

MANY VOTERS WILL REGISTER Today Is Last Day for Signing With Clerk Carl Anderson

Many new voters already have registered at the office of City Clerk Carl E. Anderson and a large number is expected today in view of the fact that it will be the last opportunity of signing up before the election.

Clerk Anderson will be in his office all day today to take care of last minute registrations. All persons who have not previously voted and those who have changed their residences within the past year without reporting must register with the city clerk in order to be allowed to vote in the April 4 election.

Up to yesterday, 85 new voters had registered and 126 persons had indicated a change of address.

Anderson said yesterday that there are approximately 6,300 registered voters in the city. An average of from 2,500 to 3,500 persons cast their ballots in the regular city election. This number is expected to be greater this year in view of the special interest in the council race as well as the bond issues to be voted on. Two proposed charter changes also will be considered.

Baldies Want Cheaper Barbering

Barbering fees by the acreage instead of by the head would be the universal custom if bald-headed Roy Warlicki, of Chickasha, Okla., shown getting a trim above, were successful in his new campaign. Warlicki has organized a Brotherhood of the Baldheaded, whose members, all "baldies," are pledged to fight for fees in proportion to the amount of scissoring required. But George Hudson, the tonsorial artist above, is again the BBB campaign. He agrees with his brethren that eye strain from looking at polished domes makes the regulation fee eminently fair.

Interesting Items of Day Picked Up Around Town

It's surprising how many enthusiastic amateur photographers there are in Escanaba. Stop and talk with anyone you meet along Ludington street, and if the conversation turns to pictures you're almost certain to hear that he's interested in photography—and before long he will probably dig out that set of pictures of the baby, or of the snowdrifts left by last February's blizzard, and show them to you.

As one phase of this increased interest in pictures, photography clubs are mushrooming up all over the city. The schools have them, as well as the WPA and the city recreation department, and in addition to these groups there are a number of informal cliques which get together to talk pictures and photo equipment. Most of them aren't clubs in any strict sense of the word. Like Topsy, they "just growed," because persons with common interests got together.

Financial need is probably one of the reasons these groups were formed, or formed themselves. A number of individuals, working together, can afford to set up a dark-room which one alone might not wish to tackle. There is much to be gained from this group participation in any hobby, and especially in photography.

When there is an event of interest in the community, such as the coming Smet Jamboree, the photographers are sure to be on hand. Bright days bring them out, too, though their ardor doesn't seem to be dampened much by cloudy ones. Movie and still cameras are a part of the atmosphere of every event, and with "candid" cameras as numerous as they are there are few who escape being caught off guard at some time or other.

NEW UNIT WILL BE BEGUN HERE

Chicago Scout Leader to Help Organize New District

C. M. Finnell, deputy regional Scout executive from Chicago, will spend Monday in Escanaba meeting with local Scout leaders for the purpose of organizing a new Scout Council.

The Delta and Schoolcraft Scout officials have applied to the regional office for authority to divide the present council into two separate councils. The new Council headquarters will be in Escanaba and take in the counties of Delta, Schoolcraft and Alger. The estimated population of the new council, including the rural area, is 50,055.

Under the plan now in operation, most of the records and finances are kept in the Marquette office. Under the new plan, this would be handled through the Escanaba office.

All members of the Escanaba, Gladstone and Manistique District committees are urged to attend a dinner meeting at the Delta hotel at 6:30 p. m. Monday to meet with Mr. Finnell and complete the Council organization plans.

Defies Senate

The indignant finger which Dr. Edward A. Rumely points at the senate lobby committee in the picture above was no less expressive of his feelings when the committee considered contempt proceedings because he refused to produce records of his organization's activities against New Deal legislation. Executive secretary of the National Committee to Uphold Constitutional Government, Dr. Rumely said he spent $50,000 to "educate" the public to the "dangers" of the president's reorganization bill now before congress.

TESTS WILL BE BEGUN APRIL 1

Drivers Must Take Exam Before License Can Be Issued

Beginning Friday of next week, all persons applying for drivers' or chauffeurs' licenses at the city police department or sheriff's department will be required to take a written examination as well as submit to various aptitude tests.

Word was received of the starting date yesterday from Oscar Olander, commissioner of safety, who will be in charge of the state wide examination.

Examination at the city police station will be conducted by Sergeant Phil Bruce and Officer Eddie Coplan while at the sheriff's department they will be conducted by Undersheriff John Fredericksen and Deputy Paul Creten.

Special equipment will be installed in both places to care for the examination of applicants. In addition to writing tests, which will consist of 20 questions, applicants will be tested for eyesight, hearing, knowledge of signs and color blindness.

All questions to be asked on the tests are answered in the booklet "What Every Driver Must Know," which is available at either the police station or sheriff's department.

Camera Club Has Fine Exhibition

Members of the Escanaba high school camera club staged an exhibition of their work in one of the class rooms of the school yesterday, drawing several hundred people to the display.

Pictures, miniatures and enlargements, straight and trick work, taken by members of the club during the past year and attractively mounted in displays were shown. Most of the pictures depicted scenes of actual school life.

The camera club is under the leadership of George Rutwitch of the high school faculty.

Due to higher taxes and wages and rising materials and fuel costs, U. S. railroad annual operating costs are now $64 million dollars more than they were five years ago.

A community hour which the public is invited to attend, will follow future practices. Mrs. Zenia Rivers, director of recreation, was present at the meeting.

OBITUARY

MRS. ALBERT P. RASMUSSEN

At one of the largest funerals ever held in Escanaba, final rites were conducted Friday afternoon for Mrs. Albert P. Rasmussen. The services at which Rev. Dr. C. Albert Lund officiated were held at 2 o'clock in the chapel of the Anderson funeral home and at 2:15 o'clock at Bethany Lutheran church.

The chapel was crowded, beautiful flowers banking the resting room, and the church auditorium was completely filled.

Rev. Dr. Lund used as his text the 102nd Psalm, 23d Verse, "The Lord weakened my strength in the way he shortened my days."

A trio, composed of Mrs. Gunnard Nelson, Agnes Anderson and C. Arthur Anderson, sang "Nearer, Still Nearer," and "Fare, Fare Each Earthly Joy." Miss Lois Lundstrom was accompanist.

Burial was in Lakeview cemetery. Pallbearers were Reinhold Gustafson, David Westenberg, Albert Johnson, John Decker, Roy Estepsona and Olse Anderson.

Liquor Commission Inspector On Tour Of Upper Peninsula

Sam Jacobs, brewery and alcohol inspector of the Michigan state liquor control commission, was in the city yesterday on an inspection tour which takes him through the peninsula. Jacobs is also making inspections of retail establishments licensed by the commission, with special emphasis on sanitation. The commission is now planning a more strict enforcement of sanitary regulations regarding the cleansing of glasses and coils used in handling beer. William E. Johnson, Upper Peninsula branch manager, stated yesterday, and the use of chemical sterilizers such as chlorine is being advocated.

License application blanks are now being mailed out by the commission at Lansing, to licensees who have been approved by their local governing bodies. In some instances license application blanks are being held back, where more than the number of licensees legally permitted to operate have been approved by the governing bodies. No such cases exist in this district, Johnson said yesterday.

Secretary Hull Will Consider Fish Resolution

Washington, D. C.—Congressman John Luecke of the 11th Michigan District, has been advised that Secretary of State, Cordell Hull, will give early consideration to House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries Resolution No. 9, which requests the Secretary of State to negotiate an agreement with the Canadian Government for the regulation of commercial fishing in international waters of the Great Lakes.

The Resolution was introduced by Cong. Luecke and was unanimously approved by the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries on March 15, 1938. It is a companion measure to House Joint Resolution No. 504, also introduced by Cong. Luecke, which authorizes the states bordering on the Great Lakes to enter into agreements for the regulation of commercial fishing in American waters of the Great Lakes. The House of Representatives has already passed H. J. Res. 504 and it is awaiting action by the Senate at the present time.

In his statement to Chairman Bland of the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries,

Theatres

AT THE DELFT

Those who like spy stories—and who don't?—will find "The Spy Ring" which opened yesterday at the Delft theatre a completely thrilling and entertaining experience.

The story purports to give the inside of the activities of a group of clever international agents and was written by George Waggoner to whom a lot of very good stories coming out of Hollywood have been attributed.

Thrills of the wildest jungles, beats in their struggles for life, savage tribesmen in the strange, fanciful and deadly rites of the jungle, crocodiles, rhino—every peril an explorer could face—these are filmed, with actual sound, in "Trader Horn," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's gigantic pageant of savage Africa now playing at the Delft theatre.

But is differs from anything of the kind ever seen, for its thrills and its wonders surround a dramatic story—the tale of the adventurous trader, his apprentice and the beautiful "White Goddess" of the savage isle. The famous book lives in actually, as in the original locales of its dramatic narrative, it is enacted in talking pictures.

AT THE MICHIGAN

Poignant emotion which tears at the heart strings, similar to that which highlights many great murder trials, was revealed when "The Jury's Secret," featuring Kent Taylor, Fay Wray, Larry Blake and Nan Grey, opened its run yesterday at the Michigan theatre.

Although the picture features in its initial scenes the devastation wrought by a great flood, and two intriguing romances are skillfully woven into the production, this Universal picture is in reality a searing indictment of methods employed in many murder trials where the evidence is of a purely circumstantial nature.

"The Jury's Secret" tells the story of Walter Russell, a weak-willed but normally honorable man who secretly kills Brandon Williams, a capitalist, in the belief that the financier is a menace both to himself and the city he has been exploiting for years.

With this picture as evidence, the nation's capital can't help but admit it is going around in a fog. And no wonder, in these days of continuous European crises, the exasperating business recession, the moot government reorganization question and the puzzling navy expansion bill.

Dogs Take Toll, But Deer Are Reported In Good Condition

Newberry, March 25—Although dogs have been taking a heavy toll on the deer of the eastern end of the peninsula, conservation officers report that the animals are in an excellent condition.

Conservation officers Joseph Stephens and Richard Beach have just completed a patrol in which they visited many of the areas where deer collect.

The officer found six dogs harassing deer in the Sage district and shot the animals. They also killed two dogs along the Murphy creek. A woodsman working at Camp 9 for the Newberry Lumber and Chemical company watched a dog chase a deer through his cutting and killed the dog with an axe as it ran past him.

Spots Aren't All That Comes Out Of Clothes Sent To The Cleaners

It's fun working in a laundry—you see a side of human nature that isn't ordinarily revealed. The saying that "It all comes out in the wash," is proven again and again in local laundries and cleaning establishments.

Most of the interesting miscellany of articles collected at laundry checking tables come out before the wash, however, for rescuing things valuable or worthless from soap suds and cleaning fluid is a steady job wherever your clothes are cared for.

Cleaners have long since ceased to marvel at what a pocket may contain. Most common is the handkerchiefs—most rare, dental work. The vest and watch pockets are greatest offenders.

Love Enters In

The general run of people check their clothes before they reach the cleaners, but although "the customer is always right," proprietors will testify as to his carelessness "picking pockets," in the customer's interest, is a big part of the day's work.

The contents of pockets tell much of their owner's work and habits. Physicians' pockets are likely to hold medical thermometers; workers' overalls a screw driver or a pair of pliers; boys' trousers a pocket knife.

Letters may become embarrassing. The line between humor and tragedy was drawn tight the time a letter was found in a husband's coat, sent back with the cleaning only to be opened by his wife.

When things are lost, the laundry is always considered a possibility. Sometimes the loser knows he left something in a pocket. A man recently called a local establishment to ask that they look for a dime he had left in his Sunday trousers for church collection—his wife had sent them to be cleaned on Thursday.

Calls come in for articles that never reach the establishment. Some people notice the loss before the clothes reach the cleaner. Frantic calls sometimes come in for a telephone number or a street address, scribbled on a scrap of paper left in a coat pocket.

ROAD PROJECT IS SUBMITTED

Expenditure of $933,267 Planned on Work In County

A total of $933,267 will be spent on county road work under WPA supervision if a project submitted by the Delta county road commission yesterday is accepted by government officials.

The extended project calls for 260 miles of road work on which grading, gravel and bituminous surfacing will be carried out.

Federal funds for the project will amount to $713,114.50 while the sponsor's share will be $220,152.50. The extensive sewer construction job on the southwestern section of the city is expected to start April 5 and will employ about 150 men, most of whom will be transferred from county road projects.

The United States, with 6% of the world's land area and less than 6% of its population, has 30%, or 241,822 miles, of the world's 788,551 miles of railroads.

FLAPPER FANNY By Sylvia

Good and Hard Times Incomes are Compared

BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Washington, D. C.—Only chronic pessimists believe that the recession of business which has been experienced since last autumn is likely to project itself into another depression such as that which followed the 1929 crash. There are many signs that the opening of the spring season will witness renewed activity and re-employment. However, as an academic matter, it is interesting to note how incomes of various sorts are affected by the vicissitudes of the times, and figures compiled by the Bureau of the Census make that possible.

The people who work for a living, for wages and salaries, always enjoy the lion's share of the Nation's annual income, in this country at least. In the best and in the worst of times the rich people, those who live on dividends and those who draw profits from the ownership of businesses, combined in one class receive less of the total income than those who depend on the weekly pay envelope and salary check. In fact, about one-third.

The year, 1929, was the richest in the entire history of the United States. The total income for the three classes of income which the Census Bureau has catalogued amounted in that year to $78,226,000,000. It has been estimated that total income was as high as $85,000,000,000, but there are certain subsidiary classifications which are not included in these official figures.

Of this huge total, the working classes, overall and white collar, received $51,340,000,000. Employment was full except for those too young or too old or for some reason unemployable. There were jobs for nearly all who wanted to work. The entrepreneurial income for the same year, which means the profits of business, speculations, and the like, ranked next and amounted to $15,677,000,000. Third in rank we find the recipients of dividends. They received $11,209,000,000. Of course, in the business profit group must be included the little as well as the big business men, and in the dividend group those who owned but a few shares of stock.

Division of Compensation The first year of the depression was 1930 when total income fell to $72,729,000,000—still, it must be admitted, a tidy sum. Those who felt the first brunt of the economic blow were the wage and salary workers and the business men. Payment for services amounted to $47,203,000,000, while business profits dropped to $14,239,000,000. Now it is an interesting phenomenon that dividends do not fall at the beginning of a depression—in fact at first they rise. The momentum of the previous years makes it possible to continue and even increase payments. The wage earner receives his pay usually every week and the business man can take profits on a short time basis. Dividends, in many cases, are not paid until a year after they have been earned, so the dividends of 1930 represent largely earnings in the high year of 1929. They amounted to $11,287,000,000, or more than in the previous year.

It was in 1933 that the low point in national income was reached. The total for the three classes in that year was only $44,955,000,000. The compensation of workers of all classes dropped to only $29,349,000,000, while the profits of business men, speculators, and promoters reached but $8,500,000,000. Dividends were $7,016,000,000. It was in 1933 that the New Deal came into existence and times rapidly improved.

Last year the total income had climbed back to $67,463,000,000, still far short of 1929, but a tremendous improvement compared with the low point. Compensation of workers amounted to $44,983,000,000, while business profits reached $13,187,000,000. While there had been substantial re-employment, it must be remembered that several million more persons had come of working age, so there still was much unemployment. Dividends reached $9,293,000,000. They had recovered more rapidly than had been expected, and more rapidly than in previous periods of depression. This was attributed to the enactment of the tax on undistributed profits which laid a special impost on companies who hoarded their surpluses. This forced dividend payments.

It may be pertinent to show how the workers fared in several categories of employment as a possible guide to the individual who might desire to make a shift before another depression descends on the country. Most Stable Employment Groups The greatest numbers of workers are engaged in manufacturing, mining, and the construction industry, and, in 1929, a total of $19,135,000,000 was paid to them. By 1933, their earnings had fallen to only $8,436,000,000. Last year they were back to $15,825,000,000. In 1929, transportation and public utility employees received aggregate income of $6,171,000,000. The 1933 low point brought them $3,465,000,000. Last year they received $4,845,000,000. Employees in stores, banks—not proprietors—received in 1929 a total of $9,778,000,000. This group includes the almost innumerable store clerks, bundle wrappers, tellers, runners, and the like. By 1933, their earnings had fallen to $5,795,000,000. Last year they drew $7,953,000,000.

A separate class is made up of government workers, stenographers, and a miscellaneous group of white-collar help. In 1929, they received a total of $14,256,000,000. In 1933, this figure had fallen to $10,983,000,000, but last year had recovered to $14,494,000,000. It is, perhaps, unfortunate that a more detailed classification has not been made. It is believed it would show that instead of any decrease at all an increase in the total compensation of government workers would be shown and with a very slight falling off from 1929 to 1933. Emergency measures taken by the Federal, State, and local governments during the depression years resulted in the employment of an increased number of persons. For example, the Federal establishment was greatly expanded. Washington overflowed with new emergency employees, and field forces were enlarged as well. In a somewhat lesser degree the same was true of State and local governments.

Now to retrace how each group fared. The group employed in manufacturing, mining, and the construction industry fared worst. It will be seen that in 1933 their aggregate compensation was substantially less than half of what it had been in 1929. Workers in the transportation and public utility group were receiving at the lowest point of the depression about half a billion dollars more than half of what they drew in 1929. Those in the trade and finance group received well over a billion more than half of the high point of 1929, while the government workers also were more than a billion over half.

This would seem to indicate that government workers, trade and finance employees, transportation and utility workers and industrial employees, in the order named, retain their incomes through depressions.

Rural Electrification Project Contract Awarded Zeeland Firm

Contract for construction of the Alger-Delta Rural Electrification project has been awarded to the Clifton Engineering Co., Zeeland, Mich. It was announced yesterday by Harry Hall, superintendent and director of the Alger-Delta Co-op Electric association.

Formal signing of the contract will be made by the directors at a meeting today in Escanaba.

The line will be about 100 miles in length and service an area in which there are over 400 potential consumers. The cost of the project, complete and metered, will approximate $100,000.

This is somewhat higher than the bid first approved due to the fact that after due deliberation the directors finally decided on use of copper weld and copper throughout the entire project.

Construction headquarters including office and warehouse will be set up at Rapid River or some other convenient point.

Local labor will be used as much as possible, giving preference to members of the association who will be consumers, Hall stated.

Supervision of construction will be in charge of Baker-Hansen Engineering Corp., Zeeland, Mich., formerly of Gladstone, who did the engineering on the project.

Oshkosh All Stars Give Basketball Fans Treat

Basketball fans from Escanaba and surrounding territory now have a good idea of how a top notch professional team looks. The Oshkosh All Stars, one of the mightiest pro teams in the country, dispensed with the Escanaba Alumni, 67-38, at the junior high school last night in a manner which left fans literally gasping for breath.

As in the case of the Globe Trotters, the thing which detracted somewhat from the game was the lack of opposition. While the former Escanaba stars played the best game they knew how, the All Stars were so far superior that the game got dull at times.

Playing Is Impressive

The Oshkosh outfit pleased the fans with their lightning like passing, clever shooting and flawless guarding. Their tremendous height (they average well over six feet two inches), was impressive and they used it to good advantage, taking off every rebound and sweeping up the floor with amazing speed to score time and time again.

Fans who had heard of the ability of LeRoy "Lil Abner" Edwards of Kentucky were not disappointed. The husky, dimpled center slipped in 13 field goals and one free throw for a total of 37 points, duplicating his feat of scoring that number recently against the Stevens Point Teachers college. Herman Wittasek, handsome North Dakota boy, gave the crowd many laughs with his clever ball handling and clowning tactics.

Job In Fine Form

Although badly outclassed, the Escanaba boys did remarkably well in scoring more points than any other Oshkosh opponent in the last week, including Jewell Young's College Stars, who scored but 35 points. The highlight of the Escanaba team was the work of Job Anderson, only boy whose height compared at all with the Oshkosh crew. Anderson scored 13 points on several neat shots and played a stellar defensive game. He blocked many Oshkosh shots and did a fine job of taking rebounds.

Put In Limelight

The Oshkosh players were introduced individually over the loud speaking system, being picked up by a spotlight as they came from a doorway under the basket. The Little German Band of the high school introduced them by playing "On Wisconsin" and the gym was plunged into total darkness momentarily before the spotlight picked up the first player.

The All Stars left immediately after the game for Oshkosh where they will meet their hottest rivals, the Whiting (Ind.) Ciesara, who carry such stars as Johnny Wooden, Bill Haarlow, Jewell Young and others.

ZIVIC BEATEN BY ARMSTRONG

Featherweight Champion Scores Technical Knockout

Detroit, March 25. (AP)—Henry Armstrong, featherweight champion of the world, scored a technical knockout over Eddie Zivic, Pittsburgh lightweight, in the fourth round of their scheduled 10-round engagement here tonight.

Zivic's seconds tossed in a towel after 2:35 of the round had elapsed. The Pittsburgher was never down, but absorbed terrific punishment from Armstrong, who lashed out with a two-fisted attack from the opening gong. Armstrong weighed 135 and Zivic three-quarters of a pound more.

Armstrong now has only one more tuneup bout, a clash with Lew Feldman at New York, March 30, before meeting Barney Ross, welterweight champion, in New York May 26.

A crowd of 5,858 persons paid a gross gate of $10,428 to watch the fight.

Maurice Strickland, Paterson, N. J. heavyweight, scored a knockout in the third round over Charley Belanger, 34-year-old Canadian veteran, in the scheduled eight round semi-final. Belanger substituted for Edward (Unknown) Winston of Hartford, Conn., who withdrew from the card. Strickland weighed 187 and Belanger 185.

In other bouts Marty Simmons, 164, Saginaw, Mich., won a six-round decision over Jimmy Clark, 155, Buffalo; Kid Sela, 135, Havana, Cuba, scored a technical knockout over Carl Fasnough, 137, Toledo, in the final round of their scheduled six rounder, and Carmen Notch, 136, Pittsburgh, won a six round verdict over Joe Doty.

Conference Medal Goes To Townsend, Michigan Cage Star

Ann Arbor, Mich., March 25. (AP)—To John Townsend, probably the greatest basketball player in University of Michigan history, went a prized award today—the Western Conference medal for proficiency in scholarship and athletics.

The Indianapolis, Ind., senior, who also doubles in track, had a scholastic average for seven semesters of 2.35 out of a possible 3.00.

Townsend, as captain of the 1937-38 basketball team, set a new individual scoring record of 135 points for a Michigan player in conference competition.

During his career as a player, he was named by Big Ten coaches on the All-Conference team for three successive years. He also has won the varsity letters in track, in the weight events.

Then that fast ball caught Cochran and they pushed a mask and a tummy protector at Rudy and shoved him behind the plate. Last August he was the most dangerous hitter in the American league, belting out 18 homers to crack Ruth's mark for a single month.

He poked out 35 homers in only the season. Playing regularly in only approximately a third of the year's games, he was just 11 home runs behind the leader, Joe DiMaggio.

Rudy's out to grab the clotting honors from DiMagg's season.

York has been belting the apple unmercifully in the spring Grapefruit league games. He's a more natural hitter than Hank Greenberg and clouts the ball a bit further.

Manager Mickey Cochrane thinks he'll win the home honors. And so does Rudy.

With York and Greenberg and Charley Gehring, the Tigers have a Murderer's row that ranks with any trio in baseball. And Cochrane will wager a fancy chapeau that Hank and Rudy will sock more homers than the Yankee pair, DiMaggio and "Two-Gun" Lou Gehrig.

There never has been a really great Indian hero in baseball. Jim Thorpe, perhaps the greatest all-around athlete among the Redskins, was a sucker for a curve ball. Chief Myers was a pretty fair catcher. There have been others, but York may easily overshadow them all.

Other baseballers with Indian blood in their veins include Ben Chapman and Bobby Doerr of the

MAYOR TO ROLL FIRST BALL

Gladstone Plays Host to Best Talent in This Region

Gladstone, Mich.—With the cream of bowling talent of northern Michigan and Wisconsin entered, the 31st annual Upper Peninsula bowling tournament opens here today on the alleys of the Rialto recreation.

The tournament will continue until May 1.

The Soo Arcadians will be the first team to roll in the event, being scheduled to take the alleys sometime during the afternoon. They are stopping here enroute from Chicago where they competed in the American Bowling Congress.

The official opening will take place in the evening. The first ball is to be thrown by Mayor Julius A. Bredahl who will also deliver a short speech of welcome. Competing teams will then start rolling.

Three events are to be rolled: the five-man team, doubles and singles. There will also be a prize for high in all-events and the contestant rolling the highest single game will receive a new bowling ball.

All contestants will shoot at new three pound, three ounce pins, all purchased from the same manufacturer so that all are assured they will compete on an even basis.

Alleys have been gone over, refinished and placed in excellent condition for the tourney.

Marquette is making a bid to secure the tourney in 1939 and apparently their invitation will be accepted.

This year's association officers are: Vincent Johnson, president; William Skellenger, vice president; and Walter VanDeWeghe, secretary-treasurer, all of this city.

"CHIEF" YORK VERY POPULAR

Tiger Catcher Expected to Be Greatest of Indian Players

BY DILLON GRAHAM
AP Feature Service Writer
Lakeland, Fla., March 25.—Most of the Indians in Florida are quartered on the Seminole reservation down in the Everglades but a dozen are swing clubs or fogging in fast balls at the spring baseball camps.

Here in Lakeland, wearing fancy sport tops and chat-chattering with the society crowd, is a young redskin who may become the greatest Indian player in the game's history—Rudy York.

He is the broad-shouldered 220-pounder who stepped in behind the bat when Mickey Cochrane was beaten last season and proceeded to give perhaps the greatest stretch of freeseizing baseball has ever seen—a batting rampage that cracked one of Babe Ruth's fondest records.

Rudy came up as a first-baseman with Hank Greenberg around, a rookie first-sacker was about as useful as a tobacco juice spilt on in an Old Maid's Home. They gave him a chance in the outfield but the lumbering Redskin was no Tris Speaker in the garden. And the hot ones flicked past his legs when he was planted at third base.

Then that fast ball caught Cochran and they pushed a mask and a tummy protector at Rudy and shoved him behind the plate. Last August he was the most dangerous hitter in the American league, belting out 18 homers to crack Ruth's mark for a single month.

He poked out 35 homers in only the season. Playing regularly in only approximately a third of the year's games, he was just 11 home runs behind the leader, Joe DiMaggio.

PRINCETON TRIO CAPTURES SWIM

American Record Broken in 300-Yard Medley Relay at Rutgers

New Brunswick, N. J., March 25. (AP)—Princeton's great trio of Al Vando Weghe, Dick Hough and Hank Van Oss broke the listed American record tonight in capturing the 300 yard medley relay at the National Collegiate A. A. swimming championships.

Vande Weghe, great backstroke, gave Hough a substantial lead in the breast stroke leg and the husky Tiger was far in the van when Van Oss started the final free style leg of the journey through Rutgers pool.

Their time was 2 minutes, 54.7 seconds, beating by two-tenths of a second the listed American mark of the Lake Shore A. C. The National Intercollegiate mark of 2:57, made last year by Harvard and the N. C. A. meet standard of 2:57.8 set last year by Michigan, also were erased. Ohio State trailed the Tigers with Michigan third.

Ohio State Leads

At the end of the first day's competition, Ohio State led with 22 points to 29 for Michigan defending champions.

Princeton and Harvard tied for third with 16 points each. Other team scores: Yale 11; Iowa 6; Texas 4; Stanford 4; Illinois 3; Southern California 3; Army 2; Minnesota, Pittsburgh and Rutgers, one each.

Earlier, Vande Weghe, 21 year old sophomore, broke intercollegiate and meet records in capturing the 150 yard backstroke title.

Timed in 1:34.2, Vande Weghe clipped more than two seconds off the listed National Intercollegiate record of 1:36.7 and the meet mark of 1:38.8, established respectively by William Neuzig of Ohio State and Danny Zehr of Northwestern.

Retaining his 50 yard free style crown, Ed Kirbar of Michigan beat out Harvard's Charley Hutter to win in 23.2 seconds. In the semi-finals Kirbar had equalled the meet record of 23 seconds established by Charles Flackman of Illinois.

Another defending champion fell in the 200 yard free style when Tom Haynie of Michigan lost to Bill Kendall of Harvard. Kendall was timed in 2:12 flat.

Al Patnik, Ohio State sophomore, dethroned his teammate, Jimmy Patterson, as N. C. A. A. low board diving champion. Piling up 145.14 points, Patnik was 16 points higher than Patterson. Russell Greenwood, Harvard's eastern intercollegiate champion, was third, Danny Endweles, of Yale, fourth and Jack Wolin of Michigan, fifth.

KEGELERS VOTE FOR CLEVELAND

Ohio City Beats Buffalo In Bid for 1939 ABC Tourney

Chicago, March 25. (AP)—The American Bowling Congress tournament for 1939 was voted to-night to Cleveland, with 326 congress delegates balloting for the Ohio city to defeat the bid made by Buffalo, N. Y., which polled 231 votes.

The decision giving Cleveland the tournament was reached after a five hour session. St. Paul withdrew its bid, and was expected to make an effort to land the 1940 meet. Dates for the tournament will be set later.

John Davies of Columbus, O., first vice president, was elevated to the presidency of the congress, succeeding Al Lattin of New York, who was made a life member. Charles W. Cushing of Peoria, Ill., a former president and chairman of the legislative committee, was named treasurer, filling a vacancy caused by the recent death of Frank L. Pasdeloup of Chicago. Elmer Baumgarten of Milwaukee was reelected secretary.

Cleveland's successful campaign for the meet was led by Charles Koch, a former congress president. Cleveland held the meet in 1904 and 1930.

STRONG ON DEFENSE

Pasadena, Calif., March 25. (AP)—The Chicago White Sox drill indicated today that Manager Jimmy Dykes was determined to put a good defensive club on the field this season.

Dykes had outfielders Gerald Walker, Mike Kreovich and Larry Rosenthal, his regular outer gardeners, firing the ball to all bases. Dykes has good arms and Dykes believes they will make base runners cautious before the season is far advanced.

The Sox resume their exhibition series with the Cubs tomorrow.

FARMERS BEAT YANKS

Sebring, Fla., March 25. (AP)—Young Mike Witke, second-baseman up from Norfolk, scored one run and drove in the other today to give Newark's international league "farmhands" a 2 to 1 decision over their parent organization, the New York Yankees.

Flash Gordon's double in the fourth drove in the only Yankee run.

Returning letterman are co-captains Hansen and Olson, Swanson and Bennett, juniors, and Barron, sophomores.

Hansen, broad shouldered forward, has been a regular for two years on the Nordberg-coached cage outfits and next year is expected to be one of the high corners of the team. Olson, a reserve last year, got his big chance this year because of the illness of the veteran, Ken Frederickson. The blond guard came through in great style and is one of the hardest working players on the squad.

In presenting the letters, Coach Nordberg complimented the team on its hard work this season and explained the rights of the boys in wearing their monograms. Co-captains Hansen and Olson spoke briefly.

Robert Boyle, basketball manager, also was awarded a letter by Coach Nordberg.

Five members of this year's team will graduate this spring. They are Captain Abrahamson, Hurley, Eis, Penning and Frederickson.

AMERICAN WINS GRAND NATIONAL

Battleship, 40-1 Starter, First U. S. Horse To Take Steeplechase

BY SCOTTY RESTON
Aintree, Eng., March 25. (AP)—Running on his heart with a 17-year old kid on his back, Battleship today won an heroic "all-America" victory in the 100th Grand National Steeplechase to take a place alongside War Admiral as a worthy son of mighty Man O' War.

They said he'd sink in Becher's Brook. They said he was a pony out of his class. They started him at 40-1. Yet he carried the rose and silver colors of Mrs. Mario Oupont Scott of Montpellier, Va., wife of the screen actor, Randolph Scott, near the front all the way.

He stepped into command the second time over Becher's Brook, slipped back and then came on again. He was beaten at the last fence by a half-length but he answered the whip and won by a head from H. C. McNally's Royal Danelli, an 18 to 1 shot. Sir Alex MacGuire's Workman was far back for third place in the field of 36.

Royal Mall Jinxed

The kid on Battleship's back was Bruce Hobbes, little American-born apple-cheeked boy who was raised on a grain box. His father trained Battleship and two weeks ago decided the boy should ride him. The decision won the race. For his youngster, who was taken to England at the age of two after his father had handled F. Ambrose Clark's horses at Westbury, L. I., for 20 years, made his mistakes, mastered them and then whipped his mount home like a veteran twice his years.

It was the first time a horse actually bred and raced in America ever won the jumping classic. It was the first time a lad so young had ridden the winner. The only other American-bred horse ever to win the race was the California-floated Rublo in 1908 and he was owned by an Englishman.

The jinx stayed with Mrs. Camille Evans' Royal Mall last year's winner, to the end. First his original owner, H. Lloyd Thomas, was killed. Then his jockey, Evan Williams, fractured a collarbone and today the black son of My Prince broke a blood vessel and had to be pulled.

Favorite Seventh

This was only one of the accidents which swept the field. Rock Lad, owned by H. R. Bain of Toronto, spilled at the water jump, crawled out and died. Boys were helping favorites and longshots alike out of brooks throughout the race.

Three heavily-backed horses were among the 13 that finished the four miles, 856 yards. James V. Rank's Coolen, second last year, was fourth this time. J. B. Snow's American-owned Delachance was fifth and Arthur Sainsbury's Blue Shirt, the favorite, sixth. Hopeful Hego eighth and then come Underbid, Bachelor Prince, Lough Cottage, Provocative and Drim.

The three other American-owned representatives failed to finish. Frank Gould's What Have You, Robert Lehman's Didoric went out at the fourth fence and Mrs. Jesse Metcalfe's K. D. H. tumbled early in the running.

On the final drive on the flat Battleship showed the crowd of 250,000 he was a true son of the big red horse that captured the fancy of the American public nearly 20 years ago. Workman dropped back but both Battleship and Royal Danelli answered the sting of the whip with everything they had. A few yards from home Battleship got his head in front and there it stayed to win approximately $35,000. His time over the rain-drenched course was nine minutes, 29 4-5 seconds.

The most grateful crowd in town tonight were the bookies who figured to lose around $5,000,000 if almost any of the favorites had won. Several were tied up in the "spring double" with Phakos, winner of Wednesday's Lincolnshire.

OLD CONNIE FOOLS 'EM AND HIS CLUB MAY TOO

BY PAUL MICKELSON
New Orleans, March 25. (AP)—From out of the shadows of desperate illness and shattered dreams has marched old Connie Mack to make the grandest comeback of the spring baseball season.

The 75-year-old patriarch last fall seemed to be falling. Even his closest cronies shook their heads and advised him at least to give himself what small chance he had by surrendering the active management of the Philadelphia Athletics.

But old Connie fooled them all, possibly even himself. He struck out the side with the bases loaded in the ninth. And today he's back at his familiar post. He's even getting fat—that is fat for such a lean man as Connie—and now weighs 142 pounds, the heaviest he has been in nine years.

"Doggone it," says Connie as he begins his 33th year as leader of the A's, "I've got it licked. I'm coming now and maybe we'll still have some fun winning a pennant or two."

The hope on his ball club will fool a lot of people this season. For the first time in years, he actually has spent some money on his team and when Connie spends more than $1,000 on anything you can expect some right fancy dividends. Over-winter improvements on his present team cost him approximately $50,000.

Second base was the biggest heavy purchases of favorites, his budget not allowing much for purchases of outsiders. However he did have shares in all three winners, but not enough to offset the losses paid for favorites.

The fourteen American winners on Battleship were:

Betty Starr, Pasadena, Calif. S. J. Colton, Johnstown, N. Y., a physician who was "too busy making his daily round of sick calls" to comment.

Mildred Small, negro laundress of New York City, who fainted when she heard the news and then announced "I'm going to get drunk all by myself."

Jess Albroa, Long Island movie machine operator, who had refused $3,150 from "Duggies" for a half share of his ticket.

Donald Sheldon, Brooklyn investigator, who split a ticket with William Seelye. Both said they would put the money in a bank "and forget it."

Clerk Feels Good

Walter H. Bass, Wall Street customer's man, who signed his ticket "deserving sextet" for his wife and four children. Bass was unruffled.

"It can happen here," listed for a Brooklyn address.

Thomas C. Feeley, Bethel, Conn., a postoffice clerk who admitted: "I feel rather good."

Arnold J. Korn, Haverstraw, N. Y.

Michael Murphy, 37, of Boston, whose ticket was purchased under the name "Eleanor," said he's "going to see some of the things I've read about."

William H. Eagleton of Brooklyn whose ticket signed "Bill" was half sold to "Duggies" for $4,300. He plans to put his $75,000 "right where he put the $4,300 in the bank."

W. W. Taylor and O. H. Riley, Norfolk, Va.

Claire C. O'Donnell, Greenville, R. I.

ROOKIE BEAT COLUMBUS

One Hit in 2 Frames

Alton, Ill., rookie from Memphis, finished. He yielded but one hit in two frames, his performance being his best to date.

Detroit went ahead in the opening inning and stayed there to the end, bringing its spring record to four wins and one loss.

St. Johnson, starting Cardinal hurler, walked Cullenbine and Fred Walker, the first two hitters to face him. Charley Gehring scored Cullenbine and put Walker on third with a double. Hank Greenberg hit a bouncer to short that scored Walker.

"Slinging Sammy" Baugh, of football fame, played third for the Red Birds and started the Cardinals to their first run. He singled in the fifth and scored on a single by Joe Moore after going to second on an infield out.

The Tigers put the game on ice with three runs in the sixth. Gehring got a life when Stu Martin let a grounder through. After Greenberg had popped off, York winged his homer over the wall. Pete Fox doubled and Croucher singled to account for the other run.

The Tigers face the Cincinnati Reds at their home park at Lakeland Saturday.

Detroit 200 003 000-5 5 3
St. Louis 000 010 200-3 8 1
Kennedy, Wade, Benton and Tebbetts, York; Johnson, Busb and Owen.

HELD TO THREE HITS

New Orleans, March 25. (AP)—The Cleveland Indians defeated Philadelphia's Athletics 7-1 today, piling up 15 points while Mel Harder, Denny Galehouse and Al Milnar were held the Mackmen to three. In the first, Campbell's triple brought in Larry and Weatherly, and Trosky's single scored Campbell. Kroner hit a home run in the fourth.

PAYOFF BREAKS RECORD

Aintree, England, March 25. (AP)—The daily double at Aintree race track today paid the fabulous sum of 5,062 pounds ($25,310) for a 10 shilling ($2.50) ticket.

Only one man, whose name was not made public, bought a ticket coupling Battleship, winner of the Grand National, and Barbadeche, which won the Bickerstaffe plate on the same program. Barbadeche was held at 100 to 8 odds by the bookmakers and more than 55 to 1 in the totalisator. Battleship started at 40 to 1.

The payoff broke the previous record for daily doubles on British totalisators, which was 4,879 pounds for 10 shillings, established at Manchester a year ago.

FOREIGN TRADE UP IN FEBRUARY

Demand for U. S. Goods Brings in Almost Hundred Million

Washington, March 25 (AP)—The world poured $99,648,000 into American pockets in February, the commerce department reported today.

Foreign demand for United States goods reached the highest point in several years and thus tended to strengthen national purchasing power at a time when officials and business men alike were groping for a recession cure.

Since the first of the year, this country has sold $218,355,000 more goods abroad than it has bought, whereas in the similar period last year the United States bought $62,364,000 more than it sold, due to food purchases after the 1936 drought. Compared with 1935, February exports have nearly tripled and imports doubled.

A total of $262,733,000 worth of American goods was shipped out of the country this February, compared with $233,125,000 worth in the same month last year. Imports declined to $163,085,000 this February from $277,109,000 in February, 1937.

Although domestic automobile sales have been affected by the recession about as severely as any line of trade, February exports of motor vehicles were higher than a year ago.

U. P. Briefs

Resolution Adopted

Marquette.—A resolution praising Murray D. Van Wagoner, state highway commissioner, for his "construction program in the upper peninsula" and expressing appreciation for the "very careful planning and consideration" shown in the 1938 setup, announced in Lansing this week, was forwarded to Mr. Van Wagoner yesterday by the Marquette Chamber of Commerce. It was signed by August Syverson, president of the Chamber.

Drafting of the resolution was authorized by unanimous vote of members of the Chamber at their annual meeting in the Northland hotel Tuesday night after they had heard the report of Efmer W. Jones, chairman of the Chamber's highway committee, who commended Van Wagoner and declared the state highway commissioner had given the upper peninsula, Marquette county and the city of Marquette a "good break."

Advertising Sells California Oranges

San Francisco, March 20. (AP)—Thirty years ago this month a group of California farmers bought their first full page of advertising.

They advertised oranges in the Des Moines Register. Orange sales increased 50 per cent in Iowa that season.

Ralph H. Taylor, executive secretary of the California Agricultural Council, recalling the incident, said today 40 California farm cooperatives had advertising campaigns this year to aid 70,000 producers.

Taylor reported the California Fruit Growers Exchange, the cooperative which tried this first full page, had spent $25,000,000 in advertising since then and had doubled the national consumption of oranges.

"The man with the hoe," he said, "has become the man with the ad."

Michigan Forest Rehabilitation Survey Proposed by Rep. Luecke

Washington, March 25 (AP)—Representative Luecke (D-Mich.), proposed a survey today to formulate plans for rehabilitation of cut-over forest areas in Michigan.

The proposal was contained in a letter to President Roosevelt, suggesting the president appoint a sub-committee of the national resources committee to make the survey.

Luecke called attention to "severe unemployment conditions" in northern Michigan and said immediate action was necessary. Recently Luecke recommended the president create a northern Michigan authority to rehabilitate the once forested areas, push reforestation, and relieve unemployment.

In a letter the president replied to Luecke the proposal emphasized the need of regional planning that he had pointed out in his message last June.

"I am sure," the president wrote, "that you will find all the agencies of government interested in developing cooperation among like states on an economic survey of cut-over areas."

Luecke suggested the appointment of Richardson Saunders, assistant secretary of labor; Oscar L. Chapman, assistant to the secretary of the interior; and W. L. Wilson, under-secretary of agriculture, as a sub-committee to make the survey.

These three, he pointed out, recently outlined a similar project for the upper Monongahela valley. Luecke suggested that a study should be made of the possibilities of developing water power, reforestation, determining the transportation needs, and investigate the needs of fisheries, wild life conservation, recreation facilities, scenic highways and parks and the possibility of cooperative marketing of farm products.

Representative O'Brien (D-Mich.), today asked Works Progress Administration officials to liberalize regulations to permit employment of skilled tradesmen without taking them from welfare rolls or without requiring a showing that they are destitute.

He contended many persons who own an equity in their home and who decline to go on the welfare rolls should be given assistance.

Administrator H. R. Tolley of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration today called on Representative Hoffman (R-Mich.), to disclose the names of two farmers Hoffman said received government benefit checks which they did not earn.

Tolley made public a letter assuring Hoffman the AAA wished "to take steps at once . . . to correct the mistakes which you report have been made in these two cases—if such mistakes have actually been made."

The administrator quoted Hoffman as stating Wednesday in the house that one farmer in the county in which the congressman resided got $125 and another got $75 without "ever having seen or consulted any government official about this or the soil conservation act."

Tolley said the AAA would report fully to Hoffman when it had ascertained the facts and that if errors had been made "suitable steps will be taken to make entirely clear the nature of these errors and the responsibility for them, to the end that at the very least such errors will not be repeated in the future."

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), proposed today that the senate ask President Roosevelt for details of the government's program for purchase of Mexican silver.

A resolution he introduced in the senate would request the president to report to the senate:

"1. The nature and extent of any existing arrangements, and future commitments, between this government and the government of Mexico for the purchase of Mexican silver.
2. The amount of silver heretofore purchased, and now being purchased, and the price therefor, in connection with all of the arrangements and commitments heretofore described."

Wilkowski Leaves Prison To Attend Brother's Funeral

Jackson, Mich., March 25 (AP)—The gates of the state prison of southern Michigan will swing open Monday to allow State Senator Anthony J. Wilkowski, serving four to five years for election fraud in 1934, to attend the funeral of his brother, Harry E. Wilkowski.

Joel Moore, prison warden, said Wilkowski would journey to the funeral in company with a prison official. He said the state senator would be allowed to spend a "brief period" with his family after the funeral.

Moore said prison officials were making no exception in allowing Wilkowski to leave the prison. He said the custom of permitting prisoners to attend the funerals of close relatives has been followed for several years.

U. S. freight trains now run faster than ever. The average number of miles per freight train per day in 1937 was 356.4 miles against 379.2 in 1936, the former record.

The Upper Yosemite falls in Yosemite National park drops 1,430 feet in one sheer fall, a height equal to nine Niagaras.

California's state parks were visited by 6,672,731 persons in 1936.

New Chapter in Eden Career?

About to depart for a vacation on the Riviera, Anthony Eden, British foreign minister, is shown above, as he looked over a Victoria Station bookstall. His vacation coincided with rumors of a cabinet split over European policy, with one faction demanding that the Chamberlain government take a leaf from the Eden book of stern measures against dictators. Most persistent was talk of a cabinet shake-up with Eden recalled to an important post.

STATE'S LIQUOR REVENUE DROPS

Story of Increase Just 'Window Dressing' Says Smith

Lansing, March 25 (AP)—Budget director Harold D. Smith charged off as "window-dressing" today the announcement of a spokesman for the liquor control commission that the revenues it yields to the state in the current fiscal year will be $5,000,000 greater than those for the preceding 12 months.

Smith said the commission's revenues this year actually will be $1,700,000 less than in 1936-37.

He asserted that the commission withheld $2,924,000 from its contribution to the general fund last year, and lumped it in with 1937-38 revenues that have been turned over to the state treasurer.

Jerome G. Thomas, merchandising director for the commission, had issued a statement predicting the 1937-38 revenues would amount to $15,000,000 as compared with $10,366,000 the previous year. He made no mention of the $2,924,000 item.

Smith, however, said the commission would voucher to the state's general fund not more than $14,500,000. Deducing the $2,924,000, he said the revenues actually produced this year will total not more than $11,576,000, compared with $13,290,000 actually earned in the preceding 12 months.

He said the $14,500,000 figure was "not conservative" and would not be reached unless the commission succeeded in carrying out orders from Governor Murphy to reduce its liquor inventory by $2,000,000 or more. He said the business recession has slowed the commission's sales and predicted that this would retard materially the liquidation of inventory.
