Sheriff Hewitt Commended By Jail Inspector

County Clerk G. Leslie Bouschert Wednesday read a letter he had received from Robert F. Schumacher, state department of corrections...

Schumacher pointed, however, to a report last fall by the state fire marshal which declared that the jail constitutes a decided fire hazard.

The board agreed that a new structure for housing prisoners would soon have to be built, but no action at this time.

"In making an inspection of your county jail on the date of October 28th, I find that the jail is in a very poor state of repair...

However, on the date of September 28th, the fire hazard had been corrected. It has been completely and has made for much better detention of prisoners.

"At this time I do not know whether or not the fire hazard still exists, but I am sure it is being followed through on this order, but it is this inspector's opinion that should a fire start in any portion of the jail, it would be impossible to get in and save any prisoners.

Sincerely yours, F. Schumacher, Jail Inspector.

1948 BLUEBERRY FESTIVAL PLANS ARE ANNOUNCED

July Celebration Will Be Combined With Homecoming; Pick Committees

A decision to revive the National Blueberry Festival next summer and to combine a Schoolcraft County homecoming celebration with it was made at a meeting of representatives of various civic and veterans groups...

It was decided to hold the joint celebration either in late July or early August.

Fred H. Hahne was elected general chairman for the event, and Dr. F. Moller, Christian church, was named as his assistant.

While active at this Manistique school he also studied under Eugene Kennedy, conductor of the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra.

Critics have praised Professor Opeth especially for his dynamic and useful interpretation of the great choral literature. He has been characterized by one critic as "a dynamic personality, entirely without affectation, whose feeling of the music and moulding of expression is evident in every movement of his expressive hands and every inclination of his head."

Professor Henry P. Opeth will conduct the Augsburg College choir in its concert here on Thursday, Feb. 12, at 8:00 p. m. in the Zion Lutheran church.

The wide recognition which the choir has received from eminent critics has been largely due to the excellent musicianship of its chief director.

Professor Opeth has had wide experience and training in the musical field. He studied under Dr. F. Moller, Christian church, in St. Paul, Minn., and served for a time as his assistant.

Disappointment Turns To Joy As Swedish Farmer Finds Kin On Eve Of Sailing For Europe

A happy ending was written this week to the story of the 65-year-old Swedish farmer, who was found on the eve of his sailing for Europe by the relatives who he had come to America to visit five weeks ago.

Per Ephraim Anderson, whose home is in northern Necker near the Arctic Circle, arrived in Manistique Saturday to visit with his second cousins, and in Hiawatha township with Leroy Ober, a first cousin. He is also being accompanied by his wife, Olga Blomquist, and Einar Gustafson, whom he had known in Sweden many years ago.

Anderson came to the United States by dispatch from Grand Rapids to visit with his first cousins, and that time the Linderoth was contacted by the Travelers Aid society in Grand Rapids. Through Manistique residents were shivering under a sub-zero weather accompanied by a biting wind Thursday evening, but thermometers were still a long way from the 22 below registered here Sunday morning.

The bitter weather of last week was caused Monday, and temperatures were well above zero here by mid-week. There was considerable snow and wind Tuesday, adding to Monday's heavy snowfall.

County Board Gives Funds To Vets' Council

Reports Of Various Departments Of County Government Are Heard

A request by the Schoolcraft County Council of Veterans Affairs for a contribution of $2,000 was considered by the county board of supervisors during their annual January meeting here Tuesday afternoon.

Because county finances are operating on a shoestring however, the supervisors agreed to ask each of their township boards for a donation of $100 to continue operation of the county veterans council of the county's share of the 1948 budget, estimated by Leonard Mulhaup, veterans' coordinator.

The city of Manistique donated $2,000.50 and the Manistique Schoolcraft Chamber of Commerce has given $1,500 to the operation of the center for the year.

Mulhaup's report for the year was reviewed and the supervisors agreed unanimously that the council was "doing a fine job for the veteran." Appearing in support of the request for funds was Fred Hahne, chairman of the Council of Veterans Affairs; Frank Pavlov, commander of the American Legion; and A. F. Hall, superintendent of schools, who offered the suggestion of asking for donations from the several townships.

"I was at first opposed to the counseling center," Hall said, "because I thought the veteran ought to be able to take care of themselves. Now I am sold on it 100 per cent. I think it justifies itself in every respect, and the military training center in an election year. Lots of politicians—our servants—won't continue it for fear they will lose votes," he declared.

"Why should they deny us, whom they represent, the thing we want? A Gallup poll has indicated that the majority of the citizens of the county favor universal military training."

Continuing along the line of national defense, commander Clark pointed out the fact that many of the veterans are in the line of duty, and that the county is doing its part to support them.

The county board adopted a number of resolutions, among them one increasing mileage for short hauls from six to eight cents, effective Jan. 1 pending an opinion from William J. Sheahan, county attorney, who was out of town this week; and one to notify Walter Linderoth; pick up 100 shares of county stock for which he bid $10 per share some months ago; a third suggesting that the county purchase a new set of curing is hazardous to health, and one urging an increase of state subsidies for the care of tubercular patients from $2.50 to $3.50 per day.

It was decided that Agner Delhin, chairman of the board, and four of the supervisors would attend the State Association of Supervisors meeting in Lansing Jan. 27, 28 and 29.

Frank Heinz New Member Of State Savings Bank Board

Frank Heinz was named a director of the State Savings Bank at a meeting of the bank's board of directors held here Tuesday afternoon.

The following officers also were re-elected: Wm. J. Shinar, president; G. H. Burchell, vice president; H. K. Bandy, cashier; Leonard Miles, assistant cashier; and Ann Gorsche, assistant cashier.

and employees, over the profits of their combined efforts.

The two viewpoints are far apart. Automotive management has a healthy respect for the efficiency of modern machinery. It honors upon worship itself. We recall how one automobile plant manager said publicly that he could take any Michigan farm and in 20 days' time train him to operate the average machine in an automobile plant.

Employees' distrust is being agitated constantly by their union leaders who point to corporation record of steady profits.

General Motors introduced 45.6 per cent of all automobile business in 1947; it was responsible for 40 per cent of all reconversion after VJ-Day. Its invested capital is $14,400,000,000. Its average annual profits over a period of 11 years were $175,230,282. For 1947 it was $200,000,000. Between 1946 and 1947 inclusive, GM earned an average of 16.3 per cent on its invested capital.

Little wonder, then that a labor official is quoted by John Gardner in the "Inside U. S. A." as saying "GM is the most brilliantly operating company in the world. Uppermost in the thinking of many automobile company executives is an apprehension over the future of "the American system of free enterprise." This is another way of referring to competitive capitalism whereby free men have an opportunity of getting ahead by risking dollars, for profit.

We recall a dinner in Detroit's Fort Shelby hotel following a test run of GM's "Train of Tomorrow," landing in Detroit. Top officials of GM plants were there. They were as intelligent, aggressive, democratic lot; ragged individualists all; two-fisted men who believed sincerely in hard work and good living. Their language was forceful; no "buts" and "ifs." There was competition itself; you either believed the goods or you were supplanted tomorrow by someone who did.

The American system of free enterprise achieved better standards of living for American citizens, because it increased wages of the worker as well as at the same time, lowered prices for consumers. Post-war inflation has reversed this historic trend. Therein lies the dilemma of the hour. Constant boosts of both wages and prices will lead inevitably to economic disaster.

Community Conferences In U. P. Slated By University

"Our Community Tomorrow" is the theme of a two-day conference, scheduled for three centers in the upper peninsula early in February. It was announced by Charles Pollo, supervisor of the Escanaba office of the University of Michigan Extension Service. The program will be devoted primarily to discussion meetings on various community problems with consultants on hand to work with committees of community leaders. Aim of the conference is to furnish stimulation and ideas leading to action in the community. It is being supported by the Bruce Adult Education Fund.

The conferences are planned not only for the leaders of the larger centers where the meetings are to be held but for those of the smaller or communities in the county as well. These conferences are scheduled for Sault Ste. Marie, Escanaba and Iron Mountain. The tentative time is the week of February 9, but the exact dates will be set later.

These first conferences will be followed in about two months time by a second meeting at which resource people will again be on hand to consult with leaders as to the progress in solving community problems or initiating new projects.

Some of the problems already suggested for consideration at the meetings are recreation, city-manager government, taxation, ed-

Michigan Children Need Vitamin D In The Winter

"Michigan children have an unusual advantage in that they live in one of the nation's greatest winter playgrounds, but they have a disadvantage also, from the standpoint of health—there is not enough sunshine during the winter months," Dr. J. K. Altland, commissioner of the Michigan department of health, says in a release to the Alger-Schoolcraft health department.

Dr. Altland reminds parents that a supplement of vitamin D (the sunshine vitamin) is needed by all growing children in Michigan during the winter months and said that the family physician should determine the amount and type of vitamin D each child should be taking.

The sunshine vitamin is required for normal development of bones and teeth. Lack of sunshine and vitamin D may result in rickets, a disease which attacks and deforms bones during the period of most rapid growth—in infancy and early childhood.

"Child specialists," Dr. Altland said, "often recommend that all children be given a supplement of vitamin D both summer and winter, during the entire period of growth."

"Many Michigan children," he said, "suffer some vitamin D and vitamin C deficiency because they

Manistique Area A & P Employees Honor D. B. Austin

The rise of an employee from warehouse clerk to division president of the A & P Food Stores is being honored this week in Manistique with the observance of "D. B. Austin Week" by company employees, it was announced by J. J. Hetherington, supervisor for this area.

The event commemorates Austin's first anniversary as head of all middle western division operations.

Austin started as an assistant to the warehouse superintendent in 1919 at the Chicago Southside warehouse of the company and in 1943, he was elected first vice-president of the division, which covers stores in nine middle western states.

"The development of supermarts in this area was carried forward under his direction."

Booklets On Home Nursing Care Are At Health Office

"Every woman in the home should know the fundamentals of good home nursing care," Miss Helene Baker, director of the Bureau of Nursing, Michigan Department of Health, said this week in announcing a new pamphlet, "Home Care of the Bed Patient" prepared by the department.

Miss Baker pointed out that hospitals are crowded, that trained and practical nurses are hard to find and that often times, family budgets are inadequate to cover such care.

The new pamphlet, she said, was prepared to help the housekeeper in care of the patient who is in bed, whether because of communicable disease, chronic illness or childbirth. It is not technical but gives the fundamentals for making the patient comfortable and helping him to get well. In most communities of the state there are health department or visiting nurses who will assist the housekeeper to carry out the procedures recommended if she is unable to do them alone.

"Home Care of the Bed Patient" will be sent free to any person in the state who requests it from the Michigan department of Health, Lansing, or at the Alge-Schoedergly health department office in the court house.

Straits Boats Carried Over Half-Million Cars in 1947

Sometime during 1948, the five-million car to be carried across the Straits of Mackinac will drive aboard one of the state-operated ferries at St. Ignace or Mackinaw City.

That fact was revealed by Upper Peninsula development bureau officials after receiving reports from the state highway dept.

Development Bureau officials pointed to the increasing traffic as indicative of the growing importance of Upper Michigan as a vacationland and bearing out predictions that the year would into the peninsula would break all records.

Including the 20,420 vehicles carried by railroad car ferries prior to 1923 a total of 4,549,000 cars and other automotive machines have been ferried across the picturesque straits.

Seek Closer Union Besides noting their economic value to the upper peninsula, development bureau officials look upon continued efforts of the highway department to improve the all-year facilities for use of the Mackinac crossing as significant of a closer union between the social, political and economic interests of Michigan's two peninsulas.

From a humble beginning of 75 cars transported by railroad car ferries in 1916 and 19,820 vehicles by highway department vessels in 1923, use of the Straits has increased by leaps and bounds, being interrupted only twice—by the depression of the early 30's and by World War II.

Speed and Figure Skaters Will Now Get Instruction

Attention, speed and figure skaters—Eero Anderson, president of the Manistique Skating Club, has informed the Central Park skating rink attendants that he will be available Saturday afternoons for instruction in both speed and figure skating.

There are also a number of experts skating daily at the park. "The unprecedented popularity of the skating rink this winter should mean that there is enough local talent with proper coaching, to put on a fine winter ice carnival of our own," says Thor Reque, recreation director. To make a program possible the necessary arrangements and assignments must be made at once. A successful carnival means hard work and supervised coaching. Skaters to advantage of the opportunity.

He urged the Legion post to take an active part in community affairs.

Swedish Farmer Reunited With Relatives Here

(Continued from page 1) of his departure, and soon Anderson was back on a train bound for the upper peninsula. Walter and Vern Linderoth met him at Mackinac City Saturday morning, and since then he has had six full days of reunion with relatives and friends. He has met dozens of other Swedes here, and is being treated to a royal good time. Anderson is a retired farmer, and although not wealthy is well enough on. The story of his having saved for 23 years to come to America is "hooey" (hooey in American slang). He is very impressed with the grandeur of the country, he says, particularly with the large cities. Many letters have poured in here from all over the country congratulating him upon the final happy ending of his long search. He has a six months visa, and his relatives say he can "stay as long as he wants to."
