Doings of the Week Recorded in a Brief Style.

CONCISE AND INTERESTING.

Michigan Sailor Lads on the Yosemite Camp Home—Prominent Michigan Lawyer and Legislator Dead—Michigan Loses Many of Soldier Boys.

Murdered for His Honor.

On August to Valmore C. Nichols, aged 44, a farmer of Pittsfield town, Washington county, between Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti, visited Detroit to pay interest on a mortgage on his farm. For this purpose he had borrowed and drawn from bank some money over $100. He did not return home and after two days his family became alarmed at his absence and returned him to the Detroit police as missing. Detectives were unable to find any trace of Mr. Nichols, but learned that he was in the habit of visiting a shorthand machine, Robert Lang, on a street in Detroit.

Wounded for His Honor.

Wounded for his honor, a Michigan soldier, John J. Nichols, of the 10th Michigan, was killed by a bullet in the head, apparently made with a blunt instrument. The authorities were notified and the body was at once identified as Valmore C. Nichols, the missing farmer. The money was gone but his watch and other valuables had not been taken.

The Detective's Luck.

The detective's luck had been good. He had secured a number of valuable pieces of property, including a watch and a ring, which he had hidden in a safe in his home. He had also secured a number of valuable pieces of property, including a watch and a ring, which he had hidden in a safe in his home.

A Glorious Welcome Home.

With the knowledge that they had served their country with the 29th company of the Michigan Naval Reserves, which served on board the cruiser Annapolis through the war against Spain, left their gallant ship for Detroit. Their arrival home was the occasion of one of the most enthusiastic demonstrations that has occurred in the Michigan metropolises in years. From the time the gallant boys alighted from their special train they were met by a throng of their friends and relatives on their good ship Yachtie, after transferring a wife and a half of streets, they were treated to a continuous reception from the thousands of admirers, who filled the streets until there was scarcely room for the boys to march along. And then when they reached the Yachtie's landing pier and met wives, mothers, sweethearts and bloom friends, what a glorious reunion there was. With cannon booming, whistles screaming, crowds cheering and flags waving the brave sailor boys left their happy repatriation for all their sacrifices and hardships.

Still It Was Not the End.

Still it was not the end. A whole week of reunions and various functions had been arranged by the Reserves who had not been called to the front by others, organizations and they were fully benefited with good things.

Counterfeiters Caught.

A big haul of counterfeiters has been made at Detroit. Four brothers, Charles, Edmund, John and David Johnson, are in the hands of the law. $100,000 in counterfeit money, besides the plates, etc., have been recovered at their headquarters, 793 Twenty-sixth street, Detroit. The Reserves who found $2 bills were the ones counterfeited, the artistic work required being done by the youngest brother, David. There are few banks in this section of the country, including particularly Ohio, Michigan and adjoining states, that have not often accepted these counterfeit bills, and there have been few banks that have caused the government detectives more trouble.

Distinctive Blaze at Marlette.

Marlette experienced another heavy fire which started in the large lumber sheds of W. R. Metcalf, which was full of the fine grades of lumber. Before there was time to remove their contents, the houses of Alfred Scott, Alton Seifsholtz, and the blacksmith shop and home of Tom Stephenson were all ablaze. Scott and Seifsholtz barely escaping. The fire was confined to the block and buildings on the opposite side of the street were saved. George Stephenson was badly burned about the face and hands while trying to remove some of his property. The losses will foot up at $25,000 insurance, $2,000.

Chas. Carlson, aged 58, died by drowning at Traverse City.

Stephen Selden, a well-to-do Minnott Township, Genesee county, farmer, is to commit suicide by terminating his life by shooting himself.

Secretary of War.

Secretary of War Albert B. Fiske has notified Gen. Fiske to send two good sergeants to each of the Michigan regiments immediately.

At special election held at Lake Odessa to vote on bonding the village for waterworks and the proposition carried by a vote of 24 to 29.

Naval Reserve Graduates.

Thousands of graduates of the Naval Reserve system of river craft blended their shouts in a joyful welcome to the returning North Atlantic squadron, under command of Rear Admiral Sampson, as the big warships passed in review through the harbor and up North river as far as Gen. Grant's boat and return. For almost three full hours the whistles of the Texas, arrived in New York Bay. Admiral Sampson had no idea of the reception awaiting him until a tug from the navy yard carried him the news. At all the ships the whistles were immediately put under preparation for dress review. The fleet made a splendid parade and the reception they received was such as to give the admiral and his staff the impression that they were regarded as heroes. The following day the warships were visited by nearly 100,000 people.
