Hisland's Luck to Happiness. A man who had taken a life-partner for better or for worse, and with the former state of things, should remember:

That doves have no feet.
That little ones like sweets.
That few women care for politics.
That an honest confession is owed for the soul.
That there are limits to a woman's credulity.
That after all your wife dresses well to please you.
That no woman intentionally burned a husband.
That you had better make the best of your situation.
That it is a woman's way always to have the last word.
That you should set the example where there are children.
That your fingers cost more than your wife's perfume.
That only a brave man says, "Never ever did of a fool's errand."
That an occasional dinner down town is enjoyed by two wife.
That you are not the possessor of the only patte in the house.
That your wife may grow as tired of the "house" as you do of the "office."
That no woman ever grows too old not to enjoy the gift of old money.
That it is well to pretend an interest in the contents of the letter from mamma.
That women have many things to make them "cranky," and you are not of them.
That there are jobs in good pie turned out today as those you never thought of making.
That it is a fine thing to have a wife who cares for anything else but buying clothes.
That it is well to keep your promises to the children, even though it be a promised walking.
That a reasonable allowance of pocket money does not necessarily make a boy a spendthrift.
That you have only your own work, it is because you do not supply them with better material.
That Sunday afternoon away on a sofa lounge is not "spending the day" with your wife.
That it is a good idea to drop into one in a while upon the public school that your little ones attend.
That your wife will think some, the less of you if you raise your hat when meeting or leaving her.
That you should be prepared to offer your visitors the class of refreshments they most desire.
That the wedding anniversary is an occasion for some remembrance, let the token be ever so small.
That the wedding night signifies your three-year-old are not always sure to "eat the table in a row."
That you have to be slow in your active love, you are no longer to the matrimonial market.
That when your shirt and blouse are large enough to admit of the passage of a walnut it is time to buy new shirts.
That it is very bad taste to read mother-in-law jokes to your wife, or remember that your mother is her mother-in-law.
That you should never talk the trouble and expense of taking the family into the country whenever you have a chance.

$100 Reward, $100.
The readers of his paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one druggist in each town who is able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, it required a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitutional and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Sent for list of Testimonials.

Most European nations average for the male 6 feet 6 inches, but the Austrians, Spaniards and Portuguese just fall short of this standard.
The people of the United States average on an average 12,000,000 postage stamps of all kinds each and every day of the year, or a total of 4,380,000,000 per annum.

THE RATTLESLAKE.

COMMON ERRORS REGARDING ITS FIGHTING ABILITIES.

Reverend Sir: On the 2nd inst. I received from you a copy of the Rattleslake and I am glad to see that it is so well received. I have been very often bitten by a rattleslake and I can assure you that it is not so dangerous as you suppose. It is a very common insect and it is not so dangerous as you suppose. Status of the Great Fight.

The situation as to the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight at this time, however, has been decided. Corbett has a very good chance of winning. Corbett has a very good chance of winning. Corbett has a very good chance of winning.

one of sympathy for the tool makes, who are the real leaders in the strike.

one of the Italians working in Linkport, East Hampton, Conn., seems to have a very good appetite. On several occasions he has been seen to catch a bull frog, wash it off, and take it by the hind legs, swallow it whole. One day he caught a large frog and made three unsuccessful attempts at swallowing it. But this did not seem to discourage him, as he threw the large one away, and catching a smaller one, swallowed it with ease.

In the great outlay which George Vanderbilt is making at Baltimore, Md., the young millionaire has entertained a more serious purpose than is generally known. Mr. Vanderbilt intends to make his estate a device for the study of forestry, scientific farming, and horticulture. He has had enough to carry out any scheme of this sort, no matter how big it may be, as he can go forty miles in a direct line from his own door without passing the confines of his own domain.

He proposes to create a neighborhood of small tracts, each of about 100,000 acres. He will build a village containing homes, stores, and schools, and apartments will be rented to all properly accredited students who desire to avail themselves of the facilities offered there for the study of the sciences which are his hobby. The farm will be conducted after the most approved scientific fashion.

That Tired Feeling

is a common complaint and it is a dangerous symptom. It means that the system is debilitated because of impure blood, and in this condition it is especially liable to attacks of disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy for this condition, and also for the weakness which prevails at the change of season, climate or life.

Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently on the bowels and liver.

A new device of the devil, at least in this country, is the wine room. Hitherto the saloon has been content to corrupt our sons; the wine room appears to be intended to corrupt our daughters. It is situated in the vicinity of a bar room and restaurant, and is a combination of both. Food or drink either or both are had in it. American women, even the wisest of them, hitherto have shunned the saloon. American men who patronize bar rooms themselves do not want to meet their wives and daughters there.—Rev. McKinley.

Ask your wife if you don't need springing up for the winter. Of course you know it as well as she does, and whether it's a new pair of trousers, a new suit or a winter overcoat (fur or cloth), you ought to attend to the matter now.

That being so, of course it permits us to suggest, that no seller of clothes can offer what, for years, we have devoted the best judgment and skill to buying on anything like even terms.

The prices quoted serve only to show the range of cost. The quality is a thing apart.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. G. Gusherman, of Dinwiddie, Mich.: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost more than I could expect. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at River Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible prostrations of coughing would not let her rest at night, and it seemed as if she could not survive. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its action and highly satisfactory in results. Trial bottles free at A. S. Putnam & Co., Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

We are like the whimsical trader when we scour the market for merchandise. We don't buy until we are certain that the style, material and price are right. We search until we find correct merchandise then we buy. Consumers should do likewise, make the rounds if you please, buy where style, material and price are right. We are certain you will buy here. We advertise what we have to advertise, never exaggerate; describe it truthfully and then stop.
