Manistique In Former Days

Fifty Years Ago

We hear of a first class row that occurred at the "cedony" (the fore part of the week Arms were brought out but hot words was the only ammunition used.

John Hayden is ill with laryngitis and Charles Rapin is doing his work. Mrs. Morsman, the teacher of the school on Water street, and Edly McCarty were driving home from David Lamarr's camp, where she had been on a visit to her husband, who is engaged there, Sunday afternoon; and when in front of Elias Graham's farm house, a dog ran out, frightened the horse, causing it to jump sideways crowding the cutter up on to the high snow bank which caused the cutter to upset, throwing the occupants out and a runaway with the consequence. Nobody hurt but the cutter was marked up some. The horse was not stopped until it arrived at Vessau's stable in the city. Mr. V. drove the horse back and found Mrs. M. and Eddie near where they had been dumped out, about four miles distant. Glad that the accident was not more harmful than it was.

CITY ACQUIRES SEVERAL BLOCKS OF PROPERTY

By a deal closed here recently the city of Manistique acquired from the Stearns Lumber company several tracts of land within the city limits.

It has been said that it is unwise for the city to take this much property off the tax rolls. However, a considerable portion of the area purchased is needed by the city to carry on its various government functions.

DEAD WATERWAYS

For half a century the congress of the United States has had on its agenda the proposed St. Lawrence Seaway.

The deep waterways project would be an advantage to the United States and Canada. The cost of opening this Seaway would be comparatively small as compared with other schemes that have been initiated by the government and carried out by administrations.

NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

Richard Fiegel, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Fiegel, enlisted in the navy last week and is now taking retraining at the U. S. Naval Academy at Great Lakes, Ill.

Mr. A. Cousineau, WT 3/c, Manistique, was one of several returning to the United States last week aboard the USS ...

Donald V. Schuster, who joined the U. S. Merchant Marine last October, is now stationed temporarily in Seattle following trips to Okinawa and Tokyo. Multaupt is a fireman aboard the S. S. Typhoon.

Major Everett Anderson resumed his former position as teller at the State Savings Bank Monday morning following an absence of nearly five years during which he advanced from the ranks to major and served 30 months in the Southwest Pacific area, part of it at the front.

Major Anderson—he received his commission as major January 10, 1946—spent two and one-half years in Australia, New Guinea, Leyte and Luzon. He entered Leyte shortly after the invasion and was there during much of the sanguinary fighting which was required to wrest this first part of the Philippines from the Japanese.

On Luzon, however, he landed with the fourth wave of assault troops which stormed the beaches of historic Bataan from Subic Bay. This move was to capture Bataan and prevent the Japanese from retreating there for the same type of last ditch fight which the Americans put up in the dark winter days of 1942.

In Artillery Unit

Major Anderson was with Battery D of the 210 Anti-aircraft outfit, a branch of the artillery. This was probably one of the finest artillery groups on any front during the last war, and it received second place rating in the number of Nipponese planes shot down by automatic weapons in the entire Southwest Pacific theater of action. Battery D also was rated third highest among all the artillery units of the same Pacific zone.

Major Anderson entered service in May, 1941, following four years employment at the State Savings Bank. He served in the ranks until September, 1942, and in November of that year he received his commission as second lieutenant. On March 7, 1943, he was advanced to first lieutenant, and his captaincy commission was obtained on January 1, 1944.

Major Anderson and his bride of a few weeks, the former Miss Caroline Robbins of Malden, Missouri, arrived here about two weeks ago. Major Anderson is on terminal leave and will receive his discharge March 3.

Post Commander Helps Plan Safety Council Meeting

Sgt. Kenneth White, commander of the Michigan state police post here, has returned from Lansing where he helped formulate plans for the annual meeting of the Michigan Safety Council to be held next September.

White represented the Upper Peninsula Law Enforcement Officers association, of which he is president. He was accompanied by Chief of Police Michael Eitenhoffer, of Escanaba, who is president of the Michigan Chiefs of Police.

Army Officer Back At Former Job In State Savings Bank

Major Everett Anderson resumed his former position as teller at the State Savings Bank Monday morning following an absence of nearly five years during which he advanced from the ranks to major and served 30 months in the Southwest Pacific area, part of it at the front.

VFW Post To Pick New Officers At Meeting Tuesday

New officers of the Schoolcraft county post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be named at a meeting to be held Tuesday evening, March 15, at the Knights of Columbus hall, it was announced this week by Commander Leonard Walters.

Commander Jacob Bink, of Escanaba, aside to the local post will be present.

Memorial booklets are being distributed this week to families of Schoolcraft county men killed in World War II, Walters has announced.

The post charter now numbers 131 members.

String Rug

Try making an ordinary string rug. Take a piece of canvas 2x6 inches and mark it off in lines 1 inch apart. Wind string 20 times around a piece of cardboard 5 inches wide. Cut the string at both ends; place it across the first line marked on the canvas, slice down middle of string. Repeat this process until all the ends are covered. You will find you have an attractive rug and one that can be laundered very easily.

New Electrical Living

You may not realize it, but chances are, REALLY, your home isn't ready to let you enjoy all those wonderful new electrical gadgets you've been promised. The hitch is in your house-wiring.

All these past years you've been plugging in new lamps and other electric appliances on wiring that was designed mainly for lighting. And THAT WON'T DO, now.

So have your house-wiring checked NOW to make sure it will be able to deliver the power you'll need really to enjoy NEW ELECTRICAL LIVING.

CALL AN ELECTRICIAN AT ONCE. Have him check to see that you have enough separate circuits—large enough wire—plenty of outlets and switches. It will cost you surprisingly little to fit the wiring in your home to the needs of the electrical wonders you'll soon be buying.

trodden, exploited, and abused for so many years that they probably have little heart left for further military ventures. But unless they see Franco and all he represents they will continue to ek out a miserable, beggared existence serving their landed masters.

Local Skiers Ride Famed Suicide Hill, Jump 150 Feet

Three Manistique skiers—Paul Yeasin, 14; John Paul Quick, 15 and Lawrence Rubick 17—made jumps of more than 150 feet each on "Isphempi's" famous Suicide Hill Saturday. The trio were in Ishphempi for the week end to attend the 59th annual renewal of the Ishphempi Ski Tournament Sunday, and although they were not entered in the competition tried their skill on the hill before.

All three boys jumped twice without a spill. Their leaps were greater than many of those made by riders in the Class A division Friday, although if they had been eligible to compete their ages would have placed them in the C. Local skiers were not permitted to enter the tournament competition because the Manistique club is affiliated with the U. S. Central Ski association, sponsors of the meet. The Manistique club is joining the association early in March, however, and local riders will thus be able to jump in future tournaments sanctioned by the association.

Wilbert Rasmussen, 16-year-old Negaunee youth riding for the Ishphempi Ski club, on his third trip down the hill hit the glory trail for a hill record of 250 feet that stood for the day. On his second lap, 238 feet, he fell, losing enough points to be out of the running for Class C honors.
