

NEW DEAL WANTS TO WIN MICHIGAN

ENGLAND SEES MUSSOLINI AS HANDY FRIEND

ANGLO-ITALIAN PACT MAY TAKE EFFECT NEXT MONTH

London, Oct. 26. (AP)—The British cabinet in a further step toward European appeasement was reported tonight to have agreed to put into operation soon the long-dormant Anglo-Italian pact arranged last Easter.

The cabinet was reported to have made this decision despite a warning by war-time Prime Minister David Lloyd George, who said that Britain as a result of the Munich pact was heading for "a war without friends."

Empire Has Problems Reliable sources said they understood the cabinet had decided the agreement sealing Prime Minister Chamberlain's friendship with Premier Mussolini would come into force between Nov. 15 and Nov. 30 after the new session of parliament, convening Nov. 1, has had time to debate it.

The cabinet took its stand in a wide review of the empire's problems, from Germany's sweeping colonial claims to English trade, at the very moment Lloyd George was flying Britain's treatment of the problems he himself helped create at Versailles.

The cabinet, which made no official announcement of decisions reached, also devoted much of its two-and-one-half hour session to new problems of defense of its great empire.

"Bad Peace" Criticized Lloyd George delivered his speech to the London Free Church Federation club at the City Temple. It was his first public comment on the Munich pact of Sept. 30. His month-long silence was a "bad peace," he said, "and a bad peace is no peace at all."

"We were not even ready to defend ourselves," he said, let alone rescue others. But is incompetence a justification for bad faith? "Instead of 58 nations, you wouldn't get two to follow us today."

"I tell you what we shall find. We shall have forfeited honor; we shall have lost the respect of the world and, what is still worse, we shall have lost our own self-respect."

"And in the end there will be no peace; there will be war, and war without friends."

Hitler Wants Tin Lloyd George did not mention the colonies which the Versailles Treaty stripped from Germany and which Chancellor Hitler now wants returned. Reliable sources said the cabinet did mention them however—and without enthusiasm.

Several ministers were under-

Dollar Bay 'Devil' Slaying Comes Up For Inquest Today

Houghton, Mich., Oct. 26 (AP)—Seven-year-old Norma Pichette, whose parents, Wilfred and Laura Pichette are held on a charge of murder, is one of four witnesses summoned to testify tomorrow at a coroner's inquest into the "power of God" death of Marian Doyle, 20-year-old housekeeper.

Sheriff's officers said the child watched while Miss Doyle was beaten with a flat iron and a poker in a "casting out the devil" ceremony in the Pichette home, and later helped her parents carry the body to an upstairs room, where it was found last Sunday.

The inquest will be held in the court of Justice Charles Rouleau in Hancock. Coroner David Osborne said that a jury consisting entirely of persons retired from their former occupations had been drawn.

Coroner Osborne said that the witnesses in addition to Norma Pichette would be Mrs. Mary Marcotte of Dollar Bay, mother of Mrs. Pichette, and Sheriff's Officers Ernest Kilgobell and Matt Verbanac, who arrested the couple.

Bought "Power of God" Pichette, who claims he "bought the power of God" from a Gypsy band for $2,000, continued mumbling, singing and talking unintelligibly in his cell at the county jail, attendants said. The jail officers said that neither Pichette nor his wife was violent or remorseful.

Prosecutor Frank C. Condon said today that he was continuing to "work on leads that may develop a motive for the crime other than religious fanaticism," despite Pichette's display of eccentricity at the arraignment yesterday. In court Pichette attempted to remove his shoes and socks and mumbled so loudly that he had to be quieted by deputies. Mrs. Pichette has upheld her husband's contention that he is vested with supernatural powers. They demanded an examination, which was set for Monday.

Funerary services were held this afternoon in the Finnish Apostolic Lutheran church of Hancock for Miss Doyle, who had worked for Pichette during a six-months separation from his wife.

MARTIN DODGES DIES TESTIMONY

Chief of UAW Will Not Appear; Fears Effect of 'Old Wounds'

Detroit, Oct. 26 (AP)—Homer Martin, president of the United Automobile Workers Union (UAW), who was to have testified Thursday before the Dies committee, today refused to testify because "industrial peace" would be imperiled if he "reopened old wounds."

Martin sent a telegram to Representative Dies (D-Tex.), committee chairman, stating he was "in the midst of delicate negotiations which are extremely important to the continued peaceful relations between labor and capital in the motor industry."

Martin intimated that the relations might be jeopardized if he appeared before the committee "which has unwittingly become embroiled in partisan political controversy by men who have not the truly American will for peace in our industrial democracy."

The union leader, in a radio address last night, said testimony before the committee was "designed to discredit Governor Murphy" and charged the committee's findings "have failed to accomplish any valuable service to any cause except reaction."

Two Indian Women Drowned With Baby

Wallaceburg, Ont., Oct. 26 (AP)—The river Snye was being dragged today for the bodies of an Indian woman and her two-months child, who lost their lives yesterday when the automobile in which they were riding plunged from a ferry boat enroute to the Walpole Island Indian reservation. Another woman also drowned but the body was recovered.

The dead are Mrs. Mira Greenburg, 33, Mrs. Kennedy Peters and Mrs. Peters' baby. Mrs. Greenburg's body was recovered. Fred Ermantinger, 77, former chief of the Chippewas, also was a passenger in the cab, but he swam to safety. The boat crew said the car broke through the heavy guard chains at the end of the boat.

40-FOOT FALL FATAL

Jackson, Mich., Oct. 26 (AP)—James Perry, 24, of Jackson, was killed today in a 40-foot fall when a tree from which he was trimming dead branches broke off at the base and toppled to the ground.

Flight of Army Planes Lands at Local Airport

A flight of nine pursuit planes from Selfridge Field, in the lower peninsula, landed at the Escanaba municipal airport yesterday noon on a training flight from their base. Major Willis R. Taylor of the Army air corps was in charge of the flight, which arrived about noon and took off at 2:30 o'clock after pilots had eaten lunch here. Attracted by the sight of the nine ships, flying in perfect formation in groups of three, hundreds of local people drove to the airport to inspect the planes during the noon hour.

TOY IS BACKER OF FITZGERALD

Defeated Candidate Will Support Ticket; Sees No Hope In Murphy

Lansing, Oct. 26 (AP)—Balancing ex-Governor Chase S. Osborn's partial defection to Democratic ranks, the Michigan Republican party today treasured an endorsement of its state ticket brought forward by Harry S. Toy, the defeated primary candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

Toy wrote Frank D. Fitzgerald, the successful primary candidate for that nomination, that Governor Murphy's attempt to attract the support of some 200,000 who voted for him in the primary was "purely a political maneuver and insinuates that Republican voters cannot determine what the real and vital issues of the campaign are."

Toy wrote "All of us who were critical of certain Republican party policies before the primary, have come to the decision that no matter how just our criticism may have seemed, we certainly do not see any remedy by following Governor Murphy and the Democratic machine."

"I had always believed that purely Republican party issues must give way to Republican unity and solidarity in the general election. When the rank and file speaks, all good Republicans must abide by their decision," Toy said.

Neckties Yanked, 75 Co-eds Kissed On Iowa's Campus

Iowa City, Iowa, Oct. 26 (AP)—Seventy five coeds were kissed in public on the campus and neckties of a similar number of male students were torn from the men's necks as a "kangaroo court" went into action today on the University of Iowa campus.

The court is the governing body on the campus during men's week at the university, being held in connection with the Dad's day observance this week end.

The girls were kissed by the eager men students when they overstepped bounds of an area marked out on the campus near the administration building. Neckties of the men were torn off because male students are prohibited from wearing ties to classes during the week.

Leaders of the court said some of the girls walked into the forbidden territory unknowingly. Others they suspect of walking in willingly. One member of the court said:

"One coed was in three times before we finally ran her out for keeps."

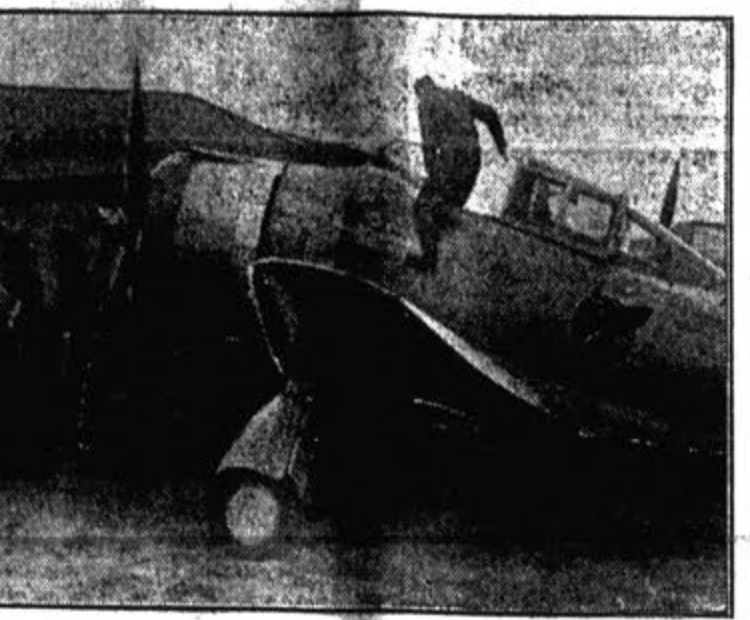

Bay City Factory Employment Gains

Bay City, Mich., Oct. 26 (AP)—The stepping up of automobile production has resulted in a sharp increase in the number of persons employed in automobile plants here, a survey showed today. At the Chevrolet small parts plant, a total of 1,800 are now employed, while at the Bay Manufacturing Co., local unit of the Electric Auto-Lite Co., more than 900 are employed. Both figures represent substantial increases in employment over summer months.

EIGHT COTTAGES BURNED

Crystal, Mich. (AP)—Fire Wednesday destroyed eight cottages owned by the Crystal Development company at nearby Crystal Lake. The fire, believed to have been caused by a carelessly thrown cigarette butt, was fought by the Crystal, Stanton, and Carson City fire departments.

Hankow Area Occupied By Japs; No Resistance

Infantry regiments halted opposite the Japanese consulate, which was a smoldering ruin. As successive Japanese destroyers, gunboats and mine sweepers passed, the Italian steamer Marco Polo ceremoniously dipped her colors. Accompanying the destroyers were scores of airplanes and motor-powered flatboats which played a vital part in repeatedly successful Japanese landings on the Yangtze river bank opposite Hankow—600 river miles.

KNIFE MURDER AT KALAMAZOO

Negro Boy, 17, Is Held After Death of Woman, 68

Kalamazoo, Oct. 26 (AP)—A 17 year old negro youth was held for questioning Wednesday night after Mrs. Josie Zeedyke 68, died of stab wounds suffered Wednesday afternoon at the home of her son, John, Kalamazoo juvenile agent.

Mrs. Zeedyke was found dying by her daughter, Clarissa Zeedyke, and neighbors after the daughter became alarmed when her mother failed to return home.

The daughter identified the negro boy as one who had been cleaning the basement of John Zeedyke's home. Miss Zeedyke told Police Chief R. W. Chapman the boy several times had asked Mrs. Zeedyke, who lived with her daughter next door to the son, to come over and inspect some of his work. She said her mother had complied with the request two or three times.

Miss Zeedyke said on her mother's last trip to the son's home she stayed so long that it alarmed her. The daughter then enlisted the aid of neighbors to gain entrance to the house.

Mrs. Zeedyke was found bleeding from deep cuts on the throat, wounds on the abdomen and a deep gash that had almost severed her arm. Nearby was found a kitchen knife, covered with blood. She died two hours later in Bronson hospital.

Three other negroes were brought in late Wednesday night for questioning in the case and held at police headquarters.

Pilots Are Changed In Midair Maneuver At Lancaster, Calif.

Lancaster, Calif., Oct. 26 (AP)—In two daring maneuvers, pilots were changed today in a light airplane attempting to establish a new endurance record of more than 136 hours in the air, non-stop.

Thomas H. Smith of Clarksburg, W. Va., who took the plane up at 1:25 p. m. last Sunday, became ill from fumes this morning, and his co-pilot, Clyde Schlieper of Long Beach, Calif., although ill himself, dropped a message to the ground crew, asking relief.

A parachute was attached to a rope dangling from the plane, and Schlieper hauled it in. At an altitude of 2,000 feet the groggy Smith went over the side of the plane and landed safely.

Harley Long, a Long Beach test pilot, later relieved Smith. He leapt from a truck, from which refueling operations are conducted, to a rope ladder Kehlper had lowered.

Kropstad Named Wage-Hour Chief

Detroit, Oct. 26 (AP)—Abner E. Luzzo, Michigan director of the National Emergency Council, announced today that George A. Kropstad, chairman of the state department of labor and industry, has been appointed temporary state administrator for the wage-hour law.

STATE RECORD OF DEMOCRAT REGIME BARED

NATIONAL POLICIES ARE COPIED AT LANSING

Lansing, Oct. 26 (AP)—John D. M. Hamilton, Republican national chairman, told Michigan Republicans gathered in a state-wide rally here tonight that their 1938 campaign to return former Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald to office reflected, in miniature, the national political picture.

Common denominators of the new deal in Washington and the "little new deal" in Lansing's state-house, he said in an address prepared for delivery at 8 p. m. (EST) have been:

- 1. Labor and strike policies that "promoted industrial discord" and "hurt business." 2. "Wild spending" and fiscal mismanagement, in part concealed by the "juggling" of bookkeeping systems.

Deficit Near $85,000,000 "I have not realized the similarity between the new deal in Washington and the new deal in Michigan until I read the Michigan Republican platform," he said. "But since they were fashioned from the same bolt of cloth I might have known they would be alike."

Hamilton's platform reference was to a plank in which the Republicans "deplore the fiscal mismanagement of our present (the Democratic state) administration."

The G.O.P. national chairman estimated that Michigan has a deficit ranging from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000.

Hamilton charged both national and state administrations had "retarded economic recovery and kept men and women out of work" through policies that led to "bitter and unnecessary industrial warfare."

Promoted Discord "Not only has the governor of your state (Governor Frank Murphy, Democratic candidate for re-election November 8) given encouragement to riots and lawlessness in disputes between employers and workers," the speaker said, "but the national administration in Washington has promoted industrial discord."

"They are the real enemies of labor unionism and the organized labor movement."

"In other parts of this country, as well as in Michigan, legislation which was enacted to safeguard the fundamental right of labor to organize and bargain collectively has been administered by the new dealers to encourage men seeking to destroy the American Federation of Labor. It has been administered to foment discord, not alone between employers and employees, but between worker and worker."

"In the industrial-labor struggle which has gone on during the past two years in this country, none has profited except men who were seeking personal and political power for themselves. Business has been hurt. Wage-earners have been denied the right to work. Respect for government and constituted authority has been lessened. Consumers generally have been inconvenienced."

"All of this has been unnecessary. All of this could have been prevented if the problems that exist between labor and industry had been approached with the intention of doing what is best for industry and the workers instead of what is best for politicians."

"It can be prevented in the future by amending the national law."

Train Kills Five Going To Church Near Windsor, Ont.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 26 (AP)—Five persons were killed and another was hurt seriously tonight when a Canadian national railway freight train struck their automobile at Stony Point, Ont., 26 miles east of here.

The dead: Mrs. Peter Touranger, 48; her son, Leo, 22, and daughter, Genevieve, 18; Arthur Masse, 83, and Mrs. Julia Goudin, 72, all of Stony Point.

Peter Touranger, 55, also of Stony Point, was brought to a hospital here and was said to be near death.

The party was going to a church service. Provincial police said the victims were strewn along the railroad track for 1,300 feet and they could not determine who was driving.

Italy and Germany To Arbitrate Czech Hungarian Disputes

Budapest, Oct. 26. (AP)—Czechoslovakia tonight accepted Hungary's proposal that Italy and Germany arbitrate their territorial dispute, and it appeared probable the two totalitarian states would finally decide the new Czechoslovak-Hungarian border.

There still were secondary differences between the stands of Prague and Budapest, however, which might keep them apart.

Acceptance of the principle of arbitration by Germany and Italy was contained in Czechoslovakia's latest proposals, received tonight in reply to proposals Hungary made Monday. The reply was considered as showing some progress which might form the basis for further peaceful negotiations.

A foreign office spokesman said among the still existing differences was Czechoslovakia's insistence that occupation of the pure Hungarian areas wait until Germany and Italy and possibly other arbitrators decide on the occupation procedure. The spokesman described this as "unacceptable" by Hungary.

The Hungarian government in its last proposals demanded a plebiscite be held in eight disputed districts, including four big towns where the Czechoslovak note suggested settlement by arbitration.

The Czechoslovak answer did not fulfill the Hungarian demand that a plebiscite be held in Slovakia and Ruthenia to decide whether they intended to remain with Czechoslovakia or to join Hungary.

The Czechoslovaks demanded, moreover, that further negotiations concern the Hungarian minority problems in Slovakia alone.

The Prague note further demanded that Rumania be added as arbitrator in the event Poland should be appointed to the arbitration committee.

Hungarian officials rejected this tonight, arguing that Czechoslovakia "must not bring in old little entente allies, but must deal with new friends instead."

GERMAN LINER CHEATS BLAZE

Deutschland Expected at New York Today; Passengers Calm

New York, Oct. 26 (AP)—The S. S. Deutschland's victory over fire—a new saga of the sea—was told today by officers and passengers as the German liner steamed toward New York.

After directing an eight and one-half hour fight to extinguish a discovered blaze which was discovered last night while the vessel was 200 miles off Cape Race, Nfld., Capt. Karl Stencke set his engine room telegraph at "full speed."

He reported he would dock at his Hudson river pier at 7 p. m. Friday, about ten hours late.

None of the 591 passengers or 392 members of the crew was injured in the desperate fight.

"There was no panic," Captain Stencke told the Associated Press by radio telephone. "Everybody was very quiet all the time. There was tranquility."

The stories of passengers bore him out, although for three hours, until the flames were brought under control, the Deutschland sent out a series of SOS messages which stopped radio traffic along the seaboard and started seven vessels at full speed to her aid.

Two of them, the S. S. American Traveler and the Norwegian whaler Europe, arrived at her side just as the last flame was smothered. Given the Deutschland's thanks, they went on their way.

Popular Front Man Is Elected In Chile

Santiago, Chile, Oct. 26 (AP)—Pedro Aguirre Cerda had the distinction today of being the first South American presidential candidate elected on a "popular front" ticket.

The millionaire farmer's victory over the conservative businessman candidate, Finance Minister Gustavo Ross, was conceded by the government.

MURPHY RULE IS DEFENDED BY PRESIDENT

GOVERNOR IS HINTED AS PRESIDENTIAL POSSIBILITY

Washington, Oct. 26 (AP)—President Roosevelt's vigorous defense of Governor Frank Murphy of Michigan against charges of "treasonable" conduct in handling the 1937 sit-down strike crisis created new factors for political speculation.

The president was not content with laying those charges to "disgruntled" Republicans and attacking the house committee on un-American activities headed by Rep. Martin Dies, Texas Democrat and a critic of many administration policies. Mr. Roosevelt's formal statement described the Murphy-Fitzgerald gubernatorial race in Michigan as "vitally important." And it associated the president directly with the procedure Murphy followed during the strike.

Prospect for 1940? "I received almost daily reports on the situation from the governor," the president's statement said.

Attention of political observers also was caught by the warmth with which the president described Murphy's success in meeting the situation "without loss of a single human life" as "a great achievement of a great American."

A description of the Michigan governor as "a profoundly religious, able and law-abiding" official also was noted.

The completeness of the presidential endorsement revived speculation as to whether Murphy, in the event of his re-election, might not rate consideration among the possible 1940 Democratic presidential nominees who could find administration favor.

In National Spotlight Throughout his Democratic primary campaigning, Mr. Roosevelt spoke neither in behalf of nor against any party colleague with the fervor he put into his statement endorsing Murphy's handling of the sit-down strike crisis. He even drew a parallel between the Michigan governor's action then and his own direct intervention in the recent European crisis to urge continued negotiations over the Sudeban problem.

"People may properly differ over the result of such negotiations but the fact remains that bloodshed was averted," the president said in justification of his own course and that of Governor Murphy.

That the president's action lifted the Michigan contest to a new high for national interest cannot be doubted. It provided Murphy with a defense more certain of catching national attention than anything he might have said for himself before the Dies committee. His place in national politics is necessarily accentuated by the fact that the president

BRAMBLE AGAIN HEADS GRANGES

Traverse City Chosen As Convention City for Next Year

Allegan, Mich., Oct. 26 (AP)—The Michigan state grange re-elected C. H. Bramble of East Lansing today to a fourth term as state master, but ran into difficulties in an attempt to determine the election of members of the executive committee.

Five candidates, Mrs. Mabel Madison of Hubbard Lake; Earl Brewster of Byron Center, and Stanley M. Powell of Ionia, retiring members of the committee, and Robert J. Sutton of Rudyard, and Probate Judge Irving J. Tucker of Allegan, all received simple majorities of the votes.

The executive committee was asked to determine whether a new vote should be taken or the four highest candidates be declared elected. The latter plan would eliminate Sutton.

The grange accepted the invitation of Traverse City to hold its 1939 convention there.

The election featured a day that was given over largely to discussion of resolutions in committees, which will submit their reports to the floor of the convention Friday morning.

Mrs. Maude E. Lovejoy of Perry, who has been secretary of the grange since 1924, was returned for another two-year term.

Jitterbugs To Pay Penalty In Broken Health, Says Doctor

Detroit, Oct. 26 (AP)—A sad future for the jitterbug was predicted today by Dr. Edward A. Ward of Saginaw, Mich.

The dancer who now trucks on down to the music of a swing band can look forward to nothing more pleasant than an old age of indigestion, weak feet, and a sluggish mind, he told the Michigan Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons today.

"The hysteria for swing music and the hopping, grinning dances that go with it," Dr. Ward predicted, "will pay its adherents with thick ankles, broken maladjusted feet and an exhausted nervous system unless they recognize its dangers."

"The Big Apple uses many different muscles, putting them to stress and strain for which, in most cases, they are not prepared. These dances are violent exercise and require as much training as tennis, basketball, swimming and golf."

"Americans follow a high-speed life of nervous tension under the best of conditions. This constant strain interferes with digestion and the operation of the heart, and has far-reaching effects on other organs. Further to dissipate our emotions needlessly seems senseless."

Ten Windsor Wives Late For Dinners; They Were In Jail

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 26 (AP)—Ten Windsor husbands had late dinners today as ten Windsor wives were jailed for frequenting an alleged handbook here.

Police raided the establishment shortly before dinner time and found the ten women listening avidly to broadcasts of race returns. Betting slips indicating the women had been placing wagers from 50 cents to two dollars also were found.

At police headquarters the women protested they should be allowed to go home at once to prepare dinner. After some delay they were released on $10 bail each. The woman proprietor of the establishment was released on $75 bail.

Singing Mouse Dies At Woodstock, Ill.

Woodstock, Ill., Oct. 26 (AP)—Minnie, the original singing mouse which started that wave of warbling rodents back in 1936—remember?—was dead today, probably of old age.

Fame and fan mail no end came to Minnie after her discovery in the basement of the Chicago Industrial school in December, 1936. Imitators were found in virtually every state, and England, not to be out-done, discovered a couple, too.

Michigan's Relief Load Drops Again

Lansing, Oct. 26 (AP)—A further decrease in Michigan's relief case load for the week ending October 21 was reported today by George F. Granger, acting state emergency relief administrator.

Granger said the total case load on that date was 64,434 cases compared to 65,164 the previous week. The October 21 figures were broken down thus: 51,000 on direct relief, 11,902 receiving aid to dependent children and 632 receiving aid to the blind.

The king also is understood to be considering a trip of several days into the United States.

Red Ink Rules

Hamilton said the "distinguishing trait" of a new dealer, whether in Washington or Lansing, appeared to be "great generosity with other people's money and an inability to keep expenses within income."

"Wild spending has been the rule," he declared. "For nine years the books of the United States treasury have been kept with red ink."

"In that period the new deal has spent more than forty billion dollars and more than seventeen billions have been borrowed. In addition to that, more than one billion dollars paid by the wage earner of this country into the social security fund is to be held in trust for them in their old age as well as spent in current extravagances and expenses. When the time comes to pay these old age pensions the money will have to be raised again—either by borrowing or through taxation of the people."

Hamilton asserted that book-keeping methods of federal agencies "help to conceal the true nature" of the government's financial status.

"The bookkeeping system is changed and juggled around to serve the convenience of the administration and political expediency generally," he said. "If you think the fiscal affairs of your state are tangled, you should examine the federal budget and daily treasury statements."

The national chairman shared the rostrum with Fitzgerald, who was scheduled to give a "major" campaign address.

VANDENBERG ANSWERS

Port Huron, Mich., Oct. 26 (AP)—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg (R-Mich.), commenting on President Roosevelt's denunciation of the Dies committee proceedings, called tonight for "an official verdict" on six "topics which warrant equal if not greater vigor of presidential condemnation."

Michigan's senior senator spoke on behalf of Frank D. Fitzgerald, former governor and Republican candidate for the office now held by his successor, Frank Murphy.

President Roosevelt's statement referring to the Dies committee also was an endorsement of Gov. Murphy who is seeking reelection.

"The president did the usual thing yesterday," Vandenberg said, "in issuing a long address complaining of the Dies committee and its 'partisan bias' in probing strikes and communism in Michigan at the moment when his candidate for governor is under election scrutiny."

"I could share his wish for more proof and fewer opinions but I am unable to grasp the 'partisan bias' when it is a distinguished Texas Democrat who is a member of the Democratic rules committee of the house who directs the inquiry which seems so profoundly to upset Democrats in Lansing (the Michigan capital) and Washington."

"I could also wish that the president's capacity for political indignation was not entirely limited to this one situation but, now that this new White House has been set, I respectfully suggest just a few additional typical topics which warrant equal if not greater vigor of presidential condemnation—least previous silence shall now unfortunately signify consent."

He then mentioned these: "1. A Kentucky Democratic primary in which he personally intervened in behalf of another of his favorites and which Democrats on a senate investigating committee bluntly said 'Should arouse the conscience of the nation' because it 'impairs the right of the people to a free and unpoluted ballot'."

"2. A Pennsylvania Democratic primary and election campaign in which a Democratic governor goes to the extreme of having a Democratic legislature try to stop a lawful grand jury investigation of alleged corruption and political vice."

"3. A graft hunt in New Mexico which turns up 73 prominent Democrats and indicts them in a federal court for prostituting

UNREST HELPS COPPER TRADE

Industry on Paying Basis Again, Says Official of Government

Washington, Oct. 26 (AP)—A well-informed government official said today European unrest had restored the American copper industry to a paying basis.

As a result of recent price rises, which he said were occasioned "solely by the foreign situation," the big copper mines of the western United States and Michigan now could be operated profitably.

He said he could see "absolutely no indication" that a slight rise in domestic demand had influenced prices, while there was "every indication" that unsettled conditions abroad had inspired a price increase.

The official asserted accelerated European armament programs already were reflected in United States exports. He cited commerce department figures showing the value of shipments abroad jumped from $7,472,392 in August to $8,027,716 in September.

"European requirements have become so great in recent weeks," he said, "that the countries have lifted all restrictions on domestic production of copper and are looking for additional supplies."

Mexico Sells Oil To Michigan Firm

Detroit, Oct. 26 (AP)—A Detroit oil operator announced today his company had entered into an agreement with the Republic of Mexico for purchase of all surplus Mexican oil.

The operator is Roy Fisher, president of the Argo Oil Corp., a Michigan company. Fisher returned yesterday from Mexico City, where he negotiated the agreement.

Fisher said approximately 200,000,000 gallons of oil will be brought to this country annually, processed in refineries here, and distributed through the Argo company.

Fisher said money paid to the Mexican oil commission will be spent in the United States for machinery to be used in expansion of Mexican refineries. Heretofore, he said, most of the Mexican oil has been sold to German interests.

CAMPAIGN COST $302

Washington, Oct. 26 (AP)—Representative Engel (R-Mich.), reported to the clerk of the house today he had spent $302 in his campaign for reelection and had received a $1,000 contribution from the Republican congressional committee.

WPA relief to partisan politics. "4. Two senate roll calls last June 3 and 4 when the Democratic majority, manhandled by his Democratic leader, defeated an effort by another brave Democratic senator specifically to penalize relief exploitation by a statute with teeth."

"5. The openly announced marriage of his election forces in New Jersey with a notorious vote-controlling machine."

"6. The official endorsement of his administration—and his Michigan proxies—by the Michigan party."

After listing his six points Vandenberg said: "I respectfully suggest that since the White House has now broken silence in respect to circumstances and episodes which arouse its condemnation and indignation that we be permitted to have an official verdict on some of these other matters which, to many of us, involve an equal challenge to the character of our American institutions."

Mayor Charles D. Rettle's introduction of Vandenberg as "the next president" brought a reiteration by the senator that "I am not a candidate for any office" then he added:

"I will let you in on what I think is a secret, x x x I have a strong hunch that if Tom Dewey, formerly of Owosso, Mich., is elected governor of New York, it is a cinch he will be the next president of the United States."

Dewey, who gained fame as New York City's prosecutor in his fight against racketeering, is the Republican candidate for governor of New York.

dent came to his defense. Margin Shrinks

Yet another scanning of the political history of Michigan would indicate that Mr. Roosevelt's definition of the gubernatorial contest there as "vitally important" might rest on other factors than the personalities of the party rivals. Due to the rallying of the Michigan labor vote to his 1932 candidacy, Mr. Roosevelt captured the state from sixty years of Republicanism by a 132,000 margin. Four years later he widened that majority to more than 300,000 and Murphy, drafted home from his Philippine commission-ship for the purpose, won the governorship, although by a margin of less than 50,000.

Whatever Murphy's place in the 1940 political lineup may be, Democratic retention of Michigan—the heart of the automobile and allied industries and a key area from the labor vote standpoint—is obviously a matter of high importance to the administration. Mr. Roosevelt's emphasis upon the significance to be attached to its 1938 political trend reflects that importance as well as his outspoken feeling that the procedure of the Dies committee in the Murphy case, as well as in others, was unfair and itself un-American.

Published reports of political scouts patrolling the Michigan front indicate a close race between Murphy and former Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald, Republican. Whether President Roosevelt's endorsement for Murphy will prove effective only election day figures can show. The outstanding fact politically, however, is that Mr. Roosevelt had placed the Michigan gubernatorial race of 1938 in a special class as to importance in the perpetuation of his New Deal hopes.

"PURGE" LOOSE AGAIN

Lansing, Mich., Oct. 26 (AP)—Frank D. Fitzgerald, Republican candidate for governor, accused President Roosevelt tonight of attempting to influence Michigan voters in their choice of a governor.

Fitzgerald, in a radio address, referred to the president's praise of Governor Murphy and his criticism of the Dies committee investigating un-American activities.

"The purge that stubbed its toe in California and fell flat in Maryland is on the loose again," Fitzgerald asserted. "This time Michigan is the intended victim. The New Deal forces which failed so miserably in other commonwealths are taking a last, desperate fling. They are attempting now to make Michigan an everlasting, blooming rubber stamp."

"The president of the United States is attempting to select a governor for us, x x x But we will not be dictated to. We are not rubber stamps, nor do we want our public officials to be rubber stamps."

Fitzgerald renewed his charge that the Communist party has endorsed Governor Murphy for reelection.

"It (the Communist party) has emphatically opposed my election," he said. The endorsement has not been repudiated by my opponent. The Communist party in Michigan, for the first time in years, has failed to put a ticket of its own in the field. Its full strength is behind Governor Murphy. It must be apparent to everyone that the Communists of this state like the kind of government they had here for the last 22 months."

He declared that Communists in Michigan "were permitted to walk their red paths x x x at will."

"It did not take a Dies committee to bring that home to the people," he continued. "What more conclusive proof of the type of government we have been enduring could there be than the refusal of the governor to order men who illegally occupied plants in Flint to evacuate—when the men themselves stated they were willing to come out peacefully and without bloodshed if the order were issued."

Ill Health Yields Easily to KruGon

Mrs. Herman Schultz Now Happy Over KruGon's Action After Twenty-Four Years of Suffering

"My only regret today is that I did not learn of KruGon twenty-four years ago," said Mrs. Herman Schultz, 322 14th St., Fairbault, Minnesota. "I had been a constant sufferer with stomach troubles due to a continual case of improper elimination. My system was clogged with impurities until I could not eat anything without sure suffering with gas and bloating that was almost more than I could endure. Really, soured milk was about the only thing that actually agreed with me. I would also have terrible nauseating spells too. I was beginning to feel I would never be well again . . . but that was before I had given KruGon the opportunity of helping me."

"By the time I had taken my first box of KruGon I knew I had found the one medicine I had been searching for," continued Mrs. Schultz. "My stomach and bowels were regulated easily and my system cleansed of its impurities in a natural and effective manner. I am no longer troubled with stomach distress, feel fine, like a different person and would not take anything for what KruGon has done for me. If anyone wishes further information about this commendable remedy, they may reach me at my home."

stood to have expressed misgivings over an unofficial outline of Germany's colonial claims received here, in which Germany asks return of her war-lost colonies or other compensating African territory.

Some objected that the compensating territory asked included Britain's tin-producing colony of Nigeria—one of the world's seven important sources of this vital armaments metal, which Germany lacks.

Discussion of the Anglo-Italian agreement was understood to have been easier than heretofore because the ministers apparently were convinced it will be a prelude to a more extensive withdrawal of troops from Spain's civil war, thus removing some of the war's menace to European peace.

There still, however, were many Tories who would have preferred to see a complete withdrawal of Italians from Spain before operation of the pact. Italy has taken out 12,000 men to date.

Sioux Tribe Makes Hartnett Big Chief

St. Francis, S. D., Oct. 26 (AP)—Chief Paul Grease placed a big eagle war bonnet on the head of Manager Gabby Hartnett of the Chicago Cubs baseball team today and made him a chief of the Sioux tribe in ceremonies at the St. Francis mission Indian school here.

Hartnett was given the name of Chief Brave Cub.

ALL TEAMS TRY FOR LONG GAINS

Fordham Success Proves Wisdom of Knute Rockne Formula

BY BILL BONI
New York, Oct. 26 (AP)—The long gainer, the precision play that was the ideal and the hallmark of the late Knute Rockne when his Notre Dame teams were riding the crest a decade and more ago, today is the goal of every major college football team and every major coaching system.

It has been a natural outgrowth of the increasing complexity of modern football, a development of the offense's constant effort to keep ahead of the defense, says Jim Crowley, one of Rock's greatest stars and smartest pupils.

"Ten and fifteen years ago most teams were content to plug along a few yards at a time," says Crowley, whose own unbeaten Fordham team will seek to end three years of scoreless ties with Pittsburgh in the Panthers' lair Saturday.

"The main idea was to make a hole in the line, shoot a back through it and, if he was lucky enough to get into the secondary, let him work things out for himself from there on."

"But not these days. One look at one play in any major game will show you that every man on the offensive team has a very definite assignment. If all those assignments are carried out properly, then each of the defensive players will be mouse-trapped, blocked out or disposed of in some way and a long-gainer is the result."

Fordham, in its two major games, has ripped off three such plays—Len Eshmont's scoring sprint from midfield in the 6-6 tie with Purdue, Pete Holovak's 80-yard gallop for the first of four touchdowns against Oregon last Saturday, and a 45-yard run by Eshmont in the same game that didn't figure in the scoring, but did help the Rams along to their impressive total of 1,557 yards gained rushing in four games.

FIGHTING PHIL HAS BIG FIGHT

Rahoi Silences Foe With Sock on the Button at Iron Mountain

Iron Mountain, Oct. 26 — "Fighting Phil" Rahoi, Dickinson county representative in the state legislature and nominee for reelection in November, made good his sobriquet at 10:30 o'clock this morning when, during an argument with Lawrence Paige, of Quinnesec — ardent anti-Rahoi campaigner — he struck Paige in the mouth and raised a lump on the latter's upper lip.

The argument began, as nearly as could be determined, when Rahoi, standing in front of the fire station on East Ludington street, directed a remark to Paige as he passed by. Since the stories of witnesses vary considerably, according to their preference, let the two principals tell it themselves — as both related it after the mixup.

Paige's Story

Following is Paige's story in part:

"I was walking east on Ludington street, towards the reemployment office, intending to re-register there, as I have done in the past. Rahoi was standing in front of the fire station, talking to several men. When I came up opposite him he said: 'There's the man that wrote the rottenest article I have ever read.'

"Rahoi was referring to my recent communication, concerning him, in the Iron Mountain News.

"We talked back and forth for a few minutes, and I walked on to the reemployment office, where I reregistered. I left there and was walking back down the street again when Rahoi said: 'Come here. There's something else I want to talk to you about.'

"I walked over and Rahoi said: 'Aren't you drawing a pension from the government for disability?' I told him I was — for 50 per cent disability. I am a disabled veteran. Rahoi said: 'Then how come you're out there working at the Ford plant?' I told him that the Ford Motor company has given me work from time to time — such work as they feel I can do, I cannot do heavy work at any time.

Called Him Chiseler, Claim

"Rahoi said, 'Well, if you're drawing a pension from the government, for disability, and are getting work at the Ford plant, then you're a ——— chiseler.'

"I told him: 'Any man in your position — as a so-called representative of the people — who makes a statement of that kind, isn't fit to represent the people or hold that job.' Then I tried to explain to Rahoi how — and for what — disability aid is granted to veterans.

"We were standing there talking and, as I remember it, I had my hands in my pockets, when suddenly Rahoi stepped forward and struck me, with his fist, on the mouth. I struck back — and somebody stepped between us."

There was much more said, Paige related, but that, he stated, was the substance of it.

Rahoi's side of it

Rahoi tells a somewhat different story. After laughing it off as "nothing at all," Rahoi said: "We just had a little argument. I asked Paige if he was getting a pension from the government, and he said: 'Yes.' Then I asked him if he qualified as physically able to work at the Ford plant. He said he did. We talked some more and then Paige made a personal remark.

"I stepped towards him, to say something, and as I did Paige raised his hand. Then I hit him.

"There was only one blow struck and I struck it. Paige didn't strike back. And I didn't knock him down — he just sort of staggered back."

Rahoi left today for L'Anse, where he is to talk at a Democratic rally tonight.

'RAT TRAPPING OPENS ON NOV. 1

Mink Season Same; Both Animals Appear To Be Plentiful

Trappers in this vicinity are getting out their traps and oiling them up in preparation for the opening of muskrat and mink season, which opens Tuesday, November 1.

Local conservation officers said yesterday that there appears to be an abundance of both animals in this district and it is believed this will be one of the most successful seasons for trappers in several years.

The trapping season closes the last day of November. However, the law allows that mink may be hunted until January 31.

A resident trapping license costs one dollar for 20 traps and ten cents for each additional trap. A metal tag bearing the name and address of the owner must be attached to each trap. It is unlawful to use traps otherwise or to have them in possession in areas frequented by wild animals. It also is unlawful to use traps larger than size 1 1/4 for taking mink or muskrat or to set traps within six feet of a muskrat house, hole or home.

It is not legal to use firearms, spears, baited hooks, explosives, chemicals, mechanical devices other than traps or to use pitfalls, poison or smokers of any kind to kill, take or capture muskrats.

Non-residents may not trap in Michigan.

Dock Site Favored By Engineers For City's Proposed Waterplant

The city-owned property near the Ludington dock across from the Ludington hotel has been recommended by Burns-McDonald, Kansas City consulting engineers, as the site of the proposed city waterplant, it was learned here yesterday from M. P. Hatcher, representative of the firm which has made the survey.

The site was chosen after serious consideration of three possible locations. One of the principal reasons it was selected was that it is more centrally located than any other site, being accessible by rail.

The consultant's recommendations will be submitted officially at the next meeting of the city council for final action. Should the council approve the site and plans presented, the city engineers immediately will begin preparing specifications and date for submittal as a WPA project. The proposed plant will cost $272,000, of which $184,700 will be contributed by the city and $87,300 by the federal government.

More money could be received from the federal government under a PWA project but specifications under that administration are such that a time limit is set on completion of the project. Under PWA, it would be necessary to bond the city while under a WPA project, this is not required.

Is Badly Needed

The proposed project would take 136,412 man hours of labor and would have a capacity of four and one half million gallons of water per day. If the project is approved, it would be constructed so that the plant would serve as a source of steam heat, taking the load off the gas plant.

Under proposed plans, one large steam pump and all electrical pumps in the present water plant will be salvaged for use in the new plant.

All persons informed on conditions at the local plant are well aware that the present equipment is sadly inadequate to care for the city's needs. The plant is 30 years old and quite out of date. For the past several years, Col. E. D. Rich, state sanitary engineer, has urged city officials that something be done to correct the dangerous situation existing here.

In the report of the consulting engineers, conditions at the plant are described as follows:

"The need for a new water treatment plant is rather generally accepted by those citizens of Escanaba who are acquainted with all with the condition of the present plant. The existing plant is inadequate and ineffective and its physical condition is such that it is past reconditioning for further use.

"Although the nominal capacity of the present plant may be said to be 6 1/2 million gallons per day, the operators report that it is not possible to filter more than about 4 million gallons per day. As a matter of fact, the plant capacity is taxed by current maximum demands of about 3 million gallons per day. There is, therefore, too little margin of safety between plant capacity and present demands.

Plant 30 Years Old

"Moreover, the effectiveness of filtration is subject to considerable question for a number of reasons. The plant lacks mixing facilities and the settling basins are inadequate in capacity. The concrete in the original basin walls is in such poor condition that inner walls have been poured against the old walls to preserve their usefulness. Failure of one of these walls would put the plant practically out of service. The concrete filter tubes are far from water tight and filter laterals are corroded away to an extent that makes proper washing of the filter impossible. Without proper washing, the sand cannot be kept in the clean condition required for effective filtration. Lacking, then, the required effectiveness in this first line of defense against hazards to public health, the safety of the supply must depend on sterilization with chlorine, normally the second line of defense.

"The plant is 30 years old. It falls so far short of what is now expected of a water treatment plant and is in such poor condition generally that it would be uneconomical and unwise to attempt to salvage any material part of the plant by repair or extension."

ROCK SCHOOL HAS CARNIVAL

Hallow'en Program To Be Given Saturday Night at 7

Rock, Mich., Oct. 26.—The annual Hallow'en carnival will be held at Rock High school Saturday night, beginning at 7 o'clock.

The carnival is being sponsored by members of the senior class under the direction of Miss Virginia Goodman.

The evening program will consist of side shows, a main variety show by all school talent and a dance climaxing the evening, music being furnished by a student orchestra from Escanaba high school.

A clever arrangement of side-shows has been arranged and will be operated by members of the senior class.

The variety program will consist of the following numbers: Specialty dance—Eleanor Jo-

Communication

SINGLE MAN COMPLAINS
Escanaba, Mich., Oct. 26, 1938
Dear Editor:

Single men of Escanaba, do you remember a while ago we were kels and Lucille Peptin. Novelty song—Irene Salo and Alla Holme. Tap dance—Fred Leach. Minstrel group—senior class. Zither solo—Svea Sjolund.

all supposed to be working? In this communication I ask you and myself also, what is to become of you and I if we don't get work. Are we going to lay down and forget everything that is being done to us. I think the deadline was near enough to us when we had the war scare. Why should we try to fight if we're knocked down. Do any of you fellows go out through the day trying to find little odd jobs and come home at night sick and disgusted, because you tried your best to make a nickel. I think it's a long nite for you and I gazing on what tomorrow is going to bring. I know there are more cases than mine but here is one example. I've gone to the relief office a number of times and pleaded for help. The investigation was made, the case worker brought in her reports there wasn't sufficient money coming in for a family of seven grown-ups. The report went through that everything was all right. It was nice when the administration went in, we were working and things were along smoothly, but where are we now. Our most Honorable Frank Murphy. Michigan's plastic surgeon and his seven dwarfs have tried for the past six years to get the bridge across the Straits of Mackinac but did he ever think of you and I, fellow single men who are trying desperately to get work so we can all be happy. Then, why should we be simple enough to listen to his false statements and ballyhoo. Have you noticed the automobiles that are at WPA jobs every day. If the president can give married men such luxuries, why can't he give us a job? I hope this communication reaches every one of you single men. Let's go forward, not backward. The truth is stranger than fic-

Mystery Wreck Found In River

Red Wing, Minn. (AP)—Dredging operations to remove a sandbar in Lake Pepin of the Mississippi resulted in discovery of the skeleton of an ancient river steamboat. The pointed prow revealed the wreck was that of a steamboat, but did not lend a clue to its name or period. The only explanation of the boat's presence was that it disappeared in the days when the area was thinly inhabited, and the Mississippi was the sole means of ingress to the northwest. Worn engine cylinder blocks may have been caused by the use of too heavy rather than too light lubricating oil. The United States has 3,800,000 Jews within its boundaries. This is the greatest Jewish population of any country in the world. Bargains you want on Classified Page.

STATE THIRD IN DUCK STAMPS

Minnesota and Wisconsin Have Larger Sales Than Michigan

Michigan was third largest buyer of duck stamps this year, according to statistics received by the department of conservation from the United States department of agriculture.

Total sales for the county established a new high record of 783,039 with returns only partially tabulated. This figure surpasses the previous high in 1934-35 by almost 150,000.

Minnesota and Wisconsin were the only two states to show a larger sale than Michigan. Next in order after Michigan came California, Illinois, Texas and Washington.

Approximately 90 per cent of the proceeds received from the sale of the duck stamps is used by the U. S. bureau of biological survey in acquiring and maintaining refuges for migratory birds and other wildlife.

Mrs. Dawe accompanied her husband, who is the State Missionary, residing in Lansing.

COMMUNICATION

REBUTTAL
Escanaba, Mich., Oct. 24, 1938.
Dear Editor:

Please print the following article as a rebuttal against the article appearing under (A. F.) by former Governor Fitzgerald of Oct. 20, 1938.

"Fitzgerald the Magician"
"During my administration the workmen worked in peace," says Fitzgerald. How can he expect people to believe such a statement. When anyone with a fair memory knows that the Auto strikes began under his administration lasted for several months and was settled by Governor Murphy without the use of bayonets, and satisfactory to Corporation and Union heads alike. After all; all the union asked was to sit at the conference table and do their business by contract the same as their employers do.

I left a balance of $8,775,000 in the treasury he says. Now what did the Democrats do with that money? you may ask, perhaps they used it to apply on the $21,000,000 of unpaid bills that the Republicans left for the Democrats to worry about. Subtract Fitzgerald's balance that he had in the treasury and you will find about $13,000,000 deficit. A deficiency bill of like amount was passed by the Democrats, (if my memory is correct) to cover that amount. This they had to meet upon entering office.

Any one of us can put money in the bank and let our bills ride for some time, but good business will not allow it for long.

As for school aid, it is this writer's opinion that the next session of the State Legislature will correct any evils in the way school money is distributed, if there is any such evils now.

"There is a known deficit of $10,000,000 says Fitzgerald on the emergency relief appropriation. Why, may I ask, does he harp on that appropriation, when his own Republican Legislators voted 100 percent for it along with other Democrats. After Gov. Murphy asked for the special appropriation he got it with no strings attached, by Democrats and Republicans alike.

Fitzgerald also mentioned that there was money enough for old age pensions during his administration. He did not mention the fact that about double that amount is now being spent for old age pensions and recipients do not have to sign a paupers oath and turn over their meager belongings to the State.

Under Gov. Murphy the age was cut down from 70 to 65 years so that the many could draw on it, and not the few who usually had passed away before they reached 70 years of age.

As for spending and his attacks thereon, I wish to conclude this letter by saying, How do we all go for it, big and small business alike. It is spending, necessary spending, that has kept business alive.

(Signed) "A Reader."

Ancient philosophers taught that plants were nourished from the soil alone. Helmont, a physician of Brussels, doubted the theory and, during the 16th century, weighed a willow tree and planted it in a pot containing 300 pounds of soil. Five years later, the willow had gained 164 pounds, and the soil had lost only 2 ounces.

Marionettes at Escanaba High School Friday

The Russian Marionette Theatre will appear Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the Senior high school and Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Junior high school with its originator, Basil Milosoroff, presenting two different programs. The puppet show is being sponsored by the National Honor society of the Senior high school to defray current expenses for the year.

The story of the Russian Marionettes is largely the story of its Russian originator, the wood sculptor, Milosoroff, and Georgia Taylor, his wife and American collaborator. He was one of the many thousands of young Russians who found themselves outside their native land when the old Russian empire collapsed.

Back Pleat Is Feature Of New Design In Slip

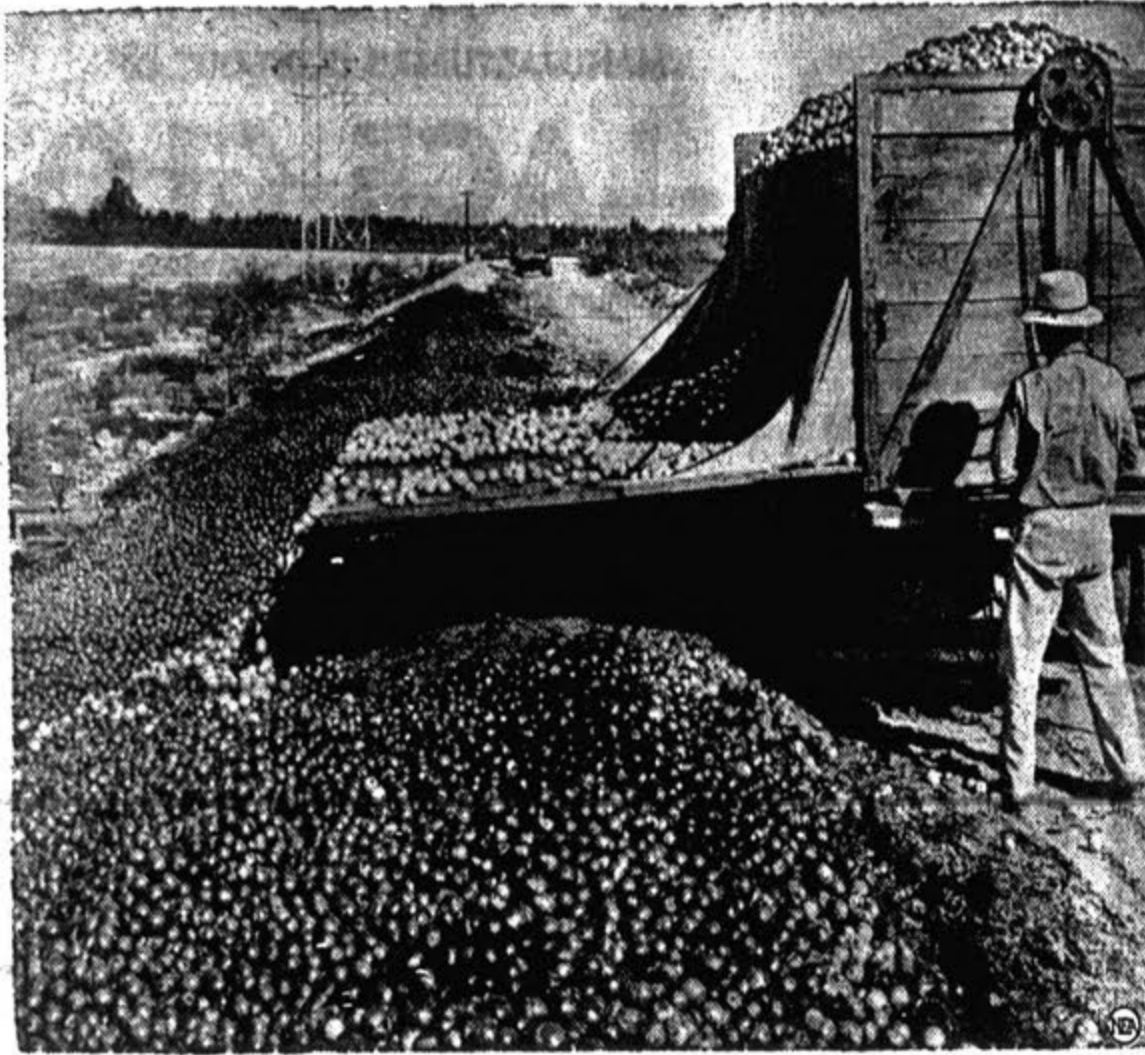

BY MARIAN MARTIN

Here's our idea of a top-ranking lingerie set. Pattern 9830, with smartly molding panties and a non-cling, straight-cut slip that boasts a back pleat for freedom. This pleat is a wonder-worker! Citrus Surplus Dumped Domestically

Statistics from California's bumper orange crop: One mile long, 20 feet wide, 15 feet high. These are the measurements of the orange "dump" near Anaheim, Calif., part of which is pictured, above, with fresh oranges being added. Growers said the oranges were of an inferior grade.

Newspapermen Change Their Ideas Of NLRB

In their first actual working contact with the National Labor Relations Board, members of the National Press Club, an organization composed of newspapermen stationed in the nation's capital, have had a sudden change of opinion of the workings of the NLRB, according to a recent radio address made by Fulton Lewis, Jr., veteran Washington correspondent, over a coast-to-coast network.

Mr. Lewis said: "Now, very frequently, the most important and far-reaching events, take place very quietly, and inconspicuously... and that is just what has happened during the last few weeks, in connection with the National Labor Relations Board.

"You know, most newspapermen, here in Washington... the editors, the writers, the columnists, and the correspondents... 90 or 95 per cent of them, I think... have always been rather friendly to the Labor Relations Board... they support it, and they even defend it, rather generally.

"The basic philosophy of the Wagner Labor Act, of course, is to protect the worker against exploitation, and intimidation... and to guarantee the right of collective bargaining.

"The principle is generally accepted as desirable, by all progressive, fair-minded people... very few of the newspapermen have paid much attention to the activities of the board... most of the actual news developments there are rather dull, and routine... and most of the correspondents... without having had any first-hand contact with the board... have generally assumed it was doing a good job, in a perfectly fair way... they've supported it because they support the theory of the Wagner Labor Act.

"But in the last few days the newspaper gentlemen have been awakened with a rather rude start.

"They've had an experience of their own... a first-hand object lesson... of the way the Labor Relations Board operates... And from present indications, that little experience is going to have an important effect on the newspaper attitude, in the future.

"What happened was this: 'The famous National Press Club, you know, is composed of all the columnists, editors, special writers, and news correspondents in Washington. It has 54 employees... and I might mention, that those employees are very excellently treated.

"The pay for colored waiters is from $65 to $100 a month (which is far above the union wage scale)... plus three full meals a day. There's a very large Christmas fund, every year... whenever an employee, or any member of his family, is taken sick... he gets full pay, indefinitely, and the club pays for all of his doctor's and hospital expenses... (in some cases, that has gone on for many, many months).

"All employees get vacation, every year, with full pay. They get almost double wages, for overtime. They get their holidays off, with full pay.

"Organizers Start "In the last two and a half years, no employee has resigned... and only three have been discharged... two of them for stealing and selling hundreds of dollars worth of food, from the kitchen... and the other one, for making charges against a fellow employee, which he couldn't substantiate when an investigation was made.

"Some weeks ago, some representatives of the CIO began agitating among the employees... and trying to organize them, in the Cafeteria Workers' Union.

"A representative of the Labor Relations Board conferred with the executive committee of the Press Club. They set last Friday as the day for the election.

"But rather strange things began to happen... a number of the waiters... some of them helpers in the kitchen... began to make complaints. They said that while they were at work, people had called at their homes... and told their wives that if they didn't vote to join the CIO, they'd have their arms and legs broken. Some of them said that their wives had been told they'd be fired.

"Then some of them brought in printed circulars which had been sent to their wives... explaining why the employees should vote for the CIO. Those circulars listed ten statements of what the employees would get if they voted for the CIO... and what they would lose, if they voted against it. And a very careful analysis showed that 7 of the statements were diametrically untrue... they were simple falsehoods.

"That was a little disillusioning to the newspapermen gentlemen who run the National Press Club. They certainly were not opposed to the workers signing up with the CIO... If they wanted to... and, as a matter of fact, I think a very heavy majority of the newspapermen, in Washington, were in favor of the employees organizing.

"Objected To Threats "But these threats and false promises did seem rather unethical and improper... and so some of the officials of the Press Club took the matter up with the Labor Relations Board. They said they thought the employees had a right to know the truth... to be protected from racketeering and coercion.

"And then came the crowning blow... "The answer they got from the Labor Relations Board was that the board wasn't in the slightest concerned with any coercion, or threats, or of intimidation by labor organizers... who were trying to get the workers to join a union... it was merely interested in making sure that the officers and members of the National Press Club made no attempt to tell the workers not to join.

"They said the Press club officers would not be permitted to contradict the false statements... or to reassure the employees against the threats of violence.

"And furthermore, the board itself would not do anything about it.

"CIO Is Rejected "Now, as it turned out, it made very little difference. That election was held last Friday... the employees voted... 31 to 23... not to join the CIO.

"But that's a minor point. The important angle is what has happened to the sentiment among the newspapermen... who make up the Press Club... because this little experience seems to have been a rather severe jolt to their idealism.

"There's a feeling that the Labor Relations Board is not giving protection to the workers... it's given license to the organizers.

"During the last four or five days, I have heard the same remark from dozens of the men... who were strong supporters of the Labor Relations Board, before: "If this is the way the Labor Relations Board operates... no wonder there's such a howl of protest. I'm surprised that every businessman and industry in the United States isn't yelling its head off."

"And unless I'm very much mistaken... I think you'll find that the handling of news stories out of Washington, about the National Labor Relations Board, will take a very different turn, from now on... and that's likely to be reflected, in a very different attitude, down at the capitol.

NEW VOTERS TO REGISTER

Saturday Is Last Day to Sign Up Before Election

Saturday evening at 8 o'clock is the final hour for new voters of the city of Escanaba to register for the regular November election, it was learned yesterday from City Clerk Carl E. Anderson.

To be eligible for registration, the voter must be at least 21 years of age, a citizen of the United States, resident of the state of Michigan for six months and of the city for 30 days.

Approximately 150 new voters have registered within the past few days. Only about 3,500 votes were cast in the city during the primary election, there being about 7,000 eligible voters in the city.

There will be submitted to the electors at the general election to be held on Tuesday, November 8, 1938, three proposed amendments to the constitution of this state and a referendum on Act 257, Public Acts of 1937, which is an act to provide for the transfer of the administration of certain existing state public welfare and relief matters, services and duties to the state department of public assistance, created by Act 257, and to abolish the various state departments, boards, commissions and offices so transferred.

Amendment 1, if adopted, will amend the constitution so as to provide for four year terms of offices for county clerks, prosecuting attorneys, sheriffs, register of deeds and treasurers of counties. It also provides that the board of supervisors in any county may unite the offices of the county clerk and register of deeds in one office or separate the same at pleasure.

Amendment 2, if adopted, will amend the constitution, so as to provide for the non-partisan nomination and appointment of supreme court justices for eight year terms.

Amendment 3, if adopted, will amend the constitution, to require that gasoline and motor vehicle license plate taxes collected from motorists be used for highways, roads and streets. The provision of this act shall not apply to the general sales tax; the use of tax fees and taxes collected under the auto theft; and operators and chauffeurs license laws, which are used for regulating purposes.

FAMILY LIFE SPEECH TOPIC

Child Specialist Will Lead Discussion at Powers

Two discussions on successful family life will be led by Miss Alice Hutchinson, child development specialist at Michigan State College, at meetings to be held in the Powers-Spalding High school November 1 and November 8.

The theme of the first discussion will be "the family in partnership with the community," centering around the section of the children's charter from the White House conference: "For every child a community which recognizes and plans for his needs, provides him with safe and wholesome places for play and recreation, and makes provision for his cultural and social needs."

The day the baby learns to share his toys with the neighbor's baby, he makes a start on the long path of learning to get along with other folks.

"Families do not live by themselves alone," says Miss Hutchinson, "they are influenced by the community in which the home is located, be it rural, city or town."

Plan to Reduce Absence Adopted
To insure more stable attendance and make-up of work missed, yellow admit slips and white excuse slips are now in use. The home room teachers issue the excuse slips when parents provide a note telling why the student was absent. The student may then make up the work which he missed. The admit slip entitles the student to return to his classes, but because his absence is unexcused, three per cent is deducted from his grade for each day that he missed.

Fire Destroys Log Cabin Inn

North Manistique Lake Hotel Is Reported Complete Loss

Newberry, Mich., Oct. 26.—Fire of unknown origin totally destroyed the Log Cabin Hotel, 15 miles west of Newberry on North Manistique Lake at 3 a. m. today. The place was owned by Harry Fraser of Newberry, who purchased it last June and had made considerable headway towards making it a successful tourist hotel and recreation place, running a dining room and beer garden.

Mr. Fraser, his brother Charles and Herman Monroe, an employee were the only ones in the hotel at the time of the fire. They had turned out the lights and retired about half an hour before, and were awakened by smoke and the sound of flames. The two Frasers were able to get down the stairway into the big beamed dining room and lobby, but Monroe was forced to drop out of a rear window. He reached the ground unhurt but was unable even to take time to put on his shoes. The Newberry fire department received the call from the Lakefield central and made the run, but so rapid was the spread of the fire that the roof had crashed when they arrived. They fought successfully to keep the flames from spreading to the surrounding cottages, only one being badly scorched. Furniture and equipment was removed from this cottage. Nothing was saved from the hotel.

The place was built 15 years ago by Lindsay, a hotelman of Grand Rapids. It was constructed of balsam, pine and spruce logs, excellent material for a quick fire. The loss was not stated.

The survivors are the husband, a son, Nicholas, of Garden; and a son and daughter, Fred and Mary, at home. Mrs. Thennes was a member of St. Joseph's church in Escanaba.

The body was taken to the Allou Funeral Home and arrangements for the last rites will be made today.

President—Elaine Genorou. Vice Pres.—Grace Surline. Secretary—Dorothy Rushton. Treas.—Rita Michelin. Committee-girl—Margaret Bruyn.

The newly elected officers each spoke a few words of appreciation to the group.

The next regular meeting will be held on Friday Nov. 4.

Two Local Women Lost 24 Hours On Trip To Pike Lake

Newberry, Mich., Oct. 26.—After spending 24 hours lost in the woods 20 miles north of Newberry, two Newberry women, Mrs. Claude Leighton and Miss Grace Edwards were found this evening by Conservation Officer Joseph Stephanski, member of a searching party organized to hunt for the missing pair.

The women were sitting in their car when found. They started out about 7 p. m. Tuesday to drive to the Leighton camp at Pike Lake, got on the wrong road and lost their directions, and decided to stay in their car to await rescue rather than wander around in unfamiliar territory.

Mr. Leighton, who had been out to his camp, came to town and learned of their absence. He went back to camp without finding the women, and immediately organized searching parties.

Back to Brest Litovsk
The effort of Poland and Hungary to annex the Ruthenian Province of Czechoslovakia is not just another piece of territory grabbing.

The German plan for eastern expansion does not envisage a military expedition against Russia. The German army is only a reserve force with which to back up political and economic imperialism.

Therefore, the Germans want the Ruthenians of the dismembered Czech state to have autonomy, this autonomy to be then the breeding ground for a movement of Ukrainian nationalism.

As far as Russia is concerned, the German idea is to re-establish the status quo of Brest Litovsk, the treaty signed by Germany as the price of victory against Russia and universally regarded ever since as the most ruthless treaty signed anywhere as a result of the war.

Under the treaties of Brest Litovsk Germany created "the Ukrainian People's Republic," and made a treaty with it, one condition of which was that the Ukrainians agreed to supply Germany and Austria with a million tons of breadstuffs annually.

It is true, that in the attempt to foment a nationalist rebellion in the Ukraine, Germany will have far greater difficulties than she has in Czechoslovakia.

SERIAL STORY MURDER TO MUSIC BY NARD JONES

CAST OF CHARACTERS
MYRNA DOMBEY—heroine. Wife of the sensational swing band leader.

Archie Mackey, the gossip columnist, rotund and merry, greeted Bob Tait cheerfully. "Well, well, Mr. Tait—and where's the picture box tonight?"

"I can't, though," Tait fingered the frosty glass of ice water which Mackey's waiter had set down before him. "Archie, do you know that girl over there... the honey blond? Isn't her name Starr?"

"You know her then?"
"Of course, I know everybody."
"Introduce me?"

"Miss Neida is what is known locally as a dynamite. She is a spoiled, unstable creature who creates considerable trouble for the male of the species."

"What did Ludden Dombey buy for her?"
Mackey looked coy. "You photographers do get around, don't you? Lud bought her an eight cylinder roadster at one stage."

possibility that, like Czechoslovakia, Russia, if faced with internal disintegration by Nazi espionage and propaganda, will make a deal with Germany.

"Progress isn't made in a straight line. She might make it yet."
As he spoke, "Torchy" Stephenson brought down his baton in a wide arc and the band lapsed into a sudden silence which left the "whackies" gasping in their erratic tracks.

As he acknowledged the introduction and held the Starr girl's chair out from the table, Tait caught that faint perfume. There was not the slightest question but that it was the same scent he had detected in the Millway district.

"Really?" But, for the moment Neida Starr said nothing more on the subject. She waited in silence for her Martini, sipped it delicately, and then said, "Tell me, Mr. Tait. Why doesn't Torchy ever play 'The Cat's Meow'?"

Neida closed her eyes. "It was wonderful," she said. "When I got into the groove on that song it was like nothing human."

The guests present were Lola Mae Marquart, Donna Mae Brock, Beverly Boucha, Betty Mc Carney, Margaret and Muriel Harkness, Betty and Blanche Johnston, Delores Ozanich, Lucille and Julia Halverson, Aris Mc Clain, Margaret Ann and Elaine Collins, Ione Mary and Genevieve Vallier, Emma Vessel, Hobby Bellville, Loresse Markwart, Eleanor Butler, Furrell Danayuk, Jimmy and Richard Johnston.

PARTY PLANNED FOR HALLOWE'EN

Monday Will Be Festive Occasion for 'Kids' of Manistique

A big Halloween party for children up to 16 years of age, planned by the Manistique Lions club and sponsored by them with the cooperation of the Rotary club, the Manistique board of education and the city of Manistique will be held here on Monday evening, October 31, it has been announced.

The party will begin at seven o'clock with a big costume parade in which all the youngsters of the community are invited to participate. There will be cash prizes awarded for the best costumes. Prizes will be $5, $4, $3, $2 and $1 for the five most original Halloween costumes.

Following the parade, details of which will be announced later, the youngsters will go to the Manistique high school auditorium where a big free motion picture show will be offered. There will be four reels of sound pictures depicting Michigan's wildlife from the conservation department, and two additional reels, one an interesting travelogue and the other showing the use of soap in sculpturing.

After the entertainment program at the high school, all the youngsters will receive a gift of candy as they leave the auditorium.

The city of Manistique, through the council, has appropriated $25 toward the affair, and the service clubs have each donated $10. The board of education has offered the auditorium without charge for the event.

The purpose of the big party is to interest the youngsters in some good entertainment so that they may not roam the streets on Halloween to commit the depredations which have been in years past synonymous with the holiday.

All youngsters in the parade and in the auditorium for the show are expected to be in some kind of a costume, or at least masked.

IN MIDDLE-AGE — KIDNEYS OFTEN NEED THIS HELP

Many people going into middle age note a slowing down of the healthy blood action of youth. While this is to be expected to a degree, if frequent and steady, accompanied by burning and smarting. Nature may be warning that there is something wrong with your kidneys and bladder. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Lecturer Gives Inspiring Address at Lions Meeting

Dr. Samuel Grafflin, well known lecturer, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Manistique Lions club Tuesday evening, delivering a very inspiring address, "The First Principles of Business."

The speaker declared that Americans of today are showing a lack of that spark which made this country famous—the courage to pioneer—and urged his listeners to reclaim that lost virtue. He asserted that America can once more rule the world's trade channels by changing tactics back to the philosophy which prevailed in the early decades of the country's history.

Dr. Grafflin's address was well received by his audience. He cleverly interspersed humor throughout the address and was given a big ovation at the conclusion.

He also addressed the Manistique high school students Tuesday afternoon on the subject of youth.

BEER STORAGE PLACE LOOTED

Morgan Bros. Warehouse Robbed Tuesday Night

Police are searching for the person or persons who early Tuesday night broke and entered the warehouse of Morgan Bros. local beer distributors, at 105 Central avenue, and stole a number of cases of beer.

The exact number of cases taken has not been determined and is believed to have been around 15. The loss will not be accurately set until a thorough check has been made.

Officer Frank Quinn made the discovery of the burglary about 10:30 o'clock Tuesday evening during a routine door check while on his rounds. The flapping of a curtain drew the attention of Officer Quinn and investigating he found a window had been removed.

It is theorized that the front door, fastened with night lock, was then opened and the beer removed to a waiting auto or truck. Apparently the burglars wore slightly muddled and removed six cases of empty bottles before they discovered the error for the six cases were found outside.

But slight clues were discovered to provide leads on which the officers may solve the crime.

By Frederick Gardner - A rush to buy low-priced shares... The action took place in the few minutes before the final gong-pat peep in a drooping stock market today.

For a time the proceedings looked like a sort of glorified version of the familiar "one-cent sale" as so-called penny stocks, especially at the opening and at the close were all over the ticker tape.

Of the day's total turnover of 1,702,180 shares, approximately 23 percent was accounted for by seven stocks selling for less than $10 a share.

This rush for the low-priced issues left most of them fractions ahead and tended to obscure a downtrend in a majority of the usual leaders.

One of the most important railroad merger proposals in several years—Gulf Mobile & Northern and Mobile & Ohio—was approved by G. M. & N. directors after the close.

Wheat at Chicago added 1/4 to 7-8 of a cent a bushel, corn lost 1/4 to 5-8. Cotton was up 5 to 20 cents a bale.

A last-minute rally carried many curb shares to the top. Gainers of fractions included Northern States Power "A," Electric Bond & Share, Niagara Hudson Power and Lockhead.

Foreign Exchange: Improved; sterling continues rally. Cotton: Quiet; southern selling. Sugar: Easy; hedge selling.

Chicago Lard: Chicago, Oct. 26 (AP)—Lard, tierce, 1.87; inner, 1.78; bellows, 1.50.

Illinois-Michigan Game Recalls 1924 Nightmare

Yanks Menace Only Nats, Says Harridge

BY EARL HILLIGAN
Chicago, Oct. 26 (AP)—The job of worrying over whether the New York Yankees are too strong for the good of baseball, believes President William Harridge of the American league, is one of the National league to handle.

"I suppose a lot of people think the Yanks may be too dominating an influence on the game," Harridge said today. Then he added with a laugh: "But I don't think we have anything to worry about, at least so far as the American league is concerned."

"We'll get ourselves balanced up. Boston is improving and Walter Briggs in Detroit isn't a man who will stand still with his already strong Tigers. Connie Mack at Philadelphia always has been a builder and will go places when he gets pitching."

The St. Louis Browns, Harridge said frankly, is the American league's "weak spot." He feels certain, however, that the men behind the Browns will never stop until they make that club a winning one. Among them are such civic leaders as Donald L. Barnes, president, Francis Talton, Sam McCluney, Frank Rand, Andrew Johnson and Howard Stephens.

"I know that when this group took over the Browns they did it as more of a civic enterprise than for profit," Harridge continued.

"Barnes frankly told us a year ago that he would appreciate consideration in deals which would strengthen the Browns and today's trade (the Yankees sent Catcher Joe Glenn and Outfielder Myril Hoag to the Browns for Pitcher Oral Hildebrand and Outfielder Buster Mills) will be the start of several deals which will make St. Louis a better team."

"Our league always has felt that each club should stand on its own merits, and there is no definite agreement among owners to help lower standing teams. But I'm sure all owners would give consideration to such teams as St. Louis."

The American league, he said, had a good season at the turnstiles, considering the unusual amount of rainy, cold weather. The Yankees, as usual, set the attendance pace, attracting approximately 1,000,000 customers at home. Every club except Detroit and Chicago showed increases or equalled their 1937 attendance figures. Chicago, beset by injuries, showed the greatest decrease. Detroit, which drew more than a million fans in 1937, fell off that pace about 100,000.

The junior circuit, as a whole, equalled the 1937 attendance figure, which was three quarters of a million ahead of the 1936 total.

STATE POLISHES UP ON DEFENSE

Santa Clara Sees Easy Mark In Spartans; Line Has Steam

BY JACK I. GREEN
East Lansing, Oct. 26 (AP)—The football theme song at Michigan State college was "defense" with a capital "D" today because coaches and players alike knew the Spartans must rise to untouched heights of achievement if they are to stop Santa Clara here Saturday.

Coach Lawrence T. (Buck) Shaw of the Broncos was reported as saying he was glad Arkansas rammed over the first score against his team this year in last Saturday's game because his players were becoming too defensive-conscious in an effort to keep their goal line uncrossed. Shaw was also reported as believing the Broncos will have little trouble removing the Spartans' scap.

All this had a sad sound in the Michigan State camp. It bore out Chief Scout Mike Casteel's prediction: "We've got to wind up everything we've got, multiply it by two and play like hell for 60 minutes."

The best ray of hope was the ferocity and dependability of the Spartan line displayed in last week's Syracuse game.

Line Coach Tom King was particularly pleased with the work of his ends in that encounter. Dave Hehl, one of the most dependable players on the team, Mike Kinek and the less experienced Ralph Bennett played outstanding games. In practice, Bruce Blackburn, has been moved up to first-string to see how he stands up with the top rankers.

The Syracuse game was a test of fire for the line and King felt his tackles have proven that pre-season hole has been well filled. George Gargert is probably King's smartest tackle but Eric Bremer has a weight advantage which lifts him close behind. Take Alex Katsko, big Stanley McRae, Don Maliskey, Fred Galda and Chet Anderson for reserve power and add the newest find, 220-pound George Handler and King has the tackle holes pretty well blocked.

The line coach says frankly he can't differentiate much between his guard candidates. Ed Abdo and Lyle Roebenbach may stand out a bit but Paul Griffith, Mike Masny, Darwin Dudley and Al Smolen are battling to have their share at stopping the Broncos.

With Ron Alling and Tom McShannock, No. 1 and No. 2 centers, those are the lads who must set the Broncos back on their heels and give Pingel and company a chance to whip those passes into the end zone.

NO RED GRANGE IN LINEUP NOW

Yost Still Remembers One-Man Show By Galloping Ghost

BY PAUL MICKELSON
New York, Oct. 26 (AP)—Illinois meets Michigan again Saturday and a 14-year-old nightmare rears itself before Fleiding H. (Hurry-Yost) Yost. The old maestro of Wolverine football, who has done plenty of haunting himself since the turn of the century, admits it. Never will he forget that beautiful October afternoon in 1924 when Red Grange beat his great Michigan team with the most electrifying one-man show in all pigskin history.

Yost, now on the verge of retirement, still talks of that day when Grange scored five touchdowns, four of them in the first 10 minutes of play. He still can't understand how it was humanly possible. He, himself, had scouted the famed red-head in the Nebraska game. It was Yost who framed a defense to "stop" him, and it is Yost who can't forget it even now.

Gained 265 Yards
A great football achievement is worth repeating. So we wired Mike Tobin, grand Boswell of Illinois football, for an official account of Grange's deeds that afternoon of October 18, 1924, when undefeated Michigan and Illinois officially dedicated Illinois Memorial stadium. Do you think you have seen a one-man football show? How about this one:

Grange scooped up the opening kickoff and ran 95 yards for a touchdown before the spectators were settled in their seats.

When the game was three minutes old, Grange raced 70 yards from scrimmage for touchdown number two.

Two minutes later: Grange swept the end for 57 yards and touchdown number three.

Again: two minutes later, the red-head whistled around end for 43 yards and his fourth touchdown.

In 10 minutes, Grange had his hands on the ball six times, running for four touchdowns and gaining 265 yards—an average of 44 yards a try. Coach Bob Zuppke took him out before the first quarter ended. It took 45 minutes to play that first period because so much time was required for kick-offs.

Score 39-14
Third quarter: Grange ran 13 yards for touchdown number five. Fourth quarter: Grange threw a pass to Leonard for the sixth Illinois touchdown.

All told, he played 41 minutes, gained 402 yards, carried the ball 21 times and completed six passes for 64 yards. He also held the ball for Earl Britton on tries for points after touchdowns. Final score: Illinois 39, Michigan 14. Michigan touchdowns were made by Steger and Rockwell, who got some salvage out of a bad day, for it was Rockwell who was safety man in that first period nightmare.

Michigan and Illinois had not played each other in 1923, when each won all its games and they tied for the Big Ten title, so the game was a natural. Both came up to it undefeated. The Michigan Daily had failed to pick Grange on its all-western team in 1923, saying all Grange could do was run. The Illinois student paper, the Daily Illini, ran the item with this caption: "All Gallie Curel can do is sing."

Who named Grange the "Galloping Ghost"? One of the finest stories written from the press book that day was by my old boss, Charlie Dunkley of the Associated Press, Chicago. It was Dunkley who coined "Galloping Ghost." And Grange kept on galloping. In three years, he scored 31 touchdowns against the best teams in the land, gained 8,637 yards and completed 42 passes for 842 yards.

Michigan is supposed to beat Illinois Saturday. It's an ideal game for the conductors of pools because you never know what'll happen in that one, except... there'll never be another day like the one Grange had 14 years ago.

SPILLING the DOPE

Personal matters that need attention... note to EEE: thanks a lot for the peace offering... liked your sense of humor—also the caramel apples!... note to GL and JR at East Lansing: appreciated your card greatly but think you are all wet on that Santa Clara proposition... you know very well that you were lucky last Saturday... as for the Rose Bowl, well, we'll just pass that off to freshmen exuberance!... best regards to friends at MSC... note to IS at West Point: mighty glad to hear from you, especially when you send money... yes, indeed, between Lily Abner and Inkslinger, we're hard to resist... hah!... glad to hear you are playing football... but it's too bad that Notre Dame must win Saturday... or will they? write again... in the meantime!

IRON MOUNTAIN IN STATE MEET

Cross Country Team to Compete November 5 at Ypsilanti

Iron Mt., Oct. 26—Principal Bruce Guild announced today that the Iron Mountain high school cross country team will compete in the state run to be held at Ypsilanti Saturday, November 5.

The appearance of Coach Dick Chard's runners downstate will be in defense of the state class B title won last year.

Saturday Iron Mountain scored an overwhelming victory over Escanaba, 16-39, for its fifth straight upper peninsula championship. Contrary to first reports, the Mountaineers copped seven of the first eight places. Albert Olds, Ken Alquist, Fred Collick and Richard Vicklund give the gold and black the first four places. Lequa, of Escanaba, placed fifth, followed by Captain Orville Ostberg, Phil Rahol and John Schwel, of Iron Mountain.

Though only the first five places on each team counted for points, the last two Mountaineer runners were also instrumental in chalking up the top-sided victory. By finishing seventh and eighth, Rahol and Schwel denied Escanaba the opportunity to claim points in those positions.

With finances limited, Coach Chard reported that tentative plans are to take five runners on the trip downstate. However, Chard stated, he will do everything he can to make it possible to take the entire squad.

The state meet will be the second in which three of the members of the squad have participated. Ostberg, Olds and Collick were members of last year's state champions. Olds, one of the finest runners ever produced at the local high school, copped first place.

CAGE MANAGERS HOLD MEETING

November 15 Deadline for Entry of Teams in City Loop

At a meeting Tuesday night at the Recreational center for all managers of basketball teams entered in the city league a deadline was set for teams entering the league, Tuesday, Nov. 15.

At that time the entry fee is to be paid for the period of 13 1/2 weeks of league play with each team playing two games a week. The teams are limited to enter eight players along with a coach and a manager. It was definitely decided that Monday, Nov. 28, the league will swing into action with league games. At the present time there are nine teams entered into the Major league and three teams in the Minor league. More teams are needed to enlarge the Minor league, so any manager wanting to enter his team may do so at the gym.

Eddie Gunkel, recreational leader in charge of the league this year has issued a call to any one to try out for refereeing league games this year. One official will be selected and paid to handle all of the games this year. The persons trying out will be judged the way they handle the practice games that are now being played. The arbitration board for this year will consist of Dr. Buttmer, Leo Burnell, and Rev. D. E. Evans. They will take care of all disputes that may come up during the season.

An invitation is extended to the adults and persons out of school to attend the league games to be played at the Junior high school and the Senior high school this year.

Keilmen Will Travel To Marquette Sat'y

To prevent stales the Keilmen got down to hard work again Tuesday when they were sent through a lengthy scrimmage. Last night pass defense was stressed particularly. The tapering off process will stop tonight.

The game will pit pupil against master for Alton Kircher, Graverst mentor, was one of the bright stars developed by Coach Eldon Kell. There is no doubt that it will be a battle for Marquette has been trouncing most opponents by one-sided scores.

All of the locals are in good condition with the exception of Dahl, a half-back, and Cap't Benny Desotelle, who has been out with injuries since the opening game. The former suffered a leg injury in the Newberry game but should be in shape for Saturday. Cap't Desotelle worked out this week and is expected to be in condition to play at least a part of the game.

Friday night the locals will participate in a practice game with the St. Joseph second string.

FARKAS LEADS PRO SCORERS

Redskin Star Is Six Up On Don Hutson, Packer End

New York, Oct. 26 (AP)—By scoring two touchdowns against Philadelphia Sunday and advancing the ball 125 yards, "Anvil Andy" Farkas, former Detroit University star now playing for the champion Washington Redskins, moved into first place among the National Professional Football league scorers and into third place among the ground gained.

Farkas, with 37 points, is six up on Don Hutson, star end of the Green Bay Packers, with Joe Carter of Philadelphia and veteran Clarke Hinkle of Green Bay tied for third at 30 points. In ground-gaining Farkas' total of 269 yards is surpassed only by Whizzer White of Pittsburgh with 285 and Cecil Isbell of Green Bay with 279. Both, like Farkas, are pro league rookies.

Ed Danowski of the New York Giants continues to set the pace for the forward passers with 50 completions in 84 attempts and a percentage of 59. Rookie Jack Robbins of the Chicago Cardinals is second with 44 completed in 85 attempts for 517. Gaynell Tinsley of the Cardinals has caught 23 passes to lead in that division, and Ward Cuff of the Giants has made good on four of five attempts at field goals.

MUNISING WILL PLAY EMERALDS

Manistique Sees Chance for Victory Over Algerites

Manistique—Still smarting from the 19-0 defeat suffered in a blinding snowstorm at Sault Ste. Marie last Saturday, the Manistique high school football team is preparing for their booster game here next Saturday against Munising.

The decisive setback suffered by the Emeralds at the Soo was unexpected and the Manistique followers do not believe the score is an accurate yardstick for measuring the comparative strengths of the two teams.

Munising defeated the Soo, 6 to 0, earlier in the season, and the Manistique boys hope to set the Algerites back on their ears to atone for the licking in the snowstorm at the Soo.

Coach Jehle has impressed his players with the thought that if they performed against Munising as they did when they defeated St. Joseph two weeks ago, the Emeralds can chalk up a win next Saturday.

A victory against Munising would give Manistique a record of 500 for the season, and would permit them to finish the season with a winning percentage by defeating Menomine in the season's finale. Manistique now has won one game, lost two and tied three.

Big Ten Briefs About Football

Champaign. (AP)—Coach Bob Zuppke continued to shuffle his Illinois lineup Wednesday for the Michigan game and indicated two sophomore ends would start against the Wolverines Saturday.

Jim Phillips and Herb Young, both over six feet took over the wing posts in today's drill. Dropped to the second team were seniors Ken Zimmerman and Bob Castello. John Thistlewood, junior, alternated with Cliff Peterson at left halfback.

Columbus. (AP)—In good condition generally, Ohio State gridmen breezed through a workout stressing speed Wednesday in preparation for training tomorrow for New York City. The Buckeyes will clash Saturday with New York University and are heavily favored to defeat the Violets.

Minneapolis. (AP)—Thirty-six Minnesota football players will make the trip to Evanston, Ill., for the Northwestern game Saturday. Coach Bernie Bierman announced Wednesday night. The personnel of the Gopher traveling squad will be chosen after Thursday's practice, Bierman said. The Gopher's starting lineup remained unchanged during a two-hour workout.

Iowa City. (AP)—The University of Iowa football team took through the freshmen with a new-found zip Wednesday and before Coach Irl Tubbs called a halt they had earned three easy touchdowns against the yearlings.

Evanston. (AP)—Although Coach Lynn Waldorf rated his Northwestern Wildcats the equals of Minnesota "on paper" Wednesday, the shade of Hal Van Every, Gopher passing star, continued to stalk the practice session. A long defensive scrimmage against the freshmen saw the Wildcats work-

MIZE, MEDWICK NOT FOR SALE

Gashouse Gang Needs Big Guns to Build 1939 Pennant Winner

St. Louis, Oct. 26 (AP)—Any major league clubs casting covetous eyes on Joe Medwick or Johnny Mize of the St. Louis Cardinals can look elsewhere for their pennant-making material.

Neither Medwick or Mize is for sale and, what's more, Sam Breadon, president of the Red Birds, said definitely today that he will not sell a single player who has a chance of helping the "Gas-less Gashouse Gang" regain its old glories in 1939.

"We are out to build a pennant winner," Breadon asserted. "There are no trades on the fire and we are prepared to use our sources of supply to produce what we need. In the past, we've sold our surplus, but there'll be none of that now."

That means the Cardinals, who have supplied virtually every National League team with star material from its farm system, now will bring the boys home to do or die for dear old St. Louis.

Breadon said he had not decided on a manager for next season, but the selection probably would be made before the December baseball meetings. Ray Blakes, Burt Shotton, Burling Grimes and Jimmy Wilson are believed to be outstanding possibilities.

With the Cardinals certain to pick a new manager either from their own organization or the National League, the Browns have the American League field entirely to themselves. The St. Louis clubs are the only teams without 1939 managers as yet.

Vice-President William O. DeWitt said the Browns "don't feel there's any need to hurry about the appointment, because there isn't much danger of anybody we might want slipping out of reach."

Ray Schalk, Muddy Ruel, Tony Lazzari, the ex-Yankee who served last season as a Chicago Cub coach, and, of course, Babe Ruth are among the many who have been considered. It is said Buck Newom, the Browns' talkative pitcher and 20-game winner, has applied for the job.

Hold Everything!

BY GEORGE A. STAUTER
Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 26 (AP)—A long defensive drill occupied Michigan's football team today as preparations continued for the homecoming game here Saturday with Illinois.

Coach H. O. (Fritz) Crisler, who regards the Illini as a "dangerous foe," tested the Wolverine defense for more than an hour, both on the ground and in the air, and remarked:

"The team is looking a lot better than it did a week ago and I hope the improvement keeps up."

Freshman Coach Walter Weber outlined the Illinois offense and then a reserve eleven tried out Illini plays against the varsity as Crisler set to work mapping defensive formations. Weber has scouted Illinois continuously for eight years.

Hedekinen Still Absent
In an effort to strengthen his defense, Crisler had Dave Strong, 1938 Illinois quarterback who transferred to Michigan last year and one of the squad's best passers work with the ends and backs.

More new plays were distributed and additional emphasis placed upon punting and place-kicking, an assignment that fell mostly to Vincent Valek, end. Others

The workout was supervised by Coach McDonald, who returned recently from Ann Arbor where he was treated for a serious foot infection.

Queen Contestants Relax—And Eat Baked Potatoes

BANQUET WILL END EXPOSITION

The name of the Upper Peninsula potato queen will be announced as the final feature of the potato growers banquet to be held tonight at the Sherman hotel, beginning at 6:30 o'clock. Six contestants for the title were in Escanaba yesterday and a seventh was expected to arrive this morning.

Aspirants to the title of Upper Peninsula Potato Queen are: Delta county's candidate, Norma Hagman of Flat Rock; Carolyn Roberts of Grand Marais, representing Alger county; Evelyn Wender of Dickinson county; Lillian Nyberg of Menominee county; Borghild Ellassen of Baraga county and Mae Clark of Stambaugh, representing Iron county.

Today's program opens with an association meeting at the Delta county courthouse at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. Speakers at the session, at which Frank Barron, president, will be chairman, are L. V. Card, director of the bureau of foods and standards of the state department of agriculture; H. A. Reilly of Bellaire, who will speak on Detroit and Grand Rapids potato shows; C. L. Nash of East Lansing, who will discuss potato price trends; and H. C. Moore, East Lansing, judge of potatoes at the show, who will discuss new developments in potato growing.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon Miriam Eads, district home demonstration agent of Michigan State college, will present a demonstration and discussion of potato cooking. Miss Eads has been cooking potatoes since the show opened, as a part of the procedure in judging and testing the tubers.

The last event on the show program will be the banquet at the Sherman hotel at 6:30 o'clock this evening. Herman Gesener will preside as chairman at the function and John P. Norton will be toastmaster, introducing the contestants for the title of U. P. potato queen.

"Lone Ranger" Suffers Burns When Attacked

Iron Mountain, Oct. 26.—Ben Swanson, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gotfred Swanson, 421 Grand Boulevard, ruefully surveyed the burned fringe on the knee of his overalls at the city police station this morning and admitted that this "lone ranger" business isn't all that it's cracked up to be.

Young Swanson was the unwilling victim of a dramatic skit last night which might have ended seriously had not passersby seen his plight.

The boy told his story to Gust Hassell, chief of police. Coming out of the public library at about 8 o'clock, he said, he saw two boys standing in front, and one of them, spotting him, shouted: "There's the 'lone ranger'."

Swanson said the boys grabbed him and pulled him towards the rear of the library. He fought with them, he said, "but" they were both bigger than me, and I couldn't get away." He said the boys backed him against a tree and tied him securely with two long ropes—some 47 feet in all.

Overalls Ignited
Then, he said, one boy lit a match and touched it to the knee of his overalls, where a small hole had been torn. The leg of the overalls began to blaze, he stated. Just then a group of girls leaving the library heard the boy calling, saw the flame and ran to the nearby police station, where they notified Officer Frank Pipp.

Pipp raced to the library, brushed out the flame and freed the boy. Young Swanson was frightened, but otherwise unhurt. The flame "felt hot" against his leg, he said, but did not blister the skin.

Today Officer Al Schupe was looking for two boys, one about 15, the other 17, whom Swanson said grabbed him. If caught, Chief Hassell said, charges will be filed.

Republicans Stage 2 Rallies Tonight
Two Republican meetings, one at Ford River mill and the other at Danforth, will be held at eight o'clock tonight. The Ford River rally, which will be at the town hall, will have Atty. Charles E. Lewis and W. W. Mayer as the speakers. The Danforth meeting will be at the Newhall school, and Atty. Glenn W. Jackson of Gladstone will be the speaker.

Good Seats Remain For Concert Series
A checkup last night showed many good seats remaining in the W. W. Oliver memorial auditorium for the Escanaba concert league series.

It was found necessary yesterday to change the headquarters of the concert league from Lang's store to the superintendent's office in the junior high school, where ticket requests are now being handled.
