ted such a pronounced spirit of fairness to all counties in the allocation of new and improved highways, and has given to this county many more miles of paved roads than we have ever before received.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That this convention hereby unqualifiedly endorses the candidacy of Murray D. Van Wagener for a second term as State Highway Commissioner of the State of Michigan.

COUNTY RETURNS TOTAL $85,721,740

State Highway Revenues Reach Record High In 1935, Announces Van Wagener

Murray D. Van Wagener, state highway commissioner, revealed this week that a total of $85,721,740 has been returned to the counties during his administration starting in 1933.

The amount includes $24,237,714 returned to the counties for road purposes during 1935. The payments last year reached a record high.

On the basis of 1936 returns, Commissioner Van Wagener revealed that the counties are receiving more money for road purposes than they formerly received from property tax sources.

In 1929 the total amount of property taxes levied for local highway purposes amounted to $28,454,713, the highest in the history of the state. From that high the amount dropped to $1,683,000 in 1933 and has probably dropped below the million dollar mark by now, the commissioner said.

Counties now receive the entire amount of the weight tax in addition to $5,000,000 from the gasoline tax. The latter amount includes $4,000,000 annually for the care of former township roads plus $2,500,000 a year allocated to the counties at the special legislative session of 1935 when the weight tax was reduced by 38 per cent.

Oscar Peterson Is On Flood Duty

Oscar Peterson, son of Mrs. Oscar Peterson, 319 Schoolcraft avenue, is on duty in the flood area under orders from Guy B. Skinner, superintendent of the federal highlands district. Peterson is first officer of the tender Sunace.

Also known here are the following, who proceeded to Cairo, Ill., from Milwaukee, in two 24 foot boats similar to three sent from Chicago: Jas. Litzy, officer of the Sunace; William Sluda, acting second officer of the tender Hyacinth, and J. E. Peck, engineer of the Hyacinth.

$125 Will Build Tourist Cabin; Popular Type Modeled At Ahmeek

As an instance of what can be done with Michigan timber, the Keweenaw County Park Commission has built and placed on public view at Ahmeek a small tourist cabin of the type popular in Yellowstone and other western national parks.

Anyone contemplating the construction of tourist accommodations on this line is invited to inspect this model cabin which was made which the commission will be glad to provide information.

The estimated cost of such a cabin at many Upper Peninsula points is figured at $75 for material, and $50 for labor, or $125 in all. Interior equipment will vary in cost from $25 to $50. The usual rental for such a cabin in the west is two dollars per day. The commission, whose office adjains the Ahmeek cabin, has plans for similar structures to accommodate two or three or four people overnight in cabins with bathrooms—all at $125 cost.

Plans are also available at the commission office for cabins of the group type, to be built by owners who plan to operate ten, twenty or more cabins as a business enterprise. Cabin details, ground arrangements, proper lockings of vans' quarters, etc., are outlined. The best developments and illustrations by other locations are embodied in the layout, and it will be well worth anyone's time who is interested and desires to have further information.

New Sand Dunes Highway The park commission made a careful check-up last season through the Ahmeek office and the employees of the Keweenaw golf course, in an endeavor to ascertain just what the tourist wants in the construction of tourist accommodations. By a survey of the season dozens of visitors moved into the accommodations because they could not find the type of accommodations desired.

It seems certain that additional housing must be provided in the points is figured at $75 for material, and $50 for labor, or $125 in all. (Copper Country next season), said Ocha Potter of Ahmeek, chairman of the Copper Country Vacationists League's advertising committee.

"With better times, there will be more tourists than ever on the Keweenaw peninsula," said Potter. "County's undoubted scenic attractions of this year, we now have under construction a new nine-mile scenic shore line drive from Eagle River to Copper Harbor. It will be as unique in its class as the Mountain Drive. So far as I know, "The Sand Dunes Highway" will be something entirely new north of Indiana and the south-east shore of Lake Michigan."

Ask Fishermen To Send Creel Cards

Michigan fishermen still holding creel census cards on which they record catches of gamefish during 1936 are asked by conservation authorities to send them to date 2/25/36. Most cards have been received, but some were obtained from fishermen by conservation officers, sent to tallies directly to the Lansing office. CCC enrollees in the parts of the state collected 7,000 creel census cards from fishermen for the department of conservation.

A Future President

Somewhere in the United States a future president is studying his lessons, or building a foundation of ability and learning. He is doing it with the aid of the kindly glow of "the sun's only rival"—ELECTRIC LIGHT

HOW different is his environment from that of "Honest Abe" Lincoln, whose birthday we celebrate this month. Lincoln's early studies and reading were carried on as he lay in front of an open fireplace. The flickering light of the fire depended upon the fuel Abe, himself, had prepared with his axe. It tired his eyes—but he carried on and won the love and esteem of mankind.

Studying or reading today is made pleasant by the steady, ever-ready service of electric power companies. No flicker, no disappointment.

And lighting is only ONE of the many conveniences and necessities furnished by a system of electric service made possible by years of research, availability of capital for construction of facilities, and constant attention to the building up of an organization to serve you—such as we now have at your command.

SENTENCE TWO FOR COAL THEFT

Nansom Barton And Vern Kerridge Given 15 Days in County Jail

Nansom Barton and Vern Kerridge were sentenced in justice court here Saturday to serve 15 days in the county jail after pleading guilty to theft of coal from the Manistique and Lower Superior Railroad company.

Barton, a WPA worker, will serve his sentence intermittently. He was ordered by Judge Stephens to continue his work on the Manistique high school stadium project, and go to jail for 15 of the days when he is idle.

Members of the local police department made the arrests Friday night. Others, who were reported seen, made their escape. It was said that approximately 30 tons of coal had been stolen from the company in one month.

Deer License Sale Boosted In State

At least 25,000 more deer hunting licenses were sought in Michigan last fall than in any previous season.

Conservation authorities here expected that in the neighborhood of 110,000 deer hunting licenses would be sold, but the latest compilation of settlements with state license agents reveal sales totaling 121,000. Further settlements are expected to increase that total somewhat.

The increase in sale of licenses is believed due largely to the fact that approximately 8,000 square miles of new deer area in the lower peninsula was opened to hunters last fall.

"The PLAINSMAN"

(CHAPTER THREE: Indian Torture) 1. Riding the plains, Wild Bill Hickok sights the Indian party that has captured his sweetheart, Calamity Jane. Knowing the chance he is taking, he rides up to the horse band and tries to barter for her release. Through treachery, they take him prisoner along with Calamity Jane and bring her to Yellow Hand. The ride to the village is silent; Hickok knows what is in store for his chieftain's hands.

2. In Yellow Hand's tepee, Calamity Jane and Wild Bill Hickok are lashed together. The crafty chieftain tries to lead the route of the end has come, both agree to remain silent at all cost—for the sake of the forty Wild Bill, facing certain death, grudgingly admits his love to Calamity. The girl, hearing at last the words she has awaited so long, cannot help but show her feeling toward the Plainsman.

3. Yellow Hand senses the woman's emotion and his eyes narrow. She can be made to talk. He promises freedom for them both if she tells for him and for herself at a price that means shame; the lives of the forty men. Among those forty who may die, she knows, is Buffalo Bill—Hickok's best friend and the husband of her own new friend.

4. Armed with the secret wrang from Calamity Jane, Yellow Hand's men ambush the ammunition train on a small island. Through a "SAFETY WITH LIGHT" program, recently sponsored by its Safety Committee and Michigan Auto Club, Saginaw, Michigan took a positive step toward combating a night accident record that is one of the worst in the country. A study of local statistics by Paul H. Goodell, safety expert representing the Street & Highway Lighting Safety Bureau of New York, revealed that eight out of every ten fatal accidents on the streets and highways of Saginaw and vicinity occur after dark.

Michigan Record Poor. The study also demonstrated that the rate of fatalities in the same territory is 26 per 100,000 population, which is 80% greater than the national figure. It also compared very unfavorably with the fatality rate for the State of Michigan, which is itself poor.

Mr. Holman went on to explain that the war was dragging through more than 36,000 people were killed on the nation's highways in 1935—over 21,000 of them at night! It is worse than war, more inhuman, just as devastating—a sacrifice without a cause, and without glory.

Great Lakes Exposition Is World Tour Magic Carpet

THE STREETS OF THE WORLD of the Great Lakes Exposition in Cleveland, which opens on May 29 give visitors to the great 15-acre Exposition a colorful trip around the world with quaint and romantic build- ings, gay cafes and restaurants, thrilling music and exotic dancers. Greatly enlarged and more beautifully deco- rated, the Streets of the World of the 1927 Exposition will be even more popular than it was when millions saw it last year. Thirty-three countries are represented in this miniature world on the shores of Lake Erie.

Recreation Areas To Be Available On Forest

The preliminary survey of the proposed picnic grounds on Peninsula Point, Mich., has been completed and clearing up of the site prior to intensive development during the coming spring season.

Peninsula Point, Mich., has been known to many for years as a location of the old Peninsula Point Lighthouse and each summer sees a number of local residents visit the area to examine the old buildings and their surroundings. Not only is the site interesting from a historical standpoint, however, but its attraction lies also in the fact that it offers such excellent views it affords over both the city and the bay.

Recently the point was acquired by the U. S. Forest Service and has been reserved for the development of a free public picnic and camp grounds area. The improvements to be developed will be that constitute the picnic grounds. Here the improvements proposed include a well, parking area, sanitation facilities and stone fireplaces. Cedar tables, of rustic design will be placed in the more shaded and desirable spots for the picnic. Rustic benches will be situated on the benches affording the best views.

Bulletin boards, and a visitors' registry will be erected on the site which will make them convenient to all.

A second area which is to be available for use during the coming summer is located approximately four miles north of the Junction on the Sturgeon River. This area will be known as the "Flowing Well Picnic and Camp Grounds." The area received its name from the fact that a large artesian well is present on the portion of the site which has been developed for the use of picnicers.

In 1925 an oil company from Lower Michigan drilled at this point in a vain attempt to locate oil and from the 12 inch casing which they left water flows at a rate of approximately 150 gallons per minute. This supply has been tested and found to be suitable for drinking purposes and will be used to furnish the entire area with drinking water. A fountain will also be developed.

The larger part of the improvements have already been constructed on this area and little additional work will be needed to make the site available for recreation seekers. As at the proposed site on Peninsula Point, stone fireplaces and the various other improvements mentioned will be finished for the convenience of visitors. One of the outstanding features of these camp grounds will be the use of individual "trailer roads" which lead from the main road to each individual site and out again to the natural appearance will be maintained in the foreground and in the background of each site.

Throughout the development of the site, the maintaining of the natural appearance will be one of the foremost considerations and rustic effect will be maintained in all developments.

The construction work for these areas will be done by CCC staff under the supervision of Camp Superintendent, Milton Strong, of Rapid River, Michigan.

There was considerable discussion on the matter of the meter service charge but no action was taken.

Councilman Abramson made a motion that the city manager's salary be reduced to $24,000 per year, which motion was supported by Councilman Dahms. Upon being informed by the city attorney that this motion was out of order, no action was taken thereon.

Councilman Abramson then moved that the secretary of the city manager be dispensed with but later withdrew that motion after the city attorney had explained the matter and there was no support and no action taken.

Moved by Councilman Prime, supported by Councilman Abramson, that the Council adjourn.

MANISTIQUE JOHN L. BELLAIRE MICHIGAN

Concentrate On Coast Guard Station, Lanier Tells Lions

John Lanier urged the Manistique Lions club to concentrate its efforts on a coast guard station for Manistique, in a talk Tuesday evening at the club's regular weekly meeting.

Manistique, he said, is slated to receive a post office building in short time, but it also has a chance to have a coast guard station constructed here. The post office building will ultimately be built anywhere he explained, but if another site is selected for the coast guard establishment it will mean that this community has left its lot for good. For this reason, he urged local civic and political organizations to concentrate all efforts on the coast guard station.

Mr. Lanier also described his trip to Washington, his chats with Vice President Garner, the inaugurations with Senator Convits Brown and Congressman and Senator Luecke. He was particularly impressed, he said, with the ability and popularity of Brown and the growing popularity of Luecke.
