ADOLF HITLER IS WARNED TO TAKE IT EASY

CRISIS IS FORECAST FOR THIS SUMMER BY CHURCHILL

London, June 28. (AP)—Winston Churchill, one of the first British leaders to sound alarm over Germany's secret rearmament, today predicted a summer of tension and cautioned Adolf Hitler to pause and "consider well before you take the plunge into the terrible unknown."

Rural Road Worst For Car Deaths

Chicago, June 28 (AP)—American motorists have followed the straight line of improved driving for 19 consecutive months but show signs of wavering.

The National Safety Council so announced today in reporting the decline in motor vehicle fatalities which began in November, 1937, continued through May.

But the downward trend was nearly broken in May, when the council estimated, 2,330 lives were lost—just 50 fewer than in May, 1938.

The chief threat to the unbroken record last month was a four per cent increase in deaths on rural highways in contrast to an 11 per cent reduction in cities.

Nevertheless, the nation showed a seven per cent improvement during the first five months of the current year. Fatalities during the period numbered 11,010 against 11,850 during the same time last year.

The council furnished this list of the leading traffic safety cities and their death rates per 100,000 population during the first five months of 1939:

Group one (over 500,000)—Milwaukee 7.6; St. Louis, 8.4; Boston, 8.8.

Group two (250,000-500,000)—Providence, R. I., 3.8; Kansas City, Mo., 8.7; Memphis, Tenn., 9.2.

Group three (100,000-250,000)—Cambridge, Mass., 2.1; Worcester, Mass., 3.6; Wichita, Kansas, 4.1.

The largest cities which had perfect records through May in the other population classes included Niagara Falls, N. Y., Pontiac, Mich., New Britain, Conn., Everett, Mass., Brookline, Mass., Bay City, Mich., Wausau, Wis., Gloucester, Mass., and New Kensington, Pa.

BOARD BICKERS ON PURCHASING

Auditor General Says Two Buyers Act Like Bunch of Children

Lansing, June 28. (AP)—A mounting controversy over state purchasing policies, bogged down today pending a report from industrial advisors on possible reforms in the state's buying procedure.

Although officials connected with purchasing policies criticized the purchase of 14,000 tons of coal, some of which caught fire in its bin at the state reformatory at Ionia, they failed to mention the matter at a meeting of the administrative board's purchasing committee meeting today.

Auditor General Vernon J. Brown said the coal question had been overlooked "and anyway the fire is out now."

Lawrence H. Niendorf, secretary of the administrative board and statutory director of purchasing, said the fuel ignited from spontaneous combustion, due to its poor quality.

The purchase of the coal was the first official act of Grant M. Hudson, former congressman and "dry" leader, whom Governor Dickinson made purchasing director over Niendorf's head.

Niendorf said that W. Mark Hanna, administrative board engineer, had warned that the coal was apt to ignite because of its quality.

The purchasing committee session witnessed more bickering between Niendorf and Hudson over prices.

Brown told them they "acted like a bunch of children."

Organization Liable For Contributions On Employees Wages

Detroit (AP)—The Michigan unemployment compensation commission held Wednesday that the House of David in Bensor Harbor is liable for contributions on wages paid to all employees who are not members of the organization.

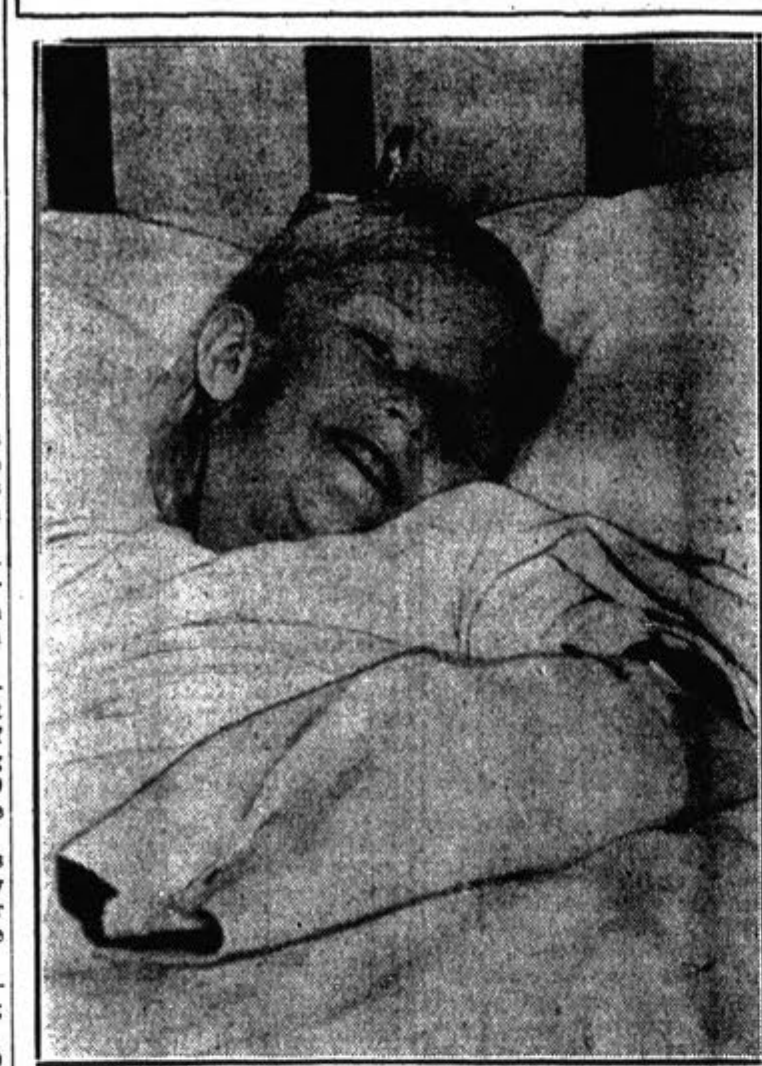

The ruling was made in connection with a benefit claim filed by Claude Clark, a former bartender in a night club operated by the House of David.

Women's College To Be Built At Miami

Adrian, Mich., June 28 (AP)—The Sisters of St. Dominic, Catholic order which operates Siena Heights college here, announced plans Wednesday to construct a new college for women on a 40-acre tract at Miami, Fla.

Construction will start next fall on three buildings to accommodate 200 to 300 women. The college is scheduled to open for its first term in September of 1940.

Victim of Firecracker

Little Jo Ann Peterson is only five years old and too young to be aware of the tragedy of the needless accident, which cost her the loss of the thumb and index finger of her left hand, when a firecracker she was holding exploded Tuesday afternoon. A pathetic little figure, with her bandaged hand, she smiled as the attending nurse at St. Francis hospital arranged her pillows, and then gravely announced that she was "never going to play with firecrackers again."

First Pay Passengers Flying Across Atlantic

Port Washington, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—The first paying passengers ever to be flown by airplane across the Atlantic stopped rather casually aboard the big grey Dixie Clipper today and a minute later were off for Europe—scheduled to arrive at Horta, The Azores, by breakfast time tomorrow.

While 5,000 spectators waved and harbor craft saluted with whistles, the $750,000 flying boat of Pan-American Airways taxied smoothly over Manhasset bay—then upward and out, opening a new era in aviation.

Dream Realized With the ship's departure at 2:12 p. m. (EST) on a 4,650-mile flight, aviation's long-cherished dream of regular trans-Atlantic passenger service by plane became a reality.

Twenty-two passengers, some of whom applied for passage as long as eight years ago, and a crew of eleven were aboard the 41-ton flying boat that started the scheduled twice-a-weekly clipper flights to Europe.

Twenty-five minutes after the Dixie Clipper's departure, another flight ended on the other side of the Atlantic, when the Yankee Clipper, inaugurating regular mail service between the United States and England via Newfoundland, arrived at Southampton.

Band music and cannon salutes from four yacht clubs sounded as the Dixie soared away on her journey to Horta, Lisbon and Marseille.

The village was flag-draped for the departure.

The flying boat whose wingspread is 62 feet greater than the over-all length of Christopher Columbus' flagship, the Santa Maria, has sleeping quarters for 40, and flight decks comparable to a ship's bridge.

Six of the 22 passengers are women. Mrs. Clara Adams, of MassPeth, N. Y., a veteran of history-making flights, planned to keep on going after she reached Europe, and circle the world on regular passenger planes.

She expected to arrive home in 16 days.

Another passenger, Julius Rapaport, Allentown, Pa., attorney, also planned a globe-circling journey.

All the passengers have had flying experience—and most are veterans of the airways. Several heads of corporations were in the group that paid $375 one-way fare or $675 round trip.

The schedule called for a one-hour refueling stop at Horta, and an overnight stop at Lisbon, the clipper continuing to Marseille the next day, in a total elapsed time of 48 hours out of New York.

The return trip is to start Sunday.

One passenger, W. J. Eck, said he applied for space on the first transoceanic flight with passengers as far back as 1931. "and I've been calling up every few months since then—just to hurry them up."

Negro Prisoners' Dash For Liberty On Mules Foiled

Speigner, La., June 28. (AP)—A dash for liberty—a wild west—began suspiciously for convicts Vernon Dean and Henry Williams when they unhitched their work mules, mounted and galloped away from the Speigner prison farm.

But unmounted guards soon began overhauling the negroes, so they jumped off and took to their heels. That didn't do any good, either, and the prisoners were captured a few minutes later.

Senator's Daughter Leaves For Europe

New York, June 28 (AP)—Ruth Brown, daughter of Senator Prentiss M. Brown (D-Mich) left today on a vacation trip to Europe, a present from her parents for her graduation from Albion college.

The senator, who was at the dock to see her off, said he would return to Michigan for a short rest before returning to Washington.

BIG MONETARY MEASURE HAS BAD SLEDDING

CHANCES GROW DIM FOR PASSAGE BY FRIDAY

Washington, June 28 (AP)—Administration leaders in congress watched their big monetary bill go bouncing from one sad predicament to another today.

They gloomily conceded that there was only a slim chance, growing dimmer hourly, that the confused and angry situation could be straightened out soon.

And, unless the bill is passed by Friday midnight, the administration will lose important powers foreign exchange and the currency.

Relief Not Menaced They apparently received little consolation from the fact that the $1,735,000,000 relief appropriation bill was making good progress through the senate.

It also has a Friday midnight deadline, but, just in case it gets into trouble too, the leaders are ready with a simple resolution, possible of speedy passage, which will prevent any interruption of the dispensing of relief.

Nor were the leaders cheered by the fact that the $1,094,000,000 farm appropriation bill was finally cleared through congress and sent to the White House and that other measures less important but also labeled "Friday midnight at the latest," were at last receiving quick action.

Leadership Challenged The monetary bill was the first object of their concern. In addition to the powers for the president which it involved, it also presented a challenge to their own leadership and that of the administration as well.

The bill, continuing the $2,000,000,000 international exchange stabilization fund and the president's power to devalue the dollar further (both otherwise scheduled to die at midnight Friday), was caught in one of the most curious controversies to tie up legislation in years.

When it came before the senate earlier in the week, the hard-money Republicans in the east and the silver Democrats of the west entered into a voting alliance which startled veterans of the Bryan days. The coalition added amendments, stripping the devaluation powers from the measure, banning further purchases of foreign silver by the treasury, and increasing the treasury price for domestic silver.

Tied Up In Debate Republican leaders in the house threatened to delay the next step of sending the bill to a senate-house conference, so administration leaders there beat them to the jump by obtaining a special rule from the rules committee to bring the result about.

This rule was approved today after a stormy debate, and two record votes, both of which gave the administration comfortable majorities. A vote of 216 to 164 ended debate, and a vote of 209 to 161 sent the measure to conference.

The house silverites threw their support to the administration, and all but a handful of Democrats backed it as well.

Highly pleased at this result, the administration leadership then found that most of the five men appointed to represent the senators were tied up in the relief debate. More delay was the result.

"In No Hurry" The senate conferees were Wagner (D-NY), Barkley (D-NY), Byrnes (D-SC), Adams (D-Colo.), and Townsend (R-Del).

Negro Prisoners' Dash For Liberty On Mules Foiled

COMEDIAN DIES

Hollywood, June 28 (AP)—Bobby Vernon, 42, film comedian of the pie-throwing days, died of a heart attack at his home today.

He started in some 200 silent day comedies for Christie, Mack Sennett and Universal Studios. Vernon was born in Chicago.

Held As Killer

Daniel Kent (above), scar-faced former convict, was held without bail at St. Johns, Mich., on charges that he killed George Hall, Detroit oil promoter, in a $10 hitch hike robbery. State Police Captain Ira A. Marmon said Kent had admitted the slaying.

EVIDENCE FILED ON DANNY KENT

Ex-Convict Has Hearing Friday In Slaying of Oil Promoter

St. Johns, Mich., June 28 (AP)—The state today assembled a file of evidence to be presented Friday at the examination of Daniel M. (Danny) Kent, on charges he shot to death George G. Hall, Detroit oil operator, on an automobile ride near here last week.

State police experts and Prosecutor Charles W. Austin of Clinton county moved forward with plans to wrap a web of legal evidence around Kent when the latter refused today to sign a statement admitting the killing which state police said he made the night of his arrest, Monday night.

Grand Rapids police said Kent had signed an earlier statement to the same effect when he was arrested in that city on suspicion he was the hitch-hiker who killed Hall and took Hall's companion, Miss Ruby Doty, of Pinconning, on a wild night ride through central Michigan.

The prosecution indicated they would base their case on four points: the pistol found in Kent's room when he was arrested in Grand Rapids; a wrist watch belonging to the slain man and reputedly found in Kent's possession; a fingerprint found on Hall's automobile after it was abandoned in Grand Rapids by Miss Doty; and the "identification" of Kent by Miss Doty as the slayer of her friend.

Kent was being kept in the Clinton county jail under close guard against chances of an escape.

Bond Refused Nurse Who Drove Car In Fatal Gun Battle

Detroit, (AP)—Recorder's Judge John J. Maher Wednesday set July 7 for examination of Hilda Sundeel, 32-year-old nurse, who drove the automobile from which Anthony Hessler, alias Phillips, engaged in a gun battle fatal to him and to Patrolman Warren Raby. Judge Maher denied a plea of her attorney that she be admitted to bond when the defendant stood mute at the arraignment, the shooting occurred last Friday after Hessler robbed an East Side finance company of $300.

Two Planes Lost By Japs In Air Raid

Moscow, June 28 (AP)—Fifteen Japanese-Manchoukuo bombers, protected by fighting planes, invaded over Mongolia on new border raids today, a Tass communique said, and lost two planes shot down by Soviet-Mongol anti-aircraft guns.

The communique of the official Soviet news agency said the planes dropped several bombs near Lake Bor, and then retired to Manchoukuo territory without engaging in battle.

The two disabled planes fell in Mongolian territory, it was said.

FALL FATAL

Saginaw, Mich., June 28. (AP)—James Runyan, 52, of Detroit, who fell 45 feet from a scaffold while working on the new Arthur Hill high school yesterday, died in a hospital today.

Prison Trip Has Horror For Woman

Michigan City, Ind., June 28 (AP)—Dr. L. E. Stephenson said tonight it would be unnecessary to amputate the right arm of Mrs. Ruth Joiner, 29-year-old Crawfordville welfare worker, shot yesterday by state police and Indiana state prison guards who rescued her from three desperate convicts seeking to trade her life for their freedom.

Physicians had feared for a time amputation would be required to save her life.

The felons who grabbed Mrs. Joiner as she toured the prison with a party of welfare workers also were wounded when the police and guards burst into the prison doctor's office, where the woman was held captive nearly two hours. Also wounded were a fourth prisoner who sought to aid Mrs. Joiner and two prison employees. All are recovering.

Knife at Throat Mrs. Joiner, shot in the shoulder and chest, gave in the description of her experience:

"One of the men took me by the arm and said, 'Right this way, lady.' I didn't realize anything was wrong. I thought it was part of the tour. I walked into the office and was bewildered when they started to close the door. Then I saw one convict lash out with a knife at the guard. He started to bleed terribly, and I knew the men were desperate.

"Intuition told me not to go to pieces, because I knew they meant business. They sat me in a chair and threatened me as if I weren't human.

"I was frightened, but didn't scream. Then they called the warden and made me talk to him. They kept threatening me. One would pull my head back by the hair and run the knife lightly across my throat.

"That's what we'll do, if you don't get guns for us," one said. "I talked to the warden and told him they would kill me unless he gave them guns, a car and freedom. I pleaded with them and told them I had a little girl who needed me, and they told me to tell that to the warden.

"It was a terrible, horrible experience."

TOOL-DIE GROUP FAVORS STRIKE

Walmart Would Affect Only Workers On 1940 Models

Detroit, June 28 (AP)—Headquarters of the United Automobile Workers Union affiliated with the Congress of Industrial Organizations announced tonight that first returns in a poll showed "overwhelming sentiment" in favor of a strike by Tool and Die Makers, maintenance workers and engineers employed in General Motors plants.

The announcement was made as Arthur Raab, chairman of the new state labor mediation board, held separate meetings with union and corporation officials in an effort to arrange a joint mediation conference.

Raab met early in the afternoon with Floyd O. Tanner, G. M. vice president in charge of employee relations, then went into a conference tonight with R. J. Thomas, international president of the CIO-UAW, and Walter Reuther, head of the union's General Motors department.

Reuther announced after the conference that a first returns showed G. M. skilled employees in Pontiac and Detroit had voted 97 percent for a strike. Other plants were to vote Thursday, he said.

The union is demanding a supplemental agreement for tool and die workers employed in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana. A strike would affect only those workers employed on 1940 models, the union said.

Capital Highlights

(By The Associated Press)

The house voted, 209 to 161, to send the monetary bill to a senate-house conference rather than accept senate amendments which stripped the president of power to devalue the dollar and banned treasury purchases of foreign-produced silver.

Rep. Barton (R-NY) proposed to the house that it pass a "compromise" neutrality bill limiting the embargo to "lethal weapons" rather than all so-called munitions. The administration wants to revise the present law in a manner which will repeal entirely the mandatory embargo on shipment of all war implements to nations at war.

The senate rejected a proposal to add $500,000,000 for public works to the $1,735,000,000 relief bill. Leaders are striving to push both the relief and monetary bills to enactment by Friday night, when existing acts expire.

Legislative action was completed on a $1,194,000,000 appropriation bill for the agriculture department, and the measure went to the president for his signature.

Chairman O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) of the monopoly committee introduced a bill proposing new, drastic penalties for violation of the anti-trust laws. The government could sue offending corporations for twice the amount of their total net income for every month in which the violation occurred.

FINAL HUDDLE IS CALLED ON SCHOOL NEEDS

REVENUE SOURCES DEPLETED; SHORT 14 MILLIONS

Lansing, June 28 (AP)—A special legislative committee agreed tonight to recommend appropriation of $39,000,000 for state school aid so that Michigan can balance its budget during each of the next two fiscal years.

Speaker Howard Nugent said the group left over until tomorrow morning a decision on a method of distributing the school fund. The principal point at issue was reported to be a reduction in the equalization fund.

Nothing In Reserve The sum agreed upon by the six-man committee is three-fourths of a million dollars higher than that contained in a house bill which the senate rejected.

Nugent said the $39,000,000, if finally approved by the legislature, would permit the state to balance its budget but would leave nothing in reserve.

The committee worked until nearly midnight in arriving at a compromise formula which would enable the legislature to complete its work this week and avoid a special session during the summer.

Key members of the two chambers delegated the job to the committee of six senators and six representatives, and instructed them to report tomorrow at caucuses of each house.

The two-day adjournment session of the legislature convenes at 9 a. m. (EST) tomorrow.

All Republicans Senator Earl W. Munshaw, Grand Rapids; Rep. Frank J. Calvert, Highland Park; and Senator Allen G. Ludington, Detroit, represent the urban faction on the committee, while the rural and small village group was represented by Rep. Audley Rawson, Cass City, Republican floor leader; Rep. Edson V. Root, Paw Paw, chairman of the house education committee, and Senator M. Harold Saur, Kent City.

All six committeemen are Republicans. They attacked the problem immediately after it was handed to them.

The urban group argues that the formula in the house bill, which the senate rejected and brought a deadlock, favors villages and medium-small cities at the expense of large cities and the extremely small school districts.

Compromise Predicted Speaker Howard Nugent, Bad Axe Republican, predicted that the committee would arrive at an acceptable solution. He also forecast almost complete attendance at the windup of the session.

Usually only a handful of legislators return to the capitol for the final adjournment, but the fight over state aid for schools and the consequent threat of a special session if the budget is not balanced expected to draw most of the members back for the finale.

The speaker signified that he (Continued on Page Two)

SCOUT BOUNCE PROGRAM HELD

Local Scouts Present Variety Program At Junior High

From a stage planned to represent a typical scouting scene, with stumps and campfire in the center stage and scouts squatting in fir-covered trees at either side, the Boy Scout Bounce, a variety program presented by the Escanaba Boy Scout Council, was presented to an audience of some four hundred persons last night at William W. Oliver Memorial Auditorium.

Featured on the program were the Boy Scout band and chorus, which gave as specialty numbers an Iroquois Indian war dance and a solo-chorus number, "These Bones Shall Rest Again," with James L'Heureux as soloist. The band also played during the intermission between the movie reels and the opening of the Louis-Galante fight, broadcast during the program. The chorus also presented a novelty number with Bill Cary as soloist.

It was announced that the Scout band will be guests of honor at a Fourth of July celebration on Mackinac Island. They have been invited to attend by the island council in appreciation of their efforts in entertaining island visitors in past weeks.

Scouts representing various troops participated in a "quiz" program conducted by Oliver V. Thatcher as chief quizzer. Contestants were Jack Wilcock of Troop 48, Bob Johnson of Troop 49, Bill Shebeck of Troop 50, John Gross of Troop 51, Dick Van de Welle of Troop 55, Bob McKie of Troop 57, Bob Jensen of Troop 54, Bill Williams of Troop 53 and Albert Nelson of Troop 46, Bark River. Winners of the contest was Bob McKie of Troop 57, who was awarded a free week at camp as first prize.

In an adult general information contest conducted by "Professor Knowit," alias Harold Gessner, Ted Baldwin, Wallace Cameron, Orrville King, Orrin King, George Nelson and Major Nelson of the Salvation Army participated. The contest ended in a four-way tie and the five dollar first prize is to be divided among the winners.

B. W. Phillips, local scout executive, announced that approximately sixty Escanaba scouts will leave today for the camp at Manistique, at which some 300 scouts of this district, including boys from Gladstone, Munising and Manistique, will meet. There will be a week's intermission before the regular camping season opens, according to Mr. Phillips.

He also described the new scout camp at Munising, a 2,000-acre thickly wooded area, near a string of four lakes, ideal for camping.

Persons Of Average Means To Compose Middle Class League

Elyria, O., June 28. (AP)—Scholarly Walter B. Pitkin, who said "Life begins at 40," has turned "revolutionist" at 62.

In Elyria, a city of 25,000, the Columbia university professor of journalism called a meeting for tomorrow night to launch what he calls "the next American revolution."

He seeks to unite persons of average means into a "league of the middle class," an organization which the educator said must be non-political, non-sectarian and non-commercial.

Its purpose: To arouse the middle class to action in political and economic affairs and to correct evils through focused public opinion. Pitkin makes no predictions for his league.

"It may fold up in two months or two years," he said, "or it may work satisfactorily from the start. I offer a plan at no cost to anybody. It is workable, but it is up to the mass of intelligent, hard-working Americans to put it to work."

Senate Restores Federal Theatre, WPA Art Project

Washington, June 28. (AP)—The senate approved a continuation of the federal theatre and other WPA art projects tonight with a strict limitation upon the amount to be expended for such purposes.

At the urging of Senator Wagner (D-N. Y.) it allowed $13,000,000 for the art projects as compared with approximately $25,000,000 spent upon them during the current fiscal year.

This action was taken as the chamber rapidly approached final action on the $1,735,000,000 relief appropriation bill. Earlier it had approved an amendment requiring that the states contribute 25 per cent of the cost of all WPA projects within their areas, and rejected a proposal that $500,000,000 be appropriated for a new public works program.

hoped a special session could be avoided but said he had no idea what the house's attitude on the compromise proposal would be.

Before the six-member committee plunged into its job legislative leaders and members of Governor Dickinson's "cabinet" held separate huddles and kept in contact with each other.

Secretary of State Harry F. Kelly, the state's chief executive in Dickinson's absence, Budget Director Grover C. Dillman and Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, superintendent of public instruction, shut down and forth between the two conferences until the elective officers gave it up and went home.

Deficit 31 Millions
Kelly said he would "stand by" to assist the legislators, whose meeting continued into the evening in any fashion that they might suggest. Dillman and Dr. Elliott also remained at hand.

A house and senate deadlock over a $38,250,000 school aid appropriation bill threw the state's budget for the 1939-41 biennium out of balance by an estimated $14,000,000 and occasioned the dilemma. Without a new appropriation, a $43,000,000-a-year continuing appropriation would remain in effect.

A house and senate deadlock over a $38,250,000 school aid appropriation bill threw the state's budget for the 1939-41 biennium out of balance by an estimated $14,000,000 and occasioned the dilemma. Without a new appropriation, a $43,000,000-a-year continuing appropriation would remain in effect.

Dickinson has demanded a balanced budget, and it was to meet his ultimatum that legislators arranged for compromise attempts that approached a climax in tonight's eleventh-hour huddle. Unless the budget is balanced by adoption of a reduced school aid appropriation, the governor warned, he will call the legislature back in a special session in late July.

No New Liquor Levy
Members of the state administrative board and spokesmen for the liquor control commission decided in their conference that there could be no new taxes which would increase the price of liquor.

"We universally came to the conclusion that such a course would encourage bootlegging to a point that would be intolerable," Kelly told reporters afterward.

Orrin A. DeMass, chairman of the liquor commission, reminded the group that the state had been free from bootlegging with the old 5 per cent markup, that it had made its advent with a new 55 per cent markup and that a markup of 65 per cent, which has been proposed as a solution of the school fund problem "would immediately bring an influx of bootlegging comparable to prohibition days."

Even the imposition of the three per cent sales tax on liquor transactions would be "disastrous," Kelly asserted. He explained that it would be impossible to reduce the discount to licensees without new legislation, and that new legislation at this stage of the legislature's session was out of the question.

Appointments Await Action
Opinion of the success of the compromise drive was clearly divided. Senator Earl W. Munshaw, Grand Rapids Republican, said he "really believed" an agreement near.

Rep. Edson V. Root, Paw Paw Republican, expressed the opinion that the issue could not be clarified without a special session.

Munshaw has been a spokesman for the city school districts that fought the $38,250,000 appropriation voted by the house of representatives because of a "discriminatory" plan for distribution which rural legislators have been insisting upon. Root was chairman of the house committee on education and a member of the conference committee that sought in vain for a compromise before the regular business session of the legislature adjourned.

In addition to the fight over the school aid appropriation, the legislature must consider legislation vetoed by Governor Dickinson when it reconvenes tomorrow. The senate also has before it for confirmation 36 executive appointments.

Appointments which have not been confirmed include those of Dr. H. A. Moyer of Charlotte, the Benedict, superintendent. The appointment went into effect immediately after the graduation of the class of 1939, on June 12th.

Hearing Is Delayed In Suit Challenging State Civil Service

Detroit, June 28 (AP)—Circuit Judge Adolph F. Marchner today adjourned until July 10 hearing of a suit brought by William P. Long challenging the civil service ripper bill and the right of Governor Dickinson to hold office.

The adjournment was granted at the request of representatives of Attorney General Thomas Read.

Long's suit charges that he was not appointed counsel for the unemployment compensation commission although he finished at the head of the civil service eligibility list through competitive examination.

The suit charges also that Governor Dickinson had no constitutional right to sign the civil service ripper bill and that it was the governor's constitutional duty to have filled the vacancy in the office of governor, on the death of Governor Fitzgerald, rather than continue in office himself. Failure to fill the vacancy, the suit avers, prevented some other person from assuming the executive responsibility of reviewing the legislation.

concession shall be maintained British authority in the concession shall be preserved intact."

Boasting Encouraged
Still another speaker expressing concern at the trend of events was former Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden. He advised a Shropshire audience that "not only to be tough but to look tough, to talk tough and to act tough is the best contribution we as a people can make to peace today."

Some saw in the remark, coupled with recent expressions of the press and political leaders, an indication of a concerted British campaign to try to discourage further attempts at aggression by boasting of Britain's newly-acquired aerial might.

With neutrality legislation now under consideration in the United States congress, Churchill made a gesture across the Atlantic with the declaration that "perhaps the most weighty factor at the present time is the United States."

He added: "We ask no favor from any nation, but there is understanding, good will and sympathy for us in that great republic. That is great encouragement to this country during these months of increasing anxiety."

Urging a quick conclusion of a mutual assistance pact with Soviet Russia at a time when new instructions were being sent to Moscow in an effort to achieve this, Churchill also agreed with the government's policy toward the Tientsin incidents.

"I am glad," he said, "that the government have not been provoked into taking their eye off the target. These studied insults and affronts from the Japanese—a nation hitherto renowned for their good manners—may well have been a trap to lure us away from the seas where any major trouble which may arise will be decided."

ROBBERY PROBED

Menominee, Mich.—Menominee police today turned their investigation of the burglary of the Guy M. Bergen home at 903 Williams avenue toward Gladstone where a carnival that played last week at Marinette is now showing.

Police chief Frank Paresk said that most of the clothing valued at more than $100 stolen from the Bergen home was found in the middle of the slough east of the interstate bridge approach, and that he believes the thief was a member of the carnival company that moved from Marinette Sunday.

The clothing and a purse with $10 in it was stolen from the Bergen home Sunday night. All of the stolen articles have been recovered except the purse and money.

Dahnke Appointed Passenger Agent By Milwaukee Road

Milwaukee—Official announcement of the appointment of Carl F. Dahnke, as general agent passenger department of the Milwaukee Road, with headquarters in Milwaukee, succeeding John C. Prien who died here June 9, 1939, was made today by H. Sengstacken, general passenger agent of the railroad.

A native of Wisconsin, Mr. Dahnke entered the service of the Milwaukee Road in 1915 as a telegraph operator. For the past 10 years he has been city passenger agent at Madison, Wis. In his new position he will have jurisdiction over the railroad's passenger business in Wisconsin and Upper Michigan.

M. L. Olson of Chicago, with title of district passenger agent, succeeds Mr. Dahnke at Madison. For the past 13 years Mr. Olson has been city passenger agent in Chicago.

Other promotions include the advancement of T. G. Austin from city passenger agent in Milwaukee, and the advancement of W. J. Cymantek, from passenger agent to city passenger agent in Milwaukee.

All of the appointments are effective July 1st.

Reigning Midweight Champs May Clash

Seattle, June 28 (AP)—The two currently reigning midweight boxing champions may battle each other for the championship one of these days.

Al Hostak of Seattle, who regained his midweight title—recognized by the National Boxing association—last night from Solly Krieger of Brooklyn, said today he wants to fight Freddie Apostoli, recognized as the champion by the Boxing Commissions of New York and California.

Nate Druxman, who promoted the Hostak-Krieger fight last night, indicated he would try to promote Hostak's first title defense, possibly here in August, against the winner of the Apostoli-Ceferino Garcia bout, July 27 in New York City.

Should Apostoli win from Garcia, and be matched with Hostak, it would settle the dual role in the oft-muddled midweight division.

Krieger, who has fought both said "if Hostak ever hits Apostoli he'll kill him."

Krieger was the victim of a fourth-round technical knockout at Hostak's hands last night.

Adams, in charge of the relief bill for the appropriations committee, had to be on the floor, he said, smilingly adding that he was in "no hurry." He is one of the silver group, Barkley, as majority leader, had to be there, too. Byrnes, deeply interested in the administration of relief, was the author of important amendments to the relief measure. Wagner, chairman of the conference talked of beginning the conference "some time tonight," but later gave up and announced that the conference would not meet until tomorrow afternoon.

What the conference result would be a subject of much speculation. Chairman Somers (D-NY) of the house conference group was emphatic in saying that the house would not accept the senate amendments. Both the Republican anti-devaluationists and the silver Democrats were emphatic in saying that there would be no legislation by the Friday midnight deadline if the senate amendments should be dropped.

Both factions of the coalition, the Republicans privately and the silverites publicly, asserted that a filibuster would ensue if their amendments were taken out in conference.

BY DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Aboard Roosevelt Train Enroute to Washington, June 28 (AP)—President Roosevelt tonight headed back to Washington and a closer contact with problems arising from a legislative log-jam in congress.

To see what might be done about breaking up the obstructions which are holding back monetary, relief and the agriculture appropriation bills, it was understood, he would confer with his lieutenants from Capitol Hill in the morning. Those three measures, or stop-gap substitutes, must be enacted by Friday midnight, the close of the fiscal year, if some degree of chaos is to be avoided in several major government departments and agencies.

If the chief executive was ready to point out to congressional leaders any sign posts which might lead the mout of the legislative maze, he was keeping it to himself.

Some individuals close to the president got the impression, however, that he might let the thought seep through to the legislators that if they did not get busy it was all right with him if they spent the summer in Washington.

He could pick a dull spot to fulfill his promise to visit the San Francisco World's Fair. And a prolonged session would not interfere unduly with his week-ends.

Plan Announced For New Passenger Boat For Lake Michigan

Milwaukee, Wis., June 28 (AP)—Plans for construction of a high speed, streamlined passenger and automobile carrier for Lake Michigan service was announced today by the Wisconsin-Michigan Steamship company.

The ship, to be built at an estimated cost of one million dollars, will be 360 feet long, with twin screws and a turbo-electric engine capable of driving the craft at 23 miles an hour. It will carry approximately 1,000 passengers and 30 automobiles.

The company said it would receive bids July 10. Company officials said the new ship would be able to cross the lake in four hours, but said no definite route had been determined.

Negro Who Wounded Himself Will Recover

Reed City (P)—Reed City hospital attendants predicted Wednesday that Henry Washington, 73-year-old negro relief client, probably would recover from a bullet wound which Sheriff Henry Smith said he inflicted on himself after fatally shooting Miss Mamie Kerr, 55, a relief worker, at Baldwin Tuesday. Authorities have announced that the aged man would be charged with first degree homicide if he recovered. The shooting followed a demand by Washington that he be hospitalized for appendicitis.

Florence, Italy, probably contains more works of art than any similar area.

Attorney General Rules Air Pistols Dangerous Weapons

Lansing, June 28 (AP)—Air pistols discharging pellets large enough to cause serious injury are dangerous weapons and come under state law regulating the use of firearms, the attorney general held in an opinion today.

The opinion, asked by State Police Commissioner Oscar G. Olander, declared concealment of such a weapon in an automobile could be construed as violation of a law against carrying concealed weapons.

Should Be Enforced

SOME fireworks manufacturer or dealer is responsible for the accident which caused a five-year-old Soo hill girl to lose a thumb and index finger when a firecracker exploded prematurely in her hand.

Aiming at safer celebrations of the Fourth of July, five state legislatures enacted laws during current sessions to regulate the use, distribution and possession of fireworks.

Business men might do well to forego the small profits to be made in the bootlegging and sale of fireworks when they view the suffering and sorrow that have been caused here in recent years as a result of this illegal traffic.

Miracles of the Depression

BEFORE many months have passed it is expected that the American people will be as familiar with the strangely seeming word nylon as today they are with the word rayon.

Nylon also is a textile. Merin or any other medieval necromancer would have given up philosopher's stone and alembic in disgust and gone for a soldier could he have seen how it is made.

This is but one of the miracles of technology which the Great Depression has brought forth. No one can say that the long scientific advances which have been made during the depressed years would not have been made anyway.

Some of the inventions seem simple, some tremendous. No one can be certain in advance of the importance of any discovery.

A discovery of epochal importance is one for the concentration of manganese ores. The United States has manganese but its ores are of such low grade and the cost of reduction, therefore, so high that American industry has had to import 90 per cent of its requirements.

What these things mean to the American people and, through echo, to the world, is incalculable. Not only are there more things to use but everything is better and more quickly and more economically made.

Primp Up Time

RAINS during April and May hampered the spring clean up and paint up campaign in Escanaba, but during the past month there has been a very noticeable spurt in residential improvement work.

enhance the attractiveness of a community, and they often are the criterion by which visitors pass judgment.

A Matter of Direction

REFORMERS who try to bring about their objectives by curbing and suppressing a perfectly natural impulse usually have little success.

Sanford Bates, once director of federal prisons, now outstanding in boys' work, knows about that. The man who used to be expert in keeping people in jail is spending all his time today in trying to keep them out.

Other Editors' Comments

PROBLEM FOR THE SCHOOL BOARD

Failure of the school millage proposal to receive the approval of a sufficient number of voters in Monday's election leaves the Ironwood board of education with the problem of adequately financing school operations during the coming fiscal year.

What the board will, or can, do about the problem probably will not be known until it holds its next meeting. At the moment there appears to be little the board can do except to ask the county tax allocation board for a greater share of the 15 mill levy which it shares with the county, and to hope for more state aid.

Last year the tax allocation board granted the school district 5.7 mills, while the county received nine mills. There is apparently little prospect of any increase in this allotment.

AROUND THE PENINSULA

Several Upper Peninsula lumbermen don't agree with Dr. Raphael Zon, who told the American Association for the Advancement of Science at Milwaukee that cut-over areas of the Great Lakes states, including the Peninsula, have potentialities for co-operative agriculture with co-operatively owned equipment and that portable sawmills should be operated in the area.

When Dr. Erkki Leppo of Finland was assigned to study public health activities in Michigan and came into the Peninsula, he probably didn't realize that he was visiting a section of the state that has one of the largest Finnish populations in the country.

The Crystal Falls Rotary club learned last week from Amos Ismay, Iron county farmer, how he happened to get a record yield of 491 bushels of potatoes per acre last year to top Michigan's production.

There was romance in the railroad era of the Peninsula in 1870, to believe Jerry Brennan, retired railroader of Minneapolis who told of some of his experiences on his arrival in Escanaba not long ago.

Police at Sault Ste. Marie evidently mean business when they warn against the use of fireworks which, of course, is not legal in Michigan.

World Affairs Reviewed

BY MILTON BRONNER

NBA Service Staff Correspondent London—If Great Britain and France fight side by side in a new European war, the supreme commanders of their respective armed forces will have one big advantage over their World War predecessors.

Soldierly-looking, quick of step and quick of eye, General Gamelin of France is a soldier by heredity. At 67, he is the supreme head of all the armed forces of France—army, navy and air—and marked out to be in supreme command of the allied forces if there is another world war.

When the great war broke out, Gamelin was in the Battle of the Marne and later in 1914 was promoted Lieutenant Colonel and chief of a bureau of operations. In 1916, as Colonel, he commanded the 3rd Brigade of Infantry Chasseurs in Alsace and later in that year, at the age of 44, became a Brigadier General and once more joined Joffre as head of his staff.

General Sir Ironside is not yet officially Britain's high commander, but the probability is that he will be, in the event of war. He was recently appointed Inspector General of the Overseas Forces of Great Britain.

Q. Does it cost a working girl more to live alone or with her family? E. G. H. A. 1938 cost of living survey shows that it costs the working girl who lives alone approximately $100 a year more for adequate maintenance than if she lives at home.

Q. How many people are still unemployed? E. F. M. A. According to figures of the National Industrial Conference Board, unemployment in the United States in April, 1939, fell about 2 per cent, but the total number is approximately 10,177,000.

Q. What is the lowest point in Switzerland? J. G. S. A. The lowest point in Switzerland is the shore of Lake Maggiore, which is about 650 feet above sea level, while the bottom of the lake itself is 575 feet below sea level.

Q. In the motion picture "Wuthering Heights," what was the name of the piece played on the harpsichord? E. D. B. A. The selection played by Mme. Ehlers on the harpsichord is Mozart's "Turkish March."

Q. Is it true that some of the paintings in the Government Department are not likenesses of the men they are supposed to represent? N. M. A. While no mistakes of this kind are known at present, the suspicion doubtless arose from the strange case of Robert Smith, who was Attorney General under Jefferson and Secretary of State under Madison.

Q. How many people speak Spanish? K. N. M. A. It has been estimated that Spanish is spoken by more than 100,000,000 persons.

Q. Please give the origin of the name Chosen as applied to the former kingdom of Korea. T. M. J. A. In 1122 B.C. Ki-tse, a minister of the Yin dynasty in China, led 5000 followers to Korea where he founded a kingdom which he called Chosen, Land of the Morning Calm.

Q. Where was the first normal school in the United States? L. T. A. The first school for the preparation of teachers was opened at Lexington, Vermont, in 1823 by the Reverend Samuel Reed Hall, who had been a teacher as well as preacher, and who accepted the pastorate of the Congregational Church at Lexington on condition that he might conduct a seminary for teachers. Massachusetts was the first State to establish normal schools, the first being opened at Lexington in 1839.

20 Years Ago

Twenty-five dollars a pair for shoes? Not a pleasant prospect, is it? But Escanaba men who are familiar with the present condition of the leather market assure that not only is there possibility that eight shoes will sell for $100 before another year rolls around, but it is a stern and menacing probability.

New York Column

New York—The quartet of Roosevelt sons continue, obligingly, to provide copy for the public prints. It is no secret that Franklin D. Jr., derives fun out of New York's night life, and habits of the Stork Club have come to accept his appearances among them quite casually.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Washington—E. B. Germany, Democratic State Chairman of Texas and head of the Garner For President Committee, is trying to stage a patronage raid on the $45,000,000 fund for the 1940 census, in order to build up a political machine to put Garner in the White House.

BUGGY PARADE PRIZES LISTED

100 Girls With 150 Dolls and Buggies Entered Parade

Nearly one hundred girls ranging from two years up exhibited over one hundred and fifty gaily decorated buggies, costumed dolls, home made dolls, and unique dolls of all sizes, shapes, and colors in the Second Annual Doll and Buggy Parade at the Ludington Park Playground yesterday. Many of the girls also came in costume and with buggies decorated in crepe paper, natural and artificial flowers, and evergreens they made a pretty picture.

Outside competition was afforded by Joan Gertrude Gallagher who came from Ishpeming and Margaret Ann Erickson whose home is in Gladstone.

One of the outstanding attractions was a doll sixty-two years old which was displayed by Lorraine Sundelius. Another unusual entry was an old-fashioned buggy thirty-seven years old wheeled by Joan Charland.

Winners of the first three places in each event are as follows: Largest Doll Buggy—Joan Bink, Elaine Nelson, Margaret Ann Erickson. Smallest Buggy (that can be pushed)—Joyce Hebert, Joan Charland, Bobby Lequia. Best Decorated Buggy—Jacqueline Hart, Maryline Nelson, Lois Nelson and Gail LaChapell. Most Old Fashioned Buggy—Joan Charland, Beverly Heron, Betty Kallstrom. Largest Doll—Arlene Pilot, Marilyn Kell, Therese Mae View. Smallest Doll—Joyce Hebert, Sally Ann Sederlund, Bill Curran. Doll with Longest Hair—Arlene Pilot, Lois Nelson, Joan Nelson, Joan Brick, Largest Boy Doll—Helen Barry, Mary Ann Hart. Best Home Made Rag Doll, girls under 12—Gail LaChapell, Sally Ann Sederlund, Most Comical Doll—Helen Barry, Joan Gallagher, Janet Anderson. Best Dressed Doll—Gail LaChapell, Margaret Weber, Joan Paimner. Doll with Most Unusual Costume—Theresa Lequia, Lois Nelson, Barbara Nelson. Most Unusual Doll—Jean Stratton, Ethelaine Fontaine, Lois Nelson. Doll with Funniest Costume—Betty Hart, Mary Ann Hart, Helen Barry. Most Unique Group of Dolls—Mae Finn, Edith Harrington, Lois Nelson. Girl Bringing Doll the Farthest—Joan Gertrude Gallagher (Ishpeming), Margaret Ann Erickson (Gladstone), Betty Kallstrom (Escanaba). Oldest Doll—Lorraine Sundelius, Betty Kallstrom, Jean Couillard. Youngest Exhibitor—Janet Mae Malletstadt, Mae Finn. Extra Awards were made to the following: Marlene Klug, well dressed. Suzanne Dumers, curliest hair. Charlotte Olson, age of doll. Mary Picher, attractive buggy. Lorraine Pilot, long hair of doll. Beverly Bryson, large buggy. Virginia Krezman, combination of tall doll and decorated buggy. Joyce Marie Vogel, big doll and decorated buggy.

The parade was one of the city's summer program of recreation. Mrs. Bernice Anderson, assisted by Doris Costley, WPA playground leaders directed the show. Judges were Mrs. Walter Dickson, Mrs. George E. Bean and Mrs. Bevier Butts.

Doll 62 Years Old

Lorraine Sundelius is shown here with a sixty-two year old doll and a thirty-seven-year-old doll buggy. Ariene Pilot, right, won first prize for having the largest doll.

40 Jobs Filled In County During Past Week, Report Shows

Whitney Dixon, local office manager, yesterday announced that the Escanaba office of the Michigan State Employment Service had filled 40 jobs during the week ending June 24.

During the week ending June 17, the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission, at which the Employment Service is a division, paid to Delta county workers a total of $1,409 in benefits for partial and total unemployment.

Of the total placements during the week ending June 24, nine were in private employment, an increase of 100 per cent over placements made during the corresponding week last year.

During this period, the Service filled 31 jobs in public placements, made a total of 25 field visits to employers in an effort to locate jobs; received 26 new applications for work; 31 renewed applications and handled 342 personal visits to the office.

The active file of unemployed persons seeking work through the Escanaba office, stood at 3271 at the end of the week covered, an increase of 35 per cent over the same period in 1938.

The claims and benefits sections of the commission issued 138 benefit checks in the week ending June 17. Totally unemployed persons in Delta county have received $146,973 in 13,317 benefit checks through this date. The average check for total unemployment amounted to $11.04.

Individuals only partially unemployed have received $2,520 in 101 benefit checks, with an average value of $24.95. Up to date the Commission has issued 13,418 checks to 1,244 individuals with a total value of $149,492. This includes benefit checks for total and partial unemployment.

County Board Has One-Day Meeting

Munising, June 28.—Alger county's board of supervisors met here on Monday for their annual equalization meeting but adjourned after the day's session subject to the call of the chairman.

The board authorized the chairman and prosecuting attorney R. E. O'Brien to examine the request of R. J. Weikel for permission to construct a dock on the county property at Miner's Castle and gave them the power to act on the request.

Judge of Probate James Hosking and County Clerk Henry Jacobson were authorized by the board to attend the convention of their respective groups this year at county expense. The supervisors voted to extend an invitation to the state association of county clerks to hold their 1940 convention in Munising.

A request was ordered made to the state commissioner of agriculture that a test of all cattle in the county for Bang's disease be made.

A motion to allow the secretary of the county poor commission $15 per month for office rent effective on July 1, 1939, failed to pass.

LIQUOR RULES CHANGE
Munising, June 28.—A notice of a change in one of the rulings of the Michigan liquor control commission was received here today by State Trooper Harold Bliss.

Effective on July 1, 1939, alcoholic liquors may not be sold between 2 a. m. and 2 p. m. on Sunday or from 2 a. m. to 7 a. m. on any other day. The change also applies to 24 hour permits held by some groups.

MRS. BROWN ENTERTAINS

Munising, June 28.—Mrs. O. E. Brown entertained at a bridge luncheon at her home on West Munising avenue on Tuesday afternoon. Five tables of contract were played with Mrs. L. B. Ruggles winning the high prize and Mrs. George Best winning the consolation award. An attractive luncheon was served to the group.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disease, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills today and ask for new money-saving Family Size.

H. J. Rushton Elected Manager Of U. P. Fair

Atty. H. J. Rushton, Escanaba, was appointed manager of the Upper Peninsula State Fair at a meeting of the new board of managers here yesterday. Robert C. Fryal remains as secretary of the institution.

As in the case when he held the managership a number of years ago, Attorney Rushton will serve in the position without salary. He has been long interested in the state fair and was largely responsible while he was serving as a member of the state senate during Governor Fred Green's administration.

The board of managers decided to reinstate harness races and horsehoe pitching to the fair program. The two features of the exposition were eliminated by the board in November for economy reasons, but the new board decided to again offer this entertainment after receiving a number of letters from various Upper Peninsula people.

No passes will be issued to anyone, the board decided at yesterday's meeting.

Members of the board of directors were assigned to take charge of various departments of the state fair, which will be held August 6 to 11. The assignments were as follows: Judge John E. Quinlan, Newberry, horse racing and horse pulling; Mrs. L. Vierling, Marquette, women's departments; Patrick Kelly, Watersmeet, midway attractions; and John McInnis, Rudyard, livestock.

Happy to Say Good Words for KruGon

Life Had Been A Terrible Burden for Her Suffering As She Was; Then KruGon Scores A Victory

"KruGon was what I had been wanting for the past two years," said Mrs. Vito Binzelio, 2023 4th Ave., Hibbing, Minnesota. "My health had been growing steadily worse and I was tired, run-down and never felt well. I had been badly constipated for years until those intestinal poisons had had their effect in many ways. My digestion was poor and most all foods I ate disagreed with me. Such severe gas pains would follow my meals I was almost afraid to eat at times. I was in no condition to do my daily housework and life itself was a terrible burden for me. But that was before I had learned of this laxative- tonic, KruGon, and began its use.

"I did not realize a medicine of KruGon's merit existed until I gave it the opportunity to help me," continued Mrs. Binzelio. "I feel much better in so many ways. My bowels are functioning regularly and those intestinal impurities have been eliminated. I now eat and enjoy my meals without any distress afterwards. It is a real joy in living to have such good strength and energy again. No wonder KruGon receives so much praise... It is a deserving remedy."

KruGon is sold by West End Drug Store, 1221 Ludington St., this city.

Marie Scheriff Is the Bride of Leo J. Brunelle

Pink peonies and anapragons, arranged with the lighted candles, graced the main altar of the new St. Joseph's church Wednesday morning for the wedding of Miss Marie Catherine Scheriff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto K. Scheriff, of 1020 Ninth avenue south, and Leo Joseph Brunelle of 901 First avenue south, son of Leon Brunelle of this city.

The marriage service at which Rev. Fr. Paschal Kerner, O. F. M., officiated, was conducted at a nuptial high mass at 8:30 o'clock.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a floor length gown of blue chiffon, with which she wore a sweetheart hat of blue with a finger tip veil of the same shade. Pink sweetheart roses and forget-me-nots were used in her bridal bouquet. Her matron of honor, Mrs. Herbert Scheriff, was gowned in a floor length model of pink chiffon, and her shoulder length veil of pink was fashioned to a pink tiara. She carried an arm bouquet of anapragons and fever bow.

Wedding Breakfast Mrs. Scheriff wore a summer dress of black with pansy embroidery and a shoulder corsage of pansies.

Mr. Brunelle was attended by Ted Scheriff of Green Bay, Wis., and Herbert Scheriff and Donald Brunelle were ushers.

This music of the nuptial mass was sung by St. Joseph's church choir, Miss Eva Cossette, organist-director, with soloists of mass, Frank Hira and Mrs. John Cass. The traditional processional of brides, Wagner's "Bridal Chorus," and the recessional, Mendelssohn's Wedding March, were played by Miss Cossette.

A wedding breakfast for immediate members of both families was served at Belle's Coffee shop, the tiered wedding cake, with roses and anapragons forming the main note of the decorative scheme. A reception at the Scheriff home followed, the decorations in the home in which peonies, anapragons and forget-me-nots predominated, in an attractive color arrangement of pink, blue and white.

Honeymoon In East Mr. Brunelle and his bride left on a honeymoon trip east, during which they will attend the New York World's Fair. The bride selected for traveling a brown redingote ensemble with matching accessories. They will be at home following their return at 710 First avenue south.

The bride, a graduate of St. Joseph's high school and St. Mary's college, Prairie du Chien, Wis., has been engaged as a teacher of mathematics. Mr. Brunelle, who is in business in Escanaba, is a graduate of St. Joseph's high school and of Jordan college, Menominee, and has been prominent in the athletic department of both schools.

Ted Scheriff of Green Bay, was an out-of-town guest at the wedding.

FURLONG GOES TO BOYNE CITY

Assistant Supervisor of District Will Be Transferred

Robert Furlong, 1114 Washington avenue, assistant district supervisor of the Michigan department of conservation, will be transferred to Boyne City within the next few days, it was learned here yesterday from District Supervisor Clare Farwell.

Furlong will be supervisor of the Boyne City district, succeeding Harry Aldrich, who has been named assistant regional supervisor with headquarters at Rosemond. No successor has been named as yet to Furlong here.

Furlong entered the department of conservation service at Trout Lake in 1929. He remained there two years before being transferred to local headquarters where he has been since that time.

Supervisor Farwell also announced yesterday the appointment of Herb Lenton, state trapper since 1937, as regular conservation officer. Lenton will leave in a few days for St. Jacques where he will be stationed. He will succeed Officer Allan Tweedy, who recently moved to Rapid River district.

Constipation Lets Loose When We Wake Up Our Bile Juice

Two pints of bile juice should flow from our liver into our bowels every day. When this vital flow slows down, the crawling motion of our 28 feet of bowels slows down. This slowing down of the crawling motion lightens up our bowels and we don't have those glorious morning movements. We have constipation instead. An easy way to loosen up constipation is to get your two pints of bile juice flowing daily. One way to start the flow of this vital juice is to take a good dose of Carter's Little Liver Pills. For Carter's Little Liver Pills are made especially to wake up our bile flow. If you suffer from constipation, ask your druggist for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. But if you wish to loosen up constipation in the natural bile flowing way, be sure you get nothing but Carter's Little Liver Pills—24.

SAFETY FIRST!

For the past 8 or 10 years the Upper Peninsula of Michigan has been infested with a plague of synthetic "truck" shows. Indeed there are about 60 of these so-called "circuses" running about the country, traveling by auto, trucks, house trailers, bicycles, wheelbarrows and roller skates.

If you have two trucks you can label them "circus" and start out.

A great majority of these truck circuses have little or nothing of merit to exhibit. Notwithstanding the Government charges no tax on amusement tickets, except those selling for more than 40 cents. Yet some of these "trucks" have the unmitigated effrontery to collect as much tax on these "tickets" or passes they dish out and give away so liberally as charged for the regular price of admission.

CAST OF CHARACTERS
ROYALTON AUGUSTUS HERRING—just a guy with a car who met a girl.
BARBARA GANNING—just a girl beset by a couple of golfers.

RONALD AND WILFRID—the golfers besetting Barbara.
 Yesterday, Royalton meets the rivals and decides to give Wilfrid golf lessons in anticipation of his match for Barbara's hand, on one condition.

CHAPTER VI

Wilfrid did a little dance of pure joy.
 "Boy, oh boy!" he cried enthusiastically. "This is great. Name the condition. Just name it."

"Well," said Roy, "it's simply this: You will have to do just as I tell you."
 "Of course I will," Wilfrid said cordially. "Anything you like."
 "Well then, I'll give you a lesson at 4 o'clock. But you've got to promise to go to bed early to-night."

"Bed early? Why?"
 "Any golfer on the verge of a big match," said Roy wearily, "needs sleep. You won't get it to-morrow night. You'll be worrying about the match. So you've got to get it tonight. And"—he extended an accusing finger—"you went out dancing last night and came home and played the banjo. Do you think Sammy Sneed would act like that. Do you?"

Wilfrid blushed. "You seem to know everything."
 "The servants' quarters," Roy reminded him.

"Humph! Well, you just give me a lesson or two and I'll go to bed at sundown if you want."
 "Okay," said Roy.
 "Good," said Wilfrid gratefully. "Now I'm going in. I want to see Barbara. Never can tell what my brother might be up to, the dirty louse." He gathered up his golfing materials and stalked away.

Roy stood for a moment deep in thought. He was not exactly sure how this alliance with Wilfrid would benefit him. But at all events, it was a means of getting rid of at least one of the twins for the evening. The thing now was to seek the garage and do some constructive thinking. He turned and almost trod on a small boy who had appeared like a gnat from the other side of the hyacinth bush.

"Hello," he said abstractedly.
 "Hello, my son."
 "Hello yourself," said the boy.
 "And I'm not your son."
 Roy stood corrected. "No, of course not. Whose son are you?"
 "The old man's," said the boy irreverently.

This, reflected Roy, must be the kid brother Billy of whom Barbara had spoken. Strongly endeared to the lad by this thought, he scrutinized him more closely. He saw a dark-haired youngster with big black eyes which peered mischievously out of a shrewd elfin face.

The boy indicated the figure of Wilfrid retreating into the distance.
 "That guy," he said disdainfully, "can't play golf for nuts."
 Roy nodded. "That's what call a very profound observation."

 "How's that?"
 "I said you're right."
 "Huh! You didn't say it the first time."
 "I meant to," said Roy humbly.

"You'd ought to say what you mean," said the boy severely. His thought returned to the erring Wilfrid and he added pensively:
 "And I've got 10 bucks on him."
 "You've got what?"
 "Say," demanded the youngster, "are you deaf or something? I said I bet 10 bucks on Wilfrid to win the match."
 "Oh! What did you do that for?"

"When they first started," explained the boy, "Wilfrid looked better to me. But now"—he shook his head sadly—"he's gone rotten."
 "And you think you may lose your 10 bucks?"
 The boy nodded. "That's what I'm afraid of."
 "Who are you betting with?" asked Roy suddenly.

"Baskerville. He gave me my choice. And"—he bit his lip in mortification—"like a sap, I took Wilfrid."
 "Well, if it were I," said Roy, "I wouldn't know which I had bet on. I can't tell 'em apart."
 The boy scoffed. "Aw, that's a cinch. Wilfrid's got a mole on the third finger of his right hand. That's how you do it."

"I see," said Roy, filing the information carefully.
 "What I want to know is," said the boy, looking at Roy accusingly, "what was he talking to you about?"
 "Oh! About a course in instructions in the fascinating game of golf."

"You mean lessons?"
 "Something like that. But"—Roy shook his head—"there isn't time to do much. I guess you might as well kiss your 10 bucks goodby."
 "Gosh," said the lad, in alarm. "I can't do that."
 "No! What's 10 bucks to a financier like you?"

"The thing is," Billy said patiently, "I haven't got 10 bucks."
 Roy considered. "H'm! That looks bad. You oughtn't to bet without having the money."
 Billy shrugged. The ethical appeal made no headway with him. "I saw a good chance to get 10. But—well, I guess I got fooled, that's all."

"Of course, though, Wilfrid hasn't lost yet."
 "No," said the boy, "but he's fixing to. And how."
 Roy took out a cigaret.

"There's one way you could win sure," he said, surprised at the depravity of his own brain.
 "That is, if Ron didn't show up for the match. If he forfeited, you know. Didn't play."
 Billy's ears perked up. But, after a moment of silence, he shook his head hopelessly. "He'll play, all right. I can't stop him."
 "No," said Roy carefully. "But together we might."
 "How do you mean?" asked Billy.

"Oh, I haven't thought out the details yet. It simply occurred to me that would be one way to save you from—from national disgrace."
 "Well, what do you want me to do?" Billy demanded.

Orthodox Mohammedans are loath to construct a building or weave a rug that has straight lines or flawless symmetry. They believe that only Allah is perfect, and that to construct a perfect building or rug is sacrilegious.

As he saw things, this much had been achieved: He was in the good graces of J. Pemberton Ganning due to his avowed interest in paleontology. He had had dealings with Wilfrid and had assured the absence of that gentleman for tonight. He had enlisted the services of young Billy. And, greatest of all, he was beginning to feel sure that a certain girl whose long black lashes had the most charming way of dropping over sea-at-sundown eyes, was not averse to seeing him clutter up the premises. Remained: To interview Ronald, Wilfrid's countenanced, and see what, if anything, might be done about him for the evening. Roy had come to regard this night as vital. There seemed little opportunity of holding prolonged converse with the fair Barbara during the daytime.

Barbara? He straightened up, amazed at the thought of how much devastation a pair of big violet eyes had accomplished. Gosh, it had been quick work. Only yesterday he had been a gay footloose young blade. And today—well, he was down for the count. That first glimpse of her, he realized, had affected him much as a stiff sock in the solar plexus. Subsequent sights had rendered him punch-drunk. Now, every time she looked his way he felt like a deflated balloon. He gazed across the great lawn and his heart began the first movement of a loop-the-loop. Barbara was approaching with one of the twins. Roy got to his feet and prepared himself for deflation.

BOARD SLASHES CITY'S REVENUE

Road Comish to Receive Larger Share of Tax Returns

With all of the eight township supervisors voting solidly as a unit, the county board of supervisors Tuesday slashed approximately $4,000 from the City of Manistique's share of weight and gasoline tax revenue for the ensuing year. The vote was 8 to 5, all members of the board representing the city voting negatively on the motion.

A vote of three fifths of the board is required in allocating the 25 percent of the gasoline and weight taxes which the board is authorized by law to allocate. Fifty percent of the tax returns is automatically allocated to the county road commission by law. Twenty five percent is divided between the city and the road commission upon a population basis. The remaining 25 percent is allocated by the county board of supervisors.

70-30 Split Oked
Two years ago the city received its share of gasoline and weight taxes entirely upon a population basis. As the city's population is approximately 60 percent of the total in the county, the City of Manistique received a proportionate share upon that basis. Last year the board of supervisors made a division of 50 percent to the city and 50 percent to the road commission of the 25 percent of the total tax which the board has the power of allocating.

Tuesday this division was further revised to give only 30 percent to the City of Manistique and 70 percent to the county road commission. Upon the basis of weight and gasoline taxes returned to Schoolcraft county during the past year, the loss in revenue to the city would be approximately $4,500 for the ensuing year. City representatives on the board bitterly protested the slash, pointing out that because of the great percentage of assessments in the City of Manistique as compared with the total assessments in the county, residents of Manistique pay a heavier burden of maintaining the county government than do residents of the various townships.

In addition, residents of the city pay the full burden of maintaining its own city government and public services, the city representatives declared.

Three-Day Camporee Is Marked With Busy Program

Boy Scouts from Escanaba, Gladstone, Munising and Manistique will converge at the Manistique fairgrounds this morning for the beginning of a three day Red Buck Council camporee. It is expected that approximately 300 Boy Scouts will participate in the event.

Scouts will set up tents at the fairgrounds this morning, and for three busy days they will cook their own meals and engage in numerous camp activities under the direction of council Scout leaders.

Friday night a council court of honor will be held at the Manistique stadium, weather permitting. In the event of inclement weather conditions, the court of honor will be conducted in the high school auditorium. Scout leaders from the various communities will participate in the program, and awards will be made to deserving Scouts and leaders.

A busy program has been arranged for the camporee. There will be sports events, including softball and other athletic contests. Scouts will be housed in tents by patrols, eight boys to a patrol.

The three day camporee is an annual event and one to which the Scouts look forward for many months.

The fairgrounds with its spacious area and fine facilities for handling the water and sanitation needs, is considered one of the most ideal spots in the council district for the camporee.

Evanski-Hamel
Miss Louise Evanski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Evanski, Detroit, became the bride of Chester Eugene Hamel of this city, Saturday, June 24, at 7:15 a. m. in the St. Patrick Cathedral of Detroit. The ceremony was read by Fr. Devine of Detroit.

Following the wedding a breakfast was served at the League of Catholic Women and a reception in the afternoon was held at the bride's home.

Miss Mary Ann Evanski attended her sister as bridesmaid and Clarence Verina of Detroit attended the groom.

The bride wore a blue street length dress with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The bridesmaid wore a blue costume suit with white accessories and tallmen roses formed her corsage.

The young couple have returned to Manistique and will be at home at the Crosby House.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vest of Windsor and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gohr of Lansing.

Disabled Veterans Meet Commander

Frank R. Klitt, State Commander of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, and Sydney J. Allen, Rehabilitation Officer for the State Department, both of Detroit, were greeted by members of Manistique Chapter No. 26 and other veterans when they spoke here Monday night at the Legion Memorial Cottage. The state officers outlined the principles of the D.A.V. and explained government legislation affecting veterans, widows of veterans and dependent parents. Henry Gardner, commander of the local chapter, introduced the guests. About twenty-five veterans contacted the state officers regarding claims against the government.

City Briefs

Mrs. H. Chenoweth suffered a broken knee Monday morning when she fell at the cottage on Thunder Lake. Mrs. Chenoweth is at her home, Schoolcraft avenue.

Rev. and Mrs. P. Lomas and son, Bernard, of Lake Linden, will return to their home today following a few days spent with friends here. Rev. Lomas was a former pastor of the Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Powers and son, Morris, attended the funeral services of John George Roberts at Escanaba, Tuesday. Mrs. Roberts is a sister of Mr. Powers. Mrs. John F. Dee also attended the services. Mrs. Dee and Mr. Powers returned Tuesday evening. Mrs. Powers will remain with Mrs. Roberts for a few weeks before returning.

Miss Julia Kendall has returned from Escanaba following a weekend visit with Mrs. Lawrence LaPorte.

BAYNOC NFLA REPORT GIVEN

Conditions Are Improved Sec-y Reports At Meeting

A fairly consistent improvement in the delinquency condition in the Baynoc National Farm Loan association during the past six months was reported by Secretary-Treasurer A. Theodore Sohlberg at the association's annual meeting Tuesday evening at the city hall.

Sohlberg also reported that although foreclosures have been instituted in some cases, the real estate load insofar as this association is concerned has not been increased. Nine farms were acquired and an equal number were sold.

About sixty units have been sold in the entire group during the past fiscal year.

Regulations with regard to election of directors were changed last year so only one director was elected at the meeting, John Grandchamp of Rapid River being selected to succeed himself as a member of the board for a three-year term.

Other directors of the association are John Lundberg, Esnig; Frank Barron, Flat Rock; Edwin Selander, Perkins, and Frank DeGrandganage, Cornell. The directors meeting was not held.

Announce Program For YPS Fellowship

A Young Peoples Fellowship meeting is to be held at the First Baptist church at 7:45 o'clock tonight. Rev. C. V. S. Engstrom, pastor of the Mission Covenant church, will be the speaker. All are invited to attend.

Program details:
Song, audience.
Duet, Gordon Haga and Norman Berg.
Invocation, Adolph Miller.
Vocal solo, Melvin Kasen.
Piano solo, Dona Mae Lindahl.
Address, Rev. Engstrom.
Duet, Harriet and Carol Goodman.

Mid-Summer Festival
A Mid-Summer Festival is being sponsored Saturday evening by members of the Kronan lodge at the Eric Lindahl cottage at Silver Ripples. All members and invited guests may attend. Dancing will be the diversion of the evening and refreshments served.

Mrs. Charles Bradley is chairman of the committee in charge and is assisted by Mr. and Mrs. John Larson, Mrs. J. P. Strand and V. E. Tillman.

Honored
Miss Eve Sjoedin and Nels Nelson, both of Flat Rock, were pleasantly honored recently on the occasion of their birthday anniversaries. A dinner and supper was served and the honored guests were each presented with lovely gifts.

Party arrangements were made by Mrs. E. Nelson and Mrs. E. Sjoedin.

Entertainers

Mrs. Hector Berglund entertained at an enjoyable afternoon party Tuesday at her home in honor of the first birthday anniversary of her son, Leon Armun. Refreshments were served with a pink and blue color scheme carried out in the table appointments and a large birthday cake forming the centerpiece. Balloon favors were presented each guest.

Leon Armun was the recipient of many gifts from his guests who were Mrs. Eugene Perko, son Gene, Mrs. William Brunner, son James Lee, Mrs. Charles Webber, son Allan and daughter Sharon Anne, Mrs. Howard Carlson, daughter Sharon Lee, Mrs. Thomas Trueblood, Mrs. Keith Campbell, Mrs. Axel Berglund, Mrs. Milton Lindblad, son Robert, John and Mary Ellen Berglund of Escanaba and the Misses Anne Larson, Patsy Stenac, Norma Larson and Robert Lee Swanson.

Outing

The Young People's society of the Mission Covenant church will enjoy an outdoor service at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the Nels Nelson farm at Flat Rock. Refreshments will be served with Mrs. Henning Nelson, hostess.

Gladstone Juniors Defeat Rapid, 5-2

Gladstone defeated Rapid River, 5-2, in the local's opening junior league game yesterday afternoon.

Mel Rottschild, on the mound for the Gladstone nine, hurled no-hit, no-run ball until the 7th when two errors and a hit gave Rapid their two runs. He was touched for another hit in the ninth. J. Short of the head-of-the-bay team got both safeties.

Score by innings:
Rapid River ---- 000 000 200—2
Gladstone ---- 301 000 01X—5
Batteries: Gladstone, Rottschild and Lundin; Rapid River, Gilland, J. Short and Kennedy.

Four Youths Return From Boys' State

Gladstone youths who attended the Wolverine Boys' State held June 16-24 at East Lansing under auspices of the state Legion department have returned to this city.

Members of the local quartet were Jimmy Peterson, Yens Wheaton Jr., John Hillewaart and Paul Cargio. John Norton also attended as a camp counselor.

REV. I. CARGO TO LEAVE CITY

Will Conduct Farewell Services Here On Sunday

Rev. Ira W. Cargo, pastor of the Methodist church here for the past four years, has been assigned to a pastorate at Fowlerville, Mich., and will conduct his farewell services here on Sunday. Accompanied by his family he will leave early next week for his new charge.

Rev. and Mrs. Cargo returned Tuesday from the lower peninsula where he attended the annual Detroit conference and visited with relatives and friends.

The Rev. Ivan O. Gonsler of Willis, Mich., has been appointed pastor of the local church.

Rev. Cargo came to Gladstone in July, 1935. Previously he held pastorates at Cass City, Clarkston, Detroit and Fenton, Mich. In all he has served 27 years in the Detroit conference.

Fowlerville is located a short ways from Lansing on the Grand River Road between Lansing and Detroit.

WOMAN'S CLUBS MEET IN SEPT.

Gladstone and Escanaba Jointly Sponsor Convention

Plans are now being made for the annual convention of the Upper Peninsula Federation of Women's clubs to be sponsored jointly by the Gladstone Child's Welfare club and the Escanaba Women's club Sept. 13-16.

Mrs. Clyde B. Fitzpatrick is serving as local chairman and Mrs. E. J. MacMartin as Escanaba chairman.

Twenty-five clubs of the district are to be represented and both state federation and district officers will be in attendance.

Sessions on Saturday, Sept. 16, are to be held in Gladstone in the Methodist church, and the local club is also arranging a tea. Escanaba sessions will be conducted in the William Bonifas Memorial auditorium.

No effort or time is being spared to arrange a program of the highest type. One of the highlights of it will be a lecture by Mary Breckenridge who founded the noted Mountain Nursing Service.

On the Gladstone executive committee are the Mesdames C. B. Fitzpatrick, J. D. Staple, O. S. Hult, H. A. Cassidy, G. E. Dehlin, Henry Rosenblum, H. G. Wescott and A. H. Miller.

The Escanaba executive committee is composed of the Mesdames E. J. MacMartin, Walter Dickson, Kryn Bloom, Fred Leighton, James Degnan and H. J. Niver of Escanaba and Mrs. Phil Clark of Wells.

Briefly Told

Buckeye Local—Buckeye Local No. 9 will hold a regular meeting at 7 o'clock this evening at the Legion Hall.

Louis Stops Galento In Fourth On Technical K. O.

BROWN BOMBER RETAINS TITLE Two-Ton Unable to Stand Up Under Two-Fisted Attack

BY SID FEDER
Yankee Stadium, New York, June 28. (AP)—A wild assortment of fistic bombs burst on this ball park tonight, but as usual Joe Louis' were the more explosive and the Brown Bomber defended his world heavyweight championship by smashing pudge Tony Galento into bloody helplessness in four rounds.

Although floored himself in the third round of this scheduled 15 rounder, after having put the roly-poly pouncer down in the second, Louis came on with an amazing assault of punching fury in the fourth. Referee Arthur Donovan finally had to stop the proceedings at 2:39 of that heat.

Joe's Toughest Battle
He intervened as Galento, no longer the shouting, boasting bar-

LOSER GOT $42,000

New York, June 28. (AP)—Unofficial figures on the Joe Louis-Tony Galento heavyweight championship fight tonight follow:

Attendance, $4,852.
Gross receipts, $283,303.68.
Federal tax (10 per cent), $28,330.37.
State tax (5 per cent) $14,165.19.
Net receipts, $240,807.81.
Louis' share (40 per cent), $96,323.12.
Galento's share (17 1/2 per cent), $42,141.37.

keeper, fell to his knees and wrapped his arms around the referee's knees, his face beaten to pulp, with blood streaming from eyes and mouth.

A somewhat disappointing crowd of 34,852 fans, who contributed to a gross gate of $283,303.68, roared in applause at the artillery tossed from both sides.

But while it lasted, it was one of the wildest slugging and toughest battles the champion has had since he won the title from old Jim Braddock two years ago this month. Unafraid of the vaunted dynamite thrown by the dusky destroyer, the short, squat Galento rushed in with his tree-like left arm flailing, and actually had the champion hanging on from two fearful smashes to the chin in the first round.

In the second, Louis, who seemed to be extremely cautious of Galento's famed portside fist in the early going, opened up momentarily, and Galento went down for a count of two from a left and right, delivered as Galento charged.

Lacks Deciding Punch

But Tony turned the tables in the third, charged in, and shot a short right uppercut to the chin and a left to the mid-section which suddenly and amazingly dropped Louis to the seat of his pants, also for a two count, in mid-ring. The champion got up and managed to stave off the Galento rush the rest of the round, and with that, Tony's hopes came to an end.

At that point, Galento was within one punch of the world heavyweight championship. Had he been able to land one solid smash when the tan terror came up off the floor, had he been able to charge in and connect with Louis in his dazed condition, he would have climaxed one of the most amazing rises fisticans has ever seen. But he just didn't have it.

So Joe came out in the fourth round, ready to toss his thunder. For a few seconds, they fought on even terms. Then Louis' ring greatness was proved. He moved in with the grace and rhythm of a perfect machine, and opened up. In just a moment, he had Galento back against the ropes and he

FALLS SQUAD HERE TONIGHT

Locals Anxious for Tilt Postponed Three Times By Wet Weather

By now champing at the bit in eagerness to "get to" Crystal Falls after two rain postponements, June 11 and June 18, the Escanaba city team will meet their rivals, with a little cooperation from the weatherman, tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

Perhaps in better form now than at any time this season, the local club's chances have risen several degrees, with their climb from the Northern Wisconsin Michigan League cellar to fourth place in that league. Injuries handicapping the lineup seriously at the time of the first postponement have had time to heal and the squad should be in top form.

Also in their favor is the fact that Crystal Falls lost, a week or so ago, to Niagara, the same team that the locals trounced, 4-3, last Sunday.

Manager Heidenreich announces that booster tickets for the Escanaba-Negaunee game will be ready on July 2 for the game, to be played the same day.

It is also announced that the local team will play South Range as part of the Fourth of July celebration here. The game is scheduled as a regular league meeting.

"Hits Like Hell"

"I want a return fight in September," he added. "I'll get him." His most serious injury appeared to be a cut over the left eye, but there was also a nasty cut on his mouth.

Louis, on the contrary, hardly had his hair mussed, but he was plenty respectful of Tony's tripphammer punching.

"Dat white boy hits like hell," he said in his dressing room. "I'll tell you, he hurt me more in the first round than when he floored me in the third. It was one of the toughest fights I've ever had."

And Louis wasn't kidding. Those two left hand shots he took on the "button" as he backed into a neutral corner in the first session were probably as murderous as any he has ever absorbed, not excluding the right hand blows with which Max Schmeling knocked him out three years ago, nor the right with which Brad- dock floored him a year later.

With Galento now out of the way, there appears no heavy-weight active today who can stand in the way of the dark champion's claim to greatness or to continued ranking at the top of the fistic heap. Lou Nova was regarded after Galento as the outstanding challenger, but the young Californian, rated off his recent victory over Max Baer, is not ready to withstand the dusky dynamiter's punching power.

Champ Makes History

With seven successful defenses of the prize ring's richest prize, the 25-year-old Louis stands alone in all heavyweight history. No champion, not even Sullivan or Corbett or Fitzsimmons or even Dempsey ever held the belting- baulable for more than five successful trips to the ring.

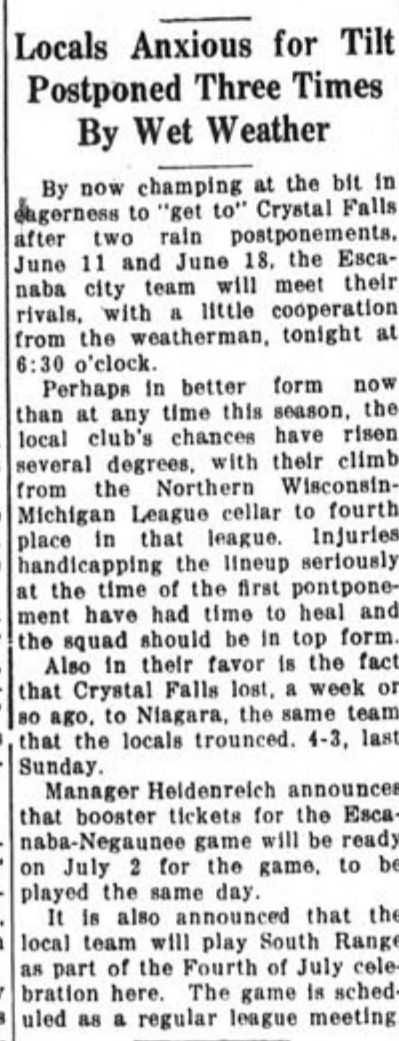

With tonight's victory, Louis now has six straight knockouts to his credit, starting with that over Natie Mann in February of 1935. Including that three round kayo, it has taken him exactly 15 rounds of action to polish off the half dozen futile challengers to his crown, and in the last three before tonight—those against Max Schmeling in their return bout, John Henry Lewis and Jack Roper—he finished the business at hand in less than a round each.

Three four round preliminaries followed the main event and all ended in draw decisions. They were between: Gus Dorazio, 187-3-4, Philadelphia, and Tommy Tucker, 174-1-2, New York; Elza Thompson, 225-1-2, Indianapolis, and Eddie Blunt, 216-1-2, New York; and Abe Feldman, 186-3-4, Schenectady, N. Y., and George Nicholson, 202-1-4, New York.

Champ Is Eliminated In College Golf Meet

BY GEORGE S. MILLS
Des Moines, Ia., June 28 (AP)—Another head than that of John P. Burke of Georgetown, the 1938 national collegiate champion, will wear the 1939 crown.

Burke, the winner a year ago at Louisville, fell today before John Hayes of Marquette, 2 and 1, in a second round match over Wakonda club's tough hills here.

The victor, one of the tournament's real darkhorses hit the turn with a 35, one under par and was only one over perfect figure when the match ended on the 17th green.

Hayes was two up at the end of the ninth. Burke had a 37 on the outside and was three over par at the end.

Yanks Break Home Run Record, Beat Athletics Twice

Philadelphia, June 28 (AP)—In a record breaking home run spree, the world champion New York Yankees put together 13 round trip tickets today to swamp the Philadelphia Athletics 23 to 2 and 10 to 0 in both ends of a doubleheader.

Eight of the Yankees' homers came in the first game, breaking the mark of seven which had stood since 1886 with only a handful of ties. The five circuit clubs in the nightcap broke the major league record for the most homers in two consecutive games which the Yankees of 1936 had set at 11.

The champions made 53 total bases on their 27 hits in the first game to break their own American league mark of 50 set in 1932 but fell two short of the National league high set by Cincinnati in 1933. Held hitless in the last two innings, the Bronx bombers barely missed several other records.

The home run barrage was led by Babe Dahlgren, Joe Di Maggio and Joe Gordon with three apiece while Bill Dickey, George Selkirk, Tommy Henrich and Frank Crosetti joined in with one each.

The original home run record of seven in a single game was made by Detroit against St. Louis in the National league. Since then it had been tied five times including the circus the New York Giants staged last June 6 against the Cincinnati Reds.

GIRLS PLAY TONIGHT

The Henry Sockers and Esky Phillies will clash at the junior high school diamond tonight at 7 o'clock.

MUST SUBMIT LINEUPS

All teams wishing to participate in the girls' and women's softball league who have not already submitted a team lineup to Doris Costley are urged to do so not later than Friday evening. Regular league play will start Monday with the complete schedule for the week appearing in Sunday's Daily Press.

Senior teams who have already indicated they are entering are the Esky Phillies, North Siders, Henry Sockers and Vlnettes. So far there is but one junior team composed of girls 16 and under. They are the C. Nee Stokers. More junior teams are desired in order to form a league.

The girls' and women's league will be under the supervision of the department of parks and recreation and will be affiliated with the Escanaba Softball Association. It will be directed by Doris Costley, WPA recreational leader.

CHANGE DIAMONDS

The diamondball game between the City Utilities and Delta County Road Commission scheduled for No. 3 diamond tonight, will have to be played on the Lighthouse diamond because of the circus. Team members and umpire please note.

The game between the Paper Mill and Liberty Loans for Friday night scheduled for No. 3 diamond will also be played at the Lighthouse diamond because of the circus.

ASSOCIATION FEE

So far, only one team has paid its fee for the Michigan Softball Association. Teams expected to play in the Upper Peninsula tournament must be members of the association and there is a fee penalty after July 1. Fees are to be given to Bevier Butts before noon today.

TAVERNS BEAT LOANS

The Taverns defeated the Liberty Loans on No. 3 diamond last night by a score of 4 to 1. Kostky, on the mound for the Taverns, was in mid-season form and allowed the Loans only one hit.

The Taverns will play the Menominee Beers of Ensign tonight. Sunday they will play a doubleheader against the Oshkosh Beers of Iron Mountain. The first game will be played at 1:30 and the second at 3:30, with both games being scheduled for No. 1 diamond. At 6 o'clock Sunday night the Taverns will play Munising on No. 2 diamond.

CUBS DEFEAT CARDINALS 8-4

Chicago Rallies to Win As Dean Is Chased In First Inning

St. Louis, June 28 (AP)—Diszy Dean's heralded pitching appearance at Sportsman's Park for the first time since he changed into Cub livery was a personal fiasco today but his mates came from behind to defeat the St. Louis Cardinals, 8 to 4.

Five hits and a sacrifice fly by the Cardinals drove their former ace pitcher from the game before one inning had been completed. And until the seventh it appeared as though Old Diz was to be charged with his first defeat of the season.

But in that inning Stanley Hack hit a home run. Billy Herman doubled and Augie Galan singled Herman home with the tying run.

In the eighth Manager Gabby Hartnett of the Cubs hit his seventh homer of the season for enough margin, as it turned out, to win. But Chicago tallied three more times off Bill McGee in the ninth. McGee, who entered the game in the eighth, was the losing pitcher.

LYONS TO SPEAK

Isbeping—Two former residents of Isbeping will be among the homecoming celebration speakers, George Quaal, chairman of this part of the program, announced today.

Martin Paulson, now assistant prosecuting attorney of Wayne county, will speak at 8 p. m. Saturday, July 1, from the stand at the city square. His topic will be "Homecoming's Richer Meanings."

Patrick J. Lyons, graduated from the Isbeping high school in 1914, and who is now a successful attorney in St. Paul, has accepted an invitation to speak at the Burt grounds at 4 p. m. Sunday, July 2, in connection with the massed band concert.

Mr. Lyons has maintained an active interest in Isbeping and has returned here on several occasions to visit. He is one of the best known of Isbeping's former residents.

Chiropractors Hold Meeting In Sault

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.—More than 500 members, relatives and friends of the Michigan Chiropractic association are holding their annual convention in the Soo this week, with headquarters at the Ojibway and Park hotels. A practically complete representation of the membership is expected, inasmuch as every chiropractor is required by his organization to attend annual meetings if at all possible. The steamship Alabama, which will open its season's schedule from Buffalo to Isle Royale in a few days, has been chartered by a large group of downstate members for the journey to Sault Ste. Marie, and will dock here for the period of the convention June 29-July 1.
