

DIME-NOVEL HEROES.

How Two Eastern Boys Were Cured of Their Wild Fancies.

MART GORDON had a mysterious... A man came into Lou's room...

"What you're talking about is a... 'I'll take you west with me...'

"Well, said I, 'I've got almost seven dollars... 'Well, said he, 'just come down here to the mill to-night with the skirts...'

"I don't think you want to say... 'I'll take you west with me...'

"I told him about the five dollars... 'You mustn't miss this chance...'

"Then he pictured them with Mr. Pickle... 'I don't think we ought to go...'

"The spirits of the chums were dampened... 'I don't think we ought to go...'

"That night's adventure—their terrible narrow escape—made scenes of running away less frequent and fascinating with the boys than before...'

"The temptation to join Mart and leave that hard, frosty work for the romance of the west was too great to be resisted...'

This occurred about two o'clock... 'They were to meet at seven on the corner...'

"Mr. Pickle greeted them cheerfully from the darkness and they entered fearfully...'

"Mr. Pickle called him Cully, Lou noticed, and he asked whether Cully was a scout...'

"He closed the old mill door at that and at first it was hard to discern the objects in the big room...'

"Light took materials will prevail in spring cloth gowns for street wear...'

"The sun, as usual, rose bright and cheerful... 'The sun, as usual, rose bright and cheerful...'

"Yes, but he came not as the weak and humble supplicant for his sorrow-stricken head...'

"The shamrock, Ireland's Emblem... 'The shamrock, Ireland's Emblem...'

"The origin of the Word 'dun' as applied to our well-known system of collocation...'

FASHIONS FOR WOMEN.

Magical Simplicity the keynote of Spring Styles... 'Magical Simplicity the keynote of Spring Styles...'

"The walking costume I have chosen to illustrate here is a Scotch homespun of soft neutral mixture...'

"Light took materials will prevail in spring cloth gowns for street wear...'

"The sun, as usual, rose bright and cheerful... 'The sun, as usual, rose bright and cheerful...'

"Yes, but he came not as the weak and humble supplicant for his sorrow-stricken head...'

"The shamrock, Ireland's Emblem... 'The shamrock, Ireland's Emblem...'

"The origin of the Word 'dun' as applied to our well-known system of collocation...'

"The origin of the Word 'dun' as applied to our well-known system of collocation...'

"The origin of the Word 'dun' as applied to our well-known system of collocation...'

of grapes and the being served... 'of grapes and the being served...'

"The walking costume I have chosen to illustrate here is a Scotch homespun of soft neutral mixture...'

"Light took materials will prevail in spring cloth gowns for street wear...'

"The sun, as usual, rose bright and cheerful... 'The sun, as usual, rose bright and cheerful...'

"Yes, but he came not as the weak and humble supplicant for his sorrow-stricken head...'

"The shamrock, Ireland's Emblem... 'The shamrock, Ireland's Emblem...'

"The origin of the Word 'dun' as applied to our well-known system of collocation...'

"The origin of the Word 'dun' as applied to our well-known system of collocation...'

"The origin of the Word 'dun' as applied to our well-known system of collocation...'

DOMESTIC CONCERNS.

—Scratches on furniture can be rubbed with... 'Scratches on furniture can be rubbed with...'

"The walking costume I have chosen to illustrate here is a Scotch homespun of soft neutral mixture...'

"Light took materials will prevail in spring cloth gowns for street wear...'

"The sun, as usual, rose bright and cheerful... 'The sun, as usual, rose bright and cheerful...'

"Yes, but he came not as the weak and humble supplicant for his sorrow-stricken head...'

"The shamrock, Ireland's Emblem... 'The shamrock, Ireland's Emblem...'

"The origin of the Word 'dun' as applied to our well-known system of collocation...'

"The origin of the Word 'dun' as applied to our well-known system of collocation...'

"The origin of the Word 'dun' as applied to our well-known system of collocation...'

Patent medicines differ—One has reasonableness, another has not... 'Patent medicines differ—One has reasonableness, another has not...'

"The walking costume I have chosen to illustrate here is a Scotch homespun of soft neutral mixture...'

"Light took materials will prevail in spring cloth gowns for street wear...'

"The sun, as usual, rose bright and cheerful... 'The sun, as usual, rose bright and cheerful...'

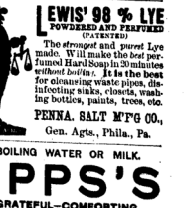

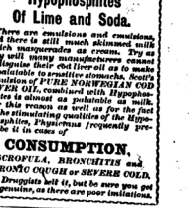

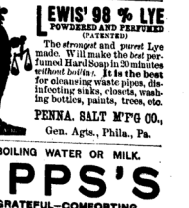

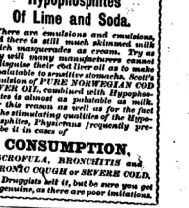

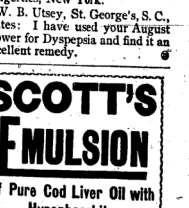

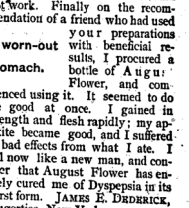

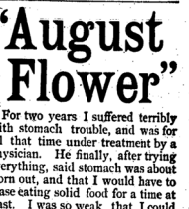

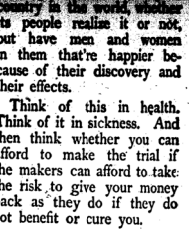

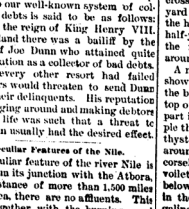

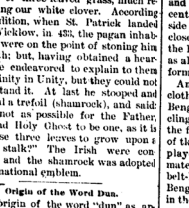

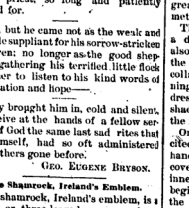

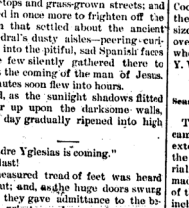

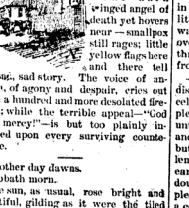

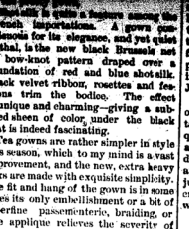

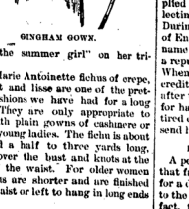

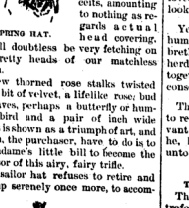

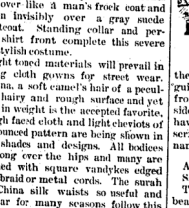

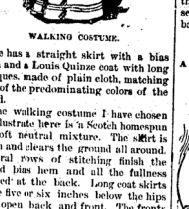

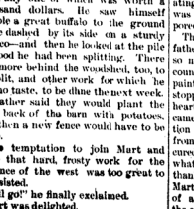

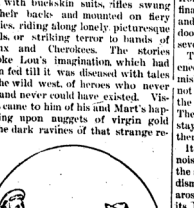

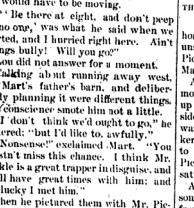

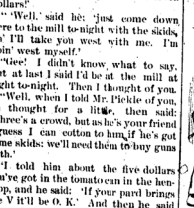

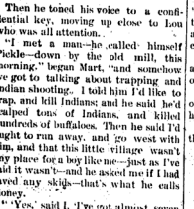

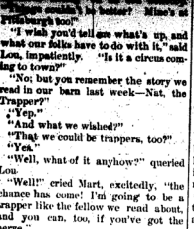

"Yes, but he came not as the weak and humble supplicant for his sorrow-stricken head...'

"The shamrock, Ireland's Emblem... 'The shamrock, Ireland's Emblem...'

"The origin of the Word 'dun' as applied to our well-known system of collocation...'

"The origin of the Word 'dun' as applied to our well-known system of collocation...'

"The origin of the Word 'dun' as applied to our well-known system of collocation...'

THE WRONG CAR.

How a Third Passenger Got Off of a Busy Day.

It was in the busy hours of the evening when the day laborer in a new and up-to-date car was hurrying to his home. The city hall station of the elevated road was crowded with people, general excitement, and some openings of the railing through which passengers enter the car. A train was coming into the station and everybody was preparing himself for a rush to get a seat.

Meanwhile a man of large proportions, a well-dressed, and a well-kept man, stepped onto the platform, he large but broad face gradually turned to a look of intense interest on the shoulder of an elderly gentleman wearing spectacles who sat next to him. This gentleman showed much discomfort as the result of such indecorous proximity, and seemed at a loss what to do. He certainly could not get all the way up town with that booby man using him as a pillow, and he was apparently too timid to make an unceremonious neighbor and request him to place his head in another place.

Men looked at him over their papers and smiled at his position, and the girls giggled continually. He was in despair.

At last the old gentleman's face beamed with a hopeful light. He whispered something in the sleeper's ear, but that gentleman dozed on. Then he talked louder.

"Miser, you're in the wrong car!" Still no effect.

"You're in the wrong car," he cried again, this time loud enough for the whole car to hear.

The sleepy man suddenly opened his eyes and glared in astonishment at the old man with the spectacles.

"What's that you say?"

"I said you were in the wrong car," "Holy smoke," cried the big man, "let me out! Stop the train!"

The kind old gentleman took him by the arm and led him safely out just as the bell rang for the train to start, and as the train began slowly to move the old gentleman cried out:

"You made a mistake; you want to take the sleeper. This isn't the sleeper."

He returned to his seat with a smile. "That's an old dodge," said he, "but somebody or other it always works."

He rested himself comfortably in his seat and read his paper in contentment until he reached his destination, and for all I know the booby man may still be looking for the sleeper.—N. Y. Herald.

CHIEF TWO STRIKE.

How the Old Indian Said Come By His Queer Name.

The early arrivals, though, all but Two Strike, the little old chief, who is third in rank of the Sioux nation, have now adopted the garb of civilization for the most part. They cling to their moccasins, though, and several of them refused to put their feet into shoes. Two Strike's only concession to civilized notions of dress is to wear a pair of black trousers. Wrapped in a gay blanket, his long, shiny hair hanging in two plaits down the two sides of his shirtless, yellowed face, he sits down beside the big stove in the parlor of the boarding-house on Third street and devotes his attention to keeping warm.

The origin of Two Strike's name is interesting. The facetious suggestion that it comes from the national game of baseball is, of course, erroneous. The application is as prosaic as an Indian could bear, from an Indian point of view. For an Indian to kill an enemy is commonplace. But an especially brave Indian will, after he has killed his enemy, dismount from his pony and strike his dead enemy's body with his own hand or a bow, as if to say: "If you were alive I could kill you again." This hastily, meaningless, is often given at a great risk, as the dead Indian's friends always try to kill the particular enemy that killed him. The second strike is often given at greater risk than the first, and an Indian is always very proud of having given it.

The Sioux language has its numerals, one, two, three, but nothing corresponding to our first, second, third, etc., so what should be second strike in the Indian tongue, becomes "Two Strike," the old warrior's name. He is famous for the number of times he has given the "two strike."—Washington Post.

The Same Thing in the End.

A philosophical individual once refused point blank to lend fifty pounds to a business friend.

"Well, I did not expect that of you," said the would-be borrower, rising and preparing to leave indignantly. "I will never forgive you for this refusal."

"Of course you won't, my dear fellow," replied the philosopher, with the utmost calmness; "but if I'd lent you the fifty pounds you wouldn't have paid me, and so we should have quarreled about that, so it's well to get the row over at once. Good morning."—Chicago News.

Humorous Prose.

A gentleman touring through England stayed all night at a prim old lady's cottage, the village inn being full. He was very tired and took pains to impress the fact upon his hostess, with instructions that one must enter his room to wake him at a particular hour in the morning. On waking a few days later than the time appointed he found that the old lady, with a commendable regard for propriety, had slipped under his door a piece of paper on which was written:

"Mr. I is half-asleep severe!"—Youth's Companion.

POVERTY OF TALK.

The Art of Conversation Is Dying of Its Own Death.

It has been a habit of a century since to have men talk. The breakfast table became a place for a general conversation, and the dinner table a place for a more extended one. Men used to talk to each other, to learn to talk, and the art of conversation is scarcely known among us now.

We are too hurried, of course, and in our offices to indulge in conversation with the same ease and freedom as the old gentleman's face beamed with a hopeful light. He whispered something in the sleeper's ear, but that gentleman dozed on. Then he talked louder.

the old gentleman's face beamed with a hopeful light. He whispered something in the sleeper's ear, but that gentleman dozed on. Then he talked louder.

the old gentleman's face beamed with a hopeful light. He whispered something in the sleeper's ear, but that gentleman dozed on. Then he talked louder.

the old gentleman's face beamed with a hopeful light. He whispered something in the sleeper's ear, but that gentleman dozed on. Then he talked louder.

the old gentleman's face beamed with a hopeful light. He whispered something in the sleeper's ear, but that gentleman dozed on. Then he talked louder.

the old gentleman's face beamed with a hopeful light. He whispered something in the sleeper's ear, but that gentleman dozed on. Then he talked louder.

the old gentleman's face beamed with a hopeful light. He whispered something in the sleeper's ear, but that gentleman dozed on. Then he talked louder.

the old gentleman's face beamed with a hopeful light. He whispered something in the sleeper's ear, but that gentleman dozed on. Then he talked louder.

the old gentleman's face beamed with a hopeful light. He whispered something in the sleeper's ear, but that gentleman dozed on. Then he talked louder.

the old gentleman's face beamed with a hopeful light. He whispered something in the sleeper's ear, but that gentleman dozed on. Then he talked louder.

the old gentleman's face beamed with a hopeful light. He whispered something in the sleeper's ear, but that gentleman dozed on. Then he talked louder.

the old gentleman's face beamed with a hopeful light. He whispered something in the sleeper's ear, but that gentleman dozed on. Then he talked louder.

the old gentleman's face beamed with a hopeful light. He whispered something in the sleeper's ear, but that gentleman dozed on. Then he talked louder.

the old gentleman's face beamed with a hopeful light. He whispered something in the sleeper's ear, but that gentleman dozed on. Then he talked louder.

IN THE ELECTRICAL WORLD.

The Greenwich (Eng.) authorities have found that the exact point of longitude is that of the Royal Observatory, Canada, is about three-fourths of a second.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

The electrician has been known for years to be a valuable man. He is now becoming a more valuable man, and he is now becoming a more valuable man.

ST. JOHN'S

Advertisement for St. John's, likely a medicinal product or a brand name.

From Father to Son.

Scrofula is a blood poison which descends from parent to child.

Tutt's Liver Pills

Advertisement for Tutt's Liver Pills, a medicinal product.

W. L. DOUGLAS'S $3 SHOE

Advertisement for W. L. Douglas's $3 shoe, a well-known brand.

C. M. HENDERSON & CO.'S

Advertisement for C. M. Henderson & Co.'s shoes, featuring a $3 fine calf shoe.

Housekeeper

Advertisement for a household product, possibly a cleaning agent.

SAPOLIO

Advertisement for Sapolio soap, a solid cake of scouring soap.

J. I. CASE THRESHING MACHINE CO.

Advertisement for J. I. Case Threshing Machine Co., featuring iron sides agitators.

VASELINE

Advertisement for Vaseline Vaseline for One Dollar, a versatile product.

PISO'S CURE

Advertisement for PISO'S CURE For Constipation, a medicinal product.

The Soap that Cleans

Advertisement for a soap product, emphasizing its cleaning power.

W. L. DOUGLAS'S $3 SHOE

Another advertisement for W. L. Douglas's $3 shoe.

W. L. DOUGLAS'S $3 SHOE

Another advertisement for W. L. Douglas's $3 shoe.

W. L. DOUGLAS'S $3 SHOE

Another advertisement for W. L. Douglas's $3 shoe.

W. BAKER & CO.'S Breakfast Cocoa

Advertisement for W. Baker & Co.'s Breakfast Cocoa, a breakfast food product.

JONES BINGHAMTON

Advertisement for Jones Binghamton, likely a clothing store or brand.

JONES BINGHAMTON

Advertisement for Jones Binghamton, likely a clothing store or brand.

The Shakers

Advertisement for The Shakers, a product used to cure constipation.

PATENTS-PENSIONS-CLAIMS.

Advertisement for patent and pension services.

DO YOU WANT TO MAKE MONEY?

Advertisement for a money-making opportunity or investment.

The Star

ED. JONES, PUBLISHER.
 SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
 Six Months ..... $1.00
 One Year ..... $1.75
 Single Copies ..... 5c
 Invariably in Advance.

SAMUEL GOMPERS, the figure head of the Federation of Labor, has been up in Deloit to try a soothing hand upon the "wonder brow of one of the oldest labor disturbances this country has ever had." All the portways of Deloit belong to the sales, and two of the local newspapers which are "wags" in union parlance, have had to import a lot of copy from Chicago in order to get a "stitch" in it. It doesn't take a strong imagination to picture what has been going on between the two sets of members, and Mr. Gompers never had a color and more sympathetic audience in his life than when he made his speech.

What a World It Is, Anyway!
 A writer in "The World" calls attention to the fact that most only words with infinite pains from nature the things that he sees, while himself and family plants and animals however many fold with the effort to understand these. The school and even which with toll and dusty man rules for his head and sturdy man rules in half an hour the school may manifest in his own house the school may manifest in his own house. "What a world it is, anyway!"

Lost in the Woods.
 Patrick O'Donnell, who had worked at Rapid River and in the woods in that vicinity, was lost in the woods from Sunday, March 23 until the night of the Tuesday following, and had only been after he was found. He had been writing extensively and his bewilderment was probably the result of his condition. A man should have a party chief head to be able to find his way. A dispatch from Rapid River gives the man's name as Patrick O'Donnell and says that he belonged to the woods near Rapid River, Minn.

Factor really needs in his business.
 The New York Tribune says: "On the tariff question, as a distinct issue, the Democrats have never been able to carry any northern state, unless it be New Jersey." This was precisely the issue on which the Democrats carried Massachusetts last November, and Connecticut both in 1888 and 1900.—Buffalo Courier.

The Protection organs are pining the McKinley Bill for wiping out the tariff on sugar and saving the consumers of the country $50,000,000 a year. If free sugar is a good thing, what's the matter with free blankets, free carpets, free gloves, free cloaks, &c.? Every word of commendation which the high-tariff papers bestow upon free sugar is a slap at Protection.—Kansas City Star.

CANADA'S attempt to induce settlers to emigrate from the states of North and South Dakota to the Canadian northwest has turned out a grand fizzle. The agents who were sent to these states to further the plan have reported to Ottawa that the scheme will have to be abandoned. From latest accounts the exodus is the other way, the Canadians going into the Dakotas.

Nothing true has been said of the next Presidential election than this remark of Senator Dailed, of Virginia: "In my opinion the question of Democratic success in 1902 is a question of Democratic conduct between now and that time." This observation is commended to the careful consideration of the majority in the assembly and minority in the Senate at Albany—New York World.

MR. CAREY, ex-representative from Monts. and ex-secretary of the Republican Congressional Committee, was booming Thomas B. Reed for the Presidency last year. A week or two ago he was in New York and told a reporter he now believed that whatever had been done to boom Reed for the Presidency was wasted energy. He thought Harrison would be nominated by acclamation. A few days thereafter the President appointed Mr. Carey Commissioner of the General Land Office.

The immigrant inspector of Newport, Vt., has reported to the Treasury Department that the present superficial inspection of immigrants from Canada does not prevent the admission of large numbers of neutrals from European countries, who, in his opinion are either under contract to labor in some of the interior states or who are to become charges on the public. He says that he expects 8,000 of this class of immigrants to enter his district alone during the next four months, and that an equal or larger number will enter through the district of St. Albans, Island Pond and Beecher Falls, Vt.

The Washington Post says editorially that "America for Americans" will probably be one of the rallying cries of the next campaign and that the national platform next year will favor restrictive immigration laws. But for the aggressiveness of Italy, the Post says, the issue would not have been so well defined. As it is, the possibility of war has quickened the public pulse and the enormous influx of foreigners, aggregating a million a year, has caused considerable discussion. The Post concludes by saying that it is the almost universal belief that the next congress will undertake to make some radical changes in the immigration laws.

There people have to pay the penalty for not buying what Mr. McKinley's they ought to buy. The manufacturer, as a compensation for the 11 cents a pound he pays on clothing wool imported, gets a specific duty of from 33 to 44 cents a pound on cloth, besides an ad valorem duty of 40 to 50 per cent. The specific duty is known as a "compensatory duty," because it is intended to offset the duty on the raw material in point of fact is more than offset it. The net effect of Mr. McKinley's ad valorem on the Ohio wool-grower is that the latter pays more for his woolen goods and gets less for his wool. This is the way Major McKinley is helping the farmers of his own state.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

THE SUGAR BEAR.
 The Administration organ of this city, referring to the sugar clause of the McKinley Act, which takes effect to-day, says:
 "To remove the heaviest burden the American people have been bearing for many years past will be voted off by the much-maligned McKinley Bill. A duty averaging two cents a pound will take from sugar."
 The tariff duty is "a burden," is it? And it is not the foreigner but the American consumer who pays it? This is a "Free-Trade heresy" which sounds strange from Protectionist lips.
 But it is not true that the burden "will be rolled off" so far as the people are concerned. The reduction of sugar duties was not intended to benefit the American people, but to enrich the Sugar Trust and to win votes from the growers of beet and maple sugar.

Under the old law the Trust had to pay two cents a pound for the raw material and was protected by a duty of one and-half cents a pound on its refined product. The McKinley Bill gives the Trust its raw material free and protects its product by a duty of half a cent. Under this arrangement the Trust is enormously benefited, and it will double less give the people some fraction of its gain in the form of slightly reduced prices on refined sugar. But the people must pay for this. The McKinley Bill lets them to say a bounty of two cents a pound on the sugar raised in this country, including sorghum, beet sugar and maple sugar. This will, before long, just about offset the consumers' share in the reduction in price of refined sugar. But the bill also adds greatly to the tax on other necessities of life, and so makes the consumer in the end pay very heavily indeed for the slight cheapening of his sugar, taking from him many times more in the increased cost of clothing, blankets, products of iron and the like than it gives him on his sugar. The trick is expected to serve its vote-catching purpose by making a display of the reduction and carefully concealing the more than compensating taxes.

But if a good thing to strike off the duties on necessities of life why did not the McKinley Bill do something of the kind for wool and iron, the raw materials of most of the necessities of life than any other articles in the whole category? No, the McKinley tariff does not cheapen living, but renders it more costly. It was not framed to benefit the people but to enrich favored classes at the expense of the people. It does not "lessen taxation" but increases it enormously. It does not stimulate industry but paralyzes it. It does not raise wages but gives occasion for their reduction. It is the law of the monopolist. It is altogether a curse, to be rid of as soon as may be and the people gave that as their emphatic opinion at the polls last November.—N. Y. World.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS.
 Italy must behave herself or we will quit buying peanuts of the man on the corner.—Grand Rapids Leader.

In every state in the union where an Australian ballot bill is pending before the Legislature, the Republican party is arrayed against it.—Saginawian.

If taking the duty off sugar makes it cheaper, why wouldn't the same effect follow the removal of the tariff on a thousand and one other things?—Port Huron Herald.

The more people become informed of the nature and purpose of protection the more determined will be agitation for the overthrow of the whole system. Hattie Creek Moon.

When Republican aspirants can afford to pay $50,000 to defeat the will of the people, it is no wonder that Republican schemers try to buy Senators out of their seats.—Potosky Democrat.

Senator Wilson seems to be enraged because the Senate proposes to investigate the bribery story in earnest. Why didn't he tell it if he thought there was nothing in it? Men who do not follow legislators around with offers of $10,000 unless they mean business. If he didn't take any money the investigation won't hurt him.—Bay City Times.

The gentle quail, which furnishes food for man, starves when the snow is on the ground; but the field mouse, that plays havoc with the grain, lives royally under the snow. The same mouse imprisons the deer, apparently just to let his enemy, the wolf, get a better whack at him. So it is throughout—the things that we want are good for us we must work our heads off to secure and then we don't always get them. The things that we don't want and are a nuisance and a pest to us we can't get rid of, though we fight them all the time. On the whole, what a world it is anyway!

George W. Childs' Ident. Somebody calls George W. Childs the "kindest spirit in doing courtesies" that this modern generation has produced. In his "Relections" recently published is mentioned the Childs idea of success in business. The millionaire newspaper editor and publisher is not a bit of opinion, according to his state ments here given, that it is necessary; for a newspaper to pander to a low class in order to be successful. How magnificently he himself has succeeded all the world knows, and the stranger's oft is that the more money Mr. Childs gives away the richer he himself seems to become. He has indeed gained "success in an hour."

Of his idea of what a newspaper ought to be, and what he strove to make of his paper at the start of his journalistic career, Mr. Childs says:
 I worked hard to make the paper a success for several years. I seldom left the editorial room before midnight, averaging from twelve to thirteen hours a day. I tried to do it to elevate the tone, and I think I succeeded. If asked what I learned by this, perhaps I had better quote the friendly words of the late Dr. Prime: "Mr. Childs exhaled from the paper all details of disreputable reports of such low class as may not be with propriety read aloud in the family; that plenty and correct news, infuses the positive and that whole class of news which constitutes the staple of many daily papers. The same rule was applied to the advertising columns, and from them was excluded all that, in any shape or form, might be offensive to good morals."

Civilized women with grievances ought to take pattern after the negro ladies of a wild tribe in western Africa. They felt the stirring of the modern spirit in them, and demanded of the masculine portion of the tribe redress for certain grievances under which they felt themselves to be suffering. The men refused with scorn. The women said to no. But one morning the dusky gentlemen awoke from their slumber to find every woman in the Akona tribe gone. The ladies had left their husbands and made relatives and taken refuge with a neighboring tribe, which received them with open arms. This tribe had not been on good terms with the Akona, and glad, therefore, to serve them an ill trick. The offending men of the Akona tribe were brought to terms more speedily than husbands ever were before. In a little while a delegation of Akona braves, representing all the Akona men, waited on the other tribe with instructions to assure the aboriginal women that if they would return all their demands should be granted. On these conditions the wives went back to the thoroughly subdued men. This is the only instance on record of the strike of a sex.

The British army is 4,500 short, and recruits cannot be got to fill the depleted ranks. An impression has got abroad that "Tommy Atkins" is badly treated, and even the flag who sang about Briton's men and money will not volunteer. If that war breaks out on account of Canada, or between England and Germany on the one side and France on the other because of the snub to Emperor Frederick, Britannia will be in a bad way.

The day on which President Harrison signed the bill giving to Philadelphia a new mint building was exactly the hundredth anniversary of the day on which President Washington signed the act for the erection of the original mint building in that city. This was considered a good omen.

Canadian exports, in spite of the McKinley bill, amounted to over a million dollars more in January, 1891, than they did in January, 1890. Our little neighbor to the north has found a market somewhere, if this report is to be believed on.

FOR FINE CLOTHING
 For Protection and LOW PRICES
 For Unprecedented example.

OUR Flag Still Waves

And will continue to flutter until every citizen of Manistique comes under its protection and buys his clothing of us. We have the finest line of goods ever exhibited in the city, and you will miss the best bargain you ever saw if you don't leave your order for a few days at our store.

Reinwand & Company.
 They are located in the Bowen & McKinley Block.

MATT SCHNEIDER,
 Agent and Dealer in
P. SCHOENHOFEN BREVETING CO'S.

Select Beer.
 OF CHICAGO.

This Beer is the finest on the market today. For domestic use there is none better. Once used you will have no other in your house.
 Give it a Trial. You will be pleased.

The Board of Trade SALOON.
 SENEY AVENUE, SENEY, - MICH.
 HUGH LOGAN, PROP.

Wines and Liquors.
 TO BE FOUND IN THE LAND.
 They also keep the best and choicest brands of FINE CIGARS
 That can be found.
 When in town and in want of a Glass of Fresh Beer which is constantly on tap, call at the Board of Trade Saloon.

SEE GOODS AND CLOTHING.
Grand Spring Opening

Blumrosen Brothers.
 HARDWARE.
N. H. GARNER,
 DEALER IN
G L - H E
 STOVES, CUTLERY, PIANOS, ORGANS AND SEWING MACHINES.
 This is one of the most complete Hardware Stores on the Peninsula, every article in stock is the best material and sold at rock bottom prices. When in need of anything in this line you cannot do better than dealing with Mr. G. as he will save you many a hard-earned dollar.
 N. H. GARNER, West Side.

W.S. Gilbert
 CANDIES!
 If you want fine delicious Candies such as Choclat, Cream, Imported German Bon Bons and fine Imperial Mixed, call at the Postoffice News Stand.
 ALL KINDS OF CANDIES.
 WAHON WORKS.

The Hanson Wagon Works,
 MANITOWOC, WIS. HAS JUST PLACED AN AGENCY WITH
C. M. Ruggles, of Manistique.

The goods of this firm are thoroughly warranted in every shape, having been tried for over 20 years in this and other Northern Counties of the North West. The firm makes a specialty of supplying their customers with just what is wanted and refer the public to their former customers as their goods recommend themselves. Goods sold on time with good security.
 A SPLENDID CHANCE FOR THE FARMER.

THE AMERICAN HOUSE,
 Manistique, Mich.

According to the rates the best House in Northern Michigan. Excellent Table, Splendid Accommodations,
SUS TO AND FROM ALL TRAINS!

Best Line of Liquors and Cigars in the market. Cased and Bottled Goods always in stock.
TERMS, $1.00 PER DAY.
 Patrick McNamara, Proprietor.

The Fred Miller Brewing Co.,
 MILWAUKEE BEER.
 MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN.
 MANUFACTURERS OF
THE CELEBRATED MILWAUKEE BEER
 We have perfected arrangements for a regular and constant supply of Keg and Bottled Beer for our customers in this vicinity. Orders promptly attended to.
 Fred Smith, Local Agent, Manistique, Mich.

LACK OF NERVE.

Reason Why Criminals Do Not Succeed.

THEIR DARING ONLY SPANIONIC.

Under certain conditions they lose all that they have gained by previous

In Finland had the courage to go to bed after setting in his room. Twenty-sixth street in New York city, would not be in a hurry to get up in the morning. He was not a big man. But it seemed that when he came young Joseph Perrier, who had been in the city for some time, and ready for the emergency. He had no money, but he had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket.

Joseph Perrier, who had been in the city for some time, and ready for the emergency. He had no money, but he had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket.

Joseph Perrier, who had been in the city for some time, and ready for the emergency. He had no money, but he had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket.

Joseph Perrier, who had been in the city for some time, and ready for the emergency. He had no money, but he had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket.

Joseph Perrier, who had been in the city for some time, and ready for the emergency. He had no money, but he had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket.

Joseph Perrier, who had been in the city for some time, and ready for the emergency. He had no money, but he had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket.

THEY ARE THIEVES AND MURDERERS

A Swedish male of Bangor, Me., and his wife, who had been in the city for some time, and ready for the emergency. He had no money, but he had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket.

A Swedish male of Bangor, Me., and his wife, who had been in the city for some time, and ready for the emergency. He had no money, but he had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket.

A Swedish male of Bangor, Me., and his wife, who had been in the city for some time, and ready for the emergency. He had no money, but he had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket.

A Swedish male of Bangor, Me., and his wife, who had been in the city for some time, and ready for the emergency. He had no money, but he had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket.

A Swedish male of Bangor, Me., and his wife, who had been in the city for some time, and ready for the emergency. He had no money, but he had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket.

A Swedish male of Bangor, Me., and his wife, who had been in the city for some time, and ready for the emergency. He had no money, but he had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket.

A Swedish male of Bangor, Me., and his wife, who had been in the city for some time, and ready for the emergency. He had no money, but he had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket. He had a few dollars in his pocket.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

D. O. C. BOWEN, Physician and Surgeon. Residence on Oak St. Office in McKim-Bicknell block, Manhattan.

D. R. G. HAYFORD, Physician and Surgeon, graduate of Michigan University. Office over Postoffice. Office hours from 11 to 4 p. m.

D. P. BAIRD, Physician and Surgeon, graduate of Michigan University. Office over Chamber's drug store. Office hours from 11 to 4 p. m.

THE SUGAR LOAF
Manhattan, N. York and West 4th St.
RAILWAY.

Service Unrivaled in all Respects.

The only place in N. York where you can get the best of both worlds.

Gen. Office, Guaranty Building, Minneapolis.

W. S. THORN, Acting Gen. Post Agent, ST. PAUL, MINN.

H. H. CARRY, Local Agent, Manistique, Mich.

W. M. CARPENTER, proprietor of the Central-Tomborial Parlor, Shaving and Hair Cutting A No. 1.

A. A. HOUSE, Ornamental House and Sign Painter. Shop at residence, 117 West Street, Manistique.

W. E. RIGGS, Attorney at Law, 117 West Street, Manistique.

W. W. WALKER, M. D., SURGEON, MANISTIQUE, MICH.

CARPENTER AND BUILDING.

JOHN LARSEN, Carpenter and Builder

GROCERIES.

NORMAN McDONALD, DEALER IN General Merchandise.

FLOUR AND FEED.

COOKS - MICH.

BLACKSMITH SHOP.

J. C. MESSENGER, PROPRIETOR OF Cook's Blacksmith Shop

THE SUNDAY STAR

Artistic Job Printing.

WINE AND LIQUORS.

AGLE - HOUSE - SALOON.

PAUL HUSCHER, Prop.

Dealer in Fine Wines and Liquors and Cigars.

THE ARCADE - SALOON.

BLACK BROS., PROPRIETORS.

FRESH WINE LIQUORS AND CIGARS.

INWOOD HOUSE.

MAURICE ORRICK, Proprietor.

FRESH WINE LIQUORS AND CIGARS.

D. O. KINGHAM

THE CHOICEST BRANDS OF CIGARS!

The Famous Schönböck Beer always on Tap. When in need of a good glass of Beer give the Shamrock a call.

THE PALACE - SALOON.

This Resort is elegantly fitted out and some of the finest saloons on the peninsula, and keeps the finest stock of pure

WINE AND LIQUORS.

ARCADIA - SALOON.

M. HEFFRON, Prop.

WINE AND LIQUORS.

IN THE LAND.

We also keep in stock the finest and best brands of

CIGARS!

THE CHOICEST LINE OF CIGARS.

Fresh Beer Always on Tap. Both Drinks of all Kinds.

WINE AND LIQUORS.

THE UNION.

GEO. K. MOODY, Prop.

PURE WINES.

LIQUORS AND FINE CIGARS.

Also Fresh Beer always on tap, when in need of something refreshing go into the Union. We are also

AGENT FOR THE HAGENMEISTER'S CELEBRATED BEER.

BILLIARD PARLOR CONNECTED.

THE SCHLITZ BEER.

Board of Trade Saloon.

ANTOINETTE VABAU, Prop.

Schlitz Beer!

Fine Wines and Liquors.

And the Finest Brands of Cigars always in Stock.

LIVERY.

ARCADIA LIVERY STABLE.

JOHN LOOSE, Proprietor.

This Stable is stocked with the very best and stylish rigs. Scouring or harnessing parties find the best accommodation at this livery. We have the

The Sunday Morning Star.

MANHATTAN. MON.

MY OTHER CLOES.

I like my other cloes better. I like my other cloes better.

That man, I like them other cloes. I like them other cloes.

Today I will do my best. I will do my best.

O course, my old cloes are best. O course, my old cloes are best.

RUTH KYLER.

A Story Showing That "Truth Is Stranger Than Fiction."

Whoever hath any thing fixed in his person that doth induce contempt...

As we are to be five judges, and one week from this time finds her picture on its way to its destination.

There are to be five judges, and one week from this time finds her picture on its way to its destination.

With your permission we will now enter another room—a room many miles from the art and science of the judge.

All efforts to interest her were unavailing until at last her brother...

Looking at them as moments as though they were old friends from a dead past...

CHAPTER II. "MAX'S EXTREMITY IS GOD'S OPPORTUNITY."

CHAPTER III. "THE ASSOCIATION OF CERTAIN ARTS WITH THE DIFFERENT NATIONALITIES."

CHAPTER IV. "THE ASSOCIATION OF CERTAIN ARTS WITH THE DIFFERENT NATIONALITIES."

CHAPTER V. "THE ASSOCIATION OF CERTAIN ARTS WITH THE DIFFERENT NATIONALITIES."

CHAPTER VI. "THE ASSOCIATION OF CERTAIN ARTS WITH THE DIFFERENT NATIONALITIES."

CHAPTER VII. "THE ASSOCIATION OF CERTAIN ARTS WITH THE DIFFERENT NATIONALITIES."

CHAPTER VIII. "THE ASSOCIATION OF CERTAIN ARTS WITH THE DIFFERENT NATIONALITIES."

A MAN WITH AN IDEA.

How a Bright Young Fellow from Iowa Made a Fortune.

It is not that this young man is a genius...

It is not that this young man is a genius...

It is not that this young man is a genius...

It is not that this young man is a genius...

It is not that this young man is a genius...

It is not that this young man is a genius...

It is not that this young man is a genius...

It is not that this young man is a genius...

It is not that this young man is a genius...

It is not that this young man is a genius...

WTY AND POINT.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

COUPLE NO. 2 SWALLOWS THE BAIT.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

Full-blown the curvilinear-colored nose - Washington Post.

SOB SHOWING HIS PURCHASES TO CUD.

grocery clerk acquaintance has conducted one or two sales of furniture...

grocery clerk acquaintance has conducted one or two sales of furniture...

NEW LINCOLN ANECDOTE.

Abraham Lincoln was perhaps the best man in the county in his day...

Abraham Lincoln was perhaps the best man in the county in his day...

Abraham Lincoln was perhaps the best man in the county in his day...

Abraham Lincoln was perhaps the best man in the county in his day...

Abraham Lincoln was perhaps the best man in the county in his day...

TO BE MAGNIFICENT.

The Splendid Buildings of the World's Fair.

At the Columbian Exposition the best Grounds and Great Impetus of the World's Fair.

Many thousands, no doubt, have been to see the fair...

perhaps forty or fifty of them, consisting a veritable village of palaces...

After passing this immense structure, which will be three times as long as the largest building of the Paris exposition...

South side of the grand avenue, is a vast open space which will be devoted to the five-storied exhibit.

UNCLE SAM'S STRECHER.

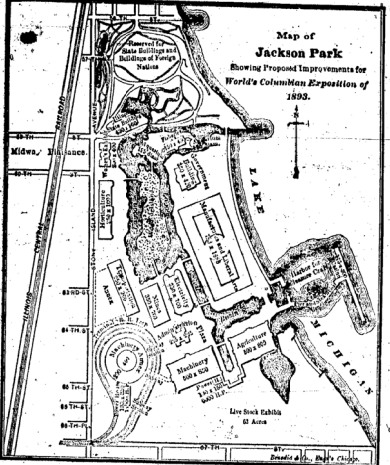

Washingtonians Claim That They Are Not Treated Justly.

Why is it so very hard to take a Bill for the Treasury...

Other Statistics. [Special Washington Correspondent.]

and passed and crowded in every corner and every...

to see the great, towering commercial heart of America...

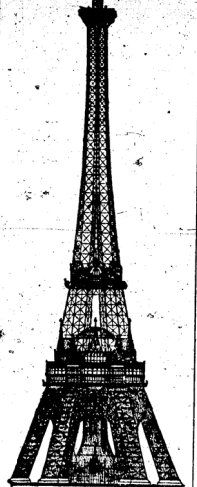

largest one will stand the United States Fisheries Building...

A VISTA OF SPLENDOR.

From the pier, extending westward across the park...

Joseph Park resembles a right-angled triangle in shape...

THE PROSPECT TOWER.

each end and a larger one at the center...

his first glimpse of Jackson and Washington parks...

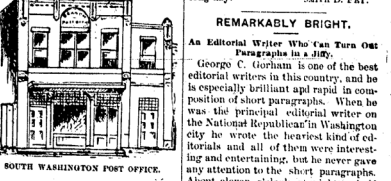

spicious because of a liberal use of color.

THE ADMINISTRATION BUILDING. Opposite machinery hall...

PHIDE OF THE LADIES. Still farther north and directly opposite the park entrance...

The people of South Washington have been treated with the poorest mail service in this country...

REMARKABLY BRIGHT. An Editorial Writer Who Can Turn Out Paragraphs in a Jiffy.

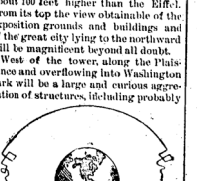

SOUTH WASHINGTON POST OFFICE.

ety proper, the citizens' committee of South Washington persistently place their wants and grievances before the duly constituted authorities...

More than $4,000,000, exclusive of the cost of the land...

THE ILLINOIS BUILDING. An excellent view of the shore portion of the government exhibit...

A TOUCH OF NATURE. North of these buildings in the main lagoon will be an island of twenty or thirty acres in area...

"LIBERTY BELL" BY THE WORLD.

Some of the foreign and state buildings, and many of semi-private construction, are of nature which cannot yet be described.

obtain an excellent view of the shore portion of the government exhibit...

THE GREATEST OF ALL. Steaming by the government exhibit the visitor will come abreast of the largest building of the exposition...

Proceeding from the administration building still farther eastward...

Just as good. Maud-Hua Clara really traveled so extensively. Rabel-No, but she has read the guide books carefully...

the most delightful, probably, though not the speediest means by which the visitor may reach the exposition grounds...

Within this loop made by the railway tracks will be the machinery annex—a huge building covering several acres...

To the southward of the line of buildings which are ranged along the south side of the grand avenue...

GROCERIES

The Star
 SUNDAY, APRIL 12, 1903.
 LOCAL REVIEWS
 Crazy Lot Company, Thursday evening.
 David Bourcier and Geo. Williams were up from Thompson yesterday.
 Red Lyman was in town circulating among his many friends Monday.

GRAND SPRING OPENING.
GRAND MILLINERY OPENING!
 Spring and Summer Styles.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS
The Place to Trade.
 "Where are you going my pretty maid?"
 "I'm going to Winkelman's to trade."
 "Why do you go there, my pretty maid?"
 "The stock is very large, sir," she said.
 "But how are his prices, my pretty maid?"
 "They're lower than any one else has made."
 "Can I see with you, my pretty maid?"

Just Received
 A CHOICE LINE OF
Staple and Fancy
GROCERIES
 We also have a fresh line Butter, Cheese and Eggs. We are headquarters for Canned Fruits of all kinds. A fine line of Teas, Coffee and Spices.
WE MAKE A SPECIALTY OF
Flour and Feed.
 Don't Forget the place.
Frank Clark & Co.
 DRY GOODS AND CLOTHING.

Abie Hughes and Cal Blush were down from their homesteads on the Indian Tuesday.
 Little E. F. and Michigan Mining School—two good brands of cigars can be found at G. W. Ellison's.
 Jamie Wilson, 545—opposition is the life of trade and is now dealing out broiled steak to his customers.
 Jerry Delaney, who has been confined to the house since he "crane down" from the woods is slowly mending.
 E. B. Wheeler, who officiated as scaler at camp 33 the past winter, is in town, having come down Tuesday.
 Patrick Quinn, the new proprietor of the McIntyre House, is fast "catching on," and every thing moves on smoothly.
 Wm. McKelvey, who has charge of the C. L. Co's farm on Driggs Creek, was down this week visiting his many friends.
 Read over the advertisement of Howard, the photographer and see what a grand offer he is making to his customers.
 Hartwell Pinner, foreman at camp 23, arrived down from the Driggs Tuesday looking as hale and hearty as of yore.
 Last week there were planted 20,000 brook trout in the streams of the upper peninsula from the state fish hatchery at Paris.
 The ball given by Huse Co. No. 1 Monday night, was well attended and an enjoyable evening spent by the participants.
 We understand that our popular draught E. N. Orr will occupy the one half of the new block now being erected next to the postoffice.
 Chas. Hooper has been laid up a few days this week with the grip. Joe Alexander in the meantime has attended to business at the Palace.
 The first show of the season promises to be a good one—the Crazy Lot Company—which appear before the public here next Thursday evening.
 John J. Rigney, travelling salesman for Frank Ma'Veigh's, grocery house, of Chicago was in the city Thursday looking after his customer's wants.
 Complaints are heard about so many men and boys standing on the corner of Cedar and Walnut streets. It is very annoying to the ladies that have to pass by there.
 Hans Juhl expects to get the first number of his new Scandinavian paper before the public next week. It is to be called "The Star" and will be printed at the Star office.
 Alger County Deputies, Weight & Crowe, publishers, at Muskegon, left before us and the general public for the first time. We wish them better success than the field would indicate.
 It you want to see the grandest display of Millinery ever exhibited in the city you should not fail to attend the grand spring opening at Lewis & Mills on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.
 Frank Clark, Marquette's popular grocer, leaves today for Chicago, where he intends purchasing a large stock of groceries for his new store which is now being erected. He expects to open out in his new quarters about May 10th.
 Alex Richards, returned Monday from his visit to Montreal where he has just finished the winter. Mr. R. reports as feeling much better in health, and judging by his looks we should judge that he has had good care during his absence.
 The newspaper scrapping match between those sharp-tongued Republicans ex-Senator Legals and Murat Halstead, is growing interesting. They can say nothing about each other so bad that the people of the country will not endorse it.—Ludington Democrat.
 The figures are at last made up. The fifty-first Congress cost the people of the country just $2,000,000 a day, and during its two years of existence it managed to spend about $16 for each man, woman and child in the United States.—Traverse Bay Eagle.
 Our reporter was informed that an "Old Hag" that resides on Lakoski was heard to say that no christian person would read the Star. Well, we are pleased to say that the would-be big boys is not on our subscription list, therefore we are not so afraid as they never was known to pay a debt that was contracted by them.

MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY,
 APRIL 13th, 14th and 15th.
LOWIS & MILLS.
 Button's Old Stand on Cedar Street.
 A SPLENDID OFFER.
Best Offer Ever Made.
 A large crayon worth double the amount of the price asked for the pictures given away with each dozen of photographs. This is no cheap work, but a genuine Crayon. Call and see samples at HOWARD'S.
 All Negatives Preserved. Duplicates furnished at reasonable rates.
 FINE HAVANA CIGARS.
PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY BY BUYING YOUR FINE HAVANA CIGARS FROM PETER ZIMMERMANN, MANUFACTURER OF THE FINEST BRANDS ON THE MARKET AND ARE AS CHEAP AS THE CHEAPEST. GIVE ME A TRIAL ORDER, THEY ARE SURE TO GIVE YOU GOOD SATISFACTION.
PETER ZIMMERMANN.
 Subscribe for THE STAR
 M. L. Caspar come over from Garden Thursday.
 Harry Tucker, proprietor at the Eagle livery stable, is sick with the measles.
 Jas. Stewart and crew started Friday for the West Branch to bring down the logs.
 Broiled beef steak in the best style and done to a turn at the Red Front Restaurant.
 We understand that J. W. Gillingham will sail on one of the Hart Line boats this summer.
 Musical goods at all kinds and a full line of sheet music at G. W. Ellison's City Music Store.
 Married by Jerome Bowen, Esq. on the 6th, Mr. Matt Worden and Miss Alexandra Wickstrom.
 Miss S. McIntyre, who has been visiting relatives in Canada arrived home the fore part of this week.
 W. H. Haanigan in alighting from a freight train at the station this week fell and hurt her head quite severely.
 James Kennedy who has been foreman of camp 44 at Muskegon the past winter has been laid up with an attack of a grippe.
 John McCarthy left Wednesday for Milwaukee to purchase new furniture for his new Commercial House, and expects to return Sunday.
 At Hotel Hiawatha, Monday evening, by Rev. S. Polkinton Wm. McGregor and Mrs. Catherine McDougall, John McDonald and Mrs. Fanny Davidson, all at Gould City, were married.
 Perry Albee returned Thursday from his trip to the north looking as though he had been through the Pacific were conducive of longevity. He reports seeing some country fair to the eye and a great deal more as barren as the sand plains of Michigan.
 Gor. Whans says his party was defeated because the industrial classes were not recognized in the democratic convention. He favored Judge Newton of Flint, and says he could have been elected, as he knows democratic campaigning better than Judge Champlin. He does not think the unseating of Horton and Morse figured at all in the result.
 Some time ago it was discovered that George Prusand, who lives in the back part of Marquette County, had been making whiskey and selling it to the homesteaders and at the lumber camps. Deputy Sheriff Stuart searched for Prusand for nearly a week, but was unable to find him. Sunday night he was arrested by an officer of Lake County and placed in jail at Newberry, but when Stuart arrived there Monday he found that Prusand had been released by order of the Prosecuting Attorney. A deputy marshal is now on his track.

Winkelman's Dry Goods House, located in the Bowen-McKinney block on Cedar street. They have the finest line of spring goods in the city.
M. P. WINKELMAN.
 THE PEOPLE'S DRY.
PATRONIZE
The People's Dry.
 P. H. MILES, PROPRIETOR
 Orders may also be left at Frank Clark & Co's.
 FRESH MEATS.
The Place to Buy Your Meats
 IS AT
WEINIG & THOMPSON'S
 If you want a fine Roast of Beef, Pork, or Mutton that is the place to get it. They also have Sausage of all kinds and home-made Lard.
 Lowest Prices furnished to Hotels and Boarding Houses.
 GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS.
The People's Grocery House,
 JOHN COSTELLO, PROPRIETOR.
 Choice Butter, New Cheese, Strictly Fresh Eggs and Country Produce. Smoked Meats and Salt Fish. A Complete Stock of First-Class GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, FLOUR, FEED, CORN and OATS. Tobacco, Cigars, Pipes, Snuff, Candles, Oranges and Lemons in large quantities at prices to suit all. A Specialty in BAR GLASSES of all kinds. Call and look our stock over.
JOHN COSTELLO,
 THE SHIRT TAILORS.
Now is the Time To Call At Schuman & Co's,
THE NOBBY TAILORS
 AND LEAVE YOUR ORDER FOR
Fine Fall and Winter Suitings and Overcoats.
 An Elegant Line of Winter Suitings just received. Come and see our fine line of Goods, they are dandies.
SCHUMAN & COMPANY.
 GENERAL HARDWARE.
J. B. LOWIS,
 DEALER IN
Shelf and Heavy Hardware.
 EXCLUSIVE DEALER IN THE DETROIT STOVE CO'S STOVES AND RANGES.
 Now is the time to buy an elegant coal or wood heater. I have my goods marked down to bed rock prices, and can please all my customers with variety and quality. Everything in the Hardware line at
J. B. LOWIS, THE LEADER IN HARDWARE
 GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS.
FINE
Teas and Coffees
 Groceries and Provisions of all kinds, Flour, Etc. Goods and prices guaranteed to be satisfactory at
KLAGSTAD, LAEBEN & CO.
 Store Opposite Catholic Church.
 Advertise in the STAR, the best advertising medium in the county. Leave your orders for Job Printing at this office.

I'm just and fat though I needn't say that; for a glance at my size and you plainly see there's no fire on me. I'm a little bit short, both of hair and breadth of hair but from shoulders to knees you can see I'm there. I smile and I laugh, I joke and I chaff. I refuse to be sad and never get mad. But you'll never realize where my happiness lies, so I'll confess what you never could guess. Our new stock of clothing and latest styles in hats will make you as snug as a bur in a rug, makes you feel so content with the money you've spent that you're bound to feel glad. If you're fat or you're lean, if you're pleasant or mean, let the New York Hargain Store fit you out in new clothes and from head down to toes you will feel such a thrill of content and always look neat and complete. For the feeling's immense and you'll show your good sense by getting your clothing and the feeling to do of. We have all that you may need. Every thing new and complete also handsome and at prices as fair as you'll find anywhere.

L. Goldfarb, The One Price Clothier.

Subscribe for THE STAR
 M. L. Caspar come over from Garden Thursday.
 Harry Tucker, proprietor at the Eagle livery stable, is sick with the measles.
 Jas. Stewart and crew started Friday for the West Branch to bring down the logs.
 Broiled beef steak in the best style and done to a turn at the Red Front Restaurant.
 We understand that J. W. Gillingham will sail on one of the Hart Line boats this summer.
 Musical goods at all kinds and a full line of sheet music at G. W. Ellison's City Music Store.
 Married by Jerome Bowen, Esq. on the 6th, Mr. Matt Worden and Miss Alexandra Wickstrom.
 Miss S. McIntyre, who has been visiting relatives in Canada arrived home the fore part of this week.
 W. H. Haanigan in alighting from a freight train at the station this week fell and hurt her head quite severely.
 James Kennedy who has been foreman of camp 44 at Muskegon the past winter has been laid up with an attack of a grippe.
 John McCarthy left Wednesday for Milwaukee to purchase new furniture for his new Commercial House, and expects to return Sunday.
 At Hotel Hiawatha, Monday evening, by Rev. S. Polkinton Wm. McGregor and Mrs. Catherine McDougall, John McDonald and Mrs. Fanny Davidson, all at Gould City, were married.
 Perry Albee returned Thursday from his trip to the north looking as though he had been through the Pacific were conducive of longevity. He reports seeing some country fair to the eye and a great deal more as barren as the sand plains of Michigan.
 Gor. Whans says his party was defeated because the industrial classes were not recognized in the democratic convention. He favored Judge Newton of Flint, and says he could have been elected, as he knows democratic campaigning better than Judge Champlin. He does not think the unseating of Horton and Morse figured at all in the result.
 Some time ago it was discovered that George Prusand, who lives in the back part of Marquette County, had been making whiskey and selling it to the homesteaders and at the lumber camps. Deputy Sheriff Stuart searched for Prusand for nearly a week, but was unable to find him. Sunday night he was arrested by an officer of Lake County and placed in jail at Newberry, but when Stuart arrived there Monday he found that Prusand had been released by order of the Prosecuting Attorney. A deputy marshal is now on his track.

Johnnie Ross, of Garden arrived in town Saturday.
 Norman Fox returned Sunday from his winters abroad.
 Jas. Turner, of Gould City, spent most of the week here.
 Geo. K. Muddy was in Corinne Wednesday visiting his best girl.
 P. T. Barum, the greatest showman on earth died Tuesday, aged 81 year.
 J. F. Simmons returned Friday from his trip to Illinois looking first-rate.
 Ham and eggs or anything you desire at the Red Front Restaurant.
 Oysters in any style desired and at the best quality at the Red Front Restaurant.
 Stationary and school tablets—a full stock and best quality at G. W. Ellison's City Music Store.
 Clerk Lee and Highway Commissioner Black of Inwood township was over from Cooks Tuesday.
 Foreman Collins with a crew of men started Thursday for the West Branch to help bring down the drive.
 Under Sheriff Gorham, has been confined to his bed for the past week with an attack of the la grippe.
 The Soo proposes to have a saw mill and for that purpose the citizens are asked to donate a bonus of $6,000.
 Hon. Geo. W. Brown, the democratic candidate for mayor of the Soo was elected by large majority last Monday.
 Peter Zimmermann, has a new advertisement in this issue which will be of interest for every dealer in the city.
 The camps are about all broken up. A few straggling ones are left, finishing up what work can be done without snow.
 Read the press notices commending the Crazy Lot Company that give an entertainment here next Thursday evening.
 Men appear to be very plenty here this spring and although crews leave for the drives every day the town appears to keep full.
 Murdick McNeil started with a crew yesterday to bring Capt. Tucker's logs out of Saults Creek. He expects it will take about 20 days.
 The place to buy millinery is at Lewis & Mills' the leading milliners of the city and has the most stylish in the city.
 Go and buy your musical instruments of G. W. Ellison he is the only one here who will give you the greatest bargain ever offered in this or any other county.
 Just received at the City Music Store of G. W. Ellison's an elegant new line of musical instruments such as violins, mouth organs, banjos, guitars, accordions, sheet music and music paper. Call and learn his prices they are lower than any.

J. B. LOWIS,
 DEALER IN
Shelf and Heavy Hardware.
 EXCLUSIVE DEALER IN THE DETROIT STOVE CO'S STOVES AND RANGES.
 Now is the time to buy an elegant coal or wood heater. I have my goods marked down to bed rock prices, and can please all my customers with variety and quality. Everything in the Hardware line at
J. B. LOWIS, THE LEADER IN HARDWARE
 GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS.
FINE
Teas and Coffees
 Groceries and Provisions of all kinds, Flour, Etc. Goods and prices guaranteed to be satisfactory at
KLAGSTAD, LAEBEN & CO.
 Store Opposite Catholic Church.
 Advertise in the STAR, the best advertising medium in the county. Leave your orders for Job Printing at this office.

WINES AND LIQUORS.
N. Y. Sample Rooms.
 CHAS. D. COOK, Prop.
 Dealer in Imported and Domestic Wines, Liquors and Cigars of the finest quality. Good, Fresh Beer, always on tap. Export Beer for Family use.
 The trade supplied with soft drinks of all kinds, also corks and flasks in 50 lots.

Subscribe for THE STAR
 M. L. Caspar come over from Garden Thursday.
 Harry Tucker, proprietor at the Eagle livery stable, is sick with the measles.
 Jas. Stewart and crew started Friday for the West Branch to bring down the logs.
 Broiled beef steak in the best style and done to a turn at the Red Front Restaurant.
 We understand that J. W. Gillingham will sail on one of the Hart Line boats this summer.
 Musical goods at all kinds and a full line of sheet music at G. W. Ellison's City Music Store.
 Married by Jerome Bowen, Esq. on the 6th, Mr. Matt Worden and Miss Alexandra Wickstrom.
 Miss S. McIntyre, who has been visiting relatives in Canada arrived home the fore part of this week.
 W. H. Haanigan in alighting from a freight train at the station this week fell and hurt her head quite severely.
 James Kennedy who has been foreman of camp 44 at Muskegon the past winter has been laid up with an attack of a grippe.
 John McCarthy left Wednesday for Milwaukee to purchase new furniture for his new Commercial House, and expects to return Sunday.
 At Hotel Hiawatha, Monday evening, by Rev. S. Polkinton Wm. McGregor and Mrs. Catherine McDougall, John McDonald and Mrs. Fanny Davidson, all at Gould City, were married.
 Perry Albee returned Thursday from his trip to the north looking as though he had been through the Pacific were conducive of longevity. He reports seeing some country fair to the eye and a great deal more as barren as the sand plains of Michigan.
 Gor. Whans says his party was defeated because the industrial classes were not recognized in the democratic convention. He favored Judge Newton of Flint, and says he could have been elected, as he knows democratic campaigning better than Judge Champlin. He does not think the unseating of Horton and Morse figured at all in the result.
 Some time ago it was discovered that George Prusand, who lives in the back part of Marquette County, had been making whiskey and selling it to the homesteaders and at the lumber camps. Deputy Sheriff Stuart searched for Prusand for nearly a week, but was unable to find him. Sunday night he was arrested by an officer of Lake County and placed in jail at Newberry, but when Stuart arrived there Monday he found that Prusand had been released by order of the Prosecuting Attorney. A deputy marshal is now on his track.

Johnnie Ross, of Garden arrived in town Saturday.
 Norman Fox returned Sunday from his winters abroad.
 Jas. Turner, of Gould City, spent most of the week here.
 Geo. K. Muddy was in Corinne Wednesday visiting his best girl.
 P. T. Barum, the greatest showman on earth died Tuesday, aged 81 year.
 J. F. Simmons returned Friday from his trip to Illinois looking first-rate.
 Ham and eggs or anything you desire at the Red Front Restaurant.
 Oysters in any style desired and at the best quality at the Red Front Restaurant.
 Stationary and school tablets—a full stock and best quality at G. W. Ellison's City Music Store.
 Clerk Lee and Highway Commissioner Black of Inwood township was over from Cooks Tuesday.
 Foreman Collins with a crew of men started Thursday for the West Branch to help bring down the drive.
 Under Sheriff Gorham, has been confined to his bed for the past week with an attack of the la grippe.
 The Soo proposes to have a saw mill and for that purpose the citizens are asked to donate a bonus of $6,000.
 Hon. Geo. W. Brown, the democratic candidate for mayor of the Soo was elected by large majority last Monday.
 Peter Zimmermann, has a new advertisement in this issue which will be of interest for every dealer in the city.
 The camps are about all broken up. A few straggling ones are left, finishing up what work can be done without snow.
 Read the press notices commending the Crazy Lot Company that give an entertainment here next Thursday evening.
 Men appear to be very plenty here this spring and although crews leave for the drives every day the town appears to keep full.
 Murdick McNeil started with a crew yesterday to bring Capt. Tucker's logs out of Saults Creek. He expects it will take about 20 days.
 The place to buy millinery is at Lewis & Mills' the leading milliners of the city and has the most stylish in the city.
 Go and buy your musical instruments of G. W. Ellison he is the only one here who will give you the greatest bargain ever offered in this or any other county.
 Just received at the City Music Store of G. W. Ellison's an elegant new line of musical instruments such as violins, mouth organs, banjos, guitars, accordions, sheet music and music paper. Call and learn his prices they are lower than any.

J. B. LOWIS,
 DEALER IN
Shelf and Heavy Hardware.
 EXCLUSIVE DEALER IN THE DETROIT STOVE CO'S STOVES AND RANGES.
 Now is the time to buy an elegant coal or wood heater. I have my goods marked down to bed rock prices, and can please all my customers with variety and quality. Everything in the Hardware line at
J. B. LOWIS, THE LEADER IN HARDWARE
 GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS.
FINE
Teas and Coffees
 Groceries and Provisions of all kinds, Flour, Etc. Goods and prices guaranteed to be satisfactory at
KLAGSTAD, LAEBEN & CO.
 Store Opposite Catholic Church.
 Advertise in the STAR, the best advertising medium in the county. Leave your orders for Job Printing at this office.