Rejects teachers' salary demands

'Fact-finder' rules against teachers

The "fact finder" appointed by the state to rule on the contract dispute between the school district and its teachers issued his report this week, calling on the teachers to accept the administration offer of a $450 across-the-board increase in salary.

The report and recommendations of the fact-finder, Dr. William Barstow Jr., a law professor at Michigan Technological University, is not binding on either the teachers or the school district. Negotiations between the two sides have continued since the fact-finding hearing was held Sept. 22.

State Police crack local burglary ring

One of the largest robbery operations ever reported in this area was broken Saturday evening by Michigan State Police.

Acting on an anonymous tip, police stopped a pick-up truck which had been reported stolen as it drove down a road in the Garden Peninsula. The passenger in the truck leaped from the vehicle and fled into the woods. The driver, Joseph Wayne Cota, 25, remained in the truck.

Police called for tracking dogs. After seeing the dogs arrive, David Plante, 24, emerged from his hiding place and surrendered.

Police searched the truck, which was filled with items allegedly stolen from various hunting camps in the area.

Further investigation led to the arrest of Frances Cota, 32, and Earl

Werner elected probate judge

William A. Werner of Manistique will be the new 5th District probate judge starting Jan. 1. In Tuesday's election, Werner defeated incumbent Probate Judge John M. Pater by a 2-to-1 margin to win a six-year term to the office.

The 5th Probate District is composed of Alger and Schoolcraft Counties. Werner was strong in both counties, taking every precinct in Schoolcraft and winning handily in Alger as well. The final tally was 4,076 votes for Werner and 1,864 for Pater across both counties.

Werner ended up with 67 percent of the vote to Pater's 33. Pater has been probate judge in Schoolcraft County since 1973 when he was appointed to take the place of retiring Judge John Faketty. He had been Alger County probate judge since 1961 and was elected to serve both counties in the combined 5th Probate District in 1976.

Werner, currently Alger County prosecuting attorney, had never run for the office in the past. He ran on a platform of improving relations between the probate Court and local school and police officials as well as establishing a "firm but fair" program of juvenile justice.

Pater cited his own long judicial experience in probate law and defended his record with schools and police.

Besides dealing with "juveniles" under 17 years old, Probate Court also handles estates and determines mental competency.

Werner garnered 1,902 votes in Schoolcraft County and 2,174 in Alger while Pater took 857 in Schoolcraft and 1,007 in Alger.

City scraps ski hill improvement

At the end of August after so long an agreement was reached between the school district and the Manistique Educational Association (MEA), the teachers' union. Since then, the planned improvements so close to winter. He had asked the City Council at its last meeting for a decision on whether matching city funds would be available, but no decision was made.

"I just don't think it can be done between now and when the snow flies," Larson said of the project. "My main concern was I didn't want the hill closed for the whole winter" because of stalled construction work.

The project would have included moving the ski tow to give more room to skiers, construction of a new ski run and a special toboggan/sled run, improved wiring and construction of a shelter for the ski tow power supply.

The snag to going ahead with the project has been lack of city money to pay for half its cost. The city first applied for a DNR grant in the fall of 1980 and was awarded up to $7,500 in matching money in February of 1981.

When bids for the project were accepted this summer, the only bid received, for $17,400, was rejected by the council as too high.

Last week, Larson came back to the council with another plan that

Council reviews city manager applicants

The job of city manager for Manistique is apparently quite a plum. If the applicants received so far are any indication. At a work session Monday, City Council Member Mike Dugovito said 35 applications for the post, to be vacated at the end of the year by John Matthews, had been received so far with the Nov. 15 deadline still over a week away.

The council advertised the vacancy to the post in a national trade magazine and has received applications "from Maine to California."

Emphasizing that all applications received before the deadline would be considered, Dugovito said that, of those received so far, eight remained in contention for the job.

To weed through the applicants, Dugovito said he and Council Member Wally Leggett set certain criteria, such as experience as a city manager. Those applicants without municipal management experience were rejected. The remaining applicants, aged 25 to 50, seem highly qualified, on paper, anyway.

Most have master's degrees in public administration. Some have second degrees in other areas, such as engineering, Dugovito said. "I think we were pleasantly surprised at the quality of the applicants," Dugovito said. "I wasn't exactly expecting master's-prepared candidates. I think we'll have a very tough decision" in choosing the next city manager, he said.

Dugovito said that a final decision would be made as soon as possible after the Nov. 15 deadline for applications. Provisions for interviewing the final candidates for the job, such as determining who will pay travel costs, have not been set.

At any rate, a decision should be made by mid-December.

The main purpose of Monday's meeting was to discuss a proposed budget amendment drawn up by Matthews. That discussion sparked a heated exchange between Matthews and Leggett over Matthews' decision to purchase pumps for installation at the small boat marina to prevent ice from forming under the docks there during the winter.

The council held a proposal at its Sept. 27 meeting to purchase 12 of $219.50 apiece but made no decision (continued on page 8A)

County voters pick winners in election

Cold and rainy weather didn't stop Schoolcraft County voters from voting in large numbers in Tuesday's general election. Altogether, 3,575-58 percent-of the county's registered voters took to the polls.

Not only did they vote into office the first all-Democratic Board of Commissioners in memory (see separate story), they went with the winners in all the major state and national races. Other winners after Tuesday's election were William Werner in his bid to unseat 5th District Probate Judge John Pater (see separate story) and the City of Manistique's second try at voter approval for a $2.2 million sewer bond issue. The bond issue for separation of city storm and sanitary sewers passed 67-33 percent.

A complete breakdown of how the election went in Schoolcraft County is shown in chart form on page 4A. In a nutshell, however, local voters went with statewide winners right down the line.

Governor-elect James Blanchard won in the county over GOP rival Dick Headlee by a handy 16 percentage points. Blanchard garnered 1,964 votes to Headlee's 1,400 here. Tax-cutter Bob Tish managed 44 votes here, the most of any minority candidate.

Incumbent Secretary of State Richard H. Austin cruised to a victory here as well as statewide. In the county, he defeated Republican challenger Beth Andrus 2,228-1,052.

In the race for U.S. Senator, Republican Phil Ruppe's Upper Peninsula roots were not enough to help him overcome incumbent victor Don Riegle in the county. Riegle carried the county 1,758-1,637.

Incumbent Republican Bob Davis Sr. won another term in Congress and also had an easy time of it here, defeating little-known Kent Bourland 1,900-1,404.

The same can't be said for Davis' son, Bob Davis Jr., who narrowly lost his bid for 107th District state representative to Democrat Gagliardi of Drummond Island. In the county, Davis Jr. also lost by a slim margin, 1,745-1,630.

In the state senate race, incumbent Democrat Mitch Irwin had a surprisingly easy time in Schoolcraft County on his way to reelection, soundly beating his GOP challenger, John Anderson of Traverse City, 2,046 to 1,294—a 21 percent margin. Attorney General Frank Kelley carried the county on his way to reelection over Republican rival L. Brooks Patterson. Kelley received 2,063 votes here to Patterson's 1,206.

Democrats sweep in County Board races

They'll probably be arguing for a long time whether the Republicans won or lost in Tuesday's national elections, but there's no arguing the outcome in Schoolcraft County: in every one of the local races Tuesday, voters elected Democrats over their GOP rivals.

On the County Board, that means the new five-member board that will convene next year will be all Democratic. According to County Clerk Fred Lesica, the one-party board is definitely the first since 1968, when the present board system was adopted and may be the first in county history.

In the only other county races, Democrat Dan Klairich beat William Males for a seat on the County Road Commission, 1,825-1,640, and Democrat Linda Klairich was unopposed for Manistique township trustee.

The Democratic sweep in the County board races means three incumbents, Ernie Hoholik, Bob Barr and Lindsay Frenette, will return to seats on the board come Jan. 1. Newcomers will be Nancy Veresan and Louis "Sparky" Lauzon. In last week's paper, it was incorrectly reported that Veresan would be the first woman County Commissioner; if elected, apparently a woman served on the board in the 1920's.

Here is a district-by-district breakdown of the voting for county commissioner:

District	Winner	Count
District 1	Lindsay Frenette (D)	388
	John Tobin (R)	294
District 2	Louis Lauzon (D)	332
	James Barr (R)	244
District 3	Nancy Veresan (D)	399
	Darryl Carlson (R)	354
District 4	Robert Barr (D)	470
	George Danko (R)	207
District 5	Ernie Hoholik (D)	460
	Howard Stafford (R)	185

Elected county officials get 3 percent pay hike

Meeting just before a state-mandated pre-election deadline, the County Board Friday resisted the temptation to give itself a pay raise but boosted the 1983 salaries of other elected officials in the county by an average $643.

The 3-percent pay raise approved by the board Friday boosts next year's annual salary of the county treasurer, clerk, prosecutor and sheriff.

For this year, the County Board approved an across-the-board $1,000 salary increase for elected officials and other department heads. While pay raises for the other, non-elected, department heads in the county have not yet been ironed out, here are the increases for elected officials: Sheriff Lloyd Gray: $590, from $19,660 to $20,250; Prosecuting Attorney Peter Hoffmbeck: $768, from $26,541 to $27,309; and County Treasurer Bill Cowman: $524, from $20,814 to $21,438.

With three of its members seeking reelection in Tuesday's balloting, the County Board kept its own pay the same. The chairman of the board is paid $1,200 a year and members are paid $900. In addition, all members are paid $30 for meetings that last less than four hours, $55 for meetings over four hours and $60 for meetings outside the county. Those compensations were not increased by the board Friday.

Members of other boards appointed by the County Board will be paid for meetings by the same schedule. The County Board did increase the mileage allowance for itself and other county employees from 25 to 28 cents a mile for travel on county business (continued on page 4A)

Doggone it cat . . . stay away!

It's always nice to feel wanted, but Cindy Nelson of Manistique could do with a little less attention from a certain feline friend of hers.

Nelson was adopted by a stray cat over a month ago. While she had nothing against the big kitty, she was already the happy owner of another cat and the rivalry developing encouraged her to seek another home for her new friend.

She managed to talk an acquaintance living on Indian Lake into giving the cat a nice new home. On Oct. 2, the cat was dispatched—unwillingly, by all accounts—to its lakelike abode four miles away.

Rather than appreciate its new life of leisure, the cat seemed downright unhappy living near the lake and disappeared after two days. Almost a month later to the day, guess where the cat showed up?

"If you can't guess, ask Nelson. "She showed up Monday as if nothing had happened and went straight to her bowl," she recalled. "She was eating so fast she was choking."

Nelson appreciates loyalty—unrequited or not—just as much as the next cat lover, but still wants a neat cat-house. If she can't find a home for her affectionate friend, she will have it put to sleep.

CINDY NELSON was adopted by living briefly near Indian Lake. If you would like a nice Kitty, give Nelson a call at 341-2815. She found it way back to her house after

Bell Ringers entertain at Medicare October birthday party

by Dorothy Hoholik

Bell ringers from the First Baptist Church entertained patients at the Schoolcraft Medical Care Facility at the October birthday party sponsored by the Woman's Club. The Rev. Jay Martin directed the Bell Ringers as they played three beautiful religious songs. Snow flakes were falling outside the windows but the warmth of the program filled the hearts of the audience.

Thanking the handbell choir for making its effort were the three birthday celebrants: Cln Wood, Susan Caffey and Judith Rose.

A resident at the facility, Harold Leonard, said "We sit in our rooms, day after day, and how wonderful it is that talent of this nature will come to us and cheer us up." Volunteers of the Manistique Woman's Club, sponsors of the project, and the entire staff of the medical facility also thanked the First Baptist musicians.

Helen Wreche, daughter of Clara Wood, presented corsages to those celebrating birthdays. Hand-knitted lap robes donated by Laura Alberts, member of the Manistique Woman's Club, were also given. Birthday cards were distributed and cake and ice cream were served to a dining room full of patients. The cake was decorated in the Halloween motif by official cake baker Jane Shampine. "Happy Bio-thday" was frosted on its face.

At home with Sarah

by Sarah Bignall

Nowadays people are doing more home entertaining than ever before. The recession has hit us all hard and we have changed many things in our life styles. Therefore, we are always looking for recipes that can stretch to serve more people. This recipe is one you should consider for a dinner party. Beef Stroganoff is something special, and even though it sounds expensive and elaborate, it is easy to make and really economical. Another plus for this recipe is that you can make it ahead of time because it freezes well. When you make it, why not double or triple the recipe and keep it on hand in the freezer for use at a moment's notice?

BEEF STROGANOFF

1 1/2 lbs. round steak
1 cup chopped onions
2 (3 oz.) cans mushrooms (pieces)
2 beef bouillon cubes plus 2 cups water
1/4 teas. dill seed (this is what makes this recipe special)
1 teas. salt
4 tbl. tomato paste (can substitute catsup)
2 teas. worcestershire sauce
1 cup sour cream

Cut steak in strips (1/4 inch by 2 in.) Roll flour and brown in oil. Add onions and cook "til nearly tender. Add bouillon which has been dissolved in the water (hot) Add salt and dill seed. Simmer until meat is tender, about 1 1/2 hours. Stir in tomato paste, W. sauce, and mushrooms. Just before serving stir in sour cream; heat but do not boil. Use Kitchen Bouquet if it looks anemic! Serve over fluffy rice or noodles. One recipe serves 6. When you make it ahead of time, leave out the sour cream. Add it just before serving.

Sarah says...you can remove burrs from a dog's hair by working oil into the tangle with your fingers - especially near the skin. Another good way to get stubborn burrs out is to crush them with a piller. Collapsed burrs lose their holding power and can be combed or brushed out.

Food for thought...Kindness is one thing you can't give away - it always comes back!

Emerald Football

A record to be proud of Big things start small, they say, and so it could be with a young Emerald winning streak fashioned last week at Newberry. The Manistique varsity football squad, in case you hadn't heard, beat the Indians to take their second game in a row.

While that may sound like small potatoes to the uninitiated, it's the first time the Emeralds have posted twin wins since 1977 and enabled Manistique to salvage its season and post three victories.

And, of course, it's not necessarily over yet. The recent Manistique win streak could just be beginning. Who knows, this time next year...

The most important thing to us, however, is not what the future may hold for coming Emerald teams, it is what the young men on this year's squad made of less-than-perfect circumstances. After an encouraging win early on, the Emeralds lost four heartbreakers in a row, dashing hopes for a winning season.

As Emerald coach Jim Hunter pointed out, a lesser team would have given up—after all, the only difference between a 1-8 record and a 3-6 record is a little pride. Enough of a difference, as it turns out.

We agree with Hunter when he said of the mini-win streak to end the season: "I think it shows the character of these kids. They could have just played to get it over with, but they played to win and got a win they really deserved."

Not only that, the seniors leaving the team can justifiably feel proud of their record—a record that reflects some gritty determination that is a lot more valuable than any athletic accolades.

We should put our money where our mouths are

Dear Editor:

It is with great sadness that I will say goodbye to my friends, Luanne and David Kauppila. They have contributed to our community in many ways since they moved here in May of 1981.

Luanne has given of her musical talent. They have been supportive of community charitable endeavors and have been warm and giving to their church, the senior citizens group and many others.

It is very unfortunate that we could not have given them an opportunity to earn a living in return for their generous efforts in our community. I have heard lots of people say that we need more energetic and involved young people in our community but there is still a prevailing attitude that you are "an overachiever" if you were not born here.

I feel that there are other qualities that are more important than whether or not you are a life-long resident of the area. Also, I feel that this community could support more than one funeral home and offer both directors a comfortable living. It is our community's loss that we did not find it in our hearts to do so.

Good luck in the future, David and Luanne, and I hope the next community you are in will appreciate you.

There's more to Kauppila's departure than finances

Dear Editor:

We would like to expand on the reasons why we had to close the Kauppila Funeral Home. Much more was involved in reaching this decision than finances. The emotional pressure and drain really began to take its toll, it was even more so than we realized.

Back in May of 1981 when we arrived, we were very excited to serve our new community as we served the Lord in this special ministry. We have always enjoyed meeting people and getting involved in the community. But it became increasingly difficult when friends who wished us well did not turn to us at their time of need.

It is hard to understand why some people who know us and know the quality of service we provide, still don't come to us. All of our assets went into this venture. Our working capital was generated from the families we served. The stress we were under became very evident when it was a major factor in the miscarriage of our precious baby in July.

The opportunity of sharing ourselves has been a growing experience. It has been very difficult to continue giving when we are so drained emotionally. We were in need of emotional support as well as the opportunity to serve more families. It's so important to know that people really care.

We want to thank the families that gave us the opportunity to serve them. Our faith in the Lord and His guidance led us to Manistique. Now we honestly feel God is providing this chance to leave.

We have benefited in so many ways through this experience. We have made many special friends, we loved working together, we enjoyed sharing the talents the Lord has given us. We know God is preparing the ideal situation for us where we can put to use the lessons and insights gained here.

Best wishes, Kauppilas, from these local residents

Dear Editor:

We were very disappointed to read the article about the Kauppila Funeral Home closing.

David and Luanne Kauppila are quality people, first class citizens and an asset to Manistique. We regret to see them leave Manistique but we also recognize the fact that they have to make a living. Apparently their destiny was not in Manistique; however I am sure that the success they failed to find in Manistique is waiting for them somewhere else and eventually will come to them and that I have no doubt whatever.

David and Luanne, we love you both and our best wishes for success and prosperity go with you to your new home wherever that may be.

County Board gives officials a pay raise

business and to attend meetings. Also increased was the maximum reimbursement, from $16 to $30 a day.

John Tobin, a candidate for the board who faced Lindsay Frenette in Tuesday's District 1 balloting, challenged the board to wait until after the election to consider any pay hikes for elected officials. Board Chairman Merwin White said state law prohibited the County Board from waiting until after an election to set its own pay. "The idea is that you're not going to change your salary during your term of office," White said.

In other matters Friday, the board: --Reappointed three members of the Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital Board of Trustees to three year terms starting Jan. 1. Chairman Cal Jenerou, Vice-Chairman Glenn Blignall and Trustee Mercedes Grimm were reappointed to the seven-member board.

--Tabled action on a 1983 budget and employee salary schedule. Board Member Rick Pawley of the board's Finance Committee said that no agreement with the two unions representing county workers, the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME) and the Fraternal Order of Police (FOP), had been reached.

Last year, negotiations with county unions delayed adoption of a 1982 budget until late December, when a 25-cent-an-hour raise for AFSCME workers was agreed upon. Pawley said that the length of the contract now under negotiation would hopefully be changed so as not to interfere with the county's annual budget preparation.

Specifically, the resolution wants all land used for "recreational purposes" excluded from commercial forest designation. The current wording of the law limits the restriction only to land for "developed" recreational purposes. Besides removal of the forest designation, the current

March and a state mediator was called in during June, with no results. The teachers applied for the more formal, but still advisory, "fact-finding" process in August and the fact finding hearing was held in September.

At that hearing, three issues blocking a new contract were made public. The biggest issue was a pay increase for the district's 71 teachers. While the school district offered a $456 increase for all teachers regardless of education or experience, the teachers' union proposed a completely revamped salary schedule. That schedule, besides costing $42,210 more than the board proposal, weights rights increases toward those teachers with the most seniority.

The other two issues concerned teachers' request for vision insurance and an increase in dental insurance coverage. Barstow recommended approval of both those requests, which would cost the district $9,175 a year.

He rejected, however, the teachers' union demand for a reworking of the salary schedule that determines how much a teacher working in the district will be paid. The schedule proposed by the MEA would increase the salary of beginning teachers under contract by only $71 a year, compared to the $450 school district offer. At the other end of the scale of experience, however, 24 teachers would receive raises of over $1,300, with two getting raises over $2,300.

Barstow apparently thought the differences in the size of the increases in the teachers' salary proposal were "too great." "The structure would be inherently discriminatory as to junior employees," he wrote.

"While it may have great appeal to the present instructional staff in this district, where 40 of the 71.5 teaching positions already have incumbents with over 10 years of service, it is questionable that it would satisfy younger teachers."

The teachers' proposal "ignores the truism that work experience after the first ten years adds little to quality of performance in that job category," Barstow wrote. The wide difference in raises in the MEA salary schedule "is so extreme a dispersal as to be capricious. Many teachers might consider such a pattern to be a breach of the (Manistique Educational Association's) duty to provide fair representation."

Don't forget Veteran's Day next Thursday!

Dear Editor:

Another Veterans Day will dawn next Thursday...and with it the opportunity once again for our fellow Americans to pause to realize how blessed we are to live in this bountiful land of freedom we call America.

The purpose of Veterans Day is to recall, as we should, who won and preserved our freedoms, and at what cost; and then to say thank you to this nation's 43 million War veterans, living and dead, for their service and sacrifice.

To all who would pay our veterans a special tribute on their day, our veterans could ask for no greater tribute than to have their fellow citizens join them in the task of protecting and strengthening our beloved America.

Join us at the MHS gym at 10:45 a.m., 11th November, 1983, Veterans Day.

Randall Knuth completes basic

Airman Randall W. Knuth, son of Lawrence W. and Alice E. Knuth of Manistique, has completed Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

The airman, who is remaining at Lackland for specialized training in the security police field, studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations.

Completion of this training earned the individual credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force.

He is a 1982 graduate of Manistique High School.

Dominic Beaudro gets truck training

A Manistique man was among the recent graduates of the Truck Driver Training Program at Lansing Community College. Completing the four-week course of instruction was Dominic M. A certificate of completion was awarded in addition to the D.O.T. Certificate at ceremonies on Oct. 22 at the Fort Custer facility near Battle Creek, Michigan.

The third oldest Catholic church in the U.P., St. Francis de Sales in Manistique, will celebrate its centennial in 1983. That year also marks the 50th anniversary of Msgr. Scheringer, the 20th anniversary of Fr. James Menapace, the current pastor, and the 150th anniversary of Bishop Baraga's first mission church at Indian Lake.

The parish Centennial Committee, a group of about 10 parishioners, began meeting early last year to plan for the year-long celebration.

The committee began by collecting information for a parish yearbook. Pictures and written information, as well as tips, flooded in from all over. The information has been compiled and sent to Custom Book Publishers of South Hackensack, N.J., one of the leading ecclesiastical publishers in the country.

The committee sold subscriptions to pay for the cost of printing the book, about $15,500. Dick Stoll, chairman, said there will also be books for sale during the centennial. The committee has at least one major event planned for each month of 1983.

Volker. The events are open to everyone and, weather permitting, may be held outside.

The Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus will sponsor the Blessing of the Fleet at the Manistique Marina on July 17.

August is "Homecoming Month," with activities planned for the week of Aug. 13. The Feast of the Assumption will be an outdoor mass at the stadium. A picnic is planned for the following Saturday.

Movels will be filled to overflowing in September for Bishop Baraga Days. Four Archbishops and ten Bishops are expected to attend. Manistique residents will be asked to open their homes to overnight visitors. The celebration is planned for Labor Day weekend, Sept. 3, 4, and 5.

An Evangelization is planned for October.

Confirmation, in November, will be highlighted by ethnic dishes served at dinner.

December, always a gala month for the Church, will mark the finale of the year-long centennial. The Northern Michigan University Arts Choralists will visit in early December. A "Lessons and Carols" is planned for Dec. 18.

A raffle of a hand-hooked 9 by 12-foot rug is also planned. Tickets will go on sale in the spring and the drawing will be held at the homecoming festivities in August.

Stoll said any profits made during the centennial celebration will be used to benefit St. Francis de Sales School.

Plans for many of the year's activities are still incomplete. Anyone interested is welcome to attend the committee meetings. The next meeting will be held Thursday, Nov. 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the parish rectory.

November is also the month when parcels shipped via Parcel Airline Mail (PAL) should be sent. Mailers who choose this service for personal military parcels pay the surface rate plus a surcharge. Packages are airfreighted domestically to a gateway facility then airfreighted on a space available basis from the gateway to the APC (Army or Air Force Post Office).

Players of the week

Bob Mattson Mark Hoholik

Emerald running back Mark Hoholik pressed his case as an All-Conference candidate in Friday's 18-14 win against Newberry and was again picked by Manistique coach Jim Hunter as a player of the week. Defensively, Hunter picked nose guard Bob Mattson for his work in the trenches as player of the week.

Hoholik picked up 150 yards rushing in 17 carries against Newberry, boosting his season totals to 736 yards in 136 attempts, a 5.4-yards-per-carry average. Despite sitting out two games this year with an injury, Hoholik trails only Iron Mountain's Dan Bianco in conference rushing stats. However, Bianco stands to widen his lead in this Saturday's season finale for the Mountaineers.

Hoholik, a 5-9, 155-pound senior, accounted for two of Manistique's three scores, snagging a pass for 21 yards and breaking loose a 68-yard run to ice the game for the Emeralds in the fourth quarter.

Hunter also cited Dan Lemnard for his offensive work. Lemnard carried 12 times for 41 yards against the Indians.

Defensively, Hunter described the play of Mattson, a 295-pound senior, as "awesome." Mattson had nine solo tackles against Newberry and racked up a season high 40 points on Hunter's defensive chart. "It was the best defensive game by a lineman I've seen here in a long time," Hunter said. Moreover, Mattson has been consistent all season in stopping opponents' attempts to move the ball up the middle. "All year long, nobody has hurt us running up the gut," thanks largely to Mattson, Hunter said.

BETHEL BAPTIST SWORDSMEN finished their soccer season last Friday, Oct. 29, with a win over Munising. The score was 12-1, giving the Swordsmen a season record of 8-2, the best record the team has recorded since the school was started. This picture shows a Bethel player in last Tuesday's 7-2 home win over the Faith Baptist Christian School from Pombine, Wis.

Defeat Newberry 18-14

Emeralds' win closes out season

The Emeralds varsity football squad closed out its season on a winning note Friday, defeating the Newberry Indians at Newberry 18-14. The come-from-behind victory on the strength of a fourth quarter 68-yard scamper by running back Mark Hoholik was the Emeralds' second straight win - the first back-to-back victories posted by a Manistique varsity team since 1977. The win gives the Emeralds a 3-6 record overall and a 2-5 record in the Mid-Peninsula Conference. The other Manistique victories this season came at the expense of Westwood, 16-12, two weeks ago and Gwinn, 13-7, in the third game of the season.

Mid-Pen conference teams will close out their season this Saturday as first place Iron Mountain (7-0 in Mid-Pen play and 7-1 overall) takes on West Iron County. Whatever the outcome of that game, the conference and relative overall standings won't be changed.

Manistique with its win managed to salvage a tie for fifth place. Last week's defeat of Munising, formerly alone in second place, at the hands of Gladstone, dropping the Mustangs into a three-way tie for second. Similarly, Westwood's loss last Friday to Negaunee created a three-way tie for fifth place, giving the Patriots identical conference and overall records to Manistique and Norway.

The reshuffling of the Mid-Pen standings after last week's games, to Hunter, better reflects how closely matched Mid-Pen teams were. "We beat Westwood who beat Norway who beat us, which shows the balance" in the conference, he said.

Hunter was to travel to Iron Mountain Wednesday to vote for the annual All-Conference and honorable mention Mid-Pen team and will wrap up the season with a banquet on Saturday.

Not surprisingly, Hunter was pleased to close out 1982 with a win. "It's the best way we could have ended it," Hunter said, noting the Emeralds played competitively the last half of the season. "Even in the Iron Mountain game (a 39-12 loss), I felt the kids played a pretty good game. From the mid-season on, I felt we played pretty good football. We played Munising even up until the last minute. Against Stephenson, we killed ourselves with penalties, but we had a couple of chances to put that game away."

The victory at Newberry was no sure thing, either, for that matter. The Emeralds spotted the Indians over 100 yards in penalties and trailed through nearly all of the first three quarters. Even after gaining the lead, Manistique penalties, along with an inability to get the PAT's, allowed Newberry to come back in the fourth and retake the lead briefly.

"We didn't make any extra points, which fortunately didn't hurt us-but all they had to do was score to win. Defensively, Newberry played a pretty good ball game on us-they blitzed like crazy and we never did quite adjust to it," Hunter said.

Both teams played fairly even in the first quarter and through most of the second, neither allowing a score. Late in the second half, the Indians put together a drive on the strength of several short passes to get inside the Emerald 10.

On a second-down play from the Manistique 7, a pitchout and half-back pass to the Indians' Brian Hernandez was good for 6. The identical play was good for the Emerald 10.

Hunter was to travel to Iron Mountain Wednesday to vote for the annual All-Conference and honorable mention Mid-Pen team and will wrap up the season with a banquet on Saturday.

two-point conversion, Hunter noted, saying "we played it worse the second time."

Facing an 8-0 deficit and time running out in the half, Manistique took the kickoff and ran twice for short yardage. With 1:06 left, quarterback Mike Godlewski hit George Rosnak with a 42-yard completion good for the touchdown. Another pass for the two-point conversion was incomplete and the Emeralds trailed 8-6 at the half.

Manistique managed to hold the Indians through the third and, with 2:30 left in the quarter, took the lead when Mark Hoholik took a three-yard flare pass and scored from 21 yards out. Again, the Emerald PAT failed, the Manistique 12-9 lead.

The Indians quickly countered, taking their second possession of the fourth and driving from their 45 to score on a 3-yard quarterback sneak and again take the lead, 14-12. That drive was assisted by two 15-yard Manistique penalties. "We gave them 30 yards and they're inside our 20 right now," Hunter said.

On the kickoff, Manistique's Jeff Erickson ran 90 yards for an apparent score, but the ball was called back to the Emerald 30 where an official ruled Erickson had stepped out of bounds. On the second play following, Hoholik broke loose for a 68-yard sprint that ended the scoring 18-4 and decided the game.

aged two first downs and ran out the clock to end the game.

Overall, the Emeralds rushed for 206 yards against Newberry and completed four of 10 passes for 78 yards and two interceptions. Newberry gained 105 yards on the ground and completed 11 of 21 passes for 113 yards in the air and also had two interceptions.

Weber scores for Wildcats

Scott Weber of Manistique drew first blood for the Northern Michigan University Wildcats last Saturday as he plunged in from the 4-yard line for the Wildcats' first score in a 22-7 defeat of Western Illinois at NMU.

It was the sophomore running back's sixth score of the season for the Wildcats, putting him third on the overall NMU scoring list with 36 points. Five of those touchdowns came on the ground and one was the result of a reception.

In Saturday's game, the Manistique High School graduate rushed for a total of 6 yards in three carries. His touchdown came with 5:06 left in the first quarter.

On the year to date, Weber had rushed for 79 yards, fourth best on the Wildcats, averaging 2.5 yards a carry. He has snagged seven passes for 20 yards, NMU, now 7-2, will face North Dakota at home this Saturday.

26-16 defeat for winless season

J.V.'s thwarted by Newberry in final game

After one quarter of play it looked like Manistique was going to suffer another blowout as the first ending 14-0 with Newberry scoring twice.

Coach Jim Hubbard had several of his regulars sitting the bench during the first quarter for disciplinary reasons, but most were back in the lineup at the start of the second. The Emeralds turned things around when Chris Gonyea picked up a Newberry fumble and raced 40 yards for a TD making the score 20-8 at the half.

During the third period, Manistique did very little offensively while the Indians scored another TD making the scoring 26-8 after three quarters of play.

It wasn't until the fourth quarter, when the Emeralds started passing on first down and used the halfback rollout pass, that the offense started moving the ball. The Emeralds closed the gap to 26-16 and were driving again later in the final period but were stopped on a Newberry interception of a halfback pass near the Indian goal line.

Hubbard wanted a pass interference call against Newberry on the play but the officials elected not to throw the flag. Newberry did not have a penalty called against them the entire game.

Offensively, the Emeralds gained 72 yards rushing and 105 passing. Leading ground gainer was Gonyea who had 43 on 7 carries and Dave Marks with 19 on 6 carries. Passing quarterback Bob Brandstrom was 3 of 18 and 3 interceptions and 3 sacks with a net total of 18 yards.

Defensively, senior linebacker Mark Knoph and junior noseguard Terry Desjardien also received honorable mentions for Big Bay de Noc.

Black Bears get all-conference mention

Although nobody on the Big Bay de Noc Black Bears was elected to the Wolverine Conference All-Conference team in coaches' balloting in Escanaba Monday night, several members received honorable mention.

According to Black Bear coach Jeff Pierce, whose squad posted a winless 0-5 Wolverine conference record and a 1-7 mark overall, five Black Bear players were cited for their performances this season.

Receiving honorable mentions both defensively and offensively were Rich Ranguette and Corey Polvin. Ranguette, a senior split end, just missed offensive first team honors and received his honorable mention after three votes. Defensively, he was cited for his work as a defensive halfback.

Polvin, a junior, got honorable mention offensively as a punter and defensively as a linebacker.

Senior Roy Annelin also received All-Conference honorable mention on the offensive team, as a center.

Annelin missed two games this year due to injury, which hurt his chances for first-team honors, Pierce noted.

Defensively, senior linebacker Mark Knoph and junior noseguard Terry Desjardien also received honorable mentions for Big Bay de Noc.

Halback Jim Springer completed 2 of 3 passes and 1 interception, netting 43 yards. Halfback Gonyea completed 4 of 6 for 44 yards. Receiving, Ed Clement caught 3 for 49; Dave Archer 2 for 41; and Gonyea 3 for 38.

Defensively the Emeralds were led by lineman Todd Tunfell who was credited with 13 tackles and an interception. Craig Medeau, back in the line after an early-season shoulder injury, was in on 12 tackles. Jim Bauman had 11 tackles and knocked down one pass. Defensive back Rob Fory broke up 3 passes and was in on 6 tackles.

Despite going through a winless season, Hubbard was pleased with his team's performance against Newberry and the improvement several players displayed.

A wrap-up on the J.V. season will be featured next week.

Hematites' Blewett causes Emerald defeat at Ishpeming, 50-45

"We came close," commented coach Don Videtich after the Manistique Emeralds were defeated by the Ishpeming Hematites 50-45 on Monday night at Ishpeming. Earlier in the season, the Hematites defeated the Emeralds by 31 points. "Our offense is coming along. We're ready for a win!" said Videtich.

The Ishpeming loss, along with a 58-46 defeat by Iron Mountain Thursday, dropped the Emeralds to a 4-12 overall record.

Manistique shot 27 percent in the first half of the game, taking a 12-10 lead at the end of the first quarter of play. By the half, the Hematites trailed by three points going into the final period 34-31.

With 1:24 left in the game, Manistique regained the lead at 44-43. The Emeralds went into a stall offense. The ball was stolen by Ishpeming and they took it in for 2.

"That was the turning point of the game," said Videtich. "We could have been up by 3 with just a minute to go, but we ended up being down by 1." Ishpeming then went into a delay game. Shooting 4 out of 4 free throws after Manistique fouls, Ishpeming came out on top 50-45.

Ishpeming's Tracy Blewett lead all scorers with 34 points, topping the 1,000 point mark for her career.

Shelly Lasich was high scorer for Manistique with 12. She also had four assists. Nancy Krusic scored 11 points, Mary McNamara 8, Julie Carlson and Barb Desjardens 6 each and Barb Calhoun 2.

"Our free-throw shooting is improving," said Videtich. The Emeralds shot 11 for 15 for 73 percent. Krusic was 5 of 7, Lasich 4 for 6 and Carlson 2 for 2.

Blewett was also high rebounder on the night, hauling in 25 for Ishpeming. Nancy Krusic led the Emeralds' rebounding with 12 followed by Calhoun with 8.

"The girls hustled. They worked hard," said Videtich. "It was one of our better performances of the season. Mary McNamara did an excellent job for us tonight. She had a key performance coming off the bench to score 8. It was really a game of stopping Tracy Blewett. She was perfect!" commented Videtich.

The J.V.'s also playing one of their best games of the season, lost a heartbreaker to the Ishpeming J.V.'s 40-39. "The girls played a good game. They played like a team tonight," said coach Sandy Histed.

The Hematites took a 10-9 lead at the end of the first quarter and widened it to 17-9 by the half.

Manistique outscored the Hematites 22-12 in the second half, but was too little for the victory. The Emeralds had a chance to tie the game in the fourth quarter with no time left on the clock, but a free throw by Wendy Miller was unsuccessful.

Scorers for the J.V.'s were Amy Hastings 13, Wendy Miller 6, Cathy Paquin and Amy Krutz 5 apiece, Mary Brulla 4, Lisa Bridges 2 and Amy Klarich 1.

Histed was pleased with the team's performance. "It was nice to have Amy Hastings back too." Hastings has been out most of the season after breaking her arm in a game at Westwood. "We're looking forward to meeting Negaunee on Friday night. We should be able to give them a good game."

The J.V.'s were defeated in their game against the Mountaineers 58-31. High scorer for Manistique was Stacy Zellar with 9. Wendy Miller scored 6, Amy Klarich 5, Lisa Schulte and Amy Krutz 4 each.

Cathy Paquin 2 and Tera DuFour 1.

The Emeralds play on Friday at home hosting the Negaunee Miners. Game times are 6:15 and 8 p.m.

HOT-HANDED NANCY Krusic had a good night last Thursday, dropping another game to Ishpeming Monday, 50-45, and will face Negaunee Friday at home starting at 7 p.m. (Mary Krusic photo)

Senior Barb Calhoun had the best game of her career last Thursday against Iron Mountain as she scored 19 points and hauled down 7 rebounds. Calhoun's points weren't enough to bring victory to the Emeralds, however, as they fell to the Mountaineers 58-46.

We never gave up even though we were down by 22 points at one time," said Videtich. "We played with much more consistency and intensity tonight. We cut down on our turnovers and made them turn the ball over with our pressure. We put 46 points on the scoreboard, which is a big improvement for us. Our ultimate goal is to score 60 points a team."

In addition to praising Calhoun, Videtich had kind words for Nancy Krusic, who scored 15 points and Shelly Lasich who only scored 2, but helped with 6 assists.

High rebounders for Manistique were Krusic with 9 and Julie Larson with 8.

Scorers for Manistique included Calhoun 19, Krusic 15, Larson 5, Barb Desjardens 3, Lasich 2 and Mary McNamara 2.

'Controlled burning'

DNR sets forest fires for wildlife enhancement

Robert Aldrich, Wildlife Technician at Nausinaway, tells about wildlife habitat improvement through "prescribed burning."

There are several tools available to the wildlife manager for the improvement of wildlife habitat. Where it can be used, prescribed burning is one of the more economical procedures available. It can be used to create openings in dense stands of brush or slash, maintain openings when undesirable species begin encroaching, encourage the germination of certain tree species, reduce slash to allow sunlight to reach the ground and control plants in water-fowl management areas, among other purposes.

Fire has been a natural force on the North American continent and many habitats and wildlife species are adapted to it. With many plant species, it has been found that the sprouts and young plants are considerably higher in protein and other food values for several years after burning than in older growth stages. When the objective of a prescribed burn is to encourage new growth, the conditions under which the burn is made are different from the conditions needed to create a more permanent opening. The latter case requires conditions which will allow a fire to more thoroughly consume the fuel available.

In the eastern end of the Upper Peninsula, fire is commonly used for opening maintenance, opening creation, and regeneration of aspen and brush. Each of these objectives require a different prescription for successful burning.

In this district, we try to burn several hundred acres each year in areas where we are concentrating our management efforts on sharp-tailed grouse. These birds require extensive open and semi-open areas to maintain their population. Grassland areas are burned to keep them in that condition. Other areas are burned to convert them to grass and brush for the birds.

Aspen is a preferred habitat type for white-tailed deer and Ruffed Grouse. Without human interven-

A considerable amount of preparation must be done before a successful prescribed burn can take place. A proposal is first written describing the area to be burned and the desired objective. The proposal is then sent to Wildlife Forest Fire Officers from Forest Management people at the local and district levels for approval. Forest Fire Officers from Forest Management Division then set up the actual burn. They make an on-site examination of the area to determine where fire lines and trails are to be constructed. They examine the fuel types present and, taking the objectives of the burn into consideration, determine what weather conditions will be necessary to obtain the proposed objectives. This is a very important step because we want the fire to burn neither too fast nor too slow, too hot nor too cool. One proposal may require a slow-hot fire and the next proposal a faster-cooler fire.

On a day that all the conditions appear to be just right, men and equipment are sent to the site for the burn. The fire is set and in a few hours a new habitat condition is created in a relatively simple, fast, and economical fashion. Recent burns have been conducted near Esouette, Baby Doe Lake south of Gould City, and in the Thompson area.

TROUT, SALMON-Steelhead are coming in to the Two Heated River, and the streams in the Grand Marais area. Steelhead and salmon are both plentiful. Fishing has also picked up in Thompson Creek and Manistique River.

Leggett, Matthews clash

(continued from front page) on the matter. When Matthews said he decided to go ahead and buy the pumps, which he is authorized to do without council approval, Leggett complained about a "lack of communication" between Matthews and the council.

"I have seen nothing that approaches the gross lack of communication between the city manager's office and this City Council," Leggett said. Matthews retorted that "I don't have to tell you every time I turn around." He defended the purchase of the pumps, saying "In my estimation it was an excellent deal for the city to go ahead and buy" the pumps.

Specifically, Matthews said 12 pumps were ordered at a cost of $2,592. Boat owners at the marina have already chipped in $1,125 towards that cost. In addition, Matthews said, the city will save $300 by not having to pay for removing docks at the marina for the winter and another $900 next year since the docks will not have to be re-installed. Those savings reduce the net cost of the pumps' purchase, according to Matthews, to $267. "When we get all through with this thing, I figure these things would cost the city around $300 and I thought it was damn well worth it," he said. Dougovito wondered what the cost of electricity to run the pumps would be and how much maintenance they would require. "In the future, when such a thing is agreed upon, all the aspects should be looked at—what it costs $1,000 to run those things 24 hours a day for six months?" The budget increase to pay for the pumps was actually only one of dozens of changes proposed by Matthews in the proposed budget amendment discussed Monday. Those proposed changes in the city's general fund budget amount to over $61,000 but largely cancel each other out, leaving a net increase to the budget of $155. The council will consider adoption of the budget amendment at its meeting next Monday, Nov. 8, at 7 p.m.

Hoyler's Tea Room was in Esky, better memories say

A couple of weeks ago, after being caught in an error, I made a wisecrack remark that it was the first mistake I had ever made. Well folks, you may not believe it possible, but it seems I have made another booboo. On October 14th, the Memories column ran a photo of the high school band marching in the street during the U.F. Band Festival and something in my noggin told me it was Marquette, because Hoyler's Tea Room was in plain sight. It just goes to show you: Relying on the memories of us Old Timers is a risky business; I could have sworn that Hoyler's was in Marquette (in fact I secretly still think so) in spite of the fact that a very reliable source has disputed this conception.

Heir Jean Washie writes to advise that Hoyler's was for many years truly the "place to go" as I said, but not in Marquette. It was in Escanaba and her claim to this contention is supported by Virginia Hoyler Shomlin, whose family apparently ran it. Also, the photo showed the "Dutch" Flash popcorn stand on the corner which was a Ludington Street fixture in 1935, the year the photo was taken. Helen Jean goes on to say that yes, Wayne Martin was still the band director at that time.

This same photo brought forth another response, this one from Ray Norberg, shown in the photo bringing beautiful sounds from his trusty trombone. Ray majored in music and is director of music for the Coloma Community Schools and also leader of a dance band in the St. Joe area. We still hope to identify more of the instrumentalists in that photograph. Maybe we'll hear from some of those band members.

We've had visitors lately, on a couple weekends, and always enjoy showing them our scenic spots and of course always end up in the same places: Big Spring, the Garden Peninsula, Seul Choix and various points in between. I have previously remarked upon the strong feeling one gets of the past when cruising around the Garden and Fayette area; the same goes for Seul Choix, although it takes a little more imagination because not much remains of the original settlement.

But in spite of that, the feeling of antiquity and the early settlers persists, and in the case of Seul Choix, that remembrance of times past is inevitably tinged with tragedy, and the absence of any tangible evidence of the old settlement seems only to add to the mystery and give added poignance to the historical events connected with the area.

Seul Choix's claim to historical significance is based in part on a killing back in 1859. I believe I have read somewhere that this tragedy and the eventual acquittal of the man who did the shooting constituted a "landmark" decision of the Michigan courts: That a man has a right to defend his property.

In any case, the victim of this incident was a young man by the name of Isaac Blanchard, Jr., whose giant stature and superhuman strength earned him the reputation of being the Hercules of the North, and who revelled in performing feats of strength. Unfortunately, he got into a bad crowd and it seems it was the influence of these older men... and also very likely the influence of too much whiskey...that led to his downfall.

It should be remembered that in those days the inhabitants of that area were very close to being the original wild settlers; they were men with adventurous spirits and not many had stable family ties. Seul Choix was still pretty much a wilderness outpost, which not many years before had been a sort of shack settlement used during the fishing season by men from the Beavers, Gros Cap, and Mackinac.

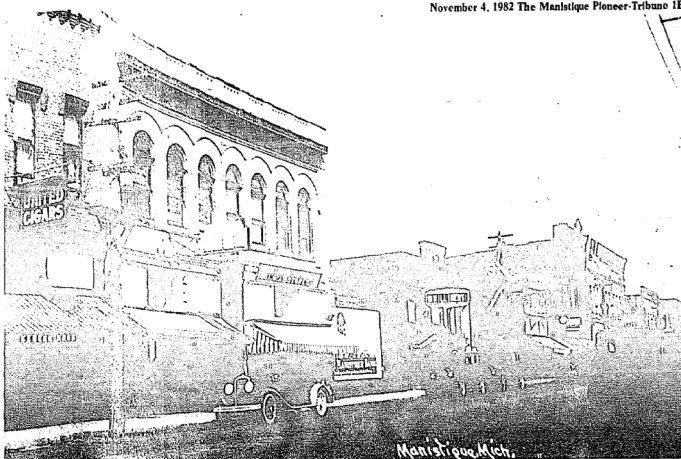

They lived dangerously and when they had a good catch also celebrated dangerously; fights were common, and the men with families had their problems with the young bucks who had no family responsibilities. Isaac became one of the wild bunch, and his older friends influenced him to join in a grudge against one of the more stable family men which ended in the murder of the young Hercules. His remains, according to a Pioneer-Tribune story of 1934, lie in the Gros

Cap cemetery.

I think some of the most pleasant memories I have of the Twenties revolve around going to get a haircut. I was never in a hurry to get into the chair; the wait was educational and always entertaining. It was great to hear the conversation of the adults and the repartee with the barbers, but the greatest show of all was the procedure of watching a real showman and expert with the straight razor give a shave to an Old Timer who had come in for his weekly bath and shave on a Saturday afternoon.

He was helped into the chair and the chair was lowered to a position for efficient operations by the master barber (tonsorial specialist). The razor was carefully stropped on the long leather, both sides, and the shaving mug prepared. First the mug was rinsed in hot water to bring up the temperature for a good lather, which was carefully applied with close attention to keeping the lather away from the eyes, mouth and breathing apparatus (nostrils to you). It was then rubbed in to further soften the bristles and the shave began. This took a steady hand, and I never witnessed an accident although they most occasionally have occurred.

After the shave the customer was politely asked if he wanted toilet water on his face, an exchange that reduced me to convulsions of suppressed hilarity the first time I heard it. Toilet water on your face! (Just goes to show you how dumb I was. The only toilet water I had ever had any experience with didn't look like something you'd want on your face!) After the shave, the customer would had to offer. A truly great show.

HERE'S A GOOD SHOT of the Main Drag, taken in the late Twenties or early Thirties. The Harbor Bar was then Ekberg's, the Eat Shop was

The Liberty Cafe, and Christy's Gift Mart was the IGA Store run by Adam Helzer. Next was the vacant lot now occupied by the Savings Agency, and then a military shop I don't remember. Next came George Dupont's barber shop, then Laurmann's and so on down the street. The photo, taken in the morning, was of "the sunny side of the street" (Historical Society photo)

Senior Citizens

by Diane McClelland

This week marks my first anniversary of being your director. You people have sure brought a lot of joy, laughs and some sadness into my life.

We've had a lot of good times. I've made some friends, whose friendship I will always value. I've lost some close friends who I'll always remember and treasure their memories.

In the past year I've learnt many, many valuable lessons:
1) I know how to maneuver my truck to park half-way on and half-way off the sidewalk when somebody takes my parking spot.
2) How to make instant coffee in a Mr. Coffee machine when you need coffee in an instant.

3) The knack of catching ping-pong balls on the first bounce.

4) The skill of selling cards, pouring cokes, marking numbers, and calling off bingo all at the same time.

5) I can now fake my way through cooking supper after a day of sampling all the goodies that we are tempted with.

6) I know the garage has 428 shingles on one side. I found that out one beautiful warm summer day when I didn't feel like working. I can hardly wait to see what this next year brings!

"Grandma's Attic" donations were given by Frances Bear, Edith Gray, Patrice Martin, Bill and Mel Moreau, Germaine Wester, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sharp, Angie Darwin and Ian McKilligan.

Donations of fresh vegetables were brought into the Center and given to our nutrition site by: Mr. and Mrs. Matt Lakosky, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arwood, Lars and Caroline Olson, Donald and Velma Dixon and Vivian Bernard. These donations are appreciated by the nutrition program and helps extremely on our raw food costs.

Happy Birthday!

The first time most people contact Social Security is when they want to apply for a Social Security number.

DOYLE TOWNSHIP volunteer firemen get some pointers from Jamie Moffat (center) on the proper techniques of cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR). The Doyle Township Volunteer Fire Department has 24 members who get monthly training sessions in first aid and fire-fighting methods from volunteer instructors such as Moffat. Also pictured are (left to right) Jim Zellar, Jay Bowman, Terry Demers and Steve Rosebush.

At that time, a person will need proof of age, identity, and citizenship or immigrant status. A person 18 or older must apply in person.

Other times when Social Security should be contacted are:
--When a family member dies, to see if survivor benefits can be paid. Also when a widow or widower reaches 60.

--At retirement at age 62 or later, to apply for retirement benefits.
--Two or three months before age 65 to arrange for Medicare health insurance protection, even if there are no plans for retirement.
--To get the answer to any question about Social Security and to request any of the pamphlets Social Security has available.

The people at your local Social Security office are paid to provide all the help a person needs with Social Security. The local office is located at 2015 N. First Avenue in Escanaba and is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. The local telephone number is 786-2632 and the toll free number is 1-800-552-8520.

Know when to contact Social Security

People in Schoolcraft County should know when to contact a Social Security office. Knowing when to contact Social Security is important. Sometimes a delay in applying can mean a permanent loss of benefits or it could mean that checks may be delayed at a time when the income is important.
