It is decidedly to the advantage of taxpayers to use this plan. Interest and penalties have been cancelled and the only added charge is a 2 per cent collection fee on the amount paid.

LOCAL MAN NAMED MUSIC SUPERVISOR

Paul Peterson Appointed to Position in Rochester, N. Y., Schools

Paul Peterson, formerly of Manistique, and son of Mrs. Ida Peterson, of Oak street, Manistique, has been appointed supervisor of music in the Rochester, N. Y., public schools.

Mr. Peterson is a former Western State Teachers college student and recently graduated from the Eastern School of Music of Rochester university, with the degree of bachelor of music.

SHARPTAIL REARING EXPERIMENT FAILS

Conservation Department Attempts Development of Brood Stock

Once again Michigan's sharp-tailed rearing experiment has failed. Of the 25 sharp-tailed grouse eggs collected in the western part of the upper peninsula last spring, 12 hatched successfully. One of the birds died within a few days after birth. Those that reached fledging size also died, from the same disease that caused the deaths in previous years.

Autopsies made on the dead chicks indicated that the probable cause of death in each case was usually disease, but how this disease was transmitted to the sharp-tailed pen is a mystery.

The department of conservation wants to develop a brood stock of sharp-tailed grouse so as to rear young birds for release in parts of the upper peninsula and northern part of the lower peninsula where these birds are not now present.

H. D. Ruhl, chief of the game division, said that another small-scale attempt to rear sharp-tails is expected to be made next year. "We want to continue efforts along this line until successful methods of eliminating disease and other mortality factors in young sharp-tails are worked out," he said.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Chittenden spent the week end with relatives in Sault Ste. Marie.

QUESTIONS THAT ARE ASKED ABOUT BANKING

"What is the purpose of a bank's statement of condition?"

THE purpose of a bank's statement of condition is to give to the proper federal or state banking authorities, and to customers and the public, a report of the financial condition of the bank.

Our latest bank statement lists our assets and liabilities, showing what we do with our money is set aside to maintain required legal reserves. is expected that prices will be lower in the future, for exporters anticipate a larger pig crop in 1938 and an increasing number of cattle on feed during the coming winter.
Michigan housewives are urged to take advantage of the bumper fruit crop by doing all the eating possible to reduce the fruit surplus. Not only is the crop of fruit in Michigan large this year but the quality, flavor and the size promise to be unusually good. And with a large fruit crop anticipated, prices will undoubtedly be lower than in any recent year.
This is a fortunate circumstance for the consumer at a time when the prices of all other commodities are moving steadily upward.

CATERING TO THE TOURIST
As we enter into the concluding weeks of a tourist and resort season which will probably break all-time records, it might be well for us to pause and reflect upon just how successful we have been in catering to the needs of this great and increasing group which brings annually so many new dollars into our respective communities in upper Michigan.
Have we all made the most of every opportunity to aid these visitors in enjoying their visits in our midst? Have we provided adequate housing facilities? Have we furnished them with all necessary information when it was sought? Do we have proper facilities for furnishing such information? Have suitable sites been provided for trailer camps? Have the visitors been shown the proper courtesies when in the cities and on the highways?
It would be a wise plan for the tourist associations and chambers of commerce to discuss these questions at some length during their coming winter meetings so they may be prepared to take steps to improve the service next year.
Presumably every city and resort section in the upper peninsula has had its fair share of the tourist business this season, but it may depend to a large extent just how successfully they have taken care of this business whether or not they can continue to enjoy this money.

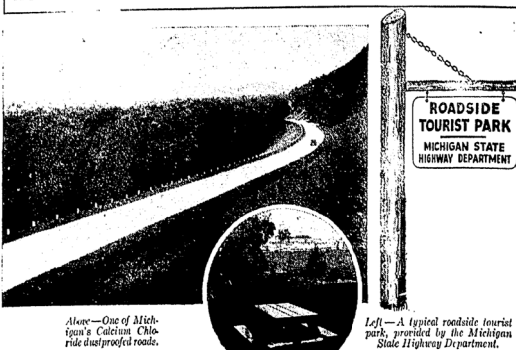

Most communities have difficulty in the establishment of a central clearing point for general tourist information. Whether through jealousy or lack of interest most information bureaus report that it is difficult, if not impossible, to secure adequate information on housing facilities and accommodations at tourist homes and resorts. They have further difficulty in maintaining sufficient supplies of descriptive tourist literature.

It will behoove every community catering to the tourist trade to seek out all faults in its service to these visitors and take immediate steps to have them corrected. The community which offers the best service will in the end secure the lion's share of the business.

GALLOPING HOUNDS OF WASTE
We have just received a copy of a speech made on July 19 by the Hon. Harold Knutson, of Minnesota, of the House of Representatives, in which he scored the tremendous expenditures of government funds for traveling expense of various governmental agencies and bureaus during the past three years.
Congressman Knutson charges that the staggering sum of $206,000,000 has been or will be spent in travel expenses alone for the fiscal years of 1936, 1937 and 1938.
"Two hundred and six million dollars is a tremendous sum and will buy a whole lot of traveling," said the representative from Minnesota declared in his speech. "In fact, this sum exceeds by far the cost of sending the American Expeditionary force to France during the World War.
"it exceeds by $89,000,000 the travel expense for the fiscal years of 1931, 1932 and 1933 combined. And when we get through paying the probable deficiencies for travel expense next year the amount spent will undoubtedly be more than twice that spent in any comparable 3-year period in the nation's history.
"The only necessity which today calls for these extravagant expenditures for travel is political necessity," the speaker continued.
"The galloping hounds of waste, who led the mad chase to overtake prosperity for the forgotten man, now hear the baying of the Communist wolf pack closing in as they scent their prey. The thieves and robbers of old no longer ply their arts along the ancient highways, but an examination of the expenditures which have been made in the first three years in the guise of travel expense leads me to believe that a new order has developed which is more artful and more efficient in wringing money from the people for traveling expenses."
Congressman Knutson then proceeds to outline in detail the travel expense of each of the various alphabetized agencies set up under the present administration. In speaking of the travel expenses in connection with the Emergency Conservation Work, which were $14,577,911 in 1936 and $13,958,000 in 1937, Representative Knutson remarks, "This is a lot of money to spend traveling around in search of emergency conservation work." At another point in his speech the Minnesota congressman declares that the "Farm Credit administration has spent so much money in travel that it ought to be called a travel bureau."
After scolding the department of agriculture for excessive travel expenses and world tours for information, the Minnesota congressman makes this terse comment, "The President wonders where he can turn to cut down some of the expenses of this government. Why do not some of you folks go down and tell him."

PRICES AND COMMODITIES
With steadily rising prices facing the sadly humbled budget maker on every hand it is heartening to learn that the nation will have a bumper potato crop and that the fruit crop in Michigan will be the best it has been in many years.
According to an economist at Michigan State college, potato prices will be lower than last year because the nation's crop is now estimated at 400 million bushels as compared with the 800 million bushels of last year. And while livestock except lambs, is expected to bring continued high prices, it

MICHIGAN'S DUSTLESS ROADS, PARKS AND PICNIC HOOKS ATTRACT $300,000,000 TOURIST MONEY

State Facilities a Boon to Michigan Tourist Industry
DURING a typical year, the occupants of 2,500,000 out-of-state automobiles spend approximately $300,000,000 in Michigan, in pursuit of good times and recreation. Their cars burn 30,000,000 gallons of gasoline, adding $900,000 to the state's gas tax revenue. Penetrating to almost every nook and cranny of the upper and lower peninsulas, these tourists and vacationists traverse practically every mile of the state and county highway systems.
Michigan's popularity as a vacation spot has increased tremendously during the last decade, and the State Highway Department has indeed become a national leader in making dustless highways and roadside picnic spots a powerful agency for the stimulation of Michigan's great tourist industry, an industry which in 1936 was the largest in the nation.

Special License For Trolling Sport

Michigan's popular trolling sport is being given a boost by the state legislature in its new special fishing license. The commission on fishing, which went into effect August 1, requires that those who troll for lake trout pay $1.00 a year per boat. This license fee is the one required for use of trolling gear of 16-504 size of rods with commercial fishing gear.

In Michigan the department where operators boats and gear are in search of guides for fishermen who troll for lake trout have Grand Traverse lake where they experienced its greatest popularity.

WHOLESALE FISH DEALERS LICENSED

The proprietors of wholesale fish markets or wholesale buyers or sellers of fish throughout Michigan are now required by law each year to apply to the department of conservation for a special license to operate.
This is a new provision in the commercial fishing laws enacted by the 1937 legislature, being Act 346, P. A. 1937, which became effective two weeks ago.
Herebefore in Michigan wholesale fish markets have not been licensed by the department of conservation.
The amount of the license fee has been set at $5. Licensees expire Dec. 31 or may be revoked by the director of conservation in his discretion if the licensee is convicted of breaking the conservation laws.

NEW LAWS AFFECT PUBLIC SCHOOLS

In Local Districts Most Approve Teachers' Tenure Law

Public education received favorable attention at the hands of the Legislature in Michigan recently. The new law which is now law has been passed and is now being put into effect. The law is a direct result of the efforts of the State Board of Education and the Michigan Teachers' Retirement Association.

As a result of the revision of Michigan Teachers' Retirement law, teachers in Michigan's public schools now have a social security program which commensurates with the National Social Security Act.

Local Nine Defeats Gould City In Central League Game, 5-1

Manistique Takes Lead In Second Inning, Holding Visitors To One Run; Cooks and Hubert Remain On Local League Schedule

Manistique's Central Leaguers annexed another victory Sunday when they defeated Gould City at the local fairgrounds by a score of 5 to 1. Although Manager Emil Ekberg did not have all of his regulars in the line-up the shifts that were made did not appear to be any handicap. After the first inning, in which both clubs tallied a run, the Manistique team took the lead and held it comfortably throughout.

Wilfred Stoor hurried the entire game for the victors and was given outright support by his teammates. Carlson was on the receiving end. LaRosa pitched a splendid game for the victors, striking out ten men to Stoor's eight but Manistique bunched their hits and this accounted for the greater number of runs. Fletcher Stoor was also a leading factor in Manistique's offensive, clouting a two-bagger and two singles. The lone extra run hit made by Gould City was credited to J. Fisher.

formation for many upper Peninsula counties where secondary trunk lines were permitted to get into bad shape because all construction effort was concentrated on through highways. While we believe the State Highway Department was correct in its stand that main highways should be improved first, the time is now approaching when some attention can be given to secondary roads. When a program of secondary construction is established, we believe M-24 between Manistique and Manistique should be given serious consideration. Of all the secondary trunk lines in the state's road system, this highway is probably the worst.

Porky Hits Back At Refuge Moose

A cow moose in the corral at the Casino game refuge east of Manistique came off second best in a nocturnal dispute with a porcupine over a place at the salt-lick. Apparently the porcupine had been struck by the moose and wisely abandoned the field, but not before leaving a tuft of quills firmly stuck in the right front of the moose. By cautiously approaching behind feed racks a CCO worker managed to pour vinegar on the quills to soften them and later worked out the quills out of the foot of the moose by means of a thirteen pole and a wire noose.

LUECKE IS VOTED LIBERAL IN POLL

Representative Of Eleventh District One Of Ten Outstanding Newcomers

Ten Congressmen, including one from Michigan, Rep. John Luecke, of Escanaba, are the choice of their House colleagues as the cream of the new Congressional crop of liberals. Specifically, the ten newcomers, representing seven states, were selected in a poll of the House liberal bloc by the Philadelphia Record, to determine the ten outstanding "freshmen" of the 74th Congress. Approximately fifty recognized House liberals of all parties participated in the poll, which was conducted privately. Each was asked to make his selections with regard to political affiliations and on the basis of the record of ability and effectiveness established by new members during the seven months of the current session.

Chosen for their outstanding legislative contributions to the liberal cause in the present Congress, and for the promise they show of leadership in the future, the men selected were: (in alphabetical order): Allen (Penn), Bigelow (Ohio), Bradley (Penn), Coffey (Wash.), Fries (Ill.), Izac (Cal), Leahy (Wash.), Luecke (Mich.), Tjeagan (Minn.), and Voorhis (Cal).

Sport-Fishing Law Changes January 1

Unlimited catches of perch and wall-eyed pike by hook-and-line fishermen on the Great Lakes and their connecting waters will no longer be legal in Michigan after Jan. 1. On that date the sport-fishing law changes enacted by the 1937 legislature will go into effect, applying a daily catch and possession limit of 50 perch or no less than seven inches in length and a daily catch and possession limit of 10 pike-perch or wall-eyed pike.

From now until the end of the current year, under present law sport fishermen are allowed to catch and possess in one day as many perch and wall-eyes as they desire from the Great Lakes or their connecting waters, except in the Les Chateaux channels of Lake Huron where the limit is 25 perch.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Charvon are the parents of a seven and one-half pound baby girl, born Thursday at their home, Michigan Avenue.

Build Forest Fire Substations In U.P.

The seventh unit of a far-flung chain of forest-fire substations in northern Michigan will be started in Kalkaska this summer, the department of conservation announced. It will be a building 41 by 26 feet in size to house fire fighting equipment for use in the surrounding region. Three substations have been constructed in the upper peninsula and three in the lower peninsula so far, all serving areas to which transfer of equipment from district conservation posts would prove costly and time-consuming in case of serious forest fires.
