Outbreak affects elementary schools

Nitpicker parents need to control lice

Teachers in area elementary schools are becoming nitpickers in a more literal sense than usual. Faced with a seasonal outbreak of head lice among students, they are on the lookout for scratching students who may be infested.

While public health officials don't seem to think there are more lousy students this year than in the past, they urge all parents to help limit the spread of the louse-sucking insects. Michelle Dougovito, a nurse with the Luce-Mackinac-Alger-Schoolcraft not adequately treating" the cases that are identified.

Dougovito said that she has been called by all the elementary schools in the area and has visited several to check over students for signs of lice. When she finds them, she sends a letter home with the student instructing the parents on proper treatment. Generally, she said, washing with medicated shampoo designed to control the parasites is the recommended treatment.

District Health Department, said "my perception of the whole thing is that it's not out of line with this time of year. Where the problem comes is Another part of the problem is that many children can become reinfected with the insects, either from classmates or from family members who have not been treated. Some parents, Dougovito said, assume that their child, if infested with head lice, must have been infested at school. No so-many pick up their crop of insects at home.

Another misconception, according to Dougovito, is that if one child in a classroom has lice, all the students must be infested. She has instructed teachers to be on the lookout for the telltale sign—persistent scratching by a student.

If the teacher suspects a student is infested, Dougovito will check over the student and the entire class if necessary. While adult lice are difficult to detect, she looks for nits—the eggs adult lice lay—attached to the hair near the scalp. The gray-white specks "look like little pieces of sand in the hair," Dougovito said.

To prevent the spread of lice, students should not borrow each other's combs and should store their hats inside jacket sleeves while in school.

Head lice are not only the curse of the poor and unkempt, Dougovito emphasized. The most fastidious person can easily become infested through casual contact with contaminated clothing or towels, and from their infest family members.

Scabies have also been found on local scalps. They are tiny mites that burrow into the scalp, rather than living atop it, and lay their eggs under the skin. The itching from scabies tends to be more persistent than with head lice, Dougovito said, and gets worse at night. Children with scabies may be more restless than usual at night, Dougovito said, because of the itching.

Children seem to be especially prone to the infestations. "Both scabies and head lice are very communicable and when you get a bunch of kids roughhousing together," the chances of lice spreading increase.

A bright side to all the scratching going on is that the infestations tend to be seasonal: frigid weather somehow seems to kill off the pesky parasites.

"I really don't think it's any worse this year. I think parents need the encouragement that the lice will probably go away when it gets good and cold," Dougovito said.

Thanksgiving closings listed

Thanksgiving is just around the bend and practically all local businesses and government offices will shut down in observance of Thanksgiving. Public employees of the schools, state, city and county will also get this Friday off as those offices will remain closed through the weekend.

Here is a rundown of the Thanksgiving holiday closings: Dick's IGA is the only local supermarket planning to be open Thanksgiving. Hours Thursday will be 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. All three grocery stores will open as usual Friday.

State offices, including the Michigan Employment Security Commission office in the armory, the Secretary of State office on River Street and the state offices in the courthouse will be closed both Thursday and Friday.

The county's offices in the courthouse will also be closed both days. City Hall, the schools and the library will shut down both Thursday and Friday as well as the weekend.

There will be no public transit service Thursday through Sunday. The Manistique Medical Center will be closed Thursday only; emergency patients should go to the emergency room at Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital.

All three local pharmacies will be closed Thursday but open regular hours Friday. Both banks will also close Thursday but open as usual Friday.

Tripling of water, sewer service fees

City wants rates hiked

In a first step towards trying to bring its water and sewer treatment budgets into balance, the Manistique City Council Monday proposed rate hikes that will cost water and sewer customers $16 a month.

At the recommendation of Water Plant Superintendent Tom Martin and City Treasurer Pat Erickson, the council voted 4-0 to have an amendment to its water and sewer rate ordinance drafted for consideration at a special meeting set for Dec. 6. Council Member Mike Dougovito was absent at Monday's meeting.

The amendment to be discussed at the Dec. 6 public hearing would also change the city's billing system for quarterly, every three months, to monthly. That would pave the way for computerized billing and hopefully improve the city's dismal cash flow.

Specifically, the amended ordinance, if eventually adopted by the council, will impose a new $12 monthly sewer service charge and increase the water service charge by $4 a month for customers with a 5/8-inch water connection. There has been no service charge for a sewer connection in the past and Martin said that Manistique "is probably the only city in the state that doesn't have one."

The water connection service charge is currently $24 each quarter, or $8 a month. The increases, if passed by the council, would triple the service charges to city water and sewer customers with 3/8-inch connections.

"To put this increase in proper perspective," Martin wrote in his proposal, "an average (current) cost of 35 cents a day per person would be increased to 56 cents a day per person," a 62-percent hike.

Although the water and sewer service charges would increase as the size of the customer's water connection increased, Martin noted that about 1,500 of the 1,534 meters in town are 5/8-inch connections.

The proposed service charge increases do not affect the water and sewer rates based on water consumption. For water, the rate is $1.85 for each 1,000 gallons of water used. For sewer service, the rate is $1.85 for each 1,000 gallons of water used. By city ordinance, the rates will automatically increase by 5 percent on April 1.

Martin estimated that the new service fees, if enacted, would generate $90,000 for the city's water and sewer fund between Jan. 1 and the end of the city's fiscal year June 30. That would be more than enough to offset an anticipated deficit of $54,000 in the fund.

What the balance of the revenue from the proposed hike could be used for was also discussed at Monday's council meeting.

One use for any surplus generated would be to pay back the city's general fund part of the nearly quarter-million dollars loaned the water and sewer fund over the past years of deficit operation.

Another use for the money would be to repair the city's leaky, old system of water mains. A good chunk of the needed repairs could be done relatively cheaply, Martin told the council, if mains are replaced at the same time local streets are torn up for a planned $5.7 million project to separate city storm sewers from sanitary sewers.

Martin presented a plan to the council that called for replacement of several undersized water mains and repair of leaky service connections that would cost an estimated $629,081. Besides reducing the amount of water lost in the distribution system through leaks—nearly half of that produced—the repairs would improve water pressure throughout the city, Martin said. That pressure is dangerously low to fire hydrants during periods of peak demand.

The council also discussed levying special property tax assessments on residents living near the proposed water main repairs as a means of financing the project. It took no action to direct City Assessor Dave Huddeleston to begin the special assessments, however.

Varnum among finalists for city manager here

Manistique's state legislator, Charles Varnum, will wind up 16 years in the state House of Representatives at the end of next month.

Although Varnum, who didn't seek reelection this year, has declined to say what sort of jobs he is considering, outgoing City Manager John Matthews confirmed last week that Varnum is among those who have applied for his job.

The city has received over 35 applications for the post, to be vacated when Matthews retires at the end of the year. Matthews was appointed to the job by the City Council in July of 1981.

Matthews said last week that Varnum is apparently among the eight finalists in the selection process for a new manager. At Monday's City Council meeting, Council Member Wally Leggett said that the number had been further reduced to five candidates, with one local applicant among them. Leggett said that arrangements for conducting interviews with the finalists have yet to be made.

Applications for the local position have been received from across the country. To weed through them, Leggett and Council Member Mike Dougovito said they looked for experience as a city manager of other municipal management experience.

While Varnum has no experience as a city manager, he has served on the City Council as mayor pro tem and was also elected to the County Board. A graduate of Hillsdale College, Varnum, 49, taught in Manistique Area Schools from 1959 to 1966, when he was elected to the state legislature.

The council has indicated it will make a decision on a city manager to replace Matthews by Dec. 15.

Emerald boys gear up for hoop season opener next Friday

What's green and white, has 28 legs and gets up early? If you guessed the Emerald boys' basketball squad cranking in practice time in preparation for the season opener next Friday at Ishpeming, go to the head of the class.

Emerald boys' coach Seb Rubick has been working out his 1982-83 team with 6:30 a.m. practices since last week. Altogether, 22 boys tried out for the team this year, which Rubick cut to 14 in announcing the squad last Thursday.

Emerald fans will get their first chance to see how Manistique looks this year at the annual green and white scrimmage set for tonight, Nov. 24, at 7 p.m. in the high school gym. There is no admission charged for the intrasquad game.

To hear Rubick tell it, this year's Emeralds are long on balance and short on stature. "I've always had my starting five and my backup guard and my backup big person. I always have been able to find that many and have been seven deep. This year I might be deeper," Rubick said.

Deep and short. The tallest Emerald this year is junior Denny McBurney who "might be 6-3 and that's stretching," Rubick noted. "We're not big. It's definitely the smallest team I've had since I've been here. I've never had a team before where the tallest guy was under 6-4."

Rubick's tenure as Manistique boys' basketball coach goes back to 1974. Since then he has amassed a 130-49 record and collected six district championships and a regional crown, in 1979-80.

Last year's team racked up a 15-5 overall record and placed second behind undefeated Iron Mountain in the Mid-Peninsula Conference with a 9-5 mark. The 1981-82 Emeralds bowed out in post-season play after dropping the district tournament opener to St. Ignace.

Although he hadn't settled on a starting lineup as of Friday, Rubick said the importance of who starts is outweighed by the balance he sees in the team. "The kids inside will do a good job and the guards will do a good job. I'll put five kids out there and they'll be good ballplayers—and I'll bring five kids in and they'll be good. Some of them I bring in may even be better than the ones on the floor," he said.

Defensively, Rubick hopes the 1982-83 Emeralds will be able to play man-to-man "if we're good enough. Man-to-man takes more ability. You have to learn to communicate. That undefeated team we had (1979-80) played mostly man-to-man. Last year we played mostly zone, particularly because we only had two big people.

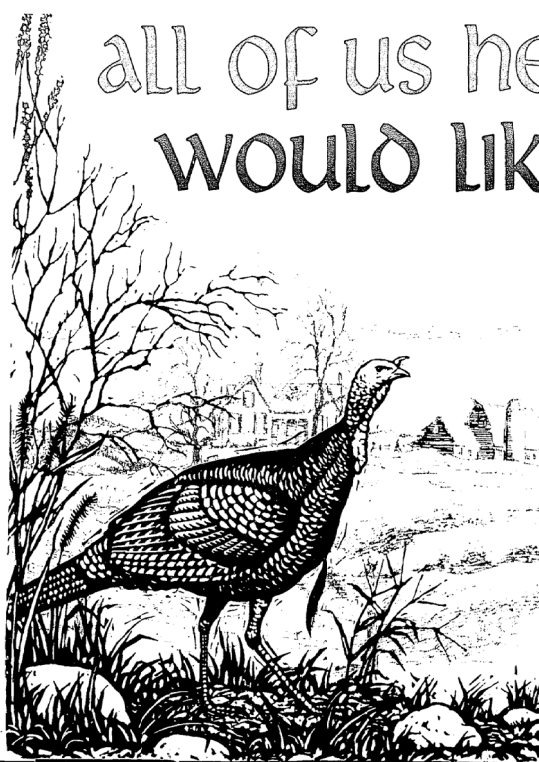

"This year we'll try it and see what happens. If we find we can't handle it consistently, I can always hide my size in my zone" defense, Rubick said.

Apply now for 4-H awards

Interested in competing in the State 4-H Project Award Program to win a trip to National 4-H Congress in Chicago as well as a $1,000 National 4-H College Scholarship?

If you are 14 years or older and have been in a 4-H project for two or more years, the first step is to contact the County Extension Office at 341-5050. Ask for a "4-H Tel-Award" form to complete. The 4-H Tel-Award process is used to select the county, district and state award recipients. The form asks for years of 4-H experience in each project area, as well as listing all activities since joining 4-H.

If selected as a district award winner in a project area, you will be asked to complete the "National 4-H Report" form describing what you have accomplished in your selected project area. You will be asked to attend 4-H Exploration Days at Michigan State University for an interview by the selection committee.

The State 4-H Project Award winners are announced at the awards banquet during 4-H Exploration Days Program. Whoever is selected as State 4-H Award winners will win a trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago, during the week following Thanksgiving of 1983. You will be in select company if you attend the Congress, since only 1,700 outstanding 4-H members from the 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico will attend.

Each year Michigan sends approximately 40 members to the National 4-H Congress and participants can attend only once in a lifetime. State 4-H award winners in nationally-sponsored projects will submit their reports for National Honors and a possible $1,000 college scholarship. Laurie McKay, a U.P. native from Ontonagon County was selected as a Michigan State winner last year.

BASIC SWEET DOUGH

(from Jayne Harsel-Shebogan, WI.)

2 pkgs. granular yeast
 1/4 c. lukewarm water
 1 c. milk, scalded
 1/4 c. butter or shortening
 Soften yeast in lukewarm water. Combine milk, butter, sugar, and salt. Cool to lukewarm. Add 2 cups flour, yeast, and eggs. Beat well. Add enough flour to make a soft dough. Knead 10 minutes. (Right in the bowl as it will be quite sticky). Place in greased bowl, cover, and let rise until doubled. (Be sure to let it rise enough). Punch down, turn out on lightly floured board and shape into rolls or coffee bread. Let rise until doubled. Bake in moderate oven (375) 20 minutes for rolls, 25 to 30 minutes for rings.

BEST EVER ROLLS

(from Beryl Bignall-Harvey, MI.)

1 pkg. dry yeast
 3/4 c. lukewarm water
 1/2 c. hot milk
 1/4 c. inst. mashed potatoes,
 2/3 stick oleo
 1/2 c. sugar
 1 1/2 tsp. salt
 2 eggs well beaten
 6 to 7 cups flour

Use above method, adding the inst. potatoes with flour, yeast, and eggs. Can substitute potato water (water in which potatoes have been boiled) for liquid and omitting instant mashed potatoes. If there isn't enough to measure 2 1/2 cups, add water so there is 2 1/2 cups liquid. Warm and proceed as above.

Sarah says...Add a teaspoon of sugar to the yeast and water to speed up the action of the yeast.

Food for thought...Behind every schedule, someone is running.

Drunk driving Think--don't drink

Talking about drunk driving requires some caution and objectivity, for there are many among us who, at one time or another, have managed to get home safely and undetected when we should not have been behind the wheel.

And yet, with the holiday season at hand and bad driving weather mixed in with greater opportunities and temptations for drinking, the subject should be discussed.

Some major reforms in drunk driving laws have been approved by the Michigan Legislature, but they won't go into effect until next April. That delay, however, does not alter the potential for tragedy between now and spring.

Although the changes are expected to help law enforcement officers in dealing with the drunk driving problem, there are those who think additional tools are needed. A study released recently by the Automobile Club of Michigan says that alcohol involvement in Michigan highway deaths should continue to increase despite those new laws unless police raise arrest rates and prosecutors and judges properly punish offenders.

The study, "Under the Influence," points out that the percentage of fatal traffic accidents involving alcohol in Michigan is increasing an average of 2 percent annually, and estimates that 917 persons could be killed by drinking drivers in 1982.

Recommendations of the study include increased use of police selective enforcement, more enforcement of laws against selling alcohol to minors, and less use of plea bargaining by prosecutors in repeat offender cases.

A report from Gov. Milliken's office recently said that intoxicated drivers represent a very small percentage of the driving population but they are extremely over-represented in traffic fatalities. Of Michigan's more than six million drivers, approximately 10 percent is involved in traffic accidents. Only about 1 percent is involved in alcohol-related crashes, yet more than half of the traffic fatalities involve intoxicated drivers. Seventy-six percent of the drinking drivers involved in fatal crashes in 1980 were under the age of 34; 47 percent were 24 or younger, and 87 percent of the drivers involved in all alcohol-related crashes were male. More than two-thirds of the fatal accidents involving drinking drivers occurred in rural areas.

One National Highway Traffic Safety Administration study shows that on any weekend night, every 10th driver is legally drunk. That figure jumps to as high as one in five after midnight. Yet, only one drunk driver in 2,000 is ever arrested.

The new laws will help. Perhaps other measures are also needed. One thing is obvious: We need strict enforcement of present statutes by police, prosecutors and the courts so those who drink and drive receive swift and certain punishment.

Remember all that the next time you're tempted to take one for the road.

-Delta Reporter

Here's to Joe Cota and his exotic pets!

Dear Editor:

On behalf of four of my seven Cub Scouts, and myself, I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to the Clayton Cota family in Cooks.

This past Saturday, a young man, Joe Cota, and his friend John, took the time and patience to show us his pets: an Iguana, an African tortoise, and a baby piranha.

All total, my husband, two of our friends, four Cub Scouts, my other two sons, and our friend's 3 children, there were 13 of us in his tiny bedroom, all watching, wide-eyed, as he took the pets of their home.

Joe explained to us where the animals came from, their natural environment, diet, life span, and their size at full growth. It was all very interesting and educational.

We all got a chance to pet the iguana and tortoise. It was quite an experience, one I'm sure all the children will remember and tell their friends about.

I'm thankful that there are people in this fast-moving world today who can still take the time to share something so unselfishly with others.

Again, I thank Joe Cota, whose heart, I'm sure is 10 times as big as the room we were all in. Your time and kindness was really appreciated.

Thanks for getting that sign moved, Charlie

Dear Editor:

We would like to publicly thank State Representative Charles Varnum for the favor he did for us this summer.

A roadside park sign was erected too close to our driveway on US-2. Therefore, when travelers who decided to stop saw our driveway, they would quickly turn in, realize their mistake, and either back out or drive on through our yard and out another road. There were cars, trailers, trucks and motorcycles.

Since backing out on busy US-2 was dangerous and driving through our yard was a nuisance—we called the Michigan Highway Department several times but got no satisfaction so we called Mr. Varnum and asked if he could get the sign moved away from our driveway.

Nothing was done for awhile, so he went to the main office in Lansing.

A man came from that office and viewed the situation, talked to us and agreed that the sign should be moved.

A short time later the sign was taken down and installed in its rightful place, thanks to Mr. Varnum's persistence.

Council nixes holiday turkeys

In other matters Monday, the council:

-In a tie vote, decided not to buy Christmas turkeys for employees and members of city committees. Council Members David Vaughan and Bill Hackney voted to buy 95 turkeys at an estimated cost of $865. Council members Wally Leggett and Kathy Wilson voted against the purchase. Leggett said he favored purchasing turkeys for employees but balked at buying birds for committee members. Wilson, pointing to the city's deficit, said "you can't spend what you don't have."

-Heard a report on the city's bidding procedure from City Attorney Bruce Plackowski. Plackowski had been asked to prepare a bid policy for the city after controversies erupted over the city's method of awarding bid contracts in the past.

Tena Miron completes Marine Corps boot camp

Marine Pvt. Tena L. Miron, daughter of Gordon F. Miron Sr. of Manistiquie, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S.C.

During the eight-week training cycle, she was introduced to the typical daily routine that she will experience during her enlistment, and studies the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines. She participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills including close order drill and first aid. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

The council also approved the only bid on landscaping at the cemetery entrance, for $10,940, by Timbercrest Enterprises. That cost will also be paid by the Ethel Brown fund.

-Heard Plackowski report that the city-owned community center could be rented out for functions where alcohol would be served. However, Plackowski said the cost of "liquor liability" insurance to protect the city, at least $150 a day, made such rental impractical.

Plackowski said his opinion also applied to street festivals such as the one held for the Fourth of July this year, where service clubs sold beer on city streets. He recommended insurance be purchased for those activities or they be stopped.

Only one minor accident was reported by the Manistiquie Public Safety Department last week.

Police report a vehicle driven by Constad Hoholik backed into a vehicle driven by Luella G. Olsen. The accident happened at 3:30 p.m. on Wednesday on N. Cedar St.

Kathy Wilson reported the theft of two garbage cans from behind her office building on Walnut St. The cans were taken sometime Wednesday night.

Police are still investigating a larceny at Herb's 40. According to police reports, liquor, candy and an amount of change were taken Wednesday.

No fire calls were made last week. Four ambulance calls were made last week for a yearly total of 249 calls.

State Police

A Gernfask man and his one-year-old daughter escaped unharmed Friday after being held hostage by an escapee from the Marquette Prison.

Michigan State Police report that when Tony McLaren and his daughter Beth went into the Moran Truss Co. building in Seney to pick up his paycheck, they were taken hostage by Charles McGee, 33. McGee, who was serving a life sentence for armed robbery, had escaped from a Marquette Prison bus which was taking him to Jackson Prison.

McGee ordered McLaren to drive him to Menominee where McLaren was directed to buy him clothes in K-Mart. McLaren's daughter was held hostage while McLaren made the purchase.

An attempt was made by McGee to get a bus in Peshigo, but the attempt failed. While McGee was talking to a bus driver south of Peshigo, McLaren and his daughter drove off.

McLaren drove to the home of his mother-in-law on the Duck Inn Rd. and then notified State Police in Manistiquie. He told them he thought McGee was taking a bus to Kalamazoo, which would stop in Escanaba. Troopers at the Gladstone post were notified. They arrested McGee in the bar of the Bowlerama which is adjacent to the bus station in Escanaba.

An unusual accident was reported Thursday at 7:30 a.m. on M-94. A vehicle driven by Ted J. Foye of Manistiquie hit and killed a horse. Foye said he was unable to avoid hitting the animal, which was obscured by the foggy weather conditions. The horse was owned by Earl E. Sugden.

The larceny of two solid brass oilers from an antique steam engine at Fayette State Park was reported. The oilers are valued at approximately $300.

1982-83 Emeralds: balance, depth season keys

(continued from front page) depends on how well his players work together. "They have to fill the lanes and use common sense and be unselfish—then remember their individual assignments."

With Mike Godlewski (6-0, senior) the only returning starter from last year and Mike Provo (6-2, senior) the only other Emerald with much playing time under his belt, Doug Rubick figure to lean on their experience? "Not really. They should be a stabilizing force, but everyone has got to contribute. The offense eventually shapes up de-more balance we have in that way. The better off we're going to be. Their strength is going to be in their ball control," Rubick said.

Other seniors on this year's squad: George Bosank (6-1), Tom Cooper (6-1), Doug Mickelson (6-0), Troy Farley (5-11), Corey Miller (5-11) and Dan Fisher.

Rounding out the squad are juniors Steve Calhoun (6-2), Dean Bolt (5-10), Jeff Erickson (5-11), Kevin Anderson (5-10), Ken Peterson and McBurney.

They will open the season Friday against Ishpeming. Last year's Mid-Pen cellar dwellers with a 2-12 conference record. However, Rubick said: "The word from up there is they'll be a lot better. I'm sure they are going to be improved."

The home opener will be against Westwood on Friday, Dec. 10, starting at 8 p.m. Westwood carved an even "7" record in conference action last year, but Rubick expects the Patriots, too, to improve this year.

With strong junior varsity teams maturing to the varsity level at Norway (4-10 last year) and Munising (3-11), Rubick said the Mid-Pen conference could be more balanced and tougher than last year. "It looks like it, but you never know if one team is going to have everything fall into place and be just a little bit better than everyone else."

"On paper, you'd have to favor Iron Mountain again. They've got a lot of experience coming back."

Krusic, Calhoun rank near top in Mid-Pen stats

Despite a last place finish in this year's Mid-Peninsula Conference standings with a 2-12 record, two members of the Emeralds' girls' basketball team still managed to place in the top 10 in the league's final statistics.

Nancy Krusic led the Mid-Pen Conference in the percentage of free-throws made both in league contests and overall. Krusic's hot hand made 37 of 47 shots from the charity stripe in Mid-Pen games for attempts for a 74-percent average, also tops in the Mid-Pen.

She missed three games this season due to an injury. The next best average in league play was Norway's Kathy Roberts who made 52 of 71 attempts for 73 percent.

Barb Calhoun of the Emeralds also ranked in the Mid-Pen's top 10, for her work off the boards. Calhoun had 201 rebounds on the season for a 10.1 rebound-per-game average. Against league opponents, she averaged 10.3 rebounds for a total of 144 on the season, good for eighth best in the league.

Ishpeming's Tracy Blewett led the league in both rebounds and scoring this year. Blewett had 470 points on the season to top Mid-Pen players, with 345 coming against Mid-Pen opponents. In conference play, Blewett averaged 24.6 points a game.

Her 353 rebounds this year, 259 against Mid-Pen foes, was also best in the conference. Her free-throw shooting percentage, 63.9 percent, was well below Krusic's, but her 92 points from the line was tops in the league.

On the all-time Mid-Pen list, Krusic's free throw average this year ties her for second behind Norway's Janis Lundin, who made 82 percent from the line in 1978. Krusic's 77.8-percent performance last season also gives her fourth place on the all-time list. Robin Welch has 10th place on the list with a 70.7-percent season free throw average shot in 1980.

Cold shooting freezes Emerald girls' district tourney hopes

The tournament trail came to an abrupt end Friday night for the Manistique Emerald Girls Basketball team. A strong, experienced Manistique team handed the Emeralds a heart-breaking 36-34 defeat. Manistique played extremely hard, giving the much taller Mustangs all they could handle down to the game's final minutes.

Manistique lead 10-4 at the end of the first quarter, as well as 18-13 at intermission. Senior guard Shelly Lasich sparkled, pouring in 12 of her game high 16 points in the first half.

"We had them by 5 at half—a good third quarter would have put the game out of reach," said Coach Don Videtich.

Instead, Manistique came out with ice-cold shooting in the third quarter, hitting only two of 12 shots. "We scored only 4 points in the third quarter. This allowed the momentum to swing their way for the final quarter," Videtich said.

The game sea-sawed back and forth the entire final quarter. With 1:40 to play and Manistique down by 2, Chris Brown hit a key bucket to put Munising up by 4. "The shot she took was well out of her range. She hadn't hurt us all night until she threw that bomb in," Videtich lamented.

Manistique came down court but missed its opportunity to cut the lead back down to 2.

"We knew they were going to stall the last minute out on us. We had to foul and hope they wouldn't hit the pressure free throws," Videtich noted. Also, Munising connected on 4 of 5 free throws down the stretch to ice the victory.

"We fouled three different times and each time it was a different person. They hit the key shots and we did not."

Manistique was led in scoring by Lasich with 16. She got help from Nancy Krusic who poured in 8 points and also led Manistique in rebounding with 14 rebounds. Barb Calhoun chipped in 9 rebounds to go along with 2 points.

Julie Carlson pumped in 6 points and Julie Larson scored 2. Lasich dished out 4 assists and Barb Deysar handed out 3 to go along with 4 rebounds.

The rebounding edge went to Munising 43 to 32. "Rebounding was a key," said Videtich. "We did not box out that well but I give my ladies a lot of credit for going out there and not backing down against the bigger girls."

"I feel badly for the seniors (Shelly Lasich, Mary McNamara, and Barb Calhoun) because it was their last game. As a team we learned a lot this year. I would like to thank all the people that supported and stood behind us this season," said Videtich.

Thanksgiving observances in The Good Old Days weren't that different

EVERY ONCE IN AWHILE we run across a really good photo of one of the Old Times of our town, someone known to everyone when he was alive. In our column of Oct. 21 we ran a photo of the corner where Fannin's station now stands; at the time the Chamber of Commerce building was there and the old gentleman standing near the building was Frank Warfield. Frank had been a woods worker and hunting guide and knew the county like the back of his hand. He was a great hunter. This shot of Frank is from the collection of Hazel Houghton, and her "Uncle Frank" was like a member of the family.

Thanksgiving 1946: Union services were held at St. Alban's at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday evening. Rev. Herbert A. Wilson conducted the service and preached the sermon; other patrons took part in the service. Special music was presented. This union Thanksgiving service was an annual event sponsored by the Manistque Ministerial Association. St. Francis de Sales had regular morning masses on Thanksgiving day at 8:00 o'clock.

Shortly before Thanksgiving that same year it was reported that Dr. Samuel P. Hall arrived in Manistque to practice medicine. It was reported that he graduated from Stanford University School of Medicine in 1941 and served as a medical officer in the Navy for two years, and later at the Veterans Administration Edward Hines Hospital in Chicago.

Dave Yalomstein, president of the Peoples Store Co. and prominent Manistque businessman for 25 years, died at his home Thursday before Thanksgiving the same year. Family survivors included five sisters, Mrs. J.J. Rubin of New York; Mrs. Louis Winkelman, Mrs. Louis Salas, Misses Evelyn and Lena Yalomstein, all of Detroit; and two brothers, Louis Yalomstein of White Plains, N.Y.; and Moses Yalomstein of The Sea. The Morton General Home handled arrangements and burial took place in Detroit.

Nov. 21, 1946: HUNTRESS DOWNS SIX-POINT BUCK. Mrs.

Memories Jack Orr

William Brockman of 138 N. Maple Ave. puts her husband in the shade when it comes to successful hunting, at least for this year. Mrs. Brockman downed a 175-pound six-point buck with a single shot while hunting with her spouse Tuesday afternoon near Stony Cit hill on M-94.

Thanksgiving, Manistque, 1927: Manistque fittingly observed Thanksgiving on Thursday, Nov. 24. Practically all business places were closed throughout the day and there were special church services appropriate to the occasion. Mayor W.L. Middletree in his Thanksgiving proclamation urged the cessation of all business wherever possible.

A special Thanksgiving community service was held in which all Protestant churches took part was held under the auspices of the Manistque Ministerial association from ten to eleven o'clock at the Swedish Baptist Church. The program included a piano prelude by Mrs. F.E. Dayton; invocation by Rev. V.E. Holmstedt; scripture reading by Rev. C.E. Morrison; anthem by Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Gross. Mrs. Holmquist, and Rev. F. Elmberg; prayer led by Rev. C. Mailenberg; sermon by Rev. C.S. Risley; benediction by Rev. C.S. Walton.

There was no mail delivery for the day, and the public library was closed and hours for the remainder of the week were from two to five daily.

The same year, 1927, game warden and special deputies had a busy period the weekend before Thanksgiving. Sunday evening they made searches of all cars coming in from the Hiawatha area which resulted in the apprehension of eighteen hunters who were hauled into court for various violations of the game laws.

The 1917 mayoral proclamation read as follows: "Again, time in its endless flight has brought Thanksgiving Day to the American people. It is a day that is purely American, dating back to the early history of this great nation. The Pilgrims, in gratitude to the Heavenly Father, who had brought them safely to a land of plenty and freedom, and had bestowed upon them bounteous crops, deemed it fitting to give praise to the author of all the good which they had received."

Irwin elected as Senate assistant president pro-tem

State Senator Mitch Irwin was this week named one of the presiding officers of the Michigan State Senate for the 82nd Legislative Session. Irwin represents the 37th Senate District, which includes Schoolcraft County.

Irwin has been selected as the Assistant President Pro Tempore, and in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor and the President Pro Tempore, Irwin presides over the full Senate body.

They therefore set aside Thursday, Nov. 26, 1921 as a day of prayer and thanksgiving. It was a fitting and beautiful tribute that later became a national holiday and has descended to the present generation as a sacred heritage through hundreds of years. "We, the people of Manistque, have much for which we should be thankful as this season approaches. The past year has brought no pestilence to our doors; we have been spared loss of lives and property from floods, tornadoes and other destructive forces which have wrought great havoc in other communities. Therefore I, Wm. L. Middletree, Mayor of the City of Manistque, deem it my duty and pleasure to urge you, the citizens of our city, to observe Thursday, Nov. 24th, as a day of Thanksgiving - to put aside as much as possible the usual weekday work and in your homes and in the churches of your choice, to give thanks for the blessings received by you, by the city in which you live."

Signed, Wm. L. Middletree, Mayor.

Democratic Caucus earlier this week. Irwin's position is considered one of the top five leadership posts in the Democratic-controlled Senate which will convene in January, 1983.

"I look forward to my next term and this new leadership role," said Irwin, who asks twofold in seniority among Democratic senators. "I'm excited about working closely with the new Governor and a new Legislature to improve Michigan's business climate and to put people back to work," he said. "We have a full agenda."

New switches, numbers for Gulliver phones start Dec. 1

General Telephone Company of Michigan announced last week that the Gulliver central office will be replaced with electronic switching equipment on Dec. 1. The new equipment will process calls with greater speed and accuracy. Beginning December 1, touch-call dialing will also be available for the Gulliver customers, according to Bob Kowalski, northern division manager.

"On Dec. 1, Gulliver customers may notice a difference in the ringing of their telephones and the busy signal. This is the result of changing from an electromechanical switching system to a fully electronic switching system," Kowalski said.

GTE spokesman Joel Sietsema said that Gulliver telephones will now have longer intervals of ringing with shorter pauses between rings. The improvements to go into effect Dec. 1 will not allow Gulliver customers to dial long distance without having an operator come on the line to take the caller's number, however, Sietsema said.

Gulliver customers will also have to dial all seven digits when calling either Gulliver or Manistque. The new telephone directories will be mailed November 30. Customers are reminded to check the new directory for numbers they are calling as many Gulliver numbers will change on Dec. 1, he cautioned. "This project has been in progress for several months and cost $177,000. The new equipment is scheduled to provide telephone service for Gulliver through 1987, with an addition to the new equipment presently planned for 1987," Kowalski said.

District gives a 6.3% pay hike

Tahquamenon teachers end strike

The teachers in the Tahquamenon School District returned to work on Monday, Nov. 22, after a work stoppage of one day. According to one of the supervisors, the state appointed "fact finder" made a non-binding recommendation to adopt the teachers' proposal of a 6.3 percent cost of living adjustment. This was agreed upon by the superintendent, two board members and the teachers. At a later meeting, three board members voted against the pay hike, creating a tie "no" vote.

The teachers voted to strike and started that action on Friday, Nov. 19. In the interim one of the board members changed his vote, giving board approval to the raise, and the teachers voted to return. The Curtis Volunteer Ambulance was called once this week to take a patient to the Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital in Manistque.

There have been no fire calls in several weeks, and Chief Carl Work said that, because of past experience and publicity, residents are keeping their chimneys clean. The recent spaghetti supper of Boy Scout Troop 161 of Curtis and Gernifask was a failure with very few in attendance. The troop is trying to raise $2,000 to go to the international meeting in Calgary, Canada next year. Plans are being made now for another spaghetti supper and perhaps a dinner in March and April.

Ralph Rockwood finds Navy life hot (136 degrees) to handle

by Roberta McCorkle
Navy Public Affairs Center

Like many Americans traveling overseas Ralph W. Rockwood of Manistique picks up a bit of the language in each country he visits. In his two years in the Navy, the 1980 Manistique High School graduate has learned some Spanish, French, Italian, Serbo-Croatian (Yugoslavia) and Arabic.

In the next few months, the son of Charles and Marlene Rockwood of 806 Garden Ave., Manistique, will also acquire some Swedish, Danish and more French as he visits Copenhagen, Denmark, Stockholm, Sweden, and Cherbourg, France, aboard his ship, the Norfolk, Va., based USS Belknap.

Petty Officer 3rd Class Rockwood will be among 15,000 sailors on 29 U.S. ships taking part in "Northern Wedding" and "United Effort."

Northern Wedding is a NATO maritime exercise involving more than 150 ships. United Effort will involve 33 ships from the United States and Canada.

Aboard the 547-foot guided missile cruiser, Rockwood works in the fireroom as a boiler technician.

Boiler technicians operate shipboard equipment that produces steam for propulsion engines and that generates electrical power.

"I've always been quite mechanical, so the boiler technician rating seems natural to me," related the 20-year-old Howell native. "I've definitely had to adjust to the extremely high temperatures—sometimes up to 136 degrees when we operate in the Caribbean.

"The job is obviously important to the mission of the Belknap. Without boiler technicians or machinists' mates, or 'snipes' as we're called, the ship wouldn't move.

"The working hours are long and we're always the first ones on board before we get under way and the last ones off for liberty when we arrive in port."

Rockwood joined the Navy on the delayed entry program while he was still at Manistique High School. He attended basic training at Great Lakes, Ill., and completed boiler technician school there before reporting to the Belknap in 1981.

The Belknap was involved in a serious accident in 1975 when it collided with an aircraft carrier off Italy during night operations. After decommissioning and extensive overhaul, the ship rejoined the Atlantic Fleet in 1980 as one of its most advanced cruisers or "battler-cruiser" as Belknap bumper stickers proclaim.

"I learn new things every day on this ship, but I know I could never learn all there is to know about it," said Rockwood. "I like the deployment schedule we have, too."

The ship's schedule has allowed the Michigan man to visit ports most sailors never see.

"My favorite port was Split, Yugoslavia," he said. "We couldn't leave the city limits of Split, but the people in the city were friendly. Their English was poor, but they gave it a heck of a shot. I enjoyed one of the best steaks I've ever had.

"I'm excited about visiting Stockholm, Sweden, on this deployment because I've got distant relatives there."

Rockwood reports however, that he's seen nothing to rival life in the United States.

"I miss sitting by a lake or going skiing," he said. "I also get tired of being stared at overseas because I'm a foreigner."

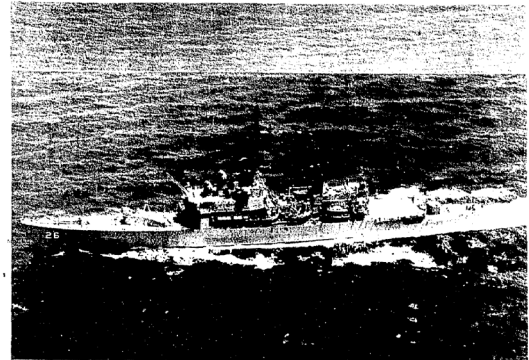

Rockwood will be aboard the Belknap until next July, at which time he hopes to be stationed in Charleston, S.C.

"My older brother, Tyrone, is a weapons fire control technician on a submarine there and he's been trying to get me to join him," he said.

"I like the Navy," he continued. "I've attended several schools and learned a skill; I've seen foreign countries; I've met some great people and had lots of good times."

Senior Citizens

By Diane McClelland

Holiday season has officially begun. And now is the time for lots of fun. People to visit and people to greet. You'll be so busy, I probably won't see you for a week.

Turkey to stuff and cook golden brown.

Hope you remember your not feeding the whole town.

And whatever you do, don't forget the pumpkin pie.

Never know when I might stop by. Kids will be coming from far and near.

Sure bet you'll be glad when they are all here.

Grandchildren will have grown by leaps and bounds.

It will fill your house with joyous sounds.

Very thankful we can be on this special day.

In very many, many ways.

Nice meal, family around us, and lots of love.

God bless you all, we all send our love.

Memorials were given to the Center in the name of Oscar Blomquist by Mary Blomquist in the name of Helen Michelson by Viola Steele; in the name of Sebastian Weber by Elizabeth Hamill; in the name of Hilda Olson by William and Edith Washburn and in the name of Elsie Klagstad by Clifford and Irene Smith.

A monetary donation to our building fund came from Clifford and Irene Smith.
Postage donations to supplement the cost of our Newsletter came from Leona Cutler, Martin and Gerry Hoholik and George and Pauline Ober.

"Grandma's Attic" donations came from: Agnes Edwards, Sharon Leonard, Brenda Howard, Thora Atwater, Bill Drefs, Sally Bradley, Ruth Gallop, Mildred Mattson, Estelle Oberg, Mary Blomquist and Wendy Schoewe of Utopia.

We appreciate the generous donation from Dick and Margaret Stefens of cabbage for the kitchen. Many people will enjoy the harvest of their garden.

We thank each and everyone of you for your kindness and concern.

Direct deposit has advantages

by Amy Bilski
Social Security Representative

People in the Schoolcraft County area who receive Social Security or SSI checks can reap several advantages if they choose to have them deposited directly into an account in a financial institution.

Checks can be deposited directly into an account in a bank, savings and loan association or similar institution, or Federal or State chartered credit union.

Direct deposit means that people do not have to stand in line to cash or deposit the check, that money is always available, even if the person is away from home, there are no check cashing problems, and there is no worry about the check being lost or stolen.

To arrange for direct deposit, the person should contact the financial organization of his or her choice and ask for a direct deposit form SF-1199. Completion of the form only authorizes deposits into a person's account.

A person should check and find out how the financial organization will handle the account and whether there is any charge for the service.

To stop direct deposit so that the check will be delivered to a person's home or elsewhere, the person should contact his or her Social Security office and be specific that he or she no longer wants direct deposit. If Nina Rubick, the person should leave the account at the financial organization open until after Social Security has recorded the new address. Closing the account prematurely will cause the financial organization to return any payments to Treasury and it may take time to reissue them.

A person with direct deposit should also remember to notify Social Security of any change in address so that he or she will receive notices from Social Security. Failure to report a change of address can result in suspension of checks.

More information about direct deposit of Social Security and SSI checks can be obtained at the Court House in Manistique every first and third Wednesday of each month from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Most Social Security business can be handled by telephoning 1-800-562-4820.

Society plans meeting

At a regular meeting of the Schoolcraft County Historical Society held Monday, Nov. 22, at the courthouse, plans were developed for the annual meeting and election of officers scheduled for Michigan Week next May.

A talk on tracing ancestors is scheduled. There will also be an antique display and all townships in the county are asked to send a delegation so directors to the board may be elected.

A donation of $50 was received from Mrs. T.K. Whitlaw of Atherton, Calif. A memorial for Sebastian Weber from Mr. and Mrs. George (Tex) Meron; a Plexiglass display for servicemen's badges from the Eagles' Club; an antique wooden seeder from Pat Davidson and a charcoal burner used to manufacture methane gas were also received. Thank you notes were authorized for Robert Walters who furnished paint and labor for the anchor at Pioneer Park and for painting done by Don Martin.

New members are Marjorie Gould of Frederick, Mich., and Don Martin of 124 East St.

The next meeting is scheduled for Jan. 24. There will not be a December meeting.

Good to excellent conditions help start of firearm deer season

The opening two days of the rifle deer season offered sunny, mild weather, and two to ten inches of snow in the district. Conditions were considered good to excellent except in the areas of heavy snow. Road conditions were fair to poor, snow covered and slippery.

A huge bear was sighted in the Danaber area, none of the hunters had a license to shoot. A bear complaint was received from the Paradise area, complainant said the animal had been hanging around his house, and had in fact pressed his nose up against the window.

There have been 66 deer season related arrests from the five days prior to the season. Two illegal deer were recovered. The south half of Schoolcraft County seemed to offer the best success. In the Kildon area of Chippewa County, a number of deer with 10 to 12 points were taken.

There was another sighting of a cougar on Drummond Island. The observer said he also saw tracks in the snow.

DNR REPORT

by Carol Schmidt
Newberry DNR Office

ologist at Newberry, has a few comments on hunting:

Deer hunting should be fun, and deer or no deer in the bag, it is good that hunters end the season on a happy note, having had good times, fellowship, and a safe season behind them. A deer is the frosting on the cake. Good health and a happy ending can, just as a successful deer hunt, be planned.

Know your limitations. More than normal work exertions for seniors are not good; let young men and friends help with the heavy chores such as pushing stuck cars, dragging deer, splitting firewood, and so forth.

When taking off in the woods, plan on possibly spending the night. Many a good woodsman who knew exactly where he was, has spent the night in the woods because of such things as failure to note the passing of time, sprained ankles, various kinds of seizures, helping another who is lost or in distress. This means having along rain clothes, fire building material, emergency food, flashlight, and a method to provide primitive shelter. A cold, windy, wet night is a long one - so play the game and be considered a super smart woodsman. Let people know where you will be.

Remember even though no harm is done, those who look for a lost or injured hunter could spend their time much more pleasantly than avoiding placing themselves in a precarious position.

If you are lucky and get a deer, dress it out immediately. Even if the weather is cold, body heat can spoil the meat adjacent to the body cavity in a short time. So open up the deer from the brisket to the tail bone and prop open. Use cheese cloth to protect the animal from flies if the weather is warm.

Wear orange. Be careful and shoot straight. Good hunting.

Ten Commandments of Gun Safety:

1. Treat every gun as if it were loaded - it could be.
2. Unload your gun before taking it into home, camp or car.
3. Check now and then to make sure the barrel and action are clear of obstructions like mud, snow or ice.
4. Always carry your gun so you can control the direction of the muzzle should you trip, fall or bump your arm.
5. Be sure of your target before you even put your finger on the trigger.
6. Never point your gun at anything you don't want to shoot.
7. Before you put your gun away - whether for an hour or a year, check and recheck to make sure it's empty.
8. Never climb up a tree, over a fence, or into a boat with a loaded gun in your hand.
9. Never shoot at a flat, hard surface, or at the surface of water.
10. Don't mix alcohol and firearms.

INTRODUCING WEIL-McLAIN NEW 87% EFFICIENT GAS BOILER! ...
The WEIL-McLAIN TYPE VHE - Very High Efficiency Gas Boiler.

The Weil-McLain VHE Boiler represents a notable improvement in cast iron gas boiler design and engineering. The unit incorporates an indirect draft combustion system, heat exchanger, intermittent electronic ignition, and other energy-saving features to attain 87% seasonal operating efficiency! This compares to a typical installed boiler that may operate at only 60% seasonal efficiency. The VHE Boiler can pay for itself in fuel savings in a few short years!!

DESIGN FEATURES ...

- 1) 87% OPERATING EFFICIENCY ... Can save 20 percent or more on annual gas combustion!!
- 2) NO CHIMNEY REQUIRED ... VHE Boiler is vented directly through an outside wall or through the roof.
- 3) INDUSTRY APPROVED ... Design certified by the American Gas Association for natural gas. Built in accordance with the requirements of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers Boiler and Pressure Vessel Code. Heating capacities based on standard test procedures prescribed by the U.S. Department of Energy. Ratings equated by The Hydronics Institute.
- 4) CAST IRON CONSTRUCTION ... Boiler sections are made of cast iron for extra strength and long life - it's not uncommon for a Weil-McLain cast iron boiler to last 25 years or more.!!

CARD OF THANKS

NOTICE OF SALE

With deepest gratitude we extend this word of thanks for the many kind acts of sympathy expressed by thoughtful friends at the time of the death of our father, Ollie Schultheiss. The support and help we received from the Jim Lamberts, Jay Angers, Dr. Merle Wehner, Rev. Paul Veroni and the Messier-Brouillette Funeral Home is deeply appreciated. To all those who expressed their sympathy in so many beautiful and practical ways we extend our heartfelt thanks. These many comforting acts have meant so much to us and will be remembered and cherished forever.

Daughter and Son,
Edna Higgins and
Robert Schultheiss

I would like to take this means to thank all of the kind and generous people that sent cards, letters, money or expressed concern in any way after Ollie's accident.

This situation is very hard for me, but you have all helped to make it a little easier by showing that you care.

A special thanks must go to the James Lamberts, Jay Angers, Russell Ruggles, Lial Lakes, George Schwelkerts, Dr. Merle Wehner, Rev. Paul Veroni and Messier-Brouillette Funeral Home.

Each of these people went far beyond the call of duty to help. I feel that I am very fortunate to have such super people for friends.

Thank you just isn't enough to express my gratitude.

Eva Fletcher
