WEeping GIRL ADMITS AIDING GERMAN SPIES

U. S. ARMY SECRETS CARRIED IN HER HANDBAG

BY ROGER GREENE New York, Oct. 20. (AP)—A frightened-eyed German girl, Fraulein Johanna ("Jenni") Hofmann, 24, alleged "payoff" agent of a German spy ring, wept today as a statement was read in federal court quoting her as saying she helped steal American military secrets because "I believed I was doing my duty to my fatherland."

"Frameup" Charged The statement, described by Assistant U. S. Attorney Lester C. Dunigan as a "confession," quoted Miss Hofmann as admitting she acted as a courier of purloined U. S. army and navy secrets to her superiors in Germany.

As the alleged confession was read, the smiling German girl lost her poise for the first time and dabbed nervously at her lips with a handkerchief. Her eyes brimmed with tears when the phrase "duty to my fatherland" was read.

The statement, introduced over the shouted protests of Miss Hofmann's attorney, George C. Dix, who asserted his client was an "innocent tool" and the victim of a "frameup," quoted the Dresden-born fraulein as admitting she knew the inner workings of the spy plot.

Signal Code Stolen Naming Karl Schlueter, fugitive defendant, and Guenther Gustav Rumrich, 32, former U. S. army sergeant who has confessed and testified for the government, the purported confession quoted Miss Hofmann as saying: "Schlueter in my presence obtained from Rumrich a signal code, army and navy registers and other data, and I put it in my handbag."

British Herd Arabs Into Camps; Uneasy Peace In Jerusalem

(By The Associated Press) Jerusalem, Oct. 20.—Small groups of Arab prisoners, rounded up and disarmed in the British occupation of the old city section of Jerusalem, were herded today into a concentration camp on the site of Herod's palace.

The concentration camp is on Frank Mountain, between Jerusalem and Bethlehem to the south, where the Crusaders offered their last prolonged resistance to the Moslems.

The Holy Land lapsed into an ominous uneasy peace while the Coldstream guards regiment continued poking into the dark recesses of the old city to clear out the last vestiges of rebel rule.

The occupation started at dawn yesterday after Arab snipers held most of the old city for four days against the superior show of British armed force.

The lack of major incidents elsewhere in Palestine led to a general belief that Arab insurgents in other sections were biding their time and awaiting recesses of military measures in Jerusalem.

Rebels Well Organized Authorities directing the operations of 20,000 British soldiers hastened plans for occupation of all areas ruled by the rebels, including Bethlehem, birthplace of Christ.

Some observers believed the country might be brought back to near-normal condition within a month if the present pace of the "re-conquest" were maintained.

It will be a tremendous task, for the rebel command, headed by General Abdul Haj Mohammed, has forced the headmen of all Arab villages to list able-bodied males for conscription, giving the irregulars a reserve force of somewhere between 20,000 to 30,000 men.

Haj Mohammed, a former Turkish army officer trained in the old Imperial German army, entered Palestine secretly six months ago and took over organization of the Arab forces which had been waging sporadic guerrilla warfare since April, 1935.

He has divided the Holy Land into five strategic districts, each the theater of operations for a rebel force commanded by one of his lieutenants.

Optimistic?

The grim countenance of Dr. Castillo Najera, above, Mexican ambassador to the United States, belies his optimistic report to Washington newspapermen after a conference with Secretary of State Cordell Hull. Dr. Najera said there were "good hopes" the dispute over expropriation of American properties in Mexico may soon be settled.

JURY NAMES 62 IN WPA FRAUDS

Higher-Ups Indicted for Federal Conspiracy in New Mexico

BY B. L. LIVINGSTONE Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 20. (AP)—A federal grand jury today returned indictments against 62 persons for conspiracy to violate the federal WPA laws in New Mexico, among them Stanley W. P. Miller, assistant United States district attorney, and scores of men and women of high political place in state and federal government.

Eleven other indictments, other than conspiracy, were returned for WPA labor, diversion of WPA funds and services and illegal political activities.

Federal Judge Colin Nebbett, grim and low-voiced, ordered the United States marshal to arrest the 73 defendants and bring them to court Tuesday morning to make bond.

In one of the most sensational and sweeping court actions ever to take place in New Mexico's 25 years of statehood, the grand jury found true bills against men and women long associated with governmental matters.

Among them were Miller, who is a son-in-law of U. S. Senator Dennis Chavez; Mrs. Anita Tafon, the senator's sister; his cousin, Salomon Chavez; his nephew, Salomon Tafon; Mrs. J. A. Werner, wife of the Albuquerque postmaster; Mariano Werner, the postmaster's brother; Fred G. Healy, former state WPA administrator; Fred Spagnoli, head of the state drivers' license bureau; Joe Martinez, secretary to Senator Chavez; Richard Duran, of the department of internal revenue, and scores of WPA administrative employees.

BREAD BASKET DECIDES FATE OF NEW DEAL

MIDWEST ELECTIONS TO BE BAROMETER IN NOVEMBER

BY KIRKE L. SIMPSON Washington, Oct. 20. (AP)—A dozen interior states, which contain virtually a third of the nation's seven million farms and almost the same proportion of the industrial wage-earner population, hold the key to this year's election referendum on President Roosevelt and the new deal.

They are the nation's bread basket. More than half the government-computed value of all farm property in the nation is credited to those dozen states of the north central group. They also have furnished industrial payrolls aggregating substantially a third of the national total over a decade of economic ups and downs.

Michigan Key State If election day discloses a significant break-up of the farm and labor voting alliances of 1932, 1934 and 1936, which swept Franklin Roosevelt into the White House and kept him there with increasing party majorities in congress, it will be describable first of all in returns from house or representative centers in the dozen states—Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, North and South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas.

They form the major political barometer of 1938 by which both political parties will try to read the political portents for the next presidential contest in 1940. They are the testing ground for the new deal hope of welding the farm and labor vote into a "liberal" solidarity that might mean continuing national political power for years to come.

Democrats Admit Losses Such glimpses as either Republican or Democratic party forecasters give of their real expectations only serve to concentrate attention on those dozen states. Democratic admissions that 25 or so house seats probably will be lost invariably envision a majority of such losses in the great interior farm belt. Republican forecasts of gains of anywhere up to 80 or 100 seats show the same dependence on a heavy farm vote drift in those dozen states away from Roosevelt and the new deal. It is in those states that political newsmen are doing their most extensive pre-election survey work.

Aside from New York and Pennsylvania, where significance may attach to the elections of governors or senators, national political attention focuses increasingly as election day draws near on what party distribution these dozen states will make of the 137 seats they will fill in the next house.

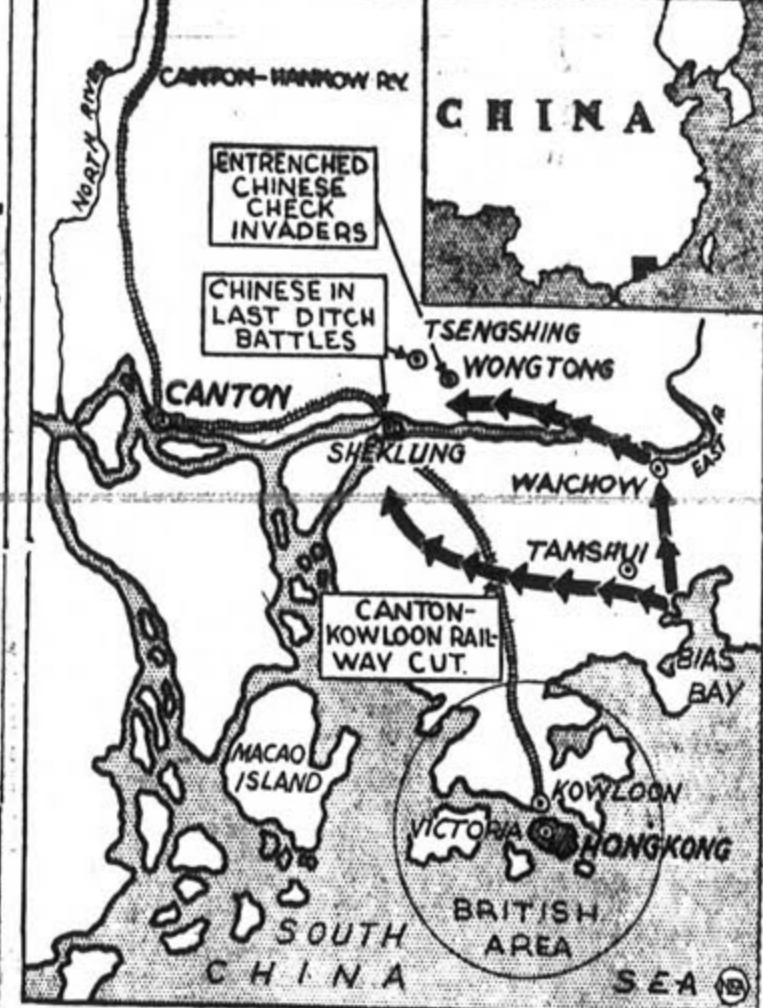

Margins Small In 1936 Going back to the election figures of 1936, when the Roosevelt second term sweep carried with it a Democratic house majority never

Naples Greets 10,000 Men Back From Spain

Naples, Oct. 20. (AP)—With 10,000 Italian legionnaires landed today on their native soil after a year and a half of service in the Spanish civil war, Italian newspapers said less than 20,000 of their comrades remained in Spain.

The press cited 40,000 as the number that had gone to Spain to fight for the insurgent cause, saying that some 3,000 were killed while 9,000 others were wounded. Two thousand of those injured will remain crippled.

Music, flags and flowers gave Naples a festive atmosphere as the fighting men streamed off the troopships Sardegna, Piemonte, Liguria and Calabria. They paraded to the Naples railway station, cheered by throngs of Neapolitans and reviewed by King Vittorio Emanuele, their commander, General Berti; Crown Prince Umberto and Foreign Minister Ciano.

The men entrained for demobilization centers at various towns near Naples.

Before the men left the transports the insurgent ambassador to Italy, Pedro Garcia Conde, boarded the Sardegna, where he embraced and kissed General Berti.

Previously he had messaged the general his government's gratitude for "precious aid in liberating Spain from the Bolshevik scourge."

Berti wirelessed insurgent Generalissimo Franco as follows: "The Italian volunteers feel great grief in leaving the noble country to which they are bound by unbreakable chains—ideals, blood and memories."

The legionnaires left Italy 18 months ago in secrecy. The presence of Italian soldiers in Spain went unmentioned by high Fascists for many weeks after they landed there.

Secretary Wallace Tells Michigan To Re-pled Governor

Adrian, Mich., Oct. 20. (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace came to Michigan tonight with a plea for the re-election of Governor Frank Murphy and a promise that the present administration would continue its national crop control program.

Such men as Governor Murphy, he said, are "altogether too rare in public life."

"When they appear, and when they demonstrate their usefulness as Gov. Murphy has done," he said, "they should be asked to carry on. I hope that you will make sure that Governor Murphy will carry on for you."

He asked Michigan farm men and women to send Michigan Democrats to congress in the next election because "the Democratic members of congress have come to the aid of the farm cause with their votes."

Republicans "Bankrupt" Wallace compared the "die-hard" opposition of the Republican party with the "progress" of the present administration and declared the Republican party since the World War has been a party without leadership, bankrupt of constructive ideas, bankrupt of moral purpose.

"It seems to be a Republican trait to worship the past," he asserted. "In 1912, when Theodore Roosevelt was fighting for progressive measures that would benefit the common people, the masters of the party would have none of him. But, now that another Roosevelt is fighting for the people in the same fearless manner, the Republicans have elevated their former devil to the status of a patron saint. From the Republican standpoint, the progressive tradition is a splendid thing—just so long as all the progressives who would actually carry the tradition into concrete action are dead and buried. The high command of the Republican party thinks the only good progressives are dead progressives."

Before the men left the transports the insurgent ambassador to Italy, Pedro Garcia Conde, boarded the Sardegna, where he embraced and kissed General Berti.

Previously he had messaged the general his government's gratitude for "precious aid in liberating Spain from the Bolshevik scourge."

Berti wirelessed insurgent Generalissimo Franco as follows: "The Italian volunteers feel great grief in leaving the noble country to which they are bound by unbreakable chains—ideals, blood and memories."

LABOR UNIONS IN FOR CLASH, SAYS WITNESS

POLICIES DICTATED BY COMMUNISTS IS CLAIM

Washington, Oct. 20. (AP)—Fred W. Frahm, Detroit's superintendent of police, told the house committee on un-American activities today that unless Communist influences are removed from that city's labor unions an "awful clash" is coming and "a lot of people are going to get hurt."

With indignant emphasis, he testified that Communists "instigated" 75 per cent of the numerous strikes which have occurred in the Detroit area in recent years. Evidence is plentiful, he added, that "Communists dictate" the policies of the unions.

Members Dropping Out As a result, he continued, many union members have grown "dissatisfied," are "dropping out" or stopping their dues payments.

"So that," Chairman Dies (D-Texas) interposed, "the Communists are actually destroying the unions?"

"There is no question about that," Frahm replied. "Membership is falling off. Men are quitting in droves? Is that right?"

"Yes, sir."

Another witness, John M. McGill, secretary of the Detroit Council of the Knights of Columbus, testified that Communist organizations had collected "thousands and thousands" of dollars in Detroit, "for which no accounting had ever been given."

Suckers Get Ride "They take the American people for suckers," he said, "and laugh about it afterward." He added that Communism was "a racket" and had "taken the American people for a beautiful ride."

James Mitchell of Detroit asserted that Communists "apparently" have a lot of influence on John L. Lewis, head of the Committee for Industrial Organization. A member of the C. I. O. United Automobile Workers, he said that Communist members had threatened to kill him if he revealed any information about their activities. He asserted that in the desk drawer of the president of his local, Lloyd Jones, he had a "Communist flag."

This he displayed with a flourish before the committee, a red oblong with scalloped edges bearing in gilt letters the words "Communist Party."

GOGEBIC LABOR SUITS IN COURT

Two Men Ask $450,000 Damages for Alleged Ironwood Attack

Superior, Wis., Oct. 20. (AP)—Two suits, totaling $450,000 arising from a labor controversy in Gogebic county, Mich., in June, 1937, were filed with C. W. Bishop, U. S. court commissioner, today for trial in federal court in Superior.

The action was brought by a Duluth attorney, Henry Paul, who demands $250,000 damages, and Luke Raik, a representative of the Lumber and Saw Mill Workers Union, (AFL) in Michigan. Raik demands $200,000 damages.

Named defendants are the Connor Lumber and Land company, Marathon Paper Mills company, B. M. Connor and W. D. Connor, Jr., vice presidents of the Connor firm; M. R. Laird, secretary of the Connor company; D. C. Everest and John Stevens, Jr., vice president of the Marathon Paper Mills company; P. M. Williams, secretary of the Marathon company; and Kenneth Allen and Duane Stettin, alleged leaders of the Gogebic County Wood Operators association and Vigilante organizations.

Paul and Raik charge that while attending a meeting in Ironwood, Mich., on June 30, 1937, they were set upon, assaulted, beaten and threatened with torture and death by Kenneth Allen and other members of the Gogebic County Wood Operators association.

Holdup Man Caught In Detroit Gunfight As Students Watch

Detroit, Oct. 20. (AP)—Captured after a gun battle in which 25 shots were exchanged while hundreds of students at Southeastern high school looked on, a man who gave his name as Gordon Cargio, 30, was held by police today on a charge of robbery armed.

Police charged that at 3:30 p. m. Cargio entered the offices of the Van Antwerp Coal Co., ordered the owners, George, Arthur and Thomas Van Antwerp to lie on the floor, and scooped up $48.87 from the cash register.

Recruiting Started For Selfridge Field

Detroit, Oct. 20. (AP)—Recruiting of 50 men for Selfridge Field was begun today by Detroit headquarters for the United States army, Major Joseph L. Bachus, district recruiting officer, announced.

A recent change of policy created 100 air corps vacancies at Selfridge Field and a waiting list of 60 men was depleted. Major Bachus said applications would be accepted at recruiting offices at Detroit, Grand Rapids and Lansing.

WAYNE VOTING LIST ATTACKED

Republican Head Charges WPA Crews Shifted to Aid Democrats

Lansing, Oct. 20. (AP)—James F. Thomson, Republican state chairman, said today he would demand a federal investigation of the registration of voters in Wayne and Genesee counties.

Thomson charged that WPA laborers were being transferred into "doubtful" legislative and congressional districts to boom the vote for Democratic aspirants for office.

Lee E. Fisher, deputy WPA administrator, promptly denied the charges "so untrue it amazes me." He said his department would welcome an investigation, asserting similar charges concerning registrations in Van Buren county had been proved false.

Fisher said WPA workers constantly were being transferred from project to project, but that their place of residence would not necessarily change at the same time, and that those who did not move their living quarters would not change their voting places.

Proposal In Car New Driver Alibi In Traffic Court

St. Petersburg, Fla., Oct. 20. (AP)—Franklin King, young milk truck driver was in municipal court today on a charge of driving through a stop street.

He pleaded guilty, but made this explanation: "I had just proposed to my girl and just when we reached the place where the stop sign must have been—well—she said 'yes.'"

Judge B. T. Sauls made a quick decision.

"Young man, under the same circumstances I guess I'd have forgotten to look for stop signs too. Case dismissed."

CITY OF CANTON IS BARRICADED

Fast-Moving Japanese Column Closing In on Metropolis

Hongkong, Oct. 20. (AP)—The defenders of Canton tonight were hastily digging trenches and throwing up barricades in the streets, apparently in anticipation of a last-ditch struggle with the Japanese within the south China metropolis.

The 100,000 persons remaining in Canton after the exodus of hundreds of thousands of non-combatants were showing no sign of panic—even with semi-official Japanese reports placing one fast-moving column of invaders within 20 miles of the city.

French forces defending the insular foreign settlement, Shamone, were rushing their own barricades to completion. Canton authorities canceled plans to leave the city.

The Japanese reports indicated the advanced column was risking defeat at the hands of the numerically superior Kwangtung provincial troops by its rapid "back door" campaign against the metropolis.

These advices said the column had side-stepped Chinese forces arrayed near Tsungta, 30 miles northeast of Canton, and was expecting to strike a lightning blow at the primary defenses of the city by a drive down the Tsungta highway.

Chinese military authorities denied the Japanese claims of rapid strides toward Canton, insisting that Tsengshing, which the Japanese said had entered yesterday, and Sheklung, which the Japanese said they had entered on the same day, were still in Chinese hands.

Traffic Toll

Detroit, Oct. 20. (AP)—Walter Carnik, 45, of Detroit, died tonight from injuries suffered when his automobile and a Grand Trunk yard engine collided Oct. 14.

Detroit, Oct. 20. (AP)—A charge of negligent homicide was placed against Ellis B. Freeman today as the result of an accident here shortly after midnight in which Carl W. Grim, 30-year-old WPA worker, was killed.

Freeman told officers he was driving between 30 and 32 miles per hour. Officers said skid marks they found at the accident scene measured 69 feet and that Grim's body was hurled 44 feet by the impact.

Muskegon, Oct. 20. (AP)—Injuries received Sept. 18 in an accident on US-81, north of Montague, claimed the life Thursday of Walter Colwell of New Haven, Conn. He died at the home of a sister, Mrs. William Odell. Police said Colwell was riding in a car driven by William Odell when the car struck a truck which had halted on the pavement.

Farley Is Speaker At $100-per-plate Philadelphia Feed

Philadelphia, Oct. 20. (AP)—Democratic national chairman James A. Farley, speaking to more than 3,000 persons who paid $100 each for a steak dinner, called tonight for "party loyalty" and said Republicans had chosen Pennsylvania as a "special battleground" of the November elections.

The official count of the number of tickets sold for the affair was 3,478. The money, less the expenses of the dinner and entertainment, will go to the state campaign fund.

Wayne University Gets Nazi Banner

Detroit. (AP)—A large red flag bearing a black swastika, emblem of the Nazi party, was found Thursday flying from a flagpole in front of the main entrance to Wayne university. Police lowered the flag and found the words "From Benton Harbor Nazi Bund" stitched into the border.

Escanaba Allocated $34,724 WPA Funds For Recreation Use

Lansing, Oct. 20. (AP)—The Works Progress Administration allocated $34,724 today as the federal contribution to improvement of recreational facilities in Escanaba. It also made a partial allotment of $1,610 to transcribe, cross-index and file basic health department records in the same city.

Other projects included: $48,000 partial allotment for street improvements in Gladstone; $5,070 partial allotment for street improvements in Crystal Falls; $103,427 partial allotment for county road improvements in Chippewa county, and $2,200 for improvement of Forest Hill and Elio cemeteries in Portage township, Houghton county.

URGE MOVING OF SETTLERS

Lake States Committee Studies Cut-Over Land Problems

Henry W. Wylie, Escanaba, and Supervisor Carl Person, Masonville, members of the Delta county zoning committee, have returned from Madison, Wis., where they attended a meeting of the northern lake states regional committee.

Mr. Wylie is a member of the Michigan local government and the regional local government sub-committee of the regional committee, which is studying the economic and governmental problems of the cut-over areas of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Four special sub-committee groups of the regional committee were appointed to study proposals for rehabilitation of the Great Lakes cut-over region.

Chairman H. J. Andrews, newly appointed director of the committee, asked the groups to list separately problems of regional and statewide character. Government and university officials from Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota are attending the meeting which will end Thursday.

Groups Are Divided
The groups were divided as follows: Agriculture, forestry, recreation and wild life; mining, power, industry and transportation; local government, taxation and grants in aid, and employment, relief and rehabilitation.

Andrews will prepare the regional report.
A preliminary study of Wisconsin's problems showed that more than 5,000,000 acres, largely sub-marginal and tax delinquent, have been restricted against agricultural development and legal residence by rural zoning ordinances, the committee said.

The committee suggested this program: Relocate isolated settlers; improve credit facilities; co-ordinate agricultural policies of federal agencies, and develop joint agricultural and recreational enterprises.

Direct Savings Seen
Relocation, the committee said, would effect direct savings in schools, relief, public health and fire suppression costs.

Long time capital loans instead of short term loans would enable farmers in the area to purchase sufficient good land to farm on a sound basis, and a co-ordinated federal agricultural policy would permit farmers to clear new land for agricultural purposes, the committee asserted.

The committee said that promotion of joint agricultural and recreational projects which involve service to the recreation industry would be helpful to farmers. It suggested participation in fruit, truck, poultry and dairy produce farming.

Dodge's Trust Fund Assessed $647,185

Detroit, Oct. 19 (AP)—The state today assessed an additional inheritance tax of $647,185 against the estate of the late Horace E. Dodge, pioneer automobile manufacturer, when a routine checkup by probate judge Joseph A. Murphy and deputy probate register Clifford Carey revealed that no tax had been paid on the $12,000,000 trust fund Dodge left Horace Dodge, Jr., and Delphine Dodge Cromwell.

The estate paid $753,193 in taxes and $75,000 in interest at the time of Dodge's death in 1920.

Officials of the Detroit Trust Co., after a conference with Mrs. Anna Dodge Dillman, executrix of the estate, said payment of the additional tax would be made Thursday.

WE, the WOMEN

You go to talk to Geraldine Farrar, the glamor girl of the Metropolitan Opera, way back when—and leave wishing that every woman old enough to begin dreading middle-age could talk to her.

$900 PREMIUMS AT SPUD SHOW

Event To Be in Escanaba Starting on Tuesday, October 25

The 9th annual Upper Peninsula Potato show will be held here Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, October 25, 26 and 27 in the gymnasium of the Junior High school on Ludington street, under the sponsorship of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce.

More than $900 in cash premiums will be available through the co-operation of Upper Peninsula potato growers and the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Entries are coming in freely from practically every Upper Peninsula county, including many made by new potato farmers from Maine and Wisconsin who have moved into the district.

"We expect by far the best and most comprehensive showing ever made at an Upper Peninsula show," said Harold Lindsey, secretary of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce. "Developments in the last growing season have been little short of phenomenal. We need more skilled growers of a type which has grown up in the potato business in other states. These growers have carefully investigated conditions here and are throwing in their lot with us right along. They point the way to the day when the Upper Peninsula will take its rightful place as one of the great potato areas of the world, and practically all of them will be at the show with exhibits."

The affair will reach a climax with the annual evening banquet to be held at the Sherman Hotel October 27th at 6:30 p. m. Speakers from Michigan State college, East Lansing, and elsewhere will bring some worth while messages to all who are interested.

A Potato Queen from each county represented will stage an unusually novel presentation with a hilarious ending which will determine the queen for the district. Admission to the show will be free, and all who are interested will be welcome.

COMMUNICATION

"SMALL POTATOES" Escanaba, Mich. Oct. 19, 1938.

Escanaba Daily Press, Escanaba, Mich.
Dear Editor:
I read with great interest the recent article in your paper by Mr. R. J. Riley, of Gladstone, smearing our great humanitarian, Governor Frank Murphy, and exposing his governmental payroll. Does this gentleman realize that Mr. Murphy was paid by the year, and that Uncle Sam manages to get every cent due him, and it is my opinion that Mr. Murphy nor any other man cannot get away with any of the U. S. government's money, that he is not entitled to.

If Mr. Riley cares to he can check up and he will find that Mr. Frank Murphy's resignation did not take effect, or his contract with the government did not expire until December 31, 1938. Mr. Murphy was not paid by the federal government in December of 1936 to come to Michigan and settle the big automobile strike which then Governor Fitzgerald had on his hands. Mr. Fitzgerald did not settle that strike but took to the tall timber, and yet M. Riley seems to be defender of Fitzgerald.

As for attacking Governor Murphy by not being a married family man, is another cheap article in my opinion. I'm sure that the Governor knows more about family needs than Fitzgerald, because he has seen and given relief, and understands the needs of family welfare and has continually looked after the needs of his state.

Now in contrast what did Fitzgerald say about our own children and families, who were the victims of the results of a certain strike in this city? In substance, he said that those families need no relief. Perhaps he thought the greed of those kind of industrialists should be satisfied, whether right or wrong, before the plight of hungry children is satisfied.

Standing personalities can have only one effect; it is fuel for the opposition, and is like pouring oil on the fire. Mr. Riley will find that on November 8 his knocks have rebounded back at him, at least as far as this county is concerned, when the votes are counted.

I wish to hand a bouquet to the Escanaba Daily Press for printing Mr. Fagan's speech at the College about Mr. Fitzgerald pardoning Frank Schultz, convicted of swindling an 85 year old woman out of $10,000. I did not think they would print both sides of a story, so another bouquet to them, yes, two bouquets. Mr. Fagan is putting this story across, and so far there has been no effort made to sue him for slander if his story is not true. Yours for better government, (Signed) A Reader.

G. B. Selden, of Rochester, N. Y., received the basic patent on the automobile for his "road engine" in 1895. The patent later was rescinded.

case of constipation. Not being able to get the proper elimination, poisons soon clogged my system upsetting me in general. I could not enjoy my meals knowing how I would suffer with awful gas pains and severe bloating afterwards. Although I would diet carefully, I would be miserable after every meal. These continual health problems made me nervous, irritable and in spite of all I tried I could not find anything to help me."
"Almost from the first dose KruGon began to show me improvement," continued Mrs. Nickolai. "I was soon given the proper elimination and those poisons were removed from my body. I have had no more digestive troubles of any kind, enjoy the foods I want and with no reason to fear gas, bloating or indigestion afterwards. Even my nervousness has gone, sleep good and I am feeling again like my former self. It is wonderful to be so well and I cannot thank KruGon half enough for it."

Always Messing Things

TESTIMONY given at the hearing of the house committee investigating un-American activities indicated that Communists played important roles in the wave of strikes that tied up the automotive industries in 1936.

The Communists would do better if they hid themselves in their cellars and just carried on debates about their radical doctrines among themselves. They have been parading themselves as the friends of the workers, and more recently, although they take their cues from the Stalin dictatorship in Russia, they proclaim themselves to be the champions of democracy in America and the rest of the world.

Engaging themselves in the labor struggle in the Michigan automobile industry, the Communists were active in the agitation of sit-down strikes, which in a very short time won the disapproval of the general public and did the organized labor cause much damage in loss of prestige and public sympathy.

Another case of Communist bungling was the party's recent endorsement of Governor Frank Murphy. If they were sincerely interested in aiding the candidacy of Governor Murphy, the smart thing for them to have done was to remain silent.

A Habit For Safety

MANY motorists have formed a habit worthy of general adoption—that of having their cars thoroughly checked over during the fall and put in good operating condition for the cold winter months to follow.

Winter driving conditions require that brakes, horns, lights and windshield wipers operate efficiently. These motorists, with a thought for the future, know that a checkup now will lessen the likelihood of mechanical failure later on which these devices must operate.

The human element, too often the cause of accidents costly in life and property, is one which cannot be completely conquered. But the mechanical causes of driving hazards may be reduced through a checkup. It will save hardship and annoyance, if not actual risk of life, when driving conditions are more hazardous because of icy road surfaces and shortened periods of daylight.

Home Building Is News

IN a recent issue, the magazine Life published a handsome housing portfolio that should come as "news" to millions of American families.

The purpose of the portfolio is to point out that these families can build and buy far better homes than they now rent without increasing their housing budgets, with the aid of modern construction methods and long-time, low-interest mortgage loans.

Life does not simply illustrate a variety of homes, with dry-as-dust statistics concerning costs. Instead it takes four actual families, one each in the $2,000, $3,000, $5,000 and $10,000 income groups, and discusses their housing needs, wants and ambitions. As it says, it "invited them to make their individual housing problems a laboratory test tube."

In pursuing this idea, it retailed eight of America's foremost architects to design actual houses for these families. Two architects were assigned to each income level—one to plan a modern house, the other an up-to-date traditional house. It is pointed out that building costs in 1938 average a full ten per cent below 1926—and that it is possible, for the same amount, to build a far more efficient, attractive and livable home than you could build ten or twelve years ago.

Old Sea Dog Gone

WHILE it is not the policy of the Navy to offer travel as an inducement to enlistment in the service, and the Navy admittedly does not travel as it did in previous years; still many thousands of miles are traveled yearly and ports all over the earth are visited by the men of our Navy.

Much traveled people often remark on the familiar ease with which the "American Bluejacket" gets about in the strange ports of the world. There is no reason why he should not however. The modern Navy man is an educated man, the broadening effects of travel being only one phase of his well rounded training.

To enter the service, the Navy man was required to pass most exacting tests of his intelligence, tests which require much more than just a passing acquaintance with his school books. From the time of entrance there is no let down in mental effort, his profession, even should he have little desire for advancement, calls for constant study.

The day of the old sea dog is gone forever. The new Navy so highly mechanized and scientific in every detail, requires the highest grade of intelligence obtainable today. The Navy uniform today signifies the wearer as such a man. A man to be respected, not only because he wears our country's uniform, but because of what he must be to wear it.

News From Europe

NEWSPAPER coverage of the recent events in Europe had a happy sequel in Chicago when the board of directors of American Society of Newspaper Editors held its annual fall meeting.

The board passed a resolution which, unlike the heavy verbiage of most resolutions, comes squarely to rest on the fundamental difference between the United States and some of the governments concerned in the "stripping of Czechoslovakia."

"While readers in countries governed by dictators and burdened by censorship were deprived of any information antagonistic to the claims and ambitions of their leaders, in the United States, the story was presented daily," the resolution read.

"Unrestrained by fear of reprisal, American editors, aided by news services that spared neither money nor effort to get the facts, kept their public constantly alive to each new fact.

"The newspaper readers of the United States were more familiar with the complicated succession of incidents abroad than was the public in the nations involved."

Here is the first line of defense of the heritage of freedom.

AROUND THE PENINSULA

(Ironwood Globe) The Marquette county board is one that had the courage to reduce the allowance for meals to prisoners at the county jail. Hereafter the sheriff must feed his prisoners on 50 cents a day instead of 65 cents.

Menominee continues to wrangle over the proposal for a municipal light and power plant and at this writing the PWA at Washington is considering the plea of a Menominee delegation to reinstate the loan and grant which the federal organization months ago set aside for such a plant. A group of Menominee councilmen are determined to build a plant in the face of competition with the local utility, provided, of course, that the PWA will throw funds away to that extent.

J. F. Kelly of Iron Mountain lost his job as a county superintendent of the poor for Dickinson county, but only his pride was seriously hurt. A Norway man was elected to succeed him by an "open vote" of the county board. The job pays only $80 a year, so he didn't lose much. If he were holding the job in some counties, however, it would mean a loss of as much as $1,200 a year.

Wendell Lund, chief of the family selection division of the Farm Security Administration and a native of Escanaba, thinks "sound prosperity can be brought back to the Upper Peninsula through a careful planning program." So do a lot of others. He stresses these three points: Conservation of those resources that are left; replenishing of those resources which have been depleted; utilization to the fullest possible extent those inherent resources which have not been fully developed. These are sound suggestions and quite in keeping with what some of the Peninsula's leaders have been advocating for years.

The familiar cry is heard at Manistiquette where the Schoolcraft county board has taken action to "set the brakes" on excessive spending of county funds in the treatment of county patients at the University of Michigan hospital. And no wonder—the Schoolcraft supervisors squawked. Schoolcraft is a comparatively small county, yet its bills from the state hospital for hospitalization and medical care of county patients approximates $18,000. Several members of the board offered a logical explanation when they said the high cost to the county is probably due to the fact that few persons realize that the county is billed for expenses incurred at Ann Arbor. Publicizing of the $18,000 bill from the state ought to make them acquainted with the situation.

Philadelphia—Twenty years ago, on October 26, Thomas G. Masaryk, the first president of the young Republic of Czechoslovakia, statesman, scholar, philosopher, an old man with a white beard, put golden pen to paper in the historic Independence Hall in Philadelphia, where America's own Declaration of Independence was signed.

The paper was a document which concluded with the words: "We believe in democracy; we believe in liberty, in liberty forever!"

Not only did Masaryk, who had worked for a lifetime to see his land free, proclaim the principles of the rights of man and the principles of equality for his own country in that historic Declaration of Independence of the Czechoslovakian Republic, but he also announced the freedom of other subject Slavic peoples of Central Europe from the tyranny and oppression of the hated rule of the Hohenzollerns and Hapsburgs.

Today when this same republic, now almost of age, is facing dismemberment at the hands of the rulers who have succeeded the Hohenzollerns and the Hapsburgs, there are many citizens of the Quaker City who recall the impressive demonstration of the Slavic people who gathered at Independence Hall to honor Masaryk and the new Declaration of Independence.

One enthusiast in the crowd carried a banner on which was boldly written: "The motto of the Czech-Slovaks is Independence or Death!"

It was no accident that Masaryk chose to sign the declaration of independence in Philadelphia nor that he used American principles of equality as the foundation of the declaration. He had married a Brooklyn woman; together they had studied American history in detail. And that was one of the reasons why he incorporated in the republican document for his own country the principles that minorities must be safeguarded, that titles of nobility should be abolished, that social and economic reforms must be introduced and that modern democracy was the ideal.

Masaryk sat in the historic hall, surrounded by delegates of other countries, including Helinski, a Pole, Kinkovich, a Jugo-Slav, Ceglinsky, a Ukrainian, and others representing Lithuanians, Italian "Irredentists" and "unredeemed" Greeks as well as Albanians and Armenians. These delegates affixed their signatures after Masaryk had written his name, to show that they too wanted to register for democracy and freedom.

Inside the hall, there was silence during the signing. Then the crowds outside were told that the ceremony was over, and a tremendous cheer went up.

Masaryk was presented with a replica of the American Liberty Bell by the children of the nationalities who had sent delegates. There was one difference between the Liberty Bell which he received and ours. While the quotation on ours, from Leviticus XXV, 10, states: "Proclaim liberty throughout all the land," the quotation on Masaryk's bell read: "Proclaim liberty through all the world."

gauge double barreled shotgun over a 10 foot fence and the hammer of the gun caught in the fence, discharging the weapon. The wound was so severe that the arm had to be amputated at a hospital in Menominee. The accident should be a reminder to others that a gun should never be thrown around.

James Butler, who died recently at Marquette at the age of 92, was a pioneer among the hearty Cornishmen who played a leading part in the mining industry of the Peninsula. He came to this country in 1866 and settled in Hancock, working in the mines of the Copper Country until his retirement 30 years ago. That his long service in the mines apparently did not impair his health was indicated by the age he attained.

Ontonagon county also offers substantial proof that the Peninsula has many summer visitors. It is estimated that 3,000 persons from 31 states, the District of Columbia and three foreign countries registered at the Lake of the Clouds in the Porcupine Mountains. Gradually it is becoming known that the Porcupines are the highest mountains between the Alleghenies and the Black Hills and are of greater beauty than many of the mountains in the country.

IS THIS PEACE?

(Emporia Gazette) Probably the world has patched up a peace that will last the year out. Wars rarely break out in the winter. The going is too bad then. And if this peace lasts until Christmas, it may last until harvest '39. If it lasts until harvest and through the summer, we are good for another year.

But there is a lot of trouble ahead. What Germany did to Czechoslovakia, Poland would like to do to Lithuania, and Mussolini might have a revival of his dream of the Dalmatian coast. The tyrants are a greedy bunch. They have to keep feeding something to the people to hold their jobs with their power. Mussolini is crowded pretty well off the map. He and the tyrant of Turkey are about whittled in the contest for the tail piece in the race of autocrats. So, what with Poland and Italy, and what with Russia being snubbed and Czechoslovakia being heart-broken, peace is not so easy as it looks.

Already open for business in the village of Santa Claus, Ind., is a school for Santa Claus. Does this mean the job's going to be harder this year?

New York Column

New York—The enigmatic Greta Garbo is becoming more of an enigma than she ever was. That's because it's hard to know when she's going to be a "human puzzle" and when she's going to be as "folksy" as your maiden aunt from Sauk Center.

She stepped off a steamer—the Kungsholm—the other day and the mystery legend was hauled out again. Garbo would rather not talk; Garbo didn't care to have it known where she was stopping in New York—and other signs of the old reticence were furnished.

Yet the very next day, while reporters combed outlandish places—there she was, as available as a headwaiter, in Sardi's Restaurant, for lunch! And that very night, in Tony's, a pub which like Sardi's is a hub of the theatrical set. And the shy Greta didn't appear much tongue-tied at either of those two popular places.

Nevertheless, we have it from Jack Warner, Jr., scion of the Hollywood Warners, that the glamor girl of Sweden was 'her old, retiring self on the boat coming across. Warner was her fellow-passenger, but he never met her, never spoke to her. He sent his card down to her stateroom one day, got no answer. Which tends to show that there's no pretending the receptive Garboesque mood.

According to Warner, Garbo never appeared in the dining room was seen on deck only between 10 and 11 o'clock in the morning, clad in old gold knickers, an ancient blue sweater, heavy woolen hose and a pair of hiking shoes. She walked the deck once around, but when she saw anyone approaching, she ducked into passageways for cover. She made her fellow-travelers feel pretty self-conscious. No one had snubbed them quite so coldly before.

Before the boat docked, Garbo suddenly became aware of her attire, her bare stateroom and the imminent arrival of reporters. She ordered flowers for the cabin, changed into a stylish frock and gave her old clothes to the stewardess who declined to sell them to souvenir hunters. And now she's sociable again!

For the Luva Mike A friend of ours who produces shows had an idea that he would like to have a cowboy roundup in his next extravaganza. So he sent out for Bar-X ranchers who have migrated to New York, and one fine day he held an audition.

He had expected to hear some lusty cowboy numbers, sung with the same loud abandon with which they're sung on the plains. But he was disappointed. He couldn't even hear the melodies because the cowboys whispered so low. Finally he called for an explanation from one of the entertainers in chaps and spurs.

"Wall," drawled the ex-lariat-ear, "we aren't used to this. In fact, pardner, we never sing except in a microphone when we're 'round here."

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

Washington—The one big question asked about the proposed "two-price" system, designed to transfer farm surpluses to low income families at low prices, is: "Will it work—and how?"

Friends of the idea think most of the objections and difficulties can be overcome. Various alleged ways and means are being discussed in secret huddles at the Department of Agriculture.

The specter of huge subsidies frightens many. Those who have thought about the theory longest insist that in the case of some products it can be worked out, with very little subsidy and in other cases with none at all. Top officials may decide otherwise.

But AAA has educated farmers to expect direct bounties. No one knows how much money it takes to make them curtail crops except that the sum apparently must be bigger each year. If farm program money available, consequently, no great part seems likely to go for operating a two-price system. The $400,000,000 which might be raised from processing taxes now proposed is about three per cent of the annual income of the "lower one-third," or less than $10 a person. And the "one-third" would be paying about one-fifth of the processing taxes.

HERE ARE THE QUESTIONS

Is the scheme "socialistic" because it means the government will enter the distribution system? That depends on how it's run.

How can poor people be segregated from others who will want to buy at the lower prices?

How can competition with existing merchants and distributors be avoided?

How about the fact that raw cotton and wheat, which can't be sold to the poor direct, are but a small part of the cost in finished cotton goods and bread?

How could such a system be operated on a vast, national scale.

The two-price thinkers say, first, that the principle should be applied wherever it can be shown the poor would buy more of a given type of food or cheap clothing if they had more money. On some items, they think, it probably won't work.

In cotton, with the government holding 7,000,000 bales, with a crop nearly twice consumption size and with millions in need of cotton goods, textile manufacturers will be called in. The cost of processing, Secretary Wallace says, is about twice the cost of raw cotton and that of finished goods about five times as much. The prevalent idea is to furnish specifications and ask bids on specific types of goods which can be produced with economy in large scale operations. Cheap cotton cloth, mattresses, towels, sheeting overalls and work shirts are suggested. Some subsidy such as government contribution of the raw cotton probably will be planned.

Then comes the problem of cheap distribution. Under one proposed scheme, an income rating and identification cards would be required for purchase of "second price" goods. As in New York's municipal cheap milk distribution, poor families would ask the lower price privilege and be granted it by the government. Low-cost distribution of low-price food and goods would probably be largely a local problem.

Another possibility is that cheap goods, such as overalls and dwork shirts, can be dumped on the market through regular commercial channels with assurance that only the poor will buy them. This is also suggested for nutritive foods in less attractive, cheaper but relatively non-competitive forms—such as dried eggs, dried milk and canned fruit juices.

The two-price theory admittedly becomes extremely difficult when applied to wheat. Bread is a basic food in low-income family diets.

The system is much more easily applied to such products as milk, butter, eggs, fruits, vegetables and meats where there is no major manufacturing problem such as that in cotton. Specially licensed markets run on wholesale lines, with consumers coming to buy and only one operation after the stuff arrives in town, might handle such items of farm surplusage. The principle of cheapest possible would be preserved, with no inconvenience to the purchaser (early morning sales periods, standing in line, etc.), and an identification card system probably would be held necessary.

Although there are as yet no official answers to the questions posed by the two-price proposal and the unofficial answers by the two-price thinkers are but tentative and partial the federal government already is concerned in one two-price venture and the nation's largest city is engaged in another. These two operations will be described in a subsequent dispatch.

Lyrics of Life

By Douglas Malloch

IN PRAISE OF FOOLS We learn more lessons from the fool Than ever from the wise, For folly keeps a better school Than many who advise. The spender teaches us to save, His wisdom understood, And even cowards make us brave, The wicked make us good.

The wise can give us only laws To regulate our acts, The fool will break them, and because He does, we get the facts. His precepts wisdom will provide, The wisest way to go, And yet how many a fool has died And proved that they are so.

I would not praise the fool too much, Not sure of his intent, And yet I know a few of such, Much folly would prevent, And yet so many things I hear, So many things I read, Of foolishness, I often fear, We have more than we need.

EDUCATION COST IS STILL RISING

Dr. Elliott Finds School Consolidation Is Not Helping Situation

Lansing, Oct. 20 (AP)—Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, state superintendent of public instruction, said today a survey indicated the consolidation of school districts has failed to halt the rising cost of education in Michigan.

Dr. Elliott said the study showed that although the number of school districts has declined steadily, the cost of education rose to $108.06 per pupil, the highest in five years. He said the study, which covered the school year 1936-37, showed 6,404 school districts, compared with 6,710 in 1933-34 and about 9,000 a decade ago.

Total public school expenditures for the year exceeded $107,000,000, he continued. The average enrollment for 1936-37 was 931,369 pupils, an increase of 45,000 in a year.

Dr. Elliott computed the operating cost of the schools per pupil at $77.06, and for the entire state at $76,440,561. The figures did not cover debt service and capital outlay charges.

The total cost in 1933-34, he said, was $74,787,112 or $77.87 per pupil, while the operating cost alone totaled $59,159,376 or $61.60 per pupil.

The superintendent said the amount spent in salaries for teachers rose $10,000,000 from 1933-34 to 1936-37, the largest single factor in the increase. Other costs of instruction, including supplies and textbooks, were up $2,000,000.

Immigration Laws Separate Mother From 3 Children

Detroit, Oct. 20 (AP)—Because Mrs. Mary A. MacKinnon, 31-year-old widow, entered the United States illegally from Canada eight years ago, she was separated by immigration laws today from her three American-born children.

Her children, their ages ranging from 2 to 5 years, and her 12-year-old step-daughter, were at their home in Detroit. Mrs. MacKinnon was on the other side of the international border, at the home of her sister in Windsor, Ont. Immigration officers said they had no recourse but to reject her when she admitted, after a visit to her sister in Windsor, that her original entry to the United States was illegal.

Two years after Mrs. MacKinnon came to Detroit from Sidney, Nova Scotia, she married John MacKinnon. Following her husband's death, a year ago, Mrs. MacKinnon informed immigration officials that she had entered the United States illegally and asked their assistance in legalizing her status. There were two hearings, but last June, Mrs. MacKinnon was notified by the department of labor that action in her case would be deferred pending legislation expected from the next congress. She said she appeals to President Roosevelt and Governor Murphy of Michigan, failed to bring any quicker action.

Body In Life Belt Found Near Ecorse

Detroit, Oct. 20 (AP)—Detroit and Ecorse police attempted tonight to establish the identity of a man whose body was found floating in the Detroit river at Ecorse today. A life belt, tied on backwards, was on the man who appeared to have been between 35 and 40 years of age, 5 feet 9 inches tall and about 175 pounds.

Coroner's officers said they found evidence of a bruise on the upper lip. They estimated the body had been in the water for about six days.

LABOR UNIONS IN FOR CLASH, SAYS WITNESS

was in a Detroit store when a sit-down strike was called.

The governor was "sitting on a box" with Frank Martel, head of the Detroit Federation of Labor, he said. When Mosler questioned him further, the witness said he could not say whether the governor was "encouraging or discouraging" the strike.

His warning of what might be expected, unless Communist elements are eliminated from the unions, came in answer to a question from Dies as to the effect of the wave of strikes and of Communist agitation on law and order. "In a very short time," he said, "there is going to be an awful clash. Lots of people are going to get hurt unless something is done about these Communists."

Elaborating upon alleged Communist instigation of strikes, Frahm said that when workmen refused to comply, they were followed to their homes, their windows were broken, their wives threatened, their automobiles damaged or they were attacked upon the streets.

People intimidated

"So the laboring people are intimidated by the Communists?" Dies asked.

"I would say they are."

The police superintendent submitted a series of pictures of strike incidents and a long heavy club. One picture showed two men holding a policeman while another struck him with that particular club, the witness said. Frahm and

Dies passed the club back and forth between them several times while cameramen made pictures.

A total of 187 strikes occurred within the city of Detroit between November, 1936, and July, 1937, Frahm testified. One hundred of them involved unions of the American Federation of Labor, 70 the United Automobile Workers, C.I.O., ten of the Mechanics Educational Society, and seven company unions.

McCrea Refuses Warrants

After one strike in which there was unusual violence, he continued, arrests were made, but when the men arrested came to trial the Communists filed the court room to such an extent that witnesses could not get in or out.

He said the police had been handicapped in combating strike situations sometimes by the refusal of Duncan McCrea, prosecuting attorney for Wayne county, to issue warrants of arrest.

John W. Kooe, an attorney of Dearborn, Mich., appeared as an expert on the doctrines of Communism and Fascism, which he explained at length to the committee. When Dies asked if he had any explanation as to how the Communists managed to stay in the unions, he replied that as members of the union they could not be discharged because of the Wagner act, and that the national labor relations board seemed sympathetic to their ideas.

At the opening of the day's sessions, Dies said the committee had demanded of the labor department a list of some 3,000 deportation cases understood to be held in abeyance. They included, he said, the case of Harry Bridges, west coast director for the C. I. O.

Allens Not Deported

"For some reason," Dies said, "the labor department has seen fit not to deport these aliens although the law is mandatory. The committee will select from the list the names of all Communist aliens who have not been deported, and with the aid of local police who have arrested them from time to time, we will hold some hearings."

He disagreed again with the department's view that the Strecker case, involving the question whether membership in the Communist party makes an alien deportable, must be settled by the supreme court before the Bridges proceedings can be pushed. The Strecker case is now pending before the supreme court.

Dies also read a telegram from Benedict Wolf, once an attorney for the labor relations board, denying that he invited Ralph Knox to become a member of the Communist party. Knox so asserted yesterday. Wolf said the statement was entirely false, and that his only connection with Knox was to inform him that a labor board case he had instituted was "without merit."

Arson Case Suspect Under $25,000 Bond

Detroit, Oct. 20 (AP)—Bond of $25,000 was set for Harry Slew, 47, accused of arson, after he had stood mute at his arraignment before Recorder's Judge John P. Scallen today. A plea of innocent was entered by the court in his behalf.

Officers arrested Slew in connection with an explosion and fire in a two-story building here Sunday. Detective Edward G. Eggers said a passerby told him he saw Slew run from the building a few minutes before the blast occurred.

Fiscal Statement Of Murphy Regime Dubbed Big Insult

Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 20 (AP)—Former Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald charged in a campaign address here tonight that the Murphy administration had "swept over the dam" nearly $50,000,000 more than I needed to operate the government of our state."

"When I was in office," Fitzgerald said, "we had funds for the needy. During my term we did not have a top-heavy political payroll. During my administration working men worked in peace."

"Let me say, with all the emphasis at my command, that the state treasury right now should be millions in the black. Higher old age pensions could be paid, ample funds for direct relief could be on hand, the schools could be getting their full share of state aid—and still the general fund should have a huge surplus."

"Instead, here are the figures: 'I left a balance in the treasury of $8,775,000. That is gone. State revenues increased during the Murphy administration, more than $16,000,000 over those in my term—and that is gone. There was an admitted operating deficit of more than $8,000,000 in the last fiscal year. There was a deficit of at least $8,000,000 in the Murphy half of the preceding fiscal year, and there is a known deficit appropriation of $10,000,000 (the referred to an emergency relief appropriation during the recent special session of the legislature) in the current fiscal year."

"Add those items together, and you have excess expenditures, as compared with my administration, of approximately $49,000,000. For good measure, you can also add a $4,500,000 reduction in liquor inventories—and that money also has been spent—which would shoot the total little New Deal excess over the $50,000,000 mark."

Fitzgerald charged his rival for the governorship with evading financial questions. He ridiculed a budgetary statement which placed the over-all deficit of the state for the fiscal year ending June 30 at $3,741,487.

"My opponent continues to tour the state offering entertainment, but blandly ignoring the serious, fundamental issues of government," Fitzgerald declared. "In soft-spoken come-hither tones he nightly entertains the voters to hit the sawdust trail. But his conversations are small, for too many remember that the trail he would have them follow leads to labor outrages, Communist inspired demonstrations and to financial chaos beyond understanding."

The speaker dubbed Budget Director Harold S. Smith's fiscal statement "an insult to the intelligence of the people who want to know what has become of almost $50,000,000 expended during Governor Murphy's twenty-two months in office, over and above what was spent during my tenure."

"It looked like something fished out of a magician's hat," he asserted.

Delta County Gets $19,199 For McNitt Township Highways

Lansing, Oct. 20 (AP)—The state highway department prepared vouchers today providing for the payment of $2,000,000 to counties under the McNitt road law to assist them in maintaining former township roads.

The township roads have been made a part of the county road system. The McNitt act provides for state aid, from gasoline tax revenues, amounting to $4,000,000 annually.

Allocations to counties include: Alger, $13,890; Baraga, $10,924; Chippewa, $33,019; Delta, $19,199; Dickinson, $19,272; Genesee, $10,458; Houghton, $21,006; Iron, $14,284; Keweenaw, $3,083; Luce, $8,202; Mackinac, $15,698; Marquette, $34,769; Menominee, $30,353; Ontonagon, $13,485; Schoolcraft, $8,151; Kent, $38,959; Muskegon, $26,162; Ottawa, $34,867; Wayne, $21,338; Oakland, $34,195.

Murder And Suicide Reported At Racine

Racine, Wis., Oct. 20 (AP)—Mrs. Anita Benson, 31, a divorcee, was shot to death in the yard of her home tonight. An hour later police found the body of Otto Schultz, 35, also shot to death, in an alley two blocks from Mrs. Benson's home. A pistol with six discharged bullets was at his side, police said.

Termed it a case of murder and suicide, Detectives Lylye George and Theodore Hodges said Mrs. Benson had once complained Schultz had threatened her. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Olsen, said Schultz had been extremely jealous and had refused to go out with him.

Mrs. Benson was returning home from a bowling party. Members of her family said they heard four or five pistol shots and ran out to find her dying, with her jewelry scattered in evidence of a struggle. They said Schultz, part owner of a cleaning company, had called at the home earlier in the evening and asked for Mrs. Benson.

ADAMICK IMPROVING

Detroit, Oct. 20 (AP)—A gradual daily improvement was noted by physicians of Henry Ford hospital today in the condition of Jimmy Adamick, Midland, Mich., heavyweight boxer. Adamick suffered a severe head injury three weeks ago in a bout with Roscoe Toles, negro heavyweight.

BREAD BASKET DECIDES FATE OF NEW DEAL

attained before by any party, the narrowness of the victory in many a congressional district in the north central states sticks out like a sore thumb. Even in that unprecedented sweep, the shift of 5,000 votes in any one of dozens of farm belt districts would have changed the results in those districts. The average total vote cast in them run around 100,000.

Those key interior states sent to the house in the present congress 90 Democrats, 34 Republicans and 12 Progressives, Farmer-Laborist and Non-Partisans. Most of the latter cooperated with the huge Democratic majority and supported new deal programs. A glance at the 1936 results in the 137 districts shows, however, that both Democrats and Republicans in many instances won by margins so small that a shift of from 2 to 5 percent in the vote would have changed the outcome.

Too Close for Comfort

That is strikingly illustrated in Illinois, which split 21 Democrats and six Republicans to the house in 1936. The results in at least a dozen Illinois districts were too close to comfort incumbents now seeking re-election.

Iowa split its 1936 house delegation into five Democrats and four Republicans. Yet its traditional Republican leanings were reflected in the close votes. In only one district did an incumbent exceed a 10,000 majority and in only one other was that figure approached.

There are a dozen districts in Michigan, half a dozen in Ohio, and others in Indiana and Kansas where the 1936 margins were equally narrow. It is around such districts that most of the calculations of party forecasters turn in estimating election day possibilities. They suggest that even a 5 percent change of farm belt sentiment toward the Roosevelt regime could materially reduce the Democratic preponderance in the 12 states' representation in the national house.

Green Bay Receipts At Mrs. Roosevelt's Address Are Stolen

Green Bay, Wis., Oct. 20 (AP)—Box office receipts for the speaking appearance here tonight of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt were reported to police as having been stolen by two men masquerading as ushers.

The money, about $700, police said, was to have gone chiefly to Mrs. Roosevelt's charities.

Two women who sold the tickets said the men told them they had been appointed to guard the money so the ticket-sellers could hear the president's wife. The women accordingly left the box office.

Others said the men also acted as ushers, directing women to their seats.

Myron Locke, Green Bay, asserted he saw the men stuffing bills into their pockets.

Steel Worker Dies In Electric Chair For Killing Farmer

Joliet, Ill., Oct. 21 (Friday) (AP)—John Jelliga, 33, Whiting, Ind., steelworker, died at 12:04 a. m. today in the electric chair at Illinois penitentiary for the wanton slaying of Edward Pansa, a farmer, during a robbery.

He showed little emotion as he was led into the death chamber. His last words mumbled as guards drew a hood down on his head were: "God bless my wife and two children."

Pansa, 45 year old farmer of Crete, Ill., was slain Dec. 9, 1937 when Jelliga and Michael Munjas, 45, of Indiana Harbor, Ind., invaded his farm home. After killing Pansa the robbers told his wife that she, too, must die because she witnessed the robbery and slaying. They left her for dead but she was only critically wounded.

The robbers were caught 20 hours after the slaying. Munjas committed suicide by hanging in jail before his trial was called.

Boxer Exonerated In Ring Death At Rockland, Me. Bout

Rockland, Me., Oct. 20 (AP)—Municipal Judge Zelma M. Dwinall today dismissed manslaughter charges against Roy P. Worcester, 20-year-old Bangor heavyweight boxer, in connection with the death here last night of Henry L. King, 21, of Worcester, Mass., at the end of their 10-round bout.

Medical examiner H. J. Weisman, who supervised attempts to resuscitate King, attributed death to a hemorrhage of the Sac encircling the heart.

All post officers, particularly post commanders, employment chairmen and post service officers of all organizations are invited to attend the session. The meeting will be held at 1323 Ludington street and will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Government Asked To Buy Potatoes, Protect Markets

Lansing, Oct. 20 (AP)—State Agricultural Commissioner John B. Strange asked the federal surplus commodities corporation today to purchase approximately 1,500,000 bushels of Michigan commercial potatoes, to protect the market from a price depressing flood of inferior spuds.

He suggested that the corporation purchase 3,000 carlots of commercial potatoes with a tolerance of as much as 60 per cent hollowheart, but not more than 10 per cent hollowheart of serious nature. This, he said, would stabilize the price of lower grade potatoes and save the Michigan market from loss of reputation.

He said a survey of the principal potato growing areas showed a hollowheart infection ranging from a few potatoes in a lot to as high as 80 per cent infection. He estimated 25 per cent of the Michigan crop had hollowheart.

Strange said the 1938 potato crop would total 32,040,000 bushels, compared with 28,634,000 bushels a year ago, when the federal surplus commodities corporation purchased 179 carloads.

Birmingham Boy, 12, Killed By Shotgun

Detroit, Oct. 20 (AP)—Leon McGill, 12, of Birmingham, died today in the fourth gunshot fatality of the Michigan small game hunting season.

A shotgun in the hands of his 14-year-old brother, Robert, was discharged accidentally as the two boys entered an automobile from which they had alighted to pursue a rabbit near Franklin village, in Oakland county. The charge struck Robert's hand and lodged in the younger boy's leg. Leon was dead from loss of blood upon admittance to Redford Receiving hospital.

At least 17 hunters have been wounded and four have died from over exertion since the season opened Saturday.

Prisoner Identified In Pontiac Assault

Pontiac, (AP)—Municipal Judge Milton F. Cooney issued a warrant Thursday charging Carmine Pignano, 34, of Cleveland, O., with assaulting a 10-year-old Pontiac girl in 1937. The girl identified Pignano as the man who lured her and her six-year-old brother into an automobile, took them to the woods near Bloomfield Hills, and then attacked her. Pignano is being held in default of $10,000 bond for circuit court action after another girl, a former resident of Dearborn, identified him as the man who kidnaped her and held her in a Detroit rooming house for five days.

DRIVER OF CAR SERIOUSLY HURT

Punctured Lung Suffered By James Wilson of Richmond, Ohio

James Wilson of Richmond, Ohio, who was the driver of a car which rolled into the ditch at the intersection of 23rd street and Lake Shore Drive on Tuesday night, is reported to be in a serious condition in St. Francis hospital. An examination revealed that he suffered a punctured lung in the crash, as the result of ribs being broken when he was thrown against the wheel. His wife arrived in Escanaba yesterday from Richmond.

His companion in the crash, Arlie Pickering, also of Richmond, suffered chest and neck injuries and is also confined to the hospital.

An investigation of the crash revealed that the car in which the two men were riding, headed south on 23rd street, approached the intersection at a high rate of speed and was unable to negotiate the turn onto Lake Shore Drive. Skid marks on the pavement showed that the car rode across the triangular grass plot at the center of the intersection, with wheels skidding, and ran head-on into the ditch at the east side of Lake Shore Drive. The front end of the car buried itself in the side of the ditch, and the car rolled end over end before it came to rest on one side.

Wilson was pinned in the car, but Pickering freed himself and went to a house nearby where he called the police department. Officers lifted the car to free Wilson, whose legs were pinned down under the top of the car.

Medicine Acts on STOMACH KIDNEYS, BLOOD

Approximately ten years ago a famous doctor developed a formula containing herbs and other ingredients to act on the stomach, kidneys and bowels. In recent years this formula has been improved by scientists until today it has gained a reputation with over 100,000 people. Williams Formula is new to the Great Lakes and Middle West territories yet it is well known as a successful remedy on the Pacific Coast. This sensational medical formula helps to relieve excess stomach acidity and aids in expelling GAS and BLOAT caused by excessive acid. It relieves acid irritated kidneys and contains iron for increasing Hemoglobin of the blood.

STOMACH: Williams Formula acts within a short time on the stomach as a stomachic, improving appetite and stimulating digestion and tends to relieve excessive burning stomach acidity which causes terrible stomach pains.

BOWELS: It acts to stimulate peristalsis in the intestines. It acts as a tonic laxative to relieve sick headaches, that loggy feeling and dizziness caused by constipation.

KIDNEYS: Williams Formula acts as a mild stimulant diuretic to increase the flow of urine and the elimination of waste matter from the kidneys which is so important to good health.

WHAT WILLIAMS FORMULA IS FOR

If you are troubled with sick headaches, dizzy spells; if you are lousy and worn out due to clogged up intestines; if you have bloating gas on your stomach; if you are suffering from terrible stomach gas pains take Williams Formula. Go to any leading drug store in this state, and you find them glad to tell you about Williams Formula. In Escanaba go to Peoples Drug Store and ask about this famous medicine. They will tell you that it is pure, containing only wonderful herbs and other ingredients which actually help nature. The name of these herbs are on the label. Get your bottle of Williams Formula today without delay.

RAPID RIVER P.T.A. MEETS

Interesting Program Is Presented On Thursday

Rapid River, Mich.—The regular meeting of the P. T. A. was held Thursday evening, October 13, at eight o'clock, in the high school assembly room.

A very interesting program consisting of an illustrated travelogue, "The Roads of the Upper Peninsula", and the Girl Scout Investiture Ceremony, was presented. The travelogue, which was conducted by A. Dalrymple, is sent out to various communities by the Michigan State Department of Safety.

Mrs. K. C. Scott, chairman of the Girl Scout Troop Committee, gave a brief history of the organization of the troop. This was followed by fourteen members of the newly organized Pine Tree Troop, No. 1, receiving their Tenderfoot pins. In the candlelight investiture ceremony, Mrs. Donald Peterson, first Lieutenant, presented Kathleen Scott, leader of the Pine Cone Patrol, and Catherine Christoff, leader of the Firefly Patrol to the captain, Miss Norma Acker. The two patrol leaders in turn presented the members of their respective patrols. Each girl carried a taper, and pledged herself to the principles of Scouting by lighting the taper at the symbolic candle of good faith, and by giving the Girl Scout promise.

Following the candle lighting ceremony, each girl received her Tenderfoot pin, and then took her place in horseshoe formation on the platform. Color bearers, La Vern Hassell, and color guards, Ruth Oberg, and Dolores Gilling, presented the flag to the troop for the Pledge of Allegiance. The lights were then snapped off, and in the soft candle light, the new Girl Scouts sang "America."

The new members are: Mary Ann Scott, Kathleen Scott, Helen Wils, Eunice Gilling, Catherine Christoff, Maxine Young, Corliss Young, Ella St. Thomas, Ethel Stenlund, Mary Peterson, Louisa Proehl, Miriam Olson, Lillian Johnson, and Bernice Caswell.

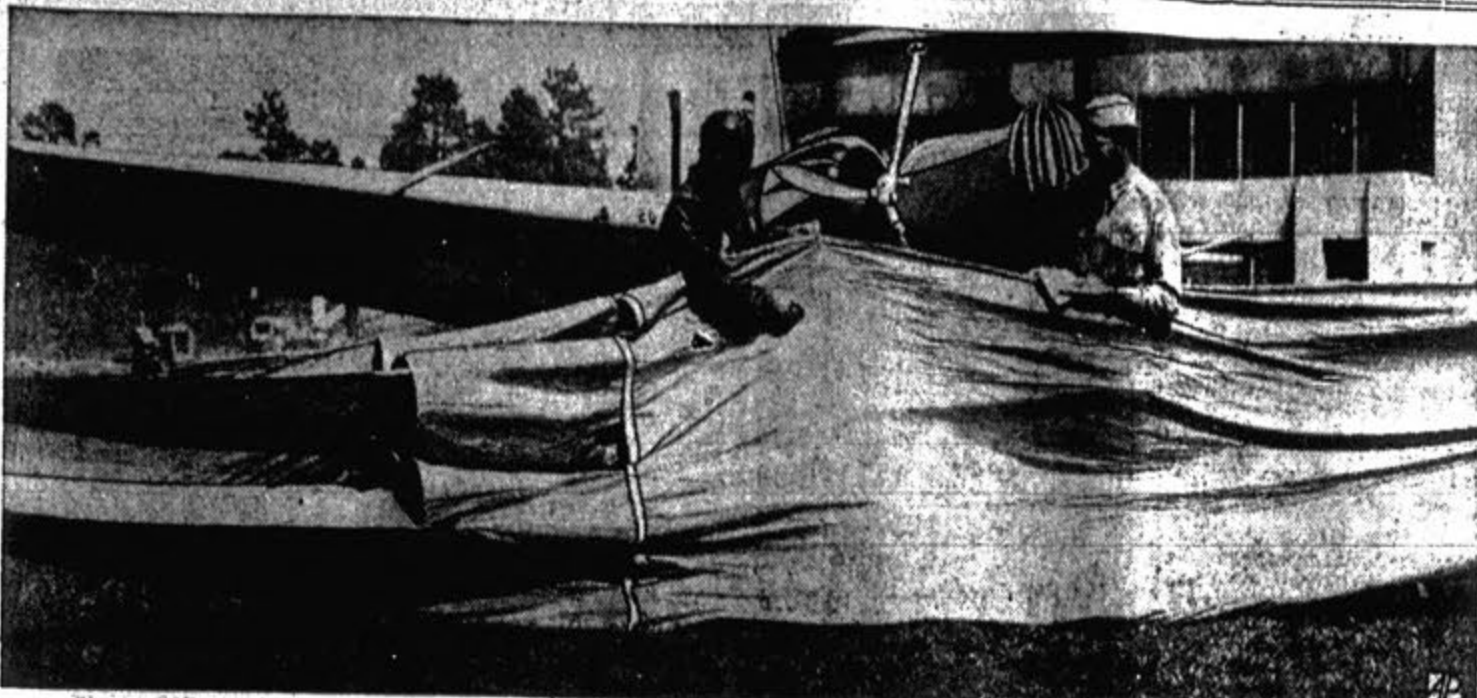

Two members, Ellouise and Velma Gamble, who have transferred their membership to a Munising Girl Scout troop, received their pins by mail.

Following the program two committees were appointed by the President, Mrs. K. C. Scott. One committee, composed of Superintendent Wallace Cameron, chairman, Fred Cavill, O. Gilling, W. J. Miller, Mrs. D. F. Kniskern, Mrs. E. Novans, Mrs. D. Peterson, and Mrs. L. Thibault, is to make arrangements for a social function to raise funds for the high school band which is sponsored by the P. T. A. The program committee, a standing one for the year, consists of Miss Delima Scheer, chairman, Mrs. Jake Jacobsen, E. Wittala, and Ray La-Bumbard.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Paul's Birthday
Mrs. Albert Schram entertained at her home, Thursday afternoon, October 13, for her son, Paul, the occasion being Paul's second birthday anniversary.

The table decorations were effectively carried out in a pink and green color scheme; three birthday cakes, daintily decorated, added to the attractiveness of the table. Each guest was presented with a balloon and a mint basket.

During recent maneuvers, the three-inch guns were trained on pennant targets towed by an airplane flying 15,000 feet overhead.

Games were played until three o'clock when Mrs. Schram served a delicious lunch to sixteen of Paul's playmates and friends and also their mothers. Nancy Jeanne Sabourin, Kathryn Hamilton, Jean Boyer, Narda June Young, Donald Petersen, Robert Paul Roberts, Dickie Miller, Donald Jacobsen, Mary Jane Cavil, and Jon Archambeau of Rapid River, Marilyn and Charles Lanerette of Gladstone, Mary Ethel Hayes of Shingleton, Tommy Gregoire, Mary Sheedio, and Ralph Hamilton of Escanaba, were present. Mesdames R. Papineau, M. Archambeau, T. Ewald, F. Schram, and J. Kennedy were also guests at the party.

Repairs Road
The highway commission has completed the relaying of about 500 feet of concrete on U. S. 2 east of the Rapid River that was washed out by the high water last spring, a larger culvert has been installed which it is hoped will in the future take care of the overflow of Moore's Creek. The detour which was put in last spring at the time of the "Wash-out" handled the traffic this fall while that portion of the road was closed.

Business Recovery On Main Streets Being Predicted

Chicago, Ill.—A revival of business activity on America's Main Streets and a reawakening of business in the smaller cities and towns in every state was predicted if Congress will enact the General Welfare Act during the coming session. The prediction came from Dr. Francis E. Townsend, president and founder of the Townsend National Recovery Movement with national headquarters in this city.

"The business of our small towns, which has been dying out for a number of years, will be rehabilitated beyond all expectations if we can bring enactment of the Townsend Plan Bill," he commented.

"The reason for this statement is clear. Our program calls for the equal distribution each month of a large tax fund to those citizens past the age of sixty who will agree to retire from employment. These people number about a hundred persons to every thousand of population in every community. In a town of 1,000 persons, for example, there are about 100 who are past the age of sixty eligible to receive this federally provided annuity. Census figures prove this.

"The General Welfare Act, of course, does not promise any set annuity or pension. It merely promises the prorata distribution of the revenue derived from 2 per cent transaction tax to those persons past sixty who are eligible for the retirement annuity.

"Let us suppose that the amount is only $100 to start. Then, in a town of 1,000 persons, approximately $100,000 additional would be spent with its merchants each month, since the act would stipulate that the annuities must be spent within thirty days.

"What would a payroll of $10,000 each month mean to the merchants of a town of that size? What would it mean to the bank, what would it mean to the newspaper, the lumber dealer and the building contractor, or to the event with Scout leaders of the Council. Scout leaders of other cities in the Council are invited to attend.

farm implement dealer? "We are constantly asked where this amount of money would come from. That too is a simple question. It would come from the large centers of business, where today money is concentrated. "The cost to the community would be only two per cent of the gross income of all businesses in that community. Most business men would be very willing to pay two per cent of their profits for a monthly payroll in their town of $10,000."

DON'T LET YOUR NERVES GET TIRED, UPSET!

Irish Setter
Native of Ireland. Believed to be a cross of English setter, spaniel and pointer. Originally red and white in coloring. Today's standards call for solid mahogany red or rich golden chestnut. Essentially a gun dog. Bold, hardy, yet remarkably gentle nature. Noted for long life.

He's giving his nerves a rest...and so is she

THE DOG pictured above has a nervous system amazingly similar to yours, with this difference: It is the nature of the dog to rest when he needs rest. It is the nature of mankind to drive on...until nerves jerk and twitch...until you are cross and irritable...tired out without knowing it. No matter which of the common forms of tenseness you feel, try this experiment: Ease up and enjoy a Camel. Camels are made from costlier tobaccos. They are so mild and comforting. Smokers find that "Let up—light up a Camel" puts more zest into life, and that Camel's costlier tobaccos soothe their nerves.

MILLIONS FIND
"Let up—light up a Camel" puts more joy into living

Terrell Jacobs, lion trainer, and "Tony" Concello, circus aerialist (right), both testify to the value of "Let up—light up a Camel." "Animals can spring into instant action—then relax," says Jacobs. "We are apt to get our nerves all wound up with our tense war of living—can't let go. I find that Camels soothe my nerves." "Terrell's right," Miss Concello says. "When my nerves are tired, a Camel helps them to rest."

DID YOU KNOW:
—that one tablespoonful of tobacco seed will sow 100 square yards? Right down to the day of harvest, Camel tobacco experts watch the development of the crop in each locality. 35 LOCAL BOYS ARE DELEGATES

Escanaba to Send Quota to Conference at Iron Mountain

A full delegation of 35 Escanaba boys will be sent to the Upper Peninsula Older Boys' conference at Iron Mountain, Edward E. Edick, principal of the senior high school, said yesterday. The two-day meet will be held Friday and Saturday, November 4 and 5, under sponsorship of the U. P. committee of the Young Men's Christian association.

Escanaba's quota has been set at 35 boys, and a full delegation has always been sent. Churches, service clubs, civic organizations and high school honor organizations are represented at the sessions.

Arrangements are in charge of Clifton M. Drury, Hi-Y state secretary, and Merrill Eneyart, associate state secretary, both of Detroit. The opening session will be held Friday afternoon, November 4, at 3:30 p. m., in the auditorium of the Iron Mountain senior high school. The conference will close Saturday evening, November 5, with a dinner and speaking session. The principal speaker will be Dr. W. H. Aulenbach of Germantown, Pa. Geo. W. Campbell of Cincinnati will be conference song leader.

Boys 15 years old and over are eligible to attend. E. L. Pearce of Marquette is chairman of the committee.

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. SAYEN, 80

Well Known Bark River Resident Seriously Ill One Week

Mrs. Pamela Rose Sayen, 80, widely known and respected resident of Bark River, died at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the family home. She had been in poor health for some time but was seriously ill only one week.

Mrs. Sayen was born March 26, 1858, in St. Jerome, Quebec, Canada, and her marriage to Mr. Sayen took place there October 4, 1880. They moved to Bark River in 1887, and Mrs. Sayen had been a resident of the Bark River and Schaffer community from that time until her death.

She was a devout member of Sacred Heart church of Schaffer and a charter member of St. Anne's Altar society of the church.

She and Mr. Sayen, who passed away six years ago, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1930.

Surviving members of the family are seven daughters and two sons: Mrs. William Constantineau, Perronville; Mrs. John Graham, Amos, Quebec; Mrs. Joseph Riopelle, Pekin, Ill.; Mrs. Henry DeMars, Mrs. Mary Doutra and Mrs. Philip Bruce, Escanaba; Alice at home; Eli Sayen, Escanaba; and Simon, at home; one sister, Mrs. Alphonse Limoges of St. Comer, Quebec; twenty grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

The body was removed to the Boyle undertaking parlors at Bark River to be prepared for burial. No definite funeral arrangements have been made.

Medical Painting Honors Pioneer Michigan Doctor

New York, N. Y.—The American College of Surgeons will call on the arts to come to the aid of medical tradition.

The college announced that it would send six medical paintings to schools and medical centers to acquaint persons with the dramatic achievements of seven American medical pioneers.

The first painting, to be introduced at this week's meeting, is a canvas by Dean Cornwell showing Dr. William Beaumont, the Fort Mackinac (Mich.) army surgeon who first watched the workings of the stomach, and his patient, Alexis St. Martin, a half-breed trapper.

(Dr. Beaumont, who also was stationed at army forts in Wisconsin, saved the life of St. Martin in 1822 when the trapper's side was torn away by gunshot. When St. Martin recovered there was a hole in the body which opened into the stomach. Dr. Beaumont's studies of the "man with a window in his stomach," opened new fields to medicine.)

UTILITY LABOR BRINGS RETURNS

$34,962 Is Collected In 17 Months Through Work Program

A plan of the city government for collecting delinquent utility and welfare bills and special assessments is working out very well, both to the benefit of the city and the individuals. City Manager George Beau said yesterday.

In the 17 months since the plan was put into effect on April 1, 1937, the city has collected a total of $34,962.16 in delinquent obligations. Of this amount, $23,656.50 has been for utility accounts and $11,305.66 for back welfare bills.

Regulations governing the plan are strict. Under the rules laid down by the city, a person on relief or one earning less than $50 per month may work out his delinquent accounts, provided, of course, that he keep up his current accounts. Only bills contracted for before the present plan went into effect may be disposed of under this method.

Anyone with a family of eight or more or those on direct relief are allowed to work out current bills under this plan. This recognizes the inability of this class of people to discharge their debt to the city from current revenues.

I guess my principal objection is that being the son of a President is more of a handicap than a help.

Theft Of Fish Nets Being Investigated

The theft of several fish nets from fishermen working for the Hansen and Jensen Fish company during the past few days is being investigated by the sheriff's department. The nets were taken from fishing grounds on the south shore, and a warning has been issued by the sheriff's department that those responsible for theft of nets from the fishing grounds will be prosecuted. Undersheriff John Fredrickson said last night that some of the stolen nets have been located, and prosecution will follow when they have been identified.

Scout's Leadership Training Group Will Meet Again Tonight

The Delta County Boy Scout leadership training course will hold its second session at the senior high school here at 7:30 o'clock this evening. All adults interested in the Scout work are invited to attend.

The theme of this evening's meeting will be the second class Scout requirements. The beaver patrol of Gladstone men will be in charge of the meeting. Members of the patrol are Ray Norton, patrol leader; Harold Switzer, scribe; Russell Skellenger, John E. Norton and Oscar Ohman.

Thus far the training group is composed of four patrols, made up of Escanaba, Gladstone, Bark River and Pine Ridge men. In their study of Scouting they act the part of Scouts in a regular troop routine. During the course the various patrols are in competition with such efforts as the bringing of new members, exhibits and contests won at meetings all being rewarded on a point basis.

Autumn Desserts

Hot But Sweet

Hot but sweet—that's the perfect autumn dessert. Watch your timing. Souffles must make a non-stop flight from oven to table and all other hot puddings should arrive piping.

If your hot dessert recipe includes many nutritional elements, reduce the amount of food in the earlier part of the meal accordingly. In planning a well-balanced menu, regard dessert as definite part of meal, not as something extra.

Chocolate Souffle (Serves 4 to 5)
Two tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, ¼ cup milk, 1½ squares cooking chocolate, ½ cup sugar, 1 tablespoon hot water, 3 eggs, 2 teaspoons vanilla, 1 teaspoon almond extract.
Soften butter. Work in flour until mixture is smooth. Stir in milk. Beat egg yolks slightly. Stir into mixture. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly until it begins to thicken.
Melt chocolate over hot water, stir in sugar and water. Stir until smooth, then combine with other mixture. Beat egg whites until stiff and dry. Fold in. Add flavoring. Butter baking dish. Turn in souffle mixture.

Bake in pan of hot water in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 25 minutes. Serve immediately with slightly whipped cream.

Apple Upside Down Pudding (Serves 4 to 6)
Apple Mixture: Six tart apples, 1 teaspoon grated grapefruit rind, 1 cup brown sugar, ¼ teaspoon grated cinnamon.
Pudding Mixture: Two tablespoons butter, ½ cup sugar, 1 egg, ¼ cup milk, 1½ cups flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

News of FOOD Specials

Cream butter and sugar until light. Beat egg, add milk and beat again. Stir into butter mixture. Sift flour and baking powder together. Combine with other mixture. Add vanilla.

Butter shallow oblong baking dish. Peel apples and slice thin. Cover bottom of dish with sliced apples, dust with sugar and cinnamon, and sprinkle with grapefruit peel. Pour pudding batter on top. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 1½ hours. Serve hot with hard sauce.

Anise Honey Buns (2-12 dozen small buns)
One cup scalded milk, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon raw sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 egg, 1 yeast cake dissolved in 1-4 cup lukewarm water, 2 cups whole wheat flour, 2 cups all-purpose flour, Honey mixture: 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1-3 cup honey, 2 tablespoons butter, 1-2 cup currants, 1 teaspoon anise seeds.

Place milk, butter, sugar and salt in a mixing bowl, cool to lukewarm. Add egg, softened yeast cake and about half the flour. Beat well. Add more flour gradually. When stiff enough to handle turn out on a floured board and knead until elastic and smooth.
Place dough in greased bowl and brush with melted butter or shortening. Cover and let rise until dough is double in size. Knead—roll out on a floured board until about 3-4 inch thick.

Spread with honey mixture. Roll as for jelly roll. Cut in one-inch slices. Place in greased muffin tins. Brush with butter and let rise until double in bulk (about two hours). Bake in hot oven, 400 to 425 degrees F. for 15 to 18 minutes.

Banana Frosting
1-2 cup mashed banana
1 tablespoon hot cream
1-4 teaspoon lemon extract
1-8 teaspoon salt
2-3 cup confectioner's sugar
Mix ingredients with a fork. Let stand for five minutes. Beat until creamy and froth the ginger bread.

Nut Bran Bread
(1 loaf)
Two cups sifted flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 2 cups bran, 1-4 cup shortening, 1 egg yolk, 1 cup milk, 3-4 cup sliced Brazil nuts.

Sift and measure flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. Add bran and stir in shortening with fingertips. Beat egg yolk, add milk and stir into first mixture. Add Brazil nuts and mix. Bake in a greased loaf pan in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for 50 minutes.

Cranberry Nut Bread
(1 loaf)
One cup cranberries, 1 cup sugar, 3 cups flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-2 cup coarsely chopped walnuts, grated rind 1 orange, 1 egg, 1 cup milk, 2 tablespoons melted butter.

Put cranberries through food chopper and mix with 1-4 cup of sugar. Sift remaining sugar, flour, baking powder and salt together and add nuts and orange rind.

Beat egg slightly, combine with milk and melted butter and add to first mixture.

Fold in cranberries. Bake in buttered bread pan in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 1 hour.

Italian Meat Balls and Spaghetti
One-quarter pound ground beef, 3-4 pound ground pork, 3 eggs unbeaten, 1 cup grated Parmesan cheese, 1 finely chopped clove of garlic, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon black pepper.

Combine these ingredients, mix well and shape into meat balls.

For the second stage—
One can Italian tomatoes, 1 can Italian tomato paste, 1-8 cup olive oil, 1 medium onion, 1 teaspoon salt or more to taste, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, a lot of freshly grated Parmesan cheese, 1 pound spaghetti.

In large pan, heat olive oil to boiling point. Add meat balls and fry until brown in oil. Then return meat balls, add Italian tomatoes, Italian paste, seasoning and one quart water. Simmer for about two hours.

News of FOOD Specials

Plunge spaghetti into rapidly boiling salted water. Cook for from 12 to 15 minutes. Drain, place on a large hot platter and sprinkle with lots of grated Parmesan cheese. Serve meat balls and sauce in separate dish.

Pommes de Terre Savoyards
Cut potatoes in very thin slices. Butter a fireproof dish, put in a layer of potatoes, salt, pepper, and nutmeg, a sprinkling of grated cheese, more potatoes, and so on until the dish is full. Fill the dish with meat stock.

Boil for 6 or 7 minutes on the top of the stove; if the stock disappears add a little more, then finish, with a few pieces of butter here and there, in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.). When the stock has been absorbed the potatoes are ready and the top is pleasantly browned. Test the potatoes with a sharp knife.

cover with stock. Simmer until potatoes are tender, about three-quarters of an hour.

Then press through colander until every bit has gone through. Add milk, salt and pepper and heat thoroughly. Just before serving, add butter and parsley. Stir well.

Squash Cooked in Butter
(Serves four to six)
Two pounds crook neck or Italian (Zucchini) squash, 2 tablespoons butter, 1/2 teaspoon salt, pepper.

Wash and scrape squash, cut into pieces, discarding seeds. Melt butter, add squash and salt. Cover and steam until tender, stirring occasionally. Add a little water, if necessary. Sprinkle with pepper and serve.

Potato Soup
(Serves six to eight)
Ten potatoes, 3 onions, 1 1/2 quarts vegetable or meat stock, 2 cups whole milk, 1 1/2 tablespoons butter, 1 1/2 teaspoons finely chopped parsley, salt and pepper.

Wash and peel potatoes. Cut into cubes. Place in large kettle with sliced onions, a little salt and

McMILLAN NEWS

CHURCH EVENTS
McMillan, Mich.—Divine services will be conducted in the local Methodist Episcopal church Sunday, Oct. 23 at 10:00 a. m. with the Rev. Philip Carpenter, pastor of the McMillan circuit, officiating. Sunday school will follow the services.

Prayer Meeting
Weekly prayer meeting and Bible study for members of the M. E. congregation are held each Wednesday afternoon in the Methodist Episcopal church. All are welcome to attend.

M. E. Aid Hostesses
Mrs. Elva Shady, Mrs. Andrew Kearny and Mrs. Emerson Smith were hostesses to members of the Methodist Aid society at a regular meeting held in the township hall on Thursday evening. Following the business session a social hour was enjoyed after which dainty refreshments were served.

Boys Club To Be Organized
William V. Acker, superintendent of the local school, Albert J. Mainville, supervisor of Columbus township and Harry J. Skinner met with Rev. Carpenter in the parsonage on Monday evening for the purpose of discussing plans for the organization of a boys' club. Glenn Koontz has accepted an invitation to act as leader.

Rural Child Health Meeting
A regular meeting of the Rural Child Health Association was held in the Pentland township hall on Tuesday afternoon with president Mrs. George Reat of Lakefield presiding. 21 members were present. After the close of the business session the following program prepared for the occasion by the Pentland township ladies was much enjoyed.

Song—Ginger Up.
Song—A Smile.
Dr. C. D. Hart of Newberry, medical supervisor of the Tri-County District department of health gave an instructive talk on whooping cough and measles. A brief but interesting talk by Miss Bertha Swanson, county nurse, and an article on Red Cross and its activities, read by Mrs. Sutte of Pentland township were well received.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program. The next regular meeting will be held in the Columbus township hall at McMillan on Tuesday afternoon, November 1. McMILLAN members will be in charge of the lunch and program. Local members present at the meeting were Mrs. H. J. Skinner, Mrs. Sarah Locke, Mrs. Frank Kirby, Mrs. Helma Anderson and Mrs. Floyd Tucker.

Evening Party
Miss Doris Tanner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Tanner was the guest of honor at a party held in the township hall on Tuesday evening. The occasion being her 16th birthday anniversary. Eighteen of her friends were present and enjoyed an evening of dancing and games.

A large birthday cake iced in white with lighted candles of pink and white and tall tapers of the same shades formed the centerpiece of an attractively decorated table for the birthday lunch which was served by Mrs. Tanner, assisted by Mrs. A. Karney. Miss Doris received a number of pretty gifts, remembrances of the birthday anniversary. Her guests were: Minnie Tucker, Stanley Generous, Eugene Viland, Luella and Jay D. Tanner, William Mainville, Leone Pries, Junior Stone, Ida Kiser, Virginia Dashner, Janet Smith, Dale Mainville, Dorothy Johnson, Florence Rushton, Vernon Generous, Laverne McInnis and Wayne Smathers.

Briefs
Mr. and Mrs. Casimer Bishop, who have been the guests of relatives Mr. and Mrs. Donald McInnis the past several days left Monday for their home in Detroit.

Dr. C. D. Hart and Dr. M. Surrall of Newberry were professional callers in town Monday.

H. J. Skinner transacted business in Blaney Monday.

Edison Locke and William McGarey were McMILLAN visitors in Manistique Monday.

Alfred Florence and son Alger of Munising were Sunday guests

Everybody's Cook Book
Another especially valuable feature of EVERYBODY'S COOK BOOK is the fact that the recipes are practically all measured for small family units of from four to six. The cook does not have to reduce the quantities so that the dish produced will fit her family. Young housewives, in particular, will find this helpful. This practical cook book contains 300 recipes; 64 pages fully indexed, with a heavy durable cover; special sections on laying the table, rules for smart service, marketing advice, time-tables for cooking and baking—the last word in scientific culinary aids. Order your copy today. Fifteen cents postpaid.

at the home of the former's daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smathers.

Vaughn Rupert has returned to Detroit following an extended stay here at Emerson Smith home.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman McKinney and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sedden of Detroit greeted old friends in town Sunday. Mrs. McKinney and son Edward Sedden are well known in the community, having resided here a number of years at the home of Mrs. McKinney's daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Wager Clunias.

Mrs. Dave Taylor of Newberry spent Friday with relatives Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hoig and family.

Mrs. Harry Smathers, Mrs. A. J. Mainville and Mrs. Jay Tanner were McMILLAN visitors in Lakefield. Germtask and Curtis on Tuesday soliciting vegetables to be used for hot lunches which will be served in the Lincoln school. A number of students from Lakefield, Germtask and Curtis are attending school here.

Mrs. Elva Shady and son Floyd visited with relatives Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Shady at their home in Newberry Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Booth and Mrs. Edward Goeller returned to their homes in Rochester, New York, Friday, after spending two weeks here as the guests of friends Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. Johns of Sault Ste. Marie was Sunday guests at the Andrew Karney home.

Messrs Lester Smart and Alwyn Osborne of Sault Ste. Marie visited in town Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Smathers.

Mrs. Bert Koontz is confined to her home suffering from a badly sprained ankle. The accident occurred Monday when she fell from the rear porch of her home. She was given medical attention in Newberry and will be laid up for several weeks, being able to be about only with the aid of crutches.

Charles Barber returned to his home in Pontiac after spending the past two months here with relatives Mr. and Mrs. George Reat.

The Richard Carroll home was quarantined the fore part of this week because of measles. It is the only case reported here so far.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Skinner and daughter Miss Lois, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Smith and Miss Florence Rushton motored to Marquette Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith and Miss Hilma Wallstead visited with Newberry relatives Tuesday evening.

Word was received here by friends Mr. and Mrs. Stone, that John Ward Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Collins, formerly of McMILLAN now residing in Neenah, submitted to a major operation at the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn. recently. Local friends will be pleased to learn that master John Ward is recovering nicely.

Rice With Herbs
(Serves 4 to 6)
Three-quarter cup rice, 2 tablespoons olive oil, 1 tablespoon finely chopped onion, 1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley, 1 teaspoon finely chopped chives, 1-4 teaspoon dry sweet marjoram, 1-4 teaspoon dry thyme, 1 teaspoon salt (one garlic clove may be crushed with the salt), 3 cups chicken broth or water.

The rice should be soaked for several hours. Use a heavy pot with a tight cover. Heat the olive oil, add the onion, and stir constantly until a golden brown. Add the rice and cook until a very light brown. Add the herbs, salt and liquid. Cover and cook until tender and the liquid is absorbed.

Harvest Salad Loaf
2 tablespoons granulated gelatin
1-2 cup cold water
1-2 cups tomato juice
1 bay leaf
4 celery leaves
2 whole cloves
1 onion slice
1 cup boiling water
1-2 teaspoon granulated sugar
1-2 cup cooked peas
1-2 cup diced celery

Let the tomato juice, seasonings, boiling water, salt and sugar simmer for 30 minutes in a covered pan. Strain. Reheat and add to gelatin which has soaked for five minutes in cold water. Stir until gelatin has dissolved. Pour a one-inch layer into a shallow pan. Chill until slightly set. Add peas and celery and chill until firm. Cover with remaining gelatin. Chill. Unmold on criss or lettuce and top with dressing.

Peach Refrigerator Dessert
1-2 cup butter
1-2 cups confectioner's sugar
2 eggs, beaten

1 teaspoon vanilla
1-2 teaspoon lemon extract
1-8 teaspoon salt
1-2 cups peaches
8 slices sponge cake
Ladle a mold with half the sponge cake slices. Cream butter and sugar until soft. Add eggs and extracts and beat two minutes. Add salt and peaches (fresh or canned) and pour half of this mixture over the sponge cake. Top with rest of cake and cover with remaining peach mixture. Chill for 24 hours. Unmold carefully. Add whipped cream.

Missionary Will Begin Visits At Garden Church

The Rev. Percy V. Dawe, conference missionary, will conduct a friendly visitation campaign in the five congregational churches in Delta county, located in Rapid River, Fayette, Isabella, Garden and Cooks, beginning Sunday, October 23, with a visit to the Garden church.

A special meeting of young people of the parish at 4:30 o'clock will be followed by a basket supper at 5:30 o'clock, those attending providing their own lunches, while the entertaining church will serve coffee.

Rev. A. J. Parker, minister of the parish, will preside at a united service of the five churches at 7:30 o'clock, at which Rev. Mr. Dawe will give the address. Special music will be given by the choirs of the churches.

A cordial invitation is extended to everyone interested to attend the special meetings.

Eastern Stars To Attend "Friends' Night" Meeting

Eastern Stars of R. C. Hatheway Chapter, Number 49, are invited to attend a "friends' night" meeting of the Marinette Chapter, which will be held this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock, in the Masonic Temple at Marinette.

Officers of the neighboring Michigan Chapters will conduct the initiatory work at the meeting.

R. C. Hatheway Chapter officers participating include June Clark, Worthy Matron, who will be Electa; Leona Olson, Associate Matron, who will be Eather; and C. Arthur Anderson, Worthy Patron, who will be Associate Patron.

Dressy Details Give Shirtwaist Frock New Charm

BY MARIAN MARTIN

PATTERN 9828

Flattery—it's here just as every up-to-the-minute girl wants it in a dressy shirtwaist frock, with the latest silhouette of bloused bodice a-top a slim, graceful skirt! And wouldn't you guess that this alluring new creation is Marian Martin's, since the few seams promise an easy dressmaking job? See how comfortable the pretty skirt is with its single pleat, and how cleverly the bodice back laps over to look like little yokes. Note too that you may have long cozy bishop sleeves or brief puffed ones. You'll love a contrasting waist (or a laced girldie) with matching buttons of the bodice-closing in a new accent shade!

Pattern 9828 may be ordered only in misses' sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, and 20. Size 16 requires 2 7/8 yards 54 inch fabric and 1/2 yard contrast.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins for EACH MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, and STYLE NUMBER.

Send TODAY for the Fall-Winter MARIAN MARTIN PATTERN BOOK! Its fascinating pages show you the way to smartness and style, with dozens of new patterns that answer all your wardrobe needs. Tailored styles for everyday! "Glamour" fashions for parties! Cozy tops for school, college and the holidays! Blousing chic for the matron! At-home frocks, winter sportswear, hosiery—and plenty of gift suggestions reminding you that the holiday season is not far off! Order your copy at once. PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. Compact Refreshment Case Football addicts know it is important to have something hot to refresh the inner man (or woman) as the chill of late afternoon creeps into the bones, even if the home team is charging down to victory. A compact case, with room for two-quart-size vacuum bottles, four cups and a sandwich box, stows the welcome pickup neatly. Finished in simulated pigskin, it's right smart looking, too.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Margaret Fax Is Bride

Mrs. Emmett Hoge, Jr. of Knoxville, Tennessee, who before her marriage on October 14, was Margaret Ethel Fax. The bride, a member of a well known Escanaba family, is the daughter of Walter Joseph Fax of this city. (W. W. Wilson Photo)

Interesting to many residents of Escanaba, the former home of the bride, is the marriage of Miss Margaret Ethel Fax of Knoxville, Tenn., daughter of Walter Fax of this city, and Emmett Hoge, Jr., of Knoxville, which took place on Friday, October 14, in Knoxville.

The simple ceremony attended by close friends and relatives, was performed at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry White, Jr., Dr. Clifford Barbour reading the marriage vows before an improvised altar in the living room, banked with pine and hemlock greens intermingled with white chrysanthemums, with tall wrought iron standards containing white tapers at either side of the fireplace mantel.

The bride wore a Barnett ensemble of King's red with gray caracul yoke extending to the front of the short fitted jacket.

A reception at the White home followed the ceremony. The bridal table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake and an arrangement of green tapers in silver candelabra.

Home in Knoxville
Mr. and Mrs. Hoge, who are in New Orleans, for their honeymoon, will make their home in Knoxville at 2820 Kingston Pike.

The bride, who attended Rockford college, is a graduate of the University of Michigan and is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Hoge, son of Mrs. Emmett Hoge, the late Mr. Hoge of Mount Pleasant, Tenn., is a graduate of the University of Tennessee and a member of Sigma Nu fraternity, and is associated with the Mutual Life Insurance company.

DeMolays Guests At Party Tonight

DeMolays of Delta Chapter will be guests of the Gladstone Order of Job's Daughters at a party in Gladstone this evening. All DeMolays planning to attend are asked to be at the Masonic Temple promptly at 7:15 o'clock.

Arrangements are being completed for the Chapter's Halloween dance which will be held Friday evening, October 28, at the Masonic Temple, with dancing from nine to one o'clock.

At the October 26 meeting, initiation of five members will be held, and arrangements started for the Chapter's annual winter dance.

Church Events

Christian Science Churches "Probation after Death" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, October 23.

The Golden Text (Ecc. 12:14) is: "God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil."

Among the Bible citations is the passage (John 5:24): "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 410): "This is life eternal; says Jesus,—as, not shall be; and then he defines everlasting life as a present knowledge of his Father and of himself,—the knowledge of Love, Truth, and Life."

GRIPPED BY MISERY OF A SORE THROAT!
(DUE TO A COLD)

Do This NOW—soothe it with direct treatment. Melt a small lump of Vicks VapoRub on the tongue. Feel the comforting VapoRub flow down—bringing irritated membranes—bringing blessed relief—others you want it—when you want it.

Then TONIGHT—massage throat, chest and back with VapoRub. Its positive-vapor action loosens phlegm—clears air-passages—eases coughing—relieves local congestion.

This 3-STEP METHOD is one of the proved ways of using VapoRub by in more homes than all other medications of its kind.

CLUB PLEDGE MADE PUBLIC

Over 250 Members Now In Safe Riders' Club

Over 250 members are now enrolled in the Safe Riders' club of Gladstone high school which is being sponsored among bicycle riders by the Lions club. It is learned from Russell Skellenger, directly in charge.

Members sign a pledge to observe a code of safety regulations and all maintaining a perfect record for thirty days are awarded an honorary membership button.

The pledge:

I PLEDGE
Not to ride my bicycle at night unless it is equipped with a rear reflector;

To observe all safety laws, viz., stopping at arterials and keeping to the right on city streets and rural highways;

Not to carry anyone on my bicycle or coast along with trucks or other vehicles;

Not to make turns or "cut-overs" between intersections and to give the proper signal before turning;

Not to ride more than two abreast on bicycles.

To obey the above rules and others which may be prescribed by law, ordinances or this club from time to time.

Taylor's Colic Won Fillmore Presidency

SIXTEEN months after "Old Rough and Ready" Zachary Taylor took the presidential oath in 1849, he died of bilious colic, so ambitious Millard Fillmore succeeded him in the highest office in the land.

A Buffalo, N. Y., lawyer, a congressman and a Whig, Taylor had sought the presidential nomination of his party in 1844, but it went instead to Henry Clay. The same year he ran for governor of New York and lost that contest also. He became comptroller of New York state in 1847, and the following year was nominated for the vice presidency by the Whigs on the ticket with Taylor.

Hardly had he succeeded Taylor when Congress passed the famous compromise measures of 1850 and the fugitive slave law. Fillmore supported these and thereby alienated many of his extreme northern members of his party. The other chief event of his administration was the establishment of diplomatic relations with Japan.

In 1852 Fillmore was a prominent presidential candidate before the national convention of the Whigs, and in 1856 he was again a candidate for the high office on the ticket of the Know-Nothing or American party, but he carried only one state, Maryland. He died at Buffalo, March 8, 1874, at the age of 74. He is shown here on a stamp of the new U. S. regular series, enlarged.

The Capital PARADE

By Alsop and Kintner

BY ALSOP AND KINTNER
Copyright, 1938, by the North Amer. Newspaper Alliance, Inc. New York, Oct. 20.—When the President swallowed his pride to ask Herbert H. Lehman to run again for governor of New York, he was exceedingly shrewd. He not only excluded from the senate an independent conservative Democrat capable of making twice Carter Glass's trouble. He may also have killed in infancy a new Republican party, very different from the shambling, bumbling fall guy which he has always found such an easy mark.

About a month ago, Kenneth Simpson and his Junta of Republican young turks asked a national sentiment-testing service to poll New York state to learn whether Tom Dewey or Senator Robert F. Wagner would be stronger in a race for the governorship. The youthful racket-buster came out an odds-on favorite, with more than 60 per cent of the votes. Poor Simpson and his friends, expecting Lehman to run for the senate, thought Wagner the most dangerous possible opposition candidate. Now they know they were wrong.

Scratching for Funds
Lehman's acceptance of the gubernatorial nomination has knocked the props from under most of Dewey's issues. As he was the man who appointed Dewey, Dewey can scarcely attack him for lax law enforcement. Worse still, having been an excellent and very careful administrator, Lehman appeals to precisely the moderate-conservative element which should be the backbone of the Dewey strength. A low but often effective test of a candidacy's vitality is the willingness of the fat cats to use their checkbooks. And where the Dewey forces would have been showered with money to beat anyone but Lehman, they are now picking and scratching for the most trifling sums.

In fact, at this writing, the betting is very heavily on Lehman. Postmaster General James A. Farley, manager of the Democratic forces, is more optimistic than ever in his private forecasting. And although the Republicans insist that Dewey's chances are better than they seem, the insistence has an air of whistling in the wind.

An Intelligent Campaign
On Dewey's side, there are several things to remember. In the first place, he is the first Republican candidate in the recent memory of New York to start his campaign intelligently. Wisely advised by Simpson and the shrewd George Z. Medalle, he is avoiding all the tiresome old whistles about "regimentation" and "New Deal spending". Instead of trying to save the people from themselves—always an unpopular role—he is attempting to show that he can serve them better than Herbert Lehman.

Secondly, he is a Republican candidate who rouses real enthusiasm in the bosom of the man in the street. And third, the upstate organizations are ready to work for him as they have not worked for many a long year. His backers hope that he will come down to New York City with a majority of 600,000 and then lose the city by only 400,000 or 500,000. They may possibly be right, for Dewey, who was a perfectly unknown political quantity at his nomination, is really developing remarkable promise.

Four Potential Factors
On the other hand, with the normal Democratic majority plus the votes of the labor party, Dewey must convert around 500,000 voters to win. In this difficult operation, his backers calculate that he has four potential factors in his favor.

The first two are the possibility of a real Republican undertow in the country, and the possibility that gang-buster sentiment may be even stronger than it seems. Neither can be tested except by the result.

The third is more definite. Governor Lehman offended the Roman Catholic church by vetoing a bill for public support of Parochial school buses. The situation was not improved when he signed the bill in revised form, and then saw it thrown out in the state court of appeals with his brother, Judge Irving Lehman, participating in the decision. Special provision for a Parochial school bus bill has been made in the proposed new constitution, but Dewey is making an issue of the matter, indicating that the Parochial schools ought to get more than bus subsidies.

And the fourth is unpleasant, being anti-semitism. Dewey will have nothing to do with this personally, being a decent civilized man. Indeed, he has appointed Roger Straus, a leading New York Jew, to be one of his chief campaign managers. But there is no doubt that a certain subnormal element of Republicans will try to stir up anti-semitic feeling, and the factor cannot be ignored.

There are all sorts of other things to be considered, such as the stand of Mayor La Guardia, who hates Lehman and has given a half-commitment to support Dewey. But the foregoing gives a general picture of the campaign as it is developing. The pity of it is that the issues are not greater, and that at their first attempt the new Republicans, represented by Dewey and Simpson, don't have a better chance to show what they can accomplish.

Supplementing the old slogan "Take Your Car Abroad" is the new cry "Take Your Fold Boat to Europe," for collapsible boats are now the thing on the Danube in German Austria.

SERIAL STORY MURDER TO MUSIC

Copyright, 1938 NEA SERVICE, INC. BY NARD JONES

CAST OF CHARACTERS
MYRNA DOMBEY—heroine. Wife of the sensational swing band leader.
ROBERT TAIT—hero. Newspaper photographer—detective.
ANNE LESTER—Myrna's closest friend.
DANNIE FEELEY—officer assigned to investigate Ludden Dombey's murder.

Yesterday, Dombey is found badly in debt. Tait offers to buy out Macy's $1000 share in the band, but Macy refuses. Could it be that he wanted a club over Myrna?

Had not The Swingsters been in such a precarious spot, Tait would willingly have paid Leonard Macy $5000 for his interest. But at the moment it was an impossibility; and he had the added feeling that, even if Macy were offered that amount, he would refuse.

Tait wished that he knew more about the circumstances under which the share had been purchased. But the only man who had that information was Harris Rogers, and Tait had no desire to encounter him now.

It was a disconsolate and bewildered Bob Tait who returned to his own room from Leonard Macy's luxurious apartment, as he opened the door, he heard his telephone ringing furiously. Tait hurried to take it up.

"Robert Tait?" He did not recognize the voice.

"Yes, this is Tait."

"I have some interesting information about the Ludden Dombey murder."

Tait hesitated. "Why don't you notify Feeley down at police headquarters?"

"I can't do that, for reasons I don't want to explain over the telephone."

"Then come up here. I'll be glad to see you."

"I can't do that, either. If you want to hear what I have to say, you'll have to come to my address."

It sounded like a trick, and Tait was instantly aware of it. Yet he couldn't afford to pass up any bet. "All right," he said, "let me have your address. I'll come right over."

The man gave an address which Tait recognized as on the very edge of town, in a district once a factory area. "Are you sure of that address?" he asked. "I didn't know there were any residences there."

An unpleasant laugh answered him. "I can't be choosy about where I live. I've got a room on the top floor of what used to be a raincoat factory. Don't come unless you want to. It's all up to you."

"I'll be there."

He replaced the receiver, and stared at the wall. He kept thinking of Harris Rogers and his threat. Then he brushed the notion aside. Perhaps this was the very musician that Dannie Feeley had been hunting for days. It was certainly logical that George K. Weeks had retrogressed from that gray lodging house to the top floor of an abandoned raincoat factory.

Tait went to his bureau, took out a small revolver and slipped it into his pocket. Then he telephoned for a taxi, and went down to the curb to wait for it.

The address puzzled even the taxi driver. "Say, that's a new one on me, brother. Sure you got the right address?"

"I think so. Remember the old Millbay addition, where all those red factory buildings are?"

"Oh... yeah, I remember that. There ain't anything doing in that part of town now."

Tait grinned. "There may be tonight. Let's go."

The driver snapped down the metal flag and started the cab. "It's okay with me," he said.

It was a fairly long drive to the Millbay addition, but then began the more tedious job of finding the street and number which Tait had received over the telephone. Finally they found the street, a small dead-end affair. "Well," muttered the driver. "We can't go wrong on a dinky street like this."

"I hope you're right," said Tait. "Isn't that a light on the top floor of that building down there?"

The fellow I'm to see lives on the top floor of one of these old factory buildings."

"It's either a light or a reflection from the moon." The driver piloted toward the curb. "I'll take a look at the number on the door—if there is one. Twenty-seven Thirty, you said it was."

Before Tait could think to restrain him, the driver had jumped out of the car and into the night. He saw him cross the sidewalk, strike a match on the side of the doorway. The match flared for a scant moment, then went out. Suddenly Tait heard a yell and the sound of a body falling hard to the pavement.

He yanked his revolver from his pocket and started across the sidewalk. As he neared the building he caught the scent of a faint perfume, hauntingly familiar.

"Where are you?" he called to the driver.

There was a groan almost at his feet. Before kneeling down, Tait tried to peer into the darkness of the street. "What's wrong? What happened?"

"Somebody—somebody took a whack at me with a knife," the driver gasped. "It—it came out of that doorway. I—I saw the flash of it just as I struck the match."

Squatted down beside the wounded man, Tait turned warily on his feet. Gradually his eyes became accustomed to the darkness. He was literally afraid to move, but now he began to see the outlines of the doorway. It was empty. He had seen no one go up or down the street, and they must certainly have gone through that door.

He got up, approached it gingerly. Swiftly he kicked it open with one foot and sprang back, his weapon ready. Nothing opened to his gaze but a dimly-lit stairway. "Listen," Tait turned to the luckless driver. "Are you badly hurt? If I get you to the car can you stand it a while?"

"I think it's my shoulder and arm—but you ain't going in there are you?"

"I want to take a look up the stairway. I'll just be a minute—and then I'll drive you to a hospital pronto."

"You go up that stairway and I'll never get to a hospital, and neither will you. It'll be the morgue."

Tait got one of the man's arms around his shoulders. "Come on. I'll get you onto the back seat of the cab where you can take it easy."

Against the taxi man's feeble protests, Tait managed to get him into the cab. A hurried examination showed that there were two knife slashes, neither very deep. But there was no mistaking that the assailant had meant business. The sudden striking of the match practically in his face, had probably "Stay back against the cushion; I won't be a minute." Tait went to the doorway again. The stairway was still clear. He could see to the first landing, and a little beyond. But he could not determine the position of the dim light.

Stealthily, his gun ready, he started up the stair. Again, and stronger now, he caught the odor of perfume. Suddenly he remembered that scent. It had been worn by the honey-colored blond who had walked out of the Claremont. He had almost collided with her the night he had gone into the apartment to see if Anne Lester had found Myrna. It was an odd scent, one that wouldn't be encountered often. What was it doing here, Bob Tait wondered as he took another cautious step upward.

MARINES PLAN BOOSTER GAME

Marinette-Menominee 11 Play at Manistique Sunday

The Manistique Marines have made final preparations for their return game with the Marinette-Menominee All-Stars, which will be played at the Arthur F. Hall athletic stadium here Sunday afternoon.

The Marines will be at full strength with the return to the lineup of Marks, Rubick and Rogers, who were unable to play against the Stachelers in their first game between the teams at Marinette recently. The Twin City team captured that game by a decisive margin, mainly because of a spectacular passing attack. Manistique, however, believes they have perfected a pass defense which was solved the problem.

The Marines' line has shown immense power this season, and no opponent has been able to gain consistently through the Manistique forward wall.

The Marinette-Menominee team has defeated to date such outstanding eleven as Fond du Lac Tigers, Manitowoc Gaels, Sturgeon Bay, and the Oshkosh Brewers, in addition to Manistique.

The Manistique squad is attempting to revive interest in semi-pro football in this territory, and is seeking the support of the sportsmen of the community. The local squad is composed of former high school and college stars, supplemented by talent from surrounding CCC camps.

Sunday's game will be in the nature of a booster attraction.

District Governor Will Visit Rotary Club Here Monday

L. W. Reynolds, of Ontonagon, district governor of the 143rd district, Rotary International, will make his official visit to the Manistique Rotary Club Monday, October 24. It has been announced.

Carl Olson was the principal speaker at the Rotary meeting this week, discussing the international service aspect of Rotary. He reviewed the objects of Rotary, its purposes and accomplishments.

Dr. Grafflin Will Speak At Meeting Of Lions Tuesday

Dr. Samuel Grafflin and Clifton M. Drury, associate state secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, will be guests at the meeting of the Manistique Lions Club next Tuesday evening at the Legion Cottage, it has been announced.

Dr. Grafflin will be the principal speaker of the evening. He is a noted lecturer whose address will be one of the high spots of the club season.

CITY BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson, Maple Avenue are the parents of a daughter, born Wednesday evening at the Shaw hospital.

Edward Foye has returned to Iron Mountain following a business visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Heinz have returned from a week's motor trip to Detroit and Chicago.

Salvation Army Plans Tag Day

Major Fritz Nelson and a group of Salvation Army workers will be in Manistique Saturday, October 22, weather permitting, to put on their annual tag day. In the evening an open air meeting will be held down town. In case of rain the tag day will be held October 29th.

SPRING IN THE FALL

Care—Spring may be apple blossom season, but nevertheless there is an apple tree near this city that was in full bloom in September. A 10-year-old Sweet Bough owned by Wesley Towns of Reese has produced this phenomena for a second year. It bore a heavy crop of apples in August.

Jim Harcourt's Death Recalls Feud at Seney

The death in lower Michigan recently of Jim Harcourt was the concluding chapter of a saga woven around the blood curdling days of two-listed, quick tempered lumbermen, when timber was in Michigan's upper peninsula.

No dime novel ever provided more blood and thunder than the feud which developed at Seney between Dan Dunn and the Harcourt brothers back in 1891, a feud as bitter as any that ever echoed through the Kentucky hills.

REPORT GIVEN OF CONVENTION

The three day convention of the Women's Union Auxiliary of Cincinnati was held in Manistique on October 19, 20 and 21.

A report of the first annual convention of the Women's Union Auxiliaries of American Federation of Labor was given at a recent meeting of the local Women's Union Auxiliary by Mrs. Frank Dahms.

The three day convention was held in Cincinnati with delegates representing two and one half million members of Women's Auxiliaries to National International and Railway Labor Unions.

The assembly was called to order by I. M. Osburn, Secretary-Treasurer of Union Label Trades Department of A. F. of L. and acting secretary of A. F. W. A. L. Matthew Wall, president of Union Label Trades Department was unable to attend but sent a message wishing the women success and congratulated them on the progress already made.

The Honorable James Stewart, mayor of Cincinnati, welcomed the assembly. A communication was received from the President of the United States which read "Please accept my sincere thanks for the kind invitation to attend the first national Union Label and Industrial Exhibition. I regret that I am unable to accept but I desire to send you hearty good wishes for the success of this undertaking. I have long been convinced that the consumer wields a great power, which if consciously used to support fair labor standards, would be of great benefit to workers and to those employers who cooperate in the maintenance of such standards. I trust that the Union Label Exhibition and the work of Women's Auxiliaries will help to make the public aware of the tremendous influence it can exercise through wisely directed buying power." Numerous messages were received from other noted persons.

Twenty States were represented at this first convention. Mrs. Dahms in her report stated, "The women of today are fast learning the principal of unions and what it does for them. It has so many possibilities that we cannot begin to pick out the best, but just keep on trying to increase the power and growth of Women's Auxiliaries of Labor and to help those women who have been kept

STOCKS HIGHER; DEALINGS SLOW

STOCK MARKET AVERAGES table with columns for Net change, High, Low, etc.

BY FREDERICK GARDNER New York, Oct. 20 (AP)—Traders took a little more notice of constructive business news today and a selective rally lifted leaders fractions to a point or more.

While dealings were comparatively slow in most departments, there was a heavy turnover in low-priced stocks and, near the finish, a flurry in the oils stepped up the volume considerably.

At that, transfers for the day of 1,616,190 shares contrasted with 2,433,890 yesterday when the trend was distinctly downward.

Steels, motors, coppers, utilities, rails, department stores and aircraft were accorded support, after a spotty performance in the forenoon, and closing prices were around the best of the session.

The Associated Press average of 60 issues regained .5 of a point, at 52.5, of the 3 of a point loss the day before.

Belated attention was given the replacement jump in the automobile field, as well as the reported reaching of price cuts in the retail sector.

Helpful also were reports of a substantial pickup in department store sales. Bank clearings took another step forward and freight loadings for the past week were estimated to have shot up more than seasonal to a new 1933 top.

The last minute run-up in the oils followed comments of Texas Railroad Commissioner Thompson, after a visit to Hyde Park, that the president favored regulation of refinery operations as well as production.

Prominent on the rebound were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler and Anaconda.

Propping sentiment was a revival in commodity prices. Wheat at Chicago advanced 5-8 to 1 1/4 cents a bushel and corn was up 1 to 1 1/4.

Cotton gained 60 to 85 cents a bale. Secondary bonds were in demand. Foreign securities markets were mixed.

Sterling and the French franc weakened as the rush for dollars abroad was resumed.

Another sharp increase in building awards, in addition to corporation reports for the third quarter disclosing a sizable reduction in net earnings in comparison with the second quarter, helped inspire recovery forces.

Electric Bond & Share provided most of the action on the curb with a 1/2-point gain. Others ahead included Niagara Hudson Power, Gulf Oil and Lake Shore.

Among scattered losers were American Cyanamid "B" and Babcock & Wilcox. Volume of 214,000 shares compared with 350,000 Wednesday.

Iron Mountain Brings Gridders, Band, Runners

CROSS COUNTRY RUN SCHEDULED

Mason's Crew Geared for Eskymos; Both Lost to Norway

Iron Mountain, Oct. 20.—Iron Mountain high school will invade Escanaba in a big way Saturday. With hopes of returning home with the scoreboard reading Iron Mountain 4, Escanaba 0, George T. Mason's mountaineer eleven Coach Bob Gullford's Gold and Black reserve squad, Coach Dick Chard's cross country team and Director Ray Whitinger's Iron Mountain high school band will "move in" on the town of Escanaba Saturday.

The Masonmen will tangle with Escanaba's powerful Carl Nordberg's powerful Escanaba team in the main bout. The mountaineer "Bee" squad will tangle with the Esky seconds in a certain rouser and Coach Chard's harriers will defend the upper peninsula cross country title during the half intermission. And while the cross country run is in full swing, the Iron Mountain high school band will be doing their best to outclass the Escanaba group.

Eskymos Powerful

However, the main attraction will be the grid battle between the Iron Mountain and Escanaba varsity crews. Though suffering their season's only defeat from the Norway Vikings, Coach Carl Nordberg's Eskymos are regarded as one of the outstanding teams in the peninsula. With two wins previous to the defeat by Norway, Escanaba has since chalked up a pair of victories by massive scores, defeating both Menominee and Soo by 34-0 counts.

Since Iron Mountain had a rather difficult time gaining a 13-6 decision over Menominee, Escanaba is favored to hand the Masonmen their third setback of the season. Co-Captain Charles Jedd, fullback, is the only Mountaineer on the injured list. A leg ailment from an injury of several weeks ago kept Jedd out of drills last night. Otherwise the squad is in fairly good physical condition.

Mason is contemplating at least the change in the Gold and Black lineup. Ken Graefe, reserve halfback who revealed promising talent as a ball carrier in the Menominee game, will probably be seen at one of the halfback posts, in place of Co-Captain William Johnson.

Outlook Bright

The outlook brightened by the possibility of being represented by a squad of runners stronger than the crew that copped the state class B title last year, Coach Richard Chard and his Iron Mountain high school cross country team are looking forward to the annual upper peninsula meet at Escanaba, Saturday.

This year the Mountaineers, with three veterans back from the state title holders, will be out to score their fifth consecutive win in the upstate meet. Wearing the locals' colors in the chase between halves of the Iron Mountain-Escanaba football game will be Captain Orville Ostberg, Albert Olds and Fred Collick, all veterans of last year, and Kenneth Alquist, Richard Vicklund, John Schwei and Peter Payant.

The belief that the squad may be stronger than last year's is based on the try-out runs held last Friday. With Olds setting the pace, the first five of the seven runners mentioned, ran the hilly course along the slopes of Pine mountain in less than 11 minutes, which is unusually good time for the distance. Last year, six of the best efforts were clocked well over 11 minutes.

EAGLES QUINT MEETS

The Eagles basketball team will meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the Eagles hall. Manager Arnold Johnson said last night that all members who have been contacted should attend.

Minnesota (AP)—While his first team worked on running plays, Coach Bernie Bierman Thursday sent the Minnesota reserves through a long scrimmage against the freshmen at Detroit Tech.

Vikings Draw Pair Of Upper Peninsula Boys

BOB SHOCKLEY

JACK NYSTROM

The Vikings of Lawrence college at Appleton, Wis., have gone into the Upper Peninsula for two of their gridlers, Bob Shockley, reserve fullback, of Menominee, and Jack Nystrom, regular end, of Norway.

At present, the Lawrence crew, coached by Bernie Heselton, former Milwaukee East coach, is leading the Midwest conference race by virtue of victories over Coe college of Iowa and Carleton college of Minnesota.

Shockley, a sophomore who played under Coach Barney McCann at Menominee, recently was shifted to fullback where he has become a valuable reserve and is looked upon by Coach Heselton as being capable of becoming an important factor in Lawrence football. He has been turning in some fine blocking and looks good on defense. With a year's experience, he is expected to be a star.

Being classed a Viking is nothing new to Nystrom for the high school football team at Norway, where he prepved, also is known as the Vikings. At regular end, Nystrom has played 60 minutes in every game this year so far for Lawrence. He prepved under Coach Allan Ronberg, who this year has an unbeaten team. Nystrom, who weighs 170 pounds, is the son of a banker.

Quartet Of Upper Peninsula Boys On WSTC Frosh Team

Kalamazoo, Mich., October 20.—Four boys from around Escanaba are seeking positions on the Western State Teachers College frosh football team, which opens its season with Alma College yearlings and then meeting Detroit and Michigan State frosh in succession. They are Robert Ratayczak and Jack Strelitz, Menominee; Jack Eggertsen, Manistique, and Joe Cannon, Gladstone.

Between the four they have had eleven years of high school experience, with Eggertsen having had four years of high school play, along with experience in basketball and track.

Eggertsen, who seeks a tackle berth on the frosh squad, is 6 feet 11 inch in height and weighs 190. Also seeking a tackle spot is Strelitz with two years experience. He weighs 185 and is 6 feet tall. Strelitz is also a baseball star, having played this sport in high school, also.

Joe Cannon, after a guard job, had three years of high school football experience and also played basketball. He is 5 feet 8 inches tall and weighs 160.

Bob Ratayczak, Menominee, is after a backfield job at left half, a job he played in high school, along with some work at guard, for two years. He is a five sport man having participated in football, basketball, hockey, boxing and track.

From present indications all four of these lads will see plenty of action during the yearling football season when they will get a chance to show if they have the stuff that is needed to make the varsity squad in the coming years. Observers believe that the four UP freshmen have the stuff and that they will be found battling for varsity positions next year.

CRISLER'S MEN HEAD FOR EAST

Resurgent Wolverines Meet Yale In Big New Haven Bowl

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 20 (AP)—Michigan's resurgent football forces, back once more among the nation's gridiron leaders, headed eastward tonight for an inter-sectional clash Saturday with Yale.

The Wolverines, anything but downcast after their defeat last week by Minnesota, play the Elis in the big New Haven bowl in one of the day's outstanding clashes.

Thirty-six players, accompanied by the 125-piece student band and a few followers, were taken on the trip, the second in as many weeks. Added to the squad at the last minute were Hercules Renda and Bill Luther, halfbacks; Forrest Jordan and Dennis Kuhn, tackles, and Ernest Zielenksi, end.

The addition of Jordan and Kuhn will give Coach Herbert O. (Pritz) Crisler six tackles, but it appeared doubtful if Jordan, suffering from a charley horse, would see action. Trainers said yesterday he would not play.

Heikkinen Still Out Today's final workout here was the longest of the year, lasting approximately three hours, and Crisler had the squad review everything from placekicking to polishing plays.

He spent considerable time on a pass defense he thinks is necessary if Yale is to be kept from scoring and for a second day he had his best passers fling the ball to receivers in the secondary.

Except at right tackle and right guard, where injuries have taken their toll, the line-up probably will not differ from that of last week. Since the injury of Roland Savilla the right tackle spot has been filled by Bill Smith, a veteran. At right guard Frederic Olds may start instead of Ralph Heikkinen, idle for the past two days with a bad ankle.

Today Crisler had John Nicholson and Vincent Valek at ends, Capt. Fred Janke and Smith at tackles, John Brennan and Olds at guards, and Archie Kodros at center. In the backfield were Forest Evashevski at quarterback, Tom Harmon and Norman Purucker, halfbacks, and Ed Phillips, fullback.

The squad will spend Friday night at a preparatory school near New Haven.

Take Babe's Word, He's Through With Baseball

BY SID FEDER

New York, Oct. 20. (AP)—To all intents and purposes, Babe Ruth is through with baseball — and vice versa (at least for the time being).

You hear talk and rumors that the big fellow quit his coaching job with the Brooklyn Dodgers to land another spot, possibly a managerial berth in the American association. But right now you can take the Babe's word for it, he has no immediate prospects of a return to the game he pulled to million dollar heights, and which did the same for him.

"Not me," he said today. "There's nothing to those reports. All I'm interested in these days is hunting and fishing and maybe some more golf. I'm going to do all the things a young guy does to keep from growing old."

Of course, there's always the possibility that when the major and minor league meetings roll 'round, or when the spring arrives with its call to another diamond campaign, the Babe may heed the "call of the wild." Acting on the theory that where there's smoke there's fire, he might land in Milwaukee, as has been hinted, or in Montreal, where Rabbit Maranville was fired last year, or it is even conceivable the big leagues can find a spot for the Babe.

But when you talk to him as he gets ready for a trip into the woods with his rifle and his rod, you get the idea Ruth is holding nothing back.

"I've had some offers—sure," he explained. "But they were nothing I wanted. You know, I don't have to worry about where my next meal is coming from, so I can take what I want."

It was definite weeks ago that the Babe wouldn't be back with Brooklyn next year. He and Lippy Leo Durocher, the Dodgers' new manager, weren't exactly Damon and Pythias in one or two clubhouse sessions. So when Lippy Leo was apprised of his appointment to succeed "Bolling Bolly" Grimes (and most baseball men tell you this was long before Larry MacPhail was willing to admit it to the general public) the Babe knew he and the daffiness boys were parting company.

It was then he received an offer or two from the minors, offers he never had any intention of taking, because the Babe is definitely big time. At the moment, although he still is disappointed over his inability to get back into the game he loves, he's content to spend his time with the other sports he enjoys.

First off, he's planning a hunting-fishing trip to begin in the next couple of weeks. After that, he'll dust off the golf clubs he packed away when the Dodgers summoned him from retirement last summer and get back into the game he regards as No. 2 on the sports list. In that way, he'll always be in shape to answer anything that may turn up in a baseball way next spring.

PENINSULA BOYS DO GREAT WORK

Heikkinen and Kitti In Thick of Fight In Minnesota Game

Two Upper Peninsula athletes, Ralph Heikkinen of Ramsey and Walter Kitti of Hancock, playing on what is considered one of the finest Michigan football teams in glory, covered themselves with glory at Minneapolis Saturday in spite of the 7-6 Wolverine defeat.

Heikkinen, stocky guard who has been mentioned on Big Ten All Star teams, played a whale of a game and drew from Coach George Hauser, Minnesota's line coach, comment that he was the best lineman on the field that day.

Capt. Francis Tweddell of the Gophers also said the Finnish youth was the best lineman Michigan had. He stopped up the Gopher power attack with his submarining tactics and when he left the field with but a minute or so left before the end of the game he had a big gash across his nose and blood was streaming down his left leg.

Kitti, a soph back, got into the last five minutes of play and almost was the hero of the game. Here is what he did: caught Strong's pass on the 15 and ran to the 47, returned a punt 11 yards, caught a pass from Strong for four yards, caught another on the next play and lateraled to Kodros for a first down on the 40, and caught still another for a short gain on the last play of the game.

"The Michigan team," said Bernie Bierman after the game, "was as good as the Pittsburgh team of 1933 and 1934 and better than the Northwestern team which beat us in 1932. It's easily the best Michigan team I've looked at since starting coaching at Minnesota in 1932."

Minneapolis sport writers said the Michigan backfield is the greatest since the days of Willie Weston and rated Tom Harmon, Wolverine halfback, the greatest sophomore ever to play on the Minnesota field.

LITTLE GIANTS MEET 'STIQUE

Seek Victory In Return Game With Emerald Reserve Crew

Rock, Mich., Oct. 20.—Dissatisfied with their scoreless tie of last Saturday and determined to wipe it out with their fourth victory of the year, the Rock high school gridlers will meet the Manistique high school reserves in a return game here Saturday afternoon. The game is scheduled to start at 2 o'clock.

Last week, the two teams met at Manistique in a preliminary to the Manistique-St. Joseph game and battled to a scoreless tie. The locals felt, however, that they should have had a victory. Cliff Carlson, diminutive quarterback, returned a punt beautifully for 60 yards and a touchdown but the referee called the play back, saying that there had been an offside penalty.

Coach Clifford Buckmaster was not satisfied with the work of his charges in the game last Saturday and has been contemplating changes in practice this week. He is undecided at present as to his starting lineup and local fans may expect to find a changed team on the field. Buckmaster is looking for more drive and speed. He is experimenting with changing some of his linemen into backfield positions.

Lindsley of Escanaba and Trombly of Rock will work the game.

Former Michigan Star Tells About Yost 2-Man Line

New York, Oct. 20 (AP)—Belittling the novelty of football's much-debated five-man line, M. H. Pontius, former Michigan star, today told the combined luncheon of the Touchdown Club and Advertising Club of New York of the "two-man line" with which the Wolverines stopped the famous Minnesota shift.

The game was the last of the 1910 season, with both teams unbeaten. Minnesota, using the shift devised by Dr. Harry Williams, had overpowered all its rivals by bringing its linemen out of the huddle and up to the scrimmage line shoulder to shoulder. This maneuver gave the Gophers terrific drive, since they did not have to come to a full stop before the ball was snapped, as teams must do now.

But Michigan's Fliedling H. (Hurry-Up) Yost checked the Minnesota power. He dropped back his tackles, guards and center and left only the ends on the line until Minnesota shifted into position. Then the Michigan linemen moved the same way, the guards and center threw themselves lengthwise in the path of the Minnesota charge, and the tackles and ends went slicing in after the ball carrier. Michigan won 7-0.

The earth's only satellite is the moon which is about 238,000 miles away. Winter begins on Thursday, the 22nd of December. Devils, despite the 34-0 trouncing handed to the Crummen at Escanaba last Saturday.

Harry Kipke, Fritz Crisler's predecessor, watched the proceedings and then said he would give Michigan the odds, although he might be "prejudiced."

The first string Bulldogs kept their helmets off and refrained from contact during the afternoon. At dusk, the squad moved to Anthony Thompson field and worked on their own offensive plays for an hour under lights.

The second lineup of Zilly and Hoxton, ends, Seabury and Brooks, tackles, Dern and Burnan, guards, Willard, center, and Wooster, White-man, Anderson and McClelland, backs, took their turn against Michigan plays.

The Saturday game should give rise to conflicting emotions among members of the Yale coaching staff at the bowl with Jerry Ford, Ivan Williamson and Bill Renner, all Michigan footballers, the latter two former captains.

Michigan Grid WEEKEND BUSY

Dozen Games Scheduled; Central State Plays Normal Tonight

(By The Associated Press) The college football campaign in Michigan reaches the half-way mark this week-end with 12 battles scheduled for the state's teams over a three-day period.

The intensive program begins Friday night with three nocturnal frays billed. Two of the state's unbeaten teams, Central State Teachers and Michigan Normal, clash in the main game of the night at Mt. Pleasant. Each eleven has won four straight games and Central is well up among the nation's scoring leaders with 204 points to its credit in four victories. Central is the only state team that is unscathed on.

Albion, M. I. A. A. pacesetter, plays a non-league game at home against Adrian. The other night contest is between Ferris Institute and Assumption at Windsor. The loser of this game will drop into the Michigan Ontario collegiate conference basement.

Michigan State is the only member of the state's "Big Three" at home this week and the Spartans expect to play before an unscathed crowd of 27,000 against unbeaten Syracuse at East Lansing. Ranked among the east's mighty teams, Syracuse has a veteran lineup sparked by Wilmet Sidat-Singh, who forward passed the Orange to a thrilling victory over Cornell last Saturday.

Michigan travels eastward to renew relations with Yale. The schools last met in 1933. Detroit does not play until Sunday, meeting undefeated Villanova at Philadelphia.

Big Ten Briefs About Football

(By The Associated Press) Champaign (AP)—Another large dose of pass defense work was fed the Illinois squad Thursday as it went through its last heavy drill before meeting Northwestern here Saturday. Herbert Young, Millville, N. J., sophomore, continued to share right end duties with Bob Castelo.

Evanson (AP)—Lynn Waldorf's dissatisfaction with Northwestern's offensive work this week culminated Thursday in a pungent scolding. Fred Grefe, end, will not accompany the squad of 35 to Champaign for the Illinois game. He injured his back last week.

Chicago (AP)—Bob Wasem, letterman last year, was declared eligible Thursday and will start at end for the University of Chicago Saturday against Ohio State. Wasem, who has been working out with the first team while his examination papers were being graded, will do the Maroons punting.

Columbus (AP)—Liberal use of Ohio State substitutes against the University of Chicago Saturday was foreseen Thursday when Coach Francis Schmidt drilled three separate backfields on speedy offensive plays. Vic Marino, injured left guard, did not practice.

Iowa City (AP)—An ever-growing list of injuries threatened Thursday to force drastic changes in the University of Iowa football squad's lineup for the Colgate game here Saturday.

STATE EXPECTS AERIAL ATTACK

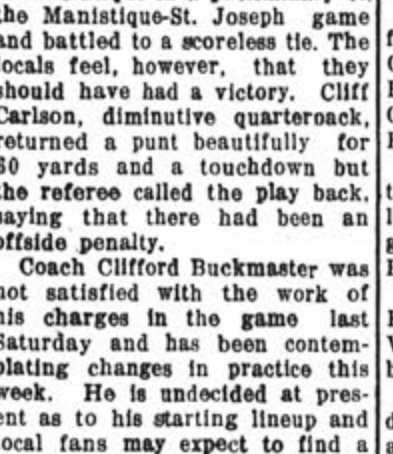

Alternates Developed for Johnny Pingel's Tossing Arm

East Lansing, Oct. 20 (AP)—Coach Charley Bachman shifted several players around in his hands today, looking for one who can meet Syracuse's rifling Sidat-Singh in an aerial football encounter here Saturday.

The head coach knew well that Coach Ossie Solem has some capable receivers in Harold (Babe) Ruth and Phil Alton, but that end of the Spartans' passing game did not bother him so much. First, he has C. Walter (Ole) Nelson, then there is Les Bruckner, the big Milan quarterback; Dave Diehl, a slower-but sure-footed end; and, in addition, several reserves who can catch 'em and keep 'em.

While banking heavily on the tossing arm of Johnny Pingel, the Mt. Clemens triple-threat ace, Bachman worked this week to develop some alternates for Pingel. Bruckner is good at the sending end of passes and so is Allen Diebold, veteran quarterback; but the loss of Gene Ciolek has been a severe blow in that branch of the game.

Art Harris, of Walled Lake, comes in for more and more attention when passes are needed and he seems to be more accurate than Pingel, if possible.

YOST

Poor old Fliedling (Hurry-up) Yost got an unmerciful ribbing from the Mpls sport scribes after Michigan lost the 7-0 victory . . . they recalled back in '26 that Michigan defeated the Gophers by the same score after Minnesota had pushed the Wolverines all over the field . . . Michigan's score came when Benny Oosterbaan grabbed up a Gopher fumble and scampered 55 yards for a touchdown . . . and Friedman kicked the extra point . . . after the game, Yost dropped the remark that Oosterbaan had been practicing picking up fumbles all week . . . Mpls writers never forgot that and last Saturday's game was a beautiful opportunity to throw it back at Yost and his "Moochegan" team.

Recently we received an interesting brochure from the publicity bureau of the Chicago Bears . . . it says Tuffy Ronzani was born at Iron Mountain March 28, 1909, is 5 feet 10 inches tall and weighs 191 pounds . . . he has a degree in law from Marquette where he won nine letters . . . he is married . . . the Parker game this year at Green Bay was the first Ronzani has missed since joining the Bears in 1933 . . . he played in 104 consecutive tilts . . . a veritable Iron Man . . . the brochure has got crack in it that we noticed . . . it says Del Bjork, big tackle from Oregon who visited in Gladstone in August, is single . . . Bjork is married and if he is as good a player as a judge of feminine pulchritude, he must be good!

Manistique To Play At Sault Saturday

Manistique, Mich.—Coach Frank Jehlie will take a squad of 20 football players to Sault Ste. Marie Saturday, when the Emeralds meet the Soo Blue Devils in their annual grid encounter.

The Manistique eleven branched into the victory column last Saturday for the first time this season when they defeated St. Joseph, 19 to 0. The only defeat suffered by the Emeralds, however, was at the hands of Escanaba. Three games resulted in ties.
