DEWEY IS DUE TO GO AHEAD, SAYS SENATOR

VANDENBERG CHOICE OF DICKINSON FOR 1940 RACE

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 7 (AP)—Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg today described Thomas E. Dewey, a potential rival for the Republican presidential nomination in 1940, as "highly qualified to move upward and onward in the public service."

The senior Michigan senator, returning to his home town after the adjournment of congress, said he and Dewey had talked together "regarding the national problem," and added that he believed "we both have the common controlling aspiration, namely that the Republican party x x x should do whatever is best and wisest to meet the ultimate necessities which will confront the Republican national convention."

Vandenberg skillfully evaded questions on the likelihood of his candidacy for president on the Republican ticket in 1940.

Retracting his assertion of several months ago that he would be a candidate for senatorial nomination again in 1940, the senior Michigan senator described the presidential nomination as "too vitally important" to be sought by "self starters."

"Personally I shall engage in no pre-convention campaign whatever," he said. "I intend to keep detached from all such activity."

On matters of state the senator replied:

He favored "after a breathing spell" a special session of congress because "I think a special session would keep the country in safer hands."

No War for U. S. He did not expect the United States to be drawn into a European war.

That whether the coalition of Republicans and anti-new deal Democrats in the last congress would be carried over into the 1940 campaign was "uncertain."

Earlier Vandenberg had referred to the action of the bi-partisan coalition in trimming down federal expenditures with the remark:

"Perhaps the members of congress suddenly realized that they were about to go home and would have to face their outraged constituents and decided to throw an anchor to windward."

As a whole the last session of congress was a failure, Vandenberg said, "chiefly because it failed to take advantage of numerous legislative opportunities to clear the track for private business and thus create jobs in the only American way that unemployment can be overcome."

Huge Budget Assailed Vandenberg assailed the administration's budget, "the biggest

Riley Of Gladstone Takes $4,000 Job As State's Buyer

Lansing, Aug. 7 (AP)—The purchasing committee of the state administrative board today appointed Robert J. Riley, of Gladstone, director of the state's purchasing system and ordered him to install an "efficient" program of specifications and standardization.

Riley was former purchasing agent for 23 years for the Northwest Co. and Lumber company of Gladstone and is secretary of the Delta county Republican committee.

Auditor General Vernon J. Brown said that Lawrence H. Niendorf, secretary of the administrative board and "statutory" purchasing agent, was being "entirely divorced" from the purchasing system and that Grant M. Hudson, Governor Dickinson's appointment as purchasing "czar," was resigning.

No Opposition Foreseen Riley took office today at a salary of $4,000 a year.

Brown, chairman of the purchasing committee, said Riley's appointment must be confirmed by the full board but that he anticipated no opposition. Governor Dickinson indicated he approved and that Hudson, former congressman and "dry" associate of the governor's, would be given another position.

Brown declared that Riley will be responsible to the purchasing committee and that four buyers, now subordinate to the director, will be given unclassified status under the civil service system and also be responsible to the committee.

Niendorf, who made no secret of his opposition to Hudson, said he would "willingly cooperate" with Riley.

The committee instructed Riley to completely revise the existing purchasing system, which a committee of industrial and mercantile experts said was "inefficient and unethical."

Politics No Bar Riley was instructed to develop specifications upon which all purchases would be made, to determine needs for standardization of state requirements, to be responsible for the inspection of all commodities purchased and delivered, and to "correlate" the work of institutions towards in regard to requisitions.

Brown said "Riley is the best man we've interviewed." He said Riley had more experience than any other applicant and that the committee had not interviewed persons who did not apply for the job. He said he had withdrawn his previous doubts as to Riley's fitness because of his political connections.

"The county committee business is so far away and his political activity was purely local and only during the last campaign," Brown said. "It was not in a section of the state where we are doing much business."

KENT DEMOCRAT SLIGHT CLAIMED

Miniature White House for Vandenberg Stirs Up Controversy

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 7 (AP)—The Kent county Democratic committee thinks it is being slighted.

Chiding the Grand Rapids city commission for authorizing erection of a miniature White House in downtown Campau Square by the local Vandenberg-for-President club, the Democratic committee demanded today that Democratic candidates be granted equal privileges.

William J. Delaney, Democratic committee chairman, reminded the commission in a letter that "one of the cardinal principles of our democratic form of government calls for equal rights to all and special privileges to none."

He suggested that "similar display space be granted to the outstanding candidates of all political parties in order to stimulate patriotism and an interest in government among our citizens."

Just as a starter, Delaney suggested, space should be given for an adequate display in behalf of former Michigan Attorney General Raymond W. Starr should Starr run for the U. S. senate and for Highway Commissioner Murray D. Van Wagoner should he become Democratic candidate for governor.

The square on which the White House replica is to be erected is only a few hundred square feet in area.

READING RUNS AGAIN

Detroit (AP)—Mayor Richard Reading announced Monday he would be a candidate to succeed himself. The announcement was made in a radio broadcast.

Smiles, Frowns in Bridges Case

Bridges' Name Heads Legion's Red Roster

San Francisco, Aug. 7 (AP)—Harry Bridges heard himself referred to today as "the outstanding name" in the files of the American Legion's radical research committee in California.

The statement was made at the CIO labor leader's deportation hearing by Harper Knowles, chairman of the Legion's committee.

Knowles, San Francisco business man and a former investigator of subversive activities for the Associated Farmers of California, last fall identified before the Dies congressional committee in Washington many Californians he said were Communists or Communist sympathizers.

These included Bridges and Governor Culbert L. Olson of California, then the Democratic candidate for the gubernatorial office. Knowles was called by Bridges' defense as an "adverser" witness in an attempt to prove improper inducements were made to government witnesses.

He denied shippers and other employers—as charged by Bridges—were behind his committee or that he played a part in an alleged conspiracy with immigration officials at Portland and Seattle to bring about the union leader's deportation.

The defense sought to show the case against Bridges was prepared by other than government officials as part of the alleged conspiracy.

Knowles testified he attended meetings in San Francisco at which Ivan Cox, a former secretary-treasurer of the longshoremen's union, discussed and finally gave an affidavit against Bridges. Cox, in a suit subsequently withdrawn, also named Bridges and 500 other persons as alleged Communist conspirators seeking "to dominate the Pacific coast."

Knowles denied any hand in preparation of the suit but asserted he gave Cox $10 after it was filed.

Father And Son, 3, Drown On Vacation As Mother Watches

Clintonville, Wis., Aug. 7 (AP)—A family vacation ended in tragedy today when a father and his three-year-old son drowned in Pine Lake as the mother helplessly watched.

The victims were Edward C. Billmeyer, 41, manager of a chain store here, and his son, Kenneth. With Mrs. Billmeyer, they had rowed about 100 yards from shore to an anchored raft. Father and son climbed onto the raft while Mrs. Billmeyer stayed in the boat.

Kenneth slipped from the raft and the father dived in after him, into water 20 feet deep. Neither resurfaced.

First Snowstorms Sweep Yellowstone

Denver, Aug. 7 (AP)—The season's first snowstorm whipped along the crest of the continental divide from Yellowstone Park to Pike's Peak today, bringing rain and chilly morning weather to nearby areas.

A dust storm blew at Lamar, in eastern Colorado. In west Colorado hard rains sent 17 rockslides thundering into Glenwood Canon late yesterday, delaying trains. One bridge was damaged.

NAZIS DEBATE HERRING WAR WITH POLAND

NEGOTIATIONS OPEN IN DANZIG OVER CUSTOMS ROW

Free City of Danzig, Aug. 7 (AP)—The Nazi-controlled Danzig negoti-ated today to open negotiations on the critical dispute over Polish customs administration of the Free City.

Poland likewise was represented as ready to enter the negotiations, provided her treaty rights to control customs were not violated.

Political informants said they saw Berlin's guiding hand in the separate action while Poles interpreted it as a victory for the firm attitude attributed to Warsaw in the Polish-Danzig "margarine and herring war."

Espionage Charged The dispute revolves around the allegation of Danzig Germans that Poland increased the number of customs supervisors unnecessarily in Danzig. The Polish action in banning export of margarine and curtailment of herring shipments to Poland, a big user of these two important Danzig products also figured largely in the Polish-Danzig differences. The Germans charged some of the supervisors were engaged in espionage.

The seriousness of the situation was intensified by the long campaign by Nazis for return of Danzig to her pre-war status as a part of German territory.

(Danzig was made a free city after the World War under League of Nations protection. The customs regulation of Danzig, a valuable port of Poland, were established by treaty in 1920, putting them under Polish law but providing for administration within Danzig territory of Danzig officials. Poland is permitted under the treaty to inspect Danzig customs, with no limit on the personnel for this work.)

The free city senate sent a note today to Polish commissioner Marian Chodacki, whose offices are across the street from the building occupied by the governing body of the free city.

The strictly controlled Danzig press did not carry the contents of the note but the official Danziger Vorposten said the senate would enter into negotiations with Chodacki.

Polish customs officials halted the export of margarine to Poland last week, declaring her customs control rights had been violated because Danzig manufacturers had refused to permit inspection of their plants.

The export of some herring was stopped when Poland charged the fishery involved was not a real Danzig firm but one with Netherlands backing and therefore outside the duty-free classification of Danzig products moving into Poland.

The free city senate's recent de-

BILLS WAITING FOR PRESIDENT

About 200 Are Unsigned; Sea Trip Planned to Cool Off

Washington, Aug. 7 (AP)—President Roosevelt sandwiched bill signing between conferences and many handshakes today before starting a 1,000-mile trek that will bring him both work and pleasure.

The work comes first and his journey, starting tonight, takes him immediately to his Hyde Park, N. Y., study where—in shirt sleeves—he will consider some 300 bills which still are unsigned.

After a few days of that, he will board the navy cruiser Tuscaloosa as New York City this weekend for a lazy trip through the cool waters of the eastern Canadian coast. He told a recent press conference that he was looking for rest and relief from hot weather.

During the 10-day jaunt, he plans no work, no fishing and no stops ashore, except a brief one at Campobello Island, N. B.

Before Mr. Roosevelt left Washington, some of his congressional aides expressed the opinion that he should not call any special session of congress unless it becomes necessary on account of trouble abroad.

There had been discussion in some quarters of a possible extra session to consider lending, housing and neutrality legislation, all of which were blocked in the session which adjourned Saturday night.

Brampton Boy Fatally Injured by Automobile

Joseph LeMere, Jr., two years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LeMere of Brampton was fatally injured at 7:30 Monday morning when he was struck while crossing highway M-25 at Brampton by a car driven by Joseph Casimer of Perkins.

According to information obtained by officers of the sheriff's department, who investigated the accident, the child had been in the house eating his breakfast, while his mother was visiting at the home of William Browste across the highway.

The child came out in the yard and seeing his mother at the neighbor's home started to cross the highway and ran directly into the path of the automobile. Casimer swung out to avoid hitting him, causing the car to leave the highway but the boy was hit by the running board.

He received a broken neck and a broken leg and was immediately rushed to the office of Dr. A. H. Miller in Gladstone by Constant Cafmeyer of St. Nicholas, but was dead upon arriving there.

The accident was witnessed by the child's mother and also Casimer's wife, who was riding with him at the time of the mishap. Death resulted from a broken neck according to Dr. O. S. Hult, county coroner, and a coroner's inquest will be held at 10 o'clock Thursday morning at the Gladstone city building.

Joseph John LeMere was born October 25, 1936 at Brampton. He is survived by his parents, an infant sister, two half-brothers, Arthur Donathon and Stanley Shafer, and four half-sisters, Mrs. Edward Crouch, Mrs. Charles Shafer, Genevieve Shafer and Marjorie Shafer.

The body was taken to Swanson Brothers funeral parlors at Gladstone. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

TWO DEAD AMID GRAFT CHARGES

Divorcee and Daughter Victims In Detroit Bribery Tragedy

Detroit, Aug. 7 (AP)—Detroit police today promised a full investigation of charges of graft and bribery made by Mrs. Janet McDonald, 33-year-old divorcee who was found dead with her 11-year-old daughter, Pearl, in an exhaust-filled automobile Sunday night.

In letters addressed to Detroit police, newspapers, federal agents and Governor Dickinson, Mrs. McDonald told of her unrequited love for a man who, she asserted, was a key figure in the Detroit policy game racket. The letters indicated that she intended to take her life.

Her sweetheart, she said, was the go-between for the policy operators and the police official responsible for the "fix."

Police said the man named was expected to appear voluntarily at headquarters for questioning tomorrow.

Police said Mrs. McDonald had been employed as stenographer in an establishment that had been raided as a policy house. In her letters Mrs. McDonald said her former sweetheart had been employed by the same house as a "fixer," later becoming the agent for a number of policy operators.

A police lieutenant named by Mrs. McDonald as having accepted bribes for protection, denied having any part in it.

LECHE INDICTED FOR OIL FRAUD

Louisiana Ex-Governor Named In Illegal Pipeline Deal

New Orleans, Aug. 7 (AP)—Reaching high among the political heirs of the late Huey P. Long, the federal government today indicted former Governor Richard Leche on a charge he profited by $67,000 through illegal "hot oil" operations.

Named with Leche and accused of making an identical sum through evasion of oil production regulations was Seymour Weiss, New Orleans hotel owner and one time financial right hand man to the slain "Kingfish," Freeman Burford, wealthy Dallas, Tex., oil man and the East Texas Refining company also were indicted in this transaction.

A second indictment announced today by the federal grand jury charged Weiss with income tax evasion and still another made a similar charge against the dapper hotel man and Louis C. Lesage, former Standard Oil company official here. This same jury indicted these men on mail fraud charges a few weeks ago.

The strapping Leche, just six weeks out of the governor's chair, appeared at the federal building soon after the indictments and was fingerprinted before being released on $5,000 bond. He declined comment on the case, as did Weiss, who made bond of $15,000. They face possible imprisonment for two years on each of the two oil counts.

Climber Trapped, Dies Of Exposure

Estes Park, Colo., Aug. 7 (AP)—Rescue workers today lowered Gerald Clark, Denver mountain climber, down a 3,000 foot precipice on the east face of Long's peak, where he had been trapped 24 hours, but he died, apparently of exposure.

The man, who had endured an August snowstorm high above timberline, was unconscious when rescuers reached him and artificial respiration was applied unsuccessfully.

The report came to park headquarters from a short wave radio station at the base camp on Chasm Lake, high on the side of the 14,255 foot mountain.

PROTEST SENT TOKYO AFTER PLANE ATTACK

GUN BOAT ESCAPES; TWO STEAMERS DESTROYED

Shanghai, Aug. 7 (AP)—British official circles tonight took an increasingly grave view of two Japanese air raids on British property near Ichang as more detailed reports came from the British gunboat Gannet which passed unscathed through the Sunday attack.

Commander A. F. St. G. Orpen of the Gannet sent word that the gunboat herself narrowly escaped destruction from one bomb which he asserted seemed to be aimed at the British vessel and landed only 100 yards away.

Two British Yangtze river steamers were destroyed in the raids which killed four Chinese and injured a Canadian, H. J. Denyer, and four Chinese near Ichang, more than 1,000 miles up the Yangtze from Shanghai.

"Mistake," Says Army "We have no information," said a Japanese army spokesman. "If it happened, it is regrettable mistake."

All of the damaged property was said by the British to have been marked plainly with British ensigns.

Britons charged the attack on British property, which also damaged the Asiatic Petroleum company's works, was premeditated.

Orpen reported to Rear Admiral Reginald Vesey Holt, commander of Britain's Yangtze river patrol, that the Gannet was a half mile below the petroleum company property while it was being bombed. One Japanese plane then detached itself from the attackers and flew over the gunboat, releasing a single bomb which passed over the Gannet. The missile and fire which followed destroyed the two river steamers.

Casualties Over 500 Britain yesterday lodged a protest with Japanese against the attack on British property, but no action has been taken in the light of further official reports from Commander Orpen.

(Foreign missionaries reported to Chung-King that casualties probably would total more than 500 in Ichang as a result of Japanese air raids carried out at the same time British property a short distance downstream was damaged.)

Meanwhile, the Japanese army spokesman said an announcement would be made "shortly" of the creation of a "united government of China" to consolidate the provisional governments set up in Peiping and Nanking by the Japanese to govern conquered Chinese territory.

He declared the announcement would be made by Premier Wang Ching-Wei of China, who broke with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek this spring, and General Wu Pei-Fu, retired North China war lord who long has resisted Japanese overtures to gain his participation in a Japanese-sponsored government.

London, Aug. 7 (AP)—A royal air force bomber crashed on a steep cliff on the English channel at Beachy Head tonight, killing its crew of three and a woman who was walking on the 350-foot precipice.

The big twin-motored plane toppled over the cliff and into the surf. The bodies of the crew were not recovered until the tide fell.

Balloons And Rifle Wreck Smokestack

Muskogee, Okla., Aug. 7 (AP)—Two small balloons and a rifle were the first tools used by engineers to dismantle a 195-foot brick smokestack.

After the balloons pulled strings through the top of the stack they were shot down. Successively stronger cords and ropes were drawn through the stack. A steel-jack hoisted on the last cable began brick-by-brick demolition.

Traffic Toll

Calumet, Mich., Aug. 7 (AP)—Mrs. Elsa Frederickson, 88, died in Memorial hospital today from injuries suffered when an automobile struck her Saturday night.

Grand Rapids, (AP)—Five-year-old Robert Lee Horton was killed Monday when he was run over by a truck while playing in a street near his home here.

BRITISH TRACK SQUAD SECOND

American Athletes Pile Up 54 Points; Watson Collects 13

BY DREW MIDDLETON
 London, Aug. 7. (AP)—America's hand-picked athletes followed the Herculean figure of Bill Watson and the flying feet of Clyde Jeffrey today to a notable triumph over the track and field forces of 15 other nations in an "Olympic preview" at the White City Stadium.

About 60,000 fans defied the raw weather and rain to see the international meet but they were well rewarded. As the Americans piled up 54 points, 13 of them by Watson and ten by Jeffrey, to Great Britain's 41, three British records were shattered and two equalled.

The lone jarring note was the loud and raucous roar of America's Blaine Rideout when he swung wide to pass two other runners at the start of the last lap of the mile. It was evident from the stand that Blaine had been forced wide but, probably because he was considered the cause of Sydney Wooderson's downfall at Princeton in June, he got the old bird just the same.

Whatever it was, the incident had little bearing on the result of the race. Denis Pell, who has been shadowing Wooderson all season, went out like a deer on the backstretch and won comfortably in 4:18.2. Janusz Stankiewicz of Poland was second and Rideout fourth.

This victory for Britain plus B. F. McCabe's third and C. Cox's fifth put the Britons into the lead—temporarily. But George Varoff captured the pole vault with a disappointing leap of 13 feet, 6 inches. Next Watson, who had taken third in the discus, broke the British shot put record with a heave of 52 feet, 8 inches, then walked over to the broad jump pit and leaped 24 feet, 6 inches for his second victory. That was the ball game.

The Americans started as though the meet was being run for their benefit. Charlie Beetham, former Ohio State star, knocked off the half-mile—just striding—in 1:52.3. Then Jeffrey started his sprint double by winning the 100-yard dash in the creditable time of 9.8 seconds over a soggy track.

Roy Cochran, Indiana youth apparently unawed by a field that included J. Hostmans of Belgium and Fritz Hoellinger of Germany, won the 400-meter hurdles in 52.7, a clocking that set up a new British record and was only one-tenth of a second off the international mark. He jumped into the lead at the second hurdle, increased his advantage on the backstretch and breezed home three yards in front of Hoellinger.

Jeffrey followed with the 220 that was notable only for the ease with which he won. His time of 21.8 was six-tenths of a second off the British record but he still was two yards in front of Britain's A. W. Sweeney, who also was second in the century.

The third British record went to Taiso Maki, latest in the line of great Finnish distance runners. He won the three miles in 13:59.4 and left no doubt he is the strongest possible contender for next year's Olympic distance titles at Helsinki. Ray Schwartzkopf, U. S. representative from Michigan, was last from the start and plodded home a good 220 yards behind the Finn.

Cackling Chickens Help Capture Two Kankakee Convicts

Kankakee, Ill., Aug. 7. (AP)—Two escaped federal convicts, betrayed by the cackling of four chickens, were captured today on the tip of an alert policeman who also noticed that their automobile license plates did not match.

The convicts were Gerald Montague, 21, of Kankakee, and Walter Smith, 22, of Cincinnati. They were among seven federal prisoners who escaped from guards July 28, near Thornburg, Va., while they were being transported by bus from the Atlanta, Ga., penitentiary to the federal prison at Lewisburg, W. Va.

Both Montague and Smith were questioned for hours today about the attempted seizure of a $56,000 army airplane abroad an Illinois Central train, south of here, last Monday. The prisoners were taken to the federal jail at Danville tonight. Postal inspectors declined to say whether the men were implicated in the robbery.

Deputy sheriff Gene La Fontaine said the pair had confessed five burglaries, the theft of a car and the theft of four chickens. The cackling of the chickens on the car, seat of the men's car attracted the attention of a night policeman.

New Safety Glass Developed For Cars Has High Visibility

Toledo, O., Aug. 7. (AP)—An improved safety glass for automobiles, intended to reduce eyestrain and provide greater visibility, was demonstrated here today by General Motors Corp. and Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Company.

Known as "eye glass," it was described by its makers as reducing to a new minimum distortion waves prevalent when a motorist looks diagonally through a car window. Driving fatigue will be lessened as a result, the two firms said.

In manufacturing the "eye glass" a sheet of polyvinyl acetate resin, transparent plastic, is placed between two sheets of precision-polished plate glass and subjected to high pressure in a hot oil bath. The three thus are integrated into a single pane.

Dr. Andrew H. Ryan of Chicago, said an intensive study of the optical properties of glass was vital in the interest of highway safety.

Attacks On Court Prove His Views, President Claims

Washington, Aug. 7. (AP)—President Roosevelt pronounced the objectives of his defeated 1937 court reorganization bill fully attained tonight.

He said attacks made recently on the supreme court by "ultra-conservative members of the bar" indicated how fully the administration's "liberal ideas" had prevailed, even though his proposal to reorganize the tribunal had not been the method by which this was accomplished.

Mr. Roosevelt named no names, but newsmen recalled that Frank J. Hogan, president of the American Bar Association, had declared not long ago that recent judicial construction had brought most if not all activities of the nation "within the ambit of federal control."

"Recent far-reaching decisions (of the high court) compel the conclusion," Hogan told a Bar Association meeting in San Francisco recently, "that the American people must look to the legislature rather than the judiciary for the preservation . . . of liberties."

Dr. Richard Jordan Gatling, of Chicago, invented the Gatling gun.

STEAMER HITS HUGE ICEBERG

Sea Disaster Narrowly Averted For Canadian Pacific Freighter

Boston, Aug. 7. (AP)—Barely escaping disaster when she nudged an iceberg as she crept across the North Atlantic in an early morning fog, the Canadian Pacific freighter Beaverhill continued tonight on her course for London, apparently little damaged.

She was approximately 100 miles off the coast of Newfoundland, above the most-used steamship lanes, when she struck at 5:30 a. m. (E. S. T.) this morning.

Such accidents have been only occasional since the luxury liner Titanic struck an iceberg in the same waters on April 14, 1912, and sank with a loss of 1,517 lives, and not a life has been lost since the international ice patrol was established in 1914.

—This morning's first, terse radio report that the Beaverhill had struck an iceberg—most dreaded of navigation hazards in the Northern seas—swung the bows of three vessels toward her position.

The liner Ausonia, first to gain the 10,000-ton, passenger-less freighter's position, stood by as the steamship Montclair and the U. S. coast guard cutter Champlain, on international ice patrol, picked their way to her aid through a dense fog.

For several hours the Beaverhill pushed slowly along, the Ausonia beside her, while Captain T. Jones checked the damage to his ship.

Then, the skipper reported "No. 4 double bottom tank damaged," but his vessel's inner hull apparently intact and taking no water, and he added the reassuring note that the Beaverhill would reach London as scheduled on Aug. 13.

That was the only word from the 503-foot vessel, out of Montreal with a crew of 74.

The details of the accident were not known and reports of the collision were received only by radio relay from the cutter Champlain. The extent of damage was contained in a private advice to the Canadian Pacific's Montreal headquarters.

Attesting to an unusual ice condition in the North Atlantic this year, was the lateness in maintaining the lonely ice patrol, which the Champlain returned to after assurances the Canadian vessel was in no danger.

Horlick Heir Saved As Speedboat Sinks Off Racine Harbor

Racine, Wis., Aug. 7. (AP)—William Horlick Sidley, 27, heir to several of the milled milk millions, and a male companion were rescued by Lake Michigan coastguards today after Sidley's new speedboat was ripped open by a huge wave.

The craft sank a mile off the harbor entrance. They were in the water 40 minutes before they were rescued, Sidley attracting attention by holding a handkerchief on an oar. They were wearing life preservers. Coastguards identified the companion as Grover H. Smith, proprietor of a Milwaukee night club.

Sidley was reported under a doctor's care for exposure, with his condition not serious.

Spanish Communists Face Firing Squads

Madrid, Aug. 7. (AP)—Continuing an intensive drive that has resulted in 62 executions in the last three days, police tonight arrested 25 persons whom they identified as Communists.

The 62 persons disposed of by firing squads had been charged with a triple killing, and similarly, the latest arrests were accused of "numerous assassinations." Seven of their number were described as members of the "Red committee" of the Republican ministry that directed the defense of Madrid's long civil war siege.

Madrid newspapers called attention to the swift executions as a warning that all conspiracies against the Nationalist government would be "inexorably crushed."

Franco Victory Fails To Help Hitler And Mussolini South Of Rio Grande

BY ANDRUE BERDING
 Washington, Aug. 7. (AP)—Officials with their eyes glued to the Latin American scene have reached the conclusion that General Franco's triumph in Spain has not added advantage south of the Rio Grande.

Last year many persons here thought and said that a Franco victory would be the spearhead for more German and Italian penetration of Latin America, that Franco would be used as the funnel for pouring in German and Italian propaganda, political and commercial, that the United States would be seriously challenged in Latin America by the formation of an Ibero-German-Italian combination.

Baby Girl Is Born With Exposed Heart

Manila, Aug. 8. (Tuesday) (AP)—An infant girl born with her heart exposed was reported "doing nicely" on the second day of her life.

Dr. Guillermo Del Castillo, the attending physician, said he expected the baby to live since her heart beat and breathing were normal. Other prominent physicians who gazed at the heart through a glass jar that covered it, disagreed.

The child, born yesterday in the maternity hospital to a 24-year-old mother was baptized by a priest and named Maria Corazon (Mary Heart). She is being fed milk with an eyedropper.

Dr. Castillo explained the baby's heart rested on the chest over a small opening. Through this opening, the aorta, a large artery, connect the organ with the thoracic cavity, where the heart normally is found.

The entire heart is clearly visible. When the baby cries her heart beats faster.

Some of the doctors suggested an operation be performed to enlarge the opening in the chest, permitting the heart to drop into the cavity where it belongs. But conference decided no operation should be performed immediately.

Doctors said there was only one other such case in recorded medical history.

The mother, unaware of her daughter's condition, was reported the glass jar protecting the heart was being born yesterday, then securely placed on the infant's chest as a protective window.

Restrictions Lifted On Upper Peninsula Highway Equipment

Lansing, Aug. 7. (AP)—Restrictions limiting the use of equipment on federal-aid highway construction projects to eight hours a day were lifted in northern Michigan today by the state highway department.

The restrictions were imposed last year to spread employment among more men.

The new order is effective Aug. 15 in all projects in the Upper Peninsula, and Sept. 4 in a line across the Lower Peninsula at Clare county. Inclement spring weather had delayed projects, the department said, forcing lifting the restriction to permit fulfillment of contracts.

RACES STARTED AT PUT-IN-BAY

Interlake Regatta Draws Over 180 Sailboats In Trophy Event

Put-In-Bay, O., Aug. 7. (AP)—Over 180 sailboats between 14 and 60 feet in length will approach the starting line in their respective classes as the Interlake Yachting association goes into its second day of active racing tomorrow.

The total entries today by far surpassed any in recent years. Entries in the Kermath and Greeley trophy races for power cruisers also set new records.

Sailing boats got under way today with a light breeze but before most of the boats could get two-thirds around their 4½ and 9 mile triangular courses the breeze died and the boats drifted the rest of the way in. Two classes exceeded time limits.

In the larger and speedier classes Gordon Saunders, Detroit, in Noreg placed first with Tom Fisher, Detroit, second. Third was L. F. Hope in Madcap. R. M. Stecker in the Puffin won the "R" class event with Cotton Blossom (Lee Wilson, Cleveland) second and Lightnin' (Rummy-Hubbard, Detroit) third.

Twin Star, skippered by A. Pirie, Chicago, won the star boat event. Vega (McKinstry, Cleveland) was second and Three Cheers (H. G. Beck, Cleveland) third. Pirie is east to participate in the Great Lakes star boat championship Aug. 13, 14 and 15 at Vermilion and will represent the Lake Michigan division.

The schooner event was captured by Melodie (C. F. Seyfang, Toledo); 2-Nawanna (R. G. Shell Toledo). Robert Doan, Lorain, in Chip-Too, won the comet class over Keith Eastin, Lorain, in Spanker and others. The small snipe class was taken by Geterman, Manitowoc, Wis., in Wave II and Ted Kuhn, Windsor, Ont., won the 14-foot international dinghy race.

Tuesday's events include sail races for all classes and the Greeley trophy race for power cruisers.

Pipe Rolling Down Mountain Crushes Woman, Two Injured

San Bernardino, Calif., Aug. 7. (AP)—A welded section of four-inch pipe rolled down a mountainside today, killed a woman outright, indirectly caused the death of a man and critically injured two others.

Mrs. Bess Arnold Ross, 46, of Long Beach, Calif., was crushed to death.

Her housekeeper, Ann McDonald, 25, was taken to a hospital where one leg was amputated.

A 71-year-old motorist, Grant Allison, died upon seeing Mrs. Ross' body at the accident scene.

Henry Dutton, a workman on the gas main project, was thrown 100 feet into the air by the rolling pipe. His back was broken. The pipe broke loose from cables as it was being lowered, tore down the mountain at a speed of nearly a mile a minute and shot through the automobile in which Mrs. Ross and her housekeeper were sitting.

State Fair Bans High Life; Drinks Non-Intoxicating

Detroit, Aug. 7. (AP)—Michigan's state fair won't tolerate high life. In keeping with Governor Dickinson's attitude, fair directors announced today a ban on the sale of "intoxicants of any kind" but the encouragement of consumption of "Michigan dairy products and unfermented juices from Michigan fruits."

Furthermore, "only those amusements which would meet with the approval of the Michigan housewife and her daughter" will be permitted on the fair grounds, said Elmer A. Beamer, chairman of the fair executive committee, "the committee felt the sustaining and helpful influence of the Hon. Luren D. Dickinson, our present governor, and recognized his desire to have the Michigan fair x x x represent all that is good and grand in our commonwealth."

Trusty Is Missing At Michigan Prison

Jackson, Mich., Aug. 7. (AP)—William Davis, 30, negro trusty, was missing from the state prison of Southern Michigan tonight after having been at work on the warden's residence lawn. Davis, sentenced from Detroit Oct. 23, 1931, to 15 to 30 years for robbery armed, was the second prison inmate to be found missing in three days. Davis was transferred to Southern Michigan prison from Marquette Branch prison June 1, 1933.

Cold Water Fails To Tempt Dickinson To California Fair

Lansing, Aug. 7. (AP)—Despite a promise of only cold water to drink, Governor Dickinson today declined two invitations to appear officially at the Golden Gate Exposition in San Francisco. He said the invitations and promises reached him from the governor of Nevada and an official of the exposition.

The immediate result of this, he said, "has been a sharp upswing in business. That shows what the inauguration of a completely dependable administration could do to this depression."

Vandenberg said he would remain in Grand Rapids until the next session of congress, regular or special, and that the only speech he had scheduled was one in Detroit before the National Fraternal Congress next week.

GOVERNOR CONVINCED

Lansing, Aug. 7. (AP)—Governor Dickinson today expressed a preference for U. S. Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg as president of the United States as compared to District Attorney Thomas Dewey of New York, another Michigan product.

Although Dickinson recalled having met Dewey at his father's Owosso newspaper office when the vice crusader was "12 or 13 years old," he said he believed Vandenberg "represents the country at large by his course in the senate."

Asked by newsmen if he would introduce Vandenberg at a meeting in Detroit next Monday as "the next president of the United States," Dickinson said, "I suppose they'll expect something like that."

Dickinson said he was closely acquainted with Dewey's uncle, Edward Dewey, who operated an Owosso weekly newspaper with Dewey's father.

Canadian Family, Split By Border Laws, Reunited

Los Angeles, Aug. 7. (AP)—The family of Mr. and Mrs. John McNeil, separated by the laws of the United States and Canada, won its fight for a reunion today.

Edna, Margie, Shirley and Colleen McNeil will board a train tomorrow and Sunday night they will be reunited with their parents and two elder sisters in Halifax, Nova Scotia.

They have been separated since June 29 when the parents and two elder sisters, Canadian-born, were deported for illegal entry despite efforts of both United States and Canadian immigration authorities to find a legal loophole by which the four young children could be permitted to enter Canada.

The children here were notified by Canadian authorities they would be allowed to cross the border at St. Albans, Vermont, although they were born in the United States.

"I'm so happy," Margie said and was seconded by her three sisters. "I do want to see my mother and daddy. But I want to come back and be an American when I grow up."

Sea Scout Training Ship Goes Aground Enroute To Detroit

Charlevoix, Mich., Aug. 7. (AP)—The proud three-masted schooner Oliver H. Perry sailed northward toward the Straits of Mackinac tonight with her 100 sea scouts after coast guard boats freed her from her 18-hour stay on the Lake Michigan shoals.

A calm sea facilitated the re-floating. Cutters from Charlevoix and Mackinac Island late today pulled the ship off the Ile Aux Galets shoals between Charlevoix and the Straits, where she went aground at 11:35 p. m. Sunday.

The coast guard here said it believed the ship was undamaged. The schooner, used for training

MARION MILEY CRACKS RECORD

Lexington Girl Shoots 74 to Qualify In Women's Meet

BY DALE STAFFORD
 Detroit, Aug. 7. (AP)—Her putter a magic wand, Marion Miley, of Lexington, Ky., blazed to a new course and qualifying record as she paced a field of 141 contestants in the thirty-ninth annual closed championship of the women's Western Golf association at the Oakland Hills Country club here today.

Miss Miley, winner of the western in 1935 and 1937, shot 37-37-74 as she required but 25 putts for the round. She had eight one-putt greens. Her score eclipsed by one stroke the previous qualifying record of 75 set by Mrs. Opal S. Hill, of Kansas City, in the 1937 tournament at St. Paul.

Compared to women's par of 75, Miss Miley rapped in four birdies and an eagle. The course record until today was 77, held by Edith Estabrooks of Dubuque, Ia., who played with Miss Miley and shot an 82-to-qualify-handily.

Five shots behind Miss Miley was Eleanor Dudley, long hitting Chicagoan who is a junior at the University of Alabama. Third place was held by Beatrice Barrett, a 43 on the inward nine after equalling the medalist's card on the outgoing route.

Two ex-champions—Mrs. Russell Mann, of Milwaukee, the former Lucille Robinson, and Dorothy Traung, of San Francisco—were included in the group bracketed at 81. Others with this total were Mrs. Dan Chandler, of Dallas, Texas state champion, and Mrs. Hayes Dansingburg, of St. Paul.

At 82 were Miss Estabrooks, Ella Mae Williams, of Chicago and Elizabeth Hicks, of Long Beach, Calif., the Southern California champion.

No favorite failed to make the grade for the match play that starts tomorrow when the 22 low scorers in today's round. Four players who tallied 91a today were forced to play off for three places in the match play. Mrs. E. T. Hall, of Detroit, being eliminated.

FIELD COURSE TO BE OFFERED

Extension Division of University Holding Special Classes

A field course in selected problems of secondary education will be conducted during the fall and winter months by the school of education of the University of Michigan in cooperation with the university extension service, according to information received here by Supt. John A. Lemmer.

Escanaba will be one of six centers in the Upper Peninsula where the courses will be presented. Other cities are Houghton, Iron Mountain, Ironwood, Negaunee and Sault Ste. Marie. Lower Michigan centers are Benton Harbor, Caro, Dearborn, Ferndale, Flint, Grand Rapids, Hillsdale, Manistee, Muskegon, Saginaw, St. Johns and Traverse City. There will be seven meetings in the Upper Peninsula centers with sessions in the afternoon and evening.

The principal purpose of the course will be to conserve the time and effort of those who desire to keep abreast of the more recent trends and problems in classroom instruction, to provide a more effective tie up between educational theory and practice than is possible in the typical course on a college campus and to stimulate a genuine desire on the part of a teacher to grow professionally by working on real problems in his own school or classroom.

Three units will be considered: (1) broader concept of appraisal of secondary school instruction; (2) training high school students in effective habits of study; (3) recent studies, new books and significant trends in secondary education.

Details of the course may be secured from Supt. Lemmer.

Wylie Addresses Escanaba Rotary

"We need action, not investigation," Henry Wylie, Escanaba member of the Lake States Regional Planning Commission, told members of the Rotary club at yesterday's meeting.

The speaker said that action is needed to carry out the results of investigations that have been made in northern Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota. Data on transportation, agriculture, mining, lumbering and recreational facilities are available and now is the time to put into effect a program to alleviate distress conditions in this territory and to reduce WPA rolls by federal planning along the recommended lines of the commission.

Considerable time and effort has been spent by this organization to gather facts concerning resources of these areas and in order to proceed in a logical manner the commission expects to present their findings and interpretations to the National Resources Board in Washington for further study and recommendation.

The organization has already made several suggestions to the national board and they have acted favorably upon them. Most of the suggestions to date have dealt with alleviating conditions of the agricultural industry in these sections of the country. With this past progress already established it is felt by the Planning Commission that any future findings of the commission will receive federal attention and in due course of time will inaugurate a more extensive program favorably to advancement of northern Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

John Lemmer, superintendent of schools, spoke briefly on the crippled childrens clinic held last week at the high school in connection with Rotary's crippled children program. About 100 children were examined at the clinic, all from Delta and Menominee counties.

Legion Chief Favors Posts

A. L. BURRIDGE

Cadillac, Aug. 7.—"Every Legion post should have a home of its own and the longer they wait the harder it is going to be to acquire one," said state Vice Commander A. L. Burrige, who is a candidate for Michigan commander this year at the convention to be held in Escanaba, Aug. 20 to 22.

Mr. Burrige, who by profession is an engineer, has assisted two posts in acquiring buildings of their own. He was post commander at Crystal Falls when the veterans there promoted a $165,000 memorial building and was chairman of the building committee when the Cadillac post bought a $30,000 building which had been built for fraternal purposes 25 years ago and lost on a mortgage.

"The World War veterans should profit by the experience of the G.A.R.," said Mr. Burrige. "Only a few posts of Civil War comrades had homes of their own and as a result were without facilities after they became too old to do much for themselves."

Burrige has made the acquisition of Legion post homes one of the planks in his campaign platform and pledges, if elected, to use his experience and engineering ability to assist any post in Michigan to buy, build or otherwise obtain suitable quarters.

Rooms Are Needed For Legion Meeting

An appeal for additional rooms to house delegates and visitors during the state Legion convention to be held here starting August 19 was made yesterday by John A. Lemmer and Mrs. Elmer Swanson, heads of the Legion and Auxiliary housing committees.

Although there has been a fair response to date to the request of the organizations for housing facilities, there is still a need for additional rooms to take care of the many visitors who are expected to attend the event.

Residents who have rooms that are available are requested to contact the following members of the committee whose telephone numbers are listed: Mrs. Elmer Swanson, 1802; Mrs. Edward Moersch, 412-W; Mrs. R. E. Olson, 760; Mrs. Michael Farrell, 407; Mrs. Moras, 1727-M; Mrs. Emerson Harvey, 1481; Mrs. Frank Mileski, 1840 or Mrs. Peter Thompson, 1621.

AN OPEN LETTER TO FARMER READERS OF THE DAILY PRESS

Dear Mr. U. P. Farmer: This letter will inform you that an opportunity is knocking at your door—one that concerns your future, at your calling, during many coming years. This opportunity implies the consideration of how, and how easily the farmers of this section can promote and help operate a profit-sharing industrial plant for the purpose of processing a farm product that in one instance has turned a large section of a neighboring state into a continuous green garden for many miles around.

And also inform you that a plant with all necessary equipment for processing this farm crop, and ready to operate this season, is available. Also an experienced factory manager who is already well-known for his skill from the western Delta county line to the Soo and back by way of Marquette to Escanaba, and is ready to verify with facts the claims herein.

If, Mr. Farmer, you are interested to know how this enterprise can be promoted and operated as a profit-sharing institution without cash capital to start with,

St. Louis Talks At Kiwanis Meet

Nazism and other subversive influences in the United States should be fought by the government and the people in a legitimate but vigorous manner, Stanley St. Louis told Kiwanians at their regular meeting at the Sherman hotel yesterday noon.

"There is no place for Nazism and dictators in democratic America," St. Louis said. "After spending three months abroad, I am glad to be back in this country, where there is freedom and not so much talk of war."

During his talk, the speaker stated that he had been well treated in Germany and that at no time did any Nazi officials try to put the "heat" on him with a view of inducing him to write articles that would be favorable to the Hitler regime. He told that he met American Nazis aboard ship on the trip to Europe and found them much like the American Communists, who try to "whitewash" the mistakes of the Soviet program and resent criticism. In Germany, however, he found Nazi leaders freely admitting the errors of the reich's anti-Jewish programs and other policies. The speaker added that he gathered from many conversations with the German people that they do not want war.

St. Louis expressed his opinion that Sweden's prosperity has been overpublicized in America. He said that while Sweden is better off from an economic standpoint than other nations of Europe, the standard of living is far below what it is in the United States. The speaker also told of his experiences in England, Denmark, Italy and France.

The Kiwanis club will hold its next meeting at the Nahma boarding house Tuesday evening, Aug. 15. Wallace Kirkland, Chicago, photographer of Life, Fortune and

Farms Checked
A check of all farms in Menominee county is being made, to determine the performance for participation in the 1939 agricultural conservation program.

About 800 farm reports have been turned in to the office at Stephenson. The county office is located at Stephenson, under the supervision of Theo. J. Fazer as Secretary-treasurer.

The report for the entire county is to be completed by September 1, according to plans made some time ago.

In 1938, payments of $80,000 were made to the farmers in this county. These payments are made to individual farmers when they do not exceed a fixed allotment established for that particular farm. Various soil building practices, as seedings, fertilizing, liming and plowing under green manure crops come under this payment program as well.

To Pick Cherries
Vernon Fazer, Irvin Hafeman, Bob Smith, Will Kirehner and Edward Decker left Wednesday evening for Sturgeon Bay to spend a few days picking cherries.

Will Kell, local horse dealer, had four valuable horses killed by lightning, during the electrical part of the storm shortly before noon on Wednesday.

5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK

"With a cigarette as good as CAMEL, it's swell to get those extra puffs!"

SAYS LLOYD CHILD, FAMOUS POWER-DIVE TEST PILOT

Here are the facts about cigarettes recently confirmed through scientific laboratory tests of 16 of the largest-selling brands:

- 1 CAMELS were found to contain MORE TOBACCO BY WEIGHT than the average for the 15 other of the largest-selling brands.
- CAMELS BURNED SLOWER THAN ANY OTHER BRAND TESTED—25% SLOWER THAN THE AVERAGE TIME OF THE 15 OTHER OF THE LARGEST-SELLING BRANDS! By burning 25% slower, on the average, Camels give smokers the equivalent of 5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!
- In the same tests, CAMELS HELD THEIR ASH FAR LONGER than the average time for all the other brands.

Yes, those choicer tobaccos for which Camel pays millions more do make a difference! Camels are the quality cigarette every smoker can afford.

I knew that they were the long-burning cigarette. That means more smoking for my money. On a pack of twenty, as those scientific reports show, it's like getting five extra smokes per pack. BY WILLIS THORNTON NEA Service Staff Writer The dog-days of early August, 1914, were just like the dog-days of early August, 1939, hot, sticky, and muggy.

Members of congress, during the session just completed, threw aside the onus of "rubber stamps" and again assumed the responsibilities for law-making instead of yielding to the dictates of the executive office as had been the practice at previous sessions.

ESCAPE INJURY IN AUTO CRASH

Two Cars Badly Damaged After Collision On Ludington Street

Eleven occupants of two cars escaped serious injury in a collision that occurred at 8:40 Sunday night in the 1300 block on Ludington street between automobiles driven by F. E. Jerow, 137 West Gogebic street, Ironwood, and Leonard Sabourin of 1327 Dakota avenue, Gladstone.

According to information given city police, Jerow was driving west on Ludington street and the Sabourin car was going east. The Jerow car after the impact of the collision ran to the south side of the street, climbed the curb where it scraped the front of Beck's store and then ran across to 14th street, where it finally came to a stop in the center of the cement sidewalk and drive of the Sorenson gas station.

Riding with Mr. Jerow were his wife, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. McKevitte, and Mrs. R. R. Shier, all of Ironwood. Passengers in the Sabourin car were Lillian Strom, Mrs. Emil Strom, Mrs. Albert Mattson and Jeanette Ingebrigtsen, all of Gladstone.

BOYS ARRESTED AFTER ROBBERY

Escanaba Youths Broke Into Fair Store Sunday Night

City police early Monday morning arrested Wallace Guindon and Edward Koehler, who with George Moran are charged with breaking into the Fair Store late Sunday night.

The boys climbed a telephone pole in the alley and entered the store through the roof of the building. After stealing cigarettes, candy and shoes from the store they separated and Guindon was later stopped by Officer Papineau who noticed him going through the railroad yards with a package.

The package contained six cartons of cigarettes and two boxes of maple sugar candy and after being accosted by the officer the youth told him of the burglary.

Koehler was picked up soon afterwards after leaving the Moran home and showed officers where he had hidden in two places cigarettes, candy and a pair of oxfords.

Officers then went to the Moran home but were refused admittance by George Moran's father, who informed them that his son was not at home. Up until yesterday noon the youth had not been apprehended and a description of him had been sent to police departments in neighboring cities.

NOW WONDERS HOW SHE EVER GOT ALONG WITHOUT THE KruGon

Muscular Pains In Back, Shoulders and Arms Almost Unbearable; Had Lost In Weight, Strength, Energy

"KruGon is one medicine I feel free in recommending for it accomplished for me what everything else I tried had failed to do," said Mrs. George Hornick, 104 Hinman St., Marshfield, Wis.

"It is actually remarkable what KruGon did for me," continued Mrs. Hornick. "Those awful muscular pains have been relieved as the toxic impurities which had been so ruinous to my health are being properly eliminated. My meals are now an enjoyment, I am gaining in weight and strength, sleep well without being disturbed and my work is no longer a drudgery. Those who give KruGon a trial could not help but be a 'booster' when it does such wonderful things."

KruGon is sold by West End Drug Store, 1221 Ludington St., this city.

convinced. "I had been in a miserable condition for so long with those awful pains through my muscles and joints especially affecting my back, arms and shoulders. It was with the greatest of effort that I was able to get about and do any work. Frequent bladder action constantly disturbed me. Then too, my digestion was upset and I would bloat dreadfully after each meal. Often the gas pains were so severe I would rather not eat at all than suffer the way I did. I lost in weight, strength and energy... until I learned of KruGon and decided to give it a trial."

Sun-Suit Or School Frock Clever Pattern

BY MARIAN MARTIN

What a clever idea for a well turned-out Jassie! Marian Martin's back-buttoning Pattern 9180 turns its face to the summer sun and is an adorable sunsuit. Then it goes back to school as a smart jumper frock. You'll find it simple as spelling "cat" to stitch up. Make the sunsuit of bright gingham and use a sturdy, checked rayon rayon for the jumper. Then later on, cut another jumper, perhaps from an old woolen dress, for cold days. The cute blouse included with the pattern is either collarless, with short sleeves and ruffles, or in long-sleeved style with a collar and ruffle or ric-rac trim.

Patterns 9180 may be ordered only in children's sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 6, long sleeve blouse, requires 1 1/4 yards 35 inch fabric and 1 1/2 yards contrast; short sleeve blouse, 3/4 yard 35 inch fabric and 1 1/4 yards contrast.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins for this MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write clearly your SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, and STYLE NUMBER. Midsummer always calls for an inventory of your wardrobe to see if it doesn't need replenishing. Something cool and crisp for days that are hot and nights that are sultry! MARIAN MARTIN will bring you dozens of ready-made designs for sporty and formal midsummer wear in our NEW PATTERN BOOK. There are paper and rayon of fabrics for femininity of all sorts. The book is fifteen cents but when ordered with a pattern the price for both is twenty-five cents. You will want to consult this pattern book frequently for your remaining summer costume. Send your order to Daily Press, Pattern Department, 225 W. 11th St., New York, City, N. Y.

Coat That Majors In Campus Chic

No college wardrobe is complete without a monotone tweed jacket which can be worn with several different skirts. This one, on the pretty coed who has to run to make an eight-o'clock, is of a brown, blue and gray mixture, and is finished with leather buttons. The plaid skirt has an inverted pleat at the front. The headkerchief, tied in a bow under the chin, is what the average girl prefers to a hat.

Sr. Rose Jude Sharon Assigned to Philippines

Maryknoll, N. Y., Aug. 7.—One Sister from the Diocese of Marquette was among the twenty-one recently assigned missionaries for whom the Maryknoll Sisters held their thirtieth departure ceremony here in the Motherhouse chapel on Sunday, August 6. She is Sister Rose Jude Sharon, daughter of Mrs. Anna and the late Frank Sharon, of Wilson, Mich., who is one of the four Sisters missioned to the Philippines. Six others go to China, one to Japan, seven to Hawaii and eight to missions on the Pacific coast.

Most Rev. Francis J. Spellman, D. D., Archbishop of New York, presided and presented the departments with the missioner's crucifix. The sermon was preached by Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing, D. D., Auxiliary Bishop of Boston, who prior to his recent consecration, was director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in Boston, the post previously held by the late Bishop James Anthony Walsh and relinquished by him in 1911 when he became co-founder and first Superior General of the Catholic Foreign Mission Society of America. Present in the sanctuary was Most Rev. James E. Walsh, D. D., Superior General of the Maryknoll Fathers. After visiting their families, the departments will sail from the Pacific coast for their respective missions. When they have reached their destinations, there will be 247 Maryknoll Sisters overseas and 70 engaged in mission work among Orientals on the Pacific coast. Including the 68 missioners in training in the novitiate, the total personnel of the Maryknoll Sisterhood is 580.

Work With Native Women In their labors among Orientals, one of the principal phases of the work of the Maryknoll Sisters is the emphasis upon direct evangelization through the visitation of native women in their homes. Important allies to this work are their schools, orphanages, homes for the aged, dispensaries, hospitals and sanatoria. Beginning their work in 1912 when three young women offered their service to the mission cause, the Maryknoll Sisters received the approbation of the Holy See in 1920. Affiliated with the Dominican Order their legal and official title is Foreign Mission Sisters of St. Dominic.

Dedication of New Saint Joseph Church Conducted At Impressive Ceremonies

Religious ceremonies of deep significance marked the solemn blessing and dedication of the new St. Joseph church, gift of the late William Bonifas, to his parish, conducted Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock by the Most Rev. Joseph C. Plagens, D. D., L. L. D., Bishop of the Marquette diocese. The dedication ceremonies also were the occasion for the presentation to Mr. Bonifas' widow, Mrs. Catherine Bonifas, of the Cross Pro Ecclesia at Pontifice, an honor bestowed upon her by the late Pope Pius XI. The ceremonies of the morning opened with an impressive procession, in which the Most Rev. Bishop Plagens and members of the Holy Name societies of the three Catholic parishes of the city, the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus of Marquette and Escanaba, the Knights of Columbus chorus, and the Escanaba Municipal band. The solemn blessing of the rectory building and of the church edifice followed, after which the Most Rev. Bishop Plagens conducted the dedication ceremonies, the responses of which were chanted by the Dominican seminarians, who came from their summer headquarters at Cedar River, for the services.

Pontifical High Mass The Most Rev. Bishop Plagens was celebrant of the Pontifical High Mass; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Henry Buchholz, P. A., V. G., Assistant Priest; Rev. Fr. Martin B. Guertin, Sub-Deacon; the Very Rev. Joseph Zyrd, D. D., J. C. D., of Marquette, Master of Ceremonies; and Robert Hogan, seminary, of Green Bay, Assistant Master of Ceremonies. Also present in the sanctuary were the Very Rev. Fr. Adalbert Rolfe, O. F. M., of Cincinnati, O., Provincial of the Province of St. John the Baptist; Rev. Fr. Andrew Henz, O. F. M., of Cincinnati, who delivered the sermon of the dedication mass; Rev. Fr. Edward Leary, O. F. M., pastor of St. Joseph's church; Rev. A. C. Coignard, of Perkins; Rev. Fr. J. Alderik Paquet, of St. Francis hospital; Rev. Fr. Joseph Dufort, of Iron Mountain; Rev. Fr. Francis Scheringer, of Rapid River; Rev. Fr. Matthias LaViolette, and F. J. Sensenbrenner, of Neenah, Wis., a Knight of St. Gregory. Rev. Fr. Henz, O. F. M., taking his sermon theme from Scripture, spoke of the solemnity of dedication of a beautiful building to God and of the significance of the dedication ceremonies. The music of the dedication mass was a special program, arranged by Miss Eva Cossette, organist-director of the choir, and sung by the full choir of the church.

Presentation of Honor

At the close of the mass, the impressive ceremony of presentation of the Holy Father's award was made by the Most Rev. Bishop Plagens. Mrs. Bonifas, entering the sanctuary to receive the document and decoration at the Bishop's throne. In making the presentation the Bishop paid tribute to the memory of the late Mr. Bonifas, and to Mrs. Bonifas, citing their many acts of generosity in the cause of religion in the diocese. The document, which is doubly significant in that it was conferred by the late Pope Pius XI, and his order executed by the present Pope Pius XII, then Cardinal Eugenio Pacelli, the Papal Secretary of State, and bears the signatures of both Prelates, was read aloud to the congregation by the Very Rev. Dr. Zyrd, before the presentation.

A banquet for ninety church dignitaries, associate members of the clergy, and invited guests, was served at one o'clock at the Delta hotel. Banquet Program John A. Lemmer, superintendent of the Escanaba public schools, served as master of ceremonies of the banquet program. Speakers, who dwelt on the far-reaching effects of the spirit of Christian charity which motivated the life of the late Mr. Bonifas, and which continues its expression through Mrs. Bonifas, were the Most Rev. Bishop Plagens, who spoke for the diocese of Marquette; Rev. Fr. Rolfe, O. F. M., who expressed the appreciation of the Province of which he is the head; Rt. Rev. Msgr. Buchholz, who spoke briefly; Mr. Sensenbrenner, who spoke as a close friend and business associate of Mr. Bonifas; Rev. Fr. Edward Leary, O. F. M., who spoke for the parish, and who paid high praise to A. M. Arntzen, general contractor, and to members of the various divisions of the architectural staff of Fuller, Schober and Berners, who were represented at the banquet. Music during the banquet was played by a string trio, Clara Karas, violinist; Elinor Sharpsteen, cellist, and Elsie Karas, pianist. Soloists, who included Irish music in the program for the special enjoyment of Mrs. Bonifas, were Mrs. Harold Gasman, who sang "Bless This House," May Brahe, and "Twas an Irish Girl I Loved," Ernest Ball, and Frank Hirn, who sang "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," and a selection from "Robin Hood." Mrs. M. F. Fernstrom was accompanist for Mrs. Gasman, and Mrs. Hirn, accompanist for Mr. Hirn.

Thus she joins the board of experts along with Franklin P. Adams, John Kiernan and Oscar Levant. Naturally, it is to be expected that some of the questions will deal with the stage. Before noon comes, the MBS-CHAIN will have a couple of features other than its regular run of programs. First at 9:45 a. m. comes what is described as a dunk by dunk report of a championship dunking of doughnuts contest. Then at 10:15, a visit will be paid to Miami university, Oxford, Ohio, for the Beta Theta Pi centenary day exercises, speakers to include Owen D. Young and Charles P. Taft. At night, the hour is 9, MBS will carry another broadcast from the National Conference of Catholic Charities at Denver, with Warden Thomas A. Johnston of Alcatraz prison at the microphone. More of what Paris has to offer in the newest in fashions will be related in another overseas broadcast from that city, listed for WJZ-NBC at 1:30. In the way of sports WJZ-NBC has a 4:05 summation of the day's play in the Eastern Grass Courts tennis at Rye, N. Y., and Ted Husing, insisting "That's What I Said," will be put on for WABC-CBS at 5:15, the second in his new sportscasts.

WE, the WOMEN

MRS. SWANSON

There's a tip for prospective brides trying to decide where to honeymoon, in the disillusioned confession of Mrs. Charles Henry Fonda, who recently told ship news reporters who asked for Mr. Fonda (cousin of the movie star): "I left him in Bali. No husband should ever be taken to Bali on a honeymoon. I could not stand the competition. I suppose he is still there looking at those Balinese women." If the advice seems impractical at first—since so few brides have a chance to turn down Bali—it might be well to add that there are other places where a girl might find competition disillusioning. A girl with too few curves—or too many—would stand comparison with other women much better if she chose a city honeymoon—rather than one at a beach. A girl who can't ride and is at her best in frills might find her husband casting admiring glances at a girl who looks beautiful on a horse—should she naively say she would like to go to a dude ranch on her honeymoon because she had always wanted to learn to ride. CHOOSE YOUR PLACE WELL

A rather timid, shy girl certainly would face stiff competition at a "chummy" resort—where everybody calls everybody by his first name after the first day. All her married life a woman has to face stiff competition—but there is no use in her letting herself in for it on her wedding trip. Every woman has a right to remember at least two weeks when she had her husband's undivided attention.

CAR SALES TAX IS INCREASING

Loopholes In Collection Plugged; Returns Much Greater

Sales tax collections on automobiles jumped 166 per cent in June, 1939, over the same month in 1938, Walter F. Reddy, managing director of the State Board of Tax Administration, announced yesterday. Figures for May, this year, compared with May, last year, show an increase of 120 per cent.

The sales tax on automobiles for June, 1939, gave the state an income of $716,030.80. May sales brought in $680,807.07. The total for both months in 1933 was only $578,751.43, Reddy said. This year's figures do not include the taxes on accessories and other items sold by automobile dealers, an additional amount estimated from $80,000 to $100,000 a month.

"There are two reasons for this gratifying increase," Reddy said. "Automobile sales have picked up considerably this year, but augmenting this normal increase is the new state law passed during the last session of this legislature to plug loop-holes in the collection of sales taxes on automobiles."

"Under the new provisions the dealer must pay the tax to the secretary of state's office before he can secure a transfer of title. This curtails the very small percentage of dealers who in the past were attempting to avoid payment of the sales tax. Because of the present arrangements the salesman cannot make a satisfactory delivery of the car until the state has been paid its money."

"The new automobile sales tax law is probably the outstanding example of the present administration's program to increase the state revenue—not by adding new taxes—but by efficiently collecting those already existing."

Action In Church Case Is Deferred

Marquette—Prosecutor John D. Voelker and Robert A. Burns, of Ironwood, assistant attorney general, conferred in Ishpeming Friday and Saturday regarding the shortages in funds of the Episcopal diocese of northern Michigan.

It was stated by the prosecutor that the two officials deferred decision following an investigation of the accumulated evidence whether any living person was shown to be criminally responsible for any shortages existing in any of the funds.

It was also learned that the authorities wish to investigate certain other facts and to confer with another assistant attorney general, Thomas A. Kenney, who has been working in certain metropolitan areas.

It was indicated that several legal questions are involved and the prosecutor and Mr. Burns want to confer with Attorney General Thomas A. Read before making any final decision.

Prosecutor Voelker said that it must be obvious to all that the investigation has been measurably hampered by the death of A. E. Miller and the disappearance of his records. Mr. Voelker said that he had not asked Mr. Burns whether the latter had been in Chicago, but was inclined to think not.

DANCE PAVILION NAMED IN SUIT

Chouinard of Riverview Defendant in Case Started by ASCAP

Munising, August 7—Frank Chouinard, operator of the Riverview Pavilion near Escanaba, became the defendant in a suit filed on Friday in the United States district court at Marquette by Gene Buck, president of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, and Harms, Inc., a corporation. Suit against Chouinard was started because a copyrighted musical piece, "The Umbrella Man," had been played at the pavilion, which is not licensed by the ASCAP, on April 16, 1939, by Groleau's orchestra. George S. Baldwin, Munising attorney and upper peninsula counsel for the ASCAP, filed the suit for Mr. Buck.

The ASCAP was organized in 1914 by the late Victor Herbert and is a voluntary non-profit association of citizens of the United States who are qualified and recognized composers, authors and publishers of musical compositions. The society issues licenses to all types of public amusement enterprises which use music, authorizing the performance for profit of compositions copyrighted by its members. License fees collected by the organization are divided, after operation expenses have been deducted, among members of the society and of the foreign societies with which the ASCAP is affiliated.

George S. Baldwin, Upper Peninsula counsel for the society said here today, "Many proprietors have ignored the advices and warnings sent to them. They have been warned that action will be taken unless they either secure the license from the copyright proprietors to use this music or refrain from infringements. There is no alternative but to hold the establishments strictly accountable for the damages provided by law. Such suits can be avoided only by securing license."

Under Section 25 B of the United States copyright law, damages may be awarded of not more than $5,000, nor less than $250, in each case where there is a single infringing rendition.

IN JUSTICE COURT

Munising, Aug. 7—Three cases were heard in the justice court of Thomas J. Walters this morning. Edward Bartol was fined $50 and $5.00 costs on a drunken driving charge and was sent to the Alger county jail for 60 days when he was unable to pay. His automobile operator's license was also revoked.

O. V. Lung of Melstrand paid $3.35 court costs for having defective lights on his automobile.

Joseph Byrne, charged with being drunk, paid a $5 fine and court costs of $5.05.

STEEL OUTLOOK IS ENCOURAGING

Demand Levels Off But Upturn In Autos Expected Soon

Steelmaking has leveled off at 60 per cent after rising sharply for three weeks. Demand for finished products is sustained, however, and the outlook is encouraging, according to magazine Steel.

One of the most favorable market developments is the prospect for a more rapid upturn shortly in automotive steel shipments, following the lull imposed by labor trouble. Since some steel already had been produced in anticipation of motor car requirements, prolongation of the tool and die workers strike had possibilities of retarding future operations.

Miscellaneous steel users still account for more than their usual share of total business. This situation may be changed the next 30 days as automotive operations expand, although at the same time a declining trend is indicated in requirements of heavy products for building and engineering construction.

Previous orders for structural shapes and concrete reinforcing bars will keep mills and fabricators fairly well engaged for a number of weeks, but inquiries and awards are slower. Temporarily offsetting the reduced activity in these products are heavier orders for pipe line and shipbuilding material. Recent line pipe bookings total 42,500 tons, while the navy has bought 21,300 tons of plates and sheets for two battleships.

Daily average pig iron production in July was 7.5 per cent ahead of June and 94.3 per cent larger than a year ago. Total output the first seven months of 14,877,167 gross tons was nearly 63 per cent greater than in the 1938 period. July showed a net gain of 12 in number of active blast furnaces.

Sokolsky Scans The Headlines

By George E. Sokolsky

The organization of labor has now achieved the completion of a new phase, the closed corporation, the interlocking directorate. Labor moves now as capital moved for many years. And perhaps legislation similar to the Sherman anti-trust law and the Clayton act will have to be passed to meet the new situation.

John L. Lewis, head of the C. I. O., has announced the formation of the United Construction Workers' Organization Committee. The first object of this body is stated to be "to unite into one organization, regardless of creed, color, nationality or classification of employment, all workers in and around construction work."

That, of course, is a direct attack on the most powerful group of unions affiliated with the A. F. of L., namely, those engaged in the building and construction trades. It means that the very stick building trades of this country are to be involved in an intricate warfare which will include strikes, primary and secondary picketing, widespread propaganda and increased delays and costs. Whenever A. F. of L. carpenters will be at work C. I. O. hod carriers will strike, and vice versa—all to the detriment of the whole American people, who are anxious to get out of the depression as soon as possible.

But what interests me most for the moment is the character of the personnel of the new organization.

The formal announcement gives the following as the organizers: A. D. Lewis, brother of John Lewis and his assistant in the control and operation of the United Mine Workers; Philip Murray, vice-president of the C. I. O. and head of the Steel Workers' Organization Committee; James B. Carey, secretary of the C. I. O. and president of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers' Union; R. J. Thomas, president of the United Automobile Workers' Union, and Sherman Dalrymple, president of the United Rubber Workers' Union.

Not one of these men is engaged in any of the building trades. Not one of these men is today a worker in any trade. They are engaged in the business of organizing and managing labor unions. On boards of directors of unions, their position is the exact counterpart of the professional lawyer and banker who serves on the boards of directors of large corporations. They do not represent the particular industry which, for the moment, they are organizing, but some extraneous agency, some altogether outside force. Just as a lawyer may represent a banking group or an investing group, so they represent the general organizing group. But they do not represent any workers.

Again, we have here, as was so evident in steel, organization from on top. It is not the workers who organize this body; they do not call a meeting; they do not elect officers. Instead, this group of professional labor organizers, who have no other business or occupation, announce that they are organizing, but some extraneous agency, some altogether outside force. Just as a lawyer may represent a banking group or an investing group, so they represent the general organizing group. But they do not represent any workers.

When steel was organized, a group out of the United Mine Workers, headed by John Lewis, did exactly the same thing. The steel workers did not organize; they were organized by the United Mine Workers. Most of the early funds were put up by the United Mine Workers. To this day, the steel workers have had little voice in the management of their own affairs, and that is the reason why they are so recalcitrant in the payment of dues to the union. Unlike unions headed by either David Dubinsky or Sidney Hillman—unions which grew organically from the workers—the steel union and, for that matter, the rubber union have always had difficulty in collecting dues. There have even been "dues collecting strikes" which represent the workers' resistance to the union.

Of course, whenever the employers sign a closed-shop contract the workers have to join the union and they have to pay dues. They have no alternative if they want to hold their jobs. This represents an arrangement between the employer and the officers of the labor unions in which the workers have no voice. Certainly, minority workers who wish to belong to other unions or individual workers who desire to belong to no union at all have no voice, because the employer often agrees in advance not to employ such men and the National Labor Relations Board gives to such an agreement the finality of legality.

So far as "representatives of their own choosing" is concerned, it is altogether out of the question. In this newly set up Construction Organizing Committee, John Lewis simply appoints his brother to head up the union, and he is appointed Phil Murray to head up the steel union. If electricians or cement workers or any other group object, they will be fighting the organized power of the C. I. O., any employers who may find it to their advantage to sign up, and the National Labor Relations Board.

That is a pretty stiff gang to fight, as those who have tried it have discovered. For it does not only involve the usual attrition of a strike, but it involves slugging.

SERIAL STORY

WAR AND A WOMAN

BY BETTY WALLACE

COPYRIGHT, 1939, NEA SERVICE, INC.

CAST OF CHARACTERS
LINDA STORM—Fell in love with her best friend's fiancé.
MARCIA KING—Navy girl, loved a flyer.
JIMMY COOPER—Naval flying instructor at Pensacola.
GEORGE CAMERON—Linda's fiancé.

Yesterday, Linda arrives home to find her father still alive. She does not tell him she is not going to marry George. Marcia writes that her wedding has been postponed. Jimmy has been ordered to sea.

CHAPTER X
There was more to Marcia's letter, but Linda's eyes stopped reading at the line which said, "Jimmy was ordered to sea Wednesday." For she knew, as surely as if Jimmy himself were standing here, telling her, that this unexpected transfer was something he had somehow engineered himself.

Now that the wedding was to be postponed—now that it wasn't over between herself and him—happiness and hope flooded her for an instant. But Daddy? They could do nothing, she and Jimmy, until Daddy was well. And even then—Jimmy's work stood between them, a concrete wall.

If he'd resign from the Navy, he'd fit himself for some other career. . . . She couldn't ask that.

When she entered her father's room for the usual morning newspaper reading, she told him casually, "Daddy, Marcia's wedding has been postponed after all. Her fiancé was ordered to sea."

"What does that mean—another mysterious naval order to parade the fleet in front of some foreign country's nose?"
"Oh, no, Daddy. This—" But how could she say this was something special, without significance at all, except to Linda Storm?

She picked up the papers. "Bad news again, I'm afraid, Hitler—" "Oh, stop!" He rubbed his forehead. "Hitler! I get so tired of hearing that name. A stupid, tortured egomaniac, driving a world to ruin! I get so tired of whole nations composed of dolts and fools. Brutality dressed up in propaganda is still brutality. Why are they so blind?"

"Now, Daddy," she warned. "You don't want your blood pressure going up, do you?"

"It may as well go up and kill me," he bit off savagely. "If I live, I'll be bombed some day. Not much sense in postponing the agony. Linda, my dear, there's only one thing I have to be profoundly grateful for—and that is, if war comes, your husband will have sense enough to stick to his own war—the only glorious war there is."

Her heart turned over. Her husband. He meant George. She said hastily, "I'll run down and get you Baker's Tiberius Caesar. That always takes your mind off our times."

"It happens to be our times exactly! Dictators. Julius Caesar was the first dictator, and why can't they remember what happened to him and to the empire he built up?"

She was half way to the door. "Linda," he called. "Don't bother about the book." His wise old eyes probed into hers. "I may be sick, but I'm not blind yet. Something's the matter with you. You've lost your bloom. You're not happy."

Her hands curled into tight fists. Intimidation of families, coercion of individual workers, smearing by competently organized propaganda agencies, investigations by the La Follette Committee and frightfully expensive hearings before the National Labor Relations Board. All agencies move into the fray at once and with considerable efficiency. Only occasionally is a slip made, as when the C. I. O. interfered with the mails in the Republic Steel strike or when a Governor of a state is advised to kidnap company officials or when Heywood Brown's "Nutmeg" accepts boycotted whisky advertisements.

Generally, however, a strike, no longer being a matter of wages and hours and working conditions, is not a question between the employer and his employees; it becomes an issue between an employer and this interlocking directorate of professional labor organizers supported by governmental agencies. The employer as well as the workers is caught in this vise and from it they release themselves with great difficulty and expense.

There has always been criticism of the A. F. of L. and of the unions in the building and construction trades. In particular, have been critical of the policies of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, especially of Local No. 3 in New York. But these unions, whatever their faults, are organic bodies, founded by workers, financed out of dues paid by the workers actually engaged in these industries. Their officers are practically always men who have worked in these industries and who have come up from the ranks.

lists. She had an insistent impulse to put her head on his shoulder, to blurt out the truth. But she couldn't do it. His daughter in love with a naval pilot! After what he had just said.

Bravely, without shrinking from those loving eyes, she lied to her father for the first time in her life. "I've been worrying about you, Daddy. I couldn't bear it if—"

"My, my, my!" came Miss Rourke's cheerful, strident tones. "You're the popular one, Linda Storm! First you get an airmail letter and now look—a telegram."

She tramped into the room on her sensible, broad white oxfords, and handed Linda the yellow envelope with a little flourish. "If I didn't know you had a perfectly good man waiting, I'd think it was a beau, rushing you."

"Telegram?" Daddy was asking swiftly. Linda bit her lip. "It's from Marcia. She sends wires at the slightest excuse."

Deliberately, she ripped the envelope open. She read one word—the signature, JIMMY. She crumpled the thing up in the palm of her hand. "Yes, that's all. She remembered something she left out of her letter."

Daddy settled back among the pillows. Miss Rourke bustled up to the small table where the bottles and thermometer stood. "Get out of here. We'll be busy, miss."

Safe behind her own locked door, Linda smoothed out Jimmy's wire again. It had been sent from Washington, D. C. It said, FLYING TO QUEENSVILLE TOMORROW. MUST SEE YOU. WILL BE LEAVING TUESDAY TO REPORT FOR DUTY ABOARD RANGER. LOVE.

She could piece the story together now. He had left from Pensacola for Washington. He had reached someone in authority and gotten what he wanted. But how had he gone over Captain King's head? It must have taken a world of lying. But she had been forced to lie, too.

The thought of him here in Queensville tomorrow, on the day when he was to have become Marcia's husband, set Linda's blood to tingling. Marcia was so fine and straightforward and trusting. Surely, no girl had ever betrayed a friend as basely as she was betraying Marcia! She must wire Jimmy right away. "DON'T COME." But she didn't know exactly where in Washington he was. Her hands fell uselessly to her side.

"Miss Storm," that was Rourke again.

"I heard the doorbell." Linda ran downstairs. She remembered, belatedly, that George was to have come this morning, since it was Saturday and his laboratory assistant, Miss Triggs, was away for the weekend. Miss Triggs had given up her summer vacation so that George could keep right on with his experiments even though the school was closed.

It was hard to smile at George, as she opened the door. Hard to say, "Hello. Glad to see you."

"I'm glad to see you! We haven't had much time together, have we?" His grave smile lighted up his eyes. "How's your daddy?"
"Better, I think. At least, not worse."
"He's well enough for you to go with me on one of our picnics tomorrow, Linda, isn't he?"
Her breath caught. Last summer they had spent many hours in the woods around Queensville. They had roasted wienies over an open fire, baked potatoes, made coffee. Alone with the trees and the soft green grass, George had lain with his head in her lap, his pipe between his teeth, talking out his experiments. Telling her of the setbacks which had discouraged him, the latest minute little advances which seemed definitely promising. And Linda had hung on every word.

"You're wonderful, George." She remembered her own voice saying that. "Some day you'll be one of the world's most important scientists!"

He had told her how much it meant to him to be able to talk with her about his work. "Your interest is like a torch, beckoning me on, Linda. Without you—without her, he would not be capable of doing his work. This summer, she knew better. George needed no one. His work was lonely and glorious, but it sprang from an inner compulsion. It was not to dazzle her or anyone else that he persisted, endlessly, in the face of almost unsurmountable obstacles. It was because within his own soul there was a love for perfection, an urgent need, a passion beyond explanation. Microbes fascinated him. He was one of the lonely army who battled in quiet laboratories and wrote thoughtful papers on obscure and involved phenomena.

ROAD PROJECT GETS SETBACK

Manistique Job Is Not Included In Aug. 16
Letting

The belief that highway US-2 within the city limits of Manistique would be paved by the state highway department this fall proved unfounded yesterday when it was learned the project was not included in the advertisements for bids on various projects to be opened August 16.

The August letting originally scheduled for August 23 was moved ahead to August 16.

Since the Manistique project is not included in the August letting, it is unlikely the construction can be completed this fall.

The project has already received the approval of the state administrative board, and it was believed the contract would be let this month, in which case construction would begin in time to permit completion before cold weather intervened.

Unofficial information received here indicates that the project will be let sometime this fall for construction in early spring.

The plans provide for a 42-foot pavement, including curb and gutters. All underground structures were laid by the City of Manistique as a WPA project last fall with the belief that the concrete pavement would be laid this year.

Hupy-Behrend

Behrend, Madison, Wis., exchanged wedding vows at an 8 o'clock nuptial mass celebrated yesterday morning at the All Saints Catholic church by the Rev. Fr. Jos. Schaul. The altar adorned with gladioli and baby's breath formed an impressive setting for the bridal party.

Proceeding the ceremony, "Because" was sung by Harold F. Koch, director of music for Henry Ford at Greenfield Village, Dearborn, Mich., accompanied by Mrs. C. A. LaFave, organist.

Lohengrin's march was played as the bridal party entered the church. Mr. Koch sang the Mass in F by Roswig, "Ave Maria" by Millard at the offertory and "Veni Jesu Amore" during the communion. Mendelssohn's march was played by Mrs. LaFave at the recessional.

The bride was lovely in a steel length dress of pale blue alpaca with white accessories. She wore an orchid corsage and carried her prayer book.

Miss Bertha Behrend, Madison, Wis., sister of the groom, served as maid of honor and was attired in an attractive street-length model of dusty rose. Her corsage was of roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the members of the bridal party and immediate members of the family at the home of the bride's father. Fifty guests were in attendance. Sweet peas and gladioli formed the appointments.

Mr. and Mrs. Behrend left later in the day on a wedding trip through Canada and upon their return will reside at 1114 North Fremont avenue, South Bend, Ind. For going away, the bride wore a charming fall ensemble.

A wedding of interest to many Gladstone residents was that of Miss Marie Raiche, daughter of Joseph Raiche, city, and Richard Faris, Fond du Lac, Wis., at Fond du Lac on Saturday, August 5.

"White" silk marquisette and heirloom Chantilly lace over taffeta comprised the princess gown with a train worn by the bride whose trailing illusion veil and blusher were held with a satin doll hat. White roses comprised her shoulder bouquet.

"Miss Shirley Raiche and Miss Ann Faris, sisters of the bride and bridegroom, were gowned in bouffant frocks in peach and aqua net over taffeta. Coronets of flowers held their shoulder length veils and they carried colonial bouquets of token roses and white snapdragons.

Layden To Lead College All-Stars Against Giants

BADGER COACH IS ASSISTANT

Poll Gives 5,127,888 Points to Notre Dame Man

Chicago, Aug. 7 (AP)—Elmer Layden of Notre Dame is the "people's choice" to lead the College All-Stars against the New York Giants, professional football champions, in the annual August charity game.

The final tabulation of votes in the coast-to-coast contest to pick a staff of coaches gave the head coach's job to Layden with a total of 5,127,888 points. The voting closed last Saturday midnight.

His four assistants, the coaches who polled the largest total for their respective sections, will be: Big Ten: Harry Stuhldreher, Wisconsin, 2,918,150.

East: Carl Snavely, Cornell, 1,160,907.

South: Roy Neyland, Tennessee, 1,496,335.

Far West: Edward (Slip) Madigan, St. Mary's, 894,275.

The game, originated and sponsored by the Chicago Tribune, is scheduled for the night of August 30 in Soldier Field.

The college squad of 69 seniors already has been named in a similar poll.

The coaches and players will get together for the first time next Saturday at Northwestern university in nearby Evanston, where their practice drills will be held.

Crowley Banks High The game usually attracts about 80,000 spectators, proceeds being equally divided between three Chicago charity organizations.

In the middle west voting, exclusive of the Big Ten, Charles Bachman of Michigan State finished second to Layden with 783,453 points. A first place vote counted three points, second two and third place one point.

Stuhldreher barely nosed out Mal Edward of Purdue in the Big Ten race, the latter polling 2,742,063 points. James Crowley of Fordham finished second to Snavely with 820,478.

In the south Neyland had no serious rival, Dana Bible of Texas coming in second with 210,399 points. Tiny Thornhill of Stanford ran closest to Madigan in the far west, getting 565,569 points.

Only eight coaches in the Big Ten were eligible for a spot on the staff, Bernie Bierman of Minnesota and Bo McMillin of Indiana having already served as head coach, thus disqualifying them for further service.

Ratings of the other six behind Stuhldreher and Edward follow: Lynn Waldorf, Northwestern, 1,823,825; Eddie Anderson, Iowa, 1,532,728; H. O. Crisler, Michigan, 650,464; Bob Zuppke, Illinois, 598,120; Francis Schmidt, Ohio State, 282,402; and Clark Sphaughnessy, Chicago, 234,246.

Pinch Single Gives Indians 6-5 Victory

Cleveland, Aug. 7 (AP)—Outfielder Roy Weatherly's pinch single in the eighth inning gave the Cleveland Indians a 6 to 5 victory over the St. Louis Browns tonight in a contest marked by the sterling play of Lou Boudreau, Cleveland shortstop playing his first game in a major league uniform.

Weatherly's clean hit to right field climaxed a three-run rally after the Indians had trailed throughout the contest.

The Indians used four hurlers and the Browns two. Johnny Broaca, righthander who went to the mound in the eighth, received credit for the victory, and Howard Mills, the Browns' starting hurler was charged with the loss.

Boudreau and second baseman Ray Mack, both recalled last week from Buffalo, scampered over their infield territory like veterans. The former delivered two hits in four times up, one a

PAPER MAKERS CLASS B ACES

Locals Eligible for U. P. Softball Tourney; Elks Take Class C Title

In a well played and exciting game, the Escanaba Paper Mill defeated Nepper's Tavern of Isabella, 2 to 0, in the finals of the Class B regional softball tournament held here Sunday. The Class C title was won by the Elks who defeated the Sherman Hotel who defeated the Nepper's Tavern of Isabella, 2 to 0, in the finals.

The two finalists in each class are eligible to compete in the Upper Peninsula Tournament to be held in Negaunee August 19 and 20.

The Paper Mill started their march of victory behind lanky Job Anderson by defeating the Fords by a score of 8 to 0. In their second game, they allowed their only run of the day, the Midways scoring one run to seven for the Paper Makers. With Job Anderson still holding down the pitcher's mound, the final game with Nepper's was a nip and tuck affair until the last of the fourth when "Toots" Roman drove one nearly to the highway for a home run, scoring Christianson ahead of him.

Nepper's, with a staff of sparkling pitchers, defeated Marble Arms in the morning, the Elks in the afternoon in the game which has caused more arguments than the New Deal, and except for the one inning, played the Paper Mill to a standstill in the finals.

Complete results of the tournament are as follows: Class B—Paper Mill defeated Fords; CYO defeated Liberty Loans; Mero's Bar defeated Ritchie; Midway defeated CYO; Paper Mill defeated Midways; Nepper's Tavern defeated Marble Arms; Eskys defeated Mero's Bar; Nepper's defeated Eskys (game protested by Eskys); Paper Mill defeated Nepper's.

Class C—Nahma defeated Ralph's Tavern of Ensign; Elks defeated Old Times; Sherman Hotel defeated Nahma; Elks defeated Sherman Hotel.

The tournament was well attended, various estimates giving a count of from fifteen hundred to two thousand people at the finals. Umpires were Van Effen, Kircher, Fisher and Ranguette.

Perronville Trips Bark River, 9 to 3

Perronville, Aug. 6—The fast stepping Perronville crew behind the four-hit pitching of E. Motto tripped the rival Bark River club by a score of 9 to 3 here Sunday afternoon in a Delta-Menominee League game.

Bark River took a momentary lead in the first inning when they scored two runs on a walk and two singles but Perronville came back in their half of the first to score four runs to put them into the lead which they never relinquished.

E. Motto was in great form as he held the visitors to but four hits and struck out eleven of the opposing batsmen for his sixth win against one defeat. Today's game marked his second over the Bark River crew.

The hitting of the Perronville crew was divided among R. Berger, A. Johnson and W. Slaga, each of whom got two hits apiece from the offerings of Steinhauer.

EYE CUT, BOUT ENDS

Miketinac Tries Out With Packers

Nick Miketinac of Hermansville left Saturday morning for Green Bay to join the Green Bay Packers in their fall training camp held in the Wisconsin city.

Nick has been working out at home, and also spent considerable time getting in shape at St. Norberts college in De Pere, Wisconsin where he served as freshman coach during the past year.

This is Nick's second trial with the Packers, having had a chance with the western champions last year and managed to stick until an old shoulder injury recurred, forcing him out of action. This year he has had a special brace constructed which he hopes will protect his injured shoulder.

After his release last year he had several offers from other teams in the league but he elected to stay in Green Bay and serve as a freshman coach at his alma mater.

This year Coach Lambeau offered him another trial after several teams were dickered for his services and Nick again returned to the packer fold.

SPILLING the DOPE

CLINT BROWN hasn't started a game for the White Sox this year, but the star fireman has appeared in more than 40 per cent of the club's engagements . . . and certainly will better the record he set two seasons ago when he went on relief 48 times . . .

The current figure is 41 . . . First wall of the Big Ten football season comes from Madison, where Jack Murray, Wisconsin's center and All-America prospect, underwent an appendectomy . . . Because the case was a comparatively simple one, doctors have hopes of him playing this fall.

Wells Cubs Lose To Local Juniors

In a game that featured great pitching on both sides, the local Eskymos beat the Wells Cubs, 9-2. Battling factor, as the Eskymos are doing in the clouting department and the Cubs were on the weak side. The Escanaba pitcher, Bliss, limited his opponents to three hits and put across 11 strikeouts, while his mound adversary, Bakran of the Cubs, struck out 11 men and let six get by him. No two hits were made in any one inning.

Another difficult thing to determine is when "second hand" furniture leaves off and "antiques" begin!

ESCANABA WINS FROM NEGAUNEE

Brazeau Turns In 2 Hit Performance for 3rd Victory

Continuing the brilliant pace that he set in the previous two weeks, Phil Brazeau allowed the Negaunee Rovers only two hits in defeating them 2 to 0 at Negaunee Sunday afternoon, as Escanaba chalked up its third consecutive Northern Michigan-Wisconsin league victory.

The game was a hurling duel between Brazeau and George Maki, with Brazeau having a slight edge, as the locals were able to garner only four hits off the southpaw slants of Maki, a Gwin product, who is playing with the Rovers this summer.

Brazeau started the game in brilliant fashion by retiring the first 14 men in order, before Rubien reached first base in the fifth inning on one of the three passes granted by the Escanaba pitcher. His bid for a no-hit game was stopped in the eighth inning, when Soyring, Rover third baseman beat out a bunt. The second Negaunee hit was a single by Johnson in the last frame.

Escanaba Scoring The locals scored their first run in the third inning when Siko singled and scored on a triple by Flath. They added their final tally in the sixth when Benard was hit by a pitched ball, stole second, and came home on a double by Maycunich.

In addition to granting only two hits, Brazeau struck out twelve, while Maki retired ten men via the strike out route and gave up only one base on balls.

In his two previous starts in the second round Brazeau shut out the Ford Twins 1 to 0 with a six hit performance and gained a victory over Niagara's Badgers by besting "Seedy" Richardson 3 to 2 in an eleven inning game. To date he has not allowed an earned run in three games.

The locals victory over the Rovers failed to better their position in the league standings as the pace making Crystal Falls aggregation chalked up their fifth consecutive victory by defeating the Ford Twins 3 to 2. In the third game played Sunday, Niagara edged out South Range by the same score.

Ten-Inning Contest Taken By Dodgers

Brooklyn, N. Y., Dixie Walker, making his Brooklyn debut in a Dodger uniform, singled to right with two out in the tenth inning to give the Dodgers a 7 to 6 victory over the Boston Bees before 27,950 in a night game here. The victory gave Brooklyn a clear claim to fifth place.

It was a see-saw battle from the start. Max West hit his 14th homer of the season with two on in the second to give the Bees a jump and start Tot Pressnell toward the showers. Doubles by Lavagetto and Walker in the third drove in the runs that tied the score. In the seventh, the Bees established a one-run lead off Ira Hutchinson, but Lavagetto hit a home run in the Brooklyn half to tie the score.

The fine relief pitching of Vito Tamulis saved the Dodgers in the eighth and in the last half of that inning, Bill Posedel was knocked out of the box and the Dodgers scored twice on a base on balls, a triple by Babe Phelps and Ernie Koy's double. But after Eddie Majeski's pinch double opened the ninth, the Bees re-tied the score on Outlaw's single and Hassett's long double.

Lefty Joe Sullivan was the pitching victim.

Sokolsky Scans The Headlines

No. 3 of the I. B. E. W. is in the courts over a question involving their conduct in the City of New York and whether they win or lose that case they would be wise to reestablish their reputation among employers and the general public.

But these newer unions are not of that type. They represent an effort of a group of men to control wily-nilly all the workers of this country. They are in the business of controlling labor. They are in the profession of representing labor. When John Lewis attacked Vice-President Garner he did no more than to try to use the same frightening, coercive, intimidating method that he employs on workers, employers, the general public, Congressmen, public officials, any one who interferes with his business. The Sherman anti-trust law, the Clayton act, the national labor relations act and various state laws were passed against business men who operated in that way. Why not apply them to John Lewis and his associates in their business? Copyright, 1939, New York Tribune Inc.
