a balanced budget and, under what is being called the New Federalism, they plan to let the states do the job of welfare and food stamps and other programs, using money that the feds have collected. If they were serious about it, they would transfer all programs and all taxing powers back to the states, but they aren't and they won't.

In order for all of this to work the economy has to pick up. In Michigan that means the automobile business, and that's a chance prospect. The public cannot afford the price of new cars and they cannot afford the interest rates to finance them. There are more than 600,000 people out of work in Michigan today, and yet we are basing our future spending on an economic upturn?

Things may very well get better, but they won't get that much better that fast. Local government and schools may as well think that money goodby and start making other plans. Several years ago Michigan solved an impending deficit by merely extending the fiscal year from 12 to 15 months. The juggling worked that time, but not again.

Cutting off the payments may do the job for this year. The crunch will come in the next fiscal year, starting Oct. 1, when the money promised isn't there.

Tooth Fairy, get ready. There's going to be a big demand for your services next fall.

-The Delta Reporter

Leggett questions purchase

Dear Editor:

Once again the City Council, in the opinion of this writer, has displayed a complete disregard for the purpose of the bidding process and the financial condition of the City of Manistique.

The primary purpose in soliciting bids from various suppliers is to obtain the most attractive offer available regarding cost and terms of payment. As to the ability of the City to make major equipment purchases at this time, that has been clearly established by the recent proposal by Council to ask for additional millage to pay for contemplated equipment purchases.

Considering these facts, it would seem council's responsibility to the City lies in the direction of exercising the utmost prudence in the area of city purchasing, rather than on the personal preference and recommendation of one individual.

Drawing on the experience of over 20 years of association in the equipment industry, both as seller and purchaser, it is my opinion that all of the equipment offered at the bid opening on Feb. 22, 1982, would meet the basic requirements of the City of Manistique.

Therefore, it is my position in this matter that the City Council, and all other persons connected with the decision announced at the Feb. 22 meeting on equipment purchases, has not acted in the best interest of the City of Manistique.

Had the lowest bid submitted for the equipment, as requested by the City on their Notice to Bidders, been accepted, it would have resulted in a lower total cost to the City of $47,612 - with the added benefits of a five-year payment plan versus a seven-year payment plan and a new 1982 loader versus a new 1980 loader.

The seven-year payment plan states a monthly payment of $2,090 per month. The five-year payment plan states a monthly payment of $2,132 per month.

School Lunch Menu

- Monday, March 1-Spaghetti/Meat Sauce, Green Beans, Cheese Slices, Dessert, and Milk OR High School: Ham Burger/Bun, French Fries, Green Beans, Dessert and Milk.
- Tuesday, March 2-Vegetable Soup, Homemade Buns, Fruit and Milk OR High School: Pizza, Vegetable, Dessert and Milk.
- Wednesday, March 3-Bar-B-Q Pork/Bun, Cheese, Wax Beans, Dessert and Milk OR High School: Hamburger/Bun, French Fries, Wax Beans, Dessert and Milk.
- Thursday, March 4-Baked Chicken, Mashed Potatoes, Peas, Fruit and Milk OR High School: Hamburger/Bun, French Fries, Peas, Fruit and Milk.
- Friday, March 5-ELEMENTARY: Cheese Pizza, Corn, Dessert and Milk. HIGH SCHOOL: Cheese Pizza or Meat Pizza, Corn, Dessert and Milk.

Therefore, the $42 per month additional cost is of small concern when compared to two additional years of interest charges. The five-year plan is based on an interest rate of 11 percent. The seven-year plan is based on an interest rate of 12 percent.

My opinions and position on this matter have been expressed entirely from the viewpoint of a concerned citizen, voter, and taxpayer of the City of Manistique. Anyone wishing more information or verification of the preceding statements may feel free to contact me personally or by mail.

'Heavy Metal' should be seen

Dear Editor:

Once again Cinema One has let someone else decide what we can or cannot see. It is disappointing more than teenagers by not allowing "Heavy Metal" to be shown after advertising it for weeks.

Instead of showing it in a theatre where people can't drink, smoke, get drunk, or be in the theatre in the summer, where kids can-and do-do anything.

I prefer my teenagers to see today's movies in a closed environment. Now, I can worry about what goes on when they go to the drive-in to see it and other such movies.

Today's generation is not "hiding under the covers to read," it is case people don't know it. They're the only ones with money to spend nowadays and if they aren't allowed to see what they want-within reason-they'll go where they can.

Thanks a lot, Cinema One.

Economic development will be discussed Feb. 27

An all day conference will be held this Saturday, Feb. 27, in Germfask (tentatively at the Seney Wildlife Refuge) calling for the participation of concerned persons from Alger, Luce and Schoolcraft counties in order to address the question: "How the Tri-Counties can work together toward local economic development?"

Ford heads Elks Lodge

The Manistique Elks' Lodge 632 recently elected new officers for the 1982-83 year.

The following officers were elected: Exalted Ruler - Ron Ford, Exalted Leading Knight - Pat Moberg, Exalted Loyal Knight - Dale DuFour, Exalted Lecturing Knight - Robin LaCroix; Treasurer - Dennis Boyd, Secretary - Deag Knatz, Tiler - Rick Demers, Trustee - William Cole, Esquire - Gary Shull, Inner Guard - Steve Peterson and Chaplain - Tom DuFour.

The above officers will be installed on April 3. There will be an Elk of the Year presentation at that same ceremony plus additional events planned for the entire lodge.

Cheese lines were too long

Dear Editor:

As I stood in line waiting to get five pounds of cheese today, Feb. 16, I was appalled at the lack of consideration given the senior citizens. This is certainly unusual in this town.

Everyone stood outdoors in the chilly air for over an hour, then had to stand another hour inside the building. The hallways were wall-to-wall people and there was very poor ventilation.

Not only were the senior citizens put through a most undignified two hours but also a physically exhaustive two hours, as could be heard from comments in the line.

Hopefully, if there is another "free gift," it can be dispensed in a more accessible place and with more help.

State Police

Michigan State Police arrested two men Monday on charges of breaking and entering, in connection with an incident at the Breakers Motel.

According to Michigan State Police, Michael Nelms, 28, and Raymond Weber, 21, allegedly broke into room 19 of the Breakers Motel and removed personal clothing, a camera, television set, clock and several other items. The room had been rented by two men from Ann Arbor, who were not in the room at the time of the entry. The incident occurred at 3 a.m. Monday.

Nelms and Weber were lodged in the Schoolcraft County Jail. They appeared in 93rd District Court and bond was set at $4,000 or 10 percent for Nelms and $2,000 or 10 percent for Weber.

Ross J. Guertin of Rapid River was cited for violation of the basic speed law following a one car accident on C2483. Police said Guertin's vehicle was off the roadway, hit a snowbank and rolled over. The accident happened Friday at 2 a.m.

Edwin F. Glenn III of Garden told police that as he was driving his pick-up truck on US-2 on Monday, he noticed that it was losing power. He pulled off of the road and upon checking the vehicle, saw a fire under the back of the truck. He extinguished the blaze with snow. The fire started from a short in the wire leading to the gas gauge.

A car-deer accident was reported on Thursday at 11:50 p.m. A vehicle driven by Martin J. Mavich of Menasha, Wis., hit a deer on US-2. Douglas Cheyne of Thompson reported the theft of a hydraulic pump from a Western snow plow and a gas can from a truck parked at his home in Thompson. Damage was done to a 12 volt battery. The case is still under investigation.

A cabin in Thompson Township owned by Henry Eggers of Munster, Ind., was reported broken into. It is not known at this time if anything was taken.

THE MOTHER EARTH NEWS

MAKE MUSIC ON THE HARMONICA!

Playing the harmonica is one of life's little pleasures. Most Harmonicas aren't expensive, you can easily carry one in your pocket or purse, and, whenever you need a lift of the spirit moves you, your little musical companion will be there ready to play a tune.

First, you need to learn how to hold the harp. Cradle the instrument in a "ten-finger sandwich" by placing your hands around it as if you're grasping the organ between your palms (with the "blow" part toward you) and aligned with your fingers. Then rotate your hands one way or the other (whichever feels most comfortable to you) so that one winds up with the fingers on top of the mouth harp and the thumb on the bottom ... and the other hand is wrapped around the first with the heel of its palm squarely facing your mouth. The high notes should be to your right. This grip creates a sort of "chamber" around the harmonica, producing a richer tone.

The manner in which you "kiss" your instrument also has a lot to do with the sound you'll get out of it. The best way to get a pure note from your harp is to experiment and practice until you've trained your lips and your tongue to direct a breath of air (either in or out) through just one of the openings in your instrument at a time. This will produce one steady, clean tone after another which is what basic harmonica playing is really all about.

Next, you'll want to get some emotions ... feelings ... into your music. The simplest way to add this flavor to your tunes is by varying the volume at which you play. Make your harp's sound rise and fall according to the character of the song. Expression can also be added to harmonica music by soulful use of the wavering tones made possible when using the "ten-finger sandwich" grip.

Of course, to experiment and practice until you've trained your lips and your tongue to direct a breath of air (either in or out) through just one of the openings in your instrument at a time. This will produce one steady, clean tone after another which is what basic harmonica playing is really all about.

That's right: To play chords you have to be able to do two things at once. It isn't easy ... but it sure can drive an audience wild! For FREE additional information on homemade music or on THE MOTHER EARTH NEWS magazine, send your name and address and ask for Reading No. 652: "How to Play Harmonica". Mail to Doing MORE... Guide to Social Security

Most persons think of "social security" as the monthly check a retiree receives. Actually, the Social Security Act provides for a variety of programs, including but not limited to: Medicare, Medicaid, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Aid to Families with Dependent Children, and Unemployment Compensation. Title XX, another program under the Act, was converted to a block grant Oct. 1.

The 3 programs described in this guide and referred to as "Social Security" are those primarily paid for by payroll taxes: Old Age and Survivors Insurance (OASI), Disability Insurance (DI) and Hospital Insurance (HI-Medicare). The information is offered here in the hope that it can serve as a framework for analyzing changes that may be proposed.

Social Security was enacted by Congress on Aug. 8, 1935. In the 45 years since, it has grown from a $35 million to a $445 billion program in which 9 out of every 10 workers is enrolled. Currently almost 36 million retirees, dependents, survivors and disabled persons are receiving benefits -- about 1 pension in every 7.

Originally the Social Security Act provided for a 1 percent payroll tax -- up to a maximum of $30. Retirees 65 and over would begin to receive the benefits in 1942. Payments actually began in 1940, by which time widows and children had been added as beneficiaries.

Since then, the program has expanded considerably: disability benefits were added in 1956; early retirement became possible for women in 1956 and for men in 1961; Medicare was enacted in 1965; automatic cost-of-living increases were added in 1975 along with Medicare for the disabled.

Costs have also increased. The payroll tax today is 6.65 percent on the first $29,700 of income. Employers pay a matching amount. The rate goes up to 6.7 percent in 1982 with gradual increases to 7.65 percent by 1990. The income base will also rise, depending on average earnings, and could reach $45,000 by 1985.

SOCIAL SECURITY PROGRAMS
Old Age & Survivors Insurance: This is the program which has paid out most readily. Since 1940, dependents and survivors since Ida Fuller received the first check in 1940. She paid in $22, lived to be 100 and drew out some $22,000. To be eligible for most old age benefits today, a worker must be fully insured. This is determined by length of time spent in covered employment. A person who has worked 40 quarters (i.e. 10 years) is automatically fully insured. Sixty-five is the qualifying age for full retirement. Monthly retirement checks can begin at age 62, but at a permanently reduced amount (roughly 7 percent less for each year prior to 65.) Persons who retire after 65 qualify for a slight increase in benefits. Payments are reduced if income is earned. Currently the average monthly payment for a retired worker is $341.

In addition to retirees, certain dependents and survivors are also eligible for benefits: unmarried children under 18 (or 22 if full-time students, except that benefits for education after high school are ending beginning in 1981); unmarried child 18 plus who was severely disabled before age 22 and still is disabled; widow or widower 60 plus; widow, widower or surviving divorced mother if caring for worker's child under 18 (or disabled); widow or widower 50 plus who becomes disabled no later than 7 years after worker's death, or within 7 years after mother's or father's benefits end; divorced spouse 62 plus, or a surviving divorced wife at 60 plus, or disabled surviving divorced wife 50 plus if the marriage lasted 10 years or more.

Special benefits include:
Wage Indexing -- Since 1979 a formula has been applied which updates a worker's past earnings so that they are comparable to recent wage levels. The same updated or "indexed" wages are then used to determine the basic benefit.
Cost-of-Living Adjustment -- Benefits are adjusted to keep pace with inflation whenever the Consumer Price Index (CPI) rises by 3 percent or more. The increase takes place in July.
Minimum Benefit -- In August Congress eliminated the $121 minimum benefit. However, both the U.S. House and Senate have taken action to at least restore the minimum to current recipients, and the President has indicated his support.
Lump-Sum Death Benefit -- Congress in August modified the $255 death benefit so that it is only payable to a surviving spouse or child to help cover burial costs.

Disability Insurance: Persons who cannot work because of a physical or mental impairment receive monthly benefits for themselves and their dependents provided that the disability is expected to last at least 12 months or result in death. Benefits are provided for a variety of programs, including but not limited to: disabled workers and spouse 62 plus; unmarried dependent children under 18 (or disabled); except that college student benefits are being phased out;

Co-payments are also required for expenses incurred under Part A. A beneficiary pays $204 for the first 60 days of hospitalization and $51 for the 61st through 90th day. While Medicare pays for 20 days of skilled nursing home care, $25.50 of the daily charges from the 21st to 100th day must be paid by the Medicare patient.

Persons not receiving Social Security benefits but who otherwise qualify for Medicare can buy the coverage, currently for $89 Part A and $11 Part B.

Funding: Social Security is essentially funded on a pay-as-you-go basis through the payroll tax. The current 6.65 percent is actually divided up and deposited into 3 separate trust funds: 4.2 percent to OASI; .825 percent to DI, and 1.3 percent to HI for Part A of Medicare. Part B of Medicare is financed by premiums and the government's general fund.

Despite increases in the payroll tax which began in 1978 and are scheduled to continue through 1990, both short and long-range financing problems are being predicted. The immediate problem, brought on by inflation and unemployment, is a decline of funds in the OASI trust fund, leading to cash-flow problems between 1982 and 1985. The outlook is much brighter if the three trust funds are considered together, but present law does not allow for funds to be intermingled.

Once the cash flow problems are corrected, the OASI fund is expected to be solvent and even robust into the next century. The long-term problem is expected (by some, but not all Social Security experts) between 2020 and 2025, when the impact of the World War baby boom and subsequent birth decline will be felt.

Below are options which have been suggested to correct the problems:
Mandatory Universal Coverage: Currently 90 percent of the work force is covered with Social Security. The 10 percent that is not covered includes federal non-military workers as well as state and local governmental units and non-profit employers who can opt in or out of the system. The favoring universal coverage believe that significant new revenue will be brought into Social Security if everyone is covered.

Interest-Free Borrowing: Borrowing from the health, DI and HI trust funds to help meet the short-range OASI problem has been widely recommended, and the U.S. Senate has now set in motion legislation that will allow it. By itself, this may not resolve the cash-flow problem, however.

Using General Revenues: Proposals that more of the federal government's general fund be used to finance Social Security date back to 1935. The Vandenberg amendment in 1944 did allow for general fund appropriations, if needed, to pay benefits. When, by 1950, the amendments had not been used, it was rescinded. Today the general fund helps pay for Medicare Part B. One of the prevalent recommendations is that the general fund also finance Part A. The payroll that now goes into the HI account could then go to OASI.

Reducing Benefits: As inflation and efforts to trim the federal budget deficit continue, attempts to cut Social Security benefits -- for reasons other than balancing the OASI account -- can be expected. This is because the Social Security trust funds are part of the United Federal Budget, and Social Security expenditures becomes a cut in the federal deficit. At least one Social Security expert is recommending that the trust funds be taken out of the unified budget. Near-in-line-for budget cuts may be disability benefits. Also being considered are delayed cost-of-living increases and paying the increases to some index less costly than CPI.

Raising the Retirement Age: Raising the age of retirement from 65 to 68 because of longer life spans has been suggested by the National Commission on Social Security and the Social Security Advisory Council. In their view, the change should be phased in gradually after the year 2000 and would, according to Social Security actuaries, eliminate the long-range deficit expected. Pres. Reagan's proposal to lower benefits for those who retire at age 62 (from 80 percent) of full benefits to 55 percent beginning in 1982 met with a storm of protest.

Medicare general enrollment now on

by Ann Carlson
 field representative

From now through the end of March is the general enrollment period for the medical insurance part of Medicare. During this time people who passed up the chance for this protection, or who had it dropped last year, can again sign up.

Protection for people who sign up during this period will start next July 1.

Medical insurance complements the hospital insurance part of Medicare. Hospital insurance helps pay for medically necessary inpatient hospital care and certain follow-up care in a skilled nursing facility or at home.

Medical insurance also covers outpatient hospital services received for diagnosis and treatment and other services and supplies not covered by hospital insurance.

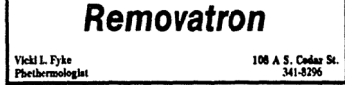

Medical insurance pays for 80 percent of the approved costs or charges for covered services and supplies after the patient has met the $75 annual deductible.

Can heart attacks be prevented by lowering cholesterol?

"Can heart attacks be prevented by lowering cholesterol?" This is the question asked by a team of researchers conducting a national study of the relationship between heart disease and cholesterol.

Most heart trouble results from atherosclerosis or hardening of the arteries. A clue to the cause of atherosclerosis may be that cholesterol, a fatty substance, is found in diseased arteries, but it is still uncertain whether lowering cholesterol can actually prevent heart attacks.

The research team working at four clinical centers hopes to answer this question.

The University of Minnesota clinical center is seeking persons aged 29 through 64 who have had their first and only heart attack within the past 5 years and are free of diabetes, stroke and heart surgery.

Anyone interested in more information may call the University of Minnesota Hyperlipidemia Study collect at (612) 376-4494.

Emeralds end season with wins

The Emeralds varsity basketball team closed out the home season on winning notes by getting past the Big Bay de Noc Black Bears Tuesday, 69-41, and beating the Negaunee Miners for the sixth straight time Friday, 53-44.

The Emeralds will wind up their regular season on the road in the next week with three Mid-Pen Conference games against Norway, Iron Mountain and Ishpeming.

This Friday's contest will pit the Emeralds, 7-4 in conference action and 13-4 overall, against the Knights, who are struggling, along with Ishpeming, to stay out of the Mid-Pen cellar. When Manistique last met the Miners Jan. 15, the Emeralds cruised to a 72-47 win, the biggest margin of victory this season until Tuesday's game.

Manistique Coach Seb Rubick called that earlier effort against the Knights the best of the campaign so far, but was understandably wary of overconfidence. "I don't think you can take anybody in our conference that lightly," Rubick said. "Witness what Munising did to us" when the Mustangs upset the Emeralds early in the month with a second straight defeat. "There are not any what you could call real pushovers" in the Mid Pen, he said.

Another worry for Rubick and Manistique will be the play of Norway's 6-7 center Mark Vizio and hot-shooting forward Mike Rehn. Still, if the Emeralds can apply the same pressure as when the teams last met, they should be able to ride a modest four-game win streak into Iron Mountain next Tuesday.

That would be in marked contrast to Manistique's Feb. 12 loss to the undefeated Mountaineers, before which the Emeralds had lost two of their last three games. Iron Mountain easily defeated Manistique, 59-46, in that contest.

A win against Norway could give the Emeralds a needed mental boost against the Mountaineers, Rubick acknowledged.

Game time at both Norway and Iron Mountain is 8:30 p.m. Manistique: 15 16 14 24-69. On Tuesday against the Black Bears, the Emeralds parlayed some hot shooting and consistent team play into a 28-point rout. Playing to an appreciative Parents Night crowd, Manistique hit 48 percent of its shots from the field and sank seven of 12 free throws.

That's the best shooting performance by the Emeralds since they shot 50 percent against Westwood in the last three games to an offense winning what was to be the last of a nine-game streak. Tuesday's performance came despite a mediocre first half percentage, 39, that was closely matched by Big Bay's 37 percent.

The Black Bears held the Emeralds to a 6-point lead through the first half, which saw Ron Burns score all of his team-leading 11 points. Manistique slowly padded its lead through the third, outscoring Big Bay 14-8, but it wasn't until the fourth that the barrage began in earnest.

The 24-point onslaught was led by Troy Farley, who came off the bench at the beginning of the fourth to score 10 points, hitting four of four from the field and two of three from the line. "He ignited us and the Rehn. Right crowd in the fourth," Rubick said. "It's something he'll remember for the rest of his life."

Randy Patz also played well off the bench, scoring 8 points. Center Ken Mills had his third straight game in a row, hitting 10 points and snagging eight rebounds. Overall, Manistique outrebounced Big Bay 47-29, with Randy Peterson of their last three games. Iron Mountain easily defeated Manistique, 59-46, in that contest.

A win against Norway could give the Emeralds a needed mental boost

Scoring for Big Bay: Pomeroy 12, LaTuila 11, Pottin 10, Hardy 4, Poupore and Lalonde 2.

Score by quarters: Manistique: 15 16 14 24-69. Big Bay: 9 16 8 8-41. Friday's win over Negaunee allowed Rubick to proclaim that his team was "certainly back in the groove" after the rocky mid-season stretch.

Fitting well into that groove was 6-5 center Ken Mills, who led the Emeralds in rebounds with 9 and had 10 points to boot. Rubick's shift in the last three games to an offense that emphasizes a balance between outside shots and working the ball under the basket seems to suit Mills well.

His aggressive rebounding Friday pleased both the fans and Rubick. "After he pulled one of them down, I could have sworn these were gouge marks on it," Rubick said.

White Mills played well, it was Greg Turan who sparked a three-quarter rally by Manistique to overcome a seven-point deficit. With 3:38 left in the third and the Emeralds trailing 36-29, Rubick said "Turan changed gears—from playing hard to relax." Turan heated up for the rest of the game, scoring 8 of his 10 points and led Manistique to a 19-point edge, 37-26, going into the final stretch. In addition, Turan had four rebounds, three assists and three steals.

Ron Burns led both teams in scoring with 22 points, hitting an impressive nine of 11 from the field and pushing in 4 from the free-throw line. Burns also had four assists and four rebounds in what Rubick said was "one of his strongest games in quite a while, scoring-wise."

As a team, the Emeralds hit 21 of 51 from the field for 41 percent and 15 of 15 from the line for 73 percent. Negaunee shot 35 percent from the field and hit six of eight from the line.

Local boxers lose 6 of 7 in U.P. finals

Manistique boxers took a beating here Saturday night during the Upper Peninsula Golden Gloves Championship Tournament. Out of the seven local fighters who qualified for the finals by winning bouts on Feb. 6, only one, Gregg Grimmis, won his fight and will advance to the Northern Wisconsin elimination tournament.

Grimmis won in the 139-pound novice class after the referee stopped the fight against Ishpeming's Aaron Tadjerson. Tadjerson had won earlier in the evening against K.L. Sawyer's Jerry Burk. Grimmis also won a special award as the best Manistique boxer.

Another special award, the Wally Diton trophy, was given to Manistique's Jamie Phillips. The award is given each year to the fighter in the Manistique Boxing Club who works hardest and displays the most enthusiasm. It is named in memory of Wally Diton, killed in a 1959 auto accident. Rick Howard won the trophy last year.

Despite winning the coveted trophy, Phillips lost his fight in the 147-pound novice bracket to Escanaba's Keith Peron. Peron went on to defeat Ken Swanson of the Harry Bay Boxing Club to become U.P. champ.

In one of the most-anticipated bouts of the evening, Manistique's Tom Burns lost a heart-breaking to Derek Eitrem of Sault Ste. Marie after leg cramps forced him to throw in the towel during the second of three rounds. The hard-punching Burns advanced to the U.P. finals by knocking out Gregg Burnett of Rock Feb. 6. It was the third meeting between Burns and Eitrem, with each fighter having won one of the earlier matchups in the 165-pound open class.

HIS LONG REACH didn't help Tom Burns (right) Saturday during his U.P. championship bout against the Soo's Derek Eitrem. Burns was forced to quit in the second round after being disabled by leg cramps.

Other special awards given on Saturday included one to Pete Hubbard of the Soo as the best out-of-town boxer, to Britt Nolan of Marquette as the "fightingest fighter" and to Bruce Switzer of the Soo for the best sportsmanship. Hubbard beat Manistique's Marty Novac in the 112-pound novice class; Nolan won his bout in the 139-pound open class over the Soo's Steve Eitrem and Switzer took a TKO over Eric Sunstrom of Menominee in the 119-pound novice class.

Manistique's Dale Gould won the first bout of the 16-fight card, over Dave Seger of Rock in the 125-pound novice bracket, only to lose later in the evening to Ron LeClaire of Escanaba. Paul Terek of Manistique was the other local fighter to lose Saturday, to Lee Corryell of Munising in the 132-pound novice class.

In other bouts Saturday: Joe Davis of K.L. Sawyer won two fights to become U.P. champ in the 156-pound novice class, over Marquette's Howard Cook and Munising's Brian MacKenzie. Ed Throum of Escanaba lost to his teammate, Orrin LaPalin, in the 165-pound novice bracket.

Mark Oberg of Marquette won his bout in the 178-pound novice class over the Soo's Bill McKelvey, and Scott Carter of the Harry Bay Boxing Club beat John Brandt, also of Harry Bay, in the novice heavyweight class.

The U.P. champs crowned Saturday will vie for the combined U.P.-northern Wisconsin title. Winners in Auburndale will advance to Milwaukee for the Wisconsin state finals.

J.V.'s defeat Miners, Bears

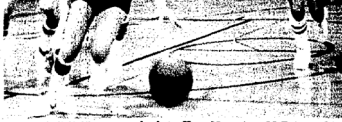

The Manistique junior varsity basketball team raised its record to 10 wins and 7 losses with recent victories over Negaunee and Big Bay de Noc. Last Friday, the Emerald J.V.'s dumped Negaunee's J.V. team 55 to 29, and Tuesday night, the J.V.'s defeated the Black Bears 58 to 45.

Against Negaunee, the Emeralds jumped out to a 12 to 1 first quarter lead and built it up to 26 to 9 at half-time. The big lead was too much for the Miners, and the Emeralds coasted to the victory.

Denny McBurney, who got the Emeralds rolling in the first quarter by scoring 9 of the 12 points, paced the Manistique attack with 17 points. Eleven J.V. players were involved in the scoring, with Negaunee's Ken Peterson leading the rest of the team with 8 points. Others getting into the scoring column were Jeff Erickson 6 points, Kevin Anderson and Steve Calloun 5 each. Dave Reid 4, Guy Arnold 3, Dean Bolt, Jamie Hider and Steve Collingwood 2 each, and Bill Kaiser 1 point.

Ken Peterson with 6 points each, and Dean Bolt, Kevin Anderson, Jamie Hider and Pat Braun, all with 2 points.

Scott LaTuila, with 16 points, led Big Bay de Noc. He was helped in the scoring department by Shannon Leckson who scored 9 and Steve Amelin who added 8 points.

THE GIRLS' Elementary basketball team took home a gold medal and from the winter Olympics held last weekend in L'Anse-au-Loup, Manistique defeated four teams to win the gold.

The Emerald J.V.'s took a while to get untracked against Big Bay de Noc Tuesday night. The Black Bears played a solid first half of basketball and took a 27 to 25 lead at halftime.

The second half belonged to Manistique as they outscored the Black Bears 13 to 18 and came up with the win.

Denny McBurney had an outstanding night for Manistique as he poured in a season high 26 points. McBurney hit on 8 field goals, 8 of 9 free throws, and added 14 rebounds in his fine performance.

Jeff Erickson also scored in double figures for the Emeralds as he scored 12 points. Other players scoring for Manistique were Steve Calloun and Ken Peterson with 6 points each, and Dean Bolt, Kevin Anderson, Jamie Hider and Pat Braun, all with 2 points.

Scott LaTuila, with 16 points, led Big Bay de Noc. He was helped in the scoring department by Shannon Leckson who scored 9 and Steve Amelin who added 8 points.

Manistique's Dale Gould won the first bout of the 16-fight card, over Dave Seger of Rock in the 125-pound novice bracket, only to lose later in the evening to Ron LeClaire of

Freshmen overwhelm Negaunee, 50-36

by Gordon Archer
The freshmen played their final home game Friday and posted a 50-36 victory over the Negaunee Miners. After one period the Emeralds held a 14-8 lead but extended it to 30-10 at the half and 40-21 after three quarters.
Manistique shot 50 percent from the floor, connecting on 21 of 42 attempts. Scoring for the Emeralds: Archer 23, Clement 10, Burns 8, Bauman 4, Mills 3, Williamson 2.
The Miners took 18 more shots than the Emeralds but were able to connect on only 14 from the field for 23 percent.
However, Negaunee outrebounded the Emeralds 35-33. Center Jim Bauman hauled down 13 and Dave Archer snared eight. Bauman also tallied six steals along with teammate Craig Nedreau who also had six steals and four assists.
As a team, the Emeralds shot poorly at the charity line, connecting on only 10-24 for a 41 percent average.
The Emeralds will take their 8-8 season record to Escanaba on Thursday for a 7 p.m. contest and then travel to Norway Friday and finally closing out the regular season at Iron Mountain next Tuesday.

Rubick makes Wis. mat finals

Robert "B.J." Rubick, originally from Manistique, advanced to the Wisconsin State wrestling finals last Saturday by placing second in the state sectionals held at Bay Port, Wis.
B.J. is the son of Ron Rubick, of Manitowoc, Wis., "The Manistique Missile," who played football at Manistique from 1959-61 enroute to being named both to All-State and All-American high school teams in 1961.
B.J. won the regional Wisconsin wrestling tournament on Feb. 13 to qualify for the sectionals held last week. His second place performance in the sectionals guaranteed him a place in the state finals to be held in Madison, Wis., this Friday and Saturday, Feb. 26 and 27.
A sophomore at Manitowoc's Lincoln High School, B.J. wrestles in the 138-pound weight class. His record this season, including tournaments, is 20-4.
He is the grandson of Erma Gierke of Manistique.

THE SQUIRTS had a rough day of shutout defeat, 8-0, last Saturday as they went down to a

People's, Limestone skate to victories

Manistique junior hockey teams split their games this weekend as they hosted the Marinette-Menominee Hockey Association Saturday at the Fair building. Winning their matches were the Peoples Store Peeewe team (9-1) and the Limestone Federal Credit Union Bantam team. The Limestone team won 4-3 in an overtime thriller.
Both the Malloy Insurance Squirt team and the Hoholik's Plumbery Mite team suffered shutouts. The Mites' loss came Sunday against Marquette.
The Squirt, Peeewe and Bantam teams will all play away games in action next week.
The Malloy Insurance Squirt team started out the day with a 8-0 loss. Mike Hubbard scored all goals for Marinette-Menominee. Goalie Joe VanDyke had 19 saves for Manistique.
Manistique failed to get off a shot on the opposition goal.
The Peoples Store Peeewe team took a big 9-1 win over Marinette-Menominee.
Manistique had three players—Rex Miller, Paul Price and Jim Beck—with two goals each. Scoring once were Billy Gould, Graig Bontekoe and Nick Hothollik.
Getting assists were Billy Gould, Jim Maxwell, Nick Hotholik, Paul Price, Rex Miller and Kevin Paquin.
Goalie Phil Berger had a good day in the net, stopping 20 shots. Goalie M. Currie had 28 saves for Marinette-Menominee.
The Limestone Federal Credit Union Bantams won their game, 4-3, in sudden-death overtime.
Scoring for Manistique were Mark Hotholik with two goals and Jason Panek with one. Ron Rie scored the winning goal in overtime. Getting assists were Jim Ruth and Ron Irie.
Phil Quinn stopped 20 shots and the M-M goalie had 28 saves.
Hoholik's Plumbery Mite team lost to the Marquette team on Sunday by 9-0, but showed much improvement over last week's season opener. Goalie P.J. Bealish stopped a good number of Marquette shots.
Scoring for the Marquette Rotary Team were Hashid Rahman with 4 goals, Andy Ryan with 3 goals, Shane Peterson with 1 goal and Jeff Gasparoff with 1 goal.
The Mites' next game will be in Menominee on March 14, when all of the Manistique Hockey Association teams will be in action.
Next weekend's games will find the Squirts and Bantams playing at Newberry on Saturday, Feb. 27.
The Peeewe will be in Marquette for a game Saturday and will be guests of the Northern Michigan University hockey team for their game against Lake Superior Saturday night.
The Peeewe will stay over night as guests of the Marquette Peeewe team and play again Sunday morning.

Widdis named as training officer

Pete Widdis of Manistique was elected as the membership training officer for the Coast Guard Auxiliary's central U.P. division at a meeting Feb. 20 in Munising.
As training officer for the division, Widdis will coordinate training of members in the three Coast Guard Auxiliary flotillas in the central U.P. area. Currently there are flotillas at Munising, Marquette and Grand Marais.
A chapter, or flotilla, of the auxiliary was active in Manistique from 1968 to 1972. The Coast Guard Auxiliary is a national organization of volunteers to promote safety in boating. Efforts to revive the local chapter, including a boating and seamanship course to qualify new members, are underway.
If a Manistique flotilla is again forming, Widdis will coordinate the continuing training of its members.

Zion to host World Day of Prayer

World Day of Prayer, an international celebration sponsored in the United States by Church Women United, will be held March 5, at the Zion Lutheran Church at 10 a.m. This annual service unites millions of people in prayer services occurring on six continents during a 24-hour period. A coffee hour will be held at the church beginning at 9 a.m. and babysitting will be available.

This year's theme is "The People of God Gathered for Worship, Scattered for Service." The text was prepared by women of the Republic of Ireland and of Northern Ireland. They worked ecumenically at a Christian renewal center near the border of the two Irish states.

World Day of Prayer provides women in the United States with an occasion to participate in a nationwide offering which goes into international Grants, the process by which Church Women United carries out its stewardship through grants to a wide variety of programs. Involved in World Day of Prayer events in Manistiquette are: local churches associated with the Manistiquette Ministerial Association.

Official Proceedings

Board of Education Following are the official board minutes for the January 30, 1982 special meeting and the February 9, 1982 regular meeting. These minutes are provided by the Manistiquette Area Schools Board of Education and it is solely responsible for their content. January 30, 1982 James Moffat, Acting President, called the Special Meeting of the Manistiquette Area Schools Board of Education to order January 30, 1982. Billie Doyle, President, called the Regular Meeting of the Manistiquette Area Schools Board of Education to order February 9, 1982 in the Board Room of the Junior-Senior High School Building at 7:00 P.M.

City Police

Two juvenile girls were cited to prosecute court in connection with a shoplifting incident Tuesday. According to the Manistiquette Public Safety Department, two juveniles ages 13 and 15, were observed shoplifting in the Cobble shoe store. Owner John LaPointe reported the incident to the authorities who arrested them. Gloria J. Jackson was cited for improper backing following an accident on Friday. She told police that as she attempted to back her vehicle into a parking space, she hit a parked car owned by Francis M. Schuetter. As a vehicle driven by Sandra A. Martin and one driven by Carl V. Johnson backed from parking places at Kordeck's Food, the vehicles collided. Minor damage was done in the accident, which happened Saturday at 4:05 p.m. As Marianne Deslauriers turned her vehicle onto Cedar St. from Oak Street, she swerved to avoid an oncoming car. Her vehicle hit an illegally parked vehicle owned by Ann Minor. The accident occurred on Saturday. Eleanor M. Mulhaup told police that as she tried to stop her vehicle, the vehicle slid into a power pole near the curb. The incident occurred on Saturday at 7:30 a.m.

Several vehicles in the Curran GM parking lot were damaged by an unknown vehicle on Sunday. The case is still under investigation. Moderate damage was done by a chimney fire early Wednesday morning. The fire occurred at the Austin-Eoley trailer in McNamara's Trailer Court. The fire, according to police started because of faulty chimney installation. Fourteen appliance calls were made last week for a yearly total of 46 calls.

More cheese asked for U.P.

U.P. Community Action Agencies last Wednesday, Feb. 17, ordered 200,000 pounds of surplus cheese—about 40,000 five-pound blocks—to be distributed in the second round of the cheese give-away program.

The CAAs had 112,000 pounds of the American process cheese to distribute during the first month of the program and virtually all of that was doled out the first day, Feb. 10. Thousands of people were turned away when the cheese ran out. Over 5,000 pounds were distributed in Schoolcraft County.

Rain checks were given to those who arrived at some distribution sites too late to get the cheese, and they will be given priority when the next shipment arrives in late March.

Despite a few problems, cheese distribution went quite smoothly in the U.P., according to Jim Bruce, deputy director of the Upper Peninsula Commission for Area Progress (UPCAP).

Distributing agencies downstate were keeping a close eye on the U.P. since it was the first area in Michigan to test its system for doling out the cheese.

Bruce will be talking to officials from the Department of Education, the state agency in charge of the program, to let them know what problems were encountered in the Upper Peninsula.

"The main problem was not enough cheese," Bruce said. "The cheese, kept in storage by the federal Commodity Credit Corporation, was to have been dumped but instead is being given to senior citizens and disadvantaged people."

Coordination of the cheese program on a regional level was done by UPCAP, while local CAAs handled actual distribution to the poor and elderly.

Distribution of cheese went smoothly at the Escanaba Senior Center although a large rush of people early in the day meant Public Safety officers had to be called to control traffic. Although some was saved for delivery to homebound persons, the Menominee-Delta Schoolcraft CAA saw most of its 32,000 pound allocation disappear within a few hours.

About 900 persons were given rain checks. The Alger-Marquette Community Action Board doled out 21,000 pounds of the surplus commodity but had to turn away about 3,000 persons. Distribution was hampered by a lack of volunteers. Next month, 40,000 pounds is being sought by the agency.

Response was more than expected by the U.P.C.A. Ontario CAA. Next month, the agency will increase its distribution 3,000 pounds to 12,000 pounds. Storage may be a problem, however, and the CAA is looking for refrigerated warehouse space.

In Chippewa, Tuare, and Mackinac counties, 2,000 clients were served, but cheese ran out before another 3,000 people could get it. The agency is asking for 50,000 pounds next month.

Cheese is being dispersed at five locations in Baraga, Houghton, and Keweenaw counties and should last through the distribution schedule. The Isac CAA is asking for 15,000 pounds for next month.

In Dickinson and Iron counties, 20,000 pounds of cheese was given to 4,000 persons. A second day of distribution was cancelled when the cheese ran out. The agency will seek a 40,000 pound allocation next.

Meeting on county development today

A meeting to discuss formation of a county-wide Economic Development Corporation (EDC) will be held at 1 p.m. today, Feb. 25, in the second-floor conference room of the courthouse.

County Board Member Lindsay Frenette said the purpose of the meeting was to discuss the formation of a corporation for the county and answer questions anyone may have about EDCs.

"This is not an organizational meeting, but a meeting to acquaint the people of Schoolcraft County with the provisions of the Economic Development Corporation Act," Frenette said. He invited anyone with questions about EDCs to attend the meeting.

Greg Main, an authority on EDCs from the Central Upper Peninsula

Planning and Development Commission, will attend the meeting to answer questions.

"What we want to know," Frenette said, "is does Schoolcraft County need a county-wide Economic Development Corporation? What are its advantages; what are its limitations? Who will benefit from it?"

The City of Manistique already has its own EDC, which issued tax-exempt notes to bonds that financed the construction of the downtown IGA grocery store. Because the institutions buying the bonds pay no taxes on them, cheaper financing for development projects may be obtained.

That and other features of EDCs, including recent changes in the laws governing them, will be discussed at today's meeting.

THIS PHOTO WAS TAKEN ABOUT seventy years ago, in Manistique. Can you identify the locale? See this week's Memories for some details.

Circa 1920 What kind of plane was it?

I hope to hear from someone regarding the type and make of that airplane that took place slightly before my time. The locale is undoubtedly the fairgrounds, identified by that line of hills to the east in the background. The spectators are standing inside the fence, which is barely distinguishable between all those white shirts and dresses and the distant hills. To the left may be seen some of the small buildings used to house horses, before the main fair buildings had been built. And on the hill at the right may be seen some of the headstones in the old city marble orchard.

The airplane is seen taking off to the southeast, away from the cameraman, Mr. Braut. It looks like Braut may have been scrambling a little to get this shot; the figures in the background are a little blurred and out of focus but the airplane... the main event... stands out sharp and clear, a fine tribute to a photographer who had only very heavy cameras and slow film and still got good shots.

We have been told that one of the earliest aviators around here was a man named Benchley and this may or not be our pilot. The 'plane is not too far removed in design from the one the Wright brothers first flew at Kitty Hawk, and it would be interesting to know what it is. Maybe we'll hear from the experts down in Wisconsin.

As you can see, the pilot sat out front with lots of fresh air and sunshine, and nothing but a little wicker seat between him and the ground; if you have ever heard the expression "flying by the seat of your pants," this is a pretty good illustration. No instruments, in fact no cockpit, just visual reference to the ground, just the wind in your ears and a big noisy engine and pusher prop behind you. A thrill a minute.

Many of the folks in this audience had never seen an airplane and who would have guessed at the time that we would soon be in a war that used airplanes in combat, or that they would ever develop to the jet wonders of today!

We have another little story from George Dorman about the Cookson-Saunders logging project which took place on the Driggs in the early Twenties. Here it is, in George's words:

"My dad George Dorman went up there to trap beaver for Cookson and Saunders to make their wives fur coats. Dad and Saunders were going down river in a canoe when dad saw a beaver laying on the sandbank. So he shot it and they run the canoe to the bank. Saunders was on his knees in the back end. Dad stood up and touched the beaver with the gun barrel, and the beaver dove in under the boat; Dad reached down and caught it by the tail and pulled it into the canoe and the beaver made for Saunders. It was all he could do to slap it on the head with his hand, and by that time the canoe left the river bank and started down the river. Dad was standing up and he would kick the beaver under the chin and it would make back for Harvey. At last, dad reached down and got the hatchet and hit it on the head.

"That was when Harv told my dad words in his Down East accent: 'By God, Do'man, don't you evah bring anothah live beaver in a boat where I am again.'

"Dad stayed all winter timber fitting. That fall they had the river full of logs boomed off. Harv went down to look at the boom to check it and there was a buck deer caught in the logs. So Harv walked out onto the logs and hauled it out. Dad said here comes Harv with a buck on his back, his shirt all tore and his hands and face all blood. He got to the barn, let the deer down in a stall. They kept the buck all winter and long towards spring turned it out but it wouldn't leave the camp. He was still there when camp broke up for the spring drive."

In the course of relating these camp stories of George's, we've used some terminology that may be unfamiliar to the average reader. George's dad was a "timber fitter;" this was specialty in the logging days and it meant that he was the man who notched the tree for the sawyers. It had to be done right, with consideration for where you wanted the tree to fall without destroying a lot of good timber. The direction of the wind had to be considered and also the formation of the tree, where the skidding road was and so on.

We have also mentioned "swampers;" these were the men who cleared out roads for the skidways. This was sometimes a very tricky business because the slope had to be just right; not too steep and not too flat. Frequently a single team could haul out a sleigh of logs weighing several tons, if the skidway was sloped just right.

A "boom" was a string of logs chained together for the purpose of holding out logs (in the river) in one bunch until they were ready to drive them down the river. They also used booms near the mills to separate the logs into different ponds for the different mills. The "boomers" who worked this operation directed the timber according to the mark on the logs, and this was sometimes a very busy job, when the river ran fast and there were hundreds of logs coming at you.

Hawatha Baptist Mission, will be here sometime during the month of May. More details later."

KITTY COULD RETIRE WITH ALMOST A QUARTER OF A MILLION DOLLARS.

THE NEW TAX-DEFERRED INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS—IRAs

Most of us don't have much money these days. But if she had a tax-deferred Individual Retirement Account (IRA) at our FULL SERVICE BANK, she could have a lot of money in the days to come.

By depositing just $19.23 toward an IRA every week, she could end up with $25,000 in 30 years!

That's worth repeating: A deposit of $19.23 a week could total $25,000!

Of course, because the maximum allowable yearly investment has been increased to $2,000, it's possible to earn even more. Making deposits by the week, by the month or whatever is most convenient.

But whatever she invests could soon be earning high-year interest to help make her golden years a lot more golden.

And because our Individual Retirement Accounts are tax-deferred, Kitty could deduct each of her yearly investments from her taxable income. So she'd pay no federal taxes on her IRA until she starts withdrawing funds (minimum age 59½).

Then when she retires, she'll probably be in a lower tax bracket, paying lower taxes.

If you'd like to set up an affordable IRA, come talk to the professionals at our FULL SERVICE BANK.

They'll show you how a regular savings plan can help almost anyone retire with a quarter of a million dollars.

Including Kitty!

*This example assumes 12% interest compounded annually based on the average quarterly balance. It's intended to give you a general idea of how regular deposits into an IRA can grow into a substantial sum. It is not a guarantee of interest rates or final funds results.

Senior Citizens

by Diane McClelland

As I write this column I want you to know that I'm physically poised. My sister called Saturday morning and said that she, her husband, Davis, my nephew Mathias, my niece Rachel and my grandmother would be here Thursday (today). I love when they come to visit. My family has always been close and I get the phone bills and I do get home sick.

"After I got off the phone I said to Paul those famous words, 'Let's get started we have lots to do.' Just what he wanted to hear first thing Saturday morning.

I love having company. When I know I've got company coming, especially since we've moved up here, I want everything just right when they get here.

And if I feel this way just imagine Paul's feelings when I got out of my trusty pad and pencil and started getting my famous list ready:

- (1) Clean the house. (You know this would be first.) This house is good enough for us but we have company coming. My values have changed.
- (2) Grocery shop. My nephew loves grape pop and M&M's. Whatever he wants, he gets. When he comes to visit he rules the roost. Paul got extra groceries so my Grandma could finally fit in a decent meal.
- (3) Hide everything I don't want my sister to take home. She's not for taking home lots more than she comes with. (We know we're in trouble when she's pulling a U-Haul.)

(4) Get my brother-in-law a fifth of brandy. He likes a good time too. We got everything done. Took us most of the weekend. Now all we do is wait until they get here. Then, next week we'll spend the weekend wiping those little finger prints off everything.

We're still looking for recipes. Drop them off when you can.

Memorials were given to the Center in the name of Adolph Asp by Harold and Jennie Charter; in the name of Alice Cody by York and Bernice Anderson; in the name of Israel Cody by York and Bernice Anderson; in the name of George Stevenson by Williams and Helen Olsen; in the name of George Conell by Ruth Conell; in the name of George Stevenson by the Cribbage Players from the Center.

Monetary donations to our general fund account came from Marie LaFave, Emerald Cousino, John A. Stoor and two persons who wish to remain anonymous.

Victor and Dorothy Peterson and Frank Beckman gave postage donations to supplement the cost of the Newsletter.

Helen and Jack Neal donated coffee to be used at the Center.

John and Elsie Kasan gave the Center a generous donation of bowling trophies.

Nels Halsey gave a donation to our sewing class and York and Bernice Anderson gave prizes to be used by our Tuesday Bingo ladies.

All these acts of kindness are greatly appreciated and we "thank you."

Birthday Greetings go out to: William Phillion, Lydia Weiner, February 26; Jay Anger, February 27; Leonard J. Hearings scheduled for U.P. elderly services plan

Two public hearings have been scheduled on an annual plan for delivery of services to the U.P.'s elderly population, according to Kathryn Kumkosi, director of aging programs for the Upper Peninsula Commission for Area Progress (UPCAP).

The hearings, in Gladstone and Munising, will be held by the Upper Peninsula Area Agency on Aging. The session in Gladstone will be held at the Senior Citizen Center, 303 N. 5th St., on Feb. 29 from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. eastern time. The second hearing will be held at the Drop-In Senior Center, 208 W. Superior, Munising, on March 5 during the same hours.

UPCAP, as the grantee for senior services programs in the U.P., is required to develop a plan for senior services on an annual basis and holds the hearings as part of that process, Mrs. Kumkosi said.

Funds received from the state Office of Services to the Aging are allocated by UPCAP to 15 agencies and commissions which provide services and meals at over 90 centers and sites.

The fiscal year 1983 annual plan was written under three-year guidelines established by the state. A three-year statement of purpose and details of specific services to be delivered during the fiscal year beginning Oct. 1, 1982, are included in the plan.

Content of the plan thus far has come from service providers, the UPCAP Policy Board and the Area Agency on Aging Advisory Committee. Mrs. Kumkosi urged private individuals and representatives from other human service agencies to give their input at the hearings. Testimony is requested but not required, Mrs. Kumkosi said.

Following the hearings, the plan will be reviewed and approved by the state Commission on Services to the Aging in Lansing.

Copies of the draft summary of the plan may be examined at senior citizen centers and libraries throughout the U.P. Copies may also be obtained by writing to the Director, U.P. Area Agency on Aging, 118 N. 22nd St., Escanaba, Mich. 49829.

Library Notes

Big Bay de Noc School library was recently presented with six memorial donations.

Three books were donated in memory of Eva VanRemotel, two of the volumes were given by Mr. and Mrs. Adson Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Seaman, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bangert and Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Herbert.

They gave "Wrecks and Rescues of the Great Lakes: A Photographic History," by James P. Barry and "Games for Growups," by Marguerite Kohl.

The Everett and Jason Groll families gave "The Sugar Disease: Diabetes," by Alvin Silverstein, also in Mrs. VanRemotel's name.

Vern and Fran Bernard donated "Sharpening Small Tools," by Ian Bradley in memory of Joseph Miller.

A magazine in memory of Joseph, Helen and Elrod Barus was also donated by the Bernard's. They gave a year's subscription of "Mother Earth News," a how-to publication devoted to nature and ecology.

Bernice Barumussen donated a book, "Lettering and Alphabets," by J. Albert Cavanaugh, in memory of Lena Stephenson.

FAYETTE STATE PARK recently acquired an additional 340 acres of land in an exchange with Cleveland Cliffs Iron Company. A 1.5 mile cross-country ski trail has been completed in this area. The trail is groomed each Friday. Other trails are available within the park. The self-golded trail through the town- site is also available this winter. A motor vehicle sticker is required and this sticker is good for the remainder of the year.

For more information, contact Park Manager, Fayette State Park, Garden, Michigan 49835 or call 644-2603. (Bill Manning photo)
