Hereafter in this issue appears an article concerning the proposed plans for the removal of the old city hall and the building of a new one. The Michigan Northern Power company, which is in charge of the project, has been authorized to acquire the site and to erect the new building. We think this is not a very important story, but it is somewhat interesting and its publication will awaken the public to a realization of the future of Lansing. We are hoping to read news in this matter.

We invite you to read this article carefully. If more information is desired, we invite you to contact the city manager at this office where an effort will be made to answer any further questions. We would like to emphasize again the fact that this is not a matter of power companies in Newberry, St. Ignace, and Sault Ste. Marie. It is a matter of public interest and the possibility of being industrially stymied, as so far as the city is concerned. The fact that the city is not a power company is a fact that is not generally known. We are sure that you will be interested in the fact that our industrial future is harnessed. The federal government can be induced to contribute to the cost of construction of the hydroelectric power plant on the St. Mary's River. We can be assured of virtually all the power we need for the city, and probably at a lower cost. The smaller plant which is being planned for the renewal of the 30-year lease, would restrict the entire eastern part of the city to a power as inexpensive as hydroelectric power goes for a generation.

Either Manistique is located in a northern "banana" belt or the winters of the upper peninsula are getting milder. Two years ago we experienced a winter that was as warm as well into March. Here it is nearly the middle of January, and virtually all the snow has melted. It is difficult to believe that one can get into mid-winter and get so green as we are now. Before coming to Manistique we lived in various towns in the upper peninsula and do not recall any winter when snow was not piled across the middle of December to mid-April. It is truly a novel experience to live in the leaves from lawn in mid-winter.

Thursday, as this is being written, is one of the balmy mid-winter days we have ever seen in the upper peninsula. A warm sun is shining and the outdoors has the appearance of a warm day. It is a change, however, as shown as that upper peninsula. It is possible that in a few days winter will be back at us with blizzards and subzero cold.

Robert H. Patterson, secretary of war, says he is "misquoted when statements he made to reporters were reported. We were delighted that the five reporters jointly signed a statement to the effect that they had understood him in reporting the incident. This charge of misquoting is a charge of political big-wigs, and small-wigs, too. When statements were made to the press about the "back against their ears. Covered by the unfavorable reports in their speech of interview, they cry "misquoting" and place all the blame on the "cases, irresponsible newspaper reporters. Even certain presidents have indulged in this type of the upper peninsula. A warm sun is shining and the outdoors has the appearance of a warm day. It is a change, however, as shown as that upper peninsula. It is possible that in a few days winter will be back at us with blizzards and subzero cold.

Frank Gierke in displaying two Japanese paintings sent to him by his son who served with American occupation forces in Japan. Both paintings show nature scenes and are of the traditional style of the work is rated good by local art critics. Gierke, a painter, says he has viewed the paintings and is extremely gratified to reflect that a devotion to Japanese culture does exist among our young men. He says that when in Japan, dealers were very anxious to buy his work. He says that when in Japan, dealers were very anxious to buy his work. ## VET COUNSELOR SETUP IS GIVEN APPROVAL HERE

Six-Month Trial Period Designated; Leonard Multaupt In Charge

A Legion-sponsored plan for the establishment in Manistique of a veteran counseling center with full-time counselor in charge, toward completion this week with decision by various town-council supervisors to contribute to the cost of financing the project. At a special meeting of the Manistique Rotary club at their regular meeting Monday evening at 8 o'clock, the plan was approved for a six-month period. The plan, prepared by a half-dozen members of the Legion, provides for operation of the center for a year.

An estimated budget of $5,000 was therefore cut in half and possibilities for financing the project discussed. It was proposed that each of the eight townships of the county contribute $150 toward the total of $1,200, and that the City of Manistique furnish the balance of $3,800. No action on the proposal has been taken by the city council, but the matter of financial support for the center was presented to them at an informal meeting, several days ago when it is expected that the funds will be provided.

Veteran Hired

Leonard Multaupt, a discharged veteran, has been engaged by the Schoolcraft county council of Veterans Affairs as counselor and will leave this week end for Lansing where he will take a week's training course for new counselors sponsored by the Michigan Council of Veterans Affairs and the state government. The course is given without charge.

Officers have been obtained on the second floor of the First National Bank building and beginning Jan. 21, veterans may obtain assistance on various problems. The office will be open from 8:30 to 12 and from 1 to 5:30 p. m. approximately 600 of Schoolcraft county's 1,250 servicemen are now being discharged and the number is increasing rapidly. The counseling of veterans has previously been on a voluntary basis by the Schoolcraft County Council of Veterans Affairs, but the number of interviews have come so great that it is impossible to do this properly, the council reports.

The Legion committee which presented the plan to the supervisors and the city council is composed of: J. H. ... Harvey Quirk, E. R. ... Howard Hewitt, ...

Residents of Manistique are being asked to contribute to three drives during the month of January—the National Clothing Collection for war victims, the annual campaign for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and the local financial drive for the War Fund, the Boy and Girl Scouts and the Manistique Youth Council. ## Drafting Beaver Trapping Rules Presents Problem

King Solomon might have trouble trying to decide how to satisfy everybody in drafting Michigan's beaver trapping regulations for 1946.

The conservation commission was to decide between the advantages of a closed season when it met in Lansing today. In other years, sportsmen's organizations often presented a solid front in opposition to trapping, but this year the sportsmen's organizations have been divided. As examples, a Hancock sportsmen's organization voted in favor of a closed season, a Houghton club on the opposite side of the river was an open season. Trappers in the district appear to be about evenly divided.

TIPS FOR FARMERS

By JOSEPH L. HEHRMAN County Agricultural Agent

Schoolcraft county farmers who expect to get their share of fertilizer for the 1945 crop season should place their orders at once with their dealers.

Several factors are contributing to this situation. Labor problems are causing manufacturers more concern than a year ago.

By placing orders now, delivery can be made whenever the local dealer gets a supply.

Here are six tips on storing fertilizer to keep it from hardening.

1. Make sure you store your fertilizer in a dry building where the floor is above ground.

2. Don't stack the bags too high. A lot of pressure on the bottom bags makes the fertilizer harden.

3. Avoid breaking the bags. Buy War Bonds Today!

conclusion of the war but begins to accumulate later on.

The paid up "insurance policy" covering all present and future needs of Michigan veterans and members of their families, would be possible if the State Legislature, acting upon the recommendation of veteran organizations, set up a trust fund from the $51,000,000 now on hand.

The interest on the trust fund, so created, would be made available to accredited veterans organizations for use in meeting the needs of veterans and their families on almost a "lifetime, lifetime basis.

For example, the State of Nebraska utilized the interest of its veterans' trust fund, established in 1923, to cover such emergency needs as food, fuel, wearing apparel, medical or surgical aid, care of relief, funeral expenses, care of dependent children, or wives and widows who may be in need of assistance.

Since none of the principal officers of the Nebraska fund, which was successful in meeting annual needs of Nebraska veterans and their families, augmented satisfactorily to meet 1945-46 conditions, will be available to do the same for veterans of World War II.

Prevention of fraud was provided in a penalty of a $500 fine or six months' jail imprisonment for "hefty" one, and "knowingly," may obtain any payment or aid from the veterans' trust fund.

One of the unique benefits of the veterans' trust fund plan is the fact that no Michigan veteran would be forced to request public charity or relief for himself or members of his family.

It is akin to a savings account in the bank which is available for "rainy days." Except that the account, in this case, would be administered by veterans' organizations and not through public welfare agencies. Furthermore, the taxpayers benefit by knowledge that they will not be called upon to pay additional taxes for the public relief of distressed veterans.

Dwight Griswold, governor of Nebraska, reports that the veterans' trust fund is very popular in Nebraska, and, in fact, was suggested by the American Legion state department in 1921, and hence is non-political.

By giving the veterans' organizations power to handle the sums, according to agreed upon requirements, the state has avoided the burden of a "big" paid organization under state auspices. All local work is performed by officers of the veterans' posts in local communities.

Here is an interesting quotation by Governor Griswold: "The State Fund Relief has proven highly satisfactory to the World War veterans themselves. It is their feeling that the man who is able to make his own doesn't need a cash bonus from his state. They feel that the needy veteran is the one who deserves help, and they know that State Fund Relief will provide that help."

Whether Michigan veterans' organizations will fall into line with the thinking of Governor Kelly and recommend the establishment of a similar trust fund for Michigan veterans, is the question before the Michigan Veterans' Advisory Commission tonight (Thursday) at Lansing.

There is every indication that the veterans themselves will favor such a program and will solve the dilemma of politicians, who for the sake of ballot votes, lean toward the idea of distributing $51,000,000 in 1946 to all Michigan veterans and calling it a day.

After all, 1946 is an election year. But veterans' needs will continue in 1947 and the other years, one by one, for decades to come.

Clear Lake Forest Camp Available For Group Vacations

The U. S. Forest Service this week called attention to the fact that the Clear Lake forest camp in the Haverthwaite national forest, has been developed primarily for use by groups sponsored by public or semi-public agencies, and for summer recreation. The camp offers beyond doubt, wonderful outing possibilities to groups of up to nearly 100 people at exceptionally low cost. It is fully equipped with cooking, eating, sleeping, and even hospital facilities, and every imaginable device for safe and healthful forest fun. These devices extend even to council rings, diving floats, play field, and outside fireplace, administration and custodian staffs, all at a cost of a few dollars a week per person.

No such chances to play amid cool and beautiful forest surroundings have been offered to the American public up to recent times. It is believed that once the public knows about these remarkable complete arrangements for forest vacationists, the camps will be booked up for the entire summer season.

Information about group char- with veterans in Nebraska, and, in fact, was suggested by the American Legion state department in 1921, and hence is non-political.

By giving the veterans' organizations power to handle the sums, according to agreed upon requirements, the state has avoided the burden of a "big" paid organization under state auspices. All local work is performed by officers of the veterans' posts in local communities.

Here is an interesting quotation by Governor Griswold: "The State Fund Relief has proven highly satisfactory to the World War veterans themselves. ### RESORT INTERESTS LOOKING TO FUTURE

Unprecedented Support Given To 1946 Lure Book, Bishop Reveals

Faith in the future of the upper peninsula's tourist and resort industry has led to unprecedented support of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau's 1946 Lure Book, it has been announced at Bureau offices in Marquette.

The 1946 edition, with new cover design, new pictures, and new copy, is shipping up rapidly, with forms scheduled to be closed on February 1. It is expected that the first copies will be ready for distribution April 1. The number of pages has been increased from 124 last year to from 136 to 140 pages for the forthcoming issue.

Last year the Bureau ran short of Lure Books despite printing 50,000. As a result, demand had been reached to increase the number of copies in 1946 to 60,000.

In commenting on the work of preparing the Lure Book, George E. Bishop, secretary-manager of the Development Bureau, said: "We can attribute the increased support for the Lure Book only to the abiding faith of our people in the future of the tourist and resort business in the upper peninsula. In some counties the support has doubled, in some cases advertisers who withdrew during the war period, have come back and in others old advertisers have doubled the size of space purchased."

Convict Gemfask Man On Charge Of Illegal Trapping

A five-man jury Monday afternoon convicted Stanley Wilcox, of Gemfask, of a charge of illegal trapping, but on recommendation of Prosecutor W. J. Sheehan a fine of $25 imposed by the court was suspended and Wilcox ordered to pay only court costs of $8.50.

Members of the jury were Raymond Males, E. J. Dwyer, Clyde Tank, Roy E. Anderson and Carl Anderson. Dwyer acted as foreman.

Wilcox was arrested Nov. 12 by Conservation Officer Ernest Dierwin who charged him with setting his muskrat traps closer to a levee house than the law allows. Wilcox pleaded not guilty and the case was set for trial within a few days, but repeated postponements delayed the hearing.

Witnesses for the prosecution were James Berry and Officer Derwin. Defense witnesses were Harry Young, Otto Wilcox, John Talkowski, Fred Poppel and the defendant.

Miss Ann Popish, of Flint, and Miss Mary Popish, of Detroit, were visiting with relatives here.

A "Look at the Books"

OR
"A Finger in the Pie"?

Which is the UAW-CIO really after? Is it seeking facts—or new economic power? Does it want to know things—or run things? These questions concern you as well as General Motors.

For years the facts about General Motors have been made public.

In spite of this, the UAW-CIO demands a chance to look at our books, with the hint that we could meet Union demands "if the truth were really known."

We have firmly declined to recognize this as a basis for bargaining:

- 1. The Full Facts are Published
How much General Motors takes in each year—how much it pays employees—how much it pays to stockholders—how much it pays in taxes—how much net profit we make—and many other facts are plainly stated in annual reports and quarterly reports.
- 2. All Figures are Thoroughly Checked
Every General Motors annual statement is audited by outside auditors. Similar figures are filed with the Securities & Exchange Commission.
- 3. Basis of Collective Bargaining is Defined
The Wagner Act lays down the rules for collective bargaining. These cover such areas as rates of pay, hours of work, working conditions.
- 4. Something New has been Added
The obvious fact is that the UAW-CIO has gone beyond its rights under the law—and is reaching not for information but for new power—not for a look at past figures, but for the power to sit in on forecasting and planning the future.
- 5. This Threatens All Business
If the Union can do this in the case of General Motors, it can do it to every business in this land of ours.

Is this just imagination? Union spokesmen have said, "The Union has stated time after time that this issue is bigger than just an ordinary wage argument, that it is bigger than the Corporation and bigger than the Union."

For Labor Unions to use the monopolistic power of their vast membership to extend the scope of wage negotiations to include more than wages, hours and working conditions is the first step toward handing the management of business over to the Union bosses.

We therefore reject the idea of a "look at the books" not because we have anything to hide but because the idea itself hides a threat to GM, to all business, and to you, the public.

Therefore if the present lease is renewed with the Union Carbide utility, the same diversion of water through the power canal would take place, thereby limiting normal community growth and industrial expansion in the eastern end of the peninsula to the capacity of the 14,500 KVA plant for the next 30 years, it was pointed out.

Public Welfare First

Civic leaders in Manistique and other eastern communities feel that the interests of the Union Carbide firm should be limited to the welfare of Chippewa, Mackinac Island, Lapeer and Schoolcraft counties, and that any future hydro-electric development in St. Mary's River by the government should provide ample power for these counties, and that the interests of the Union Carbide firm should be secondary.

The campaign to prevent the renewal of the 30-year lease with the Union Carbide utility was initiated by the Cloverland Electric Cooperative, an REA project, out of the Cloverland Electric Co., which is now being distributed to various small communities in Chippewa and adjoining counties. The Cooperative has retained the services of Paul Adams, Sault attorney.

Other communities, notably Newberry and St. Ignace, have joined in the fight and on January 17 a delegation representing these various towns met with the Manistique city council to solicit local support for the campaign. Following the meeting with the Manistique city council, the city manager of Manistique dispatched a telegram to Col. Allison Miller, of Detroit, district engineer for the war department's engineering corps, requesting postponement of the reported hearing on the lease project.

Seek Public Hearing

A reply from Col. Miller, read at the meeting Wednesday, stated that no such public hearing has been called or was contemplated. City officials at the meeting then indicated that a request for such a hearing would be made and stated that other interested communities would be invited to make similar requests.

It also was pointed out that communities which depend on the co-operative plant in St. Mary's River for power have only recently realized the dangerous implications for their economic welfare involved in the proposed renewal of the 30-year lease. They have had no opportunity to present their case to Congressmen Fred Bradley or to the engineering corps, and the proposed public hearing would give them that opportunity, it was pointed out.

As an alternative to the proposed new 14,500 KVA plant in St. Mary's River, the interested communities undoubtedly intend to ask the federal government to construct a plant capable of utilizing all the water power available in the river. This would be a plant capable of producing around 44,000 KVA's. Such a program, it was pointed out, would place all water power in the river under government control, would eliminate the diversion of surplus water to the Union Carbide hide firm, and would make it necessary for the Michigan Northern Power company to purchase its power directly from the federal plant after the expanding needs of surrounding communities were served.

Local Welfare At Stake

The effect of the proposed 30-year lease on Manistique's future economic development was carefully analyzed at the meeting Wednesday. It was pointed out that the Manistique Light and Power company and the Manistique Pulp and Paper company purchase their power direct from the Edison-Sault company. The paper company is allotted 900 KVA's plus an additional 900 KVA's of "dumpy" power which, however, is available only a few hours of the 11 p. m. and 7 a. m. The Light and Power company has a peak allocation of 750. This makes a total peak allocation to Manistique under the present arrangement of about 1,600 KVA's which is available for community and industrial usage.

Little more power is made available for the general public in St. Mary's River than Manistique is tied to the present plant. The Cloverland Electric Cooperative, an REA project, out of the Cloverland Electric Co., which is now being distributed to various small communities in Chippewa and adjoining counties. The Cooperative has retained the services of Paul Adams, Sault attorney.

ing by commercial fishermen. Take of herring and whitefish crabs being improved and such species can be explained by the reduction in numbers of smelt in recent years.

Shipments of smelt to the Chicago market, especially from Green Bay waters, continue to average several hundred pounds daily, the first sizable shipment since a mysterious epidemic attacked the species during the winter of 1942-43.

A new large power plant which used 1,000 KVA's of power could not get power from the Edison-Sault company because that much additional power is not available to Manistique, and would not be available for the hide lease is renewed, it was pointed out.

The normal growth of Manistique during the next 30 years, including the wider use of electrical appliances in homes and probable new uses for electricity, also would be throttled by the proposed lease is renewed, it was reported.

Bigger Plant Needed

It was pointed out that the Union Carbide company uses a tremendous amount of power in proportion to its payroll. Its consumption is about 30,000 KVA's and a quarter dollar. The Manistique Pulp and Paper company uses only 2,000 KVA's.

The future of Manistique is dependent on the availability of sufficient inexpensive electric power, it was agreed, and such power will not be available if the proposed lease is granted and the federal government builds only a 14,500 KVA plant in St. Mary's River. Manistique must join Newberry, St. Ignace and other interested communities in combating the renewal of the lease, and in inducing the federal government to construct a plant in St. Mary's River which will utilize all of the water power available there under the international treaty with Canada, it was decided at the meeting.

THE MANISTIQUE PIONEER-TRIBUNE

TELEPHONE No. 19... EDGAR and WALSH'S STREETS... Published at the Postoffice at Manistique, as Second Class mail matter...

Every government official or board that handles public money should publish at regular intervals an accounting of it showing where and how the government's money has been held this is a fundamental principle of democratic government.

Table with subscription rates: Local (Yearly $2.00, Six Months $1.25, Three Months .75), Foreign Countries (One Year $2.50, One Year $2.00).

Communications must be signed for publication. The columns of The Pioneer-Tribune are a free parliament, limited only by consideration for the laws of libel, the rights of privacy, and the uses of grammar.

FREEDOM HAS NO "BUTS"

The wonder of 1945 was that so much could happen in so few months. Staggering headlines became commonplace. There was the death of President Roosevelt; the war ended; the United Nations Organization became a hopeful fact; and most cataclysmic of all, was the thunderous dawn of the atomic age.

An indication of the temper of the time is evident in the words of one veteran, a college graduate who lost a leg at El Alamein: "There is evidence among us of a growing distaste for orations. We will tend to judge parties and proposals by results, not by professions of high purpose."

Appealing as these words sound on the surface, they reveal the terrible weakness in thought that today threatens the future of the American republic and the hope of democracy throughout the world more seriously than any dictator or combination of dictators ever has.

General Carl A. Spaatz, former commanding general of the United States strategic and tactical air force in the Atlantic and Pacific theaters, says: "Discontented youth makes for troubled waters in which the unscrupulous politician loves to fish. When the 'Man on a White Horse' comes forward in such a situation, things begin to happen, as they happened in Germany. Hitler rose to power on the back of youth."

The most important issue before the American people today is how to get the price tag off freedom. In other words, freedom, our form of government, our religious beliefs, should not be considered in the same breath with material fortunes.

Undoubtedly as time goes on, greater protection against the hazards of poverty and illness can be evolved. Great changes have already been taken in this direction. The United States is so far ahead of the rest of the world in the achievement of humanitarian ideals and attainment of material comfort, that comparison has become impossible.

ment of humanitarian ideals and attainment of material comfort, that comparison has become impossible. We have gotten ahead because heretofore our faith in freedom, in representative government, in the right of a man to keep the rewards of hard work, has been complete. Heretofore we have never, in effect, said "Freedom is okay, but—"

In commenting on the present socialistic policy of Great Britain, which a powerful faction in our country seems bent on copying, Opposition Leader Winston Churchill said: "I foresee with sorrow but without fear that in the next few years we shall come to fundamental quarrels in this country. It seems impossible to escape the fact that events are moving and will move toward this issue: The People vs. the Socialists."

If there is one thing our country should keep in mind above everything else during the coming year and in all the years to follow, it is that freedom has no "buts." You either believe in it or you don't.

HARRY: "I don't know what they'll weigh feeding my old man and poultry, but they have been getting fatter since I started to use distillers dried grains in their ration." OLD JUDGE: "You're about the tenth one to say that, Harry. How do you account for it?" HARRY: "The by-product removed from grain used by distillers is very high in vitamins and protein. It's the best feed supplement we can get to balance the ration. I've used my baby chicks, broodstock and poultry. They all love it and thrive on it." OLD JUDGE: "Then I guess nobody can sell you this feed, can they?" HARRY: "Not and Judge 'I know."

Nearly 600 Discharged Vets Report To Local Draft Board; Majority Plan To Stay Here

Approximately 600 of Schoolcraft county's estimated 1,250 servicemen have received their discharges from various branches of the armed forces and have returned to their homes in Manistique and the various township communities, the local selective service board's record reveal. Many of the discharged veterans will leave to seek employment in industrial areas after the strike situation eases, but the majority of them will return to their former jobs here or will take new ones in Manistique plants or businesses. Others are returning to the farms they left to enter the service, and still others will enroll in various midwestern universities and colleges.

Manistique's housing shortage is no less serious than in dozens of other communities, and many veterans with families are having difficulty finding places to live. The returned serviceman is finding a spirited cooperation in the solution of any problems he may have chiefly from the Schoolcraft County Council of Veterans Affairs, the local chapter of the Red Cross and from the Manistique post of the American Legion. This service to veterans is to be expanded later this month when the Council will acquire an office with a full-time counselor.

The percentage of men who have seen foreign service is well known here, but the figure is believed to be very high. Following is a partial list of the men who have reported to the local draft board. The remainder will be published next week.

- 1. BETTER LETTERS
- 2. CLEARER COPIES

I think there is an awful lot of satisfaction in doing any job the right way—whether it's making a pile or doing office work. There is always a lot more real enjoyment in doing something the very best way you know how—instead of just good enough. That's why I put in some of my own time to help the M&V Paper Co. study all our typing work—what we do and how we do it and our individual problems. His report and recommendations are the "right" ribbon and the "right" carbon paper and the "right" carbon paper and his reasons. We are working out for all of us. We're saving lots of money too. It's worth a try.
