Petrich to head mill operations

FRANK S. HLOHLIK

Frank S. Hlohlik, president and chief executive officer of the Manistique Pulp and Paper Company, has announced his retirement and Edward W. Petrich has been named executive vice president and general manager of the company.

Petrich, who was resident manager of the Howard Paper Mills Division of the St. Regis Paper Company in Upton, Ohio, will be responsible for the operation of the Manistique plant, James E. Fitcher, president of Field Enterprises, Inc., the parent company of the mill, will become president when Hlohlik retires effective Thursday, Oct. 1.

"We have been searching for over a year for a man of Bill Petrich's ability to take over the operation of the mill," Hlohlik said.

Petrich, 45, is a native of Cincinnati and a 1951 chemical engineering graduate of the University of Cincinnati. Before becoming resident manager of the Howard Mills, he held positions as chief engineer and project engineer. From 1951 to 1955 he worked as a chemist on special assignments, including stream pollution statement.

Petrich served in the U. S. Army in World War II as a machine gunner and was awarded the Combat Infantry Badge, Purple Heart and Bronze Star.

Professionally, Petrich has been a member of TAPP, a pulp and paper trade association, since 1951. He has served in a variety of positions, including chairman of the Ohio section, chairman of the National TAPP Water and Air Division and as general chairman of the 1968 and 1969 Water and Air Conferences.

Hlohlik retires after over 25 years with Manistique Pulp and Paper Company. His jobs have included stockbroker, laboratory technician, personnel director, plant superintendent and general manager. In December, 1959, he was elected a vice president and assistant secretary and a director of the company. He became president in October, 1961, and was named to the additional post of chief executive officer in January, 1969. He will remain as a member of the Manistique board of directors.

Coho fever here; recipes suggested

Coho madness came to the Manistique River this past week end as the spawning run began in earnest.

Police were kept busy trying to clear parked cars from the siphon bridge, spectators crowded the bridge ramps and shoreline, and fishermen stood side by side in the waters alongside the dam, just below the bridge.

Good success was reported on just about any bait. The fishermen included a large group of youngsters, holding their own with their elders—and what does mother do when Junior brings home a monster to put on the dinner table?

The Pioneer-Tribune checked with the mothers of several successful young Sunday anglers, and got these suggestions: Mrs. Donald L. St. John and Mrs. Robert Peterson both told the Tribune that their fish got seasoned with salt, pepper and onions were rolled in flour and then fried. Mrs. St. John added that coho and salmon make a really good meal.

Mrs. George Danko prepared her fish a different way. She seasoned with salt, pepper and paprika, and baked it in oil and butter for two hours in a 350 degree oven. Their family likes to use lots of tart sauce with the fish. The still another way was suggested by Mrs. Jack Roemer, who feels the best, and only way for her family, is to smoke the coho. Since this the fourth coho for them this season, it sounded convincing.

Report is given on natural gas

A report on the latest round of legislative infighting in the city's battle to obtain natural gas service from Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. was given to City Council at their regular meeting Monday night by City Attorney Robert Berger.

The lawyer said he has received a 360-page transcript of the hearings before the Public Service Commission in May in Escanaba, and that briefs must be filed with the PSC before Oct. 9. The decision of a state examiner may be forthcoming by the end of the year, but Berger warned that whatever the ruling, a long and expensive dispute may follow since the decision may be appealed in a court of law.

Three other committees and the State, representing Newberry State Hospital, had joined with Manistique in the May hearing that protested Michigan Gov.'s decision not to service outlying areas until it received a rate increase.

A report on a survey taken by the Michigan Power Co. earlier this year is also being requested by council, to determine whether or not that firm is interested in providing natural gas here.

The city may also get a bright new new Christmas greeting sign as a gift from Barry Goff of Barry's Signs. Goff made the offer to the city through Councilman Tom Barber, and Councilman approved the offer on the size, wording and location.

In other action, Council authorized the City Manager to start an overviewing of the Public Safety Department radios.

Opened four bids for a snow-thrower, referred them to the City Manager, and probably awarded them a special meeting Wednesday night. Authorized the annual contributions contract with the Department of Housing and Urban Development that combines tie bond issues for both Harbor View Towers and the new low-income housing project.

Authorized advertising for sale a city lot on N. Third St.

Set Oct. 12 as the date for a public hearing on vacating a strip of land behind the Josie Trudeau property on Deer St.

Heard a progress report on the street bond issue from City Attorney Robert Berger.

Church to honor Rev. Otto Steen

The First United Methodist Church will host a program and reception Saturday in honor of Rev. Otto Steen's 50th anniversary in the Christian ministry. The event is scheduled for 8 p.m.

Rev. Steen, a native of Larvik, Norway, was pastor here from 1929 to 1943, and since 1963 has lived in retirement at Indian Lake.

Born in 1897, Rev. Steen was the son of a square-rigger sea captain, and in 1914 sailed with a whaling expedition to the Antarctic.

In 1917 Steen was graduated from the Oslo School of Marine Engineering, and moved to Herten to attend the Horten School of Engineering. While there he conducted religious services in Holmestrand, a small community nearby, also located on the Oslo Fjord. In December, 1921 he was graduated from Horten and moved to Holmestrand where he continued to serve his congregation full time until he left for the United States in May, 1922.

During his first seven years in the U.S., Steen received a BA degree from Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill., and a BD degree from Drew Seminary in Madison, N.J. Having completed his ministerial training, he served 16-lingual churches in the Norwegian-Danish Conference for 12 years. In 1939 the Steens transferred to the Detroit Conference, and moved to Manistique, where they served for four years.

REV. OTTO STEEN

Through the years Steen served 10 churches, the last two being Escanaba First Methodist, for nine years, and Marine City, for 10 years, where he was named Pastor Emeritus.

In 1961 Steen was honored by election as a delegate to the Methodist World Conference in Oslo, where he had the unexpected pleasure of reunion with Olof Carlson, who had been a small 'lad' in Steen's first congregation and was the director for the massed choir of the conference, and also to meet Bishop Olof Ilegen, who had been appointed to serve Holmestrand when Steen left.

Green hits at GOP record

Nino Green carried his campaign for Congress to Schoolcraft County Monday, meeting with party leaders and visiting with voters in Gernaski, at the Inland Lime and Stone Co., Manistique Pulp and Paper Co., and Manistique Tool and Manufacturing Co., and at the Harbor View Senior Citizens housing unit.

The message he carried was an economic one, hitting out at high unemployment, inflation, and high interest rates. "Republicans are throwing sand in the voters' eyes," Green said, "sending Spiro Agnew out to proclaim that anyone against law and order is un-American. All Americans, Republicans and Democrats alike, are concerned with law and order and campus unrest, and all Americans feel that those who violate the criminal law should be apprehended and punished accordingly."

"I have been getting the greatest response on economic issues. Unemployment in the building trades is particularly acute, housing starts are off and all kind of construction is way down. When we tour the (11th Congressional) district do we see new hospitals and schools being built? No, but in almost every town you will find a new bank."

"This is primarily due to the high interest rates -- the highest in 100 years, since the Civil War--that have shut off the money. The recent drop in prime rate certainly doesn't do much to help the average man."

He cited the recent comment by Defense Secretary Melvin Laird that the current unemployment rate is good for the economy. "It's no good to those people who are directly affected -- to those who don't have a job," he said, noting that unemployment in Iron County has now risen above 20 per cent.

"Nixon campaigned in 1968 to make the streets of America safe," Green said. "Yet the crime rate has continued to rise since he took office. He failed to give adequate funding for the anti-crime measures adopted by the Democratic Congress."

The Gladstone Democrat said that his opponent in November, incumbent Phil Roppo of Houghton, has supported cuts in Hill-Burton funds for hospital construction, and supported the president's veto of the education bill.

"Nixon has vetoed bills for education, housing, veterans' affairs, hospitals and seniors' as inflationary," Green charged, "yet he advocates spending for the superconduct transport that has a preliminary cost of $3 billion and will only benefit a privileged few."

Green said he didn't think the Republicans could have it both ways. "Nixon says bring us together, and Agnew tears us apart. Nixon is for, Agnew is against. The result is that nothing is accomplished except that the country is more divided, and that we can't afford."

Homecoming plans ready

The four finalists for the 1970 Homecoming-Queen contest at Manistique High School were selected by students in voting Wednesday.

They were choosing from a field of eight chosen in earlier voting. The eight contestants are: Mary Bauman, Kathy Danko, Julie DeSautel, Cheryl Jelly, Karen Jelly, Nick Johnson, Becky Rein, and Sally Whitcomb.

The queen will be announced just prior to the Homecoming game against Escanaba Holy Name Oct. 9.

A traditional parade and float is also being planned by the Student Council, which is in charge of the celebration.

Display is shown on covered mall

A scale model glimpse of what Urban Renewal could do for the Manistique covered district was offered last Wednesday night at a public hearing at the high school.

There were about 75 people on hand for the presentation by three representatives from the planning firm of Villacian-Leman Associates. Offering the program were Thomas Hanz, architect; Lee Jorgens, consulting engineer; and Ed Hostenes, director of planning and review, plus Quinton Mitchell, local Urban Renewal director.

They displayed a scale model of the new shopping district, showing a roofed mall extending from Cedar St. to the State Savings Bank. Such a roof would provide protection from snow and rain as well as being a tremendous tourist attraction, the planners said. There are walks on both sides of the street to connect with off-street parking planned for the two-block area.

Convenience and accessibility were the keys in designing the mall, which could be opened easily for emergency vehicles.

head canopy, new lighting and wheelchair would be required was set at $300,000. Hanz said such development of the downtown area would help to concentrate trade activity, meet the competition if a shopping center or chain were to open in an outlying area, and also enable local businessmen to give improved service to their customers.

It was emphasized that such a mall was still in the planning, or "idea" stage, and that it will be up to the businessmen and the city to decide what they can afford and what they want. It can be altered during this deciding period, he said.

The firm has already completed a structural engineering study that determines the condition of the buildings in the Urban Renewal area, as well as a marketability study on the retail potential and needs of businessmen. A land acquisition appraisal study is due to begin in November that will contain estimates of off-street parking and paving costs.

It was reported that a survey of businessmen and property owners in the area, with about half responding, showed overwhelming approval for major parts of the project, including the roofed mall, coordinated signs and store fronts.

A colored slide film presentation showing specific solutions to downtown problems, was scheduled at the high school auditorium for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday night. Local Mayor Martling, Jr., supervisory architect with the Department of Housing and Urban Development in Chicago, was present to present the program.

Demos hold first rally

A second rally for Hiawatha, Inwood and Thompson townships will be held either Oct. 11 or 14. City Democrats will hold their rally Sunday, Oct. 25, while Seneca and Gernaski party workers will meet Sunday, Nov. 1.

Nino Green of Gladstone, Democratic candidate for Congress, will be present at the city rally and at Gernaski. A dinner honoring Green will be held this Saturday at the House of Lodging in Escanaba at 7 p.m. Attorney General Frank Kelley will be one of the featured speakers.

Fast start ends in third loss

Following a familiar pattern, the Manistique Emeralds handed off to an early lead in their Great Lakes Conference game at Negaunee last Friday, only to see it melt away in a 26 to 12 loss.

Hullback Kurt Proulx, returning to the lineup against the Miners, put the Emeralds in the score column the first time they tied the ball. After a sustained normal attack Proulx went over six points on a nine yard run. Ronald Nesoski's pass for the two point conversion was not good.

Malway in the second period the Emeralds launched another attack capped by a 17 yard run for Proulx. Again the attempt for a two point conversion was unsuccessful and Manistique moved out in front 12 to 6.

Nesoski led on the score-board later in the period to knot the score at halftime. The first touchdown came on a 14 yard run by Tom Gandy, fullback for the Miners. The attempt at a two point conversion was not good. The Miners then came right back with quarterback Mike Gleason crossing the goal on an eight yard scamper. Again the two point conversion was unsuccessful.

After a scoreless third period, Negaunee took command in the final quarter scoring 14 points. Gandy scored his second touchdown on a nine-play and Sood Koski passed to Jim Galsch for the two point conversion. Then after inter-upting a Manistique pass, Koski took off on a 24 yard run for the final touchdown. A pass for the two point conversion failed with the game ended 26 to 12.

1971. Buick introduces a new set of values.

Value, not gimmicks or ornamentation, sells cars. More people have been coming to Buick each year for just that reason. Buick concentrates on value. And this year, Buick introduces a new set of values. Features that will help make your new Buick perform better, last longer and get you more of a return on your investment at trade-in time.

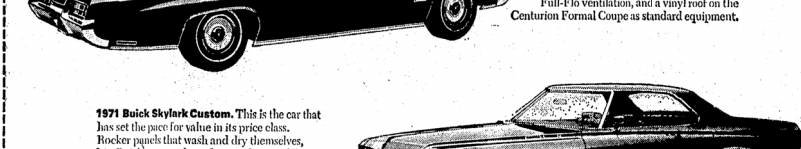

So, test your values against our new ones. Then ask yourself this simple question: Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick? Something to believe in.

1971 Buick Riviera. A totally new design concept. And that's not all. Riviera offers MaxTrac, an exclusive power control system you can order with its own on-board computer. It helps you get securely over slick surfaces by reducing rear-wheel slipping. The new body features side-panels for protection, a larger trunk, and a driver cockpit with a central center designed around the driver for new ease and convenience.

1971 Buick Electra 225. A new interpretation of quiet elegance. We've improved our Electra everywhere you look. There's more room in every direction, interiors that can be appreciated as much for their durability as for their beauty and comfort, even a new balanced braking system. A unique valve proportions braking force front to rear to help give you quick, smooth straight-line stops.

1971 Buick Century. This is our newest Buick, a city car with sleekness and grace as well as muscle. It features more nimble variable-ratio power steering, power front disc brakes, Full-Flo ventilation, and a vinyl roof on the Century Formal Coupe as standard equipment.

1971 Buick Skylark Custom. This is the car that has set the pace for value in its price class. Buckler panels that wash and dry themselves, big-Buick room and comfort inside, a cooling system that should never overheat, inner fenders that protect the outer fenders, and a modest price have put our Buick Skylark traditionally among the resale leaders in its class.

1971 Buick LeSabre. An incredible new offering of Buick value. The LeSabre, like the Riviera, Electra and Century, features AccuDrive, a new version of the directional stability system we pioneered. It will help give you smooth handling.

Lorraine re-thinks the good old days, with comfits and sweetmeats and super little night clothes like these. The Grannyfowl Grouping, made of cotton to warm you, bibbed with lace to please you. In delicious red or blue, frosted with white.

REMODELING PROJECT—The old McNamara and Sons Oil Co. building is getting a complete facelift these days, having been taken over by Robert (Joe) Wood as a new location for his business. The old service station at night is scheduled to be torn down.

Wood remodeling in new location

The old office and storage building of the P.J. McNamara and Sons Oil Co. near the siphon bridge is undergoing major surgery these days.

Head carpenter is Robert (Joe) Wood, who has acquired the pioneer Manistique fuel oil and gasoline firm, and is preparing to move his downtown store to the new location.

The transfer is effective Oct. 1, Wood said.

There will be a name change at the same time, he added. The new firm will be known as the Wood Distributing Co. and will combine the former McNamara fuel oil and gasoline products with snowblowers and auto accessories from Wood's downtown outlet.

Complete remodeling of the building includes new wiring, a new floor, display windows and new siding, plus an overhead imitation cedar shake roof. A smaller building, once used as a retail gasoline station, will be demolished to make room for parking, Wood said.

He is hopeful that the remodeling can be completed within three weeks.

Two honored on retirement

A retirement dinner for two long-time county employees was held at the Surf Thursday night.

Honored were Mrs. Cecil Keller, office manager of the Schoolcraft-Alger Health Department, and Mrs. Eva Brown, deputy county clerk and registrar of deeds.

County Sanitarian Dupe Briggs served as hostmaster for the 7:30 dinner, which followed a 7 p.m. social session. Rev. Japmar Levin offered the invocation and benediction. Gift presentations were made by Lindsley Frenette, chairman of the County Board of Commissioners, following remarks from County Clerk Perihonni Lovd and Dr. Diane Waters.

The two retiring workers have 54 years of combined service to the county. Mrs. Keller began work in 1936, while Mrs. Brown has been in the court house since 1950. The retirements are effective Oct. 1.

Museum ends a busy year

The Inaugue Herbert Historical Museum is being closed for the winter after a very successful season.

The building has been open to visitors from 2 to 5 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays from July 23 to Labor Day. It has been manned by volunteers.

Approximately 600 people from 16 states visited the museum during the seven weeks and their comments were consistently favorable, the only criticism being the lack of sufficient space to display items. Any person or group wishing to visit before then may contact the curator, Mrs. John Matthews, or Mrs. A. F. Hall for an appointment.

1961 Class to meet

The Class of 1961 of Manistique High School will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday (today) in the conference room of the State Savings Bank.

Revival is planned

United Holiness Church, 120 N. Houston Ave., will hold a revival with services each evening at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 6 through Oct. 18. Rev. Lloyd Gover of Minneapolis, Ill. will be the Gospel preacher.

BOBBY AND LARRY PETERSON HAD A BIG LOAD TO CARRY HOME. . . AND THEY BOTH HAD TAKEN DUNKINGS IN THE RIVER.

Auxiliary sets plans for rally

A social meeting of the VFW Auxiliary was held Sept. 22 at the VFW Clubrooms, Ashcroft business meeting was held, at which it was decided to hold a party for the veterans in the VA Hospital at Iron Mountain on Oct. 5.

Delegates who announced their intention of attending the VFW fall rally in Menominee were Mrs. George Carney, president; Mrs. Edward Jorgensen, Mrs. Gilbert Berwin, Mrs. Paul Drages, Mrs. Betty Lalberg, Mrs. Eleanor DeSautel, Mrs. Earl Malloch, Sr., Mrs. Ralph DeLoria. Alternates were Mrs. Fred Repp, Mrs. Marge Choumatis, Mrs. Ivor Willcock, Mrs. Wallace Peck, Mrs. Dorothy Maynard, Mrs. Henry Baker and Mrs. Roland Holohik. Mrs. Alberta Gerlock was hostess chairman for the social hour. The group will hold their next meeting at 8 p.m. Oct. 13.

Enrollments still open in adult classes here

High school completion courses for adults got under way Monday, Sept. 21. The fourth Friday for adults is Oct. 2, and the Community School will accept enrollments in high school completion courses through that date.

An interesting instructional team has been established, with Jessie Schurrer and Evelyn Schuster working as a team with the basic review programs in math, language, writing and speech. The course is being offered on Mondays and Wednesdays and will establish new foundations or retraining foundations in the basic skills.

Modification of some of the curriculum as offered to adults is a proposed course offering that would involve business law, business math, as well as clerical record keeping. This would be a general consumer education offering.

Enrichment classes in the Community School will get under way the week of Oct. 5. A variety of courses are being offered and interested individuals may register in person or may call 341-2195.

Driver education classes for adults will begin next week. Interested persons may call the Community School office for more information.

FAIR EXHIBIT--One of the highlights of the 4-H year was the display of projects at the U.P. State Fair in Escanaba.

4-H events of year are reviewed

BY HOWARD HANBORG
COUNTY EXTENSION DIRECTOR

Our 4-H year is about to begin! Our kick-off is National 4-H Week Oct. 4-10. As we start the new enrollments for 1970, we took a look at the past year's accomplishments, such as:

4-H Leaders' Recognition banquet was held Sept. 25, 1969 at the Surf with about 100 people attending. They were 4-H leaders with their husbands or wives, guests, and agents. This event is sponsored by the Inland Lime and Stone Company and is given to thank our 4-H leaders for their time and efforts in the 4-H program.

Our annual 4-H Awards banquet Oct. 3, 1969 took place at the Manistique High School gym. This event is held to give recognition to our outstanding 4-H'ers in the county as well as our Junior Leaders, leaders and parents. We had 128 people in attendance last year. Many of our awards are sponsored by local businesses and these men attend and present the awards to the 4-H'ers.

One other interesting event was the 4-H Teen Club Exchange Trip to Houghton Dec. 5, 6, and 7. Nineteen Club members, attended from Schoolcraft County. We plan to invite the Houghton Club to Manistique this year as soon as we can get organized for the year. We had one meeting Sept. 15 for organizational purposes, so if you are 14 years or older and interested in joining, call 341-5050.

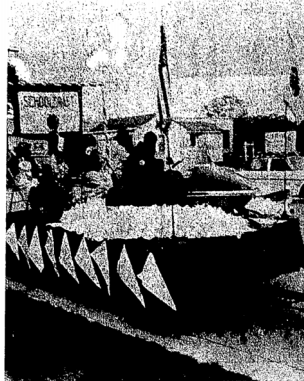

In March Mrs. Harold Lusk, Sr. of Germfask, our 4-H Council president, and Mrs. Gladys Mercier, our Convention leader from the city, along with Becky Charters, treasurer of our Teen Club, attended Leadership on the campus of Michigan State University. Mrs. Lusk and Mrs. Mercier were honored for their 20 years of leadership in 4-H in our county. Becky attended as our teen representative from the county as this event is primarily for leaders, and one teen leader from each county may attend. The theme was "We Listen - We Care."

Another noteworthy event was the Easter Egg Sale by the Teen Club. They take orders, purchase, decorate and deliver these chocolate eggs. They sold over 500 eggs and made enough money to send one member to Citizenship Short Course in Washington, D.C., and also help pay for an educational trip for all of them to Mackinac Island, plus they have a little money left to start the new year.

May 2, 1970 was Schoolcraft County 4-H'ers Achievement Day - this is their day! Our 250 4-H'ers had the opportunity to display their projects, participate in the talent show Dress Revue and Exhibit Parade, 127 girls in the Clothing and Knitting projects were in the revue and 96 boys and girls in all other projects took part in the Exhibit Parade.

June 17 to June 20 was 4-H Youth Week at Michigan State University and our delegates were Phyllis Middaugh of Inwood Township and Larry Brody of Hiawatha Township. Their theme was "What the World Needs Now" with these dimensions: Concern, Understanding, Action and Love.

July was a big month for us as we had 4-Camp at Clear Lake - July 12-18. There were over 100 campers participating. Alger and Schoolcraft County go together on the camp. James Schultz, 4-H Youth Agent from Marquette County, was the director. The weather could have been better but it was a successful session. U.P. Activities Days were held at Northern Michigan University July 28, 29 and 30 with seven 4-H'ers from Schoolcraft County attending. Pam Wood, Marsha Tuttle, Katie Parker, Julie Thorell, Laurie Steele, Rita Aldrich and Edna Brock. Rita and Edna attended as camp counselors. This program is geared to 4-H'ers 12 - 14 years old and is an experience for them as they lived in Spooner and Carey Halls, ate at the University Center and used the recreational facilities at Northern Michigan University.

Two of our members attended State Show Aug. 25-26, Judy Inhale and Judy Olson. The girls attended as delegates-at-large and by doing so were able to attend many different programs. They have brought back some information for programs for our Teen Club for the new year. In the past, our top Dress Revue delegate usually attended this event at MSU and participated in the Dress Revue there and in home economics programs. They no longer have this event at State Show and our delegates are selected by our Awards Committee.

U.P. State Fair was one more event our 4-H'ers took part in with over 50 from the county exhibiting.

The past year has been an active one and we hope the 1970-1971 year will be even more active. We are in need of 4-H leaders, both men and women, if you are interested contact us at 341-5050.

"OUT OUR WAY"

News from Road 437

ways appeared to be more beautiful. I look at the sky and I wonder how many people really appreciate it. Then take the day as it slowly slips away, to give us the splendor of a setting sun and a beautiful crimson sky to remind us that our daily work is done. Even the birds find a place to rest, the crickets chirp out their rhapsody to me. Then the moon and the stars take over in the sky.

Friday night, I watched the Northern Lights. All these things are my riches of life that wealth does not buy for me. A bewitching softness through the forest at night, only in the distance is the silence broken by the hoot of an owl. I've been living in this forest domain now for 20 years. What happiness I have found, as well as learned so much about the waters of the lakes, streams and rivers, flowers, trees, birds and all of mother nature's creatures, and then I know how great and good God is to give me all these things to enjoy.

The past week end was the last one for trout fishing, so the Q. T. Fishermen made that adventurous trip again into the wilds of the forest, to pitch the tent and ready themselves for a week end of fun. In the group were Slim Stoor, Mek Pupish, Bill Wood, Jim Henry and the Boss. Later to join them, were Storky Stoor, Floyd Houghton, Angie Frans, Carl Mattson, Don Kirkleson and Ed Mattson. Despite the rainy weather, the boys all had a good time.

Guests of Nola Havens at Blaze Trail are Mrs. Jean Jones, Don Kirkleson and Ed Mattson. Also, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin MacDonald of Weston, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gatten and their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gilliland of Dearborn Heights are spending a week at Ramsdell's Cottage.

Steve and David Sayers, sons of Dr. Peter Sayers, spent several days at Blaze Trail.

Enjoying their stay at the Delta Resort were Mr. and Mrs. William Ehrlich.

My daughter-in-law, Mrs. Henry R. Peterson and children, Danny, David and Michelle from Lansing, spent the week end with me while the Boss was on his fishing trip.

It's a gloomy morning out our way and it has rained earlier. The sun tries to shine at times but I don't know if it will win.

Echoes of birthday wishes go out to Dorothy (Gorsch) Whitelaw, Otto Winkel, Don, Dick and John Wood.

Universally wishes to the Jack Hobbits.

May you all enjoy your day until next week, stay healthy and happy.

Mrs. Scoop

Senior Citizens' Corner

BY HELEN MALES

Our courtesy cards are now available to all Senior Citizens, 65 and over. With these cards, you will be able to get a discount of 10% at 57 local participating businesses and a 20% discount at three parking places. These cards must be used solely by the person whose name appears on it. If any complaints are made about the use of the card, your name will be withdrawn and you will not be able to renew this card.

This card also makes you a participating member of the Schoolcraft Senior Citizens Center. We want to thank all of the participating merchants, plus Ed Jackson, the State Savings Bank, and Mrs. Harvey Blakel for their assistance.

While we're on the subject of "Delta" we'd also like to thank the Pioneer-Tribune and WTK for all the free publicity they have given us. And also A & P and Norison's Foodland for their many donations of coffee and cookies.

Mrs. Nahcof Gerbert has informed me that the Senior Girl Scouts are going to donate free time every afternoon (Mon.-Fri.) to come down to the center to help run errands, answer the phone and work with our handicraft projects. They will also give a hand shopping for groceries and doing odd jobs for Seniors 65 and older who are ill or disabled.

Our first try at bowling was a huge success. There were over 20 people at the Lakeview Bowling Lanes Wednesday afternoon. Many were bowling for the first time and Mr. Krust was very helpful in giving instructions. We had quite a few who had bowled years ago. A few were Isabel Banker, Jungs Stevenson, Lillie Curran, U.S.A. Heegblom, George Stevenson and Pete Bahadrellis. We were especially proud of Ethel Nelson who had never bowled before and got second high women's score. First place went to Miss Stevenson. High scorer for the men was George Stevenson followed by Joe Carrelle.

Bowling is open every Wednesday from 1-3 for everyone 55 and older. The games are at a discount plus free use of the lanes. Those who can't bow, come down and cheer the bowlers on. We need about four people who will mark score for us.

Remember our schedule Tuesday 2-4, handicraft class;

Our four artists, Adeline Wager, Ida Carbo, Peg McNab and Ann Toanko, have finished their first oil painting of Lake Michigan. Painting classes are every Thursday from 2-4 and open to all Senior Citizens. Our next painting will be a fall floral.

Mrs. Norman (Mabel) Jata will be at the Center Tuesday from 2-4 and will teach our handicraft class how to make marshmallow flowers for cake decorating. Every lady who is interested in this please join us.

Remember our schedule Tuesday 2-4, handicraft class;

Wednesday 1-3, bowling; 7:30 movies; Thursday 2-4, oil painting; Friday 7, cards and social hour.

Robert Hann, Social Security representative, will be here Friday from 10-2 for consultation for the general public.

Tourist talk

AUTUMN IS TRADITIONALLY THE TIME for the tourist industry to relax a bit and evaluate what kind of a season the summer produced.

A survey by the Automobile Club of Michigan shows that state-wide a general increase of five per cent was noted. This varied widely by areas, but there was a decline only in southeastern Michigan, where the fishing ban on Lake St. Clair, the St. Clair and Detroit rivers put a damper on things.

Oddly enough, much of the increase was attributed to the general slowdown in the economy. "Many vacationers were scared by talk of a recession and traveled in Michigan rather than take expensive trips to other sections of the country," said Jerry E. Fisher, the Auto Club's touring manager.

The camping boom is also considered a big plus item in totting up the year. Available camping space in the state has been at a premium on several occasions due to three factors, the AAA contends: salmon fishing, excellent weather in July and August, and an increased interest in camping. Through the latter part of August, total attendance at state parks was seven per cent ahead of 1969.

In the Upper Peninsula the tourism increase was set at 10 per cent by Bob Helwig, secretary-manager of the Upper Michigan Tourist Association.

Helwig attributed this growth to improved weather conditions, added popularity of both state and private parks, and reduced tolls for crossing the Mackinac Bridge, which have been in effect the past two years.

Travel was up six per cent over the Big Mac bridge for the first eight months this year compared to last.

And Schoolcraft County? It seemed to follow the state trend, with camping showing the big increase while motels and resorts stayed about the same or dropped.

Carl Graves, secretary-manager for the Manistique Area Chamber of Commerce, noted that sales tax receipts—a prime business indicator—were up for the county during the summer. He estimated the overall increase for this area to be about six and a half per cent.

Indian Lake State Park totals also reflected this trend. Camping permits, through Sept. 13, totaled 11,383 this year, compared to 11,161 last year. Total number of campers, however, totaled 131,311, compared to 123,989 last year.

Park Manager Vic Has also noted the campers are staying later this year, with 54 campers still there during a busy night last week, compared to only 40 a year ago.

All the figures and all the experts seem to agree on one thing— Any increases this past summer and potential for next summer seem to tie in closely with the boom in campers, camping trailers and tent trailers.

Fortunately, we here in Schoolcraft County have the excellent facilities, both private and public, to cope with this increase. They include state campgrounds and sites in the Hiawatha National Forest, as well as state parks.

In retrospect, schoolcraft County seems to have done as well or better than other areas of the state when it comes to the tourist business. Let's hope we continue to get our share in the years to come.

David A. Rood--Co-Publisher and Editor

Convention report

My wife broke down and cried the other night when I remarked that it was only four more months to the annual convention of the Michigan Press Association—a reaction that I find hard to comprehend in view of my long list of accomplishments at earlier gatherings of the newspaper clan.

One nice thing about a business partnership is that you divide the responsibilities as evenly as possible. That's why I always volunteer each year for the burdensome chore of representing the Pioneer-Tribune at the convention and leave Jim Tagg here at home to frolic with irate subscribers and obdurate advertisers. What's fair is fair, I always tell him.

(Speaking of partnerships, did you hear about the two business partners that were called away together to attend a special meeting? "My God!" said one of them as they drove along the highway, "I left the safe open!" The other one wasn't bothered. "That's all right," his partner said, "we're both here." Well, I thought it was funny.)

Anyway, nobody has any idea of how hard I work at those conventions. Well, Dorothy Anne has some ideas, very few of which coincide with mine. I take my assignment very seriously, gathering with my peers to discuss the problems that face the Fourth Estate in these trying times, and making big high-level executive decisions like where should we hold the summer meeting in 1974.

There is always an equipment display at the winter convention and it is a very popular place, mostly because much of the new machinery is demonstrated by lovely young things in very short skirts. I must look like a big high-level type executive, because the salesmen there are always handing me literature and taking my name and address. In order to cut out the middleman, so to speak, I always give them Jim Tagg's name and title, and every year following the convention he is besieged by eager salesmen who have been instructed by their home office that Mr. Tagg is interested in a new Whammo Miracle Type Setter or some such thing.

In fact I was a little worried last year, for as I recall, at the height of the festivities one night, in an impulsive moment, I placed an order for a $42,000 offset newspaper press. The only thing that saved me was that the salesman who took the order wasn't exactly 100 watt at the time, and probably couldn't read his order pad the next morning.

Last year set some kind of records, as far as that goes, for the post-convention tabulation, compiled largely by my wife, revealed that I had purchased three newspapers, including the Detroit Free Press; sold the Pioneer-Tribune to four different people; accepted three different jobs, including one as a bowling writer in Anchorage, Alaska; proposed to three different women; purchased that press, two typesetting machines, a saw, four cameras; two job presses and an electric typewriter, and joined the Michigan League of Home Dailies.

Although the business sessions during the day are active and interesting, most of the action takes place after dark in the various hospitality rooms provided by suppliers to the trade and public relations people. My three favorites are the AAA, Michigan Bell and General Motors, and the fact that AAA has no offices up here, that we're in General Telephone territory, and I drive a Chrysler product bothers me not a bit, but instead stands as evidence of how impartial a dedicated newspaperman can be.

I don't know if I could stand the gaff of being a host in one of those hospitality rooms or not. I experimented one year, stationing myself at the door, greeting people and taking their order, shouting out instructions to the beverage mixer and calling down for more ice. Things were going along pretty good until I tried to shush some guy in the corner who I thought was getting just a little loud.

"Why don't you go back to your room and lie down?" I suggested diplomatically.

"Because," he replied rather indignantly, "this is my room."

Tony's Topics BY SUPT. EDWIN WUEHLE

PETER ALTENBERG, ALEXANDER KING, AND KEITH MCLEOD

My introduction to Peter Altenberg came through Alexander King, the intellectual gadfly guest of the Jack Paar show, and Keith McLeod at the First National Bank.

I would expect King to be interested in Altenberg, but it is refreshing to discover that a banker is, too. Keith loaned his copy of Kings' collection of Alt berg's essays—"Evocations of Love." It is printed on quality paper, and illustrated by King with intriguing sketches.

Altenberg was an almost obscure Austrian poet, seer, writer, who died in Vienna in 1919 -- two months before his sixtieth birthday -- but he is so modern! His observations have a refreshing twist. He believed that life proceeds by misunderstanding and that an observation which is entirely beside the point may provide a great deal of rich truth. He didn't understand ambition. He wrote, "I don't understand definite goals anyway. Toward anything. One ought to be absolutely surprised at what finally happens."

He wrote to a beautiful woman who had treated him shabbily, "Do you realize that someday you are going to be old? And that men who will meet you will not be able to imagine that you were ever exquisite and desirable."

He wrote about his fat aunt Nina whose excessive laughter was really more like weeping, about his Uncle Emmerich who lost his daughter's dowry on the horses, and about his Uncle Max who had a love affair with his grandmother's seamstress.

The young modern would love him because his writings are a delicate, quiet protest against the shams and the hypocrisy of the world.

He wrote of the professionally righteous, and describes the proud declaiming complete conservative as one who is saying, "I haven't washed myself in years." The "doer" he sees as one who gives the sensitive man shivers.

Although he was quite sane, he sometimes took refuge at an asylum outside Vienna where he observed how well-mannered the immates were and "with what uncritical tolerance they accepted each other's most flagrant manias."

Alexander King wrote of him "...for me his writings are like so many concentrated bouillon cubes of the spirit, which, to be properly understood and savored, must first be diluted and warmed by the passionate commitment of the reader's own perceptive heart."

The essays are delightful to read, and I thank Peter Altenberg, Alexander King, and Keith McLeod.

LAWN CARE AND LAND-SCAPING - There's still time to prepare your lawn for next spring. . . and to plant spring bulbs. . . and to protect prized plants from winter weather. "Lawns should be cut, fertilized and treated for broad-leaf weeds before Oct. 1," says Dr. Harold Davidson, Michigan

Tommy Thompson J.P. Quick

People are heard to say, "My child has had all kinds of measles 5 or 6 times." Actually, there are only two types of measles - German (rubella) and regular (rubeola). It is a misconception that there are many types of measles and each can be contracted many times, like the common cold. In both forms of measles, a rash occurs while fever is present. The first eruptions usually break out on the face and hairline then spread over the body.

Roseola infantum - the rosy rash most prevalent among children ages 6 months to 3 years begins abruptly with fever and occasionally a convulsion. The temperature remains high for several days; on the third or fourth day, fever lowers suddenly and a bright red rash covers the entire body. This looks like measles, however, the course of the illness is different as is the distribution of the rash.

In any case - Call or see your doctor. Better to be safe than sorry. If a prescription is called for, you can depend on A.S. PUTNAM & CO. . . 201 South Cedar. . . Phone 341-2264.

State University horticulturist. "Cutting reduces matting of grass that might aid winter-kill."

"A final application of fertilizer, high in nitrogen, will keep grass green late into fall."

"Spreading a broadleaf weed killer now will eliminate 95 percent of those weeds that would normally be in the lawn next spring."

Another fall yard activity that will pay off next spring is the planting of bulbs. Crocus, hyacinths, daffodils and tulips should be planted now.

"Most bulbs grow well in a variety of soils, but be sure the soil is well drained, fertilized and the bulbs planted at the proper depth for the particular species," says the Michigan State University plant expert.

Hyacinth and iris bulbs should be planted at a depth of 4 to 6 inches. Crocus bulbs will do best if planted at 4 to 5 inches; tulips, 7 to 9 inches, and daffodils, 7 to 10 inches.

"Proper grouping of the bulbs now will add to the effect the flowers will give to your yard in the spring," says Dr. Davidson. "Neat rows and geometric patterns are desirable for tulips and hyacinths, but informal, naturalistic planting work better for daffodils and crocus."

Transplanting of trees and shrubs can also be done now. This should be done before the ground freezes, says Dr. Davidson.

Trees greater than two inches in diameter and all evergreens should have a ball of earth around their roots when taken from and put back into the ground, Dr. Davidson advises. The ground in which they are planted should be well drained.

"College Day" for homemakers is going to be extra special this year - something you won't want to miss so get that reservation in today. The Date is Tuesday, Sept. 29. The place, the Central Methodist Church in Escanaba. The deadline for reservations is Thursday, Sept. 24. Call the Extension office for additional information phone 341-5050.

This year's theme is on prejudice, "How Prejudiced Are You?" Mrs. Gail Imig of Michigan State University will be the discussion leader. I'll also tell you about the interesting seminar for American Indian women that I attended in August.

Art Lauren, Superintendent of Wells State Park, will be our afternoon guest and will show colored slides of the Upper Peninsula. You might say he is a professional in photography his pictures are fabulous as many of you already know.

An added feature during the noon luncheon this year will be a fall fashion show by a local women's style shop. Mrs. James Johnson, an Extension homemaker, will also provide music.

Mrs. Soma Geckiyange. How would you pronounce it? Your guess is as good as mine but we'll soon find out from her. She will arrive on Sept. 27 and will be with us on "College Day."

Mrs. Geckiyange is an Agricultural Extension officer from Ceylon and will be a guest in our area for a month. Mrs. Allen Weber of Stephenson has made arrangements for her to live with families in Menominee county for 10 days and she will spend the remainder of her time in Delta County. We do hope to get her over to Schoolcraft too.

Our visitor from Ceylon is 31 years old and has three children. She is particularly interested in 4-H and rural youth programs, in poultry farming, vegetable and fruit cultivation and in home economics projects for girls.

Financial sponsorship is through the Professional Rural Youth Leader Exchange program and is provided by friends of 4-H through the Cooperative Extension Service, the National 4-H Club Foundation and the Bureau of Educational and Cultural affairs of the U.S. Department of State.

U. P. landmark

It's the Lake of the Clouds in the Porcupine Mountains, west of Ontonagon, and for the next several weeks the wooded highlands will be a panoramic vista of color. It a sight no U. P. resident should miss.

One small step

LAKE COUNTY may not win any titles as Michigan's most scenic area and it is not exactly the tourist mecca of the Midwest, but the 5,000 county residents and their Board of Commissioners should get some sort of award for their simple and forthright approach to the problem of litter.

Like the rest of Michigan . . . and the rest of the country . . . they have been long-plagued by unsightly throwaway containers in parks, along roadways and in waterways. So just the other week the Board of Commissioners passed an ordinance banning the sale of beer and soft drinks in such containers after April 1, 1971.

"Basically we're a tourist area in which clean rivers and streams are very important," commented the board's attorney Edward Kaplan in explaining the action.

"We don't feel this will end littering, but it might get other communities to do the same and put pressure on producers of soft drinks and beer so that they'll switch to returnable bottles," he said.

They put some teeth into the ordinance too, providing a 90-day jail term and $100 fine for violators.

Their action, of course, won't cause empty cans and bottles to disappear from the Lake County landscape overnight. If Lake County is like Schoolcraft, there are enough empties already rusting along the woods and waterways to last the next 50 years. There is also no control over persons who buy their beverages from outside the county and then smuggle them in. Bootlegging may be revived in Ludington and Reed City if the demand is there.

But if every one of Michigan's 83 counties enacted a similar ordinance, at least one segment of the litter problem would be taken care of in short order.

Sure, there will be some static from the bottlers who object to the extra cost of handling returnable containers. There is probably some question as to how well the ordinance would stand up to a court test. And, as usual, whatever added cost there might be will be passed along to the consumer.

However it's this same consumer-taxpayer who ends up paying for the cost of picking up the discarded litter anyway, so in the long run it probably won't make much difference.

An ordinance such as this is only the first tiny step toward cleaning up our environment, but it usually takes courage to take that first small step, and the Lake County Commissioners deserve our thanks. We'd like to see our own county board take that same step. If all of our counties unite on this question, that first step will become a giant stride forward.

Time to check

IF YOU'RE PLANNING TO VOTE this November, the time is drawing short for one important step.

Registration for the fall vote closes this Friday. If you aren't registered by then, you won't vote.

It's simple to check with your township or city clerk.

But if you have doubts, don't wait. Check now.

After Friday it's too late.

Autumn

The days of summer are over and now is the time of the equinox, that teetering balance between summer and winter, when one day will warm you with its color and sunshine, and the next morning chill your bones with the grey, wet, shivering forecast of snow.

These are the days of retreat for the sun that crested late in June and produced those hot and lazy days of July and August, when the horizon would shimmer in the reflected brightness, and the lake's far shore would dissolve into out-of-focus behind the mid-day haze.

The shorter days bring a faster tempo, as if the metronome of time were speeded from the dreamy waltzes of summer to a more martial beat. There is a freshness to the wind as it quarters more to the north and west, bringing from the northern tundra the sobering promise of winter biding its time in the polar wastes.

There is an openness to the forest floor, where the green carpet of the summer season has wilted and browned, and the withered bracken are curled and cringing. The tiny daisies, the goldenrod and the lupine still flaunt their colors in the lengthening shadows, bright contrast to the amber needles of the pine that cover their beds.

In middle America the great inland seas that we call the Great Lakes alternate between restless surges and deceptive calms, vacillating with the winds and the weather, changing their sheen from brilliant blue to sullen grey, impatient on one hand and resigned on the other, biding their time in their continual battle against the stone outcroppings and sandy bays that rim our peninsula.

The tiny ships of man wend their way across the open wastes of water, carrying their stone and ore and grain, as their captains and sailors keep the constant watch for signs of the fury that can be unleashed at any time by the whims of nature and its seasons, for the sailor is the first to recognize the force and power of the lakes and its winds.

September brings the color to our forests in the mysterious timetable that sends the chlorophyll ebbing from the leaves in reluctant streaks, dappling the dark hues of summer green with myriad blotches of red and orange and brown. Color's first sentinels are posted, in the valleys and by the river bottoms of the far northern forests, standing their guard in splendid isolation. As the days shorten, the color spreads out in erratic skirmish lines across the hillsides, marching to that distant and different drummer of the wilderness, spreading and enveloping the redoubts of green, covering the far horizon in brightness and majesty, glittering and golden, gleaming in spectacular triumph for the few short days of total victory before the winds and the rain combine their forces to strip the leaves from the branches. The tawny hues and shades of autumn will fly and flicker groundward as the scudding snow clouds lower their sights on the woodland, and as the sun settles lower in its daily track across the sky the frost will follow to leave silver tracings on the bonebare skeletons of the hardwoods.

There is no way to mark exactly when one season ends and another begins, it is a gradual thing of fits and starts, stops and slows, with one overlapping into the other, with advances and retreats and alarms and excursions, until finally the young season gains the upper hand. No fixed schedule can be made for the arrival of autumn, but as the days shorten and the shadows lengthen, the sharp outlines of summer erode to the mellow ripeness of the autumn equinox, and the signs and sounds and smells bring the pause of reflection that comes with a new season.

The days of autumn are with us, and they will be gone too soon. Golden color will soon fade and pass away, like countless autumns before them, and countless autumns to come. The change is constant, and there is constantly change, and the days and the seasons continue their endless march across this earth that is our home.

Tony's Topics

BY SUPT. EDWIN WUEHLE

It used to be that the most exciting thing that could happen in a high school was a fire drill.

Now there are enough nightmare possibilities, many of which wind up in court, to give any high school principal chronic ulcers. All he has to do is to read the papers and wonder, "What next--and where?"

The students at Roosevelt High School in Des Moines, Iowa, went to classes wearing black armbands to protest the Vietnam war. The case was eventually tried before the U. S. Supreme Court.

In Netcong High School in New Jersey, Principal Vincent M. Tognio stood in the gymnasium and read a prayer from the Congressional Record. The Attorney General's office, the State Board of Education, and the State Commissioner of Education asked the New Jersey Superior Court to order the prayers stopped.

Student Ron De Angelo wrote a story which was rejected by his high school newspaper, so he began his own paper -- "Uptight" -- and a whole town went into an uproar.

A Sledgeville High School student tore up the textbooks, Problems of Democracy, French IV, and Physics to protest what he termed a "meaningless, totally irrelevant and completely uninvolved curriculum."

At an Eastern high school, an English teacher assigned an article from the Atlantic Monthly as required reading, and a delegation of parents stormed a school board meeting.

Not far from us, a high school principal found himself testifying in court because one of the student graduation speakers refused to cut his hair.

Conclusion: The day of the venerable, professor-type high school principal has passed. His modern counterpart is expected to deal with bomb threats, riots, drug abuse, and vandalism. Marv Frederickson commented recently, "If the school board had written a job description for the job as it exists today when I was hired,

I doubt if I would have taken it."

"He who lives at high tension usually blows a fuse."—Harold S. May, The Florence (Ala.) Herald.

A born executive is the man whose father owns the business.—Fred W. Crown, The Bergen (N. J.) Citizen.

GREAT LAKES LOG

IT TOOK A LARGE FLEET OF SCHOONERS TO HAUL THE TIMBER CUT IN MINNESOTA, WISCONSIN, MICHIGAN AND ONTARIO. AS THE AGE OF STEAM ARRIVED, WOODEN "LUMBER HOOKERS" BEGAN TRANSPORTING MORE LUMBER, AND SCHOONERS WERE OFTEN RELEGATED TO TOW-BARGES

LUMBER HOOKERS

LUMBER WAS CAREFULLY LOADED. FIRST, THE HOLD WAS FILLED AND WEDGED TIGHT, TO PREVENT SHIFTING AND TO BRACE THE DECK BEAMS. THEN THE DECK WAS LOADED, OVER 10 FEET HIGH. MANY "HOOKERS" COULD CARRY 1,000,000 BOARD FEET OF LUMBER.

GRADUALLY THE ONCE PLENTIFUL SUPPLY OF COMMERCIAL LUMBER DIMINISHED... AND SO DID THE SHIPS THAT CARRIED IT. BY THE 1930'S ALMOST ALL OF THE "LUMBER HOOKERS" HAD VANISHED FROM THE GREAT LAKES.

Manistique should really be proud of our teenagers because they have taken such an interest in our ladies.

May Lind and Delores Thuet have joined us at the Facility. Amelia Kisro, Joe Miron, Lena Fisher and James Search have left us to make their home elsewhere.

This Friday, bingo will be just as exciting as last week. We had 15 players. Everyone was so happy over their nice prizes.

That's all for now, see you next week.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Philippians	3	1-16
Monday	II Corinthians	6:14 to 7:1
Tuesday	Genesis	28	10-22
Wednesday	Exodus	3	1-15
Thursday	Exodus	15	17-22
Friday	Deuteronomy	32	1-12
Saturday	Psalms	119	105-112

Wheels in Motion

When the gears of a machine mesh together in motion, things begin to happen. Wheels turn, and power is transmitted to every part of the mechanism.

Prayer is something like that. Individual prayer is a vital and sacred thing. Each of us has moments when we—and we alone—must turn to God.

And collective prayer—mass prayer—can be a tremendous force for good too. It is as if thousands of "spiritual gears" suddenly were meshed together into a unit directed by a single purpose.

On Worldwide Communion Sunday, remember the power of collective prayer. Join with your neighbors throughout the globe by attending church and praying both for peace and for each other.
