MCNUTT'S CHANCES

Washington — High Commissioner Paul V. McNutt's chances for the presidency in 1940 seem to be about as good as those of anyone else.

That statement means nothing at all except that no presidential possibility can be said at this time to be nearer the goal than any other, that all nags are still at the post and that no one can yet forecast weather conditions or the state of the track.

The big blowout organized here in McNutt's honor by Senator Sherman Minton and other Democratic admirers from Indiana, although razed by most commentators and largely boycotted by the administration, did give the commissioner to the Philippines a huge amount of publicity and did let the country know that McNutt was a candidate.

Three Handicaps

Otherwise there is no discernible effect. There's always a legend that it's dangerous to start a presidential boom at such an early stage. But it would be difficult to prove that any harm has been done to the McNutt candidacy. Troubles and triumphs of 1940 candidates are in the future.

McNutt has proved himself an able practitioner in party politics and war-veteran politics. As governor of Indiana he was more efficient than most governors and built a very strong Democratic machine.

His chief handicaps are the coolness of Farley and Roosevelt toward him, antagonism from labor ranks and widespread opinion among his critics that he would be a dangerously ruthless man to have on top if the nation were threatened with Fascism. It's quite possible that within another two years these handicaps may not seem so large.

Wheeler's Forecast

Senator Burton K. Wheeler's public assertion that President Roosevelt couldn't be elected if he were nominated for a third term merely demonstrates that the Wheeler-Roosevelt mutual antipathy is still in full bloom and that Wheeler feels he needn't worry if he continues to make Roosevelt sore. Two years and eight months before the presidential election, Wheeler probably isn't any better qualified to prophesy than many others who aren't sure.

The brilliant Montana senator's promise to urge nomination of a "progressive Democrat" of the type of Republican Senators Johnson of California and Borah of Idaho is especially interesting because in 1940 Johnson will be 74 years old and Borah 75. No man past 55 has been elected since the election of James Buchanan, who was 65. Wheeler himself, who insists he won't be a candidate, will be only 58 in 1940.

Gloomy Figures

Few more startling figures have been issued by the government in recent years than those giving a year's record of 9507 families in American villages sampled to give a representative cross-section — which show 5191 families "getting ahead" financially, 3229 falling behind and 987 breaking even.

The implications are accentuated when these facts are considered: 1. The 12-month period used for comparison was in the years 1935-36, when recovery was marching right along. 2. The masses of families on relief were excluded from the survey. 3. Distasteful effects of the depression which began last fall are, of course, not reflected.

The survey was made by the Bureau of Home Economics in its nationwide family-living study.

Nothing has ever been accomplished without the spirit of adventure behind it. But through the ages the style of adventure has changed from one based on intellectual energy.

There are too many known administration advocates of the Socialist doctrine of "production for use and not for profit."

For Love of Polly

By Rachel Mack

CAST OF CHARACTERS
POLLY CHELSEY; heroine; stranded in London when war breaks out.

JERRY WHITFIELD, hero; the Yankee who sees her through. CABELL BANKS; privateer captain.

Yesterday: Nearing America, the Gray Gull is chased by British men-o-war, but escapes.

CHAPTER XXV
Morning found them off the American coast opposite what appeared to be Delaware or Maryland. A shout went up from the sailors. Polly wept openly for joy, and Jerry's commands to the sailors were husky with feeling.

That dim shoreline was beautiful with the magic of home. Even Cabell Banks lost his blasé manner of the world and tossed his head jubilantly.

To the north several sails were presently spied by the lookouts. Jerry and Cabell consulted. They would maneuver nearer, they decided: if they were American ships they would speak to them and learn their exact location.

The maneuvering was done, and almost with disaster. The ships were discovered to be British frigates blocking Delaware Bay, the approach to Philadelphia. The Gray Gull's course was promptly shifted southward, and no harm done, save to taut nerves. The approach to Washington spread clear before them.

On board there were several reliable sailors who had gone out from Baltimore on the Gray Gull more than once and had stayed hopefully with her while she lay docked at Carteret. These men now proved of infinite value. They were able to help their New England officers round the treacherous Cape Charles and enter Chesapeake Bay.

The long blue Bay stretched away before them, free of hostile sails. As they passed the mouth of the York and later of the Rappahannock River, Cabell stared hard at the Virginia shore. On these rivers and on the James and Potomac, he knew, there lived the Virginia landed gentry who were said to feel themselves superior even to rich Boston bankers and importers.

Englishmen under Sir Walter Raleigh had landed on these shores before the Mayflower had sailed to Plymouth Rock. It was very annoying to a young Bostonian to have to think of it. He was forced to call his new-found patriotism into play to dispel his malice. Virginia was one of the United States, he reminded himself, and no doubt was a very agreeable place if you didn't mind the heat and if you could excuse the girls for being better educated in their heels than their heads.

Take Prudence Winthrop now. She could talk about other things than the latest dance figure. "A penny for your thoughts," Polly said. "American money."

"I was thinking I must write two letters home and post them in Washington. One of them to my family." They both laughed.

Jerry and Cabell supposed the most direct way to reach Washington would be to sail up the Potomac. The Baltimore sailors, however, with seamen's old distrust of rivers, advised avoiding the curving Potomac and sailing direct to Baltimore. From there, they suggested, Captain Banks could easily go to Washington by coach or horseback and procure the papers.

This they agreed to do. Jerry the more readily because of Polly. Baltimore had good coach service to Philadelphia, and from the latter city she would have no trouble reaching home.

When they had entered Baltimore harbor Jerry went to Polly who stood at the bulwark watching the men drop anchor. "Go below and get ready now, Polly. A sailor's wife must be brisk."

"Get ready for what, Jerry?" "To go ashore, my sweet, with your dog and trunk."

"But, Jerry! You'd not put me ashore in Maryland when I belong in Connecticut!" Her face showed honest amazement.

"Didn't you know, Polly, that I'd put you ashore at the first port? Did you suppose I'd keep you an hour longer at sea than I had to?"

"Oh, Jerry! I'd not figured it out, but I supposed you'd take me home to Lyme after you got your papers. I might as well be honest and say I hoped you'd decide to keep me on board, Jerry. The way some of the skippers out of New England used to keep their wives aboard. I know an old woman at home who's been around the Horn on her husband's ship seven times."

"This is war time, Polly." He spoke with finality and with such regret that she could not make it harder for him.

"All right, Jerry. But it's going to take Cabell a couple of days to go to Washington and back. Can I stay here till then?" "I'd thought to put you on a stage coach, Polly, and see you started on your way. I'd feel easier about you."

"But he could not resist her pleading arm that stole around his neck, nor the prospect of an extra day and night with her on a deserted ship in a friendly port. He said, "I reckon I've earned another sunset and sunrise with you, Polly. Stay if you will."

That night when the sailors went ashore and Cabell was in their own, they stood at its bulwarks and watched the lights of Baltimore. Polly made one more effort to snatch at happiness.

"You've brought the Gull home, Jerry, and it wasn't easy. Cabell couldn't have done it without you. Every man aboard owes you his life or his liberty."

Is This the Reason You Are Constipated?

If you're wondering why your bowels don't work right—stop and think about what you eat. Bread, meat, eggs and potatoes. All good nourishing foods—but all concentrated, lacking in "bulk." And you need "bulk"! Some food that forms a soft, spongy mass in the bowels—helps them move.

It's this lack of "bulk" that's causing your constipation. Kellogg's All-Bran is just what you need. It soaks up water and softens like a sponge. And this soft mass helps your bowels move.

In addition, All-Bran gives you nature's great intestinal tonic, vitamin B₁. Eat this crisp crunchy cereal every day, drink plenty of water, and enjoy happier days. All-Bran is made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Sold by every grocer.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks to all our kind neighbors and friends who assisted us during the illness and death of our father. We are very grateful to the pallbearers, to those who furnished their cars, sent floral and spiritual offerings and all those who in any way helped us to bear our sorrow. The memory of these acts of kindness will always remain with us.

St. Joe Ends Year With St. Paul Here Tonight

Dutch Clark Gets Tip To Quit While On Top

BY ALAN GOULD
New York, March 2 (AP)—Note to Dutch Clark: "Your boss thinks he can persuade you to have one more fling on the pro gridirons before you make your retirement to the coaching bench stick . . . I know you were tapering off last year, though not enough to keep you off the all-star National league team . . . maybe you haven't had enough but don't forget the advantages of quitting active play when you're still good only a few are smart enough to do that and reap the long-run rewards . . ."

DUTCH CLARK

Note to Bob Jones: "Stewart Malden, who now runs a Park avenue golf shop, tells Joe Williams that you could regain top form by making just one swing around the winter circuit with the professionals . . . I know you haven't the slightest intention of trying it, or taking too seriously your annual workout with the pros at Augusta, but you may be interested to know Stewart thinks you could be a tournament winner until you're an old man of 50, if you wanted to be . . ."

Note to H. G. Salsinger, of the Detroit News, Lakeland, Fla.: "So you'd be satisfied with only three old Maize and Blues in the first ten of our football hall of fame—Fielding Yost, Willie Heston and Germany Schultz? . . . That's fair enough, Sal, if not downright conservative. But we will have to hold another meeting before asking for waivers on Lonnie Stagg, Red Grange and Pudge Heffelfinger . . ."

Walter Emery's victory over a crack amateur field in the Houston invitation may touch off another of those embarrassing forays against U.S.G.A. judgment in making Walker cup team selections . . . Omitted from the 1938 squad, Emery topped a field including two Walker cuppers, Reynolds Smith and Champion Johnson Goodman . . . Remember how Goodman himself ran wild in 1932 after being left out team? . . ."

Dixie Walker, obtained from White Sox by Detroit Tigers in deal by which Tigers parted with popular Gerald (Ge) Walker, has already batted 1.000 in knife-and-fore league . . . Now all he has to do is replace Gee's .335 mark on ball field, lead club in base stealing, and annoy Manager Mike Cochrane by missing a few signs from the dugout . . . Gordon Cobbedick, Cleveland Plain Dealer's training camp scribe, reports Manager Oscar Vitt threatened to slap a $500 fine on any member of Tribe caught drinking fire-water with Catcher Ralston (Rollie) Hemley—Rollie promised Vitt he will behave but wasn't asked to sign a pledge . . ."

Whizzer White won high scoring honors as well as all-America recognition for University of Colorado on gridiron last fall but on basketball court he yields point-getting distinction to his teammate, Swisher Schwartz . . . Add exodus from pro gridirons: Dick Crayne, former Iowa captain and member of Brooklyn National league club for past two years, has signed as backfield coach at University of Kansas.

LITTLE GIANTS BEAT HARRIS

Menominee County Crew Unable to Withstand Scoring Spurge

Bark River, March 2—Coach Clifford Buckmaster's Rock high school Little Giants took the first of the two games which close the final week of their regular season from Harris high school cagers on the local floor tonight in a blaze of shotmaking that had the boys from just over the Menominee county line backed out of the picture. The tally sheet read 47 to 40.

Trombly was the spearhead of the invincible Rock attack tonight and alone accounted for 23 points. The scoring of the Harris crew was more evenly distributed with three players, Beauchamp, E. Mottio and Houle, contributing eight or more points.

PIN CRASHERS GO INTO ACTION

Annual ABC Congress at Chicago Runs for 48 Days and Nights

Chicago, March 2 (AP)—The wood will begin to fly in the 38th annual American bowling Congress tournament tomorrow night and the crashing will continue for 48 days and 48 nights.

America's longest sporting event, with the biggest number of entries in its history, comes to Chicago for the fourth time.

Forty gleaming alleys, eight more than ever used before, have been constructed in the Chicago coliseum. Bowlers, from every state in the union, Canada and the Hawaiian Islands, will number 24,875. There will be 4,957 teams of five men each in action before the last ball is sent down the lane on April 18. The first A. B. C. tournament, in 1901, attracted just 41 teams.

Secretary Elmer Baumgarten of Milwaukee compiled record-breaking entry lists of 71,441 in the singles event, 8,620 in the doubles. By the time the best bowlers in the business have finished the singles, doubles and team competitions, more than 150,000 games will have been rolled, an average of nearly 4,000 games each day.

Prize money of $200,000 will be distributed to the high men, from a total of $297,300 amassed in entry fees. Spectators during the seven-week contest were expected to pass the 100,000 figure.

The Powers second team defeated the Felch seconds 16 and 7 in a prelim, and the Felch girls scored an 18 to 4 win over the Powers girls in another curtain-raiser.

Emeralds' Lineup May Be Revamped For Friday Game

Manistique—The Manistique high school basketball team will wind up their schedule Friday, opposing Rapid River at the Manistique gymnasium. The reserve teams of the two schools will meet in the prelim.

The Manistique coach, Oscar Wassberg, hinted yesterday that a drastic revision of his lineup may be evidenced against Rapid River. Defeated in their last two games, by Escanaba and Gladstone, the Emerald quintet has shown a decided reversal of form. The infusion of new material into the regular lineup may be the tonic needed to break the lethargic spirit, the Manistique coach indicated.

SITE CHANGED TO JUNIOR HIGH

Game First Scheduled for Friday; Game Starts at 8 O'clock

St. Joseph high school cagers will "shoot the works" here tonight when they meet the clever St. Paul quintet of Negaunee at the junior high school gymnasium in a game which will wind up the season for the locals. The game is scheduled to start at 8 o'clock.

The locals have had an unsuccessful season this year, winning but two games and losing ten. They have not won a game since January 12, losing to Gladstone, Rock, St. Paul's, Harris, Felch, Gladstone, Rock and Stephenson in succession. Tonight they plan to throw caution to the winds and try to finish the season on the right side of the ledger.

They will have tough opposition tonight, meeting a team which defeated them by a score of 53-30 earlier in the season. The visitors have a veteran crew, including Baldini, Russo, Torrenano, Jacobetti, Spighatt, Milano and Gheringhelli. The first four named scored 45 points against the locals in the opener.

Captain Russ Faber, one of the highest scorers ever to wear a St. Joseph uniform, will lead Knauf, O'Donnell, McDermott, Gray, Loeffler, Lusk, Langenfeld, Ashland and Perrin in their last game of the season.

There will be two prelims. The Eagles and Liberty Loans will take the floor at 6:45, and the St. Joseph reserves will clash with the Harris reserves at 7:30. The main game is set for 8:15.

The probable St. Joseph starting lineup for the main game will be: Lusk in rf, McDermott lf, Faber c, Gray rg, and Knauf lg.

GOP's And Kinneys Win Crowns In HS Basketball Races

The GOP's and the Kinneys are the champions, respectively, in the heavyweight and lightweight divisions of the intramural basketball leagues of Escanaba Senior high school as a result of their victories yesterday afternoon in the finals.

The GOP's defeated the Gunga Dins by the narrow margin of 18 to 17, and the Kinneys won over the Aces, 31 to 23.

The heavyweight winners were playing without the aid of Captain Bill Harwood in the final tussle with the Gunga Dins and throughout they held a slight edge throughout the first half they slipped in the final stanza and the Gunga Dins made it 13-all. The count was knotted again at 17-all and a free throw by Chapelski in the last minute of play was the margin of victory.

Following the heavyweight tilt the Kinneys defeated the Aces for the lightweight crown, pulling ahead in the second half under the leadership of Farrell. The loss of Kauffman on fouls proved a disastrous blow to the Aces who were then forced to play with four men.

The box scores:

New York, March 2 (AP)—Davy Day, Chicago's clever lightweight contender, who has been champion Lou Ambers' most persistent challenger of late, hung up another victory tonight by beating Charley Gomer, of Baltimore in the ten round main event in the New York hippodrome before 2,500 customers. Day weighed 135½, and Gomer 133½.

Sam Plan, one of Day's managers, said after the fight he would go before the New York state athletic commission Friday and ask that Davy be designated No. 1 challenger in the 136-pound division.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 2 (AP)—Turning in a two-under-par card of 69, Johnny Revolta led touring golf professionals through the opening round of the $3,000 St. Petersburg open tournament today.

The Evanston, Ill., sharpshooter put together rounds of 35 and 34 on the Lakewood course, where he learned the game 11 years ago while working as a links patrolman.

One stroke behind were defending champion Harry Cooper of Chicago, Mass., with 37-33; Ben Hogan of Fort Worth, Tex., 35; and Harold "Jug" McSpaden of Winchester, Mass., 37-33.

Denny Shute of West Newton, Mass., Bob Shave of Cleveland, Ohio, and Pittsburgh, Ed Oliver of Wilmington, Del., Jimmy Thomson of Shawnee-on-the-Hill, Pa., and Paul Runyon of White Plains, N. Y., matched par over the 6,400-yard course.

Tied with Nelson at that figure were such performers as Frank Walsh of Chicago, Frank Moore of Quaker Ridge, N. Y., Pat Sawyer of Detroit, who turned in a 36-36, Ralph Gulda of Chicago, Dave Ogilvie of Augusta, Ga., Ed Brook of Bartow, Fla., Sam Byrd of Philadelphia, Sam Parks, Jr., of Philadelphia and Bill Heinlein of Indianapolis. Mel Carrier, Three Rivers, Mich., had a 38-38-76.

POWERS MEET OPENS TODAY

Eighteen Teams Enter Independent Cage Tournament

Powers, March 2—With eighteen teams entered, representing the cream of independent basketball competition in Northern Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula, play will be started at 7 o'clock Thursday night at the Powers hall in the fourth annual Powers Gold Medal basketball tournament.

The popularity of the tournament, which has proved to be one of the outstanding of its kind given in the Upper Peninsula, is demonstrated again this year by the fact that the entry list includes teams from all sections of the peninsula.

In the role of favorites are the strong Texacos quint of Negaunee, the Dixie Oilers of Iron Mountain, the Loans of Escanaba, and the Oshkosh Beers. The Texacos, whose lineup is composed of former Negaunee and Ishpeming high school cagers, have met with only two defeats in 17 starts this season, their reversals coming at the hands of the Daggett All Stars, 54 to 47, and the Stambaugh All Stars, 36 to 35. The Negaunee crew gained an even break with Daggett, whipping the All Stars in a return game, 52 to 49.

The Dixie Oilers, who will compete here for the fourth time, have assumed the role of perennial tournament favorites. The Iron Mountain team includes former Iron Mountain and Kingsford players, and during the past three years they have reached the finals, although they have yet to cop the championship.

In the first round games which will be played Thursday night the pairings are as follows:
7 p. m.—Powers vs. Northside Sailors.
8 p. m.—Cudlip's (Iron Mountain) vs. Niagara Swedes.

Escanaba Rings Down Curtain With Upbays

"Primed for b'ar." Escanaba high school cagers will ring down the curtain on their 1937-38 basketball season here Friday night against their most respected rivals, Gladstone. The reserve teams of both schools will meet in a preliminary at 7 o'clock.

The Eskymos, in spite of their victory over Gladstone earlier in the season, are prepared for their toughest game of the year. The Upbays have not lost a single game since that Escanaba game, winning seven straight, including victories over Manistique, Marquette, Vulcan, Gwin and St. Joseph.

In the first meeting of the two schools, they battled on even terms for three periods and the Escanaba crew eked out victory only with a string of long shots by Captain Stan Abrahamson and Ray Eis, center.

Coach Carl Nordberg has been working on a different offense this week than the one he has used all season and it has been working well in practice. He is putting more emphasis on cutting and driving for the basket rather than relying mainly on the pivot offense to provide scoring opportunities.

It is expected that Nordberg will not deviate from his regular lineup of Hurley and Hansen at forwards, Eis at center and Abrahamson and Olson at guards. Others in reserve include Barron, Bennett, Swanson and Pennings.

Tim Barry and Al Enger of Kingsford will work the game.

PURDUE NAMES ELWARD COACH

Noble E. Kizer Relieved of Duties; Recuperates at Tucson, Ariz.

Lafayette, Ind., March 2 (AP)—Mal Elward, into whose hands Purdue university's football fortunes fell last year after illness laid low Head Coach Noble E. Kizer, today was appointed head coach of the Boilermakers.

The appointment was announced by President Edward C. Elliott, who said Kizer, now convalescing at Tucson, Ariz., had asked to be relieved as coach. Kizer, who is expected to return here September 1, will continue as athletic director.

Elward, a teammate of the late Knute Rockne at Notre Dame, is rated in coaching circles as one of the game's keenest technicians.

Elward's 1937 Purdue eleven tied with Northwestern, Michigan and Wisconsin for fourth place in the Big Ten conference with a percentage of .500, winning two games, losing two and tying one in the conference.

Elward said active spring football practice would start Monday afternoon.

Following graduation from Notre Dame in 1916, Elward started his coaching career at St. John's Prep at Danvers, Mass., and his team won the east Catholic prep title. In the World war he coached the Newport naval reserve and the Hampton Roads training station teams.

He became head football coach at Grinnell college (Iowa) after the war and brought Grinnell its first Missouri Valley title in five years. Then he moved to John Carroll at Cleveland, remaining there three years. He came to Purdue as an assistant in the fall of 1927.

Kizer has been on leave since August. Elliott said the decision to make the change was reached at a conference with Kizer and his medical advisors in Tucson this week. Elliott said Kizer's physicians "strongly advised him to give up the strenuous job of coaching."

A newly developed feature on an English aircraft carrier "mother" ship is a hangar which protects the planes from the weather.

Garden Ramblers at 9:30; Manistique Lauermans and Nahma Brews will wind up the first session at 10:30.

UPBAYS SEEK REVENGE

Gladstone, Mich.—Intent on evening the score with the Eskymos, Gladstone high school cagers travel to Escanaba Friday night for the season's windup.

Preparations for the battle are nearly completed and the team with the exception of one man is in excellent shape. With the lineup revamped since the last meeting of the two foes, the Keilmans have more height and have come along in nice manner.

The locals have tasted defeat only twice this season, once at the hands of Manistique, a five they later trounced, and the second time by Escanaba.

Incidentally, the Escanaba game was the last defeat the Keilmans sustained and fans here are confident that the locals can wind up the season with victory.

ROWE IS TOLD TO CUT LOOSE

Lanky Detroit Pitcher Has Final Checkup on Bum Flipper

Miami, Fla., March 2 (AP)—Linwood L. (Schoolboy) Rowe, lanky pitcher for the Detroit Tigers, paid a pop-call on an osteopath here today and was told to cut loose with his hurling arm.

Dr. Cecil Ferguson said he had not expected a visit from the big moundsman but made a routine check of the arm in which ligaments were torn early last season. It was in good condition, he stated.

"I told Rowe to go on back to camp and start gradually, then to cut loose with that arm," said Dr. Ferguson. "He is to come back here just before the spring training season ends and we'll see how it stood up under the strain."

Rowe said Walter O. Briggs, owner of the club, suggested that he drop in on Dr. Ferguson. The pitcher returned to Lakeland when the examination was over.

The osteopath said he told Rowe the arm would be stiff at first because of the long rest given it but from all present indications it should stand the strain of pitching.
