

The Weekly Tribune.

Vol. 3 No. 155. OLD SERIES.

MANISTIQUE, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1928

NEW NEWS No. 18. $1.50 PER YEAR

CHANTLER'S
West Side Drug Store
—IN HEADQUARTERS FOR—
School Books and School Supplies. A full line of text books, tablets, pencils, inks, etc., in stock.
Our stock of Drugs comprises everything usually kept in a first-class drug store.
Prescriptions accurately compounded.
GEO. CHANTLER.

The Manistique Bank
OF MANISTIQUE, MICH.
Capital and Surplus $70,000
Fire Insurance. Abstracts of Title. Foreign and Domestic Exchange. Steamship Tickets to and from all European Ports. Commercial and Savings Accounts Received.
CORRESPONDENCE SOLICITED

Take Notice!
We do not have third about prices on Cheap Goods. For inferior goods are cheap at any price. Neither have we any money to give away as we have to live the same as other people. But we can use good honest goods as cheap as the next man and our light expenses we are able to sell them at an even margin of profit as the best dealers. We will do so. Call and be convinced.
H. P. HOWELL

H. P. HOWELL
Notice.
All persons are hereby forbidden to use The Schoolcraft County Driving Park and Fair Association race course without first obtaining permission of the Secretary.
By Order of Board of Directors.
Building for motor cars at the first of May next, centrally located on Oak street between the American and Commercial Hotels. For further particulars inquire of C. D. Conn or at The Tribune office.
H. P. HOWELL has the finest line of gentlemen's shirts in the city.
A further reduction has been made in price on the World's Columbian Exposition. Tickets will be sold from August 1st to Oct. 31st at $15.50 for the round trip, good for 30 days from date of sale. P. McCullough, agent. See line for additional information.

THE NEW YORK MILLINERY STORE
Secured a first-class milliner 60 days ago, she is now in the custom markets purchasing their Fall and Winter Millinery and will bring a complete line of the very latest style in Hats and Ladies' Furnishing Goods that can be had in the market and will sell the goods at low prices according to the times.
Yours Truly,
NEW YORK

MILLINERY STORE.
MANISTIQUE, MICH. Oak Street.

THOMPSON NOTES.
Foreman Jim McMillin has commenced operations at camp 11.
The Pablow and Delta cleared for Detroit Monday evening.
Supt. McCullum went to Bay Mills Tuesday morning on a business trip.
Sawyer J. J. Riley has been extremely happy the past week. Cause a new son.
Inspector McKenzie's wife arrived on Saturday and will remain during the week.
Miss Gertie, Supt. McCullum's youngest daughter has returned to West Branch to attend school.
Mr. H. W. Mason left Tuesday morning for Houghton where she will visit for the coming winter.
J. H. Allison and Mrs. Etta Brown left Sunday morning for Grand Rapids to attend the K. O. T. M. convention.
Dr. Bowen and Mulford moved on the plaster cast from Vol. Rolan's leg on Monday and discharged him as cured.
Mrs. D. W. Bennett and daughter Edith returned from a three weeks visit at Detroit on Saturday. Mrs. Mason has been keeping house for her mother during her absence.
Mr. Supt. an expert electrician from Detroit is running new wires for the D. L. Co. electric light plant; they have had the dynamo repaired and expect to increase the efficiency of their plant.
Messrs. T. H. Fitch and C. J. Brooks and wife left Tuesday evening for Chicago to visit the World's Fair. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks will extend their trip to Detroit where he will purchase the full supplies for the D. L. Co.

DOCK NOTES.
Sept. 8.—Arrived, L. M. Davis, Eng. C. Hart and Margaret Dall. Cleared, Hunter and Eng. C. Hart.
Sept. 9.—Miaerza, Yacht Marguerite, Helen and consort, and Hunter. Cleared, Hull and consort.
Sept. 11.—Cleared Ida M. Torroni and consort.
A Liberal Offer.
Grand Magazine..... $2.00
Consolidated Magazine..... 1.50
The World's Tribune..... 1.00
The Member, and the Consolator Magazine and Tribune one year for $5. We give this reduction to all new subscribers or to old subscribers who renew their subscription for one year.

LOCAL AND NEARBY.
The dredge was disabled Monday.
The dredge has been disabled this week.
Joe Beck and George Davis left for camp 14 yesterday.
McNell's Garden crew were in the city Monday and Tuesday.
The kilns at Marquette were fired up Monday for the first time.
The state Y. M. C. A. convention will be held at Battle Creek, Oct. 13 to Oct. 15th.
Carl Klages made a five mile run on the streets Monday evening in 16 1/2 minutes.
Butter has been retailing for 33 cents a pound here this week, and very scarce at that price.
Larsen, the contractor, has the contract for doing the woodwork on the Rose building.
A 'kangaroo' court was never more amusing than a certain case in Judge Bowen's court this week.
The Detroit, Bay City and Alpena railroad has been declared insolvent, and is now in the hands of a receiver.
The various members of the C. L. Co. who have been attending court at Marquette last week returned Sunday evening.
Harry Clark has been receiving much free advertising of late. Five different newspapers mentioned the fact that he spent Saturday at the Soo.
The U. S. senators have spent five weeks in idle talk during the present session, and are no nearer a conclusion than when they began.
Dr. Ellis reports business improving. He is doing first-class work at a very reasonable price and accepts coupons or orders on the company at par.
There is a $5 counterfeit bill in circulation at present. It is unnecessary to describe its appearance, as the man that can sport a five dollar bill nowadays is a rarity.
A lady in this city stopped taking a daily paper because it had so much to say concerning people going to see the Cherokee Strip. She decided that it was another rival of the Midway Plaisance avenue.
The body of Ernest Brown, a veteran of the Twenty-second Michigan Infantry, was found in the Clinton river at Mt. Clemens Sunday morning. He disappeared last Thursday morning.—Detroit News.
Ray, the fourteen year old son of Dr. and Mrs. McCosson, has been quite ill this week from the effects of being struck with a nine pound rock, thrown by a playmate, Saturday afternoon last. He received severe internal injuries.
Capt. McWilliams has invented a new rat trap that should become popular. It is arranged that the sympathy one rat has for another in trouble lure him rashly into the trap. Whole families of rats, grand parents, consuls, aunts and all, can be captured at one time.
Frank Brown of this city received a telegram Sunday night from Mt. Clemens, stating that his father had been drowned. Frank left for that city Monday morning. The unfortunate man was the father-in-law of J. M. Mulhaupt of this city. Particulars not learned.

MANISTIQUE ABOUT TO HAVE A TRANSIT OFFICE.
An important term of court will be held at this port for the past two weeks.
The Michigan House of Lords rejected the Home Rule bill by a large majority.
The shipping of lumber has been quite active at this port for the past two weeks.
MacLaurin Bros., the west side shoe merchants, are enjoying a liberal patronage.
Knapstad, Larsen & Co. have decided to get of business owing to poor collection.
A Soo policeman shot and dangerously wounded a tough last Thursday night who resisted arrest.
Several Soo Ry. section hands were held up by tramps and robbed of their dinner pails, near the Soo.
You can shoot partridge, snipe quail and wild duck now but you must not touch the "speckled beauties."
Manistique will not have a hard coal famine this year. There 650 tons of it in the coal shed at the docks.
The Mirror captures the Escanaba tongs that caused trouble at the recent baseball game held at Garden.
Mrs. Doe's husband paid her fine and costs, and as a consequence, she is no longer an inmate of the county bastille.
Everybody is intending going to the masquerade ball at the opera house tomorrow evening. A good time is promised.
Remember that we are prepared to do nothing in the line of job printing with promptness and in a satisfactory manner.
The steam barge Weston was badly damaged by fire at a Lake Superior port last Wednesday evening. Loss $10,000. Insured.
The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John Carter of Whitefish, died Friday night. Mr. Carney has charge of the newborn son at that place.
The office at the dock warehouse has been painted and Smith and Smith now take off their hats whenever they stop into the office.
The educational entertainment held at the opera house Saturday evening under the direction of Miss Kidder, was well attended and highly satisfactory to all concerned.
Mr. Rockwell has decided to close his postoffice news stand for the present owing to lack of patronage. We hope that he may see his way clear to resume later in the season.
Purchase a hospital ticket before going to the woods this fall. Unarmed men about town would do a wise thing were they to purchase one of Dr. Rain's hospital tickets.
Miller and Drove received a sentence of 90 days for petit larceny. They will serve their sentence here, and they will amuse the spectators "hard labor," as they will have the job of splitting and piling 150 cords of wood for the county.
Bess Bros. broke ground for their new business Thursday last. The work is being pushed rapidly and the building will be completed before Dec. 1st. They expect to move into it January 1st. Just as the plans, it will be very neat, and an ornament to any city.
The following persons were admitted to full citizenship by Judge Storey at the recent term of court: Frank H. Komp, Jacob Spillmacher, Geo. Salter, John L. Skvall, William Patterson, Patrick McIlhenny, Samuel Patterson, Gust A. Johnson, Martin Weisig, Hans Klages and Edward Lupton.
The yacht Marguerite, a trim and elegantly appointed propeller, came into harbor on Saturday last and left on Monday. Captain O. E. Hogganham and Mate Swanson will take her to New York, having left her party in Chicago who return overland. We spent a pleasant visit with them and the stewardess, Mrs. Moran and the engineer, Win. Pink, all of whom are "jolly good fellows" who were pleased to meet. Many friends regret their departure and wish them a pleasant and safe journey. The Rev. P. J. Sperlin accompanied them as far as Cheboygan.

BLIMBACH WAS RECENTLY STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS.
The recently stricken with paralysis, was recently stricken with paralysis, was rapidly vanishing. Blimbach, Gladstone and Blimbach, are persons that will be cherished as long as the world exists. Death is rapidly encroaching upon this trio of world famous statesmen. The places they have occupied will never be filled.

BLIMBACH WAS RECENTLY STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS.
The recently stricken with paralysis, was recently stricken with paralysis, was rapidly vanishing. Blimbach, Gladstone and Blimbach, are persons that will be cherished as long as the world exists. Death is rapidly encroaching upon this trio of world famous statesmen. The places they have occupied will never be filled.

THE HEART OF SUPERVISORS MEETS OCT. 26th.
Arrowood's dance was well attended Friday night.
The junior band was out serenading Tuesday evening.
Operations have been resumed in many Condois streets.
The Soo should have a daily newspaper. It could support one as easily as Marquette.
Marked men hold up a Lake Shore train in Indiana, Monday night, and secured $250,000.
At least 15,000 Maccabees are attending the annual review of the order at Grand Rapids this week.
Despite the misrepresentations of bilious people, the usual number of logs will be cut in this section this winter.
The National Furriers' Manufacturers' Association is anxious that congress place burlaps, glass, etc., on the free list.
Several owners of dogs about town complain that somebody is stealing dog collars and tags from dogs belonging to them.
Gideon Grisdale, who was so terribly injured by a broken band saw at the Hall & Buell mill ten days ago, is able to be out again.
Rev. and Mrs. Palkinborn will be tendered a farewell reception at Old Pillsbury hall tomorrow evening. All are cordially invited to attend.
Every wife occasionally wishes she could vindicate herself by letting some woman her husband profess have him for a few weeks.—Atholton Globe.
The Soo railroad is contemplating a change of time table on the 20th. The change may make some other city a dining point, and in case this is done, the Hiawatha, and not the Oscawagon, will be closed for the season.
A few boys got into trouble one evening last week by robbing the little boys' meetings of the merry-go-round of their string. The string didn't kick but the owner of the outfit did. It cost the boys a neat sum in police court for their fun.
Courts are a tame affair in this country. There was only one criminal case on the docket at the recent term of court, and this case did not amount to much. Slim courts speak well for the efficiency of the justice courts and the morality of our inhabitants.
Some newspapers, during the dull times when there is nothing to write about set up straw man figuratively speaking, and then knock them down again. This is an easy way to get material for long winded articles, but the scheme is entirely too transparent.
Al. Whiteford, foreman of the Delta Lumber Co.'s camp was in the city Sunday. A race is on between the Smith and McGreggor horses and Al. is here to complete arrangements for setting up a match between the winner of this race and the horse he owns.
A musical entertainment will be held at the Norwegian Danish Church, Saturday evening, Sept. 22nd, at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, for adults 25c, for children less than 12 years old, 10 cents. A dish of ice cream will be given each one present, in addition to a fine musical program.
The $48,000 yacht which was moored at the docks Saturday and Sunday was offered for sale for $10,000 cash. Strange to say, there was no taker. Mr. Blimbach wrote out a check for the amount but failed to take it to the owner of the yacht in time. He got away before Moss got to the dock.
The current number of Dine's Review has improved has extended from the banks of the mill, and that the condition of industries has distinctly mended, although still seriously depressed. More important by far than any other stock is the fact that more work has resumed during the past week than have stopped during the past week so that the producing force of the country, after months of constant decline, has begun to increase. The money markets are more bullish the premium on currency is at almost vanished, the embarrassment in domestic exchanges have well nigh disappeared, and while very little money is yet available for commercial loans, there is some relief in that respect also.

THE HEART OF SUPERVISORS MEETS OCT. 26th.
Arrowood's dance was well attended Friday night.
The junior band was out serenading Tuesday evening.
Operations have been resumed in many Condois streets.
The Soo should have a daily newspaper. It could support one as easily as Marquette.
Marked men hold up a Lake Shore train in Indiana, Monday night, and secured $250,000.
At least 15,000 Maccabees are attending the annual review of the order at Grand Rapids this week.
Despite the misrepresentations of bilious people, the usual number of logs will be cut in this section this winter.
The National Furriers' Manufacturers' Association is anxious that congress place burlaps, glass, etc., on the free list.
Several owners of dogs about town complain that somebody is stealing dog collars and tags from dogs belonging to them.
Gideon Grisdale, who was so terribly injured by a broken band saw at the Hall & Buell mill ten days ago, is able to be out again.
Rev. and Mrs. Palkinborn will be tendered a farewell reception at Old Pillsbury hall tomorrow evening. All are cordially invited to attend.
Every wife occasionally wishes she could vindicate herself by letting some woman her husband profess have him for a few weeks.—Atholton Globe.
The Soo railroad is contemplating a change of time table on the 20th. The change may make some other city a dining point, and in case this is done, the Hiawatha, and not the Oscawagon, will be closed for the season.
A few boys got into trouble one evening last week by robbing the little boys' meetings of the merry-go-round of their string. The string didn't kick but the owner of the outfit did. It cost the boys a neat sum in police court for their fun.
Courts are a tame affair in this country. There was only one criminal case on the docket at the recent term of court, and this case did not amount to much. Slim courts speak well for the efficiency of the justice courts and the morality of our inhabitants.
Some newspapers, during the dull times when there is nothing to write about set up straw man figuratively speaking, and then knock them down again. This is an easy way to get material for long winded articles, but the scheme is entirely too transparent.
Al. Whiteford, foreman of the Delta Lumber Co.'s camp was in the city Sunday. A race is on between the Smith and McGreggor horses and Al. is here to complete arrangements for setting up a match between the winner of this race and the horse he owns.
A musical entertainment will be held at the Norwegian Danish Church, Saturday evening, Sept. 22nd, at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, for adults 25c, for children less than 12 years old, 10 cents. A dish of ice cream will be given each one present, in addition to a fine musical program.
The $48,000 yacht which was moored at the docks Saturday and Sunday was offered for sale for $10,000 cash. Strange to say, there was no taker. Mr. Blimbach wrote out a check for the amount but failed to take it to the owner of the yacht in time. He got away before Moss got to the dock.
The current number of Dine's Review has improved has extended from the banks of the mill, and that the condition of industries has distinctly mended, although still seriously depressed. More important by far than any other stock is the fact that more work has resumed during the past week than have stopped during the past week so that the producing force of the country, after months of constant decline, has begun to increase. The money markets are more bullish the premium on currency is at almost vanished, the embarrassment in domestic exchanges have well nigh disappeared, and while very little money is yet available for commercial loans, there is some relief in that respect also.

THE HEART OF SUPERVISORS MEETS OCT. 26th.
Arrowood's dance was well attended Friday night.
The junior band was out serenading Tuesday evening.
Operations have been resumed in many Condois streets.
The Soo should have a daily newspaper. It could support one as easily as Marquette.
Marked men hold up a Lake Shore train in Indiana, Monday night, and secured $250,000.
At least 15,000 Maccabees are attending the annual review of the order at Grand Rapids this week.
Despite the misrepresentations of bilious people, the usual number of logs will be cut in this section this winter.
The National Furriers' Manufacturers' Association is anxious that congress place burlaps, glass, etc., on the free list.
Several owners of dogs about town complain that somebody is stealing dog collars and tags from dogs belonging to them.
Gideon Grisdale, who was so terribly injured by a broken band saw at the Hall & Buell mill ten days ago, is able to be out again.
Rev. and Mrs. Palkinborn will be tendered a farewell reception at Old Pillsbury hall tomorrow evening. All are cordially invited to attend.
Every wife occasionally wishes she could vindicate herself by letting some woman her husband profess have him for a few weeks.—Atholton Globe.
The Soo railroad is contemplating a change of time table on the 20th. The change may make some other city a dining point, and in case this is done, the Hiawatha, and not the Oscawagon, will be closed for the season.
A few boys got into trouble one evening last week by robbing the little boys' meetings of the merry-go-round of their string. The string didn't kick but the owner of the outfit did. It cost the boys a neat sum in police court for their fun.
Courts are a tame affair in this country. There was only one criminal case on the docket at the recent term of court, and this case did not amount to much. Slim courts speak well for the efficiency of the justice courts and the morality of our inhabitants.
Some newspapers, during the dull times when there is nothing to write about set up straw man figuratively speaking, and then knock them down again. This is an easy way to get material for long winded articles, but the scheme is entirely too transparent.
Al. Whiteford, foreman of the Delta Lumber Co.'s camp was in the city Sunday. A race is on between the Smith and McGreggor horses and Al. is here to complete arrangements for setting up a match between the winner of this race and the horse he owns.
A musical entertainment will be held at the Norwegian Danish Church, Saturday evening, Sept. 22nd, at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, for adults 25c, for children less than 12 years old, 10 cents. A dish of ice cream will be given each one present, in addition to a fine musical program.
The $48,000 yacht which was moored at the docks Saturday and Sunday was offered for sale for $10,000 cash. Strange to say, there was no taker. Mr. Blimbach wrote out a check for the amount but failed to take it to the owner of the yacht in time. He got away before Moss got to the dock.
The current number of Dine's Review has improved has extended from the banks of the mill, and that the condition of industries has distinctly mended, although still seriously depressed. More important by far than any other stock is the fact that more work has resumed during the past week than have stopped during the past week so that the producing force of the country, after months of constant decline, has begun to increase. The money markets are more bullish the premium on currency is at almost vanished, the embarrassment in domestic exchanges have well nigh disappeared, and while very little money is yet available for commercial loans, there is some relief in that respect also.

THE HEART OF SUPERVISORS MEETS OCT. 26th.
Arrowood's dance was well attended Friday night.
The junior band was out serenading Tuesday evening.
Operations have been resumed in many Condois streets.
The Soo should have a daily newspaper. It could support one as easily as Marquette.
Marked men hold up a Lake Shore train in Indiana, Monday night, and secured $250,000.
At least 15,000 Maccabees are attending the annual review of the order at Grand Rapids this week.
Despite the misrepresentations of bilious people, the usual number of logs will be cut in this section this winter.
The National Furriers' Manufacturers' Association is anxious that congress place burlaps, glass, etc., on the free list.
Several owners of dogs about town complain that somebody is stealing dog collars and tags from dogs belonging to them.
Gideon Grisdale, who was so terribly injured by a broken band saw at the Hall & Buell mill ten days ago, is able to be out again.
Rev. and Mrs. Palkinborn will be tendered a farewell reception at Old Pillsbury hall tomorrow evening. All are cordially invited to attend.
Every wife occasionally wishes she could vindicate herself by letting some woman her husband profess have him for a few weeks.—Atholton Globe.
The Soo railroad is contemplating a change of time table on the 20th. The change may make some other city a dining point, and in case this is done, the Hiawatha, and not the Oscawagon, will be closed for the season.
A few boys got into trouble one evening last week by robbing the little boys' meetings of the merry-go-round of their string. The string didn't kick but the owner of the outfit did. It cost the boys a neat sum in police court for their fun.
Courts are a tame affair in this country. There was only one criminal case on the docket at the recent term of court, and this case did not amount to much. Slim courts speak well for the efficiency of the justice courts and the morality of our inhabitants.
Some newspapers, during the dull times when there is nothing to write about set up straw man figuratively speaking, and then knock them down again. This is an easy way to get material for long winded articles, but the scheme is entirely too transparent.
Al. Whiteford, foreman of the Delta Lumber Co.'s camp was in the city Sunday. A race is on between the Smith and McGreggor horses and Al. is here to complete arrangements for setting up a match between the winner of this race and the horse he owns.
A musical entertainment will be held at the Norwegian Danish Church, Saturday evening, Sept. 22nd, at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, for adults 25c, for children less than 12 years old, 10 cents. A dish of ice cream will be given each one present, in addition to a fine musical program.
The $48,000 yacht which was moored at the docks Saturday and Sunday was offered for sale for $10,000 cash. Strange to say, there was no taker. Mr. Blimbach wrote out a check for the amount but failed to take it to the owner of the yacht in time. He got away before Moss got to the dock.
The current number of Dine's Review has improved has extended from the banks of the mill, and that the condition of industries has distinctly mended, although still seriously depressed. More important by far than any other stock is the fact that more work has resumed during the past week than have stopped during the past week so that the producing force of the country, after months of constant decline, has begun to increase. The money markets are more bullish the premium on currency is at almost vanished, the embarrassment in domestic exchanges have well nigh disappeared, and while very little money is yet available for commercial loans, there is some relief in that respect also.

THE HEART OF SUPERVISORS MEETS OCT. 26th.
Arrowood's dance was well attended Friday night.
The junior band was out serenading Tuesday evening.
Operations have been resumed in many Condois streets.
The Soo should have a daily newspaper. It could support one as easily as Marquette.
Marked men hold up a Lake Shore train in Indiana, Monday night, and secured $250,000.
At least 15,000 Maccabees are attending the annual review of the order at Grand Rapids this week.
Despite the misrepresentations of bilious people, the usual number of logs will be cut in this section this winter.
The National Furriers' Manufacturers' Association is anxious that congress place burlaps, glass, etc., on the free list.
Several owners of dogs about town complain that somebody is stealing dog collars and tags from dogs belonging to them.
Gideon Grisdale, who was so terribly injured by a broken band saw at the Hall & Buell mill ten days ago, is able to be out again.
Rev. and Mrs. Palkinborn will be tendered a farewell reception at Old Pillsbury hall tomorrow evening. All are cordially invited to attend.
Every wife occasionally wishes she could vindicate herself by letting some woman her husband profess have him for a few weeks.—Atholton Globe.
The Soo railroad is contemplating a change of time table on the 20th. The change may make some other city a dining point, and in case this is done, the Hiawatha, and not the Oscawagon, will be closed for the season.
A few boys got into trouble one evening last week by robbing the little boys' meetings of the merry-go-round of their string. The string didn't kick but the owner of the outfit did. It cost the boys a neat sum in police court for their fun.
Courts are a tame affair in this country. There was only one criminal case on the docket at the recent term of court, and this case did not amount to much. Slim courts speak well for the efficiency of the justice courts and the morality of our inhabitants.
Some newspapers, during the dull times when there is nothing to write about set up straw man figuratively speaking, and then knock them down again. This is an easy way to get material for long winded articles, but the scheme is entirely too transparent.
Al. Whiteford, foreman of the Delta Lumber Co.'s camp was in the city Sunday. A race is on between the Smith and McGreggor horses and Al. is here to complete arrangements for setting up a match between the winner of this race and the horse he owns.
A musical entertainment will be held at the Norwegian Danish Church, Saturday evening, Sept. 22nd, at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, for adults 25c, for children less than 12 years old, 10 cents. A dish of ice cream will be given each one present, in addition to a fine musical program.
The $48,000 yacht which was moored at the docks Saturday and Sunday was offered for sale for $10,000 cash. Strange to say, there was no taker. Mr. Blimbach wrote out a check for the amount but failed to take it to the owner of the yacht in time. He got away before Moss got to the dock.
The current number of Dine's Review has improved has extended from the banks of the mill, and that the condition of industries has distinctly mended, although still seriously depressed. More important by far than any other stock is the fact that more work has resumed during the past week than have stopped during the past week so that the producing force of the country, after months of constant decline, has begun to increase. The money markets are more bullish the premium on currency is at almost vanished, the embarrassment in domestic exchanges have well nigh disappeared, and while very little money is yet available for commercial loans, there is some relief in that respect also.

THE HEART OF SUPERVISORS MEETS OCT. 26th.
Arrowood's dance was well attended Friday night.
The junior band was out serenading Tuesday evening.
Operations have been resumed in many Condois streets.
The Soo should have a daily newspaper. It could support one as easily as Marquette.
Marked men hold up a Lake Shore train in Indiana, Monday night, and secured $250,000.
At least 15,000 Maccabees are attending the annual review of the order at Grand Rapids this week.
Despite the misrepresentations of bilious people, the usual number of logs will be cut in this section this winter.
The National Furriers' Manufacturers' Association is anxious that congress place burlaps, glass, etc., on the free list.
Several owners of dogs about town complain that somebody is stealing dog collars and tags from dogs belonging to them.
Gideon Grisdale, who was so terribly injured by a broken band saw at the Hall & Buell mill ten days ago, is able to be out again.
Rev. and Mrs. Palkinborn will be tendered a farewell reception at Old Pillsbury hall tomorrow evening. All are cordially invited to attend.
Every wife occasionally wishes she could vindicate herself by letting some woman her husband profess have him for a few weeks.—Atholton Globe.
The Soo railroad is contemplating a change of time table on the 20th. The change may make some other city a dining point, and in case this is done, the Hiawatha, and not the Oscawagon, will be closed for the season.
A few boys got into trouble one evening last week by robbing the little boys' meetings of the merry-go-round of their string. The string didn't kick but the owner of the outfit did. It cost the boys a neat sum in police court for their fun.
Courts are a tame affair in this country. There was only one criminal case on the docket at the recent term of court, and this case did not amount to much. Slim courts speak well for the efficiency of the justice courts and the morality of our inhabitants.
Some newspapers, during the dull times when there is nothing to write about set up straw man figuratively speaking, and then knock them down again. This is an easy way to get material for long winded articles, but the scheme is entirely too transparent.
Al. Whiteford, foreman of the Delta Lumber Co.'s camp was in the city Sunday. A race is on between the Smith and McGreggor horses and Al. is here to complete arrangements for setting up a match between the winner of this race and the horse he owns.
A musical entertainment will be held at the Norwegian Danish Church, Saturday evening, Sept. 22nd, at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, for adults 25c, for children less than 12 years old, 10 cents. A dish of ice cream will be given each one present, in addition to a fine musical program.
The $48,000 yacht which was moored at the docks Saturday and Sunday was offered for sale for $10,000 cash. Strange to say, there was no taker. Mr. Blimbach wrote out a check for the amount but failed to take it to the owner of the yacht in time. He got away before Moss got to the dock.
The current number of Dine's Review has improved has extended from the banks of the mill, and that the condition of industries has distinctly mended, although still seriously depressed. More important by far than any other stock is the fact that more work has resumed during the past week than have stopped during the past week so that the producing force of the country, after months of constant decline, has begun to increase. The money markets are more bullish the premium on currency is at almost vanished, the embarrassment in domestic exchanges have well nigh disappeared, and while very little money is yet available for commercial loans, there is some relief in that respect also.

THE HEART OF SUPERVISORS MEETS OCT. 26th.
Arrowood's dance was well attended Friday night.
The junior band was out serenading Tuesday evening.
Operations have been resumed in many Condois streets.
The Soo should have a daily newspaper. It could support one as easily as Marquette.
Marked men hold up a Lake Shore train in Indiana, Monday night, and secured $250,000.
At least 15,000 Maccabees are attending the annual review of the order at Grand Rapids this week.
Despite the misrepresentations of bilious people, the usual number of logs will be cut in this section this winter.
The National Furriers' Manufacturers' Association is anxious that congress place burlaps, glass, etc., on the free list.
Several owners of dogs about town complain that somebody is stealing dog collars and tags from dogs belonging to them.
Gideon Grisdale, who was so terribly injured by a broken band saw at the Hall & Buell mill ten days ago, is able to be out again.
Rev. and Mrs. Palkinborn will be tendered a farewell reception at Old Pillsbury hall tomorrow evening. All are cordially invited to attend.
Every wife occasionally wishes she could vindicate herself by letting some woman her husband profess have him for a few weeks.—Atholton Globe.
The Soo railroad is contemplating a change of time table on the 20th. The change may make some other city a dining point, and in case this is done, the Hiawatha, and not the Oscawagon, will be closed for the season.
A few boys got into trouble one evening last week by robbing the little boys' meetings of the merry-go-round of their string. The string didn't kick but the owner of the outfit did. It cost the boys a neat sum in police court for their fun.
Courts are a tame affair in this country. There was only one criminal case on the docket at the recent term of court, and this case did not amount to much. Slim courts speak well for the efficiency of the justice courts and the morality of our inhabitants.
Some newspapers, during the dull times when there is nothing to write about set up straw man figuratively speaking, and then knock them down again. This is an easy way to get material for long winded articles, but the scheme is entirely too transparent.
Al. Whiteford, foreman of the Delta Lumber Co.'s camp was in the city Sunday. A race is on between the Smith and McGreggor horses and Al. is here to complete arrangements for setting up a match between the winner of this race and the horse he owns.
A musical entertainment will be held at the Norwegian Danish Church, Saturday evening, Sept. 22nd, at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, for adults 25c, for children less than 12 years old, 10 cents. A dish of ice cream will be given each one present, in addition to a fine musical program.
The $48,000 yacht which was moored at the docks Saturday and Sunday was offered for sale for $10,000 cash. Strange to say, there was no taker. Mr. Blimbach wrote out a check for the amount but failed to take it to the owner of the yacht in time. He got away before Moss got to the dock.
The current number of Dine's Review has improved has extended from the banks of the mill, and that the condition of industries has distinctly mended, although still seriously depressed. More important by far than any other stock is the fact that more work has resumed during the past week than have stopped during the past week so that the producing force of the country, after months of constant decline, has begun to increase. The money markets are more bullish the premium on currency is at almost vanished, the embarrassment in domestic exchanges have well nigh disappeared, and while very little money is yet available for commercial loans, there is some relief in that respect also.

THE HEART OF SUPERVISORS MEETS OCT. 26th.
Arrowood's dance was well attended Friday night.
The junior band was out serenading Tuesday evening.
Operations have been resumed in many Condois streets.
The Soo should have a daily newspaper. It could support one as easily as Marquette.
Marked men hold up a Lake Shore train in Indiana, Monday night, and secured $250,000.
At least 15,000 Maccabees are attending the annual review of the order at Grand Rapids this week.
Despite the misrepresentations of bilious people, the usual number of logs will be cut in this section this winter.
The National Furriers' Manufacturers' Association is anxious that congress place burlaps, glass, etc., on the free list.
Several owners of dogs about town complain that somebody is stealing dog collars and tags from dogs belonging to them.
Gideon Grisdale, who was so terribly injured by a broken band saw at the Hall & Buell mill ten days ago, is able to be out again.
Rev. and Mrs. Palkinborn will be tendered a farewell reception at Old Pillsbury hall tomorrow evening. All are cordially invited to attend.
Every wife occasionally wishes she could vindicate herself by letting some woman her husband profess have him for a few weeks.—Atholton Globe.
The Soo railroad is contemplating a change of time table on the 20th. The change may make some other city a dining point, and in case this is done, the Hiawatha, and not the Oscawagon, will be closed for the season.
A few boys got into trouble one evening last week by robbing the little boys' meetings of the merry-go-round of their string. The string didn't kick but the owner of the outfit did. It cost the boys a neat sum in police court for their fun.
Courts are a tame affair in this country. There was only one criminal case on the docket at the recent term of court, and this case did not amount to much. Slim courts speak well for the efficiency of the justice courts and the morality of our inhabitants.
Some newspapers, during the dull times when there is nothing to write about set up straw man figuratively speaking, and then knock them down again. This is an easy way to get material for long winded articles, but the scheme is entirely too transparent.
Al. Whiteford, foreman of the Delta Lumber Co.'s camp was in the city Sunday. A race is on between the Smith and McGreggor horses and Al. is here to complete arrangements for setting up a match between the winner of this race and the horse he owns.
A musical entertainment will be held at the Norwegian Danish Church, Saturday evening, Sept. 22nd, at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, for adults 25c, for children less than 12 years old, 10 cents. A dish of ice cream will be given each one present, in addition to a fine musical program.
The $48,000 yacht which was moored at the docks Saturday and Sunday was offered for sale for $10,000 cash. Strange to say, there was no taker. Mr. Blimbach wrote out a check for the amount but failed to take it to the owner of the yacht in time. He got away before Moss got to the dock.
The current number of Dine's Review has improved has extended from the banks of the mill, and that the condition of industries has distinctly mended, although still seriously depressed. More important by far than any other stock is the fact that more work has resumed during the past week than have stopped during the past week so that the producing force of the country, after months of constant decline, has begun to increase. The money markets are more bullish the premium on currency is at almost vanished, the embarrassment in domestic exchanges have well nigh disappeared, and while very little money is yet available for commercial loans, there is some relief in that respect also.

THE HEART OF SUPERVISORS MEETS OCT. 26th.
Arrowood's dance was well attended Friday night.
The junior band was out serenading Tuesday evening.
Operations have been resumed in many Condois streets.
The Soo should have a daily newspaper. It could support one as easily as Marquette.
Marked men hold up a Lake Shore train in Indiana, Monday night, and secured $250,000.
At least 15,000 Maccabees are attending the annual review of the order at Grand Rapids this week.
Despite the misrepresentations of bilious people, the usual number of logs will be cut in this section this winter.
The National Furriers' Manufacturers' Association is anxious that congress place burlaps, glass, etc., on the free list.
Several owners of dogs about town complain that somebody is stealing dog collars and tags from dogs belonging to them.
Gideon Grisdale, who was so terribly injured by a broken band saw at the Hall & Buell mill ten days ago, is able to be out again.
Rev. and Mrs. Palkinborn will be tendered a farewell reception at Old Pillsbury hall tomorrow evening. All are cordially invited to attend.
Every wife occasionally wishes she could vindicate herself by letting some woman her husband profess have him for a few weeks.—Atholton Globe.
The Soo railroad is contemplating a change of time table on the 20th. The change may make some other city a dining point, and in case this is done, the Hiawatha, and not the Oscawagon, will be closed for the season.
A few boys got into trouble one evening last week by robbing the little boys' meetings of the merry-go-round of their string. The string didn't kick but the owner of the outfit did. It cost the boys a neat sum in police court for their fun.
Courts are a tame affair in this country. There was only one criminal case on the docket at the recent term of court, and this case did not amount to much. Slim courts speak well for the efficiency of the justice courts and the morality of our inhabitants.
Some newspapers, during the dull times when there is nothing to write about set up straw man figuratively speaking, and then knock them down again. This is an easy way to get material for long winded articles, but the scheme is entirely too transparent.
Al. Whiteford, foreman of the Delta Lumber Co.'s camp was in the city Sunday. A race is on between the Smith and McGreggor horses and Al. is here to complete arrangements for setting up a match between the winner of this race and the horse he owns.
A musical entertainment will be held at the Norwegian Danish Church, Saturday evening, Sept. 22nd, at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, for adults 25c, for children less than 12 years old, 10 cents. A dish of ice cream will be given each one present, in addition to a fine musical program.
The $48,000 yacht which was moored at the docks Saturday and Sunday was offered for sale for $10,000 cash. Strange to say, there was no taker. Mr. Blimbach wrote out a check for the amount but failed to take it to the owner of the yacht in time. He got away before Moss got to the dock.
The current number of Dine's Review has improved has extended from the banks of the mill, and that the condition of industries has distinctly mended, although still seriously depressed. More important by far than any other stock is the fact that more work has resumed during the past week than have stopped during the past week so that the producing force of the country, after months of constant decline, has begun to increase. The money markets are more bullish the premium on currency is at almost vanished, the embarrassment in domestic exchanges have well nigh disappeared, and while very little money is yet available for commercial loans, there is some relief in that respect also.

THE HEART OF SUPERVISORS MEETS OCT. 26th.
Arrowood's dance was well attended Friday night.
The junior band was out serenading Tuesday evening.
Operations have been resumed in many Condois streets.
The Soo should have a daily newspaper. It could support one as easily as Marquette.
Marked men hold up a Lake Shore train in Indiana, Monday night, and secured $250,000.
At least 15,000 Maccabees are attending the annual review of the order at Grand Rapids this week.
Despite the misrepresentations of bilious people, the usual number of logs will be cut in this section this winter.
The National Furriers' Manufacturers' Association is anxious that congress place burlaps, glass, etc., on the free list.
Several owners of dogs about town complain that somebody is stealing dog collars and tags from dogs belonging to them.
Gideon Grisdale, who was so terribly injured by a broken band saw at the Hall & Buell mill ten days ago, is able to be out again.
Rev. and Mrs. Palkinborn will be tendered a farewell reception at Old Pillsbury hall tomorrow evening. All are cordially invited to attend.
Every wife occasionally wishes she could vindicate herself by letting some woman her husband profess have him for a few weeks.—Atholton Globe.
The Soo railroad is contemplating a change of time table on the 20th. The change may make some other city a dining point, and in case this is done, the Hiawatha, and not the Oscawagon, will be closed for the season.
A few boys got into trouble one evening last week by robbing the little boys' meetings of the merry-go-round of their string. The string didn't kick but the owner of the outfit did. It cost the boys a neat sum in police court for their fun.
Courts are a tame affair in this country. There was only one criminal case on the docket at the recent term of court, and this case did not amount to much. Slim courts speak well for the efficiency of the justice courts and the morality of our inhabitants.
Some newspapers, during the dull times when there is nothing to write about set up straw man figuratively speaking, and then knock them down again. This is an easy way to get material for long winded articles, but the scheme is entirely too transparent.
Al. Whiteford, foreman of the Delta Lumber Co.'s camp was in the city Sunday. A race is on between the Smith and McGreggor horses and Al. is here to complete arrangements for setting up a match between the winner of this race and the horse he owns.
A musical entertainment will be held at the Norwegian Danish Church, Saturday evening, Sept. 22nd, at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, for adults 25c, for children less than 12 years old, 10 cents. A dish of ice cream will be given each one present, in addition to a fine musical program.
The $48,000 yacht which was moored at the docks Saturday and Sunday was offered for sale for $10,000 cash. Strange to say, there was no taker. Mr. Blimbach wrote out a check for the amount but failed to take it to the owner

LEADER OF THE HOUSE.

Representative William L. Wilson, of West Virginia.

The gentleman selected by Speaker Crisp as the Chairman of the Education Committee on Ways and Means.

William L. Wilson, the new leader of the House, is a gentleman, a scholar and a statesman, says the Chicago Evening Post.

To look at Mr. Wilson from the house galleries no one would suspect him of being a leader of men. In physique he is small, both in height and girth. And he seldom speaks. His face is soona and his features are so regular. His eyes are kind, gray, deep-set, his chin like his mouth, which is concealed behind a large sandy and gray mustache. His movements are quick and precise. His dress is neat and quiet. His hands and feet are small and shapely. He sits in the third section on the left of the speaker, half way back. When he sits down he finds a comfortable position and will retain it for a long time. He is a good listener. He prefers to listen. He knows what he knows and is not possessed by an inferiority. He desires to tell it to others. His desire is to learn from others. Sometimes he does learn, and then he becomes very much interested. Sometimes he is amused and then he smiles. Sometimes he is bored. He then either writes letters, reads the newspapers or leaves the chamber. He is a great admirer of Mr. Everett, from Massachusetts, the scholar of the house.

Once in a great while Mr. Wilson speaks. He made a tariff speech during the last congress. It was clear, strong, eloquent and convincing. Everybody present listens attentively when Mr. Wilson speaks. And every body is present who knows that he is going to speak and expect to hear him. His voice is of rather high pitch, but it is resonant and strong and reaches all parts of the chamber. His gestures are few and the few are quick and express the desired meaning. His argument is, compared to the majority made in congress, quite lofty. He states his premises clearly, draws his deductions naturally, marshals his arguments skillfully and presents them in a compact group convincingly. His speeches are never tiresome. This is not because he seldom makes long ones, but because he clothes his thoughts in such well-fitting language as to enable his audience to follow him without much strain of mind. He has a keen sense of humor. He has himself under complete control, and is quick and ready at repartee.

His popularity is great. But there is nothing of the halo fellow well met about him. He impresses one as a man of serious thought, who while he sees much in the world that is laughable yet doesn't look upon the laughter of humanity as a laughing face. Neither does he consider every question a matter of life and death. This is because of his philosophy. His philosophy tells him that there is no such thing as perfect happiness on this revolving mass of earth and water. It tells him that if every thing he wanted came his way he would be the most bored mortal alive. So he takes his life with his misapprehensions and pursues his way toward the goal of his ambition without troubling on any more feet than he can help. It is a pleasant man to meet. His conversation is free and fanciful. He is a good entertainer and might spend a whole evening with him and hear from him a word about the tariff, unless in reply to a question. Everybody in the house of representatives likes him. This is true from the speaker down to the youngest page.

Two years ago Mr. Wilson was regarded as a very likely candidate for speaker. It is fortunate for him that he was not elected, for as a presiding officer he is not a success. Those who saw him preside at the Chicago democratic convention appreciate his shortcoming in that direction. Mr. Wilson is fifty years old. He is now serving his sixth consecutive term in congress. He was born in Jefferson county, Va., May 8, 1847; was educated at Charleston academy and Columbia college, District of Columbia, where he graduated in 1860. After serving several years in the confederate army he became a professor of Columbia college, but on the overthrow of the layover's test oath in West Virginia, he resigned and entered upon the practice of law in Charleston. He was a delegate to the national democratic convention in Cincinnati in 1880 and two years later was elected president of the university of West Virginia. He received the degree of LL. D. from the Columbian university in 1888 and from the Hampden-Sydney college, Virginia, in 1889. He was appointed regent in the Smithsonian institution and at the end of his term was reappointed.

What London Drinks. According to a statement recently published by the London Mansion House the city of London drinks every day forty-five million gallons of malt liquor, eight million gallons of wine and forty-five hundred thousand gallons of spirits.

THE HOME OF GOETHE.

House at Frankfurt where the Great Poet Was Born.

We saw the old Goethe house on Judenstrasse, which is located in Frankfurt in a recent letter from Frank on the Main, and also No. 146, but we did not mean to go to the house of Goethe's birthplace in the Gross-Hirschgraben, and with reverent steps, entered the house where the great man was born. It is a two-story, red-roofed building, and is kept with jealous care by the city of Frankfurt, just as it was in Goethe's time. The lower floor was formerly the dining-room, kitchen and servants' quarters, is now given up to the city who takes care of the building. The second story, or the mezzanine floor, is the first stage, consists of the rooms that were used as salons, picture-mal, etc., and which contain some articles of furniture, paintings of Goethe's father and mother, and old portraits of states. The second stage was the living rooms of his father and mother. To the left is the library, with the window out in the side, through which the stern father kept his eye on the wandering son. We peeped through this window, and saw the home of the corner, where the boy, Goethe, went to see and saw the Grotto. Here also were his mother's two rooms, the smaller one, in which the great Goethe was born, being at the back of the house. The next story, or third stage, were the great poet's study quarters. Here in the center room were written all his early poems and plays. Here were childish drawings, here was his old desk, all stained with light. In one corner stood an old spinnet on which he had played, and many little things that had been his in early days were here. In the other rooms were also memories of the past, some of his manuscripts and copies of his first and final works. But in this center room most of his young work was done, even the first half of the immortal "Faust" were written here. The second half of it was finished many years later at Weimar. Perhaps it is foolish to care so much for the shell after the kernel has gone to feed the casket after the spirit has fled, but while poor human nature is only human nature we always will, I suppose. As we stood there in Goethe's home amid the inanimate things that had been his, he the man, the poet, Goethe, became more real to us than any amount of reading had made him. The mother-cap he once had laid worn, the clock that he had had on his desk brought back to Goethe that was a dreamlike and real. Why, this great Goethe had been a man, and he had lived like other people.

JOHANN WOLFGANG GOETHE.

After more edibles came the turn of dance. The whole thing, the whole thing of the club; in their hair, on their faces, on every particle of their complexions, dresses, certainly coming to light in the swaying of their graceful bodies, the flutter of fans on the floor, the sound of dark heels bounding over them. At the end of the feast whatever food was left was carefully packed in white wooden boxes and given to the guests. - N. Y. Sun.

TOLD BY THE TEETH. The first and most noted instance where identification by the teeth was made conclusive was in the case of Nostrass, the dynamite, who had murdered the life of Russell Sage, and was blown to pieces. While a trousseau band furnished the first clue to this identity, it was not until his teeth were examined by his dentist that the identity was recognized by the young man's parents. The next time that the question was brought into prominence was after the terrible Hotel Royal fire in New York, in which all of the victims were burned beyond recognition to humanity. While the charred bodies were lying at the morgue an old lady called there in search of her missing daughter. She was accompanied by her family dentist, and within five minutes the missing and crying child was found and identified by means of the dentist's chart. The old lady's example was followed by others, and in this way nearly all of the victims of the locust were recognized and claimed by their friends. - Chicago Times.

He'd Been Backed. Horseman - That is a remarkably fine animal, you are driving, man. Lady - O, I wouldn't part with such a horse for the world. He's just as gentle as a lamb and real fast. Horseman - So I should judge. He has ever been backed against any noted trotter. Lady - Well, I don't know, but it seems to me you back against pretty much everything in the street every time you succeed to turn round. - N. Y. Weekly.

Provision for Servant Girls. To the German emperor is ascribed a thoughtful provision for servant girls which was put in force two years ago. Every maid servant, it seems, is provided with a stampbook. In this book every week a three-cent stamp bought from the government is pasted by her mistress. This is on her part the tax which she pays the government presumably as her license to keep a servant. The benefit accrues to the girl, for should the girl be ill the stamp will be redeemed by the government for her support, otherwise the stamps are kept and become a fund for her in old age.

Rear Admiral Weaver. Rear Admiral A. W. Weaver, who has signified his intention of retiring under the forty years' service clause as soon as the senate shall have confirmed his nomination to that rank, was born in the District of Columbia July 1, 1822, and entered the navy at the age of sixteen. He took part in the surveys for the Atlantic cable in 1857. He was constantly engaged during the civil war, and commanded the iron-clad Mahopac at the capture of Fort Fisher.

Metal Currency of the World. The silver currency of the world amounts to $4,900,000,000. The gold currency amounts to $162,000,000. France stands first among nations in respect of gold coins, the United States second, Germany third, Great Britain fourth. Per capita, France has $20 in gold coin, the United States $16, Germany $12 and Great Britain $14.

A MAPLE DINNER IN JAPAN.

Maple Was Every where Except in the Food That They Eaten.

Japanese club men have some things to be thankful for. At a dinner recently at the Maple Club in Tokio both members and guests arrived in first-class shas. They sat down on the entrance stairs and removed their boots. On entering the guests were presented with art books, bound in yellow silk. The Maple club they found to be very elegant; maple; ceilings and floor were of the wood; white silk panels, and the little charcoal stove were all ornamented with maple leaves. They had their dinner in spring tides, another in autumn colors, and even the balcony had a maple-leaf design.

The dining-room was carpeted with shak, not matted, but was quite impervious to furniture. Big silk cushions were the substitutes for chairs. The guests did their best to sit down on their heels, in a more fashion, and were very nervous with sticky looking wormwood tea, green tea. Fascinating girl attendants - the prettiest to be found in Japan - served the tea to each diner. They made waiting as picturesque as a dance. They entered without a sound, gilded up to the guests, dropped on their knees, and continued kneeling, with downcast eyes, until those they were serving were ready to be helped. After the tea they brought white cakes wrapped in delicate rice paper and flaked with sweetened maple leaves. These are said to keep four months, but they did not last long. They came in fish, white and red seaweed, rice spinach, and raw shiso, which is a sauer; blackfish, broth; prawns in latter, served on a plate with small, which might have been prepared with a blacksmith's hammer, crystallized oranges and walnut fish cakes made into a paste, which looked like pork fat. Japanese potatoes, beaten up with lean lard and sugar till they tasted like marrows; green, then more fish, served with salted soy sauce and sweet potatoes syruped. All the time the guests were stared in the face by bottles of sake, a starvoledonor liquor, and the like.

Suddenly the notes of a Japanese guitar were heard, and the doors of the dining-room were flung open, disclosing women playing on the koto, an instrument six feet long, with violin strings. The dancers were dressed in scarlet brocade, made with long sleeves and two tunics, the under one very light, disclosing white skin trousers, which terminated in little linen tabs - shoes and stockings all in one. The dancing was more like posturing of ornamenting. The writhed attitudes showed extraordinary muscular training. After the first dancer had swept from the room, more courses followed - soup and again, fish. A new dance then entered.

After more edibles came the turn of dance. The whole thing, the whole thing of the club; in their hair, on their faces, on every particle of their complexions, dresses, certainly coming to light in the swaying of their graceful bodies, the flutter of fans on the floor, the sound of dark heels bounding over them. At the end of the feast whatever food was left was carefully packed in white wooden boxes and given to the guests. - N. Y. Sun.

TOLD BY THE TEETH. The first and most noted instance where identification by the teeth was made conclusive was in the case of Nostrass, the dynamite, who had murdered the life of Russell Sage, and was blown to pieces. While a trousseau band furnished the first clue to this identity, it was not until his teeth were examined by his dentist that the identity was recognized by the young man's parents. The next time that the question was brought into prominence was after the terrible Hotel Royal fire in New York, in which all of the victims were burned beyond recognition to humanity. While the charred bodies were lying at the morgue an old lady called there in search of her missing daughter. She was accompanied by her family dentist, and within five minutes the missing and crying child was found and identified by means of the dentist's chart. The old lady's example was followed by others, and in this way nearly all of the victims of the locust were recognized and claimed by their friends. - Chicago Times.

He'd Been Backed. Horseman - That is a remarkably fine animal, you are driving, man. Lady - O, I wouldn't part with such a horse for the world. He's just as gentle as a lamb and real fast. Horseman - So I should judge. He has ever been backed against any noted trotter. Lady - Well, I don't know, but it seems to me you back against pretty much everything in the street every time you succeed to turn round. - N. Y. Weekly.

Provision for Servant Girls. To the German emperor is ascribed a thoughtful provision for servant girls which was put in force two years ago. Every maid servant, it seems, is provided with a stampbook. In this book every week a three-cent stamp bought from the government is pasted by her mistress. This is on her part the tax which she pays the government presumably as her license to keep a servant. The benefit accrues to the girl, for should the girl be ill the stamp will be redeemed by the government for her support, otherwise the stamps are kept and become a fund for her in old age.

Rear Admiral Weaver. Rear Admiral A. W. Weaver, who has signified his intention of retiring under the forty years' service clause as soon as the senate shall have confirmed his nomination to that rank, was born in the District of Columbia July 1, 1822, and entered the navy at the age of sixteen. He took part in the surveys for the Atlantic cable in 1857. He was constantly engaged during the civil war, and commanded the iron-clad Mahopac at the capture of Fort Fisher.

FIRST-CLASS SAMPLE ROOMS.

GO TO JOHN HAYDEN'S SALOON.

If you want a fine refreshing glass of the finest beer on the market that is the famous

Schlitz Beer!

This Beer is Manufactured by the well known Jos. Schlitz Brewing Co., of Milwaukee.

Fine Wines and Liquors. And the Finest Brands of Cigars always in Stock.

BEBEAU BROTHERS, PROPRIETORS.

Livery and Feed Stable.

Good Horses, Family Horses, First-Class Rig.

When in need of a first-class Rig you cannot do better than patronize this firm. Everything in good order.

OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

Decent & Tardiff, Proprietors of the West Side Saloon.

This Resort is elegantly fitted out and is one of the finest saloons on the peninsula, and keeps the finest stock of rare

WINE AND LIQUORS, IN THE LAND.

We also keep in stock some fine Imported Wines including the famous

CIGARS!

THE SOO LINE. Minneapolis, St. Paul and South St. Marie By SOO LINE.

THE DIRECT LINE TO PORTS IN CANADIAN PROVINCES, New England, New York, Wisconsin, Michigan.

SOLID TRAINS TO MONTREAL DAILY, THROUGH BOSTON TO BOSTON DAILY.

RATES ALWAYS THE LOWEST.

SHORT LINE TO OAKS, VALLEY CITY AND CARRINGTON, N. D.

A large tract of government land along the M. St. P. & S. N. R. Ry., now open for section purchase at the nominal rate.

AGENTS: C. B. HIBBARD G. P. A., MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

SAMPLE ROOMS. KINGHAM BROS., PROPRIETORS OF.

The Shamrock Saloon AND BILLIARD ROOM.

Where you will find constantly on hand the purest of WINES - AND - LIQUORS. THE CHOICEST BRANDS OF CIGARS!

The Famous Schlitz Beer always on Tap. When in need of a good fresh glass of Beer give the Shamrock a call.

FIRST-CLASS LIVERY STABLE.

WEST SIDE LIVERY STABLE. (Located near Hotel Milwaukee)

ORR & DOAN, PROPRIETORS.

Are better prepared than ever to please the public. We have New Stock, New Buggies and can suit the tastes of all waiting Fast Horses or Family Horses.

TOURISTS Will receive special attention, and we will freely and gladly give them the benefit of our knowledge concerning hunting grounds, fishing places and other points of interest.

ORR & DOAN, Props.

The Eagle Livery AND BUS LINE.

Manistiquic, Michigan.

TOURISTS will find at this stable comfortable rigs and good drivers. Special attention given to pleasure parties, reliable information given to boating, fishing and hunting grounds. Leave orders with bus driver who meets all trains and boats.

GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS. Groceries and Provisions of all kinds, Flour, etc. Goods and prices guaranteed to be satisfactory at KLAGSTAD, LARSEN & CO.

GENERAL HARDWARE. J. B. LOWIS, DEALER IN SHELF AND HEAVY HARDWARE.

Now is the time to buy an elegant coal or wood heater. I have my goods marked down to 'red rock' prices, and can please all my customers with variety and quality. Everything in the Hardware line at

J. B. LOWIS, THE LEADER IN HARDWARE.

THE JOS. SCHLITZ BREWING COMPANY, OF MILWAUKEE, WIS. WILL BE HERE AFTER FURNISH MANISTIQUE LIQUOR DEALERS WITH THEIR

World's Famous Beer.

« Matt Schneider »

As their Agent in this City who will at all times be prepared to wait on their numerous customers.

This Beer is Sold by all our Liquor Dealers.

« That's So! »

But if you want to see how far money goes bring some of it to our store and we will show you how far it goes.

$1 GOES | $2 GOES | $3 GOES | $5 GOES

And we will soon convince you that you can buy more and better Groceries, Provisions, Flour, Food, Tobacco, Cigars, Pipes, Crochery, Glassware etc., at

Frank Clark & Co's.

WHEN IN THE CITY STOP AT THE NEW HOTEL.

The St. James Hotel.

PATRICK McNAMARA, Prop.

This elegant new hotel has just recently opened its doors to the public and is elegantly furnished throughout with brand new furniture. This new hotel for the traveling public is pleasantly located on the West Side and is only five minutes walk from the Soo line depot.

First-class Sample Rooms in connection where you will always find the finest Wines, Liquors and Cigars constantly in stock.

Rates of this Hotel are 1.00 to 1.50 per Day.

FIRST-CLASS LIVERY STABLE.

WEST SIDE LIVERY STABLE. (Located near Hotel Milwaukee)

ORR & DOAN, PROPRIETORS.

Are better prepared than ever to please the public. We have New Stock, New Buggies and can suit the tastes of all waiting Fast Horses or Family Horses.

TOURISTS Will receive special attention, and we will freely and gladly give them the benefit of our knowledge concerning hunting grounds, fishing places and other points of interest.

ORR & DOAN, Props.

The Eagle Livery AND BUS LINE.

Manistiquic, Michigan.

TOURISTS will find at this stable comfortable rigs and good drivers. Special attention given to pleasure parties, reliable information given to boating, fishing and hunting grounds. Leave orders with bus driver who meets all trains and boats.

GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS. Groceries and Provisions of all kinds, Flour, etc. Goods and prices guaranteed to be satisfactory at KLAGSTAD, LARSEN & CO.

GENERAL HARDWARE. J. B. LOWIS, DEALER IN SHELF AND HEAVY HARDWARE.

Now is the time to buy an elegant coal or wood heater. I have my goods marked down to 'red rock' prices, and can please all my customers with variety and quality. Everything in the Hardware line at

J. B. LOWIS, THE LEADER IN HARDWARE.

THE JOS. SCHLITZ BREWING COMPANY, OF MILWAUKEE, WIS. WILL BE HERE AFTER FURNISH MANISTIQUE LIQUOR DEALERS WITH THEIR

World's Famous Beer.

« Matt Schneider »

As their Agent in this City who will at all times be prepared to wait on their numerous customers.

This Beer is Sold by all our Liquor Dealers.

« That's So! »

But if you want to see how far money goes bring some of it to our store and we will show you how far it goes.

$1 GOES | $2 GOES | $3 GOES | $5 GOES

And we will soon convince you that you can buy more and better Groceries, Provisions, Flour, Food, Tobacco, Cigars, Pipes, Crochery, Glassware etc., at

Frank Clark & Co's.

WHEN IN THE CITY STOP AT THE NEW HOTEL.

The St. James Hotel.

PATRICK McNAMARA, Prop.

This elegant new hotel has just recently opened its doors to the public and is elegantly furnished throughout with brand new furniture. This new hotel for the traveling public is pleasantly located on the West Side and is only five minutes walk from the Soo line depot.

First-class Sample Rooms in connection where you will always find the finest Wines, Liquors and Cigars constantly in stock.

Rates of this Hotel are 1.00 to 1.50 per Day.

THE TRIBUNE

(Successor to the Star.)
PUBLISHED BY THE TRIBUNE PUBLISHING CO.
505 E. HADLEY, Editor and Manager.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 14, 1911.

Every man with a bright sun believes in himself.

The Chiappa county fair will be held October 16, 17 and 18.

No less than $250,000 is being distributed in Michigan this week on account of pensions.

From the records it is learned that 14,200 veterans of the late war died during the past year.

It is reported that John Powers of Escanaba, will be appointed district attorney for the western district of Michigan.

The No has a doctor named Deadman. He is not what his name implies, however, for he was a prize in a bicycle race last week.

The only good thing that can be said of several papers published in the state is that they are well printed and neat typographically.

The attendance at the World's Fair is increasing daily. No less than 20,000,000 people will visit the greatest show on earth before its close.

Capt. Jack Adams of Massachusetts, was chosen commander of the 41st A. R. at the national encampment held at Indianapolis last week.

The new directory just issued gives the No a population of nearly 12,000, which is an increase of 200,000 over the last census.

The No papers take pride in heralding the fact that there is only one want store room in the No. Mainly this has to do with the No. or the man that complies the directory.

The Monmouth Journal has reached our exchange table. It is bright and shiny and full of news. It is a very nice newspaper enterprise.

G. A. R. Veterans emphasize the measure terms the Legislative bill of State Smith. The measure is intended to be passed in the next session of the Legislature.

You never expect anything good from a man that puts his name in the middle. There are exceptions to the rule, however.

W. B. Ray Simpson killed two tank robbers one day last week.

With cheek monumental, the No Democrats say that "the business dullness due to the administration for the past four years, previous to March 21, has left many fellows out of work."

It is reported that a tariff for revenue only measure will be presented in Congress about Nov. 1st. As the extension of the government increased the receipts $18,000,000 per day, we may understand that the tariff will be increased.

Impending the voters defeated a proposition to bond the city for $100,000 for improvement bonds. The reason for their defeat was the fact that the workmen were to receive only $1 a day in making the proposed improvements.

Re-sentinel legal is now an aspirant for the Republican nomination for the governorship of Kansas. Legal's desertion of his party last year in the senatorial election in which Puffer was victorious. The Republican party of Kansas will keep Mr. Legal on probation until such time when his Republican will not be questioned. Suffice to say he will not be called from his promissory state jail.

Governor Rich issued the following proclamation last Thursday in reference to Michigan's day at the world's fair: "September 13 and 14 have been designated by the world's fair officials as Michigan days. The board of world's fair managers for Michigan have arranged special attractions for these days and railroad and steamship companies are offering especially low rates to excursionists for that week. This is the best month to visit the fair. A special invitation has been extended to every person who has ever been a resident of Michigan to be in attendance at these days. The importance of this event cannot be too strongly impressed upon our citizens. Other states have made special efforts on occasions of this kind, and their citizens have responded in large numbers and with intense enthusiasm. It is to be hoped that our citizens will fall in line and assist by their presence in making Michigan days the crowning events of the Columbian celebration."

A Minneapolis bank had a week of trouble last week. The paying teller, associated with $30,000 in cash and the cashier counted $30,000.

It is pretty generally understood that the party in power has decided to repeal the prohibitive tax on the state bank currency issues. Wild currency may again grace the country.

The Indianapolis Herald's definition of an anarchist will surely get that paper into trouble at Washington. "An anarchist," says the Herald, "is a person, not being a member of congress, who persists in talking when he ought to work."

Various portions of the country are having a sugar famine. It is believed that the sugar trust has restricted the output so as to raise the price of the sweet commodity. Trusts and the enemies of the people, and should be legislated out of existence.

The Mirror is making a righteous war on the Northwestern railroad. The officials of that road lay awake nights, scheming how they can "do up" the enterprising little city of Escanaba. Lack of competition is all that ails the Northwestern. The No should hold a spear into Escanaba by all means.

George Gould is contemplating moving from New York because he thinks he is excessively taxed by that city. He is compelled to pay taxes on $1,000,000. It is estimated that his fortune is $70,000,000. We know of several persons that would only be too glad to pay the taxes were they in possession of it.

Rain Pasha is dead again. From accounts that appear trustworthy it is a fact that he is dead. It is unnecessary to send Stanley to "Darkest Africa" to recover his body, as the cannibalistic natives ate him. An expedition might soon return to the civilized world with the body of the man that ate Kain Pasha.

The long expected and much discussed affair transpired at the White House Saturday. The news papers devoted several columns concerning the event. These articles when condensed read very much like the ordinary high school class book on the subject of the French Revolution.

The Iron Trade Review this week says: "The situation in brief is this: In 1910, the same conditions that have prevailed for the past three months except that further cutting off of production is being the out-out back to the basis of early Lake Superior days. In 1911, a slightly greater movement than at any time in the preceding month, but at the lowest price, and no indication of any other change for the better. In said products more activity has not enough to call any additional producing capacity into requisition. There is a general appreciation by the iron trade in the fact that the meeting of business in all lines is to be much slower than that of putting down. Producers now out of the market understand that very few of them could finance under the present conditions if they desired to resume."

The editor of the Fremont endeavor to make capital out of a spiritual bond that appeared in The Tribune last week. In his report to said bond he acknowledged the truthfulness. It is on the program of "the trinity" that he must kick, but his attempt to make a mountain out of a mole hill is making out and disgusting. A man that would kick on the fact that he is a member of the trinity is a man that is not worth anything.

Why is it that a woman can struggle until she is red in the face and when she is laid on her back and a woman in a railroad train in her vain endeavor to close or open it when all that a man has to do is to walk up and get over exactly the same kind of action that she is at ready to do in a moment? It is a most humiliating fact, but a very true one. It is a fact that the woman out of a dozen or so of them are successful in arranging a way for their satisfaction. They pull and push and they are unembarrassed, and finally in a placid manner, look around at some slip of a man who, without any previous knowledge of the fact, is standing by the woman looking at him with a look of admiration and respect. Philadelphia Times.

Why is it that a woman can struggle until she is red in the face and when she is laid on her back and a woman in a railroad train in her vain endeavor to close or open it when all that a man has to do is to walk up and get over exactly the same kind of action that she is at ready to do in a moment? It is a most humiliating fact, but a very true one. It is a fact that the woman out of a dozen or so of them are successful in arranging a way for their satisfaction. They pull and push and they are unembarrassed, and finally in a placid manner, look around at some slip of a man who, without any previous knowledge of the fact, is standing by the woman looking at him with a look of admiration and respect. Philadelphia Times.

Why is it that a woman can struggle until she is red in the face and when she is laid on her back and a woman in a railroad train in her vain endeavor to close or open it when all that a man has to do is to walk up and get over exactly the same kind of action that she is at ready to do in a moment? It is a most humiliating fact, but a very true one. It is a fact that the woman out of a dozen or so of them are successful in arranging a way for their satisfaction. They pull and push and they are unembarrassed, and finally in a placid manner, look around at some slip of a man who, without any previous knowledge of the fact, is standing by the woman looking at him with a look of admiration and respect. Philadelphia Times.

Why is it that a woman can struggle until she is red in the face and when she is laid on her back and a woman in a railroad train in her vain endeavor to close or open it when all that a man has to do is to walk up and get over exactly the same kind of action that she is at ready to do in a moment? It is a most humiliating fact, but a very true one. It is a fact that the woman out of a dozen or so of them are successful in arranging a way for their satisfaction. They pull and push and they are unembarrassed, and finally in a placid manner, look around at some slip of a man who, without any previous knowledge of the fact, is standing by the woman looking at him with a look of admiration and respect. Philadelphia Times.

Why is it that a woman can struggle until she is red in the face and when she is laid on her back and a woman in a railroad train in her vain endeavor to close or open it when all that a man has to do is to walk up and get over exactly the same kind of action that she is at ready to do in a moment? It is a most humiliating fact, but a very true one. It is a fact that the woman out of a dozen or so of them are successful in arranging a way for their satisfaction. They pull and push and they are unembarrassed, and finally in a placid manner, look around at some slip of a man who, without any previous knowledge of the fact, is standing by the woman looking at him with a look of admiration and respect. Philadelphia Times.

Why is it that a woman can struggle until she is red in the face and when she is laid on her back and a woman in a railroad train in her vain endeavor to close or open it when all that a man has to do is to walk up and get over exactly the same kind of action that she is at ready to do in a moment? It is a most humiliating fact, but a very true one. It is a fact that the woman out of a dozen or so of them are successful in arranging a way for their satisfaction. They pull and push and they are unembarrassed, and finally in a placid manner, look around at some slip of a man who, without any previous knowledge of the fact, is standing by the woman looking at him with a look of admiration and respect. Philadelphia Times.

Why is it that a woman can struggle until she is red in the face and when she is laid on her back and a woman in a railroad train in her vain endeavor to close or open it when all that a man has to do is to walk up and get over exactly the same kind of action that she is at ready to do in a moment? It is a most humiliating fact, but a very true one. It is a fact that the woman out of a dozen or so of them are successful in arranging a way for their satisfaction. They pull and push and they are unembarrassed, and finally in a placid manner, look around at some slip of a man who, without any previous knowledge of the fact, is standing by the woman looking at him with a look of admiration and respect. Philadelphia Times.

Why is it that a woman can struggle until she is red in the face and when she is laid on her back and a woman in a railroad train in her vain endeavor to close or open it when all that a man has to do is to walk up and get over exactly the same kind of action that she is at ready to do in a moment? It is a most humiliating fact, but a very true one. It is a fact that the woman out of a dozen or so of them are successful in arranging a way for their satisfaction. They pull and push and they are unembarrassed, and finally in a placid manner, look around at some slip of a man who, without any previous knowledge of the fact, is standing by the woman looking at him with a look of admiration and respect. Philadelphia Times.

Why is it that a woman can struggle until she is red in the face and when she is laid on her back and a woman in a railroad train in her vain endeavor to close or open it when all that a man has to do is to walk up and get over exactly the same kind of action that she is at ready to do in a moment? It is a most humiliating fact, but a very true one. It is a fact that the woman out of a dozen or so of them are successful in arranging a way for their satisfaction. They pull and push and they are unembarrassed, and finally in a placid manner, look around at some slip of a man who, without any previous knowledge of the fact, is standing by the woman looking at him with a look of admiration and respect. Philadelphia Times.

Why is it that a woman can struggle until she is red in the face and when she is laid on her back and a woman in a railroad train in her vain endeavor to close or open it when all that a man has to do is to walk up and get over exactly the same kind of action that she is at ready to do in a moment? It is a most humiliating fact, but a very true one. It is a fact that the woman out of a dozen or so of them are successful in arranging a way for their satisfaction. They pull and push and they are unembarrassed, and finally in a placid manner, look around at some slip of a man who, without any previous knowledge of the fact, is standing by the woman looking at him with a look of admiration and respect. Philadelphia Times.

Why is it that a woman can struggle until she is red in the face and when she is laid on her back and a woman in a railroad train in her vain endeavor to close or open it when all that a man has to do is to walk up and get over exactly the same kind of action that she is at ready to do in a moment? It is a most humiliating fact, but a very true one. It is a fact that the woman out of a dozen or so of them are successful in arranging a way for their satisfaction. They pull and push and they are unembarrassed, and finally in a placid manner, look around at some slip of a man who, without any previous knowledge of the fact, is standing by the woman looking at him with a look of admiration and respect. Philadelphia Times.

Why is it that a woman can struggle until she is red in the face and when she is laid on her back and a woman in a railroad train in her vain endeavor to close or open it when all that a man has to do is to walk up and get over exactly the same kind of action that she is at ready to do in a moment? It is a most humiliating fact, but a very true one. It is a fact that the woman out of a dozen or so of them are successful in arranging a way for their satisfaction. They pull and push and they are unembarrassed, and finally in a placid manner, look around at some slip of a man who, without any previous knowledge of the fact, is standing by the woman looking at him with a look of admiration and respect. Philadelphia Times.

FRENCH WOMEN JOURNALISTS.
You are invited among the notable of Paris—their Work and Wages.
The newspaper women of France are comparatively few. They are constantly accused of a lack of taste, the critics of the press, and of a want of perspective of the situation. Furthermore, their ideas on ethics and philosophy are said to be "stale." Nevertheless, it is true that their contributions to magazines and periodicals are impudently avowed and widely read, after which many of the masculine writers go into mental convulsions and tear their vocabularies in letters in trying to prove that these feminine efforts were worse than worthless.

The woman who, in spite of this, persists in writing do what she pleases, the long ago a celebrated criminal trial a woman journalist presented her to the court as the judicial reporter of a leading morning newspaper in Paris. The police are said to have been against when Mme. Severine drew forth her pen and pencil and demanded admission to the press table. The guards were somewhat taken aback, and with a deplorable lack of French civility, wanted to turn her away. But, by wit or guile or force, she got her pen and pencil cleared a pathway for all woman reporters who shall come after her.

Mme. Edmond Adam is another woman journalist, writing the leading review in Paris. She is a politician, author and editor. She has been honored by the high nobility of the nation in having her name given to one of the streets of the capital, an honor rarely bestowed on a person during his lifetime. It took much of a struggle to secure the Rue Edmond Adam, but it is young and may grow soon. Under Napoleon III Mme. Adam and a son in opposition to the latter's government, and there she resigned. She was young and handsome then, with soft, pretty hair and bright blue eyes. She was an intense republican and a great admirer of Garibaldi. At the close of the Franco-Prussian war she had no one in France to particularly admire, no one to whom she was devotedly attached. Such a person as she is a good, practical and not at all unambitious. Her dinner, as a daily habit, is very simple. She has a few guests occasionally, officers of the French army, and her fourth is composed of liberal men, and the others are ardent literary people. The dinner is not followed by receptions, which are attended by cabinet ministers, deputies, senators, diplomats and journalists. There are, except on special occasions, few women.

Mme. Severine is both more valiant and more independent than Mme. Adam. She is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten, as she writes vigorously and well. She has her own particular conception of the good and evil of the world, and she is a woman of a high order of intelligence, as she is familiarly called, but well known figure in Paris. She has been nicknamed Mangelé (tracheated) Jenny Diver, and is a very good and much given to literary fables of ten

STRANGE STRUCTURES.

Some of the Quaker Buildings of the White City.

Old and New Buildings of the Quakers - New-England House of the South Sea Islanders - Note in General.

[Special Chicago Correspondence.] There never was a quaker lot of buildings gotten together than are to be seen in the Columbian metropolis at Jackson park. Scattered throughout the grounds are all the different styles of architecture of every race of people on the globe, from the huts of the Australian ranger to the palace of the American millionaire.

A study of the primitive structures of the savages of far distant islands is the great object in affording the people of the big cities of civilization, who but for the grand fair would have had no knowledge of them were they gleaned from books of travel. There is also an excellent opportunity to become acquainted with the manners and customs of the strange races of the earth in their everyday life at the fair, for everything is just as it is in their native villages beyond the bay.

able to the native architecture for the benefit of the civilized world. The little people of the extreme north in their untoward imitation of semi-tropic customs are not altogether in their proper element, but they manage to hang on to the rugged edge of existence and give a very faithful representation of their home life in the frigid zone.

Some Wonderful Spices at the World's Fair. The significance of the Japanese department of the world's fair at Chicago lies in the fact that here for the first time has the policy of self-development in the modern world been put into effect. It is not only the buildings are shown, but the minutest details of everyday life are brought before the eyes of the fair visitor. The fair will afford about as much knowledge of the life of the people as would a complete tour of the world.

More picturesque and airy than the rest are, possibly, the diminutive dwellings of the savages. Constructed wholly of bamboo and matting made of bamboo splints, they are the perfection of hot weather quarters. From a casual glance one would think they would hardly withstand the faintest puff of wind as lightly as they are constructed, yet through the many severe blows to which Chicago has been subjected since they were erected they have remained intact. Among the queer structures of this quaint little village is the theater building in the central portion of the fair grounds, which is a somewhat pretentious building to be constructed of such light material. It is about thirty feet high, thirty feet wide and fifty feet long and is composed of nothing but bamboo poles, ingeniously put together, and matting such as is used on the other houses.

THE WORK OF SAVAGES.

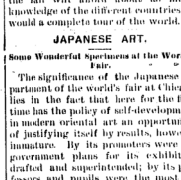

Many Queer Things in the Australian Exhibit.

Interesting, though largely "photographic" in the Australian exhibit in the anthropological building, having joined forces with the British South Sea Island possessions, many curious and unimpressive are shown. In said bowls, modeled in various designs, round, oval, and square, and photographs bewildering make up the collection. Although chiefly the work of cannibal tribes, some beautiful bits of decorative wood and pearl show the artistic in the savage; and, what is more, the Hivernage tribe from the South Wales has an artist whose paintings are on exhibition and highly praised. His some were "oil-paints" and he was the shining light of the other "Mickey" wasn't always an artist. For many years he fought and battled with the white man, but from a strong conviction that his soul was not to be won by the white man, he was unable to work. He lay around his hut and made his own life, but his days were usually over he gave up all hope of ever again throwing the friendly relations in warfare, and decided to make himself useful and to prove to the world that he was not an ordinary savage.

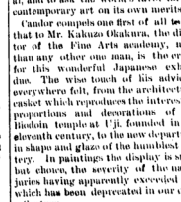

So here are pictures of fishes in the water, boats sailing, and trees-in fact, made pictures of his own native life. Viewed from an artist's standpoint they are not in harmony with the modern French ideas, but as a savage expression of art and interesting and show great knowledge for the artist. He is dead now, but he has accomplished his ideal and we know he rests in the realm of the great. Mr. Thompson, the superintendent of the exhibit, says he would speak to one while at work, but kept away from the tribe, and when his picture was finished he called the chiefs and have a grand dance. "Mickey" was also a "Duk-link," and of course that accounts for the respect by the cannibals ad over the islands.

INDIAN EDUCATION. The Canadian Exhibit in the Liberal Arts Building at the World's Fair. In many quarters, the British methods of managing the North American Indians has been more successful than that pursued by the white people south of the great lakes. In Canada's exhibit in the Liberal Arts building there is an Indian exhibit which shows how the Canadians have relieved upon the education of the Indians to control them. Long preceding life effort in the United States, the Canadian media have had Indian industrial schools in operation, and the exhibit in Canada's display consists of products of these schools, and along with it all present are seven Indian girls and boys. They are from the northwest territory, and are pupils of the school, Edmonton, St. Boniface, the school at Winnipeg and the school at Battleford on the Saskatchewan river. The girls are now preparing the Cues, Sattoux and Muskogee of the northwest territory, and are from the blanketed and uncivilized tribes of the dominant. The children are kept at work before the public at their respective schools, and make an interesting and creditable showing at maitting-making, harness-making, boot and shoe making, and crocheting. They are surrounded by samples of work from all the industrial schools, and in contrast an ungraced Indian fabrications, feathered garments, ornaments and weapons, which they made work, and used in the savage life.

THE WORK OF SAVAGES. Many Queer Things in the Australian Exhibit. Interesting, though largely "photographic" in the Australian exhibit in the anthropological building, having joined forces with the British South Sea Island possessions, many curious and unimpressive are shown. In said bowls, modeled in various designs, round, oval, and square, and photographs bewildering make up the collection. Although chiefly the work of cannibal tribes, some beautiful bits of decorative wood and pearl show the artistic in the savage; and, what is more, the Hivernage tribe from the South Wales has an artist whose paintings are on exhibition and highly praised. His some were "oil-paints" and he was the shining light of the other "Mickey" wasn't always an artist. For many years he fought and battled with the white man, but from a strong conviction that his soul was not to be won by the white man, he was unable to work. He lay around his hut and made his own life, but his days were usually over he gave up all hope of ever again throwing the friendly relations in warfare, and decided to make himself useful and to prove to the world that he was not an ordinary savage.

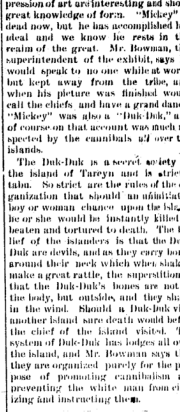

More picturesque and airy than the rest are, possibly, the diminutive dwellings of the savages. Constructed wholly of bamboo and matting made of bamboo splints, they are the perfection of hot weather quarters. From a casual glance one would think they would hardly withstand the faintest puff of wind as lightly as they are constructed, yet through the many severe blows to which Chicago has been subjected since they were erected they have remained intact. Among the queer structures of this quaint little village is the theater building in the central portion of the fair grounds, which is a somewhat pretentious building to be constructed of such light material. It is about thirty feet high, thirty feet wide and fifty feet long and is composed of nothing but bamboo poles, ingeniously put together, and matting such as is used on the other houses.

HIGH ART IN COOKERY.

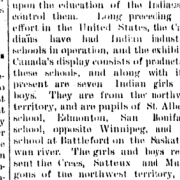

How the Appetite May be Temporarily Artistic.

The scientific branch of cookery comprises the art of garnishing, and this plays a most important part in the outcome of the meal, as by means of it, dishes please the eye before they please the palate. First impressions are made by the eye, and when seen in a dish, the eye is captivated by an agreeable and inviting appearance the dish must be good, indeed, which fails to stand the test, leaving people who suffer from indigestion have a better chance of eating their meals when the dishes which are put before them are pleasant to the sight.

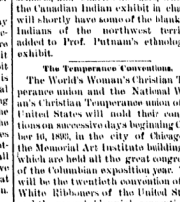

Art, however, is not a thing to be thought of. You may show a man how to do it, but you cannot teach him how to do it. I will only attempt to explain that what is cookery is meant by garnishing is not the traditional parsley of the cook, and I will describe what is called, properly so called, garnishing, of what garnishes are made and how the different materials are prepared for the purpose. The conditions of these things are too innumerable to describe in a short paper. They wholly depend on the talent, skill and taste of the operator. For instance, turnips, potatoes, as much as possible in the using for purposes of garnishing things which are not eatable.

INDIAN EDUCATION. The Canadian Exhibit in the Liberal Arts Building at the World's Fair. In many quarters, the British methods of managing the North American Indians has been more successful than that pursued by the white people south of the great lakes. In Canada's exhibit in the Liberal Arts building there is an Indian exhibit which shows how the Canadians have relieved upon the education of the Indians to control them. Long preceding life effort in the United States, the Canadian media have had Indian industrial schools in operation, and the exhibit in Canada's display consists of products of these schools, and along with it all present are seven Indian girls and boys. They are from the northwest territory, and are pupils of the school, Edmonton, St. Boniface, the school at Winnipeg and the school at Battleford on the Saskatchewan river. The girls are now preparing the Cues, Sattoux and Muskogee of the northwest territory, and are from the blanketed and uncivilized tribes of the dominant. The children are kept at work before the public at their respective schools, and make an interesting and creditable showing at maitting-making, harness-making, boot and shoe making, and crocheting. They are surrounded by samples of work from all the industrial schools, and in contrast an ungraced Indian fabrications, feathered garments, ornaments and weapons, which they made work, and used in the savage life.

THE WORK OF SAVAGES. Many Queer Things in the Australian Exhibit. Interesting, though largely "photographic" in the Australian exhibit in the anthropological building, having joined forces with the British South Sea Island possessions, many curious and unimpressive are shown. In said bowls, modeled in various designs, round, oval, and square, and photographs bewildering make up the collection. Although chiefly the work of cannibal tribes, some beautiful bits of decorative wood and pearl show the artistic in the savage; and, what is more, the Hivernage tribe from the South Wales has an artist whose paintings are on exhibition and highly praised. His some were "oil-paints" and he was the shining light of the other "Mickey" wasn't always an artist. For many years he fought and battled with the white man, but from a strong conviction that his soul was not to be won by the white man, he was unable to work. He lay around his hut and made his own life, but his days were usually over he gave up all hope of ever again throwing the friendly relations in warfare, and decided to make himself useful and to prove to the world that he was not an ordinary savage.

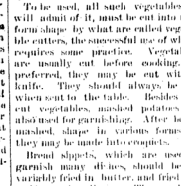

More picturesque and airy than the rest are, possibly, the diminutive dwellings of the savages. Constructed wholly of bamboo and matting made of bamboo splints, they are the perfection of hot weather quarters. From a casual glance one would think they would hardly withstand the faintest puff of wind as lightly as they are constructed, yet through the many severe blows to which Chicago has been subjected since they were erected they have remained intact. Among the queer structures of this quaint little village is the theater building in the central portion of the fair grounds, which is a somewhat pretentious building to be constructed of such light material. It is about thirty feet high, thirty feet wide and fifty feet long and is composed of nothing but bamboo poles, ingeniously put together, and matting such as is used on the other houses.

For Summer Cookery

Royal Baking Powder will be found the greatest of helps. With least labor and trouble it makes bread, biscuit and cake of finest flavor, light, sweet, appetizing and assuredly digestible and wholesome.

KNOWLEDGE FOR VARIOUS THINGS. MAURICE MORGAN, who has charge of the Turkish village at the fair, is a Presbyterian minister, and served in that capacity when at home. WILLIAM A. PRUDOM, the negro politician of Georgia, is to apply for admission to the bar at the next session of the superior court in Clarke county. Fourteen negro lawyers have already been admitted to practice at the Georgia bar.

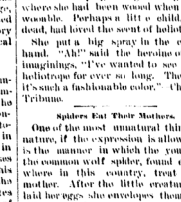

Unlike the Dutch Process No Alkalies Other Chemicals are used in the preparation of W. BAKER & CO.'S Breakfast Cocoa. It is absolutely pure and soluble. It has more than ten times the strength of Cocoa and is mixed with Marsh, Arrowroot or Rice in delicious, palatable and easily digested. It is sold by Grocers everywhere. W. BAKER & CO., Dorchester, Mass.

Latest Styles. L'Art De La Mode. The Best Waterproof Coat in the World. SLICKER. DON'T NAME THE BABY. AUGUST FLOWER.

My wife suffered with indigestion and dyspepsia for years. Life became a burden to her. Physicians failed to give relief. After reading one of your books, I purchased a bottle of August Flower. It worked like a charm. My wife received immediate relief after taking the first dose. She was completely cured and regained her appetite, and could eat anything she desired without any deleterious results as was formerly the case. C. H. Dear, Prof'r Washington House, Wash. D. C.

$7,000 GIVEN AWAY. At the Minneapolis Exposition, which opens on Wednesday, Sept. 6. The money is given to Minnesota farmers in premiums for Grains, Fruits and Vegetables. Don't miss this Great Show. Wonderful Mechanical Exhibits! Four Concerts Daily! 25 cents admits to the whole building. Low rates on all railroads. Sept. 6 to Oct. 7.

"August Flower"

My wife suffered with indigestion and dyspepsia for years. Life became a burden to her. Physicians failed to give relief. After reading one of your books, I purchased a bottle of August Flower. It worked like a charm. My wife received immediate relief after taking the first dose. She was completely cured and regained her appetite, and could eat anything she desired without any deleterious results as was formerly the case. C. H. Dear, Prof'r Washington House, Wash. D. C.

My wife suffered with indigestion and dyspepsia for years. Life became a burden to her. Physicians failed to give relief. After reading one of your books, I purchased a bottle of August Flower. It worked like a charm. My wife received immediate relief after taking the first dose. She was completely cured and regained her appetite, and could eat anything she desired without any deleterious results as was formerly the case. C. H. Dear, Prof'r Washington House, Wash. D. C.

My wife suffered with indigestion and dyspepsia for years. Life became a burden to her. Physicians failed to give relief. After reading one of your books, I purchased a bottle of August Flower. It worked like a charm. My wife received immediate relief after taking the first dose. She was completely cured and regained her appetite, and could eat anything she desired without any deleterious results as was formerly the case. C. H. Dear, Prof'r Washington House, Wash. D. C.

My wife suffered with indigestion and dyspepsia for years. Life became a burden to her. Physicians failed to give relief. After reading one of your books, I purchased a bottle of August Flower. It worked like a charm. My wife received immediate relief after taking the first dose. She was completely cured and regained her appetite, and could eat anything she desired without any deleterious results as was formerly the case. C. H. Dear, Prof'r Washington House, Wash. D. C.

My wife suffered with indigestion and dyspepsia for years. Life became a burden to her. Physicians failed to give relief. After reading one of your books, I purchased a bottle of August Flower. It worked like a charm. My wife received immediate relief after taking the first dose. She was completely cured and regained her appetite, and could eat anything she desired without any deleterious results as was formerly the case. C. H. Dear, Prof'r Washington House, Wash. D. C.

My wife suffered with indigestion and dyspepsia for years. Life became a burden to her. Physicians failed to give relief. After reading one of your books, I purchased a bottle of August Flower. It worked like a charm. My wife received immediate relief after taking the first dose. She was completely cured and regained her appetite, and could eat anything she desired without any deleterious results as was formerly the case. C. H. Dear, Prof'r Washington House, Wash. D. C.

My wife suffered with indigestion and dyspepsia for years. Life became a burden to her. Physicians failed to give relief. After reading one of your books, I purchased a bottle of August Flower. It worked like a charm. My wife received immediate relief after taking the first dose. She was completely cured and regained her appetite, and could eat anything she desired without any deleterious results as was formerly the case. C. H. Dear, Prof'r Washington House, Wash. D. C.

My wife suffered with indigestion and dyspepsia for years. Life became a burden to her. Physicians failed to give relief. After reading one of your books, I purchased a bottle of August Flower. It worked like a charm. My wife received immediate relief after taking the first dose. She was completely cured and regained her appetite, and could eat anything she desired without any deleterious results as was formerly the case. C. H. Dear, Prof'r Washington House, Wash. D. C.

My wife suffered with indigestion and dyspepsia for years. Life became a burden to her. Physicians failed to give relief. After reading one of your books, I purchased a bottle of August Flower. It worked like a charm. My wife received immediate relief after taking the first dose. She was completely cured and regained her appetite, and could eat anything she desired without any deleterious results as was formerly the case. C. H. Dear, Prof'r Washington House, Wash. D. C.

"U. T." A good chew "U. T."

U. T. for U. T. PLUG. everybody PLUG. THE POT INSULTED THE KETTLE BECAUSE THE COOK HAD NOT USED SAPOLIO. GOOD COOKING DEMANDS CLEANLINESS. SAPOLIO SHOULD BE USED IN EVERY KITCHEN.

U. T. for U. T. PLUG. everybody PLUG. THE POT INSULTED THE KETTLE BECAUSE THE COOK HAD NOT USED SAPOLIO. GOOD COOKING DEMANDS CLEANLINESS. SAPOLIO SHOULD BE USED IN EVERY KITCHEN.

U. T. for U. T. PLUG. everybody PLUG. THE POT INSULTED THE KETTLE BECAUSE THE COOK HAD NOT USED SAPOLIO. GOOD COOKING DEMANDS CLEANLINESS. SAPOLIO SHOULD BE USED IN EVERY KITCHEN.

U. T. for U. T. PLUG. everybody PLUG. THE POT INSULTED THE KETTLE BECAUSE THE COOK HAD NOT USED SAPOLIO. GOOD COOKING DEMANDS CLEANLINESS. SAPOLIO SHOULD BE USED IN EVERY KITCHEN.

U. T. for U. T. PLUG. everybody PLUG. THE POT INSULTED THE KETTLE BECAUSE THE COOK HAD NOT USED SAPOLIO. GOOD COOKING DEMANDS CLEANLINESS. SAPOLIO SHOULD BE USED IN EVERY KITCHEN.

U. T. for U. T. PLUG. everybody PLUG. THE POT INSULTED THE KETTLE BECAUSE THE COOK HAD NOT USED SAPOLIO. GOOD COOKING DEMANDS CLEANLINESS. SAPOLIO SHOULD BE USED IN EVERY KITCHEN.

U. T. for U. T. PLUG. everybody PLUG. THE POT INSULTED THE KETTLE BECAUSE THE COOK HAD NOT USED SAPOLIO. GOOD COOKING DEMANDS CLEANLINESS. SAPOLIO SHOULD BE USED IN EVERY KITCHEN.

U. T. for U. T. PLUG. everybody PLUG. THE POT INSULTED THE KETTLE BECAUSE THE COOK HAD NOT USED SAPOLIO. GOOD COOKING DEMANDS CLEANLINESS. SAPOLIO SHOULD BE USED IN EVERY KITCHEN.

U. T. for U. T. PLUG. everybody PLUG. THE POT INSULTED THE KETTLE BECAUSE THE COOK HAD NOT USED SAPOLIO. GOOD COOKING DEMANDS CLEANLINESS. SAPOLIO SHOULD BE USED IN EVERY KITCHEN.

THE TRIBUNE

THURSDAY, SEPT. 14, 1893.

See Line Time Card. Passenger west (limited)...

LOCAL. The Allegheny and concert arrived in the city Tuesday and clear today.

The New York military store is accepting coupons for goods at cash prices.

If all the rumors started by certain gossipers would gain currency, they would shortly be the wealthiest men in the state.

Residents of the townships of Seney and Termanak will petition the board of supervisors of this county...

Attorney Foster threatens to stop his subscription to a local paper because the newspaper is not doing him justice.

The Goodrich steamer, City of Ludington, ran into Wisconsin reef near Thompson Tuesday night about ten o'clock.

The case of Hewitt & Smith vs. The Chicago Lumber Co. which was tried in the U. S. court at Marquette last week was decided Tuesday.

A great deal of the money sent from this country for the redemption of the heathen, is wasted.

John Spaulding, who has been in Duluth this summer, is in the city.

Miss Edith Davis of Buffalo, Minn. is the guest of her sister, Mrs. P. McCullough.

W. H. Jophs of Rockland, this state, was in the city this week as the guest of his brother.

Mr. D. K. Smith is attending the State Home of the Ladies of the Macabees, held at Grand Rapids this week.

AT AUTUMN'S TOUCH.

FASHION ROBES HERSELF IN DEMI-SAISON RAIMENT.

Miss Harper's Essay on Man-The Lord of Creation...

New York, Sept. 7.-My neighbor has a magnificent view growing all over the dividing fence, and it has been my delight to watch it bud in the spring...

NEW FALL DRESSES. get best and wear them when my eyes fell upon its cool, green beauty.

What has all that got to do with a fashion letter? Oh! I beguiled man, it has all to do with fashion, for no self-respecting woman will put on a demisaison dress until she sees the leaves lose their freshness...

These men, bless them, are not staying at all. They like to see their pretty wives well dressed, but it is not for the dainty and delicate tricks that their wives will evolve to coax the money.

John Spaulding, who has been in Duluth this summer, is in the city.

Miss Edith Davis of Buffalo, Minn. is the guest of her sister, Mrs. P. McCullough.

W. H. Jophs of Rockland, this state, was in the city this week as the guest of his brother.

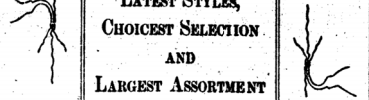

Mr. D. K. Smith is attending the State Home of the Ladies of the Macabees, held at Grand Rapids this week.

Mr. D. K. Smith is attending the State Home of the Ladies of the Macabees, held at Grand Rapids this week.

SUITS OVERCOATS!

FOR FALL AND WINTER. Well yes, we have them by the hundreds.

All the Latest Shades and Fabrics. LATEST STYLES, CHOICEST SELECTION AND LARGEST ASSORTMENT

A few of the many advantages we offer to the public. Our prices are always the Lowest and always marked in plain figures and we have Only One Price to All.

Rose Bros. THE ONE PRICE CLOTHIERS MANISTIQUE, MICH.

PERSONAL MENTION. W. H. Jophs is in Chicago.

Mr. Tracy was in Green Bay, last week. H. H. Barnes and A. J. Smith are in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nicholson, and son are in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Lewis returned from the State's Fair Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Lewis returned from the State's Fair Wednesday. David Spinnaker and wife of Coeds, were Manistique visitors yesterday.

Dr. Hartford is attending the sessions of the Macabees at Grand Rapids this week.

Miss Edith Davis of Buffalo, Minn. is the guest of her sister, Mrs. P. McCullough.

W. H. Jophs of Rockland, this state, was in the city this week as the guest of his brother.

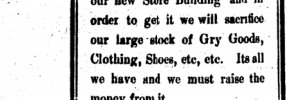

Mr. D. K. Smith is attending the State Home of the Ladies of the Macabees, held at Grand Rapids this week.

Mr. D. K. Smith is attending the State Home of the Ladies of the Macabees, held at Grand Rapids this week.

Money

We have to have it to finish our new Store Building and in order to get it we will sacrifice our large stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, etc. It all we have and we must raise the money from it.

Yours respectfully, Blumrosen Bros.

Blumrosen Bros.

CASPER BROS. This Couple were SURPRISED - BUT - A more pleasant surprise awaits those calling at Casper Bros.

CASPER BROTHERS.

My all means let it be done. The law as it stands is a confessed failure. It satisfies no one.

Dr. and Mrs. Hartford, a girl, Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Macmurry, a son, Friday.

Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Nicholson, and son are in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Lewis returned from the State's Fair Wednesday.

Dr. Hartford is attending the sessions of the Macabees at Grand Rapids this week.

Miss Edith Davis of Buffalo, Minn. is the guest of her sister, Mrs. P. McCullough.

W. H. Jophs of Rockland, this state, was in the city this week as the guest of his brother.

Mr. D. K. Smith is attending the State Home of the Ladies of the Macabees, held at Grand Rapids this week.

Mr. D. K. Smith is attending the State Home of the Ladies of the Macabees, held at Grand Rapids this week.

Closing Out!

We are going out of business and are closing out our entire stock of groceries, provisions, woodware, etc. at prices regardless of cost for cash.

Now is your opportunity to get your groceries for a sale out of a money. Respectfully, Klargstad, Larsen & Co.

Advertisement for Klargstad, Larsen & Co. regarding business closure.

Advertisement for Klargstad, Larsen & Co. regarding business closure.

Advertisement for Klargstad, Larsen & Co. regarding business closure.

Advertisement for Klargstad, Larsen & Co. regarding business closure.

Advertisement for Klargstad, Larsen & Co. regarding business closure.

Advertisement for Klargstad, Larsen & Co. regarding business closure.

Advertisement for Klargstad, Larsen & Co. regarding business closure.

Advertisement for Klargstad, Larsen & Co. regarding business closure.

Advertisement for Klargstad, Larsen & Co. regarding business closure.

Advertisement for Klargstad, Larsen & Co. regarding business closure.

Advertisement for Klargstad, Larsen & Co. regarding business closure.

Advertisement for Klargstad, Larsen & Co. regarding business closure.