NEW BUILDING FOR LUDINGTON

Former Gladstone Business Man to Put Up Structure

Romeo Beauchamp, who operated a grocery and confectionery store for ten years in Gladstone, next week will begin erecting a concrete block building with brick front at 805 Ludington street, to replace the old frame building that has been torn down in the last week. He will operate a store here similar to the business he had in Gladstone.

Mr. Beauchamp bought the lot, 20 by 140 feet, and the building from Frank Rudiger, 224 North 15th street. The new structure will measure 20 feet on Ludington street, by 40 feet and will have a full foundation and basement, Mr. Beauchamp said.

This is one of the major building projects here in the last month. Eight other building permits were issued at the city clerk's office in October, to: Arthur Balm, for alterations, at Fifth avenue and South 16th street; Ralph Nicholson, 227 1/2 North Ninth street; Carl Arntzen, 1612 Eighth avenue south, for a four room house, estimated to cost $1,500; Henry Koehler, 316 South 16th street, for a seven room home, estimated at $1,200; Mrs. John Nelson, 532 North 20th street; Frank L. Dault, 1309 First avenue north, for a garage; Leo Caron, 510 North 20th street, remodeling; Ernest L. Erickson, 1018 Sheridan road, for a four room cottage at 1014 Sheridan road, estimated cost $2,000.

Deadline Date For Tax Payment Passes

With the November 3 deadline for paying of 1933 and prior year taxes passed, county treasurer's office workers yesterday were bringing records up to date preparatory to turning over a final listing to the state conservation department. The lands now become the property of the conservation department.

Former owners of such lands have 30 days in which to ask the conservation department to put them up for auction, at which no bid of less than 25 per cent of the assessed valuation will be accepted. If at such a sale, the owner is outbid, he may still meet the high bid within 30 days after the sale and thereby gain back his property.

Final figures on the amount of forfeited land from the county were not available yesterday. There was a rush of payments the first of the week to beat the deadline.

Nadeau, Mich.—Hallowe'en parties were held in the Nadeau school rooms, Tuesday afternoon. School Tea Party
A very novel and pleasant tea party was held in the Kindergarten room, Wednesday afternoon, when the little folk entertained their mothers. As each mother came she was escorted to a seat by a little usher. When all were assembled, a program was presented, the children taking complete charge of it. It illustrated a "Home Project" that has been a part of their lessons since school began. A house was built by the youngsters, dolls were sewed and dressed, various baby picture books made, seat work books on the proper furniture in a home were made and each of these presented as a unit on the program. One little boy or girl did the explaining of each unit. Between the acts, songs were sung. The program was enthusiastically received and then the children poured tea for the mothers.

The children taking part in the program were Harriet Duby, Wayne Hower, Rita Smaglik, Lucille Flaum, Georgene Schenk, Richard Benson, Sylvia Poupore, James Perras, Eloise Jenkins, Vivian Mottard, Shirley Laurin, Marilyn Nault, Janice and Carol Laurin, Billy Sharkey, Leonard Dombarski and Jack Kallshek, while the entire kindergarten sang songs.

CITY CANCELS $6,100 BONDS

Paving Issue Is Held In Local Bank to Save Interest Charge

The first $6,100 worth of street paving bonds issued a year ago by the city, but held in a local bank instead of being sold, were cancelled yesterday on authority given Thursday night at a city council meeting.

The issue amounted to a total of $30,500 and the $6,100 fund represents payments made by property owners for the first year's installments. This portion of the bonds have now been turned into cash. By holding the bonds, it was pointed out, the city avoids payments of interest on the issue, which would have been necessary if the bonds had been sold. Observers said, also, that few cities are in a position to hold such a large issue.

Formal action by the council is necessary each time the bonds are cancelled, in accordance with a provision made at the time the issue was made.

Pupils See "Resume" Of Marinette Game

A thoroughly enjoyable pep assembly was conducted by the Archery Club of the senior high school yesterday morning preparatory to the Marinette game.

"Resume of the Marinette Game," a play, was staged with the members of the club taking the parts. The cheerleaders, Pauline Stegath, Abigail VanEnkevort, Bill Falsely, and Francis Skradski, then led the student body in yells.

Coach George Ruwich gave a pep talk after which the members of the team were called to the front. Mr. Ruwich also commended the second-string team for the fine work they have been doing in providing opposition for the varsity squad. A telegram that Mr. Ruwich received from Coach Carl Nordberg was read. He wished the team the best of luck in the Marinette game. To close the program, the sophomore chorus led the student body in the singing of the "Fight Song" and a new song, "The Football Pokka," written by a group of sophomore girls.

Harry Drake, president of the Archery club, was the announcer.

Gains in Popularity

THE Dies committee has enjoyed a gain in public favor and a majority of the people believe that it should be given a congressional appropriation...

When the Dies committee began its labors, fair-minded persons were inclined to discount its efforts because of the suppositions that it was concentrating its attention upon Communists and radical labor leaders...

The Gallup poll shows 53 per cent of the public in favor of continuance of the Dies committee and only 14 per cent against.

The survey on this question, it must be pointed out, was conducted before the recent flareup in connection with the Dies committee's disclosure of the names of 563 government employees...

There are grounds for criticism of this action. Many persons, with sincere desires to further the cause of peace and democracy, could be induced to sign up for membership in an organization...

It is true that some Communists are members of the organization, but should, say a church, school or any other institution, be condemned because some of its members and supporters might not be all they should be?

Taken all in all, however, the work of the Dies committee is making a valuable contribution to the education of our citizens in a democracy.

We shall be better equipped to combat these foreign ideologies with our arguments for democracy if we are better acquainted with their sources.

Expansion Continues

DURING the depression, the calamity howlers predicted that the expansion of American industry had reached its limits...

One of the hardest hit regions was New England, whose textile concerns either closed down for the lack of business or moved to the south...

The depression also left its scars in the industrial areas of Lower Michigan, but these are also being obliterated.

The citizens of Belding were saddened when one of its large silk mills closed down several years ago...

Good news for Holland was the announcement of the formation of a half-million-dollar corporation, which will manufacture aircraft and automobile parts...

What is happening in the United States again proves that industrial development is never static. New processes and products always will be developed...

Embargo Repealed

REPEAL of the arms embargo was passed on Thursday when the house of representatives voted 243 to 181 to send the bill to conference with the senate...

sions voted by the senate. The new law is expected to go into effect early next week.

The clash over the embargo repeal issue could not be considered as having been on partisan lines, however. It is true that the southern Democrats were solidly behind the administration...

There may be some who might argue that the repeal of the embargo was influenced by the desire of the Congress and the people of America to return to its traditional international policy...

Copper Duty Desired

PROTECTION of the Michigan copper industry from importations of the metal from Chile is asked by Rep. Fred Bradley of Rogers City in connection with the negotiations for a reciprocal trade agreement between the United States and Chile...

A four cent a pound duty on foreign copper has assisted domestic mines in meeting the competition from abroad. The high-cost producing mines of Michigan are at the greatest disadvantage...

Rep. Bradley would win votes for himself, no doubt, if the mines were in his eleventh district, instead of the twelfth, for everyone in the Copper Country believes wholeheartedly that the retention of a duty on copper is an absolute necessity.

South Awaits Boom

INDICATIONS are that it's going to be a great season for southern resort owners and business men. Miami alone is fully expecting to reap in the neighborhood of $250,000,000 from an estimated 2,000,000 tourists...

The south has been getting ready for this northern invasion for some time. Hotels are being built, roads are being improved and houses are being renovated for guests who plan to stay a week or all winter...

During the past seven months, commercial airplanes have flown 500,000 passengers and have traveled 5,000,000 miles without one fatality.

But there is still a great deal to be done. Laboratories are still trying to make landings as foolproof as possible, blind flying must be improved...

Man's present knowledge of the air and of flying craft is a long way from being exhaustive. While a war goes on in Europe, aeronautic experts in this country carry on their work...

World Affairs Reviewed

With the toll of torpedoed ships mounting daily, the North Sea—after less than two months of conflict—has become the Number 1 battleground of the world's second great war.

So far, rough estimates of losses indicate that more than 20 ships have gone down in these waters, says a bulletin from the Washington, D. C., headquarters of the National Geographic Society.

How many peoples live by the North Sea is apparent from a roll call of neighboring countries. Bordering it directly are six nations: Germany, Denmark, Norway, Great Britain, The Netherlands and Belgium.

So closely clustered about the embattled waters are the various neutrals that from time to time many of them reported hearing the gunfire of naval engagements. Both German and British fleets have been bombed within the general area...

Mines lie now in patches off the British and continental shores, with others reported adrift in the narrowing waters toward the English Channel.

20 Years Ago

Rough estimates at an early hour last night were that about 110,000 tons of bituminous coal on the docks in Escanaba or otherwise in transit here had been taken over by the United States Railroad administration acting under orders of Director General Hines.

Inventories of the local supply will not be completed before Wednesday. In well informed circles, however, it was stated that the Northwestern railroad alone has about 55,000 tons, with a similar amount of coal on hand at the Reiss dock and possibly half that quantity at the docks of the St. Paul company.

No deliveries will be made here except in case of urgent need, it was stated, until after this inventory is completed. Northwestern officials said here yesterday that an attempt would be made to insure customers here against actual need if such an emergency arises before the inventory is completed.

Insects are attracted to the leaf by a brilliant red lining inside. After closing down on its prey, with spikes locked together, the plant digests the insect, later resuming its open position and expelling the skeleton.

New York Column

BY GEORGE ROSS New York—There is a mournful man standing these nights at the bars dedicated to the larger and the lesser literary lights of the city sadly inquiring of whoever will listen to his plaint: "Why didn't I think of it first?"

The question is a legitimate one, for the sorrowing lad spent weeks digging up minutiae concerning Alexander Woolcott for a magazine article with the inward thought that the matter had been satisfactorily closed.

And yet today the most successful play in town has been censored right from the elements he mixed in his magazine piece and playwrights Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman will reap a harvest.

That the writer should not have seen a play in the fabulous Woolcott is, perhaps, not remarkable. Neither did the opportunist Messrs. Hart and Kaufman until they read the magazine piece and got to think about about "The Man Who Came to Dinner."

This is their Woolcott, although they have given him the name of Sheridan Whiteside, and added a few whimsies of their own to the natural accumulation of whimsy that is Woolcott himself.

Woolcott LEGENDS ARE LEGION Monty Woolley, one of the few full-bearded actors on stage, plays Woolcott and so capably that his performance has started anew the maze of legends in which Woolcott is completely lost.

Woolcott is one of the few figures on the literary horizon bulky enough to inspire these stories. His physical appearance is striking. His body is huge, his forehead is broad and high, but the rest of his face is small. His curved nose set between thick-rimmed glasses gives him the aspect of a startled owl.

HIS BEST FRIENDS FULL WORST GAGS Woolcott became a writer in college and developed there the distinctive florid but fluent style that is now at its zenith. He got a job on the New York Times after graduation, but his reportorial sense was in the essay vein.

So badly beaten was his paper on the important Rosenthal murder, which he supposedly was covering, that he was made dramatic critic. Another story is that the editor thought his style was wasted in the lifeless molds of the news column.

From dramatic critic, he made the easy step to oracle, gathering friends as he rolled along. And yet it is these friends who have coined the most devastating descriptions of him.

Edna Ferber used to describe him as "two characters out of Dickens." Harpo Marx held that he was "just a dreamer—with a good sense of double entry bookkeeping."

Howard Dietz called him Louisa M. Woolcott (a pun on the girl's book author, Louisa M. Alcott), and George Jean Nathan described him as "the Seidlitz Powder of Times Square."

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY PEARSON AND ALLEN

Washington—Biggest behind-the-scenes story in Washington today is taking place in an inconspicuous hearing room of the Civil Aeronautics Authority. Unnoticed and almost unreported by the newspapers, it is the struggle of two powerful groups of blue-stocking financiers to get the last remaining air route across the North Atlantic.

Basic issue behind the struggle is whether one company—Pan American Airways—shall control all the overseas air routes of the United States. And some of the inside history of this monopoly resembles the land-grabbing of the early railroads.

Pulling for Pan American Airways in the present Civil Aeronautics hearing are the Whitneys, the Vanderbilts, the Mellons of Pittsburgh, and the Bruces of Maryland.

Pulling on the other side to secure an Atlantic air route competing with Pan American is American Export Airlines. Behind it, in turn, is Tommy Hitchcock, one of the greatest polo players that ever lived, and the banking firm of New York's Governor Lehman.

American Export is petitioning the Civil Aeronautics Authority for permission to fly from New York to a French port on the Bay of Biscay, which would make connections to the Mediterranean, where American Export Lines already operates a fleet of merchant ships. The company already has built clipper planes capable of flying the Atlantic, non-stop, whereas Pan American Clippers stop at Newfoundland and the Azores.

—HOOVER ADMINISTRATION—

This week, Pan American, vigorously opposing the new route projected by American Export Airlines, asked the CAA for the use of all six transatlantic landings at Port Washington, L. I. Since six landings are the total now permitted, this would exclude American Export Airlines automatically.

If the Civil Aeronautics Authority handles Pan American with the same tender care shown by the United States Government in the past, American Export will not have a show. For never, since the days of Doheny and Sinclair, has one company been so favored. At one time during the Hoover Administration virtual orders were given the State Department to aid Pan American to the exclusion of other aviation companies.

It is the strict policy of the State Department never to discriminate between American companies, but to champion them impartially in foreign countries. In the case of Pan American, however, it deviated from this policy with brazen indifference.

In 1929, Postmaster General Walter Brown, who laded out airmail subsidies, wrote to Secretary of State Stimson asking that "all practical assistance be given to the Pan American Airways in securing operating arrangements in preference to any other American company."

Walter Brown was Hoover's chief campaign manager, and his astounding instruction came at a time when the Curtiss company was giving Pan American a stiff race in Chile.

—PAN AMERICAN STOCKHOLDERS—

As to why Postmaster Brown should have discriminated in favor of Pan American never may be known. But a glance at Pan American stockholders is informative. One of the largest stockholders is R. K. Mellon of Pittsburgh, whose uncle then sat in the Hoover Cabinet as Secretary of the Treasury. Another large stockholder is David K. E. Bruce, son-in-law of Andrew Mellon. The Mellon interests are second only to those of Cornelius Vanderbilt ("Sonny") Whitney, who has 157,481 shares of Pan American stock, and John Hay ("Jock") Whitney with 28,200 shares.

Other large stockholders are W. H. Vanderbilt, now Republican Governor of Rhode Island, Juan Trippe, Pan American president, and William S. Paley, head of Columbia Broadcasting System.

Perhaps it was the spell of the Mellons and the Whitneys. Perhaps it was the fact that Pan American hired some of the State Department's most influential diplomats. At any rate the company proceeded to get unheard-of concessions.

—PAN AMERICAN'S FRIENDS—

Thus it was that Pan American Airways got its first monopoly on American overseas air routes. It now has routes down both coasts of South America, one across the Pacific, and one across the North Atlantic. Big question in Washington now is whether it will get a monopoly of the North Atlantic also.

The Mellons, the Browns and the Stimsons are now out. But Pan American is not without friends in the New Deal. One of its directors (though he holds no stock) is John Hanes, Under Secretary of the Treasury, while one of its former officers, Grant Mason, now sits on the Civil Aeronautics Authority. Both are conscientious, careful public servants, but the betting in Washington is that Pan American will find some way to continue its aviation monopoly.

150 HEAR ABOUT UNEMPLOYMENT

Harry A. McDonald Tells Business Men of M.U.C.C. Work

Compensation for the jobless is here to stay and employers may as well face the fact and make the most of it. Harry A. McDermott of Detroit, chairman of the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission told a crowd of 150 business men at a meeting last night in the city hall.

Mr. McDonald said that the audience here was the largest of any he has addressed in a series of Upper Peninsula talks, at Sault Ste. Marie, Marquette and other points. He was introduced by H. P. Lindsay, secretary of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, who also introduced Thomas F. Carson of Detroit, associate executive director of the commission, who talked briefly at the meeting opened. Whitney Dixon, in charge of the Escanaba office was introduced.

Also in the McDonald party were John Blekkola, Upper Peninsula supervisor, and Frank Abelman, Upper Peninsula director, both of Marquette.

"The purpose of my trip here," Mr. McDonald said, "is to acquaint employers with the act in order to make it more effective. Employers have had many types of insurance for employes for a long time, such as workmen's compensation and liability.

"But job insurance is a new type of insurance," Mr. McDonald said. "The employe must be regarded in a different light these days. Formerly when a man lost his job, it was considered to be nobody's fault but his own, but that concept, under present economic conditions, is being changed. Today men are being cut out of work regardless of their ability."

Therefore, the speaker said, the employer has a duty to perform and job insurance is the answer.

Mr. McDonald said that the Unemployment Compensation Commission is one of the biggest businesses in the state, as evidenced by the fact that there are 16,000 subject employes (employers with eight or more employes) and 1,395,624 employes who are possible recipients of benefits under the unemployment act of the state. He said that the commission has collected $111,915,000; that it now has $39,000,000 on hand and that in the last six months of 1938, it paid out $40,000,000 in claims.

Mr. McDonald said that economy is the watchword of the commission and that work formerly handled by 3,100 employes is now being handled by 1,800. He described the work of employment offices as a natural complement of the unemployment compensation work, in placing workers where they can be used to reduce unemployment.

Skunk Population Declines In State

Trappers and fur dealers annual reports to the State show a decided decline in the skunk population of the State and in face of this the State Conservation Commission has ordered this animal protected over most of the year. They can be taken only from November 1 to January 31.

Although the legislature removed all protection from the skunk, State game authorities insisted this was a bad move if we desired the animal as one of our important fur-bearers. Only 25,000 skunks were taken last year, the lowest bag in many years.

Ludington Lights Go Up

Beginning at Sixth street Friday afternoon, workmen had placed half a dozen of the new Ludington street lights by last night and will complete installation of the 72 fixtures by the end of next week, at the rate of about 12 a day. A third more light between Sixth street and the Junior high school is promised. Francis Costly and John Sheedlo are shown placing the first light here, with the aid of Harvey Germanson, foreman, from the ground. Besides using one-third larger bulbs, these lights hang 23 feet above the street, as compared with 15 feet for old fixtures and extend farther over traffic lanes; reflectors throw the light downward instead of upward as in the old system, and the globes refract the light rays to greater advantage than any other fixtures ever tried out in the city.

WPA SITUATION HERE IMPROVES

150 Men In County Get Assignments For New Projects

A total of 100 WPA men from Seney, Germask and Hiawatha townships have been assigned to Refuge project, presidential work on the Seney Migratory proval of which was received recently, Con Becker, WPA area engineer, announced here this week.

In addition 50 men have been assigned to work on two units of the new county road project in Thompson and Inwood townships. Other units of the project are expected to be started shortly.

In the City of Manistique, 63 WPA workers are employed on the city's park development program along the shore of Lake Michigan.

The Seney project is a vast reservoir for WPA labor, this latest program being set up to employ 100 men for a period of 18 months. The job is estimated to cost $200,000, with the U. S. Biological Survey, as sponsors, paying $53,489. Fire lanes, fences, roads, dikes, dams and numerous other water control measures are included in the Seney project.

Clarence Johnson is superintendent of the waterfowl project. Excellent progress is being made on the lakefront development project in the City of Manistique, of which the city is the project sponsor. About two-thirds of the projected 300 yard seawall has already been constructed and a road built into the park.

The work of removing the old slabs and sawdust fill has been started and a reconstruction of the comfort station also is under way. The project is designed to make a beautiful park along the lakefront upon the site which formerly was an unsightly beach.

More Than 400 Copies Of Report Requested

It appears that the 500 copies of "Development of Municipal Services, 1922 to 1938," prepared by City Manager George E. Bean and approved Thursday night by the city council for distribution to interested city and civic workers, will not last long.

Last night plans had been made for distributing more than 400 copies.

A hundred and twenty copies were requested yesterday by Miss Nina Ley, Escanaba high school civics instructor, for use in her classes and a request was received in the mail from Arnold S. Zander, national president of the State, County and Municipal Employees Union, for 128 copies, if that many were available. The Michigan Municipal League has requested a copy for study and display and the state city managers' association has asked for five copies.

To put the picture fully before public leaders, Mr. Bean plans to distribute a copy to each member of the Lions, Kiwanis and Rotary club and this will require about 150 copies. In addition, council members, department heads and other city employes are to receive copies.

The first edition of the 60-page mimeographed booklet included 400 copies and 100 more copies may be run without additional expense, it was estimated. The cost totaled only about $25.

Municipal League leaders have called the report both complete and novel. An effort was made, the manager said, to present facts and figures so that they would be readily understandable by the average man. The work includes a series of simple line drawings representing the taxpayer and the public servant.

DEATH CLAIMS GABRIEL TOLAN

Former Escanaba Paper Reporter Dies In Milwaukee

Gabriel J. Tolan, 41, Milwaukee newspaperman and former Escanaba resident, died in Milwaukee Thursday following a long illness due to heart disease.

He attended the Escanaba high school and Marquette university, following which he entered newspaper editorial work with the Escanaba Daily Press. Game Equipment Closet

A built-in cabinet in which sports and game equipment can be stored contributes to orderliness in a home. An adequate games closet, installation of which may be financed with funds obtainable from qualified lending institutions under FHA's Modernization Credit Plan, should have a number of shelves as well as a bin or hamper. In these can be stored seasonal sports equipment, such as ice skates, tennis racquets, golf paraphernalia, baseball bats, boards, and other articles associated with sport.

Miss Evelyn Hinnendale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hinnendale of 989 Velp avenue, Green Bay, became the bride of Vincent LeCapitaine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LeCapitaine, at a ceremony performed at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, October 28, in the church of the Annunciation, at Green Bay.

The bride, a former resident of Escanaba, is a sister of Mrs. Ervin Paulin and of Roger Hinnendale of this city. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a princess gown of satin velvety with leg o'mutton sleeves, a sweetheart neckline, and a floor length skirt, which extended into a train. Her finger-tip veil was caught with bands of bouvardia and she carried a white prayer book, covered with bouvardia and a single gardenia, and marked by white satin ribbons, caught with bouvardia.

Ice Blue and Dubonnet Her maid of honor, Miss Mary LeCapitaine, sister of the bridegroom, wore dubonnet chiffon velvet with a velvet jacket and a headdress of the same shade, and she carried a colonial bouquet of lilies, tied with dubonnet streamers. The bridesmaids, Miss Jeanette Dalebrock and Miss Janet Nick, wore ice blue satin gowns, jacket models with bustle backs, trimmed with budonnet velvet ribbon. Their headdresses were of dubonnet and they carried colonial bouquets of blue mums with a single lily.

Mrs. Hinnendale, for her daughter's wedding, wore dubonnet with lace trim, and black accessories. Both had shoulder corsages of gardenias. John Whitney served as best man, and Harry Branger and Raymond Kresky were ushers.

Palms and white chrysanthemums decorated the candle-lighted altars for the service. During the nuptial mass Leo Barron sang "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother," "Ave Maria," and "O Lord, I Am Not Worthy." His accompanist was Mrs. John Rosman. Home in Manitowish. A reception for 150 guests at the home of the bridegroom's parents followed the wedding breakfast, served in the Pompeian room of the Northland hotel.

Errors in advertisements should be reported immediately. The Daily Press will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion.

All ads are restricted to their proper classification and to the regular Daily Press style of type. The publishers reserve the right to edit or reject any classified advertising copy.

HELD FOR TRIAL

Marquette—Thomas McCarthy, 27, life-term convict at Marquette prison, and one of four inmates who attempted an escape from the Marquette prison September 25, waived examination in municipal court yesterday and was bound over to circuit court.

McCarthy, who is serving life for murder, faces a charge of breaking prison. Arraigned in October, the four convicts refused to waive examination when Joseph M. Mushro, 24, of Detroit, reputed ringleader of the quartet in their attempted escape, maintained he would stand mute.

The other three, Warden Marvin L. Coon said yesterday, refused to waive examination. In addition to Mushro, who is serving a life term for murder, they are Ralph Stearns, of Daggett, Mich., sentenced to life for robbery armed, and John Thompson, of Livingston county, serving a 20 to 30 year sentence for robbery armed.

WOMAN INJURED

Marquette—Mrs. Elma Harding, of Iron Mountain, field supervisor with the WPA First district headquarters here, suffered a broken collarbone yesterday morning when the car she was driving skidded on an icy hill on US-41 near the Airport Inn and turned over in the ditch.

She was treated at Mt. Mary's hospital and taken to her home at 127 Arch street.

BY FREDERICK GARDNER
New York, Nov. 3 (AP)—The stock market today ran the gamut of profit selling and speculative buying...

Passage by the house of the arms embargo repeal resulted in an early tumble... Liquidation soon dried up and in the afternoon, following word the house-senate conference committee had approved the administration's neutrality measure...

Part of the early hesitancy was attributed to the belief that, while foreign orders for war materials in America of around $1,000,000,000 are likely, the allies may cut down purchases of many other articles here sufficiently to offset much of the buying.

Business news generally remained heartening. This week's automobile production, despite the Chrysler labor dispute interruption, registered a comfortable increase. The federal reserve index of industrial activity for October mounted to the highest mark for any month since 1929...

SERIAL STORY

JOAN OF ARKANSAS

BY JERRY BRONDFIELD

"Nine chances out of ten she won't know I'm telling you." Rocco laughed mirthlessly. "How'd you pick all this stuff up since 4 o'clock?"

The understanding, born of Faith, Plus XII has brought to bear upon our age, which he truly describes as one which, "preoccupied with the worship of the ephemeral, has lost its way and spent its forces in a vain search after earthly ideals."

To this age, his words come with sorrow and with sternness, but also with faith, and hope, and moral beauty. The Encyclical is a modern document. A faith in eternal and transcendental values does not presume the changelessness of institutions.

Thus, the Pope denounces the error "contained in those ideas which do not hesitate to divorce civil authority from every kind of dependence upon the Supreme Being..."

These are words of a profound political and economic conviction. To students of the political philosophers of our own democracy they have a not unfamiliar ring.

Where, after a century of its indiscriminate distribution is freedom—and what is the meaning of freedom? Where is the meaning of freedom? Where is the meaning of freedom?

With bright clarity, the Pope reveals that the rejection of moral principles—of transcendental validity has plunged the world into chaos, divisions, slavery and war.

They challenge mankind to ask itself for what it lives and works. They call mankind back to the old and eternally new and proper way of living, when they groveled, groveling and when they were groveled, arriving at man's estate when they stopped to servility.

Undefeated Eskymos Play At Marinette Today

LARGE CROWD TO SEE GAME

Peninsula Fans Watching Outcome; Tilt Will Be Broadcast

Hundreds of Escanaba football fans will travel to Marinette this afternoon to witness the game which upper peninsula fans have been waiting for a long time, the game between the Marines and Escanaba high school.

The Eskymos have an unbeaten record of six victories to their credit as they enter the game. In addition, their goal line is as yet uncrossed, their six opponents having failed to score a single point thus far. The locals have rolled up 141 points in chalking up successive victories over Manistique, Stambaugh, Norway, Menominee, Sault Ste. Marie and Iron Mountain. In only one game, Stambaugh, have the locals been held to a single touchdown.

Marines Are Tough
 Marinette, on the other hand, goes into the game with a team which will demand the greatest respect by the Eskymos if they expect to win. After losing their season's opener to Lars Thune's powerful West Green Bay crowd, the Marines rolled over their opposition in five consecutive games until they were stopped last week by a fast-traveling LaCrosse team. In spite of their defeat last week, the Marinette boys displayed a world of power with a ground attack that is expected to prove tough for the local line.

The Marinette offense is led by George Hansen, powerful fullback who has rolled up tremendous yardage in all games this fall. His blasting drives have ripped opposing lines to shreds to allow the fleet Dave Knutson and Harry Delorme, halfbacks, to slip off tackle frequently for touchdowns. Bob Brown directs the Marine offense.

Eskymos Crippled
 The line probably will find Bon-in and Lieburn at ends, Adams and Flink tackles, Bauman and Malt guards and Bennett center. The Eskymos will go into the game in crippled condition. Sam Sackly, guard, is victim of a bad knee. Bobby Barron, regular quarterback and sparkplug of the attack, has missed practice this week because of a heavy cold and may not see action. Capt. Merle Pfothenauer, hard hitting left halfback, still is bothered with a bad knee, which may, or may not, allow him to play a full game. Don Pfothenauer and Stuart Peterson are expected to start at fullback and right half, respectively.

The line is expected to find Cress and Fedrow or Goymerac at ends, Pepin and Leonard tackles, Arbour and VanEffen guards and Davidson center.

RESERVES IN PRELIM
 Coach Jim Rouman's reserves will meet the Marinette reserves in a preliminary, starting at 12:45 o'clock. Those making the trip will include: Bliss, Breault, Kosloski, Stack, Guenette, Shomin, Gaffney, Flanagan, Frederickson, Derouin, Dufresne, Heslip, Beaudry, St. Martin, Wawrka, Baum, Prevost, Thatcher, Meehan, De-grande.

Harmon Greatest Gridder SINCE Red Grange, Illini Fans Answer To Michigan's Arguments

Red Grange . . . during collegiate career he had world's best vanishing act.

BY JERRY BRONDFIELD
 (NEA Service Sports Writer)
 Champaign, Ill., Nov. 3 — The person who first had the temerity to suggest that Tom Harmon was as good if not better than Red Grange started the best football argument of the season—an argument destined to remain a moot point at least until Michigan's Wonder Boy plays out his collegiate string.

To begin with, it's nothing short of sacrilege in these precludes to favorably compare anyone with the Wheaton Iceman. Ever since he scored his last touchdown for Illinois in 1925 Grange has been the yardstick by which all great midwestern backs have been measured.

There have been a lot of them since the Redhead—Pug Rentner of Northwestern, Pug Lund of Minnesota and Jay Brewer of Chicago, most notably. But every time a new star hit the heights, loyal Illini would stop, look and listen and then reaffirm their belief that there was only one Red Grange, and that was that.

Now, Illinois has seen Tom Harmon and even the most rabid fans of the Grange era are willing to do justice by the Gary, Ind., thunderbolt.

Tom Harmon, they admit, is the best back SINCE Grange.

Figures stand as Illinois' basis for argument. That and the memory of an October afternoon in 1924 when Red Grange delivered the most amazing one-man show football has ever witnessed.

RED GAINED MORE THAN TWO MILES IN COLLEGE
 It's a matter of history that famed No. 77 dedicated Illinois Memorial Stadium by scoring four touchdowns in the first 12 minutes and following up with scoring jaunts of 67, 65 and 45 yards. Bob Zupke took him out at that point because he was tired. When he returned to the game he ran for another touchdown and passed for a sixth.

During his collegiate career Grange gained more than two miles of ground—3,637 yards to be exact—and scored 31 touchdowns. He didn't pass as a sophomore but completed 42 attempts in his last two years.

Harmon may match him in touchdowns but it isn't likely that he'll even come close to Grange's total yardage.

MICHIGAN BACK LEADS THE NATION IN SCORING
 The Wolverine halfback who is leading the nation in scoring has run wild in every game this season. He tallied 73 points in his first four games. His biggest day was against Iowa when he scored all 27 of Michigan's points on four touchdowns and three conversions by place-kicking.

Foremost among those who consider the six foot, 195-pounder in a class with Grange is Fritz Crisler, Michigan coach who was assistant to Amos Alonzo Stagg during the days when Grange was running rampant over everyone, including the Maroon, which in those days was among the leaders.

"I saw Grange three years in a row," says Crisler. "Of course he was a terrific runner, but Harmon has all the qualities of a great player defensively as well as offensively. You know, I really rank Harmon first as a blocker and secondarily as a defensive player, ahead of his running and passing ability."

YOST SAYS HARMON IS AS GOOD AS HESTON
 Field H. Yost adds fuel to the Michigan flame by admitting Harmon is as good as Willie Heston, the Michigan immortal who sparked the Old Man's dynamic point-a-minute teams of the early 1900s.

All of which only causes Robert C. Zupke and other enlightened Illini to rear up on their hind legs in rebuttal.

The wee Dutchman wrathfully reminds anyone interested that Grange was a great all-around player, too . . . that he could pass brilliantly, catch passes and back up a line with the best of them.

"We really wasted his line-backing ability because of his value as a safety man," Zupke points out. "Who else would you have returning punts other than a man who ran like Grange? He could have punted, too, but Earl Britton aren't taking any sets-up this year, haven't booked 10 Class-B teams on a 14 game schedule . . . they went through the whole season undefeated last year and captured the Upper Peninsula Class C title."

ZUPKE AND DUNCAN SEE NO COMPARISON
 Robert Z. Zupke feels like snorting "Bah!" and dismissing the subject at once.

Ray Duncan, assistant Illinois coach who scouted Michigan this season, saw No. 77 at his best and doesn't believe there is a comparison.

"I can't begin to see Harmon as Grange's equal as a ball carrier," he asserts. "Harmon resorts too much to power and often finds himself trapped. When they called Grange a ghost they knew what they were talking about. He was like that song they sing now—'The Little Man Who Wasn't There.'"

Clipped Wildcats Tackle Minnesota
 Minneapolis, Nov. 3 (P)—Northwestern university's Wildcats, professing to have their claws clipped somewhat by loss of a star tackle, rolled into town today for a Big Ten encounter with Minnesota's Golden Gophers Saturday.

Coach Lynn Waldorf said Alf Bauman, star sophomore tackle, was left at home because of an infection. He added that he was expecting his team to play the same sort of inspired ball it always does against Minnesota.

Minnesota, with a two-week rest after the hair-raising 23 to 40 reversal at the hands of Ohio State, mustered its full strength

EASTERN TILTS DRAW 200,000

Hard-Riding Tennessee Meets Major Test In Louisiana State

Tom Harmon . . . Yost says he's even better than Heston.

BY BILL BONI
 New York, Nov. 3 (AP)—College football harvests another bumper crop tomorrow, with high-riding Tennessee meeting its second major test of the season in key-up Louisiana State, Southern California battling Oregon State in what may be the decisive game in the western Rose Bowl race, and three eastern games alone expected to draw over 200,000 customers.

From a competitive angle, the Baton Rouge and Portland games are the most important. L. S. U. and its Leo Bird-Ken Kavanaugh pass combination are ready to let Tennessee meeting its second major test of the season in key-up Louisiana State, Southern California battling Oregon State in what may be the decisive game in the western Rose Bowl race, and three eastern games alone expected to draw over 200,000 customers.

After being defeated by Sault Ste. Marie, Menominee and Iron Mountain, the locals slid into high gear by whipping Stephenson by 25-0, continued by trampling Manistique, 32-0, upset a favored Crystal Falls crew 6-0 and last week trounced Gladstone 19-6. A victory over Munising today would be a fitting climax to a very successful season and the boys will leave no stone unturned in their quest for that victory.

SAINTS HAVE ODDS
 Munising, Nov. 3—Escanaba's St. Joe gridders and the Mather high school eleven will tussle here on Saturday in their annual battle for the possession of the "little brown jug." The Jug, symbol of victory, first became a part of the yearly tilt between the two schools way back in 1923 and during the ensuing years has changed hands only five times. Tomorrow's battle will be the seventeenth with the Jug as the trophy. The Delta Parochial squad have been in possession of the trophy since 1931. The game will be the finale for both elevens with the Delta county crew given the odds from their previous record.

Although the St. Joe crew has a better record this season than the Munising eleven, Coach "Bob" Villemure this week put his locals through regular drill sessions in preparation for the contest in hopes of producing an upset. The visitors will have plenty of strength to show against the Munising team with two impressive victories all ready chalked up for the Parochials, over Manistique, 32-0 and over Gladstone, 19-6. The Mather outfit, with two victories, three defeats and a scoreless tie so far, played a scoreless tie with Manistique high team last week and bowed to the Gladstone Kiemen by a 13-7 score.

Starts At 1:30
 The Mather will be lacking the services of Belfry, center, and Stanley Ryance, fullback, in Saturday's game. Belfry is out of the game because of illness and Ryance will probably be shifted to Ryance's position for the game. Ed Marvin Beaudry will go in at right halfback. Oas will be used in the center position. In addition to these, John Tiernan and Edward Elavsky will probably start the game at guards; Charles Ames and Normand Smith at tackle, Claude Ouellette and Charles O'Brien at end, Deane Floria at quarter back and Ben Montcalm at left half.

Montcalm, Ames and Olsen will be playing their final games on the Mather squad on Saturday. They will be lost to the team through graduation in June.

John Kelly, Milton Cross and William Cook, of Manistique, will handle the officiating for the game. The tilt will start at 2:30 o'clock, EST, at the municipal playgrounds.

CRYSTAL FALLS STARTS DRILLS

Chambers Expects To Be Among Leaders Again In Basketball

Crystal Falls, Nov. 2—The Crystal Falls high school basketball team, class C ruler of the upper peninsula and winner of 20 consecutive victories, has begun rehearsals for defense of its peninsula and Menominee Range conference championships.

The Trojans have not been defeated since 1937 and indications point to another powerful quintet, despite the loss of several regulars. Heading the returning veterans reporting to Coach Eddie Chambers are co-captains Ernest Pretto and Robert Shemky, both seniors.

The schedule is more formidable than usual. Ironwood and Ne-gaunee, both usually strong in basketball have been added, Niagara is another newcomer, replacing one of the games with Alpha which will not be met this season. Baraga Parochials will come here as another new opponent. The Trojans and Paorchials met in the regional tournament final last spring.

Although Crystal Falls is a class C school, 10 of the 14 scheduled contests are with class B schools.

The schedule:

- Dec. 1—Negaunee, there.
- Dec. 5—Norway, here.
- Dec. 8—Ironwood, there.
- Dec. 12—Niagara, here.
- Dec. 15—Kingsford, there.
- Dec. 21—Iron River, here.
- Jan. 12—Baraga Parochial, here.
- Jan. 19—Iron Mountain, there.
- Jan. 26—Stambaugh, here.
- Jan. 30—Norway, there.
- Feb. 9—Kingsford, here.
- Feb. 16—Stambaugh, there.
- Feb. 23—Iron River, there.
- March 1—Iron Mountain, here.

Duck Bearing Miner Refuge Band, Shot

White Cloud—A Mallard duck shot on the White River a few days ago by George Decker was found to be wearing a band from the Jack Miner sanctuary at Kingsville, Ont. The band, carrying a verse of Scripture, indicated the bird had been tagged in 1938.

CENTRAL STATE LOSES

East Lansing, Nov. 3 (AP)—Michigan State college freshmen defeated a Central State Teachers college football team, 13 to 0, in a hard-fought contest here today. A pass, from Walter Ball of Lansing to Richard Kieppe, another home-town prospect, gave the Spartans yearlings their first touchdown. Quarterback Pete Forniard of Detroit ran from the 35-yard line for the second tally.

HOCKEY NETS WIDER
 Los Angeles—Hockey nets in California are wider than in the east. The idea is to increase scoring.

TIPTON TO TORONTO
 Philadelphia—The Athletics have sent Eric Tipton to Toronto on option.

St. Joe Seeks Fifth In Row; Play At Munising

St. Joseph high school gridders will ring down the curtain this afternoon at Munising on what they hope will be one of the most successful seasons in several years.

A victory this afternoon against the Mather would give the Parochials possession of the coveted Brown Jug for another year and would end their season with five consecutive victories. After an unfortunate start in which they played three large schools out of their class, the Parochials have developed rapidly under Coach Carl Kant and have looked impressive in their last four games.

After being defeated by Sault Ste. Marie, Menominee and Iron Mountain, the locals slid into high gear by whipping Stephenson by 25-0, continued by trampling Manistique, 32-0, upset a favored Crystal Falls crew 6-0 and last week trounced Gladstone 19-6. PRINCETON STAR LOSES HIS LEG

Football Injury Results In Amputation for Hooker Herring

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 3 (AP)—The athletic career of Donald G. (Hooker) Herring, six-foot-five Princeton university football player and discus ace, ended today with amputation of his left leg above the kneecap as the result of an injury received in last Saturday's game against Brown university.

Told of the surgery three hours before it began, the 21-year-old junior had a "perfectly grand attitude," said Dr. Robert W. Johnson, Jr., of Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore. The surgeon said Herring's condition was "as satisfactory as could be expected."

The general reaction of the student body, over which a cloud of gloom had hung all day, was one of relief that the operation had been successful. The football squad, told at lunch of the amputation, remained tight-lipped and went about its preparations for tomorrow's game against Harvard, but Coach Tad Wieman said:

"The coaching staff and the squad are relieved at the success of the operation. We have reluctantly reconciled ourselves to missing his fine play and his stimulating personality. We all naturally hope he has a very speedy recovery."

"The Daily Princetonian," undergraduate newspaper, will print tomorrow an article by Edward O. Cerf, '40, the sports editor, saying:

"One must feel his injury should not be used to launch an attack on intercollegiate football. . . . Levelheaded and unmelodramatic, Don would never wish for an expression of sentimental sympathy. Yet it would be pretty nice of Captain Bob Tierney and his men could go out and win today's game for the Hooker."

Wieman assigned Les Rice, lighter but almost as tall as the Lambertville lad, to Herring's place at right tackle for the Harvard game.

Kobs Is Elected To Head Officials

Jackson, Mich., Nov. 3 (AP)—John H. Kobs, Michigan State college baseball coach, has been elected president of the Michigan Officials Association, an organization of men who officiate athletic contests, Executive Secretary G. R. Johnston announced today.

Dale Sprankle, Albion college football coach, was named vice president and Jerry Boglarsky of Detroit treasurer.

The association will hold its fall conference at Albion Nov. 20.

SPARTANS SEEK MAJOR VICTORY

Both Syracuse and State Have Found Gait Rough This Fall

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 3 (AP)—Michigan State and Syracuse teams which have found the going very, very rough this fall, clash in an inter-sectional football battle in Archbold Stadium tomorrow afternoon.

The Spartans arrived in Syracuse this morning and held a short workout. A cold, clear day has been forecast and Syracuse officials expect a crowd of approximately 17,000 to be on hand for the kickoff at 2 p. m. (EST).

It is the sixth meeting between the schools and there have been no indications that the contract that expires tomorrow will be renewed. State has won three and lost two so far against the Orange. Eddie Pearce, veteran State halfback who has been out for a month with injuries, is due to start tomorrow. Coach Charley Bachman indicated. Both teams are seeking their first major victory and sophomores are plentiful in both lineups.

Probable lineups:

Blackburn	LE	McPhail
Ketsko	LT	Hooper
Rosenback	LG	Concord
Batchelor	C	Pastorini
Rupp	RG	Baughman
Bruckner	RT
