

WARFARE SPREADS IN AIR AND SEA

EARLY TURKEY DAY TAKEN BY HALF OF U.S.A.

SOME STATES WAIT A WEEK, OTHERS HAVE 2 DAYS

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Thursday is Thanksgiving in large of the country and families half and small will pull up their chairs to heavily loaded tables and make their annual choice between white meat, dark, or "a little of both."

The rest of the nation will wait a week. It lives in states whose governors did not fall in line with President Roosevelt's decision to change the traditional holiday calendar and proclaim a week-ahead-of-time Thanksgiving.

Three "Neutrals" In this nation-wide division there are three neutrals, Colorado, Mississippi and Texas. Their holiday schedule constitutes a double threat to the descendants of the wild turkeys which escaped the blunder-busses of the Pilgrim fathers. They will have Thanksgiving on both dates.

President Roosevelt, the man who started the dispute over the holiday, is spending Thanksgiving as usual at what he calls his "second home," Warm Springs, Georgia. It was there that he received treatment for the infantile paralysis which struck him down nearly twenty years ago.

Seven Lucky There he plans to dine as usual with 350 patients at the Warm Springs Foundation, of whom seven lucky ones will sit at his table. Little blue-eyed, seven-year-old Ann Smither of Frankfort, Ky., is luckiest of all for her wheel chair will be pushed up to the place next to that of the president himself. The seven and the place of honor were chosen by lot.

the Warm Springs celebration there will be the usual Thanksgiving proffered, including roast young turkey with cranberry sauce and chestnut stuffing, plum pudding and both mince and pumpkin pies.

In addition to the inter-state argument about the dates, two governors who don't see eyes to eyes at that point either, are tied up in a gustatory argument about strictly home grown Thanksgiving dinners. Governor O'Connor of Maryland, who is celebrating today, has been boasting that everything on his table, from the terrapin soup, through the cranberry sauce to and including the Washington county cider, is home grown. Only in Maryland could that be done, he says.

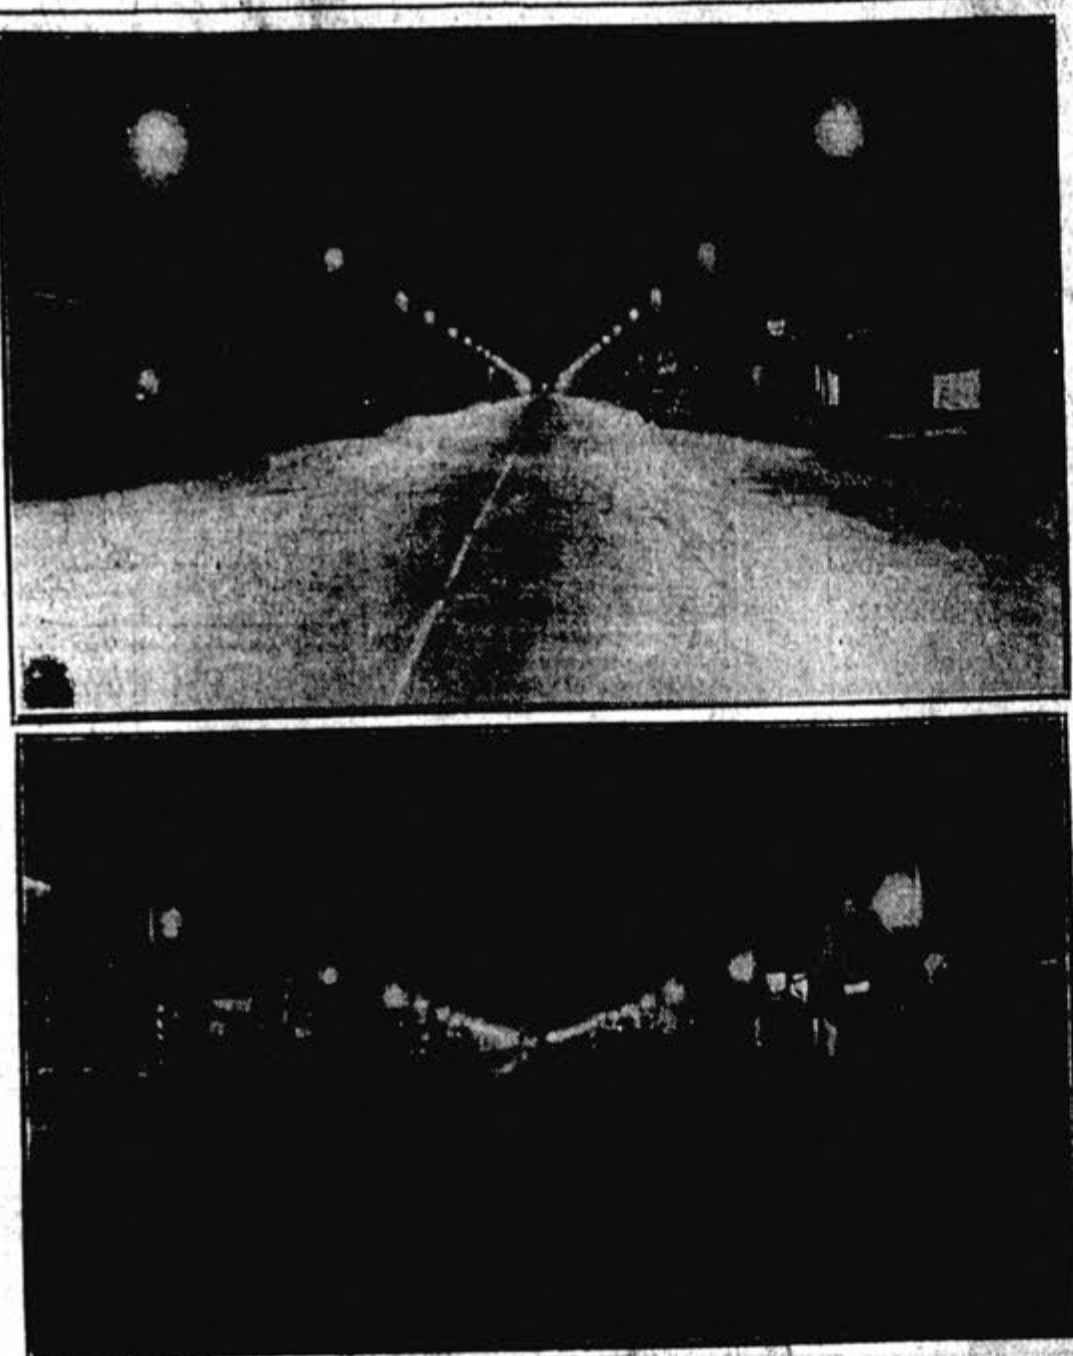

Cranberries Essential Governor Saltonstall of Massachusetts, who is waiting until next week, was more than skeptical when he heard of O'Connor's statement. To take just one item of the usual Thanksgiving menu, he asserted that Maryland could not have had a real Thanksgiving if it were not for Cape Cod's prolific cranberry bogs. If the Marylanders tried to get along with Maryland cranberries, he said, they would right away run into a big shortage.

In fact, he said in summary, all the Thanksgiving items are "pret-

New Lights Brighten Ludington Street

The greater illumination of Ludington street made possible by the installation of new lighting equipment is shown in the top picture, which was taken after the lights were installed. The bottom view was taken when the old lighting units were still in use. Both pictures were taken about 2:30 o'clock in the morning. Escanaba's new white way will be formally dedicated with a parade and special program at the Wm. W. Oliver Memorial Auditorium Friday evening.

MUNISING WOOD PLANT IS SOLD

Gladstone Firm Takes Over Piqua Factory Employing 75

S. R. Venne, president of the Northwestern Veneer and Plywood corporation, Gladstone, yesterday announced the purchase of the Piqua Munising Wood Products Co. of their veneer plant at Munising, Mich. The purchase price was not disclosed.

The new owners operate plants here and at Rhinelander, Wis. The Munising plant is now being reconditioned and plywood box machinery will be installed in the plant as soon as possible.

It is expected that operations will be commenced the first of January with about 75 persons employed. Considerable increase in the number employed is viewed as likely within a year as land has been purchased adjacent to the plant to provide for additional buildings that would be necessary for further fabrication of plywood products.

The plant will use hardwood logs, purchased from the Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co., in the manufacture of its plywood. Mr. Douglas Cowie who is now at Munising will be plant manager and he will be assisted by Robert Bruce.

Sentence Is Passed On Bank Clerk Who Saw Fair On $5,300

Detroit, Nov. 22 (AP)—Lee Austin Dalley, 22, bank clerk who embezzled $5,300 and spent it taking a party to another train-automobile collision today, received a sentence of 18 months in the federal reformatory at Chillicothe, O., today.

A conspiracy charge against the woman had been dismissed. In passing sentence, Federal Judge Frank Picard commented that he thought it unwise for banks to place $90-a-month clerks in charge of large sums of money.

Owosso Man Hits Locomotive Twice

Owosso, Mich., Nov. 22 (AP)—Kenneth Rose, 23, of Owosso, was a party to another train-automobile collision today. On Monday a Grand Trunk train wrecked his automobile, but he escaped unhurt. The locomotive was one on which he had worked the previous day in the Grand Trunk shops. Today, Rose tangled with a Grand Trunk train again. He was driving his father's car, which was crushed. Rose was slightly injured.

Rome - Berlin Axis Strained By Mine War

Russian Boats May Also Suffer By New Menace

BY KIRKE L. SIMPSON Associated Press Staff Writer The outbreak of terrorist "mine warfare" in British waters, with its ever-mounting toll of neutral as well as allied shipping losses, has done more than move the Franco-British allies to stricter economic retaliation against Germany.

It has added a new and incalculable strain to the already weakened Rome-Berlin and Berlin-Tokyo axes. Both Italian and Japanese ships are among the mine victims.

Tomorrow or next day it may be a Russian merchant craft that blunders on a hidden sea mine and goes down. Germany's "friend" and partner in the partition of Poland is reaping profit by carrying cargoes to the Reich's foes no less than are Italy and Japan.

Blockade Pinches Behind the British retaliation move, now endorsed by France, lies a conviction in London that already, with the war less than three months old, Nazi Germany is feeling the pinch of the allied sea blockade. Extension of that economic squeeze play to all German export traffic is aimed at Germany's weakest war nerve. That is her ability to finance importations of essential war supplies from neighboring neutral states on the continent beyond reach of the allied sea patrol.

There already have been symptoms that German hopes of expanding importations from the Balkans, from Scandinavia and perhaps even from Soviet Russia, have met with small success. In the Balkans, at least, Germany's negotiators were met with polite demands for payment in the two commodities she could not spare, gold and oil.

The French and British intercept the lawless mine warfare, which they accuse Germany of waging, as a move of desperation. They trace it to the steadily increasing efficiency of their anti-submarine campaign.

U-Boat Attacks Fizzle The first surge of U-boat successes at the outbreak of the conflict subsided quickly. The first gallant gestures of Nazi U-boat commanders to take risks themselves in order to avoid greatly jeopardizing crews and non-combatant passengers on surface ships have been notably lacking recently.

The allies still insist that Nazi U-boat losses have been disproportionately heavy for the amount of allied merchant tonnage they destroyed; and the twin German pocket battleships roving the seas remain helplessly inactive.

In all this, allied leadership obviously has read intimations that Germany is growing desperate. Both Britain and France have been braced over and over again

MACOMB COUNTY VICE REPORTED

Governor Warns Sheriff and Prosecutor About Gambling Stories

Lansing, Nov. 22 (AP)—Governor Dickinson called the sheriff and Prosecutor of Macomb county before him today, ordering them to suppress gambling in their county and declaring he would "see what could be done about it" if they failed.

Dickinson said he considered that stories reaching his desk of "wide open" commercial gambling in St. Clair shores and other Macomb municipalities were exaggerated. He said he was not convinced that Sheriff Robert G. Heavel and Prosecutor Ivan A. Johnston had neglected their duty, but that he felt they "invited" suspicion by inactivity in the war against gambling.

The 50-year-old executive, a militant foe of vice and what he terms "high life practices," said he had rebuked the officials when they told him citizens of Macomb county had not filed any complaints about gambling law violations, such as have come to the governor's desk.

"I told them it was their business to know about violations without waiting for the public to tell them," he declared at a press conference that followed his session behind closed doors with Heavel and Johnston. The two officials left the meeting with a statement that "we concur in anything the governor has to say."

NO PAPER FRIDAY

Because of the observance of Thanksgiving Day, the Escanaba Daily Press will not be published Friday morning. The next issue of the Press will appear Saturday morning.

Dedication of New 'White Way', Christmas Opening on Friday

Dedication of the new Ludington street lighting system with appropriate exercises will signalize the opening of the Christmas shopping season in Escanaba Friday evening. The community celebration is being held under the joint auspices of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce and the Escanaba city council.

A colorful parade will be held in Ludington street at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening to open the festivities. Decorated floats, automobiles and other participating units are to assemble at Ludington and Fifth streets at 7:15 p. m. for the start of the procession.

The Escanaba Municipal Band, which will lead the parade, also will play a half-hour concert at the Wm. W. Oliver Memorial Auditorium, beginning at 8 p. m. The two principal speakers at the dedication exercises will be Peter N. Logan, mayor of Escanaba, and John P. Norton, president of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, who will review the civic achievements of the past and will unfold plans for future developments.

Harry D. Brackett will serve as master of ceremonies. Members of the city council and the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce will be on the stage during the program.

At 9 p. m., the Christmas lights will be turned on, and merchants will unveil their display windows, filled with Yuletide gifts. The colored lights will be strung across Ludington street at each intersection. A new attraction this season will be the three-foot illuminated lanterns, which will hang from overhead. Large holiday wreaths also add to the decorative scheme.

Engineer On 'Winnebago' Killed In C&NW Wreck

North Chicago, Ill., Nov. 22 (AP)—The engineer of the Chicago and Northwestern "Winnebago" passenger train, loaded with Northwestern university students homeward bound for the holidays, was killed and several persons shaken late today when the locomotive and first four cars left the track near eggs.

Harry Anderson, the engineer, was killed when he was pinned between the engine and tender. The fireman, Stanley Mack, Elmhurst, was severely burned when the engine rolled into a ditch.

No passenger was injured seriously, the C. & N. W. office reported. Sheriff Thomas Kennedy said he was investigating a report that the locomotive had overtaken a handcar operated by three railroad workmen, who jumped and ran when they could not get the car off the track before the train struck it.

W. E. Harmsen, boatswain's mate at Great Lakes naval training station, said he was standing a quarter of a mile north of the oncoming train when he "saw the engine veer over to one side, roll back on the track and then roll in the ditch."

Many of the students climbed out of the windows of the overturned cars, Harmsen said. The eight-car Winnebago was about half an hour out of Chicago on its northward run to Kenosha, Wis., Milwaukee and Menominee, Mich.

Lake county sheriff's deputies used an acetylene torch to free Anderson's body from the wrecked locomotive cab. The derailed engine and passenger cars ripped up the track for a quarter of a mile. The rails for 200 feet were twisted in hairpin curves.

Charlotte Kickhafer, 19, of Milwaukee, Wis., and Betty Bigelow, 15, Niles, Mich., both Northwestern students, said they were riding in the third car when it overturned. They said there was no panic in the wrecked car.

TOWNSEND PLAN NAMED IN SUIT

National Organization Claims Michigan Group Illegal

Detroit, Nov. 22 (AP)—Judge Edward J. Moinet today signed a federal court order requiring the Michigan Townsend Plan organization to show cause why it should not be enjoined from using the Townsend name in any form. Hearing on the order was set for December 4.

The suit was filed by George E. Gallen, Detroit attorney, on behalf of Dr. Francis E. Townsend, of Los Angeles, and his Townsend National Recovery Plan, Inc. It was contended that the work of the plaintiff had been "greatly damaged" by the activities of the defendants, listed as the National Townsend Recovery Plan, Inc. of Michigan, Clarence J. Brainerd and Perry Birman of Cheaning, and Arthur J. Parent of Saginaw.

The Brainerd group contended recently before the Michigan Corporation and Securities commission that it was incorporated long before the national group and that the latter's aides were operating illegally in Michigan.

WIFE STABBER SENTENCED Detroit, Nov. 22 (AP)—William Brumit, 26, Detroit, was sentenced today by Judge Christopher E. Steln to serve from 25 to 30 years in prison for fatal stabbing Oct. 9 of his estranged wife, Dorothea. He pleaded guilty to a charge of second degree murder.

EIGHT GERMAN PLANES DOWN IN AIR BATTLE

ENGLISH DESTROYER LOST; ITALIAN SHIP SUNK

BY EDWIN STOUT London, Nov. 22 (AP)—Great Britain disclosed the loss of the 1,335-ton destroyer Gipsy in fiercely growing sea warfare today, while British and French were reported to have swept eight German planes out of the sky in an air battle on the Western front.

Loss of the Gipsy was reported by the admiralty at the end of a day which witnessed widespread air and sea action, including the repulse of several air attacks on the east coast and Shetland islands, but resulted, however, in the loss of a British seaplane by fire.

Among the sea casualties was the 6,600-ton freighter Flanona of non-combatant Italy, from the action of mines off the British coast.

Seventh Navy Loss The Gipsy struck a mine off the east coast yesterday and was so badly damaged she had to be beached.

The announcement said 21 officers and men were injured and 40 missing of her normal complement of 145 men. (Completed in February, 1936, the Gipsy is described by James, authority on fighting ships, as carrying four 4.7 inch guns, 7 of smaller calibre and eight torpedo tubes.)

The Flanona was the seventh acknowledged loss of the British navy since the start of the war. The others were the strait carrier Courageous, the battleship Royal Oak, an unnamed destroyer whose loss by mine was reported Nov. 14, the submarine Oxley, the auxiliary vessel Northeyn Rover, and the trawler Mastiff sunk by a mine yesterday.

"Magnetic" Mines Alleged (Private information reaching the Associated Press in New York indicated that the new 10,000-ton British cruiser Belfast had struck a mine and suffered a slight damage. The New York Times said the Belfast had been damaged by a torpedo fired by a submarine which slipped into the British naval base in the Firth of Forth, Scotland.)

The Flanona badly holed last night near the coast was still afloat today, her crew of 33 safe. Referring to the sea warfare in which 17 vessels have run afoul of mines or torpedoes off the British Isles in the last five days, Sir John Simon, chancellor of the exchequer, in a broadcast address mentioned press charges that the Germans were sowing "magnetic mines" in the shipping lanes, and said:

"All that skill and science can devise is devoted to meeting the new danger. We are confident our efforts will be successful." British correspondents said the

NO GAG ORDERS OVER FINANCES

Governor Tells Cabinet to Quit Quarreling Over Red Ink

Lansing, Nov. 22 (AP)—Auditor General Vernon J. Brown served notice tonight that he would submit no "gag" in his comments on Michigan's financial predicament, despite a conference today at which Governor Dickinson told his "cabinet" members to cease quarreling about finances.

Dickinson announced after the conference that "we have arrived at an understanding that there will be no more conflicting reports, and that the fiscal officers will speak jointly instead of separately on matters of state finances."

Brown said he had entered into no such agreement. "Joint statements will be all right with me," he added, "if I'm the one who issues them. Nobody told me I couldn't continue to issue statements."

"I have no disposition to quarrel with the executive office but I still am the auditor general, and I reserve the right to give out authentic information of interest to the public. No one ever put a gag in my mouth, and no one ever will."

Dickinson called the conference after Brown and Budget Director Gut T. Hartman had clashed earlier in the week. Brown insisted the state was "broke" and going deeper in the red under the incumbent Republican administration. Brown is a Republican.

Hartman replied that he would permit the state to end the year with a balanced budget and no new taxes, declaring Brown had told only part of the story. Views of both sides were expressed by State Treasurer Miller Duncel and Emerson R. Boyles, the governor's legal adviser.

CHECK ARTISTS OPERATE HERE

Checks Forged on Firm At Hermansville Add to Large Total

Two check forgers signing the names of Maurice Crowley and of Pete N. Kulpa billed Escanaba and other Upper Peninsula merchants out of several hundred dollars in the last two days, according to reports made to police and sheriff's offices yesterday.

Four Escanaba stores were victims for more than $170 and the sheriff's office, after an investigation at Hermansville, reported that the firm of Wendt and Bartl of that place, on whom all the checks were drawn, had record of 14 checks issued in Marquette and other towns down through the peninsula to Escanaba.

The checks, Sheriff William Miron said, were clever imitations of the regular firm checks of Wendt and Bartl, who operate a store and hotel at Hermansville and conduct logging enterprises, except that the pink color was a little lighter than the genuine. The notes bore the printed firm name and were drawn on the Hermansville First National bank.

All were signed by C. A. Juhl, who was reported to be cashier of the firm.

The Fair store reported cashing a check for $45.12 for the man who endorsed the check as Maurice Crowley, taking from the total amount $6.50 for a purchase.

Montgomery-Ward store cashed a check for $36.66 for the same man after having deducted for a sale. Anderson and Bloom took $6.13 and returned the balance to "Crowley" on a $36.66 check, and the Firestone Tire store reported selling a $7.42 tire to the man who called himself Kulpa, subtracting that amount from a $15.12 check.

Officials had not received other reports.

"Crowley" is short and heavy set, with dark hair, is about 35 years old, weighs about 140 pounds, is 5 feet, five inches tall, wears shabby clothes and a three quarter length jacket, officials reported.

"Kulpa" was described as five feet, eight inches tall, weighing 140 pounds, with light hair and wearing a dirty tan leather jacket. He has a thin face and he wore rubbers.

Royal Oak Justice Of Peace Removed; Misconduct Listed

Lansing, Nov. 22 (AP)—Justice of the Peace Vincent S. Wootton of Royal Oak township in Oakland county was removed from office today by Governor Dickinson for misconduct in office.

Dickinson said Wootton's defense that he merely followed the customs of his predecessors was not a valid excuse.

He said Wootton issued warrants without an order from the prosecutor, that he failed to report criminal cases to the prosecutor, that he illegally accepted jurisdiction in cases involving minors, that he assessed legal costs in some criminal cases, and that he collected illegal fees.

Justices are presumed to know the law as well as citizens who are haled before a court, the removal order said.

Spartans To Rely On Passing Again

East Lansing, Nov. 22 (AP)—Despite Michigan State's general lack of success in passing this fall, it probably will depend mainly on that form of attack in its final game here Saturday with Temple.

The Philadelphia Owls have not been noted for an aerial game this season and it seems to be Coach Charley Bachman's hope that he can gain an advantage with plenty of passes.

Temple is bringing a line average 200 pounds to East Lansing and a brace of backs who have made good showing with a running attack.

In scrimmage today Bachman called up all his passers to demonstrate what they could do and their worst was better than anything seen in competition this season. Wyman Davis, Jerry Drake, and Mike Shelb were leading the brigade, with Shelb also displaying fine punting form.

ty commonplace in Massachusetts. In all, 25 states are celebrating Thanksgiving today and, including the three which are observing both dates, 26 will celebrate next week.

Those which stayed by the president, excluding the three, are: California, Delaware, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Louisiana, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, Montana, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, and Wyoming.

Aid For Shoppers
Those sticking to the traditional last Thursday in November are: Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Connecticut, Florida, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Tennessee, Vermont, and Wisconsin.

President Roosevelt set the holiday a week ahead in an effort to make Christmas business reach a larger total.

The idea was that Christmas shopping does not start until after Thanksgiving. The traditional date would have left scarcely more than three weeks for the shoppers. By advancing the date, the stores and their customers have another week.

MARKETS CLOSED
New York, Nov. 22 (AP)—Observance of Thanksgiving a week earlier than the traditional time this year in most of the states where important markets are located will result in almost complete closing down of the country's principal financial and commodity exchanges tomorrow.

In New York, the stock and curb exchanges, banks and commodity futures markets will be closed. The grain market at Chicago will be darkened along with various livestock markets. Securities markets in principal cities will suspend in deference to the New York closing.

The outstanding exception to the closings will be in Minnesota, which stuck to the old fashioned last Thursday in November to observe its fall holiday and will therefore permit trading in grain at Duluth and Minneapolis.

Officers help save Benton Harbor baby at 90 miles an hour.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Nov. 22 (AP)—With their seven-day-old baby winning a battle for life, Mr. and Mrs. Don Reagan of Benton Harbor gave special thanks tonight.

The infant is in Children's Memorial hospital in Chicago to which he was rushed Tuesday night through cooperation of Michigan state police and city police along the way.

The child was afflicted with a contraction of the wind pipe muscles and a local physician decided death was a matter of hours unless the hundred mile trip to Chicago could be made speedily and an operation performed at once.

The physician, his wife and a nurse made the trip with the baby, conveyed by police cars with sirens screeching. At times the party drove 90 miles an hour.

At the hospital two surgeons and an oxygen tent were ready and the successful operation was performed at once, saving the baby from strangulation.

Hurley, Wis., Nov. 22 (AP)—Burglars attempted to crack three safes here and at Bessemer, Mich., eight miles east of Hurley, but obtained only $35 for their efforts last night. They got the money by blasting open the safe at the Iron Cooperative Oil company warehouse here, but failed to open strongboxes at the Sinclair Refining company bulk plant nearby, and at the Wadhams Oil company warehouse at Bessemer.

Sarg Of Marionette Fame Is Bankrupt

New York, Nov. 22 (AP)—Tony Sarg, noted magazine illustrator and creator of marionettes and those grotesque balloon caricatures in Macy's annual Thanksgiving parade—scheduled for tomorrow—filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy today.

Among the amounts he listed as owing were $3,500 in back wages to an employee and $1,750 due to Air Cruisers, Inc. of Rutherford, N. J., for "balloon" work. Listed as "of no value" were shares in Tony Sarg Co., Inc., Tony Sarg Publications, Inc., Tony Sarg's Enchanted Forest, Inc., and Tony Sarg's Enterprises, Inc.

The petition listed Sarg as "artist, lecturer, author, illustrator, painter and industrial engineer" and put liabilities at $36,259, assets at $6,562.

The major liability is $35,000 on a lease affecting a building in Greenwich Village.

Ban On Pamphlets Is Ruled Illegal By Supreme Court

Washington, Nov. 22 (AP)—Referring to pamphlets as "historical weapons in the defense of liberty," the supreme court today held unconstitutional three city ordinances restricting their distribution.

The opinion, written by Justice Roberts, said the ordinances struck "at the very heart of the constitutional guarantees. Justice McReynolds dissented but did not appear in court to deliver an opinion. Justice Butler, who died last week, had not participated in the formulation of the opinion.

The ordinances, passed by Los Angeles, Milwaukee and Worcester, Mass., prohibited the distribution of handbills on sidewalks and other public places.

Murder Of Police Chief Denied By Dearborn Boy, 17

Friendship, Wis., Nov. 22 (AP)—Robert Noel, 17, of Dearborn, Mich., pleaded innocent in county court today to a charge of murder in the death Nov. 10 of Police Chief Roland S. Payne of Wisconsin Rapids.

Payne died during a struggle with Noel and a 14-year-old boy who escaped while being taken to Wisconsin Rapids for questioning in an automobile theft case.

Noel also pleaded innocent to charges of armed robbery, assault while armed, larceny of an automobile and driving a car without the owner's consent—all in connection with his escape from Payne and an undersheriff.

Judge Charles Gilman bound Noel over to circuit court for trial Dec. 1 after a preliminary hearing was waived.

Noel's 14-year-old companion is awaiting a hearing on a delinquency charge in juvenile court.

Wife Is Set Afire; Husband Sentenced

Detroit, Nov. 22 (AP)—William de Loach, 35, convicted of setting fire to his wife's dress after quarrelling with her over money matters, was sentenced to seven to 20 years in prison today for arson. The dress fire spread until $8,000 damage was done to the buildings and furnishings.

John Howard Payne wrote "Home, Sweet Home" while in Paris in 1822.

Wife Again Asks Bergdoll Pardon

Philadelphia, Nov. 22 (AP)—Mrs. Berta Bergdoll asked President Roosevelt again today to pardon her World-War draft-dodger husband, Grover C. Bergdoll.

In a three-page letter—her third to the White House—the blonde, German-born woman pleaded that her request be considered "for the sake of our six children."

She recalled that when the president answered a similar letter she wrote "a long time ago" he informed her nothing could be done as long as Grover was a fugitive.

Since that letter Bergdoll returned voluntarily from Germany and was sentenced to three years in military prison on Governor's Island, N. Y., in addition to a previous five-year sentence.

Mrs. Bergdoll first asked the president for clemency in 1935.

mines were anchored below the depth reached by minesweepers and were released through a magnetic impulse whenever a large ship passed overhead to provide an attraction. Sir John, appealing for investment in new national savings certificates, said the war was costing Britain $23,580,000 a day.

Naals Scuttle Ship
Other developments of the day included: The admiralty announced interception by a British warship of the 4,110-ton German freighter Bertha Fisser off Iceland. The report said the crew had been picked up from lifeboats after an attempt had been made to scuttle the ship.

(Dispatches from Reykjavik, Iceland, said the vessel was breaking up on the rocks off Hornafjord harbor where she had been beached, and indicated she had been shelled and set afire by the pursuing warship.)

Besides the raid on the Shetland Islands, off the northern tip of Scotland, German flyers made reconnaissance flights over the southeast coast for the third time in three days.

The air ministry announced an air raid warning was sounded in the district of Essex shortly before 10 o'clock tonight. Residents reported hearing machinegun fire above the clouds. The all clear signal was given half an hour later.

British anti-aircraft guns and planes drove German craft off from an earlier flight over the Thames estuary.

Foremen's Union Blocks Peace In Chrysler Strike

Detroit, Nov. 22 (AP)—President R. J. Thomas of the CIO's United Automobile Workers announced tonight that a newly formed CIO foremen's union had withdrawn its demand for collective bargaining recognition from Chrysler corporation, but the issue still seemed troublesome.

The foremen's entry into the picture, which was followed by corporation charges of a "new effort" by the union to "control production," had blocked the way for discussion of UAW-CIO demands for wage increases—sole remaining issue in the seven weeks dispute.

With their withdrawal, however, negotiations were scheduled for Thanksgiving Day. The corporation had refused to grant a UAW-CIO contract until the foremen issue was cleared up "to the management's own satisfaction."

Dickinson's Turkey Today Is 17-Pounder

Lansing, Nov. 22 (AP)—Governor Dickinson, Mrs. Dickinson, the governor's sister, Mrs. Frank McKessell of Charlotte and the governor's two nieces will dine on a 17-pound turkey tomorrow for their observance of Thanksgiving.

The governor said the observance would be quiet because of Mrs. Dickinson's illness, but that she was well enough to join the party at the table.

Traffic Toll

Holland, Mich., Nov. 22 (AP)—Russell Risselada, 34, a member of the Holland fire department was killed instantly today when the hose truck he was driving to a fire collided with an automobile driven by Edwin Kreighoff, 25, of Grosse Pointe. The truck overturned and pinned Risselada beneath it. He was the only fireman on the truck.

Kalkaska, Mich., Nov. 22 (AP)—Walter Deater, 19, of Rapids City died late Tuesday night at Mercy hospital, Grayling, of injuries received Sunday night when the tire of his car broke and caused it to plunge into a tree. Archie Alexander, 46, of Leetaville riding with Deater, was still in critical condition, hospital attendants reported Wednesday night.

by their chosen spokesmen to expect some terrible attack because of that desperation. The announcement of the complete allied outlawing of the Nazi foe for ruthless mine warfare is evidence that, despite Berlin denials, London and Paris are satisfied that Germany is already beginning to crack under the strain of a battleless war of economic pressure.

Press Boasts
Whether the allied high command correctly estimates the reason for the sudden appearance of mines in the open sea lanes about England, time will tell. Berlin press reaction seems significant.

Although official Nazi spokesmen have denied that German U-boats are laying mines in defiance of every precept of international law, the Nazi press boasts of many new German naval blows at British shipping.

There have been too few unquestionable U-boat successes recently for these statements to be based on any other happenings than the sinking of nearly a score of craft, neutral or belligerent, within five days through striking mines. Those sinkings are going down on the Nazi press as German naval victories. They are being used to picture the situation to the German people as a coming victory over the strangling allied sea blockade.

Berlin dispatches, passed by Nazi censors, do not say whether German readers also are being told that Italian and Japanese and other neutral ships make up a large part of the boasted bag. Yet that fact unquestionably has intensified the strain upon Berlin relations with both Rome and Tokio. In the case of Italy, at least it has raised again a question of whether, due to the Nazi-Soviet partnership, Italy may not eventually line up with Germany's foe, as she is already moving back-stage to circumvent Nazi-Soviet advances, economic or political, in the Balkan theatre.

DUTCH SAILINGS CANCELED
Amsterdam, Nov. 22 (AP)—Sailings of all Netherlands ships from Netherlands ports were cancelled today by their owners acting upon the advice of the government.

The step followed by one day Great Britain's announcement that all goods of German origin on the high seas would be subject to seizure, regardless of the nationality of vessels carrying them.

MACGILLIS IS FREE Without Bond After Pleading Not Guilty

John MacGillis, who suffered a knife wound in an affray at a Ludington street restaurant the morning of Nov. 5, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace H. E. Ranguette yesterday afternoon on a cross charge of assault and battery on complaint of Gunnar Norman. Norman is free on bond pending examination on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon in connection with the altercation.

MacGillis pleaded not guilty and was released on his own recognizance with examination to be held at a date to be determined by the court.

McLeod Under Bond On Accident Charge

James McLeod, 200 First avenue south, was placed under $500 bond and held to the circuit court after arraignment yesterday before Justice of the Peace H. E. Ranguette on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident. Sheriff William E. Miron reported.

McLeod reported Tuesday to Sheriff Miron that he was the driver of an automobile which lost a door handle in an accident Saturday night at Flat Rock in which Wilbur Pilon of Escanaba was injured. Pilon was standing in the road beside another car at the time, he told the sheriff.

POLICE RENEW SEARCH TODAY

To Have Large Crew Dragging Lake for Ringstrand Boy

Escanaba city police under the direction of Chief Michael F. Ettenhofer last night made arrangements to redouble efforts beginning at 8 o'clock this morning in the search for Paul Ringstrand, 13 year old Escanaba youth believed drowned near the No. 2, or south ore dock of the St. Paul railroad.

ASKS VOLUNTEERS

Chief of Police Michael F. Ettenhofer last night asked for volunteers to aid in the dragging of the lake for the body of Paul Ringstad. Both boats and men can be used, he said.

yesterday in the vicinity of this dock dragging for the body with grappling hooks, and Richard Stack, diver, made repeated trips to the bottom in the search for the youth, who disappeared Monday night.

Stack's operations were ended, however, at 3 o'clock when his suit snagged on a heavy wire and was torn. He signalled frantically and was brought to the top uninjured.

The fact that Ringstrand's cap was found floating near the dock side 50 feet from shore Tuesday afternoon and that his bicycle was found near the shore end of the plank walk under the dock, about 30 feet above the water, caused police to decide that almost definitely the youth is lost in the water.

Diving operations are very dangerous in the dock vicinity, police reported, because the lake bottom is strewn with wires, scrap iron and other debris, and probably Stack will not go down again. Dragging is difficult for the same reason, and last night Chief Ettenhofer and aides prepared several drag lines equipped with gang hooks, which it was hoped would solve the problem.

At least four rowboats and the city tug, with any other boats that could be obtained were expected to join the search this morning.

The partially dismantled dock extends half a mile into the lake and under the bins, pilings and supports are so close together that search from a boat is impossible. Lloyd Lee, in charge of the crew wrecking the docks, put a large crane into operation yesterday, lifting loose any sunken timbers from the bottom in order to release the body if it might have become wedged.

HUNTERS ARRESTED

Iron River—Four deer hunters pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Justice John F. Lyle in Iron River court yesterday on a charge that they carried a loaded shot gun in their car. They were E. D. Campbell, 60, of Stambaugh, veteran horseshoe pitcher, Arthur Campbell, 22, his son, Edwin Lord, 44, and Fred Pepple, 22. Their car was stopped in a game area of Iron River township by Conservation Officers Paul Houllmont and John Angullim. The officers claimed they found a gun loaded with buckshot in the car. Justice Lyle set the trial for next Monday morning Nov. 27.

Obituary

MRS. HANNAH LYONS

Funeral services for Mrs. Hannah Lyons of Chicago were held yesterday morning at St. Patrick's church, Rev. Fr. Thomas Kennedy officiating with burial in St. Joseph cemetery. Pallbearers were A. J. Young, Charles Ford, Neil Bartley, Harry Broad, Joseph Collins and Odelle Meloche. Among the out-of-town persons at the services were Miss Cecil Lyons and James Lyons of Chicago.

BELLE DURAIN PAPINEAU

Funeral services will be held for Belle Duraine Papineau of Escanaba at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Anderson Funeral Home in this city with Rev. Arthur Swann of the Congregational church of Rapid River officiating. Burial will be in Lakewood cemetery.

STANLEY MROCKOWSKI

One of the largest funerals ever held in Bark River, attended by hundreds of residents of Menominee and Delta counties, marked the final rites held Wednesday afternoon for Stanley Mrockowski, of Bark River, who died as a result of injuries received in a traffic accident Saturday night. Rev. Fr. D. J. Breault officiated at the services at the home at 2 o'clock, and at the burial rites at Bark River cemetery where interment was made.

During the service two duets, "Prayer for the Dead," and "Rose of the Cross" were sung by Mrs. Edwin Bergman and Mrs. I. R. Nelson. An honorary escort, composed of members of the Pulaaki club, of which Mr. Mrockowski was president, included George Grzyb, John Gurosh, George Klus, Peter Keltacz, Peter Wojowowski, Anton Lasnoski, Anton Gabar, and Joseph Grazb. Active pallbearers, close friends, were Walter Olander, Joseph Kubaraki, George Manocziak, Andrew Mayarczak, Adolph Gonshenka and John Kobas.

The out-of-town relatives at the services were Mrs. Mary Stavida of Nantioke, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Mrockowski and Mr. and Mrs. John Mrockowski of Milwaukee, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Mrockowski, of Escanaba.

JOSEPH SKROBACK

Impressive funeral services, largely attended, were held at St. George's church, Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock for Joseph Skroback, 16, Bark River student of Escanaba Junior high school, who was killed in Saturday night's traffic accident. Rev. Fr. D. J. Breault, pastor of the church, officiated at the requiem high mass. The church choir sang the music of the requiem with Mrs. Edwin Bergman, organist, and Mrs. Otto Parket sang "Ave Maria," at the offertory, and "Sad Mourner" as the body was taken from the church.

Bark River students of Escanaba high school formed an honorary escort at the funeral and flower girls were Genevieve Kobas and Mary Boyle. Pallbearers, chosen from close friends of the youth, were Eugene Mrockowski, John Urbanc, Benjamin Gonsheski, Frank Pokladowski and Louis and Stanley Grzyb. Burial was in the family lot in Bark River cemetery.

Those attending the funeral included Emil Skroback, Mrs. John Janowski, Sophie Janowski and Stephen Krool, of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. John Holowest of Stonington.

all the others we can earn. We want our children to be glad they were born into this world. We want to give them a world that is not charred and stained with needless blood.

We are thankful for having been given a chance to rebuild an earth we nearly tore apart 25 years ago. We're sorry some men again want to destroy it. We think it's big enough for everyone to live peacefully.

We hope, above all, we can repeat these words of Thanksgiving a year from now—and every year thereafter.

Liquid Gardens

WHEN agricultural scientists first announced they had developed soilless tank gardens—in which plant roots are nourished with chemicals—most people thought that was very nice but they weren't sure they wanted to plant corn in the bathtub. They didn't really see how chemical solutions in tanks as substitutes for natural soil were ever going to be of much use to anybody.

Then trans-Pacific clipper planes began taking passengers to China and other points east, and the airline discovered that sandy, U. S.-owned Wake Island was just the right distance between terminals to make an ideal stop-over spot. The chief difficulty was that the soil on the island couldn't even support a blade of grass—and station crews and overnight passengers had to have vegetables and greens.

The airline called in a University of California scientist who set up tank gardens. Now there are enough beans and carrots and lettuce to go around for a second helping.

You can never tell when even Uncle Horace's most fantastic inventions will be useful to a world that keeps hopping ahead.

Britain Strikes Back

AROUSED by the heavy toll of shipping allegedly taken by German mines, Great Britain has announced that she will launch a blockade on all German trade. The action is similar to that taken in the third year of the World War when Germany's unrestricted submarine warfare caused heavy destruction of human lives and shipping.

Germany has been exporting goods by shipment to neutral countries, which have reshipped to all parts of the world. Italian vessels, for instance, have been enjoying a lucrative business, and very likely Great Britain's new policy will bring protests from Fascist Italy, as well as from other countries that have been making profits on the war trade. The British admiralty, however, has announced a plan, similar to that used in the World War, to reduce the inconvenience to neutral shipping as much as possible.

An effective blockade on German exports will cut into the Nazi government's supply of currency to buy much-needed materials. The British policy is being bitterly criticized in Berlin, but the world will extend very little sympathy in view of the destruction that has been caused by Nazi submarines, floating mines and airplanes during the past several weeks.

As in 1914 and subsequent years, German merchant shipping has been swept from the seas, although German submarines have wreaked heavy damage in retaliation against the Allied shipping, naval and mercantile. Either Allied defense is better organized or German sea aggression is less competent, but the fact is that German destruction is well behind that of the World War. In the first month of the German unrestricted submarine warfare in the World War 468,000 tons of Allied merchant shipping were sunk. In the first six weeks of the present war only 300,000 tons have been sunk. Moreover, in the World War, sinkings increased month by month until they reached a peak in April, 1917 of 840,000 tons. In this war, contrariwise, German sinkings of Allied merchant ships are already declining after the first burst.

While German submarines have been preying on Allied commerce, Allied naval forces have not been idle. Already some 500,000 tons of contraband goods, destined for Germany, have been seized by the Allies. Much of this consisted of food and every ton of food bound for Germany lost means a tightening of the Teuton belt.

In one sense the transition of Germany to strict wartime rations might be considered as easier than in other countries because food has not been abundant in Germany at any time since the World War. As early as 1933 the National Socialist Government imposed strict food regulation and people of even medium means have continuously been forced to regard such matter-of-course diet items as luxuries. Still, while from the regulatory point of view, the stiffening of restrictions is a short step, it is not comfortable for a hungry people to become hungrier. At the outbreak of the current war some wise wit remarked that wars afloat have been ended with food cards but it is a sore thing to have to begin a war with food cards. And that is just what Germany has done.

Gambling Again

GOVERNOR DICKINSON has promised an investigation of reports that gambling is again flourishing in Macomb county.

The lid on gambling has been quite effective in Michigan since it was clamped down during Governor Murphy's administration. When Fitzgerald returned to the governor's chair, the gambling element essayed to resume operations, but widespread publicity given to the move resulted in their closing. Attempts to reopen during Dickinson's regime also have been squelched.

If anything, public opinion is more firmly opposed to the gambling racket in Michigan than ever before. The murder of Edward O'Hare, Chicago gambling syndicate figure, has disclosed new ramifications of this illegal business and given the people an idea of its harmful effects upon local government and community life. Gambling, after all, does no one any good, with the possible exception of the professional gamblers.

Other Editors' Comments

AROUND THE PENINSULA
(Ironwood Globe)

They're drilling for oil near Gilchrist, Mackinac county, the second time it has been attempted in the Peninsula. The drilling at Gilchrist will reach a depth of 1,400 feet by the end of this month, the point at which a flow of oil is expected. The geological division of the conservation department says the possible oil belt extends from Chippewa county through Mackinac, Schoolcraft and into Delta. But state geologists aren't very optimistic. They have long contended that the real oil belt lies many miles below the Straits of Mackinac.

Generally speaking, conservationists of the Peninsula are pleased over the appointment of Dorais J. Curry as assistant to L. N. Jones, regional supervisor of the conservation department. Curry worked as a conservation officer in the Gogebic-Ontonagon district for a time and was promoted to district supervisor at Crystal Falls where he has given excellent service. Jones will doubtless find Curry a capable assistant, one who will continue to make friends for conservation.

Thanksgiving Day

WE give thanks today for all the man-made terrors of civilization that have NOT been visited upon us—the things we cannot afford, the things we do not want: Bombs bursting in air, fearful eyes pined on the sky, spiritless survivors picking among the ruins of cities for all that is left of loved ones.

Hungry, scrawny little bodies, never getting used to starvation, never understanding why such things have to be.

Men in trenches, nauseated with fear, knowing they will probably die or come out crippled for life.

Men at sea waiting for death in the form of torpedoes, mines, depth bombs, aerial attacks. It doesn't matter how. Death is so much alike in all its disguises.

We are grateful because we don't need to carry ration cards when we go to the grocery store and because we don't need to do without the things we're used to having at our tables.

We don't need to walk dark streets at night, picking our way dangerously along in blackness, carrying gas masks always over our shoulders.

We don't need to leave our factories, offices and fields to put on uniforms and carry guns and learn to shoot men we don't hate.

We don't need to stand along the streets and wave our little flags and cheer as soldiers strut along, when in our hearts we know it is all wrong.

We don't need to feel the deadness and hopelessness that come when fathers and sons and brothers and husbands exchange their places on earth for little white crosses.

We made a mistake once before; we don't want to make it again. We want to be left to do the things we were meant to do—to build, not destroy. We want to enjoy all the blessings we know today and

BY PROF. THOMAS J. B. WENNER
(Written for NEA Service)

Soviet Russia is currently looking at the world through the pince-nez glasses that perch on the nose of her kowtow-faced foreign commissar-premier, Viacheslav Mikhallovich Molotov.

His recent harangue at the democracies for prolonging Europe's war and "war of nerves" clamped against Finland for refusing Russian military demands, throw light on the personality, background and outlook of the man who since last May has been directing affairs at the Soviet foreign office.

Many informed persons in the Soviet Union now consider Molotov the logical successor to Stalin, now approaching 60.

Molotov is Stalin's alter ego. Forty-nine years of age and son of a clerk, he won his spurs by becoming a revolutionist at 17 and a Siberian exile in his twenties. Ever since he has been stamping for Soviet "ideology" in general and Joseph Stalin in particular.

CAREFUL GROOMING DOESN'T FIT—In personal appearance he is not unlike the late Theodore Roosevelt. He is pale, rather thick-set with heavily shouldered, and seems out of place among most of his colleagues because of his Anglo-aristocratic bearing and careful attention to grooming. Like Rykov, whom he replaced as chairman of the Council of People's Commissars, he speaks with a noticeable stammer.

During my recent trip to the Soviet Union, I found his picture everywhere often beside those of Lenin and Stalin. Sometimes entire top stories of Soviet office buildings are covered by canvas poster-panels of the Soviet quadrumvirate: Lenin, Stalin, Molotov and Voroshilov, commissar for defence.

The foreign commissar is popular and personally capable, but is destined to remain a figurehead so long as Stalin is master in the Kremlin. Close observers of long experience in the capital refer to him as the Georgian's "good man Friday."

HASN'T FACED SINGLE FIRING SQUAD—For 18 years he has been the immediate assistant of Stalin and has escaped the successive purges which have depleted the ranks of the Old Bolsheviks.

As new master at the foreign office (which has known only three changes in its leadership in the last 21 years—Chicherin, Litvinoff and Molotov) he is one of the youngest foreign ministers in Europe; speaks German and French fluently.

Molotov is hardly known outside of Russia, but his wife, now head of the Soviet Cosmetics trust, visited the United States in 1936.

On March 22, 1939, at a plenary meeting of the Central Committee of the Communist Party, Molotov was elected to the powerful Inner Political Bureau of the party which makes decisions followed by the government.

In addition to being premier and chairman of the Council of People's Commissars, member of the Political Bureau and Commissar of Foreign Affairs, Molotov stands next to Stalin atop the pyramid of some 2,400,000 Communist party members who have special privileges in helping to guide the Soviet "democracy"—the only legalized political party in the U. S. S. R.

—AUTHOR OF LINDBERGH "PAID LIAR" ATTACK—

The name of V. Molotov is affixed to every decree in the Soviet Union. First attention was called to him outside Russia when he denounced Col. Charles Lindbergh as a "paid liar" for alleged slurs against the efficiency of Russia's air-arm. Second time was when he shocked most of the world by signing, together with Herr von Ribbentrop, the Soviet-German pact.

Like many another of his compatriots, the premier is using a name of his own choosing. He was born Viacheslav Okribin.

As a young revolutionist, in and out of exile three times, he adopted many aliases. He preferred Molotov to Zvonov, Prostota, Riabin, and Mikhallov, so he kept it.

It was definitely announced yesterday that the Upper Peninsula would have four agencies for the distribution of automobile licenses for 1920. One will be located at Marquette, one at Houghton, one at Sault Ste. Marie and one in Escanaba. The Escanaba State Savings Bank has been designated as the official agency for this county. Yesterday the bank received a ton of license plates and is "all set" for the applicants in this part of the country.

Appleton, Wis. (Special)—Marquette high school won the high school football championship of Wisconsin here this afternoon by defeating Appleton 7-0 before 5,000 people, the largest crowd that ever witnessed a football game in this city.

Both sides, however, Appleton protested the Marquette touchdown on the ground that it was made on the old "peanut" play which has been declared illegal, and Marquette protests because the referee refused to allow another touchdown made after the timer's whistle had ended the second half.

Nearly half the original starters were taken out because of injuries. The game was one of the roughest seen here in years.

A sensational 30 yard run in the last quarter followed closely by a forward pass which netted the visitors 25, enabled the Calumet high school, champions of the Copper Country district to come from behind yesterday afternoon at South Park and tie Escanaba's seven points, registered in the second period. The game ended a 7-7 tie, with upper Michigan's high school tie undecided after one of the most spectacular football games ever staged in this section.

A. More than 7,000,000 persons attended the exhibit.

Q. What are the real names of Billy Rose and Bert Lahr? E. J. H.

A. The full name of the producer is William S. Rosenberg. Bert Lahr's real name is Irving Lahrhelm.

Q. Is it true that a submarine was used in the Revolutionary War? H. H.

A. The first submarine used in war was built by David Bushnell, a colonist, during the Revolutionary War. The craft was propelled by oars and called the Turtle. This boat was submerged and brought under the hull of a British ship in New York Harbor but the operator found it impossible to drill through the bottom of the ship and had to abandon his vessel.

New York Column

BY GEORGE ROSS

New York—For a long time I had heard rumors of interesting goings on at 625 Madison Avenue and once had spied graceful figures flitting by the third floor windows. One day I went to see what it was all about. It was a lovely sight. What seemed to be six dozen ballet girls—some in formal tulle skirts and stockings—were whirling and leaping. It developed there were really only half that number—the walls of the studio were lined with mirrors.

This, it seemed, was the home of the Ballet Theatre, the foremost American ballet company in all the land. According to Mr. Alexander Kahn, a short, cheerful and emphatic man who is the organization's shepherd, the war has shifted the ballet capital of the world from London to New York, and the magnet for all the truly great choreographers is now the Ballet Theatre.

What Mr. Kahn and Mr. Richard Pleasant, another of the ballet's progenitors, would like to see is a truly American ballet, freed from the rigidity of the old imperial Russian school and yet retaining all the great contributions to ballet that this school has given.

FUSION BALLET

The word "American" is used in its best sense—the fusion of the best of many foreign talents. Thus, although the corps de ballet is predominantly native, it also boasts Russian, Danish, Italian, Mexican and English dancers. One girl's grandfather and her grandmother are Eskimos.

I am not a "ballet-maniac," but to say that we were intrigued when we learned that William Saroyan was contributing the scenario of a ballet to this group is putting it mildly. Just what, we inquired, would be the subject chosen by the author of "The Time of Your Life," which tickled the critics of death without any of them knowing why. The title, I discovered, was "An Episode in the Life of the Great American Goof," and the actual choreography was to be by Eugene Loring.

In addition to being something new for Mr. Saroyan it is going to be something pretty startling for the ballet—since this one will be the first to employ dialogue.

While telling all this, Mr. Kahn was shutting me from one rehearsal room to the next. In one we saw a kindly, bald-headed gentleman seated in a chair calling out directions rapidly either in Anglicized Russian or Russified English—we couldn't tell which.

This was the great Fokine, whose ballet composition for the old Diaghilev company are still being given all over the world. He was rehearsing a group to do a revival of his famous "Carnaval." In the corridor I ran into Miss Patricia Bowman on her way to another rehearsal and I followed her.

People won't stand for the murder of Hitler any more. I never knew a man whose head was turned by too much success who didn't come to a bad end.

—Frederic H. Prince, Boston banker.

I would advise you never to forget that in countries at war there is an understandable inclination always to have the darkest expectations about the intentions of the opposing powers.

—Premier Dirk Jan de Geer of Belgium.

War Orders

Paul Van Zeeland, ex-Premier of Belgium, has been spreading some quiet words of caution regarding the amount of war orders to be expected—or rather not to be expected—from France and Great Britain.

Few people realize, he points out, how much the productive capacity of the Allies has increased. It is far greater than in 1914, and except for a few specialized products the Allies can produce most of what they need under their own steam.

Furthermore, Van Zeeland emphasizes, the British are going to switch all war orders possible to Canada, in an attempt to build up its industry on a permanent basis, perhaps even with the idea of shifting much of the United Kingdom's industry to the Dominion where it will be safe from future wars.

Van Zeeland reports that Hitler's finances are worse than most people realize, and predicts that the war will be short. But his definition of "short" is two years.

Note—Van Zeeland has been visiting the United States as counsel for the International Refugee Conference.

LONDON AND HOOVER

One Republican leader who is firmly convinced that Herbert Hoover is an active candidate for the 1940 nomination is Alf Landon.

At a private gathering of Iowa leaders following Alf's recent speech in Shenandoah, Ia., the politicoes were sounding him out on the various candidates, and he remarked that Hoover had his hat in the ring. The leaders were amazed.

"He can't possibly be serious about it," one of them said.

"Well, believe it or not, it's true," Landon replied. "He is not only serious but he thinks he has a very good chance to get the nomination. He's after delegates and quietly is doing a lot of campaigning."

Note—At an Armistice Day gathering in Topeka, Kas., Landon introduced Senator Bennett Clark of Missouri, leading Democratic isolationist, as one of the most constructive and courageous members of Congress. Landon and Clark were on opposite sides in the neutrality fight. But Landon feels Clark displayed high courage in sticking by his views when he knew it would hurt his presidential chances.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY PEARSON AND ALLEN

Washington—Republican strategists are planning a national defense surprise of their own when Congress reassembles in January. They are going to demand an investigation of the management of the Army and Navy.

There is plenty of ammunition to justify this. While billions are being poured out to build up national defense, the command of the two defense services is mired in welters of bureaucracy, antiquated methods and personal jealousies.

The Republicans plan to probe Roosevelt's continued failure to give the Navy a definite head, the cat-and-dog fight in the War Department, and the sensational disclosures regarding the newly built top-heavy destroyers.

First, they aim to force an urgently needed revitalization of the Army and Navy's commands—both civilian and military. Second, they hope to emphasize the Republican contention that the New Deal can't run the government competently and a change is needed.

—VICTIM—

For Assistant Secretary Charles Edison, overworked acting head of the Navy, there is bitter irony in all this. A Navy probe, with its certain revelations of obstructive bureaucracy and resistance to modernization, may cost him his well-deserved chance to be made a full member of the cabinet.

Edison has striven to cut through red tape and weed out antiquated practices and brasshats, but the job is too much for one man and he has worked himself near collapse trying to cope with it. Despite his blamelessness, the splatter of disclosures is sure to fall on his head.

Why Roosevelt has not named Edison, or someone else, to the long vacant Secretaryship remains a mystery. Best inside explanation is that the President enjoys being his own Secretary of the Navy.

—SUPREME COURT ROMEO—

To the casual observer, Justice James Clark McReynolds seems to keep his health despite 78 summers. However, those who saw him with lovely Mrs. Lionel Atwill think he has lost his punch.

Mrs. Atwill returned from Hollywood to Washington recently, causing friends to reminisce about the days when, as Louise Brooks and later as Mrs. Douglas MacArthur, she was the most popular woman in Washington. One of her great admirers was General John Pershing, her constant escort at social functions.

At one of these Justice McReynolds, always with an eye to feminine beauty, planted a luscious lip on the lips of Louise. Then, much embarrassed, he apologized profusely to General Pershing.

When Louise Atwill returned to Washington the other day, she lunched at the Supreme Court, and again saw McReynolds.

"But this time," laughed Mrs. Atwill, "he looked at me as if he was surveying the devastated areas."

WE GIVE THESE THANKS
For life, O Lord, and health and strength,
For liberty of gracious length
We give Thee thanks.

For raiment, Lord, and food and roof,
For harvest's golden-warp and woof
We give Thee thanks.

For friendship, Lord, and love and cheer,
For peace within our hemisphere
We give Thee thanks.

For Thee, O Lord, Thy love, Thy Son
And for Thy grace in us begun
We give Thee thanks.

Briefly Told

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Danfelson, 203 South Third street, are the parents of a daughter, Mary Eileen, born last night at St. Francis hospital. They have three sons.

Band in Parade—All members of the Escanaba Municipal Band are asked to meet at the corner of Ludington and Sixth streets, Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, to take part in the "Great White Way" dedication parade.

Red Cross Report—Receipts in the Red Cross roll call yesterday were $146.30, bringing the total collected in the county to $1,151.14. Only two of the rural districts of the county have sent in their reports on the roll call to date.

Hard Time Party—The Escanaba Townsend club is sponsoring a hard time party beginning at eight o'clock on Friday evening at the North Star hall. There is to be no business meeting. The entire evening will be devoted to dancing to the music of Busby's orchestra followed by a lunch. A small admission charge will be made.

Gets Buck—F. J. Papineau got his buck, a 13 pointer Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at his hunting camp at Stonington. The animal weighed 210 pounds. Papineau is the first of the local policemen to report filling his license. He stood in the front door of his hunting camp to do the shooting, repeating his performance of a year ago, and proving that wearing tramping through the brush is not the most fruitful method of hunting the whitetails.

Lutheran Brotherhood The Lutheran Brotherhood of the Norwegian Danish Lutheran church will meet Friday evening at 7:30. The Rev. T. H. Hoffman of Gladstone will be the guest speaker, and there will be special music. Refreshments will be served, with William Eckmeyer and Samuel Clements as hosts.

Celebration Snake Dance—Immediately following the indoor program at the Junior high to dedicate the new Ludington street lighting system on Friday evening, there will be a snake dance to wind up the celebration. The snake dance, with three high school cheer leaders heading the marchers, will form at the Junior high corner and wind its way toward the lower end of the street. Everyone is invited to join in.

Miss Betty Nolden was expected last night from Mt. Mary college Milwaukee, to visit her parents.

Gustaf Stade, Long Time Resident, Dies

Gustaf Stade, 72, resident of this vicinity for the last 45 years, died at North Tenth street yesterday noon. He had been ill for two weeks of complications. Mr. Stade was born in Jakobstad, Finland, December 13, 1867. He was never married. Surviving is a sister, in Finland and four nieces and nine nephews. The body was removed to the Anderson funeral home and will lie in state there Thursday night. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at the funeral home, with the Rev. Carl E. Berger of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Burial will be in the family lot in Lakeview cemetery.

SPOILS OF VICTORY

Milwaukee, Wis.—Spoils of Marquette university's 22-19 football win over Texas Tech at Lubbock, Tex., recently, included a live turkey, five cacti, an assortment of Mexican pottery, four small bales of cotton and a 10-gallon hat, all of which were brought back to Milwaukee by Coach Paddy Driscoll's triumphant gridmen.

Wells Pupils See Drawings And Get A Dose Of Advice

C. C. Denham of the Interstate Narcotics association, Chicago, drew humorous pictures yesterday afternoon for a gleeful assembly of Wells township school children who along with their entertainment got a dose of old time, homespun philosophy about the evils of tobacco, alcohol and narcotics.

The Wells program was the last of a series of chalk talks by Mr. Denham in the last few days in Delta county schools. He talked at Rock, Perkins, Nahma, Garden, Rapid River, Schaffer and Bark River on the same topic. C. P. Titus, county school commissioner, arranged the schedule.

Health injuries of tobacco and alcohol, particularly to the young, were stressed by Mr. Denham, who cited statistics to show that life expectancy and general well being are lessened by early use of these items.

Both nicotine and alcohol are poisons, he declared, and few people would think of purposely imbibing poison as such. Young smokers, he added, are more often involved in crimes than are non-smoking youths.

The chalk talk included various drawings of the before and after variety, in humorous vein, and closed with a sketch of "Mother", accompanied by a poem recited by the speaker. And when the children begged him, Mr. Denham went overtime after school hours to draw them a picture of Uncle Sam flanked by draped American flags.

One boy remarked afterward: "Go, this is better than a 'Betty Boop' moving picture."

$1,500 DAMAGE CAUSED BY FIRE

Flames Start in Basement of St. Jacques Home on Eighth St.

About $1500 damage to the dwelling and contents was caused when fire broke out in the Thomas St. Jacques home, 324 South Eighth street, at 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning. The loss is covered by insurance.

A five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. St. Jacques was playing in the basement with a lighted candle, and when the flame burned his fingers he threw it on the floor. The candle ignited some papers, and the flames spread to other portions of the house. Smoke had spread throughout the house and was seeping through the roof when firemen arrived. Joists supporting the kitchen floor were badly burned and parts of the floor itself were burned. The flames were under control shortly, but firemen, with three trucks from the No. 1 station, were on the job an hour. Much of the damage was due to smoke.

As customary, the work will begin at the discretion of the WPA director of the state, Abner Larned.

City Engineer Arthur V. Aronson said yesterday that the work is scheduled to be under way by December 20, pending the details of formally securing the money to go ahead with the work and the assignment of men to the job.

Leo Dalgord used a 38-55 rifle and dropped the animal at about 12 rods.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortunes. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Governor Asks State Support In Seal Drive

Lansing, Nov. 22—In a proclamation issued today, Governor Luren D. Dickinson called attention to the sale of tuberculosis Christmas seals which opens December 1 and urged the people of Michigan to join in the campaign to eradicate tuberculosis through their generous purchase of the seals.

The proclamation reads: "For over thirty years the people of Michigan have waged war on a shadowy hidden foe, a killer of youth, a destroyer of hope, an interrupter of the life-flowering of a nation, the great white plague, tuberculosis."

"Ignorance has been its chief ally and it is at ignorance that the Michigan Tuberculosis Association, organized in 1907, has aimed its heaviest attack. Today the lowest death rate in the history of the state testifies to the effectiveness of the association's repeated charge."

"But with the disease in retreat it is not the time to lay down our arms. Homes are still broken, lives are still taken and the cost to state and nation is still greater than the cost of any other war."

"Therefore, in conformity with long established custom, I, Luren D. Dickinson, governor, hereby call upon the people of the Commonwealth to join with the Michigan Tuberculosis Association in its constructive and merciful work through generous purchase of tuberculosis Christmas Seals."

Church Events

Service This Morning

The Norwegian-Danish Lutheran and the Bethany Lutheran churches will assemble in joint Thanksgiving service at 10 o'clock this morning in the Bethany church, Rev. C. Albert Lund, pastor. The Rev. L. R. Lund will deliver the sermon, speaking on the theme, "The Sin of Ingratitude." Special anthems will be contributed by the Triolet and the Bethany choirs, the former singing "The Lord is My Light," by Stoughton, and the latter, "Gloria in Excelsis Deo," by Mozart. Rev. C. Albert Lund will conduct the liturgical part of the service.

It is expected that a large number of members of both churches will be in attendance. Similar services during the last two years, conducted in alternate church edifices, have been much appreciated and well attended. All who do not worship elsewhere, are cordially invited to participate in today's service.

Organization of Junior Theatre Well Under Way

Organization of the new theatre group for the young people of Escanaba, under the name of the Junior Theatre, is progressing rapidly. It was announced yesterday. Registrations will close on Saturday, November 25, as it is planned to start casting this coming week.

No plays have been selected definitely as yet because the final choice will depend on the number and ages of those composing the group. The plan is to produce programs of several one-act plays until the members are far enough advanced to handle those playing a full evening.

Community dramatic groups for adults have been multiplying throughout the country in recent years, but the local organization is the first in this section to offer a like opportunity to the younger people, and it is expected to add to the cultural life of the city, as well as provide entertainment for its members and the general public.

George W. Carr is director of the new group.

OPENS VOICE SCHOOL

Menominee — Madame Lillian LeRoy Arthur, the former Lillian LeRoy of Marinette, announces the opening of a studio for voice culture, offering to young singers of an unusual opportunity for vocal study under the personal direction of an artist with a national reputation. One of Madame Arthur's prized souvenirs of her musical career is an autographed letter, sent to a Chicago musical critic by Vittorio Travisan, the famous maestro, saying: "Madame Lillian Arthur possesses one of the most beautiful coloratura voices in America."

Daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LeRoy of Marinette, and sister of Edward W. LeRoy, for more than 30 years managing editor of the Marinette Eagle-Star, Madame Arthur spent years of study under the country's best teachers. Her musical career was sponsored by Mrs. Edward Hines of Chicago, wife of the eminent lumberman who donated to the government the great Edward Hines Veterans' hospital in honor of his soldier son. Madame Arthur made her debut in Chicago opera under the auspices of the late Mrs. Harold F. McCormick, who for many years fostered grand opera in the Middle West, and was one of the founders of the Chicago Civic Opera.

"SO NUMBER 7 HAS BEEN ELIMINATED—EVER SINCE I CAME TO TANK U. ON THIS ASSIGNMENT—I HAVE LIVED IN TERROR OF NUMBER 7—THE MAN WHOSE REAL FACE HAS NEVER BEEN SEEN—"

"THE MAN OF A THOUSAND DISGUISES—THE ONE AMERICAN WHO MIGHT HAVE BEEN CLEVER ENOUGH TO STOP ME? HE KNEW HIM BY THAT BRIEF-CASE—AND HE HAD TO DIE!"

"AH GOTTA TAKE THIS LOST BRIEF-CASE? TANK U. ON ACCOUNT THASS HONEST, AN' HONESTY IS TH' BEST POLICY. IT'LL MAKE A HAPPIER MAN O' ME!"

Red Ryder

"THAT WILL TEACH YOU THE MEANING OF DISCIPLINE, LITTLE BEAVER, AND HERE-AFTER I'LL TAKE CARE OF YOUR COW AND ARROWS DURING SCHOOL HOURS!"

"WHY SHE NOT TAKE-UM BEAN SHOOTER FROM FRECKLE-FACE, TOO?"

"IT ALL HIS FAULT ME GIVE-UM BIG YELL—BUT ME GIVE HIM WHIP-LICKIN' AFTER SCHOOL!"

"HERE HIM COME NOW! ME BUSTUM NOSE PLENTY— YOU BETCHUM?"

"HOWDY, MISS JO UJAN! WHERE'S LITTLE BEAVER?"

"HE'S PROBABLY STILL FIGHTING CAUSE I PUNISHED HIM FOR CAUSING A DISTURBANCE— THE SWEET CHILD!"

Boots and Her Buddies

Mrs. Catherine Tobin, of Marquette, and Joe Reese, of Escanaba, a brother of the groom, were the only attendants.
Mr. and Mrs. Reese made a short wedding trip to Chicago, Detroit and Rogers City. They arrived here Sunday and are at home at 122 Maple avenue.

34 Persons Get X-Ray Tests At Manistique Clinic

Thirty-four persons attended the tuberculosis clinic at the Court House in Schoolcraft county on Nov. 20th. The clinic was made possible through the Alger Schoolcraft Health Department in cooperation with the Michigan Tuberculosis Association.

The tuberculin test was given to 152 people with 21 positive reactions. A positive reaction shows that the individual has or has had tuberculosis germs in his body. It does not mean that he has tuberculosis. Thirty-four X-rays were taken and the films sent for reading.
Reports will be sent to family physicians of those X-rayed. The Michigan Tuberculosis Association, sponsor of testing and X-ray clinics, is supported through the annual sale of Christmas seals.

MANISTIQUE IS DEBATE WINNER

Local Affirmative Trio Defeats Soo Here Tuesday

The Manistique high school affirmative debate team won the opening debate of the season here Tuesday afternoon, defeating the Soo negative team at the Legion cottage.
The single expert critic judge was Prof. Gunther C. Meyland, of Northern State Teachers College. In awarding the decision to Manistique, he gave the local debaters the edge on analysis, debate technique and rebuttal. The negative team won a point on presentation and knowledge of the subject was judged even.

The Manistique debaters were Evelyn Wood, George Erickson, and David Shinar while the Soo was represented by Glenn Marin, James Boulton and Harry McCormick.
Reserve debate teams of the two schools met in a non-decision debate preceding the feature contest. The Soo carried the affirmative in that contest, represented by Carl Levin, Betty DeMolen and Clare Corlett, and the Manistique negative trio was Joan Hayden, Elmer Little and Thelma Robertson.

As in all debates in Michigan high schools this year, the subject debated was: Resolved, That the federal government should own and operate the railroads.
Robert Beauvais was chairman of the debate.

Two Plead Guilty In Trespass Case

Burdette Thayer and George Thayer of Shingleton pleaded guilty in justice court here yesterday to charges of trespass and removing Christmas trees from state lands in Hiawatha township. Fines in the case were suspended and the men paid costs of $5 each. The trees were confiscated.
The men were arrested by Conservation Officers Julius Thorsen and C. H. Slater and Forest Ranger Arthur Shafer. They had cut 276 trees from state and federal lands in Hiawatha township and had sold the trees but had not made delivery.

Miss Merle Denney is spending the Thanksgiving weekend with Ada Branch in Wheaton, Ill.

Modern Medical Science Is Boon For Motherhood

BY DR. E. J. BRENNER
Director, Health Unit
Not more than a generation or two ago, wifehood and motherhood were states not lightly to be approached. Prenatal examinations and care of the expectant mother were unknown. The principles of aseptic surgery were yet to be developed. Operative technique for the unusual or difficult case was still very crude. Puerperal or child-bed fever was an ever-present menace and the death rate ran high. Few mothers escaped the journey through the Valley of Shadow and for too many it led to eternity. Others returned only to assume the life of the bedridden and the chronic invalid at 30 or 40.

In no direction has medical progress been more evident, during the last two or three decades, than in the field of obstetrics. The battle is not yet won, but the enemy, infection, is known and its strategy has been disclosed. Victory is in sight.
It can now be stated positively that the modern young woman who has her first baby before she is 24 years old, has a tremendous advantage over her mother and grandmother and faces two chances to their one for normal confinement and complete physical recovery. After 24, slightly longer, though not necessarily more serious, labor may be anticipated.

Oddly, the frail looking mother, weighing 110 pounds or less who has rarely or never indulged in strenuous exercise may expect an easier confinement than the 150 pound Amazon with a long record of achievement as a swimmer, hiker, tennis player and a horse-woman. Sport in moderation is beneficial to everyone but excessive indulgence is likely to add to the dangers of childbirth. The athletic girl takes pride in her hardened muscles and her almost masculine physique. Unfortunately, it is this muscle-bound condition, this failure to relax at the critical moment of delivery which increases the element of danger.

Were it not for the prenatal examination and the perfection of the technique for cesarean birth, the maternal death rate might be far higher than it is. Statisticians studying mortality figures for women of pioneer communities, have been able to disprove the wide spread belief that hard work and exercise make for easy motherhood. Good prenatal care is well standardized and available for every expectant mother. The obstacles to childbirth are well known and all can be obviated or circumvented providing foresight has been used for their detection.

Art Exhibit Will Be Held At Local Schools Dec. 4-9

An art exhibit consisting of 150 color reproductions of old and modern Masters will be presented by the Lincoln and Lakeside-Central Parent-Teachers Associations, December 4 and 9. The exhibit will be displayed Monday and Tuesday, December 4th and 5th in the Lincoln gymnasium, and Thursday and Friday, Dec. 8th and 9th in the Lakeside gymnasium.
All the receipts from this exhibit to the schools and will be used for the purchase of pictures.
Each room, or group, selling tickets may select pictures up to the amount of tickets it has sold. This is a fine collection of pictures. In addition to the immediate pleasure in examining these pictures of the Old Master's productions, the educational value is great.

CONTINUE DRIVE FOR RED CROSS

Residential Section Now Being Canvassed By Group

A house-to-house solicitation for membership in the American Red Cross is now being made in Gladstone by a group of 20 women working under the direction of Mrs. C. S. Norton, local chairman of the annual Roll Call.
Enrollment at either of the banks by persons who have done so in other years is urged in that it lightens the work to be done by the group of workers.
Persons who have already subscribed are requested to display the emblem in a front window so that solicitors may know and pass them by.
Mrs. Norton is hopeful of reaching or exceeding the amount subscribed in 1938.

Gladstone Debaters Meet Escanaba Trio On Monday Evening

Gladstone debaters will travel to Escanaba Monday evening to compete against the county-seaters in the second argument of the preliminary series.
Coach Russell Skellenger has announced his team will be composed of Alce DeBlind, captain and first speaker, Barbara Riley and Paul Cowen.
The locals will again have the affirmative side of the question which concerns federal ownership and operation of railroads.
The locals lost their first encounter against Ishpeming here several weeks ago while Escanaba has one victory to its credit thus far.

Rustic Furniture Made At Engadine

Engadine, Mich.—The Pioneer Furniture shop of L. E. Clark & Co., in this western Mackinac county village is assembling several thousand pieces of rustic furniture, in various stages of completion, in anticipation of a good demand next season.
"We want Upper Peninsula people to know that their needs in this line can be supplied with useful and beautiful articles on short notice," said Mr. Clark.
"We appreciate the business that is coming to us from this section, and we are expanding our manufacturing facilities so that we can meet all demands promptly."
Pioneer furniture is made largely from kiln dried and well seasoned white cedar wood. Skilled craftsmen produce dining, dressing, tea and card tables in great variety, radio stands, lounging and dining chairs, fireplace benches, writing desks, chests of drawers, rockers, settees, stools, single and double and upper deck beds, chifforobes and many other fine pieces which give an authentic touch to summer and year-around north country homes.
The concern makes numerous special jobs for every room in the house, and has outfitted a number of homes completely. Samples of every article made are on display in the Pioneer shops and warehouse, and correspondence and personal visits are invited.

SERIAL STORY

5 WOULD KILL

BY TOM HORNER

CAST OF CHARACTERS

ARNOLD BENTHORNE — Five persons wished him dead.

HELEN BENTHORNE — His charming young wife.

WILLIAM ALSTON — Benthorne's father-in-law and business associate.

JOEY DI TORIO — Night club owner and gangster.

ARA JOHNSON — The mystery girl.

JOHN DOUGLAS — A young mining engineer, in love with Ara.

CAPTAIN DAWSON — A detective who likes to listen.

CHAPTER VIII

Patrolman Dan Flynn herded his two charges into Benthorne's study—the sullen, mumbbling taxi driver and the calm, self-possessed girl. Nick was terrified—alternately begging and threatening. There was no fear in the dark eyes of the girl. She met Captain Dawson's stare defiantly as she entered the room, and he realized that bluff and threats would never break down her will.

As he studied her, Dawson compared her with Helen Benthorne. Where Helen Benthorne was soft, the pampered daughter of society, this girl was hard—not unpleasantly so—but because life had not been generous to her. Her hands were not soft, nor faultlessly manicured. Her dress was simple, serviceable, only moderately attractive. Here was a girl, Dawson realized, who worked for all she had, who had never known luxuries.

Her eyes fascinated him, as they did all men. "Smoky," Flynn had called them. Dawson wondered just how much it would take to fan those glowing sparks into blazing, destructive flames. "She was just leaving the apartment when I got there," Flynn explained. "Grips packed and all. But she won't say where she was going or why. She won't say anything, Captain. Maybe you can make her talk."

"Your luck is holding, Flynn," Dawson laughed, when Flynn had recounted the story of his discovery of Nick Smith. "You're the only man on the force who can go to sleep and wake up with his prisoner in his hands.

"Now here is something else for you—find out all you can about Benthorne. As soon as the brokerage offices open, start tracing his business operations, back to his first purchase of stock. Get all the help you need. We've got to find out some more about Benthorne and this 'Big Red' he mentions in the note. See what you can dig up." He turned to the girl and the taxi driver.

"Well, Miss Johnson, perhaps you'll be able to help us clear up a few things."

"I don't know what you're talking about," the girl answered in a calm, steady voice. "The officer said there was a murder—a Mr. Benthorne was killed, I believe. I don't know anything about that."

"Can you explain why you were in front of this house last night, why you helped this young Douglas trick Officer Flynn, and why you and this taxi driver almost ran over Flynn trying to get away?"

The girl laughed at that, but there was no merriment in her eyes. "Just because your patrolman is clumsy is no fault of mine. I think the driver's foot slipped off the clutch pedal; then, when we saw the officer trying to draw his gun, we hurried away. I'm sure Mr. Douglas was not far away. After all, Captain, we had done nothing but ask where we might find a minister."

The girl knew the answers, Dawson realized. She would leave no openings—now. As long as she and Smith, Joey, Mrs. Benthorne and Alston were here in the house, there was no hurry, Dawson realized. Sometimes these murders almost solved themselves. Just be patient, Dawson told himself, and something will break. Aloud he said:

"I could do with some breakfast, and I imagine all of you could eat, too. If you'll wait here, I'll round out the butler and see what we can find."

Breakfast was a cold, silent affair. Helen Benthorne sat at one end of the long table, endeavored to be at least a considerate hostess. Her eyes were still red, and Dawson knew she had not slept. If she felt hatred for these strangers grouped about her, she did not show it.

Only once, Dawson remembered, did he fixed expression change. That was when he had introduced Ara Johnson. Watching both the women closely, Dawson thought he caught a flash of anger in Helen Benthorne's eyes as she spoke to the girl. But Ara had remained as sphinx-like as ever.

Dawson glanced around the table. He sat at Mrs. Benthorne's right, directly across from a vacant chair. Alston was still asleep. Ara sat beside him, and Nick Smith next to her. The girl's food was practically untouched. Smith's appetite seemed to have vanished, too. Only Joey di Torio, across the table, and Krone, seemed to be enjoying the meal.

If Joey had killed Benthorne, Dawson's thoughts rambled on, could he be cold-blooded enough to eat Benthorne's food—and apparently enjoy it?

How about Ara? If Dawson could have known fear, he would have been afraid of the girl. She was almost too calm, too quiet. Was all this part of her plan? Her hand was steady as she lifted her coffee cup to her lips—not a quiver. Just how much did the girl know? How much would she tell? What could break down that wall of self-control? Not finding an answer, Dawson attacked his ham and eggs.

John Douglas pounded hard on the Benthorne front door. Hatless, his tie askew, he gasped for breath as Jameson, ever placid answered.

"Is Miss Ara Johnson here?" he demanded, pushing past the butler.

"I don't know—I'll ask Captain Dawson," Jameson began.

"A young girl, with dark hair, dark eyes. Did a policeman bring her here?—I'll see for myself!" He hurried toward the study.

"You'll find all of them in the dining room, to your left, at the end of the hall," Jameson ventured. Douglas ran past the study, without a glance, to the dining room door.

"Ara!" The girl jumped to her feet at the sound of his voice. In another second she was in his arms.

"Darling, darling," Douglas was whispering in her ear. "I had to find you. I was afraid. When I found you were gone. . . . Ara, darling, I'll never let you go again. Why didn't you call me?" She tried to stop the flow of words, and failing, finally kissed him full on the mouth. His arms crushed her to him.

"Keep quiet, fool," she whispered angrily as she broke free at last.

Dawson smiled as she watched them. He had missed nothing, not even the angry whisper at the last. Here was his break, the chance he had been awaiting.

He waited until the youth, his arm still around the girl, turned to face him.

"I'm sorry to break in like this," Douglas apologized. "I just had to find Ara. When they said at the apartment that she had gone with a policeman—I—I—"

Dawson's smile widened. The others had remained in their chairs, but all eyes were upon the couple.

"Just how young man, did you know Miss Johnson would be here, in Arnold Benthorne's house?" Dawson asked slowly.

Douglas paled. He was trapped.

WILL BUILD HOUSES

Menominee—Ground was broken today in the 800 block on Washash avenue for the construction of four complete low-cost homes, first step in a project designed by the Juttner Real Estate Agency to alleviate Menominee's housing shortage.

More homes will be built later in other sections of the city on lots owned by the Juttner agency, it was announced by A. A. Juttner. The later homes will be larger than the four started today.

"There is apparent need in Menominee for at least 200 new homes. Many of the people who work here and reside outside the city do so only because they are unable to obtain a house here," Mr. Juttner declared.

Canada's area is 36 times that of the British Isles.

Rapid River

Buck Crashes Thru Car Window

Rapid River, Mich.—Last night about nine o'clock, Mrs. George Anderson accompanied by her son Wendel Johnson, was returning from Maplewood where she had spent the evening. When about a mile north of the Tacoon bridge on US-41 a crash hit the side of her car, instantly she thought she had been hit by a truck without lights, then the horns of a buck deer came through the window of the car door the shattered glass falling her lap. As the car did not stop the deer fell back on the fender of the car. When she reached town Mr. Anderson tried to contact either of the game wardens but they were out of town. George then went to the scene thinking the deer might have been killed by crashing into the car but nothing was to be seen of the deer.

It idently hurried away to avoid paying for a broken car window and a damaged fender.

Telephone Cut Over Tuesday

In keeping with the age of progress the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. are installing in a number of their rural communities, the dial system which is the latest in the telephone development. This new system went into effect at Rapid River Tuesday at 1:30 P. M. Present at the cut over were: O. Sundquist, Mgr., and Albin Carlson of Escanaba, H. P. Orth, Traffic Supt., Louis Beaudin cable man, J. J. Folly, C. H. Towne, Vern Johnston, Wm. Muellen and John Burkinham of Menominee. In a few well chosen remarks Mr. Sundquist presented the system for Rapid River to Carl Person Prop-Supervisor and invited Carl to press the button which would install the cut over.

At exactly 1:30 Mr. Person pressed the button, throwing out the old system and in the new. Mr. Sundquist then presented Mr. Person with the bell, which held the button, as a remembrance of the occasion. Mr. Person thanked Mr. Sundquist for the honor which the company saw fit to confer on him. Local persons present at the office at the cut over were Mrs. C. Hamilton, Mrs. J. A. Forest and Mrs. Herbert Mason.

Red Cross Drive

The Red Cross drive is on. Wallace Cameron is chairman of the drive. It is hoped and expected that it will meet with a good response. It is noted that during the past year as much was spent back into the township, in the nature of supplies and services, as was contributed by the township toward the fund.

Shower Party

A delightful pre-nuptial shower party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson Friday evening, honoring their daughter Verona, whose marriage to Walter Willbee of Gladstone is taking place Thursday.

Arrangements for the party were made by the Esther society of Calvary Lutheran church. Games were enjoyed, a tasty lunch served, an enjoyable time spent by all. Miss Verona received many beautiful and useful gifts. Out of town guests present included: Mrs. R. Willbee and daughter Dell Jean, Mrs. Joseph Laframboise and Mrs. Wynan Nevenkamp of Gladstone.

Don Pfothenhauer Succeeds Brother As Captain

FULLBACK WILL LEAD ESKYMOS

20 Members of Peninsula Champs Given Letters By Coach Ruwitch

Don Pfothenhauer, junior fullback whose twinkling feet carried his curly red head helter skelter over Upper Peninsula gridirons this fall, was elected captain of next year's Escanaba high school gridders at a meeting of 20 lettermen yesterday. Don succeeds to the captaincy his brother, Merle, who led the Eskymos to a perfect season and an Upper Peninsula championship.

The Eskymo captain elect was an integral part of the championship machine this year, his sensational long runs on quick opening thrusts through the line being especially demoralizing to opposing teams. He was one of the team's highest scorers and most of his touchdowns came from near mid-field. He scored the only touchdown of the game on a long run against Stambaugh, sauntered 54 yards with an intercepted pass and generally wrecked Norway, galloped 56 yards against Marinette and shone brilliantly against Gladstone in the final game of the season. He is well qualified to step into the shoes of his older brother, Merle, who was the outstanding back of the year in the peninsula.

Coach George Ruwitch, at an assembly at the senior high school yesterday, issued letters to 20 members of this year's team. In addition to the two Pfothenhauers, those who received letters were: Foy Arbour, Bobby Barron, Bob Craig, Roy Cross, Jim Davidson, Leonard Fedrow, Nick Goymerer, Kenny Kositzke, Wilbur Leonard, Keith McDonald, Jim Nyberg, Stuart Peterson, Ray Pepin, Gerald Seymour, Bob Shallman and Dick Van Effen. Student Manager Ralph Coplan also received an award.

MORE FOOTBALL RECORDS FALL

Don Hutson of Packers Smashes Old Marks on Pass Yardage

New York, Nov. 22 (AP)—Four new individual national professional football records have been written into the books as a result of last Sunday's games, making it the sixth straight week in which old loop marks were surpassed.

Don Hutson, Green Bay's classy end, accounted for two of the new marks, and a pair of backs, "Anvil Andy" Farkas of Washington and "L'il Davey" O'Brien of Philadelphia, shattered one each.

Farkas' record was that for 11 touchdowns in one season, surpassing the old mark of nine, which, incidentally, belonged to Hutson. Hutson, however, countered with two new records for yardage gained on passes. His 794 yards advanced on the receiving end of aerials this season smashed the old record of 675 yards set by Gaynell Tinsley of the Chicago Cardinals in 1937. And his 1939 yardage brings his lifetime total of 2,838 in five seasons, surpassing the old mark of 2,755 compiled by Johnny Blood in 14 campaigns.

With these two records, Hutson now holds outright or shares in every pass receiving record on the books.

It took Davey O'Brien some time to get going, but once he started there was no holding him and his pitching Sunday, he completed 21 passes to break the record of 19 which he set only a week previously.

Bill Osmanski of the Chicago Bears is the leading ground-gaining running back for the season with 699 yards and an average of 5.7 per crack. His teammate, Joe Maniac, shows the best average in the loop with 7.1 yards per rush.

Parker Hall, the ex-Mississippi all-American now with Cleveland, has completed 76 passes to lead in that department, although Washington's "Slingin' Sammy" Baugh shows the most effectiveness with 45 completions in 85 pitches for a 5.23 average. Perry Schwartz of Brooklyn has caught 29 passes this season, two more than Hutson. Ralph Kercheval, "Mr. Toe" of the Dodgers, has booted six field goals. Frakas, with two points after touchdown added to his record touchdown total, leads the scorers with 68 points.

IRON MAN BOB
Milwaukee, Wis.—Speaking of football "iron men," there is Bob Kennitt, Marquette university junior guard from Green Bay, Wis., who played 474 out of a possible 480 minutes in Marquette's eight-game schedule this fall. He missed three minutes against Southern Methodist, and one against Iowa State. Kennitt, incidentally, scored 13 points for the Hilltoppers on 10 conversions after touchdowns out of 14 chances, and one field goal.

The name rhododendron comes from the Greek words meaning "rose-tree," but the flower is neither a rose nor a tree.

"Nice Work There, Brother!"

"Nice work there, brother!" says Don Pfothenhauer (left), to his older brother, Merle, who captained the Eskymo gridders to a peninsula championship this year. "Nice work there, brother!" replies brother Merle to brother Don, who yesterday was elected to succeed Merle as captain of next year's Eskymo team. Just a case of well-earned mutual admiration.

Menominee Cage Loop Prepares For Season

With Powers firing the first gun last Friday night in defeating Alpha, the Menominee County League entered on its second year of basketball competition. There will be only four teams in the league this year as compared with five last year with the cellar occupying Daggett team not playing as a member of the circuit. Daggett, however, has games scheduled with all the members of the league but will not have its games figured in the league standings.

Stephenon, another member of the circuit, is not playing a full league schedule, having only three games contracted for with the other members of the league. Hermansville, Harris and Powers are playing a full league schedule of six games. Hermansville won the championship last year with Powers finishing second. All of the members of the league are in Class D this year with the exception of Stephenson which is in Class C.

The officers of the league for the coming year are Joseph Guckey, of Harris, president; Hamilton Robichaud of Powers is vice president, and Harold Cass of Hermansville is the secretary and treasurer. The purpose of the league is to get mutual cooperation from all its members on problems of athletics and eligibility.

Competition Tough
The present champion of the league in basketball is Hermansville which turned back all of its league opposition last year without a defeat. In track the Stephenson Eagles won the trophy during the past year and Hermansville won it in 1938.

The competition this year promises to be much stronger with all of the teams having a chance at the pennant. Hermansville lost three of its championship team while Powers and Harris lost only a few men from their teams of last year. Stephenson faces the biggest task with most of their team having graduated.

The complete schedule of the members of the league is as follows:

- Nov. 17—Alpha at Powers.
- Nov. 23—Powers at Daggett.
- Dec. 1—Harris at St. Joe.
- Dec. 1—Daggett at Stephenson.
- Dec. 5—Daggett at Powers.
- Dec. 6—Harris at Rock.
- Dec. 8—Lady of Lourdes at Stephenson.
- Dec. 8—Harris at Eben.
- Dec. 12—Harris at Hermansville.
- Dec. 15—Stephenson at Peshigo.
- Dec. 15—Hermansville at Powers.
- Dec. 15—Daggett at Harris.
- Dec. 19—Stephenson at Vulcan.
- Dec. 20—Powers at Nahma.
- Dec. 29—Hermansville at Channing.
- Jan. 10—Daggett at Hermansville.
- Jan. 12—Stephenson at Harris.
- Jan. 12—Channing at Hermansville.
- Jan. 12—Perkins at Powers.
- Jan. 17—Rock at Harris.
- Jan. 19—Hermansville at Stephenson.
- Jan. 19—Powers at Harris.
- Jan. 23—Stephenson at St. Joe.
- Jan. 24—Hermansville at Daggett.
- Jan. 26—Niagara at Stephenson.
- Jan. 26—Eben at Harris.
- Jan. 26—Fech at Hermansville.
- Jan. 26—Powers at Rapid River.
- Jan. 30—Stephenson at Powers.
- Jan. 30—Harris at Rapid River.
- Feb. 2—Hermansville at Harris.
- Feb. 2—Peshigo at Stephenson.
- Feb. 2—Nahma at Powers.
- Feb. 2—Stephenson at Niagara.
- Feb. 3—Hermansville at Vulcan.
- Feb. 3—Stephenson at Daggett.
- Feb. 13—Perking at Harris.
- Feb. 16—St. Joe at Stephenson.
- Feb. 16—Powers at Hermansville.

STAMBO FIRST ON CAGE SKED

Ishpeming To Be Minus Lanky Center for Early Games

Ishpeming, Nov. 22—Facing a traditionally tough schedule, Ishpeming's high school basketball squad is headed apparently for an uphill struggle for what ever honor the season holds for them.

Coach C. C. Watson will open the season with only one regular from the 1938-39 forces back in harness, but hopes by the first of the year to have another in the fold.

Ralph LeClair, forward, is coming back for another full season, but Emilio Gelmi, who suffered a hand wound in a hunting injury, will be out for about a month of the season. Ishpeming will have five games to face with absolute certainty of being without the services of this rangy fellow, who was counted upon to hook in plenty of points for the Hematites. He broke a small bone in his hand, and it will take some time, the coach has been advised, for a complete recovery.

Also Few Reserves
Only two men who were on the reserve squad last year are back. They are Leslie Bjorne and Paul Goethe.

Working out for places, in addition to those mentioned, are Leslie Hannula, Leslie Lowenstein, Creighton Amel, Joe Gagliardi, Donald Martin, Thomas Main, Elliot Maki, Anthony Marra, Anthony Gagliardi, Gerald McCormick, Paul Turino, William Gray and John Giroux.

Stambaugh opens the season here Friday evening, December 1, and Lake Linden, Munising, Sault and Escanaba follow before school closes for the holidays.

Two week-ends will see double dates for the Hematites.

Season's Schedule
Dec. 1—Stambaugh here.
Dec. 8—Lake Linden here.
Dec. 15—Munising here.
Dec. 16 (Saturday)—Sault there.
Dec. 22—Escanaba here.
Jan. 12—Negaunee there.
Jan. 19—Marquette here.
Jan. 26—Escanaba there.
Feb. 2—Gladstone there.
Feb. 9—Marquette there.
Feb. 16—Sault here.
Feb. 23—Negaunee here.
March 1—Wakefield there.
March 2 (Saturday)—Newberry here.
March 7, 8, 9—District tournament.
March 14, 15, 16—Regional tournament.

Cage Season Opens For Munising Five

Munising, Nov. 22—Harry's Super Service basketball squad will open their 1939-40 season here on Saturday evening in the Mather high school gymnasium when they meet the Munising CYO five and the Grand Marais Independents. The Harry's crew last year played under the name of Lew's Store and won 21 games out of 22 in regular play during the season. They placed third in the independent tournament held here in the spring.

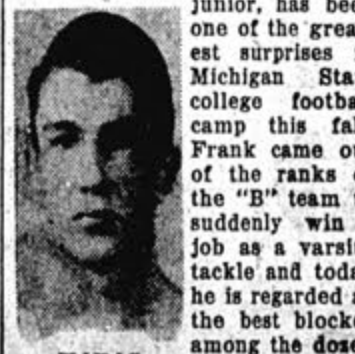

Practices for the quintet have been held on Saturday evenings in the high school gym, and Frank Fleming, manager of the team, stated that they were displaying a great deal of skill in their practice tilts. Members of this year's squad selected so far are: Cluen Malone, Louis Gamelin, R. Olen, Romeo Perron, Warren Wendt, and Fleming. Olen is a newcomer to the squad and was a member of the Gwin high school squad and played intra-mural ball at Michigan State college. Perron is a former member of the Iron Mountain Oshkosh Beers and of the Iron Mountain high school five. The Harry's crew will lack the services of "Bob" Villeneuve, coach at the Mather high school, and Harold Anderson, who has enrolled at the Northern State Teachers college, Marquette, this season.

George Gargett, a veteran tackle, moved over to left tackle when the coach felt that Karas' sudden rise was not flag in the pan. Motion pictures taken of the Indiana game here last Saturday which ended in a 7-7 tie proved that Karas' blocking was outstanding. The former Escanaba high star weighs 205 pounds. He has developed speed and is very agile especially on defense.

Karas has at least one more season of competition and if he cares to slow up his college work he will be eligible for two more years. He did not see any service bowl bid and the students can't understand it.

Frankie Karas Has Developed Into One Of State's Best Tackles; Work Acclaimed

East Lansing, Mich., Nov. 22.—Frank Karas, of the Escanaba junior, has been one of the greatest surprises in Michigan State college football camp this fall. Frank came out of the ranks of the "B" team to suddenly win a job as a varsity tackle and today he is regarded as the best blocker among the dozen tackles Coach Tom King sends into action. Karas has been slow to pick up the tackle trade, but once he mastered the details he came along very rapidly. His first performance of note was in the Syracuse game which State won 14-3 and he has been in the thick of battle

Karas has at least one more season of competition and if he cares to slow up his college work he will be eligible for two more years. He did not see any service bowl bid and the students can't understand it.

Nothing Like Good Clean Fun, Is There?

Players and spectators had some side-splitting moments in the donkey ball game at the junior high school Tuesday night. Buck Yelland had a bit of difficulty with his mount, which chose to go to sleep while he had the ball. Joe Shipman (dressed in white in the left background) and Henry Wylie seemed to have trouble staying on the ornery creatures while Jim Rouman (left) surveyed the situation from out of bounds. Did the crowd like it? Well, just look at some of the facial expressions in the bottom picture.

SPILLING the DOPE
BY JOHNNY INKSLINGER

LIONS AND FACULTY members, we are told, were stiff in the joints Tuesday night . . . and not in the way you might think . . . the boys got good workouts on the backs of some ornery donkeys . . . and still are feeling the effects of their midnight ride . . . In fact, straddle legged business men and teachers may be seen walking the streets all the way from Manistique to Vulcan as the result of the donkey ball games . . . unfortunately, we missed the game but those who saw it came away with sore sides, we are told . . . they said it was screamingly funny . . . and that all participants, donkeys and riders included, acted like perfect fools . . . we have an idea how they acted . . . cuz we went to a ballet onct.

First School Game At Munising Dec. 1

Munising, Nov. 22—Marquette's Redmen will invade Munising for the first tilt of the 1939-40 basketball season on December 1. The Munising quintet will be playing the first of its two games with the Marquette aggregation. In other years only one game has been played during the season with the Redmen. This year the schedule has been arranged that as many games as possible are being played with Class B opposition, particularly the crews which the locals are likely to meet in the district tournament in the spring.

The high school varsity and reserves will have completed four weeks of intensive practice when the opener is played. Coach Bob Villeneuve is in charge of the first squad and Emil Peterson is handling the second string quintet. Two regulars from last year will be back for duty this season: Paul Nadeau, lanky center, and Benny Montclair, speedy forward. Villeneuve will select the rest of his crew from Winfield Stelnhoff, Leo Passinault, Charles Olson, Norman Smith, Fred Koenig, William Charlebois, Edward Elavsky, and James Seglund. Peterson has 12 to select his talent from: Marvin Beaudry, William Matson, Robert Johnson, Theodore Maki, Gary Zastrow, James Oas, Gordon Mootie, Harry Olson, Marvin Nadeau, Charles Ames, Leland Parks and John Tiernan.

Thirteen games will be played by the first squad during their season and six of the games will be played here. The reserves will meet Newberry, Negaunee and Manistique second teams, and play two games with Grand Marais on their schedule. Season tickets for adults may be purchased at a reduction at each of the Munising grid stores or they may be purchased at the box office at the school before the opening game. All of the home games scheduled will be played on Friday night except the game with the Soo on Saturday, January 27.

FUMBLES LOOM BIG IN SCORING

Many Touchdowns Set Up In Football By Bobbles

BY BILL BONI
New York, Nov. 22 (AP)—Through all the length of a football season which is shortening rapidly, the recovered fumble stands out like a lighthouse on a rocky coast as the one play that has set up more important touchdowns than all the 60-yard forward passes and 20 yard end runs you can mention.

It probably will continue to play a vital part for the few remaining major days of competition, just as it did last Saturday, for one example.

Nebraska, in gaining its second victory over Pitt since 1921, went 23 yards for its first touchdown after recovering a fumble. The same play gave Tulane the ball on Columbia's 15 for its second tally. New York U. S.' sloppy handling of the Georgetown kickoff led to the unbeaten Hoyas' first score, and Georgia Tech went 38 yards after an Alabama fumble for the only touchdown of the game.

Recovery of five Indiana bobbles enabled Michigan State to play the Hoosiers on even terms, while Illinois almost broke through against Ohio State by recovering the ball on the Buckeyes 7 on the first play after the kickoff. Fumbles and pass interceptions (another vital "break" in many games this fall) led to all three of the Boston college scores against Boston 7.

South Carolina snatched a Georgia mid-air fumble and went 46 yards to gain a 7-6 lead on the Bulldogs before being overpowered, 33-7, while an end zone Louisiana State bobble on the old "Statue of Liberty" play gave Auburn one of the three touchdowns with which it upset the Bayou Tigers.

Probably the most fatal fumbling of the entire season was the afternoon of Saturday, Nov. 4, when an alert band of Illinois players fell on five Michigan fumbles and converted three of them into two touchdowns and a field goal to down the Wolverines.

Taking the wishbone (advisedly) in favor of the drumstick, this corner offers a few extra-special predictions on tomorrow's scattered "Thanksgiving Day" activities:

Dean McAdams and Washington over Jay Graybeal and Oregon, unbeaten Richmond over upsetting William and Mary, Syracuse over Maryland, Virginia Military's star backs to furnish the edge over Virginia Tech, Catholic U. over Long Island U.

The Tulane team that shut out Columbia has replaced the North Carolina club that walloped Penn as the most impressive outfit this observer has seen. We now are waiting for a look at Cornell against Penn Saturday, in the expectation that the Big Red may supplant both the Green Wave and the Tarheels.

Penn, incidentally, has in Francis Xavier Reagan the best back we've come across on running back punts. He's no blind runner. Rather, he excels in either picking his spots behind the strongest array of blockers, or else out-waiting the oncoming enemy ends, and then out-guessing and out-stepping them.

BUSY LITTLE MAN

Milwaukee, Wis.—The little man who had a busy day isn't so little after all. He is Don (Huck) Vosberg, Dubuque, Ia., Marquette university's brilliant junior left end who weighs 185 pounds and is 6 feet, 2 inches tall. Vosberg, in Marquette's final game of the year with Texas Tech, blocked a punt for a safety; caught five passes for 109 yards gain and four first downs; recovered a Tech fumble, and intercepted two enemy passes at crucial moments of the battle.

THOS, CHARLAND PASSES AWAY

Former Resident of City
Dies in Oak Park
On Wednesday

Thomas Charland, 73, former resident of Escanaba, passed away early Wednesday morning at the home of his daughter, Miss Elsie Charland, at Oak Park, Illinois, following a lingering illness.

Charland was born April 26, 1866, at St. Annacette, Canada, and moved to the United States in 1890, working in lumbering operations for many years. Later he worked for the Escanaba Paper company, remaining there for 10 years before retiring about seven years ago. He has resided in Oak Park for the past five years.

The deceased, who was married on August 30, 1892 at St. Jacques to Mulvina Germain, is survived by his wife and the following sons and daughters: Ovilla, Thomas and William of this city, Mrs. Albert Toussaint of Chicago, Elsie of Oak Park and Mrs. John Studham of Riverside, Illinois. He is also survived by six grandchildren.

He was a member of the St. Anne church of this city when he resided here and was a member of the Holy Name Society.

The body was taken to the Alto Funeral Home to be prepared for burial and will lie in state there beginning at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Funeral services will be held at St. Anne church Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. J. E. Guertin officiating. Burial will be in St. Anne cemetery.

Garden News

Church Services
Garden, Mich.—St. John the Baptist: 8:00 a. m. Mass; Congregational: 10:00 a. m., Sunday school.

Accident
While standing near the stove Friday, Frances, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clifton of Kate's Bay, knocked her knee against the metal so violently that the cap was dislocated and pushed around to the side of her leg. She was taken for treatment to a Manistique physician, who used the X-ray and finding no further injury, put the cap back in place.

Pre-nuptial Party
Miss Mata Winter and Eugene Bernier were complimented by former members of the G. Y. M. club and their husbands at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Winter Monday evening. Social games were the entertainment of the evening and in these, prizes were won by Mrs. Henry Jacobsen and Bud Winter. Following a delicious lunch the honored guests displayed the gifts brought for them. The serving table was centered by a cake on which was a bride and groom. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Roland Boudreau, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Caron, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Winter and Mrs. Alfred LaValle.

Recreational Plans
Recreational directors, John Potvin and Albert Tatrow have worked out a complete schedule of sports for the coming weeks that will keep the youngsters busy in healthful occupations. The former will be busy with the outside sports, supervising the sled slide and skating rink, when the weather will permit, but when storms prevent outdoor exercise, provision has been made to conduct classes in the Community hall. Cedar and different hardwoods have already been collected so that rustic work can be engaged in, and acorns and butternuts stored away for Arts and Crafts. This work will be directed by both of the leaders. Albert Tatrow will concentrate on the indoor sports and has several classes in the day and evening for both boys and girls of different ages in basketball. The schedule has been arranged so that bus pupils may get their practice at the mid-day recess and in this way every child gets an opportunity to take part in this supervised play and receives benefit both physically and mentally. Saturday is going to be set aside as a social day and activities other than those in the daily schedule, will be indulged in, and no doubt will be looked forward to with a great deal of anticipation by the youngsters.

Church Party
The younger men of the St. John the Baptist church sponsored a party Saturday evening which proved a great success financially and socially. They do not make the effort as often as the ladies but make things count in a big way while they are at it. A large crowd attended and a large sum was added to the treasury. Those in charge wish to express their gratitude to all donors, workers and any who helped to contribute to the success. Especially appreciated were the numbers given by the local band, which rendered several enjoyable selections.

Briefs
Erwin Belfy and Captain C. Alard of Traverse City are in the Fayette Harbor with the Patrol boat of the Conservation department.
The Misses Leola Farley, Evelyn Olsen, Blanche Richards, Margaret Cooper and Doris Boudreau of Escanaba were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Boudreau at their camp, "the Log Cabin", Saturday and Sunday.
Wallace Cooper and Perry Norris of Sturgis returned home Saturday after spending several days at the Joe Farley home.
Mr. and Mrs. Andy Tatrow and two sons of Rapid River spent the week-end at the Louis Farley home.
