

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Largest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Semi-Weekly Pioneer.

For Sale.

A Farm containing acres of good and 25, miles north-west of Manistig, 1 mile from Main River Road, 25 acres and high state of cultivation; good orchard. Well of pure spring water, see frame barn and two dwelling houses, 1/2 mile from school. This is a good investment and will be sold upon reasonable terms. For particulars apply to

J. E. Sam, German-Costello Block.

Duquette's Things.

John Tennant is now working on the railroad.
Miss Vincent was quite sick the first of the week.

J. Casmore, of Marquette, has a very sore hand.
Mrs. J. C. Crighton is about down sick with a heavy cold.

Rumor says Mrs. Duquette will have a baby boarder this winter.

It has been a very calm, quiet, leading week in Duquetteville.

G. D. Henrick is going down to M. Duquette's Saturday evening, to help on a barrel of apples.

Deer carcasses have been passing through the village all the week. It makes our teeth ache for some.

The town is full of visitors as predicted; Messrs. Cline and Stayer returned last night and report having captured four fine deer.

Messrs. Swayer and Cline left the first of the week for a hunt in the vicinity of Jack Pine farm. Soon one word will fall of venison and the porcupine can eat choice mors.

Last Tuesday a lady was up to the hills from Manistig, selling tickets for a village picnic on a boat to be held on the 12th of next month. Name and what street we know not. Tickets, $1.

William Dupuis bought a barrel of apples the fore part of the week and will hold impressive economies about the same Saturday evening. Have heard such words as poker-chips, etc., used in connection with the same.

This scribble was informed this week from some local source that there have on the farm of John Creighton. Whether it is a cure of lupine treasures of the past or one of such natural curiosities as to delight the eye of the tourist, we know not; we will look it up.

The last two weeks the school has been hard at work on the land and water divisions of Europe. The two tests were made Friday at 10 and had learned the most. Dan Dupue came out ahead first time. Second time between Dan and Arthur Lake. Dan wrote an answer of 130 places and objects in 20 minutes.

A fair attendance of young and some of the middle-aged residents met at the school house last evening to discuss the advisability of forming a Literary Society for the winter. Teacher Henrick was elected temporary chairman and Dan Dupue temporary secretary.

Teacher took up first portion of the evening in giving his ideas of literary societies and the work connected with the same. A synopsis of the same will appear next week. The society was then quickly formed with about 30 members to start with, the above names as permanent officers and Miss Louisa Woodruff as treasurer. Constitution and by-laws program, etc., are to be presented at next meeting, held in two weeks, by the executive committee, who are to be appointed by the chairman. There were readings from three of the classes in several places, followed by several readings by the teacher. At the next meeting the Society will thoroughly discuss the geography of Michigan, as much as can be done in one hour. Now, if you are at all interested in knowing about the resources of your own state, one of the greatest in the Union, look it up. It takes just 30 minutes by the clock to read what one of the large geographies says of Michigan.

Our National Delegation.

Recently the Republican has noted several articles in Detroit newspapers relative to the selection of delegates to large to represent Michigan in the next republican national nominating convention, and passing mention has been made of several real or supposed candidates for that honor, it being generally conceded that one delegate at least would come from Detroit.

The next republican presidential convention will be one of the most important gatherings of republican leaders which the party has had since its organization. Upon the result of its deliberations will largely depend that success which is essential to a propitious solution of the grave questions which are now confronting the country as the result of misadministration by the democratic party. To be a member of that body will be no slight honor, and no republican of Michigan who aspires to that honor need apologize for being so.

On the other hand, the very importance of the occasion should suggest to republicans that they owe to their party and the state an imperative duty in those selections which may not be lightly or carelessly performed. It is not enough that the aspirant is a republican and has performed some good service for his party which has made him popular in some sections of the state. Nor should he be a mere politician. On the contrary, the man whom it is sought to honor with a position of such importance should be a broad man—a truly representative man of his party; a well tried man, whose republicanism is of the highest order, and whose personal and reputation are at least well and favorably known to the people of his state. If they should chance to be national, so much the better.

Of the Detroit republicans who have thus far been mentioned as known candidates for the position of delegate at-large to the national convention, it would appear to the Republican that no one more closely meets the requirements here mentioned than does Gen. Russell A. Alger. Gen. Alger has always been known as an unwavering republican, aggressive and actively loyal to the decisions of his party, whether expressed in state or national councils, and while his fidelity is unquestioned, his record is remarkably free from local intrigues, factions, and jealousies—a fact which ought to make him acceptable to all interests. Add to these qualifications the fact that he will be no new man and that most of his past experiences having thoroughly familiarized him with the details of business in such a body, while his acquaintance and reputation as a business man, a politician, and a prominent figure in social and Grand Army circles is national, and it might be fairly concluded that among the many fitted and popular republicans of the State, none possesses more of the essentials for a representative Michigan man in such a body than does Gen. Alger.—The State Republican.

Adopted 21 children.

Mrs. E. O. Turkish resides on her farm about one mile east of West City. She is a widow 80 years of age and well off. She has practical ideas on the subject of philanthropy, and during her lifetime has adopted 21 orphan children, all of whom have gone out into the world and made honorable names for themselves. Some have married, and two are still on the farm. She is unostentatious in the carrying out of her scheme. It is said that she will donate a site for a children's home to any association that will establish one.

Our Coast Defenses.

The annual report of General Miles, commanding the army, recommends immediate and adequate coast defense works, urging that there is now practically no defense against the destruction of our coast cities. There is not a fortification in the vicinity of any of our great seaports which can afford any protection worthy of the name against a modern fleet in home waters, and that when a conflict is precipitated we may not be unprepared. All of which is good common sense, but it does not seem probable that the government will act on his advice. West & Texas, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O., Wading, Kinnaird & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O., and Hall's Catarth Cure, F. J. Cheney & Co. Prop., Toledo, O. We the undersigned, have known West & Texas, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O., Wading, Kinnaird & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O., and Hall's Catarth Cure taken internally, who refused to drink a glass of beer when ordered by the court to do so. It is explained. It wasn't beer.—Kansas City Journal.

How's This!

We offer the Hundred Dollar Reward for any case of Catarth that can not be cured by Hall's Catarth Cure. F. J. Cheney & Co. Prop., Toledo, O. We the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the past 13 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by their firm. West & Texas, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O., Wading, Kinnaird & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O., and Hall's Catarth Cure taken internally, who refused to drink a glass of beer when ordered by the court to do so. Senator Brien won't have to bring any more money with him when he moves to New York.—New York Recorder.

Mr. Cleveland, in his Thanksgiving proclamation, advises us to thank God for his forbearance. Yes it might have been worse.—St. Louis Republic (Dem.).

The strange case of the Wichita man who refused to drink a glass of beer when ordered by the court to do so is explained. It wasn't beer.—Kansas City Journal.

That Maryland innovation of beginning a negro preaching with prayer and song service is another indication of how zealously the South is striving to improve its natural resources.—Grand Rapids Press.

A good journeyman tanner in Germany can tan five skins for more than a season's exchange. The Carle-Wilson leather schedule was made in the interests of German leather manufacturers. American workmen want more wages than that.

House and Lot for Sale.

The undersigned desires to sell his residence, corner Arthur and Avenue and "Stables," Tabernash.—A ranchman for a good bargain. Call on or address E. H. BAILEY.

Mr. Harlin, Democratic candidate for Governor of Kentucky, got a bigger vote than was ever before polled for a Democrat in that state. The reason was that Mr. Beckley, the Republican, got a fourth larger vote. Harlin's vote was 103,474, Beckley's 172,430, which was 17,000 more than Harrison secured in 1856.

The Democratic Cincinnati Equippers pleads that the party in 1890 live up to a resolution offered in the last Democratic convention, as follows: "Resolved, That the national Democratic committee be instructed to provide in the next convention accommodations for the delegates, the alternates, the members of the press, the national committee, and those others."

At the moment of going to press our count sheets consisted of a large gain at Fort Hancock and Senator Chandler.—Detroit Tribune.

EMIL THOMPSON, 104 STREET, SPRING CHICKEN AT ALL TIMES

CHARLTON, Mich., Nov. 21.—Wreckage being coming ashore two miles north of here yesterday afternoon. Parts of a steamer's spar and cabin were among the wreckage. A jacket life preserver also came ashore. It is marked "L. G. M. 1887."

The wreckage was first sighted by fishermen yesterday afternoon at a point two miles north of here in view for three miles along the beach. It consists of a quantity of reeling painted white, with blue trimmings; a part of a door containing a lock, painted white outside and brown inside; a door two inches thick and about six feet high and a quantity of three-inch plank with the oakum still hanging to it. The plank is painted reddish brown. A considerable quantity of deck timber and circular work appearing to come from around the masts or smokestack has also come ashore.

The wreckage clearly indicates that the boat from which it came has been lost, but her identity cannot yet be established. There has been no old wreck in many years in this vicinity from which the wreckage could come.

The birth of the daughter of the czar and empress was signified by the firing of an imperial salute from the fortresses at St. Petersburg, and when the news reached the audiences in the theatres the people insisted that the orchestra should play the national anthem several times.

The fact that foreigners citizens are raising children much more rapidly than natives is shown by the distribution of the primary school money. Hunan, with a population of 7,440 less than Michigan county, draws pay for 130 more children of school age. About two-thirds of the adults of Hunan county are foreign-born.—Leslie Republic.

Senator Brien won't have to bring any more money with him when he moves to New York.—New York Recorder.

Mr. Cleveland, in his Thanksgiving proclamation, advises us to thank God for his forbearance. Yes it might have been worse.—St. Louis Republic (Dem.).
