MANISTIQUE, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, OCT. 31, 1946

When the new Congress convenes in January it will likely disapprove the so-called LaFollette plan called for a reduction of standing committees in the Senate from 15 to 10, and for consolidation into 10. It isn't so much the question of reduction as it is the surrender of chairmanships by 15 Senators...

WHEN ARE WE OLD?

★ "When life has been well spent, age is a loss of what we can well spare—muscular strength, organic instincts and gross bulk.

"But wisdom, which was old in infancy, is young in fourscore years, and dropping off obstructions, leaves the mind purified and wise."—Emerson

To augment the richness of wisdom is modern medicine, a comforting ally of the aged. For the physician, together with the pharmacist, stands ready to alleviate the infirmities of age in the interest of happier, healthier, and longer lives.

A MESSAGE OF INTEREST

to all who await deliveries of new Chevrolets

We want you to know that everything possible is being done to speed deliveries to you; but production still lags far behind schedule—even though Chevrolet has built more cars and trucks than any other manufacturer from January through September 1946

WE REALIZE how eagerly you are awaiting delivery of the new Chevrolet you have ordered from us, and we want to pass on to you the latest information received from the Chevrolet Motor Division, even though that information isn't too encouraging at this time.

It is true that Chevrolet leads all other manufacturers in total production of passenger cars and trucks from January through September 1946, despite the fact that Chevrolet was out of production entirely during the first three months of this year. It is also true that Chevrolet has continued to maintain its lead in total production during the third quarter of 1946. And yet production is still running far below desired levels, with the result that Chevrolet's output of cars and trucks through September 1946 was only 38.7% of the number produced during the corresponding period of 1941.

This means it may take many months for the Chevrolet Motor Division to reach peak production of new Chevrolets—even longer to fill the unprecedented demand for this product of BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST—and, for the present at least, "there just aren't enough Chevrolets to go around," just as we wish there were.

However, we want you to know that new Chevrolets are leaving the plants in the largest numbers possible today. The Chevrolet Motor Division tells us it is doing everything it can in the face of continued supplier's strikes, material shortages and manpower problems, to step up shipments to us and to all dealers, in accordance with a predetermined distribution plan assuring each dealer of his fair allotment based on 1941 passenger car sales. And yet, in turn, we are doing our best to deliver new Chevrolets to our customers as rapidly as they are received and in the fairest possible way. We are too appreciative of your patience and goodwill—too grateful for your patience and understanding—to do anything less than continue to serve you to the very best of our ability.

KEEP YOUR PRESENT CAR RUNNING

Meanwhile, the most important car of all to you is the car you are driving now. May we suggest that you keep it in top running condition until you secure delivery of your new Chevrolet, by bringing it to us for a stalled service now and at regular intervals. Remember—cold weather is hard on old cars. Please see us for a complete check-up today. And, again, thank you!

Problems Of Better Tourist Services Must Be Solved On Local Level, Says Bishop

A community attempting to solve its needs for better service to tourists guests will find housing, transportation, health and advertising problems that must be solved on the local level, Bishop, secretary-manager of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau, declared last Thursday at the first in a series of district business "clinics" being conducted for four weeks in Manistique.

"Upper peninsula cities need an active and aggressive Chamber of Commerce to go out and attack these problems if the future, and the sound growth of the tourist industry has ever seen—with resort and other expenditures estimated at $10,000,000.—the Development Bureau official cited three reasons for the unprecedented amount of travel.

1. The enormous backlog of vacation desire. Ex-servicemen and women released from the armed forces sought a rest before settling down to civilian life, while millions of civilians took the vacation they had been forced to defer during wartime.

2. Unavailability of goods in other markets. With money to spend, many people found the tourist industry the only place in which it could be spent.

3. Continued and augmented advertising. Competing against advertising programs in every section of the country, the Michigan Tourist Council and Upper Peninsula Bureau answered a record number of inquiries as a result of their advertising program.

Good Result From Ads

"We received excellent results from our advertising throughout the Midwest," he said. "But to get repeat orders from tourists attracted by that advertising we should act now to study and correct our deficiencies."

He suggested the following course of action:

Creating an alert and informed public in the balance of the tourist industry to a community.

Organization of a special area council or committee composed of a typical cross-section of representative persons for a study of the possibilities of each area.

Recreational land-use inventory of each area.

Enactment of zoning laws on a county-wide basis.

Creation of a carefully-planned program with immediate and ultimate objectives looking toward the fullest development of the recreational industry within an area.

A Big Vote of Confidence for Senator Vandenberg

We believe that the re-election of Senator Vandenberg presents a challenge to the people of Michigan. The Senator has taken the voice of our State into the highest councils of domestic affairs and into the peace deliberations of the world. He has given our State a prominence and an influence in world events that is unequalled in our history. His re-election becomes a matter of State pride.

We are proud of Arthur H. Vandenberg. We are proud that he comes from Michigan. He should be re-elected to the U. S. Senate with an extra big vote of confidence.

And remember this — no matter how heavy his responsibilities around the world, he has never failed you and our home State when Michigan interests have been at stake in Washington.

Let's get out and vote on Nov. 5. Let's "tell the world" that we support our Senior Senator from Michigan.

This message is published in behalf of 100,000 citizens from all 43 Counties of Michigan who placed Senator Vandenberg in nomination in June.

Covers Eastern Half of Country In Tiny Cruiser

Skipper Tells of 7,000-Mile Trip; First to Make It Entirely by Water.

CHICAGO — The Orb, 30-foot cruiser, is back in her home port after a 7,000-mile cruise circling the eastern half of the United States.

Skipper Oscar Larsen, former Chicago restaurant man, and a crew of three set course down the Chicago canal last October 5. One day recently he brought the Orb back to a smooth landing at the Southern Shores Yacht club, Jackson park. Cheering friends hailed him as the first man ever to make the trip entirely by water.

Pass Through Lakes.

Mrs. Larsen and nine-year-old Barbara joined the Orb at Tarpon Springs, Fla. The family then sailed up the East coast and through the lakes to Chicago.

"It was really easy," the big, sandy-haired Norwegian said while his family nodded agreement. "I don't know why people haven't tried it before."

There was one near-gale, however, that nearly dashed the Orb to bits.

It was while she crossed a 225-mile stretch of open sea in the Gulf of Mexico. With Larsen on that leg was the late George W. Schaefer, prominent Chicago yachtsman.

Touched 20 States.

The two men battled the storm 22 hours. The sea nearly stove in the cabin superstructure. Coastguardsmen gave them up for lost.

"When they surprised to see us stand into Tarpon Springs safe and sound," Larsen ejaculated. "And, boy, were we glad to see them!"

The Orb, during the cruise, touched 20 states, the District of Columbia and two Canadian provinces. She consumed 2,628 gallons of gasoline, 101 gallons of oil.

She negotiated 135 locks and two marine railways and 367 bridges lifted to let her pass.

Mrs. Bushong Dies Friday At Home In Gladstone

Mrs. Bernice Bushong, of Gladstone, who had spent the past several summer seasons at her cottage at Sunset Beach, passed away at 7 a. m. Thursday at her home following a sudden illness.

Mrs. Bushong, who was Bernice Bowen before her marriage, was born in Manistique in 1887, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Bowen. She was married in 1919 to J. Paul Bushong and had lived in Gladstone since that time. Mr. Bushong passed away in 1935.

Survivors are one daughter, Mrs. John Foxworth, of Escanaba, and two grandchildren.

Mrs. Bushong was a member of the Christian Science church. She was active in community affairs in Gladstone, belonging to the Child Welfare club, the Coterie, the F. E. O., and the Minnewasca chapter No. 96, Order of Eastern Star. She was also a member of the Gladstone Girl Scout council and was very active in the Girl Scout Timber Trail association.

Funeral services were held in Gladstone Monday and burial was in Gladstone cemetery.

Lost Plane Pilot Walks Out of Wilds to Safety

LAURENTIAN LODGE, FLACK LAKE, ONT.—Giant and bearded, Flight Lt. W. MacKenzie walked out of the bush wilderness unharmed but hungry after being lost since his jet plane crashed a month before.

Although doctors said he was "fairly exhausted," MacKenzie said: "Oh boy, am I in need of a bath. What day is it?"

He had lost 47 of his normal 185 pounds. Heavy rains ruined his cigarette lighter and his chances to get further camp fires three days before he reached civilization.

MacKenzie broke into the open near this bushland resort and was spotted by a Bay City, Mich., tourist named Matt, who roved him across Helen Bar lake to Laurentian lodge, where medical attention was available.

MacKenzie crashed into Helen Bar lake, 60 miles northeast of Blind river, a lumbering town 98 miles east of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. His oxygen was exhausted and his fuel ran out.

The plane sank almost immediately after the pilot climbed unharmed from the wreckage. The Royal Canadian air force hunted long and wisely for him.

Father Stabs Mother of Two Children to Death

CHICAGO—Mrs. Sophie Boyko, 21, mother of two small girls, was stabbed to death by her husband, Walter, 23, as they quarreled in the front room of their apartment at 2734 West 18th street.

Boyko, a steelworker, was found standing over her body by Harry Tolowski, 24, who lives in the apartment above the Boykos. A bloody breadknife lay beside the body.

Attracted to the scene by Mrs. Boyko's screams, Tolowski told Marquette police he burst into the room and found Boyko sobbing. Tolowski then summoned police.

Police said Boyko admitted the stabbing and said he had been away from home for two days. The quarrel resulted when he returned, he told police.

The two children are Corine, four, and Patricia, five months.

Plans are being made by the Alger-Schoolcraft health department to hold immunization and vaccination clinics for local school children. Dr. E. J. Brenner, director, has announced. Dates for the clinics will be set in the near future.

Consent cards are being sent home with all children requiring vaccination and immunization. Dr. Brenner said. All parents are urged to sign these cards and return them to the schools as soon as possible.

Children needing booster doses of diphtheria toxin are urged to get them during the clinics. Children of pre-school age requiring immunization services will also be taken care of.

Dates for the clinics will be announced in the local papers.

Bird Evicted From Plane In Its Own Best Interests

WASHINGTON.—The housing shortage has finally caught up with Sally, the swallow. Mechanics evicted her and her three eggs from the hollow rudder of a Pennsylvania airplane DC-4 training plane. They did it, however, in Sally's best interests. While the plane went on flight, Sally hatched worriedly around the hangars at National airport. But as soon as the ship struck the runway on return trips Sally flew to meet it and once more happily perched atop her nest and eggs. The plane is going to be reconverted into a 50-passenger airliner, so the mechanics have set out to find Sally a new home around the airport. Removing the nest, they broke one of the eggs.

5 Children Buried Alive In Pit; Two Are Rescued

NORWALK, CALIF.—Three small children suffocated when the walls of a rubbish pit in which they were playing collapsed, burying them alive. Two other children were rescued by the grandparents of all five who saw their feet sticking out of the loose dirt and dug them out. Two three victims who could not be revived were Dorothy Lee Shelby, 5; her brother, Gary Lee, 10, and a cousin, Joy Anne Carlson, 11. Suffering from shock as a result of being buried in the pit were John Ray Soble and Don W. Hamling, both 4, cousins of the victims.

Pound-and-Half Infant Survives in Baltimore

BALTIMORE.—The survival of a premature baby girl, weighing only a pound and a half at birth, was disclosed at the premature nursery of the Johns Hopkins hospital. Hospital officials said the infant, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lidrick of Harrisburg, Pa., was born at the hospital and admitted to the nursery home May 12. ### Bread Needs

A person who does very active work, such as lumbering or ditch digging or heavy farm labor, or in the case of a woman, who keeps house for a very large family on a farm, anyone doing any of these jobs needs more than twice as much bread and cereals as those who have lighter jobs. Growing children also need more bread than grown-ups who have light work.

Diamond Plant Is Held Up, Robbed in Palestine

JERUSALEM.—Party Jews, armed with machine guns and pistols, held up a diamond polishing plant near Tel Aviv and escaped with $120,000 to $100,000 worth of stones. The robbery evidently was carefully planned, as the director of the bandit gang surrounded the building and cut the telephone lines. The others gathered up the diamonds, and then the whole gang fled.

Invisible Soap Tray

An inexpensive little gadget which saves both soap and work is called the "Invisible Soap Tray." Actually it is just a little disc of aluminum the size of a half dollar with three raised bumps on one side. Moisten a bar of soap, scrape a little into the concave side of the disc and press dice and bar firmly together. Press—the soap bar has troy for to rest on, thus preventing a messy soap dish or smeared porcelain, and saving soap at the same time since it does not rest in a puddle of water to melt away.

TO PROTECT MICHIGAN'S FUTURE CITIZENS!

Fair Share of State Funds for Schools!

Proposal No. 2 would assure schools 50 percent more state support than they are now receiving—yet this increase is only 10 percent more of the state's total operating funds.

No New Tax Involved! No Additional Taxes Needed!

Proposal No. 2 provides for a redistribution of a part of the state sales tax—returning a small portion of it to the communities from which it comes! No additional taxes would be necessary for all normal functions of government!

School Aid Geared to the Prosperity Cycle!

Proposal No. 2 would mean additional money for schools in proportion to increases in the sales tax collections; it still would guarantee schools a fair share of available funds if sales tax revenues decrease.

Fair Distribution of State Aid to All Districts!

Proposal No. 2 would permit distribution of state aid on an equalization basis—to assure a reasonable education program for all Michigan children!

The Need is Vital! The Crisis is Here—NOW!

Proposal No. 2 would make available $90,000,000 annually in state aid for schools! The need for $104,500,000—to relieve overcrowded classrooms, replace old and hazardous buildings, and obtain and keep competent teachers—has been established beyond possibility of doubt!

SCRAP METAL URGENTLY NEEDED

Since the end of the war people have given little notice to the continued drives for waste fat and scrap iron.

As of October 1, exclusive of the United States Steel corporation whose report was delayed because of the power strike in Pittsburgh, 25 open hearth blast furnaces with an annual capacity of 1,802,400 net tons of ingots, were idle due to lack of scrap iron.

According to A. J. Carlin, chairman of the Schoolcraft county salvage committee, the need for scrap iron in particular is very acute.

The Washington bulletin says: "Every ton of scrap put into material supply lines now will help to provide for our current needs and to build stockpiles from which mills and foundries may draw to fulfill winter production schedules when scrap gathering falls off."

Every farmer, city resident, store operator and industry in Schoolcraft county is urged to salvage every bit of scrap metal available.

Maps to Show Trout And Nontrout Waters

Fish division employees of the conservation department are currently compiling maps to show the location of trout and non-trout water, public and private waters, and public fishing sites for every county in the northern peninsula.

Every farmer, city resident, store operator and industry in Schoolcraft county is urged to salvage every bit of scrap metal available.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Friendship—Three Thousand Miles Apart

Ever play chess? It's a great game! One of the strongest friendships I know of started with a game of chess—between Dad Huskins, in our town, and a man named Dalton Barnes, in England.

They've never seen each other, never met. But for the past eight years they've been playing chess by mail together—Dad puzzling over Dalton's latest letter, while he reads a chart of his next move to England.

Dad always thinks best with a mellow glass of beer beside his chessboard, and the Englishman writes him that he does the same.

From where I sit, you can talk about diplomacy and foreign policy, but it's often those little things—like a game of chess or a glass of beer—that can make for tolerance and understanding...

No Extra Is Charged For the Seats

STANDING IN LINE has been made easy by an enterprising London storekeeper. He provides empty packing cases for his customers as they wait outside his shop. And Britons, still with even bread included in their rationed food, appreciate his thought. Note, too, in the above picture how the bomb-blasted windows of the stores still have wood and cardboard in what were once large expanses of glass—a fragile article destroyed by the acre when Britain was fighting off the Nazi blitz.

Michigan's election next Tuesday (Nov. 5) will be big-time. It involves a cool one-third of $1,200,000,000.

From a referendum on whether the State of Michigan should pay $270,000,000 to pay a bonus to Michigan veterans of World War I. This amount would be in addition to the present $50,000,000 fund already reserved for some rate.

Several voters will decide the result of a proposed constitutional amendment of 76 per cent of the golden sales tax revenue to return to the public schools and other units of government in villages and townships. This amendment would add approximately $60,000,000 to the annual income of the government over that received in 1946.

To add up the $270,000,000 and the $60,000,000 additional funds for local governments, the tally is $334,000,000. That, in our language, is a third of a billion dollars.

And since this is a people's democracy in which the things are as the people decide, you have an opportunity next Tuesday to say how your tax money should be spent. Indirectly, you will also decide whether new taxes must be levied to let your bill. The veteran carries no provision as to how it is to be financed. That deficit in the state treasury or new taxes, should bailout proposal No. 2 be approved next Tuesday, the Michigan Education Association's executive secretary sees no reason for alarm.

Quoting a statement by Dr. A. J. Phillips, which appeared in this column late in September: "There is every reason to believe that the present and future revenues from the sales tax, plus various other sources of income for state government, are sufficient for reasonable needs of other state institutions and other state agencies and services."

Dr. Phillips does believe, however, that new taxes should be imposed to finance the $270,000,000 state bonus for war veterans. He suggests "a new source of revenue."

Both nominees for governor—Kim Sigler and Murray D. Van Wagener—trown upon the constitutional re-marking of sales tax revenue for the public schools and cities. They suggest, instead, legislative action to reduce the state sales tax to 2½ cents and the granting of authority to the cities to levy a one-half cent sales tax on goods sold by merchants.

Reduction of the state sales tax has much merit. Last January 21 this column reported: "Michigan is one of four states with a sales tax as high as 3 per cent out of a total of 23 sales tax states. Illinois has cut its tax from 3 to 2 per cent; California from 3 to 2½ per cent. Hence there appears to be some justification for a definite program in Michigan of financial assistance to distressed local governments."

Deficits may return to the state treasury in times of unemployment and distress. Deficits existed during the following years—1932, 1933, 1934 and 1939. Lieut. Governor Vernon J. Brown, whose sagacity on state finances was widely acknowledged once expressed regret to us that it was not possible for the State of Michigan to increase taxes during good times and to decrease taxes during hard times. The "ideal" solution, he thought, would be to accumulate a surplus of money when people had plenty of money to pay higher taxes, and then to spend the surplus during hard times when people had less money and hence needed a reduction in taxes.

Governor Harry P. Kelly, in our humble opinion, deserves praise from the taxpayers for accumulating a surplus of state funds during present inflationary conditions. The veterans' $50,000,000 fund is one result of this thrift policy. The most vexatious part of surplus-building is the covetous attempts by other interests to grab some of this money for themselves. A surplus of Lansing prompts the taxpayer conclusion: "The state has more money than it needs. Why not return some of this surplus for local use?"

Little wonder that Sigler and Van Wagener each favor reduction of the sales tax.

The frequency with which attempts are made to revise the state constitution puts a heavy burden of responsibility upon the Michigan voter. The constitution, if drafted by a constitutional convention, must be ratified by a majority of the voters before it becomes a part of our law.

Five constitutions so drafted, have been submitted to voters. Three of them were approved and two rejected.

The last constitution, the result of a 133-day convention in 1907-8, was approved 234,000 to 130,000. Since 1908 the voters have approved five amendments to the constitution: Civil service, non-partisan election of judges, 15-partisan election of judges, 15-partisan tax limitation, non-division of gasoline tax and motor vehicle license fees, and liquor control commission.

The American system of government needs an informed and enlightened citizenry if it is to function effectively. It also needs a citizenry who regards the right of franchise as a patriotic duty.

When you go to the polls next Tuesday, you are fulfilling an obligation that is vital to the survival of democracy.

Michigan's Animals Worth 5½ Million Yearly, Says Writer

The days when Indians and white hunters and traders were the only inhabitants of Michigan are long vanished, but Michigan's wild animals still are worth about five and one-half million dollars annually.

This estimate is given by Dr. William H. Burt, University of Michigan zoologist, in a book on "The Mammals of Michigan," recently released by the University of Michigan Press. Dr. Burt, who is curator of mammals in the University Museum of Zoology, has identified and classified all the mammals of the state and surveyed their economic importance.

"There are many values of our wild life that are aesthetic, recreational and scientific and these cannot be translated into dollars and cents," Dr. Burt comments. "But there are a few items upon which statistics present a purely commercial value of the wild animals."

The sale of hunting and trapping licenses and seals for beaver and otter may amount to more than a million dollars in a typical year, the Michigan scientist says. Dressed meat secured by hunters will run to a total of 10,000,000 pounds in an average hunting season. At a conservative estimate of 25 cents per pound, the value is three and one-half million dollars.

For production in Michigan is still a big industry, bringing an income of about a million dollars a year, Dr. Burt concludes.

Woods Out Frolic
An annual loss of over three billion dollars is being steadily accumulated—resulting from wood preservative damage to tree products. This is the greatest single loss to the lumber industry of all nations.

 Mrs. Dorothy Macler, R. N., is leaving Friday for Chicago after spending several weeks at the Transportation Library of the University of Michigan. It was held in 1939 on Woodward Avenue, between Six and Seven Mile roads in Wayne county. The concrete portion of the road was 18 feet wide.

The original stretch was extended the following year, and, in 1918, was widened six feet because it was "found inadequate for traffic of over 10,000 vehicles a day."

This early concrete road attracted the attention of road engineers, delegations, and city, state and county road officials from all the states and every Canadian province.

Official delegations from England, France, Holland, Java, Borneo, Ceylon, South Africa, Japan, Peru, Australia, New Zealand and other countries visited the road and studied methods developed by it.

First Concrete Laid In 1909 On Detroit Street

Ever wondered when and where the first mile of concrete pavement was laid?

According to information in the Transportation Library of the University of Michigan, it was laid in 1909 on Woodward Avenue, between Six and Seven Mile roads in Wayne county. The concrete portion of the road was 18 feet wide.

The original stretch was extended the following year, and, in 1918, was widened six feet because it was "found inadequate for traffic of over 10,000 vehicles a day."

the Wayne county road commission.

In 1922, after 13 years of carrying the heaviest traffic of any county road in America, the road was torn up. Way had to be cleared to permit the extension of expanding Detroit's standard city streets.

One of the most puzzling problems facing the road engineers when they constructed the first mile was how to allow for expansion and contraction of the concrete.

Three methods were tried. The materials which were placed between various sections of the road were: a southern pine board one-half inch wide; a composition of asphalt, still wax and pitch; and, two thicknesses of three-ply tar paper. In 1910, it was decided to use a specially prepared tar paper.

"Don't Shoot"
 Although it is generally believed that the expression, "Don't shoot until you see the whites of their eyes," or "don't fire until you see the whites of their eyes," was original with Putnam or Prescott at Bunker Hill, as a matter of fact it dates back many centuries in military history and is known to have been in use in military terminology as early as the reign of Henry IV of France who died in 1610.

Drive For USO And Community Chest Will End Nov. 2

Individuals—Dr. N. L. Lindquist. The committee hopes that wage earners, clerks and office help will contribute an average of two dollars. Chairman Barnes says. This would provide roughly about fifty cents for each of the four organizations, although the USO will actually get somewhat less than that. This would mean a contribution of about one penny a week on an annual basis. Foremen, executives, business and professional people are expected to make contributions commensurate with their net incomes.

Committee Makes Request

The chairman of the drive emphasizes the following facts: "First—Please treat the solicitors with respect, courtesy and respect. Second—Decide NOW what you propose to contribute so that the solicitor need not make repeated calls. Remember that the solicitors are all busy people and are contributing their time and energy to these worthy organizations.

Third—Be generous!

About ninety per cent of your contribution is in Manistique to provide for the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and the Youth Center, the chairman explained. "These three activities touch upon and influence almost 100 per cent of our young people between the ages of ten and twenty years. The fine training in citizenship, moral principles, camp life, health and outdoor sports offered by the Boy and Girl Scouts is well known. The Youth Center is the property of the citizens of Manistique and provides our young people, between the ages of 14 and 20 years with a wholesome recreation center, always under the competent supervision of responsible adults. Provided for the youth at no cost to the community are the ping pong tables, and many other table games. There is also a reading room equipped with current magazines such as Life, Newsweek, Look, Readers Digest, National Geographic, etc., and others of education value. There are regularly empty seats in the reading room. There is also a canteen bar and a dance floor with a juke box. Last year there were over five thousand admissions to the center. The cost to you who contributed to this fund, was approximately one fourth cent per admission. This cost hardly compares with the commercial sources of recreation available to the youth of Manistique.

Center Needs Improvement

If the contributions are adequate the youth center will improve the exterior of the youth center building. The structure, at present, is an eyesore to the west side business district where many fine improvements have been recently made. The youth council has set the fund up for the time, to make this badly needed improvement.

The Lion's Club has plans for making some improvements to the interior of the youth center so that a training center can be provided for the very fine group of boxers in Manistique. At present the youthful fighters are training at the youth center. The coming of the basketball season it will be necessary to provide other
